TROUBLE IN BIG HOCKEY CIRCLES

Sprague Cleghorn Must Play Clean or Get Out—An Alleged Frame-up

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—The Citizen says today Sprague Cleghorn, point player of the Canadians will either have to confine his efforts henceforth to clean hockey or get out of the National League.

President Calder called Secretary Gorman of the Ottawa club, on the long distance telephone yesterday and gave the local official a reputation that he would not be a supporter of Cleghorn's disgraceful attacks on the Ottawa players.

Mr. Cleghorn authorized a statement that the committee would continue daily sessions pending the arrival of Irish representatives. It was added that a technical sub-committee during the last fortnight had investigated all proposals for bringing the Irish provincial government into existence, so that no time need be lost in transferring the powers and responsibilities to the Irish ministers and arranging an amnesty and for the withdrawal of the British army.

London, Jan. 10.—A committee, presided over by Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for the colonies, and which includes Austen Chamberlain, Lord Privy Seal, Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, and several departmental officials, met yesterday to consider the transfer of administrative powers in the new southern government of Ireland.

Rome, Jan. 10.—Persons high in Vatican circles yesterday spoke of the great relief and joy of the Pope over the Dail Eireann's ratification of the peace treaty. The Pope, it was said, always has been interested and advised a peaceful discussion by both sides as the only possible way to a settlement of the controversy.

Dublin, Jan. 10.—The speedy formation of a provincial government for Ireland was urged upon the Dail Eireann by Michael Collins soon after the opening of today's session. The Dail resumed with the reading, by Speaker John MacNeill, of a cable message from Cardinal Gasparri, on behalf of Pope Benedict, saying His Holiness rejoices with the Irish people at the agreement that had been reached, and sent his blessing to them as they passed through their long period of sorrows, faithful to the Catholic church.

Michael Collins then said the Dail must organize immediately a committee of government to prevent a state of anarchy. The Dail must make the treaty a success, he declared. He referred to the difficulties the new government would meet, and urged harmonious co-operation. "Unless we show we are not hostile," he said, "England will have an excuse for continuing in Ireland."

Collins moved that Arthur Griffith be appointed president of the Dail. The Irish nation had no captain, continued Collins, who proceeded to tell the Dail that he had received a letter from the proprietor of the Cork Examiner, saying the management of that newspaper had been held up this morning at two o'clock and compelled to publish a proclamation. Collins said he called such methods "black and tan methods" whenever employed.

(Canadian Press Cable.) Dublin, Jan. 10.—Eamonn DeValera and his followers walked out while the vote was being taken, in protest against the nomination of Griffith.

Speaker MacNeill put the motion for Griffith's election, and he was unanimously chosen. President Griffith moved the appointment of the following cabinet: Minister of Finance—Michael Collins. Foreign Affairs—Geo. G. Duffy. Home Affairs—E. J. Duggan. Local Government—William T. Cosgrave. Economic Affairs—Bryan O'Higgins. Defence—Richard Mulcahy.

As Hiram Sees It

Decision Today Gives This Province Her Present Membership in the House of Commons—Fraction Raised Problem.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 10.—Fractions have raised a problem in connection with estimates of the representation of various provinces in the fifteenth parliament. The Quebec unit of representation has been approximately calculated at 36,000, but in no case does this divide exactly into the population of a province as determined by the 1921 census.

At present there is a tendency to mark time on parliament bills. Koutis business is being carried on under the direction of Hon. W. S. Fielding, but freighter matters are being left over. It is understood that the appointment of a lieutenant-governor for Nova Scotia has not yet been considered.

GARLAND HAS CHANGE OF MIND

Willing to Accept Million Which He Refused a Year Ago—Brother Also Gives in.

Middleboro, Mass., Jan. 10.—Charles Garland, who fourteen months ago refused $1,000,000 from the estate of his father, the late James A. Garland, of Boston, on the ground that it would be inconsistent with his views regarding property, yesterday confirmed a report that he had had a change of mind and that he would accept the legacy.

Hamilton Garland, his younger brother, has also reconsidered his determination to reject the legacy and will accept it, according to James Garland, the oldest of the three brothers.

Charles Garland and his wife are living on a farm in North Carver, seven miles from this place. When he was asked for a statement of the reason for his change in attitude, he said he still would not mind a year ago was wrong, but he had come to the conclusion that he ought not to continue to refuse the money and allow it to be idle. He believed it should be put into circulation.

In a statement made at the time of his rejection of the legacy in November, 1920, Charles Garland said: "I refuse to accept the money because it is a mine A system which starves thousands while hundreds are stuffed with it. It is such a system that offers me a million dollar fine work."

There were 188 teams competing for this trophy in the domain, and first place was taken by the Rothersey boys with York Rangers Cadet Corps of Toronto coming a close second, and losing out by only one-tenth of a point. The Rothersey "A" team came 108th among the teams in the British empire for the imperial trophy in the senior division and in the junior division, the "A" team came 268th.

There were eight teams from the school in this competition, and the average made by them in the shooting was 65.6. The scores by teams were as follows: Senior, A, 78; B, 51; C, 44; D, 41; E, 35; F, 36; Junior, A, 32; B, 20. The "A" team had an average of 75.6, with ten boys shooting. The members of this team and their scores were: S. Dunham, 77; H. Mass, 77; E. Pinder, 80; T. Skelton, 78; E. Snow, 79; R. Black, 82; F. Gordon, 75; F. Armstrong, 80; P. Kitchen, 66; and R. Burbridge, 79.

The shooting of the Canadian teams was not very good in relation to that of other parts of the empire, Canada taking only five prizes out of a total of 124 while the 188 teams entered in a list of 1412.

In number of teams entered for the imperial competition there was an increase of twenty-three over last year, Canada showing a gain of thirty teams. The greatest progress is said to have been made by South Africa, both as regards number shooting and the quality of their marksmanship. In the junior division she furnished nearly half of the teams shooting and in the senior nearly one-third.

This showing of prizes speaks well for the work of the instructor and the zeal of the boys of the Rothersey Collegiate School, especially when it is recalled that the school corps is rather small in comparison with many of the corps which they came up against. The boys who were under the capable leadership and training of Lieutenant R. Dove, C. S. C. I. years, and who, it is hoped, will be with them for a number more. Lieutenant Dove has expressed himself as well pleased with the showing the boys made this year. He hopes that they will be able to do still better in the near future. The brand of shooting this year for the Senator Denville cup, given for the best average score for a year, is remarkably good, several boys having an average of over ninety per cent.

DRY WORLD BY 1950; PUSSYFOOT PREDICTS

The world will be dry in 1950 and India will be the next country to give up liquor, according to W. E. "Pussyfoot" Johnson of the Anti-Saloon League, who returned yesterday after a nine-months trip to Europe in behalf of prohibition. He said that 292 parishes had voted in favor of prohibition in Ohio, and will leave shortly for a nine-weeks' lecture tour of the South beginning in North Carolina.

Mr. Johnson left here last April and first visited Denmark, which he declared was "drying up." He said that 292 parishes had voted in favor of prohibition, but he did not recall how many Danes drink whiskey rather than beer.

Prohibition, he said, is advancing in spirit every where. Mr. Johnson went to Denmark. After a short stay in Frederiksborg, he returned to his home in Cleveland, where he remained until Nov. 14. He visited about forty different places in that country.

While in India, Mr. Johnson explained, cannot go dry as a whole, it is the next country which will take up prohibition. The three principal religions in India forbid drinking, he said, and most of the liquor is consumed by the 62,000,000 people in the lower class. There are about 300,000,000 people in that country, and the drinking is confined principally to the lower class.

That progress has been made in favor of prohibition. In that country there are 700,000 villages, Mr. Johnson said, and about 160 different languages are spoken. The reason the country cannot go dry as a whole at one time, he said, is because the Federal Government has the power to decree for prohibition. But gradually each community is coming out of ruin.

Mr. Johnson said that he had no trouble anywhere and that the drinking is confined everywhere where he went. He told of a dry luncheon given in his honor by Lord Reading, the dryness of him and also several "wet" luncheons at which he was the guest of honor. Mr. Johnson considered the "dry" affair the most successful, and remarked that he didn't consider necessary for a man to poison himself to be agreeable.

ST. JOHN INTEREST IN THIS CASE

Judge Barry's Judgment in Prohibition Matter.

Fredericton, N. B., Jan. 10.—Mr. Justice Barry in a judgment delivered this morning upheld an appeal by the prohibition enforcement authorities from the decision of the police magistrate of Fredericton dismissing a charge of violation of the prohibition act against Harry D. Lindsay of Woodstock. A Harry D. Lindsay of Woodstock, a defendant of payment of a fine of $50 with costs before the police magistrate three months imprisonment in the York county jail in the sentence. There is no appeal possible from this decision.

The case arises from the seizure, last September, of twenty cases of liquor by inspectors at Springhill just after it had been transferred from Lindsay's auto. The fact, as reviewed by Mr. Justice Barry, was that a man named Calvin of Houlton, Maine, and Lindsay to come to a point near this city and meet Elmer E. Morell of St. John, get twenty cases of Scotch whiskey from him and transport them to a point in Maine, two miles beyond the international boundary.

Calvin furnished $940 for Lindsay to pay for the liquor at $47 a case and $113 for Lindsay's share. Lindsay's auto was transferred from the St. John car to the vehicle from Woodstock when the seizure was made and four of the occupants of the two cars arrested and charged with various offences.

MAY CHANGE SOME SOME RULES IN HORSE RACING

Cleveland, Jan. 10.—While nothing definite was announced previous to the executive session of the grand circuit stewards this afternoon, it was understood that the 1922 season will open with a week's racing at North Randall commencing on July 5. It also was indicated that there will be no change in the line up of the circuit.

The stewards were scheduled to take account in the reports of the rules and schedules committees, which met yesterday. They are said to include a recommendation that three heat races terminate at the conclusion of the second heat, providing that the same horse has won the first two heats.

Another recommendation, it is said, provides a method whereby fast records can be reset instead of being relegated to the stud as is the case now. It also is said that changes in the scoring and racing system have been suggested.

Chances of racing near Detroit were considered slight.

Judge Barry Upholds Legality of Demand for Health Appropriation.

Queen's Kent St. John and other municipalities have similarly refused to pay the demands and steps to collect have already been taken in some of these cases. Immediately after decision in the King's County case Mr. Justice Barry ordered the county to pay the amount of $7,500.

The court also ordered the county to pay the amount of $7,500. The court also ordered the county to pay the amount of $7,500.

SUGGESTS CITY GIVE CUP FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

F. T. Belyea Writes of What Races on Lily Lake Mean for St. John.

To the Editor of the Times:— Sir,—Kindly allow me space in your columns to suggest to his worship the mayor and commissioners the wonderful chance the Canadian championship skating meet, which will be held here shortly, gives St. John to get into the limelight once more.

Note the entries from the various champions from almost all over the world. This seems that even now the name of St. John, N. B., is heralded abroad over Canada and the United States.

Think of the thousands of dollars worth of advertising our city is getting gratis.

If any new records are established, and no matter who wins the championship, I feel sure this could be done royally for about $200 or $300, and feel certain the citizens would consider it money well spent.

We feel certain with half the amount of advertising we could do in our town, if we were to discuss the merits of the skating association which is only too pleased to let us have its own argument whenever they can do so. As this is a gigantic undertaking for the Y. M. C. A., they are deserving of our best wishes and co-operation of all citizens of St. John.

Trusting the city authorities will favorably consider this suggestion, and thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I remain, in the interests of bigger and greater St. John, Sincerely,

F. J. BELYEYEA.

Some attention will probably be given to Magistrate Moore, who imposed the punishment. Mr. Roney has power to appoint another magistrate with extended jurisdiction, who could take over all the duties now performed by Magistrate Moore, without the necessity for making any dismissal.

IMPERIAL PRESENTS CANADIAN THRILLS

"Conflict" a Tremendous Story of British Columbian Lumber Strains—An Appalling Climax—On Again Tonight.

One of the most thrilling pictures ever made for the screen was shown last night at the Imperial Theatre, when "Conflict," Priscilla Dean's latest Universal-Jewel production, had its premier in this city. The picture is the latest work in screen melodrama and grips the audience with its suspense almost from the first fish.

Its climax is built around the dramatic story of a big log-jam in the swollen waters of the great north woods, and the succeeding flood of logs and water down the valley, sweeping everything in its path. The big punch comes when the heroine, played by Miss Dean, rides madly down the bank abreast of the flood, leaps perilously from log to log through the flow, and rescues her unconscious sweetheart, played by Herbert Rawlinson, just as he is about to be swept over a cataraet.

The suspense is real, the thrill is actual, and Miss Dean deserves credit for one of the most fearless stunts ever performed for the screen. The rescue scene has been favorably compared to the rescue scene in "Way Down East." It is just as good, if not better. For one thing, it is not so long drawn out.

The logging camp scenes of "Conflict" are a revelation in screen verisimilitude. Miss Dean and her company passed several weeks in the timber country of British Columbia filming the story in its proper settings.

The story concerns Dorcas Rernale, a society girl forced by her father's death to go and live with her uncle, a notorious reclusive and lumber baron. A crafty and queer housekeeper rules his prison-like home in the deep woods. Menaced by the housekeeper and driven to desperation by the ominous atmosphere of the place, Dorcas runs away. She has fallen in love with Jevons, an educated young lumberman, who has challenged her uncle's supremacy in the timber country. When Jevons' life is threatened she takes up his fight, out-its her uncle's holdings and brings the lumber baron to terms.

In addition to the excellent acting of the star, and her leading man, Herbert Rawlinson, two other players stand out prominently. They are Edward Connelly, as the grim uncle, and Martha Muttos, as the weird housekeeper. Sam Allen also is unusually good as a village hotelkeeper. His part is small, but he makes it as clear out as a cannon. Others in the cast are L. C. Shumway, Hector Sarno, C. E. Anderson, Milton Brown, Bill Gillis and Knute Edickson.

"Conflict" was adapted from the novel of the same name by Clarence Budington Kelland, which recently appeared in the Red Book. It was directed by Stuart Paton, the director of Miss Dean's previous success, "Reputation." It is being shown again today.

A "balanced diet" may sound confusing to many people. The facts, as explained here, are simple. The secret of a "balanced diet" is to have food containing all the elements needed for proper nutrition. These elements are protein, to nourish the tissues, starch and sugar to furnish energy; fat to supply heat and mineral salts to provide the material necessary for building nerves, brain, and tooth and bone structure.

BOY HURT IN FIGHT AT SCHOOL IS DEAD
Had Been Unable to Speak Since a Bout at Erasmus High on Wednesday—His Skull was Fractured.
(New York Times)
The tragic end of a fight between two boys in the basement of the Erasmus Hall High School, in Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn, came yesterday afternoon when Harold Cisney, 14 years old, son of George W. Cisney, 27 Ocean avenue, died at the Peck Memorial Hospital. He had been unable to speak since last Wednesday afternoon, when a blow from the fist of Theodore C. Friedemann, Jr., 407 Ocean avenue, knocked him down. His head hit the cement at the foot of the Peck Memorial Hospital. He had been investigating, pronounced the case an accident and said no arrests had been made. An autopsy will be performed and inquiry is made by the District Attorney's office.
The story of other boys who saw the fight, Dr. J. Herbert Low, Principal of the school, said, was that about twenty minutes after the closing hour, which is at 4:45 o'clock, a group of boys went to the campus in the rear of the building to watch a fight between two of their number. It was raining, so the crowd went into the basement.
When the fight was over Cisney and Friedemann began fighting, and soon Cisney fell. The onlookers fled when it was seen that he was badly hurt, but one of the boys notified a teacher, Dr. Emory, who telephoned to Cisney's father, Mr. Cisney soon had two doctors at the school, and Harold was taken to the hospital suffering from a fracture near the base of the brain.
The preliminary match, the police said they had learned, was between Seymour Link and Joseph Coravelli, who had quarreled. Friedemann took Coravelli's part, and Cisney offered to fight for Link, who was hit during the fight. Friedemann then hit Link, and the fight followed.
Friedemann was found by a Times reporter as he was leaving the high school yesterday. At first he refused to say anything about the fight because Dr. Low had so instructed him, but finally admitted that it had taken place. Later at his home an elder brother said that Theodore had given him a full account of the fight and that he was convinced the outcome was purely accidental. Both Cisney and Friedemann were members of the first-year class at the high school.

REPORT GRAVE OPENED TO DECAPITATE BODY
Inquiry May Follow Hint of Superstitious Ceremony to Find Deaths in Family?
Winona, Minn., Jan. 10.—Police withheld a decision as to whether they would open the grave of Miss Frances Bloch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bloch, to ascertain if the body had been decapitated in a superstitious belief that such action would end a long series of deaths in the family, after Thomas Bloch was said to have admitted opening the graves of his daughter and son, Joseph, to confirm certain "signs." He denied molesting the bodies. When he opened the graves, he said, with the assistance of a neighbor, he found nothing but the bare skeletons.
Bloch denied that his intention was to sever the head from the body of his daughter and place it at the foot of the coffin because of a superstition that the spirit of the daughter had been responsible for the death of one of her brothers since her own death, five years ago, police said.
Frank, the last of the Bloch sons, died last Saturday, four married daughters being the only surviving members of the family.
Bloch's statement followed the announced intention of officials to exhume the body as a result of a disclosure said to have been made by George Kammerer, former Chief of Police and now Sexton of St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery here, that the graves had been tampered with in the last ten days.
The Juniors of the Natural History Society held a short business meeting in the society rooms in Union street last night, with Miss M. Sewell, the president, in the chair.

BURIED BODY A MYTH.
Massachusetts Boy Admits Hoax After Police Start Digging.
Springfield, Mass., Jan. 10.—After local and state police with volunteers had spent all forenoon digging in a locality east of this city for a body, Walter Colpik, aged eleven, broke down and told the police that his story of a buried body was a hoax, invented by him on the spur of the moment in a spirit of mischief and persisted in through fear of punishment.
Peter Rucel, a cement block manufacturer, accused by the boy of being the man who buried the body, and held by the police, was released today.
While working in the Union Foundry about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, B. C. Warns, 292 Britain street, had his right hand badly crushed when it was caught in a drill chuck. The unfortunate man was rushed to the St. John Infirmary and was operated upon immediately after his arrival there. It was found not necessary to amputate the hand, but it will be some months before the victim of the accident will be able to return to work. He was reported as resting comfortably last evening.

DRAMATIC TOUCH IN PRESENTATION OF MISSION CAUSE

The Women's Missionary Society of tenantry church had a very interesting program at its meeting yesterday afternoon and dramatic presentations of mission facts were added to the program. Mrs. C. F. Sanford, the president, was in the chair and the opening devotions were led by Mrs. M. D. Austin. Mrs. Alice Hea gave a paper on Christian stewardship and the remainder of the program was illustrative of the work of the Society. Mrs. R. A. McLaughlin was the leader and a comprehensive sketch of Indian missions and life in India of today. Mrs. M. D. Austin, who read papers, besides Mrs. McLaughlin, were Mrs. W. B. Tennant, Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. F. T. C. Knowles, Mrs. Gen. Skinner, Miss K. Turner, Mrs. J. Lafleur and Mrs. Collins. Midway in the program of readings an effective piece of pageantry representing India's evil trio, Ignorance, Superstition and Poverty, appeared and with their strong ropes endeavored to bind and destroy India. Those who took part in the pageant were Mrs. Armstrong, Miss Evans and Mrs. Topam.

HEART WOULD BEAT LIKE A TRIP HAMMER

Heart trouble has of late years become very prevalent. Sometimes a pain strikes you in the region of the heart, now and then your heart skips beats, palpitates, throbs, or beats with such rapidity and violence you think it is going to burst.

You have weak and dizzy spells, sinking sensations, are nervous, irritable and depressed, and if you attempt to walk upstairs or any distance you get all out of breath.

We know of no remedy that will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy, normal condition as

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. Chadwick, Delhi, Ont., writes: "I had palpitation of the heart, and the next exercise, such as going upstairs or a hill, my heart would beat like a trip-hammer, and at times it was dizzy-headed and had a sinking sensation as if my time were near."

A friend suggested I try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, so I procured three boxes, and by the time the first I took six boxes, and now, although I am 66 years of age, I feel like a young girl, walk miles without fatigue, and can walk miles without fatigue. At time of sickness I weighed 120 lbs., now I weigh 100."

Price, 50c a box at all dealers, or mail direct on receipt of price by The Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

POPULATION OF CANADA FOR 1921 ABOUT 8,714,000

Ottawa, Jan. 9.—With the issuing of Quebec's census figures today one may for the first time hazard a guess that the population of Canada as a whole will be in the neighborhood of 8,714,000. Details given by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics show that all Canada, excluding the provinces of Saskatchewan and British Columbia, has a population of 7,472,953. The population of the other two provinces is a matter of considerable speculation, and the result cannot be approximated with any degree of accuracy. It is a fact, however, that from 1911 to 1916 Saskatchewan's population increased from 492,432 to 647,835, an increase of thirty-one per cent.

On this basis the population of Canada by provinces would be as follows:

1921	1911
Nova Scotia	824,379	690,838
New Brunswick	888,992	851,889
Prince Edward Island	88,396	93,728

PROHIBITION IN U. S.

(New York Evening Post)

It is not altogether a paradox to say that the partial failure of prohibition enforcement during the two years the law has been in effect holds out the promise of an ultimate satisfactory application of the law. Figures cited yesterday before the House Appropriations Committee show that the country has been exhausting the stocks of liquor in bond. In January, 1920, the warehouses had nearly 60,000,000 gallons of liquor. On July 1, 1921, the supply had been reduced to 42,500,000 gallons. The figures show two things plainly: that the country has been wet and that it cannot go on being wet to anything like the same degree for more than two years. Believers in prohibition might not inconceivably be content to have the wetter now the dryer two years from now.

There are three sources of supply for the thirsty today: the bonded warehouses, imports from abroad, and the home-made goods. The last factor is the hardest to deal with from the outside but largely provides its own solution. It must be a very insistent drinker who will run the risks of the stuff which has such a notable death toll already in its credit. When the warehouse supplies have been exhausted the large-scale manufacture of liquor outside the law can be easily dealt with. There remains the problem of importations. This, in a little while, will become a very big problem. Enforcement agencies, both Federal and State, will have to be concentrated at the ports and along the frontiers.

It is a test of endurance and patience between the law and its violators, and there is little doubt of which will win out in the end; this quite aside from the fact that whether the law wins or loses it is there to be enforced.

Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such rebuilding treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return. Mrs. W. J. Pearce, Nunn St., Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. This was so severe that I would have to lie in bed for days. A friend advised me to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I found some improvement in my condition. I continued using it until I had taken about seven boxes, and they completely relieved the pain in my head."

SOLVE INDIAN ROPE TRICK

Hypnotism Suggested—Rope Seems to Hang in Air—But Camera Proves It Doesn't—English Colonel Investigates.

Bombay, India, Dec. 17.—(From a Special Correspondent of "The Times.")—Most Canadians who have heard of the famous "boy and rope" trick, alleged to be performed by Indian jugglers. A rope is first thrown up into the air, where it remains suspended in the air, and seemingly attached to something, though there is obviously nothing up aloft to which it could be attached. The juggler then produces a small boy to climb the rope, which he does, vanishing into space. Later the lad appears on the ground some distance behind the juggler. A Colonel Barnard, well known in Calcutta, resolved to solve this mystery which has baffled Europeans ever since the first white trapeze set foot in this land of the Great Mogul.

The boy was suspended by a rope found who professed to be able to perform the trick, and who was willing to show the Colonel how he did it. The juggler took with him one of his English subordinates and a camera.

Colonel Follows Boy.

Naked save for a loin cloth, the juggler took his stand, together with a small boy, in the centre of the courtyard, and the boy disappeared into the air. It went up and up till their eyes could no longer follow it.

The small boy commenced climbing up this rope, suspended to nothing. The camera clicked. The boy went up and up until he disappeared from view, and all the time the smoke from the camera's lens seemed to be following the boy. The juggler now professed to be angry with the boy for his rickshaws and started in pursuit up the rope hanging on nothing. Again the camera clicked. The juggler then pulled the rope down and rolled it up, when suddenly the boy reappeared, and together with his master, began saluting profoundly. The trick was over.

Camera Not Tricked.

The Colonel returned home completely mystified and determined to set to work to develop his negatives. The result was astounding. Neither the juggler nor the boy or the rope had moved at all. The photos of the ascending rope, and of the boy climbing it, showed the details of the courtyard and nothing else.

The short, the camera had not been tricked, though the senses of the two Englishmen had, both being presumed hypnotized or doped by the potent odors arising from the braisers.

HEADS THAT ACHE AND PAIN

It is hard to drag along with a head that aches and pains all the time.

Let me ease out of ten, persistent headaches are due to poisoned blood, the blood being rendered impure through some derangement of the stomach, liver or bowels, but no matter which organ is to blame the cause must be removed before permanent relief can be obtained.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

which has been on the market for over forty years, removes the cause of the headache by starting the organs of elimination acting freely, and when the impurities are carried off from the system, purified blood circulates in the brain cells, and the aches and pains vanish.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes, sometimes with a scalding sensation as it is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. Here you are in a constant dread, sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue to take three or four times a day. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the urinary organs which will cure you actually again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

"Small red pimples and black-heads began on my face and my face became very red and swollen. Some of the pimples formed white heads and there were places where the pimples were in blotches. SIR JAMES BARRIE

(The Spotlight in Toronto Star.)

What really gives Barrie his unhalting place among the writers of the world is that he has a man and a woman and an unimpeachable well of the short and simple annals of the poor. He has transferred some of them, with human realism of which he is so amazing a practitioner—the greatest realism when he is to be riding in the aura of one of his heroes.

To understand Barrie you must not only see his plays, and read the books which give him his first international fame, but you must see the background whence both sets of materials come. You must read "Margaret Ogilvy," the profoundest, simplest, most appealing character sketch of a mother ever written by one of our writers. It is the story of a widow in Thrums, and the other transcripts from Ker's pen in Forfarshire, which, in sum, portray the product of the immortal years of ceaseless toil, rigid piety, and crowded teaching hours of the Scotch which everybody is reading. You must revert to the times when Barrie was in the making.

Scanty savings sent him to Dumfries Academy and then to Edinburgh High School. He was to be a famous lawyer, and it had been more like others of his station and education, the old folks might have prayed that he would be a lawyer, or a judge, or a member of the law.

His mother feared for his morals when he began to circulate among the ungodly. She was not the only mother who worried for nothing.

Thirty-five years ago a Scotch minister whose death drove him from a pastorate started in London The British Weekly, a religious paper with brains to burn and interest to spare. Robertson Nicol, always on the lookout for unusual skill, read a caricature of a Scotch assembly in the Edinburgh Evening Despatch, and asked for the writer's name. It was Barrie, who thereupon wrote weekly in the Weekly. Nicol persuaded him to use a name. He chose Gavin Ogilvy, after his mother. That was how we got the Auld Licht and The Window, and other everlasting fare.

TEACHERS AND RELIGION

Rev. Ernest William Barnes, canon of Westminster, addressing the teachers' conference, admitted that about 80 per cent of the population in England was indifferent to Christian worship. He said that the ultimate power of religious influence rested not with the clergy, but with the teachers, though many thoughtful people considered that the churches were destined eventually to become a profound influence upon the religious thought of the world.

The canon said the Old Testament contained a profound influence upon the religious thought of the world. He had returned to the conclusion that it was highly dangerous to use, for didactic purposes, such allegories as the creation of women, Daniel in the lion's den and Jonah and the whale, which encouraged the prevalent belief that religious people had a low standard of truth.

WHERE OPALS ARE FOUND

Ninety Per Cent. of World's Opals Come From Lightning Ridge, Near Sydney, Australia.

Ninety per cent. of all opals in the world are found on a barren desert called Lightning Ridge, a short journey from Sydney, Australia, according to E. Gregory Shearman, leading opal merchant of Australia, who passed through Chicago recently with his wife and sister on the way back to Sydney after a two-year trip around the world.

"No one knows just how opals came to be formed," said Mr. Shearman. "One theory is that they were formed on the borders of an immense inland sea by the filtration of minerals carried in solution formed by the stagnant waters. But no theory quite accounts for all the peculiar formations of the stones."

"The government of Australia has forbidden any company to take control of the opal fields. The prospecting, therefore, is done by individuals. Usually two men form a partnership, buy a camping outfit and go and dig as long as their supplies last. There are not very many of them; about 800, I should judge."

"One opal was found in the first two minutes of digging that sold in London for $70,000. (This was the famous Aurora Australis, which was purchased by Mr. Shearman during his trading days). There was another in the hands of Scotchmen who worked for six months without finding a single stone. A casual passerby turned over with his foot a shaft and found an opal worth $25,000. By the law of the ridge finders are keepers and the unlucky Scots were disgusted that they gave up prospecting."

Prohibition never will be popular on Lightning Ridge, according to Mr. Shearman.

There are some wild characters along the ridge," said Mr. Shearman, "but the majority of men are law-abiding. Your prohibition would never be a success though, for there is a tradition that the men who drink have the best luck in finding opals. Strangely enough, the statistics seem to bear out this belief."

Mr. Shearman and his family took luncheon with Mr. and Mrs. L. Brackett Bishop, 4229 Drexel Blvd., whom they met in India and Paris.

LIGHTNING EXCHANGE

Here is a story from Vienna illustrative of the quaint conduct of the krona recently. At Frau Secher's famous restaurant the other day an American was having an opulent luncheon. He paid his bill—one dollar—to the waiter, who gave him 2,000 kronen change. After setting the bill the American ordered some more coffee, and having drunk it asked for a new bill, without having him a bill, immediately put 500 kronen in front of him.

The American was surprised. "What's this?" he said. "I want to pay for my coffee."

"That's all right, sir," said the waiter. "The dollar exchange has gone up by 1,000 points since you paid your first bill."

RINGS OF DEATH

The employment of rings for criminal purposes was common in olden days. Hannibal, we are told, from a fear of being delivered up to the Romans, swallowed poison, which, to be prepared for the worst, he carried with him in the hollow of a ring. In those days degree rings were put together with a degree of skill far beyond that of modern jewelers. Sometimes the poison was concealed beneath the stone, which opened with a spring. It required a small space for the vial and poisons.

WHY IS IT

that chronic skin diseases which have defied all other treatments yield to Zam-Buk?

It is because Zam-Buk is germicidal, and also has such power of penetration that it reaches the disease in the underlying tissues and cures from the "root" up. That is the only way a permanent cure can be effected.

Mr. H. C. Buckley of 461 E. Broadway, Portland, Oregon, says: "For chronic skin diseases there is nothing like Zam-Buk. For fifteen years I had eczema, and I tried an endless number of so-called 'eczema cures,' but nothing was capable of curing me permanently until I used Zam-Buk. Ten months' use of Zam-Buk has effected a complete cure."

For ulcers, abscesses, boils, ring worm, blood-poisoning, piles, burns, scalds and cuts, Zam-Buk is equally good. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. 50c box, $ for $1.25.

HOW TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

A Cincinnati Barber Tells How to Make a Remedy for Gray Hair.

A well known resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has been a barber for more than forty years, recently made the following statement:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home, at very little cost, that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of Job-Bel, or some box of Orif Compound and 1-4 ounce glycerine. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not clog the most delicate scalp, it is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

and recreational needs of the students had been provided for, justifying the building of the structure at Stouley now to be used for that purpose. Unless the university were making progress they were not entitled to expect money from their constituents. While it was not comfortable to anticipate a deficit, yet it provided a cause to present to the friends of the university and one for them to liquidate. The board felt that the university was on the eve of great things. They looked forward to a college year of twelve months instead of eight, providing for the students to take a three months' vacation when most desirable and resuming his studies when most convenient. There was no place on the continent more suitable for summer school and a continuous college year than Halifax, and the opportunities which Dalhousie would offer. The day was not far distant, declared Mr. Pearson, when the government of Nova Scotia must recognize its obligations to higher education and make provision for it. He then proceeded to tell the story of how the late Mrs. Edly, through B. Bennett of Calgary, a graduate in law of Dalhousie University, had become interested in the university and had so generously for the erection of the women's residence.

FLYING FISH FLY OR JUMP? DEBATED QUESTION

Naturalists Differ in Opinions, But Some Think They Both Fly and Jump. Whether flying-fish really fly, or whether they merely jump, has been a much debated question among naturalists. Those who have felt that this leap is really a long, powerful leap. In the early 'twenties I was engaged in the development of the meteorological kite of the Hargrave pattern, for lifting self-recording apparatus in the air, and later adopted by the various bureaux of the world for aerological research. This work brought me in contact with the early pioneer workers on the problem of flight, occasionally I co-operated in experiments on the lifting and driving of flying-fish, which we saw in great numbers.

Both Sides Right. His explanation of how this comes about is ingenious. If Mr. Clayton is right, the fish jumps and flies, and both sides to the famous controversy are right, or partly so. He writes: "In the early 'twenties I was engaged in the development of the meteorological kite of the Hargrave pattern, for lifting self-recording apparatus in the air, and later adopted by the various bureaux of the world for aerological research. This work brought me in contact with the early pioneer workers on the problem of flight, occasionally I co-operated in experiments on the lifting and driving of flying-fish, which we saw in great numbers.

Lifted By Tail. "As the fish left the water the powerful lateral strokes of the tail which lifted them into the air could be seen plainly. As they rose into the air the pectoral fins vibrated with great rapidity, and my earlier experiments with the rod and flexible web led me to believe that exactly this same principle was used by the flying-fish to drive itself forward. The forward part of the pectoral fins is rigid and the rear flexible, so that its rapid vibration gives a strong propelling force. When the fish had gained velocity and the rising impulse given by the tail had culminated, the fins ceased to vibrate and were used as air-planes, on which it glided forward, slowly sinking until its tail touched the water, when the lateral stroke lifted it into the air and the process was repeated. In this way the fish could remain in the air for long flights when necessary. "The only way in which the motion differs from the flight of birds is that the vibration of the fins probably gives no lifting force, but only a forward driving force, and the fish needs to depend on the tail-strokes for the lift."

1921 A HEALTHFUL YEAR (Bradstreet's) Records of leading insurance companies in the United States and Canada indicate that the year 1921 has been a healthful year among policy holders. Vice-President Cox of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company indicated characterized it, in an address at the annual convention of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents, as the healthiest in the history of both countries. On the basis of figures covering 27,000,000 persons, derived from the records of thirty-seven leading companies, he said that statistics for the first ten months of the year showed a lowering of the death rate among policy holders from 8.80 per thousand in 1920 to 8.24 per thousand in 1921. Other encouraging statements made by Mr. Cox were to the effect that influenza as a cause of death has largely disappeared from the United States and Canada this year, and that pneumonia has fallen off about one-half from 1920. Thus, only 1,780 deaths from influenza were reported in ten months of 1921, as compared with 14,941 in the like period of 1920. Again, deaths from pneumonia numbered only 16,708 in ten months of 1921, as compared with 22,248 in the corresponding period of 1920. The decline was nearly 40 per cent. on the basis of these figures; but taking into consideration the greater number of lives at risk in 1921, Mr. Cox estimated that pneumonia caused a serious cause of death this year as it was last year. Tuberculosis, causing 22,448 deaths, or about one in nine of all deaths in 1921, showed a decrease of over 11 per cent. as compared with the corresponding period of last year, and a marked decline since a decade ago, when it caused nearly one death in four. Deaths caused by automobile accidents, on the other hand, showed an increase of 15 per cent., while deaths by homicide increased 82 1/2 per cent., and those by suicide 80 per cent.

USES FOR SEAWEED. Among the important features of the agricultural industries along the northern coast of France, in normal times, is the harvesting of seaweed. As soon as the reeding waters permit, the seaweed gatherers fall diligently to work. Soon every rock and ledge is shaved of its brown, silty fleece, and left as bare as the back of a shorn sheep. The operations are made for an attack on the reefs so numerous along the southern coast of the English Channel. Everything that will float is pressed into service. Huge rafts are constructed, and next morning, with the current of the ebbing tide in their favor, they are towed by the people in the boats eight or ten miles out from the coast. Low water leaves them stranded on the reefs, and all hands make the best of their time. The worker kneels on the dripping weed, grasps a handful in the hand, and, with a sickle in the right, cuts it off close to the rock and places it in a bag. As soon as he has cut off as much as he can carry, the sack is taken on the back to the raft, upon which it is received by men with pitchforks, stacked and securely roped. Towing the heavily-laden rafts to the shore is tedious work, and progress is slow. The wet harvesters are soon chilled to the bone by the keen east wind that always prevails in this latitude during the month of March, the harvesting season for seaweed. The morning ebb tide leaves the rafts and their spoils of seaweed high and dry on the smooth, white beach. They are constantly surrounded by a crowd of people with all descriptions of vehicles. All work together hauling the weed to the field already prepared to receive the precious fertilizer. That it may be most effective, the seaweed must be got into the ground as soon as possible after it leaves its native element.

J. RITCHIE BELL AT EXMOUTH STREET. A good audience assembled last night to enjoy the second of the series of evangelistic services in Exmouth street church, where J. Ritchie Bell of Montreal is assisting the pastor, Rev. H. E. Thomas. Mr. Bell based his remarks on the reply of Martha, "By this time he stinketh, for he has been dead four days," when the Master commanded her to remove the obstructions which hindered the manifestations of God's power, promising that if she would believe she would see the glory of God. The excellent choir of the church, augmented by additional singers from other churches, led in a spirited service. The evangelist contributed a solo, "The Sweetest Song I Know."

HARPOONING POLAR BEARS. EXCITING ALASKAN SPORT. Possibly no other sport gives as much of a thrill as harpooning polar bears in Alaskan waters. Certainly not many sports present such an opportunity for excitement. When summer comes and the frozen waters are broken up into floating ice cakes the polar bear cannot go about in his accustomed manner. Being a good swimmer, however, he takes to the water in order to satisfy the wanderlust in his system. When floating he is at a disadvantage and it is while he assumes such a position that Uncle Sam's Eskimo wards proceed to hunt him in any kind of craft they can procure. They could shoot him if they chose. But if they did he would sink. So instead of using a firearm they spear him with the harpoon, to which a rope is attached. This rope prevents the bear from sinking below the surface of the water. It is said that one polar bear put up a fierce fight. So even in the cold north land there is a spirit of sport like that that leads the warmer blooded lovers of the field and stream to the lakes where the fighting muskellunge abound and to the untamed jungles of India where the ferocious tiger can be found. Verily the whole world is akin, as has been said, even in the realm of those who seek real red-blooded sport.

The Egyptian government shall be entitled to the services of British officials after the coming into force of the treaty on condition that such officials shall receive compensation hereafter provided, in addition to their pension or indemnity to which they are entitled to receive, in full and complete satisfaction of their claims for permanent officials, (b) for temporary officials, shall be prepared by the president of the Society of Actuaries, at the fixed rate of 97% per cent to the 2.

EGYPT'S STATUS AT THE PRESENT

What Imperial Government Proposed as Termination of Protectorate.
In view of the recent outbreak of disorder, with attendant bloodshed, in Egypt, new interest attaches to the recent looking to the termination of the protectorate and the elevation of Egypt to the status of a sovereign state. Negotiations had been carried on between the British government and the Egyptian delegation in London. The British government agreed, in consideration of the conclusion and ratification of the present treaty, to terminate the protectorate declared over Egypt on December 18, 1914, and to recognize Egypt as a sovereign state under a constitutional monarchy.
The foreign affairs of Egypt shall be conducted by the Egyptian ministry of foreign affairs under a minister designated. The British government shall be represented in Egypt by a high commissioner, who, in virtue of his special responsibilities, shall at all times be entitled to an exceptional position, and shall take precedence over the representatives of other countries. The Egyptian government shall be represented in London, and in any other capital in which, in the opinion of the Egyptian government, Egyptian interests may require such representation, by diplomatic representatives enjoying the rank and title of minister. In view of the obligations which Great Britain has undertaken in Egypt, notably in respect of foreign countries, the closest relations shall exist between the Egyptian ministry of foreign affairs and the British high commissioner, who will render all possible assistance to the Egyptian government in respect of diplomatic transactions or negotiations.
The Egyptian government will not enter into any political agreement with foreign powers without consultation with the British high commissioner. The Egyptian government shall enjoy the conduct of its foreign relations, and the consular protection of Egyptian interests in places where no Egyptian diplomatic representative is stationed. His British Majesty's representatives will place themselves at the disposal of the Egyptian government, and will render them every assistance in their power. The British government will continue the negotiations for the abolition of the existing capitulations with the various consular powers, and accept the responsibility for protecting the legitimate interests of foreigners in Egypt.
Great Britain undertakes to support Egypt in the defence of her vital interests and of the integrity of her territory. For the discharge of these obligations and for the due protection of British interests in Egypt, the British government shall have free passage through Egypt, and shall be maintained at such places and for such periods as shall from time to time be determined. They shall also at all times have facilities as at present for the acquisition and use of barracks, exercise grounds, aerodromes, naval yards, and naval harbors.
In view of the special responsibilities assumed by Great Britain and of the existing position in the Egyptian army and public services, the Egyptian government undertakes not to appoint any foreign officers or officials to any of the public services of the British high commissioner. The Egyptian government will appoint a financial commissioner, to whom shall be entrusted the exercise of the powers of the British high commissioner. An external loan shall be raised upon the credit of the Egyptian government without the concurrence of the financial commissioner. In agreement with the British government, a judicial commissioner, who, in virtue of his obligations assumed by Great Britain, shall be charged with the duty of watching the administration of the law in all matters

INTO an amusing race toward a fixed goal.
Much more exciting are the turtle races which may be witnessed in some of the South American countries. Turtle fishermen select a number of the great sea turtles, and, attired in bathing costumes, mount their backs, grasping the forepart of the shells with both hands. The turtles are then released and at once would plunge with his rider to the bottom of the sea, but this the jockey would prevent by throwing his weight on the back part of the shell and at the same time pulling the forward part up with his hands, which keeps the animal's head above the surface. By pulling the shell to the right or left, the rider is made about a boat anchored off shore, and so back to the starting point. These turtles cover a course of eight or nine miles in an astonishingly short time.
In St. John a particularly warlike fish, and fish fighting is almost a national sport in that country. When a contest is to be staged, two of the fish are placed in a large glass bottle, and these natural gladiators do the rest.

CHOOSING BRIDES FOR TURKS

Marriage in Turkey is a very prosaic affair. It being in a majority of cases quite a business matter. When a man wishes to wed, his parents obtain a list of houses where eligible girls are to be found, and the mother then calls at these.

TWO HOLD-UP MEN WERE GIVEN THE surprise of their lives late Saturday night by James Rosson, proprietor of a Chat-attempted to hold up. Rosson, who has a permit to carry a revolver, was with his way home, with both his hands in his overcoat pockets. Suddenly two men jumped out in front of him from behind a tree, and ordered him to put his hands up, pointing a gun at Rosson. The barber said "All right," and pulled his right hand out of his pocket and fired his own gun. When the smoke cleared away both men were running as hard as they could.

In no country in the world was the motto "Early to bed and early to rise" acted upon to more rigidly than in Scotland. But, alas! in these days workmen do not start their daily toil at the six o'clock hour as in the olden time.
In the good, old-fashioned days, workmen in the land of heather, oatmeal and bitternall came home to a substantial breakfast of porridge and other strength-giving foods. But the order of things has changed. The shipyards, mills and factories do not commence work now-days till eight o'clock, when ham and eggs and other commodities seem to have to an extent supplanted oatmeal. But surely the modern Scot has not abjured oatmeal! In Canada and other countries

Success and the United Hotels Company of America

THIS advertisement answers that question for all those who are considering investing in the 8% Convertible Debentures of The Mount Royal Hotel Company, Limited.

In the first place, The United Hotels Company of America have purchased for cash One Million dollars' worth of the 8% Convertible Debentures of The Mount Royal Hotel Company, Limited.

Thus, you see, investors in the 8% Convertible Debentures have an additional safeguard in knowing that their interests and the interests of the United Hotels Company of America are identical. Debenture holders must be satisfied first before Common Stock dividends are paid.

Nevertheless, we think that the Common Stock, which is now being given away as a bonus, should earn substantial dividends within a very short time.

For example: When the United Hotels Company took over the King Edward Hotel it was losing money every day. Almost over night they changed it into a paying proposition, and in two years put its Common Stock, which was given away as a bonus, on a 10% dividend basis.

The Mount Royal Hotel is the largest undertaking that the United Hotels Company of America have committed themselves to. They have agreed to operate the hotel on a thirty years' contract, under which they receive no salary, fees, or remuneration other than the dividends which may be paid on the Common Stock, of which they own a considerable amount.

You may be quite sure, therefore, that every ounce of ability and business and financial acumen that they possess will be brought to bear upon the successful conduct of this enterprise.

We have gone into every detail of operating costs, of income, and of estimated profits. And we are satisfied not only of the hotel's ability to earn its interest charges. We believe it will earn sufficient to pay most satisfying dividends upon the common stock.

It is for this reason that we recommend these 8% Convertible Debentures so highly and invite you to apply at once for a circular giving full particulars.

To W. A. Mackenzie & Co., Ltd.

Dear Sir: Please send me a copy of the circular describing the 8% Convertible Debentures of The Mount Royal Hotel Company, Limited, and oblige.

INDIGENT PATIENT PRODUCES FAT ROLL

A Supposedly Destitute Man Leaves Counties Home for Montreal.

Coburg, Jan. 10.—An indigent patient and a stranger in this locality, who was committed to the Counties Home for the Aged and Infirm, surprised Superintendent McMillan by stating his intention of going to Montreal and at the same time producing a roll of bills, the man who gave the name of Ryan, was soon on his way.

Quite a remarkable story is connected with his arrival at the home. Several weeks ago he and another man arrived at the G. T. R. depot at Port Hope, and mistook their way when going up town by crossing the viaduct. When they were about half way across a freight train came along and to avoid being run over they swung themselves over the viaduct and hung on to the girders. The night was cold and one of them became exhausted and dropped to the ground, suffering a severe fracture of the leg. He was taken to Fort Hope Hospital, where he remained until a few days ago. When he was leaving he is stated to have told a hard-luck story of being broken and having no friends. After he had wandered about the streets for a couple of days he was committed to the Counties Home for the Aged and Infirm, as it was supposed he was without money or friends. His hospital bill is still unpaid.

The regular session of the school board was held last evening. The payment of $2,250 to R. A. Corbet, contractor for the Lorne school was authorized as an additional sum above the contract account of unexpected expense in connection with the foundations of the building.

In connection with the school needs of the three children on Partridge Island, it was decided that the federal department of agriculture be communicated with. Applications for the position of janitor for Lorne school were received. Authorization was received for a shorter day for the children affected by the closing of St. Joseph's school. Reports were received concerning the cleaning of the household sewage building and the writing of Centennial songs. The school committee meeting was held in the afternoon and the meeting was held and estimates for the coming year were formally discussed. At the teachers' committee meeting the board approved the closing of the old St. Peter's school. A motion was unanimously adopted increasing the annual fees by $1, the additional sum thus raised to be used by the benevolent committee in its relief work.

The election of officers resulted in S. C. Tippet, the first president of the association when it was formed, being elected president. Other officers elected were as follows: First vice-president, Dr. G. B. Peat; second vice-president, Dr. G. B. Peat; executive committee, R. Earle Logan, J. W. Rawlings, A. A. Allingham and J. G. LIKE KU KLUXERS, BUT UNDISGUISED

St. Thomas Citizens Reported to Have Carried Out Raid as Vigilantes.

St. Thomas, Jan. 10.—Eleven prominent men of Kingsmill are summoned to appear before County Police Magistrate Hunt next Thursday on charges of breaking and entering the home of Morris Doan of that place on Tuesday night of last week with intent to commit an indictable offense.

The report of the escapade, as told to Squire Hunt today, has a Ku Klux Klan flavor.

According to the complaint, the gang broke into the Doan house late at night, just as Mr. and Mrs. Doan were preparing to retire, and asked for Lyman Doan a son, claiming that his conduct had been displeasing to the neighborhood. It is alleged that Lyman was showing marked attention to a married woman of Kingsmill.

Mr. and Mrs. Doan remonstrated with the intruders and were unceremoniously pushed out of the way, and the leaders started upstairs for Lyman's bedroom.

Mr. Doan, however, heard them coming and met them at the head of the stairs with a heavy leg stick, and succeeded in keeping them down, according to the story. One of the night raiders thereupon hurled a pitcher of water striking him on the face and inflicting a nasty wound.

Mrs. Doan succeeded in escaping from the house and calling assistance, and the gang was finally routed about midnight. The 11 were unmasked, and all have been identified.

All are reported to have been armed with baseball bats and clubs, and are said to have threatened to tar and feather young Doan. Mrs. Doan's arm was injured in the melee.

380,172 BOTTLES OF ASPROLAX ARE SOLD IN TWO MONTHS' TIME

New Scientific Discovery is Rapidly Becoming Sensation of the Drug Trade Throughout America.

BREAKS UP A COLD BY REMOVING CAUSE

Thousands Using It With Gratifying Results—Great Superiority Over Ordinary Remedies Clearly Demonstrated.

Remarkable as it may seem, 380,172 bottles of Asprolax have been sold in two months and Dr. Smathers' new scientific treatment for colds is rapidly becoming the sensation of the drug trade throughout America.

The great superiority of Asprolax over ordinary remedies heretofore prescribed has been clearly demonstrated, and people everywhere have been quick to recognize it as a preparation of remarkable merit.

Right here in Canada alone 84,564 bottles have been sold and distributed within the past two months, and it is with difficulty that the manufacturers have been able to supply the large and rapidly growing demand.

The phenomenal success of the preparation can be readily explained by the fact that it is a real specific and breaks up a cold by removing the cause, while the great majority of the present-day remedies relieve the symptoms only. Thousands of people who have used Asprolax state that it is almost magical in its effect and are recommending it to their friends.

Asprolax is a combination treatment, and acts as an anti-pyretic, which reduces the fever; an expectorant, which loosens the phlegm, relieves the congestion and stops the cough; a laxative, which opens the bowels, and an antiseptic which retards germ growth and prevents the spread of infection. It is delightful to take and produces no unpleasant after-effects whatever. Even children take it readily, and it acts on all, both old and young, with the same gratifying results.

If you are suffering from a cold, go to your nearest drug store and get a bottle of Dr. Smathers' Asprolax. Operate on the spot, take one teaspoonful, repeat the dose in one hour and again in two hours. If, by the time you have taken the third dose you are not cured and delighted, take the bottle back and your money will be refunded without question.

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious complications, such as lung trouble and pneumonia. Only one bottle of Dr. Smathers' Asprolax is usually sufficient to break up the most obstinate cold.

The ingots are readily accessible again. However, the water still protects the other departments of the bank. Its supply is almost unlimited, the bank knows, and its protection is practically absolute when it is used. The bank has very delicate machinery arranged so that even the lifting of a coin from a pile will release a catch which, in turn, releases a supply of water.—Detroit News.

Take Rattle Out of Rattlesnake. In a combat between a diamond rattlesnake and a blue racer, the latter was victorious over his more virulent adversary. During the fight, reports a writer in Science, the racer was the former worked his way to a patch of weeds and bit into the stems extracting the juice, after which he returned to renew the fray. This peculiar performance was repeated in a short time, when the racer again returned and destroyed the rattlesnake.

SPEAKS UPON THE ADVANTAGES OF

(Montreal Gazette.)
"Men who are associated with amateur athletic clubs and who accept money for their services are just the same as professionals, but not as honest," declared W. E. Findlay in an address delivered at the luncheon held yesterday by the Rotary Club in the Rose room of the Windsor hotel. Boys and young men who receive money in such a way, he said, are doing no good for themselves or for fair sport, and it tends to leave a bad impression on their minds in later years. They are merely paid to play the game well—to deliver the goods or leave the team.
"It is unfortunate that professional coaches have been introduced into athletic associations, since their influence on the minds of the boys and young men, and their conception of sport, has not been a satisfactory one. The root of the whole evil is in the gate receipts. Professionalism has its legitimate place. Managers of professional concerns are more or less on the same par as theatrical managers. You pay to enter and you expect to see a good show for which the players are paid. But there is never and professional concern in sports where no entrance fee is required," Mr. Findlay gave an example of how the amateur sport connected with the Stanley and Minto cups had been completely ruined insofar as the amateurs were concerned.
Mr. Findlay then mentioned the excellent work which the Montreal A. A. A. was accomplishing in the interests of sport. There was a membership of over

Among the most interesting specimens are the large Brazil nuts in their husks. There are about one dozen snakes in the collection, and there is one small alligator. The shells are especially beautiful. Centipedes, scorpions, a tarantula spider, nine moths and a small trunk fish complete the collection.

GIRLS BRAVEST OF ALL.
(New York Herald.)
That girls are braver than boys is the observation made by Dr. Edward F. Bigelow, nature study guide of the Camp Fire Girls of America, and formerly scout naturalist of the Boy Scouts' Association. Dr. Bigelow includes in this category girls from ten to fifteen. After that age, he says, they acquire the fear and inconsistencies of women.
"The average woman does not understand girls." This is another of Dr. Bigelow's unique statements and a discovery he has made in his quarter of a century of experience as an educator of girls. He has discovered that not only do they not understand them, but also that they are unsympathetic toward them.
Dr. Bigelow for the last twenty-five years has been associated with select private schools for girls as a nature lecturer and guide. He is well known as a naturalist guide in girls' camps, also as president of the Agassiz Association of Sound Beach, Conn. "And—I am of age—sixty my last birthday," he says, laughingly, "so wise enough to speak only of what I know."
"Girls are not only braver than boys. They are the bravest of the four sexes, namely, men, boys, women and girls," says Dr. Bigelow.

GORMAN'S ENTRY FOR RACES IS IN

Wm. Logan and Roy Lawson Also Today—Plan Grandstand at the Lake.

Charles Gorman, local speed skater and holder of the world's record for 440 yards, sent in his entry this morning for the speed events in the Canadian Lily Lake on January 18 and 19 under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I. His entry adds another star to the long list of the premier "knights of the blade" in America who are to compete for honors here. Two other local entries were also received this morning, that of William Logan, star juvenile skater who has already made a name for himself in provincial and maritime meets, and who bids fair to achieve signal honors in the coming classic. He is a son of Fred Logan, former International champion. Roy Lawson was the other local entry. Last evening the entries of Ray McWhorter and William Steinmetz of Chicago and West Becker of New York were received. McWhorter is the one and a half mile champion of the world and one of the fastest skaters in America. In addition to his phenomenal showing in the long distance events at the National and International events held at Saranac Lake and Lake Placid last year he showed a tremendous burst of speed in the speed events and is one of the most feared skaters seeking the Canadian honors. Steinmetz is also a great skater and made a great showing in all of the big meets in the States last year. He will also be seen watching as he is said to be in great condition this year. Becker is said to be second only to Moore in New York State and many of his friends expect him to win either the National or International title this year.

This morning a committee from the Y. M. C. I. went to Lily Lake and under the supervision of an engineer laid the blocks on the track. They also put a crew of men to work erecting a fence around the track. A site where a grand stand will be erected was also chosen and work of construction will start this week for the greater comfort of spectators.

The ice is in good condition and Charles Gorman and Logan had a work out on the track this morning. Both are skating well and the crack speeders from the United States and Upper Canada will find worthy opponents when they come here seeking honors.

The entry of Rodie Barton, of the North End, was also received today.

H. R. Thompson or Amherst, maritime secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers Association, who is in the city today, announced this morning that the maritime division have invited the union association to hold their annual convention in the maritime provinces and that tentative plans have already been made, pending their acceptance. It is proposed to hold the sessions at the Algonquin Hotel in St. Andrews, commencing on June 20. After the meetings it is proposed to have a trip to the city, thence by boat to Digby, by Yarmouth to Halifax and back by way of Moncton. This tour, it is declared, would be of great advantage to the maritime provinces, as their resources would be advertised first hand to more than 30 manufacturers from all parts of the Dominion.

"SUGAR" WHICH WILL NEVER BE ACKNOWLEDGED

If a bright new barrel bore on its head the brand of a sugar refining company and at the same time smelled strongly of real old Jamaica rum, what would it be likely to contain? This was the query that passed through the minds of Inspectors Killen and Henderson as they passed along the Thorne wharf this morning. So they decided to investigate. They found two barrels were addressed to a man in Annapolis Royal and on opening one of them discovered that it was filled to the top with bottles of rum unlabeled and neatly packed in straw. The other contained a similar burden, so they were removed to the inspectors' office in Prince William street. There it was found that the strong smell emanated from one or two of the bottles. It had been broken. It is thought that the consignee was due to be loaded on one of the small coastwise steamers which was tied up alongside the wharf where the liquor was taken.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court this morning, two men, charged with being drunk, pleaded guilty and were remanded.
Four young fellows, three of them eighteen years of age and one nineteen, pleaded guilty to trespassing on the property of the C. N. R. but not guilty to a charge of acting suspiciously on the same property.
C. N. R. Constable Morrissey and Harbour told of going out into Island street at 8:30 o'clock this morning and arresting two of the young fellows after they started to run away. After taking them to the yard office, Morrissey returned, saw another run across the yard and jump into a box car, where he arrested him. They found an iron bar in the snow near this place. This was near where two cubs of liquor had been placed. Several attempts had been made lately to break into cars of liquor, he said. One of the lads said he was waiting for a chance to get out of town on an early morning freight. He had seen this one and another at about 11:30 o'clock last night.
The case was postponed until tomorrow at 2 o'clock.
The magistrate called attention to the way the law was being broken and repeated his warning that anyone who was charged with a crime could be classed as a common vagrant. He wished to call the attention of Commissioner Thornton to the way things were going on in the city. His Honor told several stories of the downfall of people through not being in their homes at night instead of wandering around the streets.

The case will be presented by the Government counsel of the two provinces, Hon. R. E. Finn for Nova Scotia, and I. P.
