IN COLD BLOOD

A Number of Unarmed Natives Suspected of Being Spies Shot by Boers.

Cape Town, Sept. 17.—General and Lady Hildyard will sail for England on the steamship Hawarden Castle next Thursday.

Col. Scobell, who has been operating against the Boer invaders in the northern part of the colony has returned to Cape Town.

It is reported that the Boers have shot six unarmed natives in the Steynsburg district on suspicion of being spies.

A Cape policeman named Fivaz, who was lately made prisoner by Van Reenen's commando, has arrived at Hopetown. He stated that he and two native boys were sleeping on a farm at Winterhoek. In the morning they found five Boers around the house, and escape was impossible. The Boers shot the two natives, and made Fivaz walk to their laager at Strydenburg. Van Reenen declared that he intended to keep him prisoner, make him walk ahead of the commando until he dropped and then abandon him. Van Reenen, however, subsequently yielded to the request of Malherbe, and released him. The commando then went to Kree Kloof, where they caught two more natives from Prieska, whom it is stated they intended to shoot. Mr. Wright, a farmer, asked Van Reenen to spare their lives, and merely to give them a beating. Van Reenen, however, made no reply, and departed, taking the scouts with him. Later on Wright heard shots, and afterwards found the scouts' bodies lying on the road a mile away. The Boers also jamboked one of Mr. Wright's native boys.

"We were very much pleased with the design you sent. It was beautiful and appropriate." The Victoria Ave. Greenhouses receive such words of commendation every day. Telephone No. 181.

ROOSEVELT RETAINS CABINET AND ENDORSES M'KINLEY'S POLICY

The New President is Very Earnest in his Determination That no Change in the Course of the Government Shall Come Through Him or His Administration.

Washington, September 17.—President Roosevelt at 3 o'clock to-day convened his first cabinet meeting held in Washington. At this meeting the President asked the members of Mr. McKinley's cabinet to retain their respective portfolios throughout his term and announced that his administration would follow the policy outlined by President McKinley in his Buffalo speech.

After the obsequies over the late President, the cabinet, at President Roosevelt's request, assembled at the residence of Commander Cowles, where the President is staying until after the funeral, principally for the purpose of informing their new chief of the state of affairs in their respective departments. The President desired to learn if there were any matters of moment requiring his attention before his departure to-night for Canton. He was assured that there was nothing of pressing importance.

The President then addressed his advisors collectively, as he had previously done individually, requesting them all to retain their respective positions in his cabinet. Mr. Roosevelt expressed the hope and expectation that every member would serve throughout his term, for, he said, he tendered the appointments as if he had just been elected to the presidency and was forming an original cabinet. The President said, however, there was one difference between the present tender and that of an original offer, namely, under the present circumstances they were not at liberty to decline.

PRESIDENT'S POLICY.

Upon being asked by a member if resignations should be formally presented in the usual manner, the President answered that his action at this meeting had precluded the necessity of presenting resignations.

The discussion turned upon the policy of the administration, and Mr. Roosevelt announced that he regarded the speech of the late President at the Buffalo Pan-American exposition, the day previous to the tragic shooting as outlining the policy to be followed by the administration. It cannot be learned at this time whether or not all the members will be willing to serve the full term.

The cabinet members, with the exception of Secretaries Hay and Long, will accompany the remains of the dead President to Canton to participate in the funeral ceremonies on Thursday.

Secretaries Hay and Long remain in Washington at the President's request, Mr. Roosevelt thinking that some members of the cabinet should continue in Washington.

Aside from the cabinet meeting President Roosevelt saw a few callers during the afternoon. At 7:30 o'clock he and Commander Cowles left the latter's residence for the Pennsylvania railroad station to take the train to Canton.

Mrs. Roosevelt will leave here at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning for Oyster Bay, Long Island.

PLEA OF NOT GUILTY ENTERED FOR ASSASSIN CZOLGOSZ

Prisoner Himself Refused to Say a Word and Paid no Attention to the Tokens of Mourning.—Crowds Hissed Him.

Buffalo, Sept. 17.—Leon F. Czolgosz, the assassin of President McKinley, was arraigned before Judge Edward K. Emery, in the county court at 3 o'clock this afternoon on the indictment for murder in the first degree in fatally shooting President McKinley in the Temple of Music at the Pan-American Exposition, on September 6. Again the stubborn prisoner refused to plead, or even to utter a word around, and the Hon. Logan L. Lewis, ex-supreme court justice, entered a plea of not guilty. The accused will be tried in the supreme court next Monday morning.

Crowds flocked to the city hall to-day to see the prisoner, but the uncertainty surrounding the question as to whether or not counsel could be secured for him, saved congestion of the court room and corridors of the hall.

The most notable incident of the day was the hissing of the prisoner by the crowds who surged around him as he was being escorted down the stairs still draped in mourning garb. The strong guard of patrolmen and deputy sheriffs had been dispensed with, so that the people were able to get nearer the prisoner as he passed to and from the court room.

As a result of the urging of President Adelbert Root, of the Erie county Bar Association, Judge Lewis called the attorney assigned as counsel by Judge Emery yesterday, called at the Erie county jail at 2 o'clock this afternoon to see the prisoner. Czolgosz refused to talk to Judge Lewis and even refused to answer questions as to whether or not he wanted any counsel. Judge Lewis said that nevertheless he would appear for the prisoner upon arraignment even if he decided not to accept the assignment of the court.

PRISONER WOULDN'T TALK.

Absolutely no demonstration having been made against the prisoner yesterday the authorities decided that the strong guard was unnecessary to-day. Czolgosz was taken from the jail through the tunnel under Delaware avenue to the city hall by Detectives Solomon and Geary, being handcuffed to the latter.

In passing from the basement of the city hall to the court rooms on the second floor, Czolgosz was compelled to pass close to the black and white bunting with which the pillars, ceilings, windows and stairways of the city hall were draped, when the body of the President was lying in state on Sunday, which garb will not be removed till after the burial Thursday. These evidences of the city's grief apparently made not the slightest impression on the prisoner, and he gave no honor to them or the large portraits of the President tastefully draped with American flags, than he did to the questions of the court or district attorney.

The prisoner entered the court room just as the city hall clock was striking 3 o'clock, and as many of the curious spectators as could surge into the court room behind him. A murmur ran through the audience, but the gavel of the judge and the staff of the crier, soon restored order. As soon as Czolgosz was before the court and the handcuffs were removed, District Attorney Penney began the formal arraignment. He read the principal charges of the indictment in a voice of severity, and asked:

"How do you plead, guilty or not guilty?"

Not a sound was uttered by the prisoner. He stood mute before the bar of justice, apparently continuing his feat of insanity, which was noticed for the first time when he was taken into court yesterday.

TRIAL ON MONDAY.

When the prisoner refused to plead the district attorney asked him if he understood what had been read, and receiving no answer, told him that he had been indicted for murder in the first degree, and that he could answer "yes" or "no." For an instant Czolgosz glanced at Mr. Penney, and it was thought he intended to speak, but he did not.

Judge Lewis then addressed the court at length, saying that he had called upon the defendant, but had been unable to ascertain of any wish on the defendant's part, as to the employment of counsel. He said that his associate, Judge Titus, was in Milwaukee, and that he had appeared informally to enter a plea of not guilty on behalf of the defendant, as the law required such a plea under the circumstances. He asked permission to reserve the right to withdraw the plea and enter a special plea or interpose a demurrer if, on consulting with Judge Titus, they should decide not to ask the court to assign other counsel.

District Attorney Penney gave notice that he would move to have the indictment transferred to the supreme court, and would also notice the trial for next Monday morning.

"I know of no reason why defendant should not be ready next Monday," replied Judge Lewis. At his request, however, the orders will not be entered until Judge Titus returns, which will probably be in a day or two.

Judge Lewis said he might also take an order of the court for aliases to examine the prisoner, as the district attorney had informed him that eminent alienists had examined the prisoner on behalf of the people. This gave rise to the belief that a special plea of insanity may be entered by the counsel for the defense.

Carrie A. Nation Arrives in Ottawa—Visits two Bar-Rooms.

Smashes a Mirror in one and a Number of Bottles in Another to the Delight of the Hoodlum element.

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—Carrie A. Nation went to-day on a smashing expedition in Ottawa and did a little damage in two saloons, interviewed the chief of police and the mayor, lectured in Orme's Hall and caused quite a furor in the city. The saloon smasher from Kansas came rather unexpectedly, although some weeks ago it was announced that she would visit the capital. When it was announced that she was coming to the city few people believed it, but this afternoon Mrs. Nation, smiling, arrived in the city, and was welcomed by the reporters and her local managers. She put up at Russell, and about five o'clock started down Sparks street. Mrs. Nation wore a long linen cloak over a black dress, and also wore a poke bonnet. She carried a brown leather bag of large size, hanging by a strap from her shoulder, and carried a hatchet. Escorted by several newspaper men and followed by scores of people, Mrs. Nation went down to the Globe Hotel, at the corner of Bank and Sparks Sts., and walked into the bar. A big crowd followed her and the bar was filled in an instant.

"You should be in a better business," she said to the silent bartender, who kept looking at the hatchet. "Don't you know you are a home-smasher?" asked Mrs. Nation. "I don't want to hurt you, but I am going to show you that I don't approve of your business. I am going to smash that looking glass," said Mrs. Nation, pointing at a large mirror behind the bar.

"Don't you do it," said the bartender.

"Yes, I will," said Mrs. Nation. "You'll go to jail if you do."

"No, I won't." So, there and then she threw the hatchet, and the glass scattered in a hundred pieces.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
It will continue to exist, annoy, and perhaps agonize, as long as these humors remain. It is always radically and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla which expels all humors, and is positively guaranteed to cure all skin diseases.

THE FUTURE WHEN THERE WILL BE BETTER PROSPECTS OF SUCCESS.
One fact in connection with the strike—a fact which is of lasting credit to the strikers—should be strongly emphasized. Although some sixty or seventy thousand men have been engaged in an industrial war for many weeks, there has been practically no violence against life or property, and not a life has been sacrificed. From this fact the character of the strikers may be judged.

THY WILL BE DONE.
A nation mourning, refusing to be comforted, walking through the Valley of the Shadow, grieving over her distinguished dead. A nation of crepe, with flags half-masted, waving to a wailing wind, of drums muffled, of arms reversed.

Is Lincoln dead? or Garfield?
Not a mere President now, but a martyr. Martyr means much; that little bullet added a name to the immortals.

Is Lincoln dead? or Garfield?
Those mute lips burn with the added eloquence of Heaven. Before his words were drowned by the plaudits of a few hands; now they run in limpid fire across the horizon of all the nations.

Is Lincoln dead? or Garfield?
The man with the brain of a mite can grasp the full glory of those words: "Thy will be done."

Is Lincoln dead? or Garfield?
That whisper speaks louder than proclamations. It sounds clear and distinct, over the roar of the world. Orations pale beside it. Just a whisper that floated out from that sick-room, limitless, boundless, in its influence. The world is better to-day because he said: "Thy will be done."

GOLD FIELDS OF THE WEST

J. W. Young Writes Another Interesting Letter on the Manitoba Harvest.

Planet Correspondent Meets Many More Chathamites on his Western Tour.
Fort Saskatchewan, Alberta, Aug. 29, 1901.
The West is certainly a glorious country—God's country it has rightly been named and it will prove to be the promised land of this fair Dominion.

Even here, where the country is wooded, and the farmers practice mixed farming, visions of the Manitoba fields of golden grain will crop up.
I saw Manitoba at her best, when the fields of wheat were just ripening. The expression of the golden side you see nothing but the golden grain, showing bright in the sunlight as far as the eyes can reach.

There are no fences here to mar the landscape, and the sloughs occasionally meet with in the prairie, are full of wild ducks which are not afraid of the train, and are scared by whistles paid no attention.

Portage la Prairie was my first stopping place in the west. It is a town of about five thousand inhabitants, built right on the prairie about two miles from the Assiniboine River. It receives its name from the fact that here, the voyagers had to make a portage of some 18 miles to Lake Manitoba and in consequence the settlement is very old.

SAD CASE

An Unfortunate Charged With Lunacy Before Judge Houston To-day.

Stephen Finn came up before County Magistrate Houston this morning, charged with insanity. It appears that Finn, whose mind is without doubt "unhinged," has lately been in a dangerous condition and endangering the lives of the farmers who reside near him. It is claimed that he has a habit of apparently aimlessly, standing in his kitchen door and firing off a revolver, also of stealing the property of neighboring farmers. The evidence, however, did not show that he was, what might be called, dangerous, although from his actions in court the Magistrate was satisfied that he "was not all there."
This, however, would not warrant his imprisonment, as in order to convict him, the evidence would have to show that he was a dangerous man. Dr. Charteris made a brief examination of the man's condition but was not prepared to say that he was a lunatic.
The case was adjourned for a week, in order to give the Crown an opportunity to produce a brief examination of the man's condition but was not prepared to say that he was a lunatic.
J. G. Kerr appeared for the prosecution, and J. B. Rankin, K. C., for the prisoner.

Last year the directors of the West Kent Fair promised us a good exhibition and we got it. They had a good attendance, and by careful management were able to meet all the obligations of the year, and in addition were able to reduce the society's liability about eight hundred dollars. This was so very encouraging that they determined to make the Fair this year much better than ever and three more years like the last would place the society on an independent basis and make their financial position very much stronger. This is the only County Fair we have, and the directors naturally look to every resident of the County and city to do everything possible to help it along. Take pride in it, Mr. Reader, and make it a success. The directors devote very considerable and valuable time to the promotion of our annual exhibition; they do it only from good will for the welfare of the city and county; they are not paid in any manner whatever, and it is only right that they should receive every possible assistance and encouragement. Everything looks very promising for the exhibition this year on October 8, 9, 10; entries are rapidly coming in; space in the main building is well taken; the implement and stock exhibits promise to surpass those of any past year. Let us all lend a hand and make it a success. Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc.

WITH HER HATCHET

noise subsided Mrs. Nation said—"Give me back my hatchet." The barkeeper refused, but Mrs. Nation said she would make him, and to get rid of the lady the drink-mixer handed over the hatchet. "A good-looking man like you should be in a better business," said the old lady. "Aren't you ashamed of yourself? Just think how many homes you have smashed, while I depend on you for my living!" The Bible says: "Strong drink is raging." Leave this business and do better. Then Mrs. Nation went out, and the crowd followed. The mayor stood in a doorway to see her go by, but a prominent school trustee pointed out his worship, and Mrs. Nation went up the stairway after him. The mayor had to stand, and Mrs. Nation shook hands with him and told him she hoped he helped to carry out the law. His worship was holding a cigar. "I see you smoke," said Mrs. Nation. "I do," answered the mayor, and he looked up the stairs as if he was in a hurry to go. "You're in a hurry, are you?" asked the lady, and Mayor Morris said "Yes," and Mrs. Nation shook hands and bade him good-bye. She next went down to the Hub Hotel, on Sussex street, and lectured the bartender about selling liquor, and then smashed a number of bottles with her hatchet. Two policemen put her out of the hotel and took her up town to the Russell. To-night Mrs. Nation gave a lecture and denounced the liquor traffic and told about her troubles in Kansas. Afterwards she walked to the hotel, followed by a cheering mob, and Mrs. Nation only escaped to her room with difficulty. The crowd wanted an open-air speech. When Mrs. Nation was on the street in the afternoon she accosted many people who were smoking and told them that they might be better employed. A reporter was introduced to Mrs. Nation, and a clergyman, and he told the or was introduced to Mrs. Nation, and a clergyman, and he told the minister's congregation. When Mrs. Nation met the smooth chief she praised him for his society, and afterwards went to the police station and addressed the policemen, telling them to always do their duty. Mrs. Nation says people are divided into two classes—home defenders and home offenders. She may stay in Ottawa another day, and will probably go to Toronto to lecture in Masses Hall. Public opinion is divided in Ottawa as to whether the woman is sincere or crazy or merely a fakir. She is a kindly-looking woman. Talking SHOE Prices

Did you ever hear of shoe prices talking? Probably not, but at this store the prices speak right up for themselves. Prices that are low to begin with and economical to end with—prices that are unmatched for genuine lowness—prices that appeal to all classes of buyers, and prices that are not low because we say, but because buyer after buyer returns to this store and says, "We have tried elsewhere but return after wasting our time." No better place on earth to buy shoes.

SHOES that are just to your liking, selected with unflinching efforts for the benefit of the patrons of this—The Boston Shoe Store.

Theatrical

Light entertainments appeal to the popular tastes now-a-days, and Roland Reed's comedy, "Humbug," by Fred Marsden, which will be at the Grand to-night with its exceptionally strong company, headed by Walter Hodges and Miss Anne Leonard, is an attraction fully abreast of the times. The play not only has a plot—which is something foreign to plays of this kind—but it introduces catchy music and dazzling costumes, also clean specialties.

The successful comedy, Roland Reed's "Humbug," with Mr. Walter Hodges and Miss Anne Leonard assisted by a cast of metropolitan favorites, will be seen at the Grand to-night. This will be the only visit to this city this season, and all who enjoy good, wholesome fun, good singing, dancing, and a thoroughly refined comedy performance should not fail to see this superior production, as it is beyond doubt the most elegantly costumed and staged farce comedy.

PRESERVING THE SABBATH

Rev. Mr. Shearer Addressed the Local Executive of Lord's Day Alliance.

Complains of the Sale of Detroit Sunday Papers and Intoxicating Liquor in the Maple City.

The Executive committee of the Lord's Day Alliance met last night in the lecture hall of the First Presbyterian Church to confer with Rev. J. G. Shearer, of Toronto, general secretary, who addressed the committee about the general outlook, which is much more promising than at any time before. Since last visiting Chatham Mr. Shearer has been over all Canada in the interests of the Alliance, addressing meetings, organizing branch alliances, etc. He reports that in that time the number of such organizations in Ontario has grown from 90 to 160 and that almost every place of importance in the other provinces and in the N. W. T. is similarly organized. Three features of the work prominent at present Mr. Shearer reported upon, much to the encouragement of the local committee:

First—The movement among organized labor men to co-operate with the Alliance in seeking to protect every man in his right to the weekly rest day. This began in British Columbia but has since become general. In Toronto the Trades and Labor Council has publicly declared its willingness to work in co-operation with the Alliance in seeking (a) to secure legislation which will make it unlawful for corporations as well as their employees to work on Sunday; (b) to obtain and make general the Saturday half-holiday; (c) to sustain the authorities in enforcing the Lord's Day Act against all offenders, among the most common of which are sellers of liquor, ice cream and soda water, tobacco, Sunday papers, etc.; (d) to assist in preventing Sunday excursions. In Toronto these labor men number nearly 10,000. It means much, therefore, to have their active co-operation in preventing the Americanizing or Europeanizing of our Canadian Sabbath.

The second movement is one among outstanding laymen in all walks of life, who are coming to appreciate at its full value the service the Lord's Day Alliance is rendering to Canada, and are identifying themselves prominently with it. He instanced the fact that the mayors of Port Franks, Port Arthur, Sudbury, Parry Sound, Killisnoe and many other towns are presidents of the organization in their respective towns. No less than eight of the local members of the committee are candidates recently nominated for the legislative assembly.

The third thing reported by the general secretary is the fact that the Ontario Government has recently undertaken the enforcement of the Lord's Day Act. It took action through its local officials against Sunday excursions in Port Colborne, Toronto, Brantford and Ottawa, and in three cases out of four was successful in having offending steamer captains fined. It has put a stop also to the sale and delivery of the American Sunday papers in various parts such as Niagara Falls, where one defiant vendor was fined $10 and costs. This dealing also with Sunday work in mining towns of New Ontario.

The local committee has under consideration some local forms of Sunday business, among others the sale of liquor and Detroit Sunday papers, which has assumed alarmingly large proportions and the officials whose duties it is to attend to the enforcement of the law against these evils will be expected to do their duty. The Executive agreed to secure, if possible, Rev. Dr. Johnson, of London, to address the annual meeting, which will be held on Thursday, Oct. 17th.

Rev. Mr. Shearer goes to-day to Brantford where on Thursday he, in company with John Charlton, M. P., Rev. Chancellor Wallace, of McMaster University, Rev. Dean McKenzie, of Brantford, Rev. F. A. Cassidy, Guelph, D. J. O'Donohue, of Ottawa, and others are to address the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada on the subject of co-operation between organized labor and organized Christianity, in defense of the weekly Rest Day.

HONORS FOR PROF. PHILIP.

The September number of the quarterly magazine "Trustee," of Elkhart, Indiana, publishes a letter from "Canuck," in which he describes the London Camp this year. In doing so he says: "The camp was very successful from every standpoint. Mr. W. Philip, formerly of Sarnia and Chatham, was appointed brigade bandmaster and he gave every satisfaction. The bands in the field were under the instruction of Sergeant Major Cockburn. There was an improvement in the bands of both brigades over the brigades of last year, particularly in the 2nd Brigade. Mr. W. Philip had a crack band of nineteen players in the 1st Brigade with several good soloists, namely, Clarence Robinson, solo cornet; Roger Philip, solo trombone; Charles Philip, solo euphonium; Albert Philip, solo Eb clarinet and a soloist; also M. O'Rourke and E. F. Bauer, solo Bb clarinets, the latter from Detroit. The band while in camp were much sought after. This was the 190th military camp of which Mr. W. Philip was appointed brigade bandmaster, and he asserts that he is good for as many more.

AGREEMENT ARRIVED AT

City and Lake Erie Railway Representatives Discuss Colborne St. Spur.

City Solicitor Wilson Will Draw up a By-law in Accordance with the Settlement Submitted.

The committee of the city council held a consultation with General Manager Woollett and Solicitor Cockburn, of the L. E. & D. R. R. Company, yesterday afternoon, re the Binder Twine spur on Colborne street. This is the meeting which was arranged for at the last meeting of the City Council, so that some amicable arrangement might be made as to the two by-laws which have been submitted governing the putting in of the spur.

One of these by-laws was prepared and drawn up by Mr. Wilson, the city solicitor. In it he made certain provisions which he claimed were necessary to make, in order that the city might be guarded against any actions for damages, etc. He also claimed that it was drawn up, the same as all other by-laws that he has drawn up governing the putting down of railway spurs. This by-law was submitted to the Lake Erie Company, but their solicitor objected to some of the clauses that were included in the by-law, and drew up one to accord with his views and submitted a copy to the Council, saying that it was the only by-law under which the railroad would put down the spur.

The City Solicitor, in his turn, objected to Mr. Cockburn's by-law, claiming that it left the city liable. There were present at the meeting yesterday afternoon Messrs. Cockburn, Wilson and Woollett, of the Lake Erie Co., Mayor Sulman and Alder, McCoig, Cowan, Marshall and Fleming. Mr. Woollett said that Mr. Cockburn's by-law was drawn up according to the Railway Act. He would like to work in harmony with the Council, but he did not wish to assume a greater risk for the railway company than he should.

Mr. Cockburn stated two objectionable points in Mr. Wilson's by-law. One was that it did not state where the spur would commence, and the railway wished to start at Prince street. The other was that the company will be obliged to remove the siding at any time. He contended that the work of putting down the siding would cost about $1,000, and if that clause were left unaltered, the company might be obliged to take up the track the day after it was put down, and thus be at a great loss of time and money.

It was finally decided by Mr. Cockburn and Mr. Woollett that if it could be arranged by the city to have a satisfactory by-law drawn up by their solicitor in which it was specified that the spur should be commenced at Prince street, that also, in the event of the Binder Twine Co. becoming defunct and no other industry is commenced on their premises the railway company shall pay the city a certain rental and will have the use of the track laid down in the spur, it would be perfectly agreeable to the railway company.

It was decided to meet again next Friday afternoon at two o'clock, when the by-law will be drawn up and matters finally arranged.

BEAT 'BURG

Baseball Season in Chatham Brought to a Successful Close—Another on Waddell.

The local baseball season was brought to a close yesterday with a game with the Wallaceburg nine. The game was a fairly good exhibition but was rather slow at times. Arnold and Bowers did the pitching for the locals and had the boys from the Glass Town well in hand all the time.

Anderson and Clancy did the twirling for the visitors, and the latter pitched an elegant game, having good speed, excellent control and also finding his position in fine style. Hewson, the local center fielder, made a phenomenal running catch and had three timely assists to his credit. Other features of the game were Sowerby's base stealing, the Maple City second baseman twice pilfering home while the ball was being returned from catcher to pitcher, and Clancy's sharp, clean fielding.

The "line-up" was as follows: Chatham—Hewson, l. f.; Cook, s. s.; Sowerby, 2nd; Bowers, 3rd and p.; Kony, c.; Arnold, 3rd and p.; Mohr, l. f.; Scott, 1st b.; Baden, r. f. Wallaceburg—Anderson, p.; Bourassa, 2nd; Appleford, l. f.; Kelly, c.; Dunson, 1st b.; Elliott, s. s.; Clancy, 3rd b.; Earley, r. f. Score by innings:

Wallaceburg..... 0 0 1 0 1 1 0 5—9
Chatham..... 2 1 2 3 1 0 4 0—13

ANOTHER ON RUBE WADELL. They are telling great stories on Waddell. The latest illustrates one little method by which he wins the farmers to his side. Just as he was about to pitch the ball into Libertyville game he paused a moment and eyed the third baseman meditatively.

"Come over here, kid," he remarked. The third baseman acted up and stood by the slab. "You next," said Rube to the first baseman. Up trotted the initial sack man. "Come here, sonny," to the shortstop, and that individual, swelling with pride, advanced to take part in the conference. Rube hesitated as becomes royally and then looked round at the second baseman. That fellow looks lonesome, but hopeful. So Rube called him in. "Now," said Rube softly, "you fellows stand here. I'm going to strike the next three men out." And he did.—Detroit Free Press.
