French Grieved Over Wilson's Position As He Appears Defending Germany; Lord Cecil Pleased With League Draft

Lord Robert Cecil Says Way Draft of League of Nations Has Been Received is a Happy Omen.

NO STATE BOUND AGAINST ITS WILL

No Nation Can Go To War, However, Until All Means of Averting it Have Been Exhausted.

(Special to The St. John Standard and New York Tribune, Copyright,
1919, New York Tribune, Inc.)

Paris, Feb. 18.—Lord Robert Cecil, the foremost figure in the drafting of the covenant of the League of Nations, who some time ago declared that if America joined the league there would be no more danger of war but if America did not join, the factor of international insecurity would remain and that another European war would result in the reversion of the league to barbarism, gave an interview to the correspondent of the Tribune today. Lord Robert said:

"I regard the way the draft of the league has been received as a happy omen, and it confirms my impression that the course of the negotiations for the commission for the league of nations will be much encouraged thereby. The fact is that, as discussions proceeded, the feeling that the scheme would not be successful grew steadily. It is not too much to say that the fact that the league was not to be a mere treaty, but that it was to be a permanent organization, was a great help. Those who framed it intended it to work if the people chose to make it so. It has been suggested that the body of delegates should be deliberative and advisory, and that the executive work, assisted by a permanent secretariat. A small body like an executive is necessary for this purpose. It should be noted that to do so, there can be no more danger of war. I never thought it practicable to have any considerable scientific of government. Our progress in this respect, are strictly limited. The fact remains, however, that nations cannot go to war until all means of averting it have been tried. I do not think the small nations are likely to receive large representation on the executive board for the present. This arrangement is fair and generally acceptable. In regard to the question as to whether a member of the league is obliged to accept mandatory power over any territory it requested to do so, there is no doubt that it is likely that in a league of any organizations, unless the people constituting it are determined to make it work, the chances of success are diminished. The machinery is necessary but, after all, the motive power must be a world spirit and the intentions of the nations forming the league."

Lord Robert Cecil is known to be a strong advocate of American assumption of a mandate from the League of Nations over Armenia, Syria and other territories in the Near East.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Eight thousand Costa Rican troops have been mobilized on the border between Costa Rica and Nicaragua and threaten invasion of the latter country. It was said in some quarters that Nicaragua would look to the United States for protection in the event that she was attacked.

PAN-GERMAN MILITARY PARTY BITTERLY RESENTS NEW TERMS

Especially Complain Over Limiting the Army to the Size of a Simple Police Force—See Many Thousand Officers Without a Job.

London, Feb. 18.—(By The Associated Press.)—A despatch from Berlin by way of Basel today is to the effect that the pan-German military party, headed by Field Marshal von Hindenburg, bitterly resents the new terms in the armistice, especially those limiting the German army to the size of a simple police force, the supervision of control of ammunition factories, and the demand that Germany pay the expenses of the Allied armies of

Plan of Action Indicated Between Berne Labor Congress and German Government

(Special Cable to the N. Y. Tribune and the St. John Standard, Copyright, 1919, N. Y. Tribune, Inc.)
BY CHESTER M. WRIGHT.

Paris, Feb. 18.—William English Walling, the Socialist, author and secretary of the American Social Democratic League, said today: "The sudden outbreak of wrath against the League of Nations from the Paris Socialists and the syndicalist press before the ink had dried on the Wilson project, indicates a plan of action between the Berne Socialist Labor Congress and the German government."

"Each and every point of the German governmental policy stated by Scheidemann was adopted at Berne. Mr. Wilson declares himself wholly satisfied with the league project, whereupon the French Socialists and syndicalists screech that the plan is a complete betrayal of the Wilson principles. There is no longer any doubt the latter are working in agreement with the Socialists controlling the German government."

Their refusal to repudiate Bolshevism at Berne demonstrates the willingness of these unrepentable demagogues to utilize Bolshevism for their own purposes. Moreover the Berne congress established the principle of the open door, meaning that the six Socialist parties which have gone over to Bolshevism will be admitted to the next conference in April.

"The propaganda possibilities of this new Socialist internationale thus constituted are infinitely superior to anything ever possessed by the German General Staff, and its entire strength will be directed against the League of Nations. Thus that plan will be subjected to a frontal attack by the Germans and a rear attack by the Socialist allies of the Germans in Europe and America."

"Here is the first practical test of Mr. Wilson's influence upon Europe's working classes. Now it will be seen whether popular acclaim will serve him and the League of Nations, or whether the Socialists have succeeded in using his name to build a pro-Bolshevik, pro-German movement, and are now able to get the people to repudiate him utterly when they find that they are unable to use him for their evil purposes."

OTTAWA TODAY IS A CITY OF MOURNING AT SIR WILFRID'S BIER

Quite Apart from His National Fame Sir Wilfrid Was Ot- tawa's First Citizen and He Was Beloved by His People —He Will Go to His Last Resting Place With All the Honors a Nation Can Bestow.

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier will go to his last resting place with all the honors the nation, upon which he shed so much lustre, can bestow. Parliament will meet on Thursday afternoon, and the adjournment will immediately afterwards, the casket containing the body of the dead statesman will be brought into the Commons Chamber, where, draped by the flag of the Empire he served so valiantly and long, and surrounded by a guard of honor, Sir Wilfrid's remains will lie in state until Saturday morning, thus affording the people an opportunity to take one last look at the statesman who, for half a century, played so vast a part in the nation's life.

The funeral arrangements, while not yet complete, are to be carried out with all the impressive pomp and ceremony of the Catholic church. Archbishop Mathieu, of Regina, one of the most distinguished prelates of the church in Canada, and a personal friend of the dead statesman, will likely pronounce the funeral oration in French, while it is expected that Father John Burke, a noted Parolite, will deliver the oration in English. The High Mass of Requiem will be celebrated in the Basilica, the little parish church, where Sir Wilfrid worshipped, not by a large enough to hold the mighty throng expected to be present. Archbishop Bruchet, of Montreal, has been invited to chant the Requiem Mass.

Government leaders, diplomatic representatives, high state officials and many church dignitaries will be present at the service, while thousands are expected to walk in the funeral procession. Hundreds of cables and messages of condolence are arriving from all parts of the globe, testifying to the fame of the deceased statesman far beyond even the boundaries of the British Empire. One of the first cablegrams arrive was from His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, who, in the course of his tenure in Ottawa, became one of Sir Wilfrid's closest friends.

Ottawa today is a city of mourning. Quite apart from his national fame, Sir Wilfrid was Ottawa's first citizen, and he was beloved by his people.

Wilson Departed from France Under Circumstances Differ- ent from Those Attend- ing His Arrival.

FRANCE QUESTIONS HIS SINCERITY

Discord Followed Preliminary Discussions Between Clem- enceau and Wilson it Now Develops.

ITALY SHOWS SOME DOUBTS

British Are Apparently in Ac- cord With the Wilson Pro- posals and Plans.

By Frederick Moore.

(Special Cable to The N. Y. Tribune and The St. John Standard.)

Paris, Feb. 18.—President Wilson departed from France Saturday under circumstances strikingly different from those attending upon his arrival. He came as the great liberator and benefactor of France and the protector of mankind, loudly acclaimed. His departure was accompanied by none of the enthusiasm which reached its height on the brilliant day of his entry into Paris exactly two months ago.

During these two months it has been his duty to observe him here, to follow him through England and Italy, watching the demonstrations of the populace; also to endeavor to learn from day to day how he was working out his program. And it witnessed a gradual yet remarkable change come over France. The change was not in Mr. Wilson. His policies and intentions seem to have deviated little from those with which he left the United States early in December. The alteration was in the French people of his attitude and program.

Before his arrival the French were unimpressed regarding him. The President, however, eliminated many phrases from his speeches, even from that of September 27, when victory was within the Allied reach, and he stated that he was not a statesman, but a man of great difficulty, dragged France through the trying years of the war, evidently had also deceived themselves, following the hope perhaps more than the belief that President Wilson really was strong for victory, and had been adroit in dealing independently with the Germans, and by that means had seduced the Germans into agreeing to what they had called the Wilsonian terms of the armistice. Not only was this the French people, it also prevailed among the Italians and even in Great Britain.

Early in December, before Mr. Wilson's arrival here, Arthur Balfour, then British foreign secretary, had been in contact with American newspaper correspondents, stated emphatically that his interpretations of the armistice terms would include ample provisions for Germany's honor and the costs of the war. Even after the President's arrival in France, Lloyd George and other men now forming the cabinet, were in contact in engineering speeches to exact from Germany all she could pay. Then came the preliminary discussions between the President and the French Premier, and Mr. Wilson and Premier Lloyd George, after which the President stated that he found himself in close touch with two important statesmen in Europe.

But a strange note of discord sounded almost immediately. Clemenceau, announced in the French Chamber of Deputies that in fact some important differences existed between them. At the same time another statesman in a position to ascertain and comprehend the views of Lloyd George, Clemenceau and Wilson privately informed me that although the President and the British Premier had both declared themselves in complete accord in principle, he would not be surprised if they were found in radical disagreement when it came to the interpretation of those principles.

Up to February 14th, the Germans had surrendered to the British 126,826 freight cars.

HERR ERZBERGER TEARFULLY TELLS OF HIS MISSION

National Assembly Listens in Agonized Silence to the Terms of the Armistice.

FOCH'S ULTIMATUM APPROVED BY WILSON

Touches Briefly on His Suc- cessful Protests Against Polish Incorporation of Silesia.

Weimar, Feb. 17.—(Monday, by the Associated Press.)—The party speeches in the National Assembly, which had been set down for this afternoon, suffered a rude interruption by the outcome of the new armistice negotiations. The general outlines of the new terms were known early today, and it was no surprise when President Feherbach said that the speeches and arguments would be deferred, so that Matthias Erzberger, head of the German armistice delegation, might give a personal explanation of what happened between his departure for Treves last week and his unexpectedly quick return today.

Herr Erzberger, noticeably wrought up and laboring under a strain, began with the announcement that the delegates were entitled to know, at the earliest moment, the full details of the negotiations. He then read the terms, and the public listened in almost agonized silence.

The loudest stir or noise brought angry hisses. The assembly never had been one like this so still.

The Minister, in heavy voice, read the terms and the members of the House stirred, uneasily, as he finished, and stopped for breath. Before continuing his explanation, Herr Erzberger interjected:

"It is my wish that you may never have the fate of Russia, I have said. We, on the armistice Commission, have had to bear undue responsibility."

He then referred to the unfortunate, well-known fatal day in the arrival of the terms at Weimar, and went into detail on Marshal Foch's ultimatum, which, he said, he was assured was framed with the unqualified approval of President Wilson. Herr Erzberger then said that Marshal Foch had been sternly insisted on the acceptance of the terms. He touched only briefly, but clearly, on his successful protests against Polish incorporation of Silesia and his unsuccessful efforts to save the Brabant, Bentschen and other German towns. He emphasized that the responsibility of keeping the Poles in check and give guarantees for the safety of the Germans on the Polish side.

To his protest, Marshal Foch replied that all were purely military measures in accordance with President Wilson's fourteen points.

Herr Erzberger protested, likewise, against the indeterminate extension of the armistice, but Marshal Foch brusquely declined to make any alterations, and insisted upon his power to promulgate any order to Germany as will.

Herr Erzberger then demanded whether the short indeterminate continuation of the armistice might lead to an early peace, to which Marshal Foch replied:

"I think so, I assume so."

The Minister said the difficulties had been greater because the negotiations had become sharper and more acute, recently, and a long discussion demonstrated that nothing more would be changed.

The Minister assured the Assembly: "I have confidence that Marshal Foch's given word 'I assume so'."

Herr Erzberger said he had achieved almost no results in his efforts to have German prisoners released, beyond a promise by France and England to send back two thousand badly wounded men each. He then read the German note, which he presented to Marshal Foch as the armistice terms were signed.

"The world knows," he concluded, "that we do not want a new war and cannot conduct one. The world will condemn the Entente for its severity."

President Feherbach then announced that the ministers and delegates intended to withhold their declarations until Wednesday, and suggested that the House adjourn immediately in view of the new situation.

The House accepted a proposal to consider nothing tomorrow but an interpellation by Dr. Heins, with reference to the armistice terms.

LIBERAL CAUCUS NEXT WEEK

To Choose a Successor to Lat- Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—A suggested Liberal caucus for the choice of a temporary successor to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as leader of the opposition will not be presented until next week in all probability. Thursday has been stated as a day, but with general arrangements for Saturday, it is unlikely that the caucus can be held before the early part of next week.

The Italians and Jugo-Slavs Can't Get Together

Paris, Feb. 18.—The Italian delegation to the Peace Conference, according to an official note, has informed the Secretary of the Conference that it cannot accept the proposal for the arbitration of Italian and Jugo-Slav claims in Dalmatia as urged by Jugo-Slavs.

The Italian plenipotentiaries in their letter to the secretary explain that all territorial claims are being submitted to the Peace Conference and they do not believe that recourse should be had to any exceptional procedure.

Early last week the Jugo-Slav delegates to the Peace Conference asked President Wilson to act as arbitrator in the differences with Italy regarding the eastern coast of the Adriatic. President Wilson suggested that the Italians and Jugo-Slavs discuss their differences.

The Italians declined to make a decision at that time. Later, the Jugo-Slav delegates, as President of the Conference, to act as arbitrator, but there had been no reports that the French leader took any action on the question.

The high mass of requiem will be celebrated in the Church of the Sacred Heart, where, for many years, Sir Wilfrid worshipped.

The Parish priest, Rev. Father Laflamme, will be the celebrant. Government leaders and opposition representatives, high state officials and many church dignitaries will be present at the service, while thousands are expected to walk in the funeral procession. Hundreds of cables and messages of condolence are arriving from all parts of the globe. GERMAN GOVERNMENT'S REASON FOR ACCEPTING NEW TERMS

Feared a Renewal of Military Operations, if They Refused to Sign, Would Lead to Complete Moral Collapse of the German People.

Berlin, Monday, Feb. 17. (By The Associated Press.)—The German government's reason for accepting the stringent terms of the renewed armistice, as outlined in a Weimar despatch to the Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, is that a renewal of military operations following refusal to sign would lead to the complete moral collapse of the German people.

The absolute conviction prevailed that a refusal to sign, or dilatory treatment of the proposals would meet with an immediate advance of the Allied armies beyond the Rhine involving the occupation of the most important and indispensable districts of West Germany.

The representatives of the parties, who participated in the cabinet deliberations, agreed unanimously that the people as a whole would neither understand nor approve such an outcome, and that, therefore, there was no alternative except to sign under protest.

The Berlin papers generally come to the same conclusion except the conservative organs such as the Kreuz-Zeitung and the Allgemeine Zeitung which declare that the government should have refused to sign the terms, thus forcing the Allies to take the responsibility of a renewal of hostilities.

THE FINAL TERMS OF ARMISTICE ARE DRASTIC

Demolition of Forts on the Heligoland and the Kiel Canal Will Be Required.

SURRENDER OF GERMAN WARSHIPS INTERNED

The Germans Will be Left With a Fleet Sufficient Only for Defensive Purposes.

London, Feb. 18.—(British Wireless Service.)—The final armistice conditions which the Supreme Council is considering will be made public before the end of the month, according to various newspapers, and they will include among the naval conditions the demolition of the forts on Heligoland, the Kiel Canal, the surrender, for purposes of destruction, of the German warships now interned and the opening of the Kiel Canal for civil transports. It is stated that Germany will be left with a fleet large enough for defensive purposes.

The naval correspondent of the Daily Mail, writing of the immensity of strong fortifications on the island of Heligoland says:

"The summit of the island is one immense bomb-proof affair and the batteries are so placed as to be invisible from the sea. The heavy guns there—11 inch and 12 inch weapons—probably were reinforced during the war by 15-inch guns. The guns are mounted in steel turrets of great thickness. All the batteries and observation posts are connected by subterranean passages and the roads leading up to them run along galleries which are shell-proof."

"The guns are mounted after the usual German fashion so as to give them an immense range, probably from ten to twelve and a half sea miles. To enable the island to stand the concussion of their discharge and resist fire directed against it 8,000,000 pounds is said to have been spent before 1910 and subsequently other large sums were allotted."

"The immense seaplane sheds are said to have been of the disappearing type, which could be lowered as a protection against long-range fire. There are store shops and repair works with all the usual equipment of a naval base. The fortifications presumably will be blown up, but their destruction will be no easy business. They are of armored concrete and steel and a very large quantity of explosives will be required."

"The fortifications at either entrance to the Kiel Canal are of immense strength and are lavishly supplied with the heaviest guns in steel turrets."

FRENCH GRIEVED OVER WILSON'S POSITION

(Continued from page 1) tend, that the security of Europe is impossible until the Russian problem is solved. American supporters of the President, however, though not always, echo his opinion, often contemptuously suggested that the French desired only to recover the billion dollars they have invested in Russia. French statesmen, on the other hand, pointed out that a billion dollars was comparatively unimportant. The French furthermore insisted upon the demobilization of the German army, but the President was opposed, contending that Germany, in justice, should not be required to go beyond the armistice terms which she had signed in good faith.

DISTILLING PLANT AT DARTMOUTH

Revenue Officers Discover One Working up to Time, Producing a White Rum.

Halifax, Feb. 18.—The Chief of Police of Dartmouth, and officers of the Dominion Revenue Department, visited a house in Dartmouth last night and made a discovery which may prove to be one of the most important of its kind in years. They found a part of an up-to-date distilling plant and a quantity of the finished product, white rum, while in a stove in a copper pot was a quantity of corn, potatoes and vegetables boiling away. Some bottles of the white rum were seized by the officers of the revenue department. No arrests have yet been made.

The Turks appear to be greatly struck by the fact that the arrival of General Allenby is to be followed tomorrow by that of General French, Despeyres, who will make his official entry then as the commander in chief of the allied forces in European Turkey.

SIR ALFRED BOOTH TELLS WHY BRITISH CUT SHIPPING RATES

Declares No Freight War is Intended and Action Was Aimed to Restore Business.

London, Feb. 14.—Sir Alfred Booth, chairman of the Cunard Company, has just told me the reason why shipping rates have been reduced "was that this of course is due to the fact that government shipments are rapidly falling off in volume, and more space is now available for general merchandise." "This is especially true with regard to eastbound traffic across the Atlantic Ocean from the United States and Canada. Before the armistice was signed government shipments of one sort or another occupied about ninety-five per cent of the available shipping space. General cargo rates were, therefore, necessarily luxury rates.

REORGANIZATION OF THIS DISTRICT

Reorganization of this military district has been talked of for some time, and apparently the movement is scheduled to materialize in the immediate future, when the garrison attachment personnel of new officers will be announced. A good guess at the present time (not without some foundation) places the personnel of the new staff as follows:

Major G. R. Barnes, M.C., Officer Commanding; Captain R. J. Smith, M.C., second in command; Captain William Pitt, D.C.M., adjutant; additional officers, Lieutenants P. J. Voutot, J. C. Beado, J. K. Holder, D.C.M., M.M., and R. J. Dean.

This will be somewhat welcome news to many, who have, in the past, awaited in suspense some proposed changes long talked of. However the personnel named above, although being credited as the leaders of the garrison attachment, have yet to be sanctioned by the Ottawa authorities, but it seems likely that they will constitute the new personnel, the information having been gained from quite reliable sources.

Other Bolshevik forces were defeated in fighting in the eastern Ukraine. The important towns of Poltava and Kharkov and several other places are now held by the Ukrainians. Kharkov is 250 miles east of Kiev.

The bandits escaped in an automobile.

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels. Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once if bilious or constipated.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, gives a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

POOR OLD MAN LUDENDORFF

Banished from Sweden and Not Wanted in Berlin.

Copenhagen, Feb. 18.—General Ludendorff, the former head of the German military system, who sought an asylum in Sweden after the German revolution, was obliged to leave that country this week, according to a telegram from Malmo, Sweden is said to have refused General Ludendorff's application for a renewal of his permit to remain in the country. Friday, February 21, is the date set for his departure.

Reports from Berlin, late last month said that General Ludendorff had arrived there and was living in seclusion, the government having declined his services. Apparently, however, this report was an erroneous one.

Healthy Mothers Healthy Babies

Every true mother realizes the fact that her baby's health depends upon her own; that the very vitality of her child is influenced by her own physical condition. How important it is, therefore, to guard against any derangement of the female organs, which induce general weakness, nervousness, constant fatigue and utter inability to properly care for her child. Please remember, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and strength to thousands of such mothers.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, some days I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my household work. My baby when I was old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. FRANK MONTMAY, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during and after maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THE INQUEST WAS BEGUN LAST NIGHT

Enquiry into Death of John Buffington Charters, Victim of Ferry Accident—Evidence Shows Pillings Were Not Safe.

The inquest was begun last evening in the City Hall, West St. John, into the death of the late John Buffington Charters, twenty-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Charters, West St. John, who died as a result of injuries received in the ferry accident last Thursday evening, when a piling at the West Side dock fell on him.

The evidence was more or less of a light nature, probably the only salient point being brought out being the evidence of Captain Andrew Norwood, who was in charge of the ferry at the time of the fatality, as he stated, he believed the pillings on the West Side were not safe, when asked by a juror and that several others were cracked at the West Side slip for some time, and he believed a bolt as utilized for holding up such broken piling to be quite inadequate to the task allotted them.

The firm witness called was Doctor H. H. Hadden, superintendent of the General Public Hospital. Witness stated that last Thursday evening he examined a young boy who had been brought to the hospital, and whom he learned later was John Charters. He at once made a superficial examination, and found that he had suffered an inferior fracture at the base of the skull and several minor injuries. The patient died five minutes after he had been taken to the hospital, as a result of the fracture at the base of the skull.

John Francis Newman, who resides at 19 Queen St. West Side, was called, and stated that he was a passenger on the Ludlow last Thursday evening. The current was running out of the harbor at the time, and as the ferry approached the West Side, he watched the pillings, as he sometimes feared they might fall, and had seen piling break before. He saw a pile break when the boat hit the left side of the dock, and fell. He rushed at once to the front to help take the log off the boat. The top end lay on the ferry and the end where it broke lay over the railing of the boat.

The boat in his mind came in a little faster than usual, but this might have been caused by the tide. Asked relative to the piling on the East and West sides, witness replied the East Side dock appeared much safer. He did not see the captain at the time of the accident. John Peterson, chauffeur for Vanwart Bros., a passenger on the ferry at the time, stated he remained in the gentlemen's cabin going across, and as they neared the West Side he went out, cranked his car, and got in. Soon after he got out, fearing an accident, as the ferry was moving quite fast, and he had seen an accident previously on the ferry when a barrow was flying by a falling piling. His evidence was a corroboration of that given by the former witness relative to the circumstances surrounding the accident.

To Mr. Baxter witness replied that he thought the piling was not safe on the West Side, and should be replaced by a chain and bolt in the top of the piling so that in case they might fall, the chain would aid in holding up the piling. Further he knew not how the piling was fastened, as he had not investigated. Captain Andrew Norwood called, stated he was in charge of the ferry at the time of the accident. At the time it was what was called a quick trip, to get over and back to the East Side again in about ten minutes if possible. Witness stated the tide was setting up, throwing the bow of the ferry on the southern wing of the dock. The ferry was moving at a usual rate of speed, and the proper side did not appear as a fresh break although it might have been. The mate was in the wheel with witness on the next witness seeing of him was when he aided the passengers in lifting the piling off the deck of the ferry.

Witness in his evidence stated he was a master mariner, having previously nine years in the ferry service as mate, and chief master, during the late eight months. The ferry was going into the dock at the usual rate of speed. One bolt was not sufficient to hold a piling. Witness felt no sudden crash, nor did the vibration of the boat lead one to believe when in the engineer's room that the boat had been hit. He had received the proper telegraph as usual on any trip, and when the boat struck was ordered to reverse and stop. This he did three times according to orders of the bell. He did not receive any particular notice of the piling on the West Side, nor had he ever informed his family to watch out for it when they were on the ferry for fear of piling falling.

This concluded the evidence for last evening and hearing will be resumed in the City Hall, West St. John, on Thursday evening next at eight o'clock. Coroner J. L. Kenney advised the jurors in the meantime to ascertain for themselves first hand information relative to how toll houses were being run and under what orders, etc.

DIVERGENCE IN PEACE VIEWS

Opinions as Expressed by Different Newspapers in London.

By Arthur S. Draper. (Special Cable to The N. Y. Tribune and The St. John Standard.) (Copyright 1919, New York Tribune, Inc.)

London, Feb. 18.—To illustrate the divergence of views regarding developments in the Peace Conference I quote first from Lord Northcliffe's "Evening News," which has the largest circulation in London. The newspaper says:

"The Germans, who are bad paychologists, are asking for a "Wilson Peace." The Allies and the United States, if they keep their heads and work together, will give them a peace based upon the Wilson principles, and the Germans will like it. The reason the Germans ask for a Wilson peace is because they hope thus to prevent the governments of the associated peoples making a peace on the basis of the President's principles. "Some allied writers whose nerves are shakier than vision have long seemed inclined to help the Germans by arguing that since they ask for a Wilson peace the Allies must beware of President Wilson. We did not accept thirteen out of the fourteen Wilson principles as the foundation of peace merely because they were formulated by an American president. We accepted them because they were in the main our own principles, and we welcomed them more heartily because of the fact that our principles were formulated by the American President, who, with his virtues and failings is acknowledged to be an excellent judge of public feeling in his own country—proved that the main current of public feeling in Europe and America were substantially identical. This identity seemed to be and is of the happiest augury for success of true, long-sighted peace makers. "Then from "The Globe," with the smallest number of readers, I quote: "The fact which ought never to be lost sight of is that the greater part of the German army does not believe that it has been beaten. That is very natural. It has had in the course of the war some great victories, and has never suffered disaster such as that, for instance, which was inflicted upon the Russians in the Masurian Marches. It is very highly disciplined and still has great confidence in its leaders. It is improbable that it would mutiny if ordered to resume fighting under conditions which the leaders assured gave a reasonable prospect of success. "Labor troubles in England, and what we are afraid must be regarded as a too hasty demobilization on the part of all the associated powers have unquestionably encouraged the Germans to believe their cause is not hopeless, at least that they can offer strong resistance to peace conditions unless those conditions are such as they are prepared to accept. "We referred yesterday to some of the symptoms of this spirit in Germany and we see no reason to question their significance. Obstacles have been suddenly placed in the way of the fulfillment of the armistice terms to an extent which was not to be expected from any nation which really believed itself defeated beyond hope of recovery, and all through the German press there is an undertone of resistance which it is impossible to mistake. "For the moment the British are less interested in Paris than in the developments in the House of Commons where labor has the first indications of its thought regarding legislative action to remedy industrial unrest. Lloyd George's speech is generally supported but it is not entirely satisfactory to labor. "The "Westminster Gazette" thinks the Premier's appeal to the House not to demand debates on the decisions of the Peace Conference "quite reasonable," and adds that "his analysis of the causes of unrest singularly omitted to mention one of the chief of them—dearness of living and the excessively high prices of the necessities of life. "It is perfectly true, the Gazette continues, as he argued yesterday, that the mere forcing up of nominal wages by the trade union pressure will defeat its own object by a correspondingly lowered purchasing power of wages, but if labor needs to be reminded of that employers, manufacturers and the government itself need also to be reminded that the forcing up of prices by either combined action on their part or by artificial controls and restriction on imports has exactly the same effect, and if pushed far enough will also eventually defeat its object. "We are in a condition in which everyone wants everything. There are not enough trains, trams, omnibuses, houses. Not enough meat, sugar, tea and flour and, still less, enough raw material to get industry actively started or workers fully employed. And yet the ruling idea of the government and the manufacturing classes appears to be to prevent goods coming in by maintaining restrictions on imports. "The "Evening Standard" says it understands that "the government shortly will suggest means by which a general exchange of views between capital and labor can take place.

THE COMING SESSION.

In the minds of Canadian public men uncertainty exists as to the probable outcome of the session of parliament which opens during the present week. Whether it will be bitterly controversial, leading to early dissolution and an appeal to the country, or whether this session will be strictly devoted to the mass of important business demanding attention, will depend to a large extent on the happenings of the first couple of weeks. It has now come to be generally admitted that there is only one domestic question—the tariff—on which a sharp cleavage may occur, yet a feeling prevails that views already expressed on this subject are merely sectional and do not indicate that the country as a whole is looking for any drastic changes. Certain interests have expressed themselves one way or another. We seem to have an opinion that in the east the manufacturers are at high tariff men, and that the west is strongly free traders. Such a general assertion is entirely erroneous. In the west there are important manufacturing interests which realize the necessity of tariff protection and in the east we are not all manufacturers. Yet these diversified interests are individually powerful enough to have the subject of the tariff introduced in the house in such a way that the government may be forced in spite of itself and in spite of the pressure of other business to give it consideration. It is true that definite policies in this regard should be laid down without delay. During the period of reconstruction manufacturing interests will have enough problems to deal with, without the ever-present uncertainty of a change in the tariff which might upset all their plans. No one can estimate the future and build accordingly unless he has knowledge as to the degree to which his business is to be affected by outside competition. If things are to go on as they are, we should know it. It is to be a change of importance it should come at the earliest possible moment. There is, however, no real reason why we should upset existing conditions just now. The country is going along very nicely. Farmers who ask for free trade in certain lines have been doing very well indeed without it. Manufacturers who could wish higher protection are not reported to be losing much sleep over the results of their business during the past few years. And before very long the whole tariff must be revised in accordance with the new relations which will be established as a result of the peace treaties. We will, in future years, occupy a very different relationship toward some of the countries of Europe from what has existed in the past, and our whole tariff policy must be readjusted to meet these new conditions. Hence anything that might now be attempted could of necessity be only of a temporary nature, and this is a possibility which should be avoided at all costs. For tempering with a tariff means unrest, and at this particular time confidence and definite knowledge form the foundation upon which rests our successful prosecution of the task of reconstruction.

If the hot-heads in parliament will possess their souls in patience for a while longer, if the tariff issue can be avoided for the time being, then parliament may have a chance to deal with those many pressing problems of national importance which are on the program. If, however, we are to see a controversial session with the blockaders' brigade on the job, the task of restoring our country to peace conditions will be rendered difficult indeed.

MR. VENIOT EXPLAINS.

Why Peter J. His explanations of why he cannot do this and why New Brunswick cannot do that are frightfully tiresome, and they don't get him anywhere. He spent half an hour at the Board of Trade dinner the other night, trying to tell the visiting pressmen why New Brunswick cannot take advantage of the federal offer to provide forty per cent. of the cost of trunk roads. And when he got all through the impression conveyed by his rambling remarks was that this condition is due to the fact that New Brunswick is in the same position as every other province. Mr. Veniot pointed out in his lucid way that other provinces, such as Ontario, can find for their road making purposes, special revenues which they derive from such sources as motor licenses, etc. but that down here in New Brunswick we are, unfortunately, not able to do anything of the sort. And money for road making must be taken out of general revenue and our general revenue is not such as will permit of an expenditure of sixty per cent. for trunk lines.

Hon. Mr. Veniot in this little matter calmly ignored the fact that there is a motor license revenue in this province which revenue was created for no other purpose than that mentioned by him, namely to fund for the construction of trunk roads. But when Mr. Veniot and his friends got hold of that revenue their ideas changed. They needed the money in their business and not for interest and redemption of a loan through which roads might be constructed. So they set apart a small proportion of the revenue from this source for the purpose for which it was intended and they dumped all the rest of the money into the ordinary revenue account, spending it as they went along on all the new tangled stunts with which the Honorable Peter is becoming so familiar. That is why New Brunswick cannot afford, in Mr. Veniot's opinion, to fund its revenues as originally intended, and that is why this province is not able to take advantage of the federal offer of forty per cent. construction costs.

If Mr. Veniot and his friends had left that motor license account as it should have been left in the form of an interest and redemption fund, they would now be in the position to take up the federal offer, but when out of a revenue of ninety thousand dollars they spend eight thousand in cost of administration, set apart only thirty thousand of the total, and squander the rest in winter road making, it is not at all surprising that there is very little left for real work.

WHAT ABOUT THE GIRLS?

The School Board in session on Monday evening unanimously granted permission for a shooting gallery in King Edward School for the use of Boys Cadet Corps. Doctor Bridges, during the discussion, referred to the need of a gymnasium for girls of the High School, or at least some place where these pupils might go during recess and play basket ball or similar games. This suggestion was objected to by one member of the Board because of the expense such a place would involve. This instance is strongly in line with the attitude of the average man towards anything proposed for the well-being of girls. It was recalled at this meeting that the late Mrs. Skinner, when a member of the Board had advocated the suggestion referred to by Doctor Bridges, and it was clearly presented that these girls during recess should have some change from the classroom.

It is true that the shooting gallery will not cost very much money, but the principle involved in this apparently unimportant incident is that boys must have their cadet corps places for play and other sport while the girls may get along just as they have been doing for the past forty years. It is, of course, true that these girls may spend their recess in the assembly hall, climb a few more flights of stairs in order that as a change from the smaller classroom the may pass the time of recess on the top floor in the enlarged classroom. It is only within the past few months that a building in which girls might find recreation and amusement has been acquired by the Y. W. C. A., although for a generation or more boys have had their classes at the Y. M. C. A. The Catholic Institute also has recently made provision for girls of its particular denomination and has as well gymnasium classes for those of certain ages. Only a few weeks ago there was held in St. John a girls' conference, the second largest of its kind ever held in Canada, with an enrollment of almost four hundred from the city and elsewhere. These sessions were of value and their results are bound to be far reaching, but no one was able to notice that the men of St. John took any particular interest in this movement, as was the case with the boys' conference held a short time ago. This is of course apart from the very few who really recognized the importance of the gathering.

MR. VENIOT EXPLAINS.

Why Peter J. His explanations of why he cannot do this and why New Brunswick cannot do that are frightfully tiresome, and they don't get him anywhere. He spent half an hour at the Board of Trade dinner the other night, trying to tell the visiting pressmen why New Brunswick cannot take advantage of the federal offer to provide forty per cent. of the cost of trunk roads. And when he got all through the impression conveyed by his rambling remarks was that this condition is due to the fact that New Brunswick is in the same position as every other province. Mr. Veniot pointed out in his lucid way that other provinces, such as Ontario, can find for their road making purposes, special revenues which they derive from such sources as motor licenses, etc. but that down here in New Brunswick we are, unfortunately, not able to do anything of the sort. And money for road making must be taken out of general revenue and our general revenue is not such as will permit of an expenditure of sixty per cent. for trunk lines.

WHAT THEY SAY

What's in a Number. (New York Herald.) Thirteen bluejackets bring Irish and American brides home aboard the auxiliary cruiser Louisville. The "hoodoo" will be exercised by "seven 16."

Sell Blind. (New York Herald.) A Berlin newspaper talks of the "blessed work of the Hohenzollerns." This looks like making a virtue out of the most ignominious defeat ever suffered by a once powerful bully.

Made in Ontario. (Toronto Globe.) Wouldn't it be worth while to publish the name and style of the wholesaler of such large quantities throughout Ontario? The distiller might become somewhat ashamed of the notoriety and make sure that the liquor sold for use in Quebec was intended to remain there.

An Entangling Alliance. (Toronto Globe.) Ex-president Taft says that all talk of entangling alliances is futile, because the United States is already in an entangling alliance and must see the thing through. That is the inevitable result of its share in the struggle for liberty.

Some Work. (Montreal Gazette.) The national wealth of Canada is estimated at seventeen billion dollars, or about one-fifth of that of Britain. But the undeveloped riches of this country give us a great potential advantage—if these riches are economically developed for the benefit of the people, and not of a few exploiters.

Sathanas Ex Machina. William Hohenzollern is credited with keeping a "flight car" in readiness against the day when the Allies summon him to the bar of justice. But the means of transporting him beyond reach of the long arm of retribution has not yet been devised.

Looks are Typical. (London Advertiser.) The Toronto Telegram has a picture over a department called "Echoes of the Town." In it fifty Torontoians are shown. Each of them wear top hats, one with a sack coat. How typical of maddy York! They have more silk-hatted loafers in that sunny village than in all the rest of Canada.

One Thing Sure. (Chicago Tribune.) Irish self-determination, resulting in Irish republic, would mean that British trade routes in every civilized base. If the Irish had the navy and the power they would have their republic. They may have trouble, disaster, compromise, continued insurrection, a successful home government—they may have almost anything—but they will not have the independent republic.

Nothing Succeeds Like Success. (Cleveland Plain Dealer.) Lenine has become respectable. He responds to the world democracies' invitation to parley. He is no longer a heretic, or possibly hostile, base. If the Irish had the navy and the power they would have their republic. They may have trouble, disaster, compromise, continued insurrection, a successful home government—they may have almost anything—but they will not have the independent republic.

No Excuse Necessary. What excuse do you make to your wife when you stay out at night? I don't make any excuses, replied Mr. Meekton, I simply sit up and wait till Henrietta gets home from the meeting she has been addressing.

Seeking Experiences. Mrs. Meekton—daughter says she won't marry any man who hasn't been in the war. Mr. Meekton—That's sporting of her, and I judge he'll need the previous experience.

A woman will forgive a man about anything—except the fact that he beats her at her own game.

And he kepp on wawking fast, and me and Puds and Leroy Shooter jumped up and went erround with him and there was a rope on Broad Street stretched along the curb to keep the crowd back, ony there warent any crowd, and us 4 fellows wawked up to the rope and started to stand there, Sam Cross saying, I drather come erly and get a good place than come late and haft to look underneath of peoples legs. Wich me and Puds and Leroy Shooter sed we would too, and we kepp on wawking and nothing wawk past but automobeels and things the same as they always do, and the more we wawked the less nothing happened, me saying, my feet getting tired, sed the funnest perrade I ever saw, and Leroy Shooter sed, I but we been heer more than a hour, if I saw a cop Id ask him about it. Each leaf in these flags represents a special province, from left to right, top row, from the oldest and most easterly, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario (the chartered members), the others according to seniority in the confederation. For a Canadian customs flag I would suggest three verticle bands, blue, white and red, union in the upper portion of the blue, large maple leaf filling the white central field, with C. C. in the leaf or below. Colors could be transposed and our present shield placed in central white stripe.

The colors in the stripes of the first flag represent our blue lakes, snow capped mountain peaks, scarlet maples, golden harvest, the tri-color for our gallant French, (also our blue skies, crimson sun sets and white coal).

Our present Canadian banner is an indistinct design placed in the fly of a ship flag, for land use, rather detracting from the effect of the ensign, by throwing it out of balance. South Africa, unfortunately, is following our lead, which further adds to confusion for us both. New Zealand has shown more originality, with her colored squares and stars, but less patriotism, by dropping the union from the canton. Australia goes and diamonds better, with her stars of the southern cross on a blue field. India has a handsome flag, union in the canton and thirteen red and white stripes in the fly. Rather much like "Old Glory," our design is near identical to form a bond of union between the old country and the new, as Canada herself does geographically and socially. Now that the world is turned upside down and so many countries changing ether their borders, or hunting, or both, Canada should readjust hers. Even such old conservative countries as China and Siam have made such radical changes in their banners, yellow dragon and white elephant, both exchanged for stripes.

THE EDITOR'S MAIL

NEW CANADIAN FLAG. Clementsport, Feb. 14th, 1919. Editor St. John Standard.

Sir,—As a furtherance of the project for a new Canadian flag, now under discussion, I would beg to submit to you my own design. It is a general or national flag, the union in the canton of our three stalwart British crosses, which is both our national pride and our national right, we can in no wise cast out, so it is only the flag we wish to Canadianize, which on a basis of 7 ft. x 13 ft. over all, the canton 3 ft. x 5 ft. consists of seven stripes, each stripe 12 in. wide, colored in the following order, from the top, blue, white, red, yellow, red white and blue, with same part colored maple leaves distributed as follows: two in the upper white stripes, three in the yellow and four in the lower white stripes, representing the provinces.

Second flag, our naval white ensign, 6 1/2 ft. x 13 ft., with six stripes and a white central field, 9 in. blue stripe at the top, 6 in. white, 10 in. red, 2 1/2 in. white, 10 in. red, 6 in. white and 9 in. blue, with the nine leaves scattered over the snow of the central field in echelon three at the top and six below.

Then our merchant marine, also 6 1/2 ft. x 13 ft., with five stripes, 9 in. blue, 15 in. white, 20 in. red, 15 in. white, 9 in. blue, four leaves in the upper white stripe, five in the lower, also arranged in echelon or stagger pattern. The flags are all on the same lines, all alike and all different, all emphatically British and all distinctively Canadian. Canada, destined to become one of the greatest, if not the one greatest marine power, we should most assuredly fly our own distinct and definite ship flag. The grand old British ensign is still being retained in the wide red stripe, with the Canadian feature added. As red is the British national color, why not add, on adopt, blue for our Canadian? As this broad domain of ours seems to possess a lion's share of blue lakes, sky and sea. Outside of a definite investigation or accident practically every bottom and every ton that floats under the British red ensign is credited to England, whereas a definite Canadian ensign would "render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's." Each leaf in these flags represents a special province, from left to right, top row, from the oldest and most easterly, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario (the chartered members), the others according to seniority in the confederation. For a Canadian customs flag I would suggest three verticle bands, blue, white and red, union in the upper portion of the blue, large maple leaf filling the white central field, with C. C. in the leaf or below. Colors could be transposed and our present shield placed in central white stripe.

Our present Canadian banner is an indistinct design placed in the fly of a ship flag, for land use, rather detracting from the effect of the ensign, by throwing it out of balance. South Africa, unfortunately, is following our lead, which further adds to confusion for us both. New Zealand has shown more originality, with her colored squares and stars, but less patriotism, by dropping the union from the canton. Australia goes and diamonds better, with her stars of the southern cross on a blue field. India has a handsome flag, union in the canton and thirteen red and white stripes in the fly. Rather much like "Old Glory," our design is near identical to form a bond of union between the old country and the new, as Canada herself does geographically and socially. Now that the world is turned upside down and so many countries changing ether their borders, or hunting, or both, Canada should readjust hers. Even such old conservative countries as China and Siam have made such radical changes in their banners, yellow dragon and white elephant, both exchanged for stripes.

HOME GARDENS ASSOCIATION

Executive in Session Last Evening—Will Link up With County Agricultural Societies—Look for Large Exhibition.

A meeting of the executive of the Home Gardens Association was held last evening at the Board of Trade rooms and plans for the coming season were discussed. It was decided to try and link up with the three county agricultural societies and the women's institute and try to hold a home garden exhibition this fall.

The report of the supervisor of garden lots, W. J. McIntosh, was presented. He reported a membership of 555, of whom 428 had planted gardens, and the total value of the produce raised he estimated at $10,000. He was elected to reorganize, and the following officers were elected: Chairman, T. H. Estabrooks; vice-chairman, Mrs. R. J. Hooper; and W. J. Burdick, treasurer; G. L. Warwick, secretary; R. E. Armstrong, chairman of lot committee; F. A. Dykeman, director; East St. John, H. B. Peck, Fairville, W. J. Linton; Caledon, W. L.

Senator Mason's statement in regard to Nuxated Iron was shown to several physicians who were requested to give their opinions thereon. Dr. Ferdinand King, a New York Physician and Medical Author said: "I heartily endorse Senator Mason's statement in regard to Nuxated Iron. There can be no vigorous iron men without iron. Pallor means anemia. Anemia means iron deficiency. The skin of anemic men and women is pale; the flesh flabby; the muscles lack tone; the brain fags, and the memory fails, and often they become weak, nervous, despondent and melancholy. Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, said: "Senator Mason is to be commended on handing out this statement on Nuxated Iron for public print. There are thousands of men and women who need a strength and blood builder but do not know what to take. In my own opinion there is nothing better than organic iron—Nuxated Iron—for enriching the blood and helping to increase the strength and endurance of men and women who burn up too rapidly their nervous energy in the strenuous strain of the great business competition of the day."

From the Congressional Directory published by the United States Government—"Wm. E. Mason, Senator from Illinois, was elected by the 50th Congress in 1887, to the 51st Congress in 1889—defeated for the 52nd Congress 1892—Elected Senator to the 55th Congress in 1897 to 1902. Senator Mason is now Congressman from the State of Illinois. Senator Mason's championship of Pure Food and Drugs legislation, his fight for the rural free delivery system, and his strong advocacy of all bills favoring labor and the rights of the masses, as against trusts and combines make him a national figure at Washington and endeared him to the hearts of the working man and the best masses of people throughout the United States. Senator Mason has the distinction of being one of the really ablest members of the nation. His strong convictions were intelligent thinking and it must be a preparation of very great merit and one which the Senator feels is bound to be of great value to the masses of people everywhere, otherwise he could not afford to lend his name to it especially after his strong advocacy of pure food and drugs legislation.

MANUFACTURER'S NOTE: Nuxated Iron, which was used by Senator Mason with such surprising results, and which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians is not a secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products it is easily assimilated and does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in this city by Wasson's Drug Store and all other druggists.

FOR AND ABOUT WOMEN

Let's Talk It Over

LA DAME.
In a story by Mary Roberts Rinehart the following conversation occurs:
The Man: "It's not work for a lady."
The Woman: "Lady! How old-fashioned you are. There are no ladies any more, just women. And if you aren't measured by our usefulness instead of our general not-worth-a-penny-ness, well we ought to be."
This set me thinking what queer changes the years have made in that word "lady," and how its meaning has almost gone in a cycle. We are getting back to the actual "loaf-giver" of its original derivation after a period of time, during which the noble word had come to have only the significance of a fashionable dame. Like its companion, "gentleman," it has been "colored" by all ignoble uses.

Mothers, in other days, used to urge their daughters to be little ladies, which usually meant that they were too old to romp and play in the care-free ways of their brothers, who, when hurt, were told to "be a man."

The Welcome Guest Has a Good Stomach

Not What You Eat But What You Digest Tells the Story... Eat Anything if You Follow With a Stuar's Dyspepsia Tablet.

The Man or Woman Who Can Eat Heartily and Not Fade Away is the Welcome Guest Anywhere.

Many people just hate to get in company. They prefer to crawl into some by-place for a dyspeptic's plate of molly oodles. Business men often resort to this form of weakness under the belief they can work better. But it isn't what you eat but what you digest that counts. Some stomachs can't digest even a glass of milk. So they simply keep on feeling dyspeptic and get gas, water brash, sour risings and so on, that the better informed and hearty eaters entirely avoid. This they do by using Stuar's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Many physicians prescribe them for indigestion, dyspepsia and other digestive disorders. They are sold at every drug store, everywhere, price 50 cents a box.

Ask your druggist more about them.

How a Woman Can Remove Hairy Growths

(Beauty Culture).
It is no longer necessary for a woman to visit a beauty specialist to have superfluous hairs removed, for, with the aid of a plain delatone paste she can, in the privacy of her own home, remove even a stubborn growth in a very few minutes. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This is applied to the hairs and after two or three minutes removed and the skin washed, when it will be left clear and hairless. Be sure you buy real delatone.

ST. JOHN CITIZENS GIVE GENEROUSLY

Free Kindergarten Taggers
Collect Over $1,900—
Many Workers Covered the City.

As a result of yesterday's tag day the funds of the Free Kindergarten Association are the richer by over $1,900 and Mrs. T. N. Vincent and her committee are very much gratified by the generous response to their appeal.

The headquarters were at the Church of England Institute and here the taggers were entertained at luncheon. Mrs. J. Bullock and Mrs. T. Flood were in charge of refreshments. The girls of the High School who assisted in the afternoon were served with tea. Mrs. E. A. Young served luncheon for the West Side workers at the Wolcott. The North End headquarters were at the library.

Miss Harriet Vincent was in charge of tags and banks, Miss Rowley being chairman of the finance committee and the Bank of Nova Scotia looked after the counting of the money.

The largest bank taken was collected by Mrs. F. E. Jordan, a sister of the president of the association, Mrs. Vincent, who is visiting her from Chatham. Mrs. Jordan was in Queens ward and her bank contained $111.

Mrs. F. W. McLean came next with $75 from the same ward.

The Rothney collection was in charge of Mrs. W. Daniel and this will add still more to the proceeds.

The ward membership was under the direction of Mrs. Byron Langley. Those in charge of the wards: North End, Mrs. H. B. Travis, Mrs. G. Murdoch; West Side, Mrs. E. A. Young; Fairview, Mrs. J. Marshall; Stout, Queen, Mrs. W. Frank Rowe, Miss Harriet Vincent; Kings, Mrs. W. B. Tennant; Duke, Mrs. Edmund Secord; Mrs. H. C. Westmore; Sydney, Mrs. W. C. RED CROSS READY.

The emergency committee of the local Red Cross chapter, as composed of Mrs. P. S. White and Mrs. Heber Vroom, found plenty to do yesterday at the St. James Street Hospital, where supplies were needed in quantities. The circles, which have temporarily given up sewing and knitting for the sphagnum moss work, are formed into a committee which is held in readiness for any sudden call, and yesterday the call was urgent and was answered. Mrs. Lawrence of the Red Cross performed splendid service in many capacities, and others of the welcome committee worked hard all day caring for the recently returned wounded. It is estimated that there are thirty-nine cases of influenza.

MADE LIFE MEMBER.

At the regular meeting of the St. John (Stone) church Red Cross Circle Mrs. Strauss was made the recipient of a life membership in the Canadian Red Cross Society. The presentation was made by Mrs. G. F.

FROM MISSION TO CATHEDRAL

Mrs. George Matthew Gives Delightful Lecture Yesterday in N. H. S. Series—Fine Musical Programme.

An afternoon of rare enjoyment was afforded those who attended the lecture delivered by Mrs. George Matthew on from "Mission to Cathedral," being the last of the series of talks on cathedrals given under the auspices of the Ladies' Branch of the Natural History Society. The rooms were filled yesterday and it is with regret that many realized that the end had come of these Tuesday afternoon lectures from which both information and pleasure has been obtained. Mrs. J. A. McCarry presided.

From the storehouse of her memory and from her wide knowledge of books, Mrs. Matthew described the labors of the band of pious and devoted men who founded the missions. She began her paper with the story of the mission at Guadalupe, "The Lourdes of America," the first Christian station in North America. Mrs. Matthew told of its picturesque legend, the Virgin and the Holy Well where the afflicted come by the thousands to bathe and be healed. Millions of pilgrims flock every year to this mission.

The lecture was illustrated with fine views and a map was thrown on the screen showing the "King's Highway," the road trodden from San Diego to San Francisco by the Franciscan monks who set up the Houses of God in the wilderness. It is the present intention to have the restored and with sacred shrines and bell towers to recall the passersby, on foot or in motors, to the worship of their fathers.

San Gabriele with its gardens and outside stairway, its bells consecrated and named, and Santa Barbara were depicted on the screen, the scenes of great beauty being something to be remembered with pleasure.

After the reading of an amusing sketch entitled "Who Are the New Yorkers?" the Cathedral of St. John the Divine of New York was shown, and in a sermon preached by Bishop Potter excellent reasons for its existence given.

The lecturer pointed out that it is a house of worship by the people, of the people, and for the people, with its chapels of the seven tongues, and the freedom and welcome accorded to all who enter there.

The musical programme was in charge of Mrs. Sevil and was very fine indeed, consisting of piano and vocal solos, illustrative of the religious and national characteristics mentioned in the address. The programme follows:

Indian Lodge, MacDowell; Romance, Schumann; MacDorothy Bay and Ave Maria—Solo, Miss Louise Anderson; violin obligato, Mrs. H. Stetson; pianist, Mrs. Sevil.

Piano—Ave Marie, Heusselt, Mrs. Sevil.
Piano solo—Carnival, Grieg, Betty Cruikshank.

The boys of Trinity choir under the leadership of Miss Dougherty sang the "March of the Marquis of Lorne's hymn, "Unto the Hills," and an American patriotic anthem composed by Edward Manning, formerly of St. John.

Miss Louise Anderson sang "O Rest in the Lord," very beautifully. Mrs. Matthew and Mrs. Sevil were congratulated upon the delightful programme given.

Fisher, president of the circle, who spoke of Mrs. Strauss' faithful work and her untiring attendance at the meetings of the circle. Mrs. Strauss made a feeling reply, thanking the members for the gift.

There was a large attendance at yesterday's meeting, and the usual afternoon tea was served.

W. C. T. U. APPROVE OF WOMAN INSPECTOR

At Meeting Yesterday Vote to Assist on Thrift Day by the Purchase of Stamps.

Frances Willard Day was fittingly observed by the W. C. T. U. at their meeting held at the home of Mrs. Seymour, Carmarthen Street. Mrs. Seymour was in charge of the meeting, and after devotional exercises read from sketches of the Life and Works of Frances Willard, which selections were greatly enjoyed.

A paper on The Street Education of the Children, was read by Mrs. Christie.

Miss Perry, of the Y. W. C. A., gave a general account of the activities of that association, telling of the hostesses, technical classes, clubs and other lines of work. A pleasing approval was given by Mrs. Barnard, "Nothing Shall Ever Grow Opposed."

The president reported a letter received, asking the Union to voice their approval of a woman as factory inspector, and this was unanimously passed. The secretary, Mrs. Hanspacher, read a letter from the Thrift Stamp Committee, asking the W. C. T. U. to vote approval towards the purchase of stamps on Thrift Day.

The County Union meeting, which takes place shortly, was discussed. Mrs. Hoar moved a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Seymour and her daughter, Mrs. Hutchings, for their kind hospitality, and Mrs. H. W. R. Lorton thanked Miss Perry and Mrs. Barnard.

Y. W. P. A. EXECUTIVE.

To complete plans for Thrift Day a meeting of the executive of the Y. W. P. A. was held last evening in the G. W. V. A. rooms. The acting president, Miss Alice Hawthorn, presided, and a new member of the executive, Miss Reta MacNeil, was elected to fill Miss Brock's place.

Mrs. Helen Church was appointed convener of the entertainment committee and Miss Winifred Upham, of the telephone committee. Miss Charlotte Dodge, of the ushering committee reported that only four ushers will be required, as one of the Imperial staff has returned from overseas.

Mrs. Helen Church was appointed treasurer of the Seaman's Institute canteen with Miss Parnell as assistant. Miss Stewart was authorized to pay several bills. Miss Marion Craik-shank acted as secretary in the absence of Miss deSoyres.

Too Severe Cold Took Lungs.

COUGHED PHLEGM and BLOOD.

On the first appearance of a cough or cold, do not let it get a grip of it at once before it has a chance to grow worse, and get settled on the lungs, causing bronchitis, pneumonia and other serious lung troubles.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will cure the cough or cold on its first appearance and perhaps save you years of suffering.

Mr. G. P. Stratyckuk, Canora, Sask., writes: "Last winter I took a most severe cold on my lungs and was coughing up phlegm and blood most of the time. I had the cough for over two months and took a great deal of different medicines, but found no relief from them. At last a friend advised me to take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I did, and it gave me great relief in a very short time, and today I am enjoying good health again."

The marvellous results that Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has achieved in its cure of coughs, and colds has caused many so-called "pine" preparations to be put on the market, which do not contain any pine whatever. See that you get the genuine when you ask for it.

Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees trade mark; Price 50c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WEDDINGS.

Miller-Cochrane.
A very pretty wedding took place in St. Paul's (Valley) church yesterday afternoon when the Rev. Archdeacon Crowfoot, united in marriage Miss Nina Kathleen Cochrane, only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Cochrane, 51 Wright Street, and Ronald Miller, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, Douglas Avenue. The church was well filled with friends of the young couple. They were unattended. The bride wore a travelling suit of tulle velvet with satin hat to match and a coronet bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bride, who was in the office of Post Office Inspector H. W. Woods, received from the staff a set of silver etree dishes, and the groom who is employed with the Nashwaak Pulp and Paper Co., received from Senator N. M. Jones a silver tea service. Many other handsome and useful presents received testified to the esteem in which they were held. The happy couple left last evening for a trip to Boston and New York. On their return they will make their home at Lancaster Heights.

DRESS WARM AND LATE SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE

KEEF FEET DRY
Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.
Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the blood and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. If the function of the kidneys is a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the uric acid to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.
Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant remedy. It is a bromide which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

Tells How to Stop a Bad Cough
Surprising results from this famous old home-made syrup, readily prepared and costs little.
If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with hoarseness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or your throat wakes up during the night with croup and you want quick relief, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any drug store can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth). Pour this into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This mixture is a most reliable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick relief.
You can feel this taste hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the inflamed membrane that lines the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.
Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine bark, which is the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.
There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, stick to "Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Specks Floating Before His Eyes
When specks start to float before the eyes, when everything turns before for a few seconds and you feel as if you were going to faint, you may rest assured that your liver is not working properly.
The essential thing to do in all cases where the liver is slow, lazy or torpid, is to stir it up by the use of a medicine that will clear away all the waste and poisonous matter from the system, and prevent its accumulation. The troubles arising from this accumulated mass which has collected in the system.
Keep the bowels open by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no liver trouble of any kind. They will clear away all the waste and effete matter which has collected and make the liver active and working properly.
Mr. John R. Morrison, Grand River Falls, N. S., writes:—"Several months ago I was troubled with a sour stomach, and had specks floating before my eyes. I took five pills of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills which cured and cleaned my blood before any length of time. I told my friends about it and they got some, and they, too, found themselves different since they had them. I recommend your pills very highly."

WEST ST. JOHN BANDMASTER PERSONALLY CONGRATULATED BY THE PRINCE OF WALES

Murray W. Long, With Former 104th Band, Was With 26th N. B. Regiment in Bonn, Germany, at Trooping of New Brunswick Colors—His Royal Highness Enjoyed Dancing to Music Furnished by Band and Then Congratulated St. John Man on Efficiency of New Brunswick Musicians—Picture of Band With Lt. Col. Brown and Capt. Rising Taken in Bonn, Germany.

The New Brunswick Band, second to none in the Canadian Expeditionary Force, is the name that the 104th Battalion Band receives not only in England and vicinity, but in France, Belgium and Germany, for this wonderful musical organization was recently with the New Brunswick 26th regiment, to the occupation in Germany, and which is still a unit. The above picture was taken by Albert Molzer, a photographer in Bonn, Germany, and no doubt many of the boys who are still with the famous band, and who have been away from home for many years. From left to right in the front row are Captain P. M. Rising; Lt. Col. W. R. Brown, D.S.O., and O.C. 26th; and Bandmaster Murray W. Long, W.O., all of the 26th N. B. Canadian. The picture was only recently taken, and was received by a representative of The Standard yesterday. It was only a short time after the signing of the armistice that Captain Rising arrived in England for the purpose of taking the New Brunswick regimental colors from the Cathedral, and with an escort to take them to the regiment which at that time was with the army of occupation, and were on the Rhine in Germany. The Band of the 140th Regiment, in charge of Bandmaster Charles Williams, which had been for a long time in England, had many months previously crossed the Channel, being the first to go as a unit to the front line, and was attached to the famous Princess Pate regiment, so the only band at the time the armistice was signed, and that was from New Brunswick in England, was the 104th, which was then attached to a reserve regiment, and this organization was chosen to proceed to Germany with the rest, and colors, and be present at the trooping of the New Brunswick colors in Germany. It goes without saying that Bandmaster Long and his comrades were overjoyed at the privileges extended to them, for on numerous occasions members of the band had endeavored to get away from England and get into the real game of war on the Western Front. After entertaining the wounded and sick in many Canadian hospitals in England, including the Ontario Military Hospital at Orpington, and Kitchener's Hospital at Brighton, and other engagements on the Grand Piers at Brighton, the band, whose name had become famous in Old England, was sent to the famous Fighting 26th, and added to their laurels in France, Belgium and Germany in the 2nd Division and the Canadian Corps generally. At Bonn, Germany, the Prince of Wales enjoyed dancing to music furnished by the band, and then took occasion to personally congratulate Bandmaster Murray Long for the efficiency of his band. It is an honor that Bandmaster Long has good reason to be proud of, as is every member of the band. Captain P. M. Rising has received many compliments for this band, which he has been interested in since it organized with Lieut. Col. George W. Fowler, in Sussex, in August 1915. As for the other officers, Lieut. Col. Brown, officer commanding the 26th since the death of Lieut. Col. MacKenzie, St. John people know this genial officer well, he having trained in St. John as second in command with Lieut. Col. J. L. McAvity, and left with the original 26th. As for the Bandmaster, Murray W. Long, too, has been carrying on ever since and is deserving of congratulations from his fellow citizens to himself and fellow bandmen for the grand success. It is expected that the band, as well as the Fighting 26th, will return home before long, and one real reception awaits them.

NEW BRUNSWICK MEN IN POSITIONS

Capt. Coyne to Overseas Clearing Services as Paymaster, Capt. March, Barracks Officer, Capt. Smith Assistant Provost Marshal.

Capt. Coyne, assistant paymaster of this district, has received notice of his transfer to the overseas clearing services as paymaster on the conducting staff, and will leave St. John in the course of a day or two. His place will be taken for the present by Capt. Ferguson, who has been depot paymaster. Capt. J. Edgar March, now in command of a company of the Depot Battalion, has been notified of his appointment as assistant barracks officer, the intention being for him to take over the duties as barracks officer in a few weeks, when Capt. Burke of Montreal, who is now in charge, is transferred.

These changes, and others which are in contemplation, are a part of the policy inaugurated by The Standard, of placing New Brunswick men in positions in military districts No. 7, instead of bringing men from other parts of Canada to hold down jobs which could be well filled by local men.

Reuben Higgins Says School Teacher Punished His Son Harold Monday Afternoon—Wants Inquest Held.

Harold Higgins, the 12-year-old son of Reuben Higgins, Victoria Lane, died yesterday afternoon at his home. The boy was before Magistrate Ritchie Saturday on a charge of truancy Monday morning, his father states, he did not have his lessons prepared, and did not go to school until that afternoon, when he was severely punished for both offences by his teacher, Miss Daisy Spencer, Grade V. Alcega school.

Returning home after school the boy complained of great pain, and was unable to rest comfortably in his bed. Dr. Harold S. Clarke was summoned around 7 p. m., and gave the boy medical attention, but early yesterday morning he became delirious, remaining in that state until he passed away into his last sleep shortly after five o'clock in the afternoon. Dr. Clarke, who attended the case, says that the boy convulsed, and that the chafestment received was but an unfortunate and irreparable coincidence. He believes that there is no necessity for an inquest. Mrs. Higgins, mother of the deceased, died three weeks ago, leaving seven children, the oldest only fifteen years.
