TOWN COUNCIL THURSDAY NIGHT.

John F. McKane Gives the Firemen $100.—Council Adds $25.

STATE OF FINANCES.

Interesting Communications—Bills Passed.—Water Problem Discussed Again.

Regular meeting of Town Council met in Town Hall on Thursday evening. Mayor Miller in the chair. A sermon present.—Bryce, John Clark, T. A. Clarke, Falconer and Morrissey. Minutes of previous regular and special meetings read and approved.

Communications were read: From Canadian Fairbanks Co. regarding flaw in air-chamber of pump and stating that their pump department would take up the matter with the Council and no doubt replace the defective air-chamber by a new one. Filed.

Communication received from John Wright asking for payment for labor during last ten years expended in keeping open drain that runs across the head of Mitchell street. He claimed that he had to keep said drain cleaned out in order to keep his yard from being flooded after each rain storm. He thought that $30 or $40 would be just remuneration. And he would like to have the drain seen to at once so as to avoid further trouble with floods.

Ald. John Clark, T. A. Clarke, and Morrissey agreed that the drain was not in good order, largely due to bad condition of that part that is on private property. Ald. Morrissey thought there was good reason for Mr. Wright's dissatisfaction and that something should be done by Council if possible. It was brought out in discussion that there had been a sewer to drain that section some years ago. The sewer had emptied into Hickson's boom, and, on his complaint that it was filling up his boom with silt, had been closed.

Communication was received and placed on file, with the understanding that the Public Works Committee should look into the matter and do what was possible to remedy the trouble.

The Mayor read extracts from a letter received from Mr. Kelly regarding the draw on the North West bridge, expressing opinion that the government would probably assist as the Council desired if representation was made to it by the local member.

His Worship read a telegram from John F. McKane stating that Chief Kerr of St. John fire department was anxious that Newcastle fire department be represented at Labor Day Tournament there. Mr. McKane offered to donate $100 towards expenses.

Communication from Robert Murray, M. P. P., was read by the Mayor, that the resignation of Colonel Maltby as chairman of the Board of Health had been accepted and asking him to recommend a successor. He had recommended Simon MacLeod who had signified his willingness to serve.

The communications read by His Worship were received and filed.

ACCIDENT AT INDIANTOWN.

Guy Lines Gave Way While Stone Was Being Hoisted In Hood's Quarry

THREE MEN KILLED

Two Injured—Account Of The Disaster—Coroner's Inquest.

William Stewart, a single man, aged 46, belonging to Indiantown; and Joseph Czorny, a Pole, seventeen years old, were killed outright; and Herman O'Brien of Indiantown, single, aged 21, was so badly injured that he died in an hour.

About 10:25 Friday morning a telephone message from Indiantown announced a terrible accident at Hood's quarry, about eighteen miles from Newcastle. Dr. Pedolin reached the quarry about 11:40, and attended to one of the injured, William Jardine, aged twenty-three, a married man, who, with his wife and one child, lives with his widowed mother, Mrs. Robert Jardine. He found Jardine suffering from a compound fracture of the lower left leg and a cut on the back of the head, which was not serious, but the head was badly bruised. His chances for recovery are good. Dr. McManus of Blackville dressed the wounds of Addington Stewart, a boy of fifteen, who was cut on the face from the hair down the forehead, through the nose, down to the angle of the jaw. Eight or nine stitches were required.

Jardine and Addington Stewart were working on a car near where the stone was being hoisted, and the sheer from the falling boom struck Jardine on the leg fracturing it, and knocking him and Stewart off the car.

The accident occurred about 10:15. An inquest was held by F. J. Desmond, M. D., Coroner, Saturday morning. T. W. Butler, Clerk of the Peace, appeared for the Crown; A. A. Davidson for the Miramichi Quarry Co.; and T. H. Whalen for the relatives of O'Brien. Herbert Holt, quarryman, sworn, was working in Miramichi Quarry Co.'s quarry on the 16th inst. Saw Stewart and O'Brien alive at ten o'clock. O'Brien was loading boxes on car below embankment on which derrick rested. Stewart was working on shelf at level of derrick. About an hour before saw Czorny at work on top level. These men were all in the employ of Miramichi Quarry Co. at that time. Was standing close to Wm. Stewart at time of accident. Were going to raise a stone, of about eight tons. Were standing nearly under boom hitched to stone. He gave signal to hoist, giving notice to Wheelock Jardine, Wm. Stewart and Caleb Gerrish, his assistants. After the engine started to hoist, one of the five guys gave way, and then the mast and boom fell. Then a second guy gave way. The boom struck and killed Stewart. The mast struck O'Brien who died an hour afterwards, being conscious about half an hour before he died. The second guy falling entangled Joseph Czorny, pitching him down from the top to the second level, breaking his neck. O'Brien and Wm. Jardine had been working at the car on the lower level. The mast that struck O'Brien was ninety feet high. O'Brien was removed to the office before he died.

It was witness' duty to look after the hoisting gear. There was no employee whose special duty it was to see that the guys were in order. He had not been up to them since two weeks. Had not examined them since the late storm. A derrick had fallen last summer when a strain was upon it. The "dead men" for anchorage had been put down last summer. Did not know of any tests having been made of them then. He considered anchorage skillfully placed. Had hoisted stones over ten tons on different occasions. None of the guy wires broke. The "dead man" holding down the end of the wire of No. 1 guy had pulled out of the earth. The "dead man" had to pull through about six feet of earth. The cause of the accident was that there was not enough strain in front to stand the strain. It was not impossible to have it further back. He considered that the

ACADIAN TO CONTEST COUNTY

Meeting At Chatham Thursday Decides To Run One Acadian At Next Local Election

VIGOROUS SPEECHES.

An Appeal to English-Speaking Majority For Fair Play.

At Chatham, Thursday, fifty persons representing the French centre of the county were present at a meeting held in Masonic Hall to celebrate the Acadian day and to take steps towards choosing a representative candidate at the next local election. Reuben Babineau presided.

Rouais Savoy, of Riviere des Chaches, was the first speaker, taking for his subject the necessity of having a French member in the local legislature.

D. T. Robichaud, editor of "La Justice," Newcastle, reviewed the history of the Acadians, his object being to give a stronger idea of the progress his people had achieved. Referring to the loyalty of the French, he said that it was their duty as British subjects and Christians to treat their English brethren respectfully but the Acadians should never consider themselves an inferior race. Let us consider ourselves, he said, as intelligent and as true British subjects as the English who surround us and they will learn to know us better for they always appreciate in others the same noble sentiments which have made them the predominant race of the world.

Referring to a candidate of their nationality, he urged that steps be taken to nominate a representative at once. He felt sure that the majority appreciate the tolerance of Acadians in counties where they are the dominant party.

Other speakers were J. Ken Breaux, Peter Archer, F. C. Maillet, J. F. Bourque, J. Boudreau and others.

A committee was appointed to meet on Sept. 2 to nominate a French candidate. After the meeting a very enjoyable celebration was held at Babineau Hotel. Speeches were delivered on the Acadians' national day and supper was served at 7 1/2 o'clock.

It was pointed out that rains would have a tendency to weaken the resistance of the earth. Had had no experience in placing "dead men" except here.

Sanford Stewart, sworn, told of seeing Czorny caught in the second guy that pulled out and hurled him over the ledge.

H. K. Maltby testified that when he prepared the bodies for burial he found that Czorny's neck was broken, also his right arm; William Stewart had skull fractured and both legs broken; O'Brien's head was bandaged and body bruised.

John Butler, sworn: Was general foreman of quarry. Was not present at accident. Made last general inspection about three weeks ago, after a rain. Everything then was in order. Was not present when "deadmen" were placed. Knew of no test having been made to establish maximum standard of resistance. Had seen as much as four tons lifted more than weight that caused break. Test once every 6 months and after heavy rains would be advisable. Concluded that recent rains had softened earth and weakened its resistance. Had gone over the working plant since accident and considered it in good order.

Robert Cummings, sworn: Had been working in this quarry since 1902. Was not present when the anchorages were put down. Was instructed this summer to inspect anchorages. Had had experience putting down anchorages. The anchorage that first gave way was hardest to place and keep from drawing out. Had the bench for the "dead man" for said anchorage been sunk deeper and more heavily ballasted it would have stood more resistance, but he had considered it was safe. Believed it gave way because of continued wet weather. He examined that anchorage after last storm, but detected no evidence of weakening. Made examination on Tuesday.

ODD FELLOWS ANNUAL MEETINGS.

Grand Encampment, Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly at St. Stephen.

600 DELEGATES

Increase of Membership All Along The Line And Good Balance On Hand

The sixteenth annual session of the Grand Encampment, I. O. O. F. of the Maritime Provinces, met at St. Stephen on the 13th inst. Grand Patriarch Hart reported the present Membership as 1,024 a net gain of 181 during year.

Three new encampments had been instituted, at Liverpool, Kentville Stellarton, the present number being 25. $251.50 was paid for relief during year. Balance on hand was $891.94. John H. Youmans, Amherst, was elected G. H.; Melville McKean, Moncton, Scribe, and Charles A. Sampson, Fredericton, Treasurer.

The fourth annual session of the Rebekah Assembly met at same time and place.

President Mrs. Hebb reported a net gain of 157 brothers and 312 sisters, making present membership 3,299—1,196 brothers and 2,103 sisters. Balance on hand was $410.02. Seven new lodges were instituted during year. Miss Hattie Bayers, Halifax, was elected Grand Pres.; Miss Mary McKean, Moncton, sec.; and Mrs. P. McGowan, Moncton Treas. During the year the Rebekah paid out $11,675.91 in relief.

The Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. met in St. Stephen on the 14th. The present membership was reported as 7,859. Balance on hand $2,549.98. Four new lodges besides the Seven Rebekah lodge, had been organized during year. For ensuing year, W. S. Rogers, Halifax, is G. M.; D. G. Widden Antigonish, G. Sec.; and J. H. Balcom, Halifax, S. Treasurer. The Grand Lodge has lowered its per capita tax from 44 to 40 cents.

At three meetings there were some 600 delegates.

and general manager of the quarry company, who arrived from Montreal late on Friday, sworn: Personally inspected derrick preceding Saturday and considered it in good order. Corroborated evidence of Messrs. Holt, Butler and Cummings. Hoisting machinery had been designed for a twenty ton capacity. The mast being slim did not consider it stiff enough for a twenty ton lift without additional truss rods, but calculated the anchorages were. Had not thought heavy rains would have made so much difference with the anchorages.

The evidence of George Oakes and John Gerrish was unimportant.

The verdict was as follows:— "We, the jurors, find the deceased men, viz., Herman O'Brien, Wm. Stewart and Joseph Czorny, came to their death while working in the Miramichi Quarry Company's quarry at Indiantown, Parish of Derby, County of Northumberland, by being struck with the wreckage of the boom, mast and rigging of a falling derrick then being used in the said quarry on the 16th day of August, 1907.

"We further find the cause of the derrick falling was, on account of the anchorage on No. 1 and No. 2 guy wires on the said derrick giving way owing to the anchorage not being sufficient to hold the strain put upon the derrick on that occasion.

"We further agree that reasonable precautions were not taken by the superintendent of the quarry company in putting down the "dead men" of the anchorage.

GALLEY'S DEATH INVESTIGATED.

Coroner's Jury Exonerate Captain Nowlan From all Blame, As He Used His Best Judgement.

Coroner Benson, of Chatham, on Friday evening in the following jury to hold an inquest upon the remains of the late Theophilus Galley:— John Ashford (foreman), Howard Jeffrie, Blackstock Matheson, John Kingston, Howard Whitney, Joseph Ingram, Chas. Sergeant. The jury viewed the remains, and the Coroner then adjourned the inquest until Wednesday at 10 a.m.

The taking of evidence opened at 11 a.m. Wednesday, in the town hall. T. W. Butler, Clerk of the Peace, conducted the investigation for the Crown, A. A. Davidson appeared for the Miramichi Steam Navigation Co., and R. A. Lawlor for Capt. Nowlan.

Frank Galley, a brother of the deceased man, was the first witness sworn. He identified the body which the jury had viewed, as that of Theophilus Galley. Was on the steamer Alexandra on the excursion on Tuesday night. Do not know date. Saw my brother come on board at Chatham. Was not speaking to him on the boat that night. Saw him afterwards when the boat was going down river. Did not see him after boat turned to come up river. There was an alarm of an accident when the boat was going down. A girl, Carrie Sevrut, came to me and told me my brother was overboard. That was the first I heard of it. I went and told the captain that my brother was overboard. He said it was too late and too dark to do any good. It was a pretty dark night; no moon. An object could not be seen in the water from the boat's deck. The boat kept on her course down river; for two or three miles, I think, then turned and came back. Boat eased up a little, and the whistle blew, but she did not stop. No life preservers thrown over nor boat lowered. No attempt made at rescue at all so far as I know. Did not make any protest against this to captain or any of the crew. My brother was not able to swim. Captain nor anybody else did not ask me about that when I went to him. Did not tell anybody that he could not swim. Did not see him again until I saw his body at the undertaker's. Do not know if he was drinking that night or not. When I saw him he did not seem to have been drinking.

To Mr. Davidson: The boat blew her whistle before she eased up. To Mr. Lawlor: Carrie Sevrut who told me he was overboard was the young lady he was keeping company with that night. I told the captain five or six minutes after he went overboard. I was on the upper deck and went right to the captain to tell him. The boat was crowded with passengers. Had a good deal of difficulty in getting to the captain.

Allan Russell, sworn: Knew Theophilus Galley. Was on the steamer Alexandra on the night of July 30. Saw deceased on the boat. Was on the stern of the boat on the top deck when I saw him last. He was on the same deck. Boat was then below Middle Island. I was seated near the stern of the boat. The stern was crowded with passengers. Was seated with Miss Geikie. Theophilus Galley came out of the door of the cabin, lifted his hat to me, and kept straight on across the boat. There were two small boys whom I do not know seated, and there was a lady sitting next to them. Was told it was Miss Johnstone. He made an attempt to part the two boys. I thought he wanted to sit down. He stepped up on the bench and stepped over, as far as I could see. It was a little dark. He did not hesitate from the time he came out of the cabin. I think there is a station near where he went over. Do not know if put his hand on it or not. For a moment I could hardly believe he was overboard. Some of the passengers sang out "a man overboard." I then started for the cabin. The crowd was so confused it was almost impossible to go through them.

I got about to the side door of the cabin; got blocked there and could not get any farther. Asked them if they had told the captain there was a man overboard, and someone answered "yes." There was a general cry of "man overboard" the moment it happened. There was no light near where I was at all. Do not think there was any light on the deck except from the cabin. I then went back to the stern of the boat. Seeing that the boat was not stopping, I again started for the cabin. Tried the starboard door of the wheelhouse. It could not be opened easily. Then went to the port side, opened the door and exclaimed "man overboard." Do not know who was in the wheelhouse, or if there were more than one person in at the time. Heard only one voice. There was no light. The answer I got was, I think, "I heard that a few minutes ago, but I can't stop." I think those were the words used.

To Mr. Lawlor: It was out of the stern door of the cabin that Galley came. That would be about amid-ship.

To Foreman Ashford: Can't say how long it was after Galley went over before I reached the wheelhouse. It might be six or seven minutes. It was very dark, and after ten o'clock. It did not occur to me to throw anything overboard and did not see anybody else do so. Steamer continued on her course down river for half an hour. Do not remember whistle being blown or boat slowing down.

To Mr. Davidson: Bought my ticket on the wharf at Newcastle before going on board. Did not see Galley on board until he came out of the cabin as stated.

Miss Bertha Johnstone, of Chatham, sworn: Did not know deceased. Was on steamer Alexandra on night of July 30. When accident occurred was sitting on stationary seat at side of boat, on the second deck. Deck was lighted by lanterns hanging between cabin and stern of boat. Saw a man come across the deck. He passed me and pushed his way up to the side of the rail. Was not noticing him particularly. The next thing I heard was a splash at the side of the boat. Then a girl came along looking for him and I told her he had gone overboard. Asked her who he was and understood her to say Joe Galley; probably she said Theo. Galley. She got excited and I tried to quiet her. She went away and came back again. When she came back she tried to jump over after him. Some boys kept her back. Told some of the boys standing around to go and tell the captain. Do not know if they did so. Did not see the man in the water. It was very dark. He went over towards the Newcastle side. I was sitting with my back to a station. There was a small boy between me and where he went over. The boat was crowded.

To Mr. Lawlor: A minute or two elapsed after he went over, before the young lady came.

To Foreman Ashford: Did not hear him make any noise after he went into the water.

To Mr. Butler: From the time he came over by me until he went overboard was only a second, practically instantaneously.

The inquest was here adjourned until 4:30 p.m.

On resuming, Miss Carrie Sevrut was the first witness sworn. She said: Deceased came out of cabin and he went just ahead of me to the side of the vessel. There were two couples sitting there. He went in between them, stooped over the rail, and then fell overboard. I saw him fall. There was a rope or something on the deck. When I ran to see what happened him I got caught on this rope, and thought it might have tripped him, as he was sick before he came out. It might have been a raise in the deck that I tripped over. I was excited and did not notice what it was. I told his brother that he was overboard, right away after he went over. Steamer was very much crowded. Would take a minute or two to look up anyone. I sang out there was a man from Newcastle overboard, and everybody came around me. Others cried out afterwards. Before starting for there he had not said anything to lead me to believe he was going overboard. From what I saw I think it was purely accidental. He told me he had not drunk all day, but I know that on the boat he had a little drink with three men. He did not seem to be intoxicated. Did not notice that there was any particular lurch or movement of the crowd against him that would push him over. There was no one near him that would push him over.

To Foreman Ashford: Did not see any light at the stern when we came out of the cabin.

To Mr. Lawlor: Was no more than four or five feet behind him when he went overboard. Did not see him put his foot up on the seat, but would not swear he did not. Could only see one of his feet as he went over. As Theo went out the door of the cabin I stopped to speak to Frank, his brother, to tell him to stay where he was till we came back. That was the reason I was not quite near when he went over. He went straight out from the door. He went to the right side of the post, or flagstaff on the stern. Put his left hand on the flagstaff and fell over. Did not hear noise when he went over except the splash in the water. Night was very dark.

To Foreman: Went right away to tell Frank. Told Frank to tell the captain. Frank went away and came back to me, and we both went to the captain. Captain was in the wheelhouse. We went right in to the wheelhouse. I told the captain that there was a man from Newcastle overboard, and mentioned his name. Said "would you please stop the boat, there is a man overboard." He said it was too dark a night to have a search. He asked me could he swim. I said he could not. He said, "it's no use, he is at the bottom." Did not hear a whistle or notice the boat slow up. Would not say it did not happen.

To Mr. Lawlor: Would not think it was five minutes, but it may have been longer from the time he went overboard until I got to the captain with Frank. (On being told of Fran Galley's evidence witness it might have been 10 minutes.) Heard someone say it was not a man, but a chair, overboard. Was at the side of the boat then. Heard that before I went to the captain and afterwards.

Capt. James Nowlan sworn: Am master of Str. Alexandra. Passenger capacity of boat is 400. Carries two lifeboats, 400 life-preservers, and two ring-life buoys. Preservers are kept overhead where they will be most available. Vessel was equipped in this way on night of July 30. There were 341 passengers on board on that night. Left Chatham about 9:15 p.m. It was as dark a night as ever I was on the water. Saw no moon nor stars. There are no regulations that I know of about excursion parties on such dark nights. We go when we are told by the manager. We were away from Chatham a half hour or more when I first learned of the accident. We were then abreast of Stewart's. That is about 2 1/2 miles below Chatham. We were nearer the north side of the river. I was in the wheelhouse at the wheel, at the time. The first word I got was when a boy came up to me, and told me. He said a man told him there was a man overboard I said "if that's not true, don't spread that report on the boat."

Inquest was here adjourned, at 6 p.m., and the coroner, jury and witnesses Allan Russell, Miss Sevrut and Capt. Nowlan, went to the boat to view the place where the man went overboard.

Miss Sevrut pointed out the space on the port quarter of the boat, between the 3rd and 4th, or between the 2d and 3d stanchions counting forward from the flag staff, as the place where Galley went overboard, as near as she could say. This showed that when she spoke of the flagstaff in her evidence she meant one of the stanchions. The place she pointed out is just at the end of the seat which runs alongside the rail.

Mr. Russell pointed out the space between the 6th and 7th, or 7th and 8th stanchions, on the port side, counting forward from the flagstaff, as the place as near as he could say. The distance between these two places pointed out by each witness would be about 8 feet.

The evidence of Capt. Nowlan was resumed at 7:15 p.m.— I told the boy to go and get the man that told him and bring him to me. The boy left the wheelhouse, and did not come back that I remember of, nor the man that told him either. After he left a man came to the wheelhouse and told me there was a man overboard. There were two others came after him and also told me. I decided then it was too late for me to do anything to save that man's life, as he had been overboard too long. And if I stopped the boat or turned her back I would be in great danger of losing more lives overboard, so I let the boat continue on her speed. There is no fixed rule to follow in such cases, that I know of, except to use one's best judgment. Did not blow the whistle nor stop nor slow down the boat. Heard the whistle blow, but I did not do it. The A. O. H. society was responsible for that excursion having taken place that night, and could have called it off at any time before we left Chatham. Once we left the wharf it was my duty to run the boat over the course she was chartered for. Later on, after the parties I have mentioned had come to me, a girl came and told me about it. The number of passengers I had on board that night would have the effect of listing the boat; if they went in a body to one side. My reason for not stopping or turning back was the darkness of the night, the large number of people aboard, and the fear I had that there might be another accident. I used my best judgment in taking the course I did. Looking back now, and looking coolly over all the events, if I had to set now under the same circumstances I would do the same as I did.

To Mr. Lawlor: Excursion started from Newcastle. The A. O. H. had charge of the passengers. The A. O. H. had advertised a moonlight excursion, and it had been postponed twice. For that reason it was held on that night. Left Newcastle before dark, with 102 passengers. It was after the excursion started from Newcastle that the night turned dark and thick, getting blacker all the time. Have been running on the river since 1890. Have been twelve years on a passenger steamer. Served as mate for 15 months. Got my papers as captain in 1900. Was deckhand for a long time. Although captain I served as mate under other captains on the river for some time, until spring of 1906, when I took command of the Alexandra. Sailed for some years on this down-river course, while serving as mate, though holding a captain's papers.

PANDORA RANGE

A convenience much appreciated by every owner of a Pandora is the towel rod attached to the range. As one-third of the rod is made of emery, it makes a splendid knife sharpener, too.

It's always there handy for you. You need waste no time hunting around for the easily misplaced "steel." Bright idea, eh?

An accurate thermometer is a reliable guide to successful baking, while an inaccurate one is a "cheat" of the worst kind.

Every Pandora thermometer is carefully adjusted and undergoes a practical test by heat—is proven correct before being sent out.

The figures, which show the required degree of heat, necessary for the successful baking of bread, cakes, pies, etc., are plainly inscribed in black on a white enamel surface, so that they are easily readable, even when the day is dull.

Indigestion

Stomach troubles is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain spoiled Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brings that disease and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without this original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and yellow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and dispense freely.

Dear Chum:

I am enjoying my visit with grandpa and grandma hugely. Yesterday grandpa took me down to the docks to see the ocean liners. Gee! they're whoppers. . . . I bought me my third box of Moir's Chocolates. They are the sweetest candies ever. The chocolate outside are awfully smooth and rich, and in the inside are cream, jellies and nuts. . . . Those called Moir's Chocolate Chips taste like honey dipped in chocolate. Another kind called Moir's Nougatines are so good that I teased grandma into promising me another box tomorrow. . . . not a bit homesick.

Your old chum,
Tommy.

GALLEY'S DEATH INVESTIGATED.

Never had an accident of this nature before. Carried excursions often both this season and last. Never many more on board than on this excursion. With all my experience on the river I never saw a worse night for darkness than the night on which Galley fell over. On account of the darkness of the night we were only running half speed. Using my best judgment, having regard to the night and the number of people on board, I did not consider it safe to turn back from the time the boy first came to me until we did turn. The life preservers were right overhead, and in easy reach of anybody who had sense to throw them overboard. We carried our proper lights and everything was in shipshape order. All the officers were required to have been on board.

To Foreman: The life-boats are carried to save life. If we had stopped and lowered a boat I considered there might be danger of somebody being shoved overboard, in the crush, under the circumstances. I really think it would have been dangerous to life to stop the steamer and lower a boat, in the circumstances, on account of the darkness and the danger of somebody being shoved over in a rush to one side. It would be dangerous to have backed up to throw a life buoy, for the same reason.

To Juror Sargeant: On a bright night I would have a better chance to see, and might have been better able to control the passengers.

To Mr. Lawlor: When I definitely knew there was a man overboard the boat was in the deep channel. It was the narrowest part of the channel between Middle Island and Loggieville. I could have got the boat around, but it would take some time, as I would have to back her. Considering all the circumstances, it would have taken eight to ten minutes to get the boat around and about five minutes to get back to where the man went overboard. Got no definite idea from those who came to me, either as to the time or place that the man went over, and don't know yet definitely where the accident occurred.

To Mr. Butler: The crew carried that night were amply sufficient to work the vessel. We usually carry a policeman on excursions. Had none this night. It would be advisable to have an officer on such special trips, when the boat is crowded, in case of a panic. Such a precaution would materially assist me in looking after the crowd.

At the request of Mr. Butler, Capt. Nowlan here told the jury what happened on one occasion when he stopped the steamer, in daylight, to make a rescue. All the passengers crowded forward, climbing over one another to see. He had the greatest difficulty in keeping them back and in fact could not do so until the steamer fell off somewhat so that they could see from the side.

Sydney Harding, engineer of the Alexandra, sworn, said that he had heard the captain's evidence, and it was correct so far as he knew. In his 22 years of experience on the river he had not seen a darker night than that of July 30.

James Goodfellow, mate of the Alexandra said that he heard the captain's statement of the facts was correct so far as he knew. Was in wheel-house with captain when a boy came and told there was a man overboard. Captain and he consulted, and decided, considering the chance of saving the man's life and the safety of the other passengers, that it was not safe to stop or turn the boat. He fully approved captain's decision. While it might have been blown by one of the bondsmen who were on the hurricane deck.

To Foreman: Considered it a safe enough night to take out such a large number of passengers, but not a very favorable night. This finished the evidence, and after the jury had been out from 9.15 to 10.05 they brought in the following verdict: "We the undersigned find that Theophilus Galley did on the night of July 30 last accidentally fall from the deck of the S. S. Alexandra into the river, whereof he died. We attach no blame whatever to the officers of the boat for his death. We recommend that the M. S. N. Co. hereafter employ extra help to assist the officers in keeping order and looking after the safety of passengers on excursions."

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by (1) catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Sent for circular, free.

"George, dear," she said "can you look me in the face and say that you were not intoxicated last night?" "Sure I can darling," he wined George, "but I hope you don't ask me to do it."

"Why not?" she queried. "Because," he explained, "every time I look in your face your beauty intoxicates me."

DOES THIS INTEREST YOU?

A prominent physician, famous for his success in the treatment of kidney and bladder disease, attributes a great deal of his success to the following simple vegetable prescription:— One ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion; One ounce Compound Salsaparilla; Four ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla; Mix, shake well, and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

Your druggist can supply the ingredients, and the mixture can be prepared at home at very little expense. This, the doctor says, acts directly on the kidneys, assisting them to filter the poisons from the blood and expel same in the urine, at the same time restoring the kidneys to healthy, normal action. We feel that a great many readers will be pleased to find this simple prescription, and knowing the ability of the physician whose formula it is, we do not hesitate to recommend it to any sufferer.

And the Heart, and as the Kidneys are well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. ### DANGER OF FOOD ADULTERATION.

The time has come when every house keeper who regards the health of her family must know where she stands on the food adulteration question. Scientific knowledge and unscrupulous greed have joined hands to pollute human food for the sake of money making. To understand the situation, its extent and its dangers, is the right and the duty of every intelligent housekeeper. To this end an analytical chemist, who is well known as an investigator of adulterated foods and a lecturer to American housewives, Dr. J. C. Olson, has granted an interview to a representative of The New Idea Woman's Magazine, which appears in the August issue. He explains the existing conditions, indicates their peril and gives some valuable information on the detection of impurities in food.

Some interesting incidents in connection with the railroad fight for supremacy are told in "The Railroads' Race to the North," by Aubrey Fullerton, a clever young Torontonian, in the August number of the Busy Man's Magazine.

"How to Use a Doctor," for instance, advocates prevention instead of cure of physical ailments. "Transplanting a City's Poor," tells of the Salvation Army's emigration work in London, and "Poverty Boon to Boys" claims material advantages for the poor boy in life's struggle. "The Forester and his work" describes the development of a new profession and an unusual article, "The Real Cattle Boat," clears away some fictitious ideas in regard to this side of marine life. Two articles particularly interesting to Canadians are "Quebec, a Land Without Trusts" and "Canada's Excuse for Existence." This with numerous short stories by some of the most noted English and American writers, and other miscellaneous matter, make up a number which should attract general interest.

MILLIONS FOR CARS

The G. T. R. Will Sloop Have Spent $7,000,000 This Year for Coaches and Engines.

With the daily delivery of engines, passenger coaches and freight cars, the Grand Trunk Railway is rapidly approaching the day when the last of nearly $7,000,000 worth of rolling stock will have been received by them during the present year. There were in all about sixty passenger coaches ordered, costing about $12,000 each, laid down in Montreal, which makes a total of $720,000. Thirty of these have already been delivered.

There were 100 engines ordered, and of these sixty have been received. The average cost is $15,000 each, or an aggregate of $1,500,000. The tremendous increase in freight traffic may be imagined by the delivery of 4,500 up-to-date cars. The order was for 2,500 and the average cost is $850 each, so that the great sum of $4,200,000 is being spent for freight cars alone. With the daily delivery of many of these the G. T. R. people are hoping to get well on the way to lift the present congestion.—Toronto News.

WILL KISSING BE PROHIBITED?

The Oculatory Process Decried by Scientists as Extremely Dangerous—How the Danger Can be Removed.

A keen discussion is being carried on by some of the best scientists as to the danger and "crime" of kissing, led by Dr. Somers, Health Officer of Atlantic City, and Dr. Nalpas, of the Medical Faculty of Paris. They charge the kiss with spreading grippa, scarlet fever, measles, mumps, whooping cough, typhoid fever, diphtheria, erysipelas, meningitis, tuberculosis, and many infectious skin diseases. They suggest legislation on the subject, and the posting of notices in railway stations, street cars and other public places, but they say it would be useless to post them on verandahs, in cozy corners, porches, shady nooks, or moonlit lawns. They also propose compulsory legislation for methods of disinfection of the mouth and purifying the breath, especially with a view to the protection of the innocent babies who are particularly subject to infection. The greatest and most effective purifier and germ destroyer known to medical science for the mouth, throat and breath, as well as for the blood, stomach and lungs, is Psychine, that triumph of the medical world that is attracting almost universal attention because of the wonderful results attending its use. One of its recent triumphs is told as a matter of experience in the following brief statement:

Dr. Somers Co. I am sending you photo and testimonial herewith for your great remedy PSYCHINE. Your medicine did wonders for me. I was about 35 or 36 years of age when I took PSYCHINE. The doctor had given me up as an incurable consumptive. My lungs and every organ of the body were seriously diseased and wasted. Friends and neighbors thought I'd never get better. But PSYCHINE saved me. My lungs have never bothered me since, and Psychine is a permanent cure. MR. LIZZIE GARLAND, 615 Richmond St., London, Ont.

Psychine, pronounced Si-keen, is admitted to be the most wonderful of all disease and germ-destroying agencies. For building up the run-down system and curing all forms of stomach troubles and diseases of the chest, throat and lungs or head, it is simply unapproachable. For sale at all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Sloman, Limited, 170 King Street West, Toronto.

Dear Sirs: I can highly recommend GATES' No. 1 SYRUP for dyspepsia and indigestion, and also a great remedy, if not a positive cure, for piles, when they are attended by constipation.

I can also recommend your LAX OF MAN BITTERS as a purifier of the blood, and from experience, as I have used it, a medicine in my family for many years. Very truly, C. W. SHURT.

BECOMING LIKE THE OLD COUNTRY

To an interviewer in Victoria, B. C., a few days ago, a British M. P. correctly sized up affairs in Canada, from the workingman's standpoint, saying:—

GRAFT IN BOTH PARTIES

The Montreal Star, replying to those who so persistently charge graft against the members of the Dominion government without mentioning any failings in their own party, very pertinently says:—

LET BOTH LEADERS INVESTIGATE

In an open letter to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, L'Evenement, a French Canadian journal, denounces Sir Frederick Borden and demands his dismissal from the cabinet

JAPAN'S CIVILIZATION

The Koreans have fallen on evil days. After Japan has waged successful wars against China and Russia, ostensibly to free Korea, the Koreans find themselves worse off than ever before

We thought that Japan, having less than fifty million people, would have been wise enough to endeavor to conciliate the Koreans and render them willing to become absorbed in the Japanese nationality

Ald. John Clark for Public Works Committee recommended payment of following advertising accounts—North Shore Leader, $1.50; Anslow Bros, $3.00. Bills passed.

For Park and Fire Committee Ald. Clark recommended a grant of $25 to the firemen towards their expenses to St. John tournament. The recommendation was adopted.

An informal discussion took place on the drafting of the bye-laws. His Worship said he had gone over the bye-laws very carefully, comparing them with those of Sydney, Moncton, Chatham, Campbellton and Fredericton. He had engaged Miss Lawlor as assistant and certified that her bill of $45.00 was correct. Ald. Belyea and Morrissy, members of the Bye-Law Committee, remarked that they had not been consulted in the matter. They thought that while the work had doubtless been well done and the bill was reasonable, the work should have been open for tenders.

Alderman Belyea then brought in a report on the state of the civic finances up to date of July 31st ult.

Expenditures up to that date, counting fixed salaries to the end of the year, were as follows:—

PUBLIC WORKS.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes Sundries $27.30, Sewer Expenses 148.96, Town Team 129.10, Roads 392.17, Granolithic Walks 321.10, Bills now passed 198.75, Wm. Hogan's salary 482.00.

Appropriation for year was $1,800, to which add credits $160.40, total $1960.40

EXPENSES.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes General Expenses $437.06, Bills passed 11.50, Clerk's salary 700.00, Lighting, etc. 200.00.

Appropriation, $2,000. POLICE. Sundry $171.40, Half salaries for year 525.00, Street lighting 1200.00.

Appropriation, $1750. FIRE. Sundry $88.11, 1 years salary firemen 295.00, Hydrant rental 810.00, J. Edmonds, salary 60.00.

Appropriation, $1500. WATER AND LIGHT. Water $288.93, Light 707.57, Fuel 1388.94, Salaries to July 31st 1407.00, Bills passed 311.98.

Revenue to July 31, counting $700 from street lighting, and $472.50 from Fire dept, $4079.14. Ald. Belyea advocated appointment of private inspectors to detect waste of water.

Ald. T. A. Clarke thought that would not do. Ald. Morrissy thought that the great leak was in the Anderson Furniture factory, where 28,000 gallons a day were being used. Also the livery stables were wasting water wholesale.

The Mayor thought that it would pay the town to dig a well for the Anderson Co., and shut off the town water. One of the aldermen regretted that the town hadn't guaranteed the factory free coal, and another that all its employees were not exempt from taxation.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes Can. Gen. Elec. Co. $43.06, Imperial Oil Co. 15.58, McColl Bros. 34.57, North Shore Leader 3.50, Anslow Bros. 8.25, James Robertson Co. 27.06, T. McAvity and Sons 64.00, Intercolonial Mining Co. 62.25.

The Police and Appointment to Office Committee recommended paying T. W. Butler $36.00 for services in presenting 3000 Act violators. Passed. The Committee reported that during July there were four convictions secured. The report was adopted, and the committee were authorized to have a hardwood floor laid in the police court.

The question of arranging for flushing the closets in police cells was left with Park and Fire Committee till next meeting. Adjourned till 8 o'clock Tuesday evening next.

Y. M. C. A. Sports At Chatham Well Patronized Last Thursday. 800 PRESENT.

New Brunswick's Muscular Youth Show to Advantage—Summary of the Events.

The Y. M. C. A. sports held in Chatham on Thursday on the M. E. A. E. track were well attended, nearly eight hundred people being present.

The two hundred and twenty in twenty-four and one quarter seconds, the four hundred and forty in fifty-four, and the half mile in two eleven and three quarters, were fast considering the condition of the track, which was heavy owing to the recent rain. The mile was done in 5.14 by George Stubbs, and considering all things, "Jerry" made good time, especially as he had fallen in the eight hundred and eighty and cut up his knee rather badly. The mile relay was done in 4.07.

The St. John boys—Stubbs, Giggey and Bovard—took four firsts and two seconds. The 100 yards dash resulted as follows: Elmer Ferguson, Moncton, 1st; Fred Bovard, St. John, 2nd; W. Watling, Chatham, 4th; J. D. McNaughton, Chatham, 5th. Time 11 seconds. Bovard fell at the start, but came in second.

220 yards dash—Bovard, 1st;

Ferguson, 2nd; Watling, 3rd; Logie, 4th. Time, 24 1/4.

800 yards run—F. Giggey, St. John, 1st; George Stubbs, St. John, 2nd; A. Dawney, Chatham, 3rd. Time 2.11 1/4. Biffkins—"Funny thing about women, isn't it?"

Miffkins—"Don't know. What's funny about 'em?"

Biffkins—"Why, during the courtship a woman will fight her relations for the sake of the man she loves, but after marriage she will work her husband for the sake of her relations."

Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere.

His Wife—"John, dear, I need a new dress awfully."

Her Husband (gruffly)—"I'd like to know what you need a new dress for."

"Going away?" asked Gaussep.

"Yes," snapped Batchellir, plodding on with his stit case.

"By the way, the Podleys next door to you have a baby; I hear."

His Wife—"I'm afraid you don't love me as much now as you did before we were married, dear."

Her Husband—"Of course I don't. You certainly wouldn't expect a man to love a married woman as he would a maid, I hope."

Miss Caustique—"Well, if I were you I'd stay out every night."

or $285.00 per share.

Stock of the Home Mining Co. advanced from 25 cents a share to $25.00 a share in seven months.

Granite Mountain Stock advanced from 10 cents a share to $75.00 in two years, and paid $14,000,000.00 in dividends.

These are only a few examples; there are thousands of others.

While success cannot rightfully be judged by money standards, the fact remains that in the eyes of the world the extent of a man's success is the extent of his capital.

The world has no use for a poor man or a loser.

The person who has reached middle age, wholly dependent upon his individual efforts for his livelihood, is accounted a failure. He no longer commands the respect of the multitude but receives instead their scorn or pity.

Have you ever thought of these things?

What are you doing to make yourself independent?

Your hand or brain devoted to another man's cause can never make you wealthy.

Nor can your dollars.

The man who only saves is at best a plodder.

He should invest his dollars.

Look about you.

There are successful men on every side.

Have you ever wondered how they made money while others have not?

Excluding those rich by inheritance, and those rich by fraud, there remains countless thousands of men and women who, starting practically without a dollar, have built up for themselves wealth or a handsome competence and are no longer dependent on their hands for support.

These people have made money first by working for and earning dollars, and then by putting their dollars to work.

You are cheating yourself and your family when you do not save from your earnings and put your earnings to work.

Suppose you put your savings in a bank. The bank pays 3 per cent. How can it? Because it invests your money so that it will bring much more than 3 per cent—enough more, so that most bankers become very wealthy on the difference between your interest and theirs.

And what if they invest unwisely and lose all as they sometimes do? Why, it's your money and your loss—not theirs.

You have not the control of your own capital—do not even know what they are doing with your money.

You are making your dollars work for others. Why don't you make them work for you.

The banker invests your money; pockets their earnings, and gives you 3 per cent.

Why don't you do your own investing and make the profit for yourself?

You may think you have opportunity.

But you have.

Opportunities are at every hand. No man or woman exists that has not had some opportunity for financial advancement.

The trouble is: most opportunities wear rubber shoes, and the public sleepily refuses to hear them.

One of the world's most successful financiers, when asked how he made money so fast, replied:

"I have an agent at the elbow of every opportunity and never let one pass without paying me tribute."

Don't you realize that every great fortune had its humble beginning. That just a few dollars have grown to millions?

Look at Andrew Carnegie. He saved up $500.00 and made his first investment in Adams Express Company stock. It paid him big interest almost from the start.

You know what it and he are worth to-day.

There are hundreds of similar examples.

"No one ever succeeds except by doing things."—John D. Rockefeller.

To become wealthy—successful—you must save and invest your savings.

Where were you in the year 1896, and what were you doing?

Couldn't you have saved $100.00 without inconveniencing yourself?

Suppose you did save $100.00 and invested it in CROW'S NEST STOCK. This stock was sold in 1896 to small investors at 10 cents a share—six years thereafter it was worth $100.00 a share; and to-day is selling for $285.00 a share, or your $100.00 invested would pay you a dividend of over $185,000.00 a year and be worth $285,000.00.

Opportunity is always knocking at the door.

Jay Gould once said to a friend, "When you invest in the stock of a company, don't look for the 'best' for you will never find it; 'best' for a good one; then invest and do so quickly. Don't wait to see if it pans out all right, for that is where you lose your opportunity. When you have waited to see if it pans out, you've had to pay a premium on the stock, and you will have lost the biggest advance in value. You must make money on your judgement and fore sight, and not on demonstrated facts."

Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, has over 400 millionaires who have made their fortunes out of coal and oil. Coal is the basis of all industrial and commercial wealth.

Coal mining in British Columbia has always been a success. It is like diamond mining in South Africa—a bonanza of the first magnitude.

Dunsmuir made millions and millions in coal mining in British Columbia, and died the richest man in Canada.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIA AMALGAMATED COAL COMPANY, of Portland, Oregon, controls 17,500 acres of coal land near Vancouver, B. C., estimated by coal experts to be underlaid with 1,400,000,000 tons of the best quality of steam, domestic, and cooking coal in America.

Our mine is better than the Crow's Nest, the quality of our coal is pronounced by coal experts to be as good, if not better, we are 500 miles nearer tide water, and 300 miles nearer the big smelters in the boundary district, where coke is used.

We are offering a limited amount of the treasury stock for sale at 25c a share, par value $1.00 full paid and non-assessable.

The officers of this company are men of high standing. Bank or financial reference will be taken and call or write for prosperous or information.

BATHURST MAN LOSES ARM.

Had Right Arm Torn Out in Beresford Mill—Saved His Life by Presence Of Mind.

A shocking accident occurred at Beresford Friday by which William O'Brien, of Bathurst, lost an arm but saved his life by his great nerve and strength. O'Brien was working in his saw mill when his right arm was caught by a belt. Quickly the arm was drawn around a pulley and there seemed no possible way of O'Brien saving his life with the deadly machinery drawing him to certain death.

O'Brien, who is a powerful man, resisted with all his strength with the result that he saved his life at the expense of his right arm, which was literally torn from the socket at the shoulder. The great nerve shown by O'Brien was wonderful. At Beresford he was able to walk aboard the train and alighted from the train at Bathurst without assistance, although in greatest agony. O'Brien is about 35 or 40 years of age, married and resides in Bathurst. He is associated with Albert Stewart, running a lumber mill at Beresford. At last accounts the patient was doing well.
