HOLY BIBLE, KING JAMES' VERSION, 1611.

Holy Bible, conteyning the Old Testament and the New, newly translated out of the Original Tongues, and with the former Translations diligently compared and revised by His Majestie's Special Commandment [including the Apocrypha], beautifully printed in large Black Letter Type, very thick volume, royal folio, morocco, gilt edges (wanting the title-pages, some of the preliminary matter, and ends at Revelation VII.; several intermediate leaves are also missing), very rare, 22.50. London, Barker, 1611.

This is a copy of the first issue of the first edition, and is designated the GREAT "HE BIBLE," from the rendering of the last clause of Ruth iii. 15 : "And HE went into the cite."

It has also many errors, corrected in later issues, including the repetition of two lines : "The children of Israel lift up their eyes and behold The Egyptians marched after them," in Exodus xiv. 10.

The Holy Bib'le, containing the OLD TESTAMENT and the NEW, also the Apocrypha. Thick folio, half calf, a VERY RARE EDITION, IT BEING THE FIRST ENGLISH BIBLE PRINTED IN IRELAND, 10.50. Dublin, R. Rhames, MDCCXIV.

This scarce volume also contains the greater part of "STERNHOLD and HOPKIN'S PSALMS, Set forth, and Allowed to be Sung in all Churches, of all the People together, before and after Morning and Evening Prayer, and also before and after Sermons ; and, moreover, in private Houses for their godly Solace and Comfort, laying apart all ungodly Songs and Ballads, which tend only to the nourishing of vice, and corrupting of youth.

Foxe (John), The Ecclesiasticall Historie, conteining the Acts and Monuments of Martyrs, With a Generall discourse of these latter Persecutions, horrible troubles and tumultes, stirred by Romish Prelates in the Church, with divers other things incident especially to this Relme of Englande and Scotland, etc. Henry VIII. to Queene Elizabeth, our gracious Ladie nowe raigning. 15.00. At London, Printed by John Day, dwelling over Aldersgate, 1583.

Wants the first title, leaf 641 partly destroyed, and the Index at the end is faulty. Otherwise there are 2122 PAGES OF THE BEST Old English Black Letter, and hundreds of very curious and large old wood engravings, substantially bound in one very thick folio volume, oak covered with leather, and has seven old brass bosses; a title-page will be found at page 794. It is a volume which cannot be duplicated.

BIBLES AND COMMENTARIES.

Gill (John), D.D. AN EXPOSITION OF THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS, best edition. Portrait. 9 vols, 4to, cloth boards, 12.50. 1810. 1

"A very distinguished place is due to Dr. Gill. Beyond all controversy, Gill was one of the most able Hebraists of his day, and in other matters no mean proficient. Gill was a master cinder-sifter among the Targums, the Talmuds, the Mishna, and the Gemara. For good sound, massive, sober sense in commenting, who can excel Gill?"—REV. C. H. SPURGEON.

Matthew Henry's Commentary on the Holy Bible. With Memoir and Prefatory Essay. Complete in six volumes. Imp. 8vo, cloth, as new, 9.50. London, Ward, Lock & Bowden. 2

“Dr. South's sermons are adapted to all readers and all days; they contain innumerable thoughts and reflections which are true and striking. From them we might form a collection of useful maxims in which sentiments the most profound and just are delivered in language the most expressive and correct. His sermons, indeed, to be properly appreciated, ought to be carefully studied; and we may venture to say that the labour will not be unprofitable; they bear the unequivocal stamp which a peculiar turn of mind and a great genius cannot fail to impress.”—The Retrospective Review.
