Change at Vatican?

Cardinal Falconio's Name Mentioned as Secretary

NEW YORK STORY FROM ROME

Report Says Some Cardinals Do Not Agree That Present Policy is Best For Church and That They Want Cardinal Merry Del Val to Retire

(Canadian Press)

New York, June 25—A cable to the Tribune from Rome says:

For some time past reports have been current that several powerful members of the College of Cardinals have determined to demand from the Pope the removal of Cardinals Merry Del Val and De Lai from their present places of practically omnipotent power. These reports, emanating from circles known to be hostile to the Vatican, were first set down as mere anti-clerical scandal and nobody paid much attention to them. Now it seems that they are far from fully covering the gravity of the break between the liberal and ultra-conservative wings of the church.

Cardinal Merry Del Val is the accepted leader of the latter party. Cardinal Rampolla is the leader of the liberals. Through a visit of Cardinal Rampolla to the Pope yesterday, the facts are made more fully available and these come from sources which can be considered almost semi-official.

Cardinal Rampolla and those who agree with him hold that the manner in which Cardinals Del Val and De Lai are prosecuting their campaign against modernism, is likely to embroil the Vatican in further disputes, such as those between the church in France and Portugal and Spain. The liberal cardinals do not suggest that Cardinals Del Val and De Lai must be superseded. De Lai have been induced by other cardinals to give up their office as the highest of offices which is the position coming from anti-Vatican quarters but they do contend that if Pope Pius is to realize his desire to "reform all things in Christ," Cardinals Del Val and De Lai must be superseded. It has been proposed to Pope Pius to appoint either Cardinal Vincenzo Vannelli or Cardinal Ferrata as papal secretary of state. The Pope is distressed by the situation and has endeavored to conciliate the two parties but without success.

Cardinal Falconio Spoken of To Canadians and Americans the most interesting fact, which has just come to light is that as a direct result of Cardinal Rampolla's conference with His Holiness yesterday, Cardinal Falconio, secretary of state, is to be called to direct the traffic of the Vatican. Pope Pius, it is said, himself suggested Cardinal Falconio as a compromise secretary. The latter is likely to rest for a few days, as a final decision cannot be long delayed.

It is believed that another consistory will be held in October, and that nine cardinals will be elevated on this occasion to the sacred college.

NO ARRANGEMENT FOR THE G.T.P. TO COME TO ST. JOHN?

What Did Mr. Gutelius Mean By Statement Made at Interview in Fredericton?

(Special To Times)

Fredericton, N. B., June 25—An incident which occurred during the recent visit of Hon. Frank Cochrane and General Manager Gutelius here has been much discussed in business circles. A delegation of the Board of Trade urged Fredericton's claims to increased railway terminals. A member changed to let a remark that it would be necessary to prepare for the entrance of the G. T. P. into Fredericton when he was brought up rather sharply by Mr. Gutelius with the enquiry as to the source of his information.

The general manager went on to say that there had been no arrangements made whatever for the entry of the G. T. P. to either Fredericton or St. John nor had it been decided to establish connection with the Valley Railway. The delegation did not receive much encouragement from the interview.

IN FULL SWING

THE TENTED FIELD OF CAMP SUSSEX

Sussex, N. B., June 25—The big military camp was in full swing today. There was a general muster of troops this morning, and the regular parade duties were begun today.

The infantry were engaged in knots about the grounds, being put through the primary intricacies of drill by their instructors. The artillery manoeuvred in Morrison's field, while the cavalry brigade, the first for such at Camp Sussex had their first drill today also. For the start the drilling was in squads in almost every case, and this will be continued until the men have become more proficient.

Fine weather prevailed today, and in fact the weather has been most pleasant since the troops first came to camp. For a time last evening rain fell, but did not interfere with the opening of the camp. The men have quickly fallen in pace with the routine of camp work and are grappling with their duties in most commendable manner. Some of the men of the 8th Hussars this morning went to the range and shot the required number of rounds, this being the first target shooting done since the opening of the camp. So far there has been no sickness. One patient was in the hospital yesterday, but the illness was not serious.

DEATH ON STEAMER Geo. Bell, who was employed on the S. S. Kanawha, running a donkey engine, died suddenly about 5 o'clock last evening. He was not feeling well in the afternoon, but after summoning a physician appeared all right. The body was removed to the undertaking rooms of N. W. Brennan. The funeral will be held from there tomorrow.

General Expectation of World Peace—The French President's Visit—Rumer Again That John Burns Will Retire From The British Government

(Times' Special Cable)

London, Eng., June 25—The empire's metropolis is this week charged with an optimism which has been absent for some time, while the city, bedecked with flags and packed with enormous crowds, is shouting its hearty approval in honor of the French president.

Responsible politicians and financiers declare they believe that the darkest clouds which have recently threatened Europe have passed, and, although the situation in eastern Europe is still uncertain, there is now a general expectation that peace will be maintained.

The London financiers will go slow for weeks to come, but the feared general financial debacle has been escaped. President Poincare has made an antagonistic sense and there is a genuine feeling of good impression here, but the English press today, while lavishing its praise on the president and smiling at the situation, is not without its criticism of interpreting the entente in an antagonistic sense and there is a genuine anxiety here that nothing be done during the present visit that may give reasonable excuse for checking improved Anglo-German relations.

Will Burns Leave Cabinet? Politically both are taking a breathing time after the strenuous Marconi controversy. The clubs are once more full of rumors that John Burns will leave the cabinet and that his place at the local government board will be taken by Lord George. Many Liberals, including the most influential of Liberal daily papers, declare that Burns, by his unfriendly attitude towards the prominent reforms proposed by his colleagues and by his cautious and conservative official attitude towards the Marconi bill, rather than a help to the government.

Sir Archibald Hunter to Resign Because of Protests Against His Speech

London, June 25—The Times says that Sir Archibald Hunter, governor of Gibraltar, will resign at the end of June and will be succeeded by Sir Herbert Miles.

A few months ago the governor delivered to a deputation from the Gibraltar board of commerce, a speech in which he criticized the attitude of the chamber towards his own measures of reform and commented severely on the working of the jury system, imputing to native jurors partiality in favor of native residents as opposed to the English.

These expressions of opinion created indignation among the inhabitants and London to say in memoranda before Mr. Harcourt, the colonial secretary.

INCINERATOR PLANT

Specifications Received Here; First Matter is Site

Specifications for the construction of an incinerator plant at St. John, submitted by the city commissioners this morning by the commissioner of public works who has had the matter in hand. Details of the plants which they would erect here were received from the Grison Russell Company, the Sterling Destructor Company and the A. H. Reid Incinerator Construction Company.

After some consideration of the plans the commissioners decided that the first step to be taken was the selection of a site and this will be done before going any further. As soon as they can find the time the commissioners will take an afternoon to look for a site which will offer the greatest advantages and cause the fewest objections.

It was held this year at the Foreign Office, where the general Italianate Hall lent itself peculiarly for such gatherings. FOUR ARE KILLED, FOUR MISSING AND SIXTY INJURED

Terrific Explosion in Buffalo Grain Elevator Causes Loss of Life—Many of Injured Will Die

Buffalo, June 24.—There are sixty injured in the various hospitals of the city, half of whom, according to hospital physicians, are so badly burned that they have but slight chances of recovery. The result of an explosion late today in the elevator and grain storehouse of the Husted Milling Company, at 22 1/2 and Peabody streets. Fire followed the explosion and destroyed the wooden section of the elevator.

Sixty were taken to various hospitals, some in a serious condition from burns, and broken legs and arms. At the scene of the accident a priest administered the last rites to twenty-five men who were believed at the time to be mortally hurt. The ultimate death list may reach fifteen as an estimate reached by a census of the widely scattered hospitals where the injured were taken.

The explosion was caused by dust accumulations in the feed house and was of frightful force, tearing out the north wall of the wooden structure and breaking windows for a quarter of a mile around.

John Conroy, engineer of a switch engine on the New York, Chicago & St. Louis railroad, was blown from his cab and received internal injuries from which it is reported, he cannot recover.

Every ambulance in the city was in commission. A twelve-year-old unidentified boy, running to the fire, was struck by an automobile and instantly killed.

An alarm was also rung in from Hospital street last evening but the assistance of the department was not required, fire in a chimney being the full extent of the trouble.

Hartley Howe, a former ball player who was sentenced a short time ago to serve ten months in jail for drunkenness and who had been put to work painting the iron bars outside the jail made good his escape yesterday while two guards were close by. William Cox of the fire department saw the man dressed in the jail uniform running along King street East towards Courtenay Bay and informed the guards.

In the police court yesterday afternoon James Morash, charged with setting fires, Lillian Vanwart charged with wandering about the streets and not giving a satisfactory account of herself and May Robinson charged with using threatening language were brought in and they were all further remanded. Famous Dancer Gives Complexion Secrets

(Allen Moore in Beauty's Mirror.) I've learned the secret of Dolores' entrancing beauty—the wondrous charms that has dazzled the courts of Europe and captivated vast audiences everywhere. The famous dancer, although ravaged by the ravages of time, retains the incomparable complexion best described as "indescribable." An intimate friend tells me the secret regularly uses on her face what druggists know as mercurized wax. This is applied at night in the manner cold cream is used and washed off in the morning. It absorbs the dead particles of skin which daily appear and a fair, soft, fresh, girlish complexion is always in evidence.

A committee consisting of Warden Carson, Councilors Agar and McLellan was appointed to investigate the needs of the institution and to report on the best plan to be followed, as well as on the city's right to appropriate land for the purpose. Their report will be submitted at the next regular meeting of the council on July 16.

Advertisement for Kellogg's Corn Flakes. The headline reads "Why should any other cereal be called 'just as good' as Kellogg's CORN FLAKES". The text explains that Kellogg's is known to be the best and most nutritious cereal on the market. It also mentions that because of the sale of Kellogg's Corn Flakes, enormous trade returns will show. The advertisement highlights that because another large modern factory, the best and most sanitary in Canada had to be built to take care of the constantly increasing trade. It also notes that because the imitator, knowing these facts and having few selling arguments for his own product thinks to create a market for it by comparing it to Kellogg's. The text concludes with "But--the flavor and the sustaining qualities of Kellogg's Corn Flakes cannot be counterfeited. Sold in big packages at 10c. Look for the signature."

Daily Hints For the Cook

RHODE ISLAND ESCALLOP Bake 4 medium-sized sweet potatoes, scrape out the potato and chop it into bits. Boil 2 or 3 ears of corn, cut off the kernels and mix it with the chopped sweet potato. Butter 8 individual dishes and fill them with the mixed corn and potato, sprinkled with salt. Pour 1 tablespoon butter over each, and let cook for 8 or 10 minutes in the oven. The same mixture may be used to fill a baking dish and enough melted butter used to moisten the potato thoroughly.

RASPBERRY NEGUS Take three quarts of red raspberries and two pounds of sugar. Moisten the sugar with the juice of four lemons and set on the back of the stove to gradually melt. When this is done add the fruit and allow all to boil for 10 minutes. Now cut up the rind of one lemon and add to the hot raspberries. Let stand all night. In the morning mash thoroughly with a pounder and strain through a sieve. Bring to boiling point and bottle. When using it as a drink allow one tablespoon to a glass of water and a leaf of fresh mint slightly bruised.

HUSBAND TIRED OF SEEING HER SUFFER

Prepared Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which made His Wife a Well Woman.

Middletown, Pa.—"I had headache, backache and such awful bearing down pains that I could not be on my feet at times and I had organic inflammation so badly that I was not able to do my work. I could not get a good meal for my husband and one child. My neighbors said they thought my suffering was terrible. 'My husband got tired of seeing me suffer and one night went to the drug store and got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me I must take it. I can't tell you all I suffered and I can't tell you all that your medicine has done for me. I was greatly benefited from the first and it has made me a well woman. I can do all my housework and even helped some of my friends as well. I think it is a wonderful help to all suffering women. I have got several to take it after seeing what it has done for me.'—Mrs. EMMA ESPENSHADE, 219 East Main St., Middletown, Pa.

The Pinkham record is a proud and honorable one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of woman—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (consultants) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

PREDICTS DRY SUMMERS UNTIL THE YEAR 1935

French Astronomer Says Series of Wet Summers is Eased

Paris, June 25—Wet summers are to disappear till 1935, according to the Abbe Moreaux, a French astronomer, whose claims to attention are that he professes to have predicted in the press the earthquakes of Messina and San Francisco.

The Abbe declares that the series of wet summers which we have had in recent years is to give way to a dry period lasting to 1935. The effect of this approaching dry period will be felt from now onwards. Rain will be less frequent, there will be less humidity in the air, and good vintage years and good crops are promised in consequence.

Earthquakes and magnetic storms are to precede the dry period, however, and explosions of fireamp will be frequent during the years 1914 to 1919.

THE ARCHBISHOP OBJECTED; MR. DESAULNIERS WITHDREW

Why One Number on Laval University Hall Programme Was Not Given

Montreal, June 25—Seeing the name of Gonzalve Desaulniers on the programme of a concert given last night in the Laval University Hall by the St. Jean Baptiste Association, His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi, warned those in charge that, unless the declamation which Mr. Desaulniers was to give was cancelled, the association would not be permitted to use the hall.

Mr. Desaulniers withdrew, but said he reserved his right to register a protest with His Grace in the form of a letter, and to inform the provincial government of the occurrence, as the government subsidizes Laval.

The position taken by Mgr. Bruchesi is said to be as follows: Gonzalve Desaulniers not being in good standing with the Catholic Church, His Grace does not consider that it would be proper for that gentleman to appear at an entertainment given in a Catholic University, although it is stated that His Grace has never questioned anyone's right to entertain any religious views he may see fit.

CAPITALISTS AND THE WEST Some of the British capitalists who have investigated conditions in western Canada have issued another warning against the reckless borrowing of the prairie cities. Even the small and obscure towns of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta have been able to secure any amount of British money for their miles of paving, street railway services and handsome public buildings, at abnormally low rates of interest. In fact, their credit in the British money market has been almost on a par with that of many of the large cities in England, and British financial houses have been bidding against one another for the privilege of enabling them to enjoy as speedily and cheaply as possible the latest and most up-to-date blessings of municipal enterprise.

There has been a sudden check to this indiscriminate lending, and the capitalists abroad are evidently under an attempt to compel the western cities to proceed at a slower pace with their public improvements. If the people of the west are disappointed in being refused the money they ask for, even though they are willing to pay ten per cent interest, they have no one to blame but themselves, for while much of the real estate put on the market has been legitimate and highly profitable, unscrupulous land dealers have sold to far off investors thousands of lots represented to be town property that in reality were from one to five miles out in the country. In some of these speculative ventures people were recklessly pouring millions of dollars, and the western cities, as well as their honest real estate operators, suffered for the crimes of the unprincipled land agent.

Mr. J. B. Fifth, a competent British observer, declares that this was the real cause of the decision of British capitalists to adopt more conservative measures. He, however, has no fears for Canada's future, and believes that we have a solid basis of prosperity and a sure hope for rapid development. "The Dominion," he points out, "has an area of 3,748,000 square miles and comprises one-sixteenth of the land surface of the globe. With a territory as large as Europe, Canada has a population of only 7,750,000. Her net public debt is only $300,000,000, or only $45 per head of her population, while her annual income from agriculture, mining, forest products, fisheries and manufactures is close upon $1,500,000,000, or about $200 per head of the population. Deducting $100,000,000 a year as the payment for her indebtedness for interest to British and foreign creditors, and there still remains a net income of $1,400,000,000, or $174 per head. Assuming the national wealth of Canada to be eight times the amount of her net income, and we have the impressive total of $11,200,000,000, or $1,400 per head of the population. Canada has, moreover, a comfortable surplus of revenue over expenditure in her annual budget and her burden of taxation is relatively light. For a country so fortunately situated the bursting of an inflated real estate bubble can only be a temporary disaster and one that can hardly fail to carry with it a valuable lesson. How much the lesson is needed may be inferred from the fact that as high as $5,000 a foot has been paid for land in the choicest part of Calgary, and that in an obscure little town a corner lot 100 feet by 100 feet has commanded as high a price as $60,000. In parts of Edmonton land has been held as high as if it were in the heart of New York or London, and in Winnipeg and Montreal there are sites which their owners would scarcely exchange for a similar surface on Cornhill in the British metropolis."

In other words, it is caution not fear that prompts the British money-lenders to demand a slower but surer pace in western development. But the fact that Canada is a debtor country and likely to remain so for many years to come need cause no alarm because it is a natural condition of growth.

SHIPS AND SAILORS According to the Britannica Year-book for 1913, Greenock and Belfast built more merchant tonnage last year than the total of the United States, Middleborough and Hartlepool more than France, and Glasgow, Newcastle and Sunderland districts more than Germany. The building of ships in the United States increased last year, due to the construction of vessels to engage in traffic through the Panama Canal, and that water-way has also been responsible for rapid increases in Germany.

Thirty years ago the American flag could be seen in every port of consequence in the world. Her ships then directed the carrying trade with England. Merchants in those days preferred shipping their cargoes by American bottoms to employing ships of any other nationality. Foreigners preferred sailing under the Stars and Stripes because both wages and food were better than anything that could be obtained on their own ships. She possessed not only the

She—Is your brother, who is deaf, any better? He—Yes. He was arrested yesterday, and I'm told he is to get his hearing in the morning.—Brooklyn Citizen.

A young gentleman of the colored persuasion had promised his girl a pair of white gloves for a Christmas gift. Entering a large department store, he at last found the counter where these goods were displayed, and, approaching rather hesitatingly, remarked, "Ah, want a pair of gloves?" "How long do you want them?" inquired the businesslike clerk.

"Ah, doesn't want 'em to rent 'em; Ah wants 'em to buy 'em," replied the other, indignantly.—Harper's Magazine.

An Irish member of parliament is telling a story of a man who complained to three friends—an Englishman, a Scotchman and an Irishman—that his servant was constantly breaking china. "What do you think I ought to do with her?" he asked, plaintively. "The practical Englishman said, 'Dismiss her!' But as she was otherwise an excellent servant her master was unwilling to do that."

"Then take it out of her wages," suggested the thrifty Scot. "I am glad to make you much good," was the reply, "for her wages are less than the amount of damage she does." "Then raise her wages!" said the Irish man, promptly.

The editor of a great magazine sent for a certain author who had submitted an unsolicited manuscript. "I am glad to see your acquaintance, sir," said the editor, enthusiastically. "The story you sent us is perfectly splendid! But why use a non-descript name? Let us publish it over your own name and it will make you famous."

"I'm not after fame," objected the author. "It's money I want." "But you'll get just as much money in either case."

"No, I won't. If I publish it over my own name my wife will get the money."

KEEPER OF CONSCIENCE OF THE KAISER WILHELM Rev. Dr. Dryander of Prussian House of Lords Has Strong Hold on Emperor's Good Will (Times' Special Correspondence) Berlin, June 10.—His Excellency, Dr. Ernst Dryander, member of Prussia's House of Lords, Knight of the Red Eagle, who has just performed the marriage ceremony for "the little princess," has received affectionate telegrams from Kaiser Wilhelm, from the Kaiserin, from the crown prince, from everyone else who counts. The occasion is his seventh birthday. Doctor Dryander is the important man who keeps the Kaiser's conscience. He is Wilhelm's intimate confidant in all problems of the soul. He is, further, executive officer in court religious ceremonies. In twenty-three years he has christened twelve Hohenzollerns, confirmed eight, married twelve, and buried five. Dr. Dryander became chief of Prussian clerics and keeper of the Kaiser's conscience against his own determined will. He wanted a humble life. He was the son of Rev. Hermann Dryander, and his mother was a sister of Minister Delbrueck, Bismarck's chief henchman in inner politics. Perhaps his mother's highly placed relatives helped Doctor Dryander against his will, for he started church life as assistant preacher in Berlin Cathedral. Next he went to Bonn as chaplain of the university. There Doctor Dryander met his fate. Among Bonn's students was a thin, ill-grown, bright-eyed, imperious youth with an unattractive passion for listening to persons. It was the future Wilhelm II, who heard, saw and was conquered by Doctor Dryander's eloquence. And soon Doctor Dryander, again against his will, was taken to Berlin to preach in Trinity Church, the church of the great Schliemann, who founded modern Protestant theology. And in 1888 when the post of Cathedral Ephorus and Court Chaplain became vacant, Prince Wilhelm, now the German Kaiser, insisted that Doctor Dryander should take it. Dr. Dryander thus began by winning the Kaiser. He next set out to win the Kaiserin. Pious, unmixt piety, with tincture of worldliness, or politics, or personal ambition is the foible of Kaiserin Augusta Victoria and Doctor Dryander's own words "the reverend Doctor Dryander is the holiest man in Prussia." Outside religion in the narrow sense, the bond which unites the two is charity. Doctor Dryander is a great organizer of charity, and he started to show the Kaiserin how she could reform her charities, and put them on a proper, religious foundation. Doctor Dryander confirmed his hold on the Kaiserin by his Christian humility. It happened in connection with the Kaiserin's orphan school at Potsdam. Doctor Dryander took a fierce dislike to the persons in the management, and he criticized them severely, and had the Kaiser entrust the work to others. Then he found out that he had misjudged the first lot, and that the second lot were carried on between 6:32 p. m. and 6 a. m. H. B. SCHOFIELD, Commissioner. 6816-6-28.

DEATH CLAIMS

REV. DR. McLEOD

Leader in Baptist Church in This Province

45 YEARS OF SERVICE

Pastor, Editor and Temperance Worker—Held High Place in Esteem of Fellow Citizens of All Denominations

After serving forty-five years in the Baptist ministry and a similar period in editorial chairs of religious organs, Rev. Joseph McLeod, D.D., passed away at his home in King street last yesterday afternoon, closing one of the greatest careers in the religious life of the province. He was born in this city on June 27, 1844, the son of the late Ezekiel McLeod, who was for many years pastor of the Waterloo street Baptist church.

For twenty-six years after his ordination to the gospel ministry in 1868, he was pastor of the George street Baptist church of Fredericton. Since his resignation from the pastorate of that church he has still remained a member, although he has been in St. John for seven years. In the editorial chair of the Religious Intelligencer, founded by his father in 1856, he had a brilliant career, and more recently as the editor of the Maritime Baptist he served most faithfully in strengthening the bonds between the Baptists and the Free Baptists, which union he himself was instrumental in bringing about.

His Death Unexpected.
Dr. McLeod had been ill for only a short time, and his recovery was looked forward to. Yesterday, however, he took a turn for the worse, and died about 4 o'clock. Not only those of his own denomination but friends everywhere throughout the province will deeply regret his death. He was a man well informed on all present day topics, and always a fascinating companion. As a preacher he was most thoughtful and forcible, far above the average. He preached in Exeter Hall, London, at the time of the king's coronation. As editor of his denominational organ, the Maritime Baptist, he gave week after week a paper of very high order, and held the constituency as few of his predecessors in the editorial chair have done. He was a man of kindly disposition, a true friend always, and of unblemished character.

Free Baptist Leader.
Before the union of the Baptist and the Free Baptist he was the leading representative of the Free Baptist denomination in the province, and he led that body in the movement for union, and through his paper was the chief influence in bringing it about. Since the union he has been one of the outstanding figures of the united body, contributing more to the blending of the two bodies, through his editorial influence, than any other man.

When serving as editor of the Religious Intelligencer he made that paper a great influence with the Free Baptist families, and there were many homes which knew no other paper. At the time of its foundation by the late Dr. McLeod's father until the broader days of union. Dr. McLeod made frequent visits to country churches in the smaller settlements, and many backwoods gatherings in tiny school houses were electrified by his power and eloquence. His visits to these isolated communities were events long to be remembered, so cheering and inspiring were his vigorously expressed views of what was going on in the wider world of letters and politics. At the annual district meetings his was the gripping figure and his the commanding voice calling his hearers to more aggressive work for temperance and for his God. Honored, indeed, was the home in the community which gave him shelter.

Besides his wife, who was formerly Jane Fulton Squires, Dr. McLeod is survived by five children, Hon. H. F. McLeod, of Fredericton, provincial secretary; Mrs. Maurice White, of South Africa; Mrs. J. Frederick Boyer, of Victoria, Carleton county; Norman F. McLeod, of West St. John, an ex-aiderman of the city; and Mrs. Blanchard Fowler, of St. John. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at the residence of his son, Hon. H. F. McLeod, in Fredericton. Accompanied by the family, the body will be taken tonight to Fredericton.

Rev. Joseph McLeod was a son of the late Rev. Ezekiel McLeod, Baptist minister, founder and editor of The Religious Intelligencer, Fredericton. He was born in St. John, June 27, 1844, educated at the public schools, Baptist Seminary, and the Baptist Institute, Fredericton, and had the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity conferred upon him by Acadia University in 1886. He was married in 1868 to Miss Jane Fulton Squires, and in the same year was ordained and became pastor of the Free Baptist church, Fredericton. He was made chaplain of the New Brunswick Legislature in 1878. After retiring from active work in the ministry in 1890, Dr. McLeod spent his whole time to journalism, succeeding his father as editor of the Intelligencer, which paper, together with the Messenger and Visitor, was afterwards amalgamated with the Maritime Baptist, of which he was made first assistant editor, and since 1909 editor-in-chief.

ANNE ABBOTT AT OPERA HOUSE TOMORROW.

Tomorrow is the day that the famous Georgia Magnet, Anne Abbott, opens a special three days' engagement at the Opera House. Readers are again reminded by the management that the performance to be given by Miss Abbott is entirely unlike any other seen in St. John for a number of years. Miss Abbott does not come under the heading of a hypnotist, a strong woman, or a mind reader in the amusement world, but as a freak of nature, possessing a power that at once mystifies and entertains. Intending patrons may therefore look forward to something entirely away from the beaten path, and also a mild sensation.

Deely and Adams will also appear on the programme, offering a one-act comedy playlet, with three motion picture subjects of more than ordinary merit. Matinees will begin daily at 8 o'clock, evenings, first performance at 7.30 and second at 9. The prices of admission for the afternoons and evenings are at a scale that will prove popular.

WHEN HUSBANDS OVERWORK

No true wife will allow her husband to lay waste his life by unceasing work day after day, so that his life slips away without his having the leisure to enjoy it. Yet it is too often the case that a wife will force her husband into this dangerous path instead of keeping him in check. She sees that his excessive work brings in money plentifully and spends it lavishly, regardless of the harm he does himself in providing for her whims. Some men are so absorbed in money-getting for the sake of their families that their homes have become little more than a sleeping place, their chief function in which is to place the bills.

den by Rev. J. Irvin Walker in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The bride looked charming in a traveling suit of pearl grey over a blouse of white chiffon trimmed with Irish lace and pink satin with large black picture hat and carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair ferns. The bride entered the church with her brother-in-law, A. T. Wilson, by whom she was given away. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the Union depot where Mr. and Mrs. McPhaden left by the C. T. P., followed by the good wishes of a host of friends, for Saskatoon where they will reside. The bride was the recipient of a large number of useful and costly gifts.

GETTING ON RAPIDLY IN PAVEMENT WORK

This will be a separate contract and tenders will be closed this morning, but, as the commissioners are awaiting the arrival of a bid which has been forwarded by the Warren Bitulthule Company they will not be opened until tomorrow. It is believed that the total cost of the work will be slightly in excess of the engineer's estimate.

STORIES OF PRENCH PRESIDENT

Simplicity of Life and Concentration of Purpose Mark M. Poincare
(London Tit-Bits)
Concentration and simplicity of life and manners are the most marked characteristics of M. Raymond Poincare, the French president.

"I like to feel that people know me," he says, "but I don't like them to think it necessary to take off their hats to me."

Poincare had not been president half an hour before he announced that the traffic must not be stopped when his carriage drove by. All that he would accept was that his carriage should be given precedence over other vehicles at the moment it passed, and the Paris police have instructions to allow no more favor than that of the president's equipage. Furthermore, he has expressed the outsider who preceded the carriage on state occasions, and reduced a stable of twelve horses to four.

Discharged the Sentry
He assumed the presidential officials at the Elysee Palace by strongly objecting to the presence of the Municipal Guard who is supposed to sleep outside the president's bedroom.

"It has always been the rule," said the officials, when M. Poincare objected to the sentry, that he should be discharged. The president allowed it for one night, and then quietly sent the soldier back to the barracks.

M. Poincare's simplicity of life is well illustrated by a remark made by his cook when she heard that he would probably be the next French president.

"I hope he will not be elected," she said. "Both he and Madame will be very unhappy at the Elysee, that I am sure. Just think!—all that they ordered yesterday was beefsteak and fried potatoes!"

And M. Poincare certainly lives his own fireside—and his pets.

As a boy at the Dame's school of Mlle. Marc de Lorraine, he delighted in the society of his dog Pompon, a parrot, a squirrel, and several cats and canaries. Today his favorite companions are Scott, his collie, his faithful watchdog, Brave which guards his country house at Samigny, and his Siamese cat, Gris-gris; and there is nothing which M. Poincare likes more than to spend a quiet evening with his books and four-footed companions.

The French president has always believed in the strenuous life. In that belief lies the secret of his success. From his mother he acquired the habit of early rising, and even today as chief of the French Republic, he continues to leave his bed at five o'clock in the morning.

Phenomenal Rise
His success in politics has been phenomenal. At thirty he attained cabinet rank, and at thirty-four was minister of finance. For several years he withdrew from active politics and devoted himself to legal work, which brought him £12,000 to £20,000 a year. He showed conspicuous success in big commercial cases, and judges would shrink from questioning Poincare's law, which was always sure to be sound.

That he is a man of his word the following little incident shows. He promised to attend a public dinner, but was detained by business. Accordingly he sent his secretary to take his place at the table and announce that he might be expected at ten o'clock. Doubts of his coming were expressed, but the secretary spoke confidently.

"M. Poincare will come," he said. "He will be here at ten to the minute."

In due course the clock struck ten, and M. Poincare was still invisible. The secretary was chafed on the subject, but he did not lose confidence.

"M. Poincare is here," he said, "but he is waiting for the music to stop before he will appear."

The music stopped, and as the last note died away M. Poincare walked in.

In every age the vilest specimens of human nature are to be found among emperors.

Champion Tiger Stick Artist Seriously Considered Specializing in Surgery Before Adopting Baseball

Reticent to the point of being bashful, Tyrus Raymond Cobb, probably the greatest all around ball player that baseball has ever known, would rather discuss any subject than his own exploits.

"I was born at Narrows, Banks county, Georgia, December 18, 1886. Shortly afterward my parents moved to Cornersville, Ga. It was there that I started to play ball."

"Next, I wrote to 'Con' Strouthers, manager of the Augusta, Ga. team. He considered my application for a long time before replying that, if I would pay my own expenses to Augusta and while there on trial he would look me over."

"I had been playing with Sheffield baseball. I calculated that by the time I was 80, provided I made good, I would have enough money saved if properly invested to guarantee me at least a moderate income. For that reason baseball won the toss."

Owing to the fact that the Dominion convention of the Life Insurance Underwriters is to be held this year in Ottawa from August 19 to 21, the plans for the maritime convention, which was to have been held in St. John this month, have been abandoned. Kieran Kelly of Amherst will arrive in the city in the course of a few days to take over the management of the Opera House, in succession to D. H. McDonald, who has removed to Sydney, N. S.

Mr. Kelly came to this territory from New York about two or three years ago to enter the employ of F. G. Spencer in the management of the Unique and Lyric Theatres, and was later placed in care of Mr. Spencer's Amherst houses, where he has been very successful.

Mr. Kelly has, it is said, a large experience in every branch of the theatrical business in different parts of the United States and for five years occupied an important position in connection with the Century Theatre, Brooklyn, which is reputed to be one of the most successful dramatic stock theatres in the state.

The Amherst exchanges contain many expressions of regret at the departure of Mr. Kelly from that place, and refer to his going, as a loss to the town.

FINE SCHOOL CAREER

More Boys Than Usual Among the Graduates This Year—Rev. F. S. Porter to Address Them at Closing—The St. Vincent's Graduates

D. Gordon Willett has the honor of leading the High School graduating class this year and will read the valedictory at the closing exercises on Friday. Mr. Willett has had a brilliant record throughout his whole High School course. He won the corporation medal for the highest standing on the High School entrance papers. In Grade IX he took the alumnae prize and in Grade X the governor-general's silver medal for the best average on the special examinations.

The graduating class this year consists of about seventy pupils of whom an unusually large number are boys. The motto of the class is the old Latin proverb: "Faber Suae Fortunaes" ("Each man is the maker of his destiny.") The class pins, which have just arrived from Montreal, are of a very pretty design.

The address to the graduating class will be given this year by Rev. F. S. Porter, pastor of the German street Baptist church.

There will be but one session when the schools close on Friday. Special exercises will be held in St. Vincent's as well as the High School and the usual interesting programme will be held in all the other city schools.

The examinations at the High School have all been completed. The special examinations for the alumnae medal in Grade IX were written by fourteen students. Eight competed for the Grade X silver medal. The results of these papers will be announced during the vacation. The schools will re-open on August 28. At St. Vincent's

Bridges; presentation of St. Vincent's gold medal to Miss Julia Cleary, Class '12, by Bishop LeBlanc; presentation of the Ellis gold medal to Miss Julia Cleary Class '12, by Hon. J. V. Ellis, L.L.D. In the evening the graduating class will assemble in Keith's assembly rooms where a banquet and reception will be tendered them by the St. Vincent's Alumnae.

TWO ROUSING SHIRT BARGAINS FOR MEN

Yesterday, when the news of this sale became known, men began streaming in. Not only men, but their wives and sisters. We told you how that a large Shirt manufacturer on taking stock, June first, found that he had more Summer Negligee Shirts on hand than he thought he should, and to get rid of them he offered us the lot at a figure much less than the actual cost of manufacture to him; we took the lot, thus this sale. They're made of the finest percale, madras and chambray with attached cuffs, beautifully made too, and splendidly finished. New, attractive patterns that are neat and genteel. Men who are shrewd buy not alone for now but also for coming needs.

In placing them on sale we grade them in two lots and price them as follows:—
Lot 1.—$1.25 to $1.50 Negligee Shirts at 78c
