Whereupon the Honourable Mr. Dennis came to the Table and took and subscribed the oath prescribed by law, which was administered by Samuel Edmour St. Onge Chapleau, Esquire, a Commissioner appointed for that purpose; and took his seat accordingly.

The Honourable the Speaker then acquainted the Senate that the Clerk of the Senate had laid upon the Table the Certificate of one of the Commissioners setting forth that the Honourable Mr. Dennis, a Member of the Senate, had made and subscribed the Declaration of Qualification required by the British North America Act, 1867.

The Honourable the Speaker informed the Senate that he had received a communication from the Governor General's Secretary.

The same was then read by the Honourable the Speaker, and it is as follows:—

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR GENERAL'S SECRETARY, CANADA,
OTTAWA, 19th November, 1912.

SIR,—I have the honour to inform you that His Royal Highness the Governor General will proceed to the Senate Chamber to open the Session of the Dominion Parliament on Thursday the 21st instant, at 3 o'clock.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

H. C. LOWTHER, Lieut.-Colonel.
Governor General's Secretary.

The Honourable

The Speaker of the Senate,
&c., &c., &c.

The Senate was adjourned during pleasure.

His Royal Highness the Governor General, being seated on the Throne.

The Honourable the Speaker commanded the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod to proceed to the House of Commons and acquaint the House that,—“It is His Royal Highness the Governor General's pleasure that they attend him immediately in the Senate.”

Who being come, with their Speaker,

His Royal Highness the Governor General was then pleased to open the Session by a Gracious Speech to both Houses:—

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I have during the past summer spent several months in visiting the principal cities and towns of Canada from coast to coast, and have endeavoured to make myself as far as possible acquainted with the conditions prevailing.

It has been a source of the deepest satisfaction to me to see the almost universal prosperity which reigns throughout the Dominion, and to witness the energy and enterprise which are shown in developing the rich resources of the land.

It is most gratifying to observe that the trade of the Dominion is increasing rapidly and steadily, the aggregate trade for the last fiscal year being the largest on record. During the present year the same steady increase has been noted, and it is anticipated that the total volume of our trade for the present fiscal year will greatly surpass that of any previous year in our history.

The revenues of the Dominion continue to expand, and in every branch of business and industry there is a remarkable activity which gives assurance of continued progress and prosperity.

A copious and welcome stream of immigration has poured into our country during the past summer. The volume of immigration during the present year is greater than during any corresponding period of our history, and in larger measure than usual it has been drawn from the British Islands.

The labours of the husbandman have been blessed with an ample return; and, although in some districts the weather has been unpropitious for the harvest, it is expected that the total value of our field crops will be greater than in any previous year.

Papers will be laid before you which embody trade arrangements that have been consummated between the Dominion and certain of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies. It is hoped that these arrangements will prove of great advantage not only to those possessions, but to Canada as well. A Bill will be introduced for the purpose of carrying this agreement into effect.

During the past summer four members of my Government conferred in London with His Majesty's Government on the question of Naval Defence. Important discussions took place and conditions have been disclosed which in the opinion of my advisers render it imperative that the effective naval forces of the Empire should be strengthened without delay. My advisers are convinced that it is the duty of Canada at this juncture to afford reasonable and necessary aid for that purpose. A Bill will be introduced accordingly.

A contract for the construction of the Hudson Bay Railway from LePas to Port Nelson has been awarded and the work is being pushed forward with all possible speed.

It is abundantly evident that the highways of Canada constitute an important part of an efficient scheme of transportation. The necessity for improving our existing facilities in this regard is manifest and a Bill will be introduced for the purpose of enabling the Dominion to co-operate with the Provinces in the accomplishment of this most desirable purpose.

It is satisfactory to know that the proposal of my Government to co-operate with the governments of the various provinces in promoting the agricultural industry has met with hearty approval. The appropriations which were made last session in connection therewith have proved to be of marked benefit to the country. After a careful study of the whole question my advisers are convinced that co-operation with the provinces on well defined terms and conditions will achieve the best results along the lines of agricultural instruction. Any such policy to be effective must be continuous. Accordingly, a Bill will be introduced by which a substantial amount of money will be set apart from the Consolidated Revenue Fund for the purpose of assisting the provinces for a term of years in this highly important national work.

My Government has succeeded in securing certain reductions in cable rates and will continue its efforts to obtain still further reductions.

Under existing legislation the charters of the Banks will expire on the 1st day of July next. A Bill revising and extending these charters will be submitted for your consideration and approval.

Several other Bills will be submitted, including measures providing for increased representation of the Provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba in the Senate.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The accounts for the last fiscal year will be laid before you. It will be satisfactory to you to learn that the revenue has been ample to cover both ordinary and capital expenditure.

The estimates for the next fiscal year will be submitted at an early date. They have been prepared with due regard on the one hand for economy, and on the other hand for the necessary development of the resources of the Dominion.

Honourable Gentlemen of the Senate:

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I invite your earnest consideration of the subjects to which I have alluded and I invoke the blessings of Divine Providence upon your deliberations.

His Royal Highness was pleased to retire and the House of Commons withdrew.

After some time the Senate was resumed.

The Honourable the Speaker presented to the Senate the Report of the Joint Librarians on the state of the Library for the year 1912.

The same was then read by the Clerk, and it is as follows:—

To the Honourable the Speaker of the Senate:—

The joint Librarians of Parliament have the honour to report as follows for the year 1912.

The various demands likely to be made on the Library in regard to the naval question, the Panama Canal question, and other practical matters have been as far as possible anticipated.

The less important literary side of the Library has had to be somewhat neglected in order that the practical side might be strengthened for the session.

Owing to the liberality of the Public Works Department, and especially to the highly intelligent and thoughtful initiative of Mr. Shearer, the Superintendent of Public Buildings, as well as to the industry of the Library staff under the direction of Mr. Todd, many changes have been made in the Library during the recess. The appearance of the room has been greatly improved and its convenience for members considerably increased.

The newspapers have been placed in accessible basement rooms, which have been properly fitted for the purpose.

Many sections have been transferred to new places in order that the sections most in demand might be more fully displayed on the shelves, and more easily consulted by Members.

Those sections which contain the books and reports relating to railways and treaties, have been particularly dealt with, for the convenience of those having occasion to consult them.

Members will notice that the floor of the Library has been cleared of many years' accumulations of varnish, &c., and may now be seen in its original colour and plan. It will hereafter be kept in order by the same process that has been used to bring about the present result.

The re-arrangement of newspapers and official publications in the basement and vaults has been a serious task, greatly facilitated by the Public Works Department. It will take some time yet to put everything in such order as space will permit, and to get the Indexes and Catalogues corrected to suit the new circumstances. Some little confusion may at times occur, till everyone is familiar with the details of the changes, which have been going on daily up to the date of the meeting of Parliament.

The Librarians desire to point out, however, that the congestion which has, for so many years, prevailed in the Library is by no means removed. It is only made less obvious to members. Many sections on the ground floor are still congested, and the galleries are generally in an over-crowded state.

The Librarians entertain the hope that in the course of the construction of the new buildings on the land recently procured by the Government, room, at least in some duly fitted basements, may be provided for the storage, in an accessible form, of books not always in demand but which they are not disposed to destroy.

Among all the plans hitherto proposed, for the extension of the Library, the plan of 1904 is still considered by the Librarians as being the most satisfactory.

If this plan is not finally adopted, the suggestion made above as to space in the new buildings, would at least afford a large measure of relief from overcrowding.

During a visit to the Bodleian Library, in the recess, the method of storing books was studied and the machinery seen in operation. A more ingenious and, on the whole, inexpensive system can hardly be imagined. If space can be obtained, as has been suggested, in the new buildings to be erected on Wellington Street, the plans of Messrs. Lucy & Co., of Oxford, might well be examined by the Department of Public Works.

Some valuable and interesting additions have been made to the Library during the recess. "The North American Indian" (United States and Canada). Edward S. Curtis, 10 vols. 4to of text and 10 volumes of plates, folio, has been added to the American section constituting a most valuable acquisition. This work is much more complete than those of Catlin and Schoolcroft. The illustrated volumes are made up of photographs taken by Mr. Curtis himself.

A copy of a rare periodical has also been secured for the same section, viz.: The Quebec Magazine, English and French. (1792-93.) 3 vols.

The new supplement to the Catalogue contains the titles of a collection of about 300 rare volumes by authors of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

During the first week of July last, The American Library Association—about eight hundred in number—had their annual meeting in Ottawa. One of the Librarians and several members of our staff met some of these distinguished visitors and arrangements have been made to carry on exchanges with a certain number of Librarians of the neighbouring republic.

The list of donations is appended hereto.

The list of copyrights deposited in the Library has been also prepared, and will be found in its usual place in the Sessional papers.

The pressing necessity of obtaining some practical and at least partially trained assistance for the service of Parliament during the present session has revealed a state of things with regard to the Civil Service law, which it is hoped, may be remedied speedily by special legislation.

The Civil Service Commissioners have taken a view of the law with which the Librarians are unable to agree in any particular, and which they deem to be entirely contrary to the original intention and present correct meaning of the Act.

The Act provides for two separate sets of rules governing the Library administration; one set for the recess, and one for the session. Inconveniences and differences of opinion must necessarily arise, as they have arisen; and the Librarians have ventured to ask for such an amendment to the Act as may make the administration of the Library more satisfactory, pending the revision of the whole Civil Service Act which seems to be generally desired in the Public Service.

The Librarians deem it advisable to reprint, for the information of Members, the report of a Sub-Committee of the Joint Committee, adopted in the session of 1892:—

"The Sub-Committee are of the opinion that the following books. viz.:—

"1st. The Debates of Imperial Parliament.

"2nd. The Law Reports.

"3rd. The Law Reviews.

"4th. The Debates of the Dominion and of the Colonies.

"5th. The Parliamentary Papers of Great-Britain.

"6th. The Statutes of Canada and of the Provinces.

"7th. Works on Parliamentary Government and Practice.

"8th. Statistical Compilations.

"9th. The Congressional Papers of the United States, and similar works which are constantly in use among members. should not be permitted to be taken from the Library, except for use in debate and during a sitting of either House; and that the Librarians be instructed to procure the return of such books at the conclusion of the sitting of the House.

"Your Committee are of opinion, that the general rules already in force, which govern the use of the Library, by Members, are (with the exception of the one proposed to be amended as above) sufficiently explicit. Your Committee, however, consider it desirable that the attention of Members should be called to these rules, and that they should exercise their privileges with due regard to the interests of the Library and with reasonable consideration for the convenience of fellow Members in respect to the number of books taken out at any one time, and the period for which they are detained."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. D. DECELLES,
General Librarian.

MARTIN J. GRIFFIN,
Parliamentary Librarian.

The Order of the Day being read for the consideration of the Second Report of the Standing Committee on the Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts of the Senate.

The Honourable Mr. Thompson moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. McMullen.

That the said Report be now adopted.

After Debate,

His Honour the Speaker declared the Report out of Order for the reasons following.

MR. SPEAKER'S RULING.

On the 5th of December last, the Standing Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts presented to this House the following report:—

THE SENATE,

COMMITTEE ROOM No. 8,

THURSDAY, December 5, 1912.

"The Standing Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts have the honour to make their Second Report as follows:—

"Your Committee recommend that Oscar Racine be appointed special sessional messenger in place of the late N. Audette.

"All which is respectfully submitted.

F. P. THOMPSON,

Chairman."

The consideration of this report, was, by Order of the Senate, postponed until to-day.

The Order for this consideration being called, an objection is raised on the ground that the Committee is powerless to make such a report.

The powers of the Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts have already been discussed in this House more than once, and if one would refer to the deliberations which took place in this Chamber on the 11th of May, 1911, he will find that one of its members, the Hon. Mr. Dandurand, an ex-Speaker of this House, has expressed himself as follows:—

“I would draw attention to a matter that is not very clear in my mind, but which, I think, deprives the Committee of the power of making any such report of its own motion. The appointment of Committees was made on a motion by the Rt. Hon. Minister of Trade and Commerce that the Senators mentioned in the report of the Committee on Selection, be and are hereby appointed to constitute the several committees, &c., to inquire into and report on such matters as may be referred to them from time to time. I have considerable doubt as to the right of a Standing Committee to arrive at decisions and report to this House on matters which have not been referred to it.”

This opinion of the Hon. Senator for De Lorimier was shared by the Honourable Member, senior, for Halifax, another ex-Speaker of this House, when he said, referring to a matter that came up in this House in the same manner.

“I was present at the meeting where the matter was discussed, and I voted in favour of the report of the Committee. I have come to the conclusion since, after hearing what has been said, and particularly what is said by the two honourable gentlemen from De Lorimier and Stadacona, that I made a mistake.”

At the opening of this session, the Hon. Mr. Lougheed moved, seconded by the Hon. Mr. Kirchoffer, (Vide page 63 of the Minutes of Proceedings of the Senate)—

“That the Senators mentioned in the report of the Committee of selection as having been chosen to serve on the several Standing Committees, during the present session, be and they are hereby appointed to form part and constitute the several Committees with which their respective names appear in said report, to enquire into and report upon such matters as may be referred to them from time to time; and the Committee on Standing Orders is authorized to send for persons, papers and records required.”

“The question of concurrence being put thereon, the same was resolved in the affirmative.”

Committees in general, have a right to report only on subjects specially submitted to their consideration.

The subject matter of the report now before us has never been submitted to the deliberations of the Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Accounts, and for this reason the Committee has no right to ask it to be submitted to the approval of this House.

A second reason which prompts me to arrive at the same conclusion is the following:—Should the report of this Committee be adopted, it would be an encroachment upon the rights and privileges bestowed by law to the Speaker of the Senate.

What it recommends is specially opposed to the enactments of the Civil Service Act of 1908, clauses 22 and 45, which reserve to the Senate itself, but on the necessary and express recommendation of its Speaker, the appointment of the messenger aimed at by the report of the Committee.

The substitution of the Committee's action to that of the Senate advised by its Speaker, is illegal, and the recommendation of the Committee of such an illegality is, itself, illegal in the eyes of the law.

I may say that I had, when the meeting of the Committee took place, the opportunity of being present at its deliberations, and I pointed out then the objection which I state now, but I was met by an opinion of Mr. Newcombe which, I was told, was bearing on the case, but which, as I construed it, had nothing to do with the question.

The leader of this House then made a proposal, that the Chairman of the Committee and the Speaker of the House would call upon Mr. Newcombe to discuss the point and to have his written opinion upon that subject. For one reason or another that proposal was not accepted by the Chairman of the Committee.

I may, en passant, give you immediately the opinion of an ex-Speaker of this House, which may be found in the deliberations of the Senate which took place on the 10th of May, 1911.

Mr. Dandurand says:—

“This Chamber has very clearly expressed its opinion as to functions which this Committee should no longer exercise when it gave its assent to the Civil Service Act which came to us from the other Chamber. We are bound by that legislation, which has completely altered the powers of the Senate in dealing with the appointment and promotion of its employees. As I understand the Civil Service Act, which we made law, and which binds this Chamber, as well as the House of Commons, we agreed that the Clerk of the Senate should have the powers of a deputy head, and the Speaker the powers of a head of a Department, and that this Chamber should have the powers of the Governor in Council when acting upon the recommendation of a deputy head and a head of a department.”

The Honourable Senator, senior, from Halifax, who is also an ex-Speaker of the Senate, said:—

“With respect to the proper course to follow, I must say that, on the whole, I am disposed to agree with the Honourable Gentleman from De Lorimier. A strong argument might be put up to justify the report which has been made, under section 8 of the Civil Service Act, but we have come in collision with the Civil Service Act already, and, as a rule, we have fared rather badly. On the whole, it would be wiser perhaps, to take the course suggested by the Honourable Gentleman from De Lorimier. The Right Honourable Leader of this House (Sir Richard Cartwright) has suggested that we should take the opinion of the Minister of Justice on the question.”

Here are the proper words used by the then Leader of the Senate:—

“Right Honourable Sir Richard Cartwright—It is quite clear that this is a somewhat tangled question. The Senate, on both sides, will agree with me, I think, that it is highly undesirable we should again engage in a controversy in which we might find the law of the case against us, and I will make the suggestion partly with a view to promote the business, but chiefly with a view that we may be advised on this subject, that the matter be referred to the Minister of Justice through the medium of our law clerk, for the purpose of obtaining a written opinion as to the exact status which we occupy in this matter, and how far the Civil Service Act has interfered with our former practice.”

I have followed these suggestions of the late Minister of Trade and Commerce and also those given out by the present Leader of this House, and addressing myself directly to the Deputy Minister of Justice and to the Auditor General, I wrote to each of those two gentlemen, the following letter:—

“OTTAWA, December 6, 1912.

“DEAR SIR,—

Has the Speaker of the Senate, by law, the power to appoint messengers, packers, sorters, and other employees, of the lower grade?”

“If I well understand clause 22 of the Civil Service Amendment Act, 1908, that power is vested in the Speaker and clause 32 cannot be invoked against my contention, because, as it appears to me, clause 32 is only a clause determining the amount of salary to be paid and not a clause indicating that the appointment of these employees is not in the hands of the Speaker as determined by clause 22.

“If, as I feel convinced, I have the power to recommend (because it is only a power of recommendation) the appointment of such employees, could any one, the Clerk of the House, the Chairman or Secretary of any Committee, behind my back, and without my consent, make any such recommendation, or could the Senate proceed without having their action preceded by my recommendation?

“As I understand my privileges or my duties as Head of the Department, the Senate has the power to accept or reject my recommendation, and that, in the latter case, my duty would be to make another recommendation. But I do not believe that the Senate has the power to proceed without my having previously made some kind of a recommendation.

“If, at all events, the Senate, ignoring the law, should make an appointment not preceded by my recommendation, would such an appointee be entitled, by law, to draw his salary, and would the Auditor General be justified in assenting to such payment?

Yours very truly,

P. LANDRY,

Speaker of the Senate.

E. L. NEWCOMBE, Esq., C.M.G.,
Deputy Minister of Justice,
Ottawa.

JOHN FRASER, Esq., I.S.O.,
Auditor General,
Ottawa.

The Deputy Minister of Justice handed me, on the 9th of December, his opinion, which reads as follows:—

“OTTAWA, 9th December, 1912.

“DEAR SIR,—

“Referring to your letter of the 6th instant, I am of opinion that appointments in the Senate to the position of messenger, porter, sorter, packer or to other lower grades should be made during session upon the recommendation of the Speaker, based upon the report in writing of the Clerk of the Senate. This would appear to be the prescribed method of appointment, having regard to sections 2, 3, subsections 2, 22, and 45 of the Civil Service Amendment Act, 1908. The recommendation of the Speaker appears to be a condition to the making of any such appointment.

Yours very truly,

E. L. NEWCOMBE,

Deputy Minister of Justice.

The Honourable
Mr. SPEAKER LANDRY,
The Senate,
Ottawa.

A few days later, I received from the Auditor General the following letter which speaks for itself:—

AUDITOR GENERAL'S OFFICE, CANADA,

" OTTAWA, December 19, 1912.

SIR,—

I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 6th instant, asking me if the Speaker of the Senate has by law the power to appoint messengers, packers, sorters and other employees of the lower grades.

" In reply, I beg to say section 22, in conjunction with section 45 of the Civil Service Amendment Act, 1908, contains the provisions for these appointments.

" The Governor in Council (section 45, the Senate, by resolution) upon the recommendation of the Head of the Department (section 2, the Speaker) based upon the report in writing of the Deputy Head (section 2, the Clerk) and accompanied by the certificate of qualification from the (Civil Service) Commission to be given with or without examination, &c., &c.

" Section 32, as you state, only determines the salary and status of the employee.

" In answer to the third paragraph of your letter I beg to say that I do not see how the Clerk of the House, the Chairman or Secretary of any Committee, or even the Senate, could proceed to make an appointment without having their action preceded by your recommendation, based upon the report in writing of the Clerk of the Senate.

" With reference to the last paragraph, I cannot conceive such a thing as the Senate ignoring the law which they assisted in enacting, but should such a thing occur, it would be the duty of the Clerk to decline to issue a cheque for the payment of the salary and the duty of the Auditor General to refuse to allow such payment to be made."

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

J. FRASER,

Auditor General.

The Honourable
The Speaker of the Senate,
Ottawa.

In the face of such opinions, I am still, as I always was, of the opinion that the Committee of the Internal Economy has no more, since we have adopted the Civil Service Amendment Act, 1908, the power of recommending any appointment to the approval of the Senate.

Clause 22 of that Act is imperative and says:—

" 22. Appointments to the positions of messengers, porter, sorter and packer, and to such other positions in the lower grades, as are determined by the Governor in Council, may be made by the Governor in Council (the Senate, clause 45) upon the recommendation of the Head of the Department (see par. (c) clause 2) based on the report in writing of the deputy head (see par. (b) clause 2), and accompanied by a certificate of qualification from the Commission to be given with or without examination, as is determined by the regulations of the Commission, that the person applying for the appointment possesses the requisite knowledge and ability and is duly qualified as to age, health, character and habits."

For this second reason, I am bound to declare that the report of the Standing Committee on Internal Economy is out of Order, and therefore I refuse to put the question to the Senate.

The Honourable Mr. Choquette then moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Cloran.

That the ruling of His Honour the Speaker be placed in the Minutes of Proceeding of the Senate.

The Honourable Mr. Belcourt in amendment moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Talbot.

That the Report of the Standing Committee on Internal Economy be referred back to that Committee for further consideration and that the decision this day given by the Honourable the Speaker be sent with it to the said Committee.

His Honour the Speaker declared the said motion in amendment out of Order inasmuch as the Report referred to therein is now extinct.

The question of concurrence being then put on the main motion the same was resolved in the affirmative and ordered accordingly.

Pursuant to the Order of the Day the Bill (24) intituled: "An Act to amend the Royal Northwest Mounted Police Act," was read a second time.

On motion of the Honourable Mr. Lougheed, seconded by the Honourable Sir Mackenzie Bowell, it was Ordered, That the said Bill be committed to a Committee of the Whole House on Tuesday next.

Pursuant to the Order of the Day the Bill (27) intituled: "An Act to amend the Canada Shipping Act," was read a second time.

On motion of the Honourable Mr. Lougheed, seconded by the Honourable Sir Mackenzie Bowell, it was Ordered, That the said Bill be referred to a Committee of the Whole on Tuesday next.

The Order of the Day being read for the Second Reading of the Bill (B) intituled: "An Act to provide for the Incorporation of Railway Companies."

On motion of the Honourable Mr. Power, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Derbyshire, it was Ordered, That the same be postponed until Wednesday next.

The Honourable Mr. Lougheed, presented to the Senate, Fourth Annual Report of the Civil Service Commission of Canada for the period from September 1, 1911 to August 31, 1912.

Ordered, That the same do lie on the Table, and it is as follows:—

(Vide Sessional Papers, No. 31, 1913.)

Then on motion of the Honourable Mr. Lougheed, seconded by the Honourable Sir Mackenzie Bowell,

The Senate adjourned.

3. Is it necessary that the employment of a stenographer or typewriter or other temporary employee, whose duties are limited to the session shall be preceded by such recommendation and report?

In this last case, would the fact that the amount received by the employee was less than five hundred dollars affect the position?; and that said Minister be further requested to, and is hereby requested, to communicate his answer to the Clerk of the Senate for the information of this House.

With leave of the Senate

The motion for the suspension of the Rules was withdrawn.

The Honourable Mr. Power moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Coffey,

That the Minister of Justice be requested and is hereby requested to furnish the Senate with answers to the following questions:—

1. Is it necessary that the appointment of a charwoman in the service of the Senate shall be preceded by a recommendation of the Speaker, based upon the report in writing of the Clerk?

2. Is it necessary that the appointment of a Sessional Messenger who receives a per diem allowance shall be preceded by such recommendation and report in writing?

3. Is it necessary that the employment of a stenographer or typewriter or other temporary employee, whose duties are limited to the session shall be preceded by such recommendation and report?

In this last case, would the fact that the amount received by the employee was less than five hundred dollars affect the position?; and that said Minister be further requested to, and is hereby requested, to communicate his answer to the Clerk of the Senate for the information of this House.

The Honourable Mr. Thompson in amendment moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Taylor,

That all the words after "That" be struck out and the following substituted therefor:

This House is in full accord with the opinion of the Justice Department, found on page 253, of the Journals of the Senate, which reads as follows:—"I do not think that the Civil Service Amendment Act, 1908, has in relation to the Senate, any application to employees, such as Charwomen and Pages, whose work is of a temporary character and whose rate of pay is necessarily less than $500 per annum, the minimum salary classified under the Act. I do not think, therefore, that the said Statute calls for any change in the practice of the Senate with regard to the employment of such persons."

And further resolved:—

That all positions in the lower grades of the staff of the Senate, which in the opinion of the Justice Department above quoted, are exempted from the provisions of the Civil Service Amendment Act, 1908, necessarily of a temporary character, the payment for such service, being fixed on a per diem basis, be made by the Committee on Internal Economy and Contingent Account upon the requisition of the Clerk of the Senate and based upon a report in writing of the Housekeeper in all cases, where such appointments form part of the staff under his control.

And further resolved:—

That it shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate to lay upon the Table of the House, during the last week of each Session of Parliament a statement showing all such appointments made during the then Session, with copies of the recommendations and requisitions referring to the said appointments.

His Honour the Speaker ruled the amendment out of order for one reason in particular: i.e. because it is a disguised appeal from a former decision given by him on this very subject which was not at the time appealed from and therefore stands in force.

The Honourable Mr. Thompson then moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Watson,

That the Speaker's ruling be not accepted by the Senate.

The question of concurrence being put thereon, the House divided and the names being called for they were taken down as follows:—

The Honourable Mr. Young, from the Standing Committee on Railways, Telegraphs and Harbours, to whom was referred the following Message from the House of Commons, presented the following Report:—

THE SENATE,

COMMITTEE ROOM, No. 8,

TUESDAY, May 20, 1913.

The Committee on Railways, Telegraphs and Harbours to whom, by Order of The Senate made on the 29th April, 1913, was referred the following Message from the House of Commons:—

“HOUSE OF COMMONS,

“FRIDAY, April 25, 1913.

“Resolved, That a Message be sent to the Senate to acquaint their Honours that this House do disagree to the amendment made by the Senate to the Bill No. 97, An Act respecting the Canadian Northern Branch Lines Company, for the following reasons:—

“(a) The said amendment does not fully describe the lines of Railway referred to and tends to raise doubts as to the respective routes of the same,

“(b) The said amendment does not provide any limitation of time for completion of the first line of railway specified in Section 8, of Chapter 56, of the Statutes of 1911, authorized by paragraph (a) of the said Section.

“Ordered, That the Clerk of the House do carry the said Message to the Senate.

“Attest.

“THOS. B. FLINT,
Clerk of the Commons.”

have, in obedience to the Order, considered the said Message, Bill and Amendment, and have the honour to report thereon as follows:—

Your Committee recommend that the Senate do insist upon its amendment to the said Bill, for the following reasons:—

1. As respects the reason (a) given by the House of Commons for its disagreement, because the amendment can raise no doubt as to the respective routes of the lines of railway referred to therein, inasmuch as the amendment purports only to describe shortly the lines themselves, and the routes to be followed by the lines are fully described in the enactment authorizing their construction, to which enactment the amendment makes express reference.

2. Further, as respects the said reason (a) because the method of short description used in the amendment is convenient and conduces to intelligibility, and has been used for some years in Bills and Statutes relating to The Canadian Northern Railway System, particularly during the present session by the House of Commons itself in the Bills originating in that House and concurred in by The Senate, No. 96, “An Act respecting the Canadian Northern Railway Company,” No. 99, “An Act relating to the Canadian Northern Quebec Railway Company,” and No. 105, “An Act respecting the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway Company.”

3. As respects the reason (b) given by the House of Commons for its disagreement, because, if Section 20, of Chapter 56, of the Statutes of 1911, the enactment containing the existing limitation of time for completion of the line of railway authorized by paragraph (a) of Section 8, of that chapter, be repealed as is proposed by Clause 2 of the Bill, Section 150 of The Railway Act, which, as regards that line, was and is affected by the said Section 20 only in so far as the provisions of the said Section 150 and the said Section 20 are inconsistent with each other, will provide the same limitation.

4. Further, as respects the said reason (b), that if, notwithstanding the reason given in paragraph 3 hereinabove, any doubt as to the existence of a limitation of time for completion of the said line should still exist, such doubt can be removed effectually by a short consequential amendment to Clause 2 of the Bill.

All which is respectfully submitted.

He has been unremitting in his labours, and has used every effort towards economy in carefully examining all documents and reporting upon the same, which have been submitted to the Committee. He has carefully guarded its interests, and pointed out where, in every possible manner, expenditures could be curtailed in wasteful printing of documents, pamphlets, &c., which were really unnecessary.

The Committee further recommend,—That in the event of there being no further meetings of the Committee, the Joint Chairmen may decide as to the printing or otherwise of any document that may be submitted to either House, and generally to act until the end of the Session in all other matters that come properly within cognizance of this Committee.

THE SENATE,

COMMITTEE ROOM No. 8,

FRIDAY, 23rd May, 1913.

The Standing Committee on Miscellaneous Private Bills, to whom was referred the Bill (W 3) intituled: “An Act to incorporate The Wesleyan Methodist Connection (or Church),” have in obedience to the order of reference, examined the said Bill, and now beg leave to report that the promoters of the said Bill have asked leave to withdraw the said Bill.

Your Committee recommend that leave be given to withdraw the Bill, and that the fees paid thereon be refunded to the promoters less the cost of printing and translation.

All which is respectfully submitted.

HEWITT BOSTOCK,

Chairman.

On motion of the Honourable Mr. Bostock, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Coffey, it was Ordered, That the said Report be adopted.

The Order of the Day being read for resuming the adjourned Debate on the motion of the Honourable Mr. Kerr for the adjournment of the Debate on the Point of Order raised by the Honourable Mr. Lougheed in re Third Reading of (Bill 32), intituled: “An Act to encourage and assist the improvement of Highways,” and also the motion for the Third Reading of said Bill.

Before proceeding with this Order of the Day His Honour the Speaker gave his ruling on the point of Order raised by the Honourable Mr. Lougheed yesterday, “That said Order of the Day cannot be taken in hand by any other member than he who has it in his charge, and it is as follows:—

I expected, at the outset that the discussion of the point of Order submitted to my decision would bring forward the opinion of the different authors of Parliamentary law, and that the practice of the deliberating bodies on such a subject would have been placed before me.

The question has been, however, well treated on its own merits, and if I may say so, in a more theoretical and logical manner.

I agree that Bills are divided into public and private Bills, and that public Bills may be in their turn subdivided into Government and public Bills in general.

A party who cannot originate a Bill, as a logical consequence cannot be entrusted with the conduct of such a Bill, should the father of the measure disappear in one way or the other.

The Highway Bill before us, is a Government measure and purported to lay down in advance the conditions of appropriation out of the consolidated fund.

Such a Bill, in my humble opinion, can only be initiated and worked out through its Parliamentary existence by the Government itself or by one of its members. The leader of the Government in this House, in virtue of his position, has taken charge of the Bill, when it came here and has conducted it up to this date. He has declined to accept the amendments proposed by the Committee of the Whole, and concurred in by this House, and to-day he refuses to go on with the Bill.

Bourinot at page 421 says:

“If a member refuses to proceed with a motion, the House cannot force him to do so, but he has a right to drop it. A member who has given notice of a series of resolutions may withdraw some of them, and go on with the others. A member may not propose a motion in the absence of another who has placed on the notice paper, except with the general consent of the House. Merely formal motions for the adoption of reports or for certain papers to which there is no objection are frequently permitted to be made, but all motions involving discussion must be proposed by a member in whose name they appear on the paper. For instance, in the session of 1877, Mr. Speaker interrupted a member who was proceeding to move a resolution with reference to a prohibitory liquor law, in the absence of Mr. Schultz, in whose name it appeared on the notice paper. It is quite customary for members to send in notices in the names of absent members who have requested them to do so. Ministers also have the privilege to propose the motions of their absent colleagues. One member may take charge of a public Bill in the absence, and with the permission of another member.”

If we refer to May we find that the same doctrine is held up and is to be found at page 261.

“When an Order of the Day has been read, it must thereupon be proceeded with, appointed for a future day, or discharged. The Speaker therefore, calls upon the member in charge thereof, no other member being allowed to interpose, unless with his consent.”

If we now refer to the English Hansard (3rd series, Vol. 176), we find that Viscount Palmerston proposed that the Indian Medical Service Bill be now read a third time.

Mr. Hennessey said:—

“INDIAN MEDICAL SERVICE BILL.

THIRD READING.

Order for Third Reading Read.

Motion made and question proposed: “That the Bill be now read the third time.”
(Viscount Palmerston.)

Mr. Hennessey said, he had opposed the Bill at every stage, and it was rather singular that the Right Honourable Gentleman who had charge of the measure was never in his place when the Order was called. He was always out of the House when the discussion commenced. On a former occasion he ventured to say it was irregular that an opposed Bill should be moved by any one except the Minister in charge of it; and he begged leave to ask the opinion of the Speaker on that point."

A very strong decision is the following:—

Mr. Gibson, a member of the British Parliament, moved in lieu of Mr. Hamilton the adoption of a certain clause in a certain Bill. Objection being taken, Mr. Speaker ruled:—

(Vol. 231, Parliamentary Debates page 662.)

"Mr. Gibson (for Mr. I. T. Hamilton) proposed to move the following clause:—

"On failure of town Council to appoint, the Lord Lieutenant may appoint a Sheriff."

"On objection being taken—

Mr. Speaker, ruled that the Clause could not be moved in the absence of the hon. member for the County of Dublin (Mr. J. T. Hamilton.)"

I have studied with care the cases reported by Todd page 66 and 713 of his work on Parliamentary Government in the British Colonies, but find that the incidents reported there are not to be considered as precedents on account of their unusual, extraordinary, and as the author styles it himself, of an unprecedented character.

As to the Manual quoted at page 129, I am of the opinion that this manual does not form part of our rules, it is a mere compilation of our rules and should not be given the consideration usually enjoyed by Authors.

With Bourinot and May, I think that no member can take charge of a Bill introduced by another member without the permission of the latter.

I declare the point of Order well taken.

The Honourable Sir George W. Ross moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Power.

That the Ruling of His Honour the Speaker be not accepted by the Senate.

The question of concurrence being put thereon, the House divided and the names being called for they were taken down as follows:—

The Honourable Mr. Young moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Watson. That the following message be sent to the House of Commons:—

THE SENATE,

COMMITTEE ROOM, No. 8,

TUESDAY, May 20, 1913.

The Committee on Railways, Telegraphs and Harbours to whom, by order of The Senate made on the 29th April, 1913, was referred the following Message from the House of Commons:—

“HOUSE OF COMMONS,

“FRIDAY, April 25, 1913.

“Resolved, That a Message be sent to the Senate to acquaint their Honours that this House do disagree to the amendment made by the Senate to the Bill No. 97, An Act respecting the Canadian Northern Branch Lines Company, for the following reasons:—

“(a) The said amendment does not fully describe the lines of Railway referred to and tends to raise doubts as to the respective routes of the same.

“(b) The said amendment does not provide any limitation of time for completion of the first line of railway specified in Section 8, of Chapter 56, of the Statutes of 1911, authorized by paragraph (a) of the said Section.

“Ordered, That the Clerk of the House do carry the said Message to the Senate.

“Attest.

“THOS. B. FLINT,

Clerk of the Commons.”

have, in obedience to the Order, considered the said Message, Bill and Amendment, and have the honour to report thereon as follows:—

Your Committee recommend that the Senate do insist upon its amendment to the said Bill, for the following reasons:—

1. As respects the reason (a) given by the House of Commons for its disagreement, because the amendment can raise no doubt as to the respective routes of the lines of railway referred to therein, inasmuch as the amendment purports only to describe shortly the lines themselves, and the routes to be followed by the lines are fully described in the amendment authorizing their construction, to which enactment the amendment makes express reference.

2. Further, as respects the said reason (a) because the method of short description used in the amendment is convenient and conduces to intelligibility, and has been used for some years in Bills and Statutes relating to The Canadian Northern Railway System, particularly during the present session by the House of Commons itself in the Bills originating in that House and concurred in by The Senate, No. 96, “An Act respecting the Canadian Northern Railway Company,” No. 99, “An Act relating to the Canadian Northern Quebec Railway Company,” and No. 105, “An Act respecting the Canadian Northern Ontario Railway Company.”

3. As respects the reason (b) given by the House of Commons for its disagreement, because, if Section 20, of Chapter 56, of the Statutes of 1911, the enactment containing the existing limitation of time for completion of the line of railway authorized by paragraph (a) of Section 8, of that chapter, be repealed as is proposed by Clause 2 of the Bill, Section 150 of The Railway Act, which, as regards that line, was and is affected by the said Section 20 only in so far as the provisions of the said Section 150 and the said Section 20 are inconsistent with each other, will provide the same limitation.

4. Further, as respects the said reason (b), that if notwithstanding the reason given in paragraph 3 hereinabove, any doubt as to the existence of a limitation of time for completion of the said line should still exist, such doubt can be removed effectually by a short consequential amendment to Clause 2 of the Bill.

All which is respectfully submitted.

FINLAY M. YOUNG,
Chairman.

The question of concurrence being put on the said motion the same was resolved in the affirmative, and

Ordered accordingly.

The House according to Order, was adjourned during pleasure and put into a Committee of the Whole on the (Bill 36) intituled: "An Act respecting Banks and Banking.

Page 6, line 43—After letter "a" insert "sworn."

Clauses 16 to 42 were severally read and agreed to.

Clauses 44 to 48 were severally read and agreed to.

After some time the House was resumed, and

Attendance.—If the time of the Committee in taking evidence does not exceed one hour, the allowance to be two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50), but if it exceeds one hour the allowance to be five dollars ($5.00) for such meeting of the Committee.

Transcription.—Covering two (2) copies thirty cents (30) per folio of one hundred (100) words.

THE SENATE,

COMMITTEE ROOM, No. 8,

WEDNESDAY, May 28, 1913.

The Standing Committee on Public Health and Inspection of Foods have the honour to make their Fourth Report as follows:—

Whereas many centres of population have sprung up and are rapidly developing in the new provinces of Canada and in their initial stages are duplicating the mistakes of the older towns and cities in respect to town planning, housing, and other problems all having a bearing upon the health of the people, and

Whereas, in the opinion of this Committee, the time is most opportune for pointing out to the residents of these municipalities the gross errors of urban life which can be prevented by the adoption of more sanitary and modern methods in town planning, housing, road construction as well as the enforcement of the simplest laws of health, and

Whereas the Commission of Conservation of Canada has very properly incorporated into its work the most important subject of the conservation of human life, and

Whereas this function of conservation is in the main educational to the people of Canada, and a considerable amount of work has been carried on during the past year or two by means of illustrated lectures delivered by the Medical Adviser.

Your Committee on Public Health is of the opinion that the work should be extended to all the provinces of the Dominion, especially to the smaller towns in such provinces, and, to this end, would recommend to the Commission of Conservation that the work be systematically arranged so that the same officer make a tour of the towns and cities in order to bring the questions referred to before the residents of these provinces.

All which is respectfully submitted.

CLERK'S OFFICE,

OTTAWA, May 27, 1913.

The Honourable P. LANDRY,
Speaker of the Senate.

SIR,—I have the honour to report for the information of the Senate, that the clerical staff of the House is inadequate to the work required of it, and that several times during the present Session I have had to call on Chiefs of branches to do ordinary clerical work. I had occasion during last Session to call the attention of the Senate to the deficiency of the staff in that respect, and would again urge that a clerk well versed in stenography and typewriting be appointed before the end of this Session.

I would also draw attention to the Pages of the House, three of whom have outgrown their usefulness as such, and would suggest that the vacancies which will be caused by their retirement might be filled by naming their successors now, in order that their services may be available at the commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

I might also remind you that the application of the Housekeeper for additional help in the permanent messengers' branch, which I reported early in the Session, appears to have been lost sight of.

In conclusion, I would state that no one has yet been selected to take charge of the tonsorial establishment of The Senate, the present occupant of which being there simply on sufferance.

I have the honour to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

SAM'L. E. ST. O. CHAPLEAU,
Clerk of the Senate.

(In the Committee.)

Title read and postponed.

Clause 1 proposed to be now amended as follows:—

Page 1, line 17—Leave out all the words from "Parliament" to "provided" in line 20 and insert "For Ratification."

A point of Order being raised, that this being a money Bill it could not be amended.

The Chairman ruled the point of Order not well taken.

A division was called for on the motion that Clause 1 be so amended.

Yeas 36. Nays 11.

So it was resolved in the affirmative.

Sub-clause 2 of Section 1 read and agreed to.

Title again read and agreed to.

After some time the House was resumed, and

The Honourable Sir Lyman Jones, from the said Committee reported that they had gone through the said Bill, and had directed him to report the same, with several amendments which he was ready to submit whenever the House would be pleased to receive them.

Ordered, That the Report be now received.

The said amendments were then read by the Clerk.

The Honourable Mr. Dandurand moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Kerr, That the said amendments be agreed to.

The Honourable Mr. Lougheed raised a point of Order,

That the said amendments should not be entertained as the Bill is a money Bill.

His Honour the Speaker ruled that the point of Order was well taken for the following reasons:—

The Report of the Committee brings to this House an amendment that was framed by the Committee of the Whole House. The point is that this report cannot be adopted because it amends a money Bill. The Bill now before us gives to the Minister of Railways and Canals a twofold power—first, the power to construct any line or lines of railway not to exceed, any one of them, 25 miles in length; second the power to acquire by purchase or by lease any line or lines not to exceed, any one of them 200 miles. That is the purport of the Bill. If the Minister, in virtue of the power conferred on him by this Bill chooses to lease or acquire by purchase any line, where would he get the money? He has to take the money from the public funds. He is empowered to purchase. If he constructs a line exceeding 25 miles he must, before paying the construction, be empowered by Parliament, by a vote of Parliament, to take the money to pay the construction. But for the purchase he is empowered by this Bill to purchase any line not exceeding 200 miles in length without being obliged to wait for any special appropriation of money for that purpose. And if this Bill passes, in virtue of this Bill he is allowed to take the money where it is to be found—in the Consolidated Funds. So this Bill really gives to the Minister of Railways a twofold power—a power to purchase any line not exceeding 200 miles, and in the case of the construction to build a line not exceeding 25 miles. Authority is given to him to pay without waiting for any special grant to be voted and appropriated by Parliament. But if the Minister of Railways chooses to construct a line exceeding 25 miles, he must then wait until a special grant for the purpose voted by Parliament puts at his disposal the necessary amount to pay the price of the contract, so I find that this is really a money Bill.

I have already, on the 22nd February of last year, defined, in a decision which may be found in the Journals of this House, what is a money Bill. The definition is the one given by the best authors on Parliamentary law. (Vide Journals of the Senate, Vol. XLVII, page 165.)

Certain doubts now arise on the question to know if a Bill containing a money clause and several others which have not this character, should nevertheless be considered in the whole and in each of its clauses, as a money Bill.

I think that the question could not be presented in a better manner than in submitting to you what May says on the subject. (11th edition, page 574.)

The House of Commons in England; on the 3rd July, 1678, had adopted the following resolution:—

“That all aids and supplies, and aids to His Majesty in Parliament, are the sole gift of the Commons, and all Bills for the granting of any such aids and supplies ought to begin with the Commons, and that it is the undoubted and sole right of the Commons to direct, limit and appoint in such Bills the ends, purposes, considerations, conditions, limitations and qualifications of such grants, which ought not to be changed or altered by the House of Lords.”

May cites this resolution and adds:—

“By the practice and usage based upon that resolution, the Lords are excluded, not only from the power of initiating or amending Bills dealing with public expenditure or revenue, but also from initiating public Bills which create a charge upon the people by the imposition of local and other rates, or which deal with the administration or employment of those charges.....”

“It follows accordingly that the Lords may not amend the provisions in Bills which they receive from the House of Commons dealing with the above mentioned subjects, so as to alter, whether by increase or reduction, the amount of a rate or

“charge, its duration, mode of assessment, levy, collection, appropriation or management, or the persons who pay, receive, manage or control it, or the limits within which it is leviable. Other forms of amendment by the Lords have also been held to infringe on the privileges of the Commons, such as the addition of a clause providing that payments into and out of the Consolidated Fund should be made under the same regulations as were applicable by law to other similar payments; or provisions for the payment of salaries to officers of the Court of Chancery out of the Suitor’s Fund, and alterations in a clause prescribing the order in which charges on the revenues of a Colony should be paid.”

From that quotation of May, it is evident that the Upper House has no power to amend, in any way whatsoever, a money Bill, without trespassing on the privileges of the House of Commons.

Bramwell, in his work: “The manner of proceeding on Bills in the House of Commons,” says at page 151:—

“The privileges claimed by the Commons, of limiting the interference of the Lords in money Bills, may be classed as follows:—

“1st. In Bills of aid and supply, the Lords can only amend verbal or literal mistakes, such as clerical errors, appearing to be so from the context—a surreptitious or unauthorized alteration—or such dates as may have elapsed while the Bill was depending, and words in conformity with such an amendment:—amendments within the scope and purport of the Bill as agreed to by the Commons.”

“The Commons also claim the exclusive care of the accounts of the money granted by themselves.

“2. In Bills imposing pecuniary burthens on the people directly, the Lords cannot make any amendments relative to tolls or rates, or in the appointment of the Commissioners, or collectors; but verbal mistakes in designating them may be rectified.

“3. The Lords cannot begin Bills, or make amendments which indirectly, or in their consequence, may be a charge upon the people.

“4. The Lords cannot insert, in a Bill, any pecuniary penalty or forfeiture, nor alter the application or distribution thereof, or any enactment connected with it, however remotely; and therefore, the effect of the Lords’ amendments requires to be considered with much circumspection. (Hat. 151.)

“It appears, however, by a recent resolution of the House of Commons, which has since been made a standing order, that some relaxation is contemplated with respect to pecuniary penalties for offences.

“It is frequently matter of nice and difficult discrimination to decide what particular amendments to money Bills do, or do not, affect the privileges of the Commons. These questions are usually determined according to the opinion of the Speaker.

“In such cases, where the Lords’ amendments are agreed to, the Commons frequently direct a special entry to be made in their Journals, explaining the particular nature and effect of the amendment, to prevent their being drawn into precedent in cases differently circumstanced. These special entries are, in the general Index 1820, classed under the following heads:—

“To rectify mistakes apparent in the context or other parts of the Bill;

“To rectify mistakes in amendments made by committees on Bills;

“To rectify mistakes in recitals;

“To rectify mistakes in description of persons;

“To rectify clerical errors;

“To amend surreptitious alteration of Bill;

“Being for alteration of dates elapsed, or nearly elapsed;

“Being for clearer explanation of the intention of the Bill;

“Being for greater caution, and no alteration of the intention of the Bill;

“Being a particular proviso in a matter already provided for generally in the Bill;

“Being a transposition of a proviso in a Bill;

“Sometimes Bills which originate in the Lords, and require money clauses, pass through the House omitting all the money provisions, which are added by the Commons, when the Bill is in Committee, and afterwards agreed to by the Lords. Thus the subject of privilege is avoided.”

If we now consider our own jurisprudence in the matter, we will find it laid down in the decisions given by the different Speakers of this Senate. The question which I am now called upon to decide has already been submitted to more than one of my predecessors, and in no more forcible way was it presented to the Senate than in 1885, when the late Senator Trudel, having framed an amendment to a money Bill, said in support of his contention:—

.....“If I understand the doctrine, it is this:—The Senate has no right to amend a money Bill; it has the right to reject a money Bill. Supposing instead of having put three, four, five and six money grants on the same sheet of paper, the Government had presented them separately, then it would be evident that the Senate would have the right to reject any of those Bills. Would the Senate lose its right by the accident of coupling them together or by the action of the Government in putting the subjects of those different Bills into one—that is, on a single piece of paper—which might deprive the Senate of its right? I do not think it. What I propose is to strike out the whole money grant of that railway and then it amounts to the rejection of the whole Bill which would be proposed to give a money grant to this Company. This is not contrary to the doctrine which has been mentioned by the Speaker. I respectfully suggest that my amendment is in order.”—

The Speaker ruled:—

“The Speaker (Hon. Mr. Miller):—

“I must say that the same process of reasoning which the Hon. Member for De Salaberry has just presented to the House has been revolving in my own mind, and that I entertained some doubts as to whether the House might not have the power of striking out an independent section of a Bill which, of itself, might have constituted a separate and independent Bill, and which would leave the Bill, after it was struck out, a perfect Bill with regard to the subjects which it controls; and a further reason why my mind was somewhat in doubt on that point was that the Government by a system of taking on, which has been alluded to, might introduce and pass an obnoxious grant through Parliament in connection with one that had the general support of Parliament. But on mature reflection, I have come to the conclusion arrived at by the Hon. Member for Montarville. I consider this is a money Bill which you cannot alter, and if it contains any obnoxious feature, the only means by which this House can assert its rights to deal with such a feature, is by rejecting the Bill as a whole.” (Vide ibid. page 1419; also Journals of the Senate, Session of 1885, pages 416 and 417.)

In 1898, the then Speaker of this House (Hon. M. Pelletier) ruled as follows. (Vide Debates of the Senate, Session 1898, page 1123):—

“It has been maintained, during the discussion of the point of order, that the Senate had no right to interfere with Bills which increase the expenditure of money, but would have a right to amend such Bills in order to decrease or prevent the expenditure of money. I admit that, at first sight, I was of that opinion, but the authority of May, cited by the Hon. Secretary of State, at page 542, after saying that the House of Lords is excluded, not only from the power of initiating or amending Bills dealing with public expenditure or revenue, but also from initiating public Bills which would create a charge upon the people or which would deal with the administration or employment of those charges, adds:—

“It follows accordingly that the Lords may not amend the provisions in Bills which they received from the Commons, dealing with the above mentioned subjects, so as to alter, whether by increase or reduction, the amount of a rate or charge, its duration, mode of assessment, levy, collection, appropriation or management, or the persons who pay, receive, manage or control it, &c., &c., &c.”

“To this the Hon. the Leader of the Opposition said that there is in that amendment neither a question of increasing or reducing the expenditure of money, but of transferring the grant of land from one line to another. But in reading the amendment as it is, I cannot now come to any other conclusion than this amendment would really interfere in the disposition of public money, and the very words of the amendment say:—‘And the Company’s lands subsidy shall apply to the line hereby authorised.’”

“By this, the amendment goes to say that the disposition of the land grant will be changed. And, as the Honourable Gentleman from Montarville pointed out, if this amendment is carried, then the land already granted will be removed from its destination or appropriation, that it is from one line to apply it to another, and then there will be no grant of land for one line which had it before—and as I am of opinion that public land ought to be considered as public money, I cannot come to any other conclusion than that the point of order is well taken, and that the amendment is out of order.”

In 1903, the Honourable Mr. Power, then Speaker of the Senate, ruled out of order an amendment to a money Bill, on the ground that it was reducing the expenditure asked for by a certain Bill and that such an amendment was attacking a clause which might have been a Bill by itself.

Taking all these authorities and decisions into consideration, my ruling is that the privileges of the Commons cannot be trampled upon by any amendment made by this House to a money Bill.

If the amendment attacks any money clause, it is evidently out of order. If it relates to clauses which may be the subject of an independent Bill, the Upper House may run the risk to adopt it, provided it is an amendment in the line of the subjects pointed out by Bramwell, as quoted, and with the perfect understanding that should the Commons persist in the upholding of its privileges, even if it slightly maintains its objections, the Upper House should give in. Now, the only amendments in that line which can be allowed, under the reserve of an ulterior action by the Commons, are the amendments bearing on the subjects which I have enumerated when I quoted Bramwell.

Coming down presently to the Bill before us, we have a Bill giving twofold powers to the Minister of Railways, the power to purchase and the power to construct. The power to purchase is directly a money clause inasmuch as the power to purchase enables the Minister to take the money out of the Consolidated Fund to pay for the purchase; and the power for construction is given to the Minister, but subject to a money vote which should take place afterwards, should such construction be applied to a line exceeding 25 miles. Within that length the Minister is authorized to pay without waiting for a special appropriation. For these reasons, I declare the point of order well taken, and that this is really a money Bill.

The Honourable Mr. Dandurand moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Kerr, That the Ruling of His Honour the Speaker be not accepted.

The question of concurrence being put on the said motion the House divided and the names being called for they were taken down as follows:—

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

THURSDAY, June 5, 1913.

Resolved, That a Message be sent to the Senate to acquaint their Honours that this House disagrees to the amendments made by the Senate to the Bill No. 32, An Act to Encourage and Assist the Improvement of Highways, for the following reasons:

First amendment:

1. Because substantially the same amendment has already been considered and rejected by this House.

2. Because the amendment is unnecessary and undesirable since, (a) the Supply Bill will make provision for the apportionment of the proposed subsidies to the respective Provinces for the ensuing fiscal year; and since (b) such apportionment can be more conveniently provided for in the annual Supply Bill.

3. Because the said Bill defines the ends, purposes, conditions, limitations and qualifications to be established in respect of aids and supplies to be granted by this House, and the same are not alterable by the Senate.

Second amendment:

1. Because substantially the same amendment has already been considered and rejected by this House.

2. Because section six of the Bill contains a desirable provision for aiding the construction and improvement of highways.

3. Because it is expedient to make provision for the case of any Province which may desire to have the Minister undertake the construction of a new highway or the improvement of an existing highway.

4. Because the section provides a convenient method of co-operation between the federal and provincial governments in the construction or improvement of highways.

5. Because it is desirable to provide every reasonable means of co-operation between the Federal Government and the Provincial Governments for the construction and improvement of highways consistently with the preservation of the rights of the Provinces.

6. Because the rights of the Provinces are thoroughly safeguarded in the said section.

7. Because there can be no action by the Federal Government under this section except with the authority and approval of the Provincial Legislature and the Provincial Government.

8. Because the said Bill defines the ends, purposes, conditions, limitations and qualifications to be established in respect of aids and supplies to be granted by this House and the same are not alterable by the Senate.

Ordered, That the Clerk of the House do carry the said Message to the Senate.
Attest.

THOS. B. FLINT,

Clerk of the Commons.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

THURSDAY, June 5, 1913.

Resolved, That a Message be sent to the Senate to acquaint their Honours that this House disagrees to the amendments made by the Senate to the Bill No. 185, An Act to amend the Government Railways Act, for the following reasons:—

1. Because the said amendments are contrary to one of the principal purposes of the said Bill.

2. Because the said Bill appropriated public moneys for its purposes, and it is the understood right of this House to direct and appoint in such a Bill the conditions, limitations and qualifications required for its objects and purposes, and the said amendments are contrary to the privileges of this House.

Ordered, That the Clerk of the House do carry the said Message to the Senate.

Attest.

THOS. B. FLINT,

Clerk of the Commons.

So it was resolved in the negative.

The Honourable Sir George W. Ross then moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Power,

That the Senate having insisted upon its amendments to the said Bill do hereby appoint the Honourable Mr. Kerr, together with the mover and seconder, to be a Committee to draw up the reasons therefor and to report the same to the Senate forthwith.

After awhile the Honourable Sir George W. Ross, from the said Committee, presented the following as their Report.

The Committee to whom was referred the message of the House of Commons disagreeing to the amendments made by the Senate to Bill 39, intituled: "An Act to encourage and assist the Improvement of Highways," for the purpose of drawing up reasons why the Senate insists on its amendments to said Bill, hereby recommended that the following reasons be given, viz:—

That the Senate adheres to its first amendment to the Bill sent up from the House of Commons and intituled: "An Act to encourage and assist the Improvement of Highways," for the following, amongst other reasons:—

1. Because the right of the Senate to amend a Bill is not impaired by the proceedings which may have taken place during the progress of the Bill through the Commons.

2. Because the reason assigned for the rejection of similar amendments made in the House of Commons, that said House will yearly pass upon each item of expenditure does not apply to the Senate whose only recourse in case of disagreement would be to reject the Supply Bill.

3. Because the amendment made by the Senate to the third clause of the Bill by the addition of sub-clause 2 affirms the principle of equitable distribution of intended supplementary subsidies to the Provinces, according to the agreement entered into by the Provinces at the time of Confederation.

4. Because the method of distribution provided for by the said first amendment is based upon a principle fair and reasonable in itself and is that announced by Members of the Administration in the Senate and the House of Commons during the last and the present Sessions of Parliament as their settled policy, and that which has been actually embodied in the Bill respecting aid to agriculture.

5. Because the said Bill is an enabling measure, and in order to make its provisions effective has to be supplemented by placing the moneys proposed to be voted for its objects in the yearly Supply Bill, and, moreover, the said Bill was declared by His Honour the Speaker of the House of Commons not to be a money Bill.

That the Senate adheres to its 2nd amendment, for the following among other reasons:—

1. Because section 6 of the Bill empowers the Minister to undertake the construction or improvement of highways in any province, which would be a contravention of the letter and spirit of The British North America Act, 1867, and of the uniform practice under that Act, for which contravention no sufficient cause has been shown.

2. Because the said amendment affirms in effect that it is undesirable that the Minister or the Dominion Government should usurp the functions of the provincial administrations in the building and maintenance of highways and bridges.

3. Because the said amendment will not hamper the Administration in carrying out its policy and in applying the funds placed in the Estimates for that object under conditions and regulations it may deem just and proper to make, sufficient provision being made in earlier clauses of the Bill for co-operation between the Federal and Provincial Governments.

4. Because section 6 of the Bill is a violation of the principle of responsible government inasmuch as the Dominion Government in expending such Provincial subsidy would not be responsible to either the Provincial or Dominion Legislatures.

GEO. W. ROSS.

On motion of the Honourable Sir George W. Ross, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Power, it was Ordered, That a Message be sent to the House of Commons accordingly.

The Order of the Day being read for the consideration of the Message from the House of Commons disagreeing to the amendments made by the Senate to Bill (185), intituled: "An Act to amend the Government Railways Act."

The Honourable Sir George W. Ross moved, seconded by the Honourable Mr. Power.

That the Senate doth insist upon its amendments to the said Bill for the following reasons:—

1. Because the said Bill as passed by the House of Commons is a violation of the principle of responsible Government inasmuch as it purports to give a permanent mandate to the Governor in Council to commit the country to any amount of expenditure before any appropriation has been voted by Parliament.

2. Because the said Bill is but an enabling Bill and that moreover, without the said amendment made by the Senate this Chamber would deem its duty to reject the said Bill in toto as passed by the House of Commons.

The question of concurrence being put thereon.

The House divided and the names being called for they were taken down as follows:—

Resolved, That a Message be sent to the House of Commons by one of the Ministers in Chancery to inform that House that the Senate doth insist upon their amendments to the said Bill for the following reasons:—

1. Because the said Bill as passed by the House of Commons is a violation of the principle of responsible Government inasmuch as it purports to give a permanent mandate to the Governor in Council to commit the Country to any amount of expenditure before any appropriation has been voted by Parliament.

2. Because the said Bill is but an enabling Bill and that moreover, without the said amendment made by the Senate this Chamber would deem its duty to reject the said Bill in toto as passed by the House of Commons.
