SPENCER—DICKENSON

At Athens, on Sept. 12th, at the home of the bride, Wilcox street, Mr. Richard Warffe Dickenson, agent for the International Harvester Co. of Hamilton, and Harriett Isabel Spencer, (nee Miss Janson) only sister of the late Robert Janson of Westport, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, by Rev. L. M. Weeks, B.D. Only the immediate relatives were present. Much pleasure was added to the occasion by the presence of the aged mother of the bride and father of the groom, who have both passed their four-score years. The home was beautifully decorated with flowers and ferns. The bride was dressed in a simple gown of cream Henrietta, with trimmings of white silk, and was assisted by her little daughter, Gladys, who was dressed in blue silk and carried a bouquet of gladioli. The groom was attended by the son of the bride, Master Ralph. The groom's present to the bride was a gold crescent set with pearls, to the bridesmaid a gold bracelet and to the groomsmen a scarf pin set with pearls.

The happy couple left by auto car, accompanied by the children of the bride as far as Brockville. The bride's going away gown was a tailor made suit of blue ladies' cloth. They intend visiting Ottawa, Montreal and Kingston, the former home of the bride. While Athenians extend their congratulations, much regret is felt at the removal of the bride from her village home of four years' duration.

GARDINER—BROWN

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brown of Addison was a scene of delightful interest on Wednesday, 6th inst., being the marriage of their eldest daughter, Mabel A., to Mr. John H. Gardiner of Lyn. All parts of the home were beautified with plants and flowers that would have delighted Flora herself. The marriage took place under an arch of evergreen and flowers. Rev. W. Henderson of Valleyfield, P.Q., uncle of the bride, officiated, assisted by the Rev. W. H. Burnett of Addison. Miss Annie M. Brown, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Morris Billings of Brockville, groomsmen. At one p.m. some sixty invited guests sat down to a sumptuous banquet.

The ministers in well chosen terms paid deserving tributes to the bride, who was also remembered by the Methodist church choir. The integrity of the groom was commended; and the young couple start with the well wishes of a multitude of friends. Both families were among the earliest settlers, and four generations were represented at the marriage in Mr. Gardiner's family. The presents to the bride were very numerous and of valuable. Before separating several items of entertainment were given, including selections by the bride and groomsmen.

The young couple started for Toronto and Niagara Falls, and will settle at Lyn on their return.

STEVENS—MAVETY

A very quiet wedding took place at Delta on Thursday morning last at 10 a.m., the contracting parties being Miss Pearl Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Stevens of Athens, and Mr. Ephraim Mavety of Athens. The marriage was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage by the Rev. Mr. Garrett.

The happy couple spent a short honeymoon at Newboro. On their return last evening a reception was tendered them at the residence of the bride's parents on Elgin street, when a very pleasant time was spent.

Both bride and groom have a host of friends in this section who are extending hearty congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Mavety will take up residence in Athens for the present.

FALL FAIR

The following fall fairs may prove of interest to our many readers:—

- Lansdowne—Sept. 26 and 27.
- Ottawa—Sept. 8 to 16.
- London—Sept. 8 to 16.
- South Mountain—Sept. 14 to 15.
- Frankville—Sept. 28 to 29.
- Lyndhurst—Sept. 19 and 20.
- Delta—Sept. 26 and 27.

LYNDHURST FAIR

All arrangements are now completed for Lyndhurst's great fair, which will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 19 and 20.

The first day, of course, will be devoted to placing in position the fine exhibit of farm and dairy produce, manufactures, ladies' work, and poultry, and these will be judged at 1 p.m. The people of Lyndhurst district are loyal to their fair, and can be relied upon to bring out the best the country contains.

Besides a carefully selected board of directors, the fair this year will be under the management of the following experienced officers:

President—R. J. Wood.
First Vice-Pres.—Herb McArdle.
Second Vice-Pres.—James Young.
Treasurer—C. B. Tallman.
Secretary—Ziba Jackson.

This year expert judges have been engaged to judge horses, cattle, sheep and swine, and in every respect the fair will be found up-to-date.

The programme for the second day will be one of the best ever presented at this popular fair, and will include a good race and 2.40 race, for which good purses are offered, combination race, farmers' race, slow race, boys' foot race, etc.

Special excursion rates on regular trains of the B. W. & N. W., good going on Sept. 19 and 20; return, Sept. 21. The return fare from Athens is only 30c.

Arrangements are now in progress for a baseball match between two of the leading teams of the county for a silver cup, value $30, donated by the manager of the Crown Bank at Seeley's Bay. Game will take place on the afternoon of first day.

RECEPTION TO MR. AND MRS. G. P. CHAMBERLAIN

The Chilliwack, B. C., Progress of August 30th contains the following paragraph:

"On Wednesday evening of last week the Harrison House was a scene of festivity, when Mr. G. P. Chamberlain arrived with his bride from the east. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain (nee Miss Emma Johnston, Charleston, Ontario) were married at Kamloops on Monday, Aug 21st, on the arrival of the Imperial Limited, and after spending a few days in the mountains arrived here on Wednesday evening. In honor of the occasion, the Harrison House, where they will reside for a time, was illumined and the town band serenaded the newly married couple in front of the hotel, while the scene was enlivened by the ascension of rockets and the firing of guns in honor of the event so aptly described by the poet Longfellow in "The Hanging of the Crane." The Progress extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Chamberlain on the occasion of their marriage and wishes them a happy and prosperous life together."

Funeral Service

With every mark of respect and with many manifestations of deep sorrow, the obsequies of the late John A. Rappell were conducted on Friday afternoon last in the Methodist church.

The funeral was under the joint auspices of the Orangemen and Independent Foresters, three members of each society acting as ballbearers, and the brethren marching in procession. The casket was covered with beautiful floral tokens of esteem.

Long before the hour for the funeral, friends began to arrive at the church, so that when the service opened every available seat was occupied.

The pastor of the church, Rev. S. J. Hughes, delivered the sermon and was assisted in the service by Rev. Wm. Oliver of Frankville. The speaker took for his text I Samuel 20: 3, and gave an impressive discourse on the uncertainty of life and the need of preparation for the life to come. He paid a warm tribute to the worth of deceased—a tribute that was warmly endorsed by all in the very large congregation; for few, if any, were present who could not recall some kind work spoken or some beneficent act performed by Mr. Rappell that had helped to brighten their way through life.

At the close of the service, the remains were deposited in the vault. To the sorrowing relatives the Reporter joins with their many friends in offering heartfelt sympathy.

INTERNATIONAL LESSON, NO. XIII. SEPT. 24TH, 1905

Review.—Read Psalm 31:11-12.

Summary.—Lesson I. Topic: God's protection of the people. Place: Jerusalem and the Assyrian camp. Hezekiah was king of Judah and Sennacherib of Assyria.

II. Topic: Study of an Old Testament prayer. Place: Jerusalem. Great suffering and sickness came upon Hezekiah, King of Judah.

III. Topic: The suffering, atoning Saviour. Place: Jerusalem, the prophet Isaiah's home. This is the deepest and loftiest of the Old Testament prophecies.

IV. Topic: The gospel's gracious call. Place: Jerusalem. Regardless of the mean opinions of men and their lack of faith in the Saviour, a magnificent kingdom was founded.

V. Topic: Chapters in a sinful life. Place: The kingdom of Judah, particularly the capital, Jerusalem. The faithful Hezekiah closed his life, leaving his son Manasseh to reign in Judah.

VI. Topic: Vital factors in a successful life. Place: Jerusalem and Judah. Manasseh's effort to reform his kingdom did not produce much fruit.

VII. Topic: Trying to destroy God's word. Place: Jerusalem. At the death of Josiah, his son Jehoahaz reigned three months in Judah.

VIII. Topic: Persecution of the Righteous. Place: Jerusalem. The kingdom of Judah was fast hastening to its end.

IX. Topic: Decline and fall of the kingdom. Place: Jerusalem. Zedekiah was the twentieth and last king of Judah.

fell on my face. We obtained evidence that God would deliver, hastened back to camp and began to exhort in the power of the Spirit. Wicked men turned pale. Defeat was changed to victory.

III. "Thy keeper" through suffering. "The Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all." (Isa. 53:6). A minister was reading these words to a poor sick woman whom he had often tried in vain to lead to Christ.

IV. "Thy keeper" graciously inviting. "Seek ye the Lord while He may be found" (Isaiah 55:6). A pleasure-loving young man was brought to the verge of the grave.

V. "Thy keeper" through righteousness. "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people" (Prov. 14:34).

VI. "Thy keeper" from sin. "Remember now the Creator in the days of thy youth" (Eccl. 12:1). Josiah was started right and kept right.

VII. "Thy keeper" through obedience. "Amend your ways, and your doings, and obey the voice of the Lord your God" (Jer. 26:13).

VIII. "Thy keeper" in temptation. "Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself" (Dan. 1:8).

Golden Text: "The Lord is thy keeper" (Psa. 121:5).

Germany Fight Cholera Plague Country in a State of Siege With the Bacillus the Only Enemy.

Berlin, Sept. 11, 2:50 p.m.—A sort of sanitary state of siege exists in the district that now extends from the River Oder northwest to the Russian border, about 250 miles, and from Danzig to Grodzisk, south of Posen, about 150 miles.

It is a state of siege in which all the inhabitants are auxiliaries of the medical authorities, and the only enemy is the terrifying bacillus which is travelling in the streams or moving slowly from one city overland to another, attached to articles of use or in the systems of persons.

FOUND THREE-TOED HORSE.

Berkeley, Cal., Sept. 11.—In the first official bulletin about the fossils unearthed by the expedition to the John Day region, in eastern Oregon, published by the geology department of the University of California, are described several of the strange monsters that peopled the country known as the Bad Lands.

Among these remarkable beasts are extinct pigs and peccaries as large as cows, camel-like quadrupeds, and, not the least interesting, the famous three-toed horse.

LONG LOST HUSBAND.

Montreal, Sept. 11.—"A very sad affair, indeed," remarked Judge Sicotte this morning, in referring to a case in which a man had returned to this district recently from the United States to find that his wife, some years after hearing he had died in California, had married again.

At the end of four years all trace of him was lost, and through a friend his wife heard from California that he was dead. Four years afterwards she married again and lived happily with her new husband until recently, when her first husband unexpectedly came on the scene.

Tumors Conquered Without Operations

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Cases of Mrs. Fox and Miss Adams.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dreaded enemy, Tumor.

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive menstruation accompanied by unusual pain extending from the ovaries down the groin and thighs.

Another Case of Tumor Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—About three years ago I had intense pain in my stomach, with cramps and raging headaches.

A Western Man Train Lion as "Fighting Editor". New Harmony, Ind., Sept. 11.—Clarence P. Wolfe, editor of a newspaper here, proposes to put a lion on guard in his office, to be the "fighting editor" in the event of any fighting having to be done.

While a circus was here last week a cage containing the lion was blown over in a storm, and the animal was badly injured. The circus manager could not take it with him, and Mr. Wolfe bought it for a mere song. He says he will expect it to "take care" of persons who come to the office to object when the paper contains something which they do not like.

LOVE AND A TITLE

How it happens that she is alone with him...

CHAPTER XXIII

On the right a rising line of mountain—green, purple and crimson in the rays of the setting sun...

It is September—in fact it is the week of the marquis' and marchioness' visit to Germany...

Suddenly, and yet slowly, a human figure emerges from the shadow of the forest...

He stops short for lack of words, and stares at her in his old way...

"I'm afraid," he says, looking down at her dress...

"It does not matter—no, not in the slightest," she says...

"Yes," she says, and just touches her torn skirt with a good natured contempt...

Hal laughs, and just touches her torn skirt with a good natured contempt...

As she takes it in her hand, Hal notices for the first time in his life...

"Ah!" she says "is it interesting, this fishing. Will you not go and catch some more?"

"But not far, please," she says, with a naive smile...

"I should like to see you catch another," she says...

"I came up to see you catch a fish," she says...

"Stop! wait!" cries Hal, in alarm...

"It's gone right through the sleeve of my dress and into my arm," she says...

"You mustn't pull it!" she says...

"I'm—I'm afraid it hurts you," he says...

"Only by cutting," says Hal, reluctantly...

operation and sees the little jet of blood follow his knife...

"What a little thing to cause so much fuss; isn't that the right word?"

"Does it hurt?" he asks, anxiously...

"No," she says, "it isn't hurt at all."

"That is well," she says, pulling down her sleeve...

"No," says Hal, with rather a rueful laugh...

Hal shudders palpably. "Don't mention such a thing!" he says...

"I suffered so much with indigestion that my life had become a burden," says Miss Nellie Archibald...

"The girl holds her hands under her broad, tilted hat...

"I had no idea you were so near," she says...

LYN

St. John's church festival held on Friday evening last was a most enjoyable affair. There was a big attendance, and everything passed off pleasantly, everyone having a fine time. The hall was beautifully decorated with grain, fruits, etc. The dinner given by the ladies was a 1 in its appointments and all did justice thereto. The Rev. Austin Smith, rector of the church, presided, and seated with him were the Revs. Daley and Knox of Lyn and T. Deulry Woodcock and Norman McLeod of Brockville. The Times says:—Mayor Stewart and Mr. Derbyshire, M.P., of Brockville, were there to represent the town and the state, while the classic city of Athens was represented by the ever welcome A. E. Donovan. These visiting gentlemen made fitting addresses which were well received by the assembly, while Miss Nora Kenville and Frank L. Tooker, of Brockville, two popular vocalists, diversified the proceedings by singing acceptably and giving encores. Miss Melissa Wood played the accompaniments for the singers with ability. There was also a gramophone which discoursed agreeable entertainment.

The festival was a marked success and the rector, churchwardens and congregation must feel gratified at the results. Mr. Derbyshire responded to a vote of thanks to the visitors which was moved by Messrs. Stafford and Pettam the churchwardens.

DELTA

The special attention of cheese manufacturers and cheese box manufacturers is drawn to the special prizes of the Merchants Bank of Canada offered this fall at the fairs in this district. Looking towards the improvement in construction of the cheese box, they offer a special prize of $10—a first prize of $7 and second $3 for the best cheese in the best package. Special attention of the judges to be given the UTILITY and cost of box.

Exhibitors at Delta will please note that the above is the correct copy of the Merchants Bank's special—not the offer for 8 cheese as stated in their list of special prizes, which was not authorized.

Fifty Against Two

It is not reasonable to expect two weeks of outing to overcome the effects of fifty weeks of confinement.

Take a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla along with you. Three doses, daily, of this great tonic will do more than anything else to refresh your blood, overcome your tired feeling, improve your appetite, and make your sleep easy and restful.

A Progressive Institution

The Frontenac Business College of Kingston has proved itself a most worthy addition to the institutions of learning which have already brought credit to the Limestone City. Owing to the steadily increasing attendance the proprietors have found it necessary to enlarge their premises and increase their staff of teachers. It is the most modern and best equipped Commercial School in Eastern Ontario, and everything will be found well suited for the comfort and convenience of their patrons. Thorough and practical courses are given in Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Bookkeeping and all Commercial subjects. Individual instruction is given in all departments by competent and experienced teachers, and situations are secured for all graduates. Those contemplating taking a business training will find it to their advantage to write for a new catalogue and terms. T. N. Stockdale, Principal.

John Bracken, a pioneer resident, died at Ellistown last week. He was the father of Warden Bracken of Seeley's Bay.

BY ROYAL WARRANT, MILLERS TO H.H.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES

What is meant by "Protein" in flour?

"Protein" in food is the food element that makes bone, muscle and brain.

Pure flour contains more protein, in most useful form, than any other food—but the flour must be pure.

Bran and shorts are waste—if your flour contains this waste, it is proportionately short in "protein."

Now, if you buy an inferior, poorly milled flour, you are paying for bran and shorts, not "protein," and to that extent you are wasting money.

ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR is milled to make it the purest in the world: therefore it contains most protein, is most nourishing, is most economical to use.

It pays the housewife to insist upon getting "Royal Household" guaranteed flour, instead of taking a poorer flour which the grocer may be interested in selling.

Ogilvie's Royal Household Flour.

SOME SUIT FACTS

The man who doesn't care what his suit costs him will have it made by a Custom Tailor, unless he is in a hurry.

The man who does care what it costs but does not care what he gets, won't get his suit here, that's certain.

The man who both cares what it costs and cares what he gets,—that's the man we delight in.

PLEASE WORK AND PROVIDE FOR

Our suits at $5.00, $7.00 and $10.00, are well worth the time it will require in coming in to see them.

They are certainly unusual suits for the money.

Additional Locals

Newboro Fair will be held next Monday. There is every prospect of a big days' outing.

Miss Eva, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Buell, was married to Mr. J. E. Jones, at Lyn yesterday.

Mr. R. Taber and daughter, Miss Clara at home and Mrs. Sheldon of Oak Leaf, have gone to Ottawa to see the fair.

Mrs. C. H. Elliott and her daughter Mrs. N. F. Kerr returned to Toronto after a two months visit with friends at Athens and Smith's Falls.

The Epworth League are entertaining the students of the Athens' schools in the Methodist church this evening.

The B.W. & N.W. Ry. Co. are offering single fare rates to Lyndhurst Fair, good going Sept. 19 and 20, returning until Sept. 21. Everybody go.

Mr. Geo. M. Patterson, who has been on an extended visit to relatives and friends in Athens and Brockville, has returned to his home in Denver, Col.

Inspector J. J. Tilley, on behalf of the Ontario Education Department, has sent to the Model School 25 books bearing on subjects of practical interest to the students in training there.

An important real estate transfer took place a few days ago by which Mr. William Johnston, M.A., became the owner of the property belonging to the Karley estate, situated at the corner of Main and Henry streets.

The work at the new school is being pushed with much vigor. The carpenters finished on Friday, and Mr. Eaton and men are now engaged in lathing and plastering. It is thought that the school will be ready for occupation about 1st of November.

Mr. Edwin Gardiner, wife and sister have been visiting friends in Athens. He is in the employ of the National Cash Register Co., of Dayton, Ohio, and went to Ottawa on Monday morning to exhibit at the fair in the interests of the company.

Dr. John Patterson, who is visiting his mother on Reid street, contributed a beautiful solo at the evening service in the Methodist church last Sunday. Dr. Patterson's voice is as powerful and as pleasing as ever, and his many friends were delighted at hearing him.

Rev. S. J. Hughes, as announced in our last issue, preached a most helpful sermon to the students of both the High and Model Schools on Sunday evening. Mr. Hughes advanced many suggestions for the safeguarding of both young men and women in their future walks of life.

The Sunday service in the Presbyterian Church will be held in the morning at 10.30 o'clock. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated and the Missionary contributions of the congregation received. The usual preparatory service will be held in the basement of the church on Friday evening at half past seven.

Miss E. Miller, daughter of Mr. Willoughby Miller of Greenbush, met with a serious mishap on Friday last. She was endeavoring to stimulate a slowly burning fire by adding to it coal oil out of a large can, when the oil ignited, exploded the can (which contained about a gallon), and set fire to the young lady's clothing. She rushed into the yard and her screams brought members of the family, by whom the fire was speedily extinguished, but before she was badly burned about the body and one hand and arm. Her condition is still serious, though she is resting quietly.

Rheumatism The most stubborn of diseases has at last been conquered. Cured at Last Tuck's Rheumatic Bone Oil after numerous most trying experiments has proved that Rheumatism is curable. Its method of procedure is simple like all important discoveries. It attacks the disease from the points of least resistance, and succeeds where others fail. It is a powerful penetrating oil that goes straight to the bone, the seat of the trouble, and after a few applications the agony of pain ceases, the stiffened joints are made supple and the inflammation is relieved. Here is what a sufferer says of it:— I had rheumatism so bad that I was crippled with it. For seven months I doctored and tried everything but my joints only got larger and stiffer and all the time I was suffering dreadfully. For a good deal of those seven months my husband had to lift me in and out and I had to go on crutches. I was advised to try Tuck's Rheumatic Bone Oil and it did me good from the start. It seemed to penetrate right to where the pain was and eased it. Before I had used a bottle my joints relaxed and three bottles cured me completely. I have not used any now for over a year. Mrs. H. LEVER, Montague. If suffering from Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Headaches, Sprains or Bruises, ask your medicine dealer for a bottle of Tuck's Bone Oil or send 50c direct to THE TUCK BONE OIL CO., Limited, Smith's Falls.

How nice it is to be neighborly financially, that is, being able to borrow or lend your neighbor a five semi-occasionally. We can often borrow a five, but there are times when it would tax the capacity of this joint to loan twenty-five cents—and still some of our subscribers are two and three years behind.

The Renewal a Strain Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kind of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged. The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were then so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of the appearance of health. Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic, which may avert much serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly to be recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion and assimilation, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

A HANDSOME BOOKLET A new publication entitled "Montreal and Quebec" has just been issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System for general distribution throughout the several channels at their command throughout the world. The booklet contains a combination of interesting facts about the two most historical and interesting cities of the Dominion, and there are forty pages of good reading matter profusely embellished with half tone illustrations from photographs of scenes recently taken of the principal sights and attractions in the two cities, and in addition short chapters are given descriptive of Montmorency Falls, the miracle-working shrine of Ste Anne de Beaupre and attractive features of Levi.

A copy may be obtained without cost by applying to J. QUINLAN, DPA G.T.R., Montreal.

Give Fair Play to

A really reliable remedy for headache—Zutoo. If you have got it into your head that Zutoo Tablets will hurt you, you are mistaken. It isn't fair to us for you to judge Zutoo by the drug cures. It isn't fair to yourself to suffer from headache, when this really harmless vegetable headache cure is within your reach. The fair thing for both of us is—to judge Zutoo on its merits—to test it. If you find it does not cure your headache, sick, nervous or otherwise, in twenty minutes, and leave you feeling good every time—no bad after effects, then discard it. But do not condemn it unfairly without a trial, and keep on suffering from headaches. You really do not have to, and one trial of Zutoo will prove it. All we ask for Zutoo is fair play—that you give it a trial before concluding as to its merits or demerits. Wont you do this? You'll be glad ever after if you do. We'll send trial tablets for nothing, or you can buy them at dealers in 10c. and 25c. packages. B. N. Robinson & Co., Coaticook, Que.

REJECT TAINTED MILK

A. H. WILSON, DAIRY INSTRUCTOR, ATHENS, ONT. There is a clean bright way along which dairymen should work. Unfortunately, in the past a few unclean persons have passed over it and much old machinery has been used. However, this old machinery is being replaced by new and clean equipments. The governments and dairy schools have done much to remedy matters. The worst things instructors have to contend with is the taking in of tainted milk. This is a heinous practice and very injurious to the industry. Many cheesemakers take in cans of milk from the patron of the neighboring factory after it has been rejected by the other maker—and justly rejected. It is utterly impossible for fancy cheese to be made from such milk. The same maker knows that he shouldn't accept the milk and would refuse it from one of his own patrons. The teachings of such experts as have charge of the dairy schools should be followed and then no tainted milk would be taken at any factory. Those who have taken a course in one of Ontario's dairy schools may have made mistakes in manufacturing, but when this is the case it is because they have not carried out strictly the instructions as given at one of these schools. To put it more forcibly, every poor cheese made in Ontario is due to the makers not following the methods taught in dairy schools. Every factoryman should follow the teaching of experts and take in no milk that has been rejected at a neighboring factory, whose maker knows tainted milk just as well or better than he does. Only from the best and purest milk in clean factory can a fancy, neatly bandaged cheese be looked for. Pure milk and clean factory are the prime requisites of good cheesemaking.

Wilhelm's Poverty.

The German Emperor, with an annual income of approximately $1,000,000, is a poor man, and his greatest difficulty in making both ends meet. He does not receive a farthing in his capacity as German Emperor.

His income as King of Prussia amounts approximately $200,000 per annum. The emperor of Russia receives an annual allowance of $1,000,000, and the emperor of Austria an annual allowance of more than $200,000.

The amount of $200,000 granted annually to the German emperor in capacity as king of Prussia, is not taken from the national exchequer, but from revenues from state dominions which were formerly the private property of the Prussian royal house.

The Kaiser's women are paid abnormally high wages, and all of his employees receive liberal pensions in old age or in case of sickness. He also provides liberally for his widows and children out of his own private purse.

Practically speaking the German emperor is thus obliged to live on his royal income of $200,000 per annum, which is altogether insufficient for his requirements. The Kaiser has no personal extravagance, but lives a simple and strenuous life of hard work and little luxury.

The Kaiser is not a dandy, and spends a comparatively small amount each year on his clothes. The horses he rides are not of particularly good breed, which is not unusually expensive. He is not a gambler and does not indulge in other dissipations which would be excusable in his position.

He is, however, extravagant in one respect, namely, in keeping up the imperial magnificence of his court, which has never previously attempted by a King of Prussia. The support of relatives forms a first charge on the Kaiser's income. He has to provide an annual allowance for his six sons, and has to maintain a supreme court for several more distant relatives.

The Kaiser's income, now that he is married, will be somewhat larger, but it is not expected to cost the Kaiser at least $200,000 per annum. His other sons are growing up, and it will soon be necessary to provide for them as well.

The Kaiser has to maintain a separate court for Prince Henry of Prussia, Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia, Prince Albert of Prussia and the widowed Princess Frederike Karl of Prussia. He has to own an extremely expensive luxury.

from physical pain in surgical practice that the deliberate preference for endurance rather than oblivion excites interest and remark. Yet only a few years ago such endurance was a matter of course. To-day many people, even to save their lives, would not face the pain of the old-time practice, so much have habit and the knowledge of surgical luxuries affected us. Just as it is impossible for him who has grown into the life of ease and self-indulgence to take up the regimen of early days, when he worked with his hands and lived on hard fare, so it is impossible for most of us to face pain as our fathers and mothers did.

Some students of the Chinese tell us their remarkable endurance of pain is not so much stoicism as lack of sensitiveness. They do not feel pain as the Caucasian does. If that be true it is easy to believe in great variations not merely in self-control, but in sensory responsiveness. Perhaps our people, besides being less habituated to the endurance of pain as a matter of course, are also more sensitive to it, not only mentally but physically. The modern nervous tension and quick responsiveness may lay upon the hero of to-day a vastly greater burden than was borne under the same suffering by the man of an earlier time, who was not braver or more self-contained or more the master of his own soul, but whose physical being did not vibrate with anything like the same intensity under external impulse.

England Talks With France. On March 1 the British Post Office opened to the public telephonic communication between London and the following French towns: Besancon, Fezampy, Le Mans, Le Preport and Lons-le-Saunier. The charge for three minutes' conversation is $2. At the same date new press rates for telegrams between Austria and London were established, the reduced toll, however, being limited to certain hours—between 6 p. m. and 9 a. m.

"MY PHYSICIAN TOLD ME I MUST DIE," but South American Kidney Cure cured me of that awful Bright's Disease. This is a sentence from a letter of a well-known business man in a western town who through overwork and worry had contracted this kidney pestilence. It will relieve instantly and cure all kidney diseases.—102

Indians Always Kill Twins. Indian twins are a great curiosity, for it is said that Indians never permit twins to live. Twins, in their belief, are heralds of impending evil, for a great many years ago the abduction of two beautiful twin daughters by members of a distant tribe was the cause of war and great loss of life. Hence, probably, originated the practice of killing Indian twins as soon as they are born.—Indian School Journal.

Wonders of the Bamboo. An authority declares that the bamboo, so important a source of wealth in Japan and China, exists in many varieties, and not only supplies the Orientals with building materials, but is used for ropes, mats, kitchen utensils and a host of other articles. One kind is even cultivated as a vegetable, the young shoots being eaten like asparagus.

GIVE THE 1/2 A CHANCE and it will make one pound of flesh on less food than any other farm animal because its digestive juices are stronger.

It is the ideal meat making machine. Hence every effort should be made to keep it "up" and growing from birth. No let up because it is too much effort to get it back to a profit.

It is less effort to draw a wagon in a given distance if constant motion than if stopped and started every once in awhile. Clydesdale Stock Food will keep your hogs "up" and growing because it gives a better appetite, thereby increasing the digestive fluids, and these dissolve and assimilate more food and at a profit.

It keeps them in tip-top health enabling them better to resist disease, thereby making a firmer flesh. It gets them to market weight much sooner, saving feed bill. Nothing better for hogs. Equally good for Horses Cattle and Sheep.

Nothing injurious to it and can stop feeding it without harmful effects. If you are not satisfied after feeding it your money cheerfully refunded by the dealer. Same for all Clydesdale preparations. Clydesdale Carboline Antiseptic will keep your pens and pigs clean. TRY HERCULES POULTRY FOOD. CLYDESDALE STOCK FOOD CO., LIMITED, TORONTO.

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children. In other conditions the gain is slower—health cannot be built up in a day. In such cases Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment; a food rather than a medicine. It's a food for tired and weak digestions.

Queen Makes Money From Dairy Products. 'Tis an old story that the kings of Bavaria have long derived a very considerable profit from their breweries in Munich, and now from a neighboring corner of Europe come the details of another instance of royalty in business.

Wilhelmina, Queen of Holland, is making money by selling milk and butter. As a child Wilhelmina "kept chickens." She loved them dearly, had pet names for most of them, fed them to the queen's taste (literally), and, quite incidentally, made pocket money out of them. With her accession to the throne the barnyard was forgotten, but perhaps the royal state has become a matter of course, allowing the queenly thoughts to travel back to the more prosaic pleasures of other days.

Whatever the reason, not long ago Prince Henry bought for his royal wife several cows, which are placed on the rich land adjoining the palace at Loo. These prospered so well and their milk and butter added so much to the delights of the palace table that the queen decided in the business of dairying. The manager of her estates has visited all the famous stock farms of the country and has purchased thirty-four of the best cows to be had in all Holland. These have joined their fellows who led the way in the experiment, and hairy products are now on sale under the palace auspices, for the venture has proved far more than self-supporting.—From Success.

The Economic Value of Goat Milk. The goat, except as a troublesome pet and the perennial subject of jokes, is in this country but little known. During the past year, however, a number of pure bred milk goats have been imported and made the nuclei of herds. Requests for information regarding the milk of these animals have been sufficiently numerous to lead the United States Department of Agriculture to issue a bulletin upon the subject. Therein G. F. Thompson supplies facts regarding European countries and asserts in a very convincing manner that from both a financial and a dietetic standpoint the people of this country are heavy losers by not keeping goats, an industry worth $20,000,000 annually. Attention is directed chiefly to two points: 1. The superior nutritive value, especially for children and sick people, of goat's milk as compared with cow's milk. 2. The greater ease with which goats are raised and kept, a point of particular interest to the poorer classes. Foreign writers are quoted at length as to the value of goat's milk for children and invalids, and in cooking. The flavor and odor of the milk, which the average American regards as once and for all settling the question, is said to be almost wholly under control by the exercise of care in feeding and milking the animals; there is a special flavor, as in the case of milk of other animals, but the objectionable "goat" attributes are entirely avoidable. A very weighty argument in favor of the goat is its comparative immunity to tuberculosis, this disease being extremely uncommon. The statement of some writers that immunity is complete is not supported by facts. The bulletin may be summarized as a very strong argument for the goat, and should be consulted by all those who care to know more about what promises to be an increasing industry that possesses important medical and sociologic features.—American Medicine.

Child's Image on Bank Notes. The accepted design for the new Australian five kroner bank notes, which will shortly be issued, is remarkable for the picture of an unusually beautiful child's head, which forms its chief ornament. The model for this head was the son of Prinz Franz Josef Rohan, whom the artist saw one day on the street, and with whose beauty he was so much struck that he asked for the child's name and obtained the parents' permission to make a drawing of him for this purpose.

Ananias Left Far Behind. One day last week a bold, bad jack rabbit sat down in a field near where John Kroth was at work and began curling his whiskers, surveying meanwhile with considerable arrogance the man behind the plow. Somewhat aggravated by its impertinence, Mr. Kroth looked for a stone to knock the everlasting freckles off its purple nose when he spotted the tortoise. Picking up the terrain, he buried it with such force and accuracy that it struck and killed the rabbit. The tortoise then picked itself up and ambled away, seemingly unconcerned of the fact that it had gone its historical ancestor one better.

GREAT SUBMARINE DESERT.

Vastly Volcanic Plateau in Midst of the Pacific. Professor Alexander Agassiz, lately returned from a six months' cruise in the Government sounding boat Albatross, has discovered and charted a great submarine desert, covering about two million square miles of the bed of the Pacific Ocean. The water in this very shallow sea is most absolutely level, says Everbody's Magazine, in very shallow as compared with the great depth of the rest of the ocean floor. In fact it is a vast volcanic plateau. This is shown by the dredgings, which are pieces of magneesian rock, volcanic in origin, and are covered with water. Every day the Albatross' dredging apparatus would bring up bushels of what now appeared to be peas, now potatoes, now cannon balls. The average depth is two thousand fathoms. The ocean desert is most absolutely level. That is, soundings show but slight variation of depth. A curious thing, this great plain of desert water, without a trace of life, plan or animal.

The Persuasive Bill of Fan. The first thing a hungry guest entering the dining room of a hotel looks for is a menu. Nine times out of ten he does not know just what he wants until he is informed of what there is to be had. It is the same way with a large majority of shoppers. Before they buy they want to see the mercantile bill-of-fare. It is manifestly to the merchants advantage to accommodate them by printing an announcement of his daily specialties in the evening newspaper. An attractive menu—gastronomical or mercantile—has often induced the patron who thought he only wanted ham and eggs to put away a course dinner.

SUFFERED TORTURE FOR FOUR YEARS Then Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Wm. Dogg's Rheumatism. "I was so bad that I could not lie down, but had to sit Night and Day in a Chair." Sundridge, Ont., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—Mr. William Dogg, of this place, now hale, hearty man, tells of his almost miraculous cure of rheumatism by using Dodd's Kidney Pills. "For four years I suffered excruciating torture," says Mr. Dogg, "I was scarcely an hour free from pain. I could not lie down to rest, but had to sit up night and day in a chair." "I was treated for rheumatism by several doctors, and also tried several medicines without receiving any benefit. Almost in despair, I feared I never again would be free from pain. Then I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and I bought a box. I procured a box and soon found they were doing me good, and before I had finished the second box I was entirely free from pain and a new man." "The Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Rheumatism by putting the Kidneys in shape to take the cause—Uric Acid—out of the blood."

MANCHESTER'S NEW DOCK. Made Deep Enough to Accommodate the Largest Liners. Manchester, England, has a new dock, the opening of which the other day was made the occasion of a common event, which King Edward and Queen Alexandra presided. The new dock is 28 feet deep and will accommodate the largest liners. It is to be known as No. 9, or King's Dock.

Linking Cape With Cairo. A further extension of the Cape-Cairo Railway to a point 350 miles north of the Zambesi has been decided upon. Sir Charles Metcalfe, who is now superintending the work on the Zambesi, reports that rapid progress is being made with the line to the north of Victoria Falls, and it is expected that the railroad will be at Kaloma, the administrative centre of northwest Rhodesia (Barotseland) early next year. The railway was completed to Victoria Falls, 1,600 miles from Cape Town, last June. Kaloma is 100 miles further north.

Wheels for Vehicles. Attention has been called by technical writers to the fact that the wheels of vehicles intended for driving roads have not kept pace in development with the other parts of carriage mechanism. Experiments with heavy vehicles indicate that wheels should be made both higher and broader. In England it has been recommended that with a maximum axle load of eight tons the width of tire should be about ten and a half inches. Increase of the diameter of the wheel is said to be more effective in preventing damage to roadbeds than width of tire.

Premeditated Blunders. A correspondent of an advertisers' journal argues that occasional purposely perpetrated blunders in spelling and grammar in "ads" are helpful because they attract attention. It logically follows that it would pay a merchant to "skin" his customers right and left because they would soon get to talking about him. Blunders are common enough without premeditation. The advertiser who has to resort to typographical monkeyshines to focus the public eye on his announcements is either using the wrong medicine or trying to tell a story that nobody wants to hear.

Some Things Women Don't Do. (Kansas City Journal.) A letter on the street, whose wife was probably at home getting out a neighbor's washing to make money to buy the children's shoes, asked a busy man the other day if he ever saw a bald-headed woman. "No, I never did," replied the busy man. "And I never saw a woman waiting around for a man to buy her shoes with a cigar in her teeth and running into every saloon she saw. Neither did I ever see a woman sitting all day on the street corner on a dry goods box telling people how the secretary of the treasury should run the national finances. I have never seen a woman go fishing with a bottle in her pocket, sit on the bank all day and go home drunk at night. Nor have I ever seen a woman yank off her coat and say she could lick any man in town."

GIRL GARDENERS OF KENT. Lassies Who Have Established an Agricultural Colony.

The raising of "truck" for the summer markets has been profitably achieved by some enterprising English girls, who have for some time been in business in a farming colony in Kent.

There are six girl gardeners in this "college." Each has her separate plot of ground on the large farm. The fair farmers join together in purchasing fertilizers, seeds and roots and in the cost of hauling their produce to market. But each girl works her own plot, and on its products depends her share of profit or loss.

The gardeners live together in a special building at prices reduced by this co-operation, and under the chaperonage of an old family domestic. The girl gardeners operate a market, gardening on ten acres of land, which they rent for the purpose.

RIOTING AT TOKIO; MARQUIS IS STONED.

Mob Attacked and Burned Down the House of Minister of Home Affairs.

Threatening Demonstration Near Residence of Baron Komura and Premier Kestura.

Mob Incensed Because Park Was Closed and a Man Stabbed in the Back.

A Tokio cable: (Delayed in transmission.)—E. H. Harriman, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad, has been threatened, and the Marquis Ito, President of the Privy Council, has been stoned by mobs. Neither of them was injured.

Mr. Harriman at Tokio.

New York despatch: At the Southern Pacific office it was said that no word had been received from Mr. Harriman from Tokio. His associates were of the opinion that the hostile demonstration was in no sense personal. Mr. Harriman's visit to Japan, it was declared, was entirely for recreation and pleasure.

RIOTING AT TOKIO.

Mob Burned Home Minister's Home and Threatened Others.

A Tokio cable despatch says: Serious rioting followed the attack to-day on the office of the Kokumin Shinbun, the Government organ. A mob attacked and burned the official residence of the Minister of Home Affairs, which stood between the Nobles' Club and the Imperial Hotel, and faced Hibuya Park, which was the scene throughout the day. Threatening demonstrations occurred in the neighborhood of the official homes of Premier Katsura and Baron Komura (the Foreign Minister now in the United States), but the police succeeded in preventing injury to the occupants or damage to the buildings. The situation to-night is threatening. Turbulent crowds fill the streets and it is feared that much damage to property is possible under cover of darkness. All the police reserves are performing urgent duty and heavily guarding danger spots. The streets in the neighborhood of the Kokumin Shinbun are closed and two hundred police form a cordon around the office.

The destruction of the Home Minister's residence was intensely dramatic. Throughout the day a series of demonstrations occurred in the neighborhood of the building, and late in the afternoon the mob attacked the house, swept the police away and battered down the gates. The police and servants resisted stoutly, but the mob surged forward and entered the house.

One of the mob leaders carrying an armful of burning straw gained the rear of the structure and succeeded in setting it on fire. The police reserves charged the crowds, using their swords freely, but the mob rallied from several quarters and stoned the firemen when they arrived. The members of the Minister's household were rescued and escorted to the Imperial Hotel.

When darkness came the flames from the burning building illuminated a menacing scene, the mob hooting and throwing stones at the police and firemen and the police repeatedly clearing the streets.

Accurate figures of the casualties are not obtainable. It is known, however, that one man was killed, that fourteen were mortally wounded by stones and thrusts and that many persons were bruised with stones and injured in the crushes.

A member of the mob which burned the Home Minister's residence said to the correspondent of the Associated Press:

"We burned the house for the purpose of attracting the attention of the Emperor. We want him to refuse to ratify the treaty. We believe that those surrounding him prevent him from correctly understanding the popular attitude toward the disgraceful, humiliating peace."

ONE MAN KILLED.

And About 500 Injured, Including 200 Policemen at Tokio.

A Tokio cable says: The destruction of small police substations continued until midnight. It is impossible to ascertain the number destroyed, but it is estimated that 15 were wrecked. Two of the largest police stations were also destroyed. The mobs generally prevented damage to adjoining private property by dragging the police kiosks into the middle of the streets before applying the torch.

Shortly after midnight another attempt was made against the Kokumin Shinbun office, but the police dispersed the attackers, killing one of the assailants. The fact that the man was cut in the back angered the crowd, which demanded the arrest of the policeman.

Detachments of national troops were sent out during the night. The crowd received the soldiers good-naturedly. The anger of the crowds was chiefly on account of the closing of Hibuya Park and the denial of the right to meet publicly in the park, which is under the charge of the municipality. After the park was closed yesterday the Mayor and Council met immediately and protested to the Governor and insisted that the park be reopened. It is now claimed that all the turbulence resulted from the indiscriminate closing of the park. Students and young men, however, seemed to be the largest participants in the disorder of the night.

The firemen succeeded in saving the main structure of the Home Minister's residence. It is impossible to secure accurate figures of the casualties. The fire estimates them at two dead and about five hundred wounded in all, including three seriously and slightly injured, among whom are 200 policemen.

The city is exceedingly quiet this morning, and it is possible that the trouble is over.

DISMISSED FROM SERVICE.

Admiral Niebogotoff No Longer a Russian Admiral.

A St. Petersburg cable: An imperial order was issued to-day dismissing from the service Rear-Admiral Niebogotoff and the captains of the battleship Imperator Nicolai I., Admiral Seniavine and Gen. Admiral Apraxine. All four officers are deprived of their rank, and are liable to the provisions of the naval penal code for their actions in the battle of the Sea of Japan, when they surrendered to the Japanese. On the report of the surrender of the above-named ships being submitted to the Czar, His Majesty wrote an order that all the chief officers of the vessels should be brought to trial on their return to Russia. Action in the case of the commander of the battleship Orel is postponed until it is known exactly when he was seriously wounded and landed over his command.

ENVOYS NOTIFY PRESIDENT.

De Witte and Rosen Send Only Personal Sentiments.

Oyster Bay despatch: The Russian and Japanese peace envoys as soon as the peace treaty was signed, hastened to send their warm thanks and congratulations to the President upon the success of their undertaking. Baron Komura telegraphed in his own name, but M. de Witte and Baron Rosen only sent their personal sentiments and thanks for their reception, leaving the larger part to their sovereign.

Baron Komura's message reads: "Portland, N. H., Sept. 5, 1905. 'The President: I hasten to inform you that the treaty of peace has just been signed. Humanity is under a lasting debt of gratitude to you for the initiation and successful conclusion of the peace conference. I beg to be permitted to add my own thanks and sincere acknowledgments.

(Signed) "Komura."

The telegram of the Russians is as follows: "Hotel Wentworth, Newcastle, N. H., Sept. 5, 1905.

"The President: We have the honor to inform you that we have this day signed the treaty of peace with Japan. It is not for us to thank you for what you have done in the cause of peace, as your noble and generous efforts have been fittingly acknowledged by our august sovereign. We can only express to you, Mr. President, and to the people of the United States, our personal sentiments of profound gratitude for the cordial reception you have done us the honor to extend to us, and which we have met with at the hands of the people of this country.

(Signed) "Witte."

"Rosen."

All the four envoys, it was announced to-day, will break bread with the President on Saturday. Baron Komura and Mr. Takahira will lunch with the President on that day. They will come from New York on the Sylph, both being good sailors. They will depart shortly after luncheon.

ATROCITIES AT KERTCH.

Men, Women and Children Beaten—Troops Fired on Defenders.

A Berlin cable: Prominent Jews here have received details of anti-Semitic riots at Kertch. The Jew-baiters ran amok, plundering and destroying property and burning houses in all directions. They beat all Jews—men, women and children until they fell bleeding and insensible. Some of them seized the two-year-old son of a Jewish tradesman named Hirschmann and threw him into a bonfire they had made of Hirschmann's furniture, and he was burned alive before the eyes of his parents. Many similar outrages are reported. After the atrocities had been proceeding some hours sixty young Jews armed themselves with revolvers and resolved to defend the ghetto. The Governor, who had hitherto been passive, immediately summoned troops, who fired on the defenders, killing three and wounding eleven. The total Jewish casualties were six killed and over 200 injured. Six hundred were reduced to destitution.

RUSSIAN PRESS CAMPAIGN.

Claim That the Treaty is Directed Solely Against Czar's Empire.

A London cable: A despatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says that a press campaign in regard to the Anglo-Japanese treaty opened Wednesday in real earnest.

The Novoye Vremya, Slovo and Bourse Gazette describe the instrument as being directed solely against Russia. They attempt to show that other Asiatic powers, notably France, will suffer. The similarity of the lines followed by the papers almost suggests that the lubrications have a common origin. The Novoye Vremya declares that the resulting disturbance of ADMIRAL NIEBOGOTOFF, Dismissed by the Czar from the Russian naval service for surrendering his ships to the enemy at the Battle of the Sea of Japan.

GEM THIEVES' BIG HAUL.

They Operate at Ryrie Bros' New Toronto Store.

A Toronto despatch: There are daring jewellery thieves abroad in Ontario. Yesterday they made a haul of over four thousand dollars in value at the palatial new store of Ryrie Brothers, Limited. There have been great crowds in the store since the opening, and the thieves evidently made careful plans of operation.

The exact modus operandi is, of course, unknown, but the presumption is that a group of thieves gathered around a show case containing a number of trays and pads holding diamond rings and valuable stick-pins, and while one or more kept the salesman busy the others so disposed themselves as to permit the abstraction of a tray containing eighteen diamond rings, ranging in value as high as $750, and a pad on which were displayed some seventy-five stick-pins, all valuable, and not a few quite costly. The thieves got clear away with their plunder.

The rings stolen were ladies' solitaires diamonds, and the pins were for gentlemen's use.

The robbery gives every evidence of having been committed by the same skillful gang that looted the store of J. S. Smith, St. Catharines, just a month ago.

STARTED FOR NORTH POLE.

Last Word is Received From Commander Peary.

New York, Sept. 11.—What is believed to be the final word from Commander Robert E. Peary before his return from his attempt to reach the north pole was received to-day by Herbert L. Bridgman of Brooklyn, Secretary of the Peary Arctic Club. The message reads: "Etah, North Greenland, August 16, 1905: Cape York was reached August 7, twelve days from Sydney. The voyage was unusually favorable. No ice anywhere. Natives and dogs were secured and joined the Erik at North Star Bay on August 9. Transferred to Erik and Roosevelt proceeded to Etah immediately to overhaul machinery and prepare for ice fighting. The Erik visited all the settlements, securing natives, dogs and walrus, joining the Roosevelt at Etah August 13. The Roosevelt overhauled machinery, filled with coal and leaves Etah for the north with 23 Eskimo men and some 200 dogs. August 16. Cape extends from Littlefield Island to Cape Isabella, but apparently is not heavy. This may make the establishment of a base at Cape Sabine difficult. No ice was seen south of Littlefield Island. All well on board."

JEW-BAITERS' CRUELTY.

Telegram from Vienna says that advances from Bucharest and Warsaw give a melancholy picture of the excesses at Kishineff. The disorders began at the funeral of two Jewish girls who had been killed, when 50 more Jews, who were attending the funeral, were shot down. The Socialists sided with the Jews and went to the Governor to appeal for their protection. They found his house surrounded by police and by roughs, who had been recruited by the notorious Krushevian, formerly editor of the newspaper that was instrumental in starting the previous Jewish massacre, who prevented the complainants from seeing the Governor. The final result was a general massacre in front of the Government House.

Warsaw merchants have been warned by telegram to cease their consignments, since trade is at a standstill, owing to the lack of security to life and property. Krushevian is spreading reports that the Jews are responsible for the conclusion of a humiliating peace, and he is strongly supported by the Chippoff, the anti-Semitic leader at St. Petersburg, who advocates the exclusion of Jews from the future national Duma.

TWO MEN KILLED.

IN A COLLISION OF EXPRESS TRAINS ON N. Y. & P. RAILWAY.

Newcastle, Pa., Sept. 11.—A collision of express trains on the Western New York & Pennsylvania Railroad at Wilmington Junction, ten miles north of here, is reported. A number of passengers are said to have been killed. Many are also reported injured, some seriously. All the physicians obtainable in this city have left on a special train for the scene. It is said at least a score of passengers were killed and 50 or more injured. The latest report from the scene of the wreck is that only two were killed and a score or more were injured.

The dead are: Wm. Barnhart, engineer, and the fireman, whose name is not known.

RAIDED HOUSE AT FORT ERIE.

Alleged Branch of the Kentucky Lottery Involved.

Thirteen Men and Two Boys Are Now in Custody.

The Raid Carried Out Under the Direction of Detective Greer.

Niagara Falls despatch: The scenes attending the raid resulting in the closing of the Toronto Junction poolroom last spring were repeated at Fort Erie to-day, when Provincial Detective Greer of Toronto, with Chief Constable Mains of the Ontario police and a number of constables swooped down upon the palatial home of William Hunt, one of the members of the Board of Trade, situated in the best section of the town of Fort Erie and gathered in a plant by which the police hope to connect him with the conduct of the Kentucky lottery. It was drawing day, and the authorities claim that they rushed in upon the Hunt house when everything was in full swing. Something of the extent of the business done can be estimated from the seizure of a barrel and a box full of tickets, each of which represented amounts paid by the holders ranging from 25 cents to one dollar. One who claims to know something of the place declares that the receipts at each of the semi-monthly drawings would total at least $25,000. Out of this prizes would be paid to the amount of $2,000 or $3,000. Besides Hunt there are seven persons, including two boys, under arrest. They have been denied bail, pending their appearance at the court this morning before Magistrate Cruickshank.

LOTTERY RAID.

HEAVY FINES IMPOSED ON THE MEN RUNNING THE CONCERN.

Niagara Falls, Ont., despatch: The men arrested in the raid on the lottery establishment at Fort Erie yesterday, appeared before Police Magistrate Colonel Cruickshank at ten o'clock this morning when all were charged with running and abetting a lottery concern contrary to the laws of Canada.

Mr. William German, K. C., M. P., for Welland, who represented all the defendants, arraigned each defendant separately and forthwith pleaded guilty for each one. Col. Cruickshank inflicted the following fines:

William Hunt, manager, one thousand dollars.

Joseph Morris, his assistant, five hundred dollars.

Charles E. Harris and John Wright, assistants, one hundred each.

Henry Heinze, a frequenter, five dollars and costs.

William White, spectator, discharged.

The two boys, Lighthart and Harris, who were employed turning the wheel, were discharged on suspended sentence, with a fatherly lecture by Magistrate Cruickshank. The fines imposed were all promptly paid.

All the paraphernalia seized will be held by the Crown.

Resolution Adopted at Annual Meeting of Retail Furniture Dealers.

Toronto despatch: The National Retail Furniture Dealers' Association of Canada at the annual meeting yesterday in the Temple building adopted a resolution empowering the Executive to discuss amalgamation with the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada. Vice-President John Hoodless, of Hamilton, president, and J. M. Struthers, of Guelph, acted as Secretary. The Secretary presented a gratifying report, while Treasurer W. E. Rogers showed a balance on hand.

Mr. Geo. McLaren delivered an interesting address on "The attitude to be taken by retailers and manufacturers for the best interests of the trade." An adjournment was made until this morning, after the following officers had been elected:

President—John Hoodless, Hamilton; Secretary and Treasurer—J. M. Struthers, Guelph.

Vice-Presidents—N. G. Valliquette, of Montreal; John White, of St. John, N. B.; A. Campbell, Brandon, Man.; C. S. Corryell, Toronto; Frank E. Walker, Hamilton.

Executive Committee—A. Emeris, of Montreal; D. Wishart, Montreal; John Leslie, Winnipeg; Z. Paquet, Quebec; A. J. Taylor, Richmond, Que.; Charles S. Everett, St. John, N. B.; B. E. Smith, Moncton, N. B.; T. W. Currin, Ottawa; J. A. Hall, Preston; Wm. G. McArthur, Chatham; W. Long, Brantford; L. Phippen, Sarnia.

Depot of Arms Discovered in Armenian Church at Athens.

Athens, Greece, Sept. 11.—The recent discovery of a depot of arms, explosives, bombs and infernal machines in the vaults of the Armenian church here has led to the unearthing of what the police believe to be a widespread plot on the part of the Armenian Revolutionary Committee to compel the intervention of the powers to stop Turkish oppression in Armenia by starting a series of outrages. A number of Armenians have been arrested, and the authorities say that evidence was found on them showing that they received large sums of money from the Armenian Committee in America. It is also stated that the inquiry has established the connection of a number of Bulgarians and young Turks with the plot.

Berne, Switzerland, Sept. 6.—The strikers in the iron district of Rorschach made a violent demonstration to-day, partially destroying the foundry and seeking a hotel where Alsatian workers who were replacing strikers, were housed. The Government of the Canton of St. Gall has called out a battalion of Landwehr, which has adopted severe repressive measures.

GREAT CHIEF BURIED.

Head of Basutos Interred Beside Leaders of Tribe.

Maseru, Sept. 11.—Lerothodi, the late paramount chief of the Basutos, was buried at Thaba Basuto, in the mountain burial place of the Basuto chiefs. The funeral was attended by Mr. Soley, the resident commissioner, and other Government officials, and by some 10,000 natives, and the service was performed by French Protestant missionaries.

The coffin was covered with a Union Jack. Among the mourners were the 100 wives of the dead chieftain, and their lamentations and wailings could be heard from afar.

He also has a list of today's prize winners, who might have got something had the raid not taken place. After the arrests were made Provincial Detective Greer investigated Philadelphia tourists at the Falls, who say they had been regular contributors to the Kentucky lottery, and, supposing something was wrong, came to see for themselves. To their knowledge they were only aware of one man who got a prize of $200 and another who got $1. They gave up their tickets to the police and may be called at the trial of Hunt and the other defendants.

Case Will Be Remanded.

The scene of the raid is one of the best situated properties in Fort Erie. It is a large two-story frame building, surrounded by a beautiful lawn, shrubs and flowers. It is known as the Erp House. On the inside walls are hung beautiful and costly oil paintings, and the police say lessons have been given there in painting. The room in which the alleged drawing took place is off the main hall. Nothing of what is going on inside can be seen either from the outside or the hall. Besides the articles seized there were only a few tables and chairs in the room. For the Kentucky lottery no tickets were sold to Canadians, and great difficulty was experienced in collecting evidence. Money was eventually sent from Cleveland, and the police hold the receipt given by the Express Company. Hunt was prosecuted two years ago on the charge of using the mails for an unlawful purpose, but he was acquitted. He is about 40 years old, and is interested in the American Hotel at Fort Erie. The raid occasioned a good deal of excitement about Fort Erie, but to some it was no surprise, as the best people have been urging the authorities to take action. The Police Court proceedings to-morrow morning promise to be purely formal, as neither the Crown nor defence are ready to go on. A week's adjournment will likely be made. Substantial bail bonds will be accepted for the appearance of the defendants after being arraigned before Magistrate Cruickshank.

Under the direction of Mr. Arnold, and with Principal Massey acting as consulting landscape artist, a marked improvement has been effected in the appearance of the A. H. S. grounds by the pruning of the shade trees. Many owners of well shaded lawns could obtain valuable hints from an inspection of this work.

An old fashioned "bee" is to be held at the Methodist church on Saturday next—all day—for the purpose of improving the appearance of the cemetery. All who have an interest in it are invited to be on hand at 8 a.m. The ladies will provide a hot dinner. The idea is a good one and it is hoped all who can will be on hand to do their share in beautifying the cemetery.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnston will be surprised to learn of the death of their seven-months-old baby on Tuesday. The little tot was the light of the household and its death will be a heavy blow to the fond parents. Mrs. Johnston is well known to Athenians, being Miss Ray Boyce previous to her marriage. She has many warm friends who extend their sympathy.
