L. K. JONES,

PICKPOCKETS SAID TO BE IN BRANTFORD TO-DAY

Berlin Authorities Yesterday Had Fight With Expert Gang Which Followed Big Organization to That Place—Police Are on the Alert.

Watch out for pickpockets to-day. Despite the vigilance of provincial detectives and the private detectives of Barnum and Bailey, a gang of experts is said to be following the big organization with success. Yesterday at Berlin, where the circus showed, there was an interesting time. With the streets crowded with people, a gang of pickpockets following the circus got in their work. Losses to the extent of $200 were reported on the streets and at the circus grounds. A gang of four men were rounded up by Provincial Detective Boyd, Detective Black and the local police. When the police attempted to break up a gambling game among the circus employes on Sunday afternoon a lively clash between the blue-coats and several hundred circus men, many of them negroes, followed. Constable Blevis made one arrest and after handing his man over to Constable Halling, chased after another. The prisoner, Edward Hunt, was hustled off the grounds with the mob of circus men at the heels of the policemen. When they attempted to take the prisoner, the constable drew his gun. One of the gang struck him a blow on his head but he saved himself from rough handling by taking refuge in a house. The other constable also escaped to another house with the prisoner. The mob surrounded the house in which Blevis had sought refuge, and in the meantime the prisoner was whisked off to the police station in an automobile. Reinforcements arrived and the mob was dispersed. The circus authorities promised an investigation. A Ball Game. Last evening a couple of teams from the Hall Machine Shop faced one other in a regular merry-go-round ball game. Both teams were right there with their errors and runs. The score-keeper started keeping tally but when the game finished the defeat was so bad he refused to let the spectators know the score. Both teams tried out about seven different pitchers before the game finished. Home runs and three base hits on errors were too numerous to mention.

ICE CREAM CARTS ARE NOT TAXABLE

Recently ice cream merchants in the centre of the city did some tall kicking to the civic authorities against the ice cream carts, on the grounds that these vehicles were under no license and no regulation. The license committee took the matter up yesterday, and found that they have no power under the present license by-law to demand payment of a fee. The ice cream from the carts is being sold by the manufacturers of it, or his agents, and it is a food. These are the points involved, and the vendors cannot be classed as peddlars. It is also a question if the by-law can be amended so that they can be charged a fee, and the matter has been referred to the city solicitor. It was pointed out, however, that inasmuch as the ice cream in carts is a perishable food and likely to spread infection, it can be strictly regulated from a health viewpoint, and in this way the traffic might be controlled. At any rate, the ice cream carts have got all the legal minds around the city busy and guessing as to what's what.

SEVEN MEMBERS AT THE MEETING QUEBEC GETS SEVERE STORM

St. Luke's Mission Troubles—Resolutions Are Passed At The Meeting. Two Lives Lost and Military Camp Razed to the Ground.

There were seven duly qualified members of St. Luke's vestry last evening at the meeting to take up the salary troubles of Mr. Alfred Hunt. Mr. Hunt was elected chairman. The minutes of the last meeting was read by the vestry clerk and adopted. Considerable discussion was indulged in by the members in connection with the present condition of the church, and the canons of the diocese governing the work were read. That a vote of censure is passed and carried. That a grant of $70 a month be made to Mr. Alfred Hunt in connection with his work with St. Luke's from the 1st of November to the 1st of April. That until a further investigation is made in the affairs of the church and better arrangements made no money shall be paid to the Rev. H. W. Wright of St. Jude's parish. That the vestry be instructed to write to the bishop's stating that it is the desire of this vestry and in the interests of the work that St. Luke's should be separated from St. Jude's. That a request signed by the members of the vestry present be presented to the church wardens desiring the calling of another meeting in the near future. That at present existing at St. Luke's, on the Rev. H. W. Wright for the manner in which the work of the church and Sunday school has been neglected. At the Synod meeting in London yesterday $900 was set aside for St. Luke's Mission due to the efforts of Bishop Williams, and it is thought this action will go a long way in assisting the unpleasant state of affairs that at present exist at St. Luke's. Township Matters. A special meeting of the Township Council was held at the Court House this morning to look over a plan prepared by Jackson & Co., of a subdivision near Braeside Park, on the Mt. Pleasant Road, which Parsons & Warner, real estate agents, Hamilton, are putting on the market. The proposed subdivision has a number of crescents and curved streets. Owing to a similar subdivision never having been accepted by the council before, the special meeting was called to get the council's sanction before doing anything further. The council decided to accept the plan.

WOMEN WHO ARE CHAMPION MOTHERS AND SPORTSWOMEN.

ENGLISH women take their life of outdoor sports so much more seriously than American women do that the entire country is interested in the competitions between women's teams of the different counties and the matches that take place both in golf and tennis. Every county has its schedule of tennis matches on which figure the teams of all the other counties. The best women tennis players and the most accomplished women golfers play on these teams, and neighborhood excitement runs high when adjoining counties, between which there is some natural rivalry, meet in tennis or golf tournaments. Two English women who have been five times women champions of England are Mrs. Sterry and Mrs. Lambert. Mrs. F. W. Brown, who has held the title of woman golf champion, lost her first match at Ashdown Forest this spring on the occasion of the meeting of the Sussex and Kent teams. Mrs. Brown was defeated by Mrs. Cautley, of Kent, who has won many honors for her county in the spring meets. She defeated the top player of the Hants team at Sunningdale Park when Kent and Hants met there. The lovely children of these golf and tennis players testify to the fact that they are champion mothers as well as champion sportswomen.

MISS ANNIE KENNEY, SUFFRAGETTE DELIVERS AN IMPASSIONED DEFENCE SPEECH AT TRIAL

If She Has Got To Die To Secure Vote For Women She Is Willing To Do So—Great Interest Taken In Suffragette Trial In Old Land To-Day—The Proceedings.

LONDON, June 17.—An impassioned speech in defence of the outrages committed by militant suffragettes was delivered to-day in the Central Criminal Court by Miss Annie Kenney, during the trial for conspiracy of Mrs. Winston Spencer Churchill, wife of the First Lord of the Admiralty, and Miss Violet Asquith, daughter of the Premier. Miss Annie Kenney devoted much of her speech for the defence to attempts to prove that the action of the Ulster Unionists and speeches of Cabinet Ministers—who, she averred, had asserted that the unfranchised were justified in rebelling in order to get their grievances remedied—furnished ample warrant for the course pursued by the militant suffragettes. If further justification were necessary, she said, "the trickery and treachery of the Cabinet Ministers, who had hunted and hounded the women from pillar to post," supplied it. The present Government, she contended, had a blacker record in the question of woman suffrage than any other. It had treated the aspirations of the women more abominably than any British Government had done since 1867. As for herself, she belonged to the working classes. At the age of ten, she said, she was a half-timer in a factory, and she had joined the suffrage movement because of the terribly cruel conditions under which women worked in the British Isles. She added: "I am a rebel, and a rebel I shall remain until women receive the vote. If, like Miss Emily Wilding Davison, it should be necessary for me to sacrifice my life, then I shall die."

"DEBORAH" IS DREARY DRIVEL SO DECLARES JOHN H. ROBERTS

MONTREAL, June 17.—"It leaves a dirty taste in the mouth," said John H. Roberts, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, after witnessing the presentation of "Deborah," advertised here as "the play which made Toronto famous," at His Majesty's Theatre last night. "I fail to see," continued Mr. Roberts, "any moral lesson it could teach. I would welcome any problem play which discussed the sexual question in a healthy manner. But the only excuse for the presentation of 'Deborah,' to my mind, is its ability to draw money at the box office. At that, I think the crowd should get their money back. In my opinion, they had been led to expect more than they received. 'Deborah' I regard as dreary drivel." Mr. Roberts visited the opening performance of "Deborah," attended by a stenographer, to see if action should be taken to prevent the production here of the play which caused so much discussion in Toronto. Despite his condemnation of the play, he does not think for the present that he will take any action. "However, I will consult legal opinion," he added. Mr. Roberts further claimed that the version of "Deborah" which is being shown in Montreal is a triumph for the moral reformers of this city and the committee of forty of Toronto. "For in spite of all their boasts, the company has not produced the play here with all the phrases objected to in that city." Mr. Roberts was asked to specify, and replied that in Toronto "Deborah" had turned on the light and awaited the return of her cousin's fiance on the stage, while here the curtain dropped before this happened, and also that in Toronto the phrase, "It is the natural destiny of all women, married or single, to have children," was used.

Scholarly Sermon Delivered By Rev. C. W. Rose, On Church Union

A scholarly sermon on Church Union was delivered by Rev. C. W. Rose, pastor of Park Baptist Church, on Sunday. Baptists and members of other denominations will be interested in the full context of this timely discourse, which is given below. Subject, "Christian Union." Last there should be misunderstanding from the beginning let me state that my object in bringing this subject "Christian Union," before you, is to create confidence in the union movement, and an atmosphere favorable to its development. There is no desire on my part to present a basis of union so wide as to include all men regardless of their belief, character and purpose in life; but rather a basis for those who have become partakers of the Divine nature and who are now seeking to live in harmony with the spirit and purpose of Christ; not a great, mechanical union void of the ideals and spirit of Christ but a union of heart in the great work which Christ has given all to do, a union based on character, which is based on Christ's regenerating work in the new birth. The Prominence of the Movement. This movement is probably the most prominent and pressing in the Christian world at this moment. It is here to stay until settled in harmony with God's will, Christ's prayer and the eternal welfare of countless numbers of souls. The Anglican church in what is known as "The Lambeth Quadrilateral," held in the year 1888 first seriously considered the subject. At the present time in Canada the Presbyterians, Methodists and Congregationalists are the recognized leaders. Every denomination throughout the world is feeling the power of this movement, and is seeking wisely to adjust itself to it. The place which it now has may be made clear by the following facts: There is, scarcely a convention of any denomination which has not during the last few years given it a place on the programme. Religious and secular periodicals are giving it greater prominence every year. A body of literature is now coming into existence bearing on it. Increasing numbers of men with marked ability and deep spirituality in all our denominations are openly and whole heartedly espousing it and believing that the salvation of the world in this or any other generation for its consumption, contingent upon its consummation. The prominence of this movement is now so evident that men whose ears have not been to the ground or eyes toward the east are one with those who have been working and watching for it, in declaring that it is here from all parts of the world come statements like these: "There is a wave of keen desire passing over the entire Christian world, Greek, Roman, Anglican and Protestant." "There is no note so strong in the ecclesiastical song as union." "It is upon us and it is God's movement. It is a prophecy surely of the day when His people shall be one in some real and satisfactory sense. The winter wheat may be frozen in the drill and frequently swept by the winter storms, but when the summer sun has done its work it (Continued on Page 3)

EITHER DEAD OR UNCONSCIOUS WHEN WATERS SUBMERGED HIM

Report of Surgeons Who Conducted Autopsy on the Man Found in the River at Galt—Case Takes on Serious Aspect—One Man is Held.

GALT, Ont., June 17.—"From what we are able to judge, this man was either dead or unconscious before he was submerged by the water." This clause in the report of the autopsy performed by Drs. Dakin and Vardon on the body of James Eddce, taken from the Grand River last Thursday, forms the pivotal points on which the investigation being conducted by Coroner Radford turns. At the adjourned inquest yesterday, the doctors stated that this opinion was based on the fact that there was no water in the man's lungs or stomach, and that a depression on the top of his skull indicated a blow which had been of sufficient force to cause concussion of the brain. There was also a wound on the right temple, which could have been inflicted in a similar way to that on top of the head. Dr. Dakin in his evidence stated that it was possible, though improbable, that the wounds were the result of a fall, and Dr. Vardon pointed out that it was possible, though improbable, that the supposition that the deceased met with his injuries some time before reaching the water, as otherwise the blood would have been washed off. The coroner stated that evidence would be brought to show that Bruce was intoxicated on the night he is supposed to have met his death, but Dr. Vardon said he found no alcoholism in the system. This, however, might be accounted for by the advanced stage of decomposition. Provincial Detective Greer reached Galt yesterday, and with Chief of Police Gorman, is trying to unravel the mystery surrounding the case. Men who were in the company of Bruce on the night of his disappearance, have been subpoenaed to give evidence, and it is likely that on their story will depend the implication of any person in the tragedy. Yesterday morning Elvin Gerrard, in whose possession the dead man's watch was found, was charged before the police magistrate with the theft of the dead man's watch. He pleaded not guilty, and was remanded. No further arrests have been made. The inquest will be resumed Wednesday.

CITY MILK SUPPLY SAID TO BE DOPED

Is the milk supply of Brantford being doped? This query was put to Medical Health Officer Pearson at the meeting of the licensing committee in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon, and Dr. Pearson replied that a certain amount of adulterating of the supply was being practised, but that it was difficult to catch the offenders. It was pointed out that in the case of one retail milk dealer whose license had been suspended, an application for another license was made by the man's son and had to be granted. The present license committee, however, is not inclined to follow this precedent, and in future, if a license is revoked, it will stay revoked, if the case is established that the milk was tampered with. At present, however, the inspection is not all it should be, particularly as to the source of the supply. The civic authorities intend to keep close watch on the quality of milk dispensed, and consumers should, if their suspicions are aroused, submit samples to the Medical Health Officer for a thorough test.

TORONTO HAS TERRIFIC FIRE A SUICIDE WHILE INSANE

Loss of $350,000 Resulted From Fire At Wickett and Craig Co. Is Verdict of Jury in Connection With Death of Chicago Woman.

TORONTO, June 17.—Damage to the extent of $350,000 was done to the factory and stock of Wickett and Craig, Limited, tanners and leather manufacturers by a fire which started from the electric wiring, shortly before midnight. The factory is a big four storey building, fronting on Cypress street and extending from Front and Eastern Avenue. The northern end of the building, which includes the offices was not damaged, but the destruction of the balance was complete. Valuable machinery and stock which escaped the flames sustained great damage through the hundreds of tons of water which were poured into the structure from all sides for hours. The fire was under control about 2 o'clock, but at ten o'clock this morning, water was still being used to quench the smouldering remnants of the conflagration in piles of tan, bark and other debris. Alderman S. Marley Wickett, manager and junior partner, said the fire started from the electric wiring. The loss is figured at $75,000 on the machinery; $75,000 on the building and $200,000 on the contents, fairly well covered by insurance. About 150 were employed and a large number of these will be retained for cleaning and making ready for a new start, though the loss from interruption of business will not be light. R. W. Wickett is senior partner and is on the ocean homeward bound from England. Associated with him and his son, Ald. Wickett, is William Craig. The fire threatened to communicate itself to surrounding buildings and 75 horses were hurriedly released from the corporation stables. Trinity Church. The induction of Rev. G. W. Latimer as rector of Trinity church, Eagle Place will it is expected take place on Sunday, June 23rd. It is expected the Bishop of the Diocese will be present and conduct the ceremony. Carpenters to Meet. The union carpenters are holding a special joint meeting Friday night to receive the committee's report.

An Accident At Windsor

WINDSOR, June 17.—Three persons were injured, one seriously, when a well-loaded Walkerville Belt Line car struck an automobile broadside at Goreau and Wyandotte streets at 8 o'clock last night. The three occupants of the automobile, A. A. Thompson, Windsor, liquor dealer, and A. M. Vischer and Lawrence Mackenzie, 118 Windermere Road, Walkerville, were thrown to the sidewalk, about 20 feet away. Thompson and Vischer were picked up and were soon able to go to their homes but Mackenzie, who was badly bruised on the head and body, was taken to the Hotel Dieu in the police ambulance. Dr. Dewar, who attended at the scene of the accident, declares his injuries serious. According to the story told the hospital authorities by Mackenzie Thompson, who was driving the car, slowed down at the intersection, but saw no street car. The occupants of the car say that the motorman did not ring the bell. S. Knox was motorman and H. Buckler conductor. The automobile was wrecked. Messrs. W. G. and Thomas Darwin are in Toronto to-day on business.

WANT AD HOROSCOPE JUNE 17, 1913

A person with this birth date should be most careful and discriminating in the choice of friends and associates. Of a generous, even lavish disposition, unwilling to suspect evil intent of any one, this person will be easily deceived and be generous to those who do not appreciate it.

This person must be careful and cautious in marriage because the choice of a male is of the greatest importance to this Gemini. Most helpful and congenial, a person born the last of January or the first two weeks of February will be the most satisfactory and the union will be lasting.

The restless, improvident, fickle nature of this birth date needs the calm, spiritual understanding of the Aquarius born to make their life harmonious and happy.

The planets point to successful transactions through the Want Ads in the selling or purchasing of farm property, in travel ads and positions as book-keepers, stenographers and domestics.

Men DO Read Advertisements

There has been some lively discussion on this subject lately, and at a dinner of advertising men in one of the proudest cities recently a prominent advertiser rose and asserted that "after all, very few men read advertisements." "You are absolutely wrong," retorted another advertising man, the manager of advertising in a department store. "We had a sale of shirts one day last week that was the most successful in the history of our business. 99 per cent of those who came and bought were men. They came in direct response to our newspaper advertisement." "Everywhere in every station of life men find interest in advertising. It may not be clothing, shoes or hats; but it may be something that relates to real estate, banking, the stock market, to automobiles—to any of the thousand and one things that constantly form the subject of wide-awake advertising."

CHURCH UNION

In this issue the Courier publishes a sermon by Rev. Mr. Rose of the Park Baptist Church on the above matter. It is the most complete, thoughtful and forcible presentation of the subject this paper has yet come across, and the discourse is therefore published in full.

That this movement has in recent times made mighty strides we all of us know who take any observance whatever of the trend of events. And thank God for it.

The differences and varying forms, often of a trivial nature, which exist between the adherents of Protestantism have long been an amazement to thinking men. As Mr. Rose so aptly puts it, there are more variances between the advocates of one form of religion than between separate churches as such. Surely if men and women within one denomination can thus differ, and still owe allegiance to the same form of nomenclature, they can as readily get together on behalf of the great and only cause. The old Latin phrase quoniam nomine (under whatever name) certainly applies most truly to the final goal which all the varying sects have in view. There is the one object—why not, then, concerted effort?

As it is, men and means are largely wasted. Everybody knows of the senseless overlapping, especially in smaller places, and everybody is also aware of the fact that men for other Christian and fraternal objects can get together shoulder to shoulder on behalf of a common purpose, although their forms of faith are as wide apart as the poles. If this concerted action can successfully take place with regard to mundane matters, why not with regard to spiritual matters also? It is safe to affirm that one of the main reasons why many men do not go to church, and some women, is because they have become tired of hair-splitting dogmas and petty differences. Let such men see a united effort on a broad-minded basis, and the bulk of them would be among the first to heartily respond to the roll call.

Rev. Mr. Rose is to be heartily thanked for his splendid elucidation of this very vital subject, and the Courier advises each one of its clientele to read, and then re-read, his remarks.

ALSO A LESSON FOR BRANTFORD.

Toronto, in those early and foolish days, when municipalities used to lightly hand over valuable public franchises to private corporations, has learned a very bitter lesson.

Their street railway system was handed over to a company, and now that the people wish to secure it for themselves, Sir William Mackenzie, the present chief owner, informs the municipality that he will recommend the shareholders to let go for the cool little sum of $21,500,000.

And be it remembered that Toronto is now reaching such dimensions that in the central portions of that city a tube system will without much doubt soon have to be introduced there—in fact is already mooted. Even with that in view, Mayor Hocken does not hesitate to recommend payment of the sum asked.

Once more, Brantford should without doubt, at this opportune time, take over the street railway system as a municipal enterprise. There is a law suit between two sets of bondholders still to be settled, but that is already on the lists for a hearing, and when a decision is reached, no further time should be lost.

From all indications, the overwhelming feeling of the residents is that this community should own the road and make extensions to Terrace Hill, Eagle Place and other suburbs.

NOTES AND COMMENTS
It is difficult to find a source in Brantford on circus day.

embodiment of Germany in a sense not understood in other lands, and his whole record has been one of clean living, hard and effective work and much brilliance.

What the Other Fellow Thinks.

This Go-ahead Country
Ottawa Free Press, Liberal: Sir Max Aitken is quoted as expressing the opinion that there is too much pessimism abroad in Canada at the present time, that our people have been wrongly led to believe the present financial depression is due to the overdevelopment of the Dominion.

Playgrounds
Montreal Star: Two more children have been killed by an automobile because they had no other place to play than on the street. Had they been the children of an alderman, the city would not be long without proper playgrounds.

The Fate of Churchill.
Belleville Intelligencer: The piteous fate of Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, is to receive the bitter criticism of the partisan Liberal press of this country, says the Ottawa Journal. His first offence was to extend the courtesy of an audience to a question asked for the Canadian people by the Canadian Premier; his latest is to announce that he would do what he said he would do if Canada did nothing.

Benefits of Walking
Toronto Star: Edward Payson Weston, the veteran pedestrian, has undertaken to walk from New York to Minneapolis in sixty days. To say nothing of the physical vigor required, Mr. Weston will see many things that cannot be seen from a car window.

Problem of Farm Help
Stratford Beacon: The problem of farm help has been apparently solved in a measure in the County of Haldimand. The Farm Labor Bureau of that county, with the assistance of the Ontario Immigration Department has through its representative in the old country, Mr. L. Goodliff, personally selected and placed in that vicinity forty experienced farm hands, proving beyond a doubt the contention of the organizers of the scheme that the only way to solve the farm labor problem is to make a personal selection of the men required, and to conduct them to their new homes.

County Court
Non-Jury—Sills vs. Swinton
His Honor Judge Hardy heard Sills vs. Swinton, a county court non-jury case, E. G. Sills vs. J. Swinton of Hamilton for balance he believed was due him for work done, and material supplied on the defendant's house in Hamilton. His Honor dismissed the case without costs. Mr. W. M. Charlton appeared for the plaintiff and Mr. T. W. Bowly, K.C., for the defendant.

Storm Damage.
QUEBEC, June 17.—Reports from the various country districts go to show that the storm which swept over the city and province yesterday was responsible for much greater damage than at first stated. Along the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, from Quebec towards Montreal, numerous barns were strewn with telegraph and telephone poles, the Great Northwest telegraph service being hampered.

Constitution
Closing Affair at School For The Blind Revealed Much Talent.
The entertainment given by the pupils of the Ontario School for the Blind last night scored the usual success, both in point of attendance, and in the merit of the programme which had been prepared. The opening number was Mendelssohn's "Sonata in C Minor," played on the pipe organ by Jean Chatelain, a young man who resides in Ottawa. Later in the evening it was announced that Master Chatelain had passed the examination for Associateship in the Canadian Guild of Organists, and the diploma was presented to him. He was equally capable in his piano selection, Moszkowski's "Valse, Op. 34," both his performances giving promise of a distinguished career in the world of music.

Prince Had A Long Tramp
LONDON, June 17.—"Cadet Edward," as the Prince of Wales is enigmatically known in the Officers' Training Corps, marched twenty miles yesterday carrying a rifle, knapsack and waterbottle. The thermometer was 80 degrees in the shade but he finished in good condition.

With the City Police
There was a dull session at the police court this morning, only five cases appearing on the list. Three drunks who had been celebrating were to appear before the magistrate but only two showed up. One was adjourned until to-morrow, and the other was dismissed, this being his first offence.

BULL

Found Guilt

LONDON, June 17.—Six of the most prominent leaders of the suffragettes' organization and one of their male supporters were found guilty at the Central Criminal Court of Conspiracy to commit various damage to property. The had lasted several days.

The women were officials of the Women's Social and Political Union. They were Miss Harriet Kerr, Miss Agnes Lake, Miss Rachel Barr, Mrs. Beatrice Saunders, Miss Ann Kenney and Miss Laura Leu, while the man was Fdwy Clayton, analytical chemist.

The jury handed a recommendation to mercy in the case of Miss Leu, Miss Lennox and Miss Barrett.

FOURTEEN YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Sentence Handed Out At Montreal to New York Pickpockets.

(Canadian Press Dispatch) MONTREAL, June 17.—"I am giving you this heavy sentence so that it may be a lesson to other New York pickpockets who may think of coming here to ply their trade," said Judge Basin this morning after sentencing Frank Reid Sullivan, alias Frank Sullivan, to fourteen years in the penitentiary for pocket picking.

Sullivan has already served a number of terms in Chicago and New York for the same kind of offence. He was caught here on May 23, robbing a passenger on a street car and when searched was found to have $250 in his sleeve. He first of all contended that he came from Toronto.

Fisher Furst, caught with Sullivan, also serving a record for pocket-picking on the other side, received three years.

Word having been received by the police officials that a daring attempt was going to be made to release Sullivan by some of his companions, known to be in the city, he was carefully guarded in court. As a part of this scheme, Sullivan pretended at one time that he was going to faint and the doctor screamed, but the detectives closed in around him and refused to allow him to leave the dock or anybody to come near him, and when he found the scheme to rescue him had failed, Sullivan speedily recovered.

Military Notes

With the Cadets. The B.C.I. cadets completed their outdoor rifle shooting when the last match was fired at the Mohawk ranges on Saturday.

The rifle for the four matches in the league was won by Cadet Neill, his score being 218. Cadet Neill also won the president's badge for the Canadian League.

Cadet Bennett came second with a score of 212, winning the Lieutenant-Governor's medal. The cadet silver cup was won by Company Leader Genet, and Cadets Neill, Bennett and Sanderson secured first-class marksmanship certificates. Second-class certificates were secured by Sergt. Palmer, Corporal Andrews and Cadet Foster.

The cadets leave for camp at Niagara-on-the-Lake on July 7. The camp is being looked forward to with much interest by the young soldiers. The company will go into camp full strength and will join some 2000 cadets from all over Ontario.

Sergt. Major Oxtoby, Capt. Ward and Mr. Shultis will accompany the boys.

Obituary

The Late Mrs. Smith. The death occurred yesterday of Martha Ann Smith, widow of the late Henry Smith, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Smith, 59 Erie Ave. The late Mrs. Smith had been a resident of this city and Brant County all her life.

She was a member of the Baptist Church at Burtch, where for many years she resided, on a farm. Mrs. Smith suffered from a paralytic stroke some nine weeks ago.

She leaves to mourn her loss four daughters, Mrs. Lyman Woodley and Mrs. Wesley Smith of this city, Mrs. Frank Chapin of Newport, and Mrs. Richard Hartley of Niagara Falls, Ont., and six sons Reuben of Brantford Township, Sydney of Savona, N.Y., George and Walter of British Columbia, Stephen of Oakland and James of Effort, Mich., and many friends who will share with the family in this sad loss.

The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon from the residence of her daughter, Erie Avenue, to Mt. Hope cemetery.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The regular monthly meeting of the Brant Avenue Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. T. Harry Jones, 60 Chestnut street, about 40 ladies being present.

Mrs. (Rey) Jones, who is the president of the society, presided at Galt last week, gave a very interesting report of her attendance. In her report she spoke particularly of the study classes. The ladies were pleased to have with them Miss Preston, sister of Mr. T. H. Preston, pioneer worker in Vancouver, and Miss Schofield, formerly missionary among the Indians at Port Simpson.

Both ladies gave short talks on their work which were instructive and interesting. After the meeting a social half hour was spent when light refreshments were served by the genial hostess.

BRANTFORD TO EDMONTON WITH THE WOMEN'S PRESS CLUB

We found prairie at last—vast prairie, I mean, as we read of and picture it. Mile after mile without break, and finally arrived at Saskatoon, a city of about 35,000 inhabitants, their fine universities plainly seen from the station where we had a twenty minute wait and so did some gazing around. On boarding our train once more we had another evidence of Mr. Ham's thoughtfulness, viz, baskets of cherries sent into each of our Pullmans for our enjoyment.

The order came around later for all to be on deck at 6 a.m. next morning, so after watching the twilight deepen and night come down in stillness, early retiring was made by the whole party—all lights out by 10 p.m.

Breakfasting on board, we arrived at Edmonton—a beautiful city built on the crest of opposite hills spanned by bridges over the dividing stream—shortly after 7 a.m. to find innumerable motors and hostesses awaiting us on the platform despite the earliness of the hour, and we were quickly taken possession of and transferred to our various addresses. August weather greeting us, the thermometer standing at 86. No meetings for any save the executive that morning.

So the balance of us "tubbed" and had a beautiful time of it generally—but three o'clock found all the members fresh and trim, assembled at the Presbyterian church, Fifth street, where the meetings are being held. One hundred answered to the roll call, cordial greetings and Edmonton souvenirs extended to one and all, as well as programmes of the two days procedure. Miss Marjorie MacMurphy, the President, and Miss Osborne from Winnipeg, occupied the platform, and the real business of the trip was taken up.

The reading and adoption of the minutes came first. Next the president's address—a splendid talk by a broad-minded, comprehensive woman, along the lines of woman's work and the splendid organization represented, purely Canadian, with no East or West distinction, each and all aiming for the best and highest in one's own particular line of work—the question not one of sex but of capacity—even the humblest having a work to do.

They came Miss Murphy's address of Welcome—charming, gracious, motherly, "purely Canadian," who welcomed the visitors on behalf of the Edmonton C.W.P.C., filling us with high ideals and high ambitions, as she touched upon the work we either individually or collectively were taking up. Next came Miss Nellie McClung of "Sowing Seeds in Danny" fame—an alert, wide-awake, active woman, but with tender heart and broad sympathies.

Then followed in order the reports of the Executive and membership committees were also given and listened to with interest. Starting ten years ago, a band of six, who in company with our same Mr. Ham visited the St. Louis exhibition in the interests of the press, the formal organization in the C.W.P.C., taking place at Winnipeg in the June 1907, with 35 were enrolled for membership—the list now totals over 300 and covers from the Maritime Provinces to the coast and British Columbia. Amendment to the constitution, reports of the credential committee and voting of new members concluding the business for the day, and the meeting adjourned to assemble at ten o'clock next morning.

Monday evening was fete night, as we were guests at a reception and supper given in our honor by the City of Edmonton, at the Edmonton auditorium. His Worship Mayor Short (who by the way, has many Brantford relatives), was master of ceremonies. On entering we fairly had to rub our eyes in order to believe we had not entered Fairyland—twinkling electric lights, ropes of crimson, ramblers roses suspended and festooned from every available corner and electrolier; palms, hydrangeas and roses banded the dias or platform, upon which the speeches were made and the orchestra stationed. We were received by His Honor Lieutenant Governor Bulyea, Mayor and Mrs. Short and Mrs. Murphy, who acted as hostesses. Later a most delightful and informal programme, opening with an address of welcome from the Lieutenant-Governor and Mayor Short. Mrs. Arthur Murphy, Mrs. Jean Blewett, Mrs. Isabel Ecclestone McKay, Mrs. Nellie McClung and Miss Marjorie MacMurphy each speaking or giving selections in their own original way. A musical programme interspersed.

Then came the banquet itself. I only wish I could print it in great big capital letters so that you could appreciate how really lovely it all was. Long tables, beautifully decorated with flowers; a wonderful caterer by the name of Hepburn having this end of it in charge and the menu, a series of tempting surprises; three hundred being provided for, and no one overlooked (even for a minute), in the serving. The orchestra meanwhile played softly. At its conclusion, the singing of the National Anthem, Auld Lang Syne, then to the various abiding places by motor or taxi about midnight, filled with gratitude for our royal reception and the courtesy extended.

Thursday was a day of business and simple—meetings morning and afternoon with a hurried half-called for luncheon. But 5 o'clock found it all completed and we gladly wended our way to the home of Mrs. Richard Secord who was entertaining in our honor, her beautiful home being thrown open to the visitors and gracious hospitality once more extended. Leaving there, a hurried change into travelling suits and once more we were ready to start, this time on our much anticipated trip as guests of the G.T.P. to Jasper Park and return.

Mr. Lett, representing the railway; Mr. Ham, and Colonel Rogers, superintendent of Jasper Park, travelled with us, a "special" of seven cars carrying the party, but of that I will tell you later.

Edmonton, June 17.—Hamilton got to Clermont in first and scored two runs. Munn and Needham were passed, and moved up a peg on Killea's sacrifice, and scored a minute later. Fisher singled to centre.

In the second Tesch was safe. Barton's error and was sacrificed second, the next three men singled a row, scoring two runs, and B hit a long fly to centre, which scored Clermont. Ivers singled to centre, the fourth hit, and Wagner triple score from second, but was thrown out by Corns' beautiful throw to plate. They came back in the fifth with one more, but Hamilton got Clermont from then on and filled bases every innings before they went down, but the best they could do was to run each inning until the when they filled the bases and two runs before the side was run. In the second Tesch was safe. Barton's error and was sacrificed second, the next three men singled a row, scoring two runs, and B hit a long fly to centre, which scored Clermont. Ivers singled to centre, the fourth hit, and Wagner triple score from second, but was thrown out by Corns' beautiful throw to plate. They came back in the fifth with one more, but Hamilton got Clermont from then on and filled bases every innings before they went down, but the best they could do was to run each inning until the when they filled the bases and two runs before the side was run. Smith pitched wonderful ball and received good support. Brant threatened in the sixth when they

Sporting Comment

It looks like an even bet whether we'll be in last place before new players arrive.

We are just one game ahead of Berlin in the standing. The Juvenile Shortstop - Going to try out that new boy for the team?

Will Hamilton prove an oasis in the Sahara of our distress? It didn't look like it yesterday.

Mr. Clermont was unusually charitable yesterday, allowing nine bases on balls.

Half of the pitchers who have been leaning up on Brantford couldn't win a game if they had the Red Sox behind them or the Guelph hitting demons in front.

And still the refrain goes up behind the dyke, "Give us Canucks on the team." It would be just as sensible to send to Bulgaria...

Ray Collins complains that the press had him released before he was released. Well, wasn't it better to have a hint rather than a house falling on top of you.

It has been to look altogether that there has been too much boost for the ball club, and not enough knocking. The next player who complains of being knocked will find that this sheet hasn't even started at the game yet.

"In St. Louis some years ago," writes a Kansas City man, "I took a dignified Englishman to his first ball game. Big good-natured Robinson was catching. Behind him and near us a youth of about twelve was delivering a choice variety of rooting from the grand-stand, to the evident puzzlement of my companion. 'Good boy, Bobby,' was a frequent cry of the youngster."

"Restraining his curiosity for a time, finally, on inquiry, the Briton learned that 'probably no acquaintance existed between the catcher and the lad. 'Dear me,' he ejaculated, 'what assurance for that small boy to address that large gentleman so familiarly.'"

Lacrosse Boys Are Putting Up Good Game

They Defeated Preston In Exhibition Affair on Saturday - Some Good Talent is Being Developed By Brantford.

In an evenly contested game of lacrosse in Preston on Saturday afternoon the Brantford boys won out by a score of 8 to 7. There was a fairly good turnout to witness the exhibition, and with the exception of a little rough work at times the game was well up to the standard.

initiated by the Brantford defense which refused to allow any more dangerous combination in their territory. During the last few minutes of the game Eddie Slattery collided with Dick Brown, the fast Preston player, which resulted in the loss of two teeth for Brown and a generous sized nose for Slattery.

The "Last" Argument

Against Corns and Bunions. Corns and bunions are caused by ill-fitting shoes. Foot troubles are unknown to races that go bare-foot.

Of course you don't want to go barefoot. But you can be without foot trouble by clothing your feet in properly-fitting shoes. The interior of a Foot-rite Shoe is the exact mould of a properly shaped human foot.

To secure the last for the Foot-rite Shoe a sculptor studied the perfectly shaped feet of leading athletes of Canada, the United States and Great Britain. From this model the last for Foot-rite Shoes was made, in graded sizes. And on this perfect foot-form Foot-rite Shoes are moulded. The interior of the Foot-rite Shoe is so finished that nothing can irritate the foot. In Foot-rite Shoes you will experience real foot-comfort. We selected Foot-rite Shoes to give our men patrons foot-comfort and style with value and satisfaction to the fullest possible extent.

Outlaw Comes Over to Canada

SAULT STE. MARIE, June 16.—With the finding last night of the boat stolen Friday night from Algonquin on the Michigan side of the St. Mary's river, it is now assured that Tobias, the outlaw, who has kept armed posses busy for over a week, has gone to Canada, and to-day the woods on the line of the Algoma Central Railway are being raked to bring him to justice. It is thought likely that he will be shot at sight without any effort at his arrest being made, for he is armed and will shoot any one coming in sight. The reward has been increased to $300. His arrest is likely, as the story of the double murder has spread to remote quarters and everyone is alert. In getting to the Canadian side he must have run big chances of death in the rapids.

Hats a la Mode.
They came in crowds at opening day, for a new hat is an ecstasy. The most of women who throng the way, in Peacock Alley new year to see, "I'm afraid this hat is too young for me," said the lady of three score and years to me. "O, no," said the milliner's girl, with a constant smile, "it grows old to-day if she has style. It just suits you, madame, it is so chic and so fit; was made for you. Your friends must admit." Madame pays for the hat and walks off with a step as light and airy as any young fairy. She thinks of the kind of catastrophe as she goes. Now the gods have brought to her jauntiest clothes so grannies are banished with clothes so antique that once made them old at fifty to speak. I see without terror, by a glint in my eye, that she is jerking away, and no traces unfold. I'm a rival of eighteen, my hat and my pose, my hair and my clothes. So here's to us young folks—we're young to the close.

By inhaling Catarrh she got relief and gradually the discharge went away. She was cured perfectly of Catarrh. Personally I can recommend Catarrh for coughs and throat irritation; it's a wonderful medicine." Sold everywhere, 5c and $1.00.

FOREIGN BODY IN EAR

Children frequently put into their ears pebbles, beans, cherry stones, etc. Some insects find their way into the ear passage, and create severe pain by their struggles. The insect is no respecter of age and frequently finds its way into the ear of a grown-up. Smooth, non-irritating bodies do no particular harm for some time. The most serious damage results often in the hurried, unskilled manner of attempting to remove such by persons who act immediately and incautiously. When trying to remove a solid body from the ear to be treated downward. Push it outward and backward. Rub the skin just in front of the opening into the ear with the other hand. This object may fall out. If this is not effective syringing may be tried. Suggesting this second method does not prove successful, then get competent medical assistance at once.

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE OSTRICH PLUMES LIKE THIS?

This picture gives a very good idea of what may be accomplished with the straight strip of feathers. First it is curved around the hat, then the trimmings, and then, if the hat is to be worn, it is pressed down. It is twisted tightly around the crown, in the ordinary hat fashion. And on the other hand, when the day is in and calm, it is perfectly proper to allow it to wave at will in a careless graceful "don't care a penny for objects" fashion. If hat is to be attached near the back of the hat and then allowed to hang as far as it will.

A HABIT TO CULTIVATE

Devotes Much Time to Mental and Physical Exertion
Discontent and disease of mind and body are frequently due to an aimless, half-filled life. The reason for this is very much more rational and natural than might at first be supposed. The proper state of mind is activity. The proper state of the muscles is activity. A mind with much leisure easily becomes dissatisfied. A body not properly exercised loses its full powers, becomes flabby and susceptible to disease germs. So the best policy of the individual who would live long and well is to practice the habit of "busyness." If you haven't regular work to do make some duty yours to perform. And this should be a daily mental duty, as well as a merely physical one. The individual who is not systematically busy a share of every day soon finds time to cultivate an ache or pain; to let the sunburn of life slip by unnoticed and to make mountains out of mole-hills of trouble. This condition gets the body and the mind into a non-resistant state and paves the way for disease to take possession. Cultivate the "busyness" habit. It can be nurtured and perfected just as the laipness habit grows.

Cleaning Copper Kettles
Copper kettles soon become discolored when they have been in use for any length of time. Try cleaning them in the following way and you will get a beautiful polish. Dip a piece of brown paper into a little salt, and rub this well all over the surface of the kettle. Wipe it quickly off and polish with a dry, smooth leather.

Prophetic is the frequent cause of loss of teeth by grown persons. Decay is the usual cause of such loss in children. Prophetic needs the most careful home treatment and the best care of a prominent dentist.

Forty years in use, 20 years the standard, preserved and recommended by physicians, for Women's Ailments, Dr. Bartel's Female Pills, at your druggists.

Scholarly Sermon

Christ and His people, in which bread and wine are given, and received in thankful remembrance of Him and His sacrifice on the cross; and they who in faith receive the same do, after a spiritual manner, partake of the body and the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ to their comfort, nourishment and growth in grace. All may be admitted who make a credible confession of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and of obedience to His law.

The Historic Episcopate
The historical Episcopate as it is generally understood, is one of the big barriers to the speedy consummation of the union movement. By the Episcopate is meant a line of Bishops going back to Apostolic times, who by prayer and the imposition of hands were consecrated and sent forth with lawful authority to work and in turn to consecrate other bishops and to ordain priests and deacons. This belief, however, only becomes a barrier when it is interpreted as meaning that the minister outside of such ordination, even if they have been most solemnly and decorously ordained by Godly men, are not qualified to preach in Anglican pulpits. The present movement throughout the country to open the pulpits is full of promise. That it will succeed is evident. To expect union without its success is most clearly to expect the impossible. To interpret Episcopacy as increasing numbers do in that church and other churches as a body of men successively set apart by the Holy Spirit, and who as such are in the real Apostolic succession is to prepare the way for union. That Anglicans with their views of the scriptures on these points as to make possible the coming together of the Church of God throughout the whole earth is our hope and prayer. For if the scriptures on the points which separate here, as in some other particulars, are so indefinite, that men of the deepest and truest spirituality as well as of the soundest scholarship, are unable to agree as to the exact meaning of words or phrases, then surely God will not be displeased if the favor of the uncertainty be given to that interpretation which would make possible the reunion of Christendom and the speedy evangelization of the world.

Conclusion.
By what dark valley or circuitous paths, or mountain grades these barriers are to be passed and the church of God once again united on earth, cannot be predicted with any great certainty. That they are to be overcome, however, and that in a way which will not do violence to the heart and the substance of Christianity is the ever increasing conviction of multiplied thousands. That this united church will be pleasing to God, a joy to Christian workers, and a terror to evil doers, is also a thing more evident. A glorious day that will be for the church when unholiness is dead; when every man's strength will be directed against the foes of mankind; when all the redeemed in each community and throughout the whole world plan for the spiritual and social redemption of all mankind; when Christ shall be lifted up so high that all can behold Him outlined against humanity's appalling needs; when the children of God recognize what has been a fact from the beginning, namely this, that they are already one people redeemed by the same blood, built on the same rock, heirs of the same heritage and commissioned to the same world-wide task. Then heaven will pulsate with new joy and men will believe that God did send Christ into the world. Then also Christians can sing with some real sense of fitness to their song—
"Like a mighty army
Moves the Church of God,
Brothers we are treading
Where the saints have trod.
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity."
This movement is most certainly "riding up the sky." Soon its sun will be at noonday strength. Then shall come to pass the realization of Christ's prayer and Paul's entreaty, then the Master will speedily see the results of the travail of His soul and be satisfied.

Mrs. Grace Beemer Charged With Murder at Drummond—Her Career.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
WOODSTOCK, Ont., June 16.—Awaiting the arrival of the analyst from Toronto and witnesses from Drummond, the Mrs. Grace Beemer, charged with murder of her husband, Fred Beemer, through administering strychnine to begin this morning at 10 o'clock, an hour later than pre-arranged. Owing to Mrs. Beemer's delicate condition she was taken to the police court room the hearing took place in the judge's chambers at the Court with Police Magistrate A. S. charge R. N. Ball, K. C., Crown attorney, assisted by Mr. Muller, K. C., conducting the defence. Mrs. Beemer, who is an attractive looking woman of thirty, has eight children, since her arrest have been in custody of the Children's Aid Society in this city. The oldest is at a farm, while the other even the youngest, who is a brother of her husband, was her brother when she was sixteen old, he being many years her senior in their four years of life on their farm in Blenheim, Ontario, they apparently did not have a very large degree of happiness.

Dressed entirely in black, Beemer was escorted into the room at 11 o'clock by County Magistrate Hobson and took a chair in front of the magistrate. She sat in the prisoner's dock, from the witness there were spectators. Dr. Woolner, of the first witness. He was in, he said, to see Fred Beemer the morning of Saturday, May 10, Beemer was suffering from a cold in his legs, sweating and had a considerable thirst, he said. "He lay on a couch in the hall, Beemer, the children and some of the neighbors being present. Beemer told me she thought her husband had a stroke. I examined and found he had not." "The doctor did not satisfy me as to the cause of Beemer's condition," Mrs. Beemer told him Beemer had some sausage when away from which did not agree with him, said her husband took sick that day, but had not been feeling for some days.

"My first idea was that he had been poisoned," Beemer told him for that," said the witness. "I told Mrs. Beemer to let him sleep later."
"Was there anything in the way you gave him to create spasms?" asked the crown attorney.
"Absolutely nothing, they relieve them," was the reply.
"What did Beemer complain principally?"
"Principally of spasmodic fits in his legs."

He saw Beemer again the night, his condition being little better and the pains being enough to cry out at times. Beemer said she had given a directed and he ordered more to be given to relieve his spasms. Sunday noon when the doctor's third visit he found Beemer better. He had been reading, but not very. Monday night the doctor Beemer's condition practically normal and he had been up during the day.

"The man was practically well, I told him I would not need him," said Dr. Woolner.
"Was called again Tuesday when I arrived about ten o'clock man was dead."
"From his condition on Monday you expected death to follow Tuesday?" asked the Crown attorney.
"Most certainly not."
"Had you made up your mind of the cause of death?"
