

Efficient, Impatient Bearing of British Soudery Provides Argument Against Conscriptio

that Prince Lichnowski, formerly German ambassador to London, is now an officer at the front.

THE OBSERVER'S COMMENT.
The Observer, commenting on the foreign office statement regarding pledges given by the allies not to make peace separately, says there is reason to think that indirect approaches had already been made to France by Germany, which seems to imagine every nation has its price.

GERMANS LOST 3000 MEN.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—(11.45 p.m.)—A Reuter despatch from Ostend says: "In a fierce fight yesterday near Thisselt, Belgium, the Germans lost 3000 men. The prisoners were taken to Antwerp."

PARIS-DIEPPE TRAIN STOPPED.

Information reached Dover tonight that train service between Paris and Dieppe had been stopped.

ALLIES' SUCCESS CONFIRMED.

ANTWERP, Sept. 6.—(Via London, 2.08 p.m.)—The French legation here today officially confirmed the previously announced success of the Anglo-French troops, who are said to have brilliantly driven the Germans back some fifteen miles beyond St. Quentin, inflicting considerable losses.

KAISER BEFORE MANY FORTS.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—(10.45 p.m.)—A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Berlin by way of Amsterdam says the Germans are attacking the forts at Nancy, and that Emperor William and the German general staff are at present there.

WEALTHY BELGIANS KILLED.

ANTWERP, Sept. 6.—According to local newspaper reports, Comte Millaront, Captain Halart and Trooper Soulagar, wealthy members of the Belgian Royal Yacht Club, were killed while reconnoitering in an armored motor car.

GERMANY'S BACK MUST BREAK.

PETROGRAD (St. Petersburg), Sept. 6.—Count Witte, who was recently in Rome, has returned to Russia, and at Odessa gives the warning that Russia must expect heavy fighting.

The German plan of campaign, he says, has not been fully disclosed, nor is Germany's full strength known. It is the prevalent belief here that Germany's back will be broken before the winter campaign sets in.

Meanwhile, Russia experiences remarkable results from the application of governmental control over the economic life of the country. The government being willing to advance two-thirds of the value of the crops forthcoming through the empire, the great agricultural nation, which otherwise would be paralyzed by cessation of grain exports, is enabled to meet the crisis.

The sweeping victory at Lemberg enables the czar's army to refuse to be drawn farther south than its own strategic plans dictate. Moreover, the effect of this smashing blow to Austria is expected to be decisive in its influence upon the war policies of the Balkan states, especially Roumania.

GERMANS TAKE DENDERMONDE.

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—It is officially announced that Dendermonde (Termonde), in East Flanders, 16 miles east of Ghent, was taken by Germans on Saturday. The Belgian garrison has retreated to Antwerp.

RHEIMS REPORTED CAPTURED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The German ambassador tonight received a wireless from Berlin, via Sayville, L.I., telling of another victory by the Germans. The despatch says: "Rheims has fallen without resistance. The army of Von Buelow has captured up to today 12,000 men, 260 heavy and 150 light guns and six colors."

BELFORT STILL HOLDS OUT.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 6.—Belfort, the French fortress near the frontier of France, holds out against all the efforts of the Germans. German aeroplanes, according to a despatch from Berlin, flew over the French fort at Belfort last night and dropped a number of bombs, but no damage was done. The French army at Belfort has been considerably strengthened.

GERMAN AEROPLANE CAPTURED.

A telegram from Antwerp reports that Germans at Termonde fired on a train of refugees and a number were killed and wounded. A German Taube aeroplane dropped two bombs on Ghent and then was brought down and captured when fired upon.

ALLIES' SITUATION SATISFACTORY.

PARIS, Sept. 6.—(11.16 p.m.)—The following official communication was issued tonight: "FIRST—The allied armies have again come into contact on our left wing, under good conditions, with the right wing of the enemy on the banks of Grand Morin."

"SECOND—Fighting continues on the centre and right in Lorraine and the Vosges. The situation remains unchanged. "THIRD—Around Paris the engagement begun yesterday between the allied army and the flank of the advance guard of the German right has extended. We have advanced to the River Ourcq without great resistance."

"FOURTH—Mauveuge continues its heroic resistance." MAY SOON LEAVE BORDEAUX.

A bulletin issued to the French soldiers expresses the hope that the government's sojourn in Bordeaux will prove short. The transference of the capital, it is pointed out, was in conformity with the interests of the state, the civilian and military leaders of which are working together in order to augment the chances of certain and final victory.

GERMAN TORPEDO BOATS SUNK.

A Havas Agency despatch from Petrograd says that The Novoe Vremya has received a message from Tokio, stating that the British destroyer Welland has sunk several German torpedo boats.

VICTORY SOUTHWEST OF PARIS.

It is officially announced tonight that the allies had a successful advance guard action with the Germans southwest of Paris.

FIGHT IS WITH SATAN, NOT GERMAN PEOPLE.

Pastor of Wychwood Church of Christ Declares This is a Holy War.

"Should I, for instance, enlist to shoot down the Germans?" asked Hugh Kilgus, pastor of Wychwood Church of Christ, in a five-minute talk on the Christian's duty in relation to the present war, preceding his sermon last night.

"We are not at war with the German people. They are our friends. The one thing we are fighting against is that the Germans are upholding Satan. The prin-

CITIZENS TO TAKE MILITARY TRAINING.

The executive of the Toronto Improvement Conference has inaugurated a citizens' military education movement, and the executive officers of all ratepayers' associations and benefit societies in the city are requested to attend a special meeting in the city hall on Friday evening.

The purpose of the meeting is to consider various schemes by which citizens who desire military training for home defence may receive it with the least inconvenience to themselves.

A National Currency the Only Thing for Canada

The World continues to hear complaints of financial stringency partly caused by our banks failing to afford the usual accommodation to customers. A typical case is that of a farmer between here and Galt, who has a large farm and who has been in the habit each year about this time of borrowing $7000 from his bank where, with to buy live stock in the season of lamb and cattle to finish for market. The other day he was told he could not have a loan because he was not a buyer from his fellow-farmers and the chances are that the stock will be sold without finishing; nor will the farm be benefited by pasturing the stock over it. This man never made more than $2500 out of his fall transactions, and this year, if he does not get the money, he will be that much behind. A few cases like this in each community means hard times all round. The World will be glad to hear of other cases for its own information in dealing with this subject.

But why is it that the banks are taking this stand? Why did some of them send out circulars to local managers ordering them to refuse further assistance to customers and pressing on them to get in every loan possible, and pressing everyone to reduce their account. It is not quite that they have no money, but rather is it that they have no confidence in the business situation and in our business community, and therefore that they wish to limit their risk to the smallest possible amount. If this is the reason, it is an absolutely selfish reason; banks were established not altogether for selfish purposes, but they were given the franchise to collect in the savings of the people in order that they might help "to conserve the commercial and financial interests of the country" by loaning out those deposits; and they were also given power to issue notes that the public might be benefited by that issue. The fact, however, is that they have refused to make the usual loans to their customers; they are not serving the nation that gave them their banking franchise.

The more information we gather on this subject, the more are we convinced that the banks are more or less suspicious of the whole situation and do not want to take any risk, and especially are they not friendly to the present government legislation, which proposes to give relief to the country by way of an increase of national notes, more or less in competition with bank notes. Nor do they seem to take any advantage of the new legislation in regard to excess circulation, because if they did, there would be fifty million dollars available for additional credit forthwith. We put it down at thirty millions the other day, but on closer inspection of the situation and taking into consideration that the bank circulation is very considerably below the authorized amount, there would be easily fifty millions available. But to make this fifty millions available, bank notes must be legal tender in the clearing house of the banks, and this is not the case. Also parliament has made bank notes legal tender, the banks still refuse to take the notes of one another in the clearing house. The World has referred to this in order to get this excess circulation out of the hands of the country, and especially by the banks who are willing to use it, the government must step in and offer to exchange Dominion notes for the notes of any bank that wishes to do so. If this were made the rule, then the bank that wished to take advantage of excess circulation would convert that excess circulation into Dominion notes, and these Dominion notes would not come back to the bank for redemption the next day, nor for two or three days, but would continue to pass on from day to day in general circulation, and would be good payment in the clearing house for balances. Why do two or three banks stand out against a change of rule in the clearing house? Does Mr. White know these banks?

But we go a step further, and we say, that the great dislocation caused by the war in Europe, which has upset many things in Canada, has upset forever our currency system based on bank-note circulation. We must come to a currency made up of national notes, and national notes only; and a way must be found for the retirement of all bank notes. If our bank managers think they will ever get back to the state of affairs that prevailed before the war, and which gave them a monopoly of the currency of this country, they are not good judges or men able to read the signs of the times. As we said, bank notes must disappear as they have practically disappeared in Great Britain, except the notes of the Bank of England, and even here a great change has taken place. So weak have been our banks in providing sufficient currency that substitutes have had to be resorted to every little while to help out the circulation. First, we provided a temporary excess in circulation to move the crops; and then, when the Bank Act was revised, a year and a half ago, a roundabout system of note issue, based on a gold reserve established by the banks themselves, was put in the act; but it has failed. And now a permanent excess of issue, passed in the late session, is likely to fail, because the banks fear that it will more or less interfere with their monopoly of the currency of the country. This monopoly must be broken once and for all, and now is the time to do it! A bank-note issue is out of date, is not modern; it has little elasticity, it falls as to quantity, and it further has the defect that the banks themselves have to provide redemption fund to guarantee it; and, judging by recent events in the clearing house, the banks themselves have not confidence in one another's currency, and demand gold in daily settlement.

We must have national notes in the country, and we must have a government bank like the national reserve banks in the United States for lending out a generous supply of national notes to the banks on approved securities and to accommodate the growing needs of the country.

But the public will not get a national discount bank nor will they get a national currency until they hold meetings like the one they held in West Toronto the other night and pass a resolution in that direction. And if complaints are against the banks, as we believe they are, and we read in The Montreal Gazette of Saturday that the building trade bosses met there on Friday and protested against the tightness of the banks and all other bodies of that kind should take the matter up. We have had a letter from a western business man who said he could lead a deputation of one thousand men to Ottawa to protest against the action of the banks. It would be much better to pass a resolution in every community where the pinch has been felt.

In our despatch from Ottawa, this morning it will be noticed that the recent legislation has been proclaimed in The Canada Gazette. Applications from banks for advances are heretofore to be made to the Treasury Board direct. There is information in Toronto that applications have been made thru agents of the government (some other bank) and been turned down! If this is so, this may be the reason for the change. The minister of finance has also issued a circular to presidents of banks informing them of the new legislation; and we take his letter to be rather a mild intimation to the banks that the government is disappointed with their conduct since the new legislation was enacted, and that the liberality of the government has not been availed of by them to the benefit of the public.

A national bank and a national currency is the quick and sure cure of the situation. Press for it.

GERMANS RELIQUISH MOVEMENT ON PARIS TO TRY NEW SCHEME

French Were Victors In Short Engagement

PARIS, Sept. 6.—The war office makes the following announcement: "The troops of the advanced defence based on Paris, came in touch yesterday with adverse forces apparently converging on our right, moving toward the southeast, which movement proved to be the bulk of the German right wing. A short engagement ensued, ending to our advantage."

BRIGHT-EYED BRITISH SLEEP ON HOUSETOPS ANXIOUS FOR SERVICE

(By A. J. Rorke, Central News Staff Correspondent.)

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Who had already essayed to follow the operations in the battle zones of western Europe and motored to Brussels, Louvain, Reims, Dieppe, and Havre and other towns in order to observe as far as the necessary restrictions permitted what the forces in the field were doing, were impressed with the thought upon returning to England that a similar trip in the home country was justified. Accordingly we are today in a survey of the home country in the place of the principal headquarters of the vital line of their forefathers engaged in. There were lawyers, doctors and professional men of every class joining with the artisans and laboring men in the and soldierly pleasures. The inventive genius had shown itself in the new games of chance and skill which the men had evolved.

They were lying in the straw, on the gravel and in the grass. All very happy and all very British. I learned during the conversation with the men that the more serious German had already had engaged their attention. The other night, it was related, a sentry posted at the entrance of the headquarters of one of the principal territorial camps, saw two men stealing towards the quarters of the commanding officer. The young sentry challenged them and they started. The sentry then blew off the magazine at the intruders and brought them down. They were much the worse for fear when taken to the military hospital.

Were German Spies. Because they happened to be in England they were thoroughly and well looked after. The men were German and had a complete plan of the territorial camp in the district of London besides strategical marches of the home countries.

Anyone following my example will meet soldiers of all arms ready and fit for dare-devil, cross-country riding, who will march against the wind, infantry, and men who can work the guns in a manner which will surprise the fire of Krupp and the happy and have but one small worry—they do not as yet know when their duties will be turned into accomplishments. These are the impressions remaining as in the course of an early autumn evening my car hummed over the long ribbon road to London, skimming past wry innns.

HAMILTON CORPS NEEDS OFFICERS

All Transfer From Howitzer Battery to Canadian Horse Artillery.

ENGINEERS FOR FRONT

Hundreds of Women Who Applied for Pay Envelopes Turned Away.

By Staff Reporter.

HAMILTON, Sept. 6.—A letter from Valcartier states that both the officers and non-commissioned officers of the 32d Howitzer Battery from this city have joined the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery. Only twenty-one of the sixty members of the First Field Troop of Canadian Engineers who left here for Valcartier will leave Canada with the first contingent. These will go as infantry engineers. A number of engineers have been transferred to the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery.

Massed Bands to Play. At the massed bands to be held in the drill hall of Tuesday evening in connection with the National Patriotic Association fund, every band in the city will be present. The various bands will first be scattered about the city, will play for the pay a relative who have gone to Valcartier. The hundred cheques signed by the mayor were quickly disposed of, as each of these cases had been investigated, but nothing could be done for the others, as Mayor Allan was in Toronto.

to a standstill until great slaughter had been inflicted upon them. Ten German guns were captured. The British troops fell to our right, and those who lost in killed and wounded, 300. After this engagement, our troops were no longer molested. Wednesday, September 3, was the first quiet day since the battle of Mons on August 23. During the whole of this period the British casualties, amounted according to reports, to about 15,000 officers and men. The British having been in open order upon a whole front with repeated retirements, small parties of troops missed their way and became separated. It is known that a very considerable number of them were included in the total losses, which soon rejoin their regiments.

"These losses the heavy in no small force have in nowise affected the courageous spirit of the troops. They do not amount to much.

"A third of the losses inflicted by the British upon the enemy and the sacrifice required of the army was not out of proportion to the gains and achievements. In all, drafts amounting to 19,000 men have reached our army or are approaching on the line of communication. "Advantage was taken of the delays since Sept. 1 to fill up the gaps and re-fit and consolidate the units of the British army now south of Mame, and in line with the French forces on our right and left. The latest information about the enemy is that they are abandoning the assault on Paris and marching southwards towards Marne and towards the left and center of the French army's line. The first German army is reported between La-ferte-Sous-Jourais and Etibes. The second German army, after taking Rheims, has advanced to Chateau Thierry and eastward of that place. The fourth German army is reported in line with the first army between Muppel and Ylls-aux-Bois.

German Shelling is Poor. "All these points were reached by the German army on Sept. 5. The advance of the French corps near Neuville, therefore it would appear that the enveloping movement upon the Anglo-French front was abandoned by the Germans, either because they considered it no longer practicable to continue such an extension or because the alteration of a direct attack upon the allied lines is preferred. Whether this change of plan by the Germans is a voluntary one or has been forced upon them by the situation and the great strength of the allied armies on their front, will be decided by the course of events.

There is no doubt whatever but that the German army has established a pre-eminence over the Germans, and they are conscious of the fact that with anything like even numbers the result would not be doubtful. The shooting of the British rifle fire has devastated every column of attack that has presented itself. Their superior training and intelligence of the British to the British to use open formation with effect, and thus cope with the vast number of the enemy. The cavalry, which has been very busy in attacking the enemy, have definitely established their superiority.

British Superiority. "Sir John French, in dwelling on the marked superiority of the British troops over every arm of the German service. Over the German cavalry he has written that the British have until confronted with three times their numbers. The German patrols simply fly before our horsemen. The German infantry will not face our infantry, and as regards our artillery they have never been opposed by less than three or four times their numbers.

The following incidents have been mentioned as occurring during the operations at La Cateau on Aug. 24, when all the officers and men of one of the British batteries had been killed or wounded excepting one subaltern and two gunners. These continued to serve one gun, which kept up the round and rate of fire and the men finally came off the field unhurt. On another occasion a portion of a supply column was cut off by a detachment of German cavalry. The officer in charge was summoned to surrender. He refused, and starting his motor at full speed, dashed safely thru the line, losing only two horses, small weapons without sides.

Must Have More Men. "During the recent German action with the German guards brigade Sept. 2, the Germans were seen giving assistance to our wounded for the first time. The almost tropical sun has made the long marches trying to soldiers. In spite of this they look well and hardy, and the horses in consequence of the excellent condition. In short the war so far as advanced, has given many promising opportunities of adding to the reputation of the British army as a fighting force of notable and substantial success, but we must have more men to operate on a scale proportionate with the strength and power of the empire."

N. TORONTO CITIZENS CALL PUBLIC MEETING

A public meeting will be held in the old town hall, North Toronto, on Wednesday evening, to organize a volunteer brigade and to arrange for drill and rifle shooting practice. Every able-bodied citizen in the district is urgently requested to attend.

DISTINCT ENCOURAGEMENT IN ENGLAND FOLLOWING OFFICIAL STATEMENT ON WAR

British Public Demands Less Rigorous Censorship

Absence of Information Heightens Anxiety—Other Nations Involved in Struggle Less Secretive—Some Apparent Inconsistencies in Dealing With Press Pointed Out.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—The censorship as set up by the naval and military authorities is meeting with the criticism it deserves. Newspapers have great forbearance and have striven hard to meet the condition imposed upon them. But it is quite clear that public opinion in this country will not tolerate the suppression of news or be satisfied with the issue of scanty or evasive messages.

News held back from the British public days after it has been circulated on the continent, and the absence of all information gives rise to the wildest rumors which fly all over the country, causing alarm and anxiety. The French people are given more information about the doings of their troops and ours, and while in Germany the press is under the censor, in London are causing much irritation and provoking much misunderstanding and bad feeling in America. The American press considers that the censors are incompetent and discriminating unfairly between one paper and another. These impressions are all groundless but the delays in censoring messages and the different way in which the censors carry out their duties give rise to them.

Effect on Public.

The large question, however, is the effect which secrecy is having on the public. To retain the confidence of the public the military authorities must let the public know more about what our soldiers are doing and especially what they have done. A policy of delay and concealment may have serious consequences. No one suggests that any information which will help the enemy should be published, but that they should have full and frank accounts of which our brave troops were engaged. Nothing would more stimulate recruiting, inspire the public with confidence or more heighten enthusiasm for the army. The authorities should realize this need, while exercising the utmost discretion, to allay suspicion and issue a fuller service of news and keeping the people better informed about the progress of the mighty conflict which is shaping the destiny of Europe and deciding the fate and future of the British Empire.

Hard to Understand.

The methods of the British censor are certainly a little difficult to understand. For instance, the account of the Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse was submitted by a news agency to the news bureau on Aug. 19. It was censored. It was submitted again on the following Monday and again censored until the Daily Chronicle sent an account on Tuesday night, and the censor declined to pass it. In view of the fact that the Galician was on the point of arriving, when there could be no object in trying to maintain secrecy longer, the news agency again submitted the account, and the censor passed it, but afterward cancelled his consent, and an intimation was sent by their office withdrawing the account. The story, however, appeared in The Times and Daily Mail. When the press bureau was asked for an explanation, Sir George Armstrong said that he recalled very much that the matter had appeared, and a letter of protest had been addressed to the journals in question.

Peculiar Inconsistency.

On Aug. 10 one of the leading newspapers submitted to the censor a despatch from its special correspondent at Yarmouth of the splendid response until the Daily Chronicle sent an account on Tuesday night, and the censor declined to pass it. In view of the fact that the Galician was on the point of arriving, when there could be no object in trying to maintain secrecy longer, the news agency again submitted the account, and the censor passed it, but afterward cancelled his consent, and an intimation was sent by their office withdrawing the account. The story, however, appeared in The Times and Daily Mail. When the press bureau was asked for an explanation, Sir George Armstrong said that he recalled very much that the matter had appeared, and a letter of protest had been addressed to the journals in question.

Every night there is inequality of statement in regard to what is going on in America and the result is causing the greatest amount of suspicion and irritation amongst the American press.

GERMANS WERE KILLED WHILE TAKING SHELTER FROM BELGIAN BULLETS

Ran Into Factory Which Had Been Mined and Were Blown Up—Occupation of Territory Southeast of Ghent Cost Germans More Than Position Was Worth.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Charles Hodson, the Central News correspondent at Antwerp, sends under yesterday's date a story of the recent fighting in Belgium. He says: "I paid a visit today to the gallant Belgian soldiers who fought so well at Termonde to the southeast of Ghent. That fighting cost the German troops more than the position was worth. The Belgians told me that the combat was decided mainly by the German artillerymen, who were guided in their shooting by an officer up in a captive balloon, who had been sent up high enough to spy on the Belgian positions.

"The artillery fires rendered the Belgian trenches untenable and the Belgian soldiers withdrew from the attack leaving two guns behind. But Lieut. Rouge with rare bravery retrieved one of the pieces under the very noses of the enemy.

"Several Hundred Killed.

"At Capelle-Aubers, just to the east of Termonde, several hundred Germans rushed into a factory for shelter from the merciless Belgian shrapnel. The factory previously had been mined and it was blown up, all being destroyed.

"It was reported that a Belgian cavalry patrol found the bodies of an old man and a boy tied to a tree. Both had been bayoneted to death. At Ryebreck, immediately south of Brussels the cavalrymen saw a middle-aged German who had been mortally injured by a revolver bullet fired into his head. In intervals of consciousness he explained to the Belgians that he had been shot by a German officer simply because he was not advancing fast enough to suit that authority.

"Upon my visit to the gallant Belgians the officers received me warmly and insisted upon opening up a bottle of champagne. All of the officers present showed enthusiastically hurrahs for Great Britain, to whom the Belgians look more than to any other allies for deliverance.

"Beligians Were Ambushed.

"Another incident was related to me. It was as follows: "Twelve Belgian soldiers left Antwerp in three automobiles to reconnoitre towards Diest, to the southeast, in the direction of Hasselt. The Belgians were ambushed in the front and the rear, but did not lose their heads. They worked their mitrail-leuses while the bullets fired by the enemy hammered on the sides of the cars. After the fighting ceased the Belgian corporals counted nine dead Germans, including a major, and Comte de Walde Linge, who had four bullet wounds in his head."

DREADFUL FIGHTING BEFORE LEMBERG

German Correspondent Concedes Difficulty of Winning Over Russian Numbers.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 6.—A message from Berlin reports the information from Alsace that bombs thrown into Belfort by German aviators have done considerable damage, the amount of which is, as yet, unknown.

A German war correspondent, telegraphing from the headquarters of the Austrian army, says that the total strength of the Russian armies now holding their ground between Lublin and Lemberg is 700,000 men.

The correspondent thus describes the evacuation of Lemberg by the Austrians: "Day after day passed in the dreadful fighting which lasted 11 days; the heat in Galicia was terrible. The fighting, judging from my impressions,

RUSSIAN GIRLS ARE SENT TO THE FRONT

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 6.—The Russian troops at the front are being assisted by two daughters of General Tomilovsky, one of the czar's commanders. They volunteered for the war and gained permission to wear the ordinary uniform of a soldier. The female fighters will be sent to advanced positions.

LIEUT.-COL. DUFF INJURED.

KINGSTON, Sept. 6.—Lieut.-Col. H. R. Duff, seriously injured at Yalcarter by being thrown off a horse, was brought home today, and is doing nicely. He will be able to go back to the camp.

ANTWERP NOW CUT OFF FROM GHENT

German Force Left Brussels, Burning Villages and Cutting Wires.

Special Direct Copyrighted Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The Amsterdam correspondent of The Daily Chronicle sends the following: "The news has just come from Antwerp that a strong German force left Brussels today for the northwest, apparently trying to cut Antwerp's communication with the coast. They are burning villages and cutting wires on the way. Communication between Antwerp and Ghent is severed.

"The Belgians have flooded the area to the southwest of Malines. The Germans, taken by surprise, were waist deep in water and their guns stuck in the mud. The Belgians then fired on the disconcerted enemy, supported by the outermost Antwerp forts, and inflicted heavy losses."

Preston, 4th Regiment; Lieut.-Col. James Henry, late 38th Regiment; Major Gabriel, 56th Regiment; Lieut. Firth, the principals of the public schools, Police Magistrate Pattullo, Orangeville; Mr. Craig, Grand Valley; Scout Commissioner Rev. George Tebbis and other local clergymen. The new corps it is intended, will include the three northern companies of the 28th Regiment and five new companies to be raised in the county or contiguous thereto.

The warden and county councillors promise generous support, and a strong committee, including local militia officers, was appointed to take charge of the details and to arrange for recruiting. The name suggested is the Dufferin Light Infantry. Organization meetings will be held at the various company headquarters and enrollment and active training will be proceeded with at once. As the county possesses several efficient rifle associations and has enough qualified officers, it is expected that the minister of militia will give the necessary sanction and that Dufferin County will have its own detachment in the next Canadian contingent.

THE DAY ALL TORONTO GOES TO THE FAIR

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR LABOR DAY AT THE FAIR SPORTING EVENTS PREPARED

Hamilton Day Carried to Successful Conclusion Hundred Thousand People on Hand—Enthusiasm Continues Unchecked—Mayors Speak at Luncheon.

It is estimated that there were more than 100,000 people at the Exhibition of Saturday, which day had been set apart as Hamilton Day. Citizens from the neighboring city arrived early and stayed late. There is no doubt but that they witnessed the big event from every angle. There was no portion of the grounds that did not have its share in entertaining the guests.

Weather conditions were much better than during former days. The winds of the morning gradually died away. The afternoon was appreciated because of the warm sun. It was then that the bulk of the crowd made its way towards the fair. In fact, the growth was so pronounced that several directors went to the memorial gate to watch the people enter. As one of these remarked: "It looks like old

Hamilton Day was made the more significant because of the attendance of the 13th Regimental Band. It is under the leadership of W. F. Robinson, who is a son of the former leader, Lieut. George R. Robinson. The latter was leader for some 46 years.

During the afternoon the grand stand performance was well patronized. The judging of saddle and coach horses took place. This was in addition to the vendeville performance. The evening saw the stand filled to its utmost capacity. The crowd was not confined to it alone. The lawn in front was occupied by interested spectators. As on former occasions, the military tattoo brought forward endless rolls of applause, which was only exceeded when the brilliant display of fireworks was witnessed.

Aside from the interest manifested in the larger program, there was an unusual attendance at various other attractions. Creators and his band was the centre of one of these. The afternoon and evening programs were given in the delight of a very large audience each evening.

In making the rounds thru the buildings it was a case of follow the crowd. To attempt to do this would be a hopeless task. Each detail was given attention and numerous souvenirs were distributed. The midway was packed. The fair was up and running. Money flowed freely without any thought for "stringency." It must be stated that possibly more caution was exercised than in other years.

Hamilton Day was carried off to a successful conclusion. Every detail was taken care of in attending to the crowds at the street cars, as well as in the grounds.

Friendly Wishes Exchanged. Friendly wishes for the prosperity of the City of Toronto and Hamilton were exchanged between the fathers of the two cities at the directors' luncheon. Each of the speeches also included a patriotic note.

Mayor Allan of Hamilton extended the hearty and best wishes of the citizens whom he represents. He congratulated the directors on the success already attained and bespoke a good week to come. He thanked the council for the splendid entertainment provided. Hamilton council and said that "Hamilton Day" at the fair was always looked forward to with the greatest pleasure. Remarks were few and well chosen.

Should Inspire. Mayor Hocken during his address referred to a speech of a prominent newspaper editor who returned from England recently and said that the people of England were not in a condition to go to war. "Our history should inspire us with the greatest possible pride in those who have gone before us," he said. He averred that the people of Great Britain were never in a better condition than they are today. In referring to Hamilton he said: "The prosperity of Hamilton is the pride of Toronto." In conclusion he suggested that next Exhibition year be called "Thanksgiving Year."

Lost Nothing. The Exhibition has lost nothing of its former greatness," said ex-Mayor Lee of Hamilton. He reviewed the condition of industries in Hamilton and said: "I think something should be done by the governments in helping the banks to loan money. In the course of time, which I trust will not be long, Canada will become prosperous again," he said.

Controlled. Mr. McCarthy in his address, which concluded the dinner, said it would be a good thing if the Toronto-Hamilton highway was finished in a hurry. "If the Toronto-to-Hamilton highway had been finished before this Exhibition opened it would have attracted hundreds of thousands more of attendance. I know a lot of people in the Niagara peninsula who would like to motor to Toronto, but who would not attempt the roads between Toronto and Hamilton at the present time."

Old Sol Smiled. Old Sol smiled down with a gentle but firm persistency on Hamilton Day and threw a sly old wink in the direction of the directors' headquarters as the crowds began to swell. He kept his eyes roving around the grounds, taking in the situation with that remarkable scope of observation that only he is master of, and the other eye he kept steadily on the group of satellites sheltered beneath the big pillars memorial gates. According to George A. Lewis, who has been attending the crowds at the stables for years, the whole of Hamilton's population is on hand to make the big day. "It looks like an old time crowd alright," said the stilt as it clicked steadily and incessantly. Due to the splendid system installed at the gate, the largest crowds are handled with ease and without danger. The fine broad entrance, the position of ticket sellers and the manipulation of the turnstiles are faultless. Conveyance to the grounds via the Toronto street railway was swift and sure, and access to the grounds was equally so. There was no crowding or rushing for the gates—everything was satisfactory, and best of all, the big crowd grew and then some.

Butter Making. The butter-making competition is drawing a large crowd each day, and the Hamilton visitors filled the demonstration hall where butter is being made that will be sold together with exhibition made cheese, by public auction next Wednesday.

The competitors worked excellently in the morning. One young lady who is an exceptionally rapid and neat worker, finished the complete process in fifty-five minutes. This is excellent time, and her progress, although very speedy, was never the less efficient. The judging results will be out about Monday, after all the butter has been scored.

Needle Work Skill. Conscientious application is evident in the work which composes the large exhibits in the women's buildings, and this is especially true of the needlework comment voted in its favor by the hundreds of women from Toronto and other cities who give themselves the enjoyment of strolling among the attractive entries of fancy and household art. The beautiful laces have already been described, but the household linen, embroidery, crochet and knit work is also most praiseworthy.

A case of beautiful bedspreads displays various types of needle-work skills. Embroidered spreads, spreads in drawn work, linen and other knitted combinations were very effective. The lingerie is especially dainty, beautiful negligee models being greatly admired.

Household Arts. In the household arts department the home-made bread and fruit-cake was excellent. Flaky tea-succulents, rich jams and appetizing marmalades were in a fascinating array, while candy, cookies and pie were a constant temptation.

Splendid Animals. Before the grand stand, starting at 2 o'clock, harness horses, roadsters and carriage horses were shown and judged. The stands were well filled, for the exhibit, besides attracting horsemen, was of interest to those outside the cult. It was a fine showing of spirit and workmanship.

Besides these exhibitors, famous across the continent for their stock, there were smaller owners and amateurs from the rural districts of the province. In the Lincoln class J. G. Lethbridge was the only exhibitor.

The sheep were also finished Saturday morning. In the other district breeds class, Mac Campbell and Sons of Northwood, Ont., were awarded all the championships, and in the Hampshire class Hastings Bros. of Groesville obtained everything. Douglas & Sons of Mitchell, Ont., got the championship for their Tamworths. William Manning & Sons were awarded the silver medal for their boar in the Yorkshire class, and J. Featherston & Sons won the medal for the sow.

Motor Boats Prepare. Along the shore the power speed boats tried out on Saturday afternoon for the races to be held on Monday. For years these races have been a feature of the aquatic program and the event on Labor Day promises to draw crowds. The engines of most of the craft are now running smoothly and in fine shape for the races.

Little Mothers Busy. Practicability is the keynote to the educational department at the Exhibition this year. "The Little Mothers" classes are working splendidly now, and visitors are very keen in following up the various steps in the babies' toilet. The dentistry department affords any amount of interest thruout the day, and the girls in the domestic science classes are most efficient. The forest school children are enjoying their work immensely as relishing their delicious meals served from the science department. The pupils arrive at their quarters about 10 o'clock every morning and immediately have milk. They follow out practically the same program as at Victoria Park, but their hours are shorter—10 a.m. till 4 p.m. After dinner the children have "tooth brush" drill, then go to bed for two hours. After their study hour each afternoon they are taken around the buildings and home before the 6 o'clock crowd. Yesterday the live stock and were greatly interested in the pigs that are enjoying their life at the fair to the greatest extent.

MODEL PLAYGROUND.

City children, town children, country children; they all are tumbling about together in a model playground on the Exhibition grounds directly west of the grand stand. The tiny community is as cosmopolitan as New York and far more fun for the youngsters. There are swings, teeter-tottering boards, slides and all the other apparatus to provoke fun and test tiny muscles. The playground is in charge of a competent attendant.

HOLD CATTLE PARADE.

Prominent among the many features of Hamilton day at the Exhibition was a cattle parade. This was composed of scores of what may be considered a sample of the finest quality of cattle in Canada. A large number are prize winners. They form a striking illustration of the progress that has been made in the breeding of better class stock.

It is evidence of the fact that agricultural colleges have had a wonderful influence upon the farming communities. It is proof that the farmer is becoming a specialist and is giving study to the industry for which Canada is noted.

DENIES CIVIL RIGHTS OF GERMAN SUBJECT

Legal Case Involving Interesting Point Crops Up at Montreal.

Canadian Press Despatch. MONTREAL, Sept. 6.—The first case in the civil courts in Montreal in which the British Empire's state of war with Germany is advanced as a plea in defence is that of Sam Guthman against W. V. Eastmure, in which a bill of sale was to have been held yesterday for a debt of $252.

Labor Day Sports

Labor Day is to be one of the big "sport days" at the Canadian National Exhibition. Already there are seven crews entered for the war canoe races. These will take place commencing at 5.30.

There will be two sets of Labor Day sports. One will be under the American Federation of Labor, the other under the National Federation. The former will be held in the new athletic field back of the transportation building, the latter on the water front. In addition, there will be two Labor Day parades to the grounds.

PROMINENT EXHIBITORS

SWAT THE HOUSEFLY AND SAVE CHILDREN

Provincial Board of Health Shows Ways of Preventing the Spread of Disease.

The poor house fly comes in for another roasting at the hands of the medical health department of the provincial government. In the government building, among other exhibits that illustrate the many enemies that militate against the health of the public, that which outlines the plan of campaign against the house fly is one of the most important as that insect is blamed for a large percentage of health contamination.

On the wall in the exhibit is a red light. This light flashes off and on every 30 seconds. Every time it flashes somebody in the world has died from consumption. A series of moving pictures illustrates how this dread disease is contracted and how it is combated. The care of infants also comes in for some comment. Thousands of babies die every year because proper care is not taken of their food. The pasteurization of milk is an important topic.

Modern methods of treating such diseases as diphtheria by serum supplied by the health department, are also shown. The use of vaccine for the prevention of typhoid fever, as it is now used in all the armies of the world, is also illustrated. A hundred and one other methods of protecting the public health are shown, every one of which should be seen by the public.

"Them Wuz the Days"

"Them wuz the days" is a sign on a fish exhibit in the government building, which brings many men back to the days of childhood. There is a tank with live fish swimming around in it. Model boys in real schoolboy fishing clothes are sitting at the sides holding complete fishing line and tackle to branches. This exhibit always had an admiring crowd of men of all ages viewing it. In other parts of the same exhibit fish representing nearly every class of edible in Canadian waters are shown.

Engineers and Municipal Officials in particular, should not fail to visit the exhibit of the Petlar People, Limited of Oshawa, situated just north of the main entrance to the grand stand. A few minutes spent in the examination of the various kinds of culverts on exhibition will give a far better idea than can be obtained from a booklet or catalogue.

Now is the best time of year to put culverts in, and notwithstanding the sharp advance in price of the raw materials, the Petlar People have generously decided not to advance the price of the finished article. They are glad to co-operate in this way and so keep as many men at work as possible.

Elmira, N.Y., Has an Exhibit Worth Seeing.

A very interesting exhibit is located in the tent just started. Christ's biscuits, made in Elmira, N.Y., are being exhibited. The biscuits are made in a most attractive collection of machinery and equipment, as well as special equipment of every conceivable kind for the safeguarding of the biscuits. ### Fired Store; Suicided

Motive Was Revenge

Charles Smith Was Recently Dismissed as Manager of Butcher Store Which He Destroyed Yesterday, Then Killed Himself.

Charles Smith, aged 54, until recently manager of A. Wood's grocery and butcher store, 94 Geary avenue, set fire to the premises at five o'clock yesterday morning, and afterwards committed suicide by cutting his throat and hanging himself to the bedpost by a leather strap. Smith was a native of Heywood, Lancashire, England, and had a wife and two children, a boy and a girl, aged respectively, 16 and 18 years.

Sixteen Fishing Boats Sunk

Sixteen British fishing boats in the North Sea. A large quantity of fish was taken from the boats before they were sunk. The crews of the fishing boats have been landed at Wilhelmshaven as prisoners of war.

Reinforcements Demanded By German Staff Officers

been intercepted here, and in it demand is made for reinforcements for the German armies in France. Another message, that one coming from Berlin, urgently recalls the first line troops for use on the eastern frontier, where the Russian sweeping movement continues.

vised to dine at Bird's Restaurant. This year the very best meals on the grounds are available at this dining hall, which is located opposite the western entrance of the grand stand. The food is wholesome, of the best quality and served with rapidity and courtesy. The table linen is clean and the appointments much superior to anything on the grounds. All are satisfied who dine at Bird's. A $50 meal and a $60 dinner are served.

The World Famous Carey Safes.

Not a few visitors are stopping at the exhibit of Ford and Featherstone of Hamilton, Ont., in the process of building to examine the Carey safes. These safes have some unique features that have put them in a class by themselves, especially the smaller models designed for house use. These house safes are built along the same lines, and contain the excellent features of the larger safes. Unlike many other makes of safes the Carey is absolutely fire and burglar proof, which eliminates the destruction of valuable papers either by fire or theft. An instance of the wonderful construction of these safes is shown in five safes of the company's downtown warehouses, which came successfully thru the fire that destroyed the independent clock building on Richmond street west, Toronto, last March.

Most Costly Billiard Table in Canada.

Do not fail to see the most costly billiard table and cabinet made or sold in Canada, at the exhibit of the Canadian Billiard Manufacturers Association, in the northeast corner of the manufacturers' building.

This table and cabinet are of beautiful mahogany, hand carved with representations of the dove of peace and olive wreaths, in commemoration of the friendly relations between Canada and the United States. It was designed and constructed in Canada, by Canadian workmen, from Canadian material, by the only Canadian firm manufacturing a full line of billiard tables and supplies.

Samuel May & Co. also exhibit a beautiful 4 1/2 x 9 pocket billiard table, and a large variety of billiard supplies.

Christie-Brown Company's Biscuits.

Probably no other exhibit in the manufacturers' building is attracting so much attention, especially of the housewives, as that of Christie-Brown Company, Limited. There may be seen the latest in biscuits, not only of the plain varieties, but also of the fanciest and most delicious made in Canada. Several new lines are being introduced through this year's Exhibition display. Christie's biscuits have gained a country-wide reputation for purity and high standard of excellence. Although the cost of the materials, including flour, sugar and the various fruits used, has advanced enormously since the war started, Christie's biscuits have remained at their same prices.

Nasmith's Restaurant.

Nasmith's grill and high-class restaurant in the grand stand is proving as popular as ever to the particular Exhibition visitor. Nasmith's has won quite a reputation for clean food, unexcelled service and general superiority. The restaurant, where fifty-cent meals are served, is in the western section of the grand stand and the a la carte department in the east.

Best Meals at Bird's. Visitors to the fair will be well advised to dine at Bird's Restaurant.

EXCEEDS 100,000

No figures were mentioned by the Exhibition officials in regard to the actual attendance at the grounds on Saturday. It is estimated, however, that the number exceeded 100,000.

ONTARIO RESOURCES WELL DISPLAYED

Department of Agriculture's Exhibit at Exhibition Best Ever.

PRIZE GRAIN SHOW

Ontario Farmers Won Seven of Eight Awards in World-Wide Competition.

Never before have the products of Ontario's farms been displayed so well as in this year's exhibits of the provincial department of agriculture in the government building at the Exhibition. The position that Ontario holds in farming Canada, and its title, "The Banner Province of the Dominion," especially in connection with its position in the production of farm products, is being upheld in a manner that is indisputable. Many of the countries and districts of the province have taken individual sections of the exhibit where they are showing the most important products of their respective sections. In this way a collection of almost every kind of grain, fruit and vegetable grown in the province has been collected together in one large display.

From the western section of the province is shown corn and other grains and fruit, garden truck and what has been the government's establishment of an important industry in the province, tobacco. From the northern territories of Temiskaming and Hudson Bay are shown many large vegetables and fruits of the highest quality. The great clay belt of the north, to which attention has been directed during the last few years, and to where the provincial government is sending settlers, is represented by specimens of farm products that vie favorably with those grown in the southern and older sections of Ontario.

Altogether the best products of over 4500 Ontario farms have contributed to the display. The grain and vegetable exhibit is sending settlers from the prize-winning fields in the recent Ontario Agricultural Societies' contest. Ontario farmers won seven or eight prizes offered in the world-wide competition.

The most striking thing about the large display is the excellent way in which the farm products have been arranged. This is especially true of the grain and fruit branches, while the usually clumsy looking larger vegetables are artistically placed to bring them out to their advantage. The tops of the sheaves of grain are daintily decorated with bunting which gives a relief to what might otherwise be a monotonous display of green and yellow.

Altogether apples, pears, plums and the other late fruits, now in season, are being shown in their raw state, as well as earlier fruits, such as gooseberries and other berries and cherries, are shown preserved in arrays of glass jars.

Perhaps the most interesting section of the exhibit is that of the ground hog river district, of which comparatively little is known by the average visitor to the Exhibition. A large piece of north country would indicate that it will soon figure among the great lumber producing sections of the province. The showing of onions, cabbages, turnips and various other vegetables bears evidence to the fertility of the soil, in what promises to be, after development, one of the greatest farming districts in Canada.

Part of the exhibit has been given over to the Ontario Agricultural College of Guelph, where the various departments are illustrating the work which they are doing. Bee keeping is one of the interesting subjects dealt with by the college, and efforts are being made to sustain bee keepers with the latest methods for combating bee diseases and to help them increase the production of honey.

Another interesting department of the college's exhibit shows the scientific methods used to deal with insects and other pests that devastate fields of grain and destroy other crops. Field husbandry has been growing rapidly among Ontario agriculturists, and efforts are made thru a special exhibit to teach the farmer what varieties of grain produce a maximum yield. Pamphlets on this subject are being readily given to farmers and others interested.

Dog Show Opens

Seven hundred dogs are entered for the thirty-sixth annual international dog show, which opens today in the dog show building. This is a large increase over former years. The show lasts until Thursday. The judges are as given below: Walter S. Glynn of London, England; Joseph Hill, Toronto; Dr. Henry Jarrett, Philadelphia; J. S. Mortimer, Hempstead, Long Island, N.Y.

ENGINEER RESIGNS HIS WORK IS DONE

The resignation is announced of B. B. Kelliher, chief engineer of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. The circuit was followed by Morley Donaldson, vice-president and general manager of the line, states that H. A. Woods, as assistant chief engineer, will assume charge of the engineering department of the railway, with headquarters at Winnipeg.

Mr. Kelliher's health has not been satisfactory for some time past, and he has, therefore, asked to be relieved of his duties in order that he may seek a complete rest. For thirty years Mr. Kelliher has been engaged in railway construction, and is today recognized as one of the foremost mountain engineers of his generation. His work has taken him out with the pioneers on surveys thru the wildest regions of the continent, and superintending the work of the great railway armies he has lived for long periods under the most trying conditions of climate and environment. For ten years he has been actively engaged in the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific. For nine of these years Mr. Kelliher has been the engineer in charge of this immense construction scheme. A few days after his appointment as chief engineer, the first sod of the Grand Trunk Pacific was turned at Manitoba Sand Hill. That was on Aug. 28, 1908. In April of this year the last spike was driven at Nipigon, Crossing, marking the practical completion of the most modern of transcontinental railways.

Mr. Kelliher was born in Ireland and educated at Dublin University.

ARE NOT UNANIMOUS FOR SPECIAL SESSION

Some Ministers Say Expense Would Not Be Justified—Cabinet Meets Tomorrow.

It will be known within a few days whether or not the Ontario Government will call a special session of the legislature to discuss the financial exigencies of the present time. Already Mr. Rowell has expressed himself as in favor of such action being taken, and several members of the Conservative side of the house are preparing for it.

Opinion is divided, however. Some members of the opposition urge that the work which a session would perform could be done by the lieutenant-governor in council, and the expense would be eliminated. Others feel that the conditions warrant the assembly at an early date.

Whatever the means, however, the government is prepared to act. It is possible that a meeting of the cabinet will be held tomorrow to discuss the matter.

N. W. SOCIETIES FORM DISTRESS COMMITTEE

Meeting to Be Held on Tuesday Night for Organization Purposes.

The following resolution was adopted at a representative meeting of the various ratepayers' associations and fraternal societies in the northwest district of the city on Saturday evening, in the office of Hugh J. Macdonald, St. Clair avenue: Resolved, that a meeting of the various presidents and secretaries of ratepayers' associations and fraternal societies be called for Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock, at the office of Mr. Hugh J. Macdonald, 7 Royal George Chambers, corner of Dufferin street and St. Clair avenue, to discuss ways and means of taking care of the relief work made necessary by the present war situation in the districts known as Hillcrest, Oakwood, Ossington, Earls Court, Fairbank and Silverthorne, and to consider the formation of a central committee, composed of representatives of the various ratepayers' and fraternal societies in these districts.

The meeting felt that, owing to the extreme urgency of the situation, it is imperative that all officers involved should be prompt in their attendance, as cases are already coming to the notice of the clergy and others in the district. J. M. Warren, president of the Hillcrest Association, occupied the chair, and John Walsh, secretary of the Earls Court District Voters' Association, was appointed secretary pro tem.

Work For Unemployed.

Twenty-three residents of the township who were out of employment are now at work grading and stoning Oakwood avenue, between Morrison avenue and Fairbank avenue. As the township council cannot dispose of debentures for sewers just now," said Deputy Reeve Miller, "we have decided to improve the road to get employment to a number of men out of work."

In compliance with their persistent request, they have been permitted to dress themselves in soldiers' uniforms, and they will be sent to advanced positions.

The Toronto World

FOUNDED 1880. A morning newspaper published every day in the year by The World Newspaper Company of Toronto, Limited...

It will prevent delay if letters containing "subscriptions," "complaints," etc., are addressed to the Circulation Department.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 7.

A War of Honor

Mr. Asquith's stirring speech at the Guildhall carried an appeal to a far wider circle than that he immediately addressed. It reached beyond the walls of that historic edifice, where so many memorable words have been spoken...

British folk have never drawn the sword with more unanimous consent or more supreme confidence that it is to be used in a just and righteous cause. That being so it cannot be sheathed until the free states of Europe have rid themselves of that menace of aggressive militarism which has so long cast its shadow athwart their path.

Believing that this is a very real sense is a holy war the British peoples having put their hand to the plow cannot and dare not look back. No matter what the sacrifice the struggle must be fought to a finish. Time is on the side of the allies and no one realizes this more than the German emperor. The stern necessity of despatch in crushing the French army compelled the violation of Belgian neutrality and is driving him to unheard-of sacrifices of men to accomplish that purpose.

At Washington

Congress is to adjourn at the end of September, after having been in continuous session since April 7, 1913. The members will have a month for campaigning and will reassemble in regular session on the first Monday of December.

Meanwhile the anti-trust measures of the administration will become law. Two of them have already gone to conference. One establishes the interstate trade commission, and the other greatly strengthens the Sherman law by forbidding interlocking directorates and many corporate abuses.

Perhaps the president will be just as well pleased to have congress away for a month or two, so that he may deal with foreign affairs in his own way, and, generally speaking, the people at large are ready to stand by the president in whatever course he may take. There is already a disposition to refrain from attacking Mr. Wilson or his foreign policy while the war is in progress, and the Republican party seems more anxious to stabilize its organization and get back to its standpoint platform, than to carry the house at the next election. The crushing defeat of Senator La Follette's following in the Wisconsin primaries would seem to indicate that the Progressives are to be crowded out and that the Republican party intends to fight its next battle upon the "full dinner pail" platform. And just now the "full dinner pail" platform slogan is not a bad one for any party to adopt.

Are You in on This?

American commercial interests are fully alive to their opportunities arising out of the suspension of German trade by the war. There is nothing available to American merchants from this source which is not equally and even more readily available to Canadians. A Cleveland publication published for "confidential distribution," furnishes some figures to show the importance of the situation for wide-awake and active firms.

Among these it appears that the United States imports from the countries at war the following amounts of merchandise which the United States also manufactures: Great Britain, $200,000,000; Germany, $180,000,000; France, $150,000,000; Belgium, $40,000,000; Austria, $20,000,000; Russia, $15,000,000; Serbia, $5,000,000.

This is a total of $705,000,000, which Uncle Sam thinks might well be diverted into the pockets of his own manufacturers. This of course is a sanguine view, but no doubt a very large portion of the trade might be supplied from sources which have not hitherto been able to meet German competition. There is no reason why these sources should not to a considerable extent include Canada. It must be remembered that these figures deal with German exports to the United States alone, and Canada has all the other fields also in which Germany used to operate, now left open without the rivalry of that important competitor.

Here is the list issued of the commodities in which an expansion of trade over former German routes is possible: Bottles, drugs, chemicals and dye stuffs, photographic supplies, wine, arms and ammunition, artists' supplies, china, crockery, fancy groceries, glass and glassware, toys, embroideries and laces, hair and hair goods, carpets and rugs, silks, dress-makers' supplies, fancy goods, ladies' clothing, millinery, face powder, favoring perfumes, accessories, starch, advertising novelties, dolls, agate and enamel wares, cooking utensils, velling, cutlery, tools, buttons, sheet iron, steel and metal, jewelry, cloths, knit goods, furs, leather gloves, wearing apparel.

A great deal of this material is needed at once. The man on the spot gets the order. Manufacturers who see the opportunity and who would be willing to go ahead in the effort to take and keep their share of this valuable prize of war, one of the few legitimate prizes that war offers, should not be handicapped by the banking conditions of the country. If the occasion is allowed to slip thru their fingers, after the war is over we shall have lost an advantage we might have gained, and we shall have lost it to a more powerful competitor than Germany.

"Every Little Bit Added"

The Pennsylvania Railway has evidently heard the old maxim that: "Every little bit added to what you've got, makes a little bit more." It is now applying to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to raise the price of the 1,000 mile book from $20 to $22.50.

Of course whatever order the commission may make will not affect the two-cent passenger fare established by law in Ohio and other states. The people who are now getting a 1,000 mile book for $20 are in many states getting the same service for two cents for which poorer people pay three cents a mile. The railway company is therefore confident that the increased rate will be justified especially in view of an intimation that passenger rates are, relatively speaking, lower than freight rates, contained in the opinion of the Interstate Commerce Commission in deciding the application for an increase of five per cent. in eastern freight rates.

It is naively explained that no attempt will be made to increase the ordinary passenger fare because such increase, if granted, would result in less travel and to a greater extent than ever build up the rapidly increasing business of the interurban or radial railways. But it is assumed that jacking up the price of the mileage book will have no effect upon the volume of traffic and at the same time bring a little more revenue to the coffers of the company. The incident in itself is not important except in so far as it reflects the subtle determination of the railway companies to insist upon the public shouldering the burden of their fixed charges, swollen to outlandish figures, in many cases, by stock watering, subsidiary companies and other beavelling devices of Wall Street.

Treasury Board To Deal With Loans on Securities

Provisions of Finance Act Passed by Parliament at Emergency Session Are Officially Proclaimed—Finance Minister Gives Strong Hint to Banks.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Sept. 6.—The necessary proclamation bringing into effect the provisions of the recently enacted Finance Act, so far as they affect Canadian banks, appears in Saturday's Gazette. The effect of the legislation and of the proclamation is to continue the existing situation established by order in council previous to the session, the only change being that application from the banks for advances upon approved securities are to be made to the treasury board. The board will avail itself as to the quality and value of securities offered as collateral.

Bank. The services of these gentlemen, either individually or associated with other bankers, will continue to be available to the treasury board. Under the new arrangements, securities may, for convenience, be lodged by the banks with the Royal Trust Co. at any of its offices in Canada, or with the finance department at Ottawa. The minister has also made an arrangement thru Hon. George Perley, with the Bank of England, London, whereby securities may be lodged with that institution for account of the minister of finance.

KENDALL CAPTAIN OF TROOPSHIP NOW

Former Commander of Ill-Fated Empress of Ireland Serves Empire.

Special to The Toronto World. MONTREAL, Sept. 6.—Capt. R. G. Kendall of the R.N.R., skipper of the ill-fated Empress of Ireland, when she was sunk by the Storstad off Father Point on May 29 last, is commanding a British troopship now. He was one of the captains engaged in rushing the first British soldiers across the channel to the aid of the French army.

When the war broke out he was acting shore captain for the C. P. R. at Antwerp with the Montrose, his former command, and the Montreal lying in port. The Montrose was with-out a crew, while the Montreal had had her engines disconnected for repairs. The day before Great Britain and Germany went to war five hundred refugees came to him begging him to get the ship away from the shore. Acting on his own initiative he fired up the Montrose, and gathered a scratch crew on the wharves, including men whom he had to shove how to fire the boilers in the stove-holds, and with the Montreal in tow, and his refugees on board, he set sail for London. He made the voyage in 24 hours, twice as long as a voyage is usually required. When he docked there he received his summons to the navy and left at once to take command of a troop ship.

RENT FREE. Editor World: Re item "Patriotic Farmers" in The World of Tuesday. We have a house accustomed to have flowers blooming in the windows all winter, which will give rent free till March 1, 1915—three rooms up stairs, two down, solid frame grouted and lapboarded, with steel sashes. It can be lighted by electricity, but that would have to be at tenant's expense. A man that could run a traction engine would be handy, as I could give him employment at once thrashing, and probably work most of the winter running same engine sawing lumber. I have hired the engine for the last three winters and it has continued this year sawing till the last Monday in August, and is now thrashing. The sawing is done for the reeve of Fenelon Falls, who owns all the sawing outfit, but the engine, which he hires and pays the man. Or I could give work to a person that could handle a team of three horses most of the season, and who would be willing to make himself generally useful. He would need to be kind to animals. The horses are good. My place is on the village boundary. The man would not have to be an experienced plowman, but have a plow which can be handled by any good teamster. If the hands could run an engine, all the better. Live about a mile and a half from village by the road, but the house have mentioned is on the boundary, it overlooks the village and Stung and Cameron Lakes. We are English and English Church. "Appearance counts! Men with the 'get up and get' look about them are the ones who always push their way to success."

Carson's Crew Won the Eights at Argo Regatta

Argonaut Rowing Club held their fall regatta on Saturday afternoon with a fair number of entries in the various events.

The postoffice four won the Hammond Trophy from the Dominion Bank crew. Quin won the Henry O'Brien Cup in the novice single, and Quin, Riddy, Chate and McGee won the club championship four.

The water was rather choppy for fast rowing, and the atmosphere was a trifle cool. The Argonauts were quite enthusiastic over the races, and held their interest right up to the finish.

In the eight race, it was decided that only half the course should be covered. The water was too rough for the turn at the buoy, and accordingly the start was made there for the 500 yards straightaway to the finish.

V. WALKER AND HENIKMAN WIN

Saturday Night's Motorcycle Races on the Saucer Track.

Vernon Walker and Henikman monopolized practically all of the honors of the four-lap motor race, Saturday night. Brownie Carson, the Australian star, was chased by a hoodoo all evening, and never succeeded in gaining better than third place in the four events in which he started.

Walker and Henikman were in the ten-mile free-for-all he had to change machines soon after the start. Walker won out in every heat of the match race, with Henikman in second place each time. Leonard was unable to start because of a bad spill he took in practice last week.

Peterboro Land Both Saturday at Hamilton

HAMILTON, Sept. 6.—Peterboro closed the series here Saturday by taking the 1000 yds. from the Athletics. The first game ended 2-2, while the second was a 2-0 shut-out. Both games were well contested. The team's inability to hit in the pinches led to the game being drawn. Peterboro scored their only run in the third inning against each other and great interest in the sixth and seventh, and Hamilton scored the two runs in the eighth. Special to The Toronto World. NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A special London cable says: As Lombard street sees it, the immediate future of the world's financial and commercial markets is now being largely determined on the continental battlefields.

Melons were slightly firmer in tone on the market Saturday, the ordinary 11-quart basket selling at 20c to 30c per basket, and 27c at 35c to 40c, while the Leamington brought 25c to 35c for the 11's and 40c to 50c for the 16's.

It is on such a day as this that one quarter of the city powers having taken three such large corners off of the road, which is only on Saturdays, converted into a garage for the city's automobiles with its attendant odor of gasoline, which is only very acceptable to most people, but is really preferable to the odor of a stable, which the wagon section is used for during the five days excepting Saturday. If they let it be used as a stable they not flush it out occasionally, but they let it stand for days.

The Usual Prices Obtain On An Unusual Range of Dress Fabrics

The display of autumn silks and dress goods is fuller this fall than ever before; the range of weaves and tones is wider, and, if anything, better than last year. These items are representative:

DRESS GOODS AND SUITINGS.
Case after case has been unpacked, each adding something to the array of correct fabrics for fall suit, coat, cape or dress. From these we offer three phenomenal values:
2,000 yards Black and White Tailor Suiting, 39c. Worsted finish; warranted to tailor well, at per yard .39
52-inch English Wide Wale Suiting. A splendid range of shades, including navy and black; the best offer of the season; 52 inches wide; soap-shrunk and spot-proof. Tuesday, per yard .59
Black Chiffon Broadcloth, $1.10. A lovely, high-finished cloth; 52 inches wide; soap-shrunk, and warranted unspottable. Tuesday, yard, 1.10

OUR VELVET DEPARTMENT.
The stocks collected for our opening promise a big season for this section. There are pile fabrics of all kinds, from the plain velveteens at 50c to the high-grade novelties running into dollars per yard, and they were bought in such quantities that prices on many lines are even lower than last season.
Chiffon Finished Velveteens, guaranteed fast pile and perfect colors; complete ranges at 50c, 75c and $1.00 per yard. 44-inch velveteen, special at 2.50
Velvet Suiting Cords are favorites, with their excellent wearing qualities and deep, rich pile. Fine Terry cords, the woven, the hollow-out and the very wide wale effects. Prices 44c to $1.50 per yard.
Chiffon Velvets, for the "dresses" gown; this season's range of colorings, surpasses any yet attempted; the new pastel tones are unpacked. Prices $3.50 and $5.00 per yard.
The display of Black Velvet Brocades alone is a revelation. Moire effects, satin and velvet combinations; the new baby lamb plushes; Terry and plain velvets, chiffon, serot or Lyons pile, with new silk coating plushes, etc., etc. Coat plushes, in colors, are good, and already selling fast. A big feature of this season's trade will be the "Persian effects" and Roman stripes, plaids and "moired" velvets.

BUSINESS AS USUAL

A writer in the "London Daily Mail" suggests that the Nation's motto at the present moment should be "Business As Usual." "The Spectator" says: "That is sound common sense and true patriotism. There is not one of us who cannot without the slightest loss of health or happiness be 'speeded up' by some fifteen or twenty per cent. If we all—men, women and children—resolve to work harder and better than before, we shall very soon overtake the losses of war. They are superficial things if the spirit survives." This is the spirit of old England where almost everybody is hard hit. How much more should we in Canada, far removed from the seat of war and only indirectly feeling any effect of it, be speeded up to harder work and better work than ever. This spirit pervades the Simpson store.
