Colorado, Kansas, Wisconsin and Wyoming
Visited by an intensely Cold Wave—Blizzards and a Sixty-Miles-an-Hour Gale Make It Interesting for the Western People.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 30.—Specials from points in the interior of Wisconsin report very low temperature. At Appleton the thermometer recorded 35 degrees below zero, the coldest yet.

Wichita, Kansas, Jan. 30.—Snow began falling today, accompanied by fierce wind. A severe blizzard extends over Southern Kansas and Oklahoma.

Rawlins, Wyo., Jan. 30.—A terrible blizzard has been raging in Rawlins county. With the wind blowing 50 miles an hour, the snow has drifted badly. The storm will be severe on stock, as the snow is crusty, preventing sheep from securing food.

SNOWED UNDER.
Denver, Col., Jan. 30.—Snow began falling on the mountains shortly after midnight last night, and the storm which has been raging since a week ago, with an occasional let up, is again in full blast. The town of Breckenridge, about 40 miles from Leadville, is completely isolated. Fuel and provisions are getting low, and much suffering from the lack of necessities must result. Not a wheel has moved out of Como, on the South Park, for two days, and reports from there tell of great losses to range stock.

MINES SHUT DOWN.
The mines about Leadville have been forced to close down, as no ore can be moved. Hundreds of men have worked almost incessantly at different points on the South Park line between Como and Leadville to open the road to traffic, but have at last been compelled to give it up. Snow is packed in great drifts in the cuts and the winds piled it in as fast as the shovellers can make an opening.

NO TRAINS RUNNING.
Kokomo is almost hidden away by the banks of snow on all sides. Snowdrifts are frequent and destruction threatens the town. No trains have moved west of Leadville on the Colorado Midland for several days. Should the storm keep up its present fury, great suffering and loss of life will result. The storm extends along the mountains in Wyoming and already the loss to cattle has been great.

CONFUSING AND MENACING

French Government's Decision in the Dreyfus Case.
Thought by Some It Will Produce a Constitutional Crisis.

El Obied, the Dervishes' Last Stronghold, Besieged.

Fourteen Persons Killed in a Mine Near Mazarron, Spain.

The Franco-Italian Treaty Approved by the Legislature at Rome—Duke and Duchess of Cognatch Visit the Pope.

Paris, Jan. 30.—The government's decision to submit to the chamber of deputies a bill providing that cases of trial shall be brought before the united sections of the court of cassation has reopened the flood gates of the Dreyfus agitation. The situation appears more confusing and menacing than ever.

For days the anti-Dreyfusites have been clamoring to have the case referred to the united sections, because they have considered it certain that among more than 30 judges they could rely upon an anti-Dreyfusite majority.

In the Echo De Paris, M. Quesnay de Beaupaire again justifies his resignation from the court of cassation in a screaming screed and asserts that the ministers hold a decisive document; while M. Coope and Jules Lemaître have signed a manifesto on behalf of the organization known as La Patrie Francaise, claiming credit for urging the government to take its present course and declaring that if the Dreyfus affair be once submitted to this truly supreme tribunal it will receive such a solution as will insure the country's repose.

M. Leow, president of the criminal chamber, who was asked his opinion regarding the government's proposal, said: "I am glad to be relieved of the responsibility, but the government's action is revolutionary."

The anti-revisionist papers are jubilant; but the most serious and impartial journals deprecate the government's weakness.

WILL NOT BE SATISFACTORY.
M. De Biowitz, the Paris correspondent of the London Times, commenting upon the "state of anarchy and revolution" which the government's yielding to outdoor pressure bespeaks, predicts that the bill will fail to stand serious discussion, and says that, like all concessions to clamor, it will satisfy nobody.

DERVISHES CORNERED.
Ordurman, Jan. 30.—Col. Kitchener, brother of the sirdar, with a strong Egyptian force, is besieging El Obied, the last stronghold of the dervishes in the Sudan. The Khalifa, who fled after his defeat by the sirdar, is now reported to be at Sherikia, eighty miles south of El Obied, trying to collect an army among his faithful Baggara to march to the relief of the besieged town. The sirdar plans are for an immediate reconquest of the Koroforah and Darfur regions that are still in the hands of the dervishes.

FOURTEEN KILLED.
Murcia, Spain, Jan. 30.—Fourteen persons were killed yesterday by an explosion of gas in the Palla mine, near Mazarron, 20 miles west of Cartagena. The other miners succeeded in making their escape.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND IN ROME.
Rome, Jan. 30.—Archbishop Ireland went to the Vatican yesterday, where he had a conference with Cardinal Rampoldi, papal secretary of state. Many cardinals and other high ecclesiastics visited the archbishop at the Hotel Bristol, where he was staying. In the course of an interview he declared that there was absolutely no foundation for the statement that he had been charged to represent the United States at the forthcoming conference regarding the limitation of armaments. The United States, he said, had not yet nominated a delegate.

The archbishop was very reserved in his replies to questions respecting religious questions in America, on the ground that it was necessary for him to wait for the holy see to pass upon such matters.

A WOMAN IN THE CASE.
London, Jan. 30.—Lloyd's Weekly newspaper states that it is known to the police and bank authorities that none of the notes stolen from Parr's Bank recently have gone far out of London, and that this is also reason to believe that the letter accompanying the notes returned to the bank was written by a woman.

VISITED THE POPE.
Rome, Jan. 30.—The Duke and Duchess of Cognatch were received by the pope on Saturday. They drove from the British embassy to the Vatican in state, and the highest formalities were observed upon their arrival at the papal palace. The duke wore the uniform of a general of the British army. The audience lasted half an hour, and after leaving the presence of the pope the duke and duchess called on Cardinal Rampoldi, the papal secretary of state.

THE CORTES.
Madrid, Jan. 30.—The reopening of the cortes is fixed for Feb. 20. The government will introduce a bill providing for the payment of indemnity to Spaniards who have suffered through the cession of the Philippines to the United States. The premier will submit to the queen regent a request of confidence in the government.

FRANCO-ITALIAN TREATY.
The Italian Chamber of Deputies, after a week's debate, approved the Franco-Italian commercial treaty by a vote of 228 to 84. One of the speakers expressed the hope that a similar treaty would be concluded with the United States.

TO BE CALLED "MCCORMICK."
London, Jan. 30.—It is announced that

Queen Victoria has been pleased, at the desire of Mr. Leander J. McCormick, of Chicago, to grant a license to Mr. Frederick E. Goodhardt, of Hadlow Castle, Tunbridge, to assume the name of McCormick. The Morning Post says: "We believe this is the first occasion upon which the Britisher has added his American wife's name to his own." Mr. Goodhardt is the Conservative candidate for Devonport.

NO REFERENCE TO NEWFOUNDLAND.
Paris, Jan. 30.—The Figaro today declares that the negotiations between the British and French governments do not concern, as supposed, Newfoundland and Madagascar, but the Bahr-el-Ghazal district of the Nile Valley.

ANNIVERSARY OF KING CHARLES' EXECUTION.
London, Jan. 30.—The anniversary of the execution of King Charles I., which was beheaded at Whitehall on Jan. 29, 1649, was celebrated today by the Legation and Jacobite leagues in London and the provinces. Numbers of wreaths and floral crosses were deposited at the foot of the Charles statue in Whitehall in the presence of leading Legationists and Jacobites, who stood bareheaded during the ceremony. Conspicuous among the tributes was a shield, surmounted by a crown of immortelles, from the American Jacobites. Attached to it was a white silk ribbon, inscribed: "America remembers her martyred king."

PARISIANS CRY VIVE L'EMPEREUR

Remarkable Demonstration at a Paris Theater.

Patti Gave Baron Cederstrom an Annuity of $15,000.

Movement on Foot in London to Establish a Sorosis Society—Luocheni's Confession.

Paris, Jan. 30.—Never has the imperialist party shown its hand so boldly as Sunday, when an astounding manifestation was made by about fifteen hundred supporters of the Bonaparte dynasty at the Nouveau Theater. At this place a drama in five acts is being played. It is called "Le Roi de Rome." It is based on incidents of the First Empire. Word had been passed for the imperialist party to attend in force, and the theater was so crowded that people could not get to their seats without great difficulty in many instances.

In the first act one of the characters says: "France longs for the empire." At this a wild cry of "Oul! Oul!" went up.

Then, after the words, "France is greatly changed. She has become the prey of a gang of intriguers. Napoleon's son has no business in this den of thieves. The Napoleonic tradition is quite dead, the entire audience rose to its feet shouting, 'Non! Non! Vive l'Empereur!'"

When the Duc de Reichstadt asks, "Do you think if I crossed the frontier the people would welcome me?" the audience thundered, "Yes! Yes! Come once! Vive Cassagnac!"

The Duc asks in another passage, "Is the son of Marie Louise less acceptable than the son of Philippe Egalite?" the public replied before the actor could speak: "No! No! Vive l'Empereur!"

More significant still was the demonstration when the soldier says a few words praising the Old Guard, which the entire public saluted with cries of "Vive Napoleon V.!" but when the Duc de Reichstadt recites Victor Hugo's ode, "La Colonne," genuine emotion seized the people, who listened spellbound.

PEOPLE SOBBERED AND SHOUTED.
As the last verse was being spoken a sort of nervous current of agitation began to run through the audience, and at the end the storm broke out. Cheers and cries of "Vive l'Empereur!" rose in a wild clamor. The people wept, sobbed and shook hands, while the actor was recalled again and again. Bouquets and violets were rained upon him, and finally a huge bunch, tied together with tricolored ribbon, was handed up to him, and the jeunesse Napoleonienne grouped in the balcony waved a French flag bearing the legend, "Vive l'armee! Vive l'Empereur."

At the close the artists were called before the curtain. The death of the King of Rome brought the audience to its feet with the shout, "Vive l'Empereur! Vive Princes Victor!"

One interesting feature of the performance was that only one individual protested. The reception he met with probably warned others who might have felt inclined to imitate him. that Luccheni, the assassin of the Empress Elizabeth, has become so subdued and tamed by his incarceration in the dungeon of the Evreke prison at Geneva that he has commenced to make confessions. He now appears to have become fully alive to the utter hopelessness of his position, considers himself to have been deserted by his associates, and is making revelations of a most important character, which go to confirm the impression that was the more over to instrument of a powerful and carefully organized anarchical conspiracy, instead of having committed the murder unprompted and of his own accord.

NEARLY CAPTURED

Daring Plan of Chinese Rebels Frustrated.

The Plot to Take Foo Chow Exposed Two Days Before the Massacre.

Tacoma, Jan. 30.—The steamship Lenox brings news that the Chinese rebels have come very near capturing the city of Foo-Chow, which has nearly a million population. The conspirators were members of the Kolao-Hui, the famous secret society, which had for its object the extermination of foreigners. They won a large number of recruits to its feet shouting, "Non! Non! Vive l'Empereur!"

Two days before the date set apart for the massacre the plot was exposed from the outside. An investigation showed that the secret society leaders had 500 armed men hidden in Foo-Chow ready to seize and pillage when the signal was given.

Nearly half of the native troops composing the Foo-Chow garrison were found to belong to the Kalao-Hui, whose orders they had sworn to obey. Thirty conspirators were arrested, but the rest managed to escape.

The city is being policed by the victory city guard and loyal troops from other cities are being hurried there.

IN A TUNNEL

Twenty-Six Track-Repair Men Run Down—Two Dead and Sixteen Hurt.

Altoona, Pa., Jan. 30.—A gang of 28 track repair men were working on the railroad at the western opening of the Gallitzin tunnel at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when a head-on collision of a locomotive, which was running west through the tunnel. The workmen all stepped from the north track, on which the west-bound trains move, to the south track. The smoke in the tunnel prevented them from seeing the approaching locomotive, which, in order to avoid obstructions on the north track, was running on the south track.

TWO FATALITIES.
One man was instantly killed, one died in the Altoona hospital, and sixteen were more or less seriously injured. Nine were considered prejudicial to the case, and resulted in the dismissal of the jury and an order for a new trial.

The more seriously injured are: H. C. Hull, gang foreman, ankle broken; George Smith, aged 23, left leg broken; George Custer, arm and nose broken; Henry Burkin, arm broken.

Gallitzin is the home of all the men. The locomotive which struck the men was running empty from Altoona to Conemaugh.

HOPES OF THE HEBREWS

Grand Project of Purchasing the Holy Land.

Bank To Be Opened in London With $50,000,000 Capital—Council of Jewish Women in Washington.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—The Knights of Zion, of Chicago are doing all in their power to aid in the grand exodus of the Jews to Palestine, and arrangements are being made for the convention of all the Chicago gates, as the local orders are called, next Wednesday night. The Knights of Zion is the organization of Hebrews which was formed two months ago for the purpose of carrying out the grand project of purchasing the Holy Land, where a home for all the oppressed Hebrews will be established, and the Jewish race will

ONCE MORE BECOME A NATION in the country from which they were driven 2,000 years ago, a meeting of the officers of the grand gate, which is the supreme lodge of this order, was held at the residence of B. Horwich, president of the organization. Leon Zolotoff, grand recorder, and other officers of the organization were there, and the question of selection of delegates to the convention was talked over. Mr. Zolotoff was the delegate from Chicago last year to the national convention of Zionist societies at Basle, Switzerland, where plans for carrying out the grand project was formed.

A GRAND PROJECT. "There is now going on in Vienna," said Mr. Zolotoff, "a conference of four of the most prominent Hebrews interested in this movement. They are Dr. Herzl, Dr. Nordau, Mr. Wilsohn and Dr. Bordenheimer. They were the committee which was received by Emperor William on his recent visit to Palestine, and the result of their conference will have a great effect in stimulating interest in our movement. Within two months the Colonial Bank will be started in London, of which the money necessary to purchase concessions from the Turkish Government in Palestine will be raised. The bank will have a capitalization of $50,000,000, which will be raised by popular subscription.

CONCESSIONS FROM TURKEY. "We hope to secure from the Turkish Government concessions in the Holy Land large enough to enable us to establish an independent government there. The heart of every Jew naturally yearns to go to Palestine, and we expect that it will become a refuge for the outcast and oppressed Jews of every land. The movement will be a great one, and the object of our society is to furnish aid to the Jews of other lands who desire to find peace.

THE KNIGHTS OF ZION. "There are already 800 members of our organization in Chicago, and the movement is spreading like wildfire through the country. Our convention will select delegates to go to St. Paul and Milwaukee to install three lodges there. St. Paul already has a membership of 400. We are in direct communication with executive council in Vienna, and our movement has their sanction. The Knights of Zion is a secret organization without the benefit feature, and was started two months ago. The movement to colonize Palestine has, however, been under way for a great number of years. There are already a large number of Jewish colonies there, who make a good living by raising fruits, making wine, etc. An exhibition is now in progress at Frankfurt-on-the-Main of products raised by the Jewish residents in Palestine.

COLONIZING PALESTINE. "In our new home which we hope to establish in Palestine we will have a government which will guarantee freedom for everyone, and will be as near like that of the United States as possible. It will be free from all the oppression we have experienced in other countries. I do not think there will be many go from the United States or Chicago, as the Jews here are good American citizens and are contented with their lot. In England and the United States we enjoy more freedom than perhaps in any other countries. In the recent congress at Basle, in Switzerland, there were 400 delegates, of whom six were from the United States. The Jews have so long been a separated and a scattered race that it has been impossible to carry out any concerted plans for colonizing Palestine, owing to the difficulty of carrying on communication with one another. Now, however, owing to the increased facilities for travel and for sending messages from one world to the other, the plan is possible, and is being carried out as rapidly as possible.

ENCOURAGING PROSPECTS. "We have received every encouragement and find none of our race disposed to hang back. As the Jews, under Moses, walked through the Red Sea dry shod, just as will the Jews of the twentieth century once more find their native land, Abdul Hamid is a very fine gentleman, and we have every confidence that we will be able to secure from him the concessions we desire in the cradle of the Jewish race, Jerusalem."

The papers to be presented are: "The Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil," by Miss Sadie American, of Chicago; and "The Social Conscience in Its Relation to Industrial Problems," by Mrs. Maud Nathan, of New York. The report of the work of the council will be presented by the officers.

SETTLED BY ARBITRATION

The Grand Trunk Company and Their Operators Come to Terms.

The arbitrators in connection with the Grand Trunk Railway and the railroad telegraphers and agents concluded their labors Saturday evening, and handed out the following award: Rules 20, 21, 22 and 23 altered, changed and amended, and as hereto annexed, shall be and become rules of the Grand Trunk Railway Company, and that the changed rates of salary and allowances for overtime and all other provisions of the said rules shall come into force and effect on the first day of January, 1899.

Telegraphers required to remain on duty outside of their regular hours will be given an official order as authority, and excused in the same manner. Overtime will not be allowed unless overtime tickets are mailed to the proper official within 48 hours from the time service is performed. Overtime is not allowed telegraphers will be notified within ten days from the time such service is performed, setting forth the reasons why.

Rule 20—At offices where only one telegrapher is employed, twelve consecutive hours, including meal hour, will constitute a day's work. At offices where only two telegraphers are employed twelve consecutive hours, including meal hour, will constitute a day's work. At offices where more than two telegraphers are employed ten consecutive hours, including meal hour, will constitute a day's work. Telegraphers are required to remain on duty in excess of the above-named hours, they will receive overtime under rule 21, except as hereinafter provided by rule 22.

Rule 21—Overtime will be computed pro rata on stated salary, but in no case less than 15 cents per hour. In computing overtime less than 30 minutes will not be counted. Thirty minutes and less than 60 minutes will be considered an hour. Emergency service up to one hour's service connected with the work shall be paid at 50 cents per call.

Rule 22—This rule, with its sub-sections, applies to branch lines only. (1) Where one telegrapher only is employed, and the time of the regular scheduled passenger, mixed or way freight trains is so arranged as to require the telegrapher, in order to meet them, to be on duty beyond twelve consecutive hours, he will receive the following hours per month, to be added to his salary: If required to meet such train after three and within four hours, $4.50; if required to meet such train after four and within five hours, $5.50; after five and within six hours, $6.50; after six and within seven hours, $7.50; after seven and within eight hours, $8.50. Fractions of an hour to be computed as in rule 21. (2) An employee is required to receive receipts from all sources during the preceding year, exceeds $50 per month, will not be entitled to the additional allowance provided by this rule. (3) An employee will not be required, except for the purpose of an "emergency call," to be on duty, so as not to leave his eight consecutive hours off duty in the 24. (4) The extra pay provided for by this rule is to compensate operators for their duty, not being consecutive, and is not otherwise to interfere with the allowances for overtime under rules 20 and 21.

Rule 23—The minimum monthly salary will be as follows: Agent and telegrapher, with dwelling, light and fuel, main lines, $38; branch lines, $35. Agent and telegrapher without dwelling, fuel and light, main lines, $43; branch lines, $40. Telegraphers, main lines, $38; branch lines, $35. Relieving agents, who are on the permanent staff and are telegraphers, main lines, $30; branch lines, $28. (2) For the purpose of this rule, the following shall be deemed main lines: Portland to Sarnia, Suspension Bridge to Windsor; Komoeka to Sarnia, Hamilton to Toronto, Fort Erie to Glencoe, Toronto to Gravenhurst. DIED AT THE AGE OF 114. Albany, N. Y., Jan. 28.—The vital statistics department of the state board of health has received a death notice of a woman 114 years of age at the time of her demise. The name of the deceased is Margaret Fallon, and she died at Ledyard, Cayuga county. She was born in Ireland, and came to this country 44 years ago.

FIVE PEOPLE DROWNED. South Norwalk, Conn., Jan. 28.—Word has been received here of the sinking of South Norwalk of the steam canal barge J. C. Mustin, owned by George D. Gibson, of New York. Five persons are reported drowned, one of them a woman. Those lost were the captain, a Jersey City; Chief engineer Thomas Young and a deck hand, name unknown; the pilot, name not known, and Mrs. Helen Callahan, New York city.

LINGERED TOO LONG. New York, Jan. 28.—The family of George Brown, of Norwood, L. I., was awakened early this morning by fire. Mrs. Brown and five children got out, but the man lingered for a last search. When he attempted to go down by the stairs he found the flames had licked them up. He rushed to a second story window and jumped. His body turned as he fell, and he struck on his head, killing him instantly.

DIED AS HE LIVED. Helena, Mont., Jan. 28.—Tom Salmon, former president of Red Lodge Miners' Union, who killed Superintendent Connor, of the Rocky Fork coal mine, for discharging him, was hanged yesterday at Red Lodge. Salmon refused to accept religious consolation, saying that he "wanted no minister, priest, or skypilot to show him the road to heaven." His last words were: "If any on you follow my body to the cemetery do not uncover your heads and take chances of getting pneumonia. It is a barbarous custom." Salmon was a well-known labor leader in several Northwestern States.

IMMENSE ICEBERGS

In the Pathway of the Atlantic Steamships.

The Kaiser Wilhelm II. In Port With a Damaged Propeller.

St. Johns, Nfld., Jan. 30.—The British steamer Ulunda, at this port from Liverpool, reports immense icebergs 200 miles southeast of St. John, directly in the track of Atlantic shipping, and forming a serious danger to passing steamers.

Reports from along the coast indicate that the Arctic ice floes are traveling south rapidly, and a blockade of the eastern front of the island is impending. The first seals of the season have been observed off Cape Bonavista. The sealing steamers are preparing for their annual hunt.

New York, Jan. 30.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II., from Genoa, Naples and Gibraltar, came into port on Saturday with her propeller damaged. Capt. Hagemann reports having experienced very severe weather during the voyage. On Jan. 21, during a strong westerly gale and high sea, the steamer's propeller worked badly, and it was decided to slow engines and proceed at the rate of eleven knots an hour. During the remainder of the voyage strong gales were experienced, and the wind at times blowing with hurricane force, accompanied by heavy seas and a high swell. On the 25th the company's steamer Saale, from Bremen, for New York, was signaled, and requested to keep in company with the Kaiser Wilhelm II., should she need assistance. Fortunately her services were not required, as the damaged propeller gave no further trouble during the remainder of the voyage.

St. Johns, Nfld., Jan. 30.—The British steamer Todd, Warwick, 30 days out from Palermo for New York, with fruit and a general cargo, has arrived here. While in mid-ocean, on Jan. 20, she was struck by a hurricane. The ship was constantly swept by heavy seas, and the steering gear becoming disabled, she fell into the trough of the sea. Huge waves cleared the decks and carried overboard all of the four boats she had, battered down the bridge, swept away the rails, companionways, deck gear, galley, steering gear and compass, leaving nothing movable above decks. The fore bulkhead was started, and the compartment began to leak. The cabin companionway was also carried off, and the officers' quarters were flooded, and access to the deck impossible for a week. One seaman had a leg broken, and had his ribs broken also, and the other members of the crew were more or less injured. For a week the steamer was at the mercy of the gales, and was driven in this direction. Saturday she encountered another gale, in which she became so badly iceed up that it was impossible to start any of the anchors, chains, or mooring gear, and the steamer had to be berthed by tugs. The crew had been almost without food during the whole period. Captain Simm says he never believed his ship would live through the experience.

SAN JOSE SCALE DISCUSSED

Niagara Fruit Growers Express Their Views—A Committee of Inquiry.

St. Catharines, Ont., Jan. 30.—The annual meeting of the Niagara District Fruit-Growers' Association opened in the court house here this morning. The attendance was very good. Mr. William Armstrong, of Grimsby, president of the association, presided. Prof. Mills, of Guelph, was down on the programme for an address, but was unable to come owing to an attack of la grippe.

Mr. Charles Thonger, of Thorold township, read a paper on the "San Jose Scale." The paper was a lengthy one, and dealt with the whole matter ever since its discovery in this district. The discussion of the paper occupied the entire morning session. It was the general impression that the act was too stringent, as the scale is not as prevalent nor as dangerous in this district as it was supposed. Others thought that it was wise to leave the scale alone, as it was a safeguard both to the grower and the consumer. The scale was dangerous to allow to exist, and the prompt check given to its spread and the severe treatment used to exterminate it were commendable. The result of this work is shown in the entire extinction of the pest. However, many thought it would be unwise to slacken any efforts to completely get rid of the pest till there was not one scale left.

THE BEST REMEDIES FOR SCALE. Messrs. Bunting, Smith, Orr and Harrison were among those who spoke pro and con on the matter, giving notes from other stations, as well as from their own experiences. It was thought that the best remedy was to burn the trees. Mr. Thonger recommended a thorough washing of all the trees in the province at regular intervals. Mr. Orr thought that, while kerosene emulsion would surely kill the scale, it was very difficult to spray the tree in all its branches, and the emulsion could not be depended upon. Mr. Harrison thought that the number of inspectors should be increased. W. D. Smith, of

GIVES A VIVID ACCOUNT OF HOW

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

CURED HIM OF SEVERE KIDNEY DISEASE AFTER DETROIT AND ONTARIO DOCTORS FAILED.

THE DOAN KIDNEY PILL CO.

GENTLEMEN,—For a number of years I led a sedentary life, and was finally compelled to give up my situation on account of ill health. What was the trouble? Doctors disagreed as to my malady. I paid out hundreds of dollars in various kinds of medicines, consulted some of the leading doctors in Ontario and Detroit, but did not receive a permanent cure. It is true these physicians gave me temporary relief, but it was only for a while. I seemed to be growing worse all the time. Some doctors who diagnosed my case said it was dyspepsia of the bowels; others, that my liver was out of order. They prescribed, but no cure.

I eventually lost all faith in practitioners, and was about giving up in despair when I fell in with a fellow-traveller in the City of London, who insisted upon my trying Doan's Kidney Pills. I was sceptical,—told him that there was no use,—their remedies would be like all other patent medicines, a fake. He said, "try them," if they do you no good they will do you no harm. Oh! I said, that is the old story. I might as well burn my money. No, he said, one box will not cost you a cent, here it is. No, I said, I don't want you to pay for me. Never mind, he said, just try this box and if you don't get relief it is a sure thing that it is not kidney trouble that you have. I was so convinced that I was troubled with my kidneys that I grew angry. My friend left me one box. I felt like throwing it away, but on second thought I concluded that that would be ungentlemanly and wrong, so I tried the pills, and to my great surprise I found them doing me good. I bought 3 boxes for $1.25, and then I bought 3 boxes more. I used six boxes and have one left. I am now a cured man, sound and perfectly healthy. I now weigh 185½ pounds. Before I used Doan's Kidney Pills I weighed as low as 128½ pounds. What was the trouble? Kidney disease. What was the cause? I cannot tell you. My appetite was gone, lame back, pains all over me, loss of memory, and at times as nervous as a man with the D.T.'s. My urine is now as clear as water. I am an entirely different man, physically, morally and mentally.

My suffering in the past the most trenchant pen couldn't tell. If I had the vocabulary of a Daniel Webster, I could not relate the pain and suffering I endured for years. Fellow reader if you are troubled with kidney complaint, be persuaded,—try Doan's Kidney Pills—and just as sure as you are a sufferer you will be cured. I firmly believe that the worst case of kidney trouble in the world can be cured by Doan's Kidney Pills.

I only wish that I was possessed of a faculty of putting things in a more charming way, but the main thing I want to say is that once I was a diseased and broken down man, now I am robust and strong. I believe I owe—in fact I know it—my healthy condition at present to the healing power of Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's Kidney Pills will never die, but will be the means of saving thousands and thousands of our fellowmen from an early and premature grave if they will only have faith to give them a fair trial. I wish I only had the burning eloquence of a Demosthenes, and then I would fail in doing justice to Doan's Kidney Pills.

M. McLEAN KENNEDY, Ex-School Teacher.

TILBURY, ONT. From all over the Dominion testimony keeps constantly coming in, adding proof to proof of the power of Doan's Kidney Pills to cure Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Dropsy, Weak, Lame and Painful Backs, Gravel, Sediment in the Urine, Weakness of the Kidneys in Children or Old People, and all Kidney and Urinary Diseases and disorders.

Winona, said that the kernel of the whole matter was treatment or destruction of trees. So far in Canada no real proof of effective treatment in killing the scale were increasing, yet until it was better tested the treatment of trees must be considered as a non-effective remedy. The nurserymen were not anxious to see trees destroyed for the purpose of selling more, as many were not buying trees at all till the scale was eradicated.

EFFORTS OF GOVERNMENT INSPECTORS.

At the afternoon session Prof. Fletcher, of Ottawa, gave an address on the San Jose scale, occupying nearly two hours in an exhaustive review of the efforts of the government, through the inspectors, in endeavoring to stamp out the destructive fruit pest. There were several means proposed to treat the disease, for instance, fumigating the trees with hydrocyanic gas and spraying with a solution of 20 per cent of coal oil in water, but even these methods were not effective in some localities. They were found to work in California, but north in Washington territory they were less effective, and farther north, still less. He would not advise a recourse to spraying and neglecting destroying trees on which the pest has been found. The scale was not considered a first-class pest in California, as it was being cleaned out by some means by a parasite. The name of the parasite had not been learned.

Mr. G. E. Fisher, of Burlington, gave a short address on the work of the San Jose inspectors appointed by the government. Mr. Fletcher gave another address covering the question of spraying, showing its advantages. The speaker asked Mr. Fletcher to give the meeting some information on the treatment of fungi on pear trees and on the currant leaf. The answer to this brought Mr. Fletcher back to the question of spraying. His advice was: "Spray—the fungi on the currant leaf can be controlled by spraying." Mr. William Orr, spraying inspector, told of some of his experiences in spraying, showing that the curled leaf and other infection had entirely disappeared in some cases after liberal applications of a solution.

COMMITTEE TO GATHER INFORMATION.

The following resolutions were passed: Moved by Mr. Charles Thonger, seconded by Mr. W. H. Harrison, "That this meeting approve of the action that has been taken by the Provincial and Federal Governments during the past year for the location and destruction of the San Jose scale, and wish to impress on all those engaged in the work effort to do that will speedily destroy this dangerous insect. It is our opinion that insufficient help has been placed at the disposal of the inspector for a thorough and speedy inspection."

Moved by W. H. Harrison, seconded by Ald. Beattie: "That a committee composed of Charles Thonger, W. H. Harrison, G. D. Smith, A. M. Smith, W. H. Bunting, Wm. Armstrong and Ald. Thomas Beattie, be appointed for the purpose of gathering information as to the working of the present act, and any amendments, and to suggest improvements, and the advisability of the government appointing an arbitrator to act in the case of any person objecting to his infected orchard being taken out. A resolution of thanks to Prof. Fletcher was passed, and the meeting adjourned.

INDICATIONS OF SUICIDE

LOOKS LIKE SUICIDE.

Windsor, Jan. 30.—Suicide, and not murder, seems to be the generally accepted verdict in the case of Roderick McKenzie. Chief Wills inclines to the theory of suicide, because, so far as he can learn, McKenzie's money had been used to collect some indebtedness from him. The police say that if they could obtain a clue to the persons who spent Wednesday evening with him some light might be thrown on the affair.

Dr. Sanderson, who conducted the post-mortem, has declared himself as convinced that the old man's death was not due to apoplexy, and that a drug was used by him to end his life in the general belief. The gradual loss of his means, and the fact that he had lately given away articles of apparel and other things to friends, coupled with the belief that McKenzie realized he had not sufficient means to carry out his cherished wish to revisit his fatherland before his death, are all circumstances that tend to confirm the theory of self-destruction.

WEARY OF LIFE. Milwaukee, Jan. 30.—George McWhorter, for 30 years justice of the peace, committed suicide Saturday by shooting himself in the head. As justice he did a land office business, marrying couples from adjoining states. Despondency over defeat for the office he held so long is supposed to have led to his suicide. He was single and about 65 years old.

LEAPED FROM A WINDOW. New York, Jan. 30.—George Brown, a farmer living at Norwood, L. I., broke his neck in jumping from a window in the house he occupied with his family, and which had taken fire while all were sleeping Saturday. Brown's wife and five children escaped uninjured.

Fast, Scrappy Game

HOCKEY.

A FAST, "SCRAPPY" GAME. After over an hour of heavy stick wielding, some "scrappy" interludes, and lightning-like work in general, the London Seniors defeated the Woodstock hockey aggregation on Saturday night at the Princess Rink by a close score of 6 to 5. Those who saw the contest have no reason for complaint. There wasn't an uninteresting moment in it. "Scrappy" scenes at critical times tightened the tension of interest, and enthusiasm at many stages vented itself in the wildest demonstrations of the roughest kind of tactics on record, but as a matter of fact, London was not far behind in this respect. It appeared as if both teams were seeking a few scalp as well as hockey honors. But despite the heavy body checking and slugging, the teams at times worked nicely together, and made some pretty combination plays. Hockey and shinney are arranged on different principles, and when London takes to the latter they will not forget to arrange a match with Woodstock. Referee Macbeth understands his business, but he was too lenient with both teams, although he did lay off some eight men for short periods. Some of the visitors played viciously, and sent a number of the home team to the ice on deliberate "trips." The spectators said some nasty things about them, and appealed strenuously to have some of them ruled off. Speaking in general terms of the game, it was one of the fastest, and one of the roughest, witnessed this season. The players were in excellent form, and fatigue was hardly ever noticeable. The visitors were late in arriving, and the game was not called until 8:30, when the teams lined up as follows:

London. Woodstock.
Johns.....Goal.....McLurg
Reid.....Point.....Howell
Brown, capt.....Cover.....Wilkinson
Gilmore.....Forward.....Miller
Ewing.....".....McLellan
Hobbs.....".....Galloway
Westcott.....".....Brown, capt.

London got the puck, but lost to Woodstock, who made a rush and attempted to score, but Johns neatly saved a goal. The rubber was then sent dangerously close to the Woodstock flags, with the combined home team pressing hard. A struggle followed, which resulted in the puck being centered. Some hard scrimmaging and clever passing brought it again to London's defense, the visitors scoring on a rush, after eight minutes' play.

At the resumption of play London got an easy shot, but miscalculated. Woodstock resorted to slashing right and left. London followed with a spell of "shooting," but Woodstock kept the puck. Matters were suddenly changed, however, and Woodstock attacked, and soon sent the rubber through for goal number two. It was decidedly rough on the home enthusiasts to see their pets being touched up in this manner, but a change was in order. The home team forwards secured the rubber, and made some pretty passes, which resulted in Ewing scoring after one minute's play.

Both forward lines shone brightly in the next game. The puck was carried towards Woodstock's end, but Howard relieved. It was rushed back, and Brown sent it through for the visitors, after three minutes' play.

The match was quickly resumed, with London playing a remarkably hard, close game. They kept continually pressing the visitors' goal in splendid style. Brown and Hobbs took the puck down, passed to Ewing, who made a pretty shot at goal, scoring London's second goal.

The next game was a hard and even contest, and occupied seven minutes. Some lively scrimmaging took place, keeping the rubber well centered. Gilmore made a grand rush down the ice. Howell checked, but Hobbs put it through. This tied the score, and the rink fairly shook with round after round of applause, but when London followed with another goal in one minute's play, the crowd was wildly enthusiastic. Gilmore made a pretty shot, and the forwards rushed it through. Brown, of Woodstock, and Westcott, of London, were laid off at this point for heavy body checking, and Galloway and Hobbs were ruled off a few moments later for the same offense. Half time—4 to 3 in London's favor.

On resuming play in the second half, the teams showed that they were evenly matched. Woodstock tying the score in short order, on a clever rush by Miller and Galloway, and a pretty shot by Brown. Reid and Galloway were ruled off for heavy checking.

A face-off a couple of feet in front of London's goal looked dangerous, but a rush all together was effective, and sent the rubber to the visitors' defense. A clever bit of combination followed, and London scored.

The visitors pulled themselves together in quick style, and made a couple of sharp attacks, and after eighteen minutes' lively play had put it through the home team's defense, again tying the score.

London then struck a winning goal, and their forwards justified their reputation. The line of four went down the ice together in grand style, sending the puck from side to side, past Howell and Wilkinson, and when clear of these Ewing shot and scored, after two minutes' play. This ended the scoring, the game ending 6 to 5 in London's favor.

NOTES.

Sarnia next! The attendance was large. London has the best team in years. The visitors can out-skate London in speed.

It was anybody's game until the going sounded.

The visitors play a great game, and are very fast skaters.

Howell, the outsider, played a star game for Woodstock.

More enthusiasm was displayed than at any previous game.

Brown, captain of the Woodstock team, had his face badly cut.

Reid made some decidedly rough plays. He was ruled off twice.

Referee Macbeth gave general satisfaction. He was kept busy dodging the players.

Brown, of London, played a star game. His lifting and rush work were a feature of the game.

London's forward line—Gilmore, Ewing, Hobbs and Westcott—is a cracker-jack. They can't be beat.

Howell, who played with Woodstock, belongs to Paris, and has played with three different teams here this season.

AT MONTREAL.

Montreal easily defeated Ottawa in the championship hockey series on Saturday night by five goals to one.

AT WATERLOO.

The Preston woolen mills' hockey team journeyed to Waterloo Saturday and played a friendly game of hockey with the Waterloo woolen mills. The score was 8 to 2 in favor of Waterloo.

POOL.

KEOUGH THE WINNER. The final game in the pool match between Keough and De Oro, at Daly's Academy, New York, played Saturday night, was won by De Oro, who pocketed 189 balls, his opponent scoring 145 balls. The match, however, was won by Keough, the total score being: Keough, 900; De Oro, 813.

CURLING.

THE DETROIT BONSPIEL. It was early on Friday morning when the rinks included in the first draw for the Cadillac trophy reported for business, Glencoe and Windsor curling on the Canadian rink. Grand Rapids and Ridgeway, Embro and Pontiac, London and Petrolia were the others, and they curled on the Detroit rink. Toledo and Thamesville could not play in the first round until afternoon. Thamesville, London Forest City, Embro, Ridgeway and Glencoe were the winners, by the following scores:

Henshall defeats Seaforth. Two rinks of Seaforth curlers played two of the home matches in the Western League at Henshall on Friday night, resulting in victory for Henshall by 5 shots. Score: Henshall, Seaforth.

Chatham the winner. In the semi-finals, Glencoe not appearing, Thamesville defeated Ridgeway 12 to 4, and Chatham won from Windsor and Detroit by 19 to 10 and 12 to 11 respectively.

After the eleventh end between Chatham and Thamesville, the former was 8 up, and Thamesville, having no chance to tie Chatham in the round, the final score being: Chatham 13, Thamesville 5.

When the play began President Davis, of the Detroit Curling Club, presented the Walker trophy and eight gold medals to the winners of the prize, the Sarnia rink. Many neat and friendly speeches were made, expressing a strong desire for a reciprocity treaty with Canada.

Next Tuesday the contests in the division for the Ontario Tankard will be played at Windsor. The contestants will be: Detroit, Windsor, Chatham, Glencoe, Thamesville, and St. Thomas.

The Detroit Free Press says: "Skip Strong, of the London Forest City Club, performed the very remarkable feat of curling two stones in succession, the entire length of the rink, with the handles down. He explains the unusual incident by saying that his vice-skip, Davis, insisted that it was the only way to accomplish what he was playing for."

DETROIT FREE PRESS: The tallest curler of them all was Skip Davis, of the Pontiac club.

Skip Baxter and his men of the Detroit club won out in all their games except the final, in which they were beaten by a single shot.

The Thamesville club put up a game that made them dangerous competitors, and they were generally looked upon as winners of the first prize.

Great disappointment was felt over the failure of Stratford and St. Mary's clubs to show up, as they are experts with the stones and brooms.

The Embro curlers met with a succession of ill-luck during the bonspiel which is in striking contrast to the results by a side which made in the competition two years ago.

As showing the exigencies of the game, an unlooked for raise of a stone by Skip Mackenzie, of Sarnia, on the last end of their first game with Embro enabled them to win out by one shot and eventually carry off the first prize.

Skips McGibbon and Mackenzie, of the Sarnia club, owe much of their success in landing the Walker cup to their able assistants. Vice-Skip John Cheater, a veteran curler, played throughout the several contests with remarkable skill and reliability.

Skip Scofield, of Chatham, was the most generous curler attending the bonspiel. Not satisfied with the prospect of his opponents counting seven in one end, he gratuitously helped in the only stones Sarnia had outside of the ring, making it an eight end.

SKATING. RACES AT POUCHKEEPSIE. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Jan. 30.—National championship races here concluded Saturday afternoon, with two fine contests, one for the national championship at 10,000 meters, and the other at one mile for the Hudson River valley champions. Before the card was taken up there was a match race for the gold medal, offered by Manager Robinson, between Fred Hemmett, of Brooklyn, and George Hare, of New York. Hemmett had decidedly the best of it, and on the last lap Hare was dropped out of the race. Hemmett's time was 6:32 2-5. The 10,000 meters was the chief event of the afternoon. The Canadians, Pilkie and Drury, made a heroic effort to win the national laurels, but were beaten by a fast enough. By mutual agreement Thomas Gibb and Saeger paced the race to the last two laps. Then McClave, who had been trailing along in fourth place, and saving himself, made one of his phenomenal spurts, and went ahead of everybody. Thomas, Pilkie and Gibb dropped back with the bunch, while Saeger and Perkins forged ahead to the second and third places, finishing in that order.

10,000 meters, national championship—Chas. McClave, New York A. C. won; F. R. Saeger, West Point, second; Harry Perkins, Hamline, Minn., third. Time, 21:36. G. W. Brock, Tarrytown, N. Y.; N. D. Roosa, Newburg, N. Y.; James Drury, Montreal; George Sudheimer, Hamline, Minn.; E. D. Gibb, Newburg, and E. A. Thomas, Newburg, also started.

One mile, Hudson River valley championship—B. J. Thomas, Newburg, won; F. R. Saeger, West Point, second; F. D. Gibb, Newburg, third. Time, 3:12. Fred Hoffman, Cohoes, N. Y.; E. A. Kent, Cornwall; G. W. Brock, Tarrytown; Harry Galtbraith, Poughkeepsie; and O. H. Roosa, Newburg, also started.

JOHNSON'S RECORD. Montreal, Jan. 30.—John S. Johnson, who is here training for the Canadian skating championship races, skated a mile race, flying start and pacers, on Saturday, breaking the world's record by covering the distance in 2:32 2-5.

AT TORONTO. Before a crowd of 1,500 people in the pavilion, at Toronto, Saturday night, Joe Gans, a colored boxer, of Baltimore, easily gained a decision on points over Martin Judge, of Philadelphia, in the 20th round. In the preliminaries, Sam Chamberlain, of Toronto, met Jimmy Barry, also of that city, and the decision went to Barry in the second round. Bobby Thompson, Toronto, and Denny Gallagher, of Texas, fought a ten-round draw at 132 pounds.

AT NEW YORK. The Greenwood Athletic Club arena was crowded Saturday night, the attraction being a 25-round contest between Tommy Butler, of Brooklyn, and Jack Waldron, of Trenton, N. J., at 135 pounds. Butler was knocked out in the 20th round.

The six-round contest between young Dempsey and Al. Curran, resulted in a draw, as the bout between Tommy Burns and Billy Barrett.

DR. RADWAY'S Sarsaparillian Resolvent!

The Great Blood Purifier FOR THE CURE OF ALL CHRONIC DISEASES.

Chronic Rheumatism, Scrofula, Syphilis, Complaints, etc. (see our book on Venereal, etc., price 10c). Glandular Swelling, Hacking Dry Cough, Cancerous Affections, Bleeding of the Lungs, Dyspepsia, Water Brash, White Swellings, Tumors, Pimples, Blisters, Eruptions of the Face, Ulcers, Hip Diseases, Gout, Dropsy, Rickets, Salt Rheum, Bronchitis, Consumption, Diabetes, Kidney, Bladder, Liver Complaints, etc.

SCROFULA. Whether transmitted from parents or acquired, it is within the curative range of the Sarsaparillian Resolvent.

Cures have been made where persons have been afflicted with Scrofula from their youth up to 30, 40 and 60 years of age, by DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT, a remedy composed of ingredients of extraordinary medical properties, essential to purify, heal, repair and invigorate the broken down and wasted body. Quick, pleasant, safe and permanent in its treatment and cure.

Sold by all druggists. $1 a bottle.

Radway's Pills

Sick Headache, Female Complaints, Biliousness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Constipation and all Disorders of the Liver and Gallbladder.

True Comfort for the Aged and Others afflicted with Costiveness and Paralysis of the Bowels. Persons advanced in life often suffer from Indigestion, and from paralysis or inability to evacuate from the bowels; likewise from urinary difficulty. We have the evidence of a large number of aged persons, from 70 to 90 years of age, who have been cured of this defect (who were compelled to resort to injections to empty their bowels) by the use of Radway's Pills. Two or three pills every night, in all cases insure a natural evacuation from the bowels and a regular flow of urine. In cases where there is irritation of the bladder, the Resolvent should be used alternately with the pills. If these organs are kept regular, life may be extended to a much longer period. By keeping the Liver, Stomach, Bowels and Kidneys in a healthy condition, the blood will continue pure and disintegration checked. This great desideratum is within the reach of all by the use of Radway's Pills and Resolvent. Drastic Aloetic Pills, in persons of advanced age, hasten disintegration; irritate and wear out the bowels and coats of the stomach, destroy the absorbents, so that these vessels are incapable of assisting in the repair of the body's waste. If Radway's Pills and Resolvent are used by the aged, life will be prolonged to the full measure of time. Another great end is secured by nourishing the body with these remedies—the faculties will remain in a healthy condition. A weak feeble and decaying body enfeebles the intellect and clouds the brain.

Price 25c per box. Sold by Druggists or Sent by Mail. A. Westman & Co., 7 St. Helen street, Montreal.

Be sure to get "Radway's" and see that the name is on what you buy.

Weak and Run Down, With Heart and Kidneys in Bad Condition—Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I was very much run down, having been sick for several months. I had been trying different remedies which did me no good. I would have severe spells of coughing that would leave me prostrate. I was told that my lungs were affected, and my heart and kidneys were in a bad condition. In fact, it seemed as though every organ was out of order. I felt that something must be done and my brother advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I procured a bottle and began taking it. Before it was half gone I felt that it was helping me. I continued its use and it has made me a new woman. I cannot praise it too highly." MRS. SUMMERVILLE, 217 Ossington Avenue, Toronto, Ontario. Get only Hood's, because

DEATH'S DOINGS

Prominent Citizens Who Have Passed Away.

During the last few days the number of deaths in the city has been surprisingly large, and those who have passed to the great beyond are principally of very advanced years, whose death has been accelerated or caused directly by the dreaded grip.

MRS. J. P. ARMSTRONG.

Mrs. Armstrong, wife of Mr. J. P. Armstrong, the well-known blacksmith, died at the family residence, Queen's Avenue, yesterday morning. For ten years past Mrs. Armstrong had been more or less an invalid, but of late had enjoyed somewhat better health. On Tuesday she was seized with an attack of grip, and was unable to get up. She was respected by all who knew her and a large circle of friends will hear of her death with feelings of sorrow. Mrs. Armstrong was 64 years of age, and was born in 1845, near Toronto. She was married in 1865 to Mr. Armstrong, by the late Rev. Mr. Fletcher. For some time she was a resident of Alvinston, where Mr. Armstrong was engaged in business, before his removal to this city seven years ago. Mrs. Armstrong was a devout Episcopalian, and was confirmed at an early age by the late Bishop Strachan. She leaves a sorrowing husband, one daughter and two sons. The sons are: Wm. Armstrong, druggist, of Ontario; and John Armstrong, of Southwell. The only daughter is Miss Letta, whose care for her invalid mother has always been unceasing.

HUSBAND AND WIFE DEAD.

Sad, indeed, was the household of Mr. and Mrs. William McNeill, at No. 544 William street, on Saturday, and doubly sad yesterday. For 50 years did this worthy couple enjoy a life of domestic happiness, but the binding tie was severed at 5 o'clock on Saturday, when Mr. McNeill passed into eternity after a short illness with grip. He followed a few hours later by his wife, who died at 9 o'clock on Sunday evening. Both parents were surrounded by their family when the end came. Mrs. McNeill had been in feeble health for some time, and recently was taken ill with grip. A few days later she was attacked with the same malady, and grew gradually worse. On Friday Mr. McNeill, who was 76 years old, was informed that his aged wife was not likely to recover, and from that time he sank rapidly, and died at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. His death had a marked effect upon Mrs. McNeill, whose demise ensued a few hours afterwards, and a useful life of 75 years went out.

The remains of the late Alex. Ferguson, who died in this city yesterday from grip, aged 70 years, were taken to Petrolia today for interment.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Jane Davis took place this afternoon to Woodlawn Cemetery from her late residence, 418 King street, and was largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends of deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. M. Pedley, of the First Congregational Church.

The remains of the late Edwin Maitland were interred in the Woodlawn Cemetery this afternoon. The funeral (private) took place from the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. B. C. McCann, 422 Central avenue. Rev. Mr. Hill conducted the services.

The funeral of the late Mrs. M. H. Bird took place this afternoon to Woodlawn Cemetery from her father's residence, Trafalgar street. Rev. T. S. Johnston, of the Adelaide Street Baptist Church, conducted the services.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE WM. G. WILLIS.

The remains of the late Wm. G. Willis were interred in Woodlawn Cemetery this afternoon. The funeral took place from his late residence, 418 King street, under the auspices of Chorazin Lodge, L. O. O. F. The other city oddfellows' lodges, as well as the Sons of Scotland and the employees of the Hobbs glass works, attended in a body. Many private citizens also attended to pay their last respects to the departed. The services were conducted by Rev. Robert Johnston, of St. Andrew's Church, of which deceased was a valued member. Beautiful floral tributes were sent by the employees of the glass works, the Garcia Mining Company, the Oddfellows, and by many private citizens. The cortege was a very large one. The Oddfellows were members of the Oddfellows' order.

MIDDLESEX NEWS

The many friends of George S. Gratton, of the Dufferin House, Centralla, will be pleased to learn that he has purchased the property, for cash, from Sydney Hannah, who is now living in Alisa Craig.

Mr. Richard Hicks, of Centralla, had his leg broken on Tuesday, the 24th inst., through being thrown from a load of hay which he was driving, near Mooreville, and which swung sideways off the sloping, slippery road.

Mr. John Pincombe's house in Lobo was entered by as near thief recently and $120 in money was taken. There is no clue, but it is thought the thief is not very far away. Mr. Pincombe had sold some cattle on the previous day.

The West Middlesex Union Fair will be offered this year as follows: President, Henry Gough; first vice-president, Mal. Paul; second vice-president, R. F. Richardson; secretary-treasurer, D. Evans; auditor, F. J. Craig.

The many friends in London and elsewhere of Mrs. Murphy, of Wardsville, will be pleased to hear that she is home from St. Joseph's Hospital, where she has been seriously ill for two months, and hope to hear of her complete recovery ere long.

Mr. and Miss Armstrong, of Iliderton, gave a reception at their residence to their many friends on Thursday evening. Although it was very stormy, the guests were well welcomed. After a good oyster supper had been made justice to, the guests repaired to the parlor, where they passed the evening with games and music. Mr. John Knight and Mr. Fred Charlton favored with a few solos, and the evening closed with good wishes for the host and hostess.

Glenwillow L. O. O. F. No. 201 celebrated the opening of their new lodge room on Thursday evening by giving their friends a concert and supper. The hall, which will hold over 300, was crowded to the doors. The programme was a long and varied one, and did not conclude till the morning hours. E. T. Essery occupied the chair, and kept the audience in roars of laughter by his repartee. Addresses were delivered by Rev. M. Baritrop, Rev. J. E. Holmes, W. M. Wm. Kincaid, and W

WON AT LAST

"My dear lad, the kindest thing in the world I can do for her is to force her to marry you. She'll thank me for it, you see if she doesn't. Besides, what else am I to do with her? She hasn't a penny, as you know. By-the-by, Ernest, you needn't tell her the money is gone. She will feel so much more comfortable if she feels she has a little of her own."

"Very well, if you wish it; but I always think frankness pays best in the end."

"Not in this case. I couldn't bear it. There, run along to Vere, and mind I find everything settled when I get back."

And so, presently, Ernest found himself sitting near to Vere in her own dainty boudoir, and his heart beat high with hope and joy as he noticed how kindly she received him, and how the haughty look had gone from her lovely face.

"They talked trivialities for a few minutes, and then Vere said: 'My father told me he had asked you to come. I hope, Mr. Kerry, that you have given up that idea of yours about—about you know how that is—I can never love anyone else.'"

"I could be content without love—at first," he said gently.

"But—but we could not be happy."

"I don't see why not."

"Oh, you don't understand how I feel. I feel frozen up; all my life seemed to go when I heard that he was dead. I don't care for you or anybody else. I feel so weary, so indifferent. What prospect of happiness have you with a wife like that? How can you ask it?"

"Miss Chetwynd," he began, quietly. "You once told me that I persecuted you."

Vere put out her hand with a quick gesture.

"I was very unjust. Please, forgive it."

"Well, will you allow me to speak of this—just this once—sensible and quietly?"

"Certainly, but I don't see any use in it."

"Well, no. You are perfectly indifferent as to where you live and what becomes of you."

"Then you don't think it would be better to be living with a husband who adored you, rather than with people who didn't care about you?"

"Perhaps," Vere agreed, with a faint smile.

"You see," pursued the wily one, you would be making me so happy, for I'd rather have you, just as you are, with all your indifference to me—than any other girl who loved me passionately; and, as long as you are indifferent to all men, why not be kind to the one who loves you?"

Vere smiled again.

"You forget, Mr. Kerry, that I don't care for you, that I feel absolutely indifferent to you. What one-sided affair it would be. You would give me all and receive nothing. You would be miserably unhappy."

"I should be in paradise," the young man said, in a low tone; "if only I might see you every day. Oh, Miss Chetwynd! if only you would consent, I don't think you would ever regret it. I would do all in my power to make you happy—I would, indeed; and I wouldn't expect you to care for me. I should only hope for it in time, of course, but I wouldn't worry you. I really think you would be happier with me than with anyone else."

"I daresay I should," Vere murmured, only—

And then the door swung open, and Mr. Chetwynd entered.

"Well, is it all settled?" he asked, cheerfully. "I've arranged to sail in a month. Come, Vere, you've kept us waiting long enough. Name the day, my dear."

Her father's manner had the usual effect of irritating Vere, and she looked up to reply sharply; and then she caught Ernest Kerry's eyes fixed wistfully upon her with such tender intensity in their blue depths, that her own eyes softened a little.

In an instant he was beside her, whispering tremulously—

"Think of me before you say no. Don't throw away my love lightly; it means so much to me. Then aloud, he added, 'Will you die a day, Miss Chetwynd? Will you marry me before the month is out?'"

And Vere answered, wearily—

"Yes, if you like."

CHAPTER IX.

"My dearest, I want some money!" and Harry North spoke coaxingly, as he lounged down beside his wife in their cozy sitting-room at Monaco.

"More money?" she exclaimed sharply. "Why, you've had five hundred this week! You've been gambling, of course!"

"One must amuse oneself," he said, laughing. "Don't be cross, and he smoothed her fluffy hair caressingly. She jerked herself away, and her voice was very sharp as she replied: 'A little amusement is one thing—ruinous gambling like this is quite another! I shall not give you any more money this week, Harry.'"

"You won't," and his eyes flashed ominously.

"No, I won't," she repeated, obstinately. "I'm not going to see John's good money thrown away by a gambler. I've been very liberal to you, Harry, but one must draw the line somewhere!"

"I must have money—I owe it," he said, in a low, repressed tone.

"Then you must manage to pay it. I'm sure your allowance is ample; but I will not keep supplying you like this."

"Why, what do you suppose I married you for?" he asked insolently.

"For my money, of course," she retorted, coolly. "And you've had a very good share of it; but even my fortune won't last forever at your rate of spending."

"I won't ask you again, if you'll help me this once," he pleaded humbly, while he gazed inwardly. "I'm in an awful hole! Do help me, that's a darling!"

"And Mrs. North, who enjoyed the hold she had over her aristocratic husband, did, after a time, relent, and hand him a check.

"But mind, Harry, you must be careful for the future," she said, as she signed her name with a flourish.

"You've really been so extravagant recently, that, really I've been thinking of altering my will. Fancy poor dear John's fortune being left to you to squander!"

Harry laughed awkwardly, while a deep flush crossed his face. So she had left him her money. She had never said so much before.

"I'm going to lie down," said his little spouse. "You might, you know, be blind drunk for me, Harry, and give me my drops before you go out."

Her husband obediently followed her into her room, settled her pillow, darkened the room, and then turned to go.

"My drops, Harry," cried the fretful voice from the bed. "A wineglassful from the blue bottle. Be careful, there's poison there."

Harry started violently, but he walked with a tolerably steady step across the room, and poured out the antidote. He handed it to his wife, and she drank it off. Then he put down the bottle by her side and went softly out of the room.

He went to the bank and cashed the check, and then spent his afternoon at the fascinating green tables.

When he returned home for dinner he found the place in a commotion.

Mrs. North was ill—she was unconscious—she was dead—she had taken poison—she could not be aroused.

Such was the incoherent explanation he received from the frightened domestics as he entered.

"Have you sent for a doctor?" he asked sharply, of the pale-faced lady's maid.

"Oh, yes, sir! James went as soon as I found out. I did not try to rouse her until it was time for her to dress for dinner. If I had only known! Poor lady! She might have been saved. She was—"

At this instant the doctor bustled in, and Harry North followed him to his wife's room.

A few seconds were sufficient for the doctor.

"It's all over," he said. "She has been dead a couple of hours."

"What is it, doctor?" asked the husband, his face ghastly.

"Why, this!" the doctor sharply picked up a bottle and wineglass that stood beside the bed. "She's taken poison."

"But how—why?"

"Nothing simpler. She's taking some sort of medicine, isn't she? That—hum—ah, yes! Well, she goes to lie down, pulls down the blinds, picks up the poison bottle, drinks her fatal dose, goes to sleep, and—doesn't wake again."

"But she'd know the difference in the taste, sir," ventured the maid, who had crept into the room.

"I don't think she would," said the doctor, thoughtfully; "especially if she were not thinking about it. No, I don't think she would. It's most unfortunate, most unfortunate. Exceedingly sorry for you, Mr. North. Can I make any arrangements for you?"

Harry North gratefully accepted the offer, and the doctor made the necessary arrangements.

Poor Mrs. North was buried two days later. A simple white cross was put up to her memory, and her funeral, about two thousand a year—belonged to Harry.

He went off for a little trip to rest himself after his sad bereavement, and then turned his face homewards.

"England for England!" he said to himself, with a smile. "England and Vere."

HIS NARROW ESCAPE

How Dodd's Kidney Pills Saved Mr. C. S. Griggs.

Hamilton, Jan. 30.—A startling story is told by Mr. C. S. Griggs, carpenter, living at 151 Queen street south. Reputable citizens vouch for the strict truth of every detail.

Mr. Griggs endured the most agonizing pains for eight years. He was a victim of Bright's disease, and the best doctors could not help him.

Finally he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes cured him. Today he is sound and well in every way.

It is wonderful how many Hamilton people have been cured of Bright's disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills. They have never been known to fail in a single case.

A "conjurers" in India says she can change from woman to man and back again at will.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamilton & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Sold by all druggists at 50 cents and 51. Every bottle guaranteed. For sale by W. T. Strong & Co.

THE TEMPERANCE AND GENERAL

Life Assurance Company of North America.

Synopsis of the Thirteenth Annual Report, Presented Jan. 18 '99.

The report congratulated shareholders and policyholders alike on its marked growth during the year, in size, strength and public confidence, and its future outlook.

Receipts: We received in premiums $187,218 12, and interest $25,381 55, making a total income of $212,599 67, which was an increase of $17,531 69 over the income of 1897.

Disbursements: Payments to policyholders were as follows: Death claims and endowments, $43,978; surplus, surrender values and annuities, $8,259 24; dividends on stock, $3,000; and for taking care of old business and securing new business, $71,328 84, making a disbursement of $127,156 08 for all purposes.

Our ratio of death losses was again very low in both sections of our business, being in the Temperance Section only $3 90 per $1,000 of our average risk.

For the year in that section, we secured a much lower ratio of mortality of lives of total abstainers on our book; and in our general section 4.98 of average number of lives, $6 62 per $1,000 of average amount of risk.

We still claim an unequalled record for favorable mortality in our Temperance section, and put forth as our strongest plea for public support the fact that whenever a separate classification of risks, such as we make, has been maintained by any company in any part of the world, the total abstainers' section has always experienced a much lower ratio of mortality than the General Section, thus affording special advantages to total abstainers.

Through the exercise of rigid care and economy our outlay for expenses in connection with the management of all our affairs, including the securing of new business and caring for old business, exceeded the outlay for the same services in the previous year by only $714 23, although we added $39 to the number of lives on our books, $725,000 to the amount of our insurance at risk, $1,557 65, to our premium and interest income, $95,022 72 to our assets during the year.

Assets: The high character of our assets and our unparalleled experience in securing prompt and full returns of all interest, have been subjects of surprise to our large investors, and frequently commented upon only by them, but by the leading daily press and financial journals. We closed the year 1898 as we closed each of the four years preceding, without a dollar of interest due and unpaid, without having ever owned a dollar's worth of real estate, debt, foreclosure of a mortgage or purchase of any other company anywhere.

At the very rigid valuation put upon them, our assets amounted at the close of the year to $867,214 22, which was an increase for the year of $93,022 72, all our investments having been made with the same careful regard to security that has been exercised in previous years.

Liabilities: Our liabilities amounting in the aggregate to $643,408 29 consisted of the following items, viz., reinsurance reserve, $557,120 36; death claims, awaiting proofs, $2,000; premiums, paid in advance, $730 83; medical fees unpaid, $1,616, and allotted surplus unpaid, $1,941 15.

Being satisfied to follow the government standard in making the valuation of our policies, our liabilities would have appeared very much smaller than we have stated them to be in the foregoing figures.

New business: The object of the company has always been to build steadily and solidly rather than rapidly and less certainly. During the year 1,771 applications for $2,113,750 were received, and 1,673 policies were written for $1,953,250.

Total business: Our total insurance in force at the close of the year was $7,985,859 under 7,027 policies on 6,556 lives, distributed as follows:

In the Temperance Section $6,076,131, under 5,521 policies.

In the General Section $1,909,728 under 1,506 policies.

Our gains in insurance during the year were $603,055 in the Temperance Section, under 595 policies, and $121,988 in the General Section, under 117 policies, making in all a gain of $725,043 under 712 policies. This we regard as a very satisfactory increase in business, considering the limited territory we occupy, and the fact that no special effort was made or expense incurred to secure a greater volume of business.

With an army of over 5,100 total abstainers classed by themselves in our books, we were recommended to be an active advocate of our company, in his own interests and in the interests of the cause of temperance, which he represents, we should continue to make rapid progress even though exercising the most rigid care and economy.

The report recommended a dividend to policyholders and to stockholders on the basis as that of last year, and referred in complimentary terms to the influence for the company's good exerted by our Advocate (its quarterly journal), which has entered upon its fifth year of publication, and spoke in high terms of the work done by all its agents and officers.

The annual statements submitted to its meetings for 1897 and 1898 contain the following figures:

Insurance applied for, $2,052,100 $2,113,750

Insurance in force Dec. 31, 1897, 1898, 7,260,786 7,985,859

Insurance gained, 501,076 725,073

Number of policies in force, 6,314 7,027

Number of policies gained, 629 715

Assets, Dec. 31, 1897, 1898, 574,291 667,214

The full report and financial statement, containing full detailed statements which were unanimously approved at the annual meeting, and met with high commendation from Senator Cox and other prominent gentlemen, can be had on application.

For an explanation with any other company, which has been so much talked of by irresponsible persons, was not even referred to at the annual meeting. All the members of the old board of directors who were eligible were re-elected, and the places of those who were disqualified were filled by the election of Major Pellatt and Messrs. Robert Kilgour and E. R. Wood.

Well-Known Sarnia Man Dies of Blood-Poisoning.

Young Benedict Improving—Petrolia Topic Changes Hands—Accident to a Woodstock Man.

Fire on Thursday evening did $150 damages to Ryckman's bakery, St. Thomas.

The Petrolia Topic has again changed hands. Messrs. Reynolds and Kedwell are the new proprietors.

Rev. J. S. Conning, editor of the Christian Endeavor Herald, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church, Walkerton.

The Woodstock youth named Benedict, who was stabbed by his brother, is somewhat improved, but he is still in a dangerous condition.

The men engaged in cutting ice for the L. E. and D. R. R. at Erieau had a cold bath on Thursday. The ice gave way beneath them and let the entire outfit into the water.

The Woodstock Fire Brigade have decided to hold a benefit concert in the Opera House on Feb. 11. One of the attractions will be a comedy by Mr. and Mrs. Emerson. Local talent will also assist.

Elizabeth Hempswell, relict of the late Joseph Hempswell, died at her home at Ingersoll on Wednesday, at the advanced age of 83 years, 2 months and 14 days. Deceased was born in Devonshire, England, in 1810.

The annual congregational meeting of St. John's Presbyterian Church, Port Stanley, was held on Wednesday evening, the 25th, and the reports presented showed the church to be in the most prosperous condition in its history.

A Port Stanley correspondent writes: The Shenango was sighted off here Friday. A heavy northwest gale blew and she disappeared. It is supposed she was taken by the wind and drift ice down the lake. Later—The Shenango is fifteen miles east of here, fast in the ice.

Benjamin Hobson, an employee of the Anderson Company, Limited, Woodstock, got his hand caught in one of the saws while at work in the factory Thursday morning. The ends of three of his fingers were taken off, and a bad cut inflicted up towards the wrist from the forefinger. Mr. Hobson was taken to the hospital.

James W. Brown, a prominent citizen of Chatham, died Friday after three days' illness. He was worth about $60,000. He was in the habit of working wills every other day, so that it is not definitely known yet what he has done with his money. He has, however, expressed his intention of endowing a chair in Knox College, Toronto.

Thomas F. Doucher, a well-known resident of Sarnia, died at the general Hospital there on Thursday. Some time ago Mr. Doucher entered the hospital to be treated for an attack of one of his hands. This week an operation was performed, and the arm was amputated, just below the elbow. Blood poisoning set in, and death resulted. Deceased was employed on the Grand Trunk and was aged 46 years.

Alfred Wink, son of late James Langton, went to California on the 22nd of November last to visit friends. Word has just been received of his marriage in San Bernardino, on Jan. 20, to Bertha J., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Karn, also of Woodstock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. J. Taylor. The bride is a sister of Mr. John Soper McKay, of Woodstock, and both families are well known.

Sarnia Observer: An incendiary attempt was made to fire the barn of John Langton early Saturday morning. When Mr. Langton went to attend to his horse he was surprised to find a large hole burned in the barn floor, also the side of the building considerably charred. The fire had burned through the floor and dropped down to the ground beneath, and was still smoldering when discovered by Mr. Langton.

The death is recorded at Wingham of Hiram Lennox, from a gripe, after two weeks' illness. Deceased was in his 59th year, and had been a resident of Wingham and vicinity for many years, in fact he was one of the pioneers of the place. He conducted a carriage business there for a number of years, and had been engaged in several branches of business. He had been one of the councilors of the town on several occasions, and was a member of the local fire council. Deceased leaves a widow and family of two sons and one daughter, who will have the sympathy of the community in their affliction.

A gas explosion at the Goodison implement works, Sarnia, on Saturday morning, caused considerable damage to the company's property. In the blacksmith shops the forges are blown by patent blowers. Shortly after the fires had been started the machinery was stopped to adjust a pulley. During the temporary shut-down the fires got low and a quantity of gas accumulated, much so that when the machinery started and the blowers were put in operation a terrific explosion took place. Fortunately no one was hurt, but the windows of the shop—sashes and all—were blown out by the force of the explosion.

DISMISSED FROM THE U. S. ARMY

Gen. Egan Found Guilty of the Charges Preferred Against Him.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Gen. Egan, commissary-general of subsistence, has been found guilty of the charges of conduct-unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, and of conduct to the prejudice of good order and discipline, and of the specifications thereto, and has been sentenced to dismissal from the United States army, but with a recommendation from the court for the exercise of executive clemency.

Under the regulations, the court having reached the conclusion that the accused was guilty, had no choice in selecting a penalty, the regulations prescribing the one punishment—dismissal—for the offense. Therefore, the only hope for Gen. Egan in the direction of commutation, mitigation or disapproval.

Col. Davis, the judge advocate of the court-martial, finished his revision of the record of the court's proceedings Saturday afternoon and at once placed the papers in the hands of Secretary Alger. This action settled at once any doubt that may have existed as to the routine to be pursued in the treatment of the case. As for Secretary Alger, as soon as he has read the record he will place it at once with the president, who, under the law, is the final revising authority. It is his privilege to add to

LOST IN A SNOW-SLIDE.

Apex, Col., Jan. 30.—Three lives were lost in a snow-slide yesterday afternoon. The dead are Mrs. W. H. Rudolph and her two children. Snow has been falling almost continuously the past week, and has reached a depth of 15 feet on the mountain sides. The pack gave way yesterday, swept down on the Rudolph home and carried it away. Mr. Rudolph escaped, but his wife and three children were swept away in the avalanche of snow. A searching party rescued the 6-year-old son alive. The other three have not been found.

Please Send Your Bicycles for Repairs Now

Why, we respectfully urge this on cyclists is

1. That this is naturally the best time to give orders, as there is all the winter to carefully and quietly do the work and have it in fine condition for next spring.
2. That it saves all worry and haste, which all happens if things are sent at the last moment.

As we keep a special department and experienced hands on our own nickel-plating and enamelling, we can give you better work for less money than any other house in the trade.

Glorious News
Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health excellent." This shows that Electric Bitters have proved that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils, and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. For sale by W. T. Strong & Co.

A LOCAL BUDGET

—Miss Jessie McDonald, Pipe Line road, is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. P. O'Dwyer, and cousin, P. Finn, Detroit, Mich.

—Lieut. Broadfoot, who is attending Wolsey Barracks, for a short course, has been taken dangerously ill, and was removed to the city hospital the other day.

—Mr. John Dillon, of this city, has been re-elected one of the out-of-town trustees of the Commercial Travelers' Mutual Benefit Society. W. J. Hopwood was elected president.

—Capt. Fages, R. R. C. I., has arrived at Wolsey Barracks from St. Johns, P. Q., and has taken over Capt. Carpenter's duties, the latter intending to leave today for Fredericton, N. B.

—Lieut. Thomas Hay, of Paisley, has returned from a two and a half weeks' course in Wolsey Barracks here. He was successful in taking out a certificate, which qualifies him for the rank of captain of a company.

—Mr. Plunket Greene, England's greatest ballad singer, drew immense audiences at Massey Hall, Toronto, during the past week. Londoners may have the pleasure of hearing Mr. Greene before his return to the old country.

—Hospital Sergeant Copeman, of Wolsey Barracks, has left for Aldershot, sailing from Halifax, N. S., today, to take a course in hospital training, stretcher drill, etc. During Sergt. Copeman's absence the duties of hospital sergeant will be attended to by Sergt. Alex. Bethune.

—St. Thomas Times: The St. Thomas Dramatic Club has accepted an invitation from the Catholic Club in London on Monday evening, Jan. 30. Arrangements have been made for a party rate of 60 cents for the round trip, good returning separately, for those accompanying the party.

—Stratford Beacon of Saturday says: The basement of Knox Church was well filled last night with a very appreciative audience. They had the privilege of hearing one of the finest lectures ever delivered in Stratford. The lecturer, the Rev. W. J. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, London, has long had the reputation of being a logical and original preacher, whose sermons develop the spiritual life of the congregation. Last night he added to his fame by the masterly delivery of a word-painting which he adorned his subject. Genuine eloquence marked his address, whilst its effect on the hearers was inspiring and patriotic.

THE PLAN FOUND.

Friday and Saturday The Advertiser and another city paper contained an advertisement of a lost building plan. Saturday Miss Ethel Adams, 114 Colborne Street, handed it into this office, having read the advertisement in The Advertiser. H. M. Odeil, of Odeil post-office, called this morning, and was handed the plan. Again The Advertiser leads.

MUSIC LOVERS DELIGHTED.

The third of the series of twilight organ recitals given by Mr. W. H. Hewlett, in Dundas Center Methodist Church, was largely attended Saturday afternoon by a large number of music-loving citizens. Nearly 800 people were present, and were highly delighted with the excellence of the recital. Difficult but entrancing compositions of Mendelssohn, Gullmunt, Widor, Beethoven, and other classics were played by Mr. Hewlett in a most artistic and finished manner. Miss Lola Ronan, contralto,
