TRADE SHOW COUNCIL 51 29TH YEAR

A NEW CORONER TO CONDUCT INQUEST

Dr. McNichol to be a Witness To-Night—Body is Exhumed—Epilepsy May Enter Into Medical Evidence.

HAMILTON, March 9.—(Special)—
The body of Miss Ethel Kinrade was examined this afternoon after resting in its grave since a week ago Sunday.

Aside from the fact that the crown wants to find out exactly how many bullets and wounds there are in the body, there is nothing sensational in the case, according to the explanations of the authorities. They say they want to use Dr. McNichol, the first medical man who saw the girl after she was murdered, as a witness, and as it would have been irregular for a coroner to be called in if he had a witness, too, it was decided by the attorney general's department that, it would be better to have everything done in a regular and legal manner.

That necessitated the appointment of a new coroner, and the swearing-in of a new jury, including the coroner and all the formalities. Proceedings had to be taken just as the Dr. Mc-Nichol had never started an inquest.

Dr. Anderson was chosen as the new coroner, and he will proceed with the inquest Wednesday evening. The body was disinterred and taken to the morgue at the City Hospital this evening, where it was viewed by the jury at 8 o'clock. The jurors selected by Dr. McNichol were chosen by the new coroner, but they were re-appointed by Dr. Anderson.

It is now said that medical evidence
will be given to the effect that one person connected with the tragedy
shows signs of epilepsy, which sometimes induces homicidal mania.

Miss Kinrade's Friends.

Dr. McNichol maintained as a witness by the crown, not altogether on account of his medical testimony, but because he was the first to hear Miss Florence Kinrade's story. Her story to him differed from her sister's. She told him that the man who shot her sister had red hair and a red mustache.

Not long after, to Detective Bleakley,
she said that the man was of medium dark complexion, and had a large mustache.

It is now said that medical evidence
will be given to the effect that one
person connected with the tragedy
shows signs of epilepsy, which sometimes
induces homicidal mania.

Free trade was not in danger. The assault could be repelled again, as it had been repelled before. (Applause.)

Outpouring of British Gold Doesn't Hurt

Premier Asquith Says Capital Is Not Used by Foreigners to Stifle Home Industry.

(C.A.P. Cable.)

LONDON, March 9.—Premier Asquith, speaking at a free trade meeting at Fleet Street last night, referred to allegations that capital was being driven abroad by the exportation of capital to foreign countries, that Britain gained the thing she needed most—a cheap, abundant, world-wide supply of food, which formed the life-blood of the working population and materials which formed the lifeblood of our trade.

Was the capital gone? What was it going to be? What was it going to Canada, which in 1908 took $40,000,000 quoting to the market, salt, coal, railways, paper, light and steam power, and other things Canada must apply to London as the world's financial centre. He contended that owing to the free trade system British capital had not only exploited British industry at home, but it had built up the empire abroad.

More than two-thirds the total was invested in countries where from Britain's only imports were food or raw material.

Continuing, the premier asked what the proposed tariff was actually going to do. (Laughter and cheers.) They had found that in the new tariff, subject no doubt to certain exceptions, moderate duties were to be laid on imports from foreign countries.

There would be lower duties on corporations imports from the colonies.
That was substantially a new depart-ture from the original scheme. They had always understood, in fact, that the engine could start with many cars as the engine can start. All the grading is under contract from Vaudreuil westward towards Smith's Falls, while the track laying and ballasting is being done by the company.

If the section from Smith's Falls to Peterboro, covering 132 miles, is not double tracked, it will certainly be very much impeded by having the grain route and curves set out the C.P.R. will have practically a level road all the way to Victoria Harbor. From Victoria Harbor to the place where the grain route crosses the Canadian Pacific railway's Morrison bridge, the road is already constructed and more is done than the entire line from the lake front to Peterboro, 76 miles, will be placed under contract during the present year.

The C.P.R. has engaged the G.T.R. and the C.P.R. to build a union station at a cost of ten or twelve millions. The idea is to have it built as a terminal company, and it will be the property of both. It would occur on the sites of the G.T.R. Bonaventure Station and all the C.P.R. Windsor Station and all the land between them. Bridges would have to be built over St. James and St. Antoine streets.

It is Dr. McNichol's story of the affair as told to Crown Attorney Washington the day after the murder:

"I was ready to go to the police to make some calls when I received a telephone message to go at once to the Kinrade home. My buggy was standing at the door and jumping into it I drove over as quickly as I could. On entering the house I found no person except the body of the murdered girl lying at the foot of the rear stairway in dining room. I hastily examined her and found several bullet holes in her head, face and breast. She was dead, and in the post-mortem it was found that one bullet struck the right ventricle of her heart. This would no doubt be to go upstairs to get the gun.

AFTER BEING several times passed over by the conductor and retiring passengers, the excitement between those approximately situated, began to show itself in the form of affected indifference, yet fixed attention on the little pieces of paper given for a ride on the car, continued in the week.

I was now nearing the street where I must get off, and I began to wonder if I would see it out, being fully conscious that a number of others besides myself were aware of its far presence.

After considerable consideration, however, a young lady, jestingly relieved the tension of our curiosity by pointing forward and picking it up, as much as to say, "If nobody else wants it, I will have it."

As she did so a smile of congratulation seemed to lurk on each face about her.

The next stop was my getting off place and I left the car, not without having my curiosity satisfied.

Stratford 3Boxing Johnson ReturnsAthletics Friday's EntriesNote and Comment

Lindsay, like St. Michaels, broke out of the maiden class this week by landing the intermediate O.H.A. championship over Stratford, and now they are placed on the hockey as well as the curling map. The Indians are the best intermediate team that have won the championship in years and would make a suitable showing in senior company. At events, a game between the senior and intermediate winners would prove a most drawing card.

The Granites slipped up to Hamilton on Saturday for a friendly four-rink match with the Thistles, but nothing was heard of the result until the Hamilton papers came to hand last night. The score was 46 to 42. George D. Shultz won his game, 12 to 8. George E. Allen won down, 8 to 19, also H. P. Whiteside, 19 to 26, and last, but not least, H. M. Allen, 6 to his opponent's 22.

As the Australian papers say Tommy Burns is still the idol of the antipodean fight-fans, even as told in Jack London's fight, and he is to be numbered among these shores. The ingenuity of the champion is best displayed in the treatment of his veteran manager, Sam Fitzpatrick, who has been recognized as the best and squarest man in the ring. Burns will injure the fight more than the manager. The stories of the fine form being displayed in the ring are true, and a big smoke's treatment of Fitzpatrick, would indicate that Johnson will likely in the very near future look for someone else to help him regain his lost laurels.

9 Kid McCay is in Paris, enthusiastic over the boxing, and Johnnie McVey drew $15,000. Willie Lewis is a hit over there. He knocked out a big heavyweight the other night, and he has seven on. Frank is running out of school and is making a world of money. They have seen for Jack O'Brien and he will win. Jeanette and McVey will be married. You will never see Jack again. He would be elected president of the French Republic.

Here's a warm one, that will be best appreciated by the management. Johnny Luis has demanded a $500 raise of the manager, and a salary of $1,000 for forthcoming or not, he will still play with the team.

After Joe Kelley had a team of championship calibre all lined up ready to hike for Chatham, Ont., the discovery was suddenly made that the Toronto Baseball club had five more regular men.

Lindsay Warden.—The game of hockey witnessed between Stratford and Lindsay last Friday night was the cleaned game witnessed in Lindsay for many moons. Both teams were told to play the game with the rules, and citizens who take very little stock in hockey matches were agreeably surprised when they realized how clean the game was. It was a real treat to the spectators in centre ice, and the star performers for the visitors, Simpson and Dunbar, doing the stellar stuff.

Indians Checked Too Closely.

The Indians started out with a great burst of speed, but they were checked too close to get away from the Indians, and were unable to get the terrific pace of the end of the half, which finished with Enders leading a score of 2 to 1. Lindsay second period the Indians displayed great bursts of speed, sweeping down on the nets time and again and passing beautifully in front of goal, but the Indians' counter-advantage won them speed and back checking. The forwards came back to a man, relieving the defence and getting away with the runs when they were not beaten. The Indians worked very hard to get away, but their goals were caught in every rush, and their goals were scored on the sly, which helped to make the game less exciting. They stayed to make no appreciable difference to the visitors, who were in fine condition. Every fan stayed to the finish, and their victory was well deserved.

Lindsay Speeder.

Visitors had much difficulty in dispelling the Indians, and aided by more weight, they found no difficulty in getting around the Indians' defence and winning the game. The Indians started with a bang, and the visitors had to continue to have continued it, might have turned the scales, but the solid defence of the Lindsayites broke their hearts, and in the last half of the game the Indians won the game.

2000 Were Present.

There was a tremendous crowd, over 2000 people being in attendance, and over 1000 spectators. The Indians would pull down the lead. The Stratford fans were forced to see their goals go down on their own ice, as against Kingston last year, when they held to beat the Indians.

Superintendent Boxall—No; I don't think that was the most feature, but the boys' game held to beat the Indians down and the clearest that they have ever witnessed. This speaks well for the Lindsay boys.

Mr. Thompson stated that they had a pretty fair team, and, with some strengthen-championship. Thus, on the face of it, they would be foolish to sell their franchise at a time when it was bound to be a money-maker.

WHERE CIVIC SPIRIT WAS LACKING

Perhaps it is inevitable that small-minded people should exist even in a community so enlightened as Toronto. But it is regrettable when the petty callousness of any citizen interferes even in a slight degree with the fame and the achievement of the city. The otherwise scarcely credible, it is stated by those in the best position to know the facts, that one member of the Mendelsohn Choir was dismissed from his employment for going to Chicago last week, and three others were prevented from going under threat of like treatment.

The standard of public spirit in the city is happily a long way above that low level, and it is unfortunate that those capable of acting in this manner are not usually of the type that suffers from the excitation of their fellows. Were they so the general feeling would quickly correct such a condition of things. There are cases on record where volunteers and militiamen have been caused to suffer on account of necessary absence from their ordinary avocations, but public opinion invariably condemns the attitude of employers by such unpatriotic pusillanimity. Much self-denial was entailed on the members of the choir, who bore the fame of Toronto's artistic attainments to New York and Chicago, and it is to be hoped that on no future occasion will they be incommoded by a lack of public spirit. Toronto gains incalculably by the prominence she obtains as an art centre.

Concerning the New York trip the story is told that two Germans admired the chorus as they passed along. "Where do they come from?" one asked the other. "Toronto," was the reply. "Where is that?" "It's where you change cars for Cobalt," he was informed. Toronto cannot afford to lose any chance of earning a more distinguished reputation and her citizens should do nothing to interfere with its acquisition.

THAT HIDEOUS FENCE

In a brief but vigorous letter to The World, appearing elsewhere, a correspondent asks: "Why not pull down the Osgoode Hall fence?" and pertinently adds that we want a bit of green in summer time down town. Fences of the formidable and repellent kind, illustrated by this particular example, are relics of old world conditions far removed from the environment of a modern democracy. Even in Britain the tendency for many years has been to remove the barriers and restrictions that keep the common people out of public property and to allow as much freedom for its recreative use as is compatible with comfortable enjoyment. That is the policy which should be adopted in Canada, and Toronto, as its most progressive city, should lead the way in its application and enforcement.

The authorities of St. James did an excellent thing in opening the church grounds to the people, and their public spirit has been thoroughly appreciated, as is shown summer by summer in the number who take advantage of this oasis in the business district. Why not carry that same spirit to Osgoode Hall and make its grounds available both to sight and use? No one can say the judicial repose would be disturbed or the dignity of the legal fraternity injured by the presence of the citizens. Nor would the amenity of the hall be impaired—rather would it be enhanced were the present portentious railing removed. The English law courts about the crowded Strand and the grounds and gardens of the Inns of Court are all pleasant resting places in the centre of London. The World trusts the appeal of its correspondent may fall on responsive ears.

W.M. A. ROGERS, LIMITED.

In another column of this issue will be found the annual report of Wm. A. Rogers, Limited. Commenting on it The Financial Post remarks:

The annual report of William A. Rogers (Limited) casts an interesting sidelight on conditions in the silverware business during the year 1908. Total exports were $12,725 or only 11% less than in the best year the company had known, 1907, so that if an industrial business can get through a most difficult year with its net earnings unimpaired, it must be concluded that its field of activity assisted greatly by a clever administration is of a most constant character. We understand that these profits were secured not by the introduction of new lines of the marketing of any unusual or distinctive product. Hence the exhibit is one of a most exceptional character and well worthy of the investor's attention. In the annual report the president, Mr. S. J. Moore, has made very interesting analysis of the financial resources to which there is little room for expansion after the payment of dividends. The profits for the year are equal to 20 per cent. on the preferred stock and 16 per cent. on the common after the payment of dividends. The liquid assets consisting of stock in trade, accounts and bills receivable and cash are $12,845, and these are sufficient to pay all creditors' liabilities, the dividends paid Jan. 2 and 20, the balance equivalent to 94.5 per cent. of preferred stock. Such results as these can be obtained by Wm. A. Rogers securities to the regular list of the Toronto Stock Exchange is greatly to be welcomed.

THAT HIDEOUS FENCE

Editor World: Why not pull down the Osgoode Hall fence? Fences are a real nuisance anyway, and this particular one is not only obnoxious, but also suggestive of iron bars and prison cells. It is not only useless, but also ugly. Besides, we want a bit of green to feast the eyes on in the sunnier down town. This is that bit. Use your powerful pen to help country-bred boys now resident in the city to pull down that iron eye-sore.

WHITTLING DOCTRINES.

Editor World: The writer has rarely read anything with greater pleasure and interest than your article of Wednesday, "Whitling the Doctrines." Will you kindly print it again in the same connection? I submit it in my own name on my lips: Why is it, in gladdening to the higher critics so-called, most people speak of them as the "more learned" masters, etc.? In what sense are they "more learned" than those from whom they differ? Both have had the same educational training, often in the same college; both have had access alike to all the works of German metaphysicians and authorities, etc. etc. etc.

Death of Mrs. Matthes.

Earl Klinrade, in a signed statement given in Toronto, says:

"The man I take it was a common thief or burglar, armed, and a stranger to the city."

It is believed, from my knowledge of the case, that the murderer had an old-fashioned seven-chambered revolver, loaded, in his pocket, with no more cartridges to use once he had emptied the gun. The police should have known that there were some seven-chambered revolvers of this calibre so rare that they should be able to get information that would lead to the source of the obtaining of the weapon.

The fact is that seven shots were fired and leads one to think there was an insane man in the house, but if that is not the fact it means necessarily that at the stage when the shots were fired, one and only object of the man was to make sure beyond shadow of a doubt that he had killed his victim.

NOW A STRONG HEALTHY GIRL

Saved from the Grave by Psyshine
Miss May Moore of Teeswater, Ont., says "A year or two ago my health was in a very precarious state. I was just getting over a very bad attack of LA GRIPPE which had left me prostrate, with a dreadful headache, cough, cold, not red day or night because of the pain in my lungs, and frequently brought up a large quantity of blood. I consulted one of the best physicians in our town, and after sounding me thoroughly, he told me that my lungs were in a very bad state, that I was getting rapidly worse, and that Consumption would most assuredly bring me to my grave in the near future."

"My appetite was entirely gone, and I was simply wasting away to a shadow. At nights I used to perspire so that in the morning I could wring the water out of my clothes."

"At last PSYSHINE was recommended to me as a sure cure, and although feeling most disengaged, I determined to give it a trial. I was surprised at the marvellous result. It acted like a charm. My cough was relieved at once, and soon left me altogether, neither did I have a single headache after taking the PSYSHINE. I began to feel much better, so much so that several of my friends could hardly believe that I was the same person. PSYSHINE does its work thoroughly, and it undoubtedly brought me back from the verge of the grave and made me a strong healthy girl."

PSYSHINE is the greatest strength restorer and system builder known to medicine, and should be used for Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, Lung Diseases, Loss of Appetite, Weakness, etc.

ELEVEN PRIVATE BILLS SENT INTO RETIREMENTDue to Neglect of Members in Charge to Comply With Regulations and Requests.

W. H. Hoyle, as chairman of the standing orders committee gave another warning to the negligent lawyers who jeopardize the interests of their clients by not conforming to the regulations of the house in the matter of private bill legislation. Members are themselves also to blame in this respect.

At the instance of Premier Whitney, Mr. Hoyle stated that of 25 bills before the house the initial step of presenting them to the committee had not been taken in the case of eleven of them.

These would have to fall by the wayside, as he could hold out no hope of the committee extending the time allotted for receiving petitions March 12 and 19, for present bills. The other fourteen, which had been partially prepared with, if the declarations were hastened and everything found to be correct, he hoped to get thru.

Debate Resumes.

Mr. McDougal, member for East Ottawa, in resuming the budget debate yesterday, contrasted the optimistic tone of the opposition treasurer last week with the previous pessimistic utterances of that gentleman on former occasions. In 1902 Hon. Col. Matheson criticized the expenditures of the late government, and the opposition, which had then taken place, in general aspects, appears to have fallen somewhat into disrepute. It is only a few years ago, a sarcastic German physician said that the accused's own lips in the fact that the uncle was too ill to stand with the prisoner.

A considerable interest is manifest in the trial, as it has been intimated that defence counsel, W. L. Harrington, will dwell largely on the moral aspect of the case, and play up the unwritten law of capital punishment.

Quoting from figures, Mr. McDougal is going the rounds as to whether Dorothy Smart, the prisoner's sister, will stick to the story she told at the preliminary trial. She was married in January to Arthur Brant of the village, and on this account he hinted she might be moved to pity and alter her evidence in order to shield her brother.

The evidence at the preliminary is summed up as follows: On Saturday, Sept. 17, James Sero his wife and their son came to the city. It was their custom, and during their stay Sero and his brother are said to have imbibed rather freely, and on leaving the city were considerably under the weather. All left the city shortly after dark, arriving home about 10 p.m. Sero and his son were the first to leave the brother asleep in the vehicle. Both went into the house with their purchases and found Dorothy Smart, the 15-year-old sister of the prisoner, sitting at the organ in the parlor. James Sero then put the INIAN COMES TO TRIAL FOR MURDER OF UNCLE"Unwritten Law" May Play Big Part in Defence—Sister is the Chief Witness.

BELLEVILLE, March 9.—(Special)—"I expect to hang," is the way the young Mohawk Indian of Tyendinaga Township, views his chances with the jury in the case that is being tried before Justice Teetzel, starting at 9 o'clock to-morrow morn.

Smart is to be tried for the murder of his step-uncle, James Sero, about 50 years old, who was shot down in the night while on his way to his house after putting his horses out.

The above quotation is vouchered for by William Hughes, who spent ten days in close companionship with Smart on a charge of petty theft.

Hughes avers: "If God should strike me dead, that's what he said."

Hughes further explains the motive for the shooting as received from the accused's own lips in the fact that the uncle was too ill to stand with the prisoner.

An inquisitorial interest is manifest in the trial, as it has been intimated that defence counsel, W. L. Harrington, will dwell largely on the moral aspect of the case, and play up the unwritten law of capital punishment.

DOCTORS' CURE PART.

In the middle ages, it was a common belief that a vegetable or plant having some remote resemblance to an organ or part of the human body had a curative effect on that organ. The modern representation of this seems to be with physicians call "organotherapy"—the treatment of an imperfect or diseased organ by the administration of the same organ, or an extract of it, taken from a healthy animal. Altho this has resulted in a number of cures, it has not provided a strong and reliable method of treatment.

KAI SER'S GENEROSITY

Sends $35 to Boy Who Wants to Be Educated.

BERLIN, March 9.—Emperor William received recently this letter:

"My Dear Kaiser—I have often heard of your goodness and kindness, and this gives me courage to write to you. I should like to tell you that I am a school teacher, but my mother is too old to widow and has five other children to rear. Three of them are domestic servants and they are willing out of their wages to help me to continue my studies, but the amount they can give me is far from sufficient. I therefore ask you, dear Mr. Kaiser, to assist me in carrying out my wish to become a school teacher. My respects to yourself and the other Hohenzollerns. Yours, R. R."

The emperor, when he found that the letter was written by a worthy lad of 14 attending the village school in Freisingen, Hohenzollern, sent him a little fellow 150 marks (about $30), enabling him to enter a higher school, the teacher in which were commanded to pay special attention to this pupil.

As that time there were three deaths as a result—Arthur, aged 22; Ralph, aged 11, and a little later, Clarence, aged 10.

Latest reports say that one of the nurses attending them succumbed to the same disease, and that one of the physicians in attendance was seized with the malady.

DID NOT ACCOMPLISH THE PURPOSE.

World Office,
Tuesday Evening, March 9.

The flurry in yesterday's Toronto stock market failed to accomplish the purpose outlined for it. The syndicates which had engineered the movements had to stand underneath the market to-day, and only on this account could speculative prices be said to be steady. In that Twin City showed a decrease in earnings for the last week of February the stock of the company immediately reflected the fact. Transactions were small in the market, and the only firm speculative shares were the two listed Cobalts. Investment purchases were dull, but prices were not shaded on this account.

Weakness Follows Inactivity New York Stocks Are Heavy

Rallies on Wall Street Are Followed by Quick Dips—No Response to Manipulation in Canadians.

World Office,
Tuesday Evening, March 9.

All yesterday's buoyancy was lost in to-day's business. Monday's manipulation not being responded to by outside buyers.

No issue showed as much strength, today as the Dominion Steel shares, which preferred stood to command a high price, while to-day the best bid at the close was 110-12.

The common shares were scarcely as heavy, but the action of the stock was taken as a sure indication that the pool wanted to sell much more than they wanted to buy.

On the Toronto Exchange, manipulation was taken seriously, but the recent operations in the Dominion Steel stocks are regarded by many brokers as a joke, the manipulation being regarded as the work of the newest novice in stock market operations.

In the afternoon the market was semi-centralized because New York became weak, and the transactions became too insignificant to warrant comment.

The small amount of outside offerings is the only strength to present transactions and unless these increase the outsiders will not experience any great difficulty in holding prices.

Newly Listed Issues.

Crown Reserve and the Rogers crown and preferred have been listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

POLICE COURT SYSTEM WILL NOT BE CHANGED

Inspector Hughes and Magistrate Clash Over Children's Courts Streets Are Renamed.

The city will not apply to the legislature this year for power to change the police court system so as to have all indictable offences handled by Magistrate Denison and Kingsford, and more trivial cases dealt with by courts in the police divisions.

There were several reasons why the civic committee decided yesterday to let the proposed reform fizzle for another year. Magistrate Denison admitted he had doubts as to the advisability of the scheme, and Mayor Gowan said that the private bill appeared to rankle, avowed there was no use in the city's going to the legislature again this year. The city solicitor thought a "period of incubation" would do the scheme good.

Inspector Hughes, who was present to advocate Judge Lindsay's plan of a children's court, said Magistrate Denison with having "had a Yankee over from the United States to teach us how to suck eggs."

The inspector replied with dignity that if the magistrate had been reading the English papers as carefully as usual he would have seen an article concerning the children's idea. The aim of moderation was to "leave the boy, not simply to punish him."

The magistrate retorted that the inspector didn't know much about the present children's court in Toronto, and Mr. Hughes replied that he had seen cases of seven children disposed of very summarily.

Ald. Keeeler said he was sorry to see "wearing elements" introduced, but the magistrate and Mr. Hughes hastily disclaimed hostility.

The magistrate repeated, however, that Mr. Hughes didn't know much about the children's court, and "I am not going to make any explanation," he added. "It's a private court. If you want to revise it, I shall be perfectly contented."

Mr. Hughes withdrew with the parting shot. "We're not sucking eggs, altho' it might be good things do."

Children's Court.

The magistrate said the number of police court cases had doubled in ten years, giving these figures: 1899, 935; 1900, 994; 1901, 937; 1902, 10,385; 1903, 11,687; 1904, 13,702; 1905, 15,965; 1906, 15,018; 1907, 17,406; 1908, 18,600.

OPERATORS and PROSPECTORS

The present opportunities for investing in real mining properties at real values have never been surpassed in the history of the great silver camp. This is but natural under present conditions—every day brings to light new and valuable discoveries in the great silverland. Our business is to secure these properties direct from the prospectors and men in the field, our operations on the ground have enabled us to secure some of these on very favorable terms and at reasonable prices. We have a splendid list of properties ranging in value from $100 per claim to $250,000. The former are small claims situated during the winter on which calcite leads are found in the database around Onondaga, Spawning and Hanging Stone Lakes. These properties are practically undeveloped, and when the snow leaves and real prospecting begins, we will probably some of the wonders in the camp. The higher-priced properties are mineral in place, and range in value according to veins, location, etc. We endeavor to secure an engineer's report on all veins before we offer them.

We also insist on reasonable terms and conditions. We believe that the owner does not contain what you want, nor will we state amount you desire to invest, and we will endeavor to satisfy your requirements.

We have the latest maps of Gowanda and Silver Lake districts, as well as town maps.

We do not confine efforts to Gowanda and Elk Lake district, but have properties for sale in Coleman, Bucke, South Lorraine, etc.

MAPS

We have the most complete and up-to-date map of Gowanda and the Silver Lake district. This we may sell at cost, upon receipt of price, $1.25. Every owner and prospector should have one.

CURSE OF THE COUNTRY ARE THE INSECT PESTS

Black Fly in Mining Country and Methods Adopted to Fight Him—Smudging a Tent.

Black Fly—A small dipterous insect (simuliidæ) having with a black body and transparent wings, abounding in mineral and wooded parts of New York, New England and Northern Canada, and exceedingly annoying to both man and beast. It is closely related to the buffalo-gnat.

The big winter fair at Brandon, Man., is on this week. The entries were sufficient by the 24th inst. to fill the building.

When a farmer is satisfied with himself, he begins to shrivel up and don't know it.

H. G. McMillan's sale at Sioux City, Ia., of Percheron stallions and foals recently resulted in the disposal of 121 head for $63,290 or an average price of $523. The notable feature was the sale of Calypso's stock. Twenty of his colts were sold for an average of $664, which was $41 higher than the general average. The sire thus sells for much. Several of these horses came to Canada.

So long as the forests of jack pine and spruce cover the north country, that long will the black-fly think of harassing the men of the north country.

In the first week in June the black fly puts in its appearance, hungry and vicious. He continues to buzz and bite every living thing, until towards the end of July, when the weather has been hot, and dry, his wings and legs become fat, and then he causes little further trouble, then he may hang around as late as the middle of October.

In the meantime the black-fly's flies, are the most terrible flies in the world, and the miner seems to live by the measure of the appetite of these pests of the north country.

Early in the season the black-fly, at his worst and the height of the pestiferous season, if he is holding a gril with both hands, his face becomes covered until he is almost blinded by the biting insects. If he is carrying a pack over a portage, when a bear and wolf are near he is a mass of bites.

He must smear himself with punget oil and get a few minutes respite, but that is the best he may expect.

"When we see the white bloom on the wings of the black-fly we know the world is safe," a representative of the Bartlett Mines, who has spent five years in the north.

"The bite of the black-fly bleeds; but does not penetrate the skin, which causes irritation from the poison which causes the most annoyance. If the blood is in good condition and the man who is bitten exercises some self-restraint, he can counteract the bite to a great extent."

The black fly has had every bite turns into a running sore. Some get badly poisoned, the glands of the face and neck swelling to such an extent as to make them almost unrecognizable.

The most common weapon with which to protect ourselves is the smudge or slow smoky fire made of rotten wood. This fuel does not create the gases which strange one on breathing in the fumes of a great wood fire, and it keeps the flies away.

The sand flies show up in June and last all summer. They are small, but very annoying, their bite being like a pin prick. They get into the ears, the bladders or into one's clothes, and can keep a mate awake all night.

The one effective protection is to wear wet clothes. They will not go into anything that is damp.

Most experienced in the north country have tents specially equipped with a drop curtain of cheese cloth or netting. On entering the tent a smudge is made and as the tent slowly fills with smoke the flies are driven top, the smoke is driven to the ground. The ground then gently fanned with a hand-broom and the insects move out before the front. Violent switching will not do the trick.

During the summer the black-head will drop dead. At this moment the person who was talking to his right-hand neighbor, felt a slight touch on his left arm. He turned, and behold the vicar's pate on a plate. His chisel bow said, "Not thank you, no melon, now, said, "Not thank you, no melon, now, will take some pineapple!" Success!

"Success! I will take some pineapple."

Legislature Leave Choice of Aldermen to City—Smash up Near Unionville.

WEST TORONTO, March 9.—The action of the private bill's committee of the legislature to-day, in refusing to consent to the appointment by statute of two aldermen from ward seven to the city council was received with considerable favor by West Toronto citizens.

There are several good citizens who will be willing to contest the election.

Now that annexation is taking place it would meet with the approval of the people in general if the board of education would retain the teachers in their present positions as principals of the different schools, viz., Mr. McDonald in Annette-street, Miss Cherry in Western-avenue, Mr. Hancock at Carlton, and Mr. Colvin at Louisi-street.

It has been the custom to adopt this course in the recently annexed districts, and it will likely be followed in the case of West Toronto.

The C. P. R. are doing their share to bring about hopefulness for an early return of business prosperity. About 250 of the men employed at the local shop received notice of notice of lay-off yesterday, which for several months has been nine hours, will be changed to-morrow morning to the original ten-hour schedule. The rush of business compels the company to adopt this measure, which is more acceptable to the employees than the putting on of extra gangs.

The manager of Mrs. McGill gave an interesting recital to-night in the College of Music, Dundas-street. There was a large attendance.

Thomas O'Brien and Ross Smith, both of West Toronto, appeared before Police Magistrate Ellis this morning on a charge of trespassing on the G. O. Smith was fined $1 and costs, while O'Brien was remanded till Tuesday next.

A big crowd is expected at the reorganization meeting of the senior Shamrock Lacrosse Club, to be held to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, in the city hall.

Upwards of 60 horses were shipped this afternoon from the Union Stock Yards' Horse Exchange, their destination being the great Northwest.

UNIONVILLE.

Brake Beam Drops Down and Cars Pile Up in a Heap.

UNIONVILLE, March 9.—(Special).—The derailing of a couple of freight cars on a southbound train between this village and Markham during the night blocked Midland traffic for five or six hours.

The train is supposed to have been caused by the dropping of a brake beam and the turning of the box car crosswise of the track piled a number of other cars on top.

No loss of life resulted, tho a brakeman riding on top of a car had a short distance behind him thrown up.

An accident of a similar nature occurred a short distance west less than a year ago.

In compliance also with a resolution of the Ratepayers' Association, a large number of the pupils received their supplies free of charge. Mr. Swanton further stated that tenders were asked for the grading of Bartlett-avenue School grounds and the paving of the half-centre-street School sidewalk. Local men were given the preference and tenders were not asked outside the section. At the regular monthly meeting of the Canadian Purity Education Association in Gulf Hall last night, Rev. Ebenezer Crumley, D.D., spoke on "The School and Purity Education." Twenty-six of the members were present, and a program formulated. A road race will be held on or about May 24; lacrosse, baseball and football are being arranged in their respective seasons.

Rev. Dr. Cummy's Practical Suggestion For the Improving the Morality of the Young.

He spoke of the difficulty experienced by the Purity Association in dealing with the cases which came to its notice. The impracticality and lack of common sense of many mothers was depicted as a bar to effective action.

The Purity Association, he said, had no practical recognition on the grounds that impurity was a menace to the manhood of the country.

"We will never approximate the best kind of school life until we do until the school teacher becomes in some sense an intellectual pastor." The teacher was advised to get to know the parents of the children, and seek to obtain some influence in the home. Independent work was an excellent lesson to all students. If so much mere instruction were all that was aimed at in the schools, he doubted whether it was worth the trouble.

The association, he said, wished to inform the department of education must come with definite proposals and not vague ideas.

If the school does not supply information on sexual questions, he said, it is also not wise, however, to anticipate too far any of the conscious functions of life. It was a species of unconscious deception to pledge children against evils which they had no present desire to commit, he said.
