A BEAUTIFUL MODERN HOUSE

Built for Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Morse at West Paradise.

A pleasing addition to our architecture has been made in the house which has just been erected at West Paradise for the Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Morse, from the designs of the architect, Mr. Alex. M. Kennedy.

The style is a modern adaptation of the old Colonial architecture of the States, with English motifs. As a whole the structure is almost devoid of ornamentation. The form and proportions of the house are its own ornamentation. Its simple structural features having been planned to give the effect desired. Directness is characteristic throughout. There are no unnecessary features, and all necessary structural features are beautified; but applied ornamentation does not exist. Effect is also obtained by a judicious use of materials, namely by using the materials constructively and retaining their natural texture and color wherever possible.

The substructure is of red brick, as also are the walls of piazzas; the walls of the latter are carried about 2 feet above the floor level, thus giving privacy to the piazzas without losing any effect of the exterior. The main walls, cornices, columns, and all outside woodwork are finished white, with the exception only that the outside doors and shutters are painted green. The roofs, including those of piazzas, are covered with red clay tiles of Spanish style, supplied by the Ludovick-Caldon Co. of New Lexington, Ohio, who also provided the red clay promenade tiles used on piazza floors. The chimney stacks are massive, of red brick, coping with similar tiles to those of the roofs. Thus the general color scheme is dull red and white, enlivened by touches of green.

Internally the building is equally in keeping. As in the exterior, simplicity of design is the dominant note. The lines of Pope.

"This very fine, 'But where d'ye sleep, or where d'ye dine?' 'I find by all you have been telling, 'That 'tis a house but not a dwelling' do not here apply

On the first floor the spacious, well proportioned reception rooms have plain white alabaster walls and ceilings; the woodwork is of Douglas fir, the beautiful grain of which is preserved and enhanced by the dull brown stain used. The hardware of Russian brass by Yale & Towne, is in keeping with the general effect. Wide open brick fireplaces have been built in the living and dining rooms. Double glass doors lead direct from the living room to the piazzas, and openness of effect is also obtained by abundance of window area in the living and dining rooms.

The service quarters are conveniently arranged without disturbing the privacy of the rest of the house.

The bedrooms are situated on the second floor; the lower portions of the walls are tinted with alabaster, and the wide friezes and ceilings are plain white; the woodwork is also white. The two bathrooms which are planned en suite with the bedrooms are finished in white enamel. A very desirable feature is the abundance of closets and presses which have been provided.

The floors upstairs and down are of hardwood. A double chamber septic tank system, planned by the architect, has been installed for the disposal of sewage. The water supply is led direct from a mountain spring.

The whole of the work was carried out under the immediate supervision of the architect; detailed drawings were made for the various features, and full size detailed drawings for such features as mantel pieces, doors, main staircase, etc.

Great credit is due the builder, Mr. J. F. Bent of Middleton, for the good work executed by him. Also to Messrs. Crowe & Elliott of Middleton for the plumbing; to Mr. Bishop, also of Middleton, for the painter's work, and to Gibson Bros. of Bridgetown for the masonry.

OLD GLORY AT DIGBY

(The Morning Chronicle)

Digby, July 24.—The little open launch Old Glory III, owned and commanded by Geo. P. Bonnell, which left New York on Tuesday, arrived here this afternoon. The owner had with him on board Mr. Nutting, the well known contributor of marine stories to magazines devoted to yachting. This is Mr. Bonnell's third trip from New York to Nova Scotia in an open boat.

This is to certify that fourteen years ago I got the cords of my left wrist nearly severed, and was for about nine months that I had no use of my hand, and tried other Liniments, also doctors and was receiving no benefit. By a persuasion from a friend I got MINARD'S LINIMENT and used one bottle which completely cured me, and have been family ever since and find it the same as when I first used it, and would never be without it.

RECRUITING

R. C. G. A.

It is desired to call attention to the urgent need of recruits both for Overseas and Home Service in the First Regiment Canadian Garrison Artillery.

This regiment has lately transferred to Overseas Units some 200 N. C. O's and men, thus depleting their ranks for Home Service. Recruits desiring to go Overseas will be attested for Overseas Service and will be enrolled in an Ammunition Column which will shortly leave for England.

239th Overseas Railway Construction Corps.

The class required for this are men accustomed to grading, rock work, pile driving, bridge work, track laying, etc. This Battalion will mobilize at Valcartier, and it is expected to proceed overseas in September.

Royal Canadian Regiment Reinforcements.

Men who wish to go overseas at an early date have an excellent opportunity to do so by joining this unit. Recruits are given a course of training at Wellington Barracks, Halifax, and sent Overseas with the least possible delay.

237th Battalion (American Legion).

Full particulars regarding this Battalion on application.

242nd Forestry Battalion

Recruiting for this has been authorized. Details will be published shortly.

No. 2 Construction Battalion

This unit will be composed of colored men recruited all over Canada, officered by white men. The commanding Officer being Lieutenant Colonel D. H. Sutherland lately of McGill University and now Railway Contractor. Recruiting for this Battalion in the Maritime Provinces will commence on July 17th. Men enlisting will remain at their homes until further notice.

For further particulars and enlistment in the above or any other units apply to the nearest recruiting office or to

REV. E. UNDERWOOD,
Bridgetown, N. S.

Total enlistments in Canada up to July 15, says an Ottawa despatch, numbered 350,655, Ontario leading with 145,195. From Toronto district alone there are 79,715. Quebec has given 36,880 men of whom 39,186 were from the Montreal district. From the Maritime Provinces the number is 31,633, and from Manitoba to the coast 136,939.

THE EUROPEAN WAR

British Drench Hun Lines With Explosives

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN NORTHERN FRANCE, July 20—Every foot of the new German positions behind the lines captured by the British north of the Somme, is being carefully and slowly drenched with a destructive fire of British high explosives in preparation for a new attack. Giant British shells are now dropping upon German works from guns stationed miles to the sea. British artillery pieces of large and small calibre, acting in unison are systematically pounding the heavy roll of thunder. The Germans are replying only occasionally. Either they are seriously outgunned or are saving their ammunition. British air craft, masters of the air, without molestation, is directing the fire of the artillery. Since the beginning of the Anglo-French push, German air craft have been surprisingly absent. Allied flyers and balloon observers have been working in perfect security, obtaining most valuable information. From a height a short distance in the rear, I obtained an excellent view of Fricourt, Contalmaison, Mametzville, Mametz Wood, Bazentine and other positions recently conquered by the British. Later our party traversed the valley of the Somme and entered the ruins of Fricourt, once a German stronghold, but stormed and captured by the British early in their great offensive. High British officers say that the purpose of the British offensive is not speed, but to recover by slow, steady pushes every yard of invaded French and Belgian territory at a minimum expenditure of human blood and by a heavy expenditure of powerful explosives, of which there is an ample supply.

Russians Continue to Make Big Gains on the Enemy

LONDON, July 23—A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Petrograd, says—A Russian advance of five miles is reported on the left wing of Riga sector. General Von Linsingen's recent losses on the Sty and Lipa rivers are computed at least 50,000 men out of the three corps engaged. The Russians are on the point of entering the northeast corner of Galicia, General Boehm-Ermolli and General Count Von Bothmer being outflanked, both on the north and south. The heights captured by the Russians are only four miles from the summit of the Carpathians, and the Hungarian frontier in the direction of Maramoros Sziget. The Russians hold the whole of the Trebizond-Erzurum road in Asiatic Turkey.

British Resume the Attack Along an Extended Front

LONDON, July 23—The battle on the British front in Northern France was resumed today along the whole line from Pozieres to Guillemont, the War Office report of this afternoon says. The British captured the German outer works near Pozieres by assault and carried the fighting into the village. Longueval was also the scene of a desperate struggle. The official statement, which was issued at 2.25 o'clock this afternoon, says: The battle has been resumed C. O's and men, thus depleting their ranks for Home Service. Recruits desiring to go Overseas will be attested for Overseas Service and will be enrolled in an Ammunition Column which will shortly leave for England.

WAR BRIEFS

Scores of Russians have joined the Canadian army in Toronto.

Last year the German Powder Trust made a gain of $3,650,000 or $2,000,000 more than in the preceding year.

The export pulp and paper industry in Canada has grown since the war began from $2,500,000 to $18,000,000. Women students from the Colleges of the University of London are prepared to work during vacation, at fruit picking, hoeing, weeding, etc.

The London Times Red Cross Fund has passed the 20,000,000 dollars mark. This is the largest sum raised for any purpose by newspaper campaign.

The British Government has commandeered 25,000,000 yards of burial for sand bags from the Scottish mills, to be furnished during July and August.

The only munition plant in Pomania has been destroyed, with all machinery and shells. Germans and Bulgarians are believed to have been the cause of the loss.

Rudyard Kipling heard his "Recessional" sung at the Kitchener Memorial Service in St. Paul's Cathedral, and told a friend it was the first time he had heard it sung.

Billy Sheering the noted runner, who gained the Olympia Marathon race in Greece, as well as the Boston Marathon, and twice the Herald Road race, has resigned his position in the Custom House and enlisted.

A Boston paper says Henry Ford will not pay his men who enlist for the war, or keep their places open. They must remain in his shops and make auto-trucks for him to sell to the Government for war service.

United meetings of Presbyterians, Episcopalians, Congregationalists, Roman Catholics have been held in Edinburgh, demanding prohibition during the war and during demobilization after peace has been declared. Principal Denney called the drink bill "A huge Mississippi of waste."

Miss Helen Keller, the blind and deaf woman who has learned to speak quite distinctly, gave an entertainment in Philadelphia for the benefit of soldiers blinded in the war. Being asked what she thought would be the outcome of the war, she replied, "Some crowned gentlemen may be out of a job, but they might get a living in the American movies."

WEDDING BELLS

TRENHOLM-THURBER

Grand Fre, July 19—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. W. C. Trenholm, Grand Fre, when her daughter, Olga Lyle, was married to Roland Eugene Thurber, of Freeport. The ceremony took place in the west parlor, in one corner of which was a graceful designed arch wreathed with trailing pink roses, and from the center of which hung a floral ball. Bows of beautiful roses were in evidence everywhere. The decorations were arranged by the Misses Annie Patterson and Mabel Stewart, cousins of the bride, and would have done credit as the work of skilled artists.

The bride looking very handsome in a gown of white crepe de chene, with artistically arranged bridal veil, and carrying a lovely bouquet of white roses and carnations, entered the room on the arm of her brother, Scott L. Trenholm. She was attended by her youngest sister Laura, and the wedding marches were played by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Stuart Trenholm.

The groom's present to the bride was a pearl pendant, and to the pianist a ruby pin.

At the close of the service, which was conducted by the Rev. Arthur Hokin, pastor of the Methodist Church, Grand Fre, a dainty collation was served. There were about thirty guests present, all of whom were intimate friends or relatives of the bride and groom. A beautiful display of wedding presents testified to the popularity of the young couple, who left by auto to take the "Bluenose" at Wolfville for Bear River, Digby and other points of interest in this beautiful Annapolis Valley. They will make their home in Bridgetown, where the groom is principal of the public schools. Mrs. Thurber having also been a teacher in the same school. It is a matter of intense satisfaction to Mrs. Thurber's many friends in this county that marriage has removed her to no greater distance than the adjoining one, where they will be "at home" to their friends in September.—Morning Chronicle.

LORING-DODGE

A pretty home wedding of considerable interest took place at Belleisle, July 6th, when Miss Caroline Amelia, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben L. Dodge was given in marriage to Rev. Wallace Stanley Loring, B. A., of Meccan, Cumberland County. At eleven o'clock in the forenoon the bride on the arm of her father entered the home parlor and took her place under an arched bell of a perfusion of flowers, Miss Honerita Parker acted as bridesmaid, with Dr. Morley Nichols of Halifax as groomsmen. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Ivy M. Tost of Belleisle. With the ring service Rev. E. Underwood assisted by Rev. A. R. Reynolds the happy marriage function was duly performed. The charming bride was costumed in white voile and carried a pretty bouquet of white carnations. The groom was recently ordained into the Methodist Conference at Halifax, and will be stationed at Harris Bay, Bermuda, during the next year. After a dainty morning collation the marriage party left by auto for Bridgetown station on the way to Meccan, the groom's old home. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Loring will take the steamer at Halifax for their future home. Among the handsome presents to the bride was a substantial check from a brother in New York.

SMITH-LONGLEY

(Northfield (Minn.) News)

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith on East Sixth street was the scene of a very pretty wedding Monday, July 10, when their only daughter Clio Thayer, became the bride of Willard Victor Longley of Hallock, Minn.

The Smith home was very prettily decorated for the occasion, roses having prominence in the front room panes and sweet peas in the living room. The color scheme in the dining room was green and white, asparagus and white clover being used.

Promptly at noon the bridal couple took their places before the north window of the front room the curtains being tastefully decorated with wild blue-bells and asparagus. The ring ceremony was used and was read by Rev. DuBlots, pastor of the Methodist church.

The bride wore a becoming gown of cream charmeuse trimmed with George crepe and wore a bouquet of Jack roses. Her only ornament was a lavender, the gift of the groom.

Only a few relatives of the bride and her little friends, Annie and Ruth Gray of Clarumont, Minn., witnessed the ceremony. The only relatives from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Thayer and daughter Glady and son Merle of Williamston, Ia. Immediately following the ceremony a delicious chicken dinner was served in the dining room.

The bridal couple left during the afternoon for St. Paul by auto. From there they go to Chicago and then East, visiting Niagara Falls and many important eastern cities on their way to Paradise, Nova Scotia, where they will visit the relatives of the groom. The bride's going away gown was dark blue tulle with cloak, hat and gloves to match.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith of this city. She is a graduate of Carleton college in the class of 1911. Since her graduation she has been a successful teacher in the schools of the State. She has many friends in the Northfield community who unite in congratulations and best wishes for her future and that of her chosen companion, who is a stranger to most Northfield people.

The groom a graduate of Guelph in 1911, is one of the progressive young men of the state and is at present engaged as instructor in the agricultural department of the Hallock high school.

The wedded couple will be at home to their many friends after Sept. 10, at Hallock, Minn.

ODDFELLOWS DECORATE GRAVES OF DEPARTED BROTHERS

In accordance with an established custom of Oddfellowship, and in response to the request of the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows of the Maritime Provinces of Canada, the members of Crescent Lodge, No. 63, and their sisters of Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge, met at their hall last Sunday afternoon and marched in procession to the Riverside Cemetery and there decorated the graves of five Oddfellows and one Rebekah.

Owing to the showery weather at the hour appointed for the ceremony the attendance of members of the Order was not large, yet the beautiful and impressive service was fully carried out. Beautiful wreaths and bouquets of flowers made up principally by the Rebekah sisters, were placed upon the graves of departed members of the two Orders. Thus Oddfellowship, instituted for purposes of self-help, and calculated to aid its members in the struggles incident to life, does not allow death to terminate the fraternal relationship formed within its ranks.

COUNTRY MACHINE GUN AGAIN

Miss Agnes Gesner

Belle Isle, N. S.

Dear Madam—It has been decided by Mr. H. Montgomerie Campbell, that the Machine Gun so kindly donated by you shall be issued to the 64th Overseas Battalion, C. E. F., and it has been suggested that the matter of a suitable inscription for the gun be taken up with you.

I shall be glad, therefore, if you will communicate with me in this regard as soon as possible so the necessary steps can be taken to meet your wishes.

I am, your truly,

H. MONTGOMERIE CAMPBELL,
Lieut.-Colonel,
Comdg. 64th Overseas Battalion, C.E.F.

Since receiving the above letter I noticed in the Halifax paper that Lieut.-Colonel Montgomery Campbell has gone over-seas and undoubtedly the gun has accompanied him.

ONE YEAR OF PROHIBITION

To the Editor:—An important statement was issued by the Honorable C. W. Trickett, Assistant Attorney-General of the State of Kansas, in the year 1907 concerning the working of the enforcement of the Prohibition Law of that state in Kansas City, Kansas, with a population of 100,000 which adjoins the even larger and even more widely known railroad centre known as Kansas City, Missouri, where liquor is freely sold.

A year ago there were 256 saloons, 200 gambling dens, and about 60 houses of ill-fame. Now not one of these evils can be found. In that time the population has increased more rapidly than ever before. The merchants and storekeepers have had to hire more help and the deposits in the bank have increased by one million and a half of dollars.

The attendance at the public schools has been so increased that 18 more teachers have had to be secured. The increase is mostly in boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 16, who, before the closing of the saloon, had to go out to work to help maintain the family because the father spent so much of his money in liquor.

The charitable institutions report that the demands for help have diminished two-thirds. Prior to the closing of saloons, the Juvenile Court had each month from 8 to 88 children before it who needed help. There have been only two such during the past eight months. During the past twelve months, two young men have been sent to the Reformatory as against 15 to 25 for previous years. Expenses for prosecuting criminals have gone down $25,000 a year, and the cost of the police force has been reduced as much more.

A striking paragraph in Mr. Trickett's statement is this: "A year ago the city was trying to devise ways and means to spare the money to build additions to our city jails. Today the doors of the jails swing idly on their hinges."

Mrs. (Dr.) Morrison, of St. John, N. B., Mrs. Darragh and Miss Eliza Morrison, of Wilmot, were recent guests of their nephew D. M. Outhit.

Master Willie Outhit, and sister Margaret of Kentville, are spending a delightful vacation with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Outhit.

The "Ever Ready" Class, in the Methodist Sabbath School, intends holding an ice cream social on the church lawn this (Monday) evening, July 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Demmons and family, including Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Demmons are moving into the home of Mrs. Minnetta Prayl, for a few months, and will probably rent their home on "the Corner."

The Red Cross Society met at the home of Mrs. John P. Morse, on Friday afternoon last, with a fair attendance, considering the extreme heat, for our "Good Old Summer Time" has arrived in good earnest this month.

On Saturday 22nd, the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Phinney was the scene of a quiet, but pretty wedding, when their son W. S. Phinney, was united in marriage to Miss Florence Calkin, of Truro, the Rev. Mr. Roop officiating.

Sergt. Kenneth H. McNeil of the 112th Batt., Windsor, paid a very brief visit to his home here, last week, before going overseas. Kenneth has many warm friends in this community who are very sorry to lose him, but still the relentless war goes on, and one more mother will watch and wait for news from the absent son.

WILL FOREGO HOLIDAYS

London, July 18—Organized labor of England responded today to the Government's appeal to postpone the August holidays so that the British offensive may be carried on with no shortage of ammunition. At a conference of representatives of trades unions it was decided unanimously to recommend that the Government's suggestion be adopted.

A BRIGHT SPOT IN MARITIME INDUSTRY

New Brunswickers are apt to have the impression that aside from our great lumber industry, we in the East have to take a back seat when compared with Upper Canadian and United States manufacturers.

There are, however, a half dozen concerns at least whose products are known from coast to coast as leaders in their line, whose name attached to their goods is a Hall Mark for Quality.

Among these is the large modern plant of T. S. Simms and Company Limited at Fairville, just across the river from St. John city. Built in 1912, of absolute fire proof construction, it is the last word in comfort and convenience for the employees; and this care and foresight on the part of the management has been rewarded in that but in very few factories indeed can such an intelligent, high class of employees be found.

The surroundings of this modern plant are very pleasant and beautiful. Built in a five acre field owned by the firm, surrounded by roads that permanently insure an open airy atmosphere and outlook, the Reversing Falls nearby give exceptional charm to the view; and on all sides green fields, hills and trees meet the eye as one glances up from their work. The modern method of building a factory practically all windows, lights every nook and corner and yet fails to find any dirt, as cleanliness is the motto and in fact attractive awards are made to those keeping their work benches, which are all new and well painted and varnished, in the neatest order throughout the year.

It is a fact not always appreciated but none the less true, that a person's character and intelligence is largely reflected in the work that they do, and realizing this keenly this firm have won a most enviable reputation for the highest quality in brushes and brooms, because of the superior class of employees they have succeeded in gathering around them, and the careful training these have received.

Girls as well as men and boys are earning high wages, the earnings of many of the former being decidedly above that received by the average stenographer. An interesting fact revealed by the management is that the girl from the country on the average soon outstrips her city rival in earning power, doubtless because of her greater ambition to get ahead. The great bulk of the work done is light hand work, done sitting down.

Most Maritime manufacturers are feeling keenly these days the shortage of labor, especially girl labor, on account of the war and the demand made in filling vacancies left by our soldiers. In another column Messrs. T. S. Simms and Company Limited are advertising for girls, and the opportunity afforded is doubtless a very attractive one. For many months past their output has only been limited by their ability to get labor.

The East is but in its infancy in manufacturing, but the Maritime ports have advantages in location for world wide trade only now beginning to be realized, and the manufactures already so well established have indeed an attractive prospect in store.

CHURCH UNION AT MORRIS

(The Plumas Standard)

Church Union at Morris, Man., is rapidly being accomplished between the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, according to a message received by the Winnipeg Presbytery, from Rev. John Archibald, who has resigned his pastorate to facilitate matters. This is the first union to take place since the decision made by the general assembly.

The Winnipeg Presbytery at its meeting, last week, warmly congratulated Rev. Mr. Archibald on his self-sacrificing action. It was intimated that the Methodist minister was also arranging to retire and a minister from outside would be selected for the union church.

During the discussion it was pointed out that no more striking example of the need for church union was to be found than in the town of Morris. Here, with a population of not more than 600 persons no less than six churches struggled for existence. Half of the churches were Protestant, and the average aggregate attendance each Sunday evening could not be more than 100 persons.

The Presbytery appointed Rev. Dr. Patterson of St. Stephen's and Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon, of Augustine, to visit Morris and assist the congregations in perfecting union plans.

CANADA'S NEW LOAN HUNDRED MILLIONS

Ottawa, July 14:—It is expected here that the forthcoming Dominion war loan, which is to be issued in September, will meet with an even greater degree of success than the first, which was floated in November of last year. Out of that loan of one hundred million dollars, fifty million was advanced to the Imperial Treasury for the purchase of munitions and supplies in Canada. In addition to their fifty million, the Minister of Finance was able to arrange with the chartered banks for further advances, aggregating one hundred million dollars, as an Imperial credit to be availed of for similar purposes. The results of this credit of one hundred and fifty million dollars has been that since the date of the first Dominion war loan new orders to an aggregate of a hundred and fifty million dollars have been placed in Canada by the Imperial Munitions Board.

THE POULTRY RAISER'S OPPORTUNITY

The Present Market Outlook Warrants Greatly Increased Production During 1916

From present indications, Great Britain will require all the eggs and poultry Canada can produce during 1916. Last year, as a result of greatly increased production, Canada was able to ship to Great Britain the largest quantity of eggs exported since 1902, and at the same time reduced her imports for home consumption by nearly a million dozen.

Canadian eggs have found favor in the British market, and the prospects are that, providing they are available much larger quantities will be shipped this year. The unusually high prices prevailing at the present time are largely due to this anticipated export demand.

Prices for poultry are also high, and will likely continue so for the rest of the season. Last fall and winter all the surplus Canadian poultry was exported at highly profitable prices. Between fifty and sixty cars of live poultry were shipped from Western Ontario to the Eastern States alone, and in the Maritime Provinces, particularly in Prince Edward Island, the export demand for canned poultry has greatly enhanced prices to producers. Although some uneasiness has existed on the part of the trade as regards transportation facilities in view of the high freight rates and the shortage of boats, it is now reasonably certain that an even greater demand for Canadian poultry and eggs will occur this year. It is important therefore, that every poultry producer take steps to profit thereby by hatching as many chickens as possible this spring.

Now is the time, by hatching early, by hatching everything possible in the month of May, to guard against the marketing of so much small, under-sized, poorly finished poultry, which annually becomes a drug on the market in the fall of the year. Again, it is only by hatching now and giving the chickens every possible chance to thrive and grow, that a maximum supply of eggs can be obtained in the winter time.

Given their proportionate amount of attention the growing of poultry brings quick and profitable returns to the farmer. With the increasing cost of meats, milk, butter, etc., there is a constantly increasing demand for poultry and eggs. The labor problem is not critical, as the boys and girls on the farm can readily take care of the poultry. The cost of feed is nominal, prices for poultry and eggs are high—the highest in fact, for many years. It is obvious, therefore, that Canadians have a patriotic as well as an economic duty to perform in making the year 1916 the banner year for poultry production in Canada.

MARKING POULTRY

Many farmers have no definite way of knowing the ages of their hens. Consequently the flock is too often composed of hens from two years to five and six years and sometimes more. An easy way to overcome this difficulty is to mark the birds. One of the best methods for the purpose is to leg-band the hens, then when the summer comes there is no difficulty in distinguishing them from the pullets. The method of procedure I have followed and find most satisfactory is to leg-band the two-year-old hens to be kept the following winter, sometime in summer or autumn. Then when they and the new pullets are put in their winter quarters it is an easy matter to tell them apart, and it is remarkable how it will stimulate your interest in poultry when you begin to count the eggs and compare the two pens. If you have never done it, try it this year. When next summer comes these old hens may be disposed of and there will be no mistake about their ages, and this year's best pullets may be kept over the following year, and thus the clearing out and filling up of the flock goes on, without clogging it up with the very old, unprofitable boarders too often seen.

MAKING A HEN'S NEST

Next time you find a nest of eggs which a hen has stolen away, take a lesson in the proper architecture of such a structure. It may save a few broken eggs or a poor hatch the next time you proceed to set a hen in your own clumsy human fashion. The keynote of the stolen nest is its flattened shallow design. This is the

DIVERSIFIED FARMING ON EIGHTY ACRES

Mr. D. R. Nicholson, of Eastern Nova Scotia Produces Milk, Pigs and Potatoes, and Does it a Profit.

(By A. S. Campbell, of Nova Scotia, in the Canadian Countryman.)

Within the past decade, Sydney, in Eastern Nova Scotia, has grown from a village of 1,500 persons to a city of over 20,000 population. This growth is due to the development of the coal mines in the neighborhood and the establishment of a large steel manufacturing plant within the town. The land in the vicinity is fertile enough, but many of the farmers flocked to the mines and steel works when the industrial boom began, and those left on the land did not produce more than a quarter of the products required by the townspeople.

Such were the local conditions when Mr. D. R. Nicholson purchased a farm of eighty acres about five miles from Sydney and began to specialize in dairying and also in the culture of early potatoes. He has a herd of thirty grade Holstein cows. He selected the Holstein because of her excellent profit-making capacity.

"I find," he said, "that the Holstein suits local conditions here very well. She will eat anything that a cow can make any use of, and this good quality is seen even in the calves. It seems to me that this point is not always borne in mind by dairymen in selecting a breed. If you look upon the cow as a manufacturer of milk, however, you will see the distinct advantage of possessing an animal that will cheerfully turn all sorts of cheap fodder into a large supply of nutritious milk. Moreover the Holstein is almost invariably healthy. The calves are generally of good size and develop rapidly, without any coddling. Holstein veal and beef are unexcelled, and this fact also increases their popularity as an all-around purpose cow. My Holsteins have great feeding capacity, and their digestive and assimilative powers are remarkable. They are blessed with gentle dispositions and always yield their milk rapidly and easily. No other cows that I have kept were their equals as persistent milkers. If allowed, my Holsteins would keep up their flow of milk through a period of years.

"People often tell me that Holstein milk is not rich and hence is inferior to that of some other breeds. I don't need to enter the lists in defence of the breed I have, selected as I don't raise Holsteins to sell. My experience has been however, that persons who raise this objection are not aware that the nutritive quality of milk lies rather in the solid content than in the fat. Everybody knows that the products of some other breeds is higher in butter fat, and it is often pointed out that dairymen who sell milk to the public should keep these breeds. Now, as a matter of fact, milk that is abnormally rich in butter fat is not the best for general use. Holstein milk averages about 3.5 per cent. butter fat. Physicians recommend it for the use of invalids and children. The natural food of infants contains about 3.6 per cent butter fat. Thus it can be claimed upon authoritative grounds that Holstein milk is properly balanced and therefore suitable for general diet.

"What the Nova Scotia dairymen needs as much as anything else to make his business more successful is better cows. What is the use of keeping a cow that only pays for the food she eats? Indeed some of our farmers really don't know whether all of their cows even do that. What these men must do is to discover without delay which members of their herd are money-makers, and which are lazy boarders. The best care possible will not turn a natural boarder into a money-maker. I am steadily building up a herd of pure-bred Holsteins from grades. I keep a pure-bred Holstein sire and in-breed occasionally."

Lets the Sunshine In.

Mr. Nicholson's dairy has a southern exposure and the windows are so placed that the sun will shine into every portion of it at some time during the day. A lighting space of twelve square feet of glass is provided for each cow so that every animal receives the full benefit of a sun bath. "No dairymen worthy of the name will deny nowadays that fresh air, light and warmth are essential to animal health," said Mr. Nicholson. "It really does not matter whether a stable is made of brick or stone or wood provided that certain conditions can be maintained at a minimum cost. Personally I prefer wood, as it is cheap and can be used with less skilled labor. Moreover, most farmers have their own supply. Wood is a poor conductor of heat and cold and therefore makes a warm wall. A wooden barn is generally free from that damp chill feeling that one sometimes finds in stone or cement buildings."

The structure measures 84 by 38 feet, and has ties for 35 cows and four boxes 10 by 12 for calves and bull. It is fitted with concrete floors throughout and can be cleaned conveniently. A complete hot and cold water system has been installed throughout. The boiler is heated by the engine that runs the separator. Water is provided by means of a windmill connected with a spring situated 150 yards from the barn. It is pumped into a tank with a capacity of 1,200 gallons, from which it flows through the barn and into the dwelling.

The ventilating inlets are small and uniformly distributed. The fresh air, as it enters, is directed so that no draft strikes the animals. There are wall ventilators for intake and roof ventilators for the escape of the foul air. The outlets are large and direct. The system adopted is simple and efficient. The walls and ceilings are regularly given a thorough coat of whitewash.

Doesn't Follow set Rules

When asked what rules, if any, governed him in feeding his cows this dairymen said: "I don't know that any set of rules has ever been of any very great help."

His summer wage bill is $150 a month and board of five men; his winter wage bill is $80 a month and board of two men. He sells yearly about 6,000 bushels of potatoes. For the earliest ripening he obtains $1.80 per bushel.

and in a remarkably short time the whole area is clothed in green. There is not a weed to be seen when the tops show, and with the proper use of the cultivator I find no difficulty in keeping the field clean all during the season. I cultivate as long as the team can pass between the rows, and in the last operation I attach the long hillers and ridge up the row. The vines are thus supported, the tubers protected from sunburn, and digging made much easier."

He sprays the late varieties with Bordeaux mixture to prevent blight and applies Paris green to suppress the appetite of the beetle. He has had potatoes on the market six weeks after the tops appeared above ground. Last year he marketed on August 25th 630 bushels of potatoes from two acres of land planted about the middle of May, and treated in the way described.

This farmer keeps twelve pure-bred brood Yorkshire sows. He disposes of the pigs young and finds this part of his business profitable. His pen gives him two litters yearly of about 120 pigs each on an average. The spring litter fetches $5.00 per pig and the fall litter about four dollars.

NOVA SCOTIA'S PRODUCTION OF APPLES.

(J. A. Macdonald, "Hermanville Farm P. E. Island.)

The apple industry of Nova Scotia has probably advertised the province abroad more than any other of her products. By the exports of apples we are able to show exactly what advance has been made during the last thirty-five years. Dividing this period into seven divisions of five years each, we find the average number of barrels exported during each period to be as follows:

1880-1885	23,920
1885-1890	83,249
1890-1895	118,552
1895-1900	259,200
1900-1905	330,406
1905-1910	482,298
1900-1905	643,074

These figures are significant. It is further estimated by the railway authorities that during the last few years 150,000 barrels per year have been consumed in the province. These might be added to the above to show actual production. When it is considered that other farm products, roots, grain, hay, beef, etc., have not increased for many years this gain is the more noteworthy. In spite of the increased production the good paying figure of $2 to $2.25 average has been well maintained. Greater confidence is left in the ability of the grower to control insect and fungoid enemies. The coming and going of little scales about San Jose scale and Brown Tail Moth—which pests are now being regarded by many as blessings in disguise—are inducing a steadiness of faith that man is to have dominion over these enemies and have tended to lead growers to settle down to real business in enlarging their output.

"THE BUSY EAST"

"The Busy East" is an illustrated Magazine devoted to the educational, agricultural and commercial welfare of the Maritime Provinces, and to the facilities they afford to health and pleasure seekers. The June edition is especially an "Annapolis Valley Number," and is in every respect a superior example of the Printer's art. Put into the hands of the prospective tourist, it will tell him all about the places worth visiting and the hotels best able to cater to his wants. And, it will open the eyes of the people of the Provinces, many of whom are so engaged with their own affairs that they have little time for a broader outlook, to the variety and importance of the industries which are being carried on in different communities.

All the principal towns in the Valley are represented in illustration and in type, and their special features indicated. Hantsport has a comparatively new industry in "The Chesley Artificial Limb Co., Limited." Mr. Chesley, fifteen years ago, had the misfortune to meet with an accident which necessitated the amputation of his right leg four inches below the knee. He endeavored to remedy the loss as far as possible by various appliances recommended. None of them were altogether satisfactory. He determined to improve upon them, and the result is the present establishment. The Company has now the patronage of the Imperial Government in the making of limbs which are in great demand in these days of war.

The apple industry is naturally represented by a well written article on "Co-operation in Fruit Growing in Nova Scotia." Illustrations are given of "Blossom Time" in the Valley.

Excellent cuts are given of two masterpieces of Professor John Hammond, R.C.A., connected with the Museum of Fine Arts of the Ladies' College, Mt. Allison. They are "Cape Blomidon in a Mist," and a "Sheep Ranch at Swift Current, Saskatchewan." By the way, Professor Hammond, who has traveled widely in the prosecution of his art, has expressed the opinion that the beauty of the famous "Cherry Tree Blossom Time in Japan" does not equal that of the "Blossom Time of a Gravenstein Orchard in this Valley."

"The Busy East" is printed by the Tribune Printing Co., Ltd., of Sackville, N. B.

CANADA IN FLANDERS

Every Canadian should read the little volume bearing the above title, by Sir Max Aitken, M.P. It is a shilling volume of two hundred and fifty pages, published by Hodder and Stoughton. The first edition was printed in January of the present year; the fourteenth edition was published in March. This indicates the popularity of the little book. And it is deservedly popular, especially among Canadians. It tells how within the short space of two months, an Expeditionary Force of 33,000 Canadians was concentrated, armed, and sent to Europe in defense of the interests of the Empire. This was by far the largest body of soldiers that ever crossed the Atlantic at one time. And in a few months their heroism saved Calais on the battlefield of Langemarck. The Right Hon. A. Bonar Law, M.P., contributes a Preface, and the Right Hon. Sir Robert Borden, G.C.M.G., contributes an Introduction. But, get the book and read it for yourself. It tells a story which will form an indispensable part of every future history of the British Empire.

HERALDS OF DOOM.

A writer in the "British Weekly" furnishes an article entitled "Pamphlets as Heralds of Doom," which throws a strong searchlight upon events now transpiring in Germany, and presages the downfall of Prussian military despotism.

He mentions three historic occasions in which the surreptitious circulation of pamphlets among the people was the means of awakening them to a burning sense of the oppression of their rulers and arousing them to concerted action for their overthrow.

One of these occasions was in France in 1560, under the Guises. A modern French historian says of one of the pamphlets, circulated secretly at the time, it "seems traced with the point a sword dipped in the blood of the martyrs."

Another of these occasions was in England, in 1687, under the reign of James the Second. Books and pamphlets were printed at the Hague and smuggled into England by the ten thousands, exhorting the people to insist upon their liberties, as promised in the "Petition of Right." The third occasion was in France, just before the fall of the second empire. This writer believes that Napoleon, the Third, was defeated by the pamphlets of daring journalists before he gave up his sword to the Germans at Sedan.

The German government during the present war has exercised a strict censorship over the newspapers. Nothing in the way of criticism of the government has been permitted. Unfavorable news has been carefully suppressed. The penalty has been repression of the offending paper. And in the Reichstag, the faintest voices against the conduct of the war have been silenced by "Down with him," "traitor," and other angry threats.

By these methods the people generally have been kept largely in the dark respecting actual conditions. Even the Jutland naval battle was loudly heralded as a great German victory.

But, this suppression of enquiry and discussion has led to the circulation of pamphlets, even among the soldiers at the front. The Chancellor, Von Bethmann Hollweg, referred to these pamphlets in a very violent and excited speech in the Reichstag. A Cologne paper says he hardly stood still a moment during the delivery of the speech. In a very boisterous manner, he threw his manuscript down, and took it up the next moment. "I refer," he said, "to the agitation by means of public and private pamphlets, which have been circulated, some with and some without names attached."

"The arrest and imprisonment of the Socialist leader, Dr. Liebknecht, has added fuel to the flame, which is beginning to burn. Dr. Liebknecht has not been an extreme Socialist. He has stood for the nation. But instead of accepting the dictum of the Kaiser that the war has been thrust upon Germany, he has maintained Germany's responsibility for the war, and has opposed the enlargement of the Empire by aggression. He has contended that, whatever be the issue of the war, Poland, Belgium and North France must not be deprived of their national existence. The extreme wing of the Socialists have replied to Liebknecht's imprisonment by choosing as their leader Rosa Luxemburg, who was imprisoned for a year at the beginning of the war, because of her outspoken opposition. And the pamphlets continue to be circulated."

"May these pamphlets, over which Bethmann Hollweg has become so excited, prove to be the heralds of the doom of the Prussian tyrants who are responsible for the appalling slaughter now going on in Europe, is the prayer of millions in free lands, and perhaps even in Germany today."

TWEEDLEDUM AND TWEEDLEDEE

"Everyman," of July 7th, remarks that after a careful study of the programmes of the recent Republican, Progressive and Democratic Conventions, in what they say, and in some things they omit to say; as well as the careful reading of the comments upon the same by the leading American papers of all shades of political opinion, the conflict between Messrs. Hughes and Wilson, the two candidates for Presidential honors, appears to it to resemble the ancient battle between Tweedledum and Tweedledee.

PUBLIC PATRIOTIC MEETING

Anniversary of Great War, Friday Evening, August 4th, 1916.

To the Citizens of Bridgetown, Ladies and Gentlemen:—As appears elsewhere in this issue of the Monitor you will notice a circular letter has been sent by the Lieut-Governor of the Province to all the Mayors of the Incorporated Towns requesting them to co-operate in holding a Public Patriotic Meeting on the above date in commemoration of the second anniversary of the great war, at which an appropriate resolution will be moved.

This notice is to request the citizens of the town to meet on the school grounds at 7.30 o'clock in the evening, on Friday the 4th day of August next, when appropriate remarks will be made by several speakers selected for the occasion and the resolution moved. It is expected the Bridgetown Band will be present.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend and participate in these proceedings.

I have the honor to be,
Yours respectfully,
W. R. LONGMIRE, Mayor.

London, July 20—Another vote of credit will be asked for in the Commons next week. It will be the eleventh vote since the outbreak of the war, and probably will be for £300,000,000, the same amount as the last one. This will bring up the total for the war to £2,682,000,000.

Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, President of the Massachusetts College of Osteopathy, and a native of Aylesford, N.S., was shot in his office in Boston on the 18th inst. Dr. Elridge Atwood, who admitted having committed the shooting, was placed under arrest.

We have been having some really warm weather the past few days. The thermometer registered 94 on Friday the 19th inst. Yesterday the reading was 86. The humidity has also been high, making the weather sultry and oppressive. But then, we always have the cool evenings in Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Henry Beals, the oldest member of the East Inglewille Red Cross Society, has been one of the most active members of that society. From the 8th of August, 1915, to the 10th of July 1916, she knit 48 pairs of socks, (contributing the yarn of 25 pairs) made 9 hospital shirts and 4 pajamas suits.

We respectfully call the attention of drivers of automobiles and other motor vehicles to the advertisement of the town policeman, which appears in another column of this issue, relating to the "Motor Vehicle Act." Many complaints of reckless driving of autos have been made to the police of late, and the advertisement referred to is a final warning to offenders.

Another of our townsmen had the pleasure last week of getting a close glimpse of a deer. On Thursday morning while Dr. F. S. Anderson was coming out to town from his summer cottage at Hampton, and when near the Crosskill Lake on the North Mountain he came upon one of those "beauties of the forest." The Doctor attempted to get a snap-shot, but the deer was too quick for him, and gambolled off into the woods near by.

IN REFUTATION OF AN INCORRECT STATEMENT Please read the following:—

It has been brought to our attention that a report is being circulated to the effect that we have very much curtailed the manufacture of our products at our Halifax factory,—in fact, we are told, it is being said that we are only maintaining warehouses at Halifax and St. John, at the present time, and that the manufacture of our goods for the supply of the provinces is being entirely handled by our Montreal works.

Being satisfied that this canvass (for we feel it to be such) is not calculated to assist the development of our very extensive trade in the provinces, we wish to emphatically state that the situation is exactly the reverse of the one described. WE HAVE NOT CURTAILED AT HALIFAX,—as a matter of fact the output at our Halifax plant has shown an increase every month this year as compared with the same months in any previous year. We are not only selling more of our numerous products in the Maritime Provinces this year than ever before, but we are also making large quantities in our well equipped Halifax plant. If any of our maritime friends have had any doubt about this, we trust the present statement will set their fears at rest.

With regard to business in other sections of Canada, we would say that our sales to date show very large increases over any previous year

"The Co-Operative News," the organ of the United Fruit Companies of Nova Scotia, makes the following announcement in its issue of July 20th. The Board of Management with a view to curtailing expenses have decided, subject to the consent of the Board of Directors, to discontinue the Co-Operative News. This decision has been arrived at in view of the fact that indications again point to a light crop and any expense that is not entirely justified must be eliminated.

At the preliminary hearing before Justice Vroom of Clementsport, of the case of Mrs. Amos Warren, of Waldeck Line, for the alleged poisoning of Mrs. Geo. Taylor, Dr. Pinn, of Halifax, who was sent by the Attorney-General to hold a post mortem examination, reported the body had been exhumed, but owing to the state of decomposition he was unable to find any trace of poisoning, and as there was no direct evidence to connect the accused with the case Mrs. Warren was set at liberty.

Between twelve and one o'clock on Monday night, citizens living in the centre of the town were aroused by hearing the report of three shots from a rifle or shot gun ring out into the air. Upon investigation it was found that burglars had attempted to enter the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bishop on Granville street. Mr. Bishop was aroused, at once determined on self-protection, and brought a shot gun he had near by, into action. As far as is known the would-be thieves escaped unscathed.

William D. Rolston, only son of J. D. Rolston, former proprietor of the Yarmouth Times, died at the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston on Monday, the 17th inst., following a third operation for appendicitis. He was 33 years of age and unmarried. The deceased was for a number of years Purser on the D. A. R. boats from Yarmouth to Boston. In 1912 he retired from the sea and was appointed to a position in H. M. Customs, his duties taking him to all points in Canada. Mr. Rolston spent several weeks in Bridgetown last summer relieving the Customs Officer at that port. Mr. B. N. Messenger, while the latter was on his vacation, and during his stay in town made many friends.

THE FINANCIAL STATEMENT

come may practically disappear. When that time arrives Great Britain will have only her home income to draw upon, and this will be at a time when domestic taxes and domestic burdens will be on a larger scale than ever before by reason of the prodigious increase in the national debt.

The point here made is useful as an illustration going to show that war is an enervating and exhausting process. When a country is perforce living within itself and upon itself, as is Germany at the present time the havoc done is in large measure concealed and the destruction of wealth involved hidden from view. The manufacture of munitions and other incidents of war creates a stimulus in certain lines of industrial activity which gives a false idea of prosperity, the activity being temporary and fictitious. But where a country is called upon to sacrifice its foreign investments of huge magnitude, as is the case with Great Britain, palpable evidence is afforded of the real destruction wrought by war.

KITCHENER

(By Robert J. Stead, Calgary)

Weep waves of England, noble clay—
Was ne'er to nobler grave consigned;

The wild waves weep with us to-day,
Who mourn a nation's master mind.

We hoped an honored age for him
And ashes laid with England's great
And rapturous music, and the dim
Deep hush that veils our tomb of State.

But this is better, let him sleep
Where sleep the men who made us
free;

Old England's heart is in the deep
And England's Glory in the sea.

One only vow above his bier,
One only oath beside his bed,
We swear our flag shall shield him
here
Until the sea gives up its dead.

Leap waves of England, boastful be
And fling defiance in the blast,
For Earth is envious of the sea,
Which shelters England's dead at last.

WHY NOT?

(From 'Life')

If a female duke is a duchess,
Would a female spook be a spuchess?
And if a male goose is a gander,
Then would a male moose be a man-der?

If water you freeze is frozen,
Is the maiden you squeeze, then,
squezen?

If a thing you break is broken,
Would a thing you take be taken?

If the plural of child is children,
Would the plural of wild be wildren?
If a number of cows are cattle,
Would a number of bows be battle?

If a man who makes plays is a playwright,
Would a man who makes hay be a hay-wright?
If a person who fails is a failure,
Would a person who quails be a quailure?

If the apple you bite is bitten,
Would the battle you fight be fitten?
And if a young cat is a kitten,
Then would a young rat be a ritten?

If a person who spends is a spend-
thrift,
Would a person who lends be a lend-
thrift?

If drinking too much makes a drunkard,
Would thinking too much make a thunkard?

But why pile on the confusion?
Still, I'd like to ask in conclusion;
If a chap from New York's a New Yorker,
Would a fellow from Cork be a Corker?

For 2 Weeks Only Shares Carrying a 20 per cent. Guaranteed Cash Dividend Will Sell at 95 Cents Each Island Pelts Bring the Highest Prices.

In spite of the "World-War" and the fact that the European markets are practically cut off, Silver Black Fox Pelts are bringing big prices, and Prince Edward Island skins head the whole list.

An enquiry addressed to Messrs. Funsten Bros. & Co., St. Louis, brought the following reply:

"In response to your letter of April 6th, 1916, will say that Fox Pelt No. 43 sold for One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) in our recent March Sales, was a Prince Edward Island Fox."

This is not supposition, but clear, cold, convincing proof, and gives some slight idea of what may be realized by efficiently managed companies with low capitalization like the Security Company.

AT LAST—A Company on a strong business-like basis, with the highest quality of stock procurable and the lowest possible capitalization—a company organized with the object of paying big dividends on a pelt basis and bigger dividends on a breeding stock basis.

This is a "Ground flour" proposition that will be offered at the present price for 4 weeks only.

Every share of stock is backed by a 20 p. c. guaranteed dividend with the money in the Bank now to pay every cent of it.

Not a feature has been overlooked—not a factor lost sight of—every phase has been carefully considered. It is the strongest, cleanest, most attractive proposition yet advertised in this paper.

There is but a limited quantity of the stock offered for public subscription—and this allotment is offered for 4 weeks only.

Make application for the amount you want at once. Don't subscribe for more or less than you can conveniently take care of, but don't let this opportunity get away from you.

Shares carrying a 20 p. c. guaranteed cash dividends selling for a short time only at 95 cents.

Big Dividends Should Be Paid This Year.

While many Fox Companies have paid cash dividends last year the majority of them placed their production back in the ranches in order to reduce the capitalization, so that they could pay good dividends on a pelt basis. This was a commendable course to take, and as a result, commencing with the present year liberal cash dividends should be paid by competently managed Companies, and the industry will be thereby placed upon a stable and permanent basis.

In the meantime it is the investor who secures stock in a good Company while the price is right, who is going to clean up the most money.

The opportune time is NOW—The Company is SECURITY.

"GET IN" BEFORE THE PRICE OF SHARES SOAR!

Security Company Shares are on the Market for a Few Days Only

Shares in the Security Company with the guaranteed cash dividend will be offered for a few days only. Offer will positively be withdrawn in a month's time. Act now if you want to become a shareholder in this progressive, lowly capitalized Company with the highest quality of stock at the capitalization of the Security Company—never were the assurances of permanent future earnings better—brighter—surer.

If you want to double and triple the earning power of your money send in your application at once for shares in the Security Company or send for prospectus by return mail.

The present of all years since the inception of the Fox Industry is the time to invest in the business, when the prices are the lowest of the low on the highest quality pedigreed stock—when an absolute guaranteed dividend of 20 per cent cash is offered. Could anything be surer—could anything be safer?

When the price is the highest is not the time to buy. The reason the pioneers have accumulated such fabulous wealth is because they became interested in the industry when the prices were low. This is the small investor's chance. The chance to buy right is here. Never would your money go further in a good legitimate investment proposition than it will go right now in the Security Company with its Guaranteed Cash Dividend.

Only a Small Amount of Stock Offered

The object being a close corporation for the Directors and a few of their personal friends. That is why there are so many attractive features connected with the proposition.

It was realized later that by adding a few extra foxes to the Company the law of average could be more accurately estimated and the proposition would be more attractive to all concerned.

This is the only reason that you can now procure stock at the present price. It is for you to act without delay if you wish to become a shareholder in the most promising money-earning proposition that has yet been placed on the market.

BUY WHILE PRICES ARE LOW AND TAKE ADVANTAGE OF ADVANCES—THIS IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY

The shrewd financier buys when prices are at rock bottom, and sells (if he sells at all) when prices reach the highest point. This is the principle that has made millions for men, and a principle that applies effectively right now. After shares in the SECURITY COMPANY have advanced from 95c to $1.50, $2.00, $3.00 or $5.00 is not the right time to buy, but the right time is RIGHT NOW while shares may be procured at 95c—while the price is at "rock bottom," and be in a position to benefit by any advances in price. The directors are so confident that the Security Company will be a big dividend earning proposition that they intend to retain a large block of stock and to sell only sufficient to conveniently finance the company.

Directors of Security Company

The Directors are business men who have "made good" in practically everything they have undertaken. They have been successful in business—they have been successful in outside enterprises; and they have invested heavily in the Security Company, because they are convinced that it will be no exception to the rule.

HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSIONS VIA C. G. RAILWAYS

To Manitoba and the Canadian North West—Choice of Routes—the Clay Belt Country.

Second class excursion return tickets will be sold every Wednesday until October 25th to Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon, Calgary, Edmonton, and numerous other points in the Canadian North West. These tickets will be good for return within two months from date of issue. Full particulars can be obtained from any ticket agent of the Canadian Government Railways.

Holder of these tickets have the choice of different routes. They can travel via Quebec and Canadian Government Railways to Winnipeg—the route of the Western National Express or by the new "Transcontinental Line" via Toronto, North Bay, Cochrane, Ontario and Canadian Government Railways to Winnipeg.

Home-seekers' tickets reading via Quebec will be good for stop-over at Doucet, Que., Hearst, Ont. and intermediate Canadian Government Railways stations, while tickets routed via Transcontinental Line will permit stop over at Cochrane, Ont., Hearst, Ont., and intermediate stations, with the additional privilege of purchasing side trip tickets if desired at Cochrane for points on Canadian Government Railways east of Cochrane for points including Doucet, Que., at special low fare.

The above arrangements will permit passengers to inspect splendid new farming country in Quebec and the famous "Clay Belt" of new Ontario—a rich farming territory opened up for the new line of the Canadian Government Railways.

The correct designation of the naval battle of June 1st is the "Battle of Horn Reef" not of Skagerrack. This is the admiralty decision.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS.

(Issued by the Department of the Public Health, Nova Scotia.

Acute anterior poliomyelitis, commonly called infantile paralysis because it usually affects young children, is at present epidemic in exceptionally virulent form in the city of New York, and has caused many deaths. Inasmuch as there is a possibility that the epidemic may spread, it is thought wise to issue this bulletin.

The disease is not known in Nova Scotia, an occasional case being reported from widely separated localities. With us, it is more common in the rural districts than in the cities and towns.

It is due to one of the tiniest of microorganisms, an organism so small that it can be detected only when massed in groups in the field of the microscope. The germ loses its virulence very quickly when exposed to the air, and this is doubtless one of the reasons why the disease is not more prevalent than it is. Some "strains" of the organism appear to be more active in causing the disease than others. It is thought that the "strain" responsible for the present epidemic in New York may have been brought by immigrants from Southern Europe.

We are in ignorance of many of the factors concerned in determining an attack of the disease. It is infectious, and yet it is unusual for more than one child in a family to be attacked even though several may be undoubtedly exposed to infection. Occasionally, however, several members of a family may be infected, and on rare occasions adults suffer from the disease. Often the strongest and apparently the healthiest member of a family is the one to fall ill, so that the best of health does not insure safety from attack.

The first symptoms are, as a rule, indefinite, and may suggest only some disorder of digestion. The characteristic paralysis usually does not appear for three or four days. During the time of epidemic, therefore, the slightest indisposition on the part of a child should lead to a physician being summoned.

Many cases are "abortive" and do not go far enough to cause any paralysis. Such cases may, however, transmit the infection to others.

The infectious element is given off, especially in the discharges from the nose, throat, mouth, but possibly also in discharges from bladder and bowel. It is thought that infection is received principally through the mouth. All discharges from a patient should, therefore, be disinfected immediately upon issuance from the body, and any article soiled by such discharges should also be disinfected at once. It is of special importance that the hands of those in attendance upon the patient be most carefully cleaned after rendering the patient any service. The dishes used by the patient should be separately washed, better sterilized, and reserved for his use alone.

It is generally thought that the infection is disseminated especially by "carriers"—people who, although not themselves ill, have been in contact with patients or their discharges and harbour the germs in their throats. Those who have had the disease, even in the abortive form, may also be carriers for some time after convalescence has set in.

It is difficult to identify carriers, but all who may have come into contact with patients suffering from the disease, or who may themselves have had it should regard themselves as possible carriers and ask the advice of a physician as to how they may render themselves non-infective.

Every patient suffering from the disease should, of course, be strictly isolated, and every case of the disease should be immediately reported (as required by the Public Health Act) to the appropriate medical health officer. If energetic measures are adopted immediately upon the appearance of a case, the community may be saved a disastrous epidemic.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE WAR

Mayors Throughout the Province Asked to Convene Public Meetings.

With the approval of the Prime Minister and the Secretary of State for the Colonies, public meetings are again to be held throughout the Empire on Friday, August 4th, the second anniversary of the outbreak of the war, when the following patriotic resolution will be moved.

"That, on this second anniversary of a righteous war, this meeting of the citizens of— records its inflexible determination to continue to a victorious end the struggle in maintenance of those ideals of liberty and justice which are the common and sacred cause for the Allies."

For this purpose the Lieutenant Governor has invited the mayors throughout the Province to convene public meetings in their districts on this anniversary date.

MOUNT ALLISON LADIES COLLEGE

Sackville, N. B. July 7:—A number of changes are to take place in the teaching staff of Mount Allison Ladies' College in the coming year, owing to the departure of some members of last year's staff. The resignation of Miss Elva Machum has necessitated the appointment of a new instructor in French and English essays, which position has been filled by Miss Ella Stanley, M. A. Miss Stanley graduated from Oberlin College and later received her M. A. from that institution. She also holds an M. A. from Columbia University and studied for a time abroad. She has a wide teaching experience and comes to Mount Allison highly spoken of by her former associates.

The vacancy made by the resignation of Miss Winnifred Thomas, B. A., who, for the past few years has taught Bible and History, has been filled by the appointment of Miss Leah Borden B. A. of Canning N. S. Miss Borden graduated from the University in 1910, since which time she has had a valuable and successful teaching experience in the Public Schools of Nova Scotia. As a student she has an exceptionally good record, and her return to Mount Allison on the teaching staff of the Ladies' College, is heartily endorsed by the authorities.

In addition to the changes mentioned, an instructor has been secured for the gymnasium work of the girls. Miss Marion Ferguson will assume control of this department and will supervise the physical development of the students during the year. This branch of the college work is receiving more and more attention from the larger Ladies' Colleges of the continent every year, and Mount Allison will be prepared to offer advantages equal to any. Miss Ferguson is a graduate of the Posse School of Physical Education and has a record of successful teaching along her chosen line.

Following out the progress which has been made by Mount Allison in the past few years in the matter of increase in staff and teaching facilities an arrangement has been made to strengthen the Theological staff of the University during the ensuing year by the appointment of an additional professor. The Rev. John Line, M. A., B. D., has been engaged to take up the work of teaching, Homiletics, Church Polity, Didactics, Public Speaking, Philosophy of Theism, and other subjects.

Mr. Line is a graduate of the University of Toronto, and holds both degrees from that institution. During the past year he has had successful teaching experience in that University while giving lectures in Philosophy. He is recognized as a profound thinker with a thorough knowledge of his subjects and a keen sense of the growth and development of philosophic ideas.

Chancellor Bowles of Victoria College and Dr. Abbott the head of the Philosophy department in Toronto University are very outspoken in their recommendation of Mr. Line as a constructive thinker and a theologian of the advanced though not radical type. His appointment will add materially to the advantages which Mount Allison offers her theological students.

SIR EDWARD GREY

(The Journal of Commerce)

In the course of some necessary readjustment of Cabinet arrangements in London, Sir Edward Grey leaves the House of Commons in which he has sat for many years, and goes to the House of Lords. If Sir Edward is willing to make the change, regarding it as an advance, there will be few to question the propriety of his promotion. He has been and is a great Foreign Secretary, who has proved his qualities under the most exacting conditions. A quiet, reserved man, of somewhat cold temperament, it is possible that, if he had been assigned to any other department of affairs, he might not have been deemed a success. But the qualities most marked in him lent themselves to the work of the Foreign Office. His conception of diplomacy is not the one for which some people now clamor. The outcry against what is described as "secret diplomacy" and the demand for wider publicity concerning foreign relations receive no sympathy from him. He is a strong believer in the view that international affairs must be entrusted to competent officials, who must then be trusted very largely to do what is best, without being called on to explain at every stage what they have done and why they did it. It is easily possible to stress such a policy too much; but it is far from certain that, in dealing with the nations of the world these old-fashioned methods will be less productive of good to the Empire than the house-top diplomacy that is advocated in some quarters. Fortunately the change that is taking place will not affect Sir Edward's holding of the Foreign Office. While there is an ever increasing tendency to require that the incumbents of the most active departments shall have places in the Commons, where they can be called to account by the people's representatives, that view will not be applied to the Foreign Secretaryship, especially in the case of such a man as Sir Edward Grey.

One effect of the change, we imagine, will be to eliminate Sir Edward's name from the list of possible or probable successors to Mr. Asquith, in the position of Prime Minister. Mr. Asquith is no longer young. He has borne the burdens of the highest office for an unprecedented long time. It is probable that but for the new responsibilities created by the war he would have retired another. He will doubtless feel it his duty to remain at his post until the close of the war. If the coalition then ends and parties are readjusted on the former lines, a successor to Mr. Asquith will have to be found in the Liberal ranks. While he is not exactly the type of man most desired for leadership of a party including many advanced Liberals, Sir Edward Grey's sterling qualities have worked him as one on whom the conflicting elements of the party might be able to unite. But his translation to the Lords will end all thought of that. In the democratic progress of the age even a Conservative party in England will desire to have its chief in the House of Commons, and a Liberal party will regard that as an almost essential condition.

FRENCH REMOVE EMBARGO ON LOBSTERS

Good News for the Exporters of Nova Scotia.

Official advice reached Halifax by cable that the embargo against Canadian lobsters entering France had been removed.

The lobster exporters of this Province are to be congratulated upon the success of their efforts in this matter and though the decision has arrived too late to prove of any material advantage to the entire trade for this season the benefit that accrues in having the articles established as a food stuff instead of as a luxury is important.

Busy preparations can now be made with some confidence for another season's operations. Now that France has apparently acknowledged the food value of lobsters it is not likely that the British Government will class it as a luxury.

During the last month the prices of canned lobsters has been gradually but surely declining, but this report will probably prevent any further decline in prices.

From inquiries among the trade we learn that an advance in prices is not expected. The chief consuming season in France is now nearly over, and the orders to supply French requirements during the fall and winter will not likely be heavy.

Already most of the pack has been shipped to the Liverpool and London markets and it is from these places that the bulk of the French orders at the present time will likely be filled.
