BRITISH ADD TO BIG GAIN OF SUNDAY

FRENCH REPEL MANY DESPERATE COUNTER-ATTACKS OF GERMANS

RUSSIAN TROOPS NOW FIGHTING TEUTONS INVADING RUMANIA

Bulgarians and Russians Are Fighting in Rumania; Slavs Are First to Score

Russians Are Battling Successfully With Bulgar Invasion of Eastern Rumania—Only Patrol Encounters on the Macedonian Frontier.

(Canadian Press.)

Petrograd, Sept. 5, via London.—Russians and Bulgarians are fighting in Rumania. The war office announced today that the first clash between the Bulgarians who have invaded Eastern Rumania and the Russians who went in to assist Rumania, occurred yesterday. A Bulgarian cavalry outpost was sabred by Russian cavalry.

QUIET IN MACEDONIA.

Paris, Sept. 5, noon.—Comparative quiet still prevails on the Macedonian front, the official French report of today says. There were no infantry engagements yesterday, although the artillery was fairly active, and various enterprises were undertaken by patrols.

THE BULGARIAN REPORT.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 5.—The first day's fighting on Rumanian soil, due to the invasion of Dobrudja by Bulgarians and Germans, is said by the Bulgarian war office to have resulted in the retreat of the Rumanians, who left hundreds of dead on the field. As previously reported by the German war office, the invaders crossed the entire Dobrudja frontier and occupied towns near the border. The statement, issued in Sofia on Sunday, says:

"On our northern front our armies on Saturday crossed the entire Dobrudja frontier, energetically driving back advanced detachments of the enemy. We occupied Kurtburnar after fighting, in which we took prisoner 163 men and 2 officers. The enemy retreated, leaving on the fields hundreds of dead as well as a great number of rifles and a quantity of material. One of our columns occupied Akkadunlar. The march forward is proceeding on the whole line.

"On the Macedonian front there was little activity. We repulsed weak attacks north of Lake Ostrovo and in the Moglenica Valley.

"A hostile fleet bombarded the fortifications north of Kavala. Enemy aeroplanes dropped bombs on the villages of Starovo and Hazuatar and on Angista station. Several inhabitants, including women and children, were killed."

HAIG'S ADVANCE SINCE SUNDAY ONE MILE DEEP

Falfemont Farm Was Captured by British Early This Morning.

NOW CONTROL THE RIDGES

British Hold Whip Hand on Entire Front Except at Ginchy.

With the British Armies in France, Sept. 5—Via London, 3:40 p.m.—Despite their determined counter-attacks yesterday, when they advanced in waves, shoulder to shoulder, in defence of this chosen strategic point, the Germans had to yield Falfemont farm this morning. The British had closed around it in the darkness and dawn found the survivors of the garrison raked with machine gun fire. In a hopeless situation, plastered with mud, after a night of cold and heavy rain, and having gone two days without sleep, they put up the white flag.

Now Past Ginchy.

Meanwhile a British battalion, finding little opposition, on its own initiative, pressed on through the mud and the shell craters and gained the edge of Leuze wood, which carried them past Ginchy, where the Germans are fortified amid the ruins with nests of machine guns.

The British gain since Sunday is more than a mile in depth. The Irish troops of the new army enlisted through the efforts of John Redmond and other Nationalist leaders, distinguished themselves by taking Guillemont. They rounded up numerous prisoners in dugouts and swept forward toward their objective with characteristic dash.

Command All Ridge.

As a result of two days' work, the British, in case they decide to make no further advance this year, command all the ridge of battlefront from Tiepval south, except around Ginchy. This means, as one English officer said, that the Germans would have to dance to our tune during the winter wnefendurther hrf through the winter.

ZEPP WAS DESTROYED BY BRITISH AIRMAN

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 5.—King George today awarded the Victoria Cross to Lieut. William Leefe Robinson of the Royal Flying Corps, for bringing down a zeppelin while the airship was approaching London Saturday night. The British official press bureau in making the announcement says that the cross was awarded to Lieut. Robinson for the most conspicuous bravery. Robinson, the statement adds, attacked the zeppelin under circumstances of great difficulty and danger, and sent it crashing to the ground a flaming wreck. Robinson had been in the air for more than two hours, and had previously attacked another airship.

TURKS RETREAT IN ARMENIA BURNING STORES AS THEY GO

Petrograd Reports Battles in Progress at Several Points in Armenia, the Caucasus and Persia.

[Canadian Press.]

Petrograd, Sept. 5.—Fierce battles are in progress in the region west of Ognott, in Turkish Armenia, says today's Russian official statement. The Turkish troops are said to be retreating hurriedly and are said to have burned their ammunition stores. The text of the statement concerning this action says:

"On the Caucasian front the attempted night attacks by the Turks on our position in the region west of Erzingan were repelled by our fire and hand-grenades.

"In the region of Ognott, fierce battles are taking place. The Turkish troops retreating, burned the ammunition stores which they had established on their position.

"Persia: The region southwest of the town of Sakkiz we are pressing the enemy."

BRITISH PUSH AHEAD; FRENCH HOLD GAINS; HUN ATTACKS FAIL

Haig's Troops Rush Beyond Guillemont Village for 1,500 Yards and Carry Strong Position at Falfemont Farm—Desperate Counter-Attacks Fail to Wrest Ground Gained by French on South Bank of Somme.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 5.—The official British announcement says that the fighting on the Somme since September 3rd has resulted in the capture by the British of the whole of the remaining German second line of defence on the battlefront from Mouquet farm to the point where the British line joins the French.

(Canadian Press.)

London, Sept. 5.—British troops in battles last night in the region of the River Somme in France, increased their gains in the neighborhood of Guillemont, says the British official statement issued this afternoon. The British forces pushed forward to 1,500 yards east of Guillemont Village and secured a hold on Leuze Wood.

STRONG POSITIONS CARRIED.

Further south a strong German system of defence on a front of 3,000 feet around Falfemont Farm was captured. The text of the official statement says:

"During the night we increased our gains in the neighborhood of Guillemont. In spite of the enemy's stubborn resistance and an unceasing deluge of rain, our troops pushed forward 1,500 yards east of Guillemont Village and have obtained a footing in Leuze Wood.

"Further south, after severe fighting, the whole of the enemy's strong system of defence on a front of 1,000 yards in and around Falfemont has fallen into our hands."

(Canadian Press.)

Paris, Sept. 5, noon.—Vigorous counter-attacks were made by the Germans north of the Somme last night in an effort to regain ground taken in the new drive of the French. The war office announced today that the Germans were repulsed with heavy losses.

The German assaults north of the Somme were delivered between Combles and Forest. South of the river unsuccessful blows were struck by the Germans east of Belloy. In these operations the French took 100 prisoners.

The activities of the French are again being hindered by bad weather, which prevailed all night over the Somme front. The French are organizing their newly-won ground.

FRENCH OFFICIAL REPORT.

Paris, Sept. 5.—The text of the French official statement follows:

"On the Somme front bad weather, which prevailed all night, hampered operations. Our troops are organizing themselves on the ground gained.

"North of the river the Germans delivered a strong counter-attack debouching from Andrelu wood, against our positions between Combles and Forest. Caught under the fire of our artillery and machine guns the assaulting troops broke up and flowed back to their starting line, having suffered heavy losses. The enemy made no further attempts.

SIX COUNTER-ATTACKS FAIL.

Paris, Sept. 5.—The capture of Soyecourt and Chilly by the French yesterday makes a total of 29 villages taken since the start of the offensive on the Somme front. The positions wrested from the Germans yesterday were powerfully organized.

At Barleux, one of the strongest positions on this front, repeated direct attacks were unsuccessful, and the French finally resorted to a turning movement, attacking to the southwest. The Germans counter-attacked no less than six times yesterday in a desperate effort to regain lost ground.

RUMANIA'S BLOWS HARD AND SWIFT; FOE WAS NAPPING

Austrians Had Not Time to Blow Up Bridges.

ADVANCE IS SLACKENING

Drive Into Hungary Slows Up Through Transportation Difficulties.

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, Sept. 5.—The advance of the Rumanian troops in the first five days of their campaign was considerable, and at some points was as much as eighty kilometers (about 48 miles), says a dispatch from Urgent under date of Saturday to the Petit Parisien. The forward march, however, now has been somewhat slackened because of the difficulty of sending revictualing convoys. Although the ground on the eastern Hungarian frontier was unfavorable for the Rumanians, the correspondent said, they were successful in their dash across the river, and now occupy the valleys.

Rumania's declaration of war, the dispatch adds, was so unexpected by Austria that only a few troops of the dual monarchy were on the Rumanian frontier, and these were not on guard when hostilities were begun. Half an hour before war was declared, Hungarian officers were drinking with Rumanians at a frontier railroad station.

Soon afterward a Rumanian outpost entered the station, took the officers as prisoners, and then captured quantities of materials. The Rumanian offensive was so sudden that the Austrians had not time to blow up bridges nor tunnels.

KINGDOM OF BOHEMIA STRONG FOR ENTENTE, NOMINALLY WITH FOE

Volunteer Legion Fighting for France in Champagne.

HUNS TAKE VENGEANCE

Whole Regiments Massacred for Showing Sympathy With Allies.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 5.—A special cable to the New York Herald from London says:

Bohemia, after Hungary, is the region to which general attention is turned in Europe in connection with the expected early disruption of the Austro-Hungarian empire. The censorship of the Allies has been rigidly exercised on news regarding Bohemia, and the attitude and actions of its inhabitatnts since the beginning of the war, and the censors of Austria and Germany were careful not to make them known to the world.

Bohemians With Allies.

News of a surprising kind is now being allowed to reach the public with regard to the very trying period through which the kingdom of Bohemia has been going. It is thus authoritatively been made known that a special legion of Bohemian volunteers was early enrolled in the French army for active service against the Prussians, that the legion has been giving distinguished assistance to the cause of the Allies, and that it covered itself with glory in the battles of Champagne and Artois. One half the effectives of the Bohemian legion, it is semi-officially announced, were lost in those conflicts.

It is further learned that the great body of the Bohemian people was not merely indifferent to the war, but that it was actively hostile to the war from the very beginning.

A Terrible Vengeance.

A terrible vengeance was taken by Austria on the Bohemians for the attitude which they adopted. Bohemian, or Czech troops, were charged with treason. Some regiments were decimated by the Austrians as a punishment, and two of the Bohemian regiments were massacred.

Officially, the kingdom of Bohemia is at present a belligerent enemy of the Allies. In reality, the Bohemians, who trace their descent from the Celtic tribe, the Boii, look on the cause of the Allies as their own cause, and they have already suffered much in order to further the success of that cause.

GREAT BRITAIN CONTROLS ALL NITRATE IN NORWAY

Cannot Be Exported To Enemy To Be Used in Ammunition.

[Canadian Press.]

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—Great Britain has purchased the entire supply of synthetic nitrate in Norway, thereby preventing exportation of this requisite in the manufacture of ammunition by Germany, according to a statement made here today by J. M. Humphreys, manager of a large British nitrate corporation, who is in San Francisco en route to Chile. Humphreys stated that he plans to put into operation at the nitrate fields of his company in Chile a new process for extracting and elaborating nitrate that will cut the cost of production in half.

BAYONET WORK OF HAIG'S MEN BROKE GERMANS

Long Scrimmage of Charge and Counter-Charge Won By British.

A WONDERFUL SPECTACLE

Waves of Enemy Attacks Are Finally Beaten Back by the British and French.

(By Frederick Palmer.)

With the British Armies in France, Sept. 4.—Via London, Sept. 5, 5:15 a.m. —A wonderful spectacle of war was visible today from a high point near the junction of the French and British armies. To the north lay a dark patch —the ruins of Guillemont—fringed by a wavelike, earthy line of old, second line German trenches facing Trones' wood, across a space of ten city blocks, which is veined liked a frog's foot, with trenches and runways the British had dug.

Prisoners in Dugouts.

For six weeks the British burrowed against the Germans over this shell-ruptured, budet-riddled field. Yesterday was a day for successful British effort through this Germar bulwark. The British artillery had not destroyed all of the deep dugouts, but the curtain of intensified shell fire kept the machine gunners down, and out of those dugouts after half an hour's work the British infantry turned out some six hundred prisoners.

Dig Themselves In.

A little farther beyond Guillemont, perhaps three times the distance from

HUNGARIANS DEPRESSED

Sitting of House of Magnates Resembled a Funeral.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 5.—The sitting of the Hungarian House of Magnates at Budapest on Saturday, when Premier Tisze explained the necessity of depleting Transylvania of troops in order to bring the Russian offensive to a standstill, telegraphs the Reuter correspondent at Berne, Switzerland, was marked by the utmost depression.

All the members were attired in deep mourning, the scarlet or purple birettes of the ecclesiastical dignitaries being the only touch of color relieving the sombre appearance of the House.

Owing to the difficulties of the internal situation, the correspondent adds, the Hungarian minister of education has ordered all schools in Hungary closed until November 1st.

Nice Clean-Up by Russians of Men and Guns

[Canadian Press.]

Petrograd, Sept. 5—Via London.—In the direction of Vladimir-Volynski, on the Upper Sereth, Volhynia, Russian troops, in battles lasting from Thursday to Saturday, captured 115 Teuton officers and 4,514 men. They also took 6 cannon, 35 machine guns and 4 mine throwers. This information was contained in the Russian official statement issued today.

LEOPOLD CONFIDENT TEUTONS WILL WIN OVER RUMANIANS

Hindenburg's Successor Says They Will Get Their Whacks.

[Canadian Press.]

Headquarters of the Commander-in-Chief of the German Armies in the East, Monday, Sept. 4.—Via Berlin, Sept. 4, and London, Sept. 5. — How little Rumania's entrance into the war worries those in command of the German eastern armies was indicated today when Prince Leopold of Bavaria said to the Associated Press correspondent: "The Rumanians have placed themselves in a very bad positon. They will get their whacks, you may be sure, and if others come in they will get their whacks, too."

Leopold Angry.

These words of the prince were in reply to a question regarding the possible or probable effect of Rumania's declaration of war. In replying, Prince Leopold dropped the friendly and almost benign attitude he had displayed throughout the interview—the first granted to a correspondent since his promotion to the command formerly held by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg. His eyes snapped almost angrily, his voice became hard and sharp. In a moment, however, he dropped this topic and returned to questioning his visitors about the trip they had just completed along the Russo-German frontier in the neighborhood of one of the most strategic points.

The prince's expression of complete confidence that Rumania would be defeated was in the nature of a climax to countless declarations of belief from other officers that Russia would never be able to effect any important break in the German lines.

BOMBED AUSTRIAN WORKS.

[Canadian Press.]

Rome, Sept. 5.—On the night of September 3, an Italian dirigible, according to an announcement made here successfully bombarded the Austrian military works at Lussinpiccolo, in the crown land of Istria. The airship returned undamaged.

GIVES PRESIDENT POWER TO HIT AT BRITISH

Amendment to Revenue Bill Bars Use of Mails If Desired.

Washington, Sept. 5.—An amendment to the renevnue bill, authorizing the president, during a war in which the United States is not engaged, to withhold clearance from all vessels which discriminate against American shippers; to withhold privileges from ships of such nations as withhold privileges accorded to other nations from American ships and to use the army and navy, if necessary, to prevent departure of offending vessels from United States ports, was adopted today by the Senate. An amendment of Senator Phelan of California was adopted authorizing the president by proclamation to deny the use of the mails, express, telegraph, wireless or cable facilities of nations which do not accord to Americans all facilities of commerce, "including the unhampered traffic in the mails."

"This amendment, it was declared, was aimed particularly at British interference with American mails.

The Chamberlain amendment, prohibiting admission of halibut and salmon into the United States, except when in bond from an American port, also was adopted. The amendment is directed against Canadian fisheries on the Pacific and to urge development of United States fisheries there.

HOW WAR IS GOING ON VARIOUS FRONTS

London, Sept. 5.—The battle of the Somme has now reached the high pitch of violence. Against the concentration of picked German troops the French and British are striking blow after blow in what appears to be a supreme effort to force a way through the German line. London today announces further substantial gains at two points north of the sector of 12½ miles, over which the French advanced yesterday.

Germans Desperate.

The Germans are not yielding their carefully-organized positions without desperate resistance, and the fighting among ruins of villages and over desolated farm lands is unceasingly severe, with heavy losses on both sides. Last night the Germans launched a number of vigorous counter-attacks, but the French war office reports they were beaten with heavy losses to the attackers. The battle is being carried on under the most unfavorable weather conditions. The British made last night's charge in a deluge of rain.

29 Villages Taken.

Since the beginning of the Somme offensive, 29 villages have been captured by the Allies, each of them powerfully organized. In an effort to regain Barleux, one of the strongest of these positions, the Germans yesterday made six counter-attacks.

In Eastern Rumania the first clash has occurred between the Bulgarians who have invaded Dobrudja, and the Russians, who went in from Bessarabia to assist the Rumanians. Petrograd announces a Bulgarian cavalry outpost was sabred by Russian cavalry. An official Bulgarian account of the invasion says that on the first day the Rumanians were driven back, leaving hundreds of dead on the field, and that two villages near the frontier were occupied.

The Battle for Kovel.

The heaviest fighting on the eastern front is now under way in the region of Vladimir-Volynski, southwest of the important railroad centre of Kovel. The Russian war office announces that in this sector more than 4,500 prisoners were taken from Thursday to Saturday. This number evidently is included in the total of 19,400 men taken on the whole front between Thursday and Sunday, as reported yesterday by the Russian war office.

In the Carpathians, Russian troops are still pressing forward toward the Hungarian frontier. Petrograd reports the capture of several more mountain heights. In the Caucasus, the Russian communiacation says, fierce fighting is in progress. In the region west of Ognott the Turks were compelled to retreat hastily.

DEFENCE COMMITTEE TO AROUSE GREEKS AGAINST BULGARS

No Intention to Alter Constitution, Says Provisional Government.

[Canadian Press.]

Athens, Sept. 5—Via Paris, 1 p.m.—The committee of national defence, which took over the administration of the portions of Northern Greece in which the revolutionists gained control, has issued a proclamation in which it declares it does not desire to alter the constitution but merely to cause the nation to rise against the Bulgarians who have invaded Greek Macedonia. The committee also announces its intention of establishing a sanitary service, a press bureau and court martial.

SYNAGOGUE WILL REPLACE GERMAN CHURCH IN LONDON

Lutheran Edifice Purchased by Jews.

FIGURED IN LAWSUIT

War, However, Was Primary Cause of Congregational Decline.

St. Paul's German Evangelical Church, which was closed as a result of the disbandment of Germans as a body after war broke out, was this morning sold to Benai Israel Synagogue, a Jewish religious organization which now has its place of worship on Richmond street.

The price paid was $6,000, and a large congregation of Jewish people will take possession at once. The church is regarded as one of the finest smaller edifices in the city, and many people of German extraction attended worship there until after the war. The pastor of the church left, and the congregation, anxious to prevent charges of perpetuating German institutions in this country, quickly fell off. Students were brought in to keep the congregation together without success. The church fell into the hands of the mortgagors, and the transfer of deeds was arranged.

Litigation started by the German Evangelical Synod of North America against the local church brought the congregation into the limelight again a few months ago. The American body claimed heavy damages from the local church for breaking away from its jurisdiction and for money advanced.

The action was tried in the assize court here and dismissed. Since that time several bids have been made for the churc building. A Greek priest came here from Buffalo to form a parish among the local adherents of the Greek Orthodox faith, and was to have taken over the church. This option fell through, however, and the Jewish congregation purchased it.

AMERICA WATCHES JAP-CHINESE CRISIS; FEAR FOR RIGHTS

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, Sept. 5.—Close watch is being maintained by diplomatic officials here over the newly threatened crisis between Japan and China growing out of the recent clash of the two nations' troops at Cheng Chiatun. Considerable fear is felt that the rights of the United States in China may be affected, in view of the reports which say Japan has made other demands than those published yesterday in dispatches from Pekin, and that the secret negotiations threaten Chinese rule throughout inner Mongolia.

PTE. FREDERICK CARFRAE WAS KILLED IN ACTION

London Man Had Been Reported Missing Since June 2.

Reported missing on June 2, only Saturday was word received in the city that Pte. Frederick Carfae of 5½ Hamilton road, had been killed in action. A letter from a chum to Pte. Carfrae's parents states that he was hit by one of the bigger shells during the action of June 2. No trace of him was found. After the message reporting him missing no official word was sent regarding his fate.

He belonged to the 33rd Battalion, and went into action with part of that unit. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carfrae, reside at 103 Briscoe street. One brother is sergt.-major in the 135th Battalion. Two other brothers and two sisters also reside in the city.

LONDON A. M. C. DOCTOR SERVING IN GREECE

Capt. George Aitken Volunteered and Was Accepted For Special Service There.

Word has been received that Dr. George Aitken of this city, who went overseas recently with the Ontario Government Hospital Corps, now located at Orpington, England, was among those who volunteered and were sent to Salonfki for special service. Dr. Aitken has arrived safely in Greece.

Dr. Aitken, a graduate of Western University, was for a time medical officer of B, the London company of the 135th (Middlesex) Battalion when that battalion was quartered in London last winter. He resigned that appointment when selected to go overseas with the Ontario Government Hospital, in which he held the rank of captain.

Capt. Aitken is now attached to No. 4 Canadian General Hospital, a Toronto University organization that has been serving in Saloniki and in the Balkans for some time.

Activities in the Balkans and at Saloniki caused a greater demand on the medical services, and volunteers from English hospital appointments were called for. Capt. Aitken was one of those who responded, and was immediately transferred to the British base at Saloniki.

MAJOR H. MADDEN RETURNING.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 4.—Word has been received in St. Thomas by friends to the effect that Major Harry Madden has been given his discharge, being pronounced physically unfit for active service abroad.

Major Madden went overseas with the 91st Battalion, being in command of "B" company.

Prior to joining the colors Major Madden conducted a tailoring establishment in this city, but immediately after enlisting disposed of his business. The major will return to Canada in a few weeks.

Farmers cannot afford to erect wooden barns, as the Metal Shingle and Siding Company, Preston, Ont., can supply material above the floor line for a patent steel truss barn 36x56 for $1,000, and six men can erect it in ten days' time.

The steel truss barn is practically lightningproof and fireproof, and as it has no cross timbers is most economical in handling the crop.

Sample of this barn and ready-made implement buildings will be on exhibition at London Fair this year. b

LETTER COMES FROM DEAD LONDON SOLDIER

Was Written Day Before Pte. Joe Walsh Fell in Action.

Written the day before he was killed in action, a letter from Pte. Joe Walsh, late of the 70th Battalion, was received on Monday. It was dated "Somewhere in France," August 20. The next day the young East London boy was killed, according to the official casualty list and telegraphic advices sent to his father, Edward Walsh, 141 Sackville street.

In this letter, Pte. Walsh referred to the fact that he was still weak from the effects of trench fever that had sent him to hospital some time before. He inclosed a piece of fern picked from the British trenches and also a piece of a German great coat.

"SIR SAM'S OWN" ORDERS ARE ON PAR WITH SAM HIMSELF

Considered Most Remarkable Yet Appearing.

NO DETAILS LACKING

Theatrical Effects, Praise and Unique Ideas Abound in New Brunswick Unit.

Quite the most remarkable set of battalion orders that have come to the notice of military men in many a long day appear as a reprint in a military publication this month. They are the original orders of the 236th Battalion, the New Brunswick Kilties, fondly termed "Sir Sam's Own."

For wealth of theatrical detail, for numbers of honorary colonels and patrons, for length and breadth and thickness, these orders are unique.

Col. Sir Max Aiken and Col. Hugh A. McLean, M. P., are the honorary colonels, while the Hon. and Mrs. J. D. Hazen are patrons. The social end of war is well taken care of. Following these highly-important details, further particulars are given concerning the commanding officer, Lieut.-Col. Percy A. Guthrie, the junior officers, the uniform, tartan, badge, etc., The watchword has not yet been adopted, but it is expected to be fitting.

One Hundred Pipers Provided.

One hundred pipers are provided for, so that the kilties will not require the inspiration of Sir Sam's personal presence on the field of battle. Photography will become a fine art in the unit, as each man will be photographed as soon as enlisted. This should be an aid to recruiting.

As kilts are not provided by the Government the fact serves a san inspiration for an idea that should prove exceedingly popular among a class of men who are noted for the frigidity of their extremities. Men who for business or other reasons do not find it convenient to go themselves to the front are enabled to fight by proxy. All that is necessary is that they supply a uniform for some more venturesome individual, and so long as he remains at the front the purchaser is represented there and, of course, is doing his duty. The arrangement has been very favorably commented on.

Real Stage Manager.

A most remarkable recruiting campaign is next fully dealt with. A competent stage manager is evidently one of the fixtures of the unit, as it is proposed to light beacons on the five highest summits in New Brunswick, simultaneously, while at various strategic points in the province lassies will recite warlike poetry.

Next comes the graphic, bloody details of a sham battle which is to be staged some time before the unit goes overseas. Nothing is missed. Dirigibles, aeroplanes, bombs, mines, trenches, all that goes to make up a properly-conducted modern battle, will be present.

At this stage, the publication runs short of space, and many other delectable adventures are left to the imagination.

Truly, "Sir Sam's Own" will be a wonderful organization, well worthy of the illustrious chieftain after whom it was named.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS GROW.

SARNIA, Sept. 4.—Customs receipts at this port show an enormous increase over last year. The July receipts for this year were $88,061.55. August eclipsing that mark by $50,927.80.

GOT DIARRHOEA FROM DRINKING BAD WATER.

HAD TO GIVE UP WORK.

Mr. H. M. Ryckman, Port Rowan, Ont., writes: "Last year I was out in Saskatchewan. The water was very bad, and I was taken with diarrhoea. In a few days I was in such bad shape I had to stop work. I got a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and had only taken a few doses when it was stopped, and I was soon able to go back to work again."

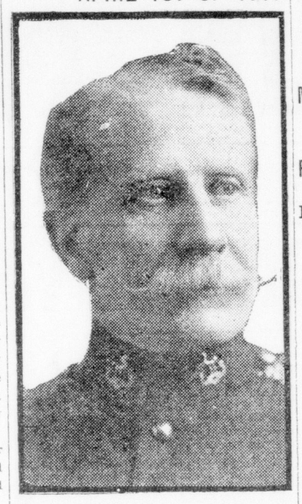

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past seventy years, and has had such great success in curing all bowel complaints that many firms have undertaken to provide a substitute for it, even going so far as to use a similar name.

Do not be led into taking a substitute for "Dr. Fowler's," but insist on getting what you ask for.

"Dr. Fowler's" is safe and sure, but by taking some of these rank substitutes you may endanger your life.

"Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 35c.

STILL HOPING TO KEEP BATTERIES FOR FAIR

Advance Parties Have Left, But 63rd and 64th May Remain.

No permission to keep the 63rd and 64th Batteries in London for the military celebration during Fair Week has as yet been received. On Sunday afternoon the advance parties, consisting of fifteen men from each of the batteries, left for the eastern camp. Lieut. Kenneth Gunn went in charge of the detail from the 63rd, while Lieut. S. G. Alexander went in command of the party from the 64th.

The telegram ordering the move to Petawawa is somewhat indefinite as to the exact date, and Col. L. W. Shannon is still hopeful that he will be able to retain the batteries for the big day.

MAJOR W. N. ASHPLANT, FORMER CITY ENGINEER, WHO HAS BEEN WOUNDED

Relatives received official notification yesterday that Major W. N. Ashplant, who went to France recently, was wounded in the ear and in the neck. The telegram states that he was in the field hospital. It is presumed he was struck by pieces of shrapnel and that his wounds are not serious.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT SAYS GOOD-BYE TO SOLDIERS IN CANADA

Makes Thorough Inspection of Camp Borden.

FOREGOES SHOW PARADE

Emphasizes Importance of Discipline and Praises Canuck Valor.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

CAMP BORDEN, Sept. 4.—With a soldier's interest in the training of soldiers H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught observed every detail of the instructional work being done here, in a tour of inspection of the camp today, during which he traveled 25 miles by automobile. He saw no ceremonial review, but he did see the troops engaged in actual hard preparation for service at the front, and he declared to the officers afterward, "I would rather see you at work."

It was his first visit to Camp Borden and it will be his last as governor-general. He announced in his speech at the close of the day that it would be his last appearance on parade with the Canadian military forces before his departure for England.

Duchess Also Present.

The royal party, consisting of Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Col. Stanton, Major Duff and Miss York, lady-in-waiting, arrived here at 10:30 this morning.

They were met at the station by Major-General W. A. Logie and members of his staff, and were received with a royal salute by a guard of honor from the 173rd Highlanders, which was commanded by Capt. A. R. Bell, and the color party of which was headed by Lieut. Wattam.

Having inspected the guard, the duke at once commenced his tour of the training ground. He examined with interest the trenches, held by the 114th Haldimand and 133rd Norfolk battalions, and watched a detachment of the army medical corps attending to the imaginary wounds of a patient in the advanced dressing station. Thence he proceeded to the district bombing school where grenades of various sizes were exploded and a small trench mortar was in action. He witnessed an interesting exhibition of bayonet fighting and physical training by the 147th Grey Battalion commanded by Lieut.-Col. G. F. McFarland.

Visits the Hospital.

After pausing to observe the passing of the 198th Buffs Battalion, he went to the camp stationary hospital, where he chatted with patients as he walked through the tents, and then proceeded to the dental clinic. In the afternoon he visited the rifle ranges to see the practice with rifles and with machine guns, saw bodies of troops at work in the brigade areas, and penetrated to the most distant parts of the camp property.

Well Pleased.

Finally, he returned to the place where the officers were drawn up in hollow square before a small platform, there he delivered an address. He spoke first of the pleasure it had given him to visit Camp Borden.

"I have not seen you on ceremonial parade," he said. "I thought you had enough of ceremonial parades, and I would rather see you at work. I have been all over the camp, and have seen the troops at all the different branches of instruction, and was well pleased with all I saw."

His Royal Highness said that not nearly as much detailed instruction was given the troops of overseas forces a year ago as at present. He had now visited all the camps in Canada, and had been much struck with the excellent and up-to-date instruction given to all ranks. What had pleased him most was the endeavor of the officers to instruct the men to the best of their ability. Their sympathy with their men and their desire that the soldiers under them should get on in their military work. The duke emphasized the importance of the example set by the officers in an army, and the value of discipline.

Discipline Everything.

"To discipline," he said, "we owe everything. Without discipline we should not be able to make the steady progress we are making against a highly organized, highly trained, intelligent, disciplined army like that of the Germans." Canadians at the front had shown magnificent discipline and gallantry. "Many of you," said His Royal Highness, "will soon be going to the front, and I am sure you will emulate those who have gone before you."

The duke said the occasion was the last on which he would appear on parade in Canada during his term of office as governor-general. "It is with the greatest regret," he declared, "that I say good-bye to my comrades of the Canadian service. I wish them every possible happiness, and hope that they may cover themselves with glory at the front." He congratulated Gen. Logie, the staff and other officers upon the work they were doing. In closing he called for three cheers for the King. These having been given Gen. Logie called for cheers for His Royal Highness. Finally the brigade officers were presented to the governor-general, and the ceremony ended. The royal party then took their leave.

BAYONET WORK

second base to the home plate, is a sunken road, at the north end of which is another patch, the ruins of Ginchy, where the fighting between Briton and German surges back and forward, between barricades and cellars, and any kind of cover that the men can throw up out of the debris. The British seem to be firmly established in the sunken road. All night they were digging themselves into holes there. This was just as much their objective as second base is to a baseball player who has just made a two-base hit. If they tried to go further because the going was easy, they might be put out. At the southern end of the sunken road is a fingerpoint in the green Wedge wood and below this lay Falfemont farm, where the British attack stopped yesterday.

Bayonet to Bayonet.

Here the Prussian guard left their trenches to meet the British attack half-way. Thus they came bayonet to bayonet. The big guns could send no shells, the machine guns no bullets for fear of hitting their own men. All the machinery of war, with its missiles which killed men at long range, formed a ring around these combatants, who fought virtually for extinction with cold steel. Today, around Falfemont farm, the picture was intimate, yet incomprehensible to observers in its ebb and flow of attack. The contrast between Prussian and British methods stood out as in a panorama. The British charge, moving up with each unit, seeming to act for itself and yet keeping its formation, and then the German counter-attack in a regular wave followed by another, dipping with the undulations of the ground. Figures in the first wave began to drop as the British machine guns started to rattle, and yet the second wave came on in a way that made a British officer, with characteristic sportsmanship, exclaim: "Magnificent! 'Topping!'" The second wave melted on the ground where the first wave had disappeared.

A Confused Scene.

But the results were confused. An observer could only tell that charges were met by counter-charges, while machine guns in hidden places waited for their game with their murderous blasts. It could not always be told whether figures leaving the trenches were men retreating or prisoners under escort. Fast-running figures from both sides to their rear, were either messengers bringing back word of the situation, to their commanders, when all other signals failed to work, or they were running to get more bombs whose puffs of smoke were visible here and there. Whether these gallant fellows would get through without being hit was the question.

Most of the time they were lost to view in the midst of shells bursting. Sometimes British litter-bearers took Frenchmen, while French took Briton, and groups of British cheered the French after their successes of yesterday.

Have Germans Guessing.

Gen. Foch's steel-throated orators were busy down there in the green lowland of the winding Somme, where shrapnel smoke lay soft against the foliage, fresh from the night's rain, and across the Somme as far as the eye could see ran this canopy of flashes from tiers of guns that seemed to answer in their regular firing to the touch of some master-hand. Nearer and near of Peronne that swath of fire moved with every battle.

"The Germans did not know how many guns Father Joffre had up his sleeve," said a French soldier, "and Gen. Foch knows how to use them."

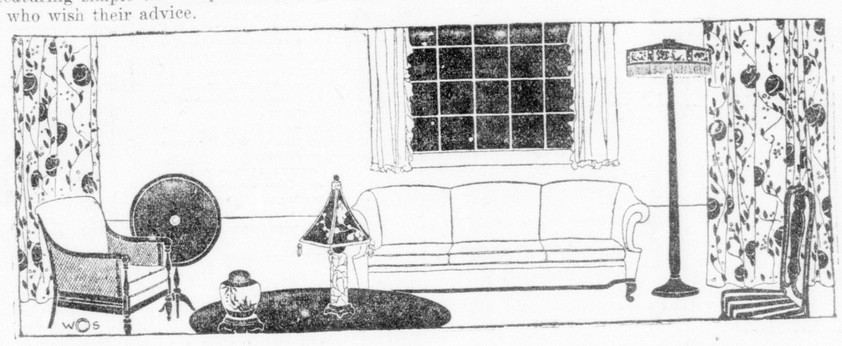

As indicative of the enormous gunfire a British officer estimated that the Germans fired 10,000 gas shells in one day. Tonight the official reports are that the Germans still hold Falfemont farm after the afternoon's scrimmage of charges and counter-charges.

IN POLICE COURT

TOO MUCH FIREWATER.

Alfred Wawash, an Indian, pleaded guilty to a breach of the Indian act by having in his possession one large quart bottle of "firewater" marked "83."

"I have no other course but fine you $25 and costs, or in default of payment one month in jail," said his worship in giving judgment in the case.

GOT FIGHT, ALSO FINE.

John Keelike, a soldier, and George Keeman, a civilian, appeared both charged with disorderly conduct.

Keelike claimed Keeman followed him and insisted on a fight, with the result that both were arrested.

A fine of $3 and costs each, or 15 days in jail was imposed.

THIS WAS "PORT" WHISKY.

Allen DeGroat, whose name appears on the prohibitory list, drew a fine of $10 and costs or 21 days in jail.

"I had only two drinks of Port Stanley whisky, so I couldn't have been very bad," said DeGroat.

"It's some whisky they must have at Port," commented the magistrate.

BACK AGAIN.

Dan Curtin not satisfied with being in court last week on a charge of drunkenness appeared on the same coupt again this morning.

"Five dollars and costs or 15 days," said Magistrate Judd.

WENT TO HIS HEAD.

Alex. Lawler, charged with being drunk and disorderly, pleaded guilty, but qualified his statement by saying it was the first drink in three months and it "went to his head."

His disorderly conduct consisted in abusive language towards his wife.

With a promise to quit for good he was allowed to go with the payment of his fine.

WEEK-END VISITOR.

Charles Delmater, a St. Marys barber, who makes regular trips from the Stone Town to the city, was fined $5 and costs or 15 days in the county jail.

"You're a regular 'week-ender,' and you usually get away on Sunday morning before I get a chance to deal with you," said his worship.

Delamater some weeks ago took a nap in Thames Park and went away and left his hat, coat and spectacles, which led to a story that he may have been a victim of foul play. The mystery was cleared up a few days later by Delamater appearing in his home town.

SECOND APPEARANCE.

Hugh Walsh made his second appearance in two weeks today charged again with being drunk. A fine of $5 and costs or 15 days was the penalty imposed.

WASN'T CHILDREN'S EXHIBITION.

Each paid a fine of $3 and costs for their "exhibition."

ALLOWED TO GO.

Francis Hutchinson, charged with cruelty to animals, was allowed to go, insufficient evidence being presented to convict.

SILAS HEMMINGWAY DEAD.

He lived many years in Malahide as a farmer, and retired here twelve years ago. He leaves a widow, a son, Harold, of Salt Lake City; a daughter, Helen, at home. Mrs. Clinton Van Patter of Dunboyne is a sister.

The funeral will take place Tuesday at 3 p.m. to Aylmer Cemetery.

USE PETITIONS TO GET "VOTES FOR WOMEN"

Equal Suffrage Leaders Take Cue From "Committee of 100."

BIG CAMPAIGN STARTS

Franchise Association Has Prepared for Provincial Canvass.

ASKING MEN TO SIGN

Special Petition for "Mere Men" Included in Fight for Ballot.

During the time that the Governments of Western Canadian provinces have been leading the way in the Dominion in passing measures granting the privileges of the franchise to women citizens, not even a squeak which might be interpreted "votes for women" has been heard in "good old conservative Ontario."

But this doesn't mean that the women of Ontario, who in the past have been actively identified with the suffrage movement, have been sleeping. They have been simply biding their time and giving their wholehearted attention to the pressing business of each day as it came.

In the meantime, they have been doing some planning, with the result that they have a full-grown campaign ready to launch on a public taken practically unawares.

Plan Dual Petitions.

Perhaps it is that they have been encouraged by the success of the "monster" petition presented by the Commitee of One Hundred to the Legislature last winter, and the resultant success in the banishing of the bar. In any case, the Ontario Equal Franchise Association proposes to present a monster petition, two petitions, in fact, one signed by men and one by women, to the Legislature of Ontario at its next session, asking that the Legislature during that session introduce and pass into law a bill granting the full franchise to women upon the same terms as those upon which it is granted to men.

Petitions were drafted at a meeting of the campaign committee of the Ontario Equal Franchise Society in Toronto on July 12, and submitted at a meeting of the executive of the society held in Toronto the end of last week, and attended by representatives from all sections of Ontario, from Ottawa on the east and the Rainy River district, northwest. Mrs. S. F. Lawrason, of this city, as treasurer of the provincial association, was present from London.

Copies of the petitions are to be sent out to Women's Institutes, church societies, womens' organizations of every description, indeed, throughout the province for circulation.

Copies of the petition are being mailed from the headquarters of the Ontario campaign committee.

The Style of Petition.

All signed petitions must be back at the headquarters by January 31, 1917, and may be signed by anyone over 21 years of age. The petition to be signed by women reads as follows:

"We whose names are hereto subscribed, being British subjects of the full age of 21 years, and having lived in the Province of Ontario one year, or who will have so lived by December 1, 1916, and would be by the 1st of December, 1916, entitled to vote at the provincial elections, but for the fact that we are women, hereby humbly pray your honorable body that it will at the next session of the Ontario Legislature introduce and pass into law a bill granting the full franchise to women upon the same terms as those upon which it is granted to men.

"And as in duty bound your petitioners will ever pray."

Beneath is a space for the name, address and occupation of the petitioner and date.

The text of the petition to be signed by men has an important alteration:

"We whose names are hereto subscribed, being British subjects of the full age of 21 years and having lived in the Province of Ontario one year, or will have so lived by December 1, 1916, and would be by December 1, 1916, entitled to vote at the provincial election. . . ."

Mrs. A. O. Ormsby, "Ormscliffe," Mimico, is president of the Ontario Equal Franchise Association.

Here is the reason for the apparent apathy during the past two years of suffrage workers and others in sympathy with the movement in Ontario, and also one of the important motives underlying the campaign which is being launched:

On the outbreak of war, the women, even as their sisters of western provinces, turned their attention heart and soul to the patriotic responsibilities lying before them, the knitting of socks, caps and scarves, the rolling of bandages and the providing of all manner of necessities for the soldiers, sick and well and in prison.

But the time has come when the earnestly patriotic women feel that there is a further demand upon their patriotism. They have given their husbands, brothers, sweethearts and sons to fight the battles of empire and liberty. They have given of their time and strength in supplying the needs of these men. They have given of their means, for the support of Red Cross, relief and patriotic work of various natures, the hundred and one calls of wartime.

Claim Equal Rights With Slackers.

They are taking the places formerly occupied by men in the business, industrial and professional world, that business may be kept as usual at home while the men fight for the protection of the homes. The women have kept the hearth fires buring.

A large percentage of British-born and Canadian-born voters from Ontario have gone overseas. What the patriotic Ontario women are about to ask is that they may share the privileges of the ballot with the non-British or non-Canadian-born men remaining at home, who by virtue of being men and possessed of certain other qualifications, hold in their hands the potent weapon of the ballot.

TEMPERANCE IN BRUCE.

PAISLEY, Sept. 4.—Yesterday was temperance field day in Bruce County. An eloquent address was given by F. S. Spence, Toronto, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, in the town hall in the afternoon to a fair-sized audience. The speaker based his address on the Magna Charter of the British Empire, its civil and religious liberty, reviewing the success of the temperance movement since its organization in 1832. He classed kaiserism and the liquor traffic as twin saplings of the same root, both soon to be up-rooted. H. B. Putnam presided. Solos were rendered by Mr. Morris of Toronto.

WINNIPEG AUDITOR COMMITTEE CHOICE FOR VACANCY HERE

W. R. Jex Recommended for City Auditor Today.

BARS PUT UP AGAIN

Last-Minute Decision Eliminates All But Chartered Accountants.

W. R. Jex, of Winnipeg, was recommended by the joint committee composed of the board of control and the finance committee of the city council this morning for the position of city auditor, made vacant by the resignation of Frank G. Jewell. The salary will be the same as that received by Mr. Jewell, approximately $3,000 a year. Three other names, J. W. Lang, Toronto; W. H. Dunlop, Ottawa, and G. H. Playle, Toronto, will be submitted to the council tonight.

This was the result of a lengthy discussion. There were many applicants, and after the session started it was decided not to employ any but a chartered accountant. All other applications were then not considered.

The applicants were: W. R. Jex, Winnipeg; H. T. Jamieson, Toronto; John I. Sutcliffe, Toronto; Rutherford, Williamson & Co., Toronto; Price, Waterhouse & Co., Toronto; A. Blanchard, North Bay; R. F. Spence, Toronto; Gordon D. Campbell & Co., Toronto; J. W. Lang, Toronto; J. D. Day, Toronto; Robertson, Robinson & Co., Toronto; E. S. Cousins, Lakewood, Ohio; Sherman E. Townsend, Toronto; G. H. Playle, Toronto; A. Falls, Chatham; J. F. Vanlene, Toronto; F. H. Kidd, Victoria, B. C., and W. H. Dunlop, Ottawa.

Part Time Applicants.

The majority of these were accounting firms, or men who would devote only a portion of their time to city auditing here. By the process of elimination, it was decided to consider four names—W. R. Jex, Mr. Dunlop, Mr. Lang and Mr. Playle.

Ald. H. B. Ashplant suggested that Mr. Jex be appointed. He was a former Londoner, well recommended, and a good man, he claimed.

After a discussion of considerable length, in which the members of the board of control expressed the opinion that a resident of the city should be engaged, the vote was put.

Mayor Breaks Tie.

The finance committee, Ald. Ashplant, Ald. Wilson and Ald. Reynolds voted for Mr. Jex. Controllers Gammage, Rose and Moore voted against him. Mayor Stevenson voted with the finance committee, and the appointment was recommended.

It was decided to send the names of Mr. Playle, Mr. Lang and Mr. Dunlop to the council as well, so that there may be a choice.

It is expected that there will be a lively debate at the council on the question. The appointment of Mr. Jex will probably mean that Andrew Dale and Arch Screaton, who have been doing much of the work of city auditing in the past, will be out of positions, and some of the aldermen resent this.

Ald. Ashplant suggested that Frank G. Jewell be made auditor of the London and Port Stanley Railway from the time of its inception, until July 1, 1916. This will cover the fiscal year of the railway. Later another auditor, presumably the auditor appointed by the council, will do the work.

MOUNT BRYDGES W. I.

MOUNT BRYDGES, Sept. 4.—The regular meeting of the Mount Brydges branch of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. O. Monger, Thursday afternoon, September 7. The district president, Miss Hammett of Newbury, will be present, and give an address. All members are invited to be present and visitors are welcome.

ABSOLUTE PROOF.

[Exchange.]

A captain in the army was called to answer a charge of being intoxicated.

Among those questioned was an Irish orderly, who protested vigorously that the allegation was a slander—that he was sure the captain was perfectly sober.

"Why are you so sure that Capt. Blank was sober that evening?" he was asked. "Did he speak to you upon his return to his quarters?"

"He did, sir."

"What did he say?"

"He tould me to be shure an' call him early in the mornin', sir."

"And did the captain say why he wished to be called early?"

"Yis, sir; he did, sir. He said he was goin' to be Queen o' the May, sir," responded the orderly with commendable gravity.

SUMMER OVER NOW FOR SCHOOL KIDDIES; ONCE MORE START IN AGAIN FOR YEAR'S "GRIND"; RECORD CLASSES ARE REPORTED

Opening Day Enrollments Indicate Another Record-Breaking Year.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL START

Studies There Commenced With First Day—Big Attendance.

A NEW SCHOOL OPENED

Lord Roberts Structure Replaces Old Princess Avenue Building.

The city schools are open again today after the long, warm vacation. No clock or callendar ever brings home so forcibly the truth that "time flies" as the troops of children that chatter along to school on opening day. It was summer only yesterday. Today, no matter what the temperature may be, autumn has been entered upon and faces are set towards winter and a year of work.

It seems no time at all since the closing exercises in June; since the boys and girls scampered out joyfully with the knowledge of weeks upon weeks of long, blissful days of no school, a perfect eternity of holidays. The teachers themselves can scarcely realize that it wasn't just Friday night they walked away, a burden of responsibility rolling off their shoulders and leaving them with a delightful sense of freedom when their backs turned on their classrooms.

There is a difference, nevertheless, that the months have made, a difference in vigor, complexion and zest for work. For the most part, both the big and little people are plumper, rosier, more freckled—if they happen to have that kind of a skin—or tanned if the sun's rays happen to take such effect.

No Regrets Today.

Holidays are joyful, but it isn't human nature to be content always to play. There was no regret for the beginning of classes once more; that is, regret that was in any way evident, on the faces of the groups of boys and girls that wended their way schoolward between 8:15 and 9 o'clock this morning.

The boys shouted to one another, the girls trilled to their friends, and no one seemed able to talk enough to get everything said.

In the lively throngs were a few children who felt that some way life had cheated them. Their holidays had been largely devoted to an encounter with measles, whooping cough, or some kindred evil. They didn't think much of vacation time, and it was a relief to get back with the others, even if tales of holiday jauntings did make them a trifle envious.

Down to Routine.

It is always hard to get down to routine the first few days even for the principals and teachers, unbelievable as this may be to the pupils. By the end of the week, everything will be in smooth running order, and practically all the students in their places. The surprising part to an outsider, who has left schooldays far behind, is the lack of friction, the ease with which everyone slips into his and her own groove and the system with which work is begun.

As far as the public schools are concerned, Inspector C. B. Edwards has been spending many busy days, winding up the educational clock for another year and seeing that the various parts are all properly adjusted and lubricated.

With the exception of one or two unavoidable cases of absence today, all members of the public school teaching staff were back in their old places, or on duty in their new classrooms betimes today. While there are fewer new faces among the teachers than usual, about eight or ten in all, there have been a number of changes of teachers from one school to another, probably about thirty of these.

New School Opened.

The Lord Roberts School, the fine new building to replace the old Princess Avenue School, was open for business for the first time this morning, and consequently, the school children of that district had a very big new interest in life.

According to Inspector Edwards, the formal opening will not take place "until the dust of the Western Fair is allowed to settle." Moreover, temporary seats are being used for the present, and it is not intended to invite the public for a formal opening until the permanent desks are installed and everything completed as far as possible.

Registration Day at Normal School.

Today is registration day at the Normal School and, after registering their names, obtaining information and getting their bearings, the students are free until Wednesday morning when the regular classes will open at 9 o'clock. It is believed this term's class will be a large one, though it is not probable all students will be in for a couple of weeks.

Neither Principal Radcliffe nor Vice-Principal Dearness seem to have suffered from the fact that they devoted a large part of the holiday season to the kindergarten-primary summer school which proved a great success.

Record Attendance at Collegiate.

The opening day attendance at the Collegiate Institute was again a record one, and Principal G. F. Rogers expressed the opinion that the numbers of students will at least equal those of last year, when the problem of overcrowding for the first time became a very serious one.

"We will have to make use of the Quebec Street School again in order to look after our work," further stated Mr. Rogers.

All Classes Resumed at Technical School.

The best attendance for opening day in the history of the London Technical School was reported by Principal H. B. Beal, who further stated that all work was being started today. He further announced that it would be advisable for applicants to report for the day classes immediately or it will not be possible to hold their places for them. Registration for the day classes will be kept open all this week, and next, and Principal Beal will be in his office in the school each evening from 8 to 9 o'clock.

The evening classes will not open till October, and registration for these will take place the last two weeks of September.

SOLDIER-FATHER RETURNING HOME TO FAMILY HERE

Has Been Discharged From C. E. F. Because of Its Plight.

WERE LEFT MOTHERLESS

Small Children Had To Be Given to Shelter on His Wife's Death.

The military authorities have recently given a practical demonstration of their recognition of a claim upon a man which precedes even the needs of King and country, the claim of a family of helpless, unprotected children. The case to which reference is made is that of Pte. George R. Bridge of the Army Medical Corps, who has received his discharge from the Canadian expeditionary force to return to Canada and look after his seven children, the six younger of whom have been cared for in the Children's Aid Society Shelter since the death of their mother several weeks ago.

Pte. Bridge was overseas when his wife died, leaving the seven disconsolate children.

Kind-hearted friends of influence at once interested themselves in the case, with the result that the machinery was set in motion whereby the release of the father from the army was obtained. Now, he is on his way back and, it is expected, will be in the city before the end of the week.

Previous to enlisting, Mr. Bridge was a bricklayer. He formerly resided on Briscoe street, but more recently on Methuen avenue, where the death of Mrs. Bridge occurred. Those who know him well speak most highly of Mr. Bridge, and deeply sympathize with him in the sadness of his homecoming.

FINAL WELLS REPORT PRESENTED THURSDAY

Additional Water Supply Figures Will Be Available.

Testing at the Macgregor wells continues, and a definite report will be made to the utilities commission on Thursday on their capacity and purity.

A survey is being made on the Kilworth Springs, and an approximation of the quantity of water to be found there will be given.

The reservoir at Springbank is now full, the holidays giving the springs a chance to catch up with the output.

WILL LET IT DIE

Council Sending No Wreaths To Obsequies of Safety Zone.

The city council will allow the "safety zone" idea die a natural death.

The experiment at the corner of Richmond and Dundas streets did not produce any results worthy of mention, say officials, so that the scheme will be abandoned.

SAYS HOG BUYERS ARE STILL CHARGING FEE FOR INSPECTION

Mooretown Subscriber Writes Regarding the Abuse.

PROMISE OF GOVERNMENT

Hon. Mr. Hazen Declares That the Cost of Inspection Is Borne by Country.

A letter received by The Advertiser indicates that the hog buyers of the country are not at all respecting the order of the Dominion Department of Agriculture regarding the fee of one-half of one per cent. "for inspection."

This abuse, which cost the farmers many thousands of dollars, was criticized in the House of Commons in the spring by A. B. McCoig, M.P. for Kent, with the result that Hon. Mr. Hazen, acting minister of agriculture, promised that it would be corrected.

A Mooretown subscriber writes that the inspection fee is still being charged. A Kent farmer, on the other hand, informs The Advertiser that recently he sold two lots of hogs at Chatham, and was not asked to pay the fee. The Mooretown letter follows:

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Some months ago there were some items in the newspapers about the one-half of one per cent deducted from the price paid to the farmers for their hogs, for inspection. I think a statement on this question would be of interest to a large number of your subscribers. The hog buyer offers, say 11 cents a pound, to the farmer. When settling up after weighing the hogs, he states he has to deduct their inspection fee. If the farmer refused to pay this fee, could he compel the drover to pay the 11 cents per pound, and what proceedings would the farmer have to take to recover the balance? Could you tell us who gets this fee, the drover or the packer? As we understand, the Government pays the inspectors. Is there any way of remedying this? Yours truly, MOORE SUBSCRIBER.

Mooretown, Sept. 2, 1916.

Issue in Parliament.

The following extract from Hansard of April 17 last, shows how the question was settled by the Dominion authorities:

Mr. McCoig—On the excuse of the inspection, they have been extracting this fee, one-half of one per cent.

Mr. Hazen—Who has?

Mr. McCoig—The buyers. They have even put in their advertisements that the reason they have retained that fee was the necessity for inspection. Without the necessary publicity informing the farmers that they do not have to pay for the inspection, the men in the rural districts believe that the Government is collecting its fees for inspection through this channel. I think that should be corrected. It is not for a private member to do it, but for the minister of the department. But if, by means of this representation, they wrong the farmers to the extent of over $100,000, I think that some course could be taken by the department to stop that illegitimate way of dealing with this important industry. If the Government compensates for hogs killed because they have contracted tuberculosis, or other contagious disease, the Government should compensate for hogs condemned at the abattoirs and not take from the men who are producing healthy hogs a fee to make up for the losses caused through hogs of inferior quality.

If one section of the country produces a healthy lot of hogs, why should the packers or the buyers take a portion off the price of every lot that the farmer brings in? If you are going to allow this practice to be carried on by these people, the only fair thing to do is to say to them: We will allow you, as we do under the contagious diseases act, a portion of the loss and settle it in that way. An amount could be put in the estimates to cover such payments, and then the burden would fall equally upon the producers in all parts of the country, and not unfairly on a few.

Mr. Hazen's Promise.

Mr. Hazen, acting minister—The veterinary director-general informs me that the department has caused a statement to be published in the Agricultural Gazette and in the different farmers' publications throughout the country, pointing out that the farmer is not called upon to pay anything for the cost of inspection; that that cost is borne entirely by the country, and that there is no reason why the farmers should contribute anything for that purpose. That statement has been given wide publicity through the publications to which I have referred. He further informs me that certain packers throughout the country used to have a statement on their letterheads to the effect that a certain amount had to be paid to them for the purpose of covering Government inspection, and that they have been compelled to take that statement off their letterheads and cease giving these false statements to the farmers throughout the country. I entirely agree with my honorable friend that every possible publicity should be given to this fact. From what the honorable member for Kent says, the abuse is evidently rather widespread. I will certainly call the attention of the officials of the department to the matter, and if they have not taken all possible steps to make these facts public in the past, I will give instructions that they do so in the future.

The Advertiser suggests to "Moore Subscriber" or to any other farmer required to pay the fee in the future that complaint be made to the department of agriculture at Ottawa.

LABOR DAY PICNIC AT QUEEN'S PARK MOST SUCCESSFUL

Baby Show and Tugs-of-War Splendid Features.

4,000 IN ATTENDANCE

Annual Celebration Was One of the Best Ever Held Here.

The Labor Day picnic and celebration at Queen's Park yesterday, held under the auspices of the members of organized labor of the city, attracted at least 4,000 people to the park, and was admittedly the best and biggest event of its kind seen in years.

Ideal weather conditions contributed a great deal to the success of the celebration, and the program presented included many special features in addition to the numerous events advertised.

Went Smoothly.

The committees who had the management of the picnic in hand are deserving of commendation for the prompt manner in which the program was carried out, and the absolute absence of any confusion during the running off of the various events.

The outstanding features of the afternoon were the tug-of-war contests and the baby show. It would be hard to determine on which the audience was the most enthusiastic, for each received hearty ovations from the crowd in the grandstand.

The Baby Show.

The baby show was divided into a number of classes, and in each case the judges showed exceptional ability and skill in their selections. Mayor Stevenson and Fire Chief Aitken assumed the burden as judges, and discharged their duties in a manner that met with the utmost approval.

The first class in the baby show, the best baby boy under twelve months, brought out forty competitors. After some consideration the first prize, a silver cup, was awarded to James Gordon Smith, the eleven-months'-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of 119 York street.

William Verdun Roulton, the six-weeks'-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Roulton, was given second prize.

For the heaviest baby boy, Harold Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Jackson, of 836 Steadwell street, was given a silver cup.

Heaviest Girls.

For the heaviest baby girl Helen G. Monroe, the eleven-months'-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Monroe, of Wilton Grove, carried off the honors, and silver cup, her weight being 31¾ lbs.

For the best baby girl under twelve months Dorothy Hodgins, daughter of Mrs. A. Hodgins, of 325 Hale street, was declared the first prize winner, with Noreen Calley of 88 Dreaney avenue as second.

Only one pair of twins entered for that class, Jack and Lyla Hume, the two-year-old son and daughter of Mrs. A. O. Hume, of 163 Wharncliffe road south. They were each awarded a silver cup.

The prize for the best looking mother with baby under twelve months went to Mrs. Leonard McNichol of 622 Maitland street, mother of Harry McNichol, twelve months old.

The youngest father with baby was James G. Morgan of 189 Hyman street, 22 years old, with baby Helen Catherine, aged five months.

In addition to the baby show events above named, three special events were placed on the program.

Prize War Baby.

For the youngest war baby, the conditions being that the father be either at the front or a returned soldier, the first prize was awarded to the three-weeks'-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ritchie of 21 Bathurst street. The father is Secretary Ritchie of the Returned Soldiers' Association. Second prize in this class went to the six-weeks-old baby of Mrs. Arthur Day of 17 Hume street, Ealing P. O.

The second special, a silver cup presented by Lady Beck, to the best war baby, to be judged from the standpoint of physical condition, age and beauty, was awarded to Frederick, the eight-months'-old son of Mrs. Edward Pritchett of 11 Alexander street.

The father is at the front with the 70th Battalion, and three uncles of this prize-winning baby are also doing their "bit" in France.

A special cup, presented by the lady boot and shoe workers, for the best baby under twelve months, whose father was a union member, was given to Alexander, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Laughton of 17 Becher street.

The Tug-of-War.

The tug-of-war events created a great deal of enthusiasm, and the different teams were cheered at every fresh pull.

An exhibition pull by heavyweight teams selected from the G. T. R. employees and the 160th Battalion was won after a severe struggle by the men from the Bruce Battalion.

This particular event brought out greater applause than any other number of the entire program.

The G. T. R. team was captained by Samuel Karn, and the men on the team were William McCrae, anchorman; J. J. Spring, W. Sproule, E. Schott and R. Finlay.

The 160th team, captained by Sergt. Watts, assisted by Lieut. McKetchine, was composed of Lance-Corp. Anderson, Ptes. McArthur, Nelson, Brown and Deschardines.

The silver cup awarded to the 160th Battalion in this event, was donated by the Returned Soldiers' Association. Each man in addition received a gold locket from the members of the trades and labor council.

A Long Pull.

The first tug-of-war pull between two teams from McClary's was won by the team captained by Floyd McPhail, in the time of three minutes and eight seconds.

With F. McPhail as anchorman were also William Short, Ted Smith, Alex Ntuk and Vicella Lobor. On the second McClary team were Joe Castle, anchorman, John Andrew, Pete Bolarres, Mike Christian and Dick Georghoff.

The winning McClary team pulled next against a lightweight team from the G. T. R., the members of this team being Messrs. Perkins, McDonald, Hill, Rollings, and Collyer.

The G. T. R. team won after a hard, long pull, and were awarded a silver cup.

In the race events, the first, a single ladies' race of 75 yards, was won by Edith Trudell, with Frances Lanklin second, and Dorothy Henry third.

The 100 yards single men's race resulted in J. Lightfoot first, W. G. Crandon of St. Marys, second, and H. B. Hughes third.

The fat man's race brought out a pretty contest, which was won by Richard Oatridge with J. M. Rowntree a close second.

Amusing Feature.

The two races that possibly created the most amusement was the boot and shoe race for 50 yards, open to boys in the one class, and girls in the other. In the girls' race Rena Curnoe was first, Winnie Cummings second, and Irene Lee, third.

In the boys' race, James White came first, Earl Cadwallader, second, and Charles Thompson, third.

The reporters' race, for 75 yards, which was run in something under 60 seconds, was won by George Martin, with "Bob" DeHarte a close second.

The married union men's race of 100 yards, went to F. Amesbury of the Bollermakers Union, with G. Summers of the International Machinists, second, and A. Opsey of the International Typographical Union, No. 133, third.

Married Ladies' Race.

The married ladies' race, wives of union men only, brought out a number of entries for this event. Mrs. L. Bastla, was given first prize, Mrs. P. Hall, second, and Mrs. C. Berry, third.

The bicycle race, twice around the track, was won by W. A. Godfrey, with Max Cohen second, and Arthur Jackson, third.

On the platform in front of the grand stand, several dancing contests were presented.

In the Irish jig, in costume, Dorothy Joyce was awarded first prize, and Kenneth Dunlavy second.

Highland Dancing.

In the Highland Fling the prizewinners were Jessie Cooper, first, J. McLean, second, and J. Tyrell, third.

In the sword dance first prize went to Fred Tulett, and second to Lloyd Burton.

The sailors' hornpipe prizes went, first to Isabel Graham, and second to Violet Hunt.

Lillian Ruth Tyrell was awarded a special prize for being the youngest dancer, aged six years.

The Lewis Trio presented a high-class aerial act, introducing some high-class work on the swinging trapeze.

The music of the afternoon was furnished by the Marconi Club band, the First Hussars band, the London Pipe band, and "Susie's" comedy band.

The last event was completed a few minutes to six, and the spectators all expressed themselves highly pleased with the afternoon's program, and many words of praise were heard for the well-regulated manner in which everything was carried out.

SOUTHERN MANITOBA WHEAT IS BADLY DAMAGED BY RUST

London Member of R. N. W. M. P. Reports It So.

Corp. Gordon Simpson of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, formerly of The Advertiser staff, is in the city, owing to the death of his mother recently. His period of enlistment with the Mounted Police will end shortly, and he plans to enlist in one of the overseas battalions and go and do his bit for the Empire.

Corp. Simpson has been on duty recently throughout Southern Manitoba, and declares that much of the wheat crop there has been ruined by black rust which swept into the country from North Dakota. Farmers everywhere, he says, are simply setting fire to their fields of grain and will not harvest any of it. There is no known method of combatting the black rust which spreads quickly and destroys the wheat completely.

From trips through Alberta and Saskatchewan, Corp. Simpson found the grain there in excellent condition and unaffected by the rust.

'People here have no idea of the immense numbers of Americans who are pouring steadily into the West," he said today. "They are coming over in thousands and many are going up into the rich Peace River district north of Edmonton."

OPTIMISM PREVAILING THROUGHOUT WEST, HE SAYS

Utilities Chairman So Reports On Return From Trip.

Philip Pocock, chairman of the utilities committee, has returned from a two weeks' trip to Winnipeg and the west.

"There will be a crop equal to that of 1914 in the west," he stated today. "That is the opinion of financial and railway men there. With the higher prices, the returns will be almost, if not quite as good as in 1915, when there was an enormous yield. I found conditions good and everything satisfactory."

Questioned as to the operation of prohibition in Manitoba, Mr. Pocock stated that the concensus of opinion was that it was a good thing, and was working out most satisfactorily.

WILSIE FAMILY REUNION HELD AT SPRINGBANK

Nearly 100 Members Attended Annual Gathering Labor Day.

The annual reunion and picnic of the Wilsie family held yesterday at Springbank was one of the most successful held since the inception of the outing ten years ago. Nearly 100 relatives were present. This is not as great a number as in some former years, but it far surpasses last year's turnout.

There were representatives of the family from Woodstock, Owen Sound, Thedford, Mount Brydges, Belmont and London, with its surrounding district. Luncheon was served in the pavilion, and the afternoon was spent in a social manner. No games or races were held this year.

The officers for the coming year were elected. Every member who served last year was returned to office, the slate being composed entirely of women. Mrs. G. M. Wilsie being honorary president; Mrs. A. C. Wilsie, president; Mrs. Eli Smale, vice-president; Miss Pearl Wilsie, secretary. The executive for the year will be Mesdames Levi Wilsie, Howard Scott, Ira Peer, Thomas Glasgow. A vote of thanks was moved to the officers for their work throughout the past year.

It was decided to hold the next annual reunion at Springbank at the same time if possible.

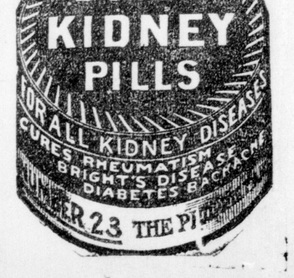

MOVING PICTURE TALK

Mabel Taliaferro, the delightful and gifted screen and stage star, will be seen here in the stellar role of "Her Great Price," a wonderplay in five acts, which will be shown at the Lyric Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. In this production Miss Taliaferro is seen in a role after her own heart, and like the parts that have made her famous throughout America, England, Ireland and Australia. Anyone who ever saw this fascinating little star in such successful plays as "Polly of the Circus," "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Springtime" can never forget her She has lost none of her charm since coming to motion pictures, and in fact, critics have declared that she has surpassed her best efforts on the speaking stage.

LONDONERS GET IT

Local Firms Get Contracts For Sewage Disposal Castings.

The board of control today decided to award contracts for a number of castings and special work for the sewage disposal plant to local firms. When the question came up some time ago no London firms tendered. It was referred back, and today it was decided to give a portion of the work to the London Foundry Company at $2.10 a hundred, and another portion to the Vulcan Iron Company at $4.85 per hundred pounds. One firm could do one class of work and the other could do the balance. The prices were more favorable than those received from outside firms.

THREE MORE MEN INVALIDED FROM FRONT ARRIVE HERE

Woodstock, Guelph and Windsor Men Come In.

ALL SENT FROM ENGLAND

71st and 33rd Members Never Saw Action in France.

Three invalided soldiers arrived in London at 11:15 today from Quebec, where they arrived last week on board the Metagama. They were Pte. John Bartlett, 71st Battalion, Woodstock; Richard Day, 33rd Battalion, Windsor, and Pte. John Frood, 71st Battalion, Woodstock. The party was in charge of Sergt. R. Fraser of the 16th Battery, who is home on furlough. He has been in France for eleven months, but has suffered no injury.

Pte. Copplestone, who was to have come here, was transferred to Military District No. 2. Pte. E. Henry went direct to Stratford and did not pass through here. Pte. John Eason went to St. Thomas.

Pte. Bartlett was prevented from reaching France through an accident. The operation which followed will prevent him entering the service again. His family resides at Woodstock, but his wife was at the station here to meet him. Richard Day of the 33rd Battalion, is from Windsor. He went overseas with the main body of the 33rd Battalion and was invalided from England. Pte. John Frood was a bandsman with the 71st Battalion. He comes from Guelph and was invalided from England.

There was no band to meet the men, for as another contingent of fifteen men is to arrive on Friday it was thought advisable to obtain it then. The bands are loaned as a favor from the battalions in the city, and the Soldiers' Aid Commission, which is looking after the welcome, does not wish to impose on the generosity of the commanders.

Lieut. J. E. Smallman and Capt. Francis were at the station, as well as a number of men from the Military Convalescent Hospital. Sam King, honorary secretary of the Soldiers' Aid Commission; A. H. B. Keene, A. T. McMahen, and other members of the commission, also welcomed the men.

Sergt. Struad, Sergt. Murray, Sergt. Cooper and several more of the newly-formed Voluntary Aid Commission, were at the station and were introduced to the returning men by Secretary Ed. Lance of the Sportsmen's Patriotic Association.

FIRE CHIEF DECLARES CONVENTION PROFITABLE

Says Providence Meeting Revealed Much New Apparatus.

Fire Chief John Aitken has returned from Providence, R. I., where he attended the annual meeting of the Fire Chiefs' Association. He reports that the session was one of the most profitable he ever attended. There were great varieties of new fire fighting apparatus shown, and all the most modern. Next year the association will meet at Jacksonville, Fla.

"We were royally entertained at Providence," he stated. "There is a British-American Club there, its members being all Britishers. The members took all the Canadian delegates under their charge, and looked after them well."

The season has been a most successful one. The first series was won by the Orients and the Ontarios carried off the honors in the second. In the final game to decide the championship the Ontarios won out last Saturday.

ATTEMPTING SOLUTION OF LEAVES PROBLEM

City Bodies Getting Together on Scheme This Year.

There will be a joint meeting of the board of works, the utilities commission and the board of control on Thursday next to consider the best methods of disposing of the autumn leaves.

Every autumn the streets are littered with leaves, and yards are full of them. The garbage department will not handle them, with the result that the most of them are burned, causing much trouble.

It is thought that a better scheme can be worked out to take care of them, and the three bodies will devise a plan.

"ABSENT-WITHOUT-LEAVE" MEN APPEAR IN COURT

Four From Camp Borden Dealt With Today.

Four soldiers, from different battalions now quartered at Camp Borden, appeared before Magistrate Judd in police court today, charged with being absent without leave. In each case a plea of guilty was entered.

John Hubert Smith, who was handed over to Major Osborne to furnish an escort to return him to Camp Borden to be dealt with by the military authorities there. He is a 142nd man.

Herman Mihin, who pleaded guilty to desertion, was allowed to go on suspended sentence on condition that he go with an escort to return him to Camp Borden where he will rejoin his battalion. Magistrate Judd warned him that he would be expected to conduct himself as a soldier should, and in case good reports concerning him were received from his commanding officer, nothing further would be done, otherwise he would be brought back and sentenced on the charge of desertion.

Thomas Pratt, a member of the 142nd Battalion, pleaded guilty to desertion and was remanded until Friday next for sentence.

He stated that he had come from the state of Illinois to join the battalion here, and had never been in Canada prior to that time.

E. Lindsay, of the 114th Battalion, when arrested, was found with eleven bottles of whisky in his possession.

The "booze" was contained in a suitcase, and the explanation made by Lindsay was to the effect that he had bought the whisky for a man in Barrie.

"No, no, you don't have to come all the way to London to get whisky for a man in Barrie. You were taking it to Camp Borden. Now, tell the truth," said the magistrate.

He was placed in charge of Major Osborne, who will furnish an escort to return him to Camp Borden, where the military authorities will take his case in hand.

CIGARMAKERS RETURN TO MAJORITY OF SHOPS

Conferences on Again Tonight With One Remaining Firm.

A delegation from the Cigarmakers' Union conferred with the firm of McLeod, Nolan & Co. this morning and discussed plans for an agreement between the parties.

The firm would not consent to meeting the demands of the cigarmakers at this morning's meeting, but another conference has been arranged for this evening, when it is believed a settlement will be reached.

The cigarmakers from the George Coleman factory and from J. J. Dyer's returned to work this morning, and gradually the strike is being settled.

"We expect to reach an agreement with McLeod, Nolan & Co. at our next conference," said one of the officials of the Cigarmakers' Union today.

Should an agreement be reached between the men and McLeod, Nolan & Co. this evening the only firm left to deal with will be Brener Bros.

This firm will be approached as soon as negotiations are completed with McLeod, Nolan & Co.

HARROW IS MECCA FOR ALL SOUTH ESSEX

Immense Crowds Attend Oddfellows' Labor Day Sports.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

HARROW, Sept. 4. — Today was a gala day in Harrow. Vast throngs of people were present from Leamington, Kingsville, Amherstburg and other places to enjoy the Labor Day sports put on by the local Oddfellows. The program commenced at 10 a.m. The occasion was enlivened by the Leamington Brass Band, which delighted the crowds with music.

Among the interesting features of the day were bicycle races for both boys and girls, and footraces of all kinds. A great deal of interest was created by the baby show, for every mother thought her baby ought to have the prize. Another interesting item was a prize for the largest family on the ground.

The horse ring was an attractive place for the men, and some fine speeding was witnessed. Those fond of dancing had a splendid opportunity, for dancing was indulged in all day. At night a high-class concert was given, and was patronized by a good crowd. Dinner and supper were served on the grounds by the ladies of the community.

The proceeds of the day will be devoted to paying off the debt on the splendid new building recently erected by the Oddfellows, the upstairs of which will be used for lodge purposes, while the ground floor will be used for stores.

The weather throughout the day was ideal, and contributed much to the success of the occasion.

ENEMY MADE BLUFF AT ATTACK ON STRUMA LINE

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 5—4:49 p.m.—A British official statement issued this afternoon reporting military operations in the Saloniki war theatre says:

"During Sunday night the enemy turned on searchlights and opened rifle fire on our troops south of Orlwar on the Struma front. No attack developed.

"On the Doiran front there have been patrol encounters at Macukove and Krastalie."

STREET RAILWAY OBJECTS TO CONTRACTORS' SCHEME

Declines to Operate Stub Line Service to Rush Pavement.

The Standard Paving Company made a request to the board of control today to close a portion of Dundas street east for a week in order to get the paving done to accommodate the crowds coming in to the fair. It was proposed to run a "stub" street car line from Pottersburg to the interswitching line in the interim.

Manager C. B. King, of the London Street Railway, objected to the arrangement, saying that it would interfere with traffic too much, and that extra help would have to be secured to watch the car in the east end during the night. As a result, the board of control could do nothing, and the Standard Paving Company will have to make slow progress in consequence. The street is now practically closed up for all but street car raffic.

RECOVERING FROM LOCKJAW.—Joseph Ditalmo, the 6-year-old boy of 226 Grey street, who has been in St. Joseph's Hospital for the past week suffering from an attack of lockjaw, is on a fair way to recovery. The disease was contracted by stepping on a rusty nail. His recovery is regarded as remarkable owing to the fact that only a small percentage of the victims of tetanus survive.

[Canadian Press.]

Winnipeg, Sept. 5—At 10:30 this morning the jurors trying the excabinet ministers were not able to report a verdict, and the court was adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon. The jury has been at work on consideration of the evidence since early this morning.

At 10:30 the foreman sent word to the court officials that they had not arrived at a decision, and with neither judge nor jury present the court was formally opened and adjourned. The court room was filled with spectators, including, as yesterday, many ladies.

TRADES UNION ASKS THAT ALL RAILWAYS BE STATE-MANAGED

Demand a Ministry of Labor and Are Harsh With Lloyd George.

[Canadian Press.]

Birmingham, Eng., Sept. 5.—3:20 p.m.—A determined stand for nationalization of the railroads of Great Britain was taken today by the Trades Union Congress, representing nearly 2,500,000 men. The congress demanded acquisition of the railroads by the state and a voice in their control for the workers. The project for the creation of a ministry of labor also was approved by a large majority.

Assertions made by David Lloyd George, secretary for war, that workers were not doing all that they should, were denounced unanimously, and it was pointed out that 90 per cent of the soldiers in the trenches were workingmen. Many hard words were spoken in regard to the secretary, and a retraction from him was demanded.

The possibility of industrial conscription was discussed at length, and the Congress registered a strong protest against the sending of soldiers to work in factories unless they are placed on the same footing as civilians in regard to treatment and wages.

LOOKING FOR GAME?

GO WHERE THE GAME RUNS!

About everybody nowadays believes that it pays to advertise—but some who approve the general IDEA hesitate to apply it to THEMSELVES.

I am a believer in advertising, all right—for the other fellow, perhaps—but would it pay ME?

The true answer to this is—if your calling is on the SQUARE—if you are engaged in a business that would stand to GAIN by letting people KNOW about it, then that business can be PROFITABLY advertised.

To be sure, it is not every method that would apply to YOUR particular case, but you can bet all you have that there is A RIGHT WAY FOR YOU, and nine times out of ten that right way is—THE DAILY NEWSPAPER!

In this noisy old world, pretty much ALL of us HAVE SOMETHING TO SELL.

We must attract attention to what we have to sell, or we will not be able to sell it. Advertising is making oneself heard and understood above the DIN.

It is impressing one's entity upon the public mind in a way to DRAW the public to US. Next thing to soap and water, the COMMONEST NECESSITY TO EVERY CANADIAN IS—THE NEWSPAPER.

Everybody, every day, goes ALL THROUGH a newspaper—there is no other medium of communication so capable of GETTING YOU HEARD!

If you find that you are not drawing enough trade from your present surroundings, then GET INTO A GOOD NEWSPAPER AND ENLARGE YOUR SURROUNDINGS!

In this particular community, you will need the help of The Advertiser, because The Advertiser is pre-eminently a people's paper, very strong in its field, and capable of carrying your story all the way THROUGH!

Ask the Advertising Department of The Advertiser about your sales problem. They'll be only too glad to give you assistance.

GERMAN TREACHERY PLACED RUSSIANS IN DESPERATE FIX

Munition Factories for a Time Manipulated by Teutons.

NOW OUSTED FOREVER

Changes Were Quickly Made When Plots Were Discovered.

(Correspondence.)

London, Aug. 11.—Mr. Hamilton Fyfe, an authority on Russian politics, and a warm friend of the present minister for foreign affairs has been renewing his fraternisations with leading men in that great empire. For the first time since the war began he takes the world into his confidence and unfolds the ghastly truth about the failure of the Russians to maintain their armies in the field with sufficient munitions. It is generally supposed that the main loss began with the blowing up of a great factory at Petrograd. While that to some extent was true it was not all the truth.

This is how the situation stood twelve months ago: "Russia was in desperate case. I shall never forget the atmosphere of gloom in which we lived for a while after we knew that the armies were retreating because they had next to no ammunition. Many felt despair. Happily, there were stout hearts and capable heads among Russia's leaders. Not only among soldiers and officials but among manufacturers, businessmen, engineers; among the people's representatives on town and county councils. Very quickly heads were put together. Changes began to be made.

And this is how the treacherous Germans served the unprepared but long-suffering Russians:

They Will Not Come Back.

"One of the factories I visited was before the war under German management. It remained under management tainted by German sympathies for some time after the war had begun. Then the direction was changed: became entirely Russian. Since then the production has increased, the work has been more satisfactory; the workpeople are better treated and therefore content. In every way the clearing out of the Germans, whether naturalized or not, has been an advantage. And, clever as they are at wriggling and crawling, they will never find their way back. Russia, under stress of war, has made more industrial progress than would have been registered in fifteen years of peace.

Took Over Factory.

"The enemy did his best to stop it, to tie up Russia's movements. A general of artillery, who took me over a cartridge factory, told how his attempts to buy a certain kind of wire in neutral countries were watched and combated by German spies. He would go to a firm and arrange for a purchase. Next day they would send excuses. They had made a mistake. Other orders had precedence of his. Or they had none of the article in stock. He knew they had been bribed or threatened. He knew quite well by sight the spies who were tracking him. He got what he wanted, but it took time.

"As one goes through these munition works in Russia one is told constantly, 'Here we have increased the number of workmen by several thousand,' or 'This has been enlarged to thrice its former size,' or 'In these works the output was at first a few thousand. Now it runs into hundreds of thousands and is still going up.' At one place forty thousand people are working, mostly in three shifts. They make a town by themselves, they and their families. They have schools of their own (free to the poorer work-people), a vast cooperative store, theatre and kinematograph. A Scotsman I found in a responsible position there told me he never saw harder work done or a more intense keenness shown for quality as well as quantity of output."

Chathamite, Slated in Sarnia as "Vag," Is Given Freedom.

STATES REFUSES TO BAR MERCHANT SUBS FROM ITS HARBORS

Does Not Agree With Allies That It Is Warship.

MUST JUDGE EACH CASE

Norway, Sweden and Spain Accept View of Entente.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, Sept. 5.—To the proposal of the Entente Allies that neutrals accept the principle that all submarines are vessels of war, the United States has dispatched a reply which, it is understood, holds to the principle that the characteristics of each individual submersible must govern the case.

At the same time advices to some of the diplomats here today announced that Norway, Sweden and Spain had forbidden their harbors to merchant submarines on the ground that they were indistinguishable from warcraft. The memorandum from the Allies was sent to all neutral powers.

The reply of the United States, it was officially stated, was also in the form of a memorandum, and not a formal note. Copies were sent to each of the Entente Allies.

To the allied contention in the memorandum, that it is impossible for the warships to be distinguishable from the merchant submarines, the American reply is understood to point out that it is equally difficult to distinguish between sailing merchant vessels which may have masked batteries.

CHAINS HELP DOUBTERS TO MAKE UP MINDS.

We give more stories of their experiences told by the wounded brought back from the battlefield north of the Somme says the London Times.

The talk always reverts to machine-guns. Again and again our men have swept the enemy before them, only to be held up or seriously weakened by streams of bullets from machine guns which have been left to "hold the fort" until the last.

"They stick to their guns well, the lads," conceded a Scottish private, who was qualified to express an opinion by the possession of three machine-gun bullet wounds in his thigh.

A man on the next stretcher looked up. He was a corporal. "You mean, their guns stick to them!" he observed quietly.

"What way could their guns stick to them?" inquired the puzzled Scot.

"I'll tell you. On Saturday morning we went through the dugouts in one of their front-line trenches. We found a German machine gun, and its No. 1 gunner. He was dead, and he was chained to his gun. The end of the chain was locked to his wrist."

There was silence. Then the Scot spoke again. "Being chained to a gun," he observed thoughtfully, "would certainly help a doubtful man to make up his mind whether he would go or stay."

Our men are full of admiration for the French. "It was wonderful to see them advance," said a wounded sergeant. "Our division went into action on the extreme right of the British line, so we were touching the French left flank. I had met hundreds of them back in the billets, in cafes, and the like. To look at them strolling down a village street in their baggy uniforms, with their hands in their pockets, laughing and chatting to the children, you would never have thought they were such tigers. I remember one big fellow a few weeks ago, home on pass—permission they call it—who used to go about with a big umbrella under his arm. I suppose that was to keep the rain off his tin hat. But when they went for Maricourt the other day there weren't many umbrellas about—only bayonets. I tell you, they are marvels."

APPLES, ORANGES, FIGS AND PRUNES

Are the Four Fruits Used in Making "Fruit-a-tives"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the only medicine in the world that is made from the juices of fresh, ripe fruits. Thus, it is manifestly unfair to say: "I won't take Fruit-a-tives because I have tried other remedies and they did me no good." On the other hand, the fact that "Fruit-a-tives" is entirely different from any other preparation in the world, is just why you should give it a fair trial, in any trouble of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. "Fruit-a-tives" is composed of the active principle of fruit and the greatest nerve tonic ever discovered. Fifty cents a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

FUNERAL OF W. B. BROWN.

FOREST, Sept. 4.—Ten auto loads went from Forest to Sarnia yesterday to attend the funeral of W. B. Brown, second teacher in the high school here. Among those attending were: A. B. Williams, B.A., principal; R. B. Crosbie, G. E. McIntosh and R. McLaren, who acted as bearers. Mr. Brown was in his 30th year, and was one of the most popular teachers the high school here ever had. He was also a prominent member of the St. James' Presbyterian Club. Mr. Brown died suddenly at his home in Sarnia Friday.

ARE MEDICINES LIQUORS?

A certain class of prejudiced and jealous doctors call patent medicines only alcoholic beverages. They will tell you that such and such a medicine contains as much alcohol as a glass of beer or a certain quantity of whiskey; but they do not mention that the beer or whiskey is swallowed at one draught, while only a small quantity of the medicine is taken at one dose. At the same time they will use alcohol quite as freely and many in four or five times as great proportions in their own prescriptions.

Such standard remedies as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound use barely enough alcohol to preserve the root and herb extractives, too little to have injurious effects; and the medicine can be had, if desired, in a non-alcoholic form.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! 25-CENT BOTTLE STOPS DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Try this! Your hair appears glossy, abundant, wavy and beautiful.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance, an incomparable gloss and softness; but what a few weeks' use, when you will actually will please you most will be after just see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

GIRLS! TRY IT! HAVE THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Every Particle of Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Draw a Moist Cloth Through Hair and Double Its Beauty at Once.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

[Canadian Press Cable.]

PETROGRAD, Sept. 4—Via London, 2:55 p.m.—The Russians have broken across the Thenokva river, a western tributary of the Zlota Lipa, and seized a position of the Austro-German troops, the war office announced today. They took 2,721 prisoners and six machine guns.

The Russian forces in the Carpathians, the announcement also says, have captured a whole series of mountain heights and are advancing to the Hungarian frontier.

Between Thursday and Sunday the troops of the Russian commander, General Brusiloff, captured 385 officers and 19,020 men. In this number were eleven German officers and 1,300 German privates. Twelve cannon, 76 machine guns and seven bomb mortars also were taken.

The army of the Caucausus has made further progress, the war office reports, pushing forward south of the River Elleu. In the region of Ognott 548 Turks were captured.

FEW GERMANS LIVE AFTER DEADLY FIRE FROM BRITISH GUNS

Concentrated Attack at Guillemont Described By Palmer.

[BY FREDERICK PALMER.]

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Sept. 4, via London.—As fuller reports come in there is general elation at the army headquarters over the results of the British and French attacks against the German positions in the Somme region.

A chill, heavy rain is falling this morning, drenching the German prisoners in the collecting stations, and the wounded which are still being brought off the field. On numerous parts of the line the night was one of continuous fighting. The Germans had massed great forces against the British and responded with prompt counter-attacks under the cover of an immense volume of artillery fire.

British guns laid their sheets of crashing blasts on the German trenches up to the very moment the British infantry reached the German trenches, and no sooner were the infantry in the German trenches than the Germans turned the same kind of a hurricane on them. With every action the artillery seems to become more powerful and accurate, and the infantry more cunning in working in co-operation with it, and yesterday from Ginchy south to the Somme, where the crux of the action was, it represented the last work in scientific concentrated fire. The majesty and the horror of modern warfare were represented.

Nearly All Germans Killed.

Probably the British took about 1,000 prisoners who reached the collecting stations alive through the successive curtains of fire. Nearly all the Germans in the Guillemont sector were killed by shell fire. The wounded who sought cover in shell craters were killed by the bursting of another shell.

The British carried their light machine guns forward, and with these faced the German counter-attacks under cover of their artillery. At Mouquet farm the Australians had to yield part of the ground gained, with the Germans at last accounts in possession of the farm itself.

Terrible Fighting at Ginchy.

One of the most formidable German counter-attacks struck southward, trying to catch the British who had entered Ginchy in the flank. Guillemont lost, Ginchy became all the more vital to the Germans. The Germans brought up reinforcements. So did the British. Amidst these ruins, with the guns of neither side daring to fire because of fear of hitting their own men, machine guns and rifles rattled wherever they could be used, and bombers worked from the cover of half-shattered, shell holes and piles of shattered brick and mortar.

The British still are holding fast to the sunken road beyond Guillemont, and in a pelting rain this morning fighting continues around Falfemont farm, and the wedge of wood where a section of the Prussian Guard still holds out. Without cessation German guns have kept up a terrific volume of shell fire on Guillemont.

The army heads are gratified because south of Ginchy to the Somme despite immense German preparation the attack has been the most complete success of any since the offensive began, unless that of July 14, when the British broke the German second line.

NEW DRIVE OF FRENCH CARRIES TWO VILLAGES; 5,000 PRISONERS TAKEN

Battle About Both Sides of the Somme Continues With Intensity—Allied Move Begins on New Line From Barleux to Chaulnes and Further South.

[Canadian Press Cable.]

Paris, Sept. 4.—A bloody battle is going on on both banks of the Somme, says the official statement issued by the war office tonight. The French have made fresh progress east of the village of Forest north of the river, and on the south have successfully attacked objectives along a front of 20 kilometres (12½ miles) from Barleux to Chaulnes.

The village of Soyecourt was brilliantly carried by assault, as well as part of eVrmandovillers. Over 5,000 prisoners have been taken north and south of the Somme in the last two days.

Progress was also made on the right bank of the Meuse (Verdun sector) in the Fleury region.

The full text of the official communication reads:

Gain Near Forest.

"The battle which began yesterday continued with intensity today on both sides of the Somme. North of the river new successes were recorded. We progressed considerably east of Forest, overran the hospital farm and occupied the hillside west of Marrieres wood.

"Violent German counter-attacks on our new positions south of Combles, debouching from the village, were broken by machine gun and barrage fire, which inflicted on the enemy the heaviest losses. All the ground conquered has been held.

"The number of prisoners taken in two days north of the Somme reached 2,500. We captured today ten machine guns, besides those mentioned yesterday.

Attack South of Somme.

"South of the Somme the French troops attacked enemy works on a front of twenty kilometres, from Barleux to the district south of Chaulnes. Everywhere the bravery of our soldiers and the power of our artillery enabled us to obtain our objects.

"On the Barleux-Deniecourt front we carried the enemy's first line trenches and established ourselves on the edge of Berny and the northern outskirts of Deniecourt. On our right, Soyecourt was attacked from the north and the southwest, and was captured in its entirety by a brilliant assault.

"Further south, from Vermandovillers to Chilly, after violent fighting, our infantry on a front of four kilometres carried the whole first line positions of an old German fort comprising several lines of defense very strongly organized. The whole village of Chilly was captured, while eastward we occupied Hill 86, as well as the western borders of the Bois de Chaulnes.

"The village of Vermandovillers, a part of which we hold, was obviously outflanked from the north and south. Our heavy artillery dispersed enemy forces gathering on the Liancourt road.

"The number of unwounded prisoners taken today south of the Somme was over 2,700.

Further Gain at Verdun.

"On the right bank of the Meuse (Verdun sector) despite a violent enemy bombardment, we increased our gains of yesterday, progressing a hundred meters. In the district east of Fleury the Germans, about 9 o'clock launched a powerful attack on Chenois wood. This attack at first succeeded in carrying a small fort on the Vaux road and trenches west of this. But our brilliant counter-attacks enabled us to re-occupy all the territory temporarily yielded and make a hundred prisoners. In the afternoon renewed attacks by the Germans east of Chenois were repulsed.

"The number of unwounded prisoners captured yesterday and today in the region of Fleury reached more than 500."

East of the Meuse on the Verdun front, the French yesterday took 400 prisoners.

BITTER BATTLE, SAYS BERLIN.

BERLIN, via London, Sept. 4—6:55 p.m.—In an extensive and bitter battle developing from the Anglo-French attacks begun yesterday, says the German official statement issued today, the Germans retained mastery over all their positions on both sides of the Ancre brook, and recaptured ground which they had lost near Mouquet farm. South of the Somme, the statement adds, German artillery broke down French attacks except in the sector southwest of Barleux. The text of the German official statement dealing with the western front says:

"Anglo-French attacks begun yesterday led to an extensive and bitter battle. North of the Somme the battle has been in progress on a line of almost thirty kilometres (18 miles) from Beaumont to the Somme. The Germans, commanded by General von Stein and General Baron von Marshal, retained mastery of all their positions on both sides of the Ancre and especially against Thiepval and northwest of Pozieres. The Germans recaptured lost ground near Mouquet farm.

"South of the Somme German artillery held down the French attacks except in the sector southwest of Barleux. Forces advancing to attack near Barleux were sanguinarily repulsed.

"Attempts made by the enemy against Thiaumont and our positions southeast of Fleury (northeast of Verdun) failed.

"At Souville a defile in the French salient was cleared and 500 prisoners were taken.

"Thirteen enemy aeroplanes were brought down in the Somme region on Saturday and Sunday. Captain Boelke brought down his twentieth machine."

MEXICANS WRECK A TRAIN, KILLING 25 U. S. SOLDIERS AND ELEVEN PASSENGERS

LAREDO, Tex., Sept. 4.—Twenty-five American soldiers and eleven passengers were killed last Thursday when a Constitutionalist train was wrecked by bandits claiming allegiance to C. Torres, according to advices reaching the border today.

The bandits butchered the train guards and carried away everything movable. The wreck occurred between San Luis and Tampico, below Carsenas.

COMMANDER CASEMENT IS TO BE PROMOTED

Relative of Sir Roger Sank the German Cruiser Kaiser Wilhelm.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Commander David Casement of the British navy, a relative of Sir Roger Casement, who was hanged recently in London for high treason, arrived here today from Bermuda, on his way to London, under orders of the British admiralty.

Early in the European war he commanded the British cruiser Highflyer which destroyed the German converted cruiser Kaiser Wilhelm Der Grosse off the west coast of Africa. It is said he is returning to England to be promoted by King George.

MILITARY FUNERAL FOR GERMANS WHO DIED IN ENGLAND

Full Honors To Be Accorded Zepp Raiders.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—2:30 a.m.—The officers and men of the German airship which was destroyed Saturday night while raiding England will be buried with full military honors. The details of the funeral have not been settled, but the bodies probably will be buried in separate graves in a churchyard near the spot where they were found when the airship fell.

Each body will be placed in an oak coffin, which will be covered with a German flag, and carried to the burial place on a gun carriage. The firing party will be composed of British soldiers and a British army chaplain will conduct the funeral services.

"Every British airman who has been killed in action over the German lines," says one of the morning newspapers today, "has received the honor of a military funeral, and the Allies will accord similar honors to enemy soldiers when the opportunity offers."

An inquest over the crew of the destroyed zeppelin was held yesterday at Cuffley. The only new development yesterday in connection with the raid of Saturday night came from an east coast town. It was a report to the effect that wreckage, apparently that of the gondola of another airship, had been found there. It was believed to be part of a zeppelin shot away by the coast defence guns.

TEN BADLY INJURED IN HEAD-ON COLLISION

Dozen Others Slightly Hurt in Railway Accident in West.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 4.—A head-on collision between two trains on the Pacific Great Eastern line at West Bay a few minutes before 1 o'clock today, resulted in ten persons being badly injured and about a dozen others slightly hurt.

ALLIES HAVE TAKEN THE CHIEF TOWN IN GERMAN E. AFRICA

Dar-es-Salaam, Seaport on the Indian Ocean, Captured.

London, Sept. 4.—It is announced officially that Dar-es-Salaam, the chief town of German East Africa, surrendered at 9 o'clock this morning.

The statement says that British naval forces in co-operation with troops from Bagamoyo and Saadani are now occupying Dar-es-Salaam.

South of Morogoro, 100 miles west of Dar-es-Salaam, pursuit of the main German forces continues. The southeast main body, the statenent adds, is in the region of Matomto, on the eastern slopes of the Ulguru Mountains.

Lieut.-Col. Vandeventer, in command of a British force, has reached Kikumi, 42 miles south of Klossa. Brig.-Gen. Northey, at the head of another British force, has occupied Neuicing.

Dar-es-Salaam is the most important seaport of German East Africa. Before the war it was the residence of a governor, and contained a military station. It is on the Indian Ocean, about 275 miles below the frontier of British East Africa. The town evidently fell before the British column which has been pushing down the coast, one of several expeditionary forces sent out by the British, French, Belgian and Portuguese, which are gradually surrounding the remaining German forces.

JAPAN ASKS CHINA TO SETTLE FOR ATTACKS

PEKIN, China, Sept. 4.—Baron Gonsuke Hayashi, the Japanese minister to China, has presented to the Chinese foreign office four demands for a settlement of the clash between Chinese and Japanese troops at Cheng Chiatun, in Eastern Mongolia, August 13, when 50 Chinese and 17 Japanese were killed or wounded. The Japanese demands are:

1. Dismissal of the Chinese officials in command of the troops.
2. The withdrawal of Chinese troops from the district in which the trouble arose.
3. Indemnification of the families of the Japanese killed.
4. The granting to Japanese of police rights in inner Mongolia.

The Chinese officials regard these demands as virtually an elimination of Chinese authority in inner Mongolia.

Montreal, Sept. 5.—Becoming confused crossing the road, A. Lamoreux, Ottawa, was mortally injured when knocked down by a street car on De Fluermont street on Sunday morning and died in Notre Dame Hospital last night.

Second Zeppelin Is Believed Lost In the North Sea

Dutch Fishermen Tell of a Dirigible in Distress, on Way East.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—3:45 p.m.—An Exchange telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen says that fishermen returning to Esbjerg, Denmark, report that they observed a badly damaged zeppelin yesterday morning. The crew was throwing articles overboard, and the fishermen believe the zeppelin fell into the water between Sylt Island and the Schleswig coast. The dirigible was accompanied by four other zeppelins, which were traveling eastward.

A dispatch from Berlin says:

Official announcement was made there today that a German airship had been brought to earth on the night of September 2, "as a result of enemy fire."

The foregoing evidently refers to the destruction of zeppelin S, which took part in the raid over England on Saturday night.

RUMANIANS HOLDING BIG AND RICH PART OF ENEMY'S GROUND

Have Advanced 10 to 25 Miles Along Whole Line.

CAPTURE ALL THE PASSES

Swift Advance Gives Them Great Strategic Advantages.

[Canadian Press Cable.]

LONDON, Sept. 4.—8:47 p.m.—A Reuter dispatch from Bucharest says:

"The country is joyously celebrating the entry of the victorious Rumanian army into the principal Transylvanian town of Kronstadt on the third day of the fighting, the successful forcing of all the Carpathian passes, which were formidably organized and stubbornly defended, and the invasion of Hungarian territory along the whole line to a distance of about ten to twenty-five miles, giving the army, by its swift advance, enormous strategic advantages for eventual operations.

"So far, Bulgaria is pursuing a policy of prudent reserve with regard to Rumania.

"The members of the German and Turkish legations left Bucharest Sunday to return to their homes."

Two Towns Occupied.

The Rumania War Office announced yesterday that Rumanian troops have occupied Borszek and Sekeli, in Transylvania. The Teutonic-Bulgarian allies have been repulsed at Gasardjik, in Dobrudja, but elsewhere continue their attack along the whole frontier between Dobrudja and Bulgaria.

A raid by the hostile hydro-aeroplanes upon the city of Constanza, on the Rumanian coast of the Black Sea, with the wounding of several civilians and children, is announced.

NEW YORK TO WALK UNLESS CONCESSIONS ARE GRANTED CARMEN

Strike Seems Imminent on Elevated and Subway Lines of Manhattan.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 5.—A strike seems imminent today on elevated and subway lines operated by the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, in Manhattan, and the Bronx. Officials of the company and representatives of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees, met this morning to consider the demands of the union that the company annul contracts signed by the employees several days ago when a strike first threatened. But President Shonts' announcement late last night that the company would not grant the union's demand, indicated that today's meeting would fail to bring peace.

Labor leaders asserted today that they would stick to their demands, and predicted that a strike would be called within twenty-four hours if the company refused to make concessions.

The contract which the employees' union wishes to have annulled binds the employees not to ask for advances in pay and improvement in working conditions other than those already granted to them.

TRADE UNION CONGRESS TRULY INTERNATIONAL

BIRMINGHAM, England, Sept. 4.—2:45 p.m.—In opening the trades union congress here today the president, Harry Gosling, said that in order to prove that internationalism was not dead, the congress was welcoming international delegates from Canada, the United States, France and Belgium.

Many languages were in the melting pot of national anxiety, he continued, and in the emergency thousands of trades unionists had given their lives willingly because they believed the sacrifice necessary for the purpose of national defence.

Referring to the fact that the unions were organizing against the ministry of labor and for an increase of the old age pension to ten shillings weekly, he said the people had submitted to every form of taxation for war requirements.

"To what would they not submit for peace requirements?" he asked.

BRANTFORD TROOPER IS VOTED A "BEAUTY"

LONDON, Sept. 4.—At a "beauty show" held at Folkestone the winners were: First, Trooper Holmes of Brantford, Ontario (Royal Canadian Dragoons), who received 101 votes for his beauty; and, second, Trooper Deforge of Winnipeg (Fort Gary Horse), with 96 votes to his credit.

ZAIMIS SUPREME AMONG THE GREEKS; IS FOR THE ALLIES

Premier Is Now Practically the Dictator of Greece.

READY TO DECLARE WAR

Chief Director of the German Propaganda Has Been Arrested.

VON SCHENK ARRESTED.

Athens, Sept. 3—1 a.m.—Via London, 4:11 a.m.—Baron Von Schenk, chief director of the German propaganda in Greece, has been arrested and taken on board a cruiser of the Entente Allies. Sixteen additional warships of the Entente powers have arrived at Piraeus.

ALL DEMANDS ACCEPTED.

London, Sept. 4.—The Greek Government at Athens has accepted the demands of the Entente powers in their entirety, and agents of the French and British governments are today taking over the control of postal and telegraphic communications.

ZAIMIS IN CONTROL.

Athens, Sunday, Sept. 3—Via London, Sept. 4.—Seizing the opportunity offered by the presence at Piraeus, within gunshot of Athens, of a large fleet of the Entente nations, Premier Zaimis has assumed unobtrusively what amounts virtually to dictatorial powers. All is now in readiness for the final act to end the neutrality of Greece.

While the people of Athens were being mildly amused at the spectacle of allied soldiers and secret police pursuing German agents about the streets of the city a profound change in the status of affairs was effected quietly. Premier Zaimis is now in a position to swing the whole country as he will, unembarrassed by any dissenting popular opinion or hostile parliamentary control.

The first step which placed full powers in the hands of Premier Zaimis was taken when he forbade public gatherings last Wednesday. The arrangement of Friday whereby the issuance of the decree of dissolving the now adjourned Parliament and calling new elections was postponed indefinitely disposed effectually of any parliamentary interference with the policy of the Government. Finally, the premier yesterday requested and received the unqualified support of the leaders of the Venizelos party and of the party opposed to Venizelos, thus giving the present temporary cabinet a politically representative character and completing the necessary preparations which may be decided on by the ministry behind closed doors.

Greece may now find herself at war over night at the bidding of a single individual, who is neither King Constantine nor former Premier Venizelos.

Meantime the Allies are rapidly ridding Athens and Piraeus of Austrian and German agents.

STRANDED PARTY REALIZED RESCUE WOULD BE HARD

Shackleton's Men Kept Together on Ice Floes Under Trying Conditions.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—A fuller report received from Lieut. Sir Ernest H. Shackleton, who arrived at Punta Arenas, Chile, Sunday, with the rescued members of his Antarctic expedition who had been marooned on Elephant Island, gives credit to Frank Wild, second in command of the party on board the lost ship, the Endurance, for having kept his party together in strength and safety under most trying and difficult conditions.

Sir Ernest gives a detailed account by Wild, telling of the appalling weather which set in during the early days of their imprisonment on the ice floes. They realized immediately the difficulty with which any rescue would be attended under such weather conditions, and proceeded to make a food allowance, which, however, they were able now and then to supplement by penguins, seaweeds and limpets. In his report Mr. Wild pays high tribute to the excellent morale of the entire party.

OVER TWO HUNDRED AT SOLDIER'S FUNERAL

Full Military Honors for Private Who Dies at Quebec.

QUEBEC, Sept. 4.—Close on 200 returned Canadians attended the funeral on Saturday afternoon of Pte. James Downs, a member of the 24th Battalion who expired at the local discharge depot on Thursday last from illness contracted while serving overseas with the first contingent.

The late Pte. Downs was buried with full military honors in Mount Hermon Cemetery, following an imposing service in St. Matthew's Church. Six battle-scarred veterans acted as pallbearers, and four buglers who have seen service across the seas, carried some of the beautiful bouquets of flowers sent by Quebec people to decorate the coffin.

BRITISH OCCUPY GERMAN LINES ON LONG FRONT

Advance for Depth of 800 Yards on Stretch of 3,000 Yards.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—3 p.m.—As the result of the fighting yesterday north of the River Somme in France, says the British official statement issued today, British troops captured German defences on a 3,000 yard front for an average depth of 800 yards, and including the village of Guillemont. The whole of Ginchy at first was captured, but the British were later compelled to give ground, retaining a part of the town in spite of heavy counter-attacks during the night. Over 800 Germans were taken prisoners.

Fighting between the Somme and the Ancre was very severe, the British advance being stubbornly contested, and the enemy making repeated determined counter-attacks supported by very heavy artillery fire, says the statement, which concludes:

"The British advance almost everywhere was successful at the outset, and most of the enemy's counter-attacks, which cost him heavy losses, completely failed to shake the hold of the British troops on the ground won. The British line is the same as reported last night."

The official statement from general headquarters issued tonight reads:

"This morning the enemy made a counter-attack against our newly-won position northwest of Mouquet farm; he was easily repulsed. North of Falfemont farm our troops gained further ground during the afternoon. Heavy fighting continues on this portion of our front.

Beyond heavy artillery actions between the Ancre and the Somme there is nothing to report."

WEALTHY LUMBERMAN IS VICTIM OF HIGHWAYMEN

[Canadian Press.]

Bay City, Mich., Sept. 5.—Franklin E. Parker, wealthy lumberman, who was held up and shot by two highwaymen late last night, died in a hospital here today. He was a former president of the American Lumber Association, and had extensive interests in Canada. He was born in Bangor, Maine, 49 years ago.

CHINESE AND JAPANESE TROOPS IN NEW CLASH

[Canadian Press.]

Tokio, Sept. 5.—Another clash between Chinese and Japanese troops is officially reported from Cheoyang-Po, Mongolia, and has led to the dispatch of heavy Japanese reinforcements. It is claimed that the Chinese attacked the Japanese, while the Japanese were advancing to mediate between Chinese and Mongolians.

DAMAGE CAUSED BY LATEST ZEPP RAID IS PRACTICALLY NIL

British Press Bureau Replies to Claims in German Statement.

BERLIN, Sept. 4, via London.—An official statement was issued by the German admiralty today telling of the zeppelin raid on the southeastern counties of England last Saturday night. It said:

"During the night of September 2 several naval airship detachments bombarded the fortress of London and fortified places of Yarmouth and Harwich, as well as factories and places of strategical importance in the southeastern counties and on the Humber. Everywhere good effects were observed."

LONDON, Sept. 4.—5:55 p.m.—Commenting on the German official statement regarding Saturday night's raid on England, the British press bureau says:

"The damage done, that is to say practically nil, is exactly what was reported in the official communique. There was no conflagration of any importance and no explosions.

"There, moreover, is the strongest reason to believe that another airship in addition to the one destroyed, was very seriously damaged."

DANISH CRISIS IS OVER, GENERAL ELECTION IS OFF

London, Sept. 5—4:15 p.m.—A Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that the Danish political crisis arising out of the proposed sale of the Danish West Indies shows signs of collapsing suddenly. Although a general election seemed inevitable yesterday, the dispatch adds, it now appears to look as if the sale of the islands might still be accomplished without an election. The leader of the Conservative party today proposed to the premier that the negotiations for the formation of a coalition cabinet be reopened and the premier consented. The fact appears to be that all the parties are beginning to feel that an election would be a calamity at the present time.

SECOND ZEPPELIN WAS BADLY DAMAGED IN RAID

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 5.—That another zeppelin airship was badly damaged in the raid on the English southeastern counties Saturday night, in addition to the one destroyed, was indicated in an official statement given out this afternoon by the Government press bureau. It said:

"An important part of an enemy airship was picked up in the eastern counties. The ship undoubtedly suffered severe damage from gunfire."

ALLIES IN CONTROL.

WHILE dispatches say Constantine has declined to reconsider the Greek policy, it is apparent that his attitude is steadily becoming of less importance, as his advisers are taking the steering wheel from his hands and guiding the ship of state into Allied waters. Even if Greece, officially, does not actively assist the Allied armies, thousands of her soldiers are going to aid themselves to force back the Bulgars.

Drastic demands were made by Britain and France on the Athens Government, and it is significant that these have been granted with practically no hesitation. They include absolute control of posts and telegraph, with the wireless system, which means that henceforth Teuton spies, even if they manage to remain hidden in the country, are to have few opportunities to communicate with their German and Austrian friends.

To all intents and purposes, Greece is now in the hands of the Allies; not as a conquered country, but as a decidedly benevolent neutral, whose benevolence has been brought about by firmness on the part of Britain and France and the desires of her own people, exclusive of the king and his pro-German advisers. Firmness was needed to circumvent the machinations of the Teutons and prevent Constantine from acting the part of a traitor. It is not improbable that the presence of Allied troops in the country has saved it from an internal revolution and protected the king from forcible dethronement.

By the new conditions in Greece, Germany suffers a heavy body-blow. News of great value regarding Allied movements on land and sea has been coming to her from the kingdom over which the kaiser's sister has been virtually ruler. She has been assured of whatever assistance was possible from that quarter, but now a change has taken place. No longer will her submarines be supplied in Greek ports with fuel and food; no longer will her agents have liberty to unearth secrets which unavoidably were known in Greece; no longer is there the faintest possibility of dear Tino throwing in his national lot with Wilhelm. Even the queen will have grave difficulty in communicating with her beloved relatives at Potsdam.

Slow but sure have been the movements of the Allies. Little of the spectacular has been indulged in so far as the Balkans are concerned, but Rumania is now enlisted on the side of right, and Greece is safely kept from doing harm. Only Bulgaria has succumbed to the wiles of the Teuton, and her days are now filled with bitter regret. Right is triumphing in that field as on the western and eastern fronts, and every day brings victory nearer for the Entente. German diplomacy, which consists of artistic lying, has failed in the Balkans; German force will fail everywhere.

WHO IS CONSTANTINE?

IN HISTORY there have been many of them, and the one of first importance is not the king of Greece. If the people of Greece take the government of the country into their own hands, there will be no occasion to shed tears of sympathy for the deposed monarch.

Constantine's father was brought from Denmark and established on the throne of Athens as George I. by grace of the very powers the son is now aiming to destroy. Tino in course of time became heir, duke and prince. He went to Germany for his education, which was completed by his marriage to the sister of the present kaiser. The other notable feature of his career was his retreat before the Turks in Thessaly in 1897, when he served as commander-in-chief of the Greek forces.

So, today, the once-proud and ancient nation of Hellas has for its ruler an alien and a traitor, a man who, neither by lineage nor sympathies has a right to sit at Athens, a mere pawn in the hands of the German court. If the Greek people confiscate his personal property and drive him from the country they will only be asserting their rights over a foreign interloper. If they fail to do so they will be untrue to the valor and independence of their illustrious ancestors.

THE KAISER'S DESIGNS.

IN view of the resumption of operations in the Balkans a story told in the Nineteenth Century a few months ago is especially interesting as throwing light, possibly, on the German designs in the Near-East.

It is well known that two weeks before the assassination at Sarajevo of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and the Duchess of Hohenberg they were visited by the German Emperor and Admiral von Tirpitz. A semi-official German statement issued at the time said the kaiser went to the archduke's castle to see some rose gardens.

An anonymous correspondent has now given what he claims was the real reason for the visit. He says that on this occasion the kaiser and the archduke made a secret compact, during which the kaiser unfolded his plan for a great war involving Russia and France, assuming that Britain would not intervene. It is told that the kaiser prepared to reconstitute the old kingdom of Poland with additional provinces extending from the Baltic to the Black Sea, which was to be the inheritance of Francis Ferdinand and at his death go to his eldest son. Out of Bohemia, Hungary, Serbia and the Slav coast of the eastern Adriatic and Saloniki a second kingdom was to be carved for Ferdinand's second son. German Austria and Trieste were to become part of the German empire.

The scheme is said to have appealed to the archduke because, owing to his marriage, his heirs were barred from the throne of the dual monarchy.

The story is quite plausible, and may be true. Another story would be quite as plausible to the effect that the kaiser repented of his promise and decided to grasp Austria-Hungary and the Balkan States himself, bringing about the assassination of the archduke and his wife on the assumption that "dead men tell no tales." At any rate the developments of the war have shown that the groundwork of the story was correct.

WILSON'S COUP.

PRESIDENT WILSON has succeeded in averting a railway strike which involved directly the welfare of two million men, and indirectly the welfare of a continent. He intervened with Congress in behalf of the brotherhoods, securing for them an eight-hour work-day, and in return will get their votes in November. He has tacitly agreed that the railway corporations will be permitted to raise freight rates to meet the additional operating expense. This is a matter which must be adjusted by the interstate commerce commission, and will involve time and the manipulation of red-tape, which is likely to carry it beyond election day. So it is in the interest of the railway companies to see that Wilson is re-elected president, that he may carry out his promise. If he can prevail on the independent commerce commission to grant the rate increase, the burden will, of course, be shifted by the railways to the shippers, and by them to the public in general, by which time it will be pretty well forgotten.

Apart from the question as to whether or not the railwaymen are entitled to the increased wages, which the shortening of hours really means, it may be remarked that Professor Wilson has developed into quite a politician.

JUSTICE OF EVENTS.

IT IS said by some idealists that punishment should be reformative, and not retributive. Perhaps there is a logic by which this is true, and yet human nature rejoices in such things as a "just retribution," "poetic justice," "hoist by his own petard," etc. There is something satisfying in them.

Bulgaria is now placed, we hope, in the situation which was Serbia's last fall. Russia stands for Germany, the other allies for Austria, Rumania and Serbia for Bulgaria in the business of joint attack on one little nation. Bulgaria is in the same terrible peril as was Serbia a year ago. Not many will say that in this there is not a just and satisfying disposition of late, so far at least as the Sofia Government is concerned.

THE "SPARROW."

WE DO not hear so much these days of contempt for the "English sparrow." He has enlisted and helped give lustre to Canada in the battles of Flanders. He is helping to harvest the crops, or he is busy both here and in England with munitions.

His fellow workmen in Great Britain are like him, wideawake to their real interests and not to be blindfolded by claptrap. They enlisted with wonderful enthusiasm, and those working at munitions struck for more pay when they saw the profiteers trying to pocket everything. They opposed conscription until the Government followed their idea of conscription of large incomes as well. Oh, the labor of Great Britain knows what it is about. It is working overtime, submitting to considerable departures from union codes, bearing the brunt of the war with patience and a patriotism very different from the Allison brand, laughing with good humor, and singing over the work like a song sparrow. Hats off to the sparrow!

EXPLORING AND WAR.

SIR ERNEST SHACKLETON has rescued the 22 members of his Antarctic expedition who were left marooned on Elephant Island when he and five members of his crew managed to reach Port Stanley, Falkland Islands. This is good news, and will mean much to the families and friends of these men who for several months have been cut off from the world in danger of dying before help reached them.

In making his three attempts at rescue, the last of which has been successful, Shackleton has proved his loyalty to his comrades and his intrepid courage, if any proof were needed. He has added to his fame as a man, if not as an explorer.

But this courage on his part and on the part of those who accompanied him on his expedition is exactly what arouses wonder that in the face of their country's need of stalwart, courageous men to fight her battles on land and sea these men could ignore the call, and set out upon a venture which was by no means urgent. Shackleton himself is a commissioned officer in the King's navy, and to most of us it seems that he would have been better employed on one of the warships than in increasing the world's knowledge of geography. Of his physical fitness and that of his men there is as great certainty as of their bravery; no unfit could withstand the hardships of these expeditions, and no coward would attempt them.

Now that the marooned men are safely in Chili, let us hope that there will be no more efforts wasted on finding routes to the two poles until the war has ended. The nation has neither men nor money to spare for such adventures, while the need of both for more serious business is so pressing.

SAY "SQUIRREL."

J. J. A. Murphy, a mural painter who arrived here on the steamship Finland, after spending four years at work on panels in England, said that last Christmas, when he started for Ireland, he was told he would require no passport. At Holyhead, Wales, however, he was arrested as a German spy, according to the Brooklyn Eagle. For three hours he stood with bayonets at his breast, he said, while two officers plied him with questions.

"Say squirrel," one of the captains commanded at length. Mr. Murphy complied.

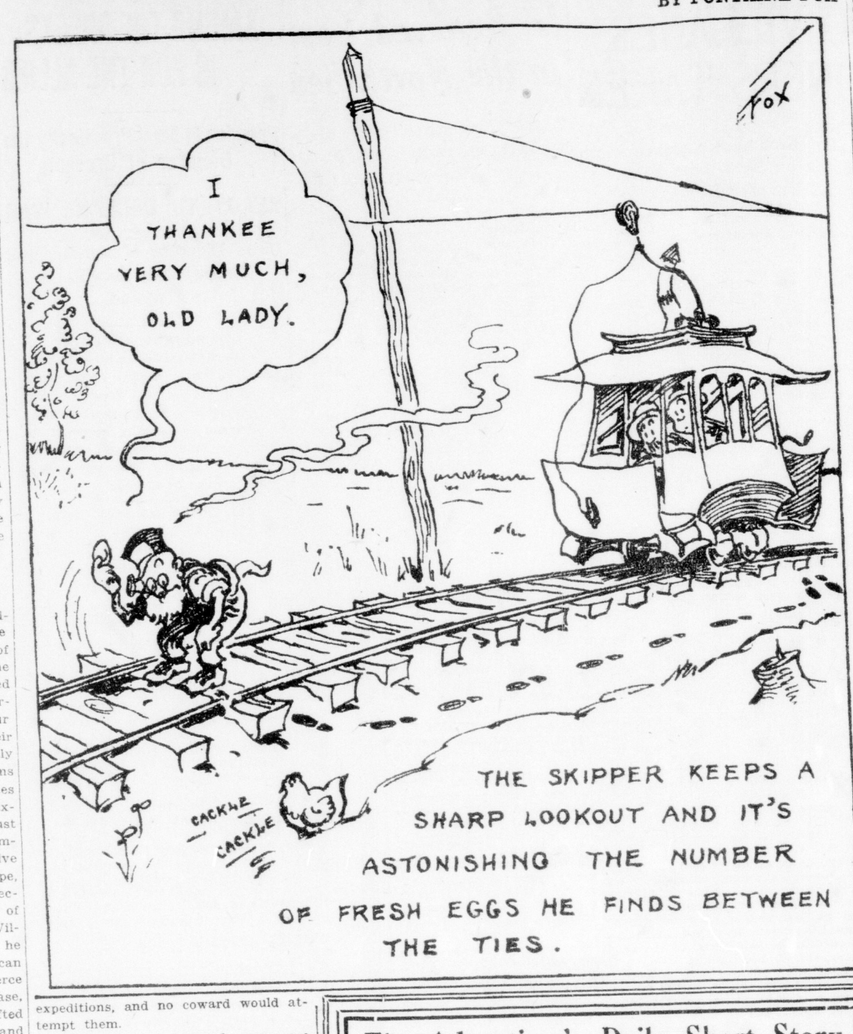

"You're free," the captain then announced.

On Mr. Murphy asking what the word squirrel had to do with it, the captain replied:

"A German can't say squirrel. By the way you said it, we know you are what you represent yourself to be."

Mary Doe

By Marion Francis.

During the spring vacation, Tom Sherrold took an auto trip along the Hudson. He had intended to spend a day or two at the home of his roommate, Phil Sharp, but he found on inquiry over the telephone that Phil had left Kingston the evening before for a visit to Brooklyn, so he decided to pass through without stopping.

As he sped up one of the long winding hills leading away from the town, he spied a girl on the road ahead. She was standing disconsolately beside a trim roadster which had evidently misbehaved. Tom threw on his brakes, brought his own car to a standstill and doffed his hat.

"Is there anything I can do?" he asked.

The girl turned to him with a pair of grateful eyes; they were brown eyes which reminded him somehow of some one he had dreamed about, years ago.

"I don't know what's the matter with the old car," she said petulantly, although there was a hint of a twinkle in her eye. "It just won't go."

"Maybe I can fix it." Tom knew absolutely nothing about the mechanism of a car, but he opened the hood and looked wisely into the complicated engine. He tried the self-starter, but it didn't work. He opened the hood again, touched a nut or two, and then tested the starting apparatus. But still there were no results. Finally, he nodded his head as if he knew all about it.

"The differential's busted," he announced. "I'm afraid you'll have to send for a regular mechanic."

"Oh!" She appeared distressed. "That means I'll have to go back to Kingston."

Tom ventured a suggestion.

"I was just thinking of going back that way myself," he said. "You might just as well ride with me."

She smiled at him frankly.

"You know you weren't thinking of any such thing," she stated. "But I'm half inclined to accept your invitation."

Tom sprang into the driver's seat.

"Come on in," he invited. "It will be perfectly all right, because I know some one who lives in Kingston."

"Oh, you do?" She appeared interested.

"Yes," he continued, as she made no movement to enter the car. "I'm a great friend of Phil Sharp. He's my roommate at college."

She looked surprised.

"Phil Sharp?" she repeated.

"Yes, do you know him?"

She hesitated a moment, and then smiled.

"Never heard of him. Does he live in Kingston?"

"Why, yes." He appeared puzzled. "I thought everybody knew Phil."

"I may have met him." She spoke slowly, as if trying to recall the young gentleman in question. "What does he look like?"

"He has brown hair and brown eyes—" He paused. "Looks something like you, to tell the truth."

The girl shook her head.

"No," she announced, "I don't know him."

"You ought to." Tom spoke enthusiastically. "He's a mighty good-looking chap."

"Was that meant for a compliment?" she smiled amusedly.

"Yes, it was." Tom answered truthfully. "But I'd like to have you know him because he might ask you to a college dance."

"Has he a sister?"

"Yes. I've never met her, but Phil seems to think she's a peach. He's going to have her down to the senior ball next week."

"What is her name?"

"Althea."

"Oh!" Her face lighted with recognition. "I know Althea Sharp. Met her one day at a Country Club tea."

"Did you like her?"

"Fairly well."

"What kind of girl is she?"

"You seem to be immensely interested in her."

"I am. You see, we have five dances together at the ball. Phil has asked her because he has to, but he really likes the girl I am going to bring. So he's going to shove his sister off on me whenever he can."

"I don't think you'll like her very much. She's a college girl, and rather prim and sedate."

"And I have five dances with her. Oh, well!" He smiled. "I wish Phil had asked some one else; some one like you, for instance."

The girl changed the subject.

"Do you want to take me to Kingston now?" she asked.

"Surely; jump in."

The roadster sped onward. That ride was one of the most enjoyable occasions Tom could remember. They talked about numerous things; he told her of the college, of Phil, and of the dances; she told him of Kingston, and something of the people she knew. The garage was reached all too quickly, and the girl jumped out.

"I'm very much obliged to you," she said, offering her hand. "The man in the garage will take me back."

Tom refused to be dismissed so easily.

"Aren't you going to tell me your name?" he asked.

She hesitated.

"Why, yes, I guess so," she said finally. "My name is Mary Doe."

"And your address?"

"Just Kingston."

"Do you mind if I write to you?"

"I'd rather you wouldn't. Maybe some time, if you come to Kingston with Mr. Sharp, we'll meet again. Good-bye."

She waved to him and disappeared into the garage.

All that day and the next that brief ride to Kingston was uppermost in Tom's mind. Upon returning to college, he cornered Phil Sharp and asked him about Mary Doe. But Phil was unable to give him any information.

"I never heard of her," he said. "What does she look like?"

"Brown eyes, brown hair, a soft voice and a white skirt," Tom raved.

"Must be some one new in town. I'll ask Althea when she comes down."

So Tom was forced to be satisfied until the senior ball rolled around. He waited on the porch of the fraternity house while Phil went to the train to meet his sister. He heard the engine pull away, and then watched idly as the college men and their fair guests came strolling across the campus.

Suddenly he sat bolt upright, amazement in his eyes, for around the corner of Blair Hall walked Phil Sharp, and beside him was the mystic girl he had met at Kingston. He watched them, half unbelievingly, until they reached the porch.

"My sister, Althea," Phil announced. Tom took her outstretched hand, and the girl smiled up at him.

"I believe we have met before," she said.

"We surely have; but you told me your name was Mary Doe."

"I told you a fib," she answered. "I wanted to surprise you when you saw me here. Are you sorry?"

"Sorry!" Tom's heart leaped rather crazily. "It's the best thing that's happened to me in years. "And," he added thoughtfully, "I'm going to ask Phil to give me five more dances."

Daily Bible Question Club

By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.
(All Rights Reserved.)

The six daily studies for this week constitute the International S. S. Lesson for next Sunday. Read the Bible Story on which this study is based, as you ponder the following questions:

"The Arrest of Paul." Acts xxi., 17-40. Golden Text—"Thou shalt be a witness for Him unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard." Acts xxii., 15.

4. Verses 20-22—Why does a good man always "glorify God" at the success of others, and why is a man who is not truly good generally jealous at the success of others?

5. What either in heaven or on earth is the greatest cause for joy? (See Luke xv., 7.)

6. Why could, or could not, a Christian, either then or now, be fully led of the Holy Spirit, if at the same time he were "zealous of the law"?

7. There were "thousands of Jews" at that time who were Christians, notwithstanding they were propagating doctrines out of harmony with the Gospel; how much error may a man teach in these days, and still be reconciled to God?

VERSE--New and Old

TO THE WEST, TO THE WEST.

[Sent By "Kerteh."]

To the West, to the West, to the land of the free,
Where mighty Missouri rolls down to the sea,
Where a man is a man, if he's willing to toil,
And the humblest may gather the fruits of the soil;
Where children are blessings, and he who hath most
Has aid for his fortune and riches to boast,
Where the young may exult and the aged may rest,
Away, far away, to the land of the West.

Chorus—

To the West, to the West, to the land of the free,
Where mighty Missouri rolls down to the sea,
Where the young may exult, and the aged may rest,
Away, far away, to the land of the West.

To the West, to the West, where the rivers that flow,
Run thousands of miles, spreading out as they go,
As wide as old England and free to us all,
Where the prairies like seas, where the billows have rolled,
Are broad as the kingdoms and empires of old;
And the lakes are like oceans in storms or in rest,
Away, far away, to the land of the West.

Chorus—

To the West, to the West, there is wealth to be won,
The forest to clear is the work to be done;
We'll try it, we'll do it, and never despair,
While there's light in the sunshine or breath in the air.
The bold independence that labor shall buy,
Shall strengthen our hands and forbid us to sigh;
Away, far away, let us hope for the best,
And build up a home in the land of the West.

Chorus—

London Advertiser COOK-BOOK

Recipes Supplied By Cynthia Grey's Readers.

"Aunt Jemima."

Cabbage Salad.—Two heads cabbage chopped fine, yolks of four eggs, two tablespoons mustard, one tablespoon cornstrach, one tablespoon salt, one teaspoon of black pepper, half teaspoon of curry powder. Stir all into the chopped cabbage, then add one pint of vinegar, quarter pound of butter, one cup brown sugar. Heat and pour over cabbage, and let boil. Stir well while cooking. Seal while hot. Will keep a year.

NATURE-FAKING.

A Long Island teacher was recounting the story of Red Riding Hood. After describing the woods and the wild animals that flourished therein, she added:

"Suddenly Red Riding Hood heard a great noise. She turned about, and what do you suppose she saw standing there, gazing at her and showing all its sharp, white teeth?"

"Teddy Roosevelt!" volunteered one of the boys.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

[Correspondents are requested to make their inquiries as brief as possible, and to write on one side of the paper only. It is impossible to give replies within a stated time, as all letters have to be answered in turn. No letter can be answered privately.]

Incloses Coupons.

Dear Miss Grey,—Am inclosing 18 Sweetheart coupons, 16 Magic Baking Powder, and 50 Comfort Soap. In exchange would like rolled oats coupons, either Quaker or Robin Hood.

Yours very truly, KNIT.

P.S.—I notice this morning where "Apple Blossom" asks for tobacco coupons. If the one inclosed is the sort she wants, I will send her more.

Ans.—I am keeping your coupons as they are to see if anyone sends others in exchange.

For the Good of All.

Dear Miss Grey—I saw where someone was troubled with ants. Well, I was troubled with them this summer, so I took a little chloride of lime and put hot water on it and put it in a dish I did not use for anything, and set that where the ants were troublesome, and they soon disappeared. But I did not have any victuals anywhere to be tainted with it. Keep from the children.

I also saw where someone was troubled with ingrown toenails. I went to a doctor once with the same trouble and he told me to let my toenails grow. I said they would wear a hole in my stocking. He said, "Well, cut your toenails off straight across the ends, and not cut the corners off, and you will have no more trouble with in-grown toenails," and I never did. For bunions I get a box of iodine ointment for 10 or 5 cents at a drug store, and rub it on the joint; wrap a rag around the foot, apply at night; the rag is to keep it off the bed clothes. I cured mine that way. M. C. D.

"Aunt Nannie's" "Sons."

My Dear Miss Grey,—I am sending what I found to be a sure way to use the plums that were bitter after being cooked. I received "Snow Bird's" silk block. I am sending today for copies missed last week. I watch for them each day, and the Mail-Box letters are so interesting—and the news of the boys at Camp Borden and the boys at the front I just devour.

In a letter received a few days ago from Belgium from an 18th Battalion boy, a chum of our son, he says:

"Dear Mother,—I must call you that, seeing you have adopted the whole 18th Battalion," then tells how my letter followed him from one battalion to another till by the time it reached the last one he had been in, he was back with his unit. Speaking of my budget of cuttings he says: "I send thanks from all the boys, and they say they are all proud to be your sons." Well, I am proud of all my soldier boys, "Coal-Box" and "Twenty-One," and those I do not know by name also.

My, but I'm glad "Engineer's Wife" has a piano. Bang it all you can, dear. I know the watching and waiting for mail, then after the last letter came, word came there would be no more. The hand that had penned the loving messages and the loved one was at rest in Belgium—a memory only. Now I have many soldier boys and you, dear friend, and my wonderful "patriotic love quilt." I've so many things to be thankful for; yet at this time the tears will come in spite of all efforts to be cheerful for the sake of others. With greetings to each one from,

AUNT NANNIE.

Wants Sweet Pickle.

Dear Miss Grey,—Here I am again, and sorry I have kept you waiting so long for the lemon biscuit recipe, but better late than never. Whites of 2 eggs, beat stiff; 5c powdered ammonia, 5c oil of lemon, 2½ cups granulated sugar, 1 pint lard, 1 pint milk (must be fresh milk after straining). Soak ammonia in milk over night; in morning see that it is all dissolved, then mix in all other ingredients, and don't roll too thin; cut either square or round as preferred, and bake a light brown; set away for a few days until the ammonia escapes.

Nobody seems to give me recipe for mixed sweet pickles, hoping it may come out soon.

Will you kindly give me a good cure for bronchitis?

I shall give you some more recipes later on. Wishing you and readers success, will sign myself PACK.

Ans.—None of my numerous cook books appear to show a mixed sweet pickle recipe, but surely among our many contributors there is someone who makes 'em who can supply the recipe?

2. Readers afflicted with this trouble may be able to give remedies. Sorry I am not able to suggest any cure myself.

Wants the Numbers.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am making a cushion of flags and I am short of these few numbers, so I am coming to you for a little help if you can supply them for me. 2, 12, 16, 24, 25, 31, 36 and 55. I inclose a flag the kind I want, also one coupon and one orange wrapper, also a stamped addressed envelope. I will return flags in exchange for those numbers. I will sign myself. TOPSY.

Ans.—These numbers desired by "Topsy" are in what is known as the "Animal" series. I should be very pleased if someone sends them in for her.

Is This It?

Dear Miss Grey,—I see "English Genevieve" wants a piece of poetry. Is this what she wants? Here is a few words. I will send the rest in if this is right:

A Collier boy they call him, little Jim,
The cottage was a thatched one,
The outside old and mean,
Yet everything within that cot
Was wondrous neat and clean.

"Tell father, when he comes from work
I said good night to him,
And mother, now I go alsleep,"—
Alas, poor little Jim.

"I have no pain, dear mother, now,
But, oh, I feel so dry,
Just moisten poor Jim's lips again,
Mother, don't you cry."

ENGLISH GIRL.

Auntie's First Call.

Dear Miss Grey,—As this is my first visit I won't ask any questions, but will try and help a little.

I saw where a soldier's niece wanted a piece, "The Charming Young Widow I Met on the Train." Thought I would send it. I will send you recipe for winter cabbage salad.

AUNT JEMIMA.

Ans.—Although your first call, I hope it will not be the last, "Auntie." Using your recipe in the Cook Book.

Coming Again.

Dear Miss Grey,—I inclose "Widder Green's Last Words" for "Spunk." I copied them some time ago, but failed to send them. (But I suppose you know that). I'm coming again soon, so will close, hoping no one will get into a white heat over the soldier's wife's money. I remain, JERRY ON THE JOB

P.S.—I will try and get more pieces for "Spunk," and will also try and copy them with pen and ink next time. —J. O. T. J.

Ans.—Recitation will be sent forward to "Spunk." By all means fulfill your threat to "come again soon."

Yoke and Sleeves.

Dear Miss Grey,—I noticed where some of the readers were asking for crochet yoke patterns, so I'm sending one, with sleeves.

Would like to get five soldier flags and a few with the animals on.

Was glad to see a letter from "Calamity Ann" again.

What do you think of my writing? Will sign myself as before.

SOUR PICKLES.

P.S.—Am sending envelope for flags if I can get them.—S. P.

Ans.—I have placed the five soldier flags in your envelope. Who can give "Animal" flags in exchange for the yoke design?

2. Fairly neat.

Help for Lightning.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have not written to your Mail-Box before, although I read it with interest every day. I see in your Mail-Box of Saturday that one of your readers would like some No. 18 P. coupons, and as I had ten by me, I thought I would send them on. Wishing you every success, and hoping the coupons will help, from

A SOLDIER'S WIFE.

Ans.—Of course they help. I believe it is "Lightning's" appeal that you are answering, so have placed the coupons in her envelope. Hope you'll call again.

Husband In Hospital.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see where Sunkist orange wrappers are in great demand. I only have five, but will help to make up someone's number; will send more when I have them.

Could you please let me have some Surprise soap ovals in return? Keep my envelope until you get quite a few.

Please excuse my writing, as I let the window accidentally fall on my forefinger and squashed it at the point, so I have not got the use of it, and it is very painful. Have just come home from England. I was in England all winter and part of the summer. I was visiting my husband, who has been in the hospital for nine months now.

MRS. B.

Ans.—"Mrs. B." deserves the sympathy of us all in the prolonged illness of her husband, and it must be hard now to be separated from him. Shall be pleased to save what S. S. ovals I can for you.

Welcome, Anyway.

Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first visit to the Mail-Box, but as I have a few flags I thought they might be of some use. I have also some Comfort soap wrappers, if anyone would care for them. Will close, wishing you and the Mail-Box readers the best of everything. I will sign myself

IMMIGRANT.

Ans.—By your writing, should deem you of the sterner sex, but perhaps not. Anyway, flags are very welcome, and will be distributed carefully.

A Friendship Bracelet.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am starting a friendship bracelet, with the gold-colored links; they are twenty-five cents a link, and if anyone will send me their link or initials I will gladly send mine in return, as I would like to get it completed before long. Now, if anyone would like soap wrappers or slips of plants in return, I would be glad to send them, and I will send a stamped envelope in case any comes. Here's good wishes to Miss Grey.

A HAPPY GIRLIE.

Ans.—I have H. G.'s address. Who will exchange with her?

Proud He Enlisted.

Dear Miss Grey,—I take pleasure in writing to let you know how your paper did me good when I read that you wouldn't print all "A Farmer's Helpmate's" letter; for I am sure I think there is a little to be considered. When this terrible war started, it needed a wife's consent (I for one gave mine) to enable the husbands to enlist. When we read of the battles the Canadians have helped win, can we ignore the fact that the first and second contingents were made up largely of married men, and then forget ourselves and condemn the soldiers' wives? Of my own experience, I never received one cent patriotic fund from August, 1914, until well into 1915. We did not get all "honey," as "O.F.O.E." complains of, or get time to waste any. I got my husband back with rheumatism and shattered nerves. I never got much money, but I am proud I was a soldier's wife.

Now, Miss Grey, this is my first visit to your Mail-Box, but I would like to see "A Farmer's Helpmate" "feel like a thief," and read a book once in a while, and give the soldiers' wives a rest. If it's 27 years since she went to school, and ten years that she went, it's time she learned to give up working from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. God made heaven and earth in six days and rested on the seventh.

Best of luck to every soldier's wife, and may the best of news await you all. Good-bye, Miss Grey; may I call again? What nationality do you think I am? MOTHER OF THREE.

Ans.—I fancy that you are English, "M. of T." Certainly, you may call again. The latchstring is always out.

Agrees With Disgusted.

Dear Miss Grey,—I hope you will excuse me for writing to your Mail-Box again so soon. I am a regular reader of your page now, and seeing "Disgusted's" letter on tobacco chewing I venture to make a brief reply. I do not think "Disgusted" is a crank on the subject. I think she is perfectly right, the habit is decidedly filthy and unnecessary. It is very prevalent among the soldiers, and it makes it very disagreeable for those that do not like it. I think that it is like all other habits, it can be overcome by prayer and setting one's will to overcome it. I used to smoke cigarettes and take an occasional glass of beer, but when I left England to come to Canada I cut out both of them, and I have not touched either of them since ten years ago last October, and I am going to try and leave them alone for ever. I think the companionship of a good young woman can do much to keep a young man in the right way, and help to make life worth while. I will now close this scribble wishing your page every success. Yours, etc.,

COUNTRY LAD.

Ans.—You're the right sort, "Country Lad," and may you ever keep your resolves towards a clean life, no matter what the temptation. If some of our girls had a better realization of what even their unconscious influence for good has with a young man, they would be more watchful that it was for good and not otherwise. "Country Lad" is a soldier himself, readers; don't you think we should be proud of him?

Plums and Elderberries.

Dear Miss Grey,—I see "Grateful" is asking about how to preserve plums that taste bitter after being cooked. The skins of the yellow and red-cheeked plums are always bitter, and some other varieties. Scald plums as you would tomatoes or peaches, till the skins crack open (in boiling water on the stove), skim them out, put on platters to cool, then remove the skins, dropping plums into sugar and sprinkling sugar between lays of plums. Let them set for a couple of hours to harden the plums and melt sugar; then drain off the syrup; when it boils, add some plums; when cooked clear put in crock till all are cooked, then cook syrup till it thickens and pour over plums.

I am sending "Scotch Reader" a formula for putting up elderberries for pies that I learned years ago, and people who said, "I wouldn't eat elderberry pie, no matter who made it," ate some at our table and thought it a favorite fruit. Carefully stem the elderberries and weigh them; have a new boiler or large kettle on the stove, with plenty of hot water in it; put in a pint of strong vinegar to three gallons of water, add berries and let them scald—not boil. When the water tastes bitter and strong, as it will in a few minutes, stir carefully, not to break the berries; then with the skimmer take out the berries, drain off all the water; have ready a syrup as for sweet pickles, put in berries, cook till clear, skim out into an earthen jar or crock, cook syrup till thick, pour over the berries; let set on back of stove and simmer, if iron stove, stirring occasionally till cool; put waxed paper over when cold, then cover and fasten securely. When wanted for pies, put crust in pans, dip berries from jar cold onto crust, cover with upper crust and bake.

Sweet Pickle—For seven pounds of elderberries allow four pounds of brown sugar and one quart of vinegar, one teaspoonful each of cloves and of cinnamon tied up in little bag of cheesecloth. To can berries, the pickle would not have to be so rich.

For "A Reader."

The sachet powder should be fine and smooth. I had none; when I made my beads I used talcum powder instead, and it worked as well. For violet coloring or purple, dissolve the scrapings from an indelible pencil in a little water and use.

Wants a Position.

Dear Miss Grey,—You have helped me before, so I am going to you again. Now this is my trouble: I would like to get into a bank (oh, no, not to rob it)—I suppose it would be better to say I would like to get a position in a bank. I have two years' high school education, but no experience of any kind. Boys go into banks without any experience, so I was wondering if girls could do the same. Now, Miss Grey, any information you could give me would be gratefully received.

How would I go about it to get in, and who would I have to see?

I saw in your paper some time ago some kind of stuff you get in a drug store to clean white shoes. I think it said a few cents' worth would do a whole summer. I wonder if you know what it is?

A YANKEE GIRL.

Ans.—Your letter bears no address line, and the envelope is destroyed, so I do not know whether you live in London or not. If you do, visit the Women's Emergency Corps quarters at the city hall, and inquire about such positions. If your home is out of town, write to Mrs. John Carling, in care of the corps, stating your qualifications, etc. An opening might be obtained in this way.

Or you could simply apply in person at any of the banks in your locality. Ask for the manager, in applying.

2. It was oxalic acid that someone advised. Dilute with water, and sponge the boots.

Was Overlooked.

Dear Miss Grey,—In answer to the inquiry from "Nurse" in Saturday's paper, asking for names of one or more convalescent homes for returned soldiers in London, did you not overlook the larger and more important one. "The Victoria Central Convalescent Home" at Victoria Hospital?

2. Can you tell me why an officer is allowed to "resign" from the militia, after having served two years here and abroad, and is still physically fit, claiming that his business, which is well established, needs his attention? When my brother enlisted with the first contingent it was for three years or until the end of the war.

Am inclosing four Magic baking powder coupons for "Lightning."

PRO PATRIA.

Ans.—1. Yes. Thanks for the correction.

2. I cannot tell you. To me, it is one of those heartbreaking and temperrousing differences between officers and those in the ranks, but well, who shall explain it? Not. I. It has been said that officers can resign, but privates must be resigned.

ZEPPELINS OR SPIDERS.

A story is told of a young French woman who observed with punctilliousness the wartime precautions ordered by the police.

She kept the shutters closed at nightfall and the curtains pulled down, so that not a speck of light would escape from her apartment. But one night, when reading the newspaper, she said that she had reached the limit.

The newspapers said that if the zeppelins came all persons must go into the cellars. She told her friends she would not go down into the cellar.

"I do not care a fig for the zeppelins," she said. "It is no use asking me. I will not go down into the cellar."

"But why?" asked her friend.

"Because," she replied, "I am afraid of spiders."

SAFETY THERE.

Auntie—Bobby, why don't you get up and give your seat to your father? Doesn't it pain you to see him reaching for the strap?

Bobby—Not on a train, it doesn't.

WATCHFUL WAITING.

Farmer—Why haven't you harnessed that horse yet, Missie?

The Lady Help (holding bridle and bit)—I can't get this into his mouth, so I'm waiting for him to yawn.

HE WON'T VOTE.

"I don't like the looks of those Republican nominees," said the barber as he gazed at their bewhiskered portraits.

"But," remarked the man in the chair, "how do you know but what the Democratic nominees use safety razors?"

BETWIXT AND BETWEEN.

"Madam," said the doctor to the mother, "you should send this child to the country for several weeks each summer."

"I am sorry to say, doctor," she returned, "that we are not rich enough for that."

"Then," suggested the physician, "have her sent by the fresh-air fund."

"Oh, doctor," exclaimed the woman, "we are not poor enough."

Isn't this a wonderful Oven

Glass Door
Tested Thermometer
Walls of nickeled steel
Economy flue system
Ventilation

WHAT more could be added? Here is an oven youenjoy using, an oven that saves your fuel, and that helps you serve finer meals than you ever thought you were capable of cooking.

1 The Glass Oven-door saves all the time you used to spend getting up and down to watch your baking. Now a glance, as you go about your other work, tells you how everything is baking in the oven.

2 There is no guess-work about the heat of this oven. That is because we test the Pandora Thermometers. When the Oven is right, the thermometer says so. Now, that means a lot in having your bakings always the same.

3 And should the cooking bubble over, the Pandora oven is so easily cleaned. The quick-heat steel used in making the oven walls is heavily nickel-plated. No metal could be more sanitary, and rust-proof.

4 But the saving of coal—one of the natural reasons for the success of this wonderful range—is not all made by the special walls of the oven. The nickeled steel allows heat to penetrate into the oven very quickly, but it is the McClary flue system that directs the heat twice around the oven and stops the usual wastage.

5 The Ventilated Oven carries off all cooking odors. You know what that means—no smudge or disagreeable odors around the house at meal times.

DETROIT BOAT BURNED IN A THRILLING RACE AFTER MAKING RECORD

Three Express Cruisers Collide and Spoil Event — Miss Minneapolis Wins Second Heat of National Power Boat Races.

DETROIT, Sept. 4. — Miss Minneapolis, of the Minneapolis Power Boat Association, averaging nearly 50 miles an hour, today won the second heat of the national power boat races here today. She crossed the line ahead in each of the six laps, and won in 41:46. Miss Detroit, the cup defender, was second; Peter Pan VII., of the Columbia Yacht Club, New York, third, and Hawkeye, of the Lake George Club, fourth. The day's sport was marred by two accidents.

Baby Marold of Detroit, after setting up a new world's record of 53.55 miles an hour for five miles in the first lap, caught fire near the finish of the second time around, and was totally destroyed. It was necessary to sink the craft to extinguish the blaze. Her driver, John Milot of Detroit, was slightly burned about the hands and thrown out by the force of the explosion. The mechanician jumped overboard after heading the boat away from the shore, and escaped uninjured. Breaking of the gasoline line caused the fire.

The other accident, a collision of three express cruisers, necessitated calling off the express cruiser race. The Betty M. II. of Detroit was caught between the Venetian Maid and Aeolus, also of Detroit, and her stern split open. No one was injured, and the Betty M. II. was towed ashore. A holiday crowd of fully 200,000 persons witnessed the races from the shores of the city and Belle Isle.

Miss Minneapolis now has fourteen points on the gold cup, Peter Pan VII. and Miss Detroit eleven each, and Hawkeye eight. The third heat will be raced tomorrow, and on Wednesday the one-mile championship of America will be competed for.

Tony Zoccano Gets Better of Ed. Morgan

London Featherweight Is Aggressor Throughout Fight With Providence Lad—Four Good Preliminaries Staged at Queen's Park on Labor Day.

Boxing fans who wandered out to Queen's Park in the cool of yesterevening, hoping to see lots of gore spread promiscuous-like around the ring, were not disappointed. The main bout of the evening's entertainment was provided by Kid Zoccano of this city and Ed Morgan of Providence, R. I., under the auspices of the Sportsmen's Patriotic Association. The attendance was possibly 1,000. Zoccano was the better man and won on points.

But let's get back to the scrap. That's all it was; it could not be called a boxing exhibition. The fireworks did not really commence till the eighth round, and then all the Roman candles went off at once. The match that touched off the excitement was lit at the end of the seventh spasm. After the bell rang Morgan took what was slightly more than a love-tap at Zoccano, which the latter resented, causing the last three rounds to be for blood.

The whole fight from beginning to end could be summed up in three words —hit and clinch. Referee Taylor, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., was the hardest-worked man in the ring, and had about as much blood on his manly chest as Brothers Morgan and Zoccano had on theirs. However, the crowd seemed to enjoy the fracas, and howled itself hoarse. When it was seen that the boys were out for blood, especially in the last two rounds, the spectators crowded up as close as they could and shouted themselves into a state not found south of the line. It was a merry three minutes. However, the worst is yet to come. Fasten your glims to this. The Kid tried his best for a knockout, but couldn't come across. Morgan held on as if his friend (?) owed him all the British war loans—only more so. The fight ended in a clinch, but Zoccano was not satisfied, and wanted to sail in and give the public a little extra for its money. Stage centre and spotlight for Mr. Taylor. He grabbed the Kid, and, lifting him up, carried him to his corner, where it took three men to hold him. The crowd surged onto the race-track, where the ring was erected, but Sergt. Birrell and his trusty crew blew in a few eyelashes ahead, and constituted themselves as a front-line trench. Morgan went over to Zoccano's corner and wanted to shake hands, but the Kid refused. Here goes for the harrowing details.

First Round.—Boys exchanged love taps in the centre of the ring and then closed in the first of several hundred clinches which lasted throughout the scrap. The Kid scored the first knockdown and then splashed into another clinch. There were eleven of the latter in the first round. The crowd called on them to box.

Second Round.—Zoccano does the leading. Both get in some wicked blows in the clinches which followed. Tony Zoccano was strong on jabbing uppercuts, while Morgan played for the kidneys. Tony managed to land two swings to the jaw, Morgan coming back with two nice ones to the same spot. The round was even.

Third Round—There was some fine wrestling in this three minutes. Morgan secured two falls and Zoccano one. The Kid landed the first clean-cut punch of the scrap when he caught Morgan square on the jaw with his right and followed it up with a clout over the eye, which started the first claret flowing. The Kid's round.

Fourth Round—A series of clinches with an occasional exchange of blows. This was a tame one.

Fifth Round—Tony does what little leading is being done. Morgan throws the Kid to the floor. They clinch. Both get in some wicked uppercuts and kidney blows in the clinches that follow one after the other.

The sixth and seventh rounds were practically repetitions of the fifth round, with the exception that the Kid chased his opponent to the ropes in the latter round. Both took a lot of punishment in the clinches.

Shortly after the eighth round started, blood started to flow in real earnest. Zoccano was getting the best of the mill, doing all the leading and landing some rocking smashes on Morgan's jaw. Body blows were few and far between. There were 25 breaks in this round.

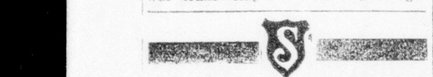

In the ninth and tenth rounds both men tried for each other's eyes, which were puffed up like toy balloons. Both tried hard to land that well-known haymaker, but Morgan was tired, and did a lot of hanging on. The gong ended the fight in Morgan's corner with Zoccano the aggressor.

For real boxing the preliminary bouts had it on the main affair like a tent. The first bout, between Alf Famularo and Young Fishburn was fairly fast, and fought to a draw. They walked around each other like two young bantams, and drew the applause of the crowd frequently. Not a break marred the mill. The boys weighed in at 105 pounds.

The second scrap was staged by Moore and Hicks, the latter having considerably the best of the argument, having a longer reach. The only times that Moore made it interesting for his lanky opponent was when he forced the fighting, and hammered Hick's guard. It was a lively scrap. The fight went five rounds.

Cookson and Lucas at 115 pounds put up a merry little battle for eight rounds. Cookson did some good work, while young Lucas deserves a heap of credit for the punishment that he took. He always came back for more, and took some that looked good for haymakers.

Wrainwright and Ferris put up three rounds of fast stuff. The mill was announced for five rounds, but Ferris was forced to quit at the end of the third. He had the best of the argument in the first round, but that finished him. In the next two rounds, Wrainwright merely toyed with him. The latter was a sparring partner of Zoccano.

GRIST FROM LAST NIGHT'S MILL

If the honorable aldermen who provide excitement at city council meetings could have been among those present at Queen's Park last night, they would have been green with envy. There was more of the red eye flowing in a minute at last night's proceedings than there was in the recent Palmer-Wilson bombardment.

Fire Chief Aitken was at the ringside, accompanied by Sergt. Birrell. It was not necessary to call the fire department to slush out the ring between rounds.

We tried to get the chief's expert and first hand knowledge as to the amount and rate at which the claret flowed, at the council meeting of undying fame, and in last night's fracas. He compromised by stating that it flowed about the same rate as the McGregor wells. Are you wise?

All one had to do was to shut one's eyes to imagine that he was on the Italian battle front. Many were the shrill and war-like cries that soared up to heaven in the Italian language, egging their hero Tony Zoccano on to further efforts.

The old thrillers in the Canadian baseball league had nothing on last night's exhibition for lung power. It also had that rag time walk with Baby at 4 a.m. beaten four city blocks.

"Most Brootal; Most Brootal," was the way Sergt. Birrell described the main bout. "Why didn't you stop it then, sergeant?" was inquired. "Wull, to tell yuh the troth, I just wanted to see how far they would carry the affair," returned the bulwark of the police force. He sure saw—so did everybody else.

TWO BADLY INJURED IN 300-MILE RACE

Car Turns Turtle on Track—Johnny Aitken Wins Sweepstakes.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 4. — Johnny Aitken assumed a lead over Dario Resta at the 168th mile and won the first annual 300-mile sweepstakes at the new Sharonville track today. Wilbur D'Alene was second, while Frank Galvin, far behind, drew down third money.

One accident marred the day's sport. Gilbert Anderson, while in the stretch run on the 36th mile, skidding and diving into the fence. His car turned turtle and he was dangerously injured. His mechanician, Bert Shields, suffered a fracture of the thigh and internal injuries, and his recovery is doubtful.

Aitkens' time was 3:05:27, an average of 97.06 miles an hour.

TENNIS EXPERTS TO BATTLE TODAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Williams and Johnston Victors in the Finals.

5,000 PEOPLE APPLAUD

Ex-President Roosevelt a Spectator of Remarkable Racquet Exhibition.

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Master racquet-wielders from east and west will contest here tomorrow afternoon for the 1916 national singles tennis championship. R. Norris Williams II. of Philadelphia, and William M. Johnston of San Francisco, sole survivors of the 128 players who entered the tournament a week ago, won their places today in the finals, by defeating respectively Clarence J. Griffin of San Francisco, and R. Lindley Murray of California and New York. Williams eliminated Griffin, 6—3, 6—3, 6—3, and Johnston checked Murray's flight, 6—2, 6—3, 6—1.

In neither case was the victor severely pressed, and the playing of the two matches consumed less than two hours. Each winner demonstrated that his control of racquet and ball and his court generalship and experience were entirely too great, today at least, for the player who opposed him. While in neither match did the tennis reach the sensational flights uncovered on Saturday, when Church and Murray met, today's winners gave a remarkable exhibition of steady, well-rounded tennis, which was all the more remarkable in view of the weather conditions. Although there was not a cloud in the sky, a high and dusty wind blew across the courts all afternoon, at times reaching almost the proportions of a gale.

Notwithstanding the handicap, Johnston and Williams shot the ball about the court with excellent control, crosscourting, lobbing and driving for side and back lines with almost the same certainty they would have displayed on a calm day. Under this brilliant and steady driving of the ball, Griffin and Murray were outclassed, and the matches lacked fire and thrill, although the gallery of more than 5,000 spectators applauded every shot, and endeavored to encourage the losers to lift their games nearer the plane of their rivals. Former President Roosevelt was an interested spectator, occupying a private box with relatives and friends on the clubhouse balcony.

MANHATTANS DEFEAT PUBLIC SERVICE STARS

Interclub League Team Had an Easy Victory.

By a one-sided score of 20—4 the Manhattans had no difficulty in defeating a picked team from the Public Service League at Springbank Park on Monday afternoon.

The Public Service League team was outplayed at all stages of the game. Both Bell and Quick were hit hard, especially after the fourth inning. The fielding of White in the left garden was one of the features of the game. He handled six difficult catches, one being a one-handed stab.

CRUCIAL SERIES STARTS FOR NATIONAL LEADERS

Boston, Sept. 5.—The Braves, leading the National League, today began the first of two series which will go far to determine whether Philadelphia, Brooklyn or Boston will gain the ultimate honors. The present champions, fresh from a string of five victories from Brooklyn, came here for a five-game series. Philadelphia is now tied with Brooklyn for second place, barely more than a point behind Brooklyn.

Immediately after these contests, Boston must meet Brooklyn here for four days.

The Braves were threatened today with the possible loss of Maranville, their crack shortstop. His nose was broken by a bounding ball yesterday. He is having it treated, and expressed his determination to resume play today, but the surgeon recommended caution.

MISS MINNEAPOLIS PICKED

[Canadian Press.]

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 5.—That the gold cup power boat races of 1917 will be held in Minneapolis, was the firm conviction today of supporters of Miss Minneapolis, winner of two heats in the speed boat races here.

Miss Minneapolis has 14 points to her credit already, and only in the event that she should finish fourth today while either Miss Detroit, the cup defender, or Peter Pan VII. of New York, was winning, would jeopardize her chances. The regatta will conclude Wednesday.

J. J. Eller Breaks World's Record for 120-Yards Hurdles

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 4.—John J. Eller of the British-American A. C., New York, today broke the world's record, established by himself in 1909, for the 120-yards hurdles, during the track events at the state fair here. His time was 14 1-5 seconds, which clipped a fifth of a second off his previous mark. The meet was sanctioned by the New England branch of the A.A.U.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—New York broke even with Boston on the day, also on the four-game series, by defeating the world's champions this afternoon before a big crowd, the score being 4 to 3. Boston won the morning game easily, 7 to 1. The afternoon game was an exciting one, the Red Sox scoring three runs on Shawkey in the ninth inning and tieing the score, after which New York won in its half, when Mays, with a wild pitch, sent the winning run over the plate. Leonard, who had not permitted a hit for twelve and a third innings prior to today's game, was knocked out of the box in the third inning, when New York scored three runs on hits by High, Peckinpaugh and Maisel, two errors, and a double steal. WHITE FAILS TO LIFT THE TITLE FROM WELSH

Referee Roche Gives Decision to the Champion on Points—White's Adherents Pelt Roche With Cushions When He Gives Decision.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., Sept. 4.—Freddie Welsh retained his title of champion lightweight pugilist of the world today, after going the full scheduled twenty rounds with Charley White of Chicago, the challenger. Referee Billy Roche of New York awarded Welsh the decision on points.

As the gong sounded at the close of the 20th round, Roche stood for several moments as if undecided. He then reached out both hands towards the boxers and many of the spectators believed he was about to award a draw. Suddenly Welsh rushed over to Roche and placed his glove in the referee's hand, and it was raised aloft, while the official appeared to be reaching for White. The next instant jubilant friends of the champion swarmed into the ring. An unfortunate accident and unpleasant incident marred the beginning of the battle. A portion of the bleachers on the south side of the arena collapsed. More than a hundred persons were more or less seriously injured.

When Referee Roche announced his decision in favor of Welsh, the challenger's adherents appeared for the moment spellbound. Then began a fusillade of hundreds of cushions, which were hurled from all directions at the referee. He was rushed through the crowd by friends and police to a waiting automobile. From a spectacular standpoint the battle was considered one of the poorest that has ever been fought for the highest ring honors in the lightweight divisions. For fully two-thirds of the time the fighters were locked in a succession of clinches. For this many spectators thought Welsh was largely to blame. Throughout the contest of 20 rounds scarcely a blow was struck by either man that did any damage. Of the blows exchanged, White's carried the greater power. While Welsh frequently was on the aggressive and did his share of the leading, it was noticeable that many of his blows fell short and failed to reach their mark. Roche stated after the fight that he awarded Welsh the decision for the reason that he did most of the leading.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS.

ROUND 1—Welsh led twice with left to head, and they went into a clinch. A series of clinches followed, without any blows being struck. White landed left to head. White sent right to head and left to body, and Welsh clinched. The men did a lot of clinching, the crowd calling for them to break away. White sent left hook to stomach. Round even.

ROUND 2—Welsh led with left to head, and White blocked, and they ran into another long clinch. Welsh kept pounding White on the kidneys in the clinches. White sent two rights and lefts to head and body. The men were in a clinch most of the round, White doing the most effective work.

ROUND 3—They ran into a clinch, and wrestled about the ring. White sent right and left hooks to body and repeated, as Welsh missed left to head. A few clean blows were struck, the referee being kept busy prying the men apart.

ROUND 4—Again the men ran into a clinch. White missed left hook to the head. White sent a right and a left hook to the body and had Welsh against the ropes. Welsh missed a left to the head, White countering a right to Welsh's ear. All the fighting has been in White's corner. White's round.

ROUND 5—They fiddled for an opening and clinched. White blocked several short-arm blows to the body. Welsh keeps pounding the kidneys in the clinches, and White's back is all red as the result. The champion is keeping close to the ropes, with his back to the ring. White landed a left to the body. Round even.

ROUND 6—Roche tried to keep the men from the usual clinching. White rushed Welsh to the ropes and landed rights and lefts to the body. He repeated. White sent a left hook to the ear. Welsh blocked a straight left to the head. They were in a clinch at the bell. White's round.

ROUND 7—White sent a right to the jaw and they clinched. Welsh sent left to chin. White sent right to chin and then to body. Shade for White.

ROUND 8—They continued their clinching. Welsh landed lightly to White's nose and clinched. Welsh tapped to nose lightly again. White sent several uppercuts to jaw as the gong rang. Round even.

ROUND 9—They alternated between sparring for openings, and running into clinches. Welsh blocked several blows as he backed towards the ropes. Welsh sent a left to the neck. White landed left to head. White's round.

ROUND 11—White sent a left to the head, and Welsh drove a right to the nose, rushing White about the ring. White roughed Welsh to head and body and the champion clinched. White's round.

ROUND 12—White sent right and left uppercuts to the body in a clinch. White rocked Welsh with a stiff uppercut to chin. Welsh has been missing and running into a clinch. White rocked Welsh with right and left jabs to head, but the champion covered cleverly. White's round.

ROUND 13—Both men worked hard for an opening. White sent hard right to jaw. Welsh's few blows seemed to lack steam. They were in the usual clinch when the round ended. White's round.

ROUND 14—White assumed the aggressive and landed right and left to body and head. Welsh saved himself by clinching. A right to the jaw forced Welsh to a corner. White drove his left twice to Welsh's stomach. White landed right on cheek. White's round.

ROUND 15—White landed two rights to body and left to the jaw, and Welsh saved himself by clinching. Both men wrestled around the ring, Welsh being the greater offender. Even round.

ROUND 16—Welsh landed twice to nose, with straight lefts, and repeated to the head. Welsh sent three lefts, hooking to the mouth, in quick succession. It was Welsh's first round of the fight.

ROUND 17—Neither man has hurt the other and neither shows any marks of the contest. Welsh landed left to the jaw. White drove right and left to body, but Welsh blocked as he backed away. Even round.

At the end of twenty rounds Referee Billy Roche awarded the decision to Welsh. While the crowd evidently figured the challenger, Charley White of Chicago, had a slight edge throughout the bout, the champion's friends went into a frenzy of delight when his hand was lifted in the air as a token of victory. The men were in the clinches two-thirds of the time, and there was but little clean, open boxing.

Running Nose Colds Cured; Sneezing Stopped Instantly

The worst of a cold is how suddenly it comes. No time to hurry to the drug store, croup develops, the lungs are affected with pneumonia or tuberculosis, and it's too late. Keep Catarrhozone on hand—it kills colds instantly. Something magical about the way it cures catarrh and bronchitis. Catarrhozone is the best remedy, because it cures in nature's way; it heals, soothes and restores permanently. Carry a Catarrhozone inhaler in your pocket, use it occasionally and you'll never catch cold—that's worth remembering.

Beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhozone which is sold everywhere, large size containing two months' treatment, costs $1; small size, 50c; sample size, 25c.

Embarrassing Hairs Can Be Quickly Removed

[Beauty Culture.]

Hairs can be easily banished from the skin by this quick, painless method: Mix into a stiff paste, some powdered delatone and water, spread on hairy surface, and in two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin, and it will be free from hair or blemish. Excepting in very stubborn growths, one application is sufficient. To avoid disappointment, buy the delatone in an original package.—Advt.

KILBANE PUTS KAYO ON GEORGE CHANEY

Challenger Knocked Out by Champion in Third Round.

CEDAR POINT, Ohio, Sept. 4.—In less than seven minutes of actual fighting Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, spoiled the chances of George Chaney, of Baltimore, for the featherweight championship today.

A terrific right smash to Chaney's jaw settled the battle near the end of the third round. The champion's longer reach and greater defensive skill offset the spirited fighting Chaney began at the sound of the first gong.

The leads of the Baltimore lad were blocked easily for the most part by Kilbane and the champion earned an even break in the first two minutes by his clever defensive tactics. It was not until the third that Kilbane cut loose and then he did so with a vengeance. He rushed the challenger to the ropes with the opening of the round and drew blood with a left to Chaney's nose. Chaney strove by a rain of blows to the champion's kidney to weaken his attack. But Kilbane, biding his time swung over to the point of the challenger's chin a wallop that spelled knockout and victory. It was announced that both men weighed in under 122 pounds.

Round 1.—After less than half a minute of sparring time was called because one of Kilbane's gloves broke. They resumed again at 5:06 p.m. Kilbane led with left to the face, and followed in the next exchange with a right to the head. Chaney sent left to body and the round ended when Chaney sent another left to body. Round even.

Round 2.—Kilbane opened the second round with a left to the jaw and cleverly sidestepped a left swing by Chaney. The men broke even on a fast mixup, but just before the bell rang Kilbane shot a left to Chaney's jaw. Kilbane was using a left jab effectively while Chaney played for the jaw.

Round 3.—Chaney carried the fight into Kilbane's corner and Referee Hinkle three times broke clinches. Kilbane scored a left jab to the jaw at the end of the third but Chaney played successfully for the champion's kidney. When the men broke for the fourth time in the round Kilbane sent across a right hook to the jaw which landed the challenger face downward on the canvas.

MOST FAVORITES QUALIFY IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4.—Most of the favorites qualified today for match play for the amateur golf championship of the United States Golf Association in the 36-hole qualifying round held over the east and west courses of the Merion Cricket Club. W. C. Fownes, Jun., of Oakmont, a former holder of the amateur title, led the field of 153 starters with 153, the low medal, one stroke lower than the best at Detroit last year when Dudley Mudge was medallist. Mudge was one of the favorites who failed to qualify today, as he took 172 to complete the round. The other favorites who failed to qualify were G. S. Lyon of Toronto, Canadian champion; Phillip Carter of Nassau, Fred Herreshoff of National Golf links, Sherrill Sherman of Utica, Albert Seckel, Riverside, and Hamilton Kerr of Ekwanok.

This is the first time the amateur championship has been held with two 18-hole courses for the qualifying round and the class of golf played today is seen by the fact that it took 167 to get into the play-off, a stroke lower than at Detroit last year.

Thirty-one players qualified. Among those qualifying with cars of 160 or better, are:

M. R. Marston, Baltusrol	155
E. Meyers, Allegheny	157
N. H. Whitney, Audobon	158
G. A. Ormiston, Oakmont	158
A. R. Blossom, Exmoor	158
Chas. Evans, Jr. Edgewater	158
W. P. Smith, Pine Valley	159
Oswald Kirkby, Englewood	159
J. G. Anderson	160
R. A. Gardner, Finsdalee	160

Philadelphia, Sept. 5.—The sixteen pairs of golfers who qualified yesterday in the amateur championship of the United States Golf Association, started on a 36-hole match play grind at the Merion Cricket Club today. With John G. Anderson and Ned Sawyer drawn together in the first round, the other stars were separated. Chick Evans is in the lower half of the draw, and should win handily up to the semi-finals, when he will probably meet Anderson or Sawyer. Robert Gardner was drawn in the upper half, and will probably meet Max Warston in the second round. Jesse Guilford is expected to meet Oswald Kirkby in the semi-finals.

BIRDIE WELSH WINS 2:20 PACE AT THE STATE FAIR MEETING

Tillsonburg Horse Makes Show of Her Field.

DETROIT, Sept. 4.—Under perfect weather conditions but on a rather lumpy track the Michigan "Short-Ship" races opened on the state fair grounds this afternoon. There were three good events on the card and all were well filled.

Birdie Welsh, the Tillsonburg horse, made a show of her field in the 2:20 pace, which she won about as she pleased, after loafing the first mile.

Lena Mokos' victory in the $1,000 stake 2:19 trot was a popular one, but the mare was forced to go five heats to land first money.

The 2:22 trot was of scarcely less interest, victory finally going to Hal Erwin with Frances Belmont, who won three heats and all but landed another.

TWO MORE STATES ARE IN AUTO RECIPROSITY

Eighteen Hundred Cars Ferried Across Detroit River on Holiday.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, Sept. 4.—Eighteen hundred automobiles were ferried across the Detroit River today, the greatest number ever handled in a single day. The increase in traffic is due to the race meeting, and to the holiday which was observed on both sides of the line.

It was announced tonight by Collector of Customs Smith that two more states, Iowa and Missouri, have agreed to reciprocity in automobile licenses, making fourteen states now enjoying an interchange with Ontario.

CONGRESS NEARING CLOSE.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, Sept. 5.—Under an agreement to take the final vote before adjournment tonight, the senate continued work today on the emergency revenue bill. Passage of the bill will virtually clear the way for adjournment of Congress probably not later than Thursday. Adjournment at 6 p.m. Wednesday is provided for in a joint resolution already prepared by the Democratic leaders, and its presentation in the House for passage today only awaited word that the senate could finish its work by that time.

The senate yesterday sustained, 43 to 7, the administration plan to impose increased tariff duties on dyestuffs at the end of the European war. Senator Underwood vigorously fought it.

H. H. MILLER, EX-M.P., LIBERAL CANDIDATE, DEAD AT HANOVER

Author of Bill to Restrict Race Track Gambling.

HANOVER, Sept. 4.—Mr. Henry Horton Miller, ex-M.P., for South Grey and Liberal candidate for the Federal House in the next general election, died at his home here this morning. He was 55 years of age. On Tuesday of last week he became suddenly ill, and was operated upon on Thursday night.

Deceased was born in Owen Sound on January 10, 1861, and came to Hanover in 1884, where he opened up a conveyancing and insurance office. He was a director and shareholder in several local concerns. Mr. Miller was elected to the House of Commons in 1904 and re-elected in 1908, sitting until the general election of 1911. From 1905 he was chairman of the commons committee on banking and commerce. He was the author of the famous Miller bill to restrict race track gambling.

SWEDEN DEVELOPING CRACK RIFLE SHOTS

(Correspondence.)

Dublin, Ireland, Aug. 19.—The Irish emigration returns for the first half of 1916 show a still further decrease on the 1915 figures. In the half year there were 3,073 emigrants, which is 988 less than for the corresponding period last year. The decrease is solely due to men, as emigration of women increased by over 600. One hundred and fifty-two emigrants had their passage prepaid to America. As usual, Ulster has most emigrants, and Munster least.

IRISH EMIGRATION STILL GROWING LESS

Figures Show Marked Decrease, Though More Women Migrate.

Stockholm, Sweden, Aug. 19. — A big increase in the membership of the Swedish rifle societies is shown in the annual report just issued. The societies have enrolled 211,000 members, more than 200,000 of whom are active riflemen. The promoters of the societies have asked the government for $100,000 as a subsidy to divide among the local rifle societies throughout the country.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside; no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidney and bowels, drink before breakfast each day a glass of hot water, with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify, and freshen the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Get a quarter-pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins, also to prevent their formation.

To feel like young folks feel, like you felt before your blood, nerves and muscles became saturated with an accumulation of body poisons, begin this treatment, and, above all, keep it up! As soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening and purifying, so limestone phosphate and hot water before breakfast act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

ITALIANS ADVANCE EAST OF AVLONA AND TAKE VILLAGES

Gain Made in Albania After Severe Fighting.

MOUNTAIN IS OCCUPIED

Thirty-Four Austrian Prisoners and Much Material Captured in Assault.

ROME, Sept. 4.—Via London, 7:45 p.m.—Italian troops have made additional successes in Albania, east of Avlona, says an official statement given out today. The villages of Kuta and Drizar have been occupied and Monte Gradist has been taken.

Later, the statement says, the Italians retired to the right bank of the Voyusa, having accomplished their objective. The text follows:

"Yesterday in the Fiemme valley, the enemy having received reinforcements, after an intense artillery preparation, launched two violent attacks against our new positions on Monte Cauriol. They were stopped each time by our fire, and eventually were dispersed with heavy losses by a counter-attack with the bayonet. On the remainder of the front the artillery was active.

"Albania—On Saturday detachments of bersaglieri and territorials made a raid on the right bank of the Voyusa. The territorials crossed the river between Sceffi and Regepai, taking the village of Kuta after severe fighting. Meantime the bersaglieri occupied Drizar and took Monte Gradist, repelling violent counter-attacks. During the evening, the troops, having achieved their object, returned to the right bank of the Voyusa. One bersaglieri detachment remained undisturbed on Monte Trubes, until Sunday afternoon, returning subsequently to our lines. We took 34 Austrian prisoners and captured much material."

THEY ATE, ANYWAY

NAIRN, Sept. 4.—This has been the worst season for crops in the history of East Williams. For example:

Last Friday the threshing outfit of McIntyre & Rose was at a farm near Beechwood, where they had breakfast, had their dinner at a farm about a mile up the 4th, finished there and moved up another mile, had supper, finished and moved back a half mile and had the machine in the fourth barn by dark.

INJURED AT WINDSOR, MAY BE OF WOODSTOCK

Geo. Megrew in Hospital With Fractured Skull.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, Sept. 4.—With a fractured skull and other injuries which physicians fear may prove fatal, Geo. Megrew, aged 35, is at the Hotel Dieu here in an unconscious condition as a result of being hit by a Walkerville beltline street car. Megrew, it is said, was standing on the north side of the street, and attempted to cross the tracks in spite of the warning bell sounded by the motorman, Earl Barron. He was struck with great force and picked up bleeding and unconscious. The authorities have not yet been able to locate Megrew's relatives, but it is thought he came here from Woodstock.

C. P. R. ENGINE CREW JUMP FOR LIVES

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, Sept. 4.—A big yard locomotive attached to Canadian Pacific passenger train No. 10, en route from Montreal to Chicago, left the rails in the "electric yard" of the Michigan Central at the tunnel station here, shortly after midnight Sunday, and toppled over.

The engine crew saved their lives by a quick leap to safety. The baggage car, which sustained most of the strain when the engine turned over, was buckled up at one end, but none of the passenger coaches left the rails.

The yard was blocked for some time, but eventually wrecking crews restored traffic to normal.

RECOVERS STOLEN CAR, BUT IN BAD SHAPE

Harwich Township Man Learns of 1,800 Autos Stolen in Detroit in Year.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BLENHEIM, Sept. 4.—W. R. McGuigan, a resident of South Harwich, had his automobile stolen in Detroit wile he was in the city. He made report to the police authorities and came home. Last week he received word that it had been found and was ready for him. He went down, but found to his dismay that the thief had driven it about 15 miles out until the oil and gasoline was exhausted, and had stripped the car of nearly all that he could take off, leaving it in a most depleted condition. Mr. McGuigan had the car towed to Windsor, and concluded that the cost for repairs and getting new furnishings for it to replace those that were stolen would amount to a considerable sum, so he traded it off, paying the necessary difference, and returned home in a new car of another make.

This is the second car this season stolen in Detroit from residents of this district. A short time ago Alex Tate had his stolen, and it was afterwards recovered.

Mr. McGuigan speaks highly of the detectives who are hunting up stolen cars in that city, and says that about 1,800 were stolen within the year, of which over 700 were recovered.

PATROL YACHT AT TORONTO.

TORONTO, Sept. 4.—Sir John Eaton's yacht, the Florence, which had been in use by the admiralty, returned to Toronto today. The boat has been used as a patrol at Halifax. It was brought back by a crew from the Canadian cruiser Niobe.

A COSTLY TRIP.

Berlin, Aug. 18. — One of the most expensive motorboat trips on record is reported from the Jungfernsee, a lake west of Berlin. Despite the prohibition against the use of such craft under a regulation adopted by the federal council last August, a party of six essayed a short trip. A police boat noted and overhauled them after a short chase. The motorboat, valued at 13,000 marks, was declared forfeited to the state.

FATE OF ROBLIN AND MINISTERS NOW WITH JURY

Defence Counsel Is Bitter and Personal in Attack on Crown.

HORWOOD UNLIKE JUDAS

Latter, After Betraying Master, Went Out and Hanged Himself.

JUDGE'S CHARGE 2 HOURS

Crown Counsel Challenges Defense Lawyer To Go Into Witness Box.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 4.—The jury sitting on the ex-ministers' trial retired at 11 o'clock tonight after Judge Prendergast's charge, which lasted two and a half hours.

Court adjourned until 10:30 tomorrow morning.

"It is an obvious fact," said his lordshi, in addressing the jury, "that there is not at all the evidence against Sir Rodmond Roblin that is against the other accused; and there is not the evidence against Mr. Howden that is against Mr. Coldwell. Norwood's evidence as against Sir Rodmond, taken at its face value is very meagre."

There was no doubt, declared Judge Prendergast, that Horwood had perjured himself, even if from a mistaken sense of loyalty to the ministers.

Seventeen hours were occupied by the addresses of counsel to the jury trying the former ministers.

A. J. Andrews, K.C., spoke for ten hours in three different days, and R. A. Bonnar, K. C. for the crown, addressed the jury seven hours, including two hours spent this afternoon in replying to Mr. Andrews.

Mr. Andrews emphasized the suggestion that there was a "secret understanding" between V. W. Horwood and Contractor Kelly. He declared there was "not the slightest scintilla of evidence that any of the accused knew of the destruction of the $802,000 steel contract before it was revealed by the royal commission, and its destruction by Dr. Montague was in the interests of the province. Mr. Andrews claimed that Horwood had the strongest motive for sending and keeping William Salt away. "Had Kelly," he asked, "an interest in keeping Salt away?"

Counsel accused the crown of unfairness to the accused since the proceedings began. He included as an instance of this alleged unfairness the crown's intention to reply, a privilege, he said, that was only exercised in the rarest cases.

Not as Good as Judas.

Continuing his argument in the afternoon, Mr. Andrews asked why the crown had not called Dr. Simpson as a witness. Why had they not called various others who could have given evidence? He insisted that there was no evidence that the accused knew anything of payments to Salt, and there was no evidence that Mr. Howden knew the destination of $1,500 which he paid to Harry Whitla, at the request of Dr. Simpson. Mr. Andrews spoke of the virtues of loyalty. "Horwood," he said, "differed from Judas, who betrayed his Master, because Judas was ashamed of himself later, and went out and hanged himself."

Horwood, he said, got over $1,300 as witness fees for his "treachery." W. H. Hastings, counsel for Mr. Howden, addressing the jury for less than five minutes, declared there was no evidence connecting the former attorney-general with any conspiracy.

The Crown's Rebuttal.

Mr. Bonnar, in his reply, declared that the evidence clearly connected Salt's disappearance with the accused. He declared that the defence should have called the witnesses they wanted the crown to call. The accused, he said, had tried to protect Kelly, because they had to do that to protect themselves. Instead of cancelling their contract and suing the contractor as honest men would have done, on discovering wrongdoing the accused got Kelly a lawyer.

Mr. Bonnar declared that Mr. Andrews "dared not" go in the witness box and contradicted Horwood's statement as to a cabinet meeting he said Mr. Andrews attended.

Mr. Andrews called Mr. Bonnar "a bully" and "no gentleman."

Crown counsel declared that there was nothing in the claims of any understanding between Horwood and Kelly. Where was Horwood's motive, since he got no money out of the affair? Mr. Bonnar said he estimated that $2,000,000 was to be got out of the parliament buildings, including a campaign fund of about $200,000. Was the remaining $1,800,000 to be divided into four parts? Mr. Bonnar concluded by telling the jury that politicians everywhere were looking to them to see if they were "above the law."

WHAT THE TURK SAYS

BERLIN, via Sayville, Sept. 4—(Wireless).—An official statement issued by the Turkish army headquarters under date of Sept. 1, says:

"Caucasian front—Our right wing after terminating yesterday's operations made more prisoners. In the sector of Ognott a hostile attack was repulsed. The enemy suffered losses. One lieutenant and soldiers who were taken prisoner declared that the fifteenth regiment of the fourth division of Caucasian riflemen, in consequence of the abortive attacks on Aug. 17, lost three-quarters of its strength and that other regiments had still heavier losses.

"In the centre detachments of our troops raided the hostile trenches. They entered some of them and destroyed four field guns. They also brought back 47 prisoners and some artillery horses."

SMALL PERCENTAGE OF GOOD APPLES IN SIGHT FOR ONTARIO

No. 1 Quality Will Be Small Portion.

ESSEX PENINSULA FAIR

Government Fruit Bulletin Shows This District in Favorable Light.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, Sept. 4.—The latest fruit bulletin officially issued shows considerable change in the apple situation during the past month. It is noted that apples have fallen to a considerable extent in many parts of Ontario, due to prolonged dry weather. This has been particularly noticeable in the Georgian Bay district, where a fair crop had been expected. Much of the fruit there will be of small size, and only about 20 per cent of No. 1 quality.

Elsewhere in Ontario the dry weather did not seriously affect the apple crop, which had already been seriously reduced by heavy dropping and apple scab.

The general situation in Western and Northern Ontario can be obtained from the following table:

Norfolk County, 60 per cent of standard crop and 15 per cent No. 1; Georgian Bay, 60 per cent of standard crop and 20 per cent No. 1; Burlington, 40 per cent of standard crop and 15 per cent No. 1; Niagara district, 40 per cent of standard crop and 15 per cent No. 1; Lambton district, 45 per cent of standard crop and 15 per cent No. 1; Western Ontario (inland), 50 per cent of standard crop and 15 per cent No. 1.

Essex Looks Good.

There is a good crop in Essex County, but the better grades will be scarce. The continued dry weather has caused a heavy drop and the fruit now remaining on the trees is generally of small size. Baldwins give the best promise in this section.

In orchards near St. Catharines in Niagara, there will not be more than 40 per cent of a normal crop. Early varieties are a fair crop but under size, and few will grade No. 1, on account of scab. Spies and Baldwins are less affected by scab, and are a medium crop, but also of poor size. Other winter varieties are light.

In the Burlington district there will not be more than 75 per cent of the crop harvested last year, and only between 25 and 35 per cent free from spot.

There has been no change in Lambton. The crop is light and of poor quality, particularly in poorly-cared for orchards. Recent rains have helped the development of fruit.

Little Good Stuff.

In Western Ontario there is a light crop of fruit. Fall and winter varieties are small, ill-shapen and spotted badly. Some growers report that there are practically no No. 1 apples in their orchards. Even where there is a fair crop, little of it will be marketable.

Prospects have fallen off in the Georgian Bay district owing to the prolonged dry weather. On the majority of trees, there is still a fair to medium crop, but the fruit is small and in most orchards badly spotted. There will probably not be more than 20 per cent of No. 1 fruit. Early and fall varieties are a medium crop, and winter varieties are light.

Peach Outlook Good.

Peaches are ripening up well in the Essex Peninsula, and there is no appearance of injury from dry weather, except in orchards on high land. There is promise of a fair crop, or about 50 per cent of normal.

In Lambton County, the fruit has been helped by recent rains. The crop will be about 55 per cent of normal. Early varieties have been of excellent quality and moved at good prices.

Plums, Pears and Grapes.

There is also a light crop of fair quality plums in Essex, but the fruit is mostly small in size. Elsewhere in Ontario, the crop is light, and almost a failure in Nova Scotia.

There is a light crop of pears in Western Ontario, a fair crop east of Toronto, and less than a medium crop in the Georgian Bay district.

Vineyards in the Niagara Peninsula are showing serious effects of prolonged dry weather. Mildew is also showing in most unsprayed vineyards. The crop will be medium to full.

Early varieties of tomatoes are about over in Essex Peninsula, and good prices have been obtained. The crop was light. Late varieties are also a poor crop, small in size and showing considerable waste from sunburn.

New Brunswick, northwestern Quebec and most of Nova Scotia will not produce sufficient winter fruit for home consumption.

GRAIN.

Chicago, Sept. 5.—Bullish estimates of the yield both in the United States and Canada had a decidedly strengthening effect on the wheat market here today. One authority figured that the crop in the United States was 25,000,000 bushels under bread and seed requirements. The settlement of the railway strike continued also to favor the buying side.

Opening prices, which ranged from 1⅜@4c higher, with December at $1 49½@1 51, and May at $1 51@1 52½, were followed by a slight reaction, but then a rally to nearly the top initial values.

WALL STREET.

New York, Sept. 5—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Settlement of the threatened railroad strike over the double holiday was made the occasion of a fresh demonstration of speculative enthusiasm. New maximums were scored by United States Steel, Marine preferred and Kelly-Springfield Tire, with striking gains in other favorites, including leading munitions and equipments, independent steels and coppers. Rails were slow in responding to the higher movement elsewhere, but came forward later, the Harrimans leading that division. Realizing shares caused a moderate shade of prices in the first half hour.

Noon.—Between 400,000 and 500,000 shares changed hands during the morning, interest converging more particularly around the Marines. The sensational advance in those issues suggested a contest for control or the enforced covering of an extensive short interest. Marine preferred made the record price of 115¼, with a new top of 45 for the common, while Kelly-Springfield exceeded all previous quotations at 82½. Steel failed to repeat its best price of the opening, yielding more than a point, but other industrials and specialties of mixe ddescriptions followed the upward trend. Before midday heavy selling of rails reduced gains of leading stocks 1 to 2 points. Bonds were steady.

All the gold, which was contained in some 800 stoutly-bound wooden cases, came from Canada, and, according to reports, arrived at Halifax recently under convoy of British warships. With this latest receipt of gold, Canada's shipments to this country for the present movement exceeds $250,000,000.

DISCARDED UNIFORM THAT OF 149TH MAN?

Wyoming Constable Finds Evidence of Desertion in Empty House.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WYOMING, Sept. 4.—What looks like a case of desertion has come to light. The village constable, on looking over a small empty house at the south end of the village, recently vacated by Indians, who had lived in its during the time of flax-pulling, discovered a soldier's uniform complete, with the exception of shoes.

It was noted that two or three of the flax-pullers had worn the King's uniform and belonged to the Lambton 149th Battalion, but had been let off on furlough to help the farmers. It is presumed that it was one of these who left the uniform and his battalion.

BODY COLD IN DEATH LEANING AGAINST WAGON

John Bissett, of East Williams, Dies Suddenly—Burried at Nairn.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

NAIRN, Sept. 5.—John Bissett, who lived alone, was found dead on Friday by a party of people who were passing his place on their way to attend an institute meeting. The party comprised Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McKenzie and Miss Mary Fraser. They observed Mr. Bissett leaning in a strange manner against a democrat wagon. They stopped and upon going to the spot found him quite dead.

Mr. Bissett was a cripple. He lived in the house formerly occupied by his mother and sister, and later by his brother, Ewen, all of whom predeceased him. He had intended going to London and was no doubt making preparations to drive to the city when death overtook him. He was about 65 years of age and is survived by two brothers, Jim and Dan, in the west.

He was born and grew to manhood on the old homestead near the site of the McPherson Church.

The funeral was held to Nairn Cemetery and was largely attended.

Vancouver Man Affects Arrest of Detroiter at Race Track.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

WINDSOR, Sept. 4.—Arrested by the man whom he attempted to rob of a $1,000 diamond stickpin, Solomon Blinkey, aged 35, of Detroit, was taken before Police Magistrate Leggatt this afternoon and remanded until Friday.

Frank M. Newberry of Vancouver, who is here for the Kenilworth meeting, was the intended victim. Blinkey, the police say, attempted to clip the diamond from its setting with a device used by the light-fingered fraternity. Newberry, however, frustrated the plan, and, grappling with Blinkey threw him to the ground, where he was held until the police arrived.

At the address in Detroit given by Blinkey two sets of burglars' tools were found this afternoon.

COST OF NEW BABIES IS HIGH IN ENGLAND

Maintenance for First Year $100 More Than in 1914.

London, August 16.—Correspondence of the Associated Press.—It is estimated that the all-around expenditure on a baby born this year is probably from $100 to $125 higher than in 1914.

Food alone adds about $15 to the year's cost of the war baby. Milk has gone up 4 cents a quart, and it is said that the average baby consumes from 400 to 450 pints a year. Baby foods are up about 10 per cent. Feeding bottles cost a third more, and the methylated spirits for heating the night's feed has advanced from 10 cents to 25 cents a pint.

Baby garments cost more also. Everything made of wool has risen 33 per cent in price; all the cotton and wool mixture materials and garments are 25 per cent higher, and the wholly cotton ones, owing to the rise in raw materials and labor, must be paid for at the rate of about 15 per cent more.

Even a baby's bath costs about one-third more; soap is a third dearer, the bath thermometer is up about 25 per cent, toilet powder—chiefly because of the rise in the price of the boric acid it contains—is 100 per cent dearer.

Nearly all medicines cost much more.

Perambulators are about one-fourth dearer. What formerly was sold for $15 is now $20, and so on. A cot that could be bought before the war for $5 is now $7.50; the fleecy wool mattress, baby's basket and baby's high-chair, are all up proportionately.

Nurse's wages have advanced $5 or more, and her keep is costing at least one-third more—an increase of $50 or more a year.

All escaped serious injury except the driver and Mr. Mahler. The latter had an ear nearly torn off.

Mr. Lacque was taken to the home of I. Hazlett, where Dr. McDonald attended him.

A hired car from Windsor which ran on top of the car demolished, had one wheel broken.

COUNCIL OF WOMEN IS READY TO HELP PURGE THE MOVIES

Has Asked Place for Women on Censor's Board.

SUCCESSFUL IN THE WEST

Mrs. Boomer Points Out Need of Women Joining Hands to Safeguard Children.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Your own editorial of the 30th August and the emphasis given to it by your correspondents, "A Converted Movie Fan," "Shoreacres," and later by "A Grandmother," will, we earnestly hope, keep the subject alive in your columns until a remedy is found for a danger which should surely have no place in any Canadian city. With reference to the suggestion that in the formation of a responsible board of censors there should be a fair proportion of women, I would remind your readers that the National Council of Women has, from time to time, earnestly requested its local branches, not only as individuals, but collectively as a body, to seek out and take any preventive measures whereby to shield our young people from just such insidious evils as your correspondents condemn. The several local councils of Ontario have asked "the powers that be" to appoint women on the boards of censors, though with no definite success, but in British Columbia it has been otherwise with very satisfactory results. Every woman's organization, every mothers' club, every Woman's Institute which stands for purity in our homes and the safeguarding of the children of our land, should join hands with our local council in voicing the just claims of women to be heard, through official representation upon the boards of censorship, but women, as long as they are denied the ballot, can only speak in whispers, with little hope that their voices will be heard when they plead for reforms, however urgently they are need. Now that some of the fathers of the city are, with the aid of the press, seeking to grapple with a danger which menaces their children, we may look hopefully forward to definite results, and the assurance that no questionable films will ever again be exhibited in our midst. Thanking you for your ever ready support to every effort for good, Faithfully yours,

H. A. BOOMER,
President Local Council of Women.

Saw Nothing Wrong.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

I do not desire to uphold questionable moving pictures or plays for one minute, neither have I any particular individual desire to assume any of the responsibilities allotted to our chief censor, yet I certainly would appreciate your granting me a small space to answer "Shoreacres" articles in The Advertiser a few night's ago.

I saw the play upon which the criticism was made, and must remark that the moral is there. The picture is not of a degrading nature, and only those constantly looking for the undesirable, can possibly deduce the idea, opinion, or conclusion that "Shoreacres" has arrived at. FILM FAN.

NEW PRESSED STEEL INDUSTRY IS IN A THRIVING CONDITION

New Plant of Dennis Wire and Iron Company on Dundas St. Now in Operation.

INSTAL OVENS AND PRESS

Only Factory in Canada Exclusively Manufacturing Pressed Steel Lockers and Shelving.

In these days of civic competition for industries, the thoughts of the average citizen turn to the problem of securing new factories from other cities and very little attention is sometimes paid to the industrial concerns that are growing up right in our own city. Such seems to be the case with the new plant of the Dennis Wire and Iron Works, located next door to the old factory on Dundas street, and doing a thriving business with very bright prospects for the future.

Over fifty skilled mechanics are employed in this new plant and more would be added were it possible to secure them, but on account of the scarcity of skilled men the firm finds it necessary to operate its plant with a minimum force.

The Dennis Company has made a new departure in the industrial field of Canada, and is now the only plant in the country devoted exclusively to the manufacture of pressed steel lockers, and shelving for stockrooms, stores, schools and factories.

The largest press of its kind in Canada, weighing 30,000 pounds, for forming steel lockers, was recently installed in the plant, and is now in operation, together with mammoth ovens for enameling the lockers and other steel products.

These ovens are the last word in modern construction and were installed under the supervision of one of the most eminent of the country's heating engineers.

Other products manufactured by the Dennis Company are: Store and shop shelving, hospital kitchen cabinets, library book stacks, steel stools, elevator inclosures, elevator cars, fire escapes, marquises, lamp standards, window grilles, collapsible gates, ornamental fences, brass church furniture, and in fact anything in pressed steel, ornamental iron or bronze required.

A visit of inspection to the new plant and the old one also is full of surprises, and as visitors are welcomed by the management, anyone interested in this kind of work would find it profitable to go through one of London's rapidly-growing industries.

LARGE CITY CHORUS IS BEING FORMED

Will Be Under Direction of Mr. A. D. Jordan.

Mr. A. D. Jordan, organist of the First Methodist Church and musical director of the new Musical Art Society, has returned to the city and is busily engaged in arranging for the season's work. The Musical Art Society's Festival Chorus is now being formed and will have three or four hundred members, who will be carefully chosen, as the directors are anxious that this choir shall be one of the finest on the continent. The Musical Art Society's Symphony Orchestra is also under way, and the citizens of London should be pleased at the prospect of a permanent orchestra for the city. To facilitate the direction of the many musical interests in which Mr. Jordan is engaged, he has arranged for a down-town studio, which will be open Monday, the 11th, at 261 Dundas street, over the Gourlay, Winter & Leeming store. Full information concerning the chorus or orchestra can be obtained there.

ARE COLLECTING DATA

Good Results Have Followed Appointments in Other Cities.

Though the women workers of London, philanthropic, social, religious, patriotic, etc., have been disappointed this summer in failing to obtain the appointment of one or more women social workers with police powers for the city, they are by no means discouraged.

Several leaders in prominent organizations have, from time to time, during the past two months, expressed their views on the subject in correspondence addressed to readers of The Advertiser, backing up their own opinions by an array of evidence in regard to the services rendered by such social workers elsewhere, by what ever names they are known, policewomen, parole officers, etc.

The president of one of the organizations which made a united appeal to the police commission several weeks ago, said today to The Advertiser: "We are continuing to accumulate data, and all the time are strengthening our arguments, which we will offer the next time we make an appeal. London will waken up some day, just like other cities all over Canada are doing in regard to this question. The united efforts of so many of our prominent women, voters in civic elections many of them, at that, will undoubtedly bring results sooner or later.

The Local Council of Women has taken an active part in the recent campaign for the appointment of women with police powers in London, a campaign launched the end of May at a joint meeting of some 30 local women's organizations held in the Young Women's Christian Association central rooms. The Local Council, embracing over twenty organizations, indeed inaugurated the "policewoman" movement in this city some three years ago, and naturally, has taken a keen interest ever since.

Mrs. H. A. Boomer, the energetic president of the council, with a view to obtaining definite information in regard to the value of the services of a woman social worker with police powers, recently appointed in Halifax, wrote to that city for facts in connection with the work being done by the woman parole officer, Ella M. Paint.

Miss Paint was appointed policewomen in Halifax, N. S., the 1st of May, 1916. In the first three months she handled 212 cases, not including a large number of repeated visits and attendance at police court nearly every morning for three months, besides investigating conditions on McNab's Island and Northwest Arm.

The following is the itemized record:

Ten cases domestic trouble settled out of court.

Two cases investigated conditions in homes.

Three cases investigated homes where small boys made a practice of running away.

Ten visits to moving picture shows to see if children were admitted alone at night.

Eight visits to families where husbands are on suspended sentence.

One wife traced who had left her home.

Three wives of soldiers visited on request of the men.

One man convicted for vagrancy and indecent conduct.

Twenty-five girls taken off streets and accompanied to their homes.

Three girls taken from different places.

Ten lost children taken home.

Four families aided, husbands up for non-support, all doing well.

One visit to Dartmouth to give evidence; man convicted.

Forty calls from women for all kinds of help, either took up case or handed it over.

Fifty telephone messages answered at home.

Four visits to jail.

Two visits to Rockhead.

Ten letters from mothers asking me to locate daughters.

Three cases where clothes obtained of girls sent home.

One insane woman sent to Nova Scotia Hospital.

One woman reported insane, on examination sent to V. G. Hospital for treatment.

Four times notified witnesses to come to court.

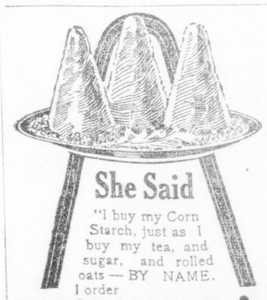

Two women found places on coming out of Rockhead.

Lovers of old-fashioned chocolates will at once recognize Peters Colonial Chocolates as an artistic achievement. ywt

HOLIDAY PASSED QUIETLY IN LONDON BUT PLEASANTLY

Railways Report That Traffic Was Unusually Heavy.

SPRINGBANK POPULAR

Big Crowds Also Went Down to Port Stanley on Cars.

Yesterday was not only the last public holiday of the summer season. It was also the last day of the summer holidays. Under the circumstances, everybody wanted to make the most of the occasion.

The higher temperature and the bright sunshine of the greater part of the day made picnicking most enjoyable. Hundreds during the day went to Port Stanley. On the new electric road extra coaches were run each hour, and all were filled to their capacity.

All day long the cars of the London and Lake Erie road carried crowds of passengers, not only bound for Port Stanley, but also for Lambeth, St. Thomas and intermediate points in the country. It was the ideal day, indeed, for paying visits to friends in the country.

Largely Attended.

The Labor Day festivities at Queen's Park attracted throngs both afternoon and evening, many also going out in the evening for the boxing match at 8:30 o'clock.

Springbank Park, as always, proved a popular rendezvous, and, apart from the big reunion of the Willsie family, several other picnics large and small were held.

Not for many a holiday has the passenger traffic on the railroads been so heavy in all directions.

An especially large number of people have taken advantage of the Toronto Exhibition excursions. The C. P. R. reports the largest exhibition traffic in ten years, many going down on all trains Sunday as well as Saturday and Monday.

Heavy Traffic.

The G. T. R. states that while the traffic to Toronto was very heavy a year ago, it is believed that a considerably larger number have taken advantage of the special rates of the past few days. The 5:45 a.m. and 9 o'clock trains carried particularly large crowds to Toronto yesterday morning, following unusually well-patronized trains all day Sunday.

With all who turned their faces eastward over the holiday, many remained to take advantage of the excursions to Detroit, both by boat from Sarnia and direct by rail.

With all the people who went out of town by train, trolley and automobile, it was amazing the number of people who seemed to be at home, seeking amusement.

Capacity House.

The new Lyric Theatre, formerly the Auditorium, opened at 2:30 o'clock with a capacity house, many who came later being disappointed owing to inability to obtain admission. In the evening again at both performances, the attractive theatre was well filled, and the audience evidently very much pleased with the bill, which included a remarkable feature film, William Gillette in "Sherlock Holmes," and a clever novelty act, "Mary and Jack."

While the people who have been staying at home made it a point to get away for the week-end, there was a large influx both Saturday and Monday of families returning from summer resorts, in time to let the kiddies get back to school on opening day. The majority of holidaying "stragglers" are closing up their cottages at the various beaches this week, and by fair time, the population of London will be once more, "as usual."

BIG EXHIBITS OF CANADIAN TOYS IS ASSURED FOR FAIR

Keen Interest Is Being Taken in Important Industry.

CAPTURE GERMAN TRADE

Secretary Beebe Will Come to London With the Show.

A large and representative exhibit of Canadian-made toys is assured for the Western Fair. Secretary A. M. Hunt, who has been negotiating for this important attraction has been notified by Secretary Beebe of the Canadian Toy Association that it has been possible to make arrangements for an exhibit in London, though it was at first considered doubtful, owing to the fact that the "toy fair" had previously been promised to the Ottawa Exhibition. The most encouragement that could be given last week was to the effect that a part of the exhibit might be brought to London. Assurance has now come that the "toy fair" to be seen at the Western Fair will adequately represent the work of the toymakers of Canada, and give an excellent idea of the remarkable development of the industry, which is a genuine "war baby."

Pledged Support.

The National Council of Women, as a federation of women's organizations, patriotic, educational, philanthropic, religious, etc., last spring placed itself on record as warmly in sympathy with the toymaking project, and pledged its support to the movement, owing to its patriotic significance, the fact that the industry might furnish employment for returned soldiers unable to take up former heavier duties, and also that toymaking might be made an important factor in education.

On request of the National Council, the Local Council of Women of London has interested itself to the extent of bringing the subject of "Canadian toys for Canadian children" before a number of its members, and appointing a committee to negotiate for a "toy fair" for London, such as was held in Toronto last spring. Like Secretary Hunt of the Western Fair Board, Mrs. H. A. Boomer, president of the Local Council of Women, has been in communication with Secretary Beebe of the Canadian Toy Association.

Arranging Exhibit.

Following his telegram to Secretary Hunt to the effect that an exhibit would be available for London, Mr. Beebe wrote to both Mr. Hunt and Mrs. Boomer. To Mrs. Boomer he stated that he was informed on request of Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, for many years corresponding secretary of the National Council of Women, that an exhibit of Canadian-made toys was being arranged for the Western Fair. He further stated he himself would be in town with the exhibit, accompanied by Mrs. Beebe.

He asked the co-operation of the Local Council of London in bringing the exhibit to the attention of the various affiliated women's organizations and the citizens as a whole, and in connection with this, requested that if any toys were being made in the city at the present time, the Local Council should co-operate in having samples of them shown in the "toy fair."
