SITUATION OF I. C. R. NOT YET CLEARED

Conference Held in Moncton, But No Statement Given Out—Men Not Yet Satisfied is Statement Made Today

(Special To Times) Moncton, N. B., Aug. 4.—Within the next week there will be a decided change in the threatened strike of members of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and it will either mean that the members will go on strike or the I. C. R. officials will accede to their requests, say persons closely in touch with the situation.

Deputy Minister of Labor, J. A. Ackland, of Ottawa, arrived in Moncton on Saturday and held a conference with Mr. Gutelius, but what transpired could not be learned.

A. B. Mosher, grand president of the C. B. R. E., arrived in Moncton from Halifax on Sunday afternoon and soon after his arrival he was met by Mr. Ackland. In the evening Messrs. Ackland and Mosher went to the I. C. R. general offices and held a two hour conference with Mr. Gutelius at the latter's request.

Mr. Mosher afterwards was interviewed by your correspondent but he said he had nothing to say and what went on at the meeting was not for publication, but it is thought and generally understood that Mr. Gutelius conceded a few points to the C. B. R. E. which will be considered by the C. B. R. E. president although this is not official.

Question is up Today in Reference to Sout' side of King Square

The commissioners today considered the matter of paving the south side of King Square, petition presented by the owners of the property on the east side of the square, who are asking for the work to go on. There were not sufficient signatures to the petition, however, but the commissioner gave it as his opinion that since the city owned more than half of the street in question, namely the portion bordering the square, it could compel the others to come in for a share.

PRETTY-POOR SEASON THIS FOR THE COASTERS

"This is the slowest season for the coasting trade since I have ever engaged in it since 1876," said Captain Huck of the coasting trade who will soon be forced at present trying to secure a cargo to take away with me, but an unable to do so. There are a large number of vessels engaged in the bay trade, which are in the same predicament. The large vessels which have been in the coasting trade will soon be forced out of it by lack of work and this will give the smaller boats a chance. Good weather should make business a little more active in the states, and when the crops are harvested money will be more plentiful. These should make our trade better, but just now it is very poor."

HEALTH BULLETIN FOR MONTH

There Were 117 Cases of Tuberculosis Reported—Health Officer Sends a Warning Against the Cat as a Purveyor of Disease

The July health bulletin of Dr. G. G. Melvin, medical health officer, is as follows: The following cases of notifiable diseases were reported from the city during the month. The figures for July, 1912, and the average for the last three years are also given:

Table with columns: Disease, July 1913, July 1912, Average. Rows include Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever, Typhoid, Measles, Tuberculosis.

The following table shows the mortality for the month. The nominal rate is much higher than the July average for three years and is based upon an estimated population of 48,112. If, however, the population has increased to anything like the figure popularly supposed, say, 50,000 the rate would be reduced to a little over 15 per 1,000. This increase is largely due to the higher rate in those aged 65 and upwards, to tuberculosis and to deaths from misadventure.

Table with columns: Age Group, M, F, Total, Rate per 1,000. Rows include Under 1, 1-9, 10-19, 20-29, 30-39, 40-49, 50-59, 60-69, 70-79, 80 up, Totals, Average.

Mr. You-Have-It

—permit me to introduce Mr. and Mrs. I-Want-It. Mr. and Mrs. I-Want-It have been looking for the very good water manufacture, but they did not know they could be bought in this town. The merchants—some of them—keep your goods. That's their complaint—they keep them too long. They would much rather sell your goods than keep them—but Mr. and Mrs. I-Want-It have not been told about them. Why not use the newspapers here to let them know what you manufacture and how good it is? Mr. and Mrs. I-Want-It read the advertising in newspapers like the Telegraph and Times. Tell your story here and see how quickly the life, bustling merchants of this town will cooperate with you. See how the people will appreciate a little information! Smile as the orders roll into your factory. You will be too busy to worry!

HOWE'S BIG SHOW TODAY AT MARSH BRIDGE GROUNDS

This is Circus Day and the Kiddies Are Happy - Street Parade Wins Prize

The grounds at the corner of Frederick and Marsh streets were today the centre of attraction for many hundreds of people, the numbers not being limited to the small boy to whom it has long been conceded that Circus Day essentially belongs, but a great many adults who paraded about the grounds as happily and gaily as the smallesturchin on the field. The reason for the air of expectation, interest, and attractiveness pervading the place was that Howe's Big London Shows had established themselves there and there was much to see. The train carrying the cars of the big circus rolled into the city on Saturday night from Moncton so that things had assumed definite shape by early this morning, when it was seen that the barren lots had been transformed into a hive of industry and activity and a villa of tents had been erected upon them. The weather was not ideal for a street parade, but promptly at the scheduled hour there moved forth from the grounds a lengthy line of performers, horses, wagons and the various other features which go to compose a circus the world over.

Along City road to wall, thence to Paradise row and into Mill, up Dock, and King to Charlotte, to Union and Brunswick and then the return via Haymarket Square to the show grounds the big parade meandered, while the streets were lined with large crowds of spectators greatly pleased with the variety of sights. Many favorable comments were heard as the parade proceeded as it wended its way along. It was noticeable that everything was most cleanly and performers, animals and wagons presented a tidy appearance. A fanfare of silver trumpets heralded the approach of the road pageant, four lady riders proceeding in advance handsomely costumed and riding with grace and ease. Next came a string of cages containing ferocious wild animals in interesting variety, and drawn for the most part by six splendid appearing horses, all fine animals, as regards shape, size and looks. Three hands accompanied the parade together with the familiar old-time calliope. There were also a squad of clowns traveling in parties of half a dozen or so on top of a wagon, or riding alone individually on ponies capering and frisking to the huge delight of the many onlookers. Altogether, it was a very satisfactory street parade and created a most favorable impression with all who saw it.

Amongst the visitors in connection with the show has been Wm. Mitchell of Ottawa and who has made many friends during former trips as advance manager and press agent.

The Halifax papers speak highly of the show within the tents. The performances here are to be at two o'clock this afternoon and eight o'clock tonight. The Times is assured that weather need not worry those going for the canvas tents are sunproof and rain proof.

IN THE CHURCHES

Following an article in the Maritime Baptist favoring a vested choir nearly all the Baptist clergymen in the city gave expression themselves in favor of the idea.

Rev. C. Sinclair, Applegarth of Ontario filled the pulpit in the presence of the Queen Square Methodist church at both services yesterday.

Rev. George H. Baker, son of E. P. Baker, of the firm of Randolph & Baker, occupied the pulpit in Germain street Baptist church in the absence of Rev. F. S. Porter, yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Baker is at present stationed at Leominster, N. H.

CLOCKS MUST BE KEPT LEVEL

The reason why mantelpiece clocks so often get out of order is so obvious that it is strange that attention to it has not been drawn before. A London clockmaker says:

"It is because mantelpiece clocks so level. If a clock meant for a mantelpiece is not placed in an exactly horizontal position it is sure to go wrong. When the clock gains or loses because of its slanting position people regularly move the hands forward or backward as the case may be, in order to adjust it. Eventually the clock's hands are moved about so much that the mechanism gets out of order and the clock refuses even to tick."

"Watches and traveling clocks are constructed differently from the stationary clock, and they will go in any position. That is why they are relied upon more than the ornamental clock." -London Mail.

An Albany newspaper sent reporters to 22 churches on last Sunday morning to collect attendance statistics. These churches have approximately 16,000 members, 3025 of whom attended church last Sunday. Of the 3025, 1854 were women, 288 children and 873 men.

The world's greatest collection of post age stamps valued at $5,000,000 and owned by Philippe la Renotiere von Ferry, son of the Duchess de Galliera, is to be given to the Galliera Museum in Paris.

case, easily communicable to children, while the other two were sorry-looking animals, dirty, emaciated and unkempt. If we multiply this yard and its denizens by some hundreds, perhaps thousands, we will obtain some notion of what a multitude of these animals there is in the city. They are supposed, generally, to be household or domestic animals, but they deserve this name only in a very nominal way. Many of them have long since ceased to owe allegiance to any owner, having been either abandoned, or, of themselves, deliberately taking on a vagabond life. Hosts of others have been born in an outlandish condition, and have never known an owner or settled domicile. They wander everywhere. No place is too sacred or too sacred for their intrusion. They offend the eye, by day, and they frequently make night a horror and sleep impossible. Cats have a traditional reputation of being useful as destroyers of household vermin, as rats and mice. It is not to be denied that if all the main incentive to hunting, while the abandoned class, from subsisting upon vermin, take as their chief prey, birds, especially nestlings, and fall back upon offal and garbage when the former does not offer. It is, or should be, common knowledge that not only in cities, but in villages and suburban resorts, these animals are the source of more destruction of bird-life than obtains in this country from all other sources put together.

A Graver Indictment

But there is a still graver indictment, if possible, to be brought against them. Besides being pestiferous, in towns, to such disease as has been already referred to, they are also susceptible of diphtheria in themselves, and are abundantly capable of carrying the poison of this disease in their fur, and of communicating it to the human being, especially children. Nothing is more common than to see a child pick up a cat and fondle it, often burying the face in its fur, as if unconsciously doing the utmost to invite trouble. It may be that the cat is of the child's own household, familiar in the child's parents, would render it an object of loathing rather than of endearment.

Within the last two years the writer has traced nearly a score of cases of diphtheria to this source, in one or two instances of which the animal itself was affected with, and had actually died of the disease.

SPECIAL PICTURE TREAT; MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS

Gem Will Show Spectacular Three Reel Production on Wednesday and Thursday

In all history no more pathetic figure than beautiful Mary Stuart, the lovely Queen of France and Scotland, whose fate seemed to have marked from childhood as a victim of its cruelty. Her hopeless struggle in the relentless power of the great Queen Elizabeth, the plots and intrigues of the followers of both queens, form one of the most romantic and exciting series of incidents outside of fiction. The picture will be shown on Wednesday and Thursday at the Gem Theatre. The picture is an Edison masterpiece, presenting gorgeous costumes, lavish staging and an especially strong cast and has received favorable comment everywhere shown. Louis Reeves Harrison, in the Moving Picture World, says of it, "A beautiful spectacle, characterized by exhaustive attention to detail and splendid acting, it ranks with the best of its kind and the handling of those taking part reflects great credit on the director." The story of Mary Queen of Scots is one of gripping intensity and the Edison players have done full justice to every scene. It is something everyone should see. Some Persons "Flinch" When Truth Hunts Them

"If any man is able to convince me and show me that I do not think or act right, I will gladly change, for I seek the truth, by which no man was ever injured."-Marcus Aurelius, Roman Emperor.

Some shrink and try to close their eyes and ears to the haunting fact that the little 14 to 3 grains of Caffeine in every average cup of tea or coffee is the demon which relentlessly pursues and starts various ailments, such as biliousness, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, bowel trouble, heart failure and a long string of aches and ails, taking one form in one person and another in another.

The effect of repeated doses of tea or coffee, on those who are susceptible to caffeine poisoning, is so complex that it is difficult to foretell where its hurt will be most serious; in Heart, Head, Eyes, Nerves or where.

The stroke of trouble will come somewhere if the daily doses are persisted in.

Of course if anyone prefers to treat his body in that way it is useless to suggest relief.

Let him "follow the trail" until badly wounded.

Some go so far they can't get back to health. Others quit the foolish, losing game before fixed chronic disease sets in.

There is a mighty army of sensible ones, however, who have bravely tested the truth with their own bodies to see whether or not it was the truth that tea and coffee caused their ailments.

It's an easy test. Quit tea and coffee absolutely for 10 days. Take Postum hot and well-made and keep track of the change toward health day by day.

It's the most exquisite pleasure in the world to be perfectly well with all the delicate and beautifully adjusted machinery of the body working in harmony, not interfered with by drugs, one of the most insidious and deceptive of which is caffeine in tea and coffee.

This is Truth.

Meet it bravely with head up and a hearty handclasp.

Truth thus made welcome will prove your best friend.

These are facts without regard to our own opinion, or to whether or not you use Postum.

However it is well to consider that famous food-drink because it supplies a hot beverage of deep seal-brown color, which turns to the rich golden-brown when cream is added.

It has a snappy flavor, but there is no "sting" in it, no caffeine or other drug of any sort. It is skillfully manufactured of wheat and a trace of New Orleans molasses.

It comes in two forms. One called Regular Postum, must be boiled full 15 minutes.

The other, Instant Postum, is in powder form and a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water makes the beverage instantly. Grocers keep both kinds.

ANOTHER BACKDOWN

The Borden government has been forced to back down in the matter of the L. C. R. employees and their wages. Mr. Gutelius has notified President Mosher of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees that he will meet the officials of the organization on the 11th of August, and that there will be a general increase in wages to date from the 31st of March. The "odds and ends" of the railway service, as the men were described by the Ottawa correspondent of government papers, will not be compelled to back down. The government has saved them that trouble by backing down itself.

NOT QUITE CONSISTENT

Sir Richard McBride suggests that Canada might very well refer the whole subject of naval policy to the admiralty, in order to learn how most effectively to aid the mother country. The very next sentence in the dispatch which gives this information says:—"The premier (Sir Richard McBride) said the policy of his government was absolutely to prohibit the entry of Orientals to Canada's Pacific coast."

The question of freight rates is also to be taken up by Mr. Borden himself today, when a delegation from his own party will point out to him how much injury the policy of Hon. Mr. Cochrane will do to the maritime provinces, and to the party of which Mr. Borden is alleged to be the leader.

We were told by the government press last week in despatches from Ottawa that Hon. Mr. Cochrane was disposed to stand to his guns, not only with regard to the question of freight rates, but in the matter of the demands made by members of the Brotherhood of Railway Employees. So far as the latter dispute is concerned, the government has backed down, and perhaps Mr. Borden will be wise enough to insist that a similar course be pursued in regard to the question of rates.

They are also quite capable of settling the navy question, but Sir Richard does not say so. He desires to make the path of his friend Mr. Borden as easy as possible.

Mr. Borden is having his own troubles at Ottawa today. The Tory party is very far from being a happy family. Hon. Mr. Cochrane is learning that the people of the maritime provinces know something about the Intercolonial Railway, and its relation to the people and the traffic of these provinces.

The United States government is ready to place from twenty-five to fifty million dollars of government funds in the banks of the south and west to facilitate the crop movement. It has been urged that the Borden government would confer a great benefit upon the people of Western Canada if it would give some financial assistance to hard pressed municipalities in this time of financial stringency, but the matter does not appear to have been considered by the government.

In the province of Ontario the sentiment in favor of prison farms rather than jails is steadily growing. On Tuesday of last week delegates from six counties waited on the government to urge the abolition of the ordinary local jails and the establishment of district prisons after the model of the Toronto prison farm. Hon. Mr. Hanna promised to give the matter serious consideration. Mr. Hanna, by the way, will discuss the treatment of delinquents at the Conference of Charities and Corrections in Winnipeg next month.

When Hon. J. D. Hazen was in Vancouver last week the board of trade called a public meeting and arranged a programme, which included several speeches dealing with matters of harbor improvement the board desired to have brought forcibly to the attention of the government. Several memorials were presented to the minister. In short, the people of the Pacific Coast city took advantage of the opportunity afforded them to proclaim publicly and in the presence of a member of the government the things which they desired the government to do for the benefit of the port, and of the trade of Canada passing through that port. They did not whisper it, as we sometimes do in St. John.

All that has been done since last spring appears to be that an estimate of the cost of grain conveyors at two steamship berths was called for. Whatever the government may do now, it is extremely probable that the congestion at West St. John next winter will be so great as to cause a loss of business to the port. It is the fault of the government, which has increased the annual expenditure by nearly sixty-six million dollars since it went into power, and having such enormous resources at its disposal could easily have made provision early last spring for such additions to the facilities at this port as would be required to meet the demands of winter steamship traffic.

The citizens realize now how much they lost when Mr. Hazen became their representative in the government, and Dr. Pugsley was no longer able to press the claims of St. John as he did when he was minister of public works and Sir Wilfrid Laurier was the premier of Canada.

CANADIANS AT ROYAL PARTY

One of The 34 John Teachers is In Number

MEMORABLE AFTERNOON

King and Queen Informally Receive Them in Buckingham Palace Gardens at a Delightful Function—Imperial Union of Teachers Favored

(Times' Special Correspondence)
London, July 22—The thirty or so Canadian teachers who were honored with invitations to the royal garden party at Buckingham Palace on last Saturday, had a charming and unusual glimpse of the king and queen without the elaborate ceremony which generally accompanies their presence in audience among their subjects. There was an unusual personal touch about the party that made it very friendly and delightful.

The Canadians had but one topic of discussion and that was the pleasure they felt at the wonderful afternoon they had enjoyed and their gratification at having been the persons who were guests of the sovereign who with the queen, had shown such gracious recognition of the responsible laborers of the profession.

Among the English teachers there had naturally been a great desire to be present. Sheer numbers, however, prevented a great many from receiving the privilege of an invitation. As the garden party had been arranged for the members of the profession in Great Britain, the visiting Canadian teachers had not been considered, and they indeed had a meeting scheduled for the late afternoon. It was not until the day before the garden party that Queen Mary was advised that the Canadian teachers would be in London on that day and she at once indicated that it would give her pleasure to meet any of them, as far as possible. Those who were present were: Miss Hendry of Hamilton, Miss Paddy and Mr. Rand of Ontario, Mrs. Brown and Miss Josephine Bow from Quebec, Miss Kennedy and Miss E. A. Wilson from New Brunswick, Mrs. Treacy and Miss Creighton from Nova Scotia, Miss Magee, Miss Estella Hamilton and Miss Innes from Newfoundland, Miss Mary Legat, Miss M. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Silcox from Saskatchewan, Mrs. Rankin, Mrs. Ellis Brown and Miss M. G. King from Alberta, Miss F. R. Marshall, Miss C. S. Maxwell, Mrs. Macenzie from British Columbia, and Mr. Hill, Mr. Whiteway, Miss Forward and Miss Dickson, from Newfoundland. They were allotted a most favorable position close to the king and queen.

Some of the visitors arrived early and spent the time admiring the beautiful grounds. One of the pleasures was the experience of being taken for a row on the winding lake in charge of the king's watermen, who were wearing their picturesque stiff, heavy, and brilliant blazony of the royal arms and cypher on the chest and backs of their red tunics. Tea for the royal party was served in a large tent where four round tables were laid out and where the Canadian teachers were seated with the Indian shamanias or canopy of crimson and gold supported on four massive pillars of beaten silver, which their Majesties often sit at open air ceremonies. For the general company tea was served on a series of long narrow tables with crimson and white.

The distinguished company, the superb singing of old English songs by hundreds of young children, and the music of military bands, all contribute to make a memorable afternoon for the Canadian guests. But the outstanding feature was the mingling of the sovereigns with those present and the complete absence of formality. The queen and the Duke of Connaught were the centre of a charming incident. Queen Mary had apparently forgotten to say good-bye to the Duke of Connaught on reaching the top of the steps leading to the palace ramp back to give him a farewell kiss. As a souvenir of the day many of the visitors secured roses from the rose-trees in the grounds.

While the late afternoon was enjoying the royal hospitality, the other members of the party were attending the meeting of the League of the Empire, at which Lord Meath presided. Dr. R. A. Pyne, minister of education for Ontario, extended a cordial invitation to the members of the league to hold the next conference in Ontario, and the invitation was unanimously accepted. One of the important objects of the league was expressed in a resolution passed by the League of the Empire of the United Kingdom in the following terms:

"That in view of the great advantage to education and to the teaching profession that teachers should gain experience in countries other than their own, the governments of the home country and dominions beyond the seas be urged to grant every possible facility to teachers visiting a country for the purposes of studying or gaining professional experience."

This was unanimously carried.

In the evening Queen Anne of Portugal inaugurated the Imperial Union of Teachers in the presence of about 300 delegates from teachers of all parts of the empire. Dr. Pyne and J. L. Hughes of Toronto were among the speakers.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING TO THOSE INTERESTED IN THE DRINK CURE

One year ago we opened a Neal Institute treating the drink habit at 46 Queen St. John (N. B.), to demonstrate to the public that we had a treatment that would cure all desire and craving for alcohol in three days time. Some few call it a "fake" while others tried it with the remarkable result we cured several score of men and women. St. John was only one of our sixty branches that we have established throughout Canada, U. S. A. and foreign countries. After running it at a big expense for one year we closed our eastern branch as well as several other places where there was a danger of its becoming known that certain prominent people had taken the drink treatment. For the self-same reason we established a large central hospital at the Capital City Ottawa some two years ago, where we have every convenience, thoroughly trained male nurses and graduate female nurses for women. Our twenty-two private rooms with electric fans, bath and every modern convenience guarantees to the outside patient comfort and secrecy while taking treatment. While the ride may seem rather long when starting, it is well for the public to know that it is not necessary for the patient to arrive here perfectly sober, inasmuch as we never cut a patient straight off from liquor. Another feature that aids in taking treatment away from home is the fact that a good long ride after completing the Neal treatment acts as a tonic, the fresh air, change of scenery and the knowledge that when one returns nobody will be a bit the wiser. Remember our fee or charge is $125 out of which we allow you transportation both ways with the understanding that we guarantee to return all money paid if the patient is not perfectly satisfied that all craving and desire for liquor has been destroyed when leaving the Institute. If you have a loved one at home who is near and dear to you speak kindly to him and try and persuade him to take the Neal treatment.

P. S.—There is no charge should the patient wish to stay with us during the day after completing treatment, to make sure he is perfectly cured.

THE PINK LADY

Ivan Caryll, who composed the score of "The Pink Lady," which is to be here at the Opera House, week of August 11, is an Englishman who got his first musical training in the United States under the old Boston Ideals, and later with the famous Bostonians. He married Germaine Ulmer, one of the favorites of that great company. He returned to England to devote himself to composition and later became identified with the Gaiety Theatre under the George Edwards' regime. He wrote the music for "The Runaway Girl," "The Spring Chicken," "The Girls of Gotterberg" and a half dozen other big hits from famous home of London musical comedy triumphs.

His greatest hit, however, was "The Pink Lady," and it remained for him to return to America, the scene of his earliest experiences, to score his greatest success to date. Mr. Caryll combined the charm of good music and catchy melody in his score and already his most successful numbers in "The Pink Lady" have been heard around the world.

A TRIUMPH OF SCENIC REALISM

The third act of Bewster's Millions, which comes to the Opera House Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 7, 8, 9, shows the steam yacht "Flitter," complete in all visible details and marine effect, plunging and tossing in the most thrilling stage storm, amid magnificent waves so realistic as to render one sea sick, an effect that is as much discussed as the hilarious plot itself. The action is carried through four acts with increasing climax and amusing situations, so laughable that—well, we won't spoil your pleasure by telling you to see it. Seat sale opens Monday morning.

THE SUNDAY CONCERTS

St. John, N. B., Aug. 4.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir—I trust you will allow of the expression of my views, also a little mild criticism of the views of others regarding the proposed Sunday concerts in King Square. It seems the band must only play at a time which will not conflict with church services.

This sounds like fine sarcasm when we realize that probably one quarter of the non-church goers in St. John could be the walls of King Square from Sydney to Charlotte streets.

Some people seem fearful lest music may be rendered at those Sunday concerts which could not be considered "sacred" music. The most intelligent and enlightened people of the world are all agreed that any good music with real musical merit in it is suitable for the Sabbath day. In 1908 issue of Saturday, Aug. 2, a correspondent taking the name of "One among so many" says "let us have a quiet day in the seven."

Now I, that have always been taught that music is heavenly and that we will have harps up there, am amazed that this good person should advocate quiet non-musical Sabbaths.

I must admit that I fall in my conception of heaven as a quiet, silent place. Another correspondent in the same issue of your paper signing "Key Off The Grass," suggests having a regular church service on the square with amalgamated choirs, etc., "to give thanks for our many mercies received from an Almighty dispenser; also for the great blessing of bountiful crops not only in New Brunswick but over the whole great domain." Not a word about the blessings of ennobled increased rent or coal at ten dollars a ton. Are those things blessings from the devil? If we are able to buy any of the great variety crop after the trusts, mergers and various "corner" are through with it then it will be time enough to give thanks.

I was in Glasgow, Scot., a fine Sunday evening once, and was rather surprised at the number of open air street meetings. Dozens of pianos or organs with choirs and preachers grouped around them. Those choirs chiefly constituted the audience. The people were not taking any interest.

The suggestion from your last named correspondent that we have speakers take turns at ten minute speeches is a capital idea, but I would insist that they be willing to stand criticism and agree to answer all reasonable questions.

Yours, etc.,
ONE OF THE FEW.

How to Lose Your Tan, Freckles or Wrinkles

(From Woman's Tribune.)

A day's motoring, an afternoon on the tennis ground or golf links, a sunbath on the beach or exposure on a sea trip, often brings on a deep tan or vivid crimson or more perplexing still, a vigorous crop of freckles. A very necessary thing then is mercurized wax, which removes tan, redness or freckles quite easily. It literally peels off the affected skin—just a little at a time, so there's no hurt or injury. As the skin comes off in almost invisible flaky particles, no trace of the treatment is shown. Get an ounce of mercurized wax at your druggist's and use this nightly as you would cold cream, washing it off mornings. In a week or so you will have an entirely new skin, beautifully clear, transparent and of a most delicate whiteness.

Wrinkles, so apt to form at this season, may be removed by a very simple and effective treatment. This is not only a valuable skin cream, but has a beneficial tonic effect also.

THE GRAIN CONVEYORS

In reply to the urgent telegram signed by fifty business men of the city regarding the construction of grain conveyors on the West Side before the winter sets in, and which was sent on Friday both to the premier and Hon. J. D. Hazen, the following despatch was received Saturday afternoon by J. M. Robinson, president of the board of trade:

Telegram received. I will take up matter with acting minister without delay. Is absent today but expected to return to Ottawa Monday or Tuesday.

(Signed) "R. L. BORDEN."

No reply was received from Hon. J. D. Hazen either with regard to this matter or the complaint of several private parties that the I. C. R. has refused to supply cars for inward and outward freight on the Pettingill wharf.

WILL ADVANCE EDMONTON ONE MILLION A MONTH

Edmonton, Aug. 3 - Word reached the city yesterday that Kleinworth, of London, had called the head office of the Imperial Bank, Toronto, instructing the bank to advance to the city of Edmonton on Kleinworth's account, money to the extent of $1,000,000 per month. In other words, all the city administration has to do in order to keep their civic machinery moving is to apply to the local branch of the Imperial Bank, and $1,000,000 per month will be placed to the credit of the municipality. With this amount on hand there would be no necessity for the curtailment of the city's construction programme, and all the works planned at the beginning of the year could be carried out.

MONEY MARKETS ALL ARE SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

New York, Aug. 2 - All the money markets of the world, those at home equally with those abroad, show improvement and an easier tendency. This mood is attributed to a universal strengthening of banking conditions by the enforced contraction of loans. The latter was an unwelcome process, involving a worldwide slowing down of business activities, a fall in values of both commodities and securities, and a very pronounced check upon new enterprises and new applications for capital. It is now thoroughly recognized that as pointed out in these advices weeks ago, the chief source of trouble has been the Balkan war. The cost and the losses of this latter struggle are estimated to have been over $1,200,000,000, which fell upon money markets already exhausted by an undue expansion of credit and an enormous demand for new capital. The period of retrenchment thus enforced has proved highly beneficial; and now that the main source of strain - the Balkan war - is over, conservative recuperation should be the inevitable sequence, and may prove even more rapid than expected or desired. If unfavorable circumstances do not intervene. The continued belligerence of the various contestants is having one effect - it is wearing European bankers of financing such petty warfare.

It is exceedingly satisfactory to note that the United States is exhibiting greater recuperative tendencies than any other commercial nation. This is but natural. Our losses from the war were strictly indirect. Instead of revealing in unfavorable circumstances do not intervene. The continued belligerence of the various contestants is having one effect - it is wearing European bankers of financing such petty warfare.

Witness the extraordinary report of the United States Steel Corporation, always a fair barometer of trade conditions; also the continued liberal earnings of important recessions in traffic; also the satisfactory reports issued from time to time by many of our large industrial establishments.

The most important element in our favor is the prospect of a fair harvest. As usual, there are complaints of injury, but these are generally local and not of nature. If present prospects are realized, we may harvest a bumper crop of over 2,000,000,000 bushels of wheat, or about 750,000,000 bushels; also the second largest yield of cotton, amounting to over 14,000,000 bales. August is usually a month of deterioration for corn and cotton, so that no alarm need be given; and making allowance for customary deterioration, we are almost sure to see a harvest considerably above the average. It is unnecessary to dwell upon this as a telling factor in our country's prosperity.

Secretary McAdoo's offer, as reported, to deposit government funds up to $50,000,000 will of course have a reassuring effect upon many minds, especially at the west; but the announcement, I think, is probably premature and such action may become unnecessary and it is to be hoped it will.

"SILVER BILL" RILEY ONCE MILLIONAIRE, DIES IN POVERTY

Had Been Bookmaker in Chicago and Noted For Honesty

Chicago, Aug. 2.—"Col." William Riley, whose bookmaking establishment in "Gamblers' Row," in the 70's was known from coast to coast, is dead here. He was about 63 years old. Although he is reputed to have at one time been a millionaire, he practically was without funds at his death. Riley, whose white hair and mustache won him the sobriquet of "Silver Bill," had a reputation among gamblers for his honesty. He never allowed minors in his place; no man was permitted to smoke cigarettes there, card playing was not permitted, but any kind of a wager up to a horse race, athletic event or election was promptly covered. When Cleveland and Blaine ran for the presidency, more than $250,000 in bets reposed in "Silver Bill's" safe. While the result of the election was in doubt Riley was taken ill. It was reported that he had disappeared with the money which had been entrusted to him, and the newspapers printed a story to that effect. The story was disbelieved by gamblers, and not a single man waited at the door of the pool room on the following morning to get his money. Every bet was paid. Riley was born in Brooklyn and was a camp follower of the Union Army during the 60's. He landed in San Francisco with only $1.50. Meeting a ragged miser whose face was so covered with a heavy growth of red beard that he resembled a freak, Riley rented a store room and charged 30 cents admission to see the "Wild Man of Ceylon," who was the miser. He made $1,500 in ten days. Riley's widow is believed to be residing in New York. It is said he settled $100,000 upon her several years ago when they separated. Last week in Montreal 450 gallons of impure milk were seized at the railway stations and unceremoniously dumped into convenient sewers. This is in the fight against Montreal's terrible infant mortality rate.

Brown and James Speight tied for the P. R. A. medal with 94 points and on the shoot-off at the close of the match Brown scored 15 and Speight 18 points. The spoon was tied for by N. J. Morrison, James Donnelly, J. Chandler and J. Sullivan with 92 points each and in the final shoot J. Chandler won with 15, Sullivan scoring 18 and Morrison 12 points. BACK-LOT BASEBALL MAKING BAD CITIZENS. Chicago, Aug. 3.—Back lot games tend to bad citizenship instead of being the wholesome exercise of the old-fashioned folks as thought to be, according to Sydney A. Teller, director of West Park No. 2. "Unsupervised play in city spaces is worse than no play at all," he said. "The first ideal we have concerning the playgrounds in a back lot has not enough space, no equipment and no direction. So play is a bad thing. The gang spirit has the wrong outlet in the back lot. On the playground we have changed the gang into a team and the gang leader into the leader of the squad. To evolve American democracy we must have the playgrounds and Chicago has more of them than any city in the world. We need more playgrounds."

QUARANTINE FOR BABIES. Berlin, Aug. 4.—A quarantine station for babies has been opened in the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria Hospital for Infants, the favorite charity of the German Empire. Hitherto only babies suffering from contagious diseases have been isolated at the hospital. Now all babies are quarantined before their admission to the hospital. They are kept in rooms with glass sides and ceilings. Each room is ten feet long and five feet wide, equipped with a bath, bed, and every other necessary for the comfort and needs of the infant. Fresh air is provided by a special system of ventilation. If the results of the present quarantine rooms are successful such rooms will probably be established in other hospitals throughout the country.

THE MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

Milwaukee, Aug. 2.—There promises to be a merry scramble for the middle weight championship this coming season between the near-champions and those who are supposed to belong to the second line of battlers. There are being a real champion of the middle weight class sprung, but the season of the two men who stood out most prominently were Jack Dillon, of Indianapolis, and Jimmy Clabby, the Milwaukee 168-pounder, with Frank Klaus, the Pittsburgh brawler, and Eddie McGorty, the Wisconsin boy, hugging them very closely. Clabby gained a verdict over McGorty in 12 rounds at Butte, Mont., while Dillon was given the decision over the Pittsburgh man by practically all the newspapers when they met for ten rounds at Indianapolis May 29 last. On that occasion Dillon, in my opinion, had all the better of the fighting Klaus holding back for that one walk, and confining himself to infighting. However, the man who beat Georges Carpentier in France did not seem to be right that night; in fact his manager, George Egan, admitted to me before the fight that Frank might have been a little finer, which was enough to mean that he was not at his best. In a long fight Klaus would no doubt show better, just at the same time Dillon out-fought him that night and if he can show the same form again he has the best chance in the world to defeat the husky Pittsburgher. They need a Marathon battle, just the same as Eddie McGorty and Jimmy Clabby, to settle the question of supremacy between them. Now comes Gus Christie, managed by Sam Murbarger, former manager of Dillon, who wants to meet all four of the claimants. Gus is a legitimate middle weight, being able to make 168 ringerly easily. He has improved greatly in the past year and under careful coaching should improve still more. Gus bars no 168-pounder in existence and the chances are he will be quite busy during the fall campaign. If he can show the class then he will be sure to get a chance with the claimants and add more interest to the scrap. Ernie Zanders is another of the second line who is making a bid for prestige among the 168 pounders. He wants to battle with Christie above all, so they may do a little elimination stuff between them. Whether Mike Gibbons will go after the middle weights is uncertain as yet. Mike can easily do so.

but he is trying to build up, and if he can convince himself that he is strong enough to cope with the 168 and 160 pounders then he will take a crack at the title. Let us hope that the bunch get together and settle the question of title holder. It is surely about time. Mrs. M. J. Farley holds the rank of police captain at Dallas, Tex.

We protect the patrons of our hosiery department from dissatisfaction by handling only qualities that we know to be trustworthy. HON. MR. PUGSLEY SPEAKS ON MARITIME REPRESENTATION

Says Maritime Provinces Should Have Same as at Confederation

(Montreal Gazette.) Hon. William Pugsley, M. P. for St. John, N. B., and minister of public works for the Laurier administration, who was at the Windsor yesterday, stated that he thought the representation of the three lower provinces should be allowed to remain as it was when those provinces entered confederation. He was referring to the coming conference of the local premiers, which has apparently been agreed to by James Whitney and Sir Lorne Gouin. He said it would be generous on the part of the larger provinces if a re-arrangement could be made whereby the representation possessed by Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island when the three provinces were merged into the confederation should be retained. Dr. Pugsley stated that the premier had stated last session that the government were considering the matter, but he did not know that any decision had yet been reached by the powers that be at Ottawa. Hon. Mr. Pugsley was of the opinion that a general representation of the smaller provinces in the matter of representation would be generally approved.

GREEK VS. FINN

An Enthusiastic Witness in a Police Court Case Today

The police court was treated to a lively scene this morning, when a Greek fruit seller, Evangelos Chryso, appeared against a Swede, Carl Finrose, who was charged with being drunk and using profane language. The Greek with characteristic southern gestures acted the whole thing through much to the entertainment of the court. One minute he was in the witness stand, the next out, hands going and tongue keeping time in broken accents. Finrose listened in stolid silence and refused to say anything. He was remanded.

Michael Crothers had been arrested on charge of lurking in a box car off Mill street. He said he came to town a few days ago from a place where he had a good character. He had about $50 when he came to town, but had been drinking for the last few days and had only $5 left. His Honor tersely told him it was a pity he had not stayed where his good character was and fined him $8 or two months in jail.

Felix Holland was arrested on Saturday on charge of being drunk and using profane language on the ferry boat. In the course of the hearing it came out that he had also assaulted a deck hand by tearing his tie off. He was fined $8 or two months in jail on each of the three counts.

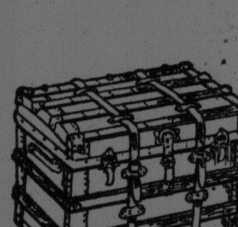

Joseph Lavigne, who had been arrested on charge of using profane language on the Marsa Bridge, was remanded. A woman was sent to the Home of the Good Shepherd for being drunk in St. Patrick street.

Two men, charged with drunkenness, were remanded.

A young man named Thompson was before the magistrate this morning. A. Wilson, K.C., appeared for the defendant and had the case postponed until Wednesday afternoon.
