"Reserviscences of the late Hon and Right Revd. Alexander Macdonell, first Catholic Bishop of Upper Canada, and (incidentally) of other old residents of the Province," is the title of a neat pamplet of about sixty pages, which we have received from the publishers. The compilation of this excellent little book was undertaken, as a labor of love, by the deceased prelate's distinguished and yenerable kninsman, Chevalier W. P. Macdonell, of Toronto; as he tells up in the introduction, it is published for the benefit of the local Society of St. Vincent de Paul. The life of Bishop Macdonell, is the history of the Church in Upper Canada in his time. The pamphlet before us sketches the distinguished prelate's birth in Inverneeahire, Scotland; his education at the Scottish colleges in Paris and Vallade lid; his assignment to missionary duty in the Braes of Lochabar; his subsections and the street of Vernon River Bay, assisted by the Rev.
