A strike at the Labor Temple? It would be a strange thing, indeed, to have a strike at the very heart of the trades unionism? But strange things happen every day, and the fact of a strike having been made in the Temple, the ally of the Temple by one of the most important institutions of the city, is not a matter to be regarded as a surprise.

There is a great rivalry among the printers for places on the teams of the different offices. As the number of players on each team has been reduced to four men, and about twelve men are reaching out after each of these four positions, second and third teams are being formed in some of the offices and an agreement came to that the four highest scores in the inter-club competition should be the basis, and the following schedule has been approved:

The unions of Labor Temple team of the City Bowling League went down to defeat on their own alleys Thursday, the Lieberkranz B team doing the trick. The Lieberkranz was a factor all the way through. The several years' experience in the game of Lieberkranz B had against the several days' experience of some of the unions. The members of the Temple alleys in good shape for practice, the Lieberkranz hope to merit the honors that are being presented to them.

In a practice game Monday last on Labor Temple alleys, between Toronto and Union Bowling Clubs, Toronto beat Union by 3,567 to 2,949. Wilson, of the Union, rolled top score, 810, Allison of Toronto, rolled 585. Spink and Gillie of Toronto, by good, steady bowling, got together 587 and 575 respectively. Jack Hoffmann, the first time up, gathered in a tidy little 430.

In the City Bowling League junior series the Union B, last Saturday defeated the Victoria III, in a splendid exhibition of the snap-back game. The Victoria was the game almost entirely, as it was only "fiddling" on their part. The "fiddling" put up by those junior quality of football put up by those junior quality which surprised some of the wiser

The O.H.A. by its willing reference to senior league players, automatically bars all its clubs from playing for the Stanley Cup, while those players are on the cup holders' team.

The senior league "amateur" is cut out of the sporting vocabulary, the senior will have a better class of athletes—at least, a more honest class. There is only one definition for the word "amateur," and in a young country like this we cannot honestly subscribe to that definition. It practically means that a mechanic cannot be at the same time a first-class amateur and a first class athlete. How could he afford it?

The Yulcan hockey team will soon 1 on its way East in quest of the Stanley Cup, under the wing of an old hockey football-luckey favorite, in the person of "Welly" Young. "Welly" is a graduate of the old Metropolitan Lacrosse Club of Ottawa, for whom (some time ago) he played in the Ottawa Football Club he figured at quarter, but it was as a hockey player on the Ottawa that he won his way into the hearts of the sporting talent of Ottawa and Montreal. "Welly" thinks he has a winning touch with his stick, but Young has been long out of the game that he is hardly capable of judging. In the arrangements with the Yulcan Club, Ottawa insists on the Northerners retaining from meeting any club in the east until after the Stanley Cup games, which indicate that the Ottawa do not wish to endanger the gate receipts by a "show up" of the Yulcan cup chasers. Should another good thing go wrong, and the Stanley Cup be perched on the North Pole, it is likely to remain there, as the financing of the trip would not be as easy here as in the Yukon.

Seven million dollars' worth of sport in the United States this year by four of the directors of the Co-operative Wholesale Society of England, who are now here for that purpose. Among the best far stakes they have visited the various industrial centres of the country, going their various directly with the owners of all kinds of goods.

In the retail party at the Hotel Mackey, of Ottawa, William Landon, of Bolton, G. Peaslee, of the Mangles or Printing Works, and George Bell, of the Lower Crampers, Biscuit Works, Albany, they have visited New York and Chicago, in both of which cities they have placed large orders. The party is now in Montreal, where they have been joined by John Shillito, president of the society.

In retail members the business of the Co-operative Wholesale Society of England amounts to $20,000,000 a year. It employs about 14,000 persons, operates its own steamship lines and has property, factories and establishments in all parts of England, Ireland and in various other parts of the world. As a society, it buys almost the entire output of the farmers of Denmark.

The society was organized in 1863 and began business in 1864 with a capital of £2,425, the sales for the year amounting to £21,837. In 1892 the capital was £7,710,000, and the sales for that year £20,250. The society furnishes to those connected with it everything that can be used in the daily life. It does away as far as possible with the middleman, and

Co-Operative Echoes

An Italian co-operative society, the Societa' Co-operativa, has been started by workmen at Chicago, Kan. The founders are working the First National Co-operative Society their being hotel quarters.

The labor unions of Delvino, Iowa, are organizing a Home Supply Company to deal in coal, wood, flour and fuel on the co-operative plan.

The largest strike since the United States is located in Wichita, Kansas. It has been a successful operation for 20 years and has distributed to its members more than $300,000 in dividends. In Wichita is located the Farmers' Co-operative Bank, with a capital of $100,000, surplus fund of $15,000. Both of these institutions are owned and managed by members of the group. Several hundred acres of the store buildings and all the merchandise was burned, causing a loss of about $75,000. It was insured for $60,000, which was promptly paid, and with the surplus fund of $30,000, the store was rebuilt and reopened immediately.

At Chicago, Kan., there is another similar enterprise. The store occupies a stone building 40 x 100 feet in size and three stories high, with 100 well fitted and tastefully decorated grange hall on the third floor. This co-operative enterprise involves $150,000 of machinery and supplies, in addition to the building and real estate owned. The Chicago grange has about 200 members.

The farmers of Milford, Iowa, have organized a co-operative supply company.

The District Board of Auditors of the United Mine Workers recently met at Pittsburg, Kan., and voted to establish co-operative mercantile stores, with the main store at Pittsburg.

Eight hundred of the employees of the Haskell & Barker Car Company will start a co-operative store at Laporte, Ind. The directors of this store intend to open others in different sections throughout the country. There are 160,000 men and employees and the members expect to be a big business among their fellow workers.

ISLAND AND SWEET LAYTON.

It is a pity that Mayor Hubbard and Controller Hubbard, who have taken a keen interest in the development of the Island, and especially in the preservation of it as a public domain, should fail to do what the question was fairly and squarely presented to them, that to permit real estate speculation in Island land should be serving private as opposed to public interests. The Mayor and Controller Hubbard have both applied for encroachment upon park areas for leasehold purposes, and it is just as important that the portions of the Island available for leasehold should be so managed as to serve the largest public interest as that the park areas should be preserved and developed.

If a picnic party go to Island Park on a summer afternoon and spend their tea and partake of it, as hundreds of other picnic parties do every year, no one would think of objecting. They are welcome and have a right to just as much of the park land as they can use. But if they were to buy up two or three times as much land as they could use and undertake to rent the unused portion to other picnickers, what an outcry would be raised. The same principle should obtain in dealing with the leasehold portion of the public domain. No one should be allowed to hold more than one lot, and especially he should not be allowed to lease more than he needs, and hold the unused portion for rent, so rarely at a profit.

The natural result of allowing to one person more than he should have is that some other person is deprived of his rightful share in the public domain. Council should not consent to any more transfers of lease or to any such lease of more than he should have. The necessary amount of land for one house should be determined, and more should not be granted to any one person. Mayor Unruh and Controller Hubbard are acting in direct opposition to the advice of two competent and responsible officials, Commissioner Fleming and Dr. Howard, and they should carefully reconsider their positions. The Globe.

The Mayor seems to be getting badly off the track these days, when the title is delivering such lectures.

The Republic Wholesale Co-operative Association, of San Francisco, Cal., was incorporated in 1903; has 62 members, shares being set at $1,000 apiece. It is run on the Republic co-operative plan, 100 per cent on capital stock and 5 per cent on purchases. The business done last year amounted to $250,000.

The Central Co-operative Society, of Centralia, Wash., organized April 1, 1902; with 20 members and $800 capital. In the year 1902 the membership was 125 and the business done $34,000. The business of the first half of 1903 amounts to $15,000.

The Los Angeles Co-operative Society has made great strides, it now has a membership of 1,200 and is doing a business of considerably over $100,000 annually. There is also a co-operative bank in Los Angeles, the mayor of the city being head of the bank.

The farmers around Harvey, N. Dak., have recently built an elevator and are running it on the co-operative plan.

Co-operation among farmers could find a place in the number of three or four men planting having an engine, cutting short, a small threshing machine, a pump or feet grinder, a wood saw and a corn sheller.

Public Ownership of the Press is the proper paper

To all appearances, the city of Toronto might keep a count of two busy trying its suits.

'Big convention—little result.' is the way the Hamilton Spec puts it.

It's a little more jail room they'll need in Belleville to house all the ballot box crooks.

The season of good resolutions for the aldermen has arrived.

If to Gibson and Stratton had only been added Harcourt, then would our hearts have been exceeding glad.

There was bound to be dissatisfaction, no matter what policy was adopted.

Apparently there is not the least sincerity in either of the parties' pronouncements on the liquor question.

Only a month till the race will be over. There are sure to be two also race if there already in the field go to the post.

Majority Candidate McPherson's platform, the daily papers tell us, contains all the old plans in existence.

Controller Spence has been talking in Chicago. He says that Toronto hotel-keepers are all respectable gentlemen.

If the Conservatives expect the workers to vote against Ross, they will have to announce something of a policy that will appeal to the workers.

They're going to give us a Labor Minister and abolish prison-made bread.

Lott and Shibley will be repudiated and abused all over the country.

This temperance question has always been somewhat of a worry to the politicians.

There is something inexpressibly pitiful in the manner in which the modern pulpit deals with the great problems.

It's a long haul that doesn't eventually terminate its continuous performance.

THE LAND QUESTION

In the morning of Sunday morning, the Sherbrooke Street Methodist Church the Rev. Dr. Cairnes lectured on the land question.

There is no question as to the results that flow from this evil habit.

Public ownership of the land is the proper paper.

Majority Candidate McPherson's platform, the daily papers tell us, contains all the old plans in existence.

Controller Spence has been talking in Chicago. He says that Toronto hotel-keepers are all respectable gentlemen.

If the Conservatives expect the workers to vote against Ross, they will have to announce something of a policy that will appeal to the workers.

They're going to give us a Labor Minister and abolish prison-made bread.

Lott and Shibley will be repudiated and abused all over the country.

This temperance question has always been somewhat of a worry to the politicians.

There is something inexpressibly pitiful in the manner in which the modern pulpit deals with the great problems.

It's a long haul that doesn't eventually terminate its continuous performance.

A LESSON IN CLASS CONSCIOUSNESS

The legal and judicial process of capitalism keep on educating the workers in class consciousness.

There was, however, no evidence of malice against the constable.

The Labor Temple will be opened on December 21st with a preliminary concert. Prof. Goldstein will deliver the opening address, and the whole building will be in shape for public inspection.

Here we are making an effort to add 2,000 subscribers to our list before the end of the year. The campaign opened this week, and already we have passed the 200 mark.

The Trades Council held its regular weekly meeting on Thursday last week after a two weeks' adjournment over the holiday. The business was largely of the regular routine, as none of the standing committees reported.

The Organized Workers have adopted the proposition of holding biennial conventions, and their sitting in Toronto may be postponed to 1908 as a result.

All the old officers were re-elected at the A. F. of L. convention just closed, and Pittsburg was chosen as the next meeting place. Toronto did not get enough votes.

The committee on scheme for defense fund among the local organizations have prepared an elaborate report for presentation to the Trades Council.

President Verville of the Trades Congress, went down to defeat along with two other labor men in Montreal in the recent provincial elections. Labor men had a good chance owing to the failure of the Conservatives, but unfortunately they did not avail themselves of it.

D. A. Carey is becoming a fixture at A. F. of L. conventions, as much as some of the international labor leaders. Twice delegate from the Trades Congress of Canada, and twice delegate from the American Federation of Miners, at the present time he is at the San Francisco meeting.

The National Founders' Association, composed of iron founders of the United States and Canada, has just closed its annual convention at Cincinnati, and has elected following Canadian in its first Vice-President: C. Birmingham, of the Kingston Locomotive Works; J. M. Taylor, Quebec; and G. W. Watts, Toronto, were elected on the administrative council.

In President Gompers' report to the San Francisco convention of the A. F. of L., the following references were made to Canada: "It is a matter of keen gratification to be enabled to state that the labor movement of Canada has advanced and is progressing, keeping full pace with the movement of the rest of the American continent. At the recent Congress held in Montreal the officers were enabled to report an increase in the membership of the unions of 2,500 over previous years, and that there were then in existence in Canada 1,567 unions. We have retained the salaried organizer for Canada exclusively, and also the corps of volunteer organizers, and have contributed from our funds the annual grant of $500 for legislative purposes to the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress. The Congress, I have been advised, was entirely harmonious and successful in its work, and has benefited by electing as its fraternal delegate a former president and general organizer of the United States, which, though appropriate to-day, need not be recomended to-day, but may be recomended in the future, and it has been possible, best more firmly cemented. Let us hope we may be helpful to each other in every way to further the common interests of the workers of both countries."

The Brewery Workers' International Union has established another local union in Canada, this time at Granby, near Freyre, B.C.

E. W. A. O'Dell, general organizer and label agitator of the Box and Shoe Workers' International Union, is now in San Francisco, in the interests of his organization, he has visited British Columbia two years ago.

Have you ever noticed that if you do not feed the parrot right, you feel there in and shake it up once in a while, it will be useless as a heater; in fact will go out! Unions are in a measure like that. They must be fed, maintained, kept up to date, and in order to obtain best results, remember this when you absent yourself from your meetings—Mix and Serve.

W. J. McKee, general organizer of the Bartenders' International League, is now in Montreal, where he will spend two weeks longer, and then proceed to the northern part of New York State for a three weeks' campaign.

John Mitchell's United Mine Workers are gaining ground in Canada. Of the situation in British Columbia Vice-President Lewis writes: "The United Mine Workers are making very good progress, and prospects for improvement in the future. A thorough investigation of the operators and mine workers into the object of the United Mine Workers, its methods of doing business and policy will do much to promote the interests of all those engaged in the mining industry. There should be a large local union of the United Mine Workers on Vancouver Island, if our fellow mine workers do that, they will quickly organize a local union."

Are there union men who are ashamed of the union? If so, they must be lacking in that spirit which is one of the essentials of good citizenship—the spirit of corps. And they are indeed to be pitied, for a man out of sympathy with those who are his immediate associates in any occupation fails by a great deal to get the best out of life. Lawyers, doctors and other professional and business men have their unions for mutual benefit and general improvement, and are not ashamed of them. And there is no reason why a working man should not be proud of his union, its progress and its future. If the union is making it better, do not be blind to its shortcomings, and frankly admit them, if you choose, just as you would your personal faults. But never assume an attitude of apology with reference to unions. Defend its principles where they are ignorantly or maliciously attacked. Let the world know where you stand, and the world will know, and it will respect its merit. Be a man. Dare to be a man—Labor Leader.

Where labor is not organized, as in China, in Russia, in Africa and countless smaller countries, the tendency has been smaller checked to deprive them of their rights, and the laborers are degraded, ignorant and sullen, only awaiting an opportunity to strike blindly and viciously at the established government. What devastation from the torch and bomb would have occurred in Colorado if the workers were organized, but an intelligent organized fellow they lifted their time and struck fearfully down at the polls for the crimes.

Unions are the most potent factors in modern life. They alone stand between the working people and the unlimited greed of the corporations. They alone by compelling the payment of fair wages, can bring about at least a partial equality of wealth. The good that they can do is enormous, and the workmen should see that they are not damaged in the public estimation by the neglecting of goods that do not bear the union label.

Victor J. Berger, editor of the Milwaukee Social Democrat, has been elected to Congress. This is the first Socialist to be elected to a seat in Congress. The Socialist movement is rapidly growing, and this fact is a surprise to the badly organized Democratic party. In Chicago alone the party polled over 45,000 votes, which goes to show that the workingmen are studying the principles of the new party.

In the last week or two there has been all sorts of speculation going on as to what manner of man will be the next editor of the Toiler. Well, here is a short autobiography of the editor, and he ought to know. We were born in Missouri sixty years ago, and have spent the greater part of our life in the state. We do not smoke, drink whiskey nor eat. We do not gamble nor try to get something for nothing. In the year of 1897 we were elected to the office of political organizer, and have since that time been engaged in the study of the principles of the new party.

INDUSTRIAL REFORM

(By a Workman)

OUR UNPOPULAR SLOGAN. "The products of the labor of the toilers for the toilers," or "Love thy neighbor as thyself."—Christian Economy.

THE POPULAR SLOGAN TO-DAY.

"The products of the labor of the toilers for the capitalists and the shareholders."—Political Economy.

NEVER GIVE UP.

Never give up! It is wiser and better. Always to hope, than 'tis to despair; Fling off the load of doubt's spooking, And break the dark spell of tyrannical care.

Never give up! There are chances and chances. Helping the hopeful a hundred to one, And through the chaos High Wisdom art.

Ever success—if you'll only hope on. Never give up! For the wisest is bolded. Knowing that Providence mingles the cup.

And of all maxims the best, as the oldest, Is the true watchword of—Never Give Up!

Never give up! Though the grape shot may rattle. Or the fall thunder-cloud over you burst; Stand like a rock—and the storm of the battle.

Little shall harm you, though doing their worst. Never give up! If adversity press on. Providence wisely has mingled the cup. And the best counsel, in all our distresses, Is the stout watchword of—Never Give Up!

LABOR LEAGUE. It would be a good thing for the members and officers of the Labor League to read the above piece of poetry and take for their motto "Never Give Up."

LABOR INDUSTRIES. Before the toilers can make any great headway with the Labor League they will have to form co-operative industries and have a 75 per cent. educational fund. This has been one of the secrets of the great success of the co-operative movement in Great Britain.

"THE CANADIAN CO-OPERATOR." "The Canadian Co-Operator" for No. 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

LABOR TEMPLE. It is not a very difficult task that the Labor party has set themselves this year in the civic elections.

IMPROVEMENTS ARE STILL GOING ON AT THE LAWRENCE BAKERY.

THE SALOON. It is very amusing to hear temperance advocates boast to public meetings that they are going into the saloon business.

THE YOUNG MAN'S VOTE. If we are to have an industrial reform it will depend upon the young man's vote.

PREACHERS AND POLITICS. The majority of preachers were very noticeable by their absence in the political conventions.

THE CIVIC ELECTIONS. For the Board of Education we are to have Labor and Socialist candidates. It is to be regretted that there should be any division of effort on the part of industrial reform.

GOUGH BROTHERS

Two Entrances—6 and 8 Queen Street West, and 180 Yonge Street, TORONTO

But history proves that there has always been two kinds in any great movement, the extremely radical and those who are more conservative in their methods. It will be wise for the toilers to adopt the motto of—slow and sure and will do it for them do it well.

TOILERS MARCHING FORWARD. We have got a strong organization of toilers in Toronto and a very good weekly paper in The Toiler and also a home in the Labor Temple that no toiler need be ashamed of. And now they are forming a Labor League. The next forward march is for the toilers to elect a committee to consider what co-operative industries can be run successfully in this city. After that the toilers should aim at securing a majority in the Provincial Legislature. All this can be secured by united effort.

A good many people who never were themselves think prosperity for the other fellow consists in having steady work at $1.10 a day.
