Another important development was a declaration by Secretary Corielyou that he will withdraw between now and July 10 $30,000,000 of the special deposits made last fall. This money, it was officially explained, will be used to redeem the government 4 per cent bonds still outstanding, so that ostensibly the money marketought not to be at all disturbed by the operation; however, closer study reveals that the bonds are coming in very slowly, and there is little ground for believing that the arrival of July lst will have a magical effect upon the bond holders, since they have been tardy in taking advantage of the generous terms offered come time ago. Undeniably the financial district has been to a certain extent perturbed by the rumors with reference to the stability of certain mercantile houses, notwithstanding that from the very best sources it is learned that nothing in the shape of an important failure is for a moment expected. One mischievous effect of these rumors has been to create uneasiness among bankers and investors holding mercantile paper, though the best authorities in the city are reassuring their customers that no trouble need be looked for. ### TECHNICAL TRAINING

Rev. Mr. Dockrill of Moncton advocates a technical course of training in the high school of that city. In connection with technical education and illustrative of its value to a young man, the New York Evening Post says:-

"That there has been so much difficulty in getting a president for the Massachusetts Institute of Technology really illustific training in America. President Eliot remarked the other day that the place had been offered first to a professor of Latin, bruited, Mr. Kingsley's scruples became and, second, to a professor of Greek. The reason is obvious. Graduates of our technical reason is obvious. reason is obvious. Graduates of our technical schools are not seeking places; the places are seeking them. From Massachusetts to Michigan, the demand for such men is constant. ### EX-MAYOR SCHMITZ

Mr. Schmitz is no longer mayor of Sam Francisco. He has been deposed. Even in San Francisco it is not considered proper to have as mayor a gentleman who is in jail. Perhaps the most caustic comment on the newspapers, he "has a thorough grasp of all phases of the life insurance business." His watchwords are "safety and other properties of the life insurance business." Mr. Schmitz is no longer mayor of Sam the career of this man that has yet been economy printed is the following from the New The first use made by John McCall's York Evening Post:-

"Japanese will take a certain satisfaction in the conviction of Mayor Schmitz of San Francisco. Upon McCall's death, the aged Alexander Orr was made president of the New York Life, as a respectable figurehead. He knew nothing of the insurance business, and did not present to the widow and family of an old employe who died in poverty and upon whom the new "conomy" had cut very deeply. gal evidence, what was long known with moral certainty, that this man who was received at the White House as a negotiator in affairs of international moment, a shorter cut than the old man ever was all the while nothing but a vulgar dreamed of. was all the while nothing but a value of the grafter. His anti-Japanese heroics were not even a decent mask for his criminal not even a decent mask for his criminal interests of the policyholders. There are activities. While shouting about saving San Francisco from immoral foreigners, gard to the business part of the proposihe was prostituting his office, violating the penal code, and pillaging the municipality. Now that he is caught, we can all see that his stealings were as incautious as they were unscrupulous, and that it was the easiest thing in the world for a skilled prosecutor to trap him. His power was built up on race prejudice, labor-union tyranny and corruption, the greed of corporations, and the supineness of the citizens in about equal proportions.

CROP PROSPECTS

(Kentville Advertiser.) The crops throughout the country are looking fairly well considering the season that we have been having. The grass and grain bids fair to be good, and although a little late perhaps, still looks strong and sturdy. Apple trees of early varieties are apparently full of strong buds ready to blossom, and without some unforeseen cir sumstances takes place, must be an ab-undant yield. The later kinds are not so certain, probably for the reason that they are later, and of course the buds not so apparent. They may come all right yet looking not badly. Potatoes, etc., are not in most instances above the ground yet and may be affected more or less by the cold and backward weather. Strawber ries are reported to have the prospect of an abundant crop. GOOD FOR THE PRINTER. San Francisco's Mayor Was Ousted From His Office Yesterday Afternoon.

San Francisco, June 17—Mayor Schmitz was formally removed from office by the supervisors at their meeting this afternoon. Supervisor James Gallagher was named as acting mayor in his place.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, al ways. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves". Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by all Druggists.

The Herald, of Newcastle (Pa.), June 14, contains a flattering reference to the piano playing of Mrs. J. M. Barnes, of this city, at the June recital of the Wednesday Morning Musical Club, in the First Baptist church there. The Herald says: LONDON, June 14—There were many Americans among the guests at the state ball given by the King and Queen at Buckingham Palace. Of the 2,000 persons invited few were non-acceptances.

The Prince and Princess of Wales and various members of the royal family arrived at the garden entrance, where the state procession was formed.

The King and Queen, accompanied by their royal guests, King Frederick and Queen Louise, and escorted by the great officers of state and the members of their various suites, proceeded to the ball room through the buff and blue drawing rooms and state dining room. Taking their places on the royal dais, the quadrille dronneur, in which the King of England

Usual Large Crowds Attend Monday Performance at the

The usual large and thoroughly satisfied Monday crowds saw the Nickel's new pictures yesterday afternoon and evening, and it is safe to assume the advertisement thus sent broadcast in hundreds of families will fill the big playhouse the remainder of the run of the programme. Though the 12 o'clock performance started out in the four sets of pictures the succeeding shows had only the usual three, as the management decided to withdraw the Magic Hen film, which was considered a trifle too advanced for youthful patrons. This act proved the policy of the house, which calls for the purest and least suggestive form of entertainment, and will doubtless be appreciated by the hundreds of parents who send their little ones to each week's

WHEN THE LINES MIX.

DANIEL RYAN AT THE OPERA HOUSE

Daniel Ryan, supported by a large and his work bears the impress of great his capable company opened an engagement trionic ability and a clear, discriminating at the Opera House last night, presenting judgment. His changes from one char-capable company opened an engagement at the Opera House last night, presenting The Vagabond King, a romantic comedy, as the opening production.

The Vagabond King is new to St. John. Its first act runs along lines similar to the Prisoner of Zenda. There are the same plotting ministers, the weak, unpopular king, and the man who looks like him, but at the close of the first act the stories dalong rather original lines. The story is an interesting one, and the play was much to the liking of the large audience.

Briefly told, Hector, the reigning King of Kahnburg, is not the king. The rightful sovereign was kidnapped when a child and when the play opens appears upon the scene as a vagabond newspaper correspondent named Gustave Venner. His surprising likeness to the king, who is objectionable in more ways than one, suggests to the large audience, and the play was well mounted with every and will and the demandationable in more ways than one, suggests to the large audience and the play was well mounted with every large and the large audience and the play opens appears upon the large audience.

The Vagabond King is finished quick, and he was heartily received throughout.

Miss Phyllis Gilmore created a pleasing impression as Olivia. She is a very capable actress, with a delightful speaking voice and an admirable stage presence.

Miss Phyllis Gilmore created a pleasing impression as Olivia. She dent named Gustave Venner. His surprising likeness to the king, who is objectionable in more ways than one, suggests to an intriguing prime minister that he be substituted. The deed is accomplished and the deposed king sent to a mad house. After assuming his new role, Venner learns his real birth and falls in love with Olivia, Princess of Baronia, who, by contract, is to wed the King of Kahnburg whoever he may be, and is at the court in disguise to see for herself what manner of man the king is. In the end the deposed king, who has escaped from his captors, is killed after a futile attempt to dispose of his rival, and all ends happily.

Mr. Ryan, in the dual roles of Venner and King Hector, gave an excellent delineation of the character and showed much versatility in his conception of the two men, who are physical counterparts, but

A.'s and the St. Peter's teams in the Society League series and were will pleased with the game which both sides pur up. Umptre James Wales did his part to the satisfaction of all, although some of his decisions were very close.

The St. Peter's seem to be the better at the bat, Small doing the best work for his side in this respect. In the fourth innings they rounded up six scores. The pitcher and catcher of both teams did their work in good style and the St. Peter's twirler was better aupported in the field. J. McDermott and Riley, for the F. M. A., did well, while the base running of Small was a feature of the formulation of the state of the state of the same of Gravesend about four weeks ago. A flock of 19 yellow striped balloons set adrift to commemorate that memorable defeat of the Giants by Chicago at the Polo grounds last year by a score of 19 to 0. Immense fog horns that worked automatically and emitted dreadful noises every time a Giant got on base.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12—An athletic meet was held last week by inmates of the Overbrook School for the Blind. These, all totally blind, began a contest for supremacy with the Baltimore School for the Blind. In the fast races an information of the circular scheme was put in force to prevent collisions and to avoid running off the track. For the full length of the circular path a wire was strung on each side. On this was a sliding grip or handle. The runner grasped this handle and so could put forth all his speed without other thought. The baseball was thrown 195 feet, the hammer 76 feet and the shot was put over 30 feet.

MIKE TWIN HEARD FROM.

Mike (Twin) Sullivan, writing to friend here from Cambridge, Mass., says he is feeling first rate, in fact just like a champion. Jack "Twin" and he are booked to box in Bangor on June 28, and they would like to come to St. John and give a bout on July 1 (Dominion Day). Mike says he would take on Dan Littlejohn and Beth McLeod for six rounds each and Jack Twin will take on any one or two for a work out.
