which is known to be far superior to anything ever yet discovered for killing rats, mice, insects, on poultry, ants, bugs, cockroaches, black beetles, fleas on dogs, tick or scab on sheep or goats, &c., in less than ten minutes. Sold in packets at 25c. per packet, or six packets for $1.25. The powder is warranted free from all bad smells, and will keep in any climate. It may be spread anywhere without risk, as it is quite harmless to cats and dogs for they will not eat it. Directions for use on each packet.

The above discovery has gained for Professor Herman a silver prize medal at the Intercolonial Exhibition for Victoria, Australia, of 1860, besides numerous testimonials.

MONDAY EV'NG, JULY 12, 1869.

The World Over.

There are still living 145 officers who took part in the battle of Waterloo.

The Australian papers complain that in the colony the game of cricket is on the decline.

Brantford is troubled with mad dogs, consequently unmuzzled canines are slaughtered without mercy.

William B. Astor's annual income is over one million dollars, yet, it is said, he never assists any charity.

Admiral Lord Nelson's famous Trafalgar flagship the Victory is to be maintained on permanence at Portsmouth.

It has been awfully wet this summer. Even the man in the moon was seen the other day trying to borrow an umbrella.

Two thousand head of Texas cattle arrived at Ellsworth, Kansas, on Wednesday, and fifty thousand more were on their way.

On the last trip of the Chicago from Lake Superior she brought down 16 packages of silver ore from the Thunder Bay Mining Co., valued at $20,000.

The wheat crop has nearly all been gathered in Maryland, and by the end of this week little will be left standing. Our exchanges speak of the yield as excellent.

"Johnny Moore," the winner of the well contended trotting purse of $300, at the late Hamilton races, has been purchased by Mr. Charles Ray, of Whitby.

Boutwell forbade smoking in the Treasury Department at Washington. Delano did it, and Boutwell "regulated him," but Delano still smokes and falls back on Grant.

The Mayor of Cobourg must be a terrible fellow. He has issued a proclamation declaring that "all the owners of unmuzzled dogs which are allowed to run at large will be shot."

On Thursday last, thirteen thousand quarts (about four hundred bushels) of strawberries were shipped from Oakville, County of Halton, for the Toronto and Montreal markets.

The Welland Battalion of Volunteers challenge the Province generally and the Toronto Queen's Own in particular, to a rifle shooting contest on the Niagara common, for $200 a side.

A man in Adair Co., Iowa, has invented a cannon which he claims will throw a projectile fourteen miles, and has gone to Washington to get a patent. He proposes to offer it to the government for one million.

Madame Demorest, the well-known modiste, and her daughter, Miss Vienna Demorest, sail for Europe on the 18th inst. It is the lady's intention to establish in Paris a branch of her New York emporium of fashion.

The death of Hildebrand, the Missouri outlaw, is reported. He is said to have been the murderer of eighty persons. His death will deprive somebody of ten thousand dollars reward, which was offered for his capture.

It is announced in European journals that the Christians who send their children to the Turkish College are threatened with excommunication by the Pope. It is said that the Porte will expel the Jesuits from the Ottoman empire by way of reprisals.

The revenue to be paid to the Government for the year ending June 30, 1869, from the United Counties of Leeds and Grenville, will be no less than $550,000. Upwards of $300,000 will be paid by the Maitland Distillery alone, Mr. Wisner, of Prescott, paying over $200,000, the malt tax making up the balance.

Jefferson Davis becomes infirm in body as he becomes older in years. He is at present in Paris, from which city his friends in Montreal, Que., have advised to the effect that is very doubtful if the state of his health will ever permit his return to this side of the Atlantic. Should he obtain a hopeful convalescence, however, he intends to spend the summer months in British North America, and the winter in Mississippi.

MISS RYE at LONDON.—Miss Rye, the philanthropist, addressed a big meeting in London two or three nights ago, and talked pretty well; all of which was very clever and very plucky on the part of Miss Rye. She wanted money to bring out more girls, but the London people were not so badly off for servants as to consider themselves called upon to ask the city council to grant a sum of money for Miss Rye's purpose. A motion to do so was negatived by the full of the City Hall, with the exception of six individuals. What the lady said or did after this is not mentioned.

Sunday in Camp.

There may be some among our readers who, blessed with light consciences and heavy heads, like the famous Jack Costigan, did not hear the storm which raged with terrible fury about 3 on Sunday morning. It is to be presumed, however, that there were but few whose slumbers were so deep that they were not interrupted by the loud roll of the thunder and the wild howling of the wind. Old Boreas, or whatever they call him, had snapped his chains, escaped from his cave, and amused himself in a most disagreeable way by overturning chimneys and fences, and if not uprooting trees, at least tearing off many a goodly limb. The vivid lightning flashed continuously, and for a short time the rain descended in torrents. How fared the dwellers in the tents out on the common? Not very well it may be imagined. Their tents were not erected in anticipation of such a very violent storm, and when it came the men had in some instances to take care of them instead of their sheltering the men. They are unfortunately without braces to their centre poles, and have to depend for supporting their perpendicular merely on the ropes that brace the canvas at the bottom. Their inhabitants had to come out and hold on to them at the very time when the sentries were running for shelter from the pelting rain. Some three or four of the tents were upset, and for a while there was such a commotion as might be seen in a big ship that had been unexpectedly struck by a heavy gale. The tents that stood showed their excellent waterproof qualities. All was soon put to rights, and a smiling morning succeeded to a night of storm. Such is campaigning, with the exception of the bullets.

At 3 p.m., on Sunday, the companies fell in on their private parade ground, and marched to about the front row of tents, occupied by the Guelph Artillery, on the north side, where religious services were conducted by the Chaplain assisted by the Rev. Mr. Hogg. The Chaplain engaged in prayer, and Mr. Hogg afterwards read a portion of the twentieth chapter of Acts. Hymn 123 of Bateman's Collection was announced by the Chaplain, and lined by him for the benefit of those who had not hymn-books. The Band was stationed round the platform; they gave the key-note, and played the accompaniment all the way through.—Either but a small proportion of the crowd sang, or else the sound being confined did not produce half the effect which might have been anticipated from the blending of so many voices as there were in that crowd; for in addition to the volunteers, the Town seemed to have poured out at least half its inhabitants. The Chaplain then gave as a text the words, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."—Rev. H. 10. The sermon was commendably short. We say commendably, for the audience had to either stand or sit on the damp grass, during its continuance, and under such circumstances a sermon of the ordinary length would have become rather tedious. The lesson inculcated was, that while it was every man's duty to be faithful to every earthly trust, it was much more particularly his duty to be faithful to Christ. Unless he is he has not fulfilled his calling; and the speaker closed with an exhortation to his hearers to acknowledge the Saviour in all circumstances and positions in which they might be placed. The Rev. Mr. Hogg then offered prayer, the hymn "Glory to God on High," was sung to the tune of the National Anthem, the Band as before playing the accompaniment, and then the benediction having been pronounced, the companies faced to the right and broke off, the civilians also wending their way back to town.

The Chaplain announced that there would be worship in the Adjutant's tent every morning at half-past five.

THE GUELPH POLICE COURT.

Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., Police Magistrate.

MONDAY, 13th.—Thomas Bych, of Puslinch, was charged by Thos. Brown, of Guelph Township, with breach of the Highway Act. It was alleged that defendant had not given half the road.—The case was adjourned till to-morrow.

THE SOLAR ECLIPSE.—The coming solar eclipse is naturally exciting considerable interest in the public mind as well as in the scientific world. The eclipse will not appear total in Canada, but will be so observed in a belt of country in the United States of about 140 miles wide, and from the coast of North Carolina stretches away, in a north-westerly direction, through North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, and Iowa. Extensive preparations are being made to observe the phenomenon with exactness on the 7th August.

SUICIDE ON THE GRAND TRUNK.—On the Grand Trunk cars at Cornwall, a night or two since, a man attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a pen-knife, but only succeeded in making an ugly gash. Atkinson is his name. He is a tailor from Galt, and went to Quebec to meet his sister who arrived by the St. Patrick from Scotland; but who refusing to accompany her brother to Galt, went with an acquaintance to Boston. The brother then abandoned himself to drink, and attempted to cut his throat while in delirium tremens.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

GRADUATED.—The Times says that Mr. A. Maddaugh, of Puslinch, passed his final examination at the Hamilton Business College on Friday, and received his diploma.

GUELPH PRESBYTERY.—The Presbytery of Guelph, in connection with Canada Presbyterian Church, meets in Knox's Church to-morrow at 11 o'clock. Important matters relating to, and arising out of the Galt case will come up for consideration.

PIC-NIC.—The picnic in connection with the Baptist Sabbath School, Guelph will be held on Mr. Goldie's grounds to-morrow.—This picnic has been once postponed, and it is to be hoped that the weather to-morrow will be such as not to necessitate its being put off again.

CONCERT IN THE TOWN HALL.—Madame Parmalee, with her son and daughter, will give a concert in the Town Hall on Tuesday night. The lady's vocal powers are said to be of rare excellence, and her concerts, wherever she has been, have given the highest satisfaction. She is a new claimant for public favour, and if report speak true, most likely to be a successful one.

ARRESTED.—On Saturday evening Geo. Clay, a veterinary surgeon, who formerly lived in Guelph, and whose wife is still here, was arrested in Toronto by a detective at the request of Chief Constable Kelly. There are several charges pending against him, but of what nature we have not learned. The Chief Constable is going after him this afternoon, and we shall know all about it to-morrow.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE BOYNE.—Today is the anniversary of the battle of Boyne. It should be cause of thankfulness to us, the people of Guelph, that we have nothing but the date to remind us of the fact, that one hundred and seventy-nine years ago, "the gentle, legendary river," to quote McGee, "wreathed in its abundant foliage, was started by the sound of cannon which continued through the long summer evening, and woke the early echoes of the morrow." It was on the evening of the 30th of June that the sickly soldier-prince, who never showed animation except on the day of battle, expressed his pleasure at sighting the army which had rallied round his father-in-law, and his determination that it should experience his prowess before they parted. On the first of July the battle was fought—with what result the world is aware, but perhaps every one does not know that it was the change from Old to New Style, which took place subsequently, that makes the anniversary fall on the 12th and not on the first of the month. There is no celebration in Guelph, not even a dinner, so far as we can learn, the day is to us just like any other day; and perhaps half the citizens will scarcely think of the important event which in other places great preparations have been made for celebrating.

NEWS ITEMS.

A BRAVE ON THE WAR PATH.—On Thursday last, as Mr. T. Lewis, tailor, Sarnia, was searching for his cow in the Indian Reservation, a murderous attack was made upon him by an Indian named Lighthouse, who threatened that he would kill any white man found trespassing on the Reserve. Mr. Lewis was severely beaten, and escaped from the clutches of the savage with difficulty. A warrant was accordingly put in the hands of Constable Lucas for the arrest of Lighthouse, who was arrested and lodged in gaol next day to await his trial for the offence.

INCREASE OF POPULATION IN THE UNITED STATES.—Carefully prepared statistics show an increase in the population of the United States of 34 per cent. in ten years, about 25 per cent. of which arises from the natural increase of the native population, while the remaining 9 per cent is the result of immigration. It is also estimated that four-fifths of the inhabitants of the country, remain as formerly, of English descent. The greatest modification is the element of African descent, which now embraces five millions of souls. The census of 1860 showed that, in the city of St. Louis, the foreign population out-numbered the native-born; and that in Chicago the two classes, foreign and native-born, were about equal.

BOILER EXPLOSION IN WOODSTOCK.—Clarke & Davidson's steam grist mill was blown up on Saturday. Derry, the engineer, was dangerously injured. The boiler was blown one hundred feet from the building, cutting a tree two feet in diameter completely off, and only brought to a stand by a second tree in front of a house in which there were several people. Numberless windows were broken and the bricks from the engine house knocked in the sides of the frame building adjacent to the scene of the accident.

THE REVENUE.—The following is the revenue for the Dominion for June, as per Auditor's statement, viz: Customs $616,567, Excise $236,772, Post Office $22,212, Public Works (including rail ways) $88,124, Bill Stamps Duty $6,317, Miscellaneous $60,927.—Total $1,030,919. Expenditure $598,437.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES.

Afghanistan Affairs—Trouble over the Irish Church Bill—The French Cable—The Yacht "Dauntless"—French Reform, &c.

LONDON, July 10. — In the House of Commons last evening, Mr. Gladstone in a discussion on Central Asia matters, said that it was the English policy to rule subject countries by the adoption of measures beneficial to them. He was assured that Lord Mayo's interview with Sheer Ali did not involve any agreement on our part. Russia has expressed the opinion that Afghanistan should remain as a neutral state between the Russian and British influence.

LONDON, July 10. (midnight).—The agitation in relation to the Irish Church Bill threatens to become serious. Preparations are actively being made for imposing demonstrations against Mr. Gladstone who has hitherto hesitated to encourage the doing, but has consented to give semi-official sanction on the ground that the Lords attempted to qualify their opposition to the will of the Government and people, and on the ground of pretended change in public sentiment. It is certain, however, that the Commons will refuse to yield to the Lords their amendments, except the three points not affecting the principle of the Bill. It is expected that the open air meeting will be the largest ever known.

BREST, July 11.—A despatch from the Great Eastern reports that up to Saturday noon she had run 2,033 knots from Brest, and paid out 2,287 knots of cable. The work was still progressing without interruption.

QUEENSTOWN, July 11. — The yacht Dauntless, James G. Bennett, jr., commanding, arrived at this port to-day at 2:35 p.m. She made the voyage in 12 days, 17 hours and 6 minutes. She had heavy weather.

PARIS, July 11.—The Council of Ministers and the Privy Council have held frequent meetings at the summons of the Emperor to deliberate upon interpellations for political reforms, now ending in the Corps Legislatif. It is said that the following programme has been agreed upon with the concurrence of the Emperor: Senate will be immediately convoked, when parliamentary changes of a liberal character will be proposed by the Government. These reforms will probably include the extension of the right and faculty of interpellation and creation of a responsible ministry, the Emperor choosing ministers from the Corps Legislatif with the view of arriving at the responsibility of each member of the Cabinet.

VIENNA, July 11.—Prince Von Arsenberg has been elected President of the Upper Chamber of the Reichsrath.

MADRID, July 11.—Much political agitation prevails in Lisbon, and the Government is taking unusual precautions to prevent outbreaks.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Letters from Cuban officers say that the arrest of the Cuban junta in New York produced regret and despondency. They say, however, that the Cubans will fight with renewed desperation, with the cry of Liberty or Death, as no mercy can be expected from Spaniards.

The Secretary of Treasury has directed the Assistant Treasurer, at New York, to purchase three millions of U. S. Bonds each Wednesday during the present month, to be held subject to future action of Congress.

Murder in Innisfil.

The Barrie Gazette has the following:—A cold blooded and cowardly murder took place in the township of Innisfil, on the 6th ult. The facts of these: Mr. Hugh Donnelly, when returning to his own home, lot 3, in the 18th con., on the night in question, and when within thirty rods of his own gate, was waylaid by some person who struck the unfortunate man several blows on the face and head with some heavy instrument. From the nature of the wounds he received, he must have lain for some hours in a state of insensibility. He, however, managed to reach his house, without any assistance and there he lingered on, enduring the most excruciating pain, until death put an end to his suffering on Wednesday the 30th ult. While on his death-bed, he pointed out the place and described it as well as he could. An examination of the ground resulted in discovering a quantity of blood and also a stick; but no marks of blood could be seen in the wood. Deceased stated several times before his death, that it was a neighbour of his—a man named Alex. McLean—who inflicted the blows. At the inquest on the body of Donnelly, which lasted two days, the jury brought in a verdict of wilful murder against McLean, who was promptly arrested and lodged in the common jail of this county, to await his trial at the next assizes. Of the parties implicated in this tragedy we know but little; but from what we have learned, it appears that both the murdered man and the accused have been living on adjoining farms for many years, and both the heads of families. Donnelly is known in the neighbourhood as a very respectable man. His wife has been dead some years. McLean was not a bad character. A short time before the night in question, both parties were together at a public gathering, and had quarrelled and fought. McLean who felt enraged threatened Donnelly's life, but they again in a day or two afterwards made it up. On the 10th, Donnelly went to Lefroy and McLean to Oshawa Hill. Both the farms are situated between the above named villages. Donnelly's farm nearest to Oshawa, while that of McLean was nearest to Lefroy. From the position, it will be perceived that each had to pass the other's farm to reach home, as the farms were opposite directions. Both parties had a habit of drinking, and it is probable that this was the cause of the quarrel so wretched a termination.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

The partnership heretofore existing between McLagan & Innes as Printers and Publishers has this day been dissolved by mutual consent.

JOHN C. MCLAGAN, Witness. JAMES INNES. Guelph, July 1st, 1869.

The business will in future be carried on by the undersigned, who is authorized to collect all outstanding debts and subscriptions due to the late firm, and who will settle all contra accounts against the same up to the date of dissolution.

JAMES INNES. July 12, 1869.

Guelph Evening Mercury

MONDAY EVENING, JULY 12, 1869.

CHANGE IN OUR BUSINESS.

Our readers will observe, by the notice at the head of this column, that the publishers of the MERCURY have dissolved partnership. Mr. JOHN C. MCLAGAN retires from the business, which in future will be carried on by the remaining partner. We embrace the present opportunity to express our regret at the severance of a business connection which began seven years ago under very favorable circumstances, and which, during that period, has been marked by uninterrupted success.

But then he is a Tory, and an old one, and the humane and generous Mr. Sandfield must do something for him. Consequently the great retrencher, economizer, and everything else that is good and excellent, makes a vacancy where there is none, creates an office where it is not wanted and fills it with Mr. Cayley. Well, it is a great thing to be a Government favorite, and we only hope that the last one who has come into notice may be able to do his country some service, which is doubtful.

Neuralgia, or Tic-Doloreux, is one of the most painful affections to which the human family is subject. It more commonly occurs in the nerves of the face, though it is met with in different parts of the head, in the breast, hip-joint, and in other parts of the body and limbs.

AN OUTRAGE.—The loyal feelings of the Chathamites were excited on Dominion Day by the fact that the place of honour in the procession was usurped by the new steam fire engine of Silby's manufacture, which was drawn by four milk white steeds gaily caparisoned.

REPLA MATCH.—The Hamilton party of six men fired on Saturday afternoon their score in the simultaneous match between Ranges 500, 600, 800, 1,000 yards, seven shots at each range. This is the return match Hamilton having won the first. Hamilton won this time by a majority of 32.

BY TELEGRAPH. Special to Evening Mercury. The Twelfth at St. Mary's. St. Mary's, July 12th. There is a great Orange demonstration here to-day. There are 14 Lodges, and the procession numbers over 5,000 people, with banners, regalia, &c., and the greatest enthusiasm prevails.

BIRTHS. CANHAM.—At St. Mary's, on the 9th inst., the wife of Mr. Chester Canham, printer, of a son.

CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY. ESTABLISHED 1847. THE only Canadian Life Company authorized by Government for the Dominion.

FATHER McMAHON. Mr. Alex. Somerville, the "whistler at the plough," has published in the Montreal Gazette, an abridged narrative of the case of the Rev. John McMahon, now in the Penitentiary as a Fenian convict.

pectable man like him manage to get in such bad company? Most people believe that his reverence, Mr. McMahon, was never so much at home as he is at present in Kingston, and that it would be a great pity to disturb him.

SHELVING.—We have already announced the creation by the Government of Ontario of a new office, that of Auditor for the Province. We do not claim credit for the possession of extraordinary shrewdness or foresight when we say that we conjectured there was some old pet to be laid on the shelf.

UNFAILING EYE PRESERVERS

LAZARUS, MORRIS & CO'S.

Perfect Spectacles! AND EYE GLASSES.

The large and increasing sales of these PERFECTED GLASSES is a sure proof of their superiority. We were satisfied that they would be appreciated here as elsewhere, and that the reality of the advantages offered to wearers of our beautiful lenses, viz: the ease and comfort, the assured and readily ascertained improvement of the sight, and the brilliant assistance they give in all cases, were in themselves so apparent on trial, that the result could not be otherwise than it has, in the most general adoption of our Celebrated Perfect Spectacles by the residents of this locality. With a full knowledge of the value of the assertion, we claim that they are the most perfect optical aids ever manufactured. To those needing Spectacles, we afford at all times an opportunity of procuring the best and most desirable.

RAPIDLY INCREASING POPULARITY.

CLARKE'S NEW METHOD FOR REED ORGANS.

Jeanie Sinclair, OR, THE LILY OF THE STRATH.

CHAPTER XXXVI.—JIM MURDOCHSON HAPPEL AT LAST—THE STRATH ONCE MORE—PREPARATIONS FOR THE WEDDING.

Fifty yards or so from the bridge which crossed the Mac, a road turned to the right which led down to the Strath by the south side of the stream, while further on, and to the left, it conducted to the village of Sinclairtown. Here William paused till Robert overtook him.

"This road will lead us to the Abbey, won't it?" he said, pointing to the path which stretched eastward.

"It will," answered Robert. "Shall we go there now? We have ample time, for the hour is yet early; and if I proffer the money to M'Quirk before the hour of twelve, the bond will be legally cancelled."

"We had better go now," replied William. "I cannot leave you till I know that M'Quirk's power to annoy you is gone. The moment that matter is settled the time of parting will have come, for by to-night I shall be far from hence, and unless we meet elsewhere we shall never see each other again."

Tears sprang into Robert's eyes, and his voice was tremulous as he rejoined—"And is our friendship to end thus? After our many conversations and our soul, are we so suddenly to part and know each other no more?"

"Fate has decreed it," responded William mournfully. "It only proves to how much we are the sport of circumstances. But come amid the foliage of the trees, I see some one crossing the bridge, and I cannot bear to meet any of the people of the Strath—Come, my friend, let us be gone!"

"Tis Wandering Ned," said Robert. "Ned, is it?" rejoined William, standing suddenly still. "Ah, I should like to see him and bid him farewell."

So the two friends sat down upon the bank at the turn of the road, to await the coming of Ned. The latter had not yet perceived them, but they could observe him coming up the slope, and noticed that he was in great haste, and deeply absorbed in meditation. He was gesticulating vigorously with his right arm, and muttering to himself as he swung along.

The moment he came into view, Bree gave a deep growl, and was about to rush towards him, when his master authoritatively restrained him. Ned's ear caught the growl, and it caused him to look back over his shoulder. It would be difficult to describe the rapid changes which Ned's countenance underwent when he saw the two youths. Astonishment, doubt, hesitation and then the gladdest recognition showed themselves by turns in his speaking face, and at length he held up his arms in silent amazement.

"My gracious me, is it possible?" he at length found power to exclaim. "Master Robert and Master Denman, custin' up at last, when everybody had 'em them up for lost. Eh, sirs, but I'm blythe to see ye.—Welcome home, welcome home. There's moun' a warm welcome awaitin' ye in the Strath; but mine is as true and sincere as any o' them."

"Ay, and truer and sincerer than most, Ned, observed Robert, as he and his friend warmly shook the wanderer's honest hand. "But is it really you, and no yer ghaists, that stand afore me?" added Ned, whose excitement was increasing rather than abating.

"Do we look like ghaists, Ned?" asked William, with a grave yet sweet smile.

"Oh! Master Denman," cried Ned, "hoo my heart diris ta hear yer rich voice; and ta heart that ye sud turn up this day, ta, o' a' days in the year. I canna—no, I canna—tell ye hoo glad I am."

William uttered a groan, and turned away his head. "You pain him, Ned," whispered Robert. "You forget that this is a sad and heavy day for him. We heard in California that the Baron had been murdered. We heard nothing of his strange preservation, and Mr. Denman returned expecting to find Jeanie free. The news was told us last night at Shawhead, and you may guess how great was the blow for him."

"Dinna be cast down, sirs," exclaimed Ned. "Dark as things look, the brightness is just at hand. Ye think ye are in the midst o' hopeless sorrow, and yet ye are on the brink—the very brink—o' fullest joy. Ye mind o' our last meetin' at the ran the day afore ye gaed awa'?"

"I do, Ned; and also the hope you would have had me cherish. To day proves how utterly delusive were your words."

"This day prives naething o' the kind, but will just prive the very contrary," cried Ned, with vehement earnestness. "I said then, and I say now, that the Lily o' the Strath will ne'er wed wi' Sir Fergus Sinclair."

"Hush, Ned, leave this wild raving," said William. "Hark! Even now there comes to us the peal of the marriage bell."

"I ken that," returned Ned. "A' body thinks that the marriage is ta tak' place. Sir Fergus and Jeanie think it themselves—though, weel a wat, the pair lassie has but a wa' heart over the prospect o' it. But, for a' that, it wunna be, and this minds me ta that I manna stay here, for I hae work ta do afore eleven o'clock."

"Farewell, Ned," said William, holding out his hand again. "It's not likely we shall see each other again in this world."

"No see ane anither again!" repeated Ned. "And what for that, Master Denman? I thought ye liket the Strath aw well that ye were goun' ta live in it?"

"Not as circumstances have gone, was the mournful reply. "Had my lot been happier, it would have been my greatest joy to live in the Strath; but my wounded heart will best bear its anguish in a distant locality."

HEALTH IS STRENGTH.—To prevent or conquer disease is one of the grandest attainments ever aimed at by man; and Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers will as sure cure coughs, colds, tickling in the throat and pulmonary complaints, as was destroyed. Severe colds if not attended to sooner or later lead to incurable consumption, and the strength of the strongest soon fails if neglected. The readiest and best means known for the cure of these complaints is "Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers," which have been thoroughly tried for the last twenty years, and have never been known to fail. Singers and public speakers will also derive great benefit from the use of them. Sold by all medicine dealers, at 25cts per box.

WHY WILL YOU SUFFER.—The Canadian Pain Destroyer instantly and permanently removes all pain from the system, and is decidedly the best medicine known for the cure of rheumatism, pleurisy, neuralgia, tic doloureux, tooth ache, electric burns, frost bites, &c., and is so cheap that all can afford to buy it. Sold by all medicine dealers.

FIVE MINUTES FOR REFRESHMENTS.—Everybody who has travelled by railroad has heard the above announcement, and has probably suffered from eating too hastily, thereby sowing the seeds of dyspepsia. It is a comfort to know that the Puritan Syrup will cure the worst cases of dyspepsia, as thousands are ready to testify.

THERE IS NO PLACE in the DOMINION WHERE

DRY GOODS can be purchased on such favorable terms as in Guelph at WILLIAM STEWART'S. This fact is now universally admitted. Many families buy or order from Guelph, as they find Dry Goods of a superior class, and remarkable for cheapness.—When such is the case, it is astonishing that any who can pay ready cash continue to buy from the surrounding villages an inferior class of goods at high prices, when by coming to Guelph they might have the best goods at the lowest price, therefore

DR. J. BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR

The great Catarrh, Headache, Neuralgia and Universal Pain Remedy is warranted to surpass any known discovery for the instantaneous relief and rapid cure of any conceivable form of pain. Used internally and externally it never fails.

A little of BRIGGS' ALLEVANTOR applied to the head will instantly relieve Nervous Headache, if a Sick Headache, dilute with 1/2 teaspoonful of water in a glass of water, and take one to four swallows, three or four times a day. It is a cure for Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Catarrh of the Stomach, Flatulency, &c. A small quantity of the Allevantor diluted and snuffed up to the nostrils, then gargle the throat, and take one to four swallows of the diluted Remedy will immediately relieve and quickly cure Catarrh, Hoarseness of the Throat, Cough, Asthma, and all tendency to Consumption are immediately relieved with the Allevantor. A few applications of Allevantor cures the most severe Neuralgia, the worst forms of local pain, Rheumatism, &c. The Throat when sore and inflamed is relieved at once by gargling with diluted Allevantor, and taking a swallow or two after. Lame and Stiff Joints, Sprains, &c. are cured. Use a short time by applying Briggs' Allevantor. Applied to a Burn or Scald, it immediately relieves the pain, and prevents the formation of blisters. A few applications of the ALLEVANTOR relieves Stiff Neck, Spinal Affection, Contracted Cord and Muscles, Swelling, Sprains, Strains, Tumors, and all similar affections. Applied freely to all Skin Diseases, it affords instant relief to itching and rapidly restores the skin to a healthy condition. The Allevantor is a positive Remedy for Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Cold Hands and Feet, used freely according to directions, its power in restoring is wonderful. Many cases of Deafness are cured with the Allevantor. Sore and Weak Eyes are cured. Toothache immediately relieved, Acne in the face rapidly disappears. The wonderful and magical virtues of the Allevantor will never be told, for they are so varied, and as it is a bonafide remedy for such a variety of diseases, it seems incredible to name them, yet the proprietor challenges any case of Pain or Inflammation that cannot be at once relieved with Briggs' Allevantor. Price, One Shilling.

Sold by E. HARVEY & CO., Guelph, and by all respectable druggists and country merchants everywhere. DR. J. BRIGGS & CO., Proprietors, No. 6 King Street, corner of Yonge, Toronto, and 208 Broadway, New York.

IRON IN THE BLOOD.

The necessity of a due proportion of iron in the blood is well known to all medical men; when it becomes reduced from any cause whatever, the whole system suffers, the weakest point being first attacked, and a feeling of languor, lassitude and "all-goneness" pervades the system. Stimulants only afford temporary relief, and have the same effect as giving a tired horse the whip instead of oats. The true remedy is to supply the blood with the necessary quantity of iron. This can be done by using the

a protected solution of the protoxide of iron, which is so prepared that it assimilates at once with the blood, giving strength, vigor and new life to the whole system.

To take medicine to cure diseases occasioned by a deficiency of iron in the blood, without restoring the system, is like trying to repair a building when the foundation is gone.

An eminent divine says: "I have been using the Peruvian Syrup for some time past—it gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle."

Pamphlets containing certificates of cures, and recommendations from some of the most eminent physicians, clergymen and others, will be sent free to any address.

The genuine has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass. Sold by all druggists.

GREAT WESTERN HOTEL.

JOHN HEWER, Proprietor.

The subscriber having lately leased the above Hotel, would respectfully inform his friends and the travelling public generally that he has thoroughly renovated and refurbished the premises throughout, and is also making other improvements which will render its accommodation for guests second to none in town. The table will always be supplied with the choicest and the best brands of cigars. Nothing will be left undone to ensure the comfort of all who may favor him with their patronage. Extensive stabling attached, capable of accommodating 200 horses. An attentive hostler always in attendance. Stages to all parts of the country call at this hotel daily. Guelph, 9th February. wfm

WELLINGTON HOTEL. Removal.

The RIGHT MAN IN THE RIGHT PLACE.—In consequence of the steady increase in his business for the last 13 years, the subscriber is under the necessity of extending his accommodations. Therefore he has removed to the Wellington Hotel, where he intends to carry on the hotel business on a large and improved scale, and hopes he will deserve not only the confidence of his old customers and friends, but also of his new ones, and the public generally. He hopes that each of his old friends will bring new ones, and the rest will follow. Come on—Come all. An omnibus leaves the Hotel for the G. T. R., and G. W. R. to meet the trains. Those who leave the Hotel for Hamilton, Fergus and South Forest, Durham and Owen Sound, Elora, Harrison and Walkerton. The Hotel will be open all hours for the accommodation of the public.
