GANG MURDER IN A BOWERY SALOON

"Gyp the Blood" No. 2 Kills Thomas Murphy

HE TOLD THINGS TO POLICE

That is Reason Given For Shooting in "The Tub of Blood"—Slaying Done While Another Leader Was on Trial

(Canadian Press.)
New York, Jan. 21.—"Dopey Benny" Fein, a gang leader, was charged with assaulting Police Sergeant Patrick E. Sheridan, who one day in last August told Fein to "move on." The gangster instead reviled Sheridan, according to the testimony and engaged in a rough and tumble fight with the sergeant. The latter's life was threatened by a mob friendly to Fein.

The trial was one of the briefest of its kind in New York courts in recent years, lasting only two days. Gang members loitered near the court room and an extra guard of police was stationed to guard against disorders. When the case went to the jury, Fein leaned past the officers who guarded him and whispered sharply to Sheridan: "I'll get you."

Fein will be sentenced on Friday. While Fein's trial was in progress, gang activity in the city did not cease. Last night in a Bowery corner saloon called "The Tub of Blood," a machinist named Thomas Murphy was shot dead by a man known to the police as "Gyp the Blood," a title given since the original "Gyp the Blood" was sentenced to be executed as one of the gang which murdered Herman Rosenthal, a gambler, at the bidding of Charles Becker, a police lieutenant.

Murphy is said to have been killed for giving the police information regarding gang members. His assailant escaped.

SYSTEMATIC WORK TO "BANISH THE BAR" IN SASKATCHEWAN

Regina, Sask., Jan. 21.—In pursuance of a programme mapped out by the Committees of One Hundred actively concerned in the "banish the bar" crusade in Saskatchewan, the Saskatchewan crusaders decided to appoint four field secretaries to carry out the campaign in the province.

A monthly paper will be published dealing with the interests of the temperance cause.

The next step will be the appointment of organizers in every municipality in each constituency.

NOT MANLY, SAYS KAISER

London, Jan. 21.—A Berlin despatch to the Daily Mail says that the Kaiser has issued a cabinet order forbidding any army officer to take the arm of any woman, even his wife, while he is walking with her. The order says that there is any arm taking it must be done "by the woman."

The Kaiser holds that leaning for support on the arm of a woman is not conducive to manly bearing. It is quite common for men in Germany to take the arm of a woman whom they are escorting.

EXPLOSION IN HOWICH PAVILLION, OTTAWA, AT LEAST FOUR LIVES LOST

Great Number of Prize Horses and Cattle at Winter Fair Buried in Ruins

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 21.—Howich Pavilion, a huge cement and steel structure at the exhibition grounds here, in which the winter fair is being held, was partly wrecked this morning, through the explosion of the heating plant.

So far as known, four are dead and several injured, and it is feared there are several more in the ruins who cannot be reached for some hours.

A great number of prize horses and cattle are also buried in the ruins. Following the explosion the building caught fire, but the brigade subdued the flames after a stubborn fight.

SHIPPING CONFERENCE DECIDES TO KEEP ITS PROCEEDINGS SECRET

Nothing to Say Until All Over—Trying to Avert a Destructive Rate War

Paris, Jan. 21.—The first business of the North Atlantic Shipping Conference today was the passage of a resolution to keep the proceedings secret. The delegates representing all the companies engaged in the Trans-Atlantic shipping trade except the Hamburg American, were present, and the conference is expected to last until tomorrow.

The view prevailed that all the other companies would hold together, whether the Hamburg American joined in the agreement or not, and it was hoped that a proposition would come out of the discussions which would be considered and accepted by the dissentient company and a destructive rate war would thus be avoided.

The Hamburg company is holding out for an increase in its quota of steamer passengers which, under the present pool, is fixed at 40 per cent. against the North German Lloyd's 25 per cent. The increase demanded amounts to another four per cent.

Every Car Goes Off Track

Sleeper Rolls Down Bank But No One is Seriously Injured—Though Escape is Declared Miraculous—Train Had Left Here For Halifax

(Special to Times)
Fredericton, Jan. 21.—That another scheme was being hatched to plunder the public treasury and rob John E. Stewart of the fruits of years of labor in promotion of the Tobique and Campbellton Railway was a charge made by F. B. Carvell this morning in speaking of the stock which Mr. Stewart put up as security with Dr. H. H. McNally of Fredericton to secure $10,000, the disposition of which is one of the contested points in the Southampton Railway case.

"That railway is needed," he said, "the people are crying out for it and Mr. Stewart has spent nine years to promote it. But there is on foot a scheme more cold blooded and more bold even than the Southampton Railway steal. The $10,000 stock in that railway held by Dr. McNally can be sold today for $10,000 in Andrew's."

Mr. Carvell spent the whole morning in his address first protesting against the attempt to charge him with playing politics. He had been associated with T. J. Carter of Andover in the case for two years. Mr. Carvell sought to discredit the evidence of J. E. Donworth by reading a contradiction of this witness on a point of memory by Mr. Pinder's own affidavit with regard to a charge that the contract was let on representations that securities had been put up with D. K. Hazen by Mr. Stewart.

Mr. Carvell said that if the defendant's witnesses were to be believed Mr. Hazen was equally guilty of fraud with Mr. Stewart. Mr. Carvell said that all the claims of Mr. Stewart were based on the conduct of the defendant in not presenting documentary evidence admittedly in existence was unparalleled in New Brunswick jurisprudence.

Cost of the Road.
In the course of his address Mr. Carvell summarized the cost of the road as shown by evidence accepting all estimates given by Mr. Pinder and other witnesses for the defendant as correct and cutting down only Mr. Pinder's estimate of interest on bank advances, doing this, he explained, on information gleaned from Mr. Pinder himself on cross-examination as to dates of bond issue and amounts paid to contractors up to the same dates.

It is known as Oak Point Division No. 314. The new division was formed in the Baptist church on Monday evening, and the following officers were installed—Ernest Flewelling, worthy patriarch; Miss Mildred S. Mr. Robinson said this morning that the traveling was particularly heavy and it took nine hours to make the return trip. The weather was very cold.

THIRTY-FIVE DAYS OUT BUT OWNERS ARE NOT ANXIOUS

New York, Jan. 21.—Although thirty-five days have elapsed since the 4,600 ton Italian steamer Oceano sailed from Lisbon for New York on December 16 with a cargo of cork, she has not been posted as missing, because her owners do not believe that any accident of a serious nature has happened to her.

It was said today that the Oceano was a slow freighter, which made eight knots under favorable conditions, and in a gale and heavy sea her captain would probably have her to and fro until the weather moderated.

The Oceano is a strong steamer, built at Glasgow in 1900, and carrying a crew of forty men.

Unionists' Stories About Cabinet Proceedings

HERE IS ANOTHER

Effort Now to Show Division Over the Battleships—The Reports, Says Head of Navy, Should Be Uniformly Distrusted

(Canadian Press)

Montreal, Jan. 21.—A London cable to the Daily Mail says: It is stated that the present split in the cabinet is due to the fact that the admiralty wish to provide three ships as substitute for the Canadian Dreadnoughts in addition to the normal four additional. Mr. Lloyd George thinks that only two additional ships are needed. The majority of the cabinet are inclined to compromise sanctioning four and accelerating three, so that a temporary advantage may be gained.

In response to published statements, the first lord of the admiralty authorities the following: "All newspaper statements about cabinet proceedings are based on surmise or gossip, and should be uniformly distrusted. The statement that the board of admiralty has expressed an intention of resigning is untrue."

FATHER BURIED AT SEA; HE SUES COMPANY

Unusual Suit For Damages Brought Against Minneapolis Owners

New York, Jan. 21.—An unusual suit for damages against a steamship company for burying the body of a passenger at sea was filed yesterday by H. Blair Finley, son of Clement B. Finley, a retired mining engineer of Tennessee, who died on the steamship Minneapolis on July 2.

The plaintiff says that, immediately after his father's death, employees of the line took charge of his property, worth $750, which "greatly exceeded the cost of notifying the plaintiff of his father's death and embalming the body."

The complaint says that the body was embalmed and carried on the vessel until July 6, when it was cast into the sea within a few hours of this port. The plaintiff asks for $8,000 damages.

See That You Get Your Share Mr. Merchant!

Now, Mr. Local Dealer, here is some straight talk. This is the month in which many manufacturers are laying out their advertising plans for the coming year.

These plans naturally have for their object an increase of business. The manufacturer is going to spend his money where it is going to give him the best return.

One thing that will influence his plans is the extent to which dealers will co-operate in making local sales. That word co-operation does not mean sitting down and letting customers come, if they are willing. It means actively pushing the sale of goods advertised in their local newspapers by the manufacturers.

Now, why not let the manufacturers with whom you do business know that if they will help make business for you, you will help make business for them.

Tell them that if they will use the newspapers of your town to make known the merit of their goods you will let the public know that these goods can be had at your store.

Co-operate—and let your manufacturers know you are willing to do so. Share in the dollar harvest by acting now, when it is time to sow the seed.

Co-operative work with dealers in nationally distributed articles is part of the function of the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association. Correspondence with general advertisers is solicited.

ST. JOHN'S FUTURE

Alfred Wood, Head of R. T. Tooke, Ltd., Montreal, Thinks City in Line For Growth—Shows Faith in Tangible Way

Alfred Wood, president of the R. T. Tooke, Limited, of Montreal, who has been in the city concluding arrangements with John P. Condon for the opening of a Tooke department in his semi-ready store, says that he has seventeen votes under the new voters' law in that province. Mr. Wood is president of one corporation, vice-president of three other industrial enterprises and a director of two wholesale companies.

Each company elects him as their official voter, and these six companies have properties in the various wards which give Mr. Wood his seventeen votes on important measures submitted to the people.

In an interview with Mr. Wood he stated that he was very much pleased with the solid and substantial business outlook in St. John. He had visited the city at intervals during the past twenty-one years, his first visit being in a journalistic capacity.

"I believe that St. John, as an all-the-year-round gateway to Canada, has great advantages, and that it is simply up to its citizens to see that it grows in the same relative proportion as Canada grows. We look confidently for a population of 200,000 in the Dominion within fifteen years, and St. John should therefore have a population of 100,000 before 1925. I hope to see that day."

"We are showing our confidence by advising Mr. Condon to expand his business while most men are talking of contraction. As I am also a director and officer of the Semi-ready Company, this advice shows our optimistic belief in your city."

COUNTY LEGISLATION

Bills Submitted to Municipal Council This Afternoon

The report of the bills committee dealing with proposed legislation on several important matters was presented to the County Council this afternoon.

Among the bills is one providing for the establishment of a municipal prison farm. A similar bill was rejected by the legislature last session because of the opposition of city members on the grounds that the province as a whole should undertake the scheme.

A bill seeking authority for the issue of debentures to the value of $100,000 to cover the cost of the erection of the new hospital buildings also has been prepared.

Another bill provides for the collection of $3 from the owners of land under lease for every branch pipe installed to connect the property with the sewer main. If the owner does not pay the fee, the sewerage board may deduct the amount from the next payment due the landlord.

An amendment to the municipalities act provides that the voters' lists shall remain open until the Wednesday preceding the last day for filing of nominations for the election of county councillors and up to ten days of the election day in the case of special elections.

"I Found a Cure"

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt Did It.

So Writes Mr. J. C. Mason, Lisgar, Ont. This is His Experience in His Own Words.

Lost Ambition and General Energy. Lisgar, Ont.

Dr. McLaughlin: Dear Sir—This is to certify that I purchased one of your Electric Belts last June, and can say it is all you advertise to be. I felt miserable and I was not able to do any work. I had such a tired feeling, no energy—had to lie down every time I came into the house—but can say candidly, after using the Belt for one week, I have not had that tired feeling since, nor any desire to lie down, as I had before using the Belt. I wore it for about three months, off and on, and did not wear it again for three months—have had it on perhaps seven or eight times since. I forked wheat all day last summer, and felt as fresh at night as when I started in the morning. It used to be I could not stand shoveling the cross furrows in the field, my back would pain me so; this year I could do it as well as I could when I was not quite so old. I will be seventy years of age next July, if living, but feel as if I was only forty or fifty. It used to be that I could not sleep well—now I sleep soundly. I also used to be troubled with rheumatism, but I never feel it now. Your Belt has certainly cured me. If I could not get another Belt, money could scarcely buy the one I have. Wishing you every success. Yours very truly, J. C. MASON.

Hundreds of men are writing me letters like this, men who have been cured right in their own neighborhood. Let me furnish you their names, so that you can talk to them personally.

Give me a man broken down from dissipation, hard work, or worry, from any cause which has sapped his vitality. Let him follow my advice for three months, and I will make him as vigorous in every respect as any man of his age.

I will not promise to make a Hercules of a man who was never intended by Nature to be strong and sturdy. Even that man I can make better than he is; but the man who has been strong and has lost his strength I can make as good as he ever was.

A man who is nervous, whose brain and body are weak, who sleeps badly, awakes more tired than when he went to bed, who is easily discouraged, inclined to brood over imaginary troubles, who has lost ambition and energy to tackle hard problems, lacks the animal electricity which the Dr. McLaughlin Electric Belt supplies.

The whole force of vitality in your body is dependent upon your animal electricity. When you lose that in any manner my Belt will replace it, and I will cure you.

A MODERN MIRACLE

He Had Eczema 25 Years and Doctors Said "No Cure."

Yet Zam-Buk has Worked Complete Cure

This is the experience of a man of high reputation, widely known in Montreal, and whose case can readily be investigated. Mr. T. M. Marsh, the gentleman referred to, lives at 101 Delorimer Avenue, Montreal, and has lived there for years. For twenty-five years he has had eczema on his hands and wrists. The disease first started in red blotches which itched, and when scratched became painful. Bad sores followed, which discharged, and the discharge spread the disease until his hands were one raw, painful mass of sores. This state of affairs continued for twenty-five years!

In that time four eminent medical men tried to cure him, and each gave up the case as hopeless. Naturally, Mr. Marsh tried remedies of all kinds, but he at last gave it up. For two years he was to wear gloves day and night so terrible was the pain and itching when the air got to the sores.

Then came Zam-Buk! He tried it, just as he had tried hundreds of remedies before. But he soon found out that Zam-Buk was different. Within a few weeks there were distinct signs of benefit, and a little perseverance with this great herbal balm resulted in what he had given up all hope of—a complete cure! And the cure was no temporary cure. It was permanent. He was cured nearly four years ago. Interviewed the other day, Mr. Marsh said: "The cure which Zam-Buk worked has been absolutely permanent. From the day that I was cured to the present moment I have had no trace of eczema, and I feel sure it will never return."

If you suffer from any skin trouble, cut out this article, write across it the name of this paper, and mail it with one cent stamp to pay return postage to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. We will forward you by return a free trial box of Zam-Buk. All druggists and stores sell this famous remedy, 40¢ box, or three for $1.25. Refuse harmful substitutes.

In the equity court room last evening, Dr. Silas Alward gave an interesting and instructive lecture on the Magna Carta of Canada, more generally known as "Dugan's Report." At the close of the lecture the students and others who were present expressed their appreciation of the able manner in which the lecture had been presented and expressed the hope that the lecture would be published in pamphlet form.

STAR'S SPECIAL FEATURE FOR TONIGHT

"Brown at Harvard" is the name of one of the greatest dramatic successes of the decade and tonight and Thursday it will be the special feature at the Star Theatre, North End. During the portrayal of the story such exciting incidents as boat races and field sports will be introduced with accompanying collegiate excitement. The Pathe Company, with their large staff of cowboys and Indians, will put on a fine Western drama entitled, "The Brother Who Erred." In addition some exquisite scenes of Bermuda will be thrown on the curtain and a bit of a little comedy entitled, "The Widow Who Married Again."

"A LADY OF QUALITY" TONIGHT

At a musical rehearsal of the Famous Player feature, "A Lady of Quality," held in Imperial Theatre between 10 and 11.30 last evening, privileged visitors were delighted with the play-play "Leah Kleesha" and "The Third Degree" were modern stories dealing with present social conditions but in France's Hodgson Burnett's story the watcher is taken back a couple of hundred years to that period of English history so interesting because of the escapades of its nobility. Cecelia Loftus, eminent young American actress, who plays the leading role in "The Lady of Quality" is perfectly charming and whatever previous film features have been at the Imperial that of today and tomorrow easily tops them in all dramatic and photographic excellence.

In addition to the above 5-reel photo play, the Imperial will show Pathe's Weekly on Thursday afternoon and evening.

OPIUM SMOKING IN TORONTO IS ON THE INCREASE

Morality Officer Thinks Criminal Classes Are Taking It Up

EFFECT VERY DEGRADING

Court Officials Differ as to Punishment For Offenders — More Than $20,000 Worth of Drug Seized in Queen City Recently

(Toronto Star)

The recent conviction of Mrs. Rose Davidson in the Women's Police Court on a charge of smoking opium and of keeping an opium joint brought forth the startling statement from Staff Inspector Gregory, chief of the morality department, that in his belief the vice of opium smoking was being taken up by white people of the criminal classes in Toronto, with promises of dire results to the moral welfare of the city.

"Since my appointment to the direction of the morality department last March, I have waged continued warfare on the opium traffic in Toronto, with the result, so far, of securing over sixty convictions for engaging in the traffic in special ways, and almost $2,000 levied in fines." Inspector Gregory informed the Star. "With the exception of two negroes, Mrs. Davidson and all those convicted have been Chinese."

Has Degrading Influence

"It is needless to remark on the terrible effect of the opium habit on morals and health," went on the staff inspector. "There is no more degraded man in all England than a white man addicted to the opium pipe. Liquor is bad enough. But in the opium fiend there is no shred of manhood or of truth left. And the worst of opium is that, unlike whiskey, which a man may drink for years and not become its slave, four meetings with the insidious dream-pipe enslaves a man for good."

To prevent the habit from creeping upon Toronto's criminal classes I would spare no effort. And as the habit is now principally confined to the Chinese I would, by means of frequent convictions, keep a stern check on it. ## Canadian Credit In The Old Land

(Times Special Correspondence)

London, Jan. 10.—Barely a year has elapsed since Canada enjoyed her most favorable position in the London market, and the contrast with conditions to day would be startling did the depression extend only to Canada. Now, signs of renewed confidence are not wanting, and this improvement so far as Canada is concerned will be accelerated if prominent public men on your side are able to give reassuring and optimistic statements—which can be supported by facts.

As a matter of fact, as a London banker with intimate associations with Canada said today, things are not as bad as some people would have us believe. It is as unjust as it is remarkable that Canada has been the principal target for the ammunition of the London financial "terrors," and his explanation of this offers some slight consolation.

At the height of the Canadian boom, so firm was the belief in Canada that even good domestic as well as foreign issues were neglected in favor of Canadian investments. ## WHERE IS MR. HAZEN?

It is to be regretted in connection with the discussion concerning the safety of the Bay of Fundy that the position of the board of trade should be misrepresented by the Standard, and that the citizens should be asked to give an expression of their opinion about what the board should do in ignorance of the fact that the board is taking the very action which is necessary. The Standard was told by Mr. J. M. Robinson, president of the board of trade, that some ten days or more since he had asked the marine department to supply the board with a statement of the sailings to and from St. John, and the percentage of loss, and that the information is now being compiled, and when it is received the board will be in a position to give an authoritative answer to the slanders concerning the Bay of Fundy. A representative of the Standard knew this, having received the information direct from the president of the board of trade. The citizens may therefore rest in the assurance that the interests of the port are not being neglected, and the members of the city council need not lose any sleep over the inactivity of the board of trade. When the latter is in a position to speak with authority, right up to date, it will take action.

In the meantime, what is the Hon. J. D. Hazen, the minister of marine, and also the representative of St. John, doing in this matter? If it has not yet occurred to him that he ought to rise in his place in parliament and denounce the slanders that have been uttered concerning the Bay of Fundy, some of his friends who are giving interviews to the Standard might fairly suggest to him that there is no time like the present to show that he really represents this constituency.

MR. BORDEN'S SPEECH.

The speech of Premier Borden in the debate on the address was singularly ineffective, and must have been very disappointing to Conservatives throughout the country, however loudly he may have been cheered by a servile following in the Commons. Especially weak was that portion of his speech which dealt with the navy. To appreciate the fact it is only necessary to remember Mr. Borden's attitude before the contribution policy was brought down last year. He had asserted that his government would bring down a naval policy, and if parliament refused to adopt it he would go to the people. The policy was brought down and rejected by the senate. It was claimed by Mr. Borden that there was an emergency which called for the most prompt action on the part of Canada. Now, a year later, he coolly tells the country that he will not re-introduce the naval bill or bring down a naval policy of any sort until such time as the senate may turn up to brighten their prospects.

With regard to the increased cost of living and the increase at the same time of unemployment, Mr. Borden has nothing to offer. Evidently he proposes to stand by his friends, the protected interests, and maintain the tariff at all hazards. It becomes all the more necessary for the Liberals to fight for a downward revision of the tariff, and such other measures as would give relief to the consumers of the country, and restore the prosperity which prevailed throughout the Liberal regime.

LORD STRATHCONA

The office of high commissioner for Canada in London in recent years gained most of its interest for the people from the picturesque figure of the high commissioner. Lord Strathcona has long been regarded with a degree of affection by the Canadian people, because his wonderful and romantic career appealed to the imagination and his unbounded generosity appealed to the heart. The story of his life, that is told in brief in the press today, will be told in fuller measure no doubt in a biography, which will necessarily have to deal with some of the most important events in Canadian history, in which Mr. Donald Smith, or Sir Donald Smith, or Lord Strathcona, played an important part. It is a far cry from a Hudson Bay post on the bleak shores of Labrador to the King's drawing room and the merry story of the life of this man who now, full of years and honors, has gone to his rest, should be an inspiration to the young Canadians of today. If Sir Donald Smith and those associated with him made enormous fortunes during the early constructive period in the Canadian west, they also made possible the rapid expansion and growth of Canada; and Lord Strathcona, as Canada's representative in London and also as a citizen of Canada, has by his service and his benefactions shown that he had throughout his life the clear consciousness of the duty and responsibility involved in the great material prosperity which came to him and to Canada during the long period of his active career. In London this fine old man, so vigorous in spite of his great age, had in a sense come to typify Canada in the minds of the people, and wherever he went he was received with honor and affection. It is doubtful if any other man will be able to make the high commissioner's mean as much to the people of the old land, from the standpoint of sentiment, as it has meant during the last decade. In Canada, the city of Montreal especially will mourn the passing of Lord Strathcona, since he spent millions to enrich the university and hospitals of that city. The mere enumeration of the various benevolent and other organizations with which he was connected shows at how many points he touched the life of the people of Canada. The tributes that were paid to him during his lifetime by the most eminent men of the Empire show in what high regard he was universally held. His memory will be cherished as that of a man who did much through a long life to advance the interests of Canada and the Empire, and his name will forever be associated with that gigantic work, the construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which has been the greatest single factor in the development of this country.

THE SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

It surely cannot be true that the principals and teachers in the St. John schools are opposed to a wider use of the school buildings. They must have been misrepresented by someone of their number who takes the narrow view. The press of the city and the citizens generally expressed themselves recently in favor of an increase in salary for the teachers, on the ground that they were an intelligent and progressive and hard-working group of persons doing a very important work for the welfare of the community. They would hardly as a return set themselves in opposition to the theory that public buildings are for public use, and that the citizens of St. John should get the best possible return for the $600,000 which they have invested in school plant. It is very gratifying to observe that the school board take a broad view of this question, and that in the case of the high school assembly hall they have taken down the bars and said practically that this fine assembly room is at the service of the people for any useful purpose when such use does not conflict in any way with the work of the schools. In Amherst the teachers of the schools welcomed the opportunity afforded by the community work done in the school buildings after school hours, under the direction of Mr. John Bradford and his staff, to meet and become better acquainted with the parents of the children and others who gathered at the weekly or monthly entertainments. The universal testimony from centres in the United States where school buildings have been used for several years for social centre work is that no damage is done to the buildings or their furniture, nor is there any injurious effect upon the health of the people or the children of the day school. Ten years hence, possibly in less time, when the school buildings of St. John are in active use as social centres, the citizens will look back and wonder why they were so blind to the interests of the public as to keep the buildings in darkness for so many years.

The people of the Bay of Fundy shore of Nova Scotia and of the best farming district of that province, as well as those who are interested in the development of harbors at Lunenburg and St. Croix are interested with St. John in exposing the falsehoods that have been published broad-cast in relation to the navigation of the Bay of Fundy.

Mr. A. K. MacLean, M. P., in an hour's speech in parliament yesterday presented an indictment of the government which the finance minister was unable to answer effectively in a speech of more than three hours. The latter, however, made it clear that the government has no intention of making a downward revision of the tariff. He also made it clear that the government has put its naval policy in cold storage to keep company with the emergency.

The Standard in big headlines tells its readers that "prosperity has come to the dominion under a wise administration." This is obviously a reference to the period during which Sir Wilfrid Laurier was premier. Since 1911, however, under an unwise administration there has been a more rapid increase in the cost of living and an increase in unemployment, and the conditions have become such that the people will at first opportunity return Sir Wilfrid Laurier to power, and secure an administration that will restore the prosperous conditions which existed prior to 1911.

USE THE SCHOOL BUILDINGS AS SOCIAL CENTRES

Some Information For St. John People Concerning This Great Movement and Its Results

IV. The Times yesterday quoted the bulletin of the Milwaukee Federation of Civic Societies relative to neighborhood civic clubs in school buildings, and the splendid work they could accomplish. An observer of this movement in the state of Wisconsin has made the following comments:

"For generations the school houses have been monuments of neglected opportunity. The policy of closing them to the people outside of regular school hours has retarded the development of that higher type of citizenship which calls for better government. It matters not where it is located, whether in a congested city district, or in a hamlet, or on a prairie among scattered farm houses, a public school building is a potential center of civic activities. If there should be realized anything like a fair measure of that which the thousands upon thousands of public school buildings of the nation offer in raising the plane of citizenship, and in increasing the people's capacity for self-government, democracy would be vitalized to a degree that would make it militant and all-conquering."

"At one of the first of the neighborhood civic club meetings in a school building in Rochester, an alderman, in concluding his speech said:—

"If every member of the common council and every other public servant had frequently such opportunities as this to discuss public matters with those whom he seeks to represent, it would mean that we would have a cleaner government and a better representation of the people's interests." The mayor of the largest Wisconsin city recently gave this testimony:—

"As a public servant I welcome the opportunity that this sort of gathering gives for a free and open discussion of the topics of common interest upon a non-partisan platform. Such discussions will help the servants of the people to learn what you desire, and it will furnish a chance for the public servants to talk over those matters in which they seek to represent the people. I hope that your example may be followed in every section of the city, until misunderstanding and prejudice shall have been removed by the development of civic friendliness and intelligent public spirit."

The results of this use of public school buildings as neighborhood civic club houses during the first three years in the city of Rochester, New York, have been summarized as follows:

"First: The desire to become informed upon public matters and to confer with one's neighbor in the interest of better understanding is not limited to any one section of the community."

"Second: Men and women too, whatever their difference of class, creed, or income, are human and citizens, and enjoy the same common ground of citizenship. There is not a considerable group in any city, party, church, profession or trade that does not have some representation in almost every neighborhood civic club."

"Third: There is no danger of abuse of public property by the citizens gathering in the school buildings. On the contrary, in many cases, through these meetings there has been aroused an interest in improving and beautifying the buildings."

"Fourth: Entire freedom of discussion is not only safe, but conducive to self-restraint, courtesy and friendliness."

"Fifth: Citizens meeting in the school buildings may be counted on to show a spirit of fairness and to listen impartially to both sides of every public question."

"Sixth: Public servants and those who are capable of presenting public questions, especially those who are interested in great causes which make for the common welfare, welcome the opportunity which civic clubs offer them, to talk to and confer with their fellows."

"Seventh: Neighborhood civic club attendance and participation not only develop breadth of sympathy and understanding, but tend to find expression for awakened civic interest and well-considered action for the common welfare."

"All you men and women who want to eat and are filled with fear, stay this kind of folly. Just carry a little Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet in your purse or pocket and after your meal eat it like you do candy."

"The meal will be digested; the weak and digestive juices will be enriched and you will lose your fear of food."

"What I Can Do to a Meal Now Is Simply a Shame."

Don't you know that these tablets are carried by thousands all over the land? In their bags as they travel, in purses or pockets when they attend banquets or after theatre parties and meals early or late, large or small are easily digested without harmful effects.

One element of these tablets is so efficient that one grain of it will digest a large amount of food. This element brought down for your use and it is nature's own science, too.

No matter where you live, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will be found even in the smallest drug store, although it is only a cross roads druggist.

This popularity is due solely upon the reputation, proof and testimonial of our land. Go to your druggist today and buy a box. Price 50 cents.

TO MAKE SEA TRAVEL SAFER

International Rules Are Now Adopted

CONFERENCE CLOSED

Iceberg Patrol—Better Construction and Equipment of Passenger Vessels Required

London, Jan. 20.—The convention drawn up by the international conference on safety at sea was signed at the foreign office this afternoon with considerable formality by all the delegates except one, namely Austria, which will sign tomorrow.

It was decided that the text of the convention which contains seventy-four articles and which, together with the annexed rules, covers sixty printed pages, should not be officially published until the convention has been signed by all the delegates in order to give the delegates time to communicate it to their various governments.

Lord Mersey, president of the conference, however, in his closing speech summarized the principal provisions of the convention. He said:

"An international service is to be established by the nations chiefly interested for the purpose of an ice patrol and ice observation as well as the destruction of derelicts in the North Atlantic. It is to be under the control of the United States. This service is to take over and continue the work done by the two vessels employed by the United States in 1912-13 in locating ice, in determining its limits to the south, the east and the west, and in keeping in touch with it as it moves southward in order that vessels may be kept informed by wireless of its position."

"The service will also continue the ice observations work started last year by Great Britain with the object of determining before the ice becomes a peril, the fundamental conditions which govern its movement. The service will also continue the duty of dealing with dangerous derelicts east of a line drawn from Cape Sable to latitude 84 north, longitude 70 west. The waters to the west of this line will continue to be watched by the United States."

"The duty is also imposed on all shipmasters to report the presence of dangerous ice and derelicts and a code has been prepared to facilitate this reporting."

"When ice is reported on or near the track a ship must proceed during the night at moderate speed or alter its course so as to clear the danger zone."

"The practice by which routes across the Atlantic are fixed by agreement between the steamship companies has been left unaltered and the government undertakes to impress all ship-owners with the desirability of following as far as possible these rules."

"The effective lighting of boat decks is provided for by the convention, and the carrying of Morse lamps is made compulsory."

"An international code of urgent and important signals has been adopted. It

WILSON OUTLINES HIS ANTI-TRUST LEGISLATION

Washington, Jan. 20.—President Wilson personally laid before a joint session of congress today the fundamental principles of the Democratic administration's programme for dealing with trusts and "big business."

The president presented the case, he said, "as it lies in the thought of the country," reiterating "that private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable," and declaring that conscientious business men throughout the nation would not be satisfied until practices now deprecated by public opinion as restraints of trade and commerce were corrected.

"We are now about to write the additional articles of our constitution of peace," said the president, "the peace that is honor and freedom and prosperity."

Besides suggesting the scope of legislation, the president made a personal appeal for an atmosphere of friendliness and co-operation in congress while handling the problem.

"The antagonism," he said, "between business and government is over. We are now about to give expression to the best judgment of America, to what we know to be the business conscience and honor of the land. The government and business men are ready to meet each other half way in a common effort to square business methods with both public opinion, and the law."

Proposals Before The County Council

WILL DECIDE TODAY

H. R. McLellan New Warden—
Electric Light For Municipal Home—Lancaster Taxes

Harry R. McLellan, commissioner of public safety for St. John city, was selected warden of the city and county of St. John in the place of the retiring warden, Thomas B. Carson, at the quarterly meeting of the municipal council which was held yesterday afternoon when the council was sworn in, the only new ones being Frederick Thomson, of Musquash, and John O'Brien, of Lancaster.

The report of the finance committee was received, taken up section by section, and adopted except for the section dealing with the erection of a building in White street, as a nucleus for a new general public hospital. This matter was discussed at length, no action having been taken when the meeting adjourned soon after 6 o'clock. It will be taken up again this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The expenditure of some $200,000 which will probably be necessary for the first building, when taken in conjunction with the estimated annual cost of $80,000 for maintenance of the proposed tuberculosis hospital, was the cause of debate, some, including Councillor Frink, deeming the expense too heavy to be undertaken without even fuller consideration and until the public should be more conversant with the facts in relation to the proposed expenditure.

The matter of tardy collection of taxes in the parish of Lancaster and that of installing electric light in the municipal home were also debated, it being decided to proceed with the latter.

The new warden, on taking the chair, paid tribute to the honest, conscientious and useful work of his predecessor. He dwelt on the importance of the matter of county assessment, saying that this would have to be taken up and advocating a revaluation of the whole county for assessment purposes. Relative to political differences that he believed to be rather bitter between some members of the council, he said he did not want to be considered a meddler, and that if he had been or should be considered such he could produce satisfactory reasons to show that anything he might have done was justified. He hoped any existing differences of opinion might be laid aside, especially in this matter of assessment which he considered to be a vital issue.

A vote of thanks to the retiring warden, moved by Councillor Frink, was adopted unanimously.

Doctor Thomas Walker was heard regarding the construction of new fire escapes on the General Public Hospital at a cost of $8,400 and was assured that the matter would be dealt with.

Plans of the new building which it is proposed to build in White street on five expropriated lots as a nucleus for the new hospital, were submitted to the committee by H. C. Mott, architect.

Dr. Walker reiterated that the original suggestion of extending the hospital to meet increased requirements had not found favor and was abandoned, and the matter of submitting plans for the nucleus of a new building had been left in the hands of the hospital commission.

This had been done, and the estimated cost of the first part of the building was $279,000, the building to accommodate 140 patients, with an additional structure to house the staff. The building was four stories in height, facing on White street. He pointed out that in Toronto accommodation in the most modern hospital for 700 patients had cost initially about $8,000 a patient.

The only question was whether the municipality could afford the money or whether the city would have to go on indefinitely with the old building. He urged the necessity for an X-ray plant, and an extended out-patient department.

For the former there had been in the present building, he said. He referred to a letter that had been published anonymously, saying that the matter had been long enough before the public for them to know all about it.

After examining the plans submitted the committee rose and reported in council.

The report of the finance committee was considered as read, and taken up section by section. A blank check was left for the amount to be devoted to the maintenance of the proposed tuberculosis hospital.

Councillor Schofield said that this space had been left blank as the estimated cost of $40,000 for the first year had not been as yet definitely decided. He said the plans had been drawn and the council had already decided to go ahead with the building, having got an expert report on the subject. He urged that the matter should be proceeded with as soon as possible. The cost of $40,000 was only for the first year, as $10,000 of that amount was for furnishing, and allowed for the hospital being filled all the time to its capacity of 50 patients.

The councillor said he was strongly in favor of proceeding with the building without further delay, though the high cost of maintenance had set him thinking.

Councillor Schofield's motion that the sum of $10,000 be appropriated for the first quarter's maintenance was carried. The remaining appropriations, as already published, were then voted without discussion, with the exception of the sum of $2,000 for the installation of electric light in the municipal home.

ATLANTIC RATE WAR IS LIKELY

German Companies at Loggerheads Over Share Allotted Them—Conference in Paris Today

Berlin, Jan. 20.—The prospects are outwardly very slight for a renewal of North Atlantic shipping pool at the conference to be held in Paris tomorrow, according to reports from Bremen and Hamburg, but there is an undercurrent of opinion that a disastrous general rate war between the various companies will be prevented.

The German companies in spite of the intervention of the emperor and the expressed displeasure of the business world are apparently still at loggerheads. The Hamburg-American persists in its refusal to attend the conference in Paris because its demand for an increase in its quota of the steerage passengers business has not been granted in advance. The company demands forty-seven per cent, instead of the forty-three per cent, at present enjoys. This would reduce the quota of the North German Lloyd from fifty-seven to fifty-three per cent.

The North German Lloyd line is sending a Paris delegation consisting of four of its chief directors on the assumption that other business than the simple recognition of the fact of dissolution of the pool will be transacted.

Attempts may be made, it is said, to find other means of compensating the Hamburg-American.

SAYS AUTOMOBILE IS CHURCHES' WORST ENEMY
Washington, Jan. 20.—The automobile is chiefly responsible for the present day slim attendance in church congregations, according to Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith, rector of the fashionable St. Thomas' Episcopal church here.

He refuted the theory that women's clubs are the cause of the decline in church attendance.

"Much of the blame," he declared, "can be laid at the door of the ministers themselves. They do not work hard enough."

CONSERVATION COMMISSION
Co-operation of Women's Council—Protection of Game and Insectivorous Birds

Ottawa, Jan. 21.—At the meeting of the Conservation Commission here yesterday Mrs. H. P. Plumtree, wife of Rev. Canon Plumtree of Toronto, gave an address of the co-operation between the commission and the National Council of Women, of which organization she is the recording secretary.

Dr. Chas. A. Hodgetts, medical adviser to the commission is preparing a report on sewage disposal, as followed in England and Germany. Housing and town-planning are to be taken up actively.

The necessity for immediate action on the part of Canada and its provinces in game and insectivorous birds were to be saved from extermination in the near future, was emphasized by W. S. Haskell of New York, counsel for the American Game Protective and Propagation Association, in an address in the afternoon.

Apart from their value for sport, the economic importance of many species of migratory birds, which preyed upon injurious insects, constituted a sufficient reason for their protection. The United States Congress in last March passed the migratory bird law, which provided for the preservation and protection of insectivorous and game birds.

Recognizing, however, that the problem was an international one, the Senate of the United States, in July authorized the president to negotiate a treaty with other powers. The services of the commission have now been solicited with a view to furthering the making of the treaty.

GOVERNMENT ON DEFENSIVE
Broken Pledges and Inefficiency

MR. MACLEAN'S CHARGES
Rakes The Tories Fore and Aft—Feeble Reply by Hon. Mr. White—No Policy to Offer

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—In regard to almost every count of the national and political issues now before parliament and the people of Canada, the government has started the session on the defensive.

A. K. MacLean took one hour this afternoon on resuming the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne in summing up the various indictments against the government in regard to broken pledges, dishonest and inefficient administration, and lack of any constructive statesmanship in dealing with the economic problems of the country. It took Hon. W. T. White over three hours to reply. His explanations were as weak as his defence.

Mr. MacLean pointed to the growing, wasteful and unnecessary expenditures, the increase of public debt and the borrowing of upwards of $50,000,000 by the minister of finance in a tight money market this year.

Mr. White admitted the growing expenditures and went into a long and labored explanation as to why he had to borrow so much. He gave no promise for any economy for the future.

Mr. MacLean recalled Premier Borden's pre-election promises of senate reform and noted that every member on the government side now fancied himself tickled and routed for the senate.

Mr. White frankly admitted that the government was simply relying on death and Providence to reform the senate, so that the government could force through its measures.

Mr. MacLean characterized the government's attitude on the naval question as one of "cowardice and inefficiency." Since the emergency was admittedly dead what reason could the government advance for not submitting forthwith its permanent policy?

Will Keep Emergency in Cold Storage.
Mr. White simply replied in effect that when the government had a majority, the emergency would be again produced and the contribution proposals renewed.

Mr. MacLean referred to Mr. Borden's flamboyant pre-election pledges of honest elections with the recent record of Chateaugay and MacDonald.

Mr. White made no reply whatever to this count of the indictment. Finally, Mr. MacLean developed the problem of the high cost of living and restricted trade with the Liberal proposals to remedy conditions by removal of the duties on foodstuffs and wider markets.

It took Mr. White a full hour to explain that the tariff had nothing to do with the cost of living and that the proper thing for the Canadians to do was to be optimistic and to believe that conditions would right themselves. He concluded with a significant declaration that there was no public opinion in favor of a general revision of the tariff downward at the present time.

"Free food," he said, "means free trade."

MR. MACLEAN'S CHARGES
Rakes The Tories Fore and Aft—Feeble Reply by Hon. Mr. White—No Policy to Offer

Ottawa, Jan. 20.—In regard to almost every count of the national and political issues now before parliament and the people of Canada, the government has started the session on the defensive.

A. K. MacLean took one hour this afternoon on resuming the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne in summing up the various indictments against the government in regard to broken pledges, dishonest and inefficient administration, and lack of any constructive statesmanship in dealing with the economic problems of the country. It took Hon. W. T. White over three hours to reply. His explanations were as weak as his defence.

Mr. MacLean pointed to the growing, wasteful and unnecessary expenditures, the increase of public debt and the borrowing of upwards of $50,000,000 by the minister of finance in a tight money market this year.

Mr. White admitted the growing expenditures and went into a long and labored explanation as to why he had to borrow so much. He gave no promise for any economy for the future.

Mr. MacLean recalled Premier Borden's pre-election promises of senate reform and noted that every member on the government side now fancied himself tickled and routed for the senate.

Mr. White frankly admitted that the government was simply relying on death and Providence to reform the senate, so that the government could force through its measures.

Mr. MacLean characterized the government's attitude on the naval question as one of "cowardice and inefficiency." Since the emergency was admittedly dead what reason could the government advance for not submitting forthwith its permanent policy?

Will Keep Emergency in Cold Storage.
Mr. White simply replied in effect that when the government had a majority, the emergency would be again produced and the contribution proposals renewed.

Mr. MacLean referred to Mr. Borden's flamboyant pre-election pledges of honest elections with the recent record of Chateaugay and MacDonald.

Mr. White made no reply whatever to this count of the indictment. Finally, Mr. MacLean developed the problem of the high cost of living and restricted trade with the Liberal proposals to remedy conditions by removal of the duties on foodstuffs and wider markets.

It took Mr. White a full hour to explain that the tariff had nothing to do with the cost of living and that the proper thing for the Canadians to do was to be optimistic and to believe that conditions would right themselves. He concluded with a significant declaration that there was no public opinion in favor of a general revision of the tariff downward at the present time.

"Free food," he said, "means free trade."

MATTY'S BIG LEAGUE GOSSIP

BY
THE GIANTS' STAR PITCHER

(Copyright, 1911, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

"Christy Mathewson, 'New York Baseball Club': 'Dear Sir:—What in your opinion are the greatest assets for a pitcher? How would you tell a boy to begin pitching? I have seen some pictures of you showing your son how to pitch, in the papers recently. What is the greatest single asset that a twirler can carry? If you will reply to these questions, you will oblige a constant follower of your articles.'

"Yours sincerely,
"CONSTANT FOLLOWER."
This correspondent of mine has certainly asked me a hard one. Answering his questions in their order, I should say that the greatest assets of a pitcher are speed, with a good hop on the fast one; control, nerve under fire and in the pinches. My advice to any one consulting me with the ambition to become a big league pitcher is to try to be as much like Walter Johnson as possible. If he simply observes this rule, he will probably get along very nicely.

The greatest single mechanical asset a pitcher can have is control—to be able to put the ball just where he wants it because, as he gets schooled in the ways of the big league, he begins to catalogue the "grooves" or weaknesses of the various batters, and unless he has control, he is not able to take advantage of this knowledge. Of course, I believe nerve or "heart," as ball players call it, is most essential to a pitcher, but that is a really psychological quality.

If I were to give a boy just one single scrap of advice about how to go to work to develop into a pitcher, I would urge him to practice controlling the ball. This can be accomplished by pitching constantly at a knot hole in the fence or by getting some younger boy, whose ambitions have not been so far developed yet that he thinks he is a pitcher, to catch for you with a plank cut the size and shape of a regulation plate. Be sure to have this on the inside, or a low one on the outside, and have him determine balls and strikes on your pitching as accurately as possible.

As my own speed began to fade after several years of service in the big league, I worked more and more on my control. Last season I did not hit a single big league batter with a pitched ball. It is the first season since I have been in the company that I have established an absolutely clean record in this respect. The number of men I have hit in every succeeding season since entering the big league has been diminishing about proportionately. My control was not very highly developed when I first broke into baseball.

I recall one game which the Giants were playing against the old Cincinnati club with me pitching, when "Joe" Kelley was the Reds' manager and "Eagle Eye" Beckley played first base. Beckley was at the plate, and he thought he had been tipped off to a curve ball by Kelley, who was coaching on third base and attempting to get our signs. It was a fast one, and Beckley could not get away from the ball. It caught him on the side of the head, and he was in the hospital unconscious for two days. The pitch was a little wild, but the accident was as much Beckley's fault as mine. However, if my control had been as good then as it is now, he would not have been hit. I dislike to "lean" batters because a hard blow on the head is liable to put a good man out of baseball by making him what we call "bat shy."

"Bill" Lander pitched third base on the Giants in the early days of McGraw in New York. I was pitching for morning batting practice at the Grounds one day when Lander came up for his turn. He was a man who always crowded the plate, and I shot him one high and fast one, and Beckley what I called my whizzer trimmer ball, a wicked delivery, and in those days it took a good sized hop toward a right handed batter, which Lander was. It caught him in the side of the head, this particular pitch being wild, and Lander has not played big league baseball since then. He was badly hurt. He has never held the thing up against me. I saw him only last summer, and we were talking about the incident. I kept insisting how sorry I was, for the accident has always worried me.

"Oh, that's all right, Matty," "Bill" told me. "It was a question of salary that made me quit the game and not being 'beaten' by you."

After that incident, I made up my mind to make my control as perfect as possible. I never intentionally threw a ball at the batters' heads as some pitchers do to drive a hitter back from the plate. It is too dangerous. Few men can get a solid smash in the head without being made "bat shy." Take the case of "Jack" Martin, a promising young shortstop the New York Americans picked up two seasons ago. Martin was game clear through, American Leaguers have told me, and this quality was building up a promising future for him until he went to bat against Walter Johnson one day in his first year out. He was so eager to get a hit off the Washington wonder that he stood too close to the plate and caught a fast one in the ear. Martin tried hard to come back, when he got out of the hospital, but he always pulled away from the plate afterwards, so they tell me, and he is now in the minors.

Roger Bresnahan is one of the few big league stars who took a fast ball in the face, was knocked unconscious, and evidently never thought of it again by the way in which he has batted since. But Roger has great nerve, an unusual amount. Sometimes too much control works against a pitcher. Bat-

Have Been An Untold Benefit

NEW BRUNSWICK WOMAN PRAISES DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

She Suffered For Four Years, and the Doctor Could Not Help Her, But Dodd's Kidney Pills Gave Her a New Lease of Life.

Porter, Carleton Co., N. B., Jan. 20.—(Special).—I find Dodd's Kidney Pills the best kidney medicine I have ever used. They have been of untold benefit to me.

The speaker is Mrs. John S. Dickinson of this place. She is enthusiastic in her praise of the great Canadian kidney remedy, and not without reason. She suffered from kidney trouble that started in a cold," she continues, "and for four years I was never free of it. I was treated by a doctor, but he did not seem to be able to do me much good. 'I had rheumatism and neuralgia, and my joints were stiff; my muscles cramped, and I was always tired and nervous. I perspired freely with the slightest exertion. I was depressed and low spirited, my limbs swelled, and I had a dragging sensation across the joints.

"Nine boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills made a new woman of me."

There are no doubt Mrs. Dickinson's symptoms those of any run-down, worn-out woman? They are also the symptoms of kidney disease. Dodd's Kidney Pills give new life to run-down women by curing their kidneys.

WILSON GETS OPTIMISTIC LETTERS ON BUSINESS

Washington, Jan. 20.—President Wilson has been developing from the preliminary bouts in Milwaukee in the last season may shine as stars later on—Peanuts Shiebert in the featherweight class and Ritchie Mitchell in the bantam division. They have been doing remarkably good work all season and rolling up victories Shiebert has been boosted by Johnny Coulon, bantam-weight champion, who thinks that he is ripe now to go against any featherweight in the country. John is usually a pretty good judge of a fighter, Peanuts has beaten Young Sinner, who is touted as a world beater, and if he can go along at the same speed he will soon be ready for big game.

Two Youngsters Who May Be Stars

(FROM T. S. ANDREWS)

There are some who figure Harlem Tommy Murphy to have a good chance of beating Ritchie, but I cannot see it for a moment. Tommy is not a spring chicken any more, being twenty-nine years of age, and has been in the fight game for more than ten years. Ritchie

Book For Men, Free

8,000 Words, 80 Illustrations

TO MY READERS:
Of the little illustrated advice book described below, which I gladly send free to all men who fill in the coupon. I beg to say that it represents the very BEST information of a private nature which I am able to offer you as a result of over 20 years' observation and study of my subject, during which time I have personally interviewed many thousands of men, young and elderly, single and married, rich and poor alike, who came to me in confidence with their confessions of debility, lost nerve force and falling strength. It is, reader, this vast and unusual opportunity which has enabled me to compile this very popular and valuable little free book (over a million of which have been sent everywhere to men who wrote me for them), and in a manner to reflect the exact living, breathing experience and needs of real men who sought information as to the newer ways of self treatment without the use of drugs.

Manly Men Move the Whole World.

Remember, this book of over 8,000 words and 80 illustrations will come to you by return mail in reply to your request, and in a perfectly plain, sealed envelope, for it is no one's business but your own what the envelope contains. There is absolutely no obligation on your part to buy anything or pay anything, and merely the receipt of this book does not mean in any way that you are to use one of my VITALIZERS (see description below), and in fact, only a portion of the book has any reference to the VITALIZER at all. Primarily it is a compendium of useful information for private reference, which you and all other men may easily profit by through life.

Therefore, please use the coupon, or, if nearby, I should be very glad to have you call.

SANDEN, AUTHOR.
It is a fact, reader, which you and I must recognize and admit, that the whole world admires and is fascinated by strong, vigorous, husky, manly, manhood, and we must also admit that it is this same manhood and this alone which is back of the real leaders and producers in every walk of life. No matter where we go, we find it to be the manly, vigorous, vital fellow who forges to the front, who fascinates men and women of this community, who does the really great things. An unmanly man merely means nature's laws gone wrong, for it is he who hails and hesitates, who takes the back seat, who does not fit into the picture in a way that a manly, vital nature should. And yet, reader, it is my firm belief that any man, no matter what his past, no matter what his disabilities or follies may have left their mark upon his physical and mental being, I say to you that such a man, unless there be some unusual reason, may hope for a complete return of his strength, vigor and self-confidence, if he but go about his self.

WHAT THE FREE BOOK TELLS

The free illustrated advice booklet mentioned above is meant to be a simple declaration of certain important truths that every man in the world should know. Notes About Books and Writers
In London

(Times Special Correspondence.)

London, Jan. 16.—Who was the vainest man in modern history, as well as the greatest "Poon-Bah" on record? One is inclined, after reading extracts from his voluminous diaries and from the notes and chronicles of his that soon are to be sold at auction in London, to award these distinctions to the late Major-General L. Macquarie, who once was governor of New South Wales.

These private journals of his, a weighty package that has been tossed about for eighty-nine years since it left Botany Bay, will be sold to the highest bidder at Sotheby's sales rooms on Jan. 22.

Fewer than forty years then had passed since Captain Cook's first encounter with the natives, and Australia was new to the white man—just the place for an official with a habit of discovering rivers and mountains and improving them by affixing his celebrated name to them.

Stones "laid by L. Macquarie, Esq." were as numerous as the opportunities for planting them. He was the champion foundation-stone layer of all time. But the name of Macquarie had to be plastered also on the works of nature. There are Macquarie streets and Macquarie buildings everywhere.

In his own opinion, Macquarie was the pioneer of religion and morality. Natives were taught not to steal by being shot at sight with their wives and families—innocent with guilty. Some writers on Australia have painted Macquarie as a monster. It is more interesting to recall that he struck the English public of his own day as a man too merciful for his job.

How he organized exploring parties, founded the city of Bathurst, made the first road to the Blue Mountains, and marked out sites for Windsor, Castle-reagh, Wilberforce, and Richmond, with many of the rest of his acts, are they not written in these faded chronicles, the property of a female descendant, now for sale? There are eighty pages of foolscap of his adventures with natives alone. The description of his journey to the Blue Mountains is little shorter.

"Futurist parties" are the latest in literary circles here, the first one having been given by Ford Madox Hueffer, author of "The Fifth Queen" and "Ladies Whose Bright Eyes," whose fortieth birthday occurred last Saturday. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wells and the chief incident of the evening was a "Futurist Tragedy" written by Mrs. Huxford, which, enacted in a series of shadow pictures, evoked, I am told, shrieks of laughter.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, who already has several ingenious inventions (apart from his stories), to his credit, has just added another. This is a book-marker, which is already exceedingly popular with women-readers. It represents a black cat with a grotesque grin, its tail thrust through a label inscribed: "Keep me, I'm a mascot."

CECELIA LOFTUS, whose winsome cleverness and rare skill have won her the enviable distinction of a prominent place among the popular stars of the day at a surprisingly young age, endows the motion picture by her first appearance before the camera with a new charm and glory. The subject, from the pen of a famous authoress, is an idyllic blending of the romance, beauty and daring of the days of knighthood. In the impersonation of Clorinda, a gay boyhood whose spirit and heart are broken by Sir John Oxon, a beau ideal of London Town, Miss Loftus renders a delicate and appealing portrayal. ## THE JUDGES

Speculation as to Who Will Be Third to Move to St. John

There is considerable speculation among the lawyers as to which judge of the King's Bench division of the Supreme Court will have to remove his residence to St. John. Under the amendment to the act which recently went into force all the judges of the Court of Appeals and Chancery Division must reside here. Chief Justice McLeod already lives in St. John and, as announced yesterday, Justices White and Grimmer will have to move to this city. The amendment also that two judges of the King's Bench division shall reside in St. John and one in Fredericton. This division includes Chief Justice Landry and Justices Barry, McKeown and Crockett. Of these Justice McKeown is the only one who lives in St. John at present and it is supposed that he will remain here. Justices Barry and Crockett both live in Fredericton and the chief justice in Dorchester. It is altogether probable that the judge who will be required to reside in Fredericton will be one of those now living there but there is nothing to indicate which of the three will be required to come to St. John. Some expect that Chief Justice Landry may be the one not living in either St. John or Fredericton. As head of the division it is probable that will be the one to say in the matter, however, and if he wished to remain where he is it is probable that he would be able to insist upon Justice Barry or Justice Crockett making the change. If there was any disinclination by them to take advantage of this opportunity legal men say it might be natural to expect that the choice would fall upon Justice Crockett as the junior member of the bench.

MAYOR WAS NOT ON TRAIN WHEN WRECKED; LEFT IT AT MONCTON

Because of an announcement that Mayor Frink left for Halifax last night on the late train, which was wrecked, there were inquiries today regarding His Worship's safety.

Fortunately he was not on board the train when the accident occurred as he was going only to Moncton and had left the train before it was wrecked. He expected to return to St. John this evening.

PROTECTING OUR FAIR NAME AGAINST THE SLANDERS

The board of trade has not been idle in the matter of the false statements that have been made regarding the safety of navigation in the Bay of Fundy. The president, J. M. Robinson, some ten days ago made a motion in the board for a record of the damage sailing in and out of the Bay of Fundy as far back as records are conveniently available, with a statement of the percentage of loss.

When this has been prepared the board will give the facts the widest publicity. In the meantime the board is sending out today to a list of newspapers a statement of the facts as revealed in previous reports, prepared by the board, showing beyond question that the approach to the port of St. John is as safe as that to any port north of Cape Hatteras.

UTILITIES COMMISSION IN SESSION HERE AGAIN

Hearing in connection with the application of the Eastern Electric and Development Company for a license for permission to increase their rates was continued before the Public Utilities Commission here this morning in the provincial government room, Prince William street. Those present were W. G. O. D. Otty, A. B. Connell, Felix Michaud, F. P. Robinson, J. B. Mill, who have counsel for the company and A. B. Connell, counsel for the town of Sackville, and the witnesses.

The witnesses were Charles W. Pavett, a member of the company; J. D. Doull, police magistrate of Sackville, and an architect, who gave evidence regarding the cost of the buildings owned by the company, and Kenneth D. Pickard, secretary of the company, who was recalled.

Mr. Pickard was on the stand when the commission adjourned for lunch and will be on again this afternoon. The commissioners hope to conclude the hearing of evidence today.

A SEWELL STREET DOG

Threats of vengeance, uncharitable thoughts and ugly sentiments are entertained by residents who traverse Sewell street to any extent, against a collie dog which is the subject of much annoyance to them and causes them to pass in trepidation. One young man who works in a downtown office has been known to be late five minutes for three mornings in succession because of making a wide detour to avoid the greetings of the canine, as he is of too kindly and sympathetic a nature to do, as others driven to desperation have done—walk bravely along with one eye on the dog and the other on a missile or stick, ready for use if the occasion demanded.

There has been more than one encounter. One young man says he is doubtful whether the dog in question is actually fierce or not. He has heard of the animal having had a fight with a dog, and has also heard of his having knocked down little school girls, but when he comes at the young man he both barking loudly and wagging his tail energetically.

It was said yesterday that the police had been appealed to, but the animal was still busy every day taking possession of the street.

THE ROYAL EDWARD MAILS

The steamer Royal Edward, which is expected to dock at Long Wharf tomorrow morning between five and six o'clock, is bringing about 1,600 pieces of mail which, it is understood, will be sent west over the C. P. R. The steamer passengers will be taken to the ship by rail and will be there to meet the mail. The mail will be examined and will be then taken west by special train.

AFTER DREDGE'S EQUIPMENT

An effort will be made today to raise the portion of the Don Fredericton's ladder and turret, which was lost while the dredge was at work near the entrance to Courtney Bay Monday. A hoisting crew with a crew of men aboard went this morning to where the part was dropped.

JAS. CAMPBELL WRITES OF POLICE INVESTIGATION

Former Sergeant in Answer to Charges Against Him—Invites Repetition of Them in Press

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir—In justice to my character I crave space in your columns to answer some grave charges which were made against me at the police investigation recently held by the commissioner of public safety, at which policemen now on the force, as well as ex-policemen, made statements in answer to questions put by the commissioner reflecting upon me. I stand until the investigation was concluded. Subsequently I consulted him with reference to whether or not I could not maintain an action for slander and was advised that the investigation was a privileged occasion. If this were not the case I would most assuredly commence an action against those who made statements imputing dishonesty to me.

I resigned from the police force in consequence of the intervention of the commissioner of public safety, after a record of 22 years and during that whole period there was never a charge of dishonesty made against me. I am now employed in the Opera House as a policeman for the purpose and was recommended for the position by the manager of the Imperial Theatre, who was a newspaperman and who has known me for many years.

As I am denied the right to bring an action because of the privilege which belongs to those who slandered me at the investigation, I now invite all those who uttered such slanders on that occasion to come out publicly if they desire to do so and repeat the slanders in the public press and give me an opportunity to vindicate my character in court.

My good name is precious to me and my family and I am seeking only the opportunity which should be afforded every British subject to clear his character when it is falsely aspersed.

In conclusion I wish to say I am credibly informed that the commissioner of public safety personally visited Haley Bros. and made inquiries of the firm as to their belief in my honesty and was assured by one of the members that they had perfect trust in me. I am also informed that he spoke to Robert Woods, night watchman at Haley Bros., along the same lines and got the same answer from Mr. Woods. Moreover Mr. Woods stated on the witness stand at the investigation, and strange to say, the commissioner of public safety did not put any questions to Mr. Woods about the alleged stealing of lumber by me from Haley Bros. and according to the rule laid down at the investigation no one else was allowed to put questions. From this it may be judged how fairly the investigation was conducted.

JAMES CAMPBELL.

PITIFUL STORY FOR WOMAN TO HAVE TO DISCLOSE

North End Wife Beating Case Includes Bottle Drinking at Home and Sunday Purchase in Street

A pitiful case was heard in the police court this morning, when Scott Fanjoy of Main street was brought before Magistrate Ritchie on a charge of beating his wife, Mary E., and turning her out of the house on Sunday night.

Mrs. Fanjoy said that her husband came home drunk on Saturday evening and that he had some liquor with him. He made quite a disturbance, broke furniture and quarrelled with her and her two sons. One of the boys was struck in the face and his nose made to bleed. A policeman was called in. Mrs. Fanjoy said that her husband gave her some money with which to buy food and clothes for the children but he afterwards took this from her. On Sunday she said, he went out and got a bottle of gin in the street and on Sunday night he was worse than ever and pulled her out of bed. Mrs. Fanjoy said she was barely able to get a few clothes together when she was ordered out of the house. She picked up her baby and went to a neighbor's house where she spent the remainder of the night and all the following day until she felt sure her husband had left the house.

Mrs. Fanjoy also said on the stand that her husband worked at a vessel and did not support her as she was obliged with the aid of her two sons to pay the rent and buy provisions.

Fanjoy's poor health rendered nothing of the charge of beating his wife but admitted that he had been drinking. He asked to be allowed to go back to his work and said he would live on the vessel and not make any more trouble for his wife. Mrs. Fanjoy said this would be perfectly satisfactory to her as she did not wish to have him punished but wanted to live in peace.

The magistrate imposed a fine of $20 or two months in jail but said he was giving him a light sentence on account of what Mrs. Fanjoy had said about not wishing to prosecute. He added that the next person brought before him charged with wife beating would be sent to jail without a fine.

Oscar Dine who was arrested yesterday morning charged with being drunk and deliberately breaking a window in the store of Wilfred Barlow, pleaded guilty and was remanded. Mr. Barlow said he ordered him out three times and then he deliberately turned round and broke the window. It is said that Dine is trying to get in jail for the winter. If so he will probably be allowed to go.

THIEF OF $10 CHARGED

Alexander Robins was brought before the police court this morning to answer to a charge of stealing $10 from Frank Garson last Wednesday. Mr. Garson said that the prisoner was working for his father. He gave the prisoner an order for $10 and he had not seen Robins since until he was brought from Moncton yesterday. He had been arrested there. Mr. Garson said he had often given orders to Robins, and that he had always brought back the money. The prisoner denied to be tried in police court and the case was adjourned until Friday morning.
