SOUTH LONDON LIBERALS.

Large Gathering in the Suburb on Saturday Evening.

Not a Corrompted Hive, But all Alive and Kicking.

A largely attended meeting of the Liberal Association of South London was held in the Crystal Palace, on Saturday evening. Mr. N. W. Rowell was called to the chair, and Mr. Ed. Parnell, jun., officiated as secretary.

On motion, the secretary was heard. He said that at a meeting of the East Middlesex Liberal Association, held the other day, it had been suggested that South London should be a portion of the city for the Dominion election purposes, should select its own delegates for the forthcoming Provincial convention, and he had been appointed secretary for that purpose. This was the chief object of the present meeting. "We live in straitened times," said Mr. Parnell, "and though we are at present in a gerrymandered 'hive' we should take nothing for granted. In due time we must form a part of the city for Dominion purposes, as we in future will be for Provincial and already are for municipal purposes. But even if the next election finds us in a 'hive' it will be our duty to pull our full vote and show our complete strength, not leaving a work half done, as at last Dominion election. Our candidate, whoever he is, will have to be reminded of this. While canvassing and special organization is being made on the other side we must take nothing for granted."

The chairman said that even if there is a Liberal majority of 1,300 or 1,500 it should be all policy, because it sells in the total vote of the country.

This sentiment was warmly applauded, as was also the suggestion that a permanent ward association should be formed, and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for the holding of a meeting at an early day to effect that purpose.

Several other speeches were made, and reports were received from gentlemen who had travelled through various parts of the country recently. The consensus of opinion was that the day of high taxation was at an end, and that a bright era of reciprocal trade and better times would be ushered in with a new administration at Ottawa.

The pocket question—the necessity for widening the markets and engaging in reciprocal trade wherever possible, and as soon as can be managed, making a radical reduction in the burdens of the people—was held to be the one great topic for discussion in the ensuing contest.

The chairman, asked as to his impressions of the Northwest and British Columbia (as gathered from a tour lasting several months), said there was almost unanimity in favor of full reciprocity with the United States. It was the one great need to develop the natural industries of the Prairie provinces as well as British Columbia, and as for a reduction of taxation, he did not believe that a single candidate opposed to it or to complete reciprocity would have a chance of election in either the Northwest or the Pacific Province.

The meeting then proceeded to the selection of delegates to the Provincial convention in Toronto this month. There were nominated: Hon. David Mills, A. J. Shaw, A. J. Garthwaite, ex-Ald. Lacey, Col. Lacey, ex-Mayor Hyman, N. W. Rowell, E. R. Cameron, Ed. Parnell, jun., John Marshall, J. A. Kilgus, ex-Mr. Wm. Gervy, J. D. Clarke, Thos. Ross, Samuel Munro, Jas. Lear, J. Pritchett, Jas. Westland, Wm. Westland, Chas. Elliott, R. N. Curry, A. McKiv, Adam Murray, Thomas Scott, A. Dick, Adam Sutherland, Wm. Kelly, R. J. Blackwell, Capt. Burgess, Jas. Kennedy, Wm. Thomas, J. Brown, Allan Bogue, Jas. Craig, John Pennington, J. Mitchell, Yeo, Geo. Trebilcock, J. Stevens, N. F. C. Any other gentleman who may desire to go can have the proper certificates on application to Mr. John Patridge, secretary of the East Middlesex Liberal Association.

A MOTHER'S MADNESS.

Takes Her Own Life and that of Her Three Children.

Porter, Kan., Feb. 2.—Mrs. Henry Wilson, living on a farm seven miles from this place, was left a widow two years ago with three children, the youngest 4 years old. When winter came she was almost destitute. Fear of starvation preyed on her mind that yesterday she attempted to kill her children and herself. The oldest, a boy of 12, escaped from her after she had cut his throat with a knife, and he ran to a neighbor and gave the alarm. He was almost exhausted from loss of blood. The woman had the remaining two children with her, and after inflicting mortal wounds on herself she set fire to the house, and when the neighbors arrived they found it in flames. The charred remains of the three were found later.

NO PROSPERITY BROUGHT BY HIGH TAXATION.

The truth is that no new manufacturing establishments have been called into existence under the National Policy that can be regarded as highly prosperous. The clock factory at Whitby and the clock factory at Hamilton take no note of time. (Cheers and laughter.) They are dead. The fact of their existence was heralded abroad as an evidence of the impulse which high taxation could give to new industries. The "protectionist" journals had not done so before to these establishments when they had gone into liquidation. What is true of them is true of scores of others. Mr. Dunstan, of Halifax, unceasingly persisted in demanding changes in the sugar tariff to enable him and others to refine sugar at Halifax. The change was made by the present Ministry. Mr. Dunstan obtained the capital. The refinery was erected. The appliances were obtained. The work was begun. But the factory was soon closed. The capital has all been lost. What happened in this instance has happened in a hundred others; and so people have been impoverished by the capital that has been wasted, by the labor misdirected, by the excessive taxation from the Government, said that the amount of capital invested in manufacturing enterprises during the preceding four years was $4,600,000, a sum not much in excess of the amount taken by the Government from the pockets of the people in one year beyond the requirements of the public service. Since then there has been stagnation. The mischief was done. The medicine has been taken and the patient is paralyzed. (Hon. David Mills at Collingwood.)

Peculiar

To itself in many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines of larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and are not so good as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is no more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

RUGBY RULES REVISED.

What Was Done at the O. R. F. U. Meeting in Toronto.

Slavin Prepared to Meet Bruner Sullivan—General Sporting News.

FOOTBALL

At the annual meeting of the Ontario Rugby Football Union held in Toronto on Saturday Mr. Bayly presented his report on the American college game as exemplified in the Yale-Princeton match, which he visited. The union made several changes in the laws of the game. Goal posts must be 20 feet high instead of 15 feet at present, and a match will be won by a majority of points instead of by two points. A goal kicked from a try will count 6 points, from a drop kick 5, from a flying kick or free kick 4. A try will count 4, a safety touch 2 and a rouge 1. The formation of a scrimmage was thus decided. The ball shall be scrimmage in the following manner: One of the side to which the ball belongs shall be on the ground; if he has taken his hand off the ball any other of the opposite side may interfere with the ball being put on the ground; if after he has taken his hand off the ball any other of the opposite side may interfere with the ball being put on the ground; if after he has taken his hand off the ball any other of the opposite side may interfere with the ball being put on the ground.

Rule 17 was altered to read as follows: "If any player in a scrimmage get upon his knees, touch the ball with his hand or lie upon it under any circumstances whatever he shall be liable to a free kick, and the referee shall on the claim of the captain give the opposite side a free kick."

To rule 21 the following addition was made: "If the ball is not immediately put down, or if the player being put on the ground does not immediately get up, the referee shall on a claim from the captain of the opposite side award a free kick, and the referee shall be taken in accordance with law 44, and to secure a goal if kicked."

Rules 26 and 27 were altered by the following additions: "When a player has the ball in his hands, and he is being tackled by one of his opponents who is at the same time off-side may be within five yards of such player or interfere with him till he has touched the ball or attempted to run with it."

For violation of the laws of the game or for unfair or rough play it is provided that the referee shall not only warn him or rule him out of the game, but that he shall also "forthwith report him to the union, and the executive of said union shall in their discretion suspend such offender and any club which plays with or against him, suspending such suspension for such period as they may think fit."

The time of play must be an hour and a half, with stoppages deducted. This covers the point raised after the first Hamilton-Queen's match, which had not been provided for in the rules. Protests must be accompanied by $25, the same to be forfeited if the protest be not sustained. It was decided to continue the system of competition for the championship. The executive was instructed to endeavor to arrange a match between their champion fifteen and that of the Province of Quebec.

It has now been definitely decided that a Canadian Association football team will visit England and Scotland this year. The team will leave about the beginning of August and return the following January. Nearly all the men whom the committee wanted to get have been secured, and a thoroughly representative and strong team will be sent over.

Lockhart, the winner of the Canadian championship diamond medal, was presented with his trophy in the parlors of the Triggs House on Saturday evening. The winner is a member of the Queen's Gun Club, his correct name being J. Locke.

Redpath flatly denies that any shooter won $25 from him during the shooting tournament as stated in the Free Press. He says he never has made a bet, and is not thinking of approaching a bet since he has been connected with the gun club.

During the tournament, while Mr. D. G. Revell, of Windsor, was acting as referee, one of the contestants named Andrew, of Toronto, was displaced with one of Revell's decisions and questioned the accuracy of the referee's decision. The result was a match between the two disputants at seven live pigeons for $10. Revell killed the seven and pocketed the $10, demonstrating substantially that he could still use his eyes.

THE RING.
The match between Myer and McCallie took place on Sunday morning, to find the champion of the ring. No club was willing to offer a purse for the fight.

THE RING.
Frank Slavin, the Australian champion heavy-weight, announces that he has accepted the challenge sent to him by John L. Sullivan to present the former with $5,000 if he stands before him for six rounds. Slavin further offers to wager $5,000 to Sullivan's $10,000 that Slavin will knock Sullivan out in six rounds. Slavin says that he is willing to fight in any city in the United States, and as proof of his confidence in American fair play he will go alone.

SKATING.
Two skating records were broken at St. John's, N. B., on Saturday, by Hobe Dingle and Charles Gillespie, champion backward skater. Dingle made the first half in a three-mile race in 12:45. The latter did a half mile in 1:35, and the mile in 3:16 4-5.

THE TURF.
H. N. Smith, of Buffalo, bought at the sale also Saturday, the bay colt Vexford, by Nephew, dam Suetie. The price was $1,700. It is said that Isaac Murphy, the jockey, is worth $125,000; William Donohue, $150,000; James McLaughlin, $50,000; Hayne, $40,000; Pike Barnes, $40,000; Hamilton, $25,000; Garrison, $10,000; and Taylor, $25,000.

A meeting of horsemen was held at Dr. Evelyn's office, St. Thomas, in regard to the construction of a race track, the negotiations for the lease of the Fair Grounds having fallen through. Three sites were discussed, viz., on Hughes street, on the W. Mann property and at Lynhurst. It is contemplated to construct a kite-shaped half-mile track. No action was taken or site selected.

Monday morning at Mrs. Peter Mairs, Thames street south, was walking from the house to the barn she slipped on the ice and fell with such force as to break her right arm. This is a rare accident, as her husband has been sick most of the winter, so that she has had to wait on him and after her household affairs, besides attending to her business.

On Thursday morning the nude body of an infant, supposed to be three or four months old, was found lying on the sidewalk near the corner of the intersection of the street and the river. The body was found by a passerby and was taken to the police station.

Liquor Law Amendments To Be Asked For—The Hospital Staff Exonerated.

A deputational party will wait on the Ontario Government this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to press for some very important amendments to Ontario liquor laws, among the following: 1. The prohibition of the sale of liquor to persons under 21 years of age.

2. The adoption of the Nova Scotia system of prohibiting drinking at bars, by which the present system in its present form may be practically abolished. 3. The giving of power to the electors in polling subdivisions, by a majority petition, to prevent the issue of licenses to take effect in such polling subdivisions. 4. The licensing and inspection of all hotels and eating houses, whether liquor is sold therein or not, so as to secure their efficient supervision.

An inquest was held yesterday at the Home for the Inebriate to inquire into the immediate cause of William Irwin's death. Irwin was the man who had been suffering from a severe attack of lupus, and died on his way to the Home. A verdict was found declaring that "William Irwin died of lupus, and was not a case of drunkenness." The evidence was not above what was taken place, we exonerate the hospital staff from all blame.

The sitting of the Criminal Assizes opened yesterday, Justice MacMahon presiding. There are five or six charges of felony, one of which is a charge of robbery, one of which is a charge of burglary, and one of which is a charge of larceny. The case of Queen vs. Creighton will come up after all the other cases on the docket have been disposed of.

Six young ladies arrived in the city yesterday by the C. P. R. from Victoria, B. C., en route for the Bradford Young Ladies' College.

Lydia McCallen, 319 Sumach street, fell on the ice yesterday and fractured her thigh. She was taken to the hospital.

The meeting of the City Council last night, Feb. 2, was a very interesting one, the following question being submitted to a vote of the duly qualified ratepayers at the earliest possible date: "At one way as a civil undertaking for a betterment or otherwise." A large batch of local improvement bylaws were passed through, the amount in all being $408,000.

I said that I had killed my wife by an accident on the night of the fire, dwelling upon the advantage to her of the death of the only woman who knew her secret.

"Her terror, and fear for my fate, led her to watch the rectory that evening. She saw the detective leave it, and followed him to my residence. This she told me hurriedly told me when I perceived her after digging my wife's grave in the plantation. She did not suspect what the sack contained."

"I now about to pass into my normal condition. For people are almost always in their graves. When we survey the long race of men, it is strange and still more strange to find that they are mainly dead men, who have scarcely been otherwise."

"Edward Maxwell."

The steward's confession, aided by circumstantial evidence of various kinds, was the means of freeing both Anne Seaway and Miss Aldelyffe from all suspicion of complicity with the murder.

A six o'clock, p.m.

It was evening—just at sunset—on the day of Maxton's death.

In the little cottage at Palschur was gathered a group consisting of Cythera, her brother, Edward Springrove, and his father. They sat by the window conversing on the strange events which had just taken place. In Cythera's eyes, there beamed a grateful ray, though her face was as white as a lily.

When they talked, looking out at the yellow evening light that coated the hedges, trees, and church tower, a hush came over them. It reflected the rays of the sun in a flash from its polished panels as it turned the angle, the spokes of the wheels bristling in the same light like bayonets. The vehicle came nearer, and arrived opposite Oswald's door, when the driver pulled the reins and gave a shout, and the panting and sweating horses stopped.

"Miss Aldelyffe's carriage," they all exclaimed.

Oswald went out. "Is Miss Graye at home?" said the man. "A note for her, and I am to wait for an answer."

Cythera read in the handwriting of the rector of Carriford.

DEAR MISS GRAYE.

"Miss Aldelyffe is ill, though not dangerously. She continually repeats your name, and now wishes very much to see you. If you possibly can, come in this evening."

Very sincerely yours,

JOHN RAUNHAM.

"How comes she ill?" Owen inquired of the coachman.

"She caught a violent cold by standing out of doors in the damp on the night of the murder, she complained of fullness and heat in the chest. This morning the maid ran in and told her that Maxton had killed himself in jail—she shrieked—broke a vessel—and fell upon the floor. Several internal hemorrhages continued for some time and then stopped. She said she was sure to get over it, but she herself says no. She has suffered it before."

Cythera was ready in a few moments, and entered the carriage.

A seven o'clock, p.m.

Soft as Cythera's motion along the corridor of Knapswater House, and preternatural keen intelligence of the suffering woman caught the maid's well-kept footfall. She entered the sick chamber with suspended breath.

In the room everything was so still, and sensation was as it were so rarefied by solitude, that thinking seemed acting, and wrestling with all the powers of the universe. Nobody was present except Mr. Raunham, the nurse having left the room surgeon being engaged in a whispering conversation in a side-chamber. Their patient had been pronounced out of danger.

Cythera went to the bedside, and was instantly recognized. On what a change—yet not a forbidding change. With weakness and some softness of aspect; the frailest countenance, and a sweeter mild placidity had taken its place.

Miss Aldelyffe signified to Mr. Raunham that she would like to be alone with her.

"Cythera," she faintly whispered, "instant the door was closed."

Cythera clasped the lady's weak hand, and sank beside her.

Miss Aldelyffe whispered again. "They say I am certain to live; but I know I am certainly going to die."

"They know, I think, and hope."

"I know best, but we'll leave that. Cythera—oh, Cythera, can you forgive me?" Her companion pressed her hand.

The average man would rather believe he is right and suffer than be convinced he is wrong.

Hair Magic

It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, cures pain, cures diarrhea and wind colic, always feverishness, destroys worms and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend. 25 doses, 35 cents.
