The Canadian Club of Montreal

HISTORICAL NOTE.

The first of the Canadian Clubs was founded at Hamilton in 1893. The Toronto Club, founded shortly afterwards, introduced the present custom of meeting at luncheon.

The Canadian National League, begun in Montreal just before the Hamilton Club, was of about the same nature but does not appear to have directly influenced the present organization. A small Canadian Club, however, which met during the winter of 1904 at the Y. M. C. A., under the Presidency of its founder, Mr. E. Edwin Howard was one of the elements in the suggestion of the larger Montreal Society.

On Monday, the 16th of October, 1905, Messrs. John A. Gunn and W. H. D. Miller, both former members of the Toronto Club, called a meeting, at Freeman's Restaurant, consisting of themselves and George Lyman, Andrew McMaster and E. H. Cooper, to discuss the advisability of establishing a Canadian Club in Montreal on the lines of that in Toronto. Its formation was then and there decided upon and Mr. Lyman was made Secretary, pro tem. In consequence, the same gentlemen, with Messrs. E. Edwin Howard, Pierre Beullac, H. C. Monk and

A. Huntly Duff, Mr. Cooper only being absent, met on Thursday, October 19th, 1909, at Freeman's and founded, "The Canadian Club of Montreal."

The first officers were :—

President, - - A. R. MCMASTER
Vice-Presidents, - { PIERRE BEULLAC and
 { W. H. D. MILLER
Treasurer, - - JOHN A. GUNN
Secretary, - - GEORGE LYMAN
Literary Correspond't, A. HUNTLY DUFF

Executive Committee :

The officers and Mess^{rs}. E. E. HOWARD, H. C. MONK,
- E. H. COOPER and H. BABY.

The first meeting was held on Monday, October 30th, at the St. Lawrence Hall, at which 110 men were present and enrolled themselves as members of the Club.

Mr. Jerome K. Jerome, the English author and humorist, was the guest of the Club on this occasion.

Meetings of the Club were subsequently held once a week.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

1. The Club shall be called the Canadian Club of Montreal.
2. It is the purpose of the Club to foster patriotism by encouraging the study of the institutions, history, arts, literature and resources of Canada, and by endeavouring to unite Canadians in such work for the welfare and progress of the Dominion as may be desirable and expedient.
3. (a) There shall be two classes of members—active and honorary.
(b) Any man at least eighteen years of age, who is in sympathy with the objects of the Club, shall be eligible for membership.
(c) Honorary membership may be conferred on such persons as, in the opinion of the Club, as expressed by a three-quarter majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting, after one week's notice has been previously given, may be entitled to such distinction.
4. Active members shall be elected by vote of Executive Committee upon application in writing endorsed by two members in good standing; two contrary votes shall exclude.

5. (a) Honorary members shall be exempt from the payment of fees, but shall neither vote nor hold office.

(b) Active members shall pay in advance an annual fee of Two Dollars.

(c) No one shall be a member in good standing until he shall have paid his annual fee, such fee being due and payable in October of each year.

(d) Only members in good standing shall be eligible for office or have the right to vote at any meeting of the Club.

(e) All members whose fees are two months in arrears shall be so notified by the treasurer, and if the same are not paid within 30 days thereafter, their names shall be struck from the roll.

6. (a) The officers of the Club shall consist of a President, 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice-President, Secretary, Literary Correspondent, Treasurer, and several others holding no specific office. These officers, together with the last retiring President, shall constitute the Executive Committee.

(b) The officers shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Club, which shall be held on the last Monday in April, and shall hold office until the next annual meeting, or until their successors are elected.

(c) A nominating committee, appointed at a special meeting of the Executive Committee, to be held at least one week previous to annual meeting, shall make nominations of officers. Their report shall be received at the annual meeting, and may be adopted or amended.

(d) In case of demission of office, whether by death, resignation or otherwise, the vacancy thereby caused shall be filled by the Executive Committee. That person so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting.

7. (a) Subject to special action by the Club, the conduct of its affairs shall be vested in the Executive Committee.

(b) The Executive Committee shall meet at the call of the President or of the Secretary, and five members shall constitute a quorum.

(c) Where the President is unable or refuses to call a meeting, three members of the Executive may do so by giving the others at least 24 hours' notice in writing.

8. The duties of the officers shall be as follows:

(a) The President, when present, shall preside at all meetings and shall inform the Club of the proceedings of the Executive Committee since the last report, receive and read motions and cause the sense of the meeting to be taken on them, preserve order and direct the proceedings of the meeting in regular course. There shall be no appeal from the ruling of the Chair unless requested by at least five members and carried by a two thirds vote.

(b) In the absence of the President, the senior Vice-President present shall preside and perform the duties of the President and have his privileges.

(c) In the absence of the President and Vice-Presidents, a chairman for the meeting shall be chosen by the open vote of those present.

(d) The Literary Correspondent shall have charge of all correspondence of a literary character, and shall edit any literary matter issued by the Club, and in a general way promote and guard the interests of the Club in the daily and periodical press.

(e) The Treasurer shall collect and receive all moneys due the Club, issue receipts therefor, and pay all authorized accounts.

(f) The Secretary shall take minutes at all meetings of the Club as well as those of the Executive Committee. He shall issue notices of meetings and perform those duties usually appertaining to that office.

9. (a) The ordinary meetings of the Club shall be held on each Monday from 1 to 2 p.m., except during the months of May, June, July, August, September and October. Special meetings may be held at any time or place on the call of the President or of the Executive Committee.

(b) No notice of ordinary meetings shall be necessary, but notice in writing of all annual and special meetings shall be sent to each member of the Club.

(c) Fifty members in good standing present at any meeting of the Club shall constitute a quorum.

10. Two auditors shall be elected by open vote at the meeting provided for in clause (6), and shall embody their report in the Treasurer's annual statement.

11. This Constitution may be amended at the annual meeting, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, by a two thirds vote of the members present, after one week's notice of such amendment.
