TIRAGE AU SORT, about SEVENTY LOTS, of different Sizes, from 45 to 100 feet in front by 100 feet and apwards is depth, forming a part of his Farm, situated at the Current St. Mary, a number of which Lots are facing new Streets, and are stuated at the Current St. Mary, the others are facing new Streets, and are situated on a high and elevated land, commanding a delightful view of the Einer St. Lawrence and of the neighbouring country; upon one of which Lots in a stone house, of the value of about £500, now occupied by the undersigned there are also upon many other Lots Fruit Trees, of a superior quality. The Lots which are facing the River St. Lawrence are very valuable, and have been occupied for several years as a Chantier (Ship. Yard) for the construction of Ships and Steamboats; the other Lots are in general of less value, although situated near an Episcopal and a Roman Cathelic Church, and surrounded by Stores of all kinds, and in a place which, in a very short time, will surpass any other in Montreal for Commerce. The original name of the place where those Lots are in general of Hochelege, where it was first intended to build the city j and the river opposite is admirably adapted for a Part and Harbour. Here the whole of the Lumber Trade is varried on; and the distance is about a mile from Montreal.
