6 Autoists Recover Stolen Goods From Police

IDENTIFY MANY ACCESSORIES IN THIEVES' CACHE

Ailsa Craig Man Finds Articles Taken From Car Robbers Burned.

MUCH STILL MISSING

Wm. Blay Gets Five Tires Stripped From New Roadster in February.

The road of all automobile owners who have had tires or accessories stolen within the last six months led to the police station Friday night and Saturday morning.

Six motorists identified various articles that were recovered by the police Friday afternoon from premises in the east end of the city, secreted there by a young man of respectable family, whose name the detectives refuse to divulge. The man left the city Saturday last, and has not been seen since.

Twenty-three automobile tires of large size, accessories in quantities, and household goods, were discovered in three huge packing cases brought to the police station by detectives.

Mr. Clatworthy, Ailsa Craig, whose car was stolen on Dundas street, early in the spring, and set fire to on Oxford street east, identified a cowskin coat, sweater, gauntlets, handbag and a motor league emblem, as well as a radiator cover, which had been removed from the car before it was burned.

Roy Moore, 204 St. James street, identified a pair of plate glass wheels, taken from his car some time ago. Wm. Blay found five tires, which had been stripped from his new car on February 27. The car was found abandoned in the old Princess avenue school grounds the next day.

J. B. Tanton, 581 Waterloo street, identified a motor car, stolen from his automobile last August, and Clarence Hill discovered a tire stolen from his car while it was parked on the Hamilton road on Jan. 30.

C. W. Alfred is the latest of London's motorists to pick out his property at the police station. Mr. Alfred found a spotlight that had been stolen from his car two months ago.

Mrs. Fred Lawton, although recovering much linen, blankets, etc., stolen from their Port Stanley cottage during the winter, is still under a heavy loss in the way of furniture and other furnishings.

PROVINCIAL BODY TO BACK ORDER

Building Inspector Piper has not as yet notified the provincial housing commission of the decision of the local commission to have the roofs of the 42 Pine Lane houses relaid.

Mr. Piper will first secure from City Clerk Baker, a copy of the resolution passed by the local housing commission on Thursday night, and will then forward a copy of it to Toronto.

By the terms of the resolution City Clerk Baker will be asked to enforce the order, and that body in turn will undoubtedly ask Mr. Piper to see that the work is done according to the specifications.

Petrolia Farmer Chuckles As False Friend Is Jailed

Special to London Advertiser.

SARNIA, Ont., May 13.—Not many weeks ago, Camille Conserrie, a Belgian, set out gaily into the world on a great adventure, taking with him his countryman's wife, child and money. So sure was Camille of his ground that he could not help but tell the friend he had betrayed all about it, and so he wrote him a taunting letter, telling him to return to Belgium, for he would never find the artful Camille.

However, the world was not quite as large as the eloper thought, for the pair were arrested in Toronto and brought to Sarnia to stand trial.

Conserrie, after being convicted of a charge of stealing $250 from Albert Varconterens, was sentenced to six months in the Ontario Reformatory.

Marie, his friend's wife, who had fled with him, pleaded guilty to the same offence, but was allowed out on suspended sentence.

Varconterens, the victim, is now rejoicing, for the letter sent to him was the means of earning a jail sentence for Conserrie.

Varconterens, the industrious little Belgian beet farmer, is back in his home in Enniskillen Township, his wife and child restored to him.

And he chuckles triumphantly as he reads the following letter from the man who is now paying for his folly:

Petrolia, March 30.
Friend Al.—Let you know I cannot wait no longer to write you a few lines, and I say you must not think bad about the boy. I will do what I can for him. Me and Marie we can't help loving each other. Albert, you must not think that the baby will not have good care, and if it is possible we will do all we can for Madeline. You must not think to follow me. There ain't man knows where we are or will either, and you don't have to be mad because I took all the money. I have to go and hunt for a place yet and you have one. I end my letter now, and if I was in your place I would go to Belgium, and I hope you make the best of it, and take care of the old man. Good-bye for ever.

PREDICTS $5,000 SCHOOL SURPLUS

Secretary Tanner Thinks Final Report On Collegiate Will Show Balance.

Construction Company Ignores Warning To Remove Dirt From Grounds.

It is the opinion of W. A. Tanner, secretary of the board of education, that a surplus of possibly $5,000 will be shown, in lieu of an overdraft of $22,000, when the final report is made respecting the construction and equipment of the new Collegiate Institute.

A special itemized account of the same, asked by Trustee A. E. Silverwood, chairman of the Collegiate Institute committee, and prepared by City Treasurer James Bell, is now in the secretary's possession, and will be presented for consideration at a special meeting of that group on Monday next at 3:30 p.m.

At the last general session of the board a request was made for another debenture issue for $25,000 to liquidate the debt, the claim being advanced by certain of the educational authorities that both the building and equipment accounts had been overdrawn.

Treasurer Bell now claims otherwise, although he states that he cannot advise as to accounts that may not have reached his office.

Secretary Tanner explained on Saturday that several accounts had been held back for presentation since the report had been made that there were no funds available. Since receiving the treasurer's reassuring report, however, he states that these have been forwarded to the city office for payment. He estimates that probably $1,000 will clear all such items.

In addition to this there are several minor undertakings which the trustees contemplate—the adding of the grounds, the placing of the bronze tablets, etc.—all of which he believes can be accomplished with a comfortable surplus remaining, possibly $5,000.

Although the Kingston Construction Company has until Monday night to remove all dirt and clear up generally the Collegiate ground, the school architect reported on Saturday morning that no move has been made by the contractors, despite the fact that they have been duly warned.

Sunday Is Mother's Day So Honor Her At Church

By RUSSELL F. BOYD.

AFFECTION for mother is an instinct. Reverence for mother is something that civilization has given us. It is easily the finest of man's finer sensibilities.

A man's mother is his one ideal that nothing can destroy. Equally indestructible is a mother's love for son or daughter. The person never lived who, at the close of life, did not look back and recognize his mother as his greatest friend.

Mother love symbolizes eternity and the soul's foundation of our civilization. It is the foundation of our civilization, the force that gradually elevates us to higher ideals and achievements.

Life would be futile and discouraging if its harsher lights were not melted by the mother love that guides us through childhood into maturity and on through life.

The debt we owe our mothers is something that cannot be repaid except in the golden coin of gratitude and remembrance.

Sunday is Mother's Day. It is a day when sons and daughters should give mother a thought, whether she be living or gone to her reward. Undoubtedly the best way to honor her is by going to church. If she is living, take her with you.

On Mother's Day it is customary to wear a flower in honor of the best friend man ever had. If mother is living a colored flower should be worn, and if she is dead a white one.

Remember to keep hallowed your memory at all times of the mother that started you on the road to success. Mother sacrificed her all for you. Would it not be fitting for you to sacrifice a little of your time Sunday and go to church?

When you were a curly-haired little tot at your mother's knee, and she used to tuck you into your cot every night, you thought there was no one else in the world but mother. Later in life, when you probably drifted into a distant city, and your friends were those you made, you had so much on your mind you probably forgot mother for a time. But there came a day when you fell sick and missed the ministering hand of mother.

LABOR FORMS NEW CITY ORGANIZATION

Party Forms Second Branch For Individuals in Sympathy With Movement.

In regular session at the Labor Temple Friday, local members of the Canadian Labor Party organized a second branch, to which may now affiliate individuals in sympathy with the movement, who are not at the present moment members of any trades union or political body.

Provisional officers were elected, and the secretary directed to make immediate application for a charter to the central body in Toronto.

The gathering was quite enthusiastic over the latter's report that he had a substantial list of prospective members who had already signified their intention of becoming identified with the local labor political movement.

Addresses were delivered by William Stewart, secretary, and Arthur Mould, the party's delegate at the recent Stratford convention, and at the I. L. P. convention at Hamilton.

The following officers were elected: President, Frank McKay; vice-president, A. Vinen; secretary, William Sharnan; treasurer, William Bernard.

A meeting of the executive was held following the regular session, when the street railway situation was briefly discussed. Upon the advice of John Colbert, president of the Street Railwaymen's Union, it was decided not to send a deputation to Toronto to protest against the passage of the company's private bill for an increased fare.

The new party will hold its first regular meeting two weeks hence, with the new officers in charge.

Victoria People Vote 5 To 1 Against Enforcement Of Blue Sunday

VICTORIA, B. C., May 13.—By an overwhelming vote, Victoria ratepayers today voted against the rigid enforcement of the Lord's Day act as recently proposed by the Victoria police commission. When the citizens and storekeepers declined to observe the order of the commission a plebiscite on the subject was ordered, with the above result.

Leaders of the Lord's Day Alliance, including Rev. Dr. Rochester, the general secretary, have declined to recognize the legality of the local plebiscite, and the outcome of the matter is still in doubt. The vote, however, is said to be almost five to one against the Lord's Day act as interpreted by the police commission.

LEADERS SEEK BINDING TRUCE TO AVERT WAR

Genoa Sub-Commission Considers Soviet Reply to Allied Memorandum.

WANT PARLEY ENDED

France and Little Entente Oppose Discussion of Frontier Disputes.

BULLETIN.

PARIS, May 13.—The French delegation will remain at Genoa to take part in deliberations on other questions put before the convention, although it will have nothing more to do with discussions with the Russians, it was said at the foreign office this morning. As far as the Russian problem is concerned, the conference is considered by the French Government at an end.

Genoa, May 13.—The sub-commission on Russian affairs of the Genoa conference met this morning to consider the soviet reply to the allied memorandum outlining the conditions on which the powers would undertake the reconstruction of Russia.

While the Russian note has virtually disrupted the program of the conference, and it appears that a general agreement with the Russians at the present meeting is improbable, a commission may be formed to investigate such questions as credits, debts, and the treatment of foreign private property in Russia with the hope that something genuinely constructive can be accomplished.

The first battle has been indecisive. Where a collective agreement with Bolshevism has failed for the time being there are many who profess belief that individual agreements with soviet Russia may succeed, each country offering credits to Russia by offering credits to the hungry soviet government, which is clamoring for gold.

While the pessimists are proclaiming the Genoa congress dead, and saying that for decency's sake it will be given a ceremonial burial, Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain, alarmed at the political crises in Europe, is with the other leaders striving to create a binding truce which will prevent new schemes and put off the dangers of war. He hopes that such a truce, with the proposed commission of inquiry into Russia's problems, will prove constructively helpful in maintaining peace in Europe and gradually bringing about her economic reconstruction.

The tendency is to obtain an adjournment of the conference as soon as possible after settling upon general principles with Russia and appointing the Russian commission of inquiry. Poland and the little entente, it is noted, are opposed to a discussion of frontier disputes in a conference where neutrals and representatives of the belligerents are present.

SEARCH PARTY COMBS COUNTRY SEEKING TRACE

FOLLOWS MOTHER'S VISIT

Mrs. Willis' Efforts To Keep in Touch With Scattered Family Futile.

Mystery today surrounds the disappearance of Eddie Willis, 16 years old, who in April disappeared from his foster home, a couple of miles out of Parkhill. Not a trace of him has been found since, though police throughout the country have been asked to keep an eye open for him.

Fearing that harm may have come to him, his foster parent, a Mr. Walker, organized a searching party and scoured the whole countryside in the vicinity of Parkhill, but without avail.

Out of the story of the boy's disappearance comes a rather touching story of deep mother love which, despite the passing of years, ever remained strong to the fore.

Eleven Years Ago.
It was eleven years ago that the Henry Willis family of Thamesford encountered rocks and shoals. There were five children. The Woodstock children's Aid Society stepped in and took charge of the little ones. Three of them they placed in foster homes and two came to London.

One of the latter was Eddie, then aged five, and five years ago he was placed in the foster home at Parkhill.

Ever since the children were taken from Mrs. Willis has made a strong effort to keep in touch with her children. In this she was discouraged by the Children's Aid officials. They did not consider it in the best interest of the children that the mother should be in touch with them.

It made the children dissatisfied and harder to manage. Besides the Willis home conditions had not reached the stage of improvement that made it desirable to return the children there.

Not Discouraged.
The mother was not discouraged, however, and since 1911 she has kept constantly trying to locate and get in touch with her children.

The five, all boys, were scattered at various parts, so she had no easy task. Her mother-love seemingly overcame any trend to discouragement, however, and not long ago she succeeded in locating Eddie at Park Hill.

It was not long after that the lad disappeared.

Now the mother has appealed to The Advertiser to try and locate the boy for her.

Inspector Kelly, of the Children's Aid, is completely at sea as to the whereabouts of the boy. He says that the Foster home was ideal, and the foster parent is a man who has done more for orphaned lads than any other man outside those actually engaged in Children's Aid work.

Mr. Kelly believes that the expected has happened. As soon as the mother got in touch with the boy, it made him dissatisfied to do, and told the mother we would do, was to keep the boy until he got to the point where he would have been over his pranks days. Then we would have put her in touch with him and he would have been a real pleasure to her," said Mr. Kelly.

CONSIDER WORLD TRADE GROWTH

London, May 13.—(Canadian Press Cable).—An Australian conference of representatives of the preserved fruit industries is being held at Melbourne. The object of the conference is to consider methods of extending the overseas markets. It has been decided to press the federal government to renew negotiations for a preference in Great Britain and for support of the efforts to develop trade with the east.

Rats Flee Before High Tide At Quebec

QUEBEC, May 13.—Quebec is having its highest tide of the year today, and some places in the lower town waves are rolling over the wharves chasing before them swarms of rats that were being ferried out of their abodes by the high water. The water has flooded some of the dock sheds and there is considerable damage reported.

"FIRST OF SEASON" MAKES INITIAL BOW AS MAY 24 DRAWS NIGH!

BY RUSSELL F. BOYD.

MEN'S straw hats elicit more comment than any other type of headgear.

When they are donned on Victoria Day, May 24, unkind remarks will be passed about them. But when autumn comes, it will not be said that the cap or fedora are coming into their own, but rather that the season of the straw hat is drawing to a close. Everybody talks straw.

If it's a windy day, and one's hat blows off, the spectators enjoy your little embarrassment better. If the headgear is of straw, to the general public there is something comical about a straw hat rolling across the pavement with its irate owner in hot pursuit. If a soft hat breaks away, it only draws forth an odd smile here and there, for it cannot cut capers like the stiff-jointed straw.

When the leaves adorn London's trees and the warm sun forces man to forsake his overcoat, then all thoughts are centered on the straw. And all eyes watch for the "first of the season" on Dundas street. When the average man does it, he generally passes a remark at the expense of

However, en route to work, he passes some of the owners of the "just arrived" stock, and makes a mental comparison. In a moment, his mind is made up. "It can't be done," he decides, and to the hatter's he wends his way to acquire a new "lid" and, incidentally, to recover his lost dignity. In August, the same new hat has the appearance of one discarded, but reverently Mr. Man refuses to part with it. There's something snappy and chic about a straw. When the manager sits in an office chair on a hot summer day and applicants for work file in and out, to whom does he pay the most attention? Not the man with the sun-faded fedora! It's the man who bounces in, and creates a cool, gentle zephyr as he deftly doffs his hat, who receives the most consideration.

the wearer, but just the same, he's mighty glad that someone has sufficient courage to be odd rather than uncomfortable.

As soon as the ground has been broken, Mr. Man remembers that he has one of last year's vintage, and the average man does it, he generally passes a remark at the expense of

BACONIANS OF LONDON HONOR PATRON OF CLUB

Organization Holds 38th Annual Banquet At Tecumseh House.

BRILLIANT ADDRESSES

John M. Gunn Reviews History of Society For Past 21 Years.

Though the controversies that have waged around him be forgotten, yet to cherish even in the twentieth century the ideals of their "patron saint or sinner, as you will," London's oldest literary coterie and debating society, the Baconian Club, gathered at the Tecumseh House Friday night, where at their thirty-eighth annual banquet, "they kept green the memory of the patron, Lord Chancellor Bacon."

And after all had become "happy and contented," even to the finest degree of exemplification of the epigram of Jerome K. Jerome that appeared on the front page of the menu—"people who have tried it, tell me that a clear conscience makes you very happy and contented; but a full stomach does the business quite as well, and is cheaper and more easily obtained"—the successive announcement of "We have with us tonight" brought a series of brilliant speeches from the following speakers: President, N. C. Hart, E. W. Grange, Right Rev. Monseigneur Denis O'Connor, Col. the Rev. William Beattie, Rev. Father Tobin, Dr. J. D. Barnett, John M. Gunn, Professor A. G. Dorland, and A. R. Ford.

The first toast after that to the King was "To the Baconian Club," which, according to the best and long-cherished traditions of the club, was responded to by the president, N. C. Hart. The vice-president introduced the speakers, again there being no trespass on tradition.

Introduces President. E. W. Grange, in introducing the president, spoke of the club as a "great national institution." The president himself declared in response to the toast, that since his membership only dated three years back he could not state that the club was the best in the history of the club, yet he could say that it was the best of the last three years.

The club consists largely of members who are the very diligent servants of humanity, the overworked and underpaid class, said the president, the lawyers, overpaid and underworked teachers, and those of the temperamental professions, doctors, jewelers, and so on.

It had been a successful year, thirteen meetings had been held, several debates and a great deal of reading had been done, said the president, but he was of the opinion that the debating should be more developed in the future, and he hoped that the "club would continue to flourish, and be the one and only club in London."

The next toast was to Bacon himself and was responded to by E. W. Grange, the vice-president. He would not question the political morality of Bacon or delve into the controversies that had been waged about him, as to whether he was Shakespeare or not, but would speak of him, he said, as the pioneer of "reasoned learning."

Mr. Grange quoted from Bacon's essay on discourse, in which he had said that in just all discussion of religion or politics, or any case that deserved pity should be eliminated, which latter, he said, precluded "any member saying anything about what I am saying now."

With Rare Foresight. With rare foresight Bacon had depicted the causes of political troubles, even as they are today, in his writings on political philosophy; had shown how man got into office and the troubles and seditions that beset them, once there; the same trouble that today beset cabinet ministers, said the vice-president.

Major T. J. Murphy introduced

Monseigneur O'Connor after the toast to "our guests" had been indulged in. He announced him as the vicar-general of London diocese, and the principal of St. Peter's Seminary, who lived a retired life.

Because he was a priest, said the speaker, he had thought it would almost be necessary for him to speak on some doctrinal matter, but finding the constitution of the club excluded these, he had chosen something, a subject that was in "contiguous waters," namely, "What is Truth?"

"There is, gentlemen, a class of men for whom you and I have a real sympathy, and they include, believers, nostics and agnostics. In this class are those who are not ready to accept dogmatic Christianity," he said.

They maintain, he went on, that truth is not discoverable; that it dwells deep in a well or high in the clouds that there is more happiness in seeking than in finding; that truth is a reclus; that truth is esoteric and hidden behind curtains.

Pontius Pilate, nineteen hundred years ago, had asked the same question, "What is truth?" when he did not want to crucify Jesus, when he stood before Him, and men asked the same question today.

"I have the truth when my intellectual convictions square with eternal realities. Truth is as much a necessity for the plain man as for the child, and if God is love He must have made it as accessible to the child as to the wise man," that said Monseigneur O'Connor is my comment on the rhetorical question of Pontius Pilate.

Did Not Know Truth. Pilate did not know that truth in itself, that truth personified stood before him, and the same phenomena is being repeated today, and truth as Christ has been, "stood before the bar of the world, jeered at by a mob, and with only a few friends weeping in corners, truth that was accessible to the child as to the sage," concluded Monseigneur O'Connor.

The topic chosen by Col. the Rev. Wm. Beattie, D.D., C.M.G., was "The Lingering Laughter." He went over the various kinds of laughter, of undesignated humor, the humor of accident and incident, but he said the lingering laugh was the laugh of the happy heart. "Though life has its serious moments, there is room for imagination in it, and Jesus Christ, who bore the greatest burdens that any being had ever borne, said, 'Be of good cheer, and let not your hearts be troubled.'"

Rev. Father Tobin, of St. Thomas, spoke next, and was introduced by Major Murphy. It was a great pleasure for him to have attended Baconian Club banquets in the past, and he hoped that he would be able to attend them in the future, though he regretted that because he was forced to leave to catch his train, his remarks would have to be short.

Dr. Barnett, of Western University, who spoke on "Parodies," was introduced by Dr. Tambling, also of the Western University. He had found it hard to locate any parodies on Bacon, but had found one or two on Bacon's "Seven Ages of Man."

These and numerous other parodies on classics of literature were read by Dr. Barnett.

At this point, according to the traditions of the club, the president relinquished his duties as chairman and toastmaster, and the vice-president took charge.

Spoke On Hobbies. John M. Gunn, before going into his subject, "Hobbies," reviewed the 21 years he had attended Baconian Club banquets. In the last nineteen years no member of the club had died, which he thought was a worthy record.

If a man cultivate a rational, sensible, hobby, he can entertain himself when he becomes old. Usually most people were collectors. Some collected dollars and cents, and some just naturally collected creditors.

It was open to modern man to choose the hobby he wished—radio-telephone, gardening, poetry or literature—but the best hobby was the one that was not cultivated for selfish gratification, but which rendered service, declared Mr. Gunn.

Prof. A. G. Dorland spoke next on "Public Speaking." Debating societies, such as the Baconian Club, were a channel into which the efforts of those who were afflicted with the disease of public utterance could be directed, efforts which otherwise might become a public menace.

A. R. Ford was the last speaker and spoke on "Libel."

During the evening songs from the following soloists were given: Charles Burnett sang "My Friend" and "I Hear You Calling Me"; E. S. Crawford sang "The Two Grenadiers"; Donald Payne sang "Shipmates of Mine" and "Drake Goes West"; Gordon Knapp sang "In the Dungeon Deep" and "Young Tom o' Devon."

SUNDAY MOTHER'S DAY AT CHURCHES

mother. Then your thoughts turned back to the little home you had left, and once again the flame of love for mother burned within you.

Mothers' Day is not a day to be marked by the mere wearing of a flower. It is a day for clean thought, the acquiring of nobler ideals and the harboring of tender memories.

On Mothers' Day one should be just a little finer man or woman. And why not make every day Mothers' Day? Such a movement would surely make this world a better place.

CHARGED WITH DEATH IN BRAWL. Montreal, May 13.—Armand Lavere, aged 26, was yesterday committed for trial on a charge of having caused the death of Sam Mansell on April 3 by striking him with his fist, causing him to fall on the sidewalk outside a barroom on Craig street. Mansell died shortly afterward.

Keeping the Roof On

Would you consider that a man exercised good judgment if he used the roof of his house for fuel to keep it warm? "Nobody would do a thing like that," you say. Perhaps not, but men do things equally absurd. For example, widows are left without an income sufficient to purchase the necessities of life. In order to live, these unfortunates must spend each year all the interest and part of the principal of the estate left them by their husbands. Each year sees a reduction in Revenue through this sacrifice of principal. In other words, they burn the roof to keep warm only to face the terrible day when they will have neither fuel nor shelter. You do not want this to happen to YOUR loved ones if you are called away! It need not happen. It is in your power to prevent any such misfortune from occurring. How would it be to figure out exactly what their necessities would be if they were left alone? We have prepared a table which will enable you to ascertain your monthly expenses and probable income. The figures are confidential, as you retain the chart. A copy is yours for the asking. Write to-day.

Eye Strain

Nothing so certainly breaks down the nervous system as constant straining of the eyes.

You may think that sewing is light work, and wonder why it tires you.

It is the strain on the eyes.

The controlling of the sight is the most delicate work of the nervous system, and when there is strain on the eyes there is an enormous waste of nervous energy.

There are times when it seems necessary to stick at this work for long hours and to sew by artificial light, but you may have to pay for it by a nervous breakdown.

It is then well to know about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a means of restoring a run-down nervous system.

Whatever may be the cause of your nervous breakdown, it has been demonstrated in many thousands of cases that there is nothing like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to restore the depleted nerve cells.

Headaches, tired feelings, sleeplessness, indigestion, lack of energy and appetite are some of the indications of an exhausted condition of the nerves.

Your digestive system is failing to supply the necessary nutrition to the blood and nerves, so it becomes necessary to employ such restorative treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

MODERN DANCE IS CONDEMNED

C. S. E. T. Boys Told Not To Permit Name "Jazz Hounds."

Taylor Statten Declares
Dance Big Factor in the National Character.

In his condemnation of the present day dance, Taylor Statten, national executive secretary of C. S. E. T. work for Canada, declared before more than 500 boys in the "Y" on Friday night: "Don't let anyone point their finger at you and say, 'There goes a jazz hound.'"

The occasion was the closing supper of the C. S. E. T. boys in the city. The new boys council was also duly sworn in by City Clerk Baker, and prizes and shields were awarded for the national athletic meet, boys' week, and the Tuxis and Trail Ranger championships of the city.

"Dancing has a very great bearing on national character, and in the United States last year more than 65,000 girls disappeared. And in the majority of cases their downfall was attributed to jazz dancing."

Mr. Statten urged the lads, as Tuxis and Trail Ranger boys, to live up to the fourfold ideal of life, symbolized by the four H's—the head, the heart, the hand and the health.

Supper served at 6:30, and was followed by a sing-song. Then the new chairman of the Boys' Work Board, A. R. Kennedy, and the executive were introduced. Mr. Kennedy gave a short address, in which he explained the work done by the board. Millard Grant proposed a toast to Taylor Statten and the C. S. E. T. The toast was responded to by Taylor Statten.

The Pirates are the champion Tuxis group of the season and were presented with the Kiwanis Shield by Wm. Christianson, who also presented the Rotarian Shield to the Knox Wingfoots for obtaining the highest honors amongst the Trail Ranger pennants.

The other presentations were: The hockey shield to the Junior St. Matthews by George Wesley; the basketball shields, junior to the Wingfoots, and senior to the Pirates; the Gordon Cummings, a pennant in their series and a shield to the Estimers of St. Paul's.

President Officers. Ed. Reid, newly-elected president of the Y. M. C. A., presented the Tuxis all-around efficiency cup to the Ahmicks, and the Trail Ranger all-around efficiency medals were awarded to J. Manuel and E. Hadfield by the donor, Stanley Howard. The T. R. "Y" efficiency cup was won by the Wingfoots, and the Tuxis efficiency pennant by the Hawks. The amateur photography prizes were awarded to Reg. Warner and George Winder.

The Simcoe street school, indoor champions of Boys' Week, were presented with a shield, and individual shields were given to 12 boys who won the 12 events. For the three best all-around athletes, the four events three prizes were awarded. The individual winners of the three boys were:

Parks Department Takes Federal Square Under Its Wing For Shave

GRASS-CUTTING on London's federal square commenced with a vengeance Saturday morning and E. V. Buchanan, general manager of the public utilities commission, directed attention to the claim that this is being undertaken by the members of the parks department, acting upon their own initiative.

"It is not our duty," explained the general manager, "but we are doing it anyway. If we did not, it is unlikely that anyone else would. The federal square, as far as we are concerned, is still private property."

When the grass is cut and neatly trimmed, and the square presents a satisfactory appearance, all the benches will then be placed in position, he says.

FIRST MEETING OF YEAR IS HELD

The May meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Ridout Street Methodist Church was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Bickell, 59 Windsor Ave., on Thursday, Mrs. Griffin, first vice-president, conducted the business of the first meeting of the new church year.

The reports of last year were given, showing a very prosperous year. The society sent to the branch treasury $156, a pleasing feature being the enrollment of four new members, after which a pleasant half hour was spent over the tuncups.

FIRST METHODIST PASTOR
ASSUMES PULPIT IN JULY

Meeting Shows Much Progress Made in Missionary Endeavor and Religious Education.

Reports given from the various departments at the final meeting of the official quarterly board of the First Methodist Church Friday evening indicated all to be making most excellent progress along all lines, particularly those of missionary endeavor and religious education.

Rev. E. W. Jewitt, who has been in charge of the department of religious education, was asked to remain for another year, in order that there might be no interruption in his successful work.

A resolution of sympathy is to be sent to the secretary, Rev. N. D. Drew, who has been in ill health for some time past, with an accompanying honorarium of $50.

Rev. J. Franklin Reade of Goderich, who is expected to commence the first Sunday in July.

Standing committees for the year were re-elected as follows: Church music, Dr. F. R. Eccles (honorary); Dr. Colin Smith, A. E. Barbour, W. H. Yendall, F. E. Harley and E. W. Cairns; Finance, E. Watson, A. W. McFarland, Geo. F. Brickenden, T. A. McFarland, Chas. Glass, F. E. Harley, W. P. Young and J. H. Chapman.

EVICION ORDER IS NOT YET RECEIVED

The situation at the county building, pertaining to Miss Minnie Harris, remains unchanged. The former assistant matron still held the fort Saturday morning, apparently patiently awaiting developments and the advice of her counsel, Sheriff Donald J. Graham, issued his daily order: "Nothing doing yet."

The letter explained Saturday, however, that as yet he had not received the necessary court order from the county judge that would empower him to order the immediate removal of her goods and chattels from the court-house.

Miss Harris stated that she had no intention of leaving at the moment and is awaiting a conference with her attorney, John M. McEvoy, K. C.

3 FOUND GUILTY
IN ASSAULT CASE

Mrs. Wm. Taylor Fined $25.
Mr. Taylor and Frank Atwood Remanded.

Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor and Frank Atwood were found guilty in police court Saturday morning of assaulting William Walsh with intent to do actual bodily harm on Thursday night last. Mrs. Taylor was fined $25 and costs, while the two men were remanded till May 17 for sentence.

Walsh, in the witness-box, stated that he was walking home on Oxford street west, when he heard footsteps behind him. Taylor walked up in front of him and wanted to talk, but Walsh refused to have any conversation with him.

"I was on top of Taylor and Atwood grabbed me by the legs and threw me over, kicking me in the ribs as he did so," continued the witness, a gray-haired man, who finally managed to get his back against a nearby fence.

"They were going to throw me in the Evoy's office and make me withdraw a case I had against them in division court. Mr. Jeffries came up and they stopped."

Questioned by J. M. Donahue, counsel for defence, Walsh admitted getting a letter from the late crown attorney, J. B. McKillop, requesting Walsh to stop annoying Mrs. Taylor, at whose home he had previously boarded.

Dr. H. E. Arkell told of dressing wounds on Walsh's head.

F. Jeffries told of arriving on the scene of action and finding Walsh beaten up.

TEMPLARS FETE
STRATFORD MEN

Red Cross Degree Exemplified by Visitors in Masonic Temple.

A number of the most prominent men in Stratford Masonic circles were the honored guests of the Richard Templar in the Masonic Temple on Friday evening. All the officers of the St. Elmo Preceptory in Stratford and many other knights were given the key of the local preceptory.

Day evening were fete and honored by their London brethren. The Red Cross degree was exemplified by the visiting knights, after which a banquet was given in their honor.

Sir Knight N. P. Walsh, the presiding preceptor, acted as chairman at the banquet, and many were the toasts that were proposed to the glorious order, which still retains and cherishes the memory of the time when the knights of old gave their lives in capturing the Holy Land from the infidels.

The visiting knights and officers from Stratford included: Rt. Em. Sir Knight D. M. Scott, presiding preceptor of the St. Elmo Preceptory; Sir Knight B. C. Atkins, constable; Sir Knight T. A. Stevens, chaplain; Rt. Em. Sir Knight John Stevenson, registrar; Very Em. Sir Knight W. G. Irwin; Sir Knight D. M. McCallum, marshal; Sir Knight H. Peacock, sub-marshal; Sir Knight H. Demore, captain of the guard; and Sir Knights H. J. Clarke, W. Wilson, J. Gourlay, W. W. Ball and S. S. Cook.

Other visitors included: Most Em. Sir Knight A. A. Campbell, past supreme grand master; Sir Knights R. Reid and W. Reid of Woodstock; Sir Knight H. McDougall of Brantford; and Sir Knight T. Corbett of Halifax, Nova Scotia.

The Mystic Shrine Orchestra of Mocha Temple entertained at the banquet with an excellent musical program.

City Revision Court To Define Meaning of "Partner"

Relates to Annex Income Tax.

Is a shareholder a partner within the meaning of the assessment act?

Monday night, the court of revision is to face the above problem as it relates to annex income taxes. The decision will have an important bearing on the question brought up by Ald. Douglass in regard to incomes being assessed at the 15-mill rate instead of at a regular rate.

The whole problem was raised by the alderman will not be decided if a decision is given, but, nevertheless, it will have an important bearing on at least a part of his contentions. More important, however, will the decision be if the appellant wins, as it will have a serious effect on the revenue which the city may get in 1923 from income taxation.

Ald. Douglass has contended that incomes in the annex do not come under the annex agreement, and are, therefore, liable for the full tax rate. The problem was sent to the city solicitor for his opinion, and in the meantime the city assessor's department set about to increase the revenue from income taxes to the fullest extent possible by changing the place of assessment.

Many residents of the city proper are assessed at their place of business in the annex, with the result that they paid income taxes at the rate of 15 mills.

Section 1 of 12 of the assessment act allows assessment at place of business or residence, subject only to subsection 4 of section 40.

The assessment department took advantage of this changed assessment for income from business offices to residences, and this action has brought about an appeal, the contention being that a partner is involved, and he, therefore, must be assessed at his place of business.

This would bring them under subsection 2 of section 12 of the assessment act, which states the income of a partnership or an incorporated company shall be assessed against them at their place of business, subject also as is subsection 1 to section 6 of 40.

It is being contended by Ald. Douglass that all incomes are assessable against the individual, and shall be assessed under section 1 of 12, but there are exceptions to this—subsection 1 of 14 and 6 of 40. The former relates to telephone companies, and provides how they shall be assessed, and the latter shall be assessed as earned in the municipality; the second, to mines, oil and gas wells, of which there are none in London.

The questions to be decided on the matter are: Is a stockholder a partner? Is a stockholder a partner in 29 concerns, is he to be assessed individually at each?

If a man holds stock in a concern in the city proper and stock in the annex, can he have his whole income assessed in the annex at 15 mills? If individuals itemize the stock held, but do not designate where held, thus as matters size up the problem for the court of revision promises to be a knotty one if the appeal against assessment in the city as against the annex is pressed.

By the new amendments the men who formerly benefited by the time-and-a-half pay for overtime will now receive straight time.

The chief bone of contention between the car workers and the company is the claim by the latter that they should forfeit time-and-a-half pay for Sundays and holidays.

COUNCIL TO DECIDE ON FEDERAL SQUARE PROBLEM

Finance Committee Will Present Recommendations Monday Night.

The city council on Monday night will be asked to pass upon the proposal to either sell or lease the Federal Square property and to erect a civic office block on the site of the present city hall.

The recommendation which will be presented to the council by the finance committee will embody Ald. Ashplant's proposal that the Federal Square property be rented on long term leases, as against the commission of the city to sell the property.

Opinions seem to have switched around again, and it is predicted that the majority will favor the selling of the land.

At the council meeting Mayor Cameron Wilson will name the transportation committee of the city's transit problem. The event of Dr. H. A. Stevenson's rider to the London Street Railway bill being accepted by the legislature will be precipitate matters, however, and bring about an immediate decision by the people on the question of street railway purchase.

CHICAGO FEUDISTS
USE SHOTGUNS

Chicago, May 13.—Two men armed with shotguns today walked into a barber shop in the north side of Chicago, and opened fire without warning, killing the proprietor and a man who was being shaved. The slayers escaped.

Romeo has officially arrived on Springfield hill and residents of the vicinity know it is time to toss their winter underwear into the mothball bag.

Romeo, he it known, is a huge black bass, who has cavorted round the old reservoir on Springfield hill for the past 26 years.

When he was about the size of a sardine and has waxed and grown fat on any dare-devil worms and bugs who were bold enough to try their luck in London's drinking water.

Romeo made his appearance late Friday afternoon after spending the winter at the bottom of the sea. The reservoir, is just naturally tickled to death to see his old friend, alive and hearty.

The big fish is quite friendly, especially with Mr. McCann, who gains his attention by tapping the stones at the edge of the reservoir. Romeo then wiggles his way to the edge of the water and waits patiently for a nice fat worm to be tossed to him.

With the advent of Romeo, Mr. McCann is busy rousing up the faces of Romeo's two wives, Hazel and Katy. The two ladies, who are decoy ducks, have made their husband happy for the past two years. Hazel was the first to take the water, and Katy took the fish marriage vows two weeks later.

"Romeo is just as 'snappy' as ever," commented Mr. McCann, Friday afternoon, as he watched his "dreadnought" pal do "figure eights" near the edge of the reservoir, Friday afternoon. "He measured 21½ inches in length when we measured him four years ago. I don't know what I would do without my old friend Romeo."

STUDENTS REPEAT

Stages "Obstinacy" At Public Reception.

London Collegiate Society

"Obstinacy," the eminently successful play given for the first time by students of the Collegiate Institute at a meeting of the Literary society a short time ago, was repeated Friday evening in the school auditorium, and met with a cordial reception from the public, as enthusiastic as that which marked its first reception from students only.

The same clever players, Sybil Higman, Kathleen England, Helen Clark, Wesley Morris, Hiles Hemmings, Dick Bowen, who took part in the first presentation of "Obstinacy," made up the cast.

In addition to the play, an excellent program was given, and consisted of the following numbers: A song by Cleota Barnett, violin solos by Lillian Sparling and Frank Kennedy, and selections by the school glee club under the direction of C. E. Wheeler, and the collegiate orchestra, led by Major Slater.

The presentation of a number of crests and medals formed a happy feature of the evening. Mary Mercer and J. H. Cameron officiated at the pleasing ceremony.

The senior girls' championship medal donated by Edwin Smith went to Constance Stothers; junior championship, donated by Mrs. John I. A. Hunt, to Clara Barbour; the senior boys' championship, donated by A. E. Silverwood, to Ward Casselman, and the junior boys' championship, donated by Ward Casselman, to Ken Hunter.

School crests to those who represented the school in tennis, hockey and basketball were presented to the following: Girls, tennis, Olga Miller, Helen Ross, Helen Rowland, Marion Hayden, Marion Hart, Marion Drew, and Evelyn Hardy. Boys, hockey, Harvey Adair, George Sessions, Theo. Crittle, Ted Johnston, Ken Ross, George Mitchell, Jack Wilkins, Ben Bryant, Charlie Barber and F. Moylan. Boys' basketball, Wilford, Albert Lawrence, Tom Wilford, Reg. Beard, Harold Newell, Bill Wankless, Chas. Barber, Ben Winkson and M. Wesman. Tennis, Dave McLean.

George McCracken, president of the Literary society, acted as chairman.

REPORT SUCCESSFUL YEAR
AT ROBINSON MEMORIAL

London Methodist Church Congregation Elects Officers at Annual Meeting.

The annual congregational meeting of the members of the George Robinson Memorial Methodist Church was held last Wednesday evening. All organizations gave a report of the work of the past year and showed that the church had made remarkable progress. The membership has increased materially, and the church has received better financial support than in any previous year of its history, approximately $10,000 being raised for all purposes.

The report of the Epworth League was an outstanding one. In membership, attendance and contributions it far exceeded previous years. The Ladies' Aid deserves special mention with its contributions of over $1,000. Approximately $1,000 was contributed to missions by the congregation.

Officers reported for the coming year were: R. T. Harding, Sunday school superintendent; Jack Ball, president of the Epworth League; Mrs. McVicar, president of the Ladies' Aid; Mrs. W. F. Marshall, president of the W. M. S. S. (Dr. J. A. Circle); Theodore Gray, organist and choir-master; and John Francis, church treasurer.

The pastor, Rev. W. L. Hiles, was invited some time ago, to remain another year, by a unanimous vote of the board.

STORE PERMITS
NOT YET ISSUED

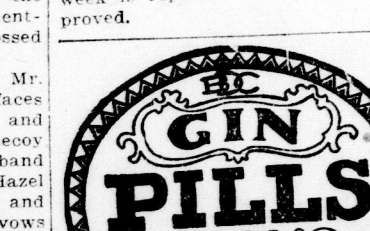

Though approved by the board of works on Tuesday night last, the permits for the Charlton Grocery, the London Pure Gasoline Station, Dundas street, have not been issued.

It is understood that Ald. Holmes, of the town planning commission, has asked that the granting of these permits be delayed until after the council meets on Monday night, and has a chance to pass upon them.

In the meantime an effort is being made to rush the preparation of the town planning bylaw, proposing zones for the restriction of business areas and grocery stores.

If this bylaw follows the letter of Thomas Adams' recommendation, the Charlton site for a grocery store will come under the ban of the bylaw.

MISS MARJORIE BEATTIE, of 513 Grosvenor street, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Joseph's Hospital early in the week is reported to be greatly improved.

TOMORROW'S DOINGS:

SUNDAY — Oddfellows' celebrate 104th anniversary with church parade.

Mother's Day observed in all city churches.

MONDAY—Ministerial Alliance holds regular meeting at Y. M. C. A., 10 o'clock.

City council meets at city hall, 7:30 o'clock.

Court of revision meets at city hall, 7:30 o'clock.

A VERY FINE band concert is offered for 8:15 o'clock Sunday night at the Winter Gardens by the G. W. A. Band under the conductorship of C. C. Irwin. The concert is being held in aid of the emergency fund of the Soldiers' Wives League, under whose auspices it is being held.

THE LADIES' AUXILIARY of the G. W. A. is holding an informal dance in the Springfield Pavilion on Monday, May 15. Special cars will leave at 8 and 8:30 o'clock. The nomination of officers of the G. W. A. for the ensuing year will be held in the club rooms on Tuesday, May 16.

INTERESTING SERVICE for Mother's Day will be held in Wellington Street Methodist Church on Sunday evening, when an address will be given by Miss Edna Wallace on "The Place of the Girl in the Church," while the pastor will speak on "The Place of the Church in the Girl's Life." Miss Eleanor Hodgins will read the lesson, Miss Olive Merritt the hymns, Miss Pearson the prayer, and a choir of 40 girls of the C. G. I. T. will lead the singing under the direction of Mrs. P. Q. King.

KENNETH BARNARD of Toledo, secretary of the Advertising Club in that city will address a joint meeting of the London Advertising Club and the Chamber of Commerce in the Tecumseh House next Wednesday night. Barnard will speak on the work of the "Better Business Commission" of the Advertising Club of Toledo. This commission has been doing active work for some time in order to protect unwary small investors, by seeing that they do not place their money in wildcat schemes. The slogan of the "Better Business Commission of Toledo" is "Before you invest, investigate!"

Mother's Day.

SUNDAY is being observed as Mother's Day. It may be that the inception of the idea in the first place was a commercial one, but there is no denying the fact that it has developed into something greater and grander, and the whole nation approaches the day with a feeling of reverence, appreciation and fond memories.

A good mother is something few people appreciate. Too often has it been the case that men who in after years speak of the sainted memory of their mothers never took the trouble to let them know while living that there was a little spark of affection in their make-up.

How many men ever took the trouble to tell their mothers in their advancing years: "Mother, you've been a good guide and a faithful friend to me, and now that I am grown to manhood I want to thank you while you can still hear."

Oh, no. There's something in our make-up that shrinks and holds back from any such demonstration. The affection may be there—we don't doubt for a moment that it is—but why keep it covered up and suppressed, and leave that dear, old mother year after year longing for a word of appreciation for the life-time of devotion, for the years of care and tender sacrifice, all poured out on the altar of willing sacrifice that you might be what you are today.

This cherishing the memories of saintly mothers is commendable. It is splendid, but it is poor, dried-up mental offering when compared with the presentation of living tribute. A thousand times better that your mother should have in her hand today one beautiful rose than that she should be crushed beneath the burden of hundreds of them after she has passed over to her reward.

What Is a Gentleman?

NO DOUBT every member of the male sex labors under the impression that he is more or less of a gentleman. Or, to put it in another way, any man would resent the accusation that he is not a gentleman.

All of which brings up the question which Advertiser readers have been writing about for the last couple of days, "What is a Gentleman?"

The answers are arriving by the dozens, and the picking of the best answer is going to be a job that will require the wisdom of Solomon and the courage of David.

Glancing through a number of these letters, makes it evident that many things go to make up a gentleman, and it is doubtful if any one single individual could possibly possess all the virtues set forth in the replies. If he did, it is still more doubtful if he would find any joy at all in being alive.

Most of the answers come from the ladies, and perhaps that is natural, as it is the fair sex that seem to form the most marked opinions about men. Nearly every husband has had the experience of having his wife dangle some certain individual up before his gaze, with the implied inference that she wishes that he (her husband) would take a leaf from his book and improve in this or that particular line.

So here we have some of the opinions, taken at random from the pile of letters:

A number of them contain the same words, to the effect that a man to merit the name of "gentleman" must be "honest, kindhearted and true." Of course, all gentlemen must possess these qualities, particularly as there are chances of them going to jail if they do not possess the first.

Now, here comes one who introduces a very delicate subject, and states plainly "he must never talk back to his mother-in-law." Then follows another with the opinion that a "gentleman earns his bread by the sweat of his brow." This writer loathes the man who lives on money some person left him. He prefers the worker, who comes home at night, hungry, and eats what she has prepared and says that it is mighty fine fodder.

The rugged type has another champion, who writes "not a man who has white hands, a slick tongue and nice manners." Nor is poverty barred in the likes and dislikes of some of the correspondents, for one says "he may be as poor as a church mouse, but still claim the honor of being a perfect gentleman," and, of course, there is always the fine chance of such a man making a desirable marriage, thereby eliminating the poverty plea.

One states plainly and bluntly something that sums up a great deal, "clean of body and of soul." And is it not surprising to read in these days when equality is so much recognized that one of the fair sex writes thusly: "May be a bit cross with his wife if he has reason to, as anyhow she promised to obey him." There are strong reasons why this young lady should receive a prize for such a splendid exposition of the stone-age theories.

Is it possible that a man cannot, if he tries, be a gentleman? Well, here is one writer who puts forward the claim "Education, manners, fashion and form cannot make a gentleman—the seed of gentility is either given or withheld by nature." So, if you happen to be born and made up of rough stuff, it's no use trying, for there you stay. Rather a dangerous idea.

Then, of course, the family purse was simply bound to come into question sooner or later. Some person has seen this practice in operation, where the little wife of the home meekly asks to be allowed to have a few shakels to buy the things needed or something for herself, and the remark is prompted "a gentleman is a man who does not dole out money to his wife as if she were a dependent."

The attitude of the man at home has also been observed, and one woman states that a man should keep his best attentions for his own wife, and then becoming very practical in application, says "gives his best and sweetest manners to his home, splits the kindling and brings in the water." So you see, men, you never know when you are under surveillance.

The little courtesies are not overlooked, for one writes: "When at dinner always seats the ladies first," and right on the heels of this comes one that discounts it: "There are had men who follow all the conventionalities of society. And now for a little lecture to some of the stern sex, 'A man who knows when to quit eating, drinking or smoking.'"

Think that over, and then let us give you one that makes the gentleman crawl up on a platform that is fairly dizzy in its heights of excellence, for a young lady writes that "a gentleman never smokes, uses profane language or forms other bad habits."

The fine, kindly qualities that seem to radiate from some men have impressed others who are discussing the question, for one says "he will not make little of others behind their back," and another, "he will have a smile for the poorest of people, and be kind to them," while in this case the writer becomes quite practical in application, and says "a man who sees an old man or an old lady wanting to cross the street and helps them over to the other side."

Of course, in the lot are many who go into minute detail, and one goes as far as to state that a gentleman "must not attend to his nails or use a toothpick in public." This, no doubt, hits at some who do everything when coming down the street car in the morning except take a bath.

And so on they go. It is a fact that many people have one set of manners at home and another when they are in the homes of other people. There are men and women who keep their finest manners and their most winsome smiles for use exclusively outside their own homes, and there is always the danger that on these external exhibitions they may be judged. All these things are recounted by those answering the question, "What is a gentleman?" So you can see, Mr. Man, that you are under the spotlight, and if some day you are referred to as "a perfect gentleman," you will know that you have either been misjudged or that you are indeed possessed of virtues, graces and wiles, strength, humility and consideration that you never dreamed of.

Well Done, Guelph!

GUELPH is just winding up a "Made-in-Guelph" Week, and the exhibition at the armories has been an education to the people of Guelph, a demonstration of a fine spirit of co-operation on the part of the businessmen and the chamber of commerce, and the means of creating a feeling of community pride that could hardly have been accomplished in any other way.

The same idea has been carried out in other places in Western Ontario. The manufacturers of the place have booths much the same as at the Western Fair, where they show the lines they manufacture, and some of them even go into the various processes.

In the aggregate it gives a city-wide view in compressed form of what is keeping the city busy.

Guelph has a chamber of commerce that does things. The secretary, HARRY WESTBURY, is an organizer who "goes the whole distance" when he starts, and he had as his right-hand man BEVERLY ROBINSON as chairman of the committee in charge, who started out by filing members $5 if they were late at committee meetings. When that sort of determination is turned loose, well, the thing right there leaves the cripple stage and becomes an accomplished fact.

It took a mountain of work and planning to make the "Made-in-Guelph" show the outstanding success it turned out to be, but Guelph will find that it is a bigger and a stronger industrial centre because it has had a demonstration of what it is able to do when all hands get up on deck and set the sails in the same direction.

Some person has started the report that hard coal has been found in the Sudbury district, and the beauty of it is that they can put in enough rock to make up the required mixture.

The Ridgeway Dominion winds up an editorial article with these words: "In these days of super-regulation another little law wouldn't do us any harm." And may we add: "And not much good, either."

When SECRETARY ED. LANCE of the Soldiers' Aid Commission posted a notice on the door leading to his office, "Please close this door tight," he never thought that they would take him at his word. The commission goes out of business May 31.

HAL B. DONLY has sold the Simcoe Reformer to P. GEO. PEARCE of the Waterford Star. In other words, one good newspaperman goes out and another comes in. We congratulate Mr. PEARCE on acquiring so desirable a property, as HAL DONLY has for years kept the Reformer right up in the front rank of Canadian newspapers. Just why he sold out we don't know, although it is certain that he will be a miserable man for some time, as he is first and last a real newspaperman. Mr. PEARCE has a son to stand at his right hand and another to stand at his left hand, and with the Waterford Star and the Simcoe Reformer in the possession of this happy family the fine journalistic records of the past should not suffer.

TODAY'S word is PLENIPTOTEN-TIARY.

It's pronounced — plen-i-po-ten-shi-a-ri, with accent on the first and fourth syllables.

It means—a person invested with full power to transact any business; especially a diplomatic agent so equipped.

It comes from — Latin "plenus," full, and from "potens," also Latin, meaning to have power.

It's used like this—"The soviet plenipotentiaries at Genoa were not much pleased with the powers' plan for reconstructing Russia."

POETRY

LITTLE LOST MOTHER OF MINE.

Dear heart of my heart, is it strange to you.
The flower on my coat is white
For the little mother I never knew
And the love I long for tonight.
Pink baby hands, you were never clasped

In a warm, soft, loved embrace;
Little mother of mine you went so soon
Ere I learned to love your face.

Ah! Mother heart, many years have since flown,
Alone I have lived and wept,
But time has endeared, you are still my own.

Memory has your vision kept.
While they wear their bright blossoms for mothers
Who are near them or far away.
A white one is mine, for you whom God took,
When He showed me the light of day.

As a little lad I oft wondered
O why did God need you so soon,
Dewdrops gleam in the freshness of morning,
Nor linger in the glow of noon.

Now I know there's a land and life fairer,
Where the little lost mother of mine,
All the gems that for earth were too precious
Are gathered to evermore shine.

Heaven, home and love, countless tender charms,
All that mother dear means to you,
Smiles, tears and kisses, welcome open arms.

Bright sunshine in a sky of blue,
All joys I have dreamed of, or seen thro' a mist,
Pure as these white petals today,
Take me back to you, O mother of mine,

Memories keep, tho' God called away.
—E. HULBERT.

READ YOUR CHARACTER

[By Digby Phillips.]

NO. 213—APPEALING TO HIGH HEADS.

What methods would you take to convince a man or a woman with a high head of any proposition you had to advance?

With the key to the traits of character indicated by this type of head, the answer is not difficult.

You would rely for your principal persuasive power in appealing to his or her ideals and sympathies. This does not mean, for instance, that you should argue that the cloth you have to sell is just "ideal," or that it was made by workers deserving of the buyer's sympathy and charity. A man may be marked by qualities of sympathy and idealism and yet be a sane, level-headed businessman, who figures his profits in dollars and cents. But it does mean that you should not neglect the opportunity to show him, either directly or indirectly, that you, or the firm you represent, are actuated in the conduct of your business by business ideals.

nor should you neglect the opportunity to let him see that in many ways your principles are in accord.

You should note particularly whether his head is high over the temples. If it is you will know that your prospect likes the sense of the power that he wields. To make a special effort to defer to this in a courteous sort of way will go far toward winning from him that "sympathy" which may be a bigger factor than appears on the surface in "getting his name on the dotted line."

All were kind and considerate, and the reunion was most successful. Miss Winnett gave prizes to those who excelled.

DR. BISHOP'S ADVICE.

Your Heels and Health

BY DR. R. H. BISHOP.

OUR heels may have a whole lot to do with bad health, if you are one of those who try to make your feet fit the shoes you like instead of wearing shoes that fit your feet.

The condition of your feet and the manner in which you stand upon them may give rise to a score of ailments.

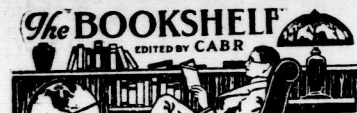

Headache, backache, pains in the calves and legs, as well as a condition of extreme nervousness may result from weak or defective feet.

For most foot troubles proper shoes, proper standing and walking positions and proper care of the feet, with frequent bathing in warm water should be sufficient. Sogging, misdirected feet, not only detract from one's appearance, but more than that, improper standing and walking may develop "flat feet" or "weak feet."

An exercise that will strengthen and help to cure fallen arches is as follows: Walk barefoot about the room, spreading the toes wide; walk on the tip-toes; walk on the outside of the feet for a few minutes; stand on the edge of the step, allowing the toes to extend over the edge, and flex the muscles up and down a number of times.

Low heels are not only more comfortable than high, but more restful to the feet, and they help to do away with backache. It is advisable, however, to make a change from high to low heels, gradually as the heel cord, especially in women, has become gradually shortened from the continued use of high heels.

THE FUGITIVE. By Rabindranath Tagore. The Macmillan Company, publishers, Toronto.

THE verse in this collection of poems and one-act dramas assuredly justifies its existence by virtue of exquisite phrasing and beauty of imagery. But it also possesses that charm, so often found in oriental writings, of a twofold significance. It is earthly experience translated into song; but it is also spiritual prevision.

Thus the Platonic figure of a chariot drawn by one steed of the heavens and one of the earth again proves its verisimilitude.

The plays are all as tragic as King Lear. But there is always at least one great soul which affirms its power when hope is dead. The immortal tale "of love and of death and of honor that cannot die" is fittingly told and retold in these brief dramas.

It has been as wisely as generously said that every man is entitled to be valued by his best moments. Tagore, like most other men of the heavens and one of the earth again, has his moments of folly, of intemperance, even of unfairness.

He made a decidedly unfavorable impression when visiting Canada by his assumptions of personal and racial superiority and by his attempts to berate us into doing what he believed to be our duty, without attempting to inform himself of the reasons for our contrary convictions.

But in the pages of the present work he is at his best, both as artist and as philosopher; and his best cannot be ignored by any lover of artistic sincerity, loftiness of thought and heart-moving beauty.

Wingham Times says spring's here because one of the townsmen is wearing a new straw hat. So there!

DISCLAIM VIEW HELD BY HARRIS

Canadian Manufacturers Do Not Favor Free Trade Within Empire.

Pass Resolutions Against Further Lowering of Preferential Tariff.

TORONTO, May 12.—The opinion delivered recently by Lloyd Harris, formerly an official of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, that free trade within the empire was the solution of Canada's trade problems, is decidedly not the opinion of the association as a body.

The Toronto and Ontario branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, in annual session here today, made it plain that Mr. Harris was speaking for himself alone. Further, they hoped that the officials at Ottawa, who are now working on the budget, would not get the impression that Mr. Harris was representing the Canadian Manufacturers' Association when he made that statement, and in order to let Ottawa know the viewpoint of the Toronto and Ontario branches a resolution was passed reaffirming the opinion adopted at the last two annual meetings.

This, in brief, was that the Canadian Manufacturers' Association is in favor of a system of preferential tariff within the empire similar to the preference now contained in the customs tariff of Canada, but as the Canadian tariff is already a generous one, the association did not favor any further lowering of the British preference at the present time, on account of the damage it would do to Canadian industry, and they felt it would be unfair to Canadian firms to ask for further preference, in view of the fact that the British preference is slight, compared with Canadian preference to Britain.

The resolution was sponsored by C. A. Birge and George Bragden. The gathering went on record as favoring the lowering of freight rates, to the same extent that farmers and others have reduced their operating costs. For some time the C. M. A. officials have been working on this matter, and their viewpoint came before the meeting in the form of a statement read by J. J. Walsh, and sponsored by John R. Shaw, first vice-president of the C. M. A., who was absent.

WORLD NEWS CUT SHORT

LONDON, May 12.—Two Sevres porcelain dessert services were a feature at the Burdett-Coutts sale at Christie's yesterday.

One service, with gilding by Leguay was purchased for 230 guineas, while the other, which had borders by Tailander and Theodore, realized 420 guineas.

BUENOS AIRES, May 12.—Establishment of a futures market for meat and cattle is one of the principal objects of the new produce exchange, which it is announced will begin operations on May 29. It is believed that such a market will bring about better organization in the cattle business, prevent violent oscillations in prices, and improve conditions generally in the first industry of the country.

MOSCOW, May 12.—After consultation between the prisoners and counsel for the defence, the 11 persons sentenced to death for opposing the requisitioning of church property and for alleged participation in disturbances, announced that they will lodge an appeal with the supreme revolutionary tribunal on the ground that the accusations against them showed an entire absence of attempts at counter-revolution. They also will plead on technical grounds.

PARIS, May 12.—The commune of Riboux, near Toulon, claims the distinction of being the only community in France, and probably in the world, in which differences of opinion between the municipal council and the electorate are unknown. However impossible such beautiful unanimity may appear, it nevertheless exists.

The explanation is simple enough. Riboux numbers only ten natives possessing the right to vote. According to French law, the minimum number of councillors in the municipal legislature is ten; so that the worthy citizens of Riboux, when an election occurs, solemnly elect one another unanimously, put one another's backs, and proceed to administer the commune with perfect good will and agreement.

PARIS, May 12.—Andre Latreille, president of the village of Thenac, is obsessed with what psychologists would call a fixed idea to commit suicide. Following the receipt of an anonymous letter charging his wife with infidelity Latreille shot the woman and turned the revolver on himself. His father grappled with him and succeeded in wresting the pistol from him.

Latreille then hurled himself into a lake. His well-intentioned neighbors dragged him out unconscious and brought him back to life. He immediately was alone. Latreille hanged himself with his suspenders. Again the neighbors interfered and cut him down.

Latreille now is in prison, not to prevent his committing suicide, but to answer the charge of shooting his wife.

ROME, May 12.—Three prominent alienists today prescribed "isolation and rest for some time" for Father Lorenzo Perosi, the noted composer of church music and conductor of the Sistine Chapel choir. Drs. Desaretis, Mingazzini and Mianelli, who were called in consultation by Father Perosi's family, made a mental examination and issued the following statement: "Unfortunately, the case of the master presents complications. He has wandering ideas which he is constantly reiterating, and these have a great influence upon his conduct. Two of us (Drs. Desaretis and Mingazzini) examined him in 1915, and found him manifesting the same symptoms. Because of his condition we have counseled isolation and rest for some time."

MOSCOW, May 12.—Prison sentences have been imposed upon four members of Russian revolutionary tribunals who executed death sentences upon several persons without first referring the cases to the higher court.

This is said by Soviet officials to be the first step in their campaign to bring all provincial court authorities to the realization that the days of shooting persons without proper legal procedure are past.

Although the abolition of the Cheka was decreed more than two months ago, when it was ruled that no person should be held longer than fourteen days without trial, the Cheka still exists in fact, if not in name, particularly in the outlying districts.

The Central government is endeavoring to effect the new court reform as speedily as possible, but is finding it hard to break the habits of those who have done about as they pleased for five years.

MILAN, May 12.—"I am the sole person guilty," dramatically exclaimed the anarchist Mariani, ringleader of the band of seventeen men on trial for complicity in the blowing up of the Diana Theatre here in March, 1921, when he took the stand at a continuation of the trial yesterday. Thirty-one persons were killed in the explosion and about 100 injured.

The proceedings today again were interspersed with dramatic incidents, mothers, wives or sweethearts of victims frequently bursting into tears or rising in their seats and shouting "assassins" at the defendants. There was a strong guard of carabinieri both inside and outside the courtroom to prevent untoward incidents.

Mariani, who, according to the allegations of the prosecution, actually placed the bomb

REPORTS LABOR SCARCE IN WEST

WINNIPEG, May 12.—Owing to a shortage of farm labor in Saskatchewan, which Labor Commissioner Malley estimates to be 600 men, the Canadian Pacific Railway will put in very low labor rates from Hamilton and London to Moose Jaw, Regina, Saskatoon, Swift Current, Weyburn and Yorkton, May 16 and 17. By giving this rate it is hoped Saskatchewan will be enabled to get sufficient men to put in the crop.

ORGANIZE NEW PRODUCE FIRM

London and Other Promoters Establish International Creamery Co., Ltd.

Will Commence Operations Shortly in Dominion Abattoir Building.

Within a few days the International Creamery Company, with head office in London, will begin operations in all departments. Already orders for dairy produce have been placed in all parts of Western Ontario.

Since its organization Londoners have expressed their confidence in its future by purchasing thousands of dollars' worth of its stock.

The company has an authorized share capital of $300,000, and has acquired the Dominion Abattoir Company property and buildings, which are wonderfully adapted to the requirements of such a business.

Among the activities of the International Creamery Company will be the manufacture of ice cream, feeding and killing of poultry, the storage of poultry, eggs and other farm produce, and the marketing of these products.

William Gordon, who has had a long and successful experience as manager and director of large creameries, will supervise all departments of the plant, although each department will be under the direct charge of an expert.

Have Toured District. Already agents of the company have toured Western Ontario with a view to securing a steady supply of the best dairy produce this rich agricultural district offers.

Every modern facility known in the creamery business will be employed to give service and satisfaction. The facilities within the plant itself are most complete. The plant is suitably located between the right-of-way of the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific Railroads.

Promotion stock has not been issued to anyone, nor has stock been issued for patents, services of property. Of the total amount of stock issued $150,000 worth is 8 per cent cumulative stock (par value, $100) and $150,000 worth is common stock (par value, $100).

Earnings Assured. It has been estimated that if the plant is only operated at half of its capacity and yet at 100 per cent expense, the earnings would be five times the amount sufficient to meet the dividend requirements of the preferred stock.

With such a good beginning it has been predicted that the business cannot help but be a success, especially as sound businessmen and experts who combine service and efficiency to insure good earnings are in control.

Persons who have investigated the company's affairs and prospects declare that ere long the International Creamery Company, Limited, will be one of London's great industries.

—and such a favorite with the children.

It is more than a tasty treat—it is a wholesome food. Science has proved that one quart of Ice Cream equals—in food calories—a dozen of fresh eggs.

Our Ice Cream will be sold either in brick or bulk, made from pure cream and milk, carefully combined with selected fruits.

Watch for announcement regarding where and when our Ice Cream may be purchased. There'll be a shop near you soon, where this delightful food may be obtained.

RANEY DOES NOT EXPECT TAX TO HALT BETTING

First Reading of Racetrack Measure Given in Legislature.

FERGUSON CRITICIZES

Declares Policy of Government Is Decidedly Inconsistent.

TORONTO, May 12.—First reading was given in the Legislature this afternoon to the provincial treasurer's amendment to the corporation tax act of 1920, which provides for a tax of five per cent on all moneys placed or wagered at each race track in the province. The amendment also places a tax of $15,000 per annum on liquor warehouses, and increases the exemption granted telephone companies from $20,000 to $100,000 for taxation purposes.

Will Not Curtail Betting.
Mr. Ferguson: "Have you any thought of curtailing the betting at the tracks?"
"No," replied Mr. Raney, "for two reasons. First, the court judgment says they may race for seven days. Even if I could I would not advise

Believes Canada Is Good Enough For Firms Using Canada in Name

OTTAWA, May 12.—(By Canadian Press).—"If companies desire to use the name 'Canada,' Canada ought to be good enough for them to have their headquarters here," T. G. McBride (Progressive of Carleton) informed the Commons tonight when opposing the third reading of the act respecting the Canadian Transit Company. The railway committee, Mr. McBride contended, had given only a few minutes to the bill, when one of its purposes was to change the head offices of the company from Windsor, Ont., to the United States side of the border.

"We should look into this a little more carefully before passing the bill. We have to stand up for the Dominion," Mr. McBride added.

Right Hon. Arthur Meighen suggested that the bill be stood over for the time being and this view was concurred in by Hon. W. S. Fielding.

the government to exercise the right because the federal government made the law and they will have to stand by it."

"It was going to congratulate you for your courage," said Mr. Ferguson, "but the last statement about the federal government looks as though you were passing the buck."

"Do I understand you as wanting the government to pass legislation prohibiting racing?" asked Mr. Raney.

Mr. Ferguson replied, stating that he himself liked to go "a couple of days."

Mr. Raney then made an emphatic statement that the government had no intention to abolish racing.

"To say the least, you are not consistent," replied Mr. Ferguson.

Wellington Hay, leader of the Liberals, remarked sarcastically that to a point the government believed racing all right. He thought that perhaps next year the limit would be increased if the revenue was there.

Dewart Criticizes Policy.

Hartley Dewart thought the proposed taxation was unfair to legitimate sport in Ontario.

Premier Dewart said: "The government regards betting as an evil. We regret that the Dominion government permits it to be carried on."

We plead guilty to the hope that this legislation will lessen that evil if it does not put it out of business."

Hartley Dewart and the premier then entered into an argument as to whether the sport was legitimate, which ended in the ex-Liberal leader telling the premier to "sit down."

REPORTS BELL TELEPHONE LINES FULLY REPAIRED

Manager C. H. Beard Declares Storm-Damaged Service Completely Restored.

After several weeks' labor the Bell Telephone Company has practically re-established all long-distance lines in the area swept by the big sleet-storms in February, March and April which crippled all utilities.

C. H. Beard, manager of the Bell Telephone Company, calls special attention to the announcement in Saturday's advertising columns of the fact that almost all the damage has been cleared up. He regards the story of the storm, and of the reconstruction work, as it did, many gangs of extra help and extensive supplies, as one well worth reading.

DOMINION NAVY TO BE REDUCED TO SIX VESSELS

Hon. George P. Graham Outlines Naval Policy of Government.

DISCUSSION IS DEFERRED

Meighen Declares Proposed Service Useless in Case of Emergency.

OTTAWA, May 12.—(By Canadian Press).—The Canadian navy is to receive a drastic cut.

To a closely attentive house, Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of defence, this afternoon announced the naval policy of the present government.

In brief, it provides that:

1—Five ships are to be laid up. These are the cruiser Aurora and the destroyers Patriot and Patrician presented to Canada by Great Britain after the armistice. The other two ships laid up are submarines.

2—Canada's naval force will consist of three vessels on each coast, namely, a small ship and two trawlers as tenders at both Halifax and Esquimaux.

3—The three ships on either coast are to be used for training a volunteer force in protection of shores and harbors, mine sweeping and mine laying.

4—Protection and care of docks and wharves at Halifax and Esquimaux to be continued with provision of a reserve force of officers and men numbering 233.

With the exception of officers from the royal navy are to be returned.

In making his statement Mr. Graham emphasized that young men in the voluntary force would not be taken out of industrial employment. They would be trained on land and sea for two or three weeks each year, over a period of three years. There would also be the fisheries protection services, consisting of a number of small ships. Under the scheme, some 1,500 young men could be trained during the year on land and sea.

Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, commented that the proposed naval service would be all right in time of peace. But he could not see of what value it would be in emergency and danger.

"If Great Britain herself prepared her own defence in this manner," queried Mr. Meighen, "if she put a few trawlers on the Atlantic to watch the fish and put a few boys into our armories as a sort of diversion or pastime—if she took that course, what would become of our defence in the hour of crisis and peril?"

The government's naval proposals will be discussed later.

OTTAWA, May 12.—(By Canadian Press).—Aviation was under consideration in the house this afternoon on the air board estimates. Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of defence, and defence, said the Canadian government had been presented with $5,000,000 worth of aeroplane equipment by the British authorities following the war.

Canada was hardly in a position to enter the field of aviation to a great extent just now, he said. Civil aviation was as yet in its earliest stages, and it was felt that this branch of the work would soon be undertaken by private companies. He did not think that the government was prepared to embark upon a public-owned and operated air service.

Mr. Meighen expressed approval of the attitude of the minister in regard to the development of aviation. It would be undesirable for each province to take up this problem separately while it was in the experimental stage.

"I hope," remarked Mr. Meighen (in reference to recent changes in the militia votes) "that my fidelity to this estimate will not alter the fidelity of the minister."

Cites Fire Protection.
Mr. Graham said that it was expected that in comparatively short time fire protection operations would be carried on from the air entirely.

Mr. Guthrie declared the public wanted to know the amount of the outlay for the air force. The minister wanted to charge other departments for air force work in such a

BUILD A CITY HOME THIS YEAR

Colonial Style Is Standard

The cost of this home would approximate $8,485, according to the designers. This estimate is given tentatively, as it must be remembered that building costs vary in different localities.

A seven-room Colonial house with a splendid floor plan is shown here. One gets the impression of a large house, and yet it is only 34 feet 8 inches wide by 25 feet deep, occupying no more ground space than do most of the characterless dwellings that line most of our streets.

In any neighborhood, this home would do credit to its owner's good taste, because it is in line with the best tendencies in architecture. All who have studied houses must have observed that there is always a return to the Colonial, and that this tendency is especially noticeable at the present time.

The layout of this house is severely rectangular, with strictly plain wall and roof surfaces, which means the greatest possible amount of room for the given expenditure.

Notice the neatly molded cornice, the balanced chimneys, and all of which are typical of style. Because of the simplicity of the exterior, the attention is focused on the front entrance, the only place where elaboration is allowable.

This entrance is particularly effective, with its paneled Dutch door divided into upper and lower halves, sidelights, and a splendidly proportioned elliptical transom.

Wide siding, painted white, is most attractive for homes of this general character. Attractive touches of color are introduced in the blue-green blinds, stained shingle roof, and brick copings of the chimney.

Exterior doors and mountings in the 12-light Colonial windows should be painted white.

One of the livable features of this house is the broad piazza at the side of the house, with a slender column, and graceful railing above. Glazed doors connect it with the living-room, one on each side of the open fireplace. This living-room occupies the left side of the first floor, and so has openings on three sides. Opposite the fireplace is a splendid inside wall space. At the front is a room-end of bookcases with a built-in window seat that can also be used as a receptacle for the firewood or other things. French doors lead to the hall. There is also a door connecting the living-room with the rear entry, which is handy from the standpoint of the housekeeper, as well as that of those entering the house from the garage, as they need not pass through any other room of the house.

The plan is the desirable central-hall type, deftly modified to adapt it completely to modern conditions and requirements. There is a vestibule at the front of the hall and a coat closet at the rear. No Colonial hall-way would be complete without its mahogany-and-ivory stair. The one here is a straight, open run, and may or may not be the voluted hand-rail. From this central hall one may enter the dining-room or the kitchen, a feature that saves the expense of a rear stair, even where there are servants.

The kitchen is good-sized and unusually light. It has a sink and drainboard, wall-cabinet, ironing-board, dresser and work table. Each of the four bedrooms has a corner location, with cross-ventilation. Each one also has a good closet, and one has in addition, a tray case, inclosed by one of the interior doors. The linen closet in the hall is similar to this tray case, but has deep drawers as well as trays. There is an extra closet in the hall, which might be cedar-lined. The bathroom is centrally located, and a minimum of space is taken up by the Graham States Britain Presented Equipment Worth $5,000,000 To Dominion.

Tells Meighen Canada Spent $60,000 On Civil Landing Stations.

OTTAWA, May 12.—(By Canadian Press).—Aviation was under consideration in the house this afternoon on the air board estimates. Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of defence, and defence, said the Canadian government had been presented with $5,000,000 worth of aeroplane equipment by the British authorities following the war.

Canada was hardly in a position to enter the field of aviation to a great extent just now, he said. Civil aviation was as yet in its earliest stages, and it was felt that this branch of the work would soon be undertaken by private companies. He did not think that the government was prepared to embark upon a public-owned and operated air service.

Mr. Meighen expressed approval of the attitude of the minister in regard to the development of aviation. It would be undesirable for each province to take up this problem separately while it was in the experimental stage.

"I hope," remarked Mr. Meighen (in reference to recent changes in the militia votes) "that my fidelity to this estimate will not alter the fidelity of the minister."

Linda Lee Inc.

by LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

Derisive cackles and guffaws of clowns broke out on all sides, a space was cleared round the unfortunate. "Are you all right, Linda?" Dobbin asked. She nodded and tried to smile. "Let's get out of this." "No—wait!" Linda insisted. "Perhaps she's hurt!" She brushed his arm aside, only to discover that the overthrown woman had regained her feet, and now stood watching her partner, as grinning foolishly, he scrambled up. "You clumsy dumbbell!" she stormed in a rasping voice that must have carried clearly half across the room. And catching her first glimpse of the man's crimson face, Linda yielded all at once to Daubeny's insistence.

But she never quite knew how they got back to their table.

XI. BUT even with the three sides of the box affording their false show of privacy, it never entered Linda's head to sit down and pretend nothing had happened, the instinct to fly at once from this theatre of disgrace was still predominant. Only for a moment she rested standing while her eyes, darkly dilated, sought Daubeny's.

"You saw him, of course?"

Dobbin made a vague gesture of sympathy. "Frightfully sorry."

Lucinda shrugged. "Don't be. It wasn't your fault."

"I presume we couldn't have been mistaken..." Dobbin ventured half-heartedly.

"No, it was Bel. I think I'd like to go. Let me have the carriage-check, and I'll wait in the car."

Daubeny surrendered the paste-board slip and called for the check as Linda went out.

At the street door she gave the attendant the carriage-check, together with a coin. "And hurry, please!" The man saluted respectfully and vanished.

She hastened to the street, a move which she found immediate reason to regret. Only a few feet away Belamy stood with an affectionate arm round the shoulders of the door-porter. A knot of grinning bystanders had already begun to gather.

Bel's derby was perched on his forehead, and he was looking at her with a look of intense interest.

She turned to him, and he was looking at her with a look of intense interest.

"Now, listen, Jim, M'wife's here tonight 'nd I don't want her to know I was here, see? So you don't know me, you never heard of me, see?"

"Yes, Mr. Druce."

"Stick with mortification, Linda turned from the sound of that babbling voice of a fool—and heard her own name pronounced."

"The car is here, Mrs. Druce."

In a wild stare she identified the face of her chauffeur, saw that he understood the situation, and was anxious to be helpful.

"Wait," she quavered.

And then by a miracle of will-power she managed to master her nerves and, putting aside her horror and humiliation, took thought quickly and clearly.

"All I want you to do is remember, if Mishish Druce asks if you've seen me, you never heard of me, don't know me 'tall—see, Jim, get what I mean?"

As Linda approached the porter must have guessed who she was, for he spoke to Belamy in a low voice, and the latter swung round with startled eyes and a dropping jaw. She closed her fingers on his wrist and put all her strength into that grasp.

"Come, Bel," she said clearly and not unkindly. "Please don't keep me waiting. The car is here, we're going home."

For a moment the balance wavered, then Bel's eyes fell, and she knew she had won.

"Oh, alright," he mumbled with strange docility. "Didn't know you were waitin', Linda. Get in the car—be with you in just a minute."

"No," she said firmly—"you're coming with me now."

She drew him away. He yielded without remonstrance, permitted her to lead him to the door of the car, stumbled in on his knees, and crawled up to the seat.

Lucinda followed, the door closed behind her with a clasp sweeter than music in her hearing. And with purring gears, the car shot out of range of those leering faces.

Lucinda had forgotten Dobbin as utterly as if she had never known him.

Belamy lay in a loose slouch, breathing heavily. The passing lights revealed the stupidity of his congested features. His eyes were half-closed, he seemed to be asleep.

When at length the car stopped, she jumped out and, leaving Belamy in the care of the chauffeur and footman, ran up to her rooms. The maid waiting there she dismissed for the night. In half a dozen words whose decision sent the woman from her in astonishment.

Alone, her first move was to secure the door communicating with Bel's rooms. Then she threw herself upon the bed. She heard Bel's muffled incoherence to his valet; the valet seemed to be trying to make him listen to reason and failing in the end.

Eventually the man went out and closed the door. In the subsequent silence the clock chimed twelve.

Lucinda rose then, and changed to her simplest street suit.

For half an hour or so she was busy at desk and dressing-table, packing a check book and her jewelry with other belongings in a small hand-bag. She did not falter once or waste a single moment through indecision. Indeed, it did not once occur to her that there was anything to be done but what she meant to do.

Shortly after one o'clock she left Bel snoring, crept down the stairs, and with infinite stealth let herself out to the street.

Spurred by irrational fear lest Belamy wake up, discover her flight, and give chase, Lucinda made in haste for Fifth avenue; a cab slid up to the curb, its driver with two fingers to his cap soliciting a fare. Lucinda breathed the first address that came to mind—"Grand Central, please"—hopped in, and shrank fearfully away from the windows.

At the station a negro porter with a red cap opened the cab door and took possession of her single piece of luggage, and when she had paid off the taxi and looked to him in indecision, prompted her with: "Whut train was yo' wishin' to tek, ma'am?"

An instant later Lucinda was wondering why she replied: "The first train for Chicago, please." She knew no reason why she should have named Chicago rather than any other city where she was unknown and where she might count on being free to think things out in her own time and fashion.

XII. "INEXPRESSIBLY shocked. Arriving tomorrow. Will call on you ten a.m. Meanwhile Bank of Michigan will supply you with funds in any amount you may require if you will be pleased to identify yourself to Mr. Southard there."

The author of this telegram, which was delivered on the morning of Lucinda's fifth day in Chicago, was

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

TRIP TO THE MOON

[By Olive Roberts Barton.]

Finally the Twins, each holding the Magical Mushroom by an arm, got so close to the moon that it looked as big as a house.

WELL, Nancy and Nick finally got started on their trip to the moon. The magic Green Shoes whisked them off up through the air over tree-tops and hills and mountains, past clouds and stars and comets, until finally they were so high that the earth itself looked almost like another star below them. Or rather it looked like another round moon.

Now, I'm going to tell you a funny thing, my dears. When you're on the earth you look up at the moon, or over at it, depending upon where it is. And when you're on the moon you look up at the earth, or over at it, or down at it, depending on where it is. It's a sort of a game of hide and seek that the earth and the moon play, bobbing about the way they do, and that is the reason that sometimes the moon looks little like a speck and sometimes like half a pie and sometimes like a silver dollar, because the earth gets in the moon's way and cuts off part of its light.

It's as easy to understand as income tax, my dears, and something that neither you nor I need to bother about. But I just wanted to tell you that, although we can only see a waxy slice of the moon sometimes, it really is all there all the time.

Otherwise I'm afraid Mr. Peer about, the Man-in-the-Moon, would miss his footing and fall off.

Finally the Twins, each holding the Magical Mushroom by the arm, got so close to the moon that it looked as big as a house. Closer and closer they came until it looked as big as a mountain, and finally they were so near that they couldn't see all of it at once.

"Oooooo!" sighed Nancy. "I'm cold. I wish I'd brought my coat."

"So do I," remarked Nick.

"Oh, a little magic will fix that up," comforted the Mushroom. "Mr. Peerabout will sprinkle you with some of his star-dust powder and you'll soon be as warm as flap-jacks. Why, here we are!"

To Be Continued.

HAS WESTERN ONTARIO ANY GENTLEMEN?

ARE you a gentleman? Are the friends that you are so wont to address as gentlemen really entitled to have the term applied to them? What is a gentleman, anyway?

Recently a number of Londoners of the 19th Psalm must have had to have been able to write: He that at dinner was unable to determine what a gentleman really is. The editor of The London Advertiser, the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. The 11th verse is: "He shall give His angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. And how wonderfully true that is. It is easy to be a gentleman when your thought dwells in the secret place of the Most High. I. BARTLETT.

Here are a number of them received to date:

ORD DEFINES ITSELF.

A gentleman is one who is courteous, generous and gentle at all times to one and all. His gentleness and kindness show themselves, especially to little children, aged or disabled persons and dumb animals.

He never "needlessly sets foot upon a worm," suffering appeals to him, his hand and purse are ever extended to the weak and oppressed.

The late Lord Salisbury claimed that the highest compliment he ever received came from a little child who hesitated at a crowded thoroughfare in London, fearing to cross the street. Catching his eye in a brief glance, she confidently placed her hand in his saying: "Will you take me across?"

The unerring instinct of the little child told her he was a gentleman.

Has Western Ontario any gentlemen? What it is to be a gentleman. It is to be brave, to be wise, to be honest, to be gentle, to be generous. And possessing all these qualities, to exercise them in the most graceful outward manner.

MRS. S. T. McCOLL, R. R. No. 4, Appin, Ont.

DEALS HONESTLY WITH ALL.

This is my opinion: A true gentleman is a man that always reverences God.

He is a man that considers his mother pure, respecting and judging other ladies from this standard.

A true gentleman is a man that deals honestly with all other men.

He is a man that is kind to dumb creatures.

To have God's presence at all times he must be a praying man, then he can be a gentleman under any conditions or difficulties, and a man is bound to fall unless Christ dwells within him. What a beautiful Christian experience the writer

TWO RECORDS GO SMASH AT L. C. I.'S TRACK MEET

E. Chapman Lowered Half-Mile Junior Mark and Three Break Running High—Bill Wanless Is Senior Champ, Ken Hunter Junior.

Two intercollegiate records were broken and two were equalled by local athletes at the L. C. I. field day held at Queen's Park on Friday afternoon. E. Chapman lowered the record of the half mile for junior boys by doing the distance in 2:18 2-5. The best previous record was 2:21. The running high jump for senior boys was broken by three boys, George Wright, 5 feet, 6 inches; Bill Wanless, 5 feet, 6 inches; and Cameron Wilson, 5 feet, 4 inches. Two records equalled were senior 100-yard dash by Bill Wanless in 15 seconds flat, and the senior 220-yard dash by Cameron Wilson in 23.4 seconds. The senior boy champion for this year is Bill Wanless with 23 points. Cameron Wilson followed with 23 points, Cameron Wilson and Ken Hunter, 17 points. The junior champion is K. 283 Bathurst Street. Phone 367EXPECT EYE TO DO TWICE
WORK OF OTHER ORGANSA. M. Dambra of London Optical Company Explains Cause of Defects in Vision."The average person expects the eye to do twice the work of any other organ of the body," said A. M. Dambra, proprietor of the London Optical Company. "A man would not think of walking all day and then walking in the evening for pleasure.
But how many persons work in offices during the day, using their eyes constantly at close work, and then go home and read or go to the movies for pleasure?""It is no wonder that they meet with trouble. There is another difficulty. People will look after their teeth carefully and never consider their eyes. It seems queer, since their teeth can be replaced, but when their eyes are damaged there is no makeshift to use in place of them.Common sense is the best preventive for defective eyes, Mr. Dambra said. Read in a fair light, don't overdo any close work. Don't read lying down or in any other position in which the eyes will have to strain the focus. These are some of the don'ts which Mr. Dambra warned against."Glasses are helpful to all those who experience difficulty or discomfort in reading," continued Mr. Dambra. The eye itself is a lens that focuses the light rays on the retina (similar in principle to the camera).
Many eyes are out of focus, thus producing blurred and indistinct vision or an unusual strain on the muscles to draw the eye into focus.An extra lens is required to perfect the focus. Glasses are resorted to and if the proper correction is made the vision can be restored to normal."A careful examination is important, and cheap glasses should not be considered. Considerable harm can result from a wrong correction or defective glasses, and your eyesight is too valuable to take chances. We can supply cheap glasses but we do not recommend them. Good glasses require individual grinding and, though not expensive, cannot be purchased at any dollar sale."We value our reputation too highly to recommend anything but the best in glasses, but our customers are assured of receiving the best at reasonable prices, and our testing equipment is such that we can honestly guarantee accuracy."Isn't it time you attended to your eyes?"
"For many years they may have served you well—but do you not require a little care now? You know there is the question of preserving the sight for the future, and this should be a sufficiently grave matter to warrant your serious attention."

Succeed In London

IT WAS recently stated in the report of a survey of the city that one of the reasons for the exceptionally healthy character of London's industrial growth was the extraordinary variety of the city's industries. However, there are yet many lines of business which London could welcome and which would be faced with fine chances of immediate success.The survey also showed that London possessed the main advantages required to attract new plants for most of the kind of trades now operating in the city as well as new ones.The greater proportion of the firms now operating here expect their industries to grow from 10 to 20 per cent per year.New industries that might come here and employ the manufactured product or by-product of existing factories may provide someone with a long-sought suggestion. They are:Any industry shipping in containers.
Electrical industries.
Fine grade paper manufacturing (to use rags by-product).
Furniture and piano factories.
Textile manufacturers.
Canning factories.
Cab and body builders for motor trucks.
Any industry using bottles.
Any industry using books and forms.
Shoe factories.
Cigar factories.
Underwear factories.SHOWS NEED FOR PROPER ACCOUNTING IN BUSINESSWm. C. Benson, C. A., of Oscar Hudson & Co., Explains Qualified and Unqualified Methods."Cost accounting is one of the biggest features of our work at the present time," said William C. Benson, C.A., resident partner of Oscar Hudson & Co., chartered accountants, this morning."The reason for this is the readjustment of prices when merchants and manufacturers are keeping especially close tab on cost prices."Mr. Benson was born in this city, and has lived in London practically all his life. He received the title of chartered accountant in 1905, and in 1907 went out West, returning to the city in 1920.An accountant is far different from a chartered accountant, explained Mr.
Benson. The Ontario Institute of Chartered Accountants is incorporated by the provincial government, and is affiliated with the Dominion Council under the Dominion government.The government gives the exclusive right to the institute to confer the degree of C. A. on the members who are entitled to it. In order to become a chartered accountant, Mr. Benson pointed out that the candidate has to pass a strict examination, and also satisfy the council as to his character and ability.At the present time, before a man can become a chartered accountant, he must serve an apprenticeship of four years in an accountant's office. This assures the public that the chartered accountant who is doing their work has received a thorough and practical training in accountancy.

"The businessmen of today," said Mr.

KNOX AHMEEKS AND KNOX WINGFOOTS ARE THIS YEAR'S ALL-ROUND CHAMPIONS

TAYLOR STATEN TALKS OF THE FOURFOLD LIFE

The annual closing banquet of the local C. S. E. T. groups was held at the "Y" last night. The supper was as usual an unequalled success. After a sing-song, led by Mr. Houlding, the chairman of the old 1921 Boys' Work Board, Mr. Beamer, introduced the new chairman. Mr. Beamer said that it was a great sorrow to him in giving up his position as the leader in boys' work in the city.

Mr. A. R. Kennedy, the new chairman, made a few statements. Mr. Kennedy compared boys' work with an exceptionally tempting swimming pool of his acquaintance in the earlier days of his youth. He stated that in his old home town there were two 'gangs' of fellows, one from the north of the railroad tracks and one from the south. They used to have a slide in the clay to the water, and which ever gang got there first would put gravel on the slide for the next gang. However, he said, in conclusion, "the old Boys' Work Board had not strewn any gravel on the slide of local boys' work."

Millard Grant, in a few well-chosen words, introduced the speaker, Mr. Statton. Mr. Taylor Statton, before starting to speak, introduced the chairman of the National Boys' Work Board, Mr. Holt Gurney of Toronto. Mr. Gurney then favored the fellows with a few words.

Mr. Statton, in his usual good way, spoke to the boys on C. S. E. T. Taylor Statton is, without doubt, the greatest boys' man on the continent. Mr. Statton told the fellows that four of the nine Canadian Rhodes' scholars were former Tuxis boys, among them being the only son of the honorary president of the Ahmeek Club, Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor).

The speaker emphasized that the will of the late Cecil Rhodes, empire builder, by which the famous Rhodes scholarship was created, which is the goal of scholastic ambition in the Anglos-Saxon world, called for a total of 200 credits to be marked, as follows: 60 for education (wisdom), 40 for sport (that is, manly sport, not horse racing, etc., (stature), 60 for moral uprightness (God), and the remaining 40 for social uplift (man). As can be plainly seen, the C. S. E. T. program calls for the same things that the great Imperialist of South Africa and the greatest minds in the British Empire could think of.

The ex-mayor of the boys' council introduced the new mayor, City Clerk Baker also swore in the new council. The prizes were then presented.

GALA NIGHT AT L. C. I.

Misses Sparling, Barnett, Kitchen and Mr. Kennedy on Great Program.

The Literary Society of the London Collegiate Institute scored another well-earned success last evening. The society rendered a very pretty comedy depicting early married life. Miss S. Higman and Wee Morris were the young husband and young wife. Miss Helen Clark and Hyles Tempin scored as the bride's father and mother, and incidentally the groom's parents-in-law. Of course no comedy of this kind is complete without some servants to provide the comedy. Miss Kathleen England as Elizabeth, the maid-servant, was very good, but it remained to Dick Bowen as the butler to "bring the house down."

The Glee Club was very entertaining, rendering several numbers to the satisfaction of all. Miss D. Wilson sang the solo part in one of the numbers, and we feel sure she will be heard from later.

The L. C. I. orchestra provided the instrumental music in its usual snappy style. This, with the presentation of prizes won at the field day sports held Friday afternoon, completed a very successful evening's entertainment. Mr. George McCracken was in the chair. The following committee was responsible: Misses McPherson, Kelso, K. Partidge and Mr. Gray.

FIELD DAY WILL BE HELD MAY 15.

De La Salles' annual field day will be held by the pupils on Monday, May 15, at Springbank. The program will consist of broad jump and 100-yard dash, with a mile race and relay. A large number of competitors are expected to enter.

A character's like a kettle: once mended, always wants mending.

LONDON CRACK SHOT GETS PLACE ON TEAM

Francis Floyd Picked to Go as Representative of the Winchester Club.

The headquarters of the Winchester Rifle Association at New Haven, Conn., in announcing their all-American junior rifle corps, have honored London, and in fact, the whole Dominion, in appointing Expert Rifleman Francis Lloyd to this team. Francis, we are sorry to say, will not be able to enjoy this to the full as he is at present ill in his home with pleurisy. The following is an extract from an article by P. P. Carney, editor of the National Sports Syndicate:

Picking all-American teams in various branches of sport has become an art, and being an artist—so they say—I decided to break in and last year selected an all-American team of juvenile rifle shots. If you are going to do a job you might as well do a good one, and I know of nothing more difficult than the selecting of an all-star rifle team from 200,000 or more boys and girls who shoot with the small bore rifle. As no complaints were received on the teams chosen I am taking another chance. Here are the first and second junior all-American rifle

First Team—Richard Lee Beck, Bridgeport, Ohio; Richard Ballard, Des Moines, Ia.; Paul K. Rau, Wakefield, Kans.; Russell Wiles, Chicago, Ill.; Ulric Vance, Hillsboro, Ohio.

Second Team—William E. Locke, Dinuba, Calif.; John Danner, Evanston, Ill.; George Papanthony, Chicago, Ill.; Francis Floyd, London, Ont.; Helen Addleman, Joliet, Ill.

The above boys and girls are under 18 years of age, the king pin shooter—Beck—being only 14 years. Beck and Ballard were chosen on last year's team, the only two of the team to uphold their performances of the year before. Four of the ten of the year previous, however, are now beyond the age limit of 18 in the Winchester Junior Rifle Corps, from which organization we secured our "dope" on the coming champions.

Dick Beck, who is given the post of honor on the first team, is unquestionably the best junior rifle shot in the world. For three consecutive years he has won the championship of the Winchester Junior Rifle Corps—and in the three years he has placed every shot in the bullseye. Better than that can't be done.

Dick Ballard last year and the year before was a member of the United States small bore team that defeated England. Paul Rau tied Beck for the championship in 1921 and on the shoot off he got 70 out of 80 in the A circle of the bull. They learn something besides farming in Kansas. Russell Wiles won the junior championship of the National Rifle Association and Ulric Vance gets in because he was good enough to make a place on the United States small bore team—made up from the best

YOUNG JUDEAN CLUB HAVE LIVELY SESSION

Judean Boys Donate Ten Dollars To Children's Hospital.

The last meeting of the Young Judean Club saw the inauguration of the new officers, "Moe" Bardenstein holding down the chair, Hym Ginsberg at his right hand, Abe Siskind, scribe, and Archie Cherrin, with the club's treasury in his custody.

The meeting opened with the singing of "Hatikvah," the Jewish National Anthem. During the business part of the meeting it was decided to donate $10 to the War Memorial Children's Hospital.

The current events were hotly discussed, and almost ending in a free-for-all. When the dust had settled, the meeting proceeded. When all the business was over, the boys had their social quarter of an hour of jokes and conundrums. Then as the hands of the watch was slowly approaching ten, the meeting was adjourned until May 20, after the singing of "God Save the King."

ARCHIE M'VICAR AND KEN KING OFFICIATE AT SERVICE

Mr. Versey Tells Boys They Must Guard Themselves Before Capable of Guarding Others.

The Trail Rangers of the Church of Christ (Disciples) under the leadership of Archie McVicar, assisted by Kenneth King, took charge of the devotional service Sunday evening, for the first time since their organization.

A. McVicar led the devotion, while Scripture readings were given by Claud Boxall and Kenneth King. Clarence Boxall and Jack Young were the ushers.

The pastor, Rev. J. H. Versey, gave a very instructive address to the boys, his theme being taken from the text, "Exercise Thyself Unto Godliness." He pointed out that a sound body meant a sound soul and mind, and that the boy must guard himself before he can guard others. During the discourse the pastor spoke of the commendable work done by the various clubs for the better boyhood of our city, and challenged the boys to be worthy of the time and money that is continually being spent for their good.

While the Trail Rangers have been organized but a short while, the pastor and mentor are confident that they will do good work.

SUCCESSFUL RUMMAGE SALE

Eighth Troop Boy Scouts Making Rapid Progress.

The rummage sale, which was held by the 8th Troop on Saturday, May 6, was a great success. Approximately $100 was collected. This money will be used to equip a bugle band, which will be under the direction of Patrol Leader Stuart MacCallum and Scout Lloyd Peckham. During the week Patrol Leaders Len Blackwell, Stuart MacCallum and Hart Phipps passed their fireman's test at the central fire hall. The first patrol have secured a tent, which will be used on overnight hikes.

Last Saturday afternoon the troop gave a tent raising display at Thames Park.

rifle shooters in the United States. That he is from Hillsboro, Ohio, the home of Hugh Fullerton, didn't influence us in the least.

The second team is also a wonderful combination. It is headed by William Locke of the Dinuba (Calif.) High School, who recently scored 644 consecutive bullseyes at 50 feet and accomplished the feat in 4 hours and 35 minutes. John Danner won the boys' championship in the grand western small bore tournament; George Papanthony won the championship of the Chicago schools; Francis Floyd won the Canadian championship in the W. J. R. C., and Helen Addleman was top scorer among the girls in the W. J. R. C.

We doubt very much if two better juvenile teams could be chosen and personally we would like to have these ten shoot against any ten rifle shooters, irrespective of age.

The London Boys' Own Tiser wish to take this opportunity of congratulating Francis Floyd on his attaining this honor, and the local Winchester Corps of which Francis is a valued member.

'DAVE' ALLAN HAS GONE TO OTHER FIELDS

Popular Y. M. C. A. Official Resigned on Account of Ill-Health.

"Dave" Allan left last week for an extended vacation on the St. Lawrence River, in Quebec. Mr. Allan came to the London Y. about four years ago from Quebec. The time which he was with us was very profitably spent for London "Y." During his sojourn in our city, Mr. Allan earned the respect of all he came in contact with.

The local boys wish to take this opportunity in wishing Mr. Allan every success in his new field of endeavor, and feel assured he will "go over the top" in whatever line of work he may choose, whether it be "Y." work or business.

Arthur Horwood, formerly assistant physical director of the "Y," is now traveling for a well-known oil company. It is with an assurance, based on well and long acquaintance with "Art" that everyone is sure he will make a great "drummer."

PAST PRESIDENT HARLEY WILSON AGAIN LEADS COMEX

Genial Controller Again Elected Praetor of This Peppy Colborne Street Group.

One of the most successful events in the history of the Excelsior Class of Colborne Street Church occurred Thursday evening, when all the fellows met at 7:30 to hold their annual banquet, followed by elections.

At 7:30 all fellows sat down to a huge spread prepared under direction of the social committee, composed of Art Henderson, Fred Oliver, Cyril Kaiser, and Roy Lockrey, their very capable convener. The club had as its guests the superintendent and Mr. Westbury, and Beverley Robinson from the "Crusaders," and Cam Brown from Comrades. The club greatly regretted the absence of Mr. Kelly, their pastor, and Mr. Thompson, Comex mentor, who were unable to attend because of sickness.

After all the fellows had eaten greatly in excess of the capacity of their stomachs of ice cream, pie, cake, etc., the toastmaster, Roy Lockrey, took charge, presenting a toast to the king. Garn Wootton presented the toast to the pastor. Rog Sanders gave the toast to the superintendent, who made a very suitable reply. The toast to the Tuxis Square, presented by Fred Oliver, was replied to by Praetor Cuyler Henderson. The teacher, Mr. Lovell, replied to the toast to the class as given by Cuyler Henderson. After presenting a toast to the ladies, the toastmaster presented each with a nice box of chocolates.

After the toasting, Past President Harley Wilson took charge and called upon each officer for the year's report in turn. All reports showed the class had enjoyed a most successful year. Unanimous votes of thanks were given to each of the retiring officers, who were: President and reporter, Harley Wilson; first vice-president, Roy Lockrey; secretary, Cuyler Henderson; treasurer, Rog Sanders; teacher, Mr. Lovell. A very pleasing incident was the presentation of two books, one to Cuyler Henderson and the other to Roy Lockrey, for best two essays on "Excelsior," from class.

The election of officers then followed, the result being the election of the following: President, Roy Lockrey; first vice-president, Cuyler Henderson; second vice-president, president, Fred Oliver; secretary, Art Henderson; treasurer, Rog Sanders; reporter to Boys' Own Tiser, Harley Wilson; Librarian, Cyril Kaiser. Each fellow thanked the club for the honor of being elected to hold their respective office in the club.

The secretary then swore in the newly-elected officers, and the meeting broke up with "God Save the King" at 11 o'clock. The feature of the evening was the spirit of enthusiasm which prevailed.

ORIOLES STAGE GAME FIGHT.

Last Saturday two local junior teams staged an exciting game at Alexandra school grounds. The game was hotly contested. The game ended 10-8, with the Ty. coaches pulling the long end, although it looked as if the Orioles would stage a comeback in the last inning. Batteries: McDougall and Rankin;

WE TAKE OFF OUR HATS TO THE BOYS.

The boy's complex is of many things compounded. In it mingle not merely the reckless and irresponsible impulses of youthful animalism, of life surging strong toward an unknown goal, but the voices of many generations of masculine ambition and achievement. The past calls to the present in his soul and makes him feel like a potential conqueror of the future. With him there are no new theories of life and government, in spite of the nineteenth amendment and modern gospels of democracy. The world is his, and he feels that it is his sex that has made it and must keep it going. Girls are all right in their way. But the unanswerable evidence of his superiority is that most girls wish they were boys, while no boy, even a "sissy" boy, ever wished he were a girl.—Baltimore Sun.

THE BIBLE.

Written in the East, these characters live forever in the West; written in one province, they pervade the world; penned in rude times, they are prized more and more as civilization advances; product of antiquity, they come home to the business and bosoms of men, women and children in modern days.—R. L. Stevenson.

"YOU."

We have been twitted to such an extent recently by wags for our lack of uplifting influence in our editorial page, so we forthwith take our editorial pen (typewriter) in hand to put Billy Sunday out of a job.

Did you ever think, you older boys, of the influence (good or bad) you exert on your younger friends? "Bunk!" you say, but we cannot agree with you. Take young Jim or Bob or anyone else, in fact, who is younger than you. He will watch the things you do, and if he admires you, ten to one he will copy what you do. So let this ever be your watchword, "Play Safe," because what you do today may be the making or breaking of some other "man of tomorrow."

FAST GAME PREDICTED

Opening Game Of C. S. E. T. Baseball At Springbank Monday Night.

The Ahmeeks are awaiting with keen anticipation and evident enthusiasm the opening of the C. S. E. T. Baseball League. Their fast and ever-improving team is doubtless enjoying its most successful and finest year. At present they have three victories to their credit, and have staged numerous practices. The recent new members in the club have considerably augmented the playing ability of the aggregation. The team work is especially noticeable, and every man has had to thoroughly demonstrate his ability before he was allotted a permanent position. The probable line-up on Monday night against the Pirate team will be: Battery, Russell, Blackwell, Warner; first base, Ferguson; second base, Rose; third base, Daly; shortstop, McLean; fielders, McCullough, McClurg, Allison, Kay.

A good game is predicted, as the Ahmeeks and Pirates played close games and at no time certain ones last season. If the New St. James lads have improved proportionally, the contest will lack no interest.

RED FOXES WIN FIRST FROM BEAVERS

Interesting Game At Queen's Park Gives Foxes Good Start.

The Lone Scout League, which opened on May 5, at Queen's Park, got away to a good start, when the Red Foxes swooped down on the Beavers for a 16 to 5 victory. Although neither team was full strength the game was an exciting bit of past-timing, in which the Beavers showed plenty of the "fight back" spirit, despite the overlapping total. The first man up for the Indians, Clark, drew a free pass, stole second while Jones was looking them over, and came home on the latter's single. That started things, and the Beaver pitcher, Obeay, had great difficulty in re-tiring the side after six runs had been scored. "Fat" Sadlier, the little Fox pill-artist, faced the Beaver batters, and retired the side without difficulty, after walking two. Hodgson's homer in the fourth put the kibosh on Mr. Obeay, and that worthy, seeing that he was in great danger of being annihilated, asked Manager Hystee to send in someone else, so Woodward was sent in. He brought the slugging Red Foxes to an abrupt halt, and stopped the scoring in that frame. But the Indians were bound to garner a "few" more tallies, so they fell on him in the fifth for a quartet of runs. However, he pulled himself together and managed to finish the inning. Storey was sent in in the next frame, and proved choice picking, as the Foxes smashed his dainty offerings for four more runs. In the seventh "Doc" Getsinger took the slab for the Red Foxes. After passing the first two up he calmly struck out the next three, handing the Beavers one of the biggest "lemons" they have yet received.

On Friday, May 19, the Red Foxes clash with the Wolves, one of the strongest tribe teams in the Lone Scout League.

The score: R. H. E.
Red Foxes 600 242 2—16 19 3
Beavers 002 002 0—4 7 4
Batteries: L. Sadlier and Hodgson; Obeay, Woodward, Storey and Hystee.

LOOKING 'EM OVER.

(On the Lone Scout Diamond.)
"Al" Hodgson, popular Red Fox catcher, used to be a star pitcher, but he says he prefers catching now.

The Beavers sure have a find in Miles, the new pitcher they will trot out against the Pirates on Tuesday, May 16, for the first time.

The Red Fox pitching roster looks pretty with H. Sadlier, Forbes, L. Sadlier and "Doc" Getsinger.

Brodie, the 13-year-old Fox infielder, sure looks nice, and he can hit, too!

The Foxes have one (and the Beavers the other), of the two fastest baserunners in the league. They are Storey for the Beavers and Clark for the Red Foxes. These boys sure do rip up the base lines.

"Lefty" James, who is putting in his initial year as a first baseman with the Foxes, is coming along fast. This chap ought to be as good as any by next September.

The Beavers and the Pirates sure had some argument over London South last Tuesday. The Beavers were lucky to win by the score of 5-4.

The Aces of Clubs report a deficiency in their pitching staff, Finns being the only one that can sling the pill at all. Anyone know of a Mails or Mathewson, who wants to hire out for the season?

WHY ARE UMPIRES ALL SUPPOSED TO BE ROTTEN?

Cubs and Stars Are Battling This Problem Out Between Themselves

The Stars defeated the Cubs on Wednesday by the score of 11 to 6. The game was close and well played until the last inning, when the heavy hitting of the Donahue brothers was felt in the box score. J. Donahue, considering his diminutive size, pitched a good game. The umpires had difficulty "seeing" them, as the players saw them so naturally there was war in the camp.

The batteries: Stars—Donahue, Longo and Donahue; Cubs—Forbes and Hervigson.

HOLY NAME LEAGUE ORGANIZED.

On Tuesday last St. Peter's Junior Holy Name team met at the De La Salle school. The team must be finally put at 12 members by June 1. A special schedule is made out and the following are the teams that are in the league: St. Peters, St. Marys, St. Michaels and St. Martins. The games will be played at Sunshine Park, at the north end of Colborne street. Some likely players in St. Peters team are: O'Brien, J. Dromgole, Dignan, Henry, Donahue and Cook. The other teams also had

MAPLE LEAFS, INVINCIBLES AND EXCELSIORS TO HAVE CHURCH SERVICES

These Clubs and Others Will Take Part in Boys' Week Church Day.

Boys' Week has come and gone. It has been termed by every one concerned a great success. The clubs who have helped to put this across—the Canadian Club, the Knights of Columbus, the Rotary, the Kiwanis, the Mothers' Club, the Lions', and the Ministerial Alliance—deserve great credit.

The last day, Sunday, was one of the best. All the churches of the city had boys' services. In Centennial Methodist Church two of the older boys gave addresses, Bill Reade and Bill Torney. There was also a boys' choir at this church.

The Knox Presbyterian Church heard Preston Minnis talk on service. The speaker is a member of the Excelsiors. The choir was composed of the boys' group in the church, the Excelsiors, the Ahmeeks, the Wingfoots and the Cubs.

The Wellington Street Methodists were addressed in the evening by Wilf Boyce, his subject being "What the Church Expects of the Boy." George Cannom, the preter of the Invincibles, will make the announcements; Mill, Brady, the lesson, and Doug Woollatt, the prayer.

Other churches, both Roman Catholic and Protestant, had some services for the boy.

FORGIVEN.

This curious poem was unearthed from some ancient works in England. The original is in Hebrew, and this translation is by Zangwill. Note the construction of the lines. Each letter of the alphabet, with the exception of three, forms the beginning of each line.

Aye, 'tis thus.
Evil us
Hath in bond.

By Thy grace
Guilt efface.
And respond—"Forgiven!"

Cast scorn o'er,
And abhor
Th' informer's word.

Dear God, design
This refrain
To make heard—"Forgiven!"

Ear in lieu Give him, who Intercedes;

Favoring Answer, King.
When he pleads—"Forgiven!"

Grant also
The lily blow
In Abram's right;

Heal our shame
And proclaim
From thine height—"Forgiven!"

Just forgiving,
Mercy living,
Sin condone;

List our cry:
Loud reply
From Thy throne—"Forgiven!"

My wound heal,
Deep conceal
Stain and flake.

Now gain praise
By Thy phrase
"For my sake forgiven!"

O forgive!
Thy sons live
From thee reft;

Praised for grace,
Turn Thy face
To those left—"Forgiven!"

Raise to thee
This my plea,
Take my pray'r,

Sin unmake
For Thy sake,
And declare—"Forgiven!"

Tears, regret,
Witness set
In Sin's place;

Uplift trust
From the dust
To Thy face—"Forgiven!"

Voice that moans,
Tears and groans,
Do not spurn;

Weigh not flaws,
Plead my cause,
And return—"Forgiven!"

Yea, oft rolled,
As foretold,
Clouds impure,

Zion's folk
Free of yoke,
Oh, assure—"Forgiven!"

Day by day
Stronghold they Seek in Thee,

Good One! Let Stronger yet
Thy word be—"Forgiven!"

ST. MARY'S SCOUTS INCREASING ROLL CALL

Troop No. 4 Is Rapidly Growing and Boys Are Exceptionally Interested.

St. Mary's Boy Scouts have increased in number. Mr. Payne, scout master, with Assistant Jack Rourke and Patrol Leaders Norbert Flood, J. Darcy, N. Howard, J. Ryan, went out to visit the summer camp site.

A baseball team has been organized, and the boys will be anxious to play games with any other scout teams. A clubroom suitable for winter and summer has been obtained, and is being used. The chaplain, Father Weber, has made this presentation. This makes it so the boys can enter their clubroom and box as well as wrestle and read books at any time.

Many new promotions have been made and others will be made. Boys are increasing. Mr. Payne says St. Mary's seems to be the best Catholic troop to be doing well. Howard, troop leader, has been kept busy helping the boys in obtaining their tenderfoot badges, and he to soon be helping some obtain the second-class badge. Every Tuesday the boys meet and play games, have a little exercising drill, and are not obliged to stay late.

COMING SOON.

Jackie Coogan is coming to Allen's next week. He is playing his best role in "My Boy." He has a faculty of making the grown-ups laugh, as well as the children.

WHAT HO! YE PIRATES!

The Piratical Craft in All Likelihood Will Have Its Blanks Knawed by the Ahmeeks (Beavers).

The Ahmeeks have returned from their spring training trip and are resting up for their league games. They have a string of victories to their credit as long as your arm. The first to fall to their peerless brand of baseball were the London West Demons. The Ahmeeks had a little bit of difficulty with this bunch, and only put them out by a last-minute rally, by McCullough, followed by a three-bagger by Russell, who scored on Blackwell's single. This fracas ended 2 to 1 for the Ahmeeks.

Then the famous gladiators of the diamond took on the Thames Riversides. This team was easy for the Ahmeeks.

On Monday night the Presbyterian nine took on the Askin Street Elks. The "thousands" of spectators who were on hand to witness this game were disappointed. The Ahmeek sluggers knocked four Methodist pitchers to the showers, namely, Plastow, Baker and Shaw. The Elks only found Russell for one lonely single. Reed caught for the Elks and Warner for the winners. When the smoke of battle had cleared and the adding machine operators had come to a decision, it was found the Ahmeeks were on the top section of a twelve to nothing score.

EXPECTS EARLY RISE IN PRICE OF AUTO TIRES

Says Industry Now Faces
Shortage of Finished Products.

NEED EXPERIENCED MEN

Claims Rubber Men in This District Lack Co-operation.

BY J. L. MIDDLETON.

One of the most difficulties encountered by tire dealers in this part of the country is their distrust of each other. I am happy to say, however, that the situation is rapidly changing and that business is getting on a higher plane. This was the sentiment expressed by a prominent tire manufacturer in conversation with the writer recently.

When asked about the much-talked-of advance in tires, he said, "I am an advance was more than likely to come, but that it would be foolish for consumers or dealers to load up on stock in anticipation of the rise, as everyone would have an opportunity of buying their requirements at the old price list."

Price Advance Rumored.

While in Detroit at the early part of the week, the writer found that rumors of a rise in the price of tires and that advances in the price of cotton and crude rubber would in all probability lead to upward revision. That keen competition of tire workers and the current inactivity in unfinished markets is largely responsible for the continuance of what is considered, in some quarters, low tire prices, is a representative opinion of the industry. Prices of tires are lower than they should be, it is asserted, and within reasonable time they must advance. In part, the predicted rise hinges on the advances seen to be imminent in such basic materials as cotton and crude rubber.

Lack Finished Products.

Rumors of an increase in the price of tires were based mostly on obvious conditions. It is pointed out that the industry, particularly in the United States, faces a shortage of finished products. Many call attention to the boom in orders that has appeared with warmer weather. They say the manufacturers, especially at Akron, Ohio, cannot obtain experienced workers. The general policy of taking only former employees had to be abandoned, because all the old hands had been absorbed and it is now necessary to employ new men.

Consequent to these evident facts, finished product inventories were seriously threatened. New men, new to the industry, were added to working forces, but here again a limit was reached. Akron cannot house many more workers, the city finds. Rents are rising, food and clothing prices are increasing, and little building has been done. Also as a result of the new business those rubber companies still at work on old fabric and rubber commitments will probably reach the bottom of the basket a month or two sooner than expected.

Will Affect Canada.

Smaller companies and one or two of the larger ones which have been buying in the open market for some time will probably have to place large fabric orders. All these movements are bound to be reflected in market prices. What applies to the United States in this connection generally applies to Canada. When these companies, leaders in the tire business, see a certain rise all along the line, this means, it is asserted, higher prices for tires.

There is no question but that tire sales in London and district this season will far exceed last year's volume, and in view of a possible increase in prices we urge every motorist who is in the market for new casings to make his 1922 purchases without delay.

Vacation time will soon be here, and it is well to be prepared. A stitch in time saves nine, and in the case of buying tires, many dollars may be saved by buying now.

AUTO INDUSTRY SHOWS ADVANCE

General Motors Export Large Number of Cars To England.

The automobile industry in Canada has been one of the first industries to resume pre-war production schedules. The domestic market for motor cars has improved 200 per cent over last year. In many makes of cars the demand at present is greater than the supply. Now that prices have been stabilized prospective buyers are no longer deferring purchases, which fact has stimulated business this spring. Canada is fast becoming an important factor in export trade as far as automobiles are concerned. Ever since General Motors of Canada, Limited, with plants at Walkerville and Oshawa, decided to enter the export markets, large shipments of General Motors cars have left Oshawa daily for British and foreign parts. The export market has experienced steady and stable improvement. Orders have been coming in faster than was at first anticipated. At the present time General Motors of Canada, Limited, find it necessary to work overtime in order to fill orders for domestic and overseas demand.

Exports Automobiles.

Last week an entire trainload, consisting of 63 freight cars, loaded with General Motors cars left Oshawa for the Atlantic seaboard en route to England. The train reached St. John on April 21. Three days were required to load the boxed automobiles, together with other shipments which had previously reached St. John, into the Canadian Conqueror, a government owned steamship, three-quarters of whose cargo consisted of motor cars. The steamship left St. John on April 26, and arrived in London May 6. The automobiles were unloaded in England, and were ready for distribution in the British Empire on May 9. This rapid transit was made possible by the fact that the Grand Trunk National and the Government Merchant Marine handled the entire shipment and co-operated with the manufacturers to give them prompt service.

This trainload of automobiles is estimated to be worth $320,000. The weight was over 500 tons, and the cost of transporting the shipment from Oshawa to England was $40,000. As the shipment was entirely handled by government lines, and as other shipments are being sent daily to all points of the globe, the automobile industry is making its liberal contribution to the prosperity of Canadian railroad and steamship companies.

Stimulates Others.

A diverse array of industries are today feeling the stimulus to business caused by the export demand for automobiles. The lumber alone required for the building of the bodies and for boxing the motor cars for this trainload shipment runs into vast figures, all of which is produced in Canada. Every factory making in small parts and accessories used in the Canadian-built motor cars is feeling the benefit. The automobile industry is today employing more people than ever before, and in this way is one of the leading industries in hastening the return of national prosperity.

RESPECT AND ALLEGIANCE

Firestone Tire performance has won the respect of the tire buyer and the allegiance of the tire dealer this year as never before. To give quality, too high a price, or to slight quality for the sake of price would not meet the need for lower transportation costs here in the Dominion. Most Miles per Dollar is now the paramount need of the tire buyer.

The answer to this need is found in Firestone mileage—greater than ever in the past—which now sells at the lowest price on record.

Ask anyone about the service they are getting from Firestone. Cords or Fabrics—and check Firestone prices. The inevitable conclusion as shown by the practical test of value is "Buy Firestones".

AUTO ENABLES ONE TO TRAVEL WHERE AND WHEN HE CARES

STATES VIBRATION HARMFUL TO AUTO

Claims Six-Cylinder Car More Economical Than Four.

"Five dollars fine for crossing this bridge faster than a walk."

This old familiar sign is evidence of the destructive effect of vibration. Just as vibrations destroy a bridge, they destroy automobiles.

"This is one of the fundamental reasons why a properly-designed, 6-cylinder car is more economical than a four of similar size," says Mr. H. M. Jewett, president of the Paige-Detroit Motor Car Company. "The absence of vibration in the six means longer life and lower upkeep costs for the entire car. It also means greater driving comfort. The great advantage of the six in performance under normal driving conditions is obvious. It runs smoother, picks up faster, and is in every way more desirable from the owner's standpoint.

"Compare a properly-designed modern six with a four of the same piston displacement, and the four has no advantage in gasoline consumption."

Today She Has No Rheumatism

WHY MANITOBA LADY PRAISES DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Madame Compayre Says Not Only Satisfactory, But Wonderful, Are Results She Got From Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Inwood, Man. (Special).—"The results I got from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills have been not only satisfactory but astonishing." So says Jacqueline Compayre, well known and most highly respected here.

"I suffered from rheumatism and anaemia," Madame Compayre continues. "The pain was so severe that at times I could not find rest. I found relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills and today I have no rheumatism."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are a kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys and put them in shape to strain all the uric acid out of the blood. With no uric acid in the blood there can be no rheumatism.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not make healthy kidneys.—Adv.

Automobile Engineer Emphasizes Importance of Correct Lubrication

THE correct lubrication of any motor vehicle, according to an expert oil engineer, depends on three conditions, all within the control of the operator. They are:

The use of lubricating oil of the highest quality.

The use of the correct grade of that oil to meet the engine operating conditions exactly.

Proper precautions to maintain the quality of the lubricant while in service and to make adjustments to insure its delivery in the correct quantities to the friction surfaces.

Failure of the operator to give the necessary attention to any one of these conditions may result in impaired performance and increased operating costs.

The choice of the correct oil for any particular engine is a matter for a competent engineer. It involves four basic lubrication factors affected by engine design.

One is engine operating temperature. This depends primarily on the service, or "loading," of the engine. The steady, uninterrupted work of the tractor engine determines high temperatures, as contrasted with the intermittent work encountered by the truck or passenger car engine.

As all oils tend to lose body or thin out under heat, the heavier-bodied oils seem best where operating temperatures are high.

The eight are charged specifically with the killing of Terence Lyons, acting police lieutenant.

"We have sufficient evidence to hang Murphy, Shea and Mader," George F. Gorman, assistant state's attorney, said following announcement that indictments had been returned.

Retiring Allowances To Be Available Upon Tendering of Resignations.

OTTAWA, May 12.—(By Canadian Press).—On consideration of the judges' act today in the Senate, Hon. Mr. Barnard gave notice of an amendment to the effect that the governor-general-in-council, on the recommendation of the minister of justice, after three months' notice had been served on a judge, who, through age or other infirmity, was unable to perform his duties, and who still refused to retire, that the salary of the said judge be reduced to $1 per annum and continue at this amount until he retires, when his retiring allowance would be based on the salary previous to his resignation.

Sir George Foster said that every effort had been made to keep the judiciary free from political interference. While there was no doubt that some steps would have to be taken to secure the retirement of incapacitated judges, he asked that further time be given for consideration of the amendment.

Senator Dandurand was in sympathy with the object of the amendment, but expressed the opinion that it ought probably to be secured by a separate bill.

Senator Belcourt asked the Senate at the same time to consider the question of judges acting on commissions. The time given for this work by judges had become scandalous and interfered with the administration of justice.

Senator Robertson believed that Senator Barnard was justified in proposing his amendment, as there appeared unanimity in the Senate on this question displayed in previous debates.

Consideration of the bill was carried over until Wednesday.

The Senate adjourned until Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

OTTAWA, May 12.—Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, announced this afternoon to the Commons that the budget would be brought down on Tuesday, May 23.

Hon. A. B. Copp, secretary of state, referred to an article in a Montreal newspaper to the effect that reparations to a total of $22,000,000 for damages by Germany against Canadian citizens had already been paid.

Mr. Copp declared that the article was without foundation. No claims for reparation had yet been paid.

Fears Public Will Have To Pay More For Bread.

OTTAWA, May 12.—Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture, addressing the agriculture committee of the house today, suggested that the three prairie provinces had power to create a wheat board apart from anything the federal government might do.

Such a board would not bind the other six provinces.

"If you get $25,000,000 for your wheat, as has been said will be the case," Mr. Motherwell proceeded, "it has got to come from those who eat the bread, and you can't get away from it. A board might handle grain a little more cheaply, but not much."

COURT OF JUSTICE OPEN TO WORLD

GENEVA, May 12.—The Court of International Justice this afternoon was thrown open to the entire world when the council of the League of Nations decided that Russia, Germany, Turkey, Hungary and Mexico could bring cases before the court, provided they previously had agreed to accept its decisions and not declare war over the disputes in question. These nations are the only ones to which the court had not previously been available for the settlement of disputes.

LADY BYNG PAYS VISIT TO KINGSTON

KINGSTON, May 12.—Her Excellency Lady Byng attended the graduation exercises of the training school for nurses of the Kingston Hospital held this evening in Grant Hall, and presented the hospital emblem pins to the 28 graduates.

HALIFAX EXPLOSION WRECKED HER NERVES

The reader will, no doubt, remember when a few years ago there was a collision in the Halifax, N. S., harbor, and one of the munition ships was blown up, causing great loss of life and laying a large portion of the city in ruins, and causing a great deal of suffering and distress among the inhabitants.

Mrs. Winfield Dill, now of Windsor, N. S., was living in Halifax at that time and went through this trying experience and the shock wrecked her nerves. She writes as follows: "I was living in Halifax at the time of the explosion, and it wrecked my nerves, so that I could not do my housework. I would take such nervous spells I would be under the doctor's care."

I saw Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills advertised, so I took two boxes, and they helped me so much I took six more, and now I am completely relieved. I can recommend them to anyone suffering from heart and nerve trouble."

To all those who suffer from nervous shock we would recommend our

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

as the best remedy to tone up the entire nervous system and strengthen the weakened organs. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the original heart and nerve food, having been on the market for the past 27 years. 'STONE BRUISE' MAY CAUSE BLOWOUT Break in Fabric of Auto Tires Always Occurs in Inside Ply First.

A "stone bruise" is the term used to describe an injury to a tire caused by striking some object with sufficient force to cause the tire fabric to be broken. It need not be a stone that causes the damage.

The break in the fabric may be in only one ply or it may be in all of them; but in any case it is always the inside ply that breaks first.

An inexperienced driver whose tire gets a heavy blow from a stone or a curb usually looks over the outside of the tire to see if any damage has been done. But the old driver knows that if harm has been done the place to look for it is in the inside, and that any break in the fabric will be registered on the inside ply first.

Normally the inside ply is shorter than the rest and each ply is shorter than any of the others which are located outside of it. This is because it is on the inside of the curvature of the tire. Now if the tire is suddenly compressed at some point to a considerable extent, such as shown in the illustration, the relative position of the plies is reversed, that is, the outside ply becomes at this particular point the inside ply as regards the curvature, and the inside ply becomes the outside ply as regards curvature.

This has the effect of stretching the inside ply more than any of the others and, of course, if the amount of stretch is very great, the fabric will be broken.

If it should happen, as it often does, that only one or two inner plies are broken, there will not be any signs of the injury on the outside until a considerable time afterward. This is because the other plies still unbroken will continue to hold against the air pressure even though they will be under excessive strain.

But continued flexing will eventually break them also and the result may be a blow-out which may occur at any time, even on a perfectly smooth pavement.

Another effect of a break in one or two inner plies may be that from continued bending the broken edges of the fabric rub a hole in the inner tube at that point. Sometimes the break is so pronounced, especially in a fabric tire, that the air pressure forces the inner tube into the break, and as this is continually opening and closing, as the tire rolls, the action is like a pair of pincers and cuts the tube.

If the tube is chafed through or cut after a bruise, such as described, the air will pass directly through the carcass and force the rubber side covering, and sometimes the tread, loose from the fabric. When this happens the user generally terms it a blow-out and as a matter of fact it is; but contrary to the opinion often held, it is seldom the result of a defect in manufacture. It can generally be traced to an injury sustained some time prior to the final breaking down of the tire.

TESTIFIES $15,000 PAID FOR LETTERS

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 12.—The hearing of testimony in the Stillman divorce case closed with a sensation today, when a detective hired by James A. Stillman, New York banker and plaintiff, testified that he and Outerbridge Horsey, one of Mr. Stillman's lawyers, had paid $15,000 to Fred Beauvais, Indian guide, named as co-respondent, for four letters alleged to have been written to Beauvais by Mrs. Anne U. Stillman.

The purchase of the letters was made at Montreal this week, the detective, Edmund Leigh, said.

New York traffic court collected $4,800 in traffic fines in one day. Valet and maid accompany each bus from London to seaside resorts.

REPORTS DROP IN BEER PRICE

MONTREAL, May 12.—A drop of 5 cents in the price of pint bottles of beer is accounted for in some circles in Montreal by the rumor that "breweries are having a fight." Beer in taverns is now 20 cents a pint for some brands, and 15 cents a pint for others, instead of 20 cents and 25 cents. A hotelman is authority for the statement that "we are now paying only 80 cents per dozen for beer which cost us $1.10 two months ago."

THESE are great days for the motor car user—in a tire sense. Your dollar never before bought as much. Your speedometer never before registered as much. Your repair kit never was as idle. All because Dunlop Cord Tires came and ushered in a new era. Five years ago you paid half as much again for the same size tire; ten years ago you paid twice as much. Prices have been tumbling. Quality has been mounting.

One time we thought 3,500 was mileage to boast of; to-day we may run into half a dozen "25,000 milers" in a forenoon. "Dunlop did it," says one enthusiast. "The 'Two Hands' are making us Mile-ionaires," says another; and so on.

The sign "Mileage Wanted" is now changed to "Mileage Supplied."

The Master of the Highway Will Make Your Other Motoring Experiences Seem Tame

As the 6-66 speeds away you lose all sense of road contact. For that, you can thank six mighty cylinders that develop 70 horsepower and function with the ease and smoothness of a giant turbine.

The 6-66 offers the fullest degree of motoring comfort because it was designed along strictly modern lines with ample margins of strength and power.

You can best appreciate it by making direct comparisons with cars that cost from $6,000 to $9,000. In active demonstration on the road or quietly parked among the nation's best, the 6-66 will convince you that it belongs to no price field—acknowledges no competition on a basis of dollar-for-dollar value.

That is why it is known as the undisputed Master of the Highway.

That is why the Paige Daytona Model 6-66 holds every stock chassis speedway record from 5 to 100 miles.

And that is why it is the soundest and safest of all fine car investments at the greatly reduced price.

Slow Driving Enables Mechanism of Car To Adjust Itself.

BY MOTORIST.

ISN'T it a grand and glorious feeling to be enthroned behind the steering wheel of a new touring car? Some boast! Walking range—simply wonderful! Chug, chug, chug—every explosion, though practically silent, comes full, distinct, well rounded, even. And so, with the realization that this certainly is a beautiful car, you settle into a feeling that, in spite of what has been said of it lately, life is, indeed, worth living, and motoring the quintessence of enjoyment to which no other form of exhilaration can be compared.

So far, so good. Just about then comes the true test of your character, the supreme trial of your will power, steadfastness and self-denial; for from the tonneau, where the rest of the family are ensconced comes the shrill voice of little Jimmy: "Pop—oh, pop, lessee how fast she'll go, will ya?" If you care for the advice of one whose backseat cushions have been frequented by a number of little Jimmys' have somebody yank the diminutive speed flend back to his seat. Don't, please don't, listen to him.

But the real trouble is that deep down in the mental make-up of such fellows, even as you and I, there often is—all too often—that little Jimmy jinx hidden away, to bob up and assert itself on an occasion like this. We know we wouldn't urge a race horse into his fastest pace in the first hundred yards of the course, we realize it is all wrong to push a brand-new car to a gait in excess of twenty miles an hour. But we'll do it just the same—once, anyway. It's so easy. A little more pressure on the throttle and off she goes eating up space, chewing holes into distance. And it can be done with a good deal of near-impunity, provided you don't attempt it in the first five hundred miles, which really constitutes the teething period of your new car.

Whatever one's notions of the new car's monetary value may be it is well to bear in mind that mechanically a car is no better than its bearings. With the exception of lubrication the most important factors involved in the satisfactory operation of an automobile are the bearings. And it is the bearings that in a new car are apt to refuse to be imposed upon before they are properly introduced to their arduous duties.

At the factory, engine bearings are fitted very carefully. The job itself is not one to be undertaken by a novice. It is painstaking work, even for an expert, to obtain proper bearing surfaces. But a perfect bearing surface never is a hand-made job, but the result of a gradual wearing-in process going on during the engine's operation under load. In spite of the fact that bearings as well as shafts are finished with the mechanical precision of exceptionally accurate machines, the final fitting of the bearings—in the better cars, at least—is done by hand, by the "spotting-in" process, in which a good deal of the success depends on the dexterity of the operator and the care with which he proceeds.

The babbit metal with which plain engine bearings are lined is compressible to a certain extent, so that after the bearing surfaces have been hammered by many thousands of explosions, they take a certain "set," with the result that they become measurably larger. This being the case, the factory very sensibly adjusts the bearings as close as possible, well knowing that the first few hundred miles of road travel will open them to the proper fit. What the motorist should keep before him in the first few days of his companionship with the new car is that within the initial five hundred miles the bearings may run hot; this applies with particular force to the main engine bearings, which in case of damage cannot be reached, except by the expensive process of partially dismantling the motor.

As long as it remains true that automobiles are manufactured rather than built, so long will it behoove the owner to attend to the nursing for which the manufacturing plant has neither time nor facility.

And whenever you are inclined to grumble at the occasional necessity for husbanding your engine's power resources, remember that one single railroad engine, huge and powerful as it is, does not pull you all the way from London to Chicago; the job is attended to by several locomotives, which go into roundhouses every few hundred miles to be groomed, adjusted and repaired. Your automobile engine, on the other hand, stays with you from the journey's beginning to the end, whether the run be out into the suburbs or across the continent. That's why—Motor Life.

France has one automobile to every 152 persons. Follow advice of manufacturer regarding grades of oil for lubrication. Belgium has doubled its motor car supply since the war. Nearly all automobiles in Arabia are in the city of Aden. Poor roads have restricted the sale of automobiles in Japan. About ten times the number of motor trucks in use in 1914 are being used today. Nine states in the union have more than 400,000 motor cars each. Two-thirds of Havana's 12,000 automobiles are Fords. Commonest cause of overheating is lack of water. Improper mounting of rim and tire causes unnecessary wear on the tire. If carburetor catches fire from backfire, turn off the fuel supply and race the engine. Canada has more than 5,500 automobile dealers. Peru, with 4,000,000 inhabitants, has 3,000 automobiles.

As Strong as Steel—Lighter than Wood EDDY'S INDURATED FIBREWARE Pails, Washtubs, Washboards

The days of the old-fashioned, cumbersome and heavy pails and tubs, rudely fashioned from metal and wood, are done. Lighter than wood and stronger than metal, house and farm utensils of Eddy's Indurated Fibreware are ousting them from Canadian homes.

Eddy's pails and tubs of Indurated Fibreware are as much of an improvement over the old style vessels as electric light is an improvement on the old tallow dip. They have no hoops to come off, no staves to fall apart, no seams to cause leaks and they can't be battered out of shape.

They are all one piece, these Eddy Fibreware utensils—pressed to steel-hardness from wood pulp and baked with a surface glaze that defies the hardest, roughest usage. They are easy to clean, can't rust or become odorous.

What a difference from the old style, clumsy, wooden or metal pails and tubs. Yet Eddy's cost no more and will serve you twice as long. Don't waste money. Ask your dealer for Eddy's Indurated Fibreware.

An Eddy Washboard, doubled-sided and made with a special crimp that loosens dirt, is a great labor saver on wash day. Ask to see it.

It is the PREST-O-PLATES in PREST-O-LITE Batteries that Give Longer Life and More "Pep"

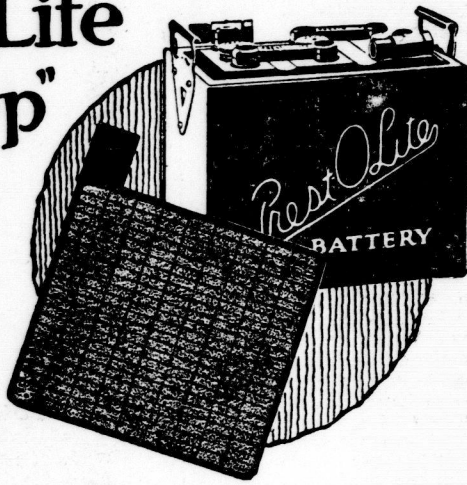

THE life of a battery depends upon the plates. That is why Prest-O-Lite, when it set out to make the Automobile Battery better, began with the plates.

Always a maker of a better plate, it turned its scientific skill and research to improving it and produced Prest-O-Lite Plates—the long-lasting Plate.

Here is a battery plate as different from ordinary plates as gold is from gilt. Unusual hardness combined with a peculiar porosity gives it unrivaled durability.

This explains its ready reserve power in biting zero weather and its great non-buckling strength that resists overheating in summer.

That is why the Prest-O-Lite Battery outlives an ordinary battery and why it is the best all-weather battery.

SIXTY-THREE freight cars carrying three hundred and fifteen automobiles left Oshawa on April 18th for St. John, N.B. enroute to Great Britain.

Shipments of automobiles leave Oshawa daily for all parts of the world, but this is the first exclusive train load of automobiles to leave Canada for any port. The shipments represent the output for a day and a half at the General Motors plants at Oshawa and the value was about $320,000.

General Motors plants at Oshawa are working to capacity to fill the domestic, British and foreign demand for their products.

Practically all the parts utilized in the production of General Motors of Canada, Limited cars are produced in Canada. Motors, axles, etc., are made in the newly equipped plants of "Canadian Products" in Walkerville, Ontario. Assembling, body building, top building, upholstering, manufacturing of small parts, painting, etc., is done in the Oshawa Plants.

THE PERSON WHO OWNS AN AUTOMOBILE OWNS FREEDOM

Reports Shipment of 1,651 Carloads of Auto Trucks in First 3 Months of 1922

Up to April 1 a total of 1,651 carloads of motor trucks have been shipped from the International Harvester Company factories at Akron and Springfield, Ohio, and Chatham, Ontario, to be delivered to purchasers. Of the total, 892 carloads were shipped west of the Mississippi River and the Canadian west, and 759 carloads east of the Mississippi River, Ontario and Eastern Canada.

These carloads would make a single train fourteen miles long, or thirty-three average trainloads of fifty cars each. The freight charges approximated $247,000. If all these trucks were placed in service at one time they would be capable of moving the twelve-million-bale cotton crop of the entire United States, the usual average haul, in twenty working days. The mileage to accomplish this task would amount to ten million miles, a distance equal to 400 times around the earth at the equator.

FRANKLIN AUTO COMPANY ESTABLISHES NEW RECORD

Makes Largest April Shipment Since Business Has Been Formed.

SYRACUSE, N.Y., May 12.—April shipments from the factory of the Franklin Automobile Company overtopped every previous April, covering the twenty-year period in which the Franklin car has been manufactured.

During the month 1,124 cars were shipped. This not only set up a new high mark for April, but marked at the same time the second largest month in the history of the company. Reports now on hand point toward the certainty of April establishing a new record in retail deliveries as well as shipments.

In numerous places throughout the country individual records in the matter of retail deliveries were set up by dealers. Following the big business done in April, the Franklin Company reports that on May 1 retail deliveries by dealers exceeded every previous record for a single day's business in the history of the company, the total number being over three times the best previous record for a single day.

Measure by Your Purse

If you are like most of us you are apt these days to measure things by your pocket-book. If an Exide Battery will really give you longer service and freedom from repairs, you want one when the time comes to replace the battery in your car, and when you buy a new car you want to be sure it is Exide-equipped.

One way to find out is to ask people who own Exides. Not only was Exide the original automobile battery, but more cars leave the factories today equipped with Exides than with any other battery.

Since the beginning of the battery industry Exide has been earning its reputation for ruggedness and long-lasting power. You owe yourself an Exide, not just because of the comfort, but because it is a genuine economy.

Therefore, we say, insist on an Exide and if you have any trouble in getting one, write us or our nearest district distributor.

LONDON

DURANT MOTOR COMPANY OF TORONTO, ONTARIO.

Now You Can Enjoy Six Cylinders

The Price is $1610

F. O. B. London, Tax Paid.

But for the one obstacle of price, you would long ago have owned a Six.

Today that obstacle no longer exists, for you can buy a Jewett, highest powered of all cars in its class, for $1,610 F. O. B. London. Now comes your chance to buy a Six at the price of a Four.

In this new car, Paige—veteran builder of high-quality Sixes—offers you its ideal of six-cylinder power, applied to five-passenger comfort and efficiency.

The mighty Jewett motor develops a full fifty H. P. It places therefore at your command, a surplus of power beyond the requirements of almost any emergency.

And the other Jewett details are in complete harmony with the motor, each providing the ample safety factor which only an experienced builder of Sixes can intelligently apply.

In harmony of line, completeness of appointments, and restful riding qualities, the Jewett will meet your most exacting requirements.

Of course, you will want to confirm every one of these statements by a ride in this remarkable new Six. The Jewett is waiting and ready. You'll find it, we confidently predict, the kind of car you'll be proud to own.

It is sold and served by Paige Dealers everywhere.

Fitted to the Road

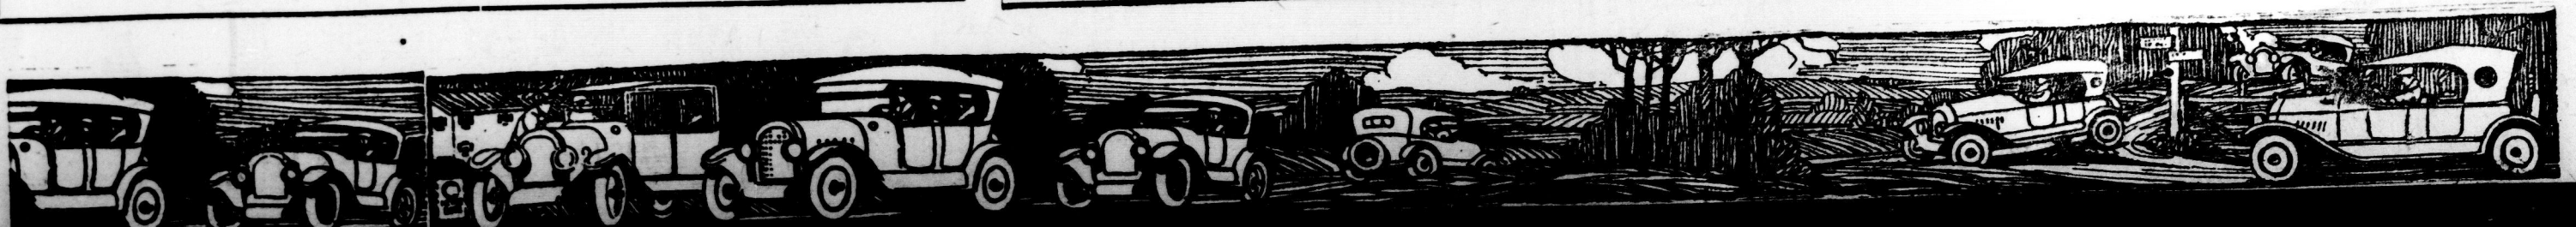

There is something unique about the arrangement of the "knuckles" on the "Cross" tread of the "Gutta Percha" Non-Skid Tire. They not only make it "non-skid" but they "fit the road." This tread has a grip that assures a quick get-away, and it also seems to nullify the impact of sharp stones, and other penetrating objects by some power of deflection owing to its peculiar form.

'GUTTA PERCHA' TIRES

The "Cross" Tread of the "Gutta Percha" Tire is a striking original tread and it will pay motorists to keep it in the mind's eye. In case they forget the name, they can remember the tread. "Gutta Percha" Tires are unique in other ways than the tread. They have wonderfully strong side-walls and the rubber composition is of such a character as to give it exceptional toughness and endurance, without destroying the resilience of the original rubber.

Charlie Chaplin in "Pay Day" Brings Grand Season To Close

Stock Company May Follow—Mendelssohn Glee Club To Be Here Thursday—"Billeted" Announced.

TODAY will mark the closing of the regular motion picture and vaudeville season at the Grand Opera House. Next week the theatre will be dark. Arrangements are now pending for the establishment at the Grand of a summer stock company, and if completed a series of attractive bills will be presented by a competent aggregation of players.

An exceptionally fine musical treat is promised for Thursday of next week, when the Mendelssohn Glee Club, of St. Thomas, under the direction of George C. Carrie, late of New York, will present an attractive program at the Patricia Theatre. This concert, which is being held under the auspices of the London Kiwanis Club, is but one of the many undertakings of this club in their campaign on behalf of underprivileged boys of the city.

May 25 will bring an important event in the theatrical world, that being the occasion of the offering of the annual Western University play, which is always received with enthusiasm by the London public. This year it is "Billeted," one of Margaret Anglin's triumphs.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN IN "PAY DAY"

The feature of today's program at the Grand Theatre is the newest Chaplin release, "Pay Day," and the Conway Tangle dramatic feature picture, "The Man of Stone." The five acts of big-time vaudeville which have proven so enjoyable since their opening engagement on Wednesday, will make their last appearance. These include Melba and Jenkins, comedy novelty; Marie Straub Duo, song and dance revue; Musical Mills, musical act; Le Hommedieu Bros., comedy bar act, and Paul Ryan, eccentric comedian.

Stars At Grand

MENDELSSOHN GLEE CLUB. From present indications, it is safe to say that all avenues will lead to the Patricia Theatre next Thursday evening. The Kiwanis Club of London are bringing to this city the Mendelssohn Glee Club of St. Thomas, under the direction of Mr. George C. Carrie, late of New York. This splendid organization will be assisted by the following well-known vocalists: Miss Gladys Watson, soprano; Miss Gladys McEvoy, mezzo-soprano; Miss Rosa Tuck, contralto, and Mr. Ferguson Telfer, baritone. The Mendelssohn Glee Club is now in its third season and has rounded out into an organization which any city could be proud of. The selections for the occasion are varied, so as to suit the tastes of all. One number, "The Lost Chord," will be sung by request.

The assisting vocalists will contribute to a program that will prove of unusual merit. The proceeds from this concert are to be used for defraying the expense of the boys' summer camp. Music-lovers who wish to obtain good seats should make their reservations now. Members of the Kiwanis Club have tickets, or they can be obtained at the box office at the Patricia.

UNIVERSITY PLAY COMING. Present indications point to a record sale of seats for the convocation week play, "Billeted," which is to be presented by students of Western University on May 25. There will be an evening performance and a matinee, and advance sales of seats among the students at Western predict that this event will be among the most important of convocation week. "Billeted" is a war comedy, which scored a great success in England, and later added a triumph to Margaret Anglin's career in the United States. The cast of Western University players includes Miss Blanch Tancock, Miss Shirley White, Miss Jessie McFarlane, Miss Dona Waller, Miss Florence McDonagh, McKenzie Dobson, Winston Harrison and Arthur Waring.

A feature of the presentation is the fact that the musical portion of the program will be rendered by the University Orchestra, under the leadership of Helen Gordon Patterson. This orchestra has been organized during the past year and will make its first public appearance with "Billeted." The convocation week play will be presented at the Grand Theatre, and seats are now on sale.

Plays At Port Stanley All Season

Harry Moots, All-Star Orchestra, which has already made a big hit at Port Stanley, will play there every night this season.

Boris Hambourg To Visit London

MUSIC lovers are to have the musical treat of the season in the appearance of Boris Hambourg, the world-famous Russian "cellist," at the First Methodist Church next Thursday evening.

It is several years since Mr. Hambourg appeared at the Grand Opera House as one of the features of the Musical Art Society concerts, and his appearance again will be greeted with a large audience.

Mr. Hambourg has never appeared before at the nominal fee being charged for admission at this concert, and it is only due to the fact that a large number of season tickets have been sold that has made the engagement possible.

The choir will appear in two unaccompanied numbers by Tertius Noble and the Russian Cantata, "Joshua." Mr. Jordan will display the fine organ of the church in several interesting numbers.

This is the closing number of the series of five recitals, which was postponed from last Thursday on account of the Scots Guards concert.

The Famine is Still On 300,000 Children will Die of Starvation unless we Continue to Supply Food up to the End of August.

WHAT are YOU to believe about the famine situation in Russia—the idle, unsupported statements of prejudiced papers, or the firsthand knowledge of such men as Lord Emmott, Lord Weardale and Sir Benjamin Robertson, who are devoting their time and energy to saving millions of children from starving.

In February, Sir Benjamin Robertson, with the approval of the British Government, made an exhaustive survey of the famine districts and reported that help must be continued at least until the end of August.

To say that the famine is over, and that more money and food are not needed, is worse than untrue.

To make the relief work more efficient, three great organizations have been unified under the chairmanship of Sir Benjamin Robertson.

1.—The Russian Relief Fund, Chairman Lord Emmott, with whom is associated Sir Arthur Stanley, Chairman of the British Red Cross.

2.—The Friends' Relief Mission—the British Organization of the Quakers.

3.—The Save The Children Fund, with Lord Weardale as chairman.

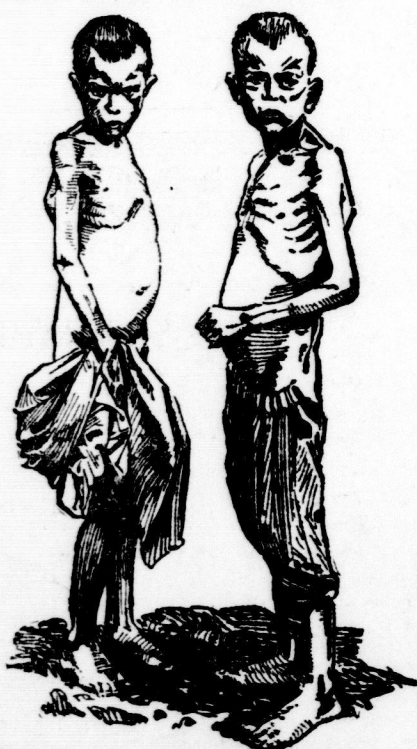

These organizations are feeding 300,000 children in the Saratov area and are endeavoring to help some of the millions of adults who are in the direst need of food.

Will you not help these British organizations to save the helpless children of Russia from starving.

Cheques and money orders may be forwarded through your bank, the local committee, or sent direct to Sir George Burn, Treasurer, Save The Children Fund, Elgin Building, Ottawa.

All subscriptions are expended on Canadian Foodstuffs.

If They're not COWAN'S They're Not MAPLE BUDS

THERE are many cheap imitations of Maple Buds on the market. People who buy them, not realizing that they are imitations, naturally think that Maple Buds have deteriorated in quality and flavour. This is not the case. The standard set by the real Maple Buds over fifteen years ago, has always been maintained.

Ask for Maple Buds. Look for the name "COWAN". It is on every Maple Bud.

And We Were Amazed at the Difference

"We inspected all kinds of electric ranges and saw them demonstrated—and we were amazed to find how different the WESTINGHOUSE RANGE is."

Just think what it means to be able to change the fuses yourself; to be able to lift out any of the heating units without getting an electrician to disconnect them; to be able to take out every one of the oven parts for cleaning. The oven lining is porcelain enamel, and the lower half can be used either for broiling or as a warming closet.

The WESTINGHOUSE RANGE has so many exclusive features, you'll want to see it demonstrated before you buy. Ask the dealer to tell you about it or write us for booklet.

MUTT AND JEFF.

JEFF, I WAS UNDER THE IMPRESSION YOU WERE GOING TO THE PICNIC TODAY.
NO, MUTT, I AMN'T GOING!
YOU MUST NOT SAY, "I AMN'T GOING."
BUT I AMN'T GOING!
THAT'S AWFUL GRAMMAR! I'LL GIVE YOU A LITTLE LESSON AND SET YOU RIGHT. IT GOES LIKE THIS: "YOU ARE NOT GOING."
HE IS NOT GOING. WE ARE NOT GOING. THEY ARE NOT GOING. NOW, CAN YOU SAY ALL OF THAT, JEFF?
SURE!
THERE AIN'T NOBODY GOING.

BY BUD FISHER.

Crime • Church • Tomorrow

"YES, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the Creator in a grove of trees or by a running brook, or in a man's own house, just as well as in a church. But I also know as a matter of cold fact the average man does not thus worship."

Here are a few benefits to be derived from church attendance:

"You will listen to and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if you are not familiar with the Bible, you have suffered loss."

"You will take part in singing some good hymns."

"You will meet and nod or speak to good neighbors. You will come away feeling a little more charitably inclined toward all the world, even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church-going as a soft performance."

"Join in church work for the sake of showing your faith in your works."

Make your start in church service tomorrow. A fair trial of church attendance will convince you it's well worth while.

Life and Character Reading.

MAY 13.

Taurus is the governing sign of this date. Nearly all Taurus persons possess some kind of physical mediumship, and are quite apt to be found among spiritualists who deal in phenomena. Their clairvoyant gifts are usually very marked, and so is the power of independent state-writing and table tipping. They feel the minds of other people and know their thoughts.

The governing planet of this date is Venus, the goddess of love. This planet helps to overcome the more degrading influences cast over one by Taurus, which is a very difficult sign under which to be born.

These individuals are guided too much by externalities and appearances. Think more of your inner self, read your own soul and mind, and see if you are satisfied with what you find there.

Automobiles will be found advertised for sale, and for exchange, this week and next week, if you will use the Want Ad columns to find them.

CARRIES ISSUE TO APPELLATE COURT

Telegraph Company Declines To Submit Files in Huston Probe.

TORONTO, May 12.—Whether the telegrams passing between the Telegram, of Toronto, and its correspondents in Fort Frances and Winnipeg, relating to the matter of the death of Captain Huston at Fort Frances in December last, shall be produced as evidence before the McIntosh commission now inquiring into the mystery, will remain for the appellate court to decide on Monday.

A battle was staged before the commission over the telegrams today. Gordon Waldron, K.C., for the government insisting that they should be produced, and J. C. Spence, K.C., for the C. P. R. Telegraph Company, being equally insistent that they should not be produced.

When Commissioner McIntosh seemed disposed to admit the telegrams, Mr. Spence announced that he would take the matter to a higher court, to which the commissioner agreed. The application will be placed before the court on Monday, and in the meantime the telegrams have been placed in an envelope and turned over to the court registrar.

The hearing for the present was concluded in Toronto this afternoon.
Gordon Waldron left tonight for Fort Frances, and will resume the inquiry in that town on Monday morning.
Subsequently a sitting will be held in Winnipeg.

CYCLONE IN MANITOBA.

WINNIPEG, May 12.—A small cyclone is reported to have passed over Rossmore, Man., southwest of this city, last night. No casualties resulted, but slight property damage occurred.

Several buildings were partially wrecked, including an empty house, which was torn from its foundations.

Burma has an annual rainfall of 600 inches.

URGES 'PERFECT RACE' CRUSADE

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst Ad- dresses Ontario Social Hygiene Association.

Pleads For Birthright of Every Child To Com- plete Health.

"What we need is a crusade for a perfect race, to create an enthusiasm for a perfect race, and get rid of horrible social flaws. Think of the tragedy that would go out and the happiness that would come in."
The foregoing was one of many striking statements made by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst Friday evening, addressing the annual meeting of the Ontario Hygiene Association, held in the auditorium of the new Medical School.
Dr. H. W. Hill, retiring chairman, presided, and Mrs. Pankhurst was introduced by Mrs. A. M. Huestis of Toronto, who quoted statistics regarding the need and progress of the work, which were to have been pre- sented by the Canadian national secretary, Dr. Gordon Bates of Toronto, but who was unavoidably absent.

Defines Movement.
Mrs. Pankhurst defined the social hygiene crusade as "a movement for getting every child born in the world the birthright of physical, mental and moral health, born into a happy home of parents who love one another and have high ideals of citizenship."

For the saving of life she urged the need of aggressive efforts to stamp out and, still more important, prevent disease that through the ages has been a scourge to the race, "visiting the sins of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generation."

"It is only possible," she said, "after the experience of the war and the terrible knowledge that came thereby to have the 20th century social hygiene movement."

In the opinion of the suffrage leader, there is another outstanding reason why this movement will suc- ceed while others have failed.
"For the first time," she said, "wo- men have equality of citizenship with men. We are now in a position as political equals to put before the world the point of view of mothers of the race which is not content with minimizing or mitigating evil, that will be satisfied with nothing short of eradicating."

Need More Than Laws.
"But it is not enough to have laws," she said. "We must have the sanction of the people, and before they can sanction they must know what the law is and the facilities offered for treatment."

Concerning prevention, she urged the value of education, meeting the argument that human nature will not change with the declaration that hu- man nature is the most modern thing in human life, and that the social hygiene association is out as an organization to transform human nature. "Let people get thoroughly imbued with a sense of racial re- sponsibility," she said, "and it would be impossible for them to visit suf- fering upon succeeding generations."

Officers Elected.
An important feature of the ses- sion of the executive in the after- noon was the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows:

Patron, His Honor Lieut.-Gov. H. Cockshutt; president, Mr. Albert E. Smythe, Toronto; vice-presidents, Judge Hardy, Brantford; secretary, Miss Gertrude Tate, Toronto; treasurer, Prof. Austin, Kingston.
Executive—Dr. J. Mullin, Hamil- ton; Dr. H. W. Hill, London; Dr. F. W. Luney, London; Mrs. George Watt, Brantford; Mrs. A. H. Mal- colmsen, St. Catharines; Mrs. G. Ed- wards, London; Dr. T. B. Oliver, Fort William.

Convenor on literature and general propaganda, lecturers, speakers, etc.—Dr. H. W. Hill.

Convenor on education of medical students—Dr. Duncan Graham, pro- fessor of medicine, Toronto.

Convenor on protection of girls—Mrs. George Watt, Brantford.

Convenor on education of nurses—Miss Flaws, Toronto.

Convenor on education of the young—Prof. Peter Sandford, To- ronto.

Convenor on law enforcement—Mrs. J. W. McFadden, Toronto.

On motion of Mrs. A. M. Huestis, convenor of the resolutions commit- tee, a resolution will be sent to the Provincial Legislature asking for measures providing for the appoint- ment of pediatric officers for adults in connection with the making of the work more effective.

Radio Department Now Open

AS a result of the growing demand for Radio equipment, we have decided to open a department for the sale of Radio receiving sets and parts, and have arranged space on the east side of the third floor for this purpose. In other cities in Canada and the States the Radiophone business has been very popular, and is becoming so here. This will be more particularly the case when a broadcasting station is established here, which we expect will be done in the near future. By having a broadcasting station in London, the lower-priced sets, particularly the Crystal Sets, will become most popular. As the range of these sets is somewhere in the neighborhood of 25 to 50 miles, it is not always possible to hear from any of the existing broadcasting stations on them.

THE OLD HOMELAND

"It's many years since I crossed the Atlantic, but I have always kept in touch with the homeland by reading the News of the World," says a prominent man of the West. The News of the World is the great national journal of the British Isles, and no matter in what part of the globe Britishers may settle, the News of the World, complete with all the week's news, can be obtained. Its thrilling serial stories, up-to-date song, with music, the latest gossip and pictures, make it the most wel- come of the week's visitors. It can be obtained direct from the pub- lishers, 30 Bowry street, London, Eng- land, but for the convenience of local purchasers, ample stocks are carried by Mr. W. Smith, Byron P. O., Lon- don; Mrs. Ellen McEwen, London; Mr. W. O. Loughlin, London; Mr. G. W. Evans, 283 Wellington street, London.
Make sure of a regular weekly supply by placing an order with the agents.

KING GEORGE PAYS VISIT TO FRANCE

AMIENS, France, May 12.—King George, accompanied by Marshal Foch and Field Marshal Earl Haig, visited today the Vimy Ridge and Notre Dame de Lorette battlefields. Gen. Weygand explained to the king the different phases of the capture of the ridge by the Canadian troops, and also the subsequent battles for Notre Dame de Lorette by other British forces.
King George is retaining the strict- est incognito in his trip through the battlefields of Northern France.

President Millerand had expressed a wish to go to the region to receive the king officially, but the latter pleaded the purely personal character of the visit.
