CHAPTER VI.

No sleep came to her that night. She hated the men whom she had seen, and who persisted in flattering and praising her. She detested their opinions and political feelings; she loathed the idea of having to meet them again and again. If some one would but rescue her! If something would only happen to save her from the terrible future that her father had map-

She looked the next morning from the window of her bedroom. There were people hurrying to and fro; the tall chimneys were smoking, showing that work was going on; there was the distant murmur and roar of the city; she saw men and women witheager faces, who were evidently bent on business. "The people!" And what had she to do with them? She did not even belong to them. What had she in dirty, poorly-dressed men and women then give her life to them or for them?  A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get 16 ounces—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste, Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

Wishing for sleep is a poor way to get it

ALITTLE wisdom in the daytime is a better assurance of rest than any amount of anxious wishing when nerves are a-jangle at night.

What you do at noon often has more influence on sleep than what you want and hope for, at midnight,

Tea and coffee's drug element, caffeine, whips up the nerves, and when its use is continued there's usually a penalty which no amount of mental effort can avoid.

> The part of wisdom, as so many thousands have found, is to turn away from nervestimulation and adopt rich, delicious Postum as the mealtime drink. Postum delights the taste, but brings no dis turbance to nerves or digestion. Even the little children can share in the enjoyment of Postum at any meal.

It's better to anticipate warnings than to be driven by them.

It's better to encourage and preserve sound nerves and complete health than to listen to the clock ticks at night and say, "I wish!"

You can get Postum wherever good food or drink is sold and served. An order today may be the beginning, for you, of the great satisfaction and comfort which so many others have found in Postum.

Your grocer has both forms: Instant Postum (in tine) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer pared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Mr. Malcolm Parsons, of St. John's, spent St. Patrick's Day in town, returning again to the city by this afternoon's train. His many friends were pleased to see him again. Mr. Eugene Noel of St. John's (but formerly of this town) arrived on Thursday to spend a short time with relatives and friends. All are glad to see him and renew acquaintances.

Under the distinguished patronage of His Lordship Bishop March, a very fine entertainment was given by the pupils of the Presentation Convent Schools, in the Academy Hall on St. Patrick's night. The Teachers who are responsible for the splendid training shown by the pupils may justly feel proud of what was put before the public on that night, for the whole affair was of a very high order. It was surprising to note the cleverness of the little girls who so well acted in the Operetta, "An Afternoon Tea," and which called forth no small amount of praise from the audience. It would indeed be unfair, though, to particularize, as each performer having done so creditably. The gathering was a large one, every seat in the hall being availed of. May we tender our congratulations to the Teachers and pupils on the splendid success of the evening.-COR. Hr. Grace, March 18, 1922.

Upon His Honor as Minister of the Gospel REV. W. A. THOMPSON WRITES OF DR. F. G. KINSMAN'S HEART TABLETS.

I have heart trouble severely for fifteen years and had many doctors to treat me with no discernible effect. I had become so low that I could scarcely walk fifty steps. At night I was troulow that I could scarcely walk fifty steps. At night I was troubled with fluttering of the heart, and by no means had a night's rest for that length of time. I had pains most excruciating and could not lie on my left side even for a moment. I tried five boxes of your Heart Tablets and can now truthfully say that I am well. I am a Minister of the Gospel and upon my word as such, I believe I could not have lived had it not been for your remedy. I am not, generally speaking, willing to give testimonials, but I fully owe this or more to you as owner of the Heart Tablets.

What is Your Verdict!

Is it not safe to assume that the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, who manufacture in their own huge perfectly equipped plant practically every part of the Ford car, are the people best qualified to make replacement parts at the lowest price compatible with the high quality which must be main-

Manufacturers of spurious parts, operating as they do on a small scale with limited capital and inadequate equipment, cannot possibly make parts of the same quality or accuracy at anywhere near the low price you have to pay for Genuine Ford Parts. Yet you are asked to believe that these spurious parts not only equal Genuine Ford Parts in quality but can be produced to sell for less!

We rest oour case here. The verdict we leave to you. DODD'S GARAGE, LTD.
