NATIONALITY IN BALANCE

Reciprocity Condemned By Vote of 289 to 13

BOARD OF TRADE'S VERDICT

Sir Edmund Walker Leads Representative, Non-Partisan Meeting in Denunciation of Government Policy—Action on Patriotic Grounds—Liberal Editor Declares Question Crucial for Administration.

WOULD WRECK BRIDGE

TWIXT EAST AND WEST

Thirteen was the ominous number of those who voted last night at the board of trade meeting for the Stars and the thirteen stripes against 289 who condemned the annexationist trade agreement now under process of ratification at Washington and Ottawa.

It was a tremendously impressive meeting. The strong en masse of both sides of politics, of fact, utterly irrespective of politics, as the chairman, President R. S. Gourlay, stipulated should be the case, were almost united in condemnation of the precipitate treason to the interests of Canada; materially, commercially, nationally, imperially, which the proposed agreement appeared to them to embody. It was bad enough to negotiate it in private, but why could not the people of the nation be allowed to judge upon it? Sir Edmund Walker, W. K. George, J. D. Allan, F. W. Hay, W. Flavelle, Albert J. H. Eckhardt, W. E. Cockshutt, Brantford, Col. G. T. Denison and Joseph E. Atkinson were the speakers. Messrs. Hay, Eckhardt and Atkinson opposing the resolution moved by Sir Edmund Walker. W. K. George was called upon, but, as he explains elsewhere, the time was exhausted. Hugh Blair, a director of The Toronto Globe, sent a letter condemning the reciprocity. If any political complexion could be given the meeting, the fact that the only Conservative speaker was Western, Fawcett and Cockshutt indicated the nature of the party revolt. Mr. Atkinson as the proprietor of a partisan newspaper was not expected to oppose the agreement. He refused to recognize the non-political nature of the meeting, however, and made the significant statement that if the resolution were carried it meant the defeat of the government.

The Joke of the Evening. Mr. Eckhardt furnished the comedy of the meeting. He recommended the agreement as being likely to extend the boundaries of trade and enlarge markets. "You all prefer to have two customers to one. When I was a traveler on the road I always liked two customers in a town rather than one. Isn't two markets better than one?" he asked, and someone called out: "Not in your trade."

Then it dawned on the audience that Mr. Eckhardt manufactures coffins, and there were roars of laughter, which increased when he declared he wished to reach the United States market. The main trend of the argument was on the undisability of doing anything to disturb the eastern and western lines of trade, that had been established with such effort, and the certainty of their succumbing to the north and south tendencies which reciprocity between the two countries would tend to create.

The speaking was very good, and the audience was warm in approval, and telling passages. Mr. Atkinson's plea, that as President Taft would not have to resign should the senate reject the agreement, neither should Sir Wilfrid Laurier be called on to resign if the country rejected it, was repudiated by Mr. Atkinson, who declared that the agreement would result in a government question, and those who desired the defeat of the government would vote for the resolution.

No more enthusiasm was manifested than when Mr. Cockshutt declared that the day had gone by when two elderly gentlemen, one a senator, one a respectable, could walk down to Washington with their carpet bags and bring back their bargain to Canada. They must take their goods to the biggest and greatest and grandest market of all was the home market. Cheers greeted this statement.

An Impartial Discussion. President R. S. Gourlay, Vice-President G. T. Somers, and Secretary F. G. Morley mounted the platform at 8.20 p.m. and were cordially applauded. Mr. Gourlay announced that the earnest intention was to conduct the meeting in the most impartial manner, so that fair expression of opinion on reciprocity could be secured. Since the reciprocity arrangement was made, there had been frequent requests by members for such a meeting, and the council had to decide. The meeting was entirely regular.

The question of reciprocity was primarily a trade question, in which every member was interested, not only because of trade itself, but because it would affect Canada's relationship to the continent and the empire. It would have been recast to its duty if it had neglected to call the attention of the board to the fact that the discussion would result in good to the board itself, the city trade and Dominion.

Voice of Trade. It was not well for trade interests to have discussions solely with the press, no matter how fair, or to political parties whose leaders "are not more infallible than we who are in trade." (Applause.) They were present not to discuss men, but a measure, and he asked each speaker to eliminate as far as possible all political bias, and to carry on the discussion in such a way that no matter how diverse were their views, they would be eliminated.

THE RESOLUTIONS

1. That the present unexampled prosperity of Canada is the result of the policy which has been pursued in the development of her trade and of her natural resources, and that any policy which would hamper the development of Canada's resources, her own way and by her own people, or which would check the development of trade between the various parts of Canada with each other or between Canada and the various parts of the empire, would be detrimental to the true interests of Canada and to Canadian nationality.
 2. That very large expenditures have been made upon railways, canals, steamships and other means of transportation between east and west and east to promote such development and trade, and that the proposed reciprocity agreement with the United States of America would seriously check the growth of such development and trade, and would curtail Canada's freedom of action with respect to her tariff and channels of trade.
 3. That any present benefit to any section of Canada or to any interest therein which might accrue from said agreement would be more than offset by the loss and injury to other sections and interests.
 4. That the proposed agreement would weaken the ties which bind Canada to the empire.
 5. That to avoid the disruption of trade, which after some years under said agreement would result were said agreement terminated and a protective tariff against Canada established by the United States, Canada would be forced to closer trade relations with them, which would still further weaken those ties and make it more difficult to avert political union with the United States.
- Be it resolved, That in the opinion of this board the proposed reciprocity agreement with the United States of America is opposed to the true interests of Canada, threatens Canadian nationality and should not be consummated.

LIBERALS CONDEMN

TARIFF ARRANGEMENT

W. K. George Says Its Effect Will be Disintegrating to the National Spirit—First Step Along the Road to Annexation.

W. K. George, in an interview with The World after the meeting, said it had been his intention to speak, but the time had been so fully occupied and the speeches had so fully covered the ground, he did not think it necessary. Mr. George's prominence in the Liberal party enhances the importance of his views.

"I had intended to express my entire concurrence with the resolution as moved by Sir Edmund Walker," he said, "and my unmitigated opposition to the proposed agreement. I intended to refer to what I feel sure will be its disintegrating effect upon the splendid national spirit which is being so successfully fostered in Canada. We have been growing in the belief that on this northern half of the continent we were developing a great, strong, self-reliant, clean nation—men of the north, unconquered and unconquerable, destined to become one of the foremost nations of the earth, with the prospect of becoming the dominant partner in the grandest empire the world has known. I dread the agreement as the first step away from those ideals. We have a great gulf to bridge in mid-Canada. We have, unlike our southern neighbors, a distinct east and west, with diverse interests. To achieve her noblest destiny east and west must be united in purpose, in interdependence of action, and our great problem is to know how to make their aims and objects and ambitions one. The most practical factor we have for bringing that about is the interchange of trade and commerce. To dislocate these trade routes and divert them to the south will deprive us of our strongest incentive to unity. Mr. George makes no secret of his feeling that a serious national crisis exists, and he thinks it is a time for men to speak out what they think of public affairs as a public duty. I do not wish to pose as a prophet, but it appears prophetic to me that the ultimate ambition of many of the prominent politicians of the United States is the annexation of Canada. This agreement is the first step along that road, and I do not want to move an inch in that direction."

AN ULTIMATUM

Russia Presents Six Demands to China or Will Sever Relations.

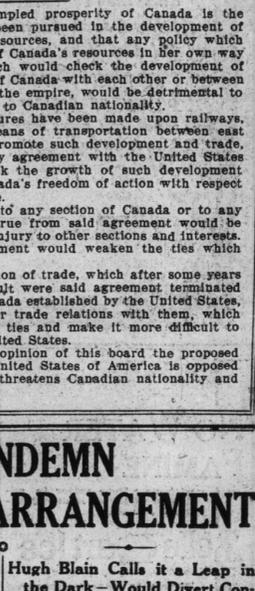

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.—M. Korotovitz, the Russian minister to China, has presented to that government a note bearing on the treaty of 1851, which China has seemed disposed to abrogate. The note contains six points, and Russia insists upon complete cessation of friendly relations. These are as follows: First, Russia's right to impose import, export duties unlimited, except in the 90 per cent zone, which is duty free. Second, that the extra-territorial rights of Russians in China shall not be infringed; that legal suits involving Russians and Chinese shall be considered by a mixed jurisdiction. Third, that the Russians shall enjoy special privileges of trade and duty free commerce in Mongolia and the extra-wall provinces. Fourth, that Russian consulates can be immediately opened at Kobe, Kiamoi and Guchen. Fifth, due respect of the local authorities for Russian consuls. Sixth, Russia to enjoy the right to acquire real estate and erect structures in Mongolia and the extra-wall provinces.

VETO BILL

House Will Appropriately Whole Time Till Easter to Measure.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—In the house of commons to-day, after a nine hours debate, Premier Asquith's motion appropriating the whole time of the house until Easter to the veto bill, in order to get thru before the coronation, was carried, under closure, 196 to 118. During the course of the debate the prime minister said he expected that the veto bill would be sent to the house of lords early in May, and that the lords would give their decision thereon before the coronation. This optimism of the part of Mr. Asquith is interpreted in some quarters as indicating the possibility of a compromise being arrived at, as it is contended that otherwise it would be vain to hope that the bill could be disposed of so quickly. Thus far, however, the Unionists give no sign of receding.

INTERESTS HAVE BEEN HURT BY AGREEMENT

Canada, Says Houghton Lennox, M.P., Has Now an "Order-in-Council Government"—Why Was Not Parliament Consulted First?—No Benefit to Farmers.

OTTAWA, Feb. 16.—(Special.)—Continuing the debate on the reciprocity agreement in the house of commons to-day, Houghton Lennox (South St. Michael's), said that it could not be stated with truth that no interests had been sacrificed, in view of the representations made to the government by the fruit growers. He criticized the government for having made the agreement without consulting parliament and without having a mandate from the people, and said that Canada now has an order-in-council government. Referring to the argument advanced by Hugh Guthrie yesterday, that it was not wise to ignore geographical conditions, he would remind Mr. Guthrie and the government that the United States had insisted for forty years on ignoring geographical conditions.

DID NOT KNOW NESBITT AT TIME SAYS WARREN

Manager of Trusts and Guarantees Co. Makes Statement About Farmers' Bank.

J. J. Warren, general manager of the Trusts & Guarantees Co., speaking to The World last night made the following statement regarding his alleged connection with the Farmers' Bank. "He said: I have lived in this community for almost 25 years, during which period, while no doubt I have made mistakes, yet never knowingly did I injure anybody. Without any enquiry or request for information from me, I find myself charged with two offences. First, that I conspired with Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, the provisional board of directors and the Hon. J. R. Stratton to do an illegal act. The other that I accepted a pledge of the notes (circulation) of the Farmers' Bank, and therefore made a loan of them as security. The offences charged are of a technical character. The first one in particular is undoubtedly the invention of a legal mind, whose I do not know yet. The second offence is based on a misunderstanding of the Bank Act. "At the time of the alleged committing of the first offence I did not know Nesbitt. He was not a member of the provisional board. I did not meet Dr. Nesbitt until he ran for mayor some years later. I have never yet met the provisional directors, except Dr. Ferguson, whom I met in another matter some time ago. "In the fall of 1906, as an official of the Trust Company, I made W. R. Travers personally a call upon the security of a large number of satisfactory promissory notes. The business was submitted to counsel, who advised us that it was perfectly legal and proper. Ultimately the loan was paid off in full. "It is alleged that Mr. Travers misled the finance department at Ottawa, and as a result succeeded in getting a license for the Farmers' Bank to do business. I was no party to the representations he made. I did not know what they were. But because we loaned him personally money, which it is alleged went to the finance department, openly and above board, I am charged with being a conspirator. "In regard to the other offence, the Farmers' Bank was in the habit of depositing with us their notes (circulation), which we paid out over the counter in the ordinary course of our business. The amount of each deposit was placed to the credit of the bank which could and did draw against it by cheque. We never loaned $5 against the circulation of the Farmers' Bank, but still I am charged with an offence. "Further, I never made 5 cents personally out of the Farmers' Bank business. The amount of each deposit was placed to the credit of the Farmers' Bank, to whom it belonged. "A prominent business man said yesterday that he thought a better spirit of fair play should be exhibited on the part of the authorities regarding everybody who has been or is suspected of being connected with the Farmers' Bank. A man at the head of a financial institution has a right to expect that he should be asked what he knows about certain alleged circumstances before he is haled to court to say. There seems to be a hysteria in certain circles at the moment."

LOCAL ASSEMBLY SPENDS BUSY AFTERNOON

Bill to Increase Powers of Ontario Railway Board Gets Second Reading—Lively Debate on Measure for Increasing the Indemnity of Members.

Church exemptions, increased indemnities, and school holidays afforded members of the Ontario Legislature material yesterday afternoon upon which to dilate, while considerable progress was made with a number of constitutional measures. The letter included the second reading of Hon. W. J. Hanna's bill to place the control of costly local improvements under the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, which is strongly opposed by the Toronto city-law department. Hon. W. J. Hanna's amendment in regard to the bread bill was another feature of a laborious and progressive afternoon. The provincial secretary said that there would be no need of bread legislation this year, because the court of appeal had upheld the government's measure of last year. Big loaves would prevail. McNought Protests. W. K. McNought, North Toronto, made a spirited protest against the requirement of two years' residence in Canada of aliens, before being entitled to qualify as stationary engineers. He considered six months ample, but was willing to compromise at one year. The suggestion of the member for North Toronto was accepted. A. Studholme argued for a requirement in the bill that two certificated engineers should be required in case of mills and factories which worked day and nightway and Municipal Board. Sir James Whitney took the view that the statute, if enforced, would suffice, as the employment of a fireman who acted as engineer even in the latter's temporary absence, was prohibited under a penalty. To Abolish Exemptions. C. R. McKeown, Dufferin, moved the second reading of his bill to abolish exemptions on church lands, and the sites of religious and philanthropic schools. It was unjust that Haverhill Hall, the Loretto Abbey and Bishop Strachan School should be free from taxation. Continued on Page 6, Column 5.

ARRESTED AS INCENDIARY.

OTTAWA, Feb. 16.—To-night a fire alarm was rung for a blaze in a tailor shop on Dalhousie-street. The blaze was extinguished with little damage, but there was found to be three stairs to the fire and a floor was saturated with oil. It was the second alarm, too, in a week at the same store. The police were suspicious of the first fire and were on the alert. They arrested to-night the brother-in-law of the proprietor, Adrian Hudon, aged 35, of Boteler-street, and he will appear in the police court to-morrow on a charge of incendiarism.

CITY ENGINEERS FREE INTAKE PIPE

An End to Water Famine After a Night of Strenuous Effort—The Supply By No Means Certain, Unless the Weather Conditions Change.

The water famine is at an end. At least the crisis through which many citizens spent anxious hours yesterday terminated at 3.40 yesterday afternoon. This is no guarantee that there will not be a recurrence of the trouble should a strong east wind set in for a few days again. It does mean, however, that since that hour districts which were entirely cut off with the exception of what was brought out by the sleighs of the property commissioner's relief brigade, were getting an almost normal pressure in the mains. Furthermore, the reservoir started to fill at 4 o'clock and within 20 minutes the pressure gauge at the city hall registered 60 lbs. for the first time since the trouble commenced.

In Full Blast Again. At 4 o'clock the information was given out from the city engineer's department that the full complement of engines were running to capacity at the main pumping station at the foot of John-st. The well was full. The supply showed no signs of diminishing. So favorable were the conditions that when the water commenced to show in the reservoir, the two engines at the high level pumping station were set in operation. This meant that the entire pumping system was once more working. The supply was equal to all demands and unless something unforeseen happens, there will not be any chance of a similar occurrence. The department will exercise every precaution to provide against such a contingency.

The indigo atmosphere around the waterworks department on Wednesday, changed to a deep sabbath when yesterday morning dawned with no change in the situation. The fact that the sand pumps which pumped up tons of sandy slush during the night had not entirely removed the obstruction to the intake, was a source of keen disappointment to the head of the engineering department. His deputy, Engineer Fellows, stayed on the job from 7 o'clock on Wednesday morning until the same hour yesterday morning. Then utterly done out, he went home to rest.

Unpromising Conditions. Engineer Sandson still labored on. At 9 o'clock Engineer Rust was over to make a final effort to remove the obstruction. He sent a tug around to the mouth of the intake to get rid of conditions there. The tug brought back the information that there was a depth of 12 feet of ice constantly churned and ground by the force of the wind and waves, extending far out beyond the mouth of the pipe. Mean-while, Mr. Rust made a thorough inspection of the work being done by the suction pumps on the island. He found everything being done that could be done. The pumps were pulling up streams of sandy slush. He looked out toward the mouth of the intake, but could see nothing but hummocks of ice within the range of his vision. He remained there for a couple of hours and then returned to the city hall, though satisfied that everything that could be done was being done to renew the flow thru the intake. When the drain on the scanty supply furnished by the two pumps ceased in the morning, the gauge at the waterworks department commenced to drop. Before noon it fell to 15 pounds pressure, indicating that the drain on the portion of the city not entirely cut off was kept up, there would soon be Continued on Page 2, Column 2.

MAY BE EXTRA SESSION

Senate Leaders Not Sanguine of Reaching a Vote.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The Canadian reciprocity measure will be discussed at a special session to be held on Friday. It is not likely that the bill will be disposed of in the committee in one day, although all its members are agreed that action shall not be delayed unnecessarily. Senators Lodge and Sherman, who are members of the committee, to-day assured President Taft that the bill would not be smothered in the committee, regardless of how much opposition there might be to it. From present indications the bill will be returned to the senate about Wednesday, and certainly not later than Thursday. Senate leaders are not sanguine of reaching a vote, and many of them are inclined to the view that an extra session cannot be avoided.

A NEW RAILWAY.

MONTREAL, Feb. 15.—An international trunk line highway between New York and Montreal may soon be established. The ways and means of securing the Canadian end of the highway was discussed by an enthusiastic gathering here to-day. The New York-to-Rouse's Point road is expected to be started this year.

PRESIDENT McCAFFERY ANNOUNCES LINE-UP

Prospects Good—Exhibition Arranged With Pittsburgh—Will Take 25 Players to Grounds.

James J. McCaffery, president of the Toronto Baseball Club, returned from New York yesterday, where he attended the National League meeting. While away the president met Tim Jordan, and the former Brooklyn first baseman is looking forward to a great season with the Maple Leafs. He tried his injured leg in a couple of light springs and thinks it will not go back on him. Joe Kelley thinks well of the team, and sees no reason why they should not finish well up in the race. While no new purchases were made on this trip, negotiations were started for a shortstop and an extra good outfielder, which, if secured, will certainly strengthen the team. The players who will make the spring trip are:

Catchers—Phelps, Kroch, Slattery and McWhirter. Pitchers—Killian, Lush, McGinley, Mueller, Bachman, Cathers (drafted from Lancaster), Winter, McIntyre (formerly of Mitchell, Ont.), McDonald, Armiger. First base—Tim Jordan. Second base—Mullen or Fitzpatrick. Shortstop—Vaughn and another. Outfield base—Brady. O'Hara, Delehanty, Keeler, Pielan (from Pittsburgh), any other with Manager Joe Kelley utility.

The home uniforms will be of white, with black caps and stockings. On the right breast will be a maple leaf and a beaver, and on the left a large T. The road uniforms will be grey with black caps and stockings, with a Canadian emblem on arm and the word Toronto across the shirts.

Arrangements have been made to play with Troy. The balance of the National League an exhibition game at the island on Thursday, Aug. 31.

CITY MUDDLING.

Under a system of government by commission the waterworks would have been managed by the best engineers that Canada could produce for $25,000 a year, who would not have been hindered and embarrassed by a crowd of aldermen pulling wires for local purposes, and a board of control trying to pare down the necessary appropriations for required improvements.

The dilemma of those who find themselves torn with a desire to defend a system they profess to find perfect and to condemn its results is no comfort to the citizens who want a businesslike that is a competent and efficient and economical government. That can never be obtained except by commission government.

It is ungrateful as well as senseless to jump upon Engineer Rust at this crisis. If Engineer Rust had all the talents of the finest engineer in America he could not get the board of control and the city council to do the things that are needed by the city. If he insisted that they must be done he would not be city engineer.

Citizens might as well recognize the facts. The Globe last April told them that it would be an injury to the citizens to have a perfect government. The Telegram can see no fault in the system, while it hews about the results the system attains. They all jump on The World for advocating something The World never proposed.

The World believes in evolution, and the business world has evolved the most satisfactory way of doing corporation business that has been devised. A municipal corporation can be devised, the duties on the same principles as a commercial one.

A corporation is composed of shareholders, who are, in the case of the municipality, the electors. The shareholders elect directors, who in the case of the municipality would be city councillors. They would receive no salary, and their duties would consist in appointing the officers of the corporation.

The World suggested five of them to deal with law, finance, health, engineering and electric power and transportation. They should get $25,000 a year each. Their professional standing and reputation would be sufficient to secure the best and cheapest municipal government in the world for Toronto.

Once we get on the grade. If reciprocity means annexation and ultimately the American flag over all the American continent, as Champ Clark says it means, does it not follow that each recurring deal between Canada and the United States in tariff matters will be more and more direct in its annexation tendency?

Has anybody seen Mr. Hays? The Grand Trunk and Toronto. The World trusts that Mr. C. M. Hays and the other officials of the Grand Trunk are getting busy in Ontario in some respects the advantages are all with the old line, provided there is enterprise and a study of public requirements. Take the business up north, namely, from Toronto to North Bay, leading to Cobalt, Porcupine and Cochrane. It takes the day train from 8 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock at night to get to North Bay, and then it is nearly always late. This is barely twenty-two miles an hour. There will soon be so much traffic between Toronto and the north, that unless the Grand Trunk gets busy and improves its service, there will be an agitation for a line from Sudbury to Cochrane via Gowganda and Porcupine, and the Canadian Pacific and the Timiskaming and Northern Ontario will be able to carry the Grand Trunk's passengers from the transcontinental at Cochrane quicker than they can over its own line from North Bay. Most of the line from Toronto to North Bay ought to be overhauled, the heavier grades taken out, new rails put down and the train equipment such as would allow of a forty mile an hour express at least, doing the distance in six hours instead of ten as now.

Have you read, Mr. Hays, about McNicoll and Leonard being in town? They'll be here every week now for some time. Ontario is to be a wonderful place for railway business, but it must be looked after.

And, Mr. Hays, do you see that the C. P. and C. N. R. are reaching for all the towns on the lake front from Whitby to Belleville? Why not put on a fast suburban train, say from Oshawa to Brampton? The road that offers the advantages will get the business.

GOLD AND SILVER IN ONTARIO. Cobalt will easily produce fifteen millions of silver bullion this year. More than half a dozen mines will average a good deal over a million apiece.

Gowganda district, once it gets a railway, and the railway now seems in sight, will ship and increase its shipments at the same rate as Cobalt. It sent out $500,000 worth of silver in its first year without a railway, which is twice what Cobalt did in its first year with a railway right at the mines.

And nobody can say what Porcupine will do in the way of gold output even this year, once the railway is running, and it will be running before June 1. But it will ship several millions of gold in its first year of operation.

And it looks as if the opening up of other gold and silver camps will follow at an early day. The geologists and mineralogists all advise to that effect; the prospectors are ahead of them in realizing it.

A SETBACK TO ENTERPRISE. If Canadian manufacturers and the capital behind them get it into their heads that there is even a danger of annexation following reciprocity, they will immediately let up in all kinds of enterprise and foresight in regard to the future. If a man has a factory producing a variety of articles in the one line, he will certainly not develop that factory on general lines if he thinks that in a few years he will be up against the specialized lines of American competition. Fear of the results of reciprocity will be a blow to the spirit of enterprise that now characterizes Canadian business men.

N. Y. C. AND C. P. R. Financial conditions in the United States, and especially in Wall Street, are such that it is impossible for a great road like the New York Central to sell bonds for terminal facilities in New York City. As a consequence, the company is now offering $30,000,000 in 4 1/2 per cent. gold notes. These notes will bring less than par.

In Canada the Canadian Pacific can put out all the debenture securities it likes to market at 4 per cent. or less. These facts bear out what we said a couple of days ago that Canada, if she became a part of the United States, would be part of a financial system much inferior to what she now has, and she would no longer enjoy the confidence of the English market.

From every point of view it shows that Canada ought to keep clear of all entanglements with the United States and with the institutions of that country. She can do much better on her own account with her own institutions and in touch with the mother country.

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION. Prepare Fine Program for Convention to Be Held in Toronto in March.

The Ontario Good Roads Association has prepared a lengthy and ambitious program for their convention, which is to be held in the York County Municipal Building, March 1 to 2. The initial session is to be addressed by Mayor Geary and R. T. Bull, warden of York, whilst the speakers at the various other sessions will include Hon. J. F. Morrison, minister of public works, New Brunswick; W. A. McLean, C.E., provincial engineer of highways; Geo. C. Diehl, engineer in Erie County, Buffalo, N.Y.; Hon. Dr. Reaume, minister of public works; A. McGillivray, highway commissioner for Ontario; Geo. H. Gooderham, M.L.A., and many other well-known experts and public men.

Special efforts are being made to secure low railway rates and invitations to attend have been extended to municipal councils, boards of trade, farmers' institutes, dairymen's live stock and allied associations. A big attendance is expected at the various sessions, all of which are open to the public.

BOOM PRICES ON QUEEN-ST. Lot With Twenty-Four Feet Frontage Sells for $11,000. The property at Nos. 217 and 219 Queen, just west of Simcoe-st., was sold to John D. Most for $11,000. As there is but a frontage of 24 feet by a depth of 100 feet, it looks as though the property on this street is getting back to the prices of the boom days.

Note of Thanks. The Rev. and Miss Softley desire to thank the many friends who so kindly remembered them in their late bereavement.

Measure Is Knocked. Hon. W. J. Hanna said that in view of the fact that the bill would be overwhelmingly defeated both in the committee and the house, it should be as well designed to add to the interest of the house. THE GROWTH OF THE CANADIAN DOMINION

James White Addresses Empire Club on Some Old-Time Stirring Events.

James White, an authority on diplomatic questions and documents, addressed the Empire Club yesterday on the extension of British rule from the Lake of the Woods to the Pacific Ocean, and the delimitation of the Oregon boundaries.

The Louisiana purchase led to the rejection of a treaty in 1801. The question was postponed at the settlement of Ghent in 1814, and a treaty was negotiated in 1818 which gave the 49th parallel from the Lake of the Woods to the Rocky Mountains. The negotiations did not come to an actual agreement, but British geographers placed the line on their maps.

Until 1841 the whole territory north of the 49th parallel was in the hands of the Hudson's Bay Company, Oregon territory extending from the 42nd north to Prince Rupert. The Americans claimed $4.0 as the utmost concession. As a "compromise" the 49th parallel was extended from the Rockies to the coast as the boundary.

At this time Great Britain represented the Hudson's Bay Co. no one then dreaming of the extension of Canada to the Pacific. McLintock, the head of the Hudson's Bay Co., assisted the emigration from the United States and established an American population which became the pretext of the surrender of the territory. Mr. White thought a stronger man would have taken care of them during the winter when they came and put them on vessels and sent them home again when the spring came. At the same time if the settlement had been delayed until the discovery of gold on the Fraser and the great influx of Americans at that time, Mr. White had no doubt that the whole territory including British Columbia, would have passed to the United States by right of occupation.

Mr. White believed that the Emperor of Germany in 1872 gave the only decision possible on the question referred to him, by which San Juan Island went to the United States of America. Verdict of Accidental Death. Governor Currie's jury, enquiring into the death of Mrs. Mattilda Andrews, who lost her life in a fire at her home, 163 Sheridan avenue, on February 9, returned a verdict last night of accidental death. The firemen were commended for their quick action.

Opposed Increase. W. F. Nickle, Kingston, moved that the item of $42,000 to increase the appropriation to $400 per member be struck out. He considered the increase should be submitted to the voters at a general election.

A. Stodolme, Hamilton East, agreed with Mr. Nickle. J. McEwing, West Wellington, twitted the premier for having said he would assume all responsibility for the proposal.

Valentine Stock, South Perth, expressed himself also as being in accord with Mr. Nickle.

Sponsored the Proposal. Sir James Whitney said that the item would not be withdrawn. In introducing the proposal he had assumed the usual responsibility of a government. He did not desire to shift his responsibilities to anyone else's shoulders, neither did he intend to have any member do so toward him.

Welcomed the Increase. S. Clarke, West Northumberland, declared boldly that he didn't care if his fine scruples his colleagues had. He was going to accept the increased indemnity anyway, and he wasn't telling as to what purpose he would apply it. It would work to the immense advantage of the province, as it would

C.M.A. COUNCIL OPPOSES RECIPROCAL AGREEMENT

Looks Towards Dependence Upon U.S. Markets Rather Than Expansion of Home Market.

"Recognizing then that an arrangement such as is proposed, while bringing advantages in some cases, will unquestionably work injury in others, we believe that as a whole it is not in the best interests of our country."

So speaks the executive council of the C.M.A. in opposition to the reciprocity agreement in a statement unanimously approved yesterday. Continuing, it says in part:

"Our widely scattered members, with its diversified interests, requires the strengthening of every national tie to build us up as a strong and united people. The proposed agreement looks towards dependence upon the markets of the United States rather than the expansion of our home market, which for years has demonstrated its ability to consume the surplus of all the farm produce we raise.

It would divert a large measure of trade north and south, and west and east, and would tend to build up the United States rather than our own channels.

"We feel that the substitution of intercourse with the United States in place of the intercourse which now ob-exists with the other countries, and well as with the other country and the sister colonies, and the placing of ourselves under obligations to the United States in such a way as to prevent free and independent action on the part of our own people, is a condition which will extend, and which the United States will not permit to be extended until our very existence as a separate nation is threatened."

Jewish Club protests.

The Doracl Liberal-Conservative Club with a membership of over 1000

Jewish citizens, has passed a resolution which is a protest against the

"we believe," it says, "that reciprocity will be a disaster to the interests of the whole Canadian people;

that the reciprocity agreement will tend to divide the Canadian people into two sections—east and west, and that commerce between our various provinces will be seriously damaged by the serious injury to the interests of the whole Canadian people;

that the reciprocity agreement will lead to a lowering of the wages of the working people in large numbers, and that it will tend to keep American industries out of this country.

Day's Doings in the West Toronto County

N. TORONTO OUGHT TO BE IN GOOD ROADS SCHEME

Is Not Too Late Yet to Get in the Game—Matter Discussed in Committee—Suburbs.

NORTH TORONTO, Feb. 16.—(Special.)—The attention of the board of control, the city council, the Ontario Government and the Ontario Motor League is drawn to the fact that there is in the system of "good roads," now about to be ratified, a great big drawback, and this is found in the fact that right on the border of the city there are two and a half miles thru the Town of North Toronto wholly neglected.

That the York County Board should neglect the proposed "good roads" schedule in the proposed "good roads" schedule and now is the time to do it before the matter is tied up hard and fast. No time should be lost in the York County Council meeting next week to close the deal with the city.

As stated by Councillor Muston there is no doubt that the city would willingly become a party to the scheme and bear its proportion of the cost. Two and a half miles right at the heart of the city would detract from the pleasure of the trip up Yonge street, and the Ontario Motor League will surely take hold of this matter and force it to a conclusion.

The town is heavily involved in the construction of important public works at the present time, but it is not too late to get a fair share of any scheme for the benefit of the community at large. Let North Toronto have a finger in the pie.

At the meeting of the board of works held to-night and presided over by Chairman Howe, a number of matters were discussed, but nothing very outstanding came up. The water, fire and light committee also met, with Chairman Reid in charge, and awarded the contract for 400 cedar poles, 30 feet long, 100 poles 35 feet long and 50 at 40 feet in length. The price will be $3.50 F.O.B. cars at the old Welland bridge, and W. A. Houser of Earlton was the man who received the contract. Tenders will later be accepted for the remaining 200 poles.

A meeting of the Ratepayers' Association has been called for Saturday evening, Feb. 18, by President Bantlin, in the town hall at 8 o'clock.

To-morrow night (Friday) a concert and play will be given in the town hall by the pupils of the North Toronto High School. Let there be a big crowd.

The board of health met to-night and elected Robert Ferguson as chairman. A good choice.

UDORA. UDORA, Feb. 15.—(Special.)—The annual meeting of forty strange lodges of North Ontario was held here with County Master Dr. Freed of Stouffville in the chair. The gathering was a very large one considering the bad roads.

W. H. Stret, G.D.G. of East York, and Bro. Lowry of 548 Markham, attended. A speech was given by the former, wherein he laid clear why North Ontario should celebrate with East York this year at Markham. By a unanimous vote the North Ontario will join with us and endeavor to make this year's celebration one of the largest ever held in Ontario.

The largest ever held in Ontario. The brethren and citizens of Markham extend a cordial invitation to all for July 12, 1911.

BIG MASSEY HALL CROWD HEARS SCHUMANN HEINK. Symphony Orchestra Concert One of the Notable Successes of the Musical Season.

Toronto music lovers were accorded a big treat last evening in the appearance of Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the famous operatic and lieder singer, who has been touring the city for several days.

As a contrast to the "Cry of Rachel," by the diva's rendition of this wonderful aria was a great revelation. But it was in her four songs given in English that the prima donna appeared at her best. The sweet little Irish love ballad "O, the Time is Long," Mavourneen, sung in Schumann-Heink's own inimitable manner, was particularly well received and was repeated as an encore in response to the enthusiastic applause of the audience.

The remarkable dramatic power of Mme. Schumann-Heink's voice was exemplified in the "Cry of Rachel," M. A. Sater. This doleful lament was replete with anguish, which was, perhaps even more wonderfully expressive of real art than the simple and humorous air, "A Child's Prayer," (Harold), which followed.

This was the first appearance of Mme. Schumann-Heink with an orchestral accompaniment in Toronto, and the exquisite blending of the voice of the singer with the orchestra under the direction of Mr. Weisman, constituted a triumph in itself. In the latter part of her program, Mme. Schumann-Heink was accompanied by the pianist only.

To the Symphony Orchestra no greater compliment could be paid than to say that the former triumphs of the season were fully equalled, and indeed, it is questionable whether in the final number, the vespers to "Die Meistersinger von Nuremberg," of Richard Wagner, the orchestra did not outstrip its pianist-successors.

The eighth symphony by Beethoven, probably the most humorous and joyous of all the great master's compositions, was also an attractive feature. The Symphony Orchestra is recognized as a permanent factor in Toronto music circles, and its appearance in the Schumann-Heink was a worthy exhibition of its abilities.

The absence of Mr. Frank Blachford, concert master, was a regrettable incident, but his part was admirably filled by Mrs. Dressler-Adamson.

Lesson From the Past. William Orange pondered. "I seem to be in a fair way to become a lemon, all right," he said. "But you can't be expected to discourage this incipient antherland insurrection when I'm more than half insurgent myself." Muttering that he knew exactly how R. felt, he continued to ponder.—Chicago Tribune.

Couriers an Example. An English military writer has recently gathered the facts as to the way Napoleon—the ablest intellect as mere Napoleon—the ablest intellect as mere intellect history knows—got his work done.

In battle the way orders are carried and delivered means success or failure. The ablest commander can do nothing if his orders are not straight and unerring to those ordered. The bravest army perishes unless it is well directed and speedily directed, says The Philadelphia Press.

Napoleon trusted no orders to orderlies. He had no aide picked by his flunkeys or family. Out of all his army officers he chose the keenest and best young company officers. Of these he had several hundred. They did nothing but carry his orders, in peace and in war. Their bags carried them thru all lines. It was a point of honor that they rode at top speed, and, thru the trip were long, by day and night, three or four days and a man with changes of horses goes far in four days if he never draws rein.

But speed, courage and endurance were trifles. These men were the eyes and ears of Napoleon. Nothing must escape them. A man rode to Mardis and on his return was asked the slope of a little fort at a ford was properly sited. The young messenger was expected in peace to see the crops, to note if the market place of a city thru which he swept looked busy or if a regiment he had passed at a gallop had full files on its march and the uniforms of old, new recruits or seasoned men. These answered checked off and were checked by the regular reports.

Out of these young officers came colonels, generals, marshals and governors. It was Napoleon's way to ask men to work as all men should in any work, seeing all, forgetting nothing, at top speed, careless of life, sleep or strength, asking no question, permitting no delay, but always and everywhere going straight to the task, cost what it might.

It is this way that all men work to whom it is not always hunting the job and never finding either job or success. "Son, I hear you have joined the boy scout movement." "Yes, dad." "Well, s'pose you scout ahead and see if your mother is sitting up for me."—Newark Star.

A NEW COLLECTION. The following epigrams having been prepared expressly for The Boston Commercial Bulletin, that journal cautions all persons against using them without obtaining consent:

Epitaph for a liar: In life, he lied while he had breath; And, strange to say, lies still in death. For an Angler: "Waiting for a rise." For a baker: "His kneading no more on earth."

For a betting man: "Better off." For a brewer: A well-known brewer lieth here. His ale are of—his "on his beer."

For a doctor: "Waiting with patients." For a beggar: "Only waiting." For a barber: "Sent a head." For a watchmaker: "Stopped." For a telegrapher: "Despatched."

For a scullion: "In all his fiftal dream." In all his fiftal dream. He struck a balance with the world. And then—he kicked the beam. For President Grant: "The sun shall not smite thee by day."

D.V.L.S. Somerset Maugham, the playwright, said at a theatrical supper in New York:

"Critics are like chips, but I must confess that, when they condemn your play, you feel annoyed."

"I wonder why we call the people in the top of to house gods" an actress asked an unsuccessful playwright once.

"We do that," the unsuccessful playwright answered, "so as to distinguish them from the people in the bottom of the house who write the criticisms."

OUR RAILROADS BEST OF ALL

Comment of W. M. Acworth, the English Economist.

ARE HIGHEST IN EFFICIENCY.

Nation as a Whole Not Pre-eminently Efficient.

Mr. W. M. Acworth, the English railway economist, who has been making a study of the railway situation in the United States during the last two months, said this morning on the Mauretania...

In commenting on the present status in the light of the investigation just concluded, Mr. Acworth spoke very freely, he said...

"But further, your nation as a whole is not in other matters pre-eminently efficient. No one would say that your farmers were more efficient than those of France and England...

"I think the centralization of administrative power in your head quarters offices in Chicago and New York, while tending towards efficiency and economy, is responsible in some degree for the present strained relations between the railways and the public...

"Some good work in this direction is being done, but there is opportunity for great deal more. The great railway men were steadily to pursue this policy, I think they would soon live down much of the antagonism that has been manifested in the west part of the country...

"Texas and Oklahoma have no money to spare for railroad building. They want it all for their local business. Even the East cannot find all the money required. This money in large measure must, for a long time to come, be raised abroad, and the investors on other lines will not be willing to subscribe it so long as there is a contingency of the harassing conditions which tend to impede the revenues of your railways...

Hen With a Future. A white Leghorn hen, belonging to Mrs. Ryan, 26 Myrtle avenue, laid an egg weighing 6 1/2 ounces, and measuring 3 inches around the middle and 2 1/2 in. length. This chicken is not a year old. It may, and was incubated.

THE PREMIER HAS NOT PLAYED THE GAME FAIRLY

So Says Dominion Alliance President, Referring to Government Action re Three-Fifths Clause.

"I have known cases where some foreigners have been lined up $0 in a foreign land and voted the way they were told to vote against local option," declared Mr. Reevley of Welland, when a proposal to ask the government to change the franchise law that "no foreigner be allowed to vote until he can read and write the English language" was brought before the meeting of the Dominion Alliance yesterday.

"I am certainly not provoked with the results of our deputations this morning," said President Joseph Gibson. "The association was finally struck out of the afternoon session of the Dominion Alliance convention. We laid our case before Premier Whitney, an able and upright man who made us feel not worthy of 10-year-old boy in the school room. They practically spat in our faces, and I shall not be at all anxious or inclined to ever go back to them. They have not played the game fairly by us. We have made the process which they said, if we should attempt during last year, would give the new legislation. It is they, not practically have refused to do. Such a government is certainly not worthy of the support of any person who has the interests of the temperance cause at heart."

"Ben H. Spence spoke for a short time on a little misrepresentation made by one of our contemporaries in their report of his speech on Wednesday afternoon. Satisfactory Gains. The treasurer's report showed total cash receipts of $2,660,077, as compared with $2,228,311 in 1905, and $1,658,018 in 1907, when the alliance was formed. The operating expenses show a corresponding increase in 1907, being $1,879,938, and in 1910 $1,747,834. The revenue account showed in 1909 a net loss of $318,661, and in 1910 a net gain of $3,740,200.

"Good or bad government is born in the provinces," stated President Joseph Gibson, in commenting on the report of the committee on political action, to the effect that: (1) We recommend the endorsement of the present political platform of the Dominion Alliance, with these two specific objects in view: First, the removal of the three-fifths clause. Second, the securing of the prohibition of the liquor traffic to the extent of the power of the provincial legislature.

"To this end we recommend the forming and perfecting of local organizations throughout the province. The officers of the association were all re-elected with a few changes on the list of vice-presidents and executives. On the list of vice-presidents the names of J. S. McKenney, Rev. E. J. Chown, A. J. Keeler and Rev. J. A. Miller were struck off and the names of Rev. W. A. Moore, George H. Lees, Theo. Wilmet and Mrs. Hitchcock were added. To the executive of the following names were added: Rev. J. A. Miller, H. Garner (Welland), Rev. John P. Lamont, Rev. W. W. Bandolough (Sarnia), Rev. Canon Walsh (Brampton), and Miss G. S. Cummer. Pleasant Reception. The reception tendered by the reception committee at the 500 delegates was one of the most pleasant features of this gathering. The public meeting was opened by Rev. Mr. A. T. Roberts, pastor of the Victoria University Ave. Church, led by J. M. O'Brien, re-elected an executive member. President Joseph Gibson, in a short address, introduced the chairman for the evening, George H. Lees, mayor of Hamilton, who orally addressed the convention. He said that the province of Ontario is really a comic opera police force. It might be taken from a comedy if the condition was not so true. I am convinced that the Montreal force is either inefficient or corrupt. "Your friends of the government," he continued, "tell you that a three-fifths vote is necessary to retain local option. Over two-thirds of Quebec is dry, and also we have no three-fifths clause, a repeal contest is never heard of. "One system we have, we do not send drunkards to jail. We refer them to a medical doctor for a specific to cure alcoholism, and the government pays the bill!" Miss Cora Stoddard of Boston delivered an illustrated talk on the evils of alcoholism, as shown by science.

STILL GOING UP.

Hollinger stock made a remarkable recovery in yesterday's market, the early price being as low as $5.30, while later in the day it was reached. During the afternoon orders commenced to come in from Montreal, and at the close of the market a prominent Standard exchange broker was bidding $5.50 for any part of 5000 shares. The Street's impression last night was that the stock would easily reach $6.00 this week.

MINING ENGINEER SAYS VALUES WILL GO TO DEPTH

James H. Miller Discusses Porcupine's Possibilities—Several Good Mines in Sight.

A man of youthful appearance is James H. Miller, a mining engineer on whose word the exchange is making the had a good will. Mr. Miller, remarking that age has not passed its mark upon him as on many of the old-timers, declared that he is older than he looks.

"Let me see, now," and his language had a foreign accent. "I don't want to be misunderstood. In my professional experience I have always been charged with taking the pessimistic view of matters. Yet without reservation I think I can say that Porcupine is the making of a great gold camp in Ontario. The prospects are good, and up to the present I am safe in saying that there are in eight five or six real mines on the property."

Asked as to the length of time that he had been engaged in mining, Mr. Miller said that for years he had been doing just that and nothing else. He had become thoroughly acquainted with South Africa, and had considerable experience in Australia and India.

"Do you think the values will go to depth?" he was asked. "Without a doubt," was Mr. Miller's ready response. "The presence of sulphides on the surface confirms me in this belief, and I am sure that the values in Porcupine have been proved for 400 feet. "I am not much interested in the visible gold showings on the surface. My advice all along has been to get to work, go down, and this undoubtedly has only been a few instances in the Porcupine."

Speaking of promotions Mr. Miller decided anything of the kind until the property had been proved. "This is what the Timmins people did on the Hollinger, and I measured up myself between $200,000 and $500,000 worth of ore already in sight."

Turning to the prices of Porcupine stock, he said that the bias of some of the prospectors was perfectly ridiculous. An instance he cited a case in which he had offered $250,000 for a property, $50,000 to be paid down and the balance in 90 days. The only proviso was that sampling of the claim was to be allowed for six weeks, the work to be undertaken at the expense of the buyers. The deal fell thru when the test of the property was requested.

"I am afraid," Mr. Miller said, "that the people up north have been spoiled by the great success of Cobalt." In concluding Mr. Miller thought there would be several other mines in addition to those now known, but even with those at present in sight, Porcupine would be a good camp. It is understood that Mr. Miller is acting for British capital, and that his principals will make large investments.

COCAINE VENDORS SENTENCED. MONTREAL, Feb. 18.—Recorder Dupuis sentenced three cocaine vendors to jail this morning and declared his intention of doing so in every instance for which such a thing is possible. Those sentenced were: Archibald Hooper and William Teasdale, each for three months on a charge. Teasdale was recently found wandering on the street half dressed, during a bitterly cold night. He had been crazed by the use of the drug. Wardrobe Stole Suit and Overcoat. Lonsome, because his friend Powell was sentenced to 6 months, John Wardrobe, 111 Duchesne-st., came before the police last night on a charge of theft that he had assisted in the theft of an overcoat and suit of clothes from Solomon Flankstein of 16 Hagerman-st. Tax the Rascals. "Marriage," remarked a professor, "was a rite practiced by the ancients." "And bachelorhood," interrupted a bet-o-the-veve, "is a rite practiced by the moderns."—Boston Transcript.

THE TORONTO DAILY COBALT STOCKS

General Feeling of Optimism In Relation to the Cobalts

Mining Market Shows Decided Firmness and Further Advances Occur—Hollinger Makes Rapid Recovery.

World Office. Thursday Evening, Feb. 16. Much of the speculative interest in the mining stock markets to-day was centered in the low priced specialties, the bulk of transactions being put thru in Beaver, Cobalt Lake, Little Nipissing and Peterborough. Prices were decidedly firm in most instances, but the market in general displayed a falling tendency, and the upward movement was checked to a great extent by freer offerings.

Hollinger made the greatest advance of the upward swing in these shares occurred early in the day, and after the close of the morning was not regained. Nova Scotia and Peterborough were fractionally firmer. The dividend rumors were strong. Crown Reserve gaining four points at $2.72, McKinley moving one point at $1.73, and LaRoe holding between $4.84 and $5.00.

FATAL EXPLOSION AT BEAVER. A wire to A. E. Osler & Co. from Cobalt to-day said an explosion had occurred in the morning at the Beaver property, killing one man and damaging some of the buildings, but not so as to interrupt mining operations. This report was used to depress Beaver stock in the early trading on the assumption that the explosion had injured the main property, and that the Beaver property, killing one man and damaging some of the buildings, but not so as to interrupt mining operations.

SILVER MARKET. Rumored That Indian Import Duty May Be Raised. The silver market has been somewhat reactionary of late, and the immediate future is still uncertain. In their weekly letter on the market Standard & Co. say: There is a strange rumor circulating in the Indian bazaars that the government may possibly increase the import duty on silver.

LITTLE NIP CLOSED DOWN. A Cobalt wire announces that mining operations on the Little Nipissing properties are being suspended for the forthcoming meetings. C. P. R. MUST PAY. MONTREAL, Feb. 18.—After three-quarters of an hour's deliberation this afternoon, the jury in the case of Peter Dinowart against the Canadian Pacific Railway, brought in a verdict for $3600 damages against the company, with costs. The action was brought by Mr. Dinowart to recover $14,554 from the company as damages for nervous breakdown and incapacity for business as a result of the Spanish River wreck.

"SLEEPLESSNESS." Thousands of people all over this land toss night after night on a sleepless pillow. The eyes do not close in the refreshing slumber that comes to those whose heart and nerves are right. Some are troubled with weak and smothering spells; others palpitation of the heart; others have their nerves unminged; but whatever the cause—it comes entirely from a perangement of either the heart or nerves, or both. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills offer the blessing of sound refreshing sleep. They do this by their invigorating effect on the heart and nerves and will tone up the whole system to perfect condition.

Mr. H. Jewel, Keswick, Ont. writes: "I'm glad to hear the measure of telling you what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. I would have weak spells, seemed to lose my breath, and would have to get up in the night. I tried many medicines but found nothing good until I took Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I took three boxes and it is the best I ever had. I am now, and I haven't troubled since."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are soc. per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Watch the Extraordinary Happenings in the Men's Department

At the present time there is "something doing" in this department to your personal advantage and it is up to you to take advantage of the present slump in prices, with our assurance that there is no slump in quality.
