SAYS SCOTT MAY HAVE BEATEN HIM TO POLE

Amundsen Says Possible But Unlikely

NORWEGIAN GOOD SPORT

New Species of Bird Seen Near Coal — How Norway's Explorer Made Such Good Time — Did Not Suffer Much Hardship

(Published by permission of the morning paper section of the Canadian Press Limited.)

New York, March 11.—A London cable to the Tribune this morning says:—"Captain Amundsen admits that it is quite possible that Captain Robert Scott, reached the South Pole before him and left some substantial memorial which was afterward swept away by storms. On the whole, however, he considers this very unlikely, as calm weather prevailed all the time he was there. Like the good sportsman he is, however, Amundsen hopes that Scott has been successful also.

"The explorer and his party, it appears, had much difficulty in breathing at times during the latter stages of their journey, but otherwise they had no real hardships to endure. Amundsen gives full credit to his comrades and to his dogs, and says that his success was largely due to their magnificent work. The most interesting biological statement Amundsen makes is that the King Edward Land party reported seeing a bird of a new species. Scientific men will eagerly await his full statement as to what bird it was like.

"Sir Ernest Shackleton is surprised that Amundsen should report calm weather prevailed at the pole. This was quite different from what he experienced. Shackleton still thinks it possible that the British expedition may have reached the goal before the Norwegian. Amundsen allows that the season was very favorable, and there is every chance of Scott having completed his mission under the same good conditions that he himself had.

"Amundsen points out that his remarkable speed was attained by marching six hours and then spending two hours feeding his dogs and feeding, then six hours rest, and then another march. Amundsen is it is evident that he must have been driving the dogs and that the men were not engaged in hauling their sledges themselves, and in this he was fortunate. Amundsen was also fortunate in being able to take sufficient provisions throughout the journey, so that he and his comrades were not seriously inconvenienced.

"Shackleton evidently thinks Amundsen very lucky. Nansen pays a tribute to the courage, endurance, and manly power of his fellow countryman.

DEATH OF THOMPSON KELLER

Ambler, N. S., March 11.—(Special)—The death of Thompson Keller occurred at his home, Ambler Point, yesterday. He was seventy-three years old, and is survived by his wife, who was Miss Watson, of Point De Bute, and Mrs. Anderson of the Diji Islands. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon from the home of Stanley A. Logan. Mr. Keller was one of the oldest members of the First Baptist church of Ambler, and was highly respected in the community.

THINK THERE WAS FOUL PLAY

Hamilton, Ont., March 11.—In the death of John Quigley, a laborer, aged twenty-seven years, whose body was found in a locked outhouse at 201 Wellington street, North, on Sunday, the police suspect foul play. There was a large bruise on his arm, and the skin was scraped.

THE RACE TO GET FARTHEST SOUTH

This map shows the route taken by Sir Ernest Shackleton when he came so near winning the laurel of being the first man to reach the south pole. In the main the same route was taken by Captain Scott, R. N., who was formerly with Shackleton, and by Captain Amundsen the Norwegian. Explorers will soon be regretting that there are "no more worlds to conquer."

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS OF INTEREST; READY TO TAKE OVER GREEN HEAD PROPERTY

The deed for the Greenhead property which is being transferred by the city to R. Max McCarty for use as the site of the new cement plant is being brought over and Mr. McCarty is prepared to take it over and pay in return the $25,000 balance on the purchase price. It is understood that the plan for the new industry is going ahead very satisfactorily and that it is expected that operations will be commenced early in the spring.

Among the real estate transfers announced today is the purchase of seven lots at Grandview by The Lauriston Co., Ltd. The lots, it is said, were secured at a very reasonable price. J. A. Stanton has secured an option on the property known as Dufferin Terrace, in Dufferin Row, West End, including two freehold lots and a dwelling house.

Rev. W. H. Ferguson of Portland, Me., has purchased the Peter Campbell farm at Hampton street. Mr. Ferguson's health has not been good and he is turning his attention to life to recuperate. He is very well known in this part of the province, having been for four years in Apolago, five years in Margerville, two and a half years in Salisbury, and two years at his last assignment in Portland before entering the ministry he resided in this city and was employed with the Massey Harris Company.

Peter Campbell, who sold his farm at Hampton to Mr. Ferguson, has purchased a dwelling with about four acres of land from Mr. Stewart at Lakeside and will reside there.

The work of remodeling the Dearborn building in Prince William street for use as offices was commenced this morning. The ground floor and the first floor above will be fitted up immediately and other floors may be rented as the demand requires.

FREDERICTON HAVING BUSY ELECTION DAY

Fredericton, N. B., March 11.—(Special)—The hottest civic battle which Fredericton has experienced in several years is taking place today under favorable weather conditions. Al W. S. Hooper and W. J. Osborne are candidates for the mayoralty and there are eighteen candidates for the ten aldermanic seats. Both sides are well organized at the polls, and a big vote is being got out. There is considerable cross firing, and it is scarcely likely that either side will elect its full ticket.

STORM MADE TRAIN EIGHT HOURS LATE

The snowstorm in this city yesterday was quite severe, but east of Moncton it raged more fiercely and the service on the G. N. R. was impeded by the heavy block-ice. In the Folegh mountain section trains were held up for several hours. No report was received from an immigrant special which was detained between Folegh and Londonderry for at least five hours and other immigrant trains passing from Halifax had similar experiences, giving their passengers a genuine touch of a thorough Canadian snow storm. The Halifax express due in St. John at 6.20 a. m. was eight hours and ten minutes late and did not reach here until about two thirty this afternoon. The maritime was reported on time as it was not interfered with by the storm, which was most severely felt east of Moncton. The Montreal was fifty minutes behind and the Boston twenty.

KING GEORGE HAS PATENT FOR SAVING RANGE OF HIS OWN DEVICES

New York, March 11.—A special cable to the World from Berlin says: "King George of England has taken out a patent through the German crown prince, his cousin, for a coal saving range, which His Majesty is said to have perfected during the long winter in the highlands of the north and elsewhere following his father's death.

The crown prince suggested that he take out a patent in Germany for King George, who originally, as it is said, had no intention of going through with his idea. The range has two rows and is so built that by pulling a lever the contents of one side, including the fire, may be shifted across, thus saving time and coal.

ERIN STREET CASE IS HEARD IN COURT

New York, March 11.—A world-wide strike of coal miners is regarded by the coal trade as more than a likelihood, if the present negotiations now in progress between the anthracite and bituminous workers, and their employers in this country do not result in a settlement of working conditions.

With more than a million coal miners on strike in Great Britain and 150,000 miners in Germany waiting to quit work, to force higher wages, a severe coal shortage in Europe is feared. The anthracite coal workers will draft their reply to the hard coal workers here today for presentation to the miners on Wednesday, next.

In the police court today Lydia Brandy, colored, was charged with leaving a heavy liquor without a license. The defendant pleaded not guilty. Ada Jackson, Eva Harris, John Jackson, Bradford Mason and James Lauchner, all colored, were charged with being inmates of the house. All pleaded not guilty.

The charge of selling liquor was the first taken up. Harry Barry, a white man, was held to the house between ten and eleven o'clock on Saturday night. He took a drink of the house he was arrested on drunkenness charge. He had been to the house on several occasions.

GIRL AVIATOR KILLED

Nineteen Year Old Suzanne Bernard was Undergoing Examination for Pilot's License

Mumps, France, March 11.—A woman aviator, Suzanne Bernard, was killed yesterday while undergoing examination for a pilot's license. She was only nineteen years old.

She had successfully passed most of the tests, and contrary to the advice of the examining officials, attempted a sharp turn in the air. The machine was caught by the end of the cable and it fell 200 feet and the woman was crushed beneath the motor.

NEW PRESIDENT WILL NOT HAVE THE SUPREME POWER

Nanking, China, March 11.—The constitution of the new Republic of China, as finally approved today, places the supreme power in the hands of the national assembly. A notable feature is that all the acts of the president require the approval of the assembly and this body also has complete control of the cabinet. The assembly elects the president and vice-president and may pass any law over the executive's veto.

Dr. Sun Yat Sen will turn over the great seal of the presidential office to Tang Shao Yi, Yuan's personal representative, as soon as the details of launching the constitutional government can be accomplished. Pending this Dr. Sun continues to hold office as actual acting president.

Yuan Shi Kai privately took the oath of office as president on Friday, after which the assembly notified him of his acceptance of Tang Shao Yi as premier. Sun Yat Sen, the ex-president, appears to have waived of the strain during the last two months. He says that when the cabinet is appointed he will retire to his old home at Kwangtung in rest.

Fred Hill, son of Thomas S. Hill, of the Centennial School, who has been dangerously ill of pneumonia, is now much improved in health.

OUTLOOK THOUGHT OMINOUS

World-Wide Strike of Coal Miners Regarded as Possibility by Men in the Trade in The States

New York, March 11.—A world-wide strike of coal miners is regarded by the coal trade as more than a likelihood, if the present negotiations now in progress between the anthracite and bituminous workers, and their employers in this country do not result in a settlement of working conditions.

With more than a million coal miners on strike in Great Britain and 150,000 miners in Germany waiting to quit work, to force higher wages, a severe coal shortage in Europe is feared. The anthracite coal workers will draft their reply to the hard coal workers here today for presentation to the miners on Wednesday, next.

In the police court today Lydia Brandy, colored, was charged with leaving a heavy liquor without a license. The defendant pleaded not guilty. Ada Jackson, Eva Harris, John Jackson, Bradford Mason and James Lauchner, all colored, were charged with being inmates of the house. All pleaded not guilty.

The charge of selling liquor was the first taken up. Harry Barry, a white man, was held to the house between ten and eleven o'clock on Saturday night. He took a drink of the house he was arrested on drunkenness charge. He had been to the house on several occasions.

ANOTHER STRIKE IS STARTED

Westphalian Miners Are Out, 175,000 Obey Call—One Day Strike in France as Display of Power

Berlin, March 11.—The coal strike went into effect in the Westphalian coal mines today, when about half the 200,000 miners employed there obeyed the call of their leaders to cease work. According to reports from the mines, the first strike to descend the pits this morning were considerably affected but the results were varied in the different mines. In some districts, the cessation of work was practically complete while in others only from 15 to 20 per cent. of the men struck.

Large forces of police are on duty everywhere throughout the region, but the strikers generally have kept quiet, and only two isolated attacks on non-strikers have been reported.

The conflict is quite as much a struggle between the leaders of the rival socialist and non-socialist organizations as between mine owners and employees. The leaders of the socialist Christian union are so far holding their followers well in hand.

The success of the strike will depend upon how far the feeling of solidarity with their striking comrades of the socialist miners' union is carried, while the fear of reprisals for strike breaking will cause many breaks in the ranks of those who have hitherto not struck work.

Public opinion in the Westphalian district, which was with the miners during the last great strike, is now reported to be largely against the strike.

The stock exchange took a favorable view of the situation today, coal stocks being firm. The effect of the strike is not yet noticeable on industry in general, nor on the prices of the necessities of life.

Situation is Not Improved As Week Opens

RAILROADS CUT SERVICES

London Shopkeepers Send Up Prices of Food—One District Reports Starvation — Some Hope From Conferences—Canadian Coal to England

(Canadian Press)

New York, March 11.—A London cable this morning says:—"The beginning of the new week sees the coal strike no nearer settlement. Optimists expect much from this week's conferences, but the overwhelming opinion is that the South Wales strike will continue another month. The miners of Northumberland and Derbyshire are still determined to give in to nothing less than the minimum wage.

"Meanwhile the industrial upheaval grows from bad to worse. The prominent railroads are further reducing their services this week. Trains in the rural districts of Northumberland and Cumberland have ceased running. Railroads from the east, west and the northeast are almost stopped. Half the staff is suspended, and the other half working only three days a week.

"In the Mold district families are starving, looting has begun, and the stealing of tame pigeons and raids on potato pits are common.

"London storekeepers will further increase the price of bread, butter and all foodstuffs today. A mass meeting of the unemployed is to take place at Trafalgar Square yesterday was prohibited by the police.

U. S. Miners to Canada

Pottsville, Pa., March 11.—Agents who are said to represent British interests are traveling through the southern anthracite section offering big wages to miners to accept employment in Canadian mines, the output of which is to be sent to England, where a shortage of coal is expected for half a year after the miners' strike is broken. Because of the likelihood of a strike in this section next month, many miners declare they will accept the offer.

For the rapidly dwindling stock of coal on hand in North Wales and advance in price of from 75 to 100 per cent. has necessitated the closing of practically every factory and quarry in that part of the country. In other portions of the United Kingdom, conditions are almost as bad.

The shipments of coal from the ports of South Wales last week, amounted only to 30,000 tons compared with the usual total of 600,000 tons a week. Two of the largest paper mills in the Midlands countries stopped working today, and all their employees were discharged. From every other point throughout the country, reports are reaching London that work is being stopped.

The presence of traffic on the street cars and omnibuses in London, as a result of the restriction of the suburban transit service has become so great that the authorities have given permission to the people to stand up in the vehicles, the rule against which is, in normal times, rigidly enforced.

INDIANS WANT HALF MILLION AND INTEREST

Will Make Another Call on Dominion Government — Ask Votes in Ontario

Brantford, Ont., March 11.—The six nation Indians have decided to make another effort to secure from the dominion government the principal and interest of the $500,000 which they invested in the Grand River Navigation Company in the early part of the nineteenth century.

The chiefs in council will also visit the government to protest against the expropriation of the reserve lands on the grounds that the Indians were the allies of the British crown.

A petition is also in circulation on the reserve asking that the Ontario government grant the franchise to them again.

MUST LIST THE STOCKS

New York, March 11.—Unless the so-called subsidiaries of the dissolved Standard Oil and American Tobacco companies make application to have their stocks quoted upon the official list of the New York Curb Market Association and comply with its rules within a reasonable time, quotations of the shares on the list will be discontinued, according to an announcement made here.

Transfer of the stocks are now made only at the home offices of the companies in different parts of the United States, it is said, and "none of the usual safeguards against overissue or mistake in certificates have been provided."

The announcement states that objection to having the stocks listed has been made by two or three houses which have made a specialty of trading over the counter in these securities and desire to control the market in their own offices, "but that in view of the recent active market for the securities, listing becomes necessary if trading is to continue."

Rev. W. G. Larr of Moncton, was the speaker at Queen square Methodist church last evening, and was heard by a large and interested congregation.

The Mexican situation remains good. Talk of a p. c. on Amalgamated and directors meet in April. It has been fairly well discounted. Fears of tariff revision have passed away. It is figured that it will be two years before any tariff enactment can take effect. It is considered that the stock market has shown ability of late to stand by its own strength, but after all the trading in it is comparatively narrow. The pools are busy, but it is doubtful if they are able to buy many stocks. Look for an irregular market today. It will require constant buying to keep the pace up, but if that develops the market can do better. SHERMAN, HAMILLE & CO.

THE NEW CITY COUNCIL

Now that the immigration congress is over, and the question of town-planning has been brought to the point where legislation is to be secured, and the new city charter has also gone to the legislature, it is time those interested in the city's welfare gave some attention to the question of securing candidates for the new city council of five members.

Mr. Bourassa has openly denounced the new system of city government. The commission plan will be on trial. Its supporters believe that with the principle of direct responsibility it will yield better results, even with weak men in office, than has been possible under the existing system.

The hounds of the sea are baying On the trail, o'er the new moon's tide. Their lips are foam and spraying, And the winds behind them ride.

The winter has left them riven, And the winds have sped them hard, But away from her bows they are driven, She scatters them, undimmed, For her beams are not wrought of cedar That crushed in their teeth of yore.

PEOPLE YOU'VE HEARD OF BEFORE

William J. Burns, the sleuth who ran down the McNamara, is one of the best and whitest after-dinner speakers in America. Representative James Francis Burke, who is now a wealthy lawyer of Pittsburg, and the Republican "whip" in the national house, started out in life as a poor boy. His greatest sorrow in childhood was that, when his school-fellows amused themselves at recess by floating their shoes on a pond, his footwear was so full of holes that he could not take part in the sport.

Thomas C. Noyes, president of the Washington baseball club, cannot think unless he has his feet higher than his head. Habitually he sits on his shoulder blades—which is hard on the set of his coat.

Ormsby MacHarg, who used to be in the government service and now dips into politics, has silvery gray hair and thick black eyebrows, making him look like a poet or a minister of the gospel—all of which, in the language of Colonel Graham B. Nichol, "he ain't."

The profession of medicine has furnished some of the biggest army officers now in the service of Uncle Sam. General Leonard Wood, the chief of staff, and Adjutant-General Ainsworth are both surgeons.

Twenty-seven women are employed in the lighthouse service of this country, and of this number thirteen have absolute charge of the great lights which save human lives and millions of dollars worth of property.

John R. McLean, owner of the Washington Post and the Cincinnati Enquirer, is a collector of rare tapestries, and thinks nothing of sending an agent from Washington to an old castle in Europe to pick up a dingy piece of work two yards square.

One of his representatives not long ago became extremely indignant because he could not buy at any price a mantle-piece in the famous Barney Castle, of Ireland.

President Taft's favorite dish is beef steak. All this talk about his liking opossum and other fine dishes is nothing but stuff and nonsense. He eats more beef steak than any man in this country.

Major Frederick R. Burnham, the famous scout and explorer, is a small man with a face that looks as mild and harmless as a child's. He now lives a peaceful life on a ranch in California, but it was not so many years ago that he was commissioned to capture or kill the Matabele "god" Umlimo, in the mountains of South Africa. He was the first white man who ever entered that cave and he killed the god.—Women's World for March.

ANOTHER NATIONAL HIGHWAY

France is to Open up Beautiful Corner to Motorists

AN APACHE SCARE

It Proved But a Drama But Looked Serious—Horseflesh Eaten By Paris Invalids—News Letter From French Capital

(Times' Special Correspondence) Paris, Feb. 20—Those motorists who have enjoyed the splendidly engineered and well-kept "national roads" of France will be glad to hear that the minister of public works intends to add another to their number, one which will open up one of the most beautiful corners of France. The road through and along the French Alps of Savoy, running approximately north and south between the Lake of Geneva at Thonon and Evian to the Mediterranean at Nice.

Planned by the energetic Touring Club de France, it was put into operation two years ago, and last summer the Paris-Lyon and Mediterranean Railway Company ran motor car services over the greater part of it. The success of this service was so great and the prospective utility of the road so clearly shown that it was decided to bring it to the highest level, if possible, and make it the rival of mountain roads in Dolomites and elsewhere. For a length of 400 miles and with a pass of 7700 metres to surmount—the Col de la Serraz—it was evident that the cost would be great. But the touring club came forward with $87,000 and different departments interested subscribed so that the fifth of the cost is already assured. The minister of public works has already put in a demand for parliament to vote the remaining four-fifths, representing $800,000.

It is no longer fashionable to penetrate to the haunts of the Apache; you invite him to your house—not the real article, of course, but the society make-believe. Apache dinners and Apache dances have become the vogue. But Apacheism has gone further than that. When Monsieur and Madame B. were invited to a dinner at home from the theatre the other evening they were astonished to find the main door wide open and the concert band gaged in his lodge, a maid-servant in a similar plight on the first floor, and the most disorder.

As they proceeded with their investigations—which is hard on the set of his coat, of course, but the society make-believe. Apache dinners and Apache dances have become the vogue. But Apacheism has gone further than that. When Monsieur and Madame B. were invited to a dinner at home from the theatre the other evening they were astonished to find the main door wide open and the concert band gaged in his lodge, a maid-servant in a similar plight on the first floor, and the most disorder.

Horseflesh for Invalids. Horseflesh is being largely eaten now in Paris by invalids, who have been ordered by their medical attendants. Many French doctors hold that horse-meat is more nourishing, easier to digest, and of greater recuperative value for consumption than other meats. The "aperitif" cure for tuberculous patients is nearly always based on a diet of horse, in most cases minced very fine and eaten raw.

The secretary of the Horse Butcher's Association in the great horse market in the Vaugirard quarter of Paris declared that each horse is carefully examined and is rejected at once at the least sign of disease or even of age, which would make it undesirable for human food. "The animals we kill," he said, "are perfectly healthy," and he pointed out some fine-looking white Wallon horses.

One of the best measures that could be taken in view of the dear food agitation," he said, "would be to suppress the high import tax on horses destined to be slaughtered. Let us import horses from England. The horse butchers would be glad of another 100,000 horses a year. A rib of beef in Paris costs forty-five cents a pound, and a similar portion of horse twenty-two cents.

A correspondent, writing to the "Echo de Paris," says that his wife, who is twenty-one has a little daughter of eighteen months. The baby's grandmother is forty-five, and this lady's mother is seventy-four, and her grandmother ninety-five. These five generations are all Paris born and bred, except the junior sprig, who saw the light in the suburbs.

From Libourne, however, another correspondent hastens to inform the world that a baby girl has just been born to him by his sixteen-year-old wife. The following is the ascendant family tree in the feminine line of this newcomer into the world: Grandmother thirty-three, great-grandmother fifty-three, great-great-grandmother seventy-one and great-great-great-grandmother, eighty-eight, while the mother of this last old lady died at the age of 115 last November—just four months too soon to allow of her being one of the greatest of all great-great-grandmothers.

U. S. Surya Prakash Rao, writing in the "Hindu Spiritual Magazine," says that the impossible becomes possible to the man who has practised steady gaze. A French savant, he asserts, was able to kill small birds by steadily looking at them. But the most striking story is that of an opera singer named Massol, who, under the second empire, was a great favorite with the public. Although he was a man of small intellect, he had a wonderful voice and an eye which slew. One of his greatest successes was his rendering of the "Cure" in an opera called "King Charles VI."

During the singing of this aria, his eye fell accidentally upon any one in the audience or on the stage, that person died. After he had killed a scene shifter, the leader of the orchestra, and an unfortunate merchant from Marseilles, the opera was excluded from the repertoire. The writer of the article says the science and practice of "the gaze" are known among the Hindus as "Trataka Yoga." The practice of the gaze gives you whatever you can desire.

Her Memory Gone. From Marseilles comes an extraordinary story of the adventure of a lady who seems to have entirely lost her memory, as she can neither give her name nor say where she comes from. She says she is the widow of an English earl. The other night, a prey to intense terror, she called at one of the police offices and implored protection from miscreants, who, as she asserted, were pursuing her; but every attempt to question her proved vain, as she could not furnish any definite particulars about herself.

Announcing Spring Modes 1912 in Ladies' Costumes and Coats

Opening of Chic New Models Representing the Leading Efforts of London, Paris and New York Designers—An Exhibit Truly Representative of The World's Best Fashion Thoughts

Whatever Dame Fashion has smiled upon approvingly for the Spring and Summer of 1912 is shown in our comprehensive display of the season's modes.

In all our models will be found that note of distinction which has always characterized M. R. A. garments and commended them to persons of discriminating tastes.

The large Coat Collars have disappeared and small ones take their place. The mannish revers and collars are also in evidence. The shawl collar remains and is seen in many novel effects. Self collars and cuffs are found in plainer garments but in the more dressy ones, there are collars, revers and cuffs of satin, pique, repp, laces, etc.

Cutaway effects in Suit Jackets as well as Coats are brought out in effects which are very attractive. The Set-in sleeve plays an important part in this season's models.

The Suit Skirt continues narrow although there has been a decided effort to make it fuller. The fancy or more dressy models show some form of pleated styles; pleats stitched down and used more as a trimming idea than to widen the skirts.

Tunics and Tunic effects are shown. The wide flap is another trimming thought and appears on some of the smartest models.

This is the most elaborate display of Costumes and Coats we have ever made and it is impossible to describe fully the handsome garments awaiting your inspection.

SCENES IN BRITISH COAL STRIKE

opera was excluded from the repertoire. The writer of the article says the science and practice of "the gaze" are known among the Hindus as "Trataka Yoga." The practice of the gaze gives you whatever you can desire.

THE BEAM AND THE MOTE. The man from Punxsutawney and the man from Kokomo. Discussed the Chinese troubles, and the first said, "Don't you know, I think these Chinese names are queer enough to stop a clock." "That's right!" replied another man from fair Caucomogoc.

The man from Kokomo observed, "By gin-gel! that's a fact! That's what my brother says—he lives down here in Hackensack." And still another stranger said the man's comment was true; And added, with a smile of pride, "My home's in Kal'mazoo."

Another man took up the strain, "Now, down Skowhegan way And up at Ypsilanti we speak it every day. The names are all uncivilized and heathen in their ring, That's what I told my uncle yesterday in Ishpeming." "Hohokus is my native town," another stranger said; "And I think all these Chinese names the worst I ever read." "Quite true," agreed a quiet man; "they're certainly uncanny. That's what my neighbors all assert in Tail Holt, Indiana." —Baltimore American.

Removal

Bell's Piano Store WILL BE REMOVED From King Street To 86 Germain Street (Opp. Church Street.) The Song That Touched His Heart A couple of sailors, just returned after a long voyage, strolled into the parlor of a public house. Above the rumble of traffic in the street could be heard a wailing and unmelancholy voice. After listening for a moment one of the sailors turned to his companion and said: "Eh, Jack, lad, it's a long time since we heard that song." "What song?" "The one that fellow's singing in the street—'The Light of Other Days.'" "Stow it!" ejaculated the other, gruffly. "That fellow ain't singing 'The Light of Other Days' at all. I've been listening to him; he's piping 'The Banks of Allan Water'." Each sailor was certain that he was right, and, with characteristic contempt for money, a wager was made—a month's pay depended upon the result. "Here, Tommy," called out one of the men to the little son of the landlord, "run out and get to know what that fellow is singing." Tommy departed on his errand, which did not take many minutes. "Well," demanded Jack, "which of us is right?" "Naythar," replied Tommy, grinning; "the fellow's not singing at all; he's hawking herrings!" Statistics show that since the coat-of-whisky in England was raised in 1909 the prosecutions for drunkenness and disorders have shown an enormous decrease.

Why is Centreville-Grand Falls Section Left Out—Mr. Bentley Was Misrepresented—The Debate Goes on

Fredericton, March 8.—J. Fletcher Tweeddale, of Victoria county, gave his neighbor, Premier Fleming, from Carleton county, a very uneasy hour in the assembly chamber last night.

The real inside facts of the Blue Bell track and all of the operations upon it may never be known, because those who were interested, with friends at Carleton and Grand Falls, are not in the city.

Want Road to Grand Falls. Those that address is made doubly sure by a contract for the purchase of the land as well as the people north of Centreville and in Victoria county will be necessary.

No Reply to Bentley. No member of support of the government attempted to reply to the cogent reasoning of Mr. Bentley who took half an hour of the time this afternoon.

Grills Flemming. For more than an hour the member for Victoria had Premier Fleming upon the gridiron. The latter knew that Tweeddale had the facts behind him, that all the statements he made were true by the record, and he squirmed and interrupted but failed in his attempt to answer.

The power of advertising is wonderful in the selling of merchandise; but did you ever think that advertising could only sell you, for instance, one package of Tillson's Rolled Oats?

If you bought any more Tillson's after you used the first package it would be due not to the advertising but to the excellence of the oats. If the first package did not please you, you would not buy any more, no matter if you saw Tillson's advertising at every turn.

J. A. Pugsley Brings Home Good Word — St. John Men Back After Attending Auto Shows

On the Boston express arriving in the city today two first-class cars were filled with maritime province people returning after attending the automobile shows in New York and Boston, and they were well pleased with their visits. Several St. John men were included in the number, among them, Maurice G. Cull, F. E. Jones, H. Doody, F. J. Doody, Stanley Elkin and William Johnson.

Speaking to the Times, Mr. Cull said that both shows had been very well attended by people from all parts of the states and many parts of Canada. The automobile show in Boston, he thought, was superior in many respects to that held in New York, and this was the general opinion of those who had attended both.

J. A. Pugsley, who came in on the Montreal train, brought back some good news in the definite announcement that he expected work to be started soon after the snow left the ground on the excavating necessary for the new automobile factory at Coldbrook, on land secured from the Coldbrook Realty Co., and on what was formerly known as the Gilbert property.

Mr. Pugsley said he had interested some outside capitalists in the project and they would give hearty support and co-operation. The expectation was that the company would be turning out cars for 1913. Indications were that the contract would be quite large. While in Boston he had a talk with Frank McClasky, a former St. John boy, who is now general manager there for the company manufacturing in the states the style of cars proposed to be made here. Mr. Pugsley was very enthusiastic over the reception accorded him by those to whom he put the proposition.

Fire yesterday afternoon at Fredericton Junction did considerable damage to some outlying buildings on the property of Councilor David Mersereau, superintendent of construction for the C. P. R. there. The loss is estimated at about $1,000. It is not known from what source the fire started. It broke out about two o'clock and gathered much headway before being noticed. Mr. Mersereau and neighbors endeavored to extinguish the flames but met with little success. He managed to save nothing and his loss includes barns, some sheds, and a large stock of provisions.

King Square Loafing Cases Ended in the Police Court

Penalty of $100 Permissible, Says His Honor in Announcing Decision—Practice Must Not Go On

"According to the dominion law, every person who loiters around the street corners or on the streets in an idle, disorderly person, and is considered in the eyes of the law as a vagrant, liable to six months in jail without a fine. The law or two months enforced strictly of late but this corner loafing must stop. Why, I could name you several corners in this city where the men charged with loitering at least three or four, lazy loafers hanging around waiting for someone to come along and buy them a drink. There is a law in force which enables the mayor, recorder, the aldermen and other people holding city positions to move people off the corners if they see them obstructing the street."

In these words Magistrate Ritchie today addressed the nine men charged with loitering in the north side of King Square. The court room was packed to the doors with interested spectators and standing room was at a premium. The first witness called was James Langby, who conducts a restaurant on the north side of King Square. He said that ever since he moved there he had noticed men hanging around the corner every day.

Constable McBratney also swore that he saw men hanging around Breeze's corner every night, and saw some of the men in court quite frequently. In answer to Mr. Barry the witness said that for the last long years he was in the habit of seeing men there.

Patrick Mooney, contractor, said that he was often in the habit of going to the square when he wanted to employ workmen. He had often met Mr. McCullough to do that. Each of you will be fined $8 to do that. I will allow the fine to stand against you. The men reported were James Fleming, Patrick McCullough, Leo Dineen, Benjamin Fish, James Eiley, Charles Baird, William Morrison, William Bywater and James Alexander. In the case of Fish, the court commented on him being a habitual frequenter of Breeze's corner, but that he had better stay away from there in the future. "I was tempted to send you into jail for two months, but it would not do to make fish of one and flesh of the other. I will allow you to go also." The deposits put up by each of the men were returned.

Tender in Connection With Courtenay Bay Works Made Inspection on Saturday

The site of the breakwater, dry dock and other works which are to be constructed at Courtenay Bay under the Norton Griffiths contract, was inspected on Saturday by Thomas Conzolino, president of the Nova Scotia Construction Co., Ltd. Mr. Conzolino arrived here on Saturday from Sydney, where the company's head office is, and his inspection was made in connection with a tender by the company for various portions of the extensive works. Mr. Conzolino left on Sunday night for Montreal on a visit relative to the same business.

The Nova Scotia Construction Co., has been handling some large contracts including large works for the Dominion Steel Company in Cape Breton, where they still have a force of men at work. They are also, at present, engaged in constructing No. 2 pier and shed in Halifax harbor. Mr. Conzolino expects to be in St. John again in the course of a few days.

SAY TO DROP THE N. B.

Idea is That St. John Does Not Need the Province Initials

There is a move on foot among those who are interested in advertising the city to make it known simply as St. John without the N. B. It is argued that other Canadian cities such as Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and others are recognized by their names without adding the province in which they are located and that there seems to be no reason why the same should apply to this city. There are no other cities of the same name, or at least none of sufficient prominence to cause confusion, they argue, and it is felt that St. John is well known to be recognized by its name without the N. B.

ACCIDENT
Mrs. C. E. L. Jarvis met with a painful accident last evening. As she was returning to her home after attending service in Trinity church she slipped on the ice in Charlotte street and fell, breaking her arm. She was assisted into Harry Gilbert's house, and was later taken home.
