Mr. Crockett lost his eldest daughter, a bright girl of sixteen years, about three months ago, since which time he has been sinking into a state of melancholy, although previously of an exceedingly bright and cheerful disposition...

He was a busy man, yet gave much time and effort to the duties of district school secretary. School matters had not been entirely satisfactory, affairs of assessment having accumulated, and being of a very humane disposition, he had hesitated about collecting by legal process...

Recently he sent a man to jail, and this, too, caused him much mental trouble for being a strict covenanter, all ideas of persecution was distasteful and abhorrent to him. Brooding over these things in a moment of aberration he took a dose of strychnine, and shortly after expired in strong convulsions...

He had mowed a large field of hay on Friday, and on Saturday morning got up and attended to his stock. In one of the outbuildings he mixed the drug and drank it, going at once to the breakfast table, where he informed his family of what he had done, and was immediately seized with those dreadful twitchings and convulsions which indicate poisoning by strychnine, and in about twenty minutes was dead. ANNUAL MEETING.

Maritime Women's Baptist Missionary Society.

Address of Welcome Read By Mrs. Miller, Pastor of the Hebron, N. S. Church.

Reply By Mrs. Gunn of Belmont—Address of Mrs. J. W. Manning of St. John, the President—A Rich Evening Programme.

HEBRON, N. S., Aug. 19.—The Maritime Women's Baptist Missionary Society Union convened in Hebron, Yarmouth Co., at 9.30 this morning. About 45 of the executive, with many delegates, were engaged during the morning and afternoon sessions in preparing the work for the following meetings.

In the evening the large church was well filled, nearly 120 of the delegates present at this, the first public meeting. The preliminary devotionary service was led by Mrs. N. C. Scott of St. John. The address of welcome, delivered by Mrs. Miller, the pastor of the Hebron church, was as follows:

Madam, President, Officers and Members of the Maritime Union:—It is not by way of mere formality that we say, on behalf of our people, that we welcome you to Hebron. We bid you welcome to our country, the home of Baptists. Here you will find whole-hearted women, who truly sympathize with you in the sacred cause you represent.

Our ladies' society gives you a hearty welcome. We have been praying for the officers and members of this body, that they may come in the spirit and power of our Lord and Master, that He may give you wisdom, strength and that you may feel the strength of the everlasting arms. We trust that you may here rest while you work, and work while you rest. It is not the fustling and commotion of our lives that make beautiful in His sight, but trust in our God, and a calm and willing service, the outgrowth of surrendered life and purpose.

As a society we welcome our sisters of other societies. We know well that you will call for every-day effort on your part, often through discouragement and when you are weary and weary, you will find that it seems scarcely worth while to continue. But remember that were it not for you and others who stand where you stand, this world would have no hope.

Madam President, we have not been entirely unhelpful in thus inviting you to meet with us, for we realize that while we spread a table for us, you will spread a table for us, and we will be glad to have you, and we will be glad to have you, and we will be glad to have you.

BOSTON MATTERS

In Which Provincialists Are Chief Actors.

Events of a Romantic Nature—Love at First Sight in St. John—Bridgroom Jostled by a Jilted Fiance Missing Italian Banker Located in St. John—Recent Deaths.

BOSTON, Aug. 22.—A number of provincialists in this vicinity are the chief actors in events of a romantic nature. On Wednesday night the city of Nashua, about 37 miles from Boston, a young lady from St. John was married under somewhat unusual circumstances. Her name was Miss Ida M. Farrow and now it is Mrs. Ralph B. Hibbert of Grand Rapids, Mich. While Mr. Hibbert was in St. John in the summer of 1900 he met Miss Farrow, and while the two were very friendly during the Michigan man's short stay, they did not afterwards correspond and did not meet again until this week. On Tuesday Mr. Hibbert was in Nashua on a business trip. While walking on Main street he suddenly met the young lady whom he had known in St. John. She had been visiting friends in Somerville and happened to go to Nashua for a brief stay.

He immediately proposed to her, and she accepted. The wedding was held on Wednesday night at the home of Mr. Hibbert's parents. The bride and groom were accompanied by a large number of friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Truesdale, a Congregationalist minister.

WELSH COAL ON THE WAY. The Melville, of the Elder-Dempster Line, is due here on Monday with a cargo of Welsh coal, consigned to L. Cohen & Co. to be followed by another consignment. This is the first cargo of Welsh coal received here in years, and it is expected to be followed by others.

Another honeymoon in our provincialists were concerned was not so pleasantly spent. Wednesday night at Cape Breton, where they were in the Suffolk county jail here, reported in Tuesday evening last. Mr. Cameron was united in marriage at 11 Union street, where he was married to Miss Kennedy of Cape Breton. The bride and groom were preparing to start for the provinces their arrangements were interrupted by the appearance of a deputy sheriff, who arrested the bride and groom.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—President Roosevelt will be asked to call a special session of congress to take action to end the coal strike. This was decided at a meeting today of the Central Federated Union, representing 250,000 workmen.

A WARNING TO PREACHERS. Here is an incident which may prove as a warning to preachers who are themselves to be carried away by their own eloquence and give way to wild and uncontrolled gesticulation. Rev. W. I. Sweet of Everett, Mass., is naturally a mild-mannered man, but when warmed up in his sermons he makes many gestures. On Sunday last he caused great excitement in the First Presbyterian church at Passaic, N. J. in his excitement incident to preaching his stirring sermon he did about $100 worth of damage. He had just started when with a sweep of his hand, he knocked a large and valuable vase containing cut flowers off the pulpit, and the pieces fell upon those in the front pews, the congregation scattered. A few moments later away went the large Bible, which occupied the top of the desk. This, too, fell in the front pews, and was being caught by the choir loft and smashed, and the congregation moved in their seats, but when a table, on which was a cut glass pitcher filled with water, went over into the front ranks of the worshippers it was more than they could stand, and a general laugh went up. Mr. Sweet laughed, too, and when nothing was restored went on as though nothing had happened. As a precautionary measure the rev. gentleman might hereafter, before preaching in a strange pulpit, release his part and become familiar with the surroundings.

WANTED—A case of Headache that KUMFORD Powders will cure in from ten to twenty minutes.

DR. STOCKTON SERIOUSLY ILL. The Sun regrets to learn that the illness of Dr. A. A. Stockton has taken a more serious turn, and that his condition is now extremely critical. For the last four months Dr. Stockton's state of health has given anxiety to his friends, but of late he seemed to be gaining strength, and was able at times to give some attention to business. Recently he has been considering the advisability of taking a course of treatment at either Clifton Springs or some other sanitarium. This week more serious complications have occurred, which cause grave apprehension. Dr. Stockton has been a strong man, and previous to the attack has known very little sickness. A naturally fine constitution is in his favor.

Professor W. F. Ganong, Northampton, Mass., is at the Victoria. For the past six weeks he has been making studies upon the natural history and certain phases of the geology of the new New Brunswick. He explored the extreme headwaters of the right hand branch of the Tobique river, obtaining there facts of much scientific interest, and afterwards ascended the Little Tobique, portaged to the Nepisiguit, and thence to the Upsalquitch, descending that river to the Restigouche. The scientific results of the trip will be presented before the Natural History Society during the coming winter and will be published in their bulletin.

MORE PETTY BURGLARIES.

The bookstore of Douglas McArthur on King street was entered from the rear Sunday night or yesterday morning and a large quantity of goods and some $50 in cash removed. The burglars were clever men at their business, judging from the way they did the job. They cut the glass out of the large window and having removed it, entered the premises. Everything of value in the store was taken and then the burglars appropriated a lot of fountain pens, purses and other valuable articles. Mr. McArthur estimates his loss at $75. The police are looking after the burglars, who must be bold ones to enter a place so well guarded as this. It is thought the burglars understood their business.

ESCAPE AND CAPTURE.

James Fenton, about 30 years of age, fair complexion and about 5 feet 6 inches, escaped last evening from the Fairville Lunatic Asylum. He was about the institution shortly before eight o'clock and it was a few minutes later that he was missed and the alarm given.

Fenton was missing some time ago, but was finally found hiding in the cellar. Search was, of course, made for him last night, but not finding him, the police were notified. Between 12 and 1 o'clock Officers Smith and Merrick of the northern police division, found Fenton on Douglas avenue.

OUT OF SORTS.

Pleasant Way to Drive away the Blues. A food that will bring back health and rosy cheeks to the sick as well as please the palate of the healthy is a pretty good food to know about. A lady in Minneapolis says, "I am such an enthusiast upon the subject of Grape-Nuts that I want to state a few instances of its value. I have come under my personal experience. I was taken ill with a serious stomach trouble, so ill that the slightest movement caused me pain and could take nothing in to my stomach, or retain any medicine or water. I had been two days without nourishment when my husband suggested trying Grape-Nuts. The nurse prepared some with warm water, sugar and cream and I took hesitatingly, at first until I found it caused me no pain and for ten days I took no other nourishment. The doctor was surprised at my improvement and did not resent my attributing this speedy cure to the virtue of Grape-Nuts. He said he had a case on record of a teaching baby who grew rosy and fat on the same diet.

Grape-Nuts are so dainty and delicious that it appeals to the whole household and when either husband or I feel generally 'out of sorts' we try confining ourselves exclusively to the food for a day or two with the happiest results.

For a year I have had for a neighbor a delicate girl—an epileptic—who first knew her she was a mere shadow weighing 70 pounds and subject to fearful attacks having as many as 12 to 16 convulsions in a day. At such times she took no nourishment whatever. She had never tried Grape-Nuts and as any food seemed to increase her trouble at such times she took no nourishment whatever. She had never tried Grape-Nuts and as any food seemed to increase her trouble at such times she took no nourishment whatever. Mr. Yardie was born in Fredericton in December, 1818, and was for many years the printer of the Royal Gazette in that city for fifty years. Subsequently he removed to Woodstock, Massachusetts, where he was presented by the city council with the freedom of the city for his gift to the public library there of valuable ancient manuscripts. "SIT DOWN," SAID JUDGE TO K. C.

SYDNEY, Cape Breton, Aug. 24.—"Sit down," ordered Justice Meagher to Joseph A. Gillies, K. C., in the supreme court room here on Friday. Mr. Gillies was presenting his side of a case before a reporter how some unknown reason he was ordered to sit down. He complied with the Judge's orders, but arose almost immediately. "Sit down," he said, "I will have you arrested." "I will have you arrested," replied Mr. Gillies, "I will have you and the court. He withdrew from the case.

It seems that Mr. Gillies and Judge Meagher had some misunderstanding as to the statement of a witness. Mr. Gillies declared that the witness did not make the statement which the judge had in his minutes. The judge maintained that he had and ordered Mr. Gillies to sit down.

This incident has revived the episode of Wednesday, and today Mr. Meagher is a much talked of man in Sydney.

A PLACE WORTH VISITING.

A place of business that is well worth visiting when in St. John is J. N. Harvey's clothing business on Union street. This firm has only been doing business here for about a year and a half, and in his short time has worked up one of the valuable cash drawers in St. John. When asked by a reporter how he accounted for the rapid growth of his business, as coming to St. John as a stranger, and opening a store that had never been occupied as a clothing store, he said that he had a number of customers and giving them a strict attention to business, and that he had a number of customers and giving them a strict attention to business, and that he had a number of customers and giving them a strict attention to business.

GRAND MANAN NEWS.

GRAND MANAN, N. B., Aug. 23.—Herrings are reported plentiful off the coast of Grand Manan, and the weirs in that vicinity and above White Head and Cheney's Island Passages are getting good catches. The fish are of fine size, but of a good quality. Herrings are scarce at South Westport and in Seal Cove Sound and around Two Islands. Pollock are reported plentiful, and so are the dogfish, and a few new yachts, the Coblen, anchored in the harbor over night, but left the next day.

NIGHT IN WOODS.

Mrs. Jackson, aged 92, rather enjoyed "Big Black Bear Passed Near Her."

PRÉSEQUE ISLE, N. S., Aug. 24. Betsey Eliza Jackson, 25 years old, was lost in the woods last night, but was not bad results from 30 hour exposure. Mr. Jackson lives near the Canada line, about four miles from this place, and shortly after noon Saturday went out to pick some raspberries. When he did not return at night he people became alarmed, and a party spent all night in search of her to no avail.

This morning the fire bells were rung and a crowd of 200 men and boys turned out to search, finally finding the old lady calmly sitting upon a log almost within sight of her home.

She said that she had lost her way and when she found that she could not find her way back she had taken a shelter of logs and leaves and passed a very comfortable night, making a supper from the berries which she had picked.

She heard the shouts of the searching party, but could not make herself heard.

Mrs. Jackson was not at all worried at her predicament nor did she feel at all black berry which passed quite near her at one time. She also saw a large bull moose and several deer.

The old lady comes from a very hardy family of pioneers and guides, and in her younger days was accustomed to long tramps and night camping in the woods, but she had supposed that these days were all over.

From the place where Mrs. Jackson was found she was obliged to walk back to the house, which she did with the aid of assistance, and upon the whole seemed to enjoy the adventure which rarely comes to one 92 years old. She is the oldest woman in Arrostook county.

APPARENTLY A FIXTURE.

St. Lake Superior Will Be One of the Exhibition Attractions Next Week.

The attempt made on Saturday to float the St. Lake Superior, ashore on the rear end of the exhibition building, was a failure, the pumps being unable to keep her clear of water. It might have been different if all the pumps had worked satisfactorily, but one of them in one of the tower compartments could not be operated at all, and another in the same part of the vessel failed to do what it should have performed. The pumps in the after end of the steamer did good work and kept that portion of the ship almost free from water till the tide was nearly out, but the pumps in the after end of the steamer did good work and kept that portion of the ship almost free from water till the tide was nearly out.

Another effort may be made to get the Superior into deep water as soon as the tides are favorable.

NOTED FENIAN DEAD.

Member of the Band Which Killed Sergt. Brett.

Report That He Fired the Fatal Shot Denied By His Son.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Aug. 24.—James Cahill, a member of the famous band of Fenians for whose attack upon a prison coach and the murder of Sergt. Brett, an English officer, at Manchester, Eng., in September, 1867, Allen, Larkin and O'Brien were hanged, died at 7:10 o'clock this morning at his home, 12 Trenton street, this city.

Mr. Cahill was born in Manchester, Eng., in April, 1841. Two months after the murder of Sergt. Brett, having been put into the custody of other patriots, he escaped from England and came to this country, and had resided in this city most of the time since then.

His death came this morning very suddenly, as a result of a long illness. Mr. Cahill leaves a widow, four sons and three daughters, most of whom reside in this city.

The late Hector Linn of this city was told him that the statement that Cahill had fired the shot that killed Sergt. Brett, this evening, and the latter emphatically denied such a statement.

"Do you know who did fire it?" was asked, and he replied that he did, but that the name would never be divulged until all of the members of the famous band were dead.

"The man who fired at and killed Brett," he said, "has been dead several years. He died in a hospital at Dublin, but his name will be kept secret until all are dead. I know he fired it, and I know that my father did not. I am sure that my father never told any one that he did the deed."

Today there are ten members of that band living. Thomas O'Boyle of Rochester is one. Col. Richie Burke of Washington is another, and there are others living in this country. Some of the band are living in England, but they are not known, nor will their names be told until after they have died.

HOME CAPITAL FOR LAURIER.

TORONTO, Aug. 25.—The Evening Telegram's cable says: Sir Wilfrid Laurier interviewed DeLacaze, French minister of foreign affairs, on the subject of the proposed modification of the existing commercial treaty between Canada and the basis of mutual concessions. He had the first series of interviews with the director commercial department of French foreign office with a view to arrange reduction duties on certain articles, but there is no question as yet of direct negotiations, although something may eventually be done.

There is a distinct change visible in the attitude of a portion of the Paris press towards Laurier since his last visit. Then he was extolled as the great British colonial statesman of French origin and all proudly referred to him. When the same statesman openly gloried in the fact that he is a British subject and asserts his loyalty to the crown, he is represented as accommodating himself to Anglo-Saxon conquests.

The Francois said last evening: Imagine fifty years hence the premier of Alsace-Lorraine, if these provinces are still German, thinking it to praise the German Emperor and insult the old Emperor, Laurier is such a man. Let him leave our midst like the evil-minded stranger he has become in our eyes.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Aug. 25.—The prisoner George Gillan, sentenced to the penitentiary at the supreme court held in Summerside June 1st, convicted of manslaughter, was removed from Dorchester on Saturday and replaced in Prince county jail. It will be remembered that through the effort of Neil MacArthur, K. C., counsel for the prisoner before the court of appeal of Charlottetown, this conviction was quashed on the ground that some evidence was improperly admitted at the trial and a new trial was ordered, which will be held in November. Gillan on the way over was in charge of Sheriff Wright and Constable Daly.

Parley Reid, who has been visiting his grandparents in Caledonia, has returned to St. John. Miss Julia Peck of Boston is visiting her former home here. Capt. A. G. Dixon, pilot, was recently pulling off to the island in a small dory, when the craft capsized and turned completely bottom up. The captain secured a hold on the boat and climbed up on her bottom, where he clung well-nigh exhausted, until rescued by young Russell, who had heard his cries and put off from the island in his own boat. Capt. Dixon was taken to the home of the light keeper, where he was cared for until he had recovered.

CANADIAN WOOLLENS EQUAL TO ANY IN THE WORLD.

An Unfair Prejudice Against Them in this Country - Big Orders Received for Them From England.

Strong Opinions by Large Dealer - Women Doing Much to Help Canadian Article - Gratifying Change Taking Place.

(Toronto Star.)

A member of a firm which is one of the largest wholesale dealers in woolen goods in Canada talked to the Star about Canadian woolen goods...

CANADIAN GOODS GOOD AS ANY.

"Now, I want to make this clear at once. I want you to understand that Canadian-made woollens are the equal of foreign-made woollens."

UNFAIR PREJUDICE.

"Here is an instance of what the Canadian manufacturer is up against. A short time ago I sold some Canadian woollen goods to a house in Guelph. I didn't say they were imported goods. There was no misrepresentation. He bought them on their merits."

These aren't Canadian goods, said the storekeeper.

"Well, anyway, I made them in Hespeler, was the reply. "Now, would you believe it, the next afternoon we got that consignment back here and a railing over the goods - wholly unjustified into the bargain."

ENGLAND BUYS OUR GOODS.

The wholesaler took the Star representative to the office and showed him the order book containing orders from English firms - the most respected - for various lines of Canadian manufactured goods.

What would you think of a temperance lecturer?

"What would you think of a temperance lecturer?" resumed the merchant, "who punctuated his remarks with sips of whiskey, saying he did not know whether it was whiskey or cold tea he was drinking? We all laugh at the insincerity of the temperance advocate. And yet a manufacturer of Canadian woollens got up in the house of commons last session to advocate an increased protection on woollens, and the suit he was wearing was a Scotch tweed. Now, what's the difference?"

What ladies have done.

"The Canadian women have saved the Canadian manufacturing business in woollens. I can't give the ladies too much taffy in this point. Perhaps a man is a protectionist and talks loudly and at the same time goes and buys an imported suit, while his wife buys the cloth for her dress on its merits and says nothing. And it is a fact that Canadian goods have almost supplanted imported women's dress goods in the last few years."

Twenty years ago Catarrh was comparatively unknown. Now no age, sex or condition is exempt from it, and no climate or locality is free from it.

SHE DEFIES OUTLAWS.

Mrs. Irving Will Raise Goats in Spite of Cattlemen's Raids.

At least a dozen men killed, three times that number wounded, 600,000 sheep, with an approximate value of $2,400,000, killed, and thousands of dollars worth of sheep wagons, outfits, ranch buildings and washers burned by raiders during the last 10 years is a conservative estimate of the cost of the frontier sheep-war, which has now broken out again more virulent than ever.
