The County Council.

Gaol Further Postponed Large Deficit.

Carleton County Council met at Upper Woodstock on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. All the members of the Board excepting Coun. Lamont of Aberdeen, who is visiting in Scotland were present. It is impossible for the ADVERTISER to give a full report of the proceedings in this issue, but following is an outline, and a fuller account will be given later.

Through Coun White, David Irvine claimed he had not been paid for the work of making voter's list for 1894. After much discussion by different Councillors his claim was referred to a committee who recommended it be paid.

Last session a committee was appointed to ascertain the cost of securing plans of the original parish grants. It was found they could be bought for from $110 to $175 and a set owned by J. N. W. Winslow was shown. Price $110. Laid over until January session.

By motion of Councillor White it was decided to let the printing of accounts and council reporting out by contract.

The report of the special auditor, Col. Vince, appointed to examine the books of the late Secy-Treas. Jones showed that there was a deficiency of $4,382.34 Col Vince said there was not the slightest evidence to show that Mr. Jones wanted to cover up anything in the accounts. This matter was referred to the finance committee who interviewed L. P. Fisher one of the bondsmen, who would not admit a deficiency as the council all along had accepted the auditor's report. The committee also interviewed W. P. and T. M. Jones, sons of the deceased who insist the total deficiency shall be paid. The report was filed.

Several bills were passed including one for $175 for the flag presented to the 67th Battalion.

Coun. Mooers thought Auditor Watts should be asked to resign. On being called to speak Mr. Watts said he considered himself not to blame, he had only been following a system he always held to be wrong and at the same time a system which was approved or passed by the council. He tendered his resignation.

Town Councillors Carr and Graham were heard who asked for a committee from the county to meet the town to confer with regard to the Scott Act, so that the town and county would be separate in the matter of fines and expenses. After considerable discussion and some holding back Couns. Saunders, Forrest and Shaw were appointed said committee.

The gaol matter was brought up on Wednesday, and after an hours discussion was postponed until the January session.

Further report of this council will be given next week.

The Free Baptist Church.

The Annual District Meeting.

The annual meetings of the second District of the Free Baptist church was held in this village, commencing last Saturday and ending Monday. There were present many delegates and laymen and a number of ministers including among others Rev. Messrs. Noble, Grey, Perry, Stirling, Barnes, DeWare, Phillips, Dr. McLeod, Fenwick, and S. J. Perry.

Saturday morning session was a social conference and a good many took part in the devotions. Saturday afternoon was devoted to church reports and the district was shown to be in a prosperous condition. At the same time in the Methodist church, there was a meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society. Saturday evening the latter held a public meeting addressed by Mrs. Hart of Jacksontown, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Phillips of Woodstock, and there were recitations, readings, etc. and addresses by Dr. McLeod and Rev. C. T. Phillips.

On Sunday morning there was a prayer and praise service at 9.30 and preaching by Dr. McLeod at 10.30. There was also preaching in the Baptist church by Rev. John Perry. In the afternoon the regular session of the Union Sunday school was held addressed by Supt. J. T. G. Carr, Rev. J. Noble, and Rev. J. B. Daggett, after which a very excellent sermon was delivered by Rev. C. T. Phillips. Also at this hour an "over-flow" meeting was held in the Baptist church, sermon by Rev. Mr. Stirling. Rev. Mr. Barnes preached very acceptably in the evening.

On Monday the annual business meeting was held.

At every meeting the church was taxed to its utmost capacity, and many were unable to get seats.

The choir was comprised of Misses McAdam, Miss Morgan, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Davis, sopranos, Miss Hay, Miss Stevens and Miss Helen Bowser, altos; E. C. Morgan, tenor E. Alexander, and Fred H. Stevens, basses; and Miss Kelly, organist and leader. The singing was creditable, according to popular expressions.

Very many people were in the village over Sunday some coming many miles.

The annual meeting of the First District begins at Bath today and will continue over Sunday.

Primitive Baptists.

Evangelist N. D. Smith of Portland Me, will preach tomorrow forenoon at 10 o'clock at the Primitive Baptist Church, and will hold a praise service in the evening at 7 o'clock. Mr. Smith may hold a series of meetings here, including "cottage meetings."

Bristol Notes.

W. H. Trecarton harness maker mysteriously disappeared on Monday night and his whereabouts is unknown.

Rev. D. F. Millan of Tobique is calling on friends in the village.

Ansley Lockhart returned on Tuesday from Vancouver where he has been for over a year.

James Carr Fort Fairfield was in Bristol on Tuesday.

Road Masters Meyers and Dyer are busily engaged this week in repairing our highways.

Dr Churchill went to Woodstock on Tuesday.

Robert Scott of Glassville has received the contract for carrying the daily mail from Bristol to Glassville and intermediate offices and entered upon his duties on Thursday last.

The share holders of the Bristol Hall have been notified to remove the building from the premises it now occupies. It appears the shareholders never got any title to the land which has recently been bought by Mr. Ransford Giberson and he is now asking the trustees to move the building. This will probably not be done and the end is not yet.

G. A. Brittain is building a new dam, a short distance above his old one intended to hold a large body of water to use in the dry season. He is also preparing to put in rollers for grinding wheat and if he does so, should be favorably recognized by the Government and a bonus granted, as such a mill would be a great benefit to this section of the county.

A Dog's Right of Self-Defence

Roeber a big Newfoundland dog, met his little nine-year-old mistress, Lottie Selter, of Hoboken, N. J., and escorted her home from school every day, patiently waiting on the corner near the school, as Roeber was always more than punctual. At the sight of his mistress he became overjoyed, and joined eagerly in the romp that followed.

This meeting at the corner was always a trial for Roeber, because while waiting he was the prey of the bad boys in the neighborhood. They would pull his hair, throw stones at him, and cause all kinds of annoyance to the poor dog.

To all this he took no notice, his training or intelligence being superior to that of the boys. At last, when a particularly rough boy devised some unusual method of torture, the dog growled and this bringing no relief, in self-defence he bit the boy's hand.

The faithful dog and his owner were taken before a judge, who sentenced the dog to death.

Little Lottie with her arm around the dog's neck, pleaded for his life.

"The dog will have to be shot," announced the judge, clearing his throat suspiciously. "The boy's father has the right to have it done, under the law."

Mrs Selter, with tears in her eyes, took Lottie in her arms, while an officer called to the dog.

He followed the man willingly, but before leaving the courtroom he looked wonderingly to where his little mistress was sobbing in her mother's arms.

"Come on, old fellow," coaxed the officer Roeber was legally murdered ten minutes later.—The Humane Alliance.

Those Wakefield Farms.

A Bounteous Crop Indicated.

A correspondent writes as follows: Jacksontown is looking fine now! The crop is the most promising for many years, judging from the many expressions from old farmers. Potatoes are coming nicely and growing well. The grains especially oats are coming well, and could not look healthier. This crop promises more than for many years of the past in this county. The weather during the seeding season was all that could be desired for laboring—both for man and for beast—cool and fine, with scarcely the loss of a day. Frequently crops of both hay and oats were planted much larger than usual.

Special care is given to road making here. Jacob Palmer has charge of the road machines here and is doing excellent work on the Third Tier and Waterville roads.

William Culberson of Waterville is making considerable change among the buildings on his farm. First he is putting up a large new barn. The basement is well made and frost-proof, including a large root cellar. He has made some changes in the position of the old barns.

Who would not live and labor in and love such a country? More to follow.

Centreville News.

Arch Carpenter and wife, are visiting their son-in-law Dr. Green.

The Dr. and L. o White have made several unsuccessful efforts to entice the funny tribe to the fly. So far they have made slow progress. They both have fish on the brain.

Miss Annie and Mrs. G. L. White, with Dr. Green's wife, and Sheriff Balloch's wife, drove to Houlton one day last week and returned the same day.

Our teacher, Miss Avard was suddenly called home,—sickness in the family. Miss May White is wielding the rod in her absence.

Before this reaches your many readers, two very important questions will be settled at the Shiretown. One is whether a teacher can inflict on a pupil punishment that lays bare his skull. Whether as a matter of self-defence, or correction for disobedience. This case will be settled by the Police Magistrate.

The other question is whether your very enterprising town will have the goal, or whether it will be removed to the Shiretown proper. We have not referred to these matters, for fear we might in some way prejudice the case.

The Bubar Company of singers struck this town last week and gave two entertainments highly spoken of. A newspaper agent also arrived about the same day, and between both our people were relieved of some cash. In the latter case, better and more lasting was received.

Rev. J. E. Flewelling preached a very impressive and appreciative sermon for the Forester's on the 18th.

About the time the newspaper agent, and the Bubar singers came, a small visitor arrived at Leland Clark's. All had a good reception.

G. A. Kerth the Woodstock photographer is expected to visit our village next week. He has a beautiful display of fine photos in the Misses Fitzgeralds' window.

AMICUS.

The Biggle Books have been written by a practical man for practical men and women. They give the main and important facts and discard the husks and padding. Busy sleeves-rolled-up people will find them invaluable. The chapters on diseases and remedies in each volume will enable many a farmer to save the life of his suffering live stock. See the publisher's card in this issue. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Advertising patrons must bear in mind that all changes of ads must be handed in not later than Tuesday. This rule is imperative.

By special arrangement made with the publishers of the FARM JOURNAL we are enabled to offer that paper that paper to every subscriber who pays for the Hartland ADVERTISER one year ahead, for only $1.00; both papers for the price of ours only; our paper one year and the Farm Journal from now to December, 1903, nearly five years. The Farm Journal is an old established paper, enjoying great popularity, one of the best and most useful farm papers published.

Do not lose this opportunity by delay.

Good times may at last come our way. What will establish this pleasing state of affairs will be high prices for lumber and agricultural products. The former is booming in all markets, and prices go a notch higher every day. Hay will be an excellent crop in this section, while elsewhere, in Nova Scotia and in New England and south it is poor.

The present government can at least be given credit for one act of its legislation. That is that not one drop of intoxicating liquor will henceforth be sold at any of the military camps at Canada.

In the eleven months last past, the trade of Canada increased by $14,000,000, and the revenue from customs increased over $3,000,000.

First Shipment of Porkers.

J. E. Parsons shipped his first carload of pigs on Monday. It consisted of about 120, each weighing from 150 to 250 pounds and the price paid was three and three quarters and four cts, a considerably higher price than could be obtained later on. Some farmers are of the opinion that by keeping these hogs until fall they could have them weigh 300 to 400 pounds and thus be able to get more for them. Such is not the case. For instance the light hog brings from a half to one cent more than the heavy one. A 350 pound hog would bring $10.50 at three cents, while at present the 250 pound brings about the same, and the farmer is saved the expense and trouble of feeding him all summer.

County Elections.

Already candidates for the municipal elections are coming forward. The ADVERTISER has learned on good authority that both the old councillors—Richardson and Connolly—will offer, and also Gideon Phillips.

Personal Notes.

Miss Kate Phillips, Woodstock, was the guest of Miss May Stevens on Sunday.

On Monday Mrs. C. T. Phillips, of Woodstock, and Mrs. J. W. Doucett, of Knowlesville, who lately returned from Boston, called on the ADVERTISER.

Rev. Dr. McLeod, Fredericton, and Rev. C. T. Phillips, Woodstock, were callers at the ADVERTISER office on Saturday.

R. L. Phillips, Fredericton, is in the village to spend Sunday.

Frank Dow of East Florenceville and Heber Jamieson of Hartland, spent Sunday in Woodstock.

Harry Palmer, St. John, was in Hartland on Wednesday.

Miss Kate Clark, Woodstock, is the guest of Miss Burt.

James McLaggan of Centreville, was in Hartland on Wednesday.

W. W. Melville of Bath, was in the village on Monday.

John Barnett jr., arrived home from Normal school last week.

Robert Junkin of Toronto, and W. E. Saunders of Woodstock, were in Hartland on Wednesday.

A. E. Massie, representing the Ames-Holden shoe company Montreal, W. E. O. Jones, representing Baird and Peters, St. John, and Arthur McKenzie of Ganong Bros, Ltd., were in Hartland on Thursday.

Woodstock Races.

H. E. Gallagher of Woodstock, writes the ADVERTISER as follows.

We are going to have a big time on Dominion day. I will have a fine field of horses in the park. For one of the attractions we will have the St. John city Cornet Band, bringing a large excursion with it. It is the best band in the province and played at the world's fair in Chicago. As entries have not closed I cannot give a list of races, but there will be horses from St. John, Fredericton, Bangor, Fort Fairfield etc.

The Biggest Yet.

The Dispatch says :

This is no common fish story, it is the actual truth and if you don't believe this journal, with its world wide record for veracity, ask the parties concerned. On Wednesday last, Archie Hale and his cousin, and John Coulter councillor for Northampton, went a-fishing. They started out away back of Windsor on the north branch of the Nashwaak. They fished the stream till Saturday for a distance of some ten miles and caught between 700 and 800 trout some weighing a pound and a half.

Married.

At the Baptist parsonage, Florenceville, June 21st, by Rev. A. H. Hayward, Ellsworth A. Lewis of Peel Station was married to Beataice M. B. Belyea of Mount Pleasant.

Dominion Day a Holiday.

Do not forget that next Saturday (July 1st) is a public holiday and that all stores and places of business in this village will be closed.

Excursion to Grand Falls.

Yesterday there was an excursion train of six cars from Houlton to Grand Falls. It was well patronized.

Symptoms of Appendicitis—The Way They Were Relieved—The Sufferer Now Well and working Every Day.

From the Chronicle, Ingersoll, Ont.

In February, 1898, Mr. R. A. Size was taken very ill, and was confined to his home for several weeks. We heard that he was to go to the Hospital to have an operation performed but the operation never took place, and as he has started to work again and in apparently good health we investigated the case and found that he has been using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Mr. Size is a highly respected citizen of Ingersoll, having resided here for over 30 years and has been a faithful employee at Messrs. Partlo and Son's flouring mills for over nineteen years. When asked by a Chronicle reporter whether he would give an interview for publication, telling the nature of his disease and his cure, he readily consented. Mr. Size gave the details of his illness and cure as follows:—

"In February I caught a heavy cold which seemed to settle in my left side. The doctor thought it was neuralgia of the nerves. It remained there for some time and then moved to my right side, in the region of the appendix. We applied everything and had fly-blisters on for 48 hours. They never even caused a blister and did the pain no good. The doctors came to the conclusion that the appendix was diseased and would have to be removed. The pain was very great at times and there was such a stiffness in my ankles also in my hand, and pain all over my body. The day and date was set for an operation and I was reconciled to it. About a week before I was to go to the Hospital my wife was reading the Chronicle. She read an account of a man who had been cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The symptoms of the disease were so much like mine that she became interested and wanted me to give the pills a trial. I had little faith in the pills but as my wife seemed to be anxious that I should take them, I consented. The day for the operation had now arrived, and I told the doctor that I did not think I would go to the hospital for a while as I was feeling better. I continued to improve, and have long since given up all idea of an operation. When I started to use the pills I was unable to walk and suffered something awful with the pain in my side. It was just five weeks from the time that I started the use of the pills until I was able to walk again and I had been doctoring three months before that and I have been working ever since. Altogether I have taken sixteen boxes of the pills, and they have done me more good than all the doctor's medicine I ever took in my life. I have now every confidence in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and think that they are the best medicine in the world today. Certainly had it not been for them, I would have had to go through the ordeal of an operation and perhaps would not have been living now. I hope that by making this public it will be of benefit to others, as it was through one of these articles that I first learned of the unequalled qualities of the pills.

The public is cautioned against numerous colored imitations of these famous pills. The genuine are sold only in boxes, the wrapper around which bears the words "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." If your dealer does not have them they will be sent postpaid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Clever Boy.

"Now" said the schoolmaster, as he displayed a bright five-shilling piece between the tips of his thumb and finger, "the first boy or girl that puts a riddle to me which I cannot answer will receive this as a gift."

"Any more?" he asked as soon as silence was restored and no one had claimed the coin.

"Yes sir," sang out a little fellow from the farther end of the school "Why am I like the Prince of Wales?"

"The Prince of Wales?" said the master, thoughtfully. "The Prince of Wales? Really Johnnie I see no resemblance in you; I'll give it up."

"Because," replied the lad, joyfully; "I'm waiting for the crown."

Accommodating.

One hot summer's day a gentleman who was waiting for his train at one of our country stations, asked a porter who was lying on one of the seats, where the station master lived, and the porter lazily pointed to the house with his foot. The gentleman very much struck with the man's laziness, said: "If you can show me a lazier action than that, my good man, I'll give you two-and-six-pence." The porter not moving an inch, replied: "Put it in my pocket gov'nor."

On the Wrong Man.

Bret Harte is so frequently complimented as the author of "Little Breeches" that he is almost as sorry it was ever written as is Colonel John Hay who would prefer his fame to rest on more ambitious work. A gushing young lady, who prided herself upon her literary tastes, said to him once: "My dear Mr. Harte, I am so delighted to meet you. I have read everything you ever wrote, but of all your dialect verse there is none that compares to your 'Little Breeches.'"

"I quite agree with you, madam," said Mr. Harte, "but you have put the little breeches on the wrong man." — San Francisco Argonaut.

What the Separator Has Done.

The separator has done more to stimulate dairying than all else combined, and now statistics show it to be one of the greatest industries in the United States. The dairy interests stand preeminent. For the year 1898 over $900,000,000 was distributed among milk producers and has helped a great deal to overcome the depression which came on in 1893. It is also shown in reports that 1,000,000,000 would be nearer correct or over twice the value of all the wheat crop of the entire country. Why not produce our share—at least what is required for our own consumption?—Live Stock.

That Assault Case

Should not have been Brought in Court,

Two assault cases were heard last week in Squire Orser's office, the sitting magistrate, however being John Barnett. The first was a complaint by Stephen Hanning Senr, that on the 7th of June that he had been knocked down by his son Stephen Hanning, Jr. It would appear from the evidence that the son Stephen has squatted on a corner of the farm claimed by and is the occupation of the father. He Stephen Senr. testified that he bought and paid for the land but had it deeded to his wife, since deceased Mrs. H. dying intestate, Stephen apparently thinks that he has a right to control at once his share of the estate and that the old man has no business there. Mr. H. sr. is an old man, upwards of 80 years of age, we understand, quite feeble, and nearly blind with cataract. The old man lives with his son Percival Hanning, or perhaps it would be more correct to say that Percival and family live with the old man, and care for him. On the morning of the 7th Percival was hauling rails to build a fence, and near by was Stephen Jr. was pulling up a board fence. The old man went over to dispute with Stephen jr. about the line. Stephen Jr. got mad: said pointing to Percival; "that D— old bald headed son of a B—is at the bottom of it all." Stephen jr. denies that he used either of the opprobrious epithets says he does not use such language; but admits that he did say "That bald headed old fellow is at the bottom of the whole of it. However the upshot of it was, that Stephen Jr. knocked or pushed the old man down twice or three times. The matter was not heard to a finish as both sides considered the presence of one Isaac Tompkins necessary to complete the evidence. Tompkins is away over the lines so the matter was adjourned until Friday the 23rd inst. at 10 a. m.

The second matter was a complaint on the part of Percival H. that Ida, wife of Stephen H. jr. did on the 14th day of June assault and strike him with a hammer and with stones and made a wound on his bald head. It appears that on the 14th Percival going to fetch a pail of water from the spring found a steel square which he appropriated under the apprehension that it might possibly be his own property. On his return from the spring with the square in his hand he was met by Mrs Stephen with the demand to surrender the square, which was their property not his. He refused, she attempted to take it. In the struggle she received a blow on the temple from the edge of of the square which cut the skin. Then she struck him twice with the hammer which she held in her hand and finally took the square away. He however grabbed her by the pug of hair at the back of the head and forced her down by the side of the road. He freed himself and ran and she followed kicking him behind. He called her a vile name and she picked up stones and let him have it until he got into his own door, one of the stones thus thrown caused the wound on his bald scalp. An attentive hearing was given by the magistrates, Orser and Barnett and the charge was dismissed as one which ought not to have been brought into court.

The Lime Industry.

Samuel Orser and Woodford Craig are engaged in burning lime at the Windsor quarry. They came to Hartland some weeks ago and secured the market for about eight carloads. They are now burning their first kiln which will be ready for market in a few days. The barrells are to be made in Miller's mill.

Married.

John Wallace Noddin and Miss Lizetta McNally were married last week at the residence Joseph McNally, Hartland. Rev A. H. Hayward performed the ceremony. The band serenaded the happy couple who for a while will reside at Mr. McNally's.

A Pearl Farm.

"We have heard of poultry farms, and bee-farms" of cattle farms, and dog farms and even cat farms, but there is so far as we are aware, but one pearl farm in the world. It is a large farm, for it stretches for five thousand square miles, and is covered by shallow water. The site of this farm is Torres straits, at the northmost point of Australia.

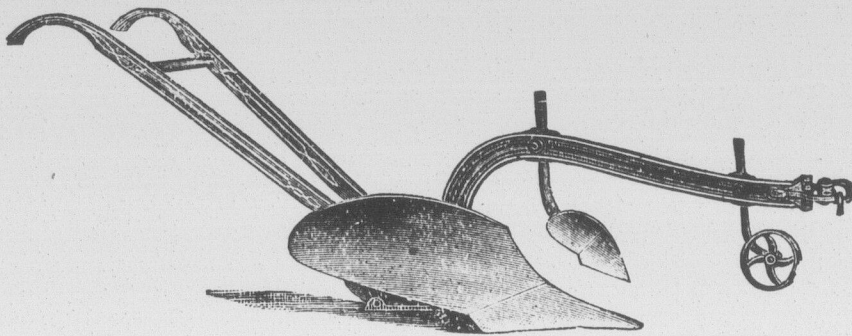

It belongs to Mr. James Clark of Queensland, "King of pearl-fishers," to quote from Cassell's Magazine. He stocked it with one hundred and fifty thousand pearl oysters rather more than three years ago. It takes one thousand five hundred men to gather in his crop, of whom two hundred are divers. Two hundred and fifty vessels are regularly employed.

In the shallow water that covers his great farm the shells grow very large, and the divers can operate well. The harvest is no mean one for the pearls when sold in London, fetch two hundred thousand dollars and upward every year.

Interesting Events at Bath.

On Thursday June 8th a "Bean Supper" in aid of buying chairs for the F. C. Baptist Church of this village was held in Phillip's Hall. A good sized attendance and a very nice supper raised something over thirteen dollars. A very pleasant time was enjoyed.

On Saturday the 24th inst. we expect Bath to be the centre of a great multitude of religious workers in the cause of the F. C. Baptists. That is the date when the district meetings commence here, and they will last for three or four days. Many outside ministers, some of them of noted ability like Dr. McLeod, for instance will attend and no doubt a great religious enthusiasm will be stirred up.

The district road work commenced here on Monday last with Jimmy Jones as road master. A large number of teams and men have been kept busy all week hauling gravel from the top of Monquart hill to the village roads. Nearly every man in Bath is now handling a hoe or shovel and there appears to be an extraordinary amount of rivalry amongst the workers; but such hard and fast work is not to be highly recommended and it looks as if our agent for the S. P. C. A. should be called upon to force the men to desist from abusing themselves to such an unwarranted extent. For instance Hugh Logan was seen sitting down panting for breath after trying to keep up with George Craig at raking off stones and Alex Hamilton who is never tired was seen looking at his watch several different times during the day, we suppose longing for six o'clock and a little rest. Hammie Giberson also has become so much in harmony with these that he even takes out his six weeks old colt with his other horses to haul gravel. In fact all hands have been making special efforts. Where such enthusiasm is manifested for the good and welfare of the public highway we are led to think that the road machine was and is not a good investment.

John Bohan has lately built a very pretty fence around his dwelling improving both his home and the road. Such fences in front of other front places would set off our handsome stores.

Wm. Harris is engaged in the quite extensive operation of painting Tracey's Hotel. He is doing well but it will take him a good while.

The Hammie Giberson road has lately been giving the natives some exciting surprises. In the first place Giberson stopped the road workers from entirely filling up that notorious mud hole alongside of his barn, claiming that that mud hole was his. Then Bohan and Co. caught the air and blocked up the mouth of the road with posts consequently we have now a road blocked up at one end and the other end declared to be private property and the inhabitants living on this road are just beginning to think that they are dead in it. Another circumstance about this road is that there has been more building and land deals on it this last year or two than in all the rest of the village.

John Post from Wicklow is building a house on it. We do not feel capable of making any suggestions as to the best way out of the difficulty but we do assert that until now the road was used all right if only a little road work was done on it or allowed to be done for the public benefit.

It is told about a certain resident of this neighborhood that on Sunday last when the thermometer registered 100 in the shade and a little breeze was blowing mistaking the thick falling fuzz from the end of the Balm of Gilead trees surrounding his house he went down cellar and built a fire in the furnace mistaking the fuzzy flakes for snow.

Not Up to Date.

"Some people find it hard to keep their stock of information about men and things up to the present moment, and are consequently betrayed into asking questions about dead-and-gone people as if they were living. A startling instance of this was the following inquiry, lately received by a firm of well known music publishers in London from the organist of a church at New London, Connecticut.

"Would you kindly inform me how a letter would reach Mr. Ben Johnson, author of the song words, "Drink to me only with thine eyes?"

This perhaps, is an even more flagrant failure to "keep posted" than that involved in an application received from a dealer in fishing-tackle by a firm of Boston publishers, for the present address of Mr. Isaac Walton, author of "The Complete Angler."

Not long ago Mr. W. S. Gilbert author of the librettos of several operas was at the house of a wealthy but ignorant and pretentious woman. She asked Mr. Gilbert several questions about musical composers, to show that she knew all about them.

"And what about Bach?" she asked.

"No, ma'am answered Gilbert, "he is decomposing!"—Youths Companion.
