Will Not Approve the League of Nations Covenant Without Making Such a Demand, According to Speakers.

STRONG DEBATERS HEARD YESTERDAY

Mr. Rowell, on Behalf of the Gov't, Made a Masterful Analysis and Defense of the League.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Sept. 9.—It is beginning to look as though the opposition will decline to approve of the League of Nations covenant without demanding a reservation. That, at all events, is the inference left by the speeches delivered today by Mr. Ernest LaPointe and Mr. Lucien Cannon. "We must make sure," said Mr. LaPointe, "that the supreme power of the parliament of Canada is not infringed, and, for my part, I would favor an amendment to the effect that nothing in this treaty shall be held to impair the rights and privileges of this parliament. It must be made clear that no Canadian soldier can ever be forced to war, or sent anywhere but by the consent and authority of the Parliament of Canada." Equally emphatic were the words of Mr. Cannon. "I do not think we should give our approval to this article, (article ten), he said, "without reservations preserving the supreme authority of the Canadian Parliament in the matter of making war."

On the other hand, Mr. Rowell, who tackled the subject of the great occasion which it marked. Mr. LaPointe, who led off for the opposition, possesses a broad grasp of imperial and international affairs. His analysis, analytical mind, the oratorical ability, and the genius of his race, for mastery of constitutional affairs.

PEACE TREATY GOES TO UNITED STATES SENATE TODAY

Advocates and Opponents of the League Preparing for the Battle Which Begins on Monday Next.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 9.—The German Peace Treaty, six months in the making, will be returned to the Senate, tomorrow, by the Foreign Relations Committee, along with a majority report containing amendment to the treaty and recommendation to the League of Nations covenant.

Regarding the League of Nations, Mr. LaPointe was favorable to the principle of such a project, but he was fearful that the present league was merely a new guise for the old balance of power. What other conclusion could there be, he held, despite the league, the spectacle was seen of the United States government increasing the strength of its army to five times of what it was before the war, and of Admiral Jellicoe advising the creation of an Australian navy that would saddle that country with an enormous burden of expenditure.

Here the member for Kaintourska touched upon Jellicoe's expected visit to Canada. "When he comes to Canada," he said, "he should be cordially received, but firmly told to wait until he is called upon before tendering his advice to the Canadian people."

The commissioner had placed the situation before the authorities at Ottawa. Before any move could be made toward re-employment the brotherhood would have to break away from undesirable influences.

ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1919.

THE VETERANS' REQUEST.

It required more than ordinary courage on the part of Premier Borden and members of his cabinet to refuse definitely the request of the Great War Veterans' Association for a commission to consider the advisability of extending additional financial aid to returned soldiers. It is difficult at any time to refuse requests of those who have served overseas, and for the very reason men who have so bravely shouldered the greatest burden of the nation's defense should be treated with the greatest consideration in presenting claims for what they consider fair treatment. Apparently, however, the G. W. V. A. throughout Canada has not considered seriously what this latter request means. The plan was proposed by a group in Calgary, some of whom perhaps need the money for which they ask, and by means of an active campaign other associations scattered throughout Canada were induced to join in the movement, with the result that the proposition secured the endorsement of the national committee in Ottawa.

Approximately 450,000 men enlisted for overseas service, of whom 50,000 gave their lives, and 400,000 have returned or are on their way. These men have already received or are now receiving the war gratuity voted by the Dominion and amounting to not less than $250,000,000. This gratuity has averaged more than $600.00 per man. The request made by Premier Borden a few days ago for a commission looked to an additional payment to all returned men of $2,000.00, which would involve an increase of Canada's national debt by not less than the stupendous sum of $800,000,000. However grateful the people of this country may be, and their gratitude has been evidenced by the fact that Canada has acted with a far greater measure of generosity toward her soldiers than has been displayed by any other country on earth. It is financially impossible to even consider for a moment the expenditure of such a sum. Even were it advisable to saddle this country with such an additional load, the money could not be procured. We have the utmost difficulty as it is in financing the ordinary operating expenses of the nation and in securing pension schemes, and to provide for the repatriation and re-establishment of returned men on the general plan now being applied. Because of financial stress, necessary public works in all parts of the Dominion have been refused, extensions of our various departmental activities must wait, and in every locality progress is retarded by lack of available funds from the Dominion Treasury to carry on those works so necessary to our country's development.

Premier Borden's reply to the Veterans is definite. He will not authorize a commission to consider further gratuities, not because he and his government fail to appreciate the services of those who went overseas, but because of the state of world finances and because he recognizes the fact that those who remained at home and performed their duty have a right to the fullest consideration. The war was not won altogether by the men in the firing line, great as their efforts doubtless were. Success was made possible only by the devotion of those who were unable to serve at the front and who kept things going while the boys were away. And amidst all of this, the soldiers themselves had no real hope of success in this application so recently made. The majority of them looked upon it as something which might be tried, which would do no harm if it failed and which, if successful would mean a considerable amount of money for each of them. From the political standpoint the position of Union Government is distinctly strengthened by the refusal of Premier Borden to consider seriously this request. A government which could find courage to reject a proposal of this nature from men to whom the country owes so much, must be recognized as a government which is acting not in the interests of any one group or class, but for the good of the country as a whole, and Union, in carrying the policy outlined, has won the respect even of the men themselves.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION.

With the return of Dr. Bridges and the re-opening of the schools, vocational, or technical, education has again become a live subject after the summer recess. Dr. Bridges reports that, from information he was able to obtain in England during his recent visit, his opinion with respect to the introduction of vocational education in this province has been strengthened so that no such attempt can prove entirely successful until a properly equipped building is provided.

Neither the Superintendent nor the majority of the School Trustees are prepared to stand in the way of progress along this line. They will gladly go as far as their finances allow in providing such elementary branches of vocational training as may be considered desirable. But they quite properly feel that if we are to do this thing at all, it must be well done, and from the experience of others it is made abundantly clear that until we are prepared to establish vocational training as a distinct branch of education with proper equipment and qualified teachers, it will be unwise to squander our limited resources on futile experiments. This does not necessarily mean that we are to harken ourselves with an extravagant plan, that we must launch out on the ambitious scale adopted in Nova Scotia. We can begin in a small way and expand as the demand increases, but for the present it will be much better to provide in the City of St. John accommodation for the children who desire to attend the public schools and who are now shut out by reason of lack of space. Additional quarters are needed in the High School. There is a pressing demand for at least two, and perhaps three, new buildings. Every school in the city is overcrowded, classes are so filled that the teachers are unable to do justice to their work and, by reason of this lack of accommodation, elementary education is soundly suffering. An' since it forms the foundation of all training, we will be well advised to look after the needs of the common school before committing ourselves to a heavy expenditure on other branches.

TELEPHONE CHARGES.

Contrary to statements made some months ago, it now appears that the New Brunswick Telephone Company is planning a request through the Public Utilities Commission for increased rates. Although no announcement has yet been made by the company it is estimated that this increase is desired for the purpose of making such extensions as will take care of increased business and also to provide for additional expenditure in wages, etc. No reasonable request of a public utility should be opposed with out good cause, and whether such requests are to be regarded as reasonable or otherwise will depend on the information which the company presents for public consideration. If costs of material and operation have advanced at such a rate that the N. B. Telephone Company is not now able to pay the moderate return on its investment which its charter permits and at the same time to set aside for depreciation the amount regarded as a fair allowance, then the company will be entitled to every consideration. But if it appears that this corporation, finding a very heavy increase in business, both long distance and local, deems it imperative to provide extensions of its equipment in all directions, then surely this might well be done through additional capital. General revenue from tolls and rentals account nor, on the other hand, should the public suffer through the incapacity of the existing system to care for the business offered. In any event the New Brunswick Telephone Company will find public sentiment governed to a very large extent by the willingness with which it presents for consideration all phases of its affairs. The fullest possible information should be produced when the proper time arrives.

PROTESTANT ORPHANS.

The decision of the trustees of the Protestant Orphan Asylum to make use of the Martello Hotel in West St. John as temporary quarters will be very generally commended. That building will not do, of course, as a permanent home, but pending such time as funds are available for the purchase or erection of a more suitable plant it will suit very nicely for the accommodation of the overflow from the building now in use. The Martello Hotel has been very greatly improved in recent years, having been practically remodelled for military hospital purposes. It is said that the heating plant is thoroughly satisfactory and that the building readily lends itself to the purpose for which it now to be used. In addition to this, the location is in every way favorable. The grounds are spacious and there is the added advantage of an outlook on Queen Square, which square affords practically unlimited play space for the children. Away from the smoke of the city, with lots of grass and trees in summer, and opportunities for coasting and other winter sports, the unfortunate children who will for a time at least find a home on the West Side, should derive from life a great deal more joy than has been possible in the cramped quarters they at present occupy. The idea of a Provincial Orphanage is an excellent one, and in the movement to establish such a central home for the Protestant children of all New Brunswick, every Protestant church and other organization should unite. Beyond doubt St. John will gladly do more than its share in making such provision. For the immediate present the trustees are in need of financial assistance to make such changes as may be necessary in the Martello property and to carry on the administration of this

WHAT THEY SAY

In the circumstances, Hamilton Herald: "Our look is towards the future, not the past," says W. L. M. King. "Not only is this real wisdom; it is good tactics on the part of the Liberal leader."

Some Fisherman. Mayor Ole Hanson, who cleaned up the Bohemian of Seattle, resigns suddenly with the Simon Peter-like explanation: "I go a-fishing." What sort of fry, and in what waters, and with what "bait," will this super-duper of bungeo for?

Too Hasty, Maybe. Cincinnati Enquirer: Japan is going to keep on irritating China until four or five million Celestials go over and sit down on the chest of that little forty-five million-population bantam while they take off its spurs and clip its comb.

Long Step Forward. New York World: On the whole, the Cummins plan must be regarded as a long step forward in meeting the crisis which has been created by the present railroad situation. In the general principles that it enunciates it is the most hopeful legislative programme that has come out of any agency of Congress in many a day.

Reason Why. New York Times: A correspondent wants to know why it is that the ranking officer in the American army takes precedence of the ranking active officer in the British army. The answer is in the case of the British services. The explanation is simple: We had a regular army before a regular navy, whereas England, to illustrate, had her navy before she established a regular army.

Single Authority Better. New York Tribune: If there is to be public control of railroad rates and expenditures it would seem wise to centre authority in one body. If there are two bodies, divergent policies are likely to develop. The tendency of the Transportation Board would naturally be to yield to demands on all, allowing the Interstate Commerce Commission to struggle to meet the bill. Should the Interstate Commission raise rates to give the railroad owners something on the investment, the temptation of the Transportation Board to grab the money for its employes would be strong.

A BIT OF VERSE

L'ENVOI.

(With Apologies to Rudyard Kipling.) When earth's last kettle is spotted, and the invader's cloths are twisted and dried; When the oldest grease-spot has faded and the youngest dust, or care for her housewife's fame, We shall rest, and faith we shall need; With never a shrill alarm or two to set us to work anew.

And those who were neat shall be happy; the small spit on a cushioned chair. Each weary and separate Martha, so cumbered about with care. They shall have real leisure to draw from, with never a storeman's call. And feet shall have done with aching, and never be tired at all.

With never a caller to gossip and never a neighbor to blame. And no one need scribble on pennies, or care for her housewife's fame, But each for ever and ever, in a separate state alone. Shall do the things she has longed to, in time that is all her own. —Adapted by Martha Haskell Clark

TORONTO HOUSING COM. CONSTRUCT 236 HOUSES

There Have Only Been About One Hundred Bona Fide Applications for Same.

Toronto, Sept. 9.—Manager Swaine, of the Toronto Housing Committee, stated today that while 236 houses are under construction, several almost completed, the bona fide applications number only one hundred. "I am absolutely positive," said Mr. Swaine, "that if we were to commence building now, we could not duplicate the houses we have under construction at present without an added expenditure of $30,000. Carpenters wages have gone up twice since our work began."

JAP OFFICIAL'S STATEMENT RE ADM. KOLCHAK

The Fallacy of the Report is Pointed Out in That Kolchak is Not in Position to Make Binding Pledge.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 9.—Counselor Debusch, charge of the Japanese Embassy, today authorized a categorical denial of a statement, attributed to Bolshevik sources in Moscow, that Admiral Kolchak had applied to Japan for help, offering in return the northern portion of the island of Seghelin and the Ussuri Valley on the mainland of Siberia. Mr. Debusch points out that Admiral Kolchak could not make a binding pledge relating to Russian territory, and that Japan, all along has been giving all aid possible. There is no intention of continuing the extension of aid, said, Counselor Debusch, who reiterated that Japan had no thought of territorial compensation.

DIAMONDS

A Diamond Is Its Own Bargain Today

There are really no bargains in diamonds—in the way of price cutting, because no one cuts the price on goods that have "intrinsic value" and that are advancing in value all the time.

In the last ten years Diamonds have advanced over 100 per cent, and are still going up. That is the reason why "a Diamond investment is its own bargain"—and furthermore Diamonds cannot depreciate in value, at least until new Diamond fields are discovered. "As a gift—or for a personal investment"—you cannot go wrong if you make a purchase of one of our Diamonds.

PLANS FOR NURSES' NEW HOME GIVEN THREE MONTHS' HOIST

County Councillors Consider New Tenders for Building But Decided to Defer Action for Another Three Months—The New Figure for Completed Building Was $161,071.

The matter of erecting a nurses' home is again up in the air. The county councillors were in session for three and a half hours yesterday. In committee they heard the report from the hospital commission, presenting a new set of tenders and recommending that B. Mooney and Son be given the contract for $161,071.

After a long argument the committee adopted a motion giving the matter the three months' hoist. Later when the matter came up in committee, Councillor Bullock, who moved the three months' hoist, had disappeared, and Councillor Thornton said: "Well, if Councillor Bullock would not stop his resolution through the council, for one, will not move the adoption of a report from the committee of the whole."

Councillor Carson—"Then the hospital question will be where we left it at the last special meeting. Nobody disagreed and the council hastily adjourned."

When the councillors were in committee Dr. Walker submitted the report of the joint meeting of the hospital commissioners and finance committee, recommending the acceptance of a new tender by H. Mooney and Son for the following sums:

Building (all trades)	$148,368
Tunnel	2,116
Elevator	6,917
Engineers' and architects' fees ..	7,670
Improvements Needed	$161,071

Councillor Bullock said the report came from the hospital commissioners, though the finance committee had agreed to bringing it before the council. He was enthusiastic as to the report, but it was a question whether they should not give the project the three months' hoist. Perhaps they would not be able to do better next spring, but there was certainly great dissatisfaction with the city's assessment system, and the increased expenditures. He finally moved the three months' hoist.

Councillor Jones seconded this. He said the hospital would presently have to be built, and the hospital should have preference over the nurses' home, though the latter certainly did not have proper accommodation.

Councillor Fisher said his thoughts ran on the same line and he moved that the finance committee and hospital commissioners be authorized to call for new tenders to be submitted to the quarterly meeting in January, so they could go ahead with the work in the spring.

Councillor Hayes said the previous speakers voiced his sentiments from the standpoint of assessment. He thought they had put a limit of $161,071 on the expenditure. However, he would like to hear Mr. Agar's views, as he knew both sides of the question.

M. E. Agar said the building was wanted or it was not. The hospital commissioners had decided that the best way to enlarge the hospital accommodation was to remove the nurses from the main hall and build a home for them. He did not see anything to be gained by waiting, but he expected to see a reduction of prices or wages. Whatever might be the future plans for the hospital, the first step necessary was the provision of a nurses' home.

If the county was not going to assume the responsibility they should say so, and perhaps something could be done by appealing to private generosity, which should do more for the hospital anyway. If they asked contractors to make another tender, they would say it was absurd. If the county would stand by the vote of $161,000 they could put up the building, and provide satisfactory accommodation. The balconies and porches were not absolutely necessary.

WEDDINGS
McHarg-Beveridge.
One of the prettiest and most interesting weddings of the season was solemnized at three o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Fairville Baptist church, when Miss Clara Louise Beveridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Beveridge, of Manawagonish road, became the bride of Lester McHarg of this city. The bride, was given in marriage by her father. Little Doris Nickerson, a niece of the bride, made a pretty little flower girl, and six young ladies, intimate friends of the bride, performed the duties of ribbon bearers. Rev. A. S. Bishop officiated at the ceremony. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Irene Stymist, a music pupil of the bride. During the ceremony, Mrs. Murray Long sang "O Promise Me," and Miss Blanche McQueen sang "I Love You Truly." Clarence and Chester Beveridge, brothers of the bride, acted as ushers. Following the wedding a reception was held at the bride's home for the guests. Among the gifts was a substantial check from the N. B. Power Co., where the groom has been employed several years, also a silver service from the choir of the Fairville Baptist church, of which the bride was organist. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful necklace of fox fur. Mr. and Mrs. McHarg left on the C. P. R. train for Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls and other Canadian cities. They will reside in Windsor, Ont.

The news of her marriage, received today, comes as a great surprise to her many friends, who, while regretting her departure from the city will join in wishing her every happiness in her new home in Vancouver, B. C.

The wedding ceremony was performed on September 3rd in the chapel of the Mission to Seamen, Vancouver, by the chaplain, Rev. H. C. Lewis Hooper.

Kiev Entirely Cleared of Bolsheviks and Ukrainians Are in Hot Pursuit.
Geneva, Sept. 9.—(French Wireless)—The city of Kiev, which recently was captured from the Bolsheviks, has not only been entirely cleared of Bolshevik forces, but the Ukrainians have advanced more than thirty miles northward, the Ukrainian press bureaus here announce. The red troops are being pursued by the Ukrainians along the River Dniester.

New York, Sept. 9.—Several persons were injured, and hundreds of windows were shattered when gases, which had accumulated under the pavement at Third avenue and Forty-second street, caused a series of spectacular explosions today. The iron coverings of manholes were hurled high into the air, some of them over the elevated railroad structures. No one was hit by the covers when they fell, and most of the injured were cut by the broken glass, the explosions caused a panic in the neighborhood, and police reserves were called to restore order.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Walter Cox, king of New England horsemen, achieved the ambition of his career at the Syracuse Grand Circuit meeting today when he piloted MacGregor, the Great, to a straight heat victory in the classic empire state $10,000 stake for 2 1/2 class trotters. Cox not only won the event but established a new record in the first heat which MacGregor stepped in 2:03 1/4. It was the fastest time a trotter ever made in the big event.

LITTLE BITS OF SPORT CHATTER

Duncan C. Ross, holder of the Victoria Cross for valor in the British Army, formerly world's champion broadswordman and noted as a wrestler of days gone by, was found dead in his little curio shop in Pennsylvania avenue, Baltimore. He suffered a stroke of paralysis some time ago and it is believed a second stroke caused his death.

Cy Falkenberg, the old Cleveland and Washington pitcher, is somewhat of an iron man out on the Pacific Coast. The "Human Slat" won three games in a series recently for Oakland against San Francisco, pitching on Wednesday, Saturday and Monday.

Georgetown University is indeed lucky in its prospect of enrolling four such star schoolboy athletes as Billy Nolan of East Boston High, John Feeney of English High, Gus Malley of Boston South and Jimmy Connolly of Woburn High. Nolan, Feeney and Connolly are among the best in track athletics, and Malley has the distinction of having been both a baseball and football captain.

Rabbit Maravilla is the same old candy kid among the New York fans. The Rabbit might be with one of the real tall-tens—but the New Yorkers waive this fact when the Rabbit ever comes to New York. Johnny McGraw doesn't try to land his big hit. He has had pretty good success with every other big league star he has gone after.

Jimmy Wilde, the British flyweight champion, is planning a public invasion of this country. He hopes to meet all the best boys in the different cities that he will visit over the four-round distance. "Won't it be nice to travel from one city to another and meet all the different boys?" says Jimmy. Yes, it will, provided some youngster doesn't plant one on the end of his jaw. Then it will be the next best home for little Jimmy—Boston Post.

All the New England athletes who competed in the Canadian Exhibition games Saturday almost want to become Maple Leaf wearers. They claim that the Prince of Wales was never treated more royally than on their little jaunt to Toronto.

Jimmy Connolly didn't beat Joe Ray but he did the next best thing by forcing the little Illinois runner to do 4:14 for the mile in the Canadian games. Yes, Jimmy, we are proud of you and there is a chance to get Frying Joe yet—Exchange.

No one is happier over the popularity of the eight-round, no decision game in Jersey than Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion. With eight-ounce gloves for pillows and no decisions and only 24 minutes of scrapping, Johnny can hold on to that featherweight title for a while longer.

Reading about Pat Ryan winning three events in the weights at the Camp Dix Olympic games last Saturday recalls when John Flanagan was in his prime. John never thought that he did a day's work unless he copped the hammer, 56 and shot in one day's meeting.

FRIENDS WORKING TO REDUCE TERM OF EPSOM RIOTERS

Petition Being Promulgated for Reduction of Sentence of Twelve Months Imposed Upon Canadians Connected With Epsom Affair.

London, Sept. 8.—(By Canadian Associated Press cable)—A petition is being circulated here for a reduction of the sentence of twelve months' imprisonment upon several Canadian soldiers, in connection with the Epsom riots. When Justice Darling passed sentence, he excused the prisoners from hard labor on the grounds of their war service, and added there seems to be no difference between their conduct and that of some people belonging to this country, except that the latter were, if anything, worse.

Arguments were subsequently addressed to the Court of Criminal Appeal for a reduction of the sentence but without effect.

GERMAN SOLDIERS KILL U. S. PRIVATE

Two Americans Attack While Deer Hunting in Neutral Zone Near Coblenz.

Coblenz, Saturday, Sept. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Pr. Reuss Madson, of Sacramento, Cal., was shot and instantly killed today by German soldiers in the neutral zone about a mile from the boundary of the Coblenz bridgehead.

Madson and Private Bert Balsinger, of the Eighth Infantry, who had been on outpost duty, were deer hunting when they encountered a German patrol of thirteen soldiers. According to Balsinger, the Germans began firing without asking an explanation as to Balsinger, the Germans began firing.

American authorities told the German authorities that when he and Madson encountered the German patrol, Madson fired first and Balsinger shot at him. Madson was shot and killed.

Balsinger was taken prisoner by the Germans and later turned over to the American consul at Coblenz, Major George Cockrell, and brought to Coblenz. Madson will be buried in the American cemetery at Coblenz.

GERMAN TROOPS OUT OF CONTROL

Entente Informed That Evacuation of Baltic Provinces is Impossible.

Berlin, Sept. 7.—(By The Associated Press)—The government has addressed a note to the Entente powers regretting that the evacuation by the Germans of the Baltic provinces, which has been ordered by the peace conference, is impossible owing to the insubordination of the German troops still in Courland.

"In consequence of the restrictions imposed by the allied governments Germany is not in a position to compel the absence of its troops by military means," the note says. "There is nothing the German government can do but to try by persuasion to bring the troops to reason. As a result of the extremely excited feeling among the troops, it is impossible now to prepare a plan of evacuation and return the troops to the sea."

NEW ZEALAND EXPECTS 10,000,000 POUNDS INDEMNITY

This Announcement from Premier Massey Subject of Comment Among Members at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—A statement attributed to Premier Massey that New Zealand expects to receive ten million pounds indemnity from Germany is the subject of comment among members of parliament, and there is likelihood of questions in the House as to what Canada's share is likely to be.

Canada's statement of claims has already been filed, but it is emphasized here, what will be received cannot be estimated till all claims have been filed and the ability of Germany to pay has been determined.

(A)—Cost of armies of occupation during armistice and its extension.

(B)—Cost of any armies of occupation after the coming into force of the peace treaty.

(C)—Cost of repatriation arising out of the peace treaty or any treaties or conventions supplementary thereto.

Canada has a minor claim, in addition to its general claims, under the first priority class. This is for the cost of Canadian forces on the Rhine during the period of armistice.

Peter Dronkites Now Lies in Notre Dame Hospital in a Very Critical Condition.

Montreal, Sept. 8.—"I know I'm going to die," said Peter Dronkites to Judge Laucot in the Notre Dame Hospital prior to the magistrate's hearing of his ante-mortem statement of events which sent him to the institution following a row early yesterday morning in a soft drink restaurant and fruit store at 1387 St. Catherine street east.

The victim, Peter Dronkites, 32 years old, is suffering from a cut head, cuts in the front and back of the neck, and fractured left arm, three bullet wounds in the abdomen, and a cut right eye. The victim's condition is critical and the doctors have little hope of being able to save his life.

The man held by the police in connection with the affair is George Peter, 27 years of age. Peter is also suffering from slight cuts about the head and a cut right hand. He was treated in the hospital before being taken to the detective bureau. He was found hiding in a cupboard under a stairway in his cousin's home.

Dronkites, in his statement, declared that a short time before he closed up his shop a man, whom he knew slightly, had come in and they had talked a while. When the time came to close the shop, he asked the man if he was going out or if he wanted to remain with him for the night. The man said he would stay. They made a bed in the back of the shop and went to sleep.

"During the night," said Dronkites, "I was awakened by the man who robbed me and beat me on the head with the butt of his revolver. I tried to defend myself and he grabbed a knife and later fired several shots at me."

The victim said that he thought that the fight occurred between four and five o'clock. He fell into a swoon and the man went away.

and clarity of his vision and the courageous persistence which he displayed in fighting for Confederation. Sir John Macdonald said that he was bold as a lion, and but for him Confederation would never have been carried.
Carrier was associated with Pappan-in the troubles of 1837 and for a time was exiled from the country. On his return he discharged some bitterness towards the rebel leader's course and became a vigorous supporter of British connection. As a French-Canadian, Macdonald's maintenance of the old traditions, he realized that the British flag was the only defence of his race. He steadily resisted the movement towards annexation to the United States, having a pronounced distaste for radical or republican tendencies, and believing, rightly, that Quebec would lose its individuality if included in the Republic.

Sir George had no lack of enemies.
His political opponents attacked him from every angle, but he could not be or be persuaded nor coerced. His course was laid and he held to it. Lacking an alluring personality, such as distinguished Menier and Laurier, he plodded resolutely through the political underbrush, not without aerism.

He lived to see his popularity depart, and to be a lonely as well as a weary Titan. He and Macdonald are dead, but their work lives. Canadians who have grown to manhood and grey hairs under Confederation know the incomparable value of that measure.
It gave power and purpose to a Southern North America and has been a source of strength to the Motherland in a time of bitter trial. English and French-Canadians alike can pay respectful tribute to the memory of Sir George Edouard Carrier.

Having been nominated by a Convention of the UNITED FARMERS OF NEW BRUNSWICK, which was held in Woodstock on September 2nd, to contest the coming by-election in the riding of Carleton Place, I therefore above constituency to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Dominion Minister of Public Works, and as the Election is to be held on October 27th and the time being so short, it will be impossible for me to personally call on all the Electors in the two Counties, I therefore, take this opportunity to state to you what the aims of the UNITED FARMERS are.

They are, in brief, as follows:
THE UNITED FARMERS are strictly independent of both the old Political Parties, and their representatives will be perfectly free to support any measure that is for the best interests of the Farmers of Canada, and just as free to oppose any measure that they feel is not in the interests of the Farmers.

And Canada, being an Agricultural Country, we believe that any legislation that is beneficial to Agriculture is indirectly beneficial to every citizen of Canada.

THE UNITED FARMERS also stand for PURITY in elections, as they believe that the lack of this is the starting point of all the Political Graft and Corruption which is so much to evidence in Canada today.

We would therefore appeal to every loyal citizen of Canada to support the FARMERS PARTY, and to the Electors of Carleton-Victoria, to support me as the UNITED FARMERS' Candidate in the coming By-Election.

Yours sincerely,
T. W. CALDWELL.

THE ARREST OF EMIR SAID WAS JUSTIFIABLE

Field Marshal Allenby Declares he is in Accord With the French on All Points in Syria.

Paris, Sept. 9.—Field Marshal P.
Allenby, commander of the Allied forces in Asia Minor, talked on conditions in Syria in an interview given at Marseilles on his arrival there yesterday. He declared that he had been in agreement on all points with the representative of France in Syria, and he justified the arrest of Emir Said, at Beirut recently. The Field Marshal declared he was willing to have the Emir released if the French government decided to have him expelled from Syria, where his behaviour, the Field Marshal declared, could only lead to induce disorder. Field Marshal Allenby asserted that he had always done his very best to facilitate the task of France in Syria.

ONLY FUMING FROM MILL.
Breaking all the bounds of propriety, fumes from the pulp mill swept along the valley yesterday afternoon, making such an attack upon the sense of smell that handkerchiefs were brought into use whenever possible and most of the houses closed down the windows tightly. The first conjecture was that a new gash factory had started operations in the vicinity, later that a branch of a well-known fertilizer works was going to extend its operations, but when the fumes and aroma became too general for even these conjectures, the truth of the matter was brought to light.

MASTER OF STEAMER GLENHOLME WAS SEVERELY REPRIMANDED ON ACCOUNT OF GROUNDING OF SHIP

Court Took Into Consideration the Good Record of the Captain and Decided Not to Deal With His Certificate—Ship Was Cleared for Freight and Not for Passengers

The enquiry into the grounding of the steamer Glenholme on August 22, was held yesterday afternoon in the office of the Naval Transport officer, Prince William street. After hearing the evidence of Capt. H. W. Moore, master of the vessel, and J. S. McCullough, engineer, the court, after consideration, decided not to penalize the captain, but reprimanded him severely. The court also criticized the carrying of passengers on the steamer without more of a crew. The court was composed of Capt. L. A. Demers, Dominion Wreck Commissioner, and Capt. A. J. Mulcahy and Capt. H. C. Barcham. The official finding was as follows: The court after having carefully weighed the evidence of the master and engineer—the latter being one of the principal owners of the ship—has come to the conclusion that the master, H. W. Moore, erred gravely in judgment in being over-confident of the position of the vessel, and taking for granted the bearing of the sound of the fog horn of Cape D'Or was as he anticipated, without further precautions to assure himself of the distance of such whistle, but owing to the fact that this vessel is engaged in limited coasting trade, and this master having for years performed these trips under similar circumstances with success, this over-confidence, in one sense, is overlooked by the court. There were some passengers on board the vessel, who transferred to the boats promptly, no lives being lost or endangered. In view of these facts the court will not deal with the certificate of the master, but reprimanded him very severely for not adopting other measures of precaution to assure himself that his ship was in the position he expected it to be, in view of the dense fog which was existing at the time, as well as the eddy, which he knew was there, but the hour and strength of which he was uncertain, and again not being sure of the speed and velocity of the tide. The court will add that it condemns the system which permits a man holding a certificate as master of tug boats to be in command of a vessel carrying passengers. Upon examination of the customs clearance certificate it appears the vessel is only cleared for freight, though she was carrying passengers at the time, and is to all intents and purposes, a passenger and freight vessel. The court also looks with askance on the conditions which prevailed on board the S. S. Glenholme, which is subsidized to carry passengers, and does not carry more of a crew to attend to the safety of all concerned. The fact of the master being alone to attend to navigation, and only one engineer in the engine room to perform all the operations necessary in the coasting trade is, in the point of view of the court, insufficient. The above is brought to the attention of the interested parties. Read in open court at St. John, N. B., this sixth day of September, 1919. L. A. Demers, Dominion Wreck Commissioner. A. J. Mulcahy, H. C. Barcham, assessors.

G. W. V. A. Asks For Engineers To Meet In St. John Today

A. E. Frame, Provincial Secretary, Says Association is Not Asking for Direct Amount of Money.

"The Great War Veterans' Association has asked the government to grant a commission to go into the matter of gratuities and other affairs pertaining to the re-establishment of the returned soldiers," said A. E. Frame, provincial secretary of the G. W. V. A. last night. "There seems to be an impression that the association is asking for a direct amount of money, but the whole idea is to have a commission to take up the cases of the soldiers and make recommendations on the proper method of handling them. It is felt that many of the returned men have made legitimate efforts to get settled, but so far they have been unable to secure employment. These men, many of whom were just out of school, went overseas and took a share of the work there. Now they are returning and have no trade or business to go into. These men should have a chance to get into something where they can earn a suitable living. The idea of the G. W. V. A. is to have a commission, which could make some provision for these men. We feel that the government has done much for returned men, but the request is solely for a fair opportunity to present for thorough investigation various schemes, which offer possible solution with the least possible expenditure of the problems now before the men."

FIRE AT WESTFIELD.

The buildings were situated near the Wilson box factory, and at one time neighboring houses were endangered by the flames, but fortunately none caught fire. The store and stock were insured for $1,000 in the Queen Fire Insurance Company. There was insurance of $900 on the stock and $300 on the building with the Royal.

Fell To Roadway From Moving Car

Earle McBride Received Injuries to His Head and Was Rendered Unconscious—Condition Not Serious.

The folly of riding on the outside of a street car was forcibly brought home to Earle McBride of Dean Avenue last evening and as a result of being thrown from the rear of a car while en route to his home he will spend a few days in bed. The young man, who is employed in the B. Broad Cider works, jumped on the car at Portland street. As it was crowded his, according to a witness of the accident, stood on the rear. When the car reached the city end of the bridge he was in some manner thrown to the ground striking his head. The fall rendered him unconscious and a passing automobile brought him to the office of Dr. W. F. Roberts. As the doctor was away Dr. C. M. Pratt was summoned and rendered medical aid. After about twenty minutes he recovered consciousness but was unable to give any clear account of the accident. The conductor of the car did not know of the man falling off until the car had reached the other side of the bridge, when he stopped the car and went back to see how badly he was hurt. In the meantime the injured man had been brought to the city. After recovering consciousness the ambulance was summoned and he was removed to his home. Dr. Pratt, the physician in attendance, said last night he did not expect any serious results from the accident, but the young man would have to be kept quiet for a few days.

Last Chance For Tax Discounts

Chamberlain's Staff Has Been Kept Busy Issuing Receipts—Cheques Must be in Today.

Those who wish to pay their taxes by mail should take note of the fact that this year their cheques must be in the office of City Chamberlain today in order to entitle them to the benefit of the five per cent. discount. In the past letters containing cheques in payment of taxes were accepted as eligible for the discount if they were in the post office on the day of the expiration of the discount, but the new act makes it necessary for the letters to have reached the Chamberlain. This will be the last day on which people can secure the discount on their taxes. Owing to the delay in getting out the tax bills there have been queues of people waiting at City Hall to pay their taxes for some days and the Chamberlain's staff has been busy every night till a late hour getting things straightened out. The Chamberlain stated last night that it was impossible to tell how the amount being paid in under the discount will compare with previous years.
