MISS LETITIA'S HERO.

"Well, Miss Letitia, what do you think of our fresh arrival?" "You mean, Madame, what do I think of Miss Taylor?" "Exactly."

"I really cannot say. Some scientific man, I presume, for Professor Symonds introduced him to me. What do you think of him?" "I should say he was an earnest, hard-to-beat man; very likely one who has had to fight his own way through life."

"I should say he was an earnest, hard-to-beat man; very likely one who has had to fight his own way through life." "Handsome!" "Yes, I think so—very."

neck of the beast, and a loud, authoritative voice calling: 'Crouch, Caesar!' Letitia knew that voice, though she had never heard it set to such a kingly pitch, and, quite unconscious of her presence, John Heak approached the crouching brute, struck it powerfully with a large whip he held in his hand, and forced it to enter the cage from which he had escaped.

There are four well illustrated articles in this number: "Wanderings in Spain," "How Tiles are Made," "The Crime of the Challenger," and a Life Sketch of General Gordon, with portrait.

Short Talks With... "What's that?" "Glass." "Well, what is glass?"

Short Talks With The Boys.

BY M. QUAD.

'What's that?' 'Gloss.' 'Well, what is gloss?' 'Gloss is that what the chemists call...'

Gloss is molded, brown and red. The big sheets of plate glass you see in the store windows are mostly of English and French make.

It isn't so many hundred years ago that the houses of kings and emperors were without a pane of glass, and long enough after the substance was known, glass was made only for the nobility.

All the hard work on stained glass, such as flowers, birds and borders, is put on with the brush, and the glass is then baked like the other. Just what the preparations are the glass men will not tell you.

Efforts have been made for a good many years past to render glass malleable in order that it might replace iron, tin and earthenware to a great extent.

In the first place, all the glass received is plain. The first move with ground glass is to frost it. They were a good many years finding out how to do this, and a very simple thing gave them the clue.

When the glass has been frosted it is ready for the artist. He takes it to his bench and draws the pattern in crayon, thus making black and distinct lines which show through the glass.

When the grinder takes it in hand he sits before a revolving grindstone which has been turned to an edge hardly wider than the blade of a table-knife.

Freeman's Worm Powders require no other purgative. They are safe and sure to remove all varieties of Worms.

National Pills act promptly upon the liver, regulate the bowels and as a purgative are mild and thorough.

Phosphatic or Nerve Food, a Phosphatic Element based upon Scientific Facts, Formulated by Professor Austin, M. D. of Boston, Mass., cures Pulmonary Consumption, Sick Headache, Nervous Attacks, Vertigo and Neuralgia and all wasting diseases of the human system.

Where colored glass is ground the pattern is made by simply grinding out the color, which leaves the ornamentation in white and the body of the glass in color.

averages $3 per day the year round. All the grindstones are imported from one quarry in Scotland, there being no stone in any other country so well fitted for the work.

But for the common glass lamp-chimneys what would our immense wealth of kerosene oil amount to? It isn't so long ago that the first chimneys were made, and a manufacturer says that it was a greater invention, and prolific of more hard study, than any piece of complicated machinery.

The first bottles made would sell now for valuable relics. Even down to fifty years ago they were rough and uncouth, with no pretence to symmetry. It was the same with the first tumblers and goblets.

About fifteen miles from Richmond, Va., is a farm house with some of the first window panes brought over to America. They are 10x12 in size and were brought here in the ash.

Obstinate skin diseases, humors of the blood, eruptions and old sores are cured by Burdock Blood Bitters, which purify and regulate all the secretions.

'The roller skate,' said Bill Nye, 'is a wayward little quadruped. It is as frolicsome and more innocent looking than a lamb, but for interfering with one's upright attitude in the community, it is, perhaps, the best machine that has appeared.'

'One's first feeling, on standing upon a pair of roller skates, is an uncontrollable tendency to come from together. One foot may start out towards Idaho, while the other promptly strikes out for Arizona.'

'One of the most noticeable things at a skating rink is the strong attraction between the human body and the floor of the rink. If the human body had been coming through space for days at the rate of a million miles a second, without stopping at eating stations, and not excepting Sundays, when it strikes the floor we could understand why it struck the floor with so much violence. As it is, however, the thing is quite inexplicable.'

'There are different kinds of falls in vogue at the rink. There are the rear fall and the front fall, the Cardinal Wallace fall, the fall one across the other, three in a pile, and so on. There are some of the falls that I would like to be excused from describing. The rear fall is the favorite. It is more frequently utilized than any other. There are two positions in skating, the perpendicular and the horizontal. Advanced skaters prefer the perpendicular, while others effect the horizontal.'

'Skates are no respecters of persons. They will lay out a minister of the gospel or the mayor of the city as readily as they will a short-coated boy or a giddy girl.'

'When one of a man's feet starts for Nevada and the other for Colorado, that does not separate him from the floor nor break up his fun. Other portions of his body will take the place his feet have just vacated with a promptness that is surprising. And he will know that the fun has just begun—for the people looking on. The equipments for the rink are a pair of skates, a cushion, and a bottle of liniment.'

To the Aged and Infirm the nourishing and invigorating properties of Ross's Phosphoric Emulsion give renewed strength and buoyancy of spirits. Always ask for ROSS'S PHOSPHORIC EMULSION, and be sure you get it.

To the Medical Profession, and all whom it may concern, Phosphatic or Nerve Food, a Phosphatic Element based upon Scientific Facts, Formulated by Professor Austin, M. D. of Boston, Mass., cures Pulmonary Consumption, Sick Headache, Nervous Attacks, Vertigo and Neuralgia and all wasting diseases of the human system.

Where colored glass is ground the pattern is made by simply grinding out the color, which leaves the ornamentation in white and the body of the glass in color. There are only about twenty-five ground glass factories in the United States, and the pay of an adept workman

A Good Illustration.

Canon Liddon was lately advocating the public acknowledgment of Christ in a sermon at St. Paul's London. There were, he said, workshops where a fierce sword would be the herald of more ardent opposition if the claims of Christianity were acknowledged or pressed, and in the clubs of the educated classes there was not the less bitter curl of the mouth and the contemptuous shrug of the shoulders for those who generally professed Christ.

Prudence is one of the virtues, but the most uncertain and difficult one of all to define and execute. I don't know that there is any other thing as good luck or bad luck; but if there is, I am sure that the good luck has raised more people than the bad has.

Idolatry is the sin of the heathens, infidelity of the Christians; but it is better to worship a wooden god than none at all. Nature invents, man is simply a discoverer; but what man must have, he is sure to find. Young man, if you have got any thing to do, do it now. Today is linked to eternity, tomorrow is a myth.

Life is a strange web: nature furnishes the warp, man the filling. Be ye humble before God, and resolute before man; but how many there be who reverse this order of things! Excess is not safe; even the virtues carried to excess, become fastidious, and oftentimes unwholesome.

Prayer is the simplest of all our actions; an innocent lull even is a prayer heard in heaven. Whenever I cum akrost a man who is panting to get into a general missionary business, and convert everything and everybody, I generally discover that he wants to convert all things to his interest and his way of thinking. Some men are ruled by their reason, but the rest of us, others, but most of them by their prejudices.

Widow makes a man humble, while learning makes him vain; the wise man is surprised that he knows so little, the learned one that he knows so much. Kindness is a golden thread that runs through the warp of every man, a never-ending sunbeam from his eye, but existence is a trial to all. To me there isn't a more noble sight than a man toiling honestly for his daily bread.

If the little insects even only knew their power for evil, they could make our existence miserable. The great error that many metaphysicians make, they are trying to fly into heaven instead of creeping there; their wings will melt off long before they get half way through their journey. Altho' I am a rank radical, I believe in the spirit of radicalism more than the virtue of it.

South Hillings' Philosophy.

It is a libel to call a man perfectly honest; the man who is the most honest will tell you so. Truth never hunts for great words and mistified sentences to express itself in. Like the mountain spring, it reaches first the valley and then the ocean, by following the natural lay or the ground.

A faithful servant is one of the greatest compliments to humanity. Prudence is one of the virtues, but the most uncertain and difficult one of all to define and execute. I don't know that there is any other thing as good luck or bad luck; but if there is, I am sure that the good luck has raised more people than the bad has.

The Metropolitan Shortlander, of Toronto says:—"Clinton High school has put shorthand on the list of optional subjects for the year, and it may be that Goderich will follow suit."

Is It So?—The London correspondent of the Clinton News Era says:—"A soap factory is to be started in the old cheese factory, by the Swiss Soap Manufacturing Co. of Goderich."

"Our Little Ones and the Nursery" for March is a perfect gem, and on its pages will be found every attraction and amusement for the little folks. Russell Publishing Co., Boston, publishers.

Murray G. McIntosh has just returned from a trip to Detroit where he concluded the purchase of the Princess Roller Rink, of Goderich. Murray has already paid for the rink, and will make a push to increase the popularity of this already popular place of amusement.

Our contemporary the Star is a poor authority, it would seem. Last week we copied an item from it about the gun club, but it was misleading. George Grant is the president, so the secretary informs us. We must get some better authority than the Star in the future.

Mrs. McLeod, the unfortunate old lady who was so severely burned on Thursday of last week, died at the residence, after we had gone to press. Much sympathy is expressed for her relatives. She was mother of Mrs. Capt. Baxter and Miss McLeod, dressmaker.

Last Friday evening the Goderich Snow Shoe Club tramped along the Huron road to Mrs. Brown's residence, where the Club was entertained with an excellent supper, and other amusements, after which the snowshoe trip was made. The Club heartily thanks Mrs. Brown for her hospitality on the occasion.

On Friday last, our popular teacher, Miss Kate Watson, was presented by her pupils on her leaving the Central school, with a very handsome family photograph album, bound in royal blue silk plush. We are sorry to lose Miss Watson from the educational staff, but wish her prosperity in whatever sphere she chooses.

The Cosmopolitan Shortlander is true to name. It is a thing that Canadians should be proud of, that the best shorthand periodical on this side of the Atlantic is published in Toronto. Thus, however, the editor, an Isaacian writer, but his monthly gives ample space to every good system. Sample copies for 10c.

Brother Patulle, of the Woodstock Sentinel-Review, must have his little joke. Hear the naughty man on the insurance move:—"We wish Dan, success in his new work, and feel sure that he has assurance enough to sail the western part of the province. The North American Life is to be congratulated on getting so popular and able a representative." Oh, George!

The Kineidine Reporter slyly remarks:—"Rev. Dr. Williams caused a smile to break over the faces of some in the audience at the lecture last week, when he described some of the residents of Baltimore being as black as the ace of spades. The idea of a Methodist minister, and a doctor of divinity to be so pretending to know whether the ace of spades is a black or a red spot."

At the semi-monthly entertainment, under the auspices of the High School Literary Society, held last Friday, the following programme was presented:—Reading, Mr. Humber; song, Miss Berry; recitation, Mr. Buchanan; reading, Mr. Alexander; song, Miss Miller; song, Mr. Armstrong; recitation, Miss Radcliffe; question drawer, Mr. Strang; recitation, Miss S. Williams; reading, Mr. Moore.

It will be remembered that last fall the steamer Osborne was run into and sunk in the Sault Ste. Marie River during a dense fog by the Canada Pacific steamer Alberta. The latter vessel was libelled by the Osborne's owners for the damages, and judgment was rendered at Detroit, declaring both vessels in fault, and decreeing that the damages be divided. The division is to be made in the following unique manner: The Alberta owners are to pay half the damages sustained by the Osborne, and the Osborne owners are to pay half the damages inflicted upon the Alberta.

Harrings are very scarce this season, although some fine salmon trout have been captured by nets through the ice.

STRAZZONES LOST.—We learn by telegrams from Clinton, that John McMillan, of Hallett, lost a fine stallion, valued at $1,500, on Tuesday, and that on the same day, Chas. Mason, of Tuckermith, also lost a valuable stallion.

Hay has become a very valuable product during the past few weeks, and has been sold in Kincardine as high as $16 per ton. The farmers in this vicinity are of a local character, as large quantities will shortly be brought into town by rail. Many farmers are obliged to purchase feed for their stock. Imported hay is being sold in Walkerton to the extent of a car load per week at from $10 to $11 per ton.—Reporter.

The "strictly cash" rule for all casual work, and for subscriptions to the paper, came into force in this office on the 2nd of March. All who owe, either for job work, advertising or subscriptions, are hereby requested to square up. Don't let those small accounts stand on our books any longer. DIED.—One of our oldest settlers died on Tuesday in the person of Mrs. Mary Burke, relict of the late Samuel Burke, of Goderich township. She had reached the great age of 93, and had seen many changes in the township during her long residence in it. She leaves a family of four sons and four daughters to mourn her loss. She was buried in Goderich cemetery yesterday, the funeral taking place from the residence of her son, Jas. Burke.

S.; Companion W. H. Murney, janitor.

SUDDEN DEATH.—The Victoria (B. C.) Times of the 18th Feb. says:—"Frank Elliott was found dead in his cabin, in the harbor, yesterday morning. He came from London, Ont., and has a brother residing in Goderich. The body was taken in charge by Sergeant Flawin who will attend to the burial, etc. Deceased worked for some time on the dry dock, and had a claim against the contractors for unpaid services. There was found on his person over $50 in money."

DEPARTED HIS WIFE.—The Toronto papers yesterday published a despatch stating that a young man named Robert Hall, formerly of Goderich, had deserted his wife and child at Windsor. He had left his wife before, but she followed him to Windsor, where she found him paying attentions to a young lady of that town. He lived with his wife again, however, until last Saturday, when he again deserted her, leaving her and her child in destitute circumstances. Whiskey was the ruin of Hall.

AN IMPORTANT CASE.—On Wednesday afternoon a motion being made by counsel for the Bell Telephone Company for a writ of certiorari to bring up into a superior Court the proceedings taken before the Minister of Agriculture at Ottawa to void the Bell patent. Judge Bland directed that the writ should be granted until next term so that it might be heard by the full Court, and stated that he did this in view of the magnitude of the interests involved and the general importance of the case, which he characterized as one of the most important that had come before the courts.

A. B. Henderson, our popular vocalist, sang at Lucknow on Friday before last with a rare success. He had the assistance of the Oldfellows. The Lucknow Sentinel says of him:—"Then came the splendid solo, 'The Grave Digger,' by Mr. A. Henderson, of Goderich, which appears to be a general favorite with Lucknow audiences. He possesses a rich and powerful voice, and he had a complete control. Mr. Henderson also gave the 'Bay of Biscay' for which he was loudly cheered, and in response rendered in a faultless manner the solo, 'A Hundred Fathoms Deep.' His instrumental selections on the mouth organ were very well rendered and much appreciated."

We last week overlooked the entertainment held on Monday Feb. 26th under the auspices of the church of England Temperance Society. The attendance was large, and the programme was well rendered. Rev. P. Owen-Jones was in the chair, and was ably assisted by: Song, Mrs. Toms; Recitation, Miss Williams; Duet, Miss Rines and Master Rines; Reading, Rev. P. O. Jones; Duet, Mrs. Moorhouse and Miss Cooke; Reading, H. I. Strang, R. A.; Solo, Mrs. Toms; Reading, Dr. Jones; Duet, Mrs. Moorhouse and Miss Cooke; Reading, Mrs. Toms. The evening hymn concluded the meeting. At the close a number of persons came forward and joined the society.

THE HUB GETS LEFT.—It is not very often that Goderich gets the start of Clinton, says the News Era, but when such a thing does happen we must give the county town due credit. On Friday afternoon last six ladies, belonging to the Goderich Winter Sports Club, tramped from Goderich to Holmesville, on snow shoes, a distance of nine miles, in three hours. Of course they were accompanied by the male escort, but if any of our Clinton ladies can equal this, we shall be glad to announce the fact, but until they do, Goderich ladies take the cake. No doubt our esteemed friend Kydd will now be supremely happy that Clinton has been vanquished, and will consider this another argument against the removal of the county buildings.

Currying for a Medal.—The contest among the members of the Goderich Curling Club for the silver medal terminated last week. The following shows the play:

The original motion was then carried, Messrs. Ball and Nicholson dissenting. The annual report to the government was submitted to the board and approved, after which the board adjourned.

The regular meeting of the board met on the 2nd inst.

Present:—J. C. Dettler, chairman, and Messrs. Malcolmson, Nicholson, Crabb, Morton, Ball, Swanson, Butler.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Report from principal was read and filed.

A report was read from the principal on the state of the library.

On motion the board then adjourned.

North-West Representation.—In the House on Monday Mr. Cameron (Huron) moved for the correspondence between the Government and the North West Council respecting the representation of the Territories in this Parliament, and the petitions from the people on the subject. He said he did not propose to discuss the question at length, until he had placed before Parliament his Bill on this subject, beyond calling attention to the fact that the people of the North West Territories, and they had a population larger than that of Prince Edward Island when it was admitted to the Confederation with a representation of six members; ten times larger than Manitoba when it was admitted with four members; and ten times larger than British Columbia when that was admitted. That taxation without representation was tyranny was a statement as true as it was well known. Last session Mr. Macpherson, Minister of the Interior, said that the Government would be prepared to consider the question of the North West representation, but he (Mr. Cameron) was not aware that anything had been done since then. It would not be advisable to postpone any action until the census was taken and the result laid before the House, for that would leave the North West unprotected during the present Parliament and probably during the whole, or at least a part, of the next Parliament.

The motion was carried.

Rinkle, rinkle, little wheel, Fastened to the skater's heel, How I love to see you whirl, Propelled by a dainty girl; How I love to see you glide gracefully on the outside. Curve of beauty, line of grace—See the pretty maiden's face. For the first time she does don, For the first time stands upon, Her feet rise to the little wheel, Fastened to her toe and heel. Ah! an effort she does make, Now the spectators they break For the wall to get away. Prouder arms at wind-mill play, Yes, she tried, but down she went, And her bustle got a dent. —[Yankers Gazette.]

T. M. Daly, at one time member of parliament for North Perth, is dead.

There is now a good opening for a first-class tailor in this place.

We are also of the opinion that this would be just the place for a good harness-maker to commence business.

PERSONAL.—Charlie Stewart, our jovial young tailor, left last week for Seabrook, where, we understand, he is going into business. Charlie was a general favorite, and will be greatly missed.

A meeting to consider the advisability of starting either a cheese factory or a creamery was held in the store of Mr. Dales last Thursday night. The feeling of the meeting appeared to be in favor of the factory, and a committee was appointed to investigate the matter, and report at the next meeting.

The revival meetings in the Methodist church, which have been going on for some time, were brought to a close on Monday evening.

There are a great many on the sick list in this neighborhood just now. The doctors are busy.

Mrs. Jackson, mother of John Jackson, of the 13th con. of Hullett, died on Feb. 20th, at the ripe old age of 98.

Londesbore Lodge, I. O. G. T., visited Maitland Lodge on Monday evening.

The ice is nearly all cut out of Culla's mill race, and they will be able to furnish dumping dust in a few days. Many in the village have had to get a supply from other places.

Goerlich Township.—Mrs. Parker, of Stanley, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Cliff, of the Bayfield line.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCann were visiting friends in Stephen township last week.

HENRY SOLD.—James Lathwaite has sold his splendid imported stallion, Farmer's Friend, to Messrs. Otter B. Wilson and D. Fisher for the sum of $1245.

George Balderson, who some time ago sold his farm on the Bayfield concession to Reeve Elliott, is about to move to the Clegg farm on the 9th con., which he has rented.

The lecture given by Rev. Mr. Steele on Thursday night was the "British Church." The rev. gentleman delivered a very effective lecture, giving the history of the church since its early days. There was a good attendance.

A literary society has been organized on the Bayfield line. The members met on Friday night last, and had a very interesting debate—subject: "Which is the most useful, wood or iron?" Both sides spoke ably, resulting in a tie. The society meets every Friday night. A good programme is expected for next night in readings, recitations, speeches, etc.

Geo. Foster has left for the Ottawa district, where he intends to reside in future.

Gabriel Sprang, of the base line, has been confined to the house by sickness for the past two weeks.

The farmers who patronize the butter factory are busily engaged in stocks of ice. Easy to get this winter.

Geo. Flintoff has rented his farm of 60 acres, on the 3rd con., being lot 16, to Jas. VanEdmond for 7 years.

At a sale in this township on Tuesday, a horse was sold for 25 cents. We are not informed whether it walked a way or was drawn off.

It is said that the widow of the late Wm. Aikens is going to enter a suit for $3,000 damages against the Hullett council, for not having the roads properly opened—thus causing the death of her husband.

The Beansh farm, on the boundary between Hullett and East Wawanosh, was sold by auction on Tuesday, John Thompson, of Hullett, being the purchaser, at $4,450. There are 100 acres, good buildings, and the place is considered cheap enough.—[New Era.]

TRAVELLING AND SACRED CONCERT.—The above entertainment under the auspices of the Church of England was marked success. The attendance was large, and the order, etc., very good. Tea was served in the hall adjacent, and the refreshments excellent. The concert was held in the church. The music was furnished by the Goderich English church choir (fifteen voices) under the leadership of W. F. Foote, and was admirably rendered. The following programme was offered:—

Jubilate.....Choir.....Jackson
Organ Solo.....March in C.....
Duet.....W. F. Foote.
Te Deum.....Choir.....
Solo.....Adore and be still.....Gounod
Recitation.....Miss Berrit.
Duet.....Mrs. Moorhouse and Miss Cooke.
Antiphon.....Choir.....Hopkins
Deus Misereatur.....Choir.....Mannatt
National Anthem.....Choir.

A recitation was given by a young lady of the village, whose name we did not learn, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Carry and Cameron, and W. F. Foote, Goderich, and D. E. Cameron, Lucknow. The choir had a rich experience in the way of pitch-holes, and had no difficulty in getting the pitch on the road. The evening was an enjoyable one to all who attended the entertainment.

Auction Sales.—All parties getting their sale bills printed at this office will get a free notice inserted in this list up to the time of sale.

Auction sale of valuable farm property, being the north-east quarter of lot No. 6, 4th con., E. D., Township of Ashfield, comprising 50 acres, at Martin's hotel, Goderich, by John Knox, auctioneer, at 12 o'clock, noon, on Saturday, March 28th, 1885.

The Sabbath school convention proved a grand success. Everybody present seemed to enjoy the meeting very much.

Harvey Howell, of this village, lately slaughtered 42 pigs for F. McDonough in the astonishingly short time of 2 hours and 18 minutes. Mr. Howell challenges any man in the county to beat this record.

Councillor McQuade, of Lucknow, was on a visit to the Hill last week, and had with him his famous black trotting mare, "Susan Nipper." It is the intention of Mr. McQuade to fit Susan for the Buffalo June races, and as she is a good one, no doubt Ontario will be well represented by her.

James Walters is at present enlarging his premises, and intends starting a large factory in the spring; and as timber is abundant here, no doubt he will make it a financial success.

A snow shoe club has been started here with A. J. McDougall as president, and H. Linnack as secretary. The club comprises some 16 members, and is in a flourishing condition. On Tuesday evening the president and secretary took a tramp to the Nile and back, and covered the distance in 5 hours and 25 minutes. We understand it is the intention of the entire club to meet the Goderich snow shoe club some evening shortly. No doubt a pleasant evening will be spent.

Ben Granger, our affable village blacksmith, has in his possession a very curious carved ivory snuff box, at one time the property of the great Dan. O'Connell. The box was given to Mr. G. by his grandfather, and is a much favored relic. Mr. Granger, with his accustomed good nature, will be very happy to show the box to any one calling at his shop who wishes to see it.

A social and concert in aid of the Presbyterian church will be held in the church here on Friday evening next. All the available local talent has been secured and a number of ladies and gentlemen from Goderich are expected to take part. A good time is anticipated.

Dec. 4th, 1884.

The Poet's Corner.

Old Grimes. [A. G. Greene, born in Providence, R. I., February 10, 1802, and educated at Brown University in that city, died 1866, was the author of the famous song "Old Grimes is Dead" so seldom correctly published, but as popular as any in the English language. The following is a correct version.]

Old Grimes is dead, that good old man
We never shall see him so more;
He used to wear a long black coat
All buttoned down before.

His heart was open as the day,
His feelings all were true,
His hair was some inclined to gray
He wore it in a queue.

When'er he heard the voice of pain
His breast with pity burn'd,
The large round head upon his case
From ivory was turn'd.

Kind words he ever had for all
He knew no base desire,
His eyes were dark and rather small,
His nose was aquiline.

He lived at peace with all mankind,
In friendship his was true,
His coat had pocket holes behind,
His pantaloons were blue.

What Not to do for Health.

A correspondent thinks that the health of the people would be brought up to a better condition if they were educated out of the following fallacies.

The idea the cold bath is healthy in winter and dangerous in summer is a fallacy.
That rain water is more healthy than hard water.
That hot rooms must be heated in cold weather.

That the misery of everlasting scrubbing and soaping is compensated by the comfort of fluid intervals.
That a sick room must be hermetically closed.
That it pays to save the fuel for the sake of its warmth.

That draughts are meretricious agencies.
That catarrhs are due to low temperatures.
That even in winter children must be sent to bed at an early hour.
That an after-dinner nap can do any harm.

That the sanitary conditions of the air can be improved by the fester of carbolic acid.
That there is any benefit in swallowing jugfuls of nauseous sulphur water.
That rest after dinner can be shortened with impunity.
That outdoor recreation is a waste of time.

That athletic sports brutalize the character.
That a normal human being requires any other stimulant than exercise and fresh air.
That any plan of study can justify the custom of starting the children in sleep.
[Lippincott's Magazine.]

AMATEUR GARDENING.

Mill's and his varied experience in cultivating cut-worms.

During the past season I have been considerably interested in agriculture. I have not had much success, but not enough to sadden me with joy. It takes a good deal of success to unnerve my reason and make it totter on its hinges. I've had trouble with my liver, and various other abnormal conditions of the vital organs, but old reason sits there on his or her throne, as the case may be, through it all.

Agriculture has a charm about it which I cannot adequately describe. Every product of the farm is furnished by nature with something that loves it, so that it will never be neglected. The grain crop is loved by the weevil, the beetles, the grasshopper, the cut-worm, the watermelon, the squash, and the cucumber are loved by the squash bug; the potato is loved by the potato bug; the sweet corn is loved by the ear, the algarid; the tomato is loved by the cut-worm; the plum is loved by the curculio, and so forth, and so forth, so that no plant that grows need be a wall-flower.

Early blooming and extremely dwarf plants for the table. Pant as soon as there is no danger of frost, in drills four inches apart. When ripe, pull it, and eat raw with vinegar. The red ants may be added to taste.

Well, I began early to spade up my ang worms and other pests, to see if they had withstood the severe winter, I found they had. They were unusually bright and cheerful. The potato-bugs were a little sluggish at first, but as the spring opened and the ground warmed up they pitched right in, and did first-rate. Every one of my bugs in May looked splendidly. I was most worried about my cut-worms. Away along in April I had not seen a cut-worm, and I began to fear they had suffered, and perhaps perished, in the extreme cold of the previous winter.

One morning late in the month, however, I saw a cut-worm come out from behind a cabbage stump and take off his coat. He was a little stiff in the joints, but he had not lost hope. I saw at once now was the time to assist him if I had a spark of humanity left. I searched every work I could find on arcturians, but I did not find what I wanted. I then turned to the farmers for their blamed cut-worms, but all scientists seemed to be silent. I read the agricultural reports, the dictionary, and the encyclopedia, but they didn't throw any light on the subject. I got wild. I feared that I had brought but one cut-worm through the winter, and I was liable to lose him unless I could find out what to feed him. I asked some of my neighbors, but they spoke jokingly and sarcastically. I knew now why it was. All their cut-worms had frozen down last winter, and they couldn't bear to see me get ahead.

All at once, an idea struck me. I haven't recovered from the concussion yet. It was this: the worm had wintered under a cabbage stalk; no doubt he was fond of the beverage. I acted upon this thought and brought him two dozen red cabbage plants, at 50 cents a dozen. I had hit it the first pop. He was passionately fond of these plants, and would eat three in one night. He also had several matinees and our krait lawn festivals for his friends, and in a week I bought three dozen more cabbage plants. By this time I had collected a large group of common scrub cut-worms, early Swedish cut-worms, dwarf Hubbard cut-worms, and short-horn cut-worms, all doing well but still, I thought, a little hide bound and bilious. They acted languid and listless. As my squabs began to hatch, I got them some more tomato plants, and then some more cabbage for a change. On the whole I was as proud as any young farmer could be who has made a success of anything.

One morning I noticed that a cabbage plant was left standing unchewed. The next day it was still there, and was thunder-struck. I dug into the ground. My cut-worms were gone. I spaded up the whole patch, but there wasn't one. Just as I had become attached to them, and they had learned to look forward each day to my coming, and they would all meet come up and eat a tomato plant out of my hand, some one had robbed me of them. I was almost wild with despair and grief. Suddenly something tumbled over my foot. It was an rusty stomach, but it had feet on each corner. A neighbor said it was a warty toad. He had caught up my summer work! He had swallowed up my cunning little cut-worms. I tell you, gentle reader, an easy way is provided, whereby this warty scourge can be wiped out. For one shall relinquish the joys of agricultural pursuits. When a common toad with a sallo complexion, and no intellect, can swallow up my summer's work, it is time to go home.

A policeman is a curious creature. He knows a rogue when he sees him, but he doesn't know a size a rogue when he knows him.

An exchange says that "people living near Niagara Falls never have colds. We don't know about that. We have always understood that they hear the biggest cat-a-ract in the world.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Ottawa Free Press, rather neatly says that "Senate is accomplishing nothing in particular, but is accomplishing it with more skill than usual. They have been practicing a long time.—(London Advertiser.)

Since Walt Whitman said that "Cleveland has a good supply of old-fashioned horse sense," a western paper has felt constrained to say "Neigh," and the Buffalo Express remembers him as a mayor. We beg leave to add that it is a cold day when the paragraphs leave him alone.—(Oil City Derrick.)

English Officers in Egypt.

Lord "Charley" Beresford was 39 years old last week. He has two gold medals for having on three occasions jumped overboard and saved lives at sea. He is one of the finest boxers that ever put on the gloves.

"Sir Redvers Buller," once said Archibald Forbes, "has been more war than any of our soldiers who are not yet veterans." For saving three lives under fire in Zululand he was rewarded with the Victoria cross.

Sir Gerald Graham is an adept at rackets, which he is passionately fond. His Victoria cross was earned by saving lives under fire on several occasions in the Crimean war, and for leading a ladder party in the assault on the Redan.

Colonel Butler is a Red river and Ashanti officer, and also took part in the Egyptian campaign. He married, it will be remembered, Miss Elizabeth Thompson, the well-known painter of "The Roll Call," "Quatre Bras," and other military subjects. Col. Butler is with it which is known as the "Great Lone Land," and was really the first man to bring the capabilities of our great Northwest under notice.

Col. Sir C. W. Wilson, R.E., is well experienced in the ways of eastern nations, having served as her majesty's commissioner for the Serbian frontier in 1878, and as consul-general in Anatolia during the following year.

Col. Henry Brackenbury, K.A., served in the Indian mutiny and through the Ashanti campaign. In 1880 he was appointed private secretary to Lord Lytton, when the latter was viceroy of India. In the following year he was nominated military attaché at Paris, and in 1882 was assistant under-secretary for Ireland.

Lieut. Col. Boscawen also served in the Egyptian campaign, and has lately been the assistant military secretary to the commander-in-chief in Ireland.

Major-General Sir John McNeill, who had been appointed to command the second brigade of the relief expedition from Suakin, is well known in Canada, having served an idle-de-camp to Lord Lisgar when the latter was governor-general of the dominion, and afterwards escorted the Princess Louise to this country and made quite a long stay at Halifax. At that time he was equerry to the queen. Sir John served under Lord Wolsley in the Ashanti war.

Using Long and Short Words.

It is odd that long words more commonly express ignorance than do the short words. Short words are used for the expression of stalwart ideas that are perfectly capable of standing alone, while the refinement of these ideas is more commonly expressed in long words. The grandest thoughts in any literature are expressed in few and well-chosen words, and, as a rule the man of ideas is more simple in his language than he who has no originality, and relies on others' thoughts, which he then proceeds to put into his own expressions.

It is also often noticed that men of ideas hesitate in their speech more than do those who have few ideas and few words to express them. In the reason is evident. Men of a large vocabulary will pick and choose in their words in order to get the word that will best do the work expected of it: If this will not serve it will be taken out and another substituted, while the man of a limited vocabulary and few ideas will never be at a loss for the simple reason that he has but the one set of ideas and the one set of words to express them. The words are easily fitted to the ideas and the work.

Of all the people in the young women are the most glib in conversation, but this is not from any quantity of ideas or of words either, for the command of either is usually limited, but from the fact that they are not so much troubled about dressing themselves, for he puts on his one suit and goes about his business. It is the man who has a number of different suits who is confronted by the problem what to wear and how to wear it.

Parliament.

John Clark has sold his fine mare to Mr. Mooney of Clinton for the sum of $160.

Jas. and Miss Bella Reid returned on Monday last from a visit to their friends in Auburn.

Thos. Smith, sec. of this place, was taken ill on Saturday last very suddenly. He is at present under the care of Dr. McCrimmon, of Lucknow.

The parlor social held at John Reid's on Wednesday evening was a grand success.

DEAD PASTOR.—We, the young people of your congregation at Hope appointment, being desirous of showing our appreciation and gratitude to you for the great interest you have taken in our spiritual welfare, have thought it best to take this method of making some small return for all that you have done for us since you came among us.

Mr. Hamilton, though taken by surprise, made a very suitable reply, thanking the young people for their kindness towards him and his family.

John Durin has sold his farm on the 6th con., to G. Agar, for the sum of $5,500.

Miss McConnell, teacher of No. 3, had a personal experience of Manitoba weather, by getting her ears frozen.

John Fowler, of the 8th con., has very poor health present, his disease probably taking of rather a consumptive tendency at present.

Mr. Butter, sr., is suffering from a cancer in the stomach.

R. Miller, of St. Helens, was appointed township clerk, in place of Robert Murray who resigned the position.

Mrs. Charles Pintoff died from inflammation of the bowels. Deceased leaves a family of seven children to mourn her untimely loss.

Erysipelas is prevalent in the neighborhood of Duganston at present, one death having resulted from it, and several are in rather a dangerous state from its effects.

There was a tea meeting in the Presbyterian church at St. Helens last Monday evening, and a social on Wednesday evening.

Thomas O'Laughlin died on the 21st ult., aged about 40 years. Deceased has suffered severely for the past year from bleeding of the lungs. His remains were interred in St. Augustine cemetery on the 23rd.—[New Era.]

West Wawanosh.

Township Hall, Feb. 28th. Council met according to adjournment. All the members present.

Merley's amendment to the census motion, favoring the evacuation of the Soudan, was rejected—455 to 112.

Lord Hamilton's amendment to Morley's motion, to the effect that the Government had failed to indicate a policy justifying the confidence of Parliament or of the country, was rejected—299 to 277.

Lord Hartington said that whether the Government was or was not defeated on the pending motion, the expedition for the suppression of the Madhi would be continued.

Northcote's motion of censure was rejected—322 to 238.

The cabinet council lasted from 2 until 6:35 p.m. The debate was excited and at some points exceeded the bounds of decorum.

The second proposition was to push through the redistribution bill, which has already been agreed to by the leaders of both parties, then to discuss the Government's intention to resign immediately and let the Tories see if they can do any better.

The third proposition was to stick to office and let the Opposition howl. The second proposition will probably prevail.

The Pull Mall Gazette of Feb. 28 exactly describes the opinion of the bulk of the Liberals in saying that the House of Commons has found the old Irish verdict. "Not guilty, but not dead again."

London, March 2.—Mr. Labouchere's resolution that the House of Commons regrets that the militia is to be embodied, because it indicates the resolution of the Government to interfere in the Soudan by force of arms, was defeated by 149 to 19.

The Marquis of Hartington defended the sending out of the guards who expected to be employed in the war when serious operations were needed.

Margaret, daughter of Mrs. Halliday of Calmore, died on the 21st inst., and was buried in the cemetery at Ball's church, Base line, Hullett, on the 23rd.

Another vacancy occurred in the ranks of the aged of Hallett, on the 19th ult., in the person of Mrs. Jackson, at the advanced age of 97 years and 9 months.

On Wednesday evening last, a very pleasant surprise fell to the lot of Rev. A. E. Smith and wife. Early in the evening two young gentlemen from the Goshen settlement drove up with upwards of fifty bushels of oats, which they deposited for the use of Mr. Smith's pony.

GLADSTONE YET.

The Government Will Not Retire Just Now.
