MINERS VOTE AGAINST THE PEACE TERMS

So Far Districts Reporting Have Given a Three-to-One Opposing Verdict.

PUMP MEN GOING BACK TO MINES

Unemployment Insurance Shows a Deficit of 14,000,000 Pounds Now.

London, June 16.—The first definite returns issued today on the ballot of the miners on the new proposals of the owners which it had been hoped would show the majority of the men favoring an immediate settlement and a resumption of work indicate a strong feeling among the men against dropping the claims of their executive for a national wages pool and the calling off of the strike.

Today results of voting were announced as follows:

For Acceptance Against	23,000	78,000
South Wales	3,000	10,000
Yorkshire	1,000	8,000
North Yorkshire and Nottinghamshire	1,000	3,000

South Yorkshire and Nottinghamshire are believed to be voting in favor of acceptance, while Derbyshire, Staffordshire and Warwickshire are mixed. It is significant, however, that the pumpmen and repair workers in many collieries have already returned to work in anticipation of a settlement.

Insurance Deficits.

In the House of Commons last night the Rt. Hon. Thomas MacDonnald, minister of labor, presented a formidable unemployment insurance balance sheet which showed a deficit of nearly £14,000,000. Frank Hodges, the mines leader, declared the government could "easily find" money to keep the present payments going. The second reading of the bill, however, reducing the weekly benefits to fifteen shillings for men and twelve shillings for women, also increasing the contributions from workers and employers was carried on a division of 214 to 85.

Friendly critics of the measure object to the same payment for children unemployed as to fathers of families.

LETTERS DEMAND NO PUNISHMENT OF SIMS

Thousands of Americans Flood Naval Office with Approval of Famous Speech.

Washington, June 16.—A new factor has entered the lists on behalf of Admiral Sims, and as a result belief grows here that he will either not be punished for his famous "Jackass" speech when he returns, or merely be given a formal reprimand which will be lenient. Great numbers of letters are pouring into Congress from different States, the greater number of which are reported by Congressmen to be favorable to Sims. Some letters from the Middle West are even declaring for Sims for President in 1921. This flood of letters will make it difficult, it is believed here, for Secretary Denby to take any severe action.

UNION BIGGEST CHURCH PROJECT EVER ATTEMPTED

Make Haste But Be Careful! Advice of Methodist General Superintendent.

HOPEFUL OF SOLUTION OF EVERY PROBLEM

"We Are Blazing the Way Through a Pathless Forest" He Tells Conference.

Whitby, Ont., June 16.—"No such adventure has ever been essayed before in the history of the world," said Rev. Dr. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist church in Canada, on the subject of church union in an address at the Bay of Quinte Methodist conference here today. "We are blazing the way through a pathless forest," he continued. "For this reason, we want to know very definitely, and without any confusion, the direction in which we are going, and to have a clear conception of the goal toward which we strive. We cannot take the next step safely without knowing the ground on which we now stand, and the direction in which that step will lead us."

Take Plenty of Time.

Dr. Chown said the Methodists recognized that it would be a peculiarly difficult experiment fitting three great churches of diverse history, practices and temperaments into one great organization for the promotion of the Kingdom of God in Canada. The work of union, he said, should be done at not hurriedly, but with reasonable haste. It was possible, he said, that as they came into closer grip with the problem they might have serious disappointments, but he trusted that they would be more and more assured.

Must Not Block Way.

Declaring that the churches must assume that they were unitedly moving toward organic union, not merely competition, Dr. Chown said that "circumspection and calm deliberation" must not be allowed to block the way to a successful issue. "We must not assume that the expression as 'expeditiously as possible' means, as some would interpret it, 'as slowly as possible,'" Dr. Chown said referring to the union resolution passed by the Presbyterian general assembly.

MEIGHEN WILL OPPOSE NAVAL DEFENCE PLAN

Canadian Premier Will Have to Fight Australia That is Very Anxious for It.

LOYD GEORGE TO SUPPORT MEIGHEN

Invitations Pouring In Upon Canada's Premier from All Parts of England.

London, June 16.—(By Gratian O'Leary, staff correspondent of the Canadian Press, Ltd.)—Despite the fact that Premier Hughes, of Australia, and Premier Massey, of New Zealand, will endeavor to have the conference of prime ministers discuss and, if possible, decide upon a general policy in the matter of naval defence, it seems practically certain that Premier Meighen will have the support of the British Prime Minister in his demand that the question be postponed and that no steps be taken until after the constitutional conference has been held.

Meighen's Attitude

Premier Meighen holds that as the present conference is not a constitutional one, and therefore cannot deal with or settle the question of constitutional relations, it has no right to deal with the naval question at all. He will, of course, urge the postponement of the matter on other grounds, including that of the general desire for disarmament and the wisdom of awaiting international developments, but it is mainly on the ground of standing by the decision of the Canadian Government and Parliament regarding the sellicose report that he will rest his case.

Hughes is Anxious

The question is more or less bound up with that of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, and the United States, Great Britain, Japan, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Such a conference, it is felt, might do more to settle whatever difficulties and problems exist in regard to the Pacific than any policy or alliance or navy, and it is believed that if Canada took the lead in the matter, the object could be achieved.

Lloyd George Decided

Australia might offer opposition, but Lloyd George, who, it is thought, is lukewarm toward renewing the Japanese Alliance, and Parliament, will probably support the scheme.

His government is at present encountering difficulties on the question of expenditure, the press of all shades of politics crying out against commitments of all kinds, and any proposal which promises to reduce naval outlay is not unlikely to receive his hearty welcome.

Meanwhile Premier Meighen, who is preparing his position on the various questions to come before the conference with great care is having the utmost difficulty in avoiding engagements of all kinds. Representing as he does the senior dominion at the conference, he is naturally the centre of considerable attention. This being increased by a suspicion already being current that the dominion attitude in the conference is likely to run counter to that of some of the other dominions.

FIVE THOUSAND SOLDIERS RAID REBEL IRELAND

Hundreds of Arrests Being Made in Great Sweeping of Martial Areas.

SIFTING COUNTRY FOR WANTED MEN

Blockade System May Be Installed in All the Most Troubled Districts.

Dublin, June 16.—The government forces have been making a sweeping round-up of certain areas in the last few days, with the apparent idea of making large captures and sifting them for men who are "wanted."

Operations have been in progress in Monaghan county all this week. Hundreds of arrests were made, but today all were released, with the exception of about a dozen persons. Five cavalry regiments invested Carrickmacross, Monaghan, early this morning and commandeered several private houses.

An attempt was made to surround a despatch carrier of the "Irish Republican Army." Similar acts occurred at Wexford and Athlone.

5,000 Troops in Raids

Belfast, June 16.—It has been known for some time that the military authorities had contemplated strong measures in South Monaghan and Cavan, where there have been numerous murders, and it is reported here that a big sweep of 5,000 troops has taken place today. A blockade system is about to be established in the affected areas, with headquarters at Dundalk.

Killings for the Day

Dublin, June 16.—Robert Healy, a settler, who shot dead today at Balinacorney, while going to his home from court, where he had given testimony in a case of attempted robbery, J. H. MacMahon was fired at and wounded. Two men died the shooting. MacMahon was taken to a hospital in a critical condition. A bank official was held up today on North Quay by armed men and robbed of £65. The Carnegie library on Castle Island was set on fire today and destroyed.

Empress Train Held Up

The night mail train from Belfast to Dublin was held up at Diphysstown by one hundred armed men. Two cars containing Belfast merchandise were destroyed and the mails were taken.

Robert Kane, tried by court martial for having in his possession five cartridges and caps and bullets, was sentenced today to ten years' penal servitude. Patrick O'Donnell was sentenced to 15 years for having two hundred rounds of ammunition.

DUBLIN STREETS BULLET SWEEP

Not Since Easter Rebellion Has City Experienced Such Heavy Firing.

Dublin, June 16.—The residents of Central Dublin were terrified last night by fusillades of shots beginning soon after midnight and continuing at intervals of half an hour.

The intensity of the revolver, rifle and machine gun firing reached that of the Easter rebellion of 1916.

Winnipeg, June 16.—The city streets were swept by bullets. Searchlights played from Dublin Castle on the area. No information could be obtained from headquarters concerning the cause of the shooting, but a semi-official statement said that civilians fired at sentries over the ruins of the burned customs house and the fire was returned.

Troop Train Bombed

At headquarters it was stated that bombs were thrown and revolver shots fired at a troop train near the Drumcondra station in Dublin this morning. Three soldiers were wounded, one seriously.

An auxiliary patrol was ambushed this morning at North wall quay. One of the attackers was captured with a bomb and a revolver in his possession. There were no casualties.

Veteran Ministers Honored By Conference

Sackville, N. B., June 15.—At the evening session of the conference tribute was paid to two members who have completed 50 years in the Christian ministry, Rev. Thomas Marshall, of St. John and Rev. (Dr.) W. M. Harrison, of Moncton. Both were presented with life-sized photographs and an address. Rev. G. F. Dawson was also commissioned to convey greetings to Rev. R. S. Crisp, of St. John, who has also completed half a century in the ministry.

IRISH PEERS URGE CHANGE IN HOME RULE

Claim Gov't Must Recognize Failure of Present Plans for Ireland.

DENOUNCE ORDERS FOR REPRISALS

Premier Lloyd George Will Make His Reply to Serious Allegations Next Tuesday.

London, June 16.—Strong pleas for the amendment of the Irish home rule act, came unexpectedly today from the House of Lords, the feature of the debate being the first speech made by Lord Buxton since he returned from South Africa, where he had served as governor general.

Incidentally Lord Buxton disclosed that he with other peers had explored the ground with a view to negotiations for a settlement of the Irish difficulty, but he said they had arrived at the conclusion that the only practical initiative must come from the government itself.

The debate was opened by the Earl of Donoughmore, a southern Irish peer, who, referring to the speech of Viscount Fitzalan, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, at the opening of the Ulster parliament, admitting that the home rule act needed amendment, urged the government to indicate plainly what amendments it was prepared to grant.

Denounces Reprisals.

He congratulated the lord lieutenant on his courage in advocating amendments, and denounced the government policy of reprisals as a detestable and degrading policy. He advised to think what chaos would ensue in the coming winter unless the government took the course asked.

Lord Buxton, supporting the Earl of Donoughmore and citing the success of home rule in the Union of South Africa, said it was clear that the Irish home rule act was neither a panacea nor a remedy.

Premier To Act.

On the contrary so far as the south of Ireland was concerned it was a complete failure and in his view, the only thing was for the premier to put on record specifically and jointly in detail how far he was willing to go, and what reservations he would make. The premier, he declared, should put all his cards on the table.

"We have to make the Irish believe we are earnest," said Lord Buxton. "If the government will give the country a lead in this matter, I believe the country will go to any length to bring about peace, and that the greater length we go the more likely we are to be successful."

Viscount Bryce and other supporters of Lord Donoughmore and the debate was adjourned until Tuesday next, when the government will reply.

IRISH REBELS MURDER 568 IN LAST YEAR

Two Members of Crown Forces Were Convicted of Murder in The Same Period.

London, June 16.—Murders by Rebels in Ireland since July 1920, have totalled 568. Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, stated in the House of Commons today. The number of Crown forces convicted for murder in the same period, he added, was: The military, none; the Royal Irish Constabulary, one; and the police auxiliaries, one, the latter man being found to be insane.

MACHINE GUN OWNERS STILL EVADE POLICE

Hearing of Case Postponed for a Week to Attempt Problem Solution.

SHIP CREW WILL BE QUESTIONED AGAIN

Nearly 700 Guns in the Lot Now in Charge of United States' Officials.

New York, June 16.—Ownership of the 495 machine guns and the hundreds of spare parts seized yesterday by customs officials after they were found secreted on the steamship "Eastside," and presumed to have been destined for Ireland, is still a subject of investigation by government officials. The guns through the agency of a federal warrant of detention, were restored today to the possession of customs officials from whom they were taken on a search and seizure warrant by the Hoboken police.

Hearing is Off.

A hearing set for today was intended to bring out the story of how they came to be on board the ship and to establish the claim of Frank Williams that they were stolen from his warehouse, but the hearing was declared off after the federal writ had been served.

Customs officials said they would take the arms from Hoboken police headquarters to a customs storehouse tomorrow and there hold them until the mystery surrounding their discovery is solved. Federal agents are working on several angles of the case, including an attempt to trace the guns from the factory in which they were manufactured. They are also questioning present and former members of the crew. The inquiry will extend to Norfolk to which port the ship cleared after leaving New York last night.

Who Stole the Guns?

Mr. Williams, through his attorney, is also conducting an investigation to determine the identity of the parties, who, he claims, stole the guns from his warehouse. He is also concerned regarding the whereabouts of 105 additional machine guns which he said were stolen at the same time and have not yet been found. Mr. Williams, according to City Attorney Fallon of Hoboken, is a contractor with an office on Broadway, New York. Advice from Hartford, where the arms were manufactured, stated that they were made for the Auto Ordnance Company of New York and shipped in the usual way. At the office of that company, where Mr. Williams is known as the Thompson machine gun and is sold through jobbers in small lots.

ANGELICANS WILL NOT VOTE MORE PAY FOR SELVES

Recommendation of Committee is Voted Down by Clergymen at Winnipeg Meeting.

URGE SPIRIT OF CHRISTIAN UNITY

Methodist Delegation Given Hearty Reception When it Visits Synod.

Winnipeg, June 16.—Voting to stand by their parishioners for better or worse in what they believe will be a period of after-the-war reaction, Anglican clergy of the diocese of Rupert Land, assembled in Synod here today, refused to grant themselves an increase in stipend. A recommendation brought in by the committee on the Archbishop's charge, suggesting a minimum of $1,800 for a married clergyman, and $1,600 for a single man, was defeated. The salary situation, it was decided, will remain as it is at present, with no set minimum. A married clergyman in the country receives about $1,500 annually.

A delegation from the Methodist General Assembly was received, following which the synod voted to do all in its power from now till the general synod session in October to educate the people to a spirit of unity.

Husband Charged With Killing Five

Allege He Confesses to Plan to Slay Four Children, Wife and Then Suicide.

Calgary, Alta., June 16.—Charge of murder will be laid against Joseph Rutledge, Innisfail farmer, as a result of the coroner's inquest into the fire which destroyed his farm home six miles east of Innisfail and burned to death his wife and four children. The verdict returned by the jury declared that the woman and her children had met death in a fire set by Rutledge.

Details of Plot.

Rutledge confessed to the jury that he entered into an agreement with his wife to kill the children, then commit suicide, because of immoral conditions in the home. He lost his nerve after setting the place afire when his family were in bed, and seizing one of the children, made his escape. Miss Shaw, sister of the dead woman, is being held as a material witness in the case. Rutledge is still in the hospital suffering from severe burns.

Prison Term For Stealing Car Tickets

Winnipeg, June 16.—Walter Inman, found guilty of theft of street car tickets from the Winnipeg Electric Railway, was today sentenced to 23 months in jail. Inman, employed by the company as a box man, was the leader in the theft of tickets which were sold in number of agents at $3.50 per hundred. Charles Outerson, alleged to be an accomplice, who was arrested at Montreal en route to England, will appear Friday for trial.

MEIGHEN'S ATTITUDE

Meighen's attitude is that as the present conference is not a constitutional one, and therefore cannot deal with or settle the question of constitutional relations, it has no right to deal with the naval question at all. He will, of course, urge the postponement of the matter on other grounds, including that of the general desire for disarmament and the wisdom of awaiting international developments, but it is mainly on the ground of standing by the decision of the Canadian Government and Parliament regarding the sellicose report that he will rest his case.

LOYD GEORGE PREPARES FIGHT

May Make Election Issue of Attempt to Block Minister's Salary.

London, June 16.—Premier Lloyd George is fully determined to fight the insurance engineering within the coalition ranks by Unionist members who intend voting against the salary of Dr. Addison, formerly minister of health, who is now minister without portfolio, as a general protest against spending money before it is voted by parliament.

Regarding the suggestion that he is prepared to resign, Dr. Addison declares that such a course would end all party discipline.

Premier's Firm Stand.

Mr. Lloyd George is said to have resolved to move the vote for the salary himself if necessary, and staked dissolution of parliament upon it.

In anti-coalition quarters it is admitted that the matter is not worth forcing an election on, the probability, therefore, is that many Unionists who signed the protest will abstain from voting, while the coalition whip will ensure a full attendance of those whose loyalty can be relied upon.

DREW REVOLVER ON A CUSTOMS OFFICIAL IN N. Y.

Revenue Agent Gets Into Squabble Over Friend Who Came in on Aquitania.

DISPUTE AS TO WHO HAD THE AUTHORITY

Refused to Permit Inspectors to Stamp Binoculars Brought in by Companion.

New York, June 16—A short, middle aged man in plain clothes with an air of authority walked confidently through the customs line of the Cunard pier while the steamship Aquitania was docking last evening, and on being halted by an inspector flashed a badge and proclaimed himself "B. McCarver, Internal Revenue Agent."

His business was to escort a cabin passenger, Wetherford Allen, an American citizen of British birth, from the pier. Mr. Allen carried slung over his shoulder a large pair of binoculars in a leather case and McCarver started to leave the pier without having the binoculars stamped, as required by the customs regulations.

Something Dropped.

Things began to happen swiftly after Deputy Surveyor Jas. S. Long held McCarver and Allen up and told them that it would be necessary to have the binoculars stamped. McCarver worked himself up into a fit of indignation. He said his friend Allen was not feeling well and that he was merely taking care of him.

Allen was not feeling well and that he was merely taking care of him. Again he called attention to what he seemed to regard as his immunity from customs procedure because of holding down the job of a member of the narcotic squad of the Internal Revenue Service.

He and Allen were taken back to the customs desk on the pier, each protesting, and Deputy Surveyor Alexander McKoon, in charge of the customs force, told McCarver that it was necessary to have a stamp attached to the binoculars.

McKoon raised his hand as if to shove back McCarver, who was getting excited and getting closer to him when McCarver astonished and startled everybody around him, including several hundred cabin passengers, by reaching in his hip pocket and drawing a big revolver. Some of the customs men fell back. McKoon did not budge.

He was plainly puzzled and indignant. McCarver held the pistol to the stomach of the Deputy Surveyor for a second or so and shouted: "If anybody attempts to put me off this pier, I'll kill him!"

A number of customs men closed in on the two and McCarver put up his gun. Then the customs men escorted McCarver and his friend Allen outside the customs lines, after first taking McCarver's statement, the substance of which was that he was a friend of Allen and had come down to the pier to take care of him. McCarver declined to say anything about the reasons which impelled him to look after Allen.

It was said last night by the customs men that they expected the Treasury Department to investigate.

Ruhr Cities Sullen Under French Rule

Give Occupying Troops Bad Time—Teach Children to Hate Them.

Düsseldorf, Germany, June 16—The anti-occupation sentiment is much stronger in Düsseldorf, Ruhrort and Duisburg, the cities of Rhineland Prussia recently occupied by the French, than in Mayence, Coblenz and Cologne, which also have been under foreign occupation for more than two years by the French, Americans and British.

As one crosses from the left bank of the Rhine and enters recently occupied territory, the most of the population becomes more sullen, their behavior more aloof and their hatred much more pronounced.

The reason may be that the French are occupying that part of the right bank of the Rhine that they hold near the Ruhr in real military fashion, and the occupation is much more severe than that on the left bank.

The hatred of the population is directed more especially against the French, and children are being brought up in a constant terror and undisguised scorn of the occupying forces, which gives, but little, promise that the real brotherly love between French and Germans will be achieved with the coming generation.

Few women in Düsseldorf, Ruhrort or Duisburg will be seen in the company of a uniformed French soldier or officer in the streets. The few who transgress the unwritten law are promptly catalogued as the German city headquarters and are marked for reprisals in some cases the difficulty is avoided by the occupying swain adopting civilian clothes, which seems to be satisfactory all around.

The Belgians and the French and French occupation of territory more stolidly than the Germans, and with less self-pity. The owner of the railway line recently requisitioned in Düsseldorf for the general staff of General Deputite, the French commander, wept bitter tears as he departed from his house.

Negro Suspected of Killing Child

Mutilated Body of Seven Year Old Girl Found in Alleged Murderer's Cellar.

Moorestown, N. J., June 16—A particularly atrocious crime was revealed here today by the startling confession of officials when they announced the finding of the badly mutilated body of seven-year-old Matilda Russo, who had been missing since last Saturday. The police are searching for Lewis Lively, a negro, 35 years old in connection with the killing of the child.

The child's body was found buried in the cellar of Lively's home, which is within forty feet of that of the Russo family in East Second street, East Moorestown. The body had been cut and the abdomen slashed. The body was found yesterday, but the crime was not revealed by the police until today.

CANADIANS TIRE OF FRANCE

Ottawa, June 16—There are still a considerable number of soldiers of the Canadian Expeditionary Force in France, who remained there after the armistice, and a number of them are now getting homesick for Canada.

In the past few days the G. W. V. A. Dominion command has received several letters from these men. This week letters came from near Arras, Enghien, Larnies and from Hondelaine all points near where large numbers of Canadian troops were stationed at some time during the war.

ONTARIO DRY JULY 18.

Ottawa, June 17—Ontario will go dry on the 18th of July, according to present plans of the government. The cabinet yesterday authorized the secretary of state to formally gazette on Saturday a date when the prohibition shall be effective, and if it is then gazetted as proposed, it will go into operation thirty days later, or on July 18th.

FAIL TO AGREE YET.

New York, June 16—A three hour conference between officials of the International Paper Company and representatives of unions of paper mill workers, was held today in an effort to end the strike in the company's mills, Cleveland H. Dodge, president of the company said after the conference that no conclusion had been reached and another meeting probably would be held tomorrow.

LORRAINE HUNS MAKE USE OF A TREATY PROVISIO

Clause Gives Rights of French Citizenship to Those Married to French Women.

FULL ADVANTAGE IS TAKEN OF IT. Though Guilty of Gross Insults to France They May Not be Expelled.

Paris, June 15—The French are not satisfied with the situation in Alsace-Lorraine, where German influence seems to be a good deal stronger than is exactly proper in French departments. The chief blame for this state of affairs is laid on the Treaty of Versailles, which has become a regular whipping block whenever anything happens displeasing to French ideas.

In this case, however, there is no doubt. The sixth annex to section V of the treaty gives the Germans a loophole whereby they have not been slow to take advantage. It enjoins that Germans married to Alsacians or Lorrainers have the right of French nationality. This results in cases like that of General von Armin, the notorious German militarist and reactionary, who by his recent marriage to a Lorraine is entitled to say Lorraine is his own country, where he enjoys the sovereign rights of a citizen.

An inquiry by a Journal correspondent reveals that a number of frontier stations still are in charge of these naturalized Germans, who make no secret of the fact that they would change flags again immediately in event of hostilities. The correspondent declares it is a common occurrence for German employees of posts and railroads to reply to Frenchmen speaking their own language: "Sprechen sie Deutsch. Herr sind alle nicht in Frankreich."

Insurance companies whose influence is far-reaching are gradually passing back to German hands. Thus the Prussian, von Godolch, expelled from Strasbourg after the armistice, became a French citizen by marrying an Alsatian, and is about to resume his position as assistant director of the Social Insurance Federation.

A professor in Colmar College went to Baden Baden one Sunday to take part in the reunion of former German regiment, which included a march part in goose step. Then he returned to his post to resume the instruction of the young ideas. But he cannot be touched because he has become a Frenchman through his wife.

In Strasbourg itself Germans are openly defiant. It has actually been necessary to dismiss functionaries employed in the office of the central administration of the province because they sang publicly "Die Wacht am Rhein" in it. But they cannot be expelled because they are French citizens.

The correspondent relates that Lord George's Silesian speech was made the occasion of a layout drink. After obvious libations the company joined in "Deutschland über Alles," and furious protests of the French and Francophile element were met with the insolent reply: "We are in our country; we can do what we like."

Unfortunately, concludes the Journal, "this is true. Unless the citizenry ruling is changed, what now is a gross scandal will become a serious danger."

Commissioners Object To The Resolution

Claim All Information About Condition of City Wharves is Now on File.

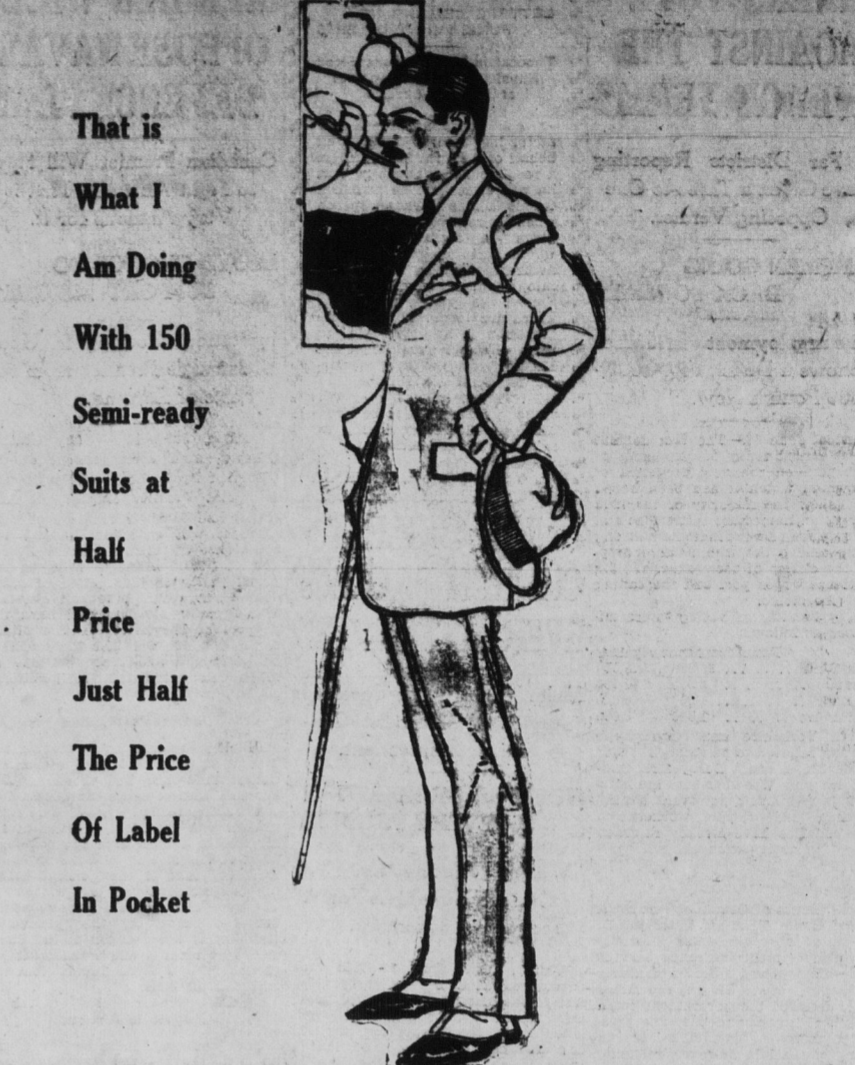

Commissioner Jones raised quite a storm at city council yesterday morning when he introduced a resolution calling on the city engineer to bring in a report on the physical condition of the city wharves and the probable cost of keeping them in repair. Commissioner Bullock objected to the resolution as an intrusion on his preserves and contended the matter should first have been taken up with him, as the head of the department concerned.

Commissioner Frink said the information asked for was on file at Ottawa while Commissioner Thornton declared there were reports galore on this matter now available. Commissioner Jones was the only one voting in favor of the resolution.

Communications from George McArthur about a retaining wall at the corner of Duke and Germain streets and from the New Brunswick Telephone Co. about an anchor base on Autumn street, were referred to the commissioner of public works for a report.

Commissioner Thornton reported that he had received complaints about a man selling fish from a boat at the head of South Wharf and it was decided to look into the matter.

Seals Destroying Salmon Fisheries

Big Losses Are Reported by All Fishermen Along the Miramichi River.

Chatham, N. B., June 16.—Seals are proving a great source of annoyance and loss to the Miramichi Bay salmon fishermen. People from down river say they are so numerous that if the salmon are not taken out of the nets almost as soon as they are caught the seals invariably get them, not only destroying the fish, but in many cases ruining the nets. The price paid for salmon at the nets is $2 each.

On overhauling his net the other morning a drifter got six salmon and took the heads of fourteen others out of the meshes. How many fish were destroyed completely it is hard to estimate. A suggestion is made that the seals might be killed by mining. They bask in the sun in large numbers on the beaches after dining on a sumptuous salmon breakfast, and it is suggested their laund haunts be mined and the pirates blown up.

Enormous Robberies

Washington, June 16.—Insurance officials reported today that robberies of commodities, including silks, furs, cigars and cotton goods, within a radius of two hundred miles of New York City, had totalled $50,000,000 in the last year. Of this, about $6,000,000 had been recovered.

ST. JOHN STUDENT PRIZEMAN

Montreal, June 16.—Seventy-seven students in first year medicine at McGill University have passed all the seasonal examinations, according to the lists issued by the faculty. In the first year dentistry thirty students have passed successfully with J. Kerr Higgins, of St. John, N. B., as prize man.

WHY BE WEAK AND NERVOUS

As a result of pale, thin watery blood—Nuxated Iron will help make you strong and well again; it has been used and highly endorsed by former United States Senators, Judges of U. S. Courts, many physicians and prominent men. Even the Pope at Rome has written especially of the merits of Nuxated Iron in a communication to the Pharmacologic Normale. Over 4,000,000 people are using it annually to help build red blood, strength and endurance. At all druggists.

Amazingly Pure

Because Purity Ice Cream is improved and made superior by the wonderful new "Carbonating" method. This method replaces ordinary air in the freezers with atmosphere there a Hundred Times purer than air, which greatly increases the purity of the ice cream. And we are the only ice cream makers in New Brunswick that can use this method.

Commission To Sell Whiskey For $5

Price List to be Established as Soon as Liquors Are Taken Over.

Fredericton, N. B., June 15.—The highest price the consumer armed with a prescription will have to pay for a bottle of Scotch whiskey after the New Brunswick board of liquor vendors have commenced to function will probably not exceed $5.00. Hon. J. F. Tweeddale, chairman of the board said today.

It is expected that early next week the board will be ready to fill their first orders from retail vendors. As soon as the board starts to function a controlled schedule, these prices will go into effect.

Retail vendors here are now selling Scotch whiskeys as high as $6.00 for some of the best standard brands. Canadian rye whiskey brings $4.50 while $5.00 and $6.00 are the prices of the Scotch whiskeys, according to the brand and quality. Mr. Tweeddale expects that $5.00 will be the outside figure for the best brands of Scotch when the board gets down to business with other prices in accordance and he further stated, as soon as the board have established a price list retail vendors will be compelled to make all sales at the new price regardless of whether their stocks have been obtained from the commission or not.

ST. JOHN MEN CHOSEN

Belleville, Ont., June 16.—Officers of the Grand Lodge of the Protestant Association of Fraternal Boys of America, elected, at the 61st annual meeting here, include Grand Master Andrew Mason, (re-elected), Ottawa; Senior D. Newcastle Citizens Number Over 4,000

Population at Last Census Was Only 2,945—Lost His Eye

Newcastle, June 16.—His Lordship Bishop Chalmers paid his first official visit to Newcastle yesterday where he was greeted by a large congregation at St. Mary's Church. An address of welcome was presented by Hon. John Morrissey on behalf of the congregation at the conclusion of which His Lordship addressed the congregation. This morning he administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class of fifty composed of 27 girls, 22 boys and one adult. This afternoon the bishop is conducting confirmation at Bridgetown, Eel Ground and tomorrow will visit St. Thomas Church, Redbank and St. James Seville on the same mission.

Population up one third.

An increase of over one third in population during the past ten years will be the record of Newcastle according to the census now being taken. The local enumerators have to date listed over 3,800 names and have covered a considerable more territory to cover yet which will bring the population of Newcastle over the 4,000 mark. The population in 1911 was given as 2,945.

Lost His Eye.

Ernest Clarke of Chelmsford was the victim of a distressing accident on Sunday last. While chasing an angry cow which was molesting his children a stick which he was using broke and one of the pieces entered his eye injuring it so badly that he was removed to the Miramichi Hospital this week and the injured optic removed.

The funeral of the late Richard Hutchinson will take place from the old homestead at Douglastown at nine o'clock tomorrow morning. The remains will be taken to Boston for interment.

Former M. P. Once More Arrested

Arthur Ecrement, Twice Acquitted, Held in Connection With Horse Race Case.

Montreal, June 16.—Arthur Ecrement, ex-M.P. for Berthier, has been again arrested on a warrant signed by Judge Choquet at the request of the Buffalo authorities, who asked for his detention in connection with the horse racing case, wherein Michael Connolly, a Montreal broker, claims to have been swindled out of the sum of $125,000 by a wire-tapping scheme. It is understood that he will fight extradition. Ecrement has been acquitted twice of charges arising out of the Connolly case, once in Buffalo and once in Montreal.

NEW BANK NOTES

The Merchants Bank of Canada is placing in circulation a $5 note issue, bearing a portrait of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. The bill has been issued in honor of the visit to Canada of His Royal Highness. The likeness is considered an excellent one of the Prince and the entire bill is a most attractive one. The first bill received from the press has been forwarded to the Prince. The entire note issue will come out very shortly.

EXPELLED STUDENTS

Toronto, June 16.—Eight students have been expelled from Toronto University definitely and five others have been suspended for various terms for impersonating and copying at the spring examinations. The names are not mentioned.

In the case of the expelled students the examinations of the present year are cancelled and they are debarred from registering in any other department of the university. Some are refused registration for the sessions of '21-22 and '22-23.

Make Housework Easy

You will find Linoleum ideal for your home, especially in summer time. Linoleum floors do not require scrubbing or heavy washing—just pass a damp cloth or mop over them occasionally and they are fresh and clean as new. They may also be treated with wax or polish—just as a hardwood floor.

Linoleum floors are germ free—no cracks to harbour dirt or dust.

Give Linoleum a trial in your home this summer and you will be surprised how light your housework can be made.

Linoleum is moderate in price—may now be bought at lower prices than for years.

If you wish a Genuine Linoleum Rug for your Living Room or Dining Room at a moderate price, ask your dealer to show you the many quiet, pleasing designs in popular sizes. Or, if you prefer, he will gladly show you a wide range of attractive patterns by the yard. Look for the strong canvas back of Linoleum when buying. It is made in Canada and costs less than imported goods.

MOTOR BANDITS MADE BIG HAUL IN PITTSBURG

Got Satchel Containing $50,000 After Shooting Down Defender. ONE CAPTURED BY THE POLICE. Three of the Party Escape in Auto Stolen Few Minutes Before Hold-up.

Pittsburg, June 16.—A flight from an automobile, four armed bandits today snatched a satchel containing $50,000 from James Neal, assistant superintendent of the Borg & Garret department store and after engaging Policeman C. A. Schultz in a gun battle which endangered the lives of the noonday crowd, three of the bandits managed to get into the automobile and escape.

Auto Was Stolen. Police learned that the automobile the men used had been stolen several minutes before the robbery. Police questioned the trapped bandit for several hours. The man told how he and three men, whose names he gave as William Murphy, John Jackson and John Johnson, had planned the robbery and had decided to double back on their tracks and meet in Schenley Park to split the money.

Not a Tiding! He was an old-school minister of the kind called "typical" prince at Albert, while down the dandruff on the coast-colored always employing that heavenly tone.

"And I should never like to be the letter 'm,'" said Eric. "For it starts trouble and you see it always is in Dick."

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

St. John, N. B., June 16, 1938. The Editor of The Standard, Sir:—I noticed an article in your issue of Monday last, regarding the milk supply of this city, and would like to make some comments on same.

You state that you were in conversation with an expert, and that he advised you that our system is rotten. It is not my intention to argue against this expert, but would like to point out that the citizens of St. John are not ignorant of the facts. It is true that we are doing nothing to improve our system, but I am in hopes that the New Health Act of this Province, our Commercial Club, Red Cross and other societies, who are endeavoring to improve conditions here, will in time wake up to the fact that it is useless to try to save our children after disease has taken complete control.

FORD TO BUY PLANTS. Nashville, Tenn., June 16.—Henry Ford is considering the purchase of three plants of the Government Nitrate Works at Sheffield, Alabama, for use in manufacturing, according to statements of railway officials, who accompanied the Detroit financier on an inspection tour of the plant yesterday. FEARING FORMER LOVER SHE STABBED SELF TO DEATH. Theory Advanced to Account for Tragic End of Young Parisienne. HAD RECEIVED SOME THREATENING LETTERS. Returned to Fiance's Apartment After Bidding Mother Good-Night.

Paris, June 16.—"For God's sake, quick! Fetch the police!" the words that aroused the concubine at 117 Rue St. Lazare from his daze on Thursday evening. The startled porter rubbed his eyes hardly recognizing the haggard, frantic speaker as the prosperous middle-aged Dr. Ecoffet, who had been almost instantly driven from his apartment on the third floor.

When the police arrived at the apartment they found a girl, nineteen years of age, on the floor. Paul, a medical expert attached to the police department, examined the body and said that her death had been almost instantaneous. While the slim young body, warm, was being removed to morgue, Magistrate Gallardo began his investigation. He learned that the girl, Mlle. Danielle Royer, the daughter of a French officer killed at Verdun in 1915, had fled to Paris to marry a young man, Jacques, who had been in the German army in 1918, with her widowed mother. The latter subsequently obtained employment in the Ministry for the Colonies.

Some months ago Mme. Royer, who was afflicted with rheumatism, came the patient of Dr. Ecoffet, who was consulting physician of the Parisian hospital. Ecoffet became a friend of the family, his engagement to Danielle was recently announced. The wedding was fixed for August and despite the years' difference in ages between himself and her prospective husband, Danielle seemed perfectly happy. Thursday evening, however, she came to her father's apartment with her fiance and her mother. Dr. Ecoffet and her mother and sister, Mme. Ecoffet, says, to be in a hurry to get through the meal. At dinner Danielle accompanied her fiance to her street car, saying the older woman kissed her on the cheek. "Oh, I must go back to my apartment for a minute. There's something I forgot."

What passed in the apartment is not known. It appears that Ecoffet declares that at a certain time he heard her call "Maurice! Maurice!" in a choking voice, rushing back, found her lying in danger in her heart. Almost immediately he rushed to the case, hopeless and ran to tell the clergy.

Further inquiries threw more light on the mystery. It appears that in 1915 the Royer family were the acquaintance of a young man, Jacques Del... son of a well known doctor in Southern France. A warm friendship sprang up between Jacques and the child of 13, who used to tell her one that she was going to marry Jacques when she grew up. Two years later the young man left France for Morocco, but continued to change affectionate letters with little friend. Mme. Royer says not only was the affair nothing more than a childish friendship, but Danielle had quite grown out of ideas of marrying Jacques, and perfectly calm and untroubled, she wrote to inform him of her engagement.

However that may be, Jacques seems to have been deeply in love with Danielle and replied to her announcement with a bitter letter reproaching her for her broken faith. Other letters in the same strain followed, one of which somehow fell to the hands of Dr. Ecoffet, who told the matter lightly, and said quite unhesitatingly that Ecoffet offered his advice as to handling the matter. Nevertheless, the young man's letters became more violent, and this time announced his intention of coming to Paris to rescue the girl from a man old enough to be her father—or worse to that effect.

Motive Unknown. Whether the prospect of meeting Jacques or fear of trouble between him and Dr. Ecoffet drove Danielle to desperation is not known. At least that is the theory to which police are inclined. Another part of the tragedy still to be cleared is the scene—if such there was—between the girl and the doctor immediately before her death. A famous French criminologist stated that suicide is rarely a "lanes" act, but that the outcome of an accumulation of trouble and pressure to which the final straw to speak, being added, produced sudden resolution to die and end all.

According to a Petit Journal reporter, Dr. Ecoffet said: "When I heard Danielle cry out I dropped my telephone and ran to the study, where she was lying on the floor with a dagger in her left side—a Japanese dagger that had hung on the wall. The blade, six or seven inches long, had penetrated to the hilt. I found her in my arms, but her heart had been pierced and she died a moment later without uttering a word." Men of Letters. "I really shouldn't care to be the letter 'm,'" said Eric. "For I'd be in the midst, you see, of 'Turnout' all my life." —Lewiston Journal

FEARING FORMER LOVER SHE STABS SELF TO DEATH

Theory Advanced to Account for Tragic End of Young Parisienne.

HAD RECEIVED SOME THREATENING LETTERS

Returned to Fiance's Apart- ment After Bidding Mother Good-Night.

Paris, June 15.—For God's sake, my quick! For God's sake! My fiance has stabbed herself!" were the words that aroused the concierge at 117 Rue St. Lazare from his afternoon nap last Thursday evening. The startled porter rubbed his eyes, hardly recognizing the haggard, frantic speaker as the prosperous middle-aged Dr. Ecoffet, who had his home and consulting room in a large apartment on the third floor.

"She stabbed herself with a dagger in my study," continued the doctor. There is no hope, indeed, but send for the police immediately.

When the police arrived at the doctor's apartment they found a girl of nineteen lying dead on the floor. Dr. Paul, a medical expert attached to the police department, examined the body and said that her death must have been almost instantaneous.

While the slim young body, still warm, was being removed to the morgue, Magistrate Gallardo began his investigation. He learned that the girl, Mlle. Danielle Royer, the daughter of a French officer, killed at the front in 1915, had fled to Paris from a hideout in Germany before the Germans in 1918, with her widowed mother. The latter subsequently obtained employment in the Ministry for the Liberated Regions.

Some months ago Mme. Royer, who was afflicted with rheumatism, became the patient of Dr. Ecoffet, who was consulting physician at the department in which she worked. He became a friend of the family, and his engagement to Danielle was recently announced. The wedding was fixed for August and despite the 25 years' difference in ages between herself and her prospective husband, Danielle seemed perfectly happy. On Thursday evening she "took dinner" with her fiance and his mother at the apartment of Dr. Ecoffet and seemed, Mme. Ecoffet says, to be in good spirits throughout the meal. After dinner Danielle accompanied Mme. Ecoffet to her street car, saying, as the elder woman kissed her good night: "Oh, I must go back to the apartment for a minute. There is something I forgot."

Alone in Study.
What passed in the apartment is yet to be fully elucidated, but Dr. Ecoffet declares that at a certain moment he went to the telephone, leaving Danielle alone in his study. Suddenly he heard her call: "Maurice! Maurice!" in a choking voice and rushing back, found her lying with a dagger in her heart. Almost immediately he realized that the case was hopeless and ran to tell the concierge.

Further inquiries threw more light on the mystery. It appeared that in 1918 the Royer family made the acquaintance of a young man, Jacques Del., son of a well known doctor in Southern France. A warm friendship sprang up between Jacques and the child of 13, who used to tell every one that she was going to marry Jacques when she grew up. Three years later the young man left France for Morocco, but continued to exchange affectionate letters with his little friend. Mme. Royer says that not only was the affair nothing more than a childish friendship, but that Danielle had quite grown out of the idea of marrying Jacques, and was perfectly calm and untroubled when she wrote to inform him of her engagement.

However that may be, Jacques appears to have been deeply in love with Danielle and replied to her announcement with a bitter letter, reproaching her for her broken faith. Other letters in the same strain followed, one of which somehow fell into the hands of Dr. Ecoffet, who treated the matter lightly, and said he quite understood the situation. He offered his advice as to handling it.

Nevertheless, the young man's letters became more violent, and finally he announced his intention of coming to Paris to rescue the girl he loved from a man old enough to be her father—or words to that effect.

Motive Unknown.
Whether the prospect of meeting Jacques or fear of trouble between him and Dr. Ecoffet drove Danielle to desperation is not known. At present that is the theory to which the police are inclined. Another phase of the tragedy still to be cleared up is the scene—if such there was—between the girl and the doctor immediately before her death.

A famous French criminologist has stated that suicide is rarely a spontaneous act, but that the outcome of an accumulation of trouble and depression to which the final straw, so to speak, being added, produces a sudden resolution to die and end it all.

According to a Petit Journal reporter, Dr. Ecoffet said: "When I heard Danielle cry out I dropped the telephone and ran to the study. She was lying on the floor with a griff dagger in her left side—a Japanese dagger that had hung on the wall. The blade, six or seven inches long, had penetrated to the heart. I tore the weapon from the wound, I raised her in my arms, but her heart had been pierced, and she died a moment later without uttering a word."

Penned Note To Wife, Then Suicided

Pathetic Message from Officer Whose Books Had Been Discovered Irregular.

Toronto, June 16.—"The sun has set on this dreadful day," wrote Major E. O. Reid, of this city, chief accountant of the office of public trustee for Ontario, in whose books irregularities have been found in a pathetic letter to his wife just before killing himself near Lewiston, N. Y., yesterday afternoon by drinking poison.

His body was found by a motoring party from Rochester, on the point of the brow of Lewiston, Mount St. Just, just opposite the Niagara Falls Country Club, where the party had gone for a picnic luncheon.

Beside the body was a bottle that had contained poison. In a notebook in his pocket was found the "penned note to his wife, beginning with the words quoted. In the note reference was made to his four children, and the farewell message was brimming with affection for his wife and family.

Manager Thomson Replies to Union

Ira D. Farris, president of the union gave some of the reasons why the men considered the one man car which the company proposed to operate unsafe, and declared the union were thinking more of the safety of the public than they were of the money they might get for operating them.

He also submitted 10,000 cards, which had been circulated, and all except 21 were in favor of two man cars. After some further discussion Mr. Sinclair suggested that if the company would agree to pay the Halifax rate of wages the men would agree to operate any car which the company was allowed by the city to run. This rate was 52 cents per hour for one man operation. This did not meet with the approval of the president of the union, who claimed safety was the first thing to be considered.

Mr. Hatheway suggested that Mr. Thomson and Mr. Sinclair and Mr. Farris meet during the afternoon and see if some agreement could not be reached. Mr. Thomson did not see how any good could come of such a conference as the men had already turned down two propositions. The company were not willing to pay the Halifax rate, as they did not think it necessary.

Mr. Campbell asked Mr. Thomson if he could operate the railway without the present employees and was told that he could. He was inclined to doubt the statement, claiming that men would not take the places of the men if they went out on strike.

Just before adjournment it was decided that the suggestion of Mr. Hatheway for a conference between the committee and Mr. Thomson should be held, and two o'clock was set as the hour.

The board adjourned to meet in the afternoon at four o'clock in private session to consider the evidence.

The Conference

The committee of the union, Messrs. Farris, Moore and Campbell, and P. W. Thomson, manager of the company, held a conference yesterday afternoon, but on account of neither party being in a position to arrange a settlement at the sitting, nothing was done.

MARKING GOODS WITH COUNTRY OF ORIGIN IS RIGHT

Recent Legislation Passed by Dominion Parliament Highly Commended.

SHOULD HELP OUR OWN MANUFACTURERS

Will Put a Stop to the Inten- tional Marking of Foreign Goods as Home Made.

"The marking of goods with the country of origin is going to have an excellent effect on British trade in Canada, and I only wish it could be brought into force earlier than September 1, the date named by Sir Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, in his budget speech," replied Capt. E. J. Edwards, senior British Trade Commissioner, Montreal, in reply to a question for his views on this important change in our importing system, to enable Canadian customs to know just what goods they are buying.

Examples of foreign goods masquerading as British or Canadian are continually being brought to my notice. Some of these deceptions are of no moment, and some are made innocently, such as the Japanese manufacturer, who marks his goods with the word "Nippon." Nippon is their native word for Japan, but probably to most people it appears as the registered trade name of a Canadian or British maker.

Many Are Intentional.

"Other cases of improper marking are intentionally fraudulent," continued Capt. Edwards, "such as the marking of German manufacturers with English names, and the names of English cities. I got not a few samples of German goods, for instance, with the name 'Sheffield' on them, as if they came from the celebrated cutlery centre. That is the rankkest of foreign goods masquerading as British or Canadian. At one time it was possible to detect the fraud, if one was acquainted with the appearance of German printing which, even in Roman type, is different to English; but some German printers have secured fonts of English type, so that means of detection goes, and as they have learned to use English English translators it is often not possible to see even from their catalogues where the goods were made.

Public Should Know.

"As the Minister of Finance remarked, in his budget speech, the Canadian public has a right to know from whom they are buying, and if you go into any store and ask for Canadian goods, you will quickly find how hard it is to find them. In the ramifications of business goods pass from one merchant to another, and finally to the retailer, who cannot possibly tell, in many cases, where the goods he has on his shelves were made.

"In Canada I like to buy Canadian goods, and do so whenever I can find them, but it is at present very hard work to do so; and sometimes I accept things as Canadian which eventually turn out to be American manufacture. We have to support our own manufacturers, Canadian as well as British, since on them depends the livelihood of so many of us. The more foreign goods we buy, the less we can make ourselves, and the result, if persisted in, would be the extinction of British as well as Canadian manufacturing industry.

All Must Be Marked

"When the marking regulations come into force all goods abroad will be marked finally in English or French with the names of country they are made in, and according to the goods different means of marking will be used, to prevent chance of injury.

Senate Would Cut U. S. Army To 150,000

Military Committee's Amend- ment Provided for a Mini- mum of 169,000 Men.

Washington, June 14.—The Senate has decided, 56 to 32 to reduce the strength of the army to 150,000 men, necessitating the discharge of approximately 75,000 men before the middle of next February.

The action came as a complete surprise after the action yesterday by which the senate adopted, by a vote of 34 to 30, the recommendation of military affairs committee designed to keep the strength of the army from falling below 169,000 men.

When the army bill was brought up today for final action a separate rollcall on the size of the army was demanded. The result was a victory for the economy drive of insurgent Republicans, led by Senator Borah, of Idaho, allied with virtually the solid Democratic vote.

Cut From 169,000.

The military committee's amendment provided for a minimum army of 169,000 men. The rejection of this amendment automatically restored the house provision requiring reduction of the army to 120,000 men, which Secretary of War Weeks declared would be ruinous. Senator Wadsworth, of New York, chairman of the military committee, appealed to the senate not to insist upon so drastic a reduction, and proposed an amendment providing funds for an army of not less than 150,000. The senate relented somewhat and agreed to this amendment without a rollcall.

The passage of the entire bill, carrying appropriations of about $324,000,000 for the army for the fiscal year beginning July 1, followed shortly afterward without a rollcall. The measure now goes to conference.

BACK TO THE BANKS

North Sydney, N. S., June 15.—The American fishing schooner Mayflower, possible contender for international honors in the race to be held at Halifax this fall, sailed tonight for the Grand Banks to increase her season's catch of fish, which already amounts to some one hundred and forty thousand pounds. This is the second visit the Mayflower has paid to North Sydney in a fortnight. She called on both occasions for bait.

RAILWAY CUT CONFIRMED

Montreal, June 13.—On the authority of high officials of railway companies with head office in Montreal, the statement made Friday that railway wages will be reduced by an average of 12 per cent. on July 1, was reaffirmed today. The conference to be held Friday between employees and officials of all lines will be of a purely informal character and is expected to cover general discussions, wages and working conditions.

ADmiral SIMS' SPEECH. Admiral Sims' famous speech was a hard and admirable exposure of those elements in the United States whose chief inspiration in life is antagonism toward England and whose principal endeavor is to create friction between the two countries and prevent amicable understanding.

BACK TO THE LAND. In the United States, according to the Department of Agriculture, six million men have left the cities and gone back to the farms. The surplus of farm labor now is placed at 95 per cent. In Canada, likewise, the movement has been outward from the cities to agriculture and other great natural industries.

I SEE IN THE STANDARD

Admiral Sims, the United States naval officer whose speeches in England have resulted in his leave of absence being cancelled, is a Canadian. He was born on a farm four miles from Port Hope, Ont. Mrs. R. C. Smith, who was born and brought up in the same district, recalls the following in connection with the youthful days of the now famous sea fighter: Bill Sims and I played together as small children. My recollections of him are as a jolly, mischievous little barefoot boy with a huge cow's breakfast straw hat, out on our grandfather, Edward Sweden's farm, 4 miles from here, and just off the Peterboro road.

A BIT OF VERSE

BEAUTY. Oh, sing me a song of beauty! I'm tired of the dreary song, I'm weary of all the preaching, the arguings right and wrong. I'm fain to forget the adder that under the leaf lies curled, And dream of the light and beauty that gladdens the grey old world.

FAVOR EMBARGO REMOVAL.

London, June 15.—Further official evidence before the cattle embargo commission today suggested that the lifting of the embargo against the importation of Canadian cattle would involve a considerable increase in veterinary staffs and isolation camps. Scottish witnesses favored its removal, because it would cheapen beef, and one, a butcher, expressed a strong

FUNERALS.

One-Man Car Given Trial Run Yesterday

Its Workings Explained in Detail to Members of Arbitration Board.

For the benefit of members of the conciliation board setting in judgment on grievances of the street railway men, being lodged against the New Brunswick Power Co., a demonstration of the One Man Car, which the company proposes to operate on its system, was given yesterday afternoon. Besides the members of the arbitration board, the car had as passengers two newspaper men, several motormen of the company, and the gentleman in charge of the work of transforming the old cars into the One Man type, with Superintendent McLean at the controls. The car left from the foot of King street with its party, traversing the Haymarket Square division to home of King, and thence the King and Britain section to the foot of King.

The transformed car is not a replica of such a dangerous-looking affair as one might have been led to believe it was from all that has been said of it. All passengers enter and leave the car by the front door. The door is opened and closed by a mechanism operated by the motorman in charge. One of the features of the mechanism is that when the door is opened the power becomes automatically thrown off the motor and the car is at a standstill. The power can not be switched on again until the operator of the car has closed his door by employment of the brake shaft controlling the mechanism. One closing the door by hand does not throw on the power.

In addition to the regular brake for the ordinary control of the car, a brake, known as the emergency, has been installed. It is operated much in the same way as a brakeman on a steam car would operate his brake if signalled in an emergency by the engineer. This is a powerful brake, and in the test yesterday brought the car to a full stop in about a length and a half.

Smoking Compartment.
The rear platform of the transformed car has been fitted out for a smoking compartment. Here is also an exit for use in case of an emergency, should occasion require a hasty exit from the rear. All that is necessary is to throw back a seat and the emergency door is easily opened.

Another feature of the car is the fender. The fender is under the car in front of the wheels. Should one be so unfortunate as to be bowled under a car his body must come in contact with a guard which, at the moment it is touched with any force, automatically causes the fender to drop to the ground and scoop the body from the roadway.

Preferrable to Present Cars.
To the ordinary layman the One Man car looks like a safer proposition than the cars now in operation. The employees of the company who were aboard had a lot of fault to find with it. Their criticism may have been based upon their technical knowledge but they were not such as would stir up fear for the safety of neck and limb of the average patron of the cars. The members of the board asked many questions concerning the car which were answered and explained in detail by the gentleman in charge of the work. In chatting over the cars, the members of the board didn't show any signs of fear while on the trip, the newspapermen were not nervous and the motormen aboard seemed to be enjoying the ride without any thought of approaching disaster because of the One Man car.

Weddings

Jardine-Wiliston
Chatham, N. B., June 16 — At St. Andrew's Presbyterian manse last evening, Rev. Dr. E. G. Wood, officiated in marriage Miss Mary Aethia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wiliston of Bayside and J. Frank Jardine of Chatham. The bride wore a becoming dress of white satin with pearl trimmings and hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas. They were attended by Miss Grace Wiliston, sister of the bride, and Harold Watling of Chatham. A reception and wedding supper was held at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. Ellen Jardine, after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Jardine will reside in Chatham.

Tamlyn-Wood
Hopewell Hill, June 16 — A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wood, of Albert, at 4 p.m., when their youngest daughter, Margaret, was given in marriage to Mr. Percy Tamlyn, of Sussex, N. B. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march, rendered by Mrs. A. B. Brooks, of St. Stephen. The room was beautifully decorated with ferns and potted plants. After the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served in the dining-room, which was also tastefully decorated. Rev. I. B. Colwell officiated. The bride wore navy silk with hat to match and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses. Many and costly presents testified to the popularity of the happy couple. They left by auto for Moncton and will go on an extended trip to Boston and other American cities. Many friends extend congratulations.

Clarence L. Flewelling.
The death occurred on Monday last of Mr. Clarence L. Flewelling at the Sanatorium Farm, River Glade. About two years ago he was appointed by the Government to take charge of this farm. Last Fall he developed a sickness from which he never really recovered, and gradually grew weaker until his death. His youngest son Brock, has been appointed to take charge of the farm. The remains were taken on Wednesday to Bloomfield for interment, after a short service at his home conducted by the Rev. J. Mason. He was a native of Clifton, and had spent most of his life in Kings County. He was 65 years of age. He leaves a widow, four sons and one daughter.

Business Before The Women's Hospital Aid

Excellent Reports Received— Treasurer Showed Balance of $5,766.85.

The Woman's Hospital Aid at their meeting yesterday considered matters in connection with the furnishing of the sitting room for the Dietitian as that room was not in the original plans, and also to provide fixtures for the bathrooms, as that had not been anticipated in making allowance for the furnishings at the Home. The meeting was held at the Board of Trade rooms, Mrs. J. H. Travers, first vice-president presiding.

Expressed Appreciation.

Mrs. E. A. Young gave a report of an interview between a committee from the Woman's Hospital Aid regarding the cleaning and opening of the Nurses' Home. The Commissioners expressed appreciation of the board of the splendid generosity of the Aid for the Home. The Home will be cleaned at the expense of the board to the approval of the Aid. Hearty co-operation will be shown the board in a open day for the Hospital and Nurses' Home.

The Furnishings.

Miss Addy told of being asked by Mrs. J. V. McLellan, representing the board of commissioners, if the Aid would provide furnishings for the Dietitian's room as it had not been on the original plan. Furniture for two bedrooms, which has been purchased will not be required, as the Dietitian's suite is in place of these rooms. A motion to exchange this furniture for sitting room articles and complete the equipment of the Dietitian's sitting room was moved by Mrs. E. A. Young, seconded by Mrs. T. H. Carter. The motion was lost by one vote—six being against it and five in favor. On motion Messrs. Manchester Robertson Allison, will be asked to take back extra bedroom furniture on hand.

Decorational reports were given as follows: Anglican, Mrs. Mowrey, 15 members; Roman Catholic, Mrs. J. H. Doody, 3 for the Cathedral, Mrs. T. H. Carter, Baptist, 32 for German street Baptist church, 32. It was stated that a special nurse at the hospital will take care of the flower vases. Mrs. T. H. Carter gave an excellent report as convener of the

Women Want Coal Mines Developed

Calgary, Alta., June 16.—The coal situation in Canada, which one of the delegates to the National Council of Women describes as a burning question, was brought before this morning's session of that body in the report of the council of home economics. This was presented by Mrs. Jean Maciver, of Toronto, who urged that the development of Canada's mines was an economic necessity. In the discussion following the reading of the report, it was pointed out that Alberta has one sixth of the coal deposits of the world, and if cheaper freight rates could be procured during the summer months before the shipment of grain started, it would help in the development of the mine, the lowering of the price and the employment of men. After much discussion action was deferred until the motion could be reworded.

The resolution brought forward by Mrs. Maciver to endorse the proposed bureau of information and its magazine, a project placed before the council two days ago by Mrs. Sears, of Ottawa, brought forth the opinion that something of this nature was required.

Debate on Subject.
Mrs. Mulvey, of Ottawa, said there was no reason why women should not obtain as much for home economies as is needed. While ample provision is made for information and for assistance in the care and the feeding of children, for full information for the farmer who desires to build a chicken house, there is no help and no provision for any assistance to the housewife in any of her difficulties.

"We believe that the women of Canada," continued Mrs. Mulvey, "should ask for a home economics department in the federal government."

This proposition was objected to by Mrs. A. C. Skelton, of Pictou, N. S., who thought the council should go slowly in asking the government to do anything that would add more expense at a time when the matter was accepted as a notice of motion to be dealt with at the next annual meeting.

The New York Bureau of Municipal Research has determined that a young unmarried man must have $1095 a year to live decently, while a young woman needs $118. The extra $35 allowed for the young woman would probably cover cost of rouge and powder, if not enough to pay for furs when the thermometer is above 30 in the shade.—Commercial Bulletin.

TODAY'S TALK

THE BELIEVER
It is better to believe in something than to believe in nothing. Even though that something be little and slender.

When I take to my pillow bed, I believe that the engineer is going to keep his eyes alert and safely bring me to my destined end—even though I have never seen him.

We sleep to wake! Because we believe there is to be a "morrow." Though in the interim we are lost in a darkness.

I still believe in Santa Claus—because he makes so many little tots dance with joy.

I believe that the world is getting better all the time—for if I didn't I would get very discouraged, indeed.

Jack Dempsey Harmed At Training Agar

Boxed Four Rounds With Light and Featherweight Wore Headgear.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 16.—A lay-off of four days, Jack Dempsey resumed his full training program today and boxed for the first time since he had his left eye ripped out a week ago last Sunday. The champion, who was boxed for forty minutes under blazing sun, and on the hot can of his outdoor arena under such conditions as may prevail when he faces Georges Carpentier in Jersey City July 2.

After training at the palaces two rounds and shadow boxing three, Dempsey boxed four rounds each with Irish Paddy Chinn, Philadelphia, lightweight, and Herman, the California featherweight. Dempsey, who usually boxes with his head unprotected, appeared in training wearing a headgear and a thick padding to protect the light being worn over his eye. (Time for the champion for the first two rounds and was badly shaken up a couple of times with left hooks.)

Herman, who was used for speed, forced the champion to display dash and speed of a much lighter man.

TRIPLE-SERVICE
(ECONOMIC-HYGIENIC-STYLE)
Makes Nemo Corsets Indispensable

The Meaning of Nemo Corset Service
MILLIONS OF WOMEN DEPEND ON IT
Nemo Corsets comprise many hygienic features of great scientific value and are divided into three distinct services:

Hygienic Service--Style Service--Economic Service
Their Hygienic Service has become invaluable and indispensable from a humanitarian and health point of view. The medical profession fully recognizes its preventive and curative qualities.

Their Style Service is necessarily different from that furnished by other corsets. The scientific and hygienic results can be obtained only when Nemo Corsets fit the figure accurately, comfortably and properly.

Their Economic Service, on which the first two depend represents the long-wearing qualities of Nemo Corsets. No amount of ingenuity in conceiving these valuable inventions would avail if the corsets themselves were not extremely durable. Their production cost of the corsets is based exclusively on themselves. Their Hygienic Service more than the corsets are given entirely free.

The Circlet does for the figure above the waist what the corset does below.

Stories coming out of the Yamaska election, now that the smoke cleared away and it is possible to more definite information as to the exact methods used, show that several tactics were employed against Mr. A. A. Mondou, the conservative candidate, in the campaign of "scare" issues which was against him.

Cripples Introduced.
Detailed information shows that five or six cripples were used "stage" effects. They were gathered from various parts of the province to go to part of the committee room to committee room of the Liberal party and exhibit themselves as "victims" of the great war. T. speeches were much the same, namely, that they had joined the Canadian army, gone overseas, wounded and crippled, and returned to Canada, where an "unfriendly Government" did little for them. However, they did not care for so much as they feared for their younger brothers, and the speech made by these alleged war victims ended up with pleas to vote against Mondou so as to save their younger brothers and all their friends from being crippled in the war that was coming against Japan. Japan appeared to be the favorite country which to wave the scare flag before the women. Two members of Parliament, who were very active, were caused during the course of the campaign of having used this cry, both strenuously did little for the members of Parliament, their work was accepted.

The Women's Vote.
The cry of another war, in which there would immediately be a description, played the great part in the women electorate, as a card study of the results just now completed indicates in going over the ballot papers in the camp of accuracy in the totals of the one outstanding fact was noticed and that was that it was possible to tell which ballots had been made by women. The women marked crosses very neatly, as those who for the first time usually do, being carefully instructed as to how to vote on sample ballot papers, other crosses were made in the many way, as by voters to whom the ballot was not a new experience. Further evidence to substantiate the fact that the neat and crosses were made by women is shown by the fact that in one polls there was a certain number women voters who went to the poll and a certain number of male voters and the number of the neat crosses correspond with the number of men voters.

The main point is that fully 90 per cent. of the neatly marked crosses for Almo Boucher, the successful Liberal candidate, indicating clearly that the cry against militarism and conscription had captivated the women's vote almost solidly. It had not been expected, for in a country the men hold sway in political matters, the women running most everything else. It is to be remembered, too, that Mr. Mondou received 2,600 votes, or 800 more than he when he defeated the late C. G. (Glad) in 1911.—Montreal Gazette.

Jack Dempsey Hard At Training Again

Boxed Four Rounds With Light and Featherweight—Wore Headgear.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 16—After a lay-off of four days, Jack Dempsey resumed his full training programme today and boxed for the first time since he had his left eye ripped open a week ago last Sunday. The champion tolled for forty minutes under a blazing sun, and on the hot canvas of his outdoor arena under such conditions as may prevail when he faces Georges Carpentier in Jersey City July 2.

After tagging at the palaces for two rounds and shadow boxing for three, Dempsey boxed four rounds, two each with Irish Patzy China, a Philadelphia lightweight, and Babe Herman, the California featherweight champion, who usually boxes with Dempsey, who usually boxes with Dempsey, who usually boxes with Dempsey.

"STAGE EFFECTS" WORKED WELL IN YAMASKA FIGHT

Cripples Posed as Unwounded "Victims" of the Great Struggle.

WOMEN SOLIDLY AGAINST MONDOU

Stamped by Cries of Another War and Sacrifice of Their Sons.

Stories coming out of the Yamaska by-election, now that the smoke has cleared away, show that some more definite information as to the exact methods used, show that some unusual tactics were employed against Mr. A. A. Mondou, the Conservative candidate, in the campaign of "scarce" issues which was waged against him.

Cripples Introduced.

Definite information shows that five of six cripples were used as "stage" effects. They were gathered from various parts of the province, and their part was to go from committee room to committee room of the Liberal party and exhibit themselves as "victims" of the great war. Their speeches were much the same, namely, that they had lost the Canadian army, gone overseas, been wounded and crippled, and returned to Canada, where an "ungrateful Government" did little for them. However, they did not care for the women, who were very active, were accused during the course of the campaign of having used this cry not only to ward the vote but to bring the women. Two members of Parliament, who were very active, were accused during the course of the campaign of having used this cry not only to ward the vote but to bring the women.

The Women's Vote.

The cry of another war, in which they would immediately be conscription, played the great part with the women electorate, as a careful study of the results just now completed indicates. In going carefully over the ballot papers to make sure of accuracy in the totals of the vote, one outstanding fact was noticeable, and that was that it was possible to tell which ballots had been marked by women. The women marked their crosses very neatly, as those who vote for the first time usually do, after being carefully instructed as to how to vote on sample ballot papers. The other crosses were made in the ordinary way, as by voters to whom counting a ballot was not a new experience. Further evidence to substantiate the fact that the neat and careful crosses were made by women was shown by the fact that in certain polls there was a certain number of women voters who went to the polls and a certain number of male voters, and the number of the neat crosses corresponded with the number of women voters.

The main point is that fully 90 per cent of the neatly made crosses were for Aime Boucher, the successful Liberal candidate, indicating quite clearly that the cry against militarism and conscription had captured the women's vote almost solidly. This had not been expected, for in the country the men hold sway in political matters, the women running almost everything else. It is to be remembered, too, that Mr. Mondou got 2,800 votes, or 800 more than he got when he defeated the late Oscar Gladu in 1911.—Montreal Gazette.

Reval, via London, June 16—Authoritative and most comprehensive information received here regarding the revolution in Vladivostok, Siberia, indicates that the Japanese government press bureau in that city has cleverly deceived the world, and that it is under the control of an able semi-official Japanese publicist, Motosada Zamoto, formerly Japanese propaganda director in New York, where he was the head of the Oriental Information Agency in 1908.

First reports of the trouble in Vladivostok stating that the Japanese were neutral and that the revolution was a bloodless one certainly were false. On the contrary, the Japanese managers, headed with it and aged everything, the Japanese Government is a puppet in their hands.

The Japanese have shown extreme cleverness throughout the whole affair, striking their bow when Europe was weak, preoccupied and distracted, the Japanese meanwhile hiding behind carefully subsidized Russians, so that America cannot protest without seeming reasons for this increased dose.

FLEET FOOT to Business

If you ask a man why he wears FLEET FOOT shoes to business, nine times out of ten he says, "because they are so comfortable."

FLEET FOOT shoes are comfortable. The fine rubber soles and heels take up the jar of walking. The canvas uppers are light, cool and easy on the feet. The shapes are designed by experts who know how to put good style into shoes that fit the feet snugly, yet are light and flexible.

Most men wear FLEET FOOT right through the summer. They have several pairs. Sensible oxfords for business—sport models for bowling, golf or tennis—a smart pump for evening wear—and perhaps heavy FLEET FOOT shoes for gardening or working around the house.

FLEET FOOT are so economical that you can have two or three pairs for the price of one pair of leather shoes.

Wear them this summer—put the whole family in FLEET FOOT. The name in the style of lettering shown above, is stamped on every genuine FLEET FOOT Shoe—look for it.

EARLY GAINS ON WALL STREET DO NOT HOLD LONG

Reactionary Tendencies Result in Losses on Nearly All of Main Securities.

MEXICAN PETE. IS DOWN ANOTHER ELEVEN

Offerings of Call Loans at 1 1/2 Per Cent. Continue More Than the Demand.

New York, June 16.—Reactionary tendencies again dominated the stock market today, after an initial period in which numerous leaders recovered 1 to 3 points.

Early improvement evidently was based on such favorable incidents as the lower commercial discount announced by the local Federal Reserve Bank and retention of the regular Northern Pacific dividend.

The sentimental effect of these developments was off before the first hour, prices sinking almost steadily to the week close. Sales amounted to $75,000 shares.

Numerous additions to low records for a year or longer embraced the prominent steels, equipments, tobacco and chemicals. Sales were inclined to steer an independent course but yielded with the general list in the unsettledness of the final hour.

Mexican Petroleum again featured the reversal, being driven down an additional 1 1/2 points to 103, but rallying 4 1/2 points on short covering. Its net loss of 5 1/2 points represented a decline of virtually twenty points in two days.

U. S. Steel Down

United States Steel dropped to a fraction of its recent low at 74 1/2, but met with support at that level. Several active speculators in the sugar, tobacco and affiliated groups also made moderate recoveries.

The money market pursued its even tenor, offerings of call loans at 1 1/2 per cent, exceeding demand. Taking their cue from the Federal Reserve Bank, private institutions made their offerings on commercial paper.

Foreign exchange was erratic, early strength due to London quotations, giving way to sharp declines in sterling when moderate amounts of cable and demand bills appeared. The Paris rate held, but other continental remittances, Swiss and Spanish excepted, were reactionary.

Changes in the bond market were nominal, but mainly lower. Liberty issues showed moderate gains and losses. Cuba cane sugar convertibles and Mexicanes eased. Total sales, par value, aggregated nine million, seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Spain has taken anti-dumping measures against merchandise imported from nations having depreciated currency the United States Commerce Department is advised by commercial attaché Cunningham at Madrid. RESERVE IS TO BE AUGMENTED

More Details Concerning Discovery on the Moffat Hall Property at Cobalt.

Toronto, June 16.—An estimate of ore reserves on the McIntyre properties now being made by the company's engineers and it is reported that an increase of at least one million dollars will be made to last year's total reserve value which was approximately six million dollars. In other words reserves will likely contain gold valued at over twice the company's capital. The company's fiscal year ends this month and the report which should go forward six weeks later will indicate the past year to have been by far the most prosperous in the company's history.

The question of a reduction of freight on the government owned Temiskaming and Northern will be taken up with the Temiskaming Prospector Association by the Provincial Minister of Mines, Hon. P. Mills, who plans to go up to Haliburton next week.

An Important Discovery.

Details of the discovery on the Moffat Hall property in Lebel township indicate it to be the most important yet in the Lebel area of the Kirkland Lake District. The vein is about twelve feet in width and carries high gold values. The property, which lies some five miles from the Tough Oakes, is now reported to have been optioned, though in some quarters it is said that the option for control has been released and a large stock purchase made in lieu thereof. Operations at the Argonaut Mines will likely be resumed the third week of the present month, the fire damage to the transformers in all probability being repaired by that time. The loss of the test mill itself is not so serious to the company as the financial loss would indicate as only about $20,000 of the machinery therein would have been available to use if the company had decided to install a larger operating mill.

Should Show Increase.

Silver production in the Cobalt camp this month should show an increase of over one hundred and fifty thousand ounces as a result of resumption of operations by the McIntyre Corporation and the Contagas Mines. Bailley and Chambers-Perkins are also likely to increase their output this month. The former mine is now negotiating for a gold prospect in the Kirkland Lake camp. A discovery of considerable significance as regards the development of the Gilles limit is announced by the Oxford Cobalt on their claim 99 which was staked in the last year when claims in arrears of taxes were thrown open. A two foot fracture has been run in the surface carrying over five hundred ounces of silver to the ton. A gang is sinking on the vein and it is expected that contact will be reached near the hundred foot level. This is the most southerly development in the Cobalt camp proper and as the surrounding country is staked solid, further discoveries would arouse an activity which would give impetus to an entirely new portion of the camp.

Porcupine Rand Charter.

The old Porcupine Rand test electric railway recently went into liquidation and there is much speculation as to its charter. Rumors are current that two of the largest Gold Mines in Porcupine are to acquire the charter and there is much speculation as to their objective. It is thought on the government side that the McIntyre and Hallinger, both of which own and are preparing to develop waterpowers of their own at some distance from Porcupine.

The Triples Gold mines is reported to have taken over the Old Tunnies Burns property, lying about a dozen miles east of the Porcupine Camp. A gang of men are now dewatering the

Raw Sugars

New York, June 16.—The raw sugar market was steady early today at 4.00 per centrifugal with no business reported.

Raw sugar futures were quiet and prices at midday were one to two points lower, with operators inclined to limit operations and await developments in the spot market. The market for refined was quiet at 5.75 for fine granulated. Refined futures were nominal.

ST. JOHN BANK CLEARINGS.

St. John bank clearings for the past week were $2,723,286; for the same time last year they were $3,682,971. Montreal's for the last week were $1,010,389.

Old shaft which went down about fifty feet, and preparing to sink an entirely new one.

Porcupine Crown which sold its property to the North Crown Merger which it controls, has still about $190,000 left in its treasury and is now investigating some new prospects for development with this sum for its own shareholders. The company is reported to have secured an option upon a group of claims in Ogden Township southwest of Porcupine proper. A surface gang is prospecting the face of the optioned properties.

The O'Brien Mill, which made a record month's run in May, is now reported tied up completely owing to fire trouble. It is feared that this may bring about a cessation of operations for some time. The Teck-Hughes Mill made a new high production record for May when approximately fifty thousand dollars worth of gold was extracted. Some low ore has been encountered in development which is reported to be of materially higher grade than the general run of the mines ore.

Wheat Market

Winnipeg, June 16.—Wheat prices on the local market were erratic today, the July showing a spread of over five cents at October 5 1/2. After the opening on further reports of crop damage in the United States, considerable strength developed and the market advanced to 81 3/8 for July, and $1.11 1/2 for October. About mid-session the market turned weak and prices declined rapidly owing to heavy liquidation of Chicago July wheat by New York interests. The close was 1 7/8 to 2 cents lower. During the early part of the session there was a good demand for cash wheat. Later the demand fell away and premiums lowered about one cent and gave evidence of further weakness. The offerings continued very light.

World Awaits End of Death Dance

John W. Davis, Late Ambassador, Denounces Despotic Selfishness of Bolshevism.

Schenectady, N. Y., June 16.—The world waits impatiently for the ending of the mad dance of death that has overtaken unhappy Russia, John W. Davis, former United States ambassador to Great Britain, declared today before the 125th graduating class of Union College.

"In the meantime," he continued, "any compromise with the Bolshevik creed is but a league with death. Between such doctrines of class rule and class hatred and those which have made the United States, there is a gulf as wide as that between truth and falsehood, right and wrong, life and death."

Mr. Davis' address was delivered after he was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws, and the honorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon Maude Adams, address the first woman to receive an honorary degree from Union College.

Deprecates Jingolism.

Mr. Davis' subject was "Americanism," and he deprecated jingolism. "There is no real patriotism in bad manners," he said. "One may even be a very good American without insisting that none but American flags shall be carried in patriotic parades."

"The doctrine of equal rights to all and special privileges to none," Mr. Davis continued, "is the very kernel of what we call America. The day of the aristocrat is over; the greed of the plutocrat we are resolved to curb, but does the light end with that? What shall we say to those who pray of the rule of the proletariat meaning either to bring all men by force to a common level or to rule with iron those who refuse to sanction their regime? Unfortunately for Russia, but fortunately,

Paris Denies Charm of Budapest Legs

Paris, June 16.—"As a beauty connoisseur Karl H. Von Wiegand is some correspondent, but he is no judge of feminine limbs.

Thus indignantly announced Madeleine Spindler after reading in the Parisian dressing room at the Theatre Varieties that the Berlin correspondent had presumed to write a two-column paenon on the beautiful legs and ankles of Budapest women.

"But perhaps," said the charming Parisian actress, who French critics with long practice in such matters claim has the finest legs in the world, "Mr. Von Wiegand has never been to Paris. That would explain it."

Elevating her left eyebrow, she continued:

"If you like, you may write to Mr. Von Wiegand and tell him that if he will bring his charmer or charmers from Hungary to Paris, I will willingly submit to be measured and otherwise judged by a commission of experts, including prominent Paris artists and stage directors."

THE WEATHER

Toronto, June 16.—Moderate showers are reported from most localities of the Lake Superior district, and very light showers have occurred in scattered localities throughout the country, but the weather is for the most part fair and moderately warm.

AROUND THE CITY

Fred Rooney was arrested by the police last evening on a warrant charging non-support. One drunk was also arrested.

Alma Ring, the young girl who was injured in a motor accident on City Road Sunday evening was reported to be progressing wonderfully at the General Public Hospital last night. Her complete recovery is merely a matter of time.

Sailed From England Atwood Bridges, one of the Canadian Rhodes scholars at Oxford, sailed from England yesterday for Canada. He will spend his vacation in St. John with his parents, Dr. H. S. Bridges and Mrs. Bridges.

POSTMORTEM INSPECTION. The Board of Fire Underwriters decided yesterday morning to postpone the inspection of the Beaneonfield district until such time as the new fire hydrants have been installed. They have completed the inspection of St. John West, and an increase of fifteen per cent is expected there.

NEW DEPARTURE. Starting next Sunday there will be united services on the two West St. John Baptist churches. Rev. J. H. Jenner is leaving for a vacation and Rev. Mr. Brindley will preach to the congregations in Ladlow street church in the morning and Charlotte street church in the evening, and vice versa the following Sunday. This is a new departure for these churches.

CHIEF INSPECTOR HERE. K. S. Busby of Ottawa, chief inspector of customs and excise, arrived in the city on the Montreal train yesterday. Mr. Busby said he was here on the usual annual visit of inspection and that his trip had nothing to do with reported changes in the customs house staff. He will be in the city for a few days, after which he will return to Montreal.

Tobacco Prices Taking A Drop

One Popular Brand Has Fallen 40c. Per Pound—Others Increase Size of Package.

Lovers of the fragrant weed, accustomed during recent years to a steady advance in the cost of their tobacco, are overjoyed at the drop in prices of some supplies the last few days. One popular brand of smoking tobacco, selling for several months at 20 cents for a pound, has fallen to 15 cents for one-half of a pound, in other words, the price has fallen from $2.00 per pound to $1.50. Another tin sells now at 25 cents; it has been 30 cents until this week.

Automobilists Must Watch The Dimmers

Traffic Officer Crawford Had Bunch of Violators in the Paddock Yesterday.

Mr. Automobile Man had better watch out when bowling along the Rothsey boulevard and see that his dimmers are in working order and house the glare of his headlights when approaching a vehicle, motor or horse drawn. Robert Crawford, that gentleman who has been clothed with authority to make life's pathway one of thorns for violators of traffic laws, is getting busy. His "clamps" trimmed and burning, are now focusing on the automobilist who forgets to snap on the dimmers.

Nova Scotia Touched. One automobilist was before Justice Altingham and fined $50 for not responding to a summons for speeding on Rothsey Ave. A Halifax car exceeded the speed limit yesterday and the driver enriched the New Brunswick treasury box with a deposit of five dollars.

MANAGER THOMSON REPLIES TO UNION LEADER'S STATEMENTS

Questions Mr. Sinclair's Knowledge of the Situation Existing in St. John—Table of Living Expenses Produced Differs Greatly from That of Mr. Sinclair—Says Company Will Run Own Business.

The conciliation board in the dispute between the New Brunswick Power Co. and its employees continued its sessions yesterday morning in the Board of Trade rooms. Mr. Sinclair, for the men, also some further documents, and P. W. Thomson filed the answer of the company. During the morning a suggestion was made by Mr. Sinclair that the company pay the wage schedule in force in Halifax and the men might agree to operate any type of car the company would put on the road.

Mr. Sinclair, continuing his case for the men, filed the letter of the company to its employees and claimed this was an attempt to break the union. He also filed a list showing the cost of one meal for a family of four to be $1.03. He informed the board that the men had decided by a unanimous vote to decline the offer submitted through the Mayor of 47 cents per hour for two-man operation and 52 for one-man operation. Mr. Thomson asked if the ballot was a secret one, and Mr. Sinclair replied that it was not.

The Company's Case. Mr. Thomson submitted the following statement as the reply of the company to the statements of Mr. Sinclair.

Mr. Sinclair's remarks as to the capitalization—the rates—the management—only shows that he is not conversant with his facts. While the company can make its own rates under the legislation of 1920 and earn 8 per cent on an arbitrary base rate fixed by the Legislature, it is subject to the supervision of the auditor appointed by the Public Utilities, and all complaints of service and rates may be made to the Public Utilities so that no excessive profit is permitted. With all the increases in car fare and in gas that Mr. Sinclair complains so bitterly about, the company failed by some $14,000 last year to earn its base rate established by the Legislature.

The company lost on its gas works last year some $72,000—it lost on its street railway operations $137,000. It has carried up to the end of May on the street railway something in excess of 22 per cent fewer passengers than it had in the same months of 1920. The falling off for June will, I imagine, be far in excess of 22 per cent.

It is absurd to compare our street railway in St. John with the Montreal street railway. In St. John we carry about one-fifth of the population of Montreal in the same streets, carry the entire population every day.

Loss on Railway. Our street railway earning figures are appalling. Commencing on June 1920—the last figure that I have—and going back, the loss per day was as follows: $477, $476, $407, $510, $470, $463. In one day between June 19th and May 21st, we had a profit of $44. This state of affairs cannot continue—we must get relief in the shape of the one-man car and the lower rate of wages, or the street railway department will ruin the company. Not only will forty men lose their jobs, but the balance of 110 will be out of employment, and the citizens of St. John will have to do without a street railway, or else tax themselves for its upkeep.

Times are bad—we are carrying fewer passengers than ever—there is no prospect that times are going to be better in the near future. The company has had this year in the street railway operations unusual expense. It will owe the city by the end of the year something over $100,000—mostly caused by the privilege afforded it of operating a street railway.

Mr. Sinclair states that the positive earnings of motormen and conductors of this company, working 312 days in the year, for 1920-1921, was $1,644, or 144c. per day. It would be impossible for the men to live if their wages were cut any. The company doubts the statement. It's a well-known fact that the average earnings in America falls short of $1,000 a year, and people seem to live and get along without undue hardship, even at that rate. Our company never proposed to make such a cut in the wages as this.

In previous years the wages paid by this company for motormen and conductors were:— 1913 — 20 to 25 cents. 1914 — 20 to 25 cents. 1915 — 20 to 25 cents. 1916 — 20 to 25 cents. 1917 — 25 to 30 cents.

All this time snow work and training students was at 4c. extra. In 1918, the wages were increased to 36c. and 4c. for snow work and training was continued. In 1919 the wages were advanced to 45c. with snow work at 4c. and training at 10c.

In 1920 the rate was boosted to 66c. snow work and training 10c. extra. Similarly other occupations in the company were increased—in some cases from 18c. an hour up to 55c. an hour.

The company issued a Bulletin in which it cut the motormen and conductors' wages by 20 per cent, and gave 5c. extra for the one-man car. The company can fill its ranks with motormen and conductors at a much lower figure than this.

The company felt that its suggestion of a 20 per cent cut, with 5c. an hour for the one-man car—which only made a net out of 11c.—was a small cut for the motorman and conductor as it could do with.

Caused Trouble On Sheffield Street

Man Assaulted Colored Woman and Escaped in High Powered Automobile.

With the throttle wide open and the speedometer registering about a fifty mile gait, a powerful black touring car tore into Prince William street from St. James at a little after 11 o'clock last night, and keeping to the middle of the street tore through the city towards the North End, hotly pursued by the police patrol till the Main street hill forced her to give up the chase near the North End station.

The big black car was first sighted on Broad street, after a hurry call had been sent into the central station for a disturbance on Sheffield street where a drunken man was alleged to have assaulted an aged colored woman and wrecked her house.

Detective Biddiscombe and Police-Matthew went to the scene in the patrol where it was said their quarry had left for a lodging house on St. James street. They continued on in pursuit and as they reached the house saw a man and woman rush out and jump into a big black car which immediately got under way. The patrol gave chase, and several cars tore up St. James to Prince William, and then on to the North End. With all the action of a thrilling movie the little drama was enacted on the deserted streets of the city, as rushing through the blackness of the night the two cars hit the high spots for some new records in speeding. Backed against the more powerful car the little Ford fell down on the job and the patrol was obliged to return to the station without prisoners.

In the early part of last evening a man known to the police as at York Point and it was reported he had assaulted a woman, but when the female was taken to the hospital she said she had not been struck; he was not apprehended. Later it is believed that this same person and his woman friend went to the Sheffield street house, and he is supposed to be the person who caused the disturbance and escaped in the fast automobile.

Entrance Through Rear Window. Detective Biddiscombe told of going to Tanzman's store on Brussels street on the 27th of May and seeing a window in the rear of the store with the glass sticking out and where the sash had been shaved down. The window was over a sink in the rear of the store, about three feet from the ground. It was a narrow window measuring nine and a half inches wide by about thirty inches long, and was big enough for an ordinary sized man to enter. Later at the time of the arrest of the defendant, he had two loaded revolvers on him and one empty revolver. The loaded ones were Smith & Weston, .45s., and the other was an Iver Johnson, 38 calibre. The prisoner was remanded.

There was only one prisoner before the court in the morning. G. W. Thorpe, who was charged with trespassing on the property of the C. N. R. Two employees, J. Morrisey and P. Borden testified to finding the defendant in a box car. The prisoner said he was without funds and unable to find work. He was formerly a cook on a vessel.

Nelson Case Heard In Police Court

Witnesses Told of Accused Selling Stolen Articles to Second-Hand Stores.

In the police court yesterday afternoon, the case of the Nelson charged with breaking and entering Tanzman's store on Brussels street and also with carrying concealed weapons, was heard. Several witnesses were called. The first, J. Lampert, owner of second-hand store, told of the accused bringing a suit of clothes to the store, which he bought from him for $10 on May 27. Nelson signed his name as James Dalton, Union street. Detective Biddiscombe came in the store two days later and got the suit.

Maurice Koshetsky gave evidence that Nelson brought a raincoat in to his store on the 28th of May and sold it for $1 and signed his name as Jas. Gibbon, Meadow street. Two days later Detective Biddiscombe came in and got the coat.

Further Reduction In Passenger Rates

Will be Reduced Ten Per Cent. July 1st—No Change in Sleeping Car Rates.

Railway passenger fares in Eastern Canada, or on all lines east of Winnipeg, will be lower by ten per cent after July 1st, according to information reaching this city yesterday, verified by officials of the C. N. R. The Western rates are not affected.

This will mean the return to the passenger fares in force prior to September 15, 1920, when a 20 per cent increase was granted to the railways. A reduction of 10 per cent was made on January 1st. Sleeping car rates are not affected.

With high fares and high sleeping and tourist car rates train travel on this continent has become somewhat very much akin to a luxury in recent times. Still, it is regarded as a necessity, except by tourists, and in their opinion it is only one item from a long list of heavy expenses, so higher fares were not supposed to have affected travel much. Still, it was affected to some extent, and it is believed that this reduction will help the railways as well as those who travel on the trains.
