VAST CONCOURSE ATTENDED THE FUNERAL AT PALMYRA

Hundreds of Friends Honor
Memory of Hon. David Mills.

SIMPLE AND BEAUTIFUL SERVICE

The Tribute of Rev. Mr. Walker—
Prominent Men Were Present.

The funeral of the late Hon. Justice Mills, which took place from the residence of his son, Mr. Blake Mills, at Palmyra, yesterday, was one of the largest seen in recent years in Western Ontario. The great statesman was mourned by the whole country and people were present from all parts to show their respect for the deceased and sympathy for his family. Among the many from outside places were numerous friends from this city. Over the scene of sadness, the sun shone out not a cloud in the sky. All about the pretty country place where Mr. Mills was born and where he was buried, the fields and trees were in the bloom of beauty of spring. The people who gathered were in such large numbers that it was necessary to hold the service upon the lawn, and the hundreds of those there with bowed and bearded heads listened to the words of praise, words of thankfulness and words of regret that were said over the body of their friend.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Those who carried the casket were three sons of the late Mr. Mills and five nephews. The former were Walter, David and Blake Mills; the latter, Mr. Mills, Ottawa; Mr. S. J. Watts, Detroit; Mr. N. Mills, London; and Messrs. Samuel McCully and Augustus Mills.

Rev. William Walker, of the London South Baptist Church, conducted the services. He led in prayer. The whole assemblage sang the hymn "Rock of Ages," which was given out by Rev. Mr. Pirie.

THE FUNERAL SERVICE.
Rev. Mr. Walker, of South London, one of Mr. Mills' most intimate friends, read the 90th psalm and the following poem, which Mr. Mills had written upon this psalm some ten years ago:

Thou canst not other be than very near
To those who never cease to dwell in Thee,
Who drink the spirit of their dwelling-
place,
And so become what Thou wouldst
have them be.
Into Thy being they must daily come—
Thou art their refuge, Thou their lasting home.

Thou art their fortress, Thou their sure defense.
Their place of safety from the threatening blast,
Nor need they care for ill of time and season,
Since in their Father's house they find,
at last,
Mansions prepared in which they shall reside.

When tempests of clay are laid aside,
Before the lofty mountains had their birth,
Before the time had yet begun to be—
Or ever there was air, or sea, or earth,
Or sons of men had yet been formed by
Thee—
Ancient Days, not less almighty Thou,
Before Creation's dawn than Thou art now.

Forth from the dust Thou has called our race,
Back to the dust hast ordered it again.
Still in Thy universe man has a place,
Forth from the dust he was not called in vain.

There is a part of him, not of the clay,
In Thee it lives, beyond the fleeting day.
Time never can be with Thee, long or brief,
A thousand years are but as yesterday;
Filled up for men with things of joy or grief,
For Thee they spread their wings and fly away;
Like a brief watch upon a quiet night,
They gather up their work and take their flight.

The years are borne away, as with a flood—

States, empires, systems, have appeared and gone,
Things which men hop'd through ages
still should stand,
But Thou hast wither'd all that they had done;
Their years are few, but 'tis not so with Thee—
Thy works endure as long as time shall be.

Thy wrath consumes whatever is amiss,
Yet men refuse to recognize Thy power,
They seek to found the wrong—forgetting this:
That all things wrong are doom'd—live
but their hour,
For only that can everlasting be
Which in its principle conforms to Thee.

MR. WALKER'S TRIBUTE.

The tribute that Mr. Walker paid to the dead man was eloquent and sincere. Among other things he said that the relation to God was expressed in the psalm and the poem which he had just read, showing the foundation of a strong Christian character. He emphasized that possession of such a character went more than anything else to make the true statesman. "Comprehensiveness of view and breadth of sympathy," while with the late Hon. Justice Mills, he said, "but what was of more importance, he had the moral courage to act not on a consideration of expediency and policy, but upon the eternal principles of right."

He spoke of Mr. Mills' kindness of heart. He said: "He did not limit his sympathy to what are generally called high things, but condescended to people of low estate. He took the greatest interest in the welfare of the poor and of those whose lives were comparatively obscure. While with his great gifts he won the gratitude of the nation, by his kindness of manner and genuineness of sympathy towards individuals, he won the hearts of all who knew him."

AN ILLUSTRIOUS EXAMPLE.

Mr. Walker also referred to the great industry of Mr. Mills, and in the course of his remarks he paid tribute to the following effect: "In this he was an illustrious example to the young men of Canada. The position he achieved through diligence and faithfulness to duty furnishes a high degree of inspiration to all thoughtful minds. His sense of duty to his God and to his country furnished the ideal, the motive and the power of his noble life."

After the singing of "Asleep in Jesus," Rev. Mr. Prosser, of Ridgeway, made an impressive address. He referred to Mr. Mills being of Puritan ancestry, and said that a man who had Godly ancestry would inherit God's influence for good in his life. He paid a tribute to the genuine Christianity of the deceased and referred to the fact that it had not only the whole community there mourn, but the whole country felt that it had lost a great man and a true friend of all those who knew him.

Following this the hymn, "Servant of God, Well Done," was sung.

A brief, pointed address was then made by Rev. Dr. Munro, of Ridgeway. The trend of his remarks was that the life of Mr. Mills was an illustration of the Scripture, "Seest thou a man diligent in his business, he shall not stand before kings; he shall not stand before man (or obscure) men."

THE BEAUTIFUL BURIAL PLACE.

After this the vast throng wended its way sorrowfully to the last resting place of the remains of the dead statesman, the great and modest man, he who had in life been to them their counselor and friend. The burial place is on the farm, on which over 70 years ago, Mr. Mills was born, then the backwoods, now as fair a land as the sun shines on.

LAI'D TO REST.

As they lowered the casket on a thought of the words, "I like the ground that God's acre," it is just. There seems an appropriateness to the term when a part of a farm held only by Mr. Mills and his father is set apart as the family burying ground. It is indeed "God's acre," as he whom they laid that day in the place of his last rest was God's servant. All distinctions and party lines were obliterated and for many miles around all paid their tribute of respect in silent sorrow. Many old friends were there, Judge E. Edwards, during his journey, Registrar McKellar, Chatham; A. McNece, Dr. Samson, John Davis, Windsor;

J. A. Walker, K.C., Mr. Houston, P. M., Herbert Smith, county crown attorney, Chatham; all the wardens and ex-wardens of Kent, and friends from Ottawa, London, Rodney, Chatham, Ridgeway, Windsor, Highgate and Orford, also other places.

The death of a few men has in the memory of any present called forth so large a number of people to listen under the blue sky to the last words of respect to a man whose grave all that remained of him they so deeply loved in life. The day was appropriate, quiet, calm and peaceful.

LEGACIES OF INFAMY

Kent's Lawyer Scores the Witnesses in Famous Murder Case.

Rochester, N. Y., May 14.—All the morning was taken up in the Kent case by George Raines, attorney for the defense in summing up. Counsel scored Dr. Johnson, who performed the autopsy on the dead girl, as having conducted the most unsatisfactory autopsy ever held in the county. Mr. Raines declared that the whole Dingle family had conspired to destroy all letters written by her to various members of the family. His most fiery denunciations were reserved for Dr. George Grant, of Buffalo, who he declared had ruined and abandoned Miss Dingle. He charged that Grant had forged the letter copied in part in a Buffalo newspaper. Nor were any kind words reserved for MacKay. All these witnesses counsel declared, were legacies of infamy inherited by Kent when he first met the young, beautiful and debauched nurse. Mr. Raines spoke throughout the day. The jury will take the case by Saturday.

ROYAL WELCOME FROM DETROIT

Lord Minto Warmly Received on Both Sides of River.

THE RECEPTION AT WINDSOR

Vice-Regal Party Escorted by United States Troops, Which His Excellency Reviews.

Windsor, Ont., May 14.—Twenty-five thousand people from Windsor, Detroit and all parts of Essex County thronged the streets of the city yesterday and extended to Lord and Lady Minto and party a loyal and enthusiastic reception. Their excellencies arrived at 3:30, and were escorted from the Grand Trunk depot to the Twenty-first Regiment armory by a guard of honor composed of 100 men of the Essex Fusiliers. In the parade were the city council and officials, mayors of all the municipalities in Essex County, and prominent public men. At the armory the surging crowd could not be accommodated, although some thousands of people were received at the public reception. Their excellencies and suite showed no signs of the arduous duties of the past couple of days, and made a striking impression on this their first visit to the Canadian City of the Straits. After the public reception a drive was taken along the historic frontier streets and below the city. The vice-regal party expressed their deep admiration of the country, their reception of thousands of school children, and the guard of honor, which was very kindly complimented by Major Maude.

The party crossed the river to Detroit in a private yacht, while the Twenty-first Fusiliers, Band of the United States Infantry and seven companies of militia, also two divisions of the Michigan Naval Reserves, in a drive through the city. Hundreds of American and British flags decorated the buildings along the route traversed and thousands of citizens cheered Lord Minto. After luncheon the Canadian visitors again drove to the ferry and boarded the yacht for the return trip to Canada.

AT WOODSTOCK.

Woodstock, Ont., May 14.—Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Minto and Lady Eileen Elliott, were tendered a hearty welcome by the citizens of Woodstock. The vice-regal party arrived at 10 o'clock on the special train over the Grand Trunk Railway. They were received at the depot by Mayor White and the members of the city council. After the formal introductions a procession, headed by the band, with the Woodstock Collegiate Institute Cadet Corps acting as a guard of honor, the guests were driven to the courthouse, where the address of welcome from the city and county were presented. His excellency made a gracious reply. The ceremony concluded with singing of the "Maple Leaf" by 1,000 school children. Their excellencies were then driven to the General Hospital, which institution was inspected. Afterwards the Woodstock Baptist College was visited, where the faculty and students presented an address of welcome, and Lord Minto unfurled a new flag. The party was accompanied by Major Maude, C. B., and Capt. Graham, A. D. C. The departure for Brantford was made at 12:15 o'clock.

BULGARIA NOT RESPONSIBLE

For the Macedonian Outbreak—Jews at Monastir Accused of Terrible Outrages.

Vienna, May 14.—The resources of Turkey are said to be so strained as to compel the advance against the Albanians to be suspended. It is believed that the mobilization of 100,000 men was only effected with the aid of the Sultan's private purse. The Sultan has just consulted the former vizier, Said Pacha, on the situation, and it is reported that he has majesty has summoned a financial commission to consider means to effect the payment of the troops in Macedonia and Albania, the army contractors having refused further supplies.

London, May 14.—Cabling from Sofia, the correspondent of the Daily News says he has had a long interview with Premier Danoff. The Premier repudiated Bulgarian responsibility for the Macedonian outbreaks, which, he said, were the work of a few irreconcilables, and he protested indignantly that Bulgaria would not be the aggressor, and in the event of such a disaster it would not be her fault. In conclusion the correspondent quotes Premier Danoff saying: "At Zagari thirty were killed or wounded, the Bashi-Bazouks participating in the slaughter. It is useless to conceal the fact that these occurrences are arousing an extraordinary feeling of indignation among the Bulgarians in Macedonia, and if they are allowed to continue, the danger of a conflict with Turkey will be greatly increased."

LONDON MAY LOSE DISTRICT CAMP

The Matter in Lord Dundonald's
Hands—No Formal Report
Made as Yet.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Ottawa, Ont., May 14.—There is some talk in militia circles over the removal of the district camp from London.

The matter is entirely in the hands of Lord Dundonald, military judgment, not of public policy, and the militia department would not feel justified in overruling the recommendation of the commander-in-chief.

As a matter of fact Lord Dundonald has not formally pronounced against Carling's Farm, and will probably make no report until after the next camp.

Lake St. Clair Collision.

Detroit, Mich., May 14.—The steamer Keefe, of the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River Transportation Company, collided with whaleback barge 130 in Lake St. Clair last night and was so badly damaged that she was compelled to stop for this port for repairs.

The stem of the Keefe was broken, the deck plates bent and the plates forward jammed back several feet. The steamer was within a few feet of the water line. The Keefe is a new boat, and only left the shipyard at Buffalo last Saturday. The barge was also badly damaged.

BEATEN WITH A BIBLE

Man Killed in Attempt to Drive Out Devils.

San Francisco, May 14.—A case of a native Hawaiian, who was beaten to death with a Bible, in the hands of a Kahuna, or native sorcerer, is reported from the Island of Hawaii.

The victim was ill in bed and after being treated by a regular physician, sent for a Kahuna, having more faith in the native "medicine man." The Kahuna declared that the patient was possessed by devils, and proceeded to cast them out by beating him over the head with a Bible. The wife of the sick man was also induced to do some beating and then the Kahuna resumed operations. The man died as a result. The Kahuna has been held for manslaughter.

CAVENDISH WINS CASE

End of the Famous Table-Turning Incident.

London, May 14.—The chancery court yesterday ordered the cancellation of the deed by which H. S. H. Cavendish, the explorer, provided that his property should go to Mrs. Strutt, wife of Major Strutt, and her children, to the exclusion of the plaintiff's own wife, who was Isabel Jay, formerly leading lady of the Savoy Theatre. Mr. Cavendish, in his appeal to the chancery court, charged Major Strutt and Mrs. Strutt with influencing him through "table-turning," and claimed that Mrs. Strutt obtained the deed by pretending to be the ghost of his (the plaintiff's) mother, and by representing that she was speaking from heaven, and advising him to so dispose of his property. The case attracted a great deal of attention in England.

ONE DEAD AND FOUR VERY ILL

Cincinnati Woman Says It Is From a Memphis Woman Who Is Jealous.

Cincinnati, May 14.—As the result of drinking what they thought was whiskey, five men employed at the Adams Express warehouse in this city, have been poisoned, one dying shortly after he arrived at the hospital. The other four men are in a serious condition.

A bottle was received from Memphis addressed to Kate Nobbe, in this city. In handling the bottle J. B. Ficker discovered a leak, and remarked: "This is a nice bottle of booze," and thought it too good to let go to waste. One of the men procured a tin cup and each took a drink. They became violently ill in a few moments, and were rushed to the city hospital. Ficker died on arriving there, while William Stevens, George Eberle, Louis Burbank, and Wm. Daley were seriously affected.

When Mrs. Nobbe said, "I can't not say what the bottle contained, but it undoubtedly was sent by a woman who is employed by a relative of mine in Memphis." This relative visited me two weeks ago, and since that time I have been receiving packages and improper letters from Memphis. It is jealousy on her part."

It was found that the bottle contained arsenic and whiskey.

Memphis, Tenn., May 14.—Mrs. Lucy McCormick, whom Mrs. Kate Nobbe, of Cincinnati, alleged sent her poisoned package at Cincinnati, was arrested today and brought to police headquarters. She was accompanied to the station by a man named Pell, proprietor of a saloon, who is said to have formerly lived at Cincinnati.

Mrs. McCormick denied all knowledge of a package of whiskey, and stated that she had returned to Mrs. Nobbe some days ago a package containing a doll, and which she afterwards said contained candy. The so-called poisoned package was received at the Adams Express office in Cincinnati in a damaged condition. Employees of the office, thinking the contents whiskey, drank from the bottle. One man is dead and four seriously ill as a result.

The Subway Strike.

New York, May 14.—The subway contractors began today to employ every man who asked for work in the subway in place of the strikers who yesterday refused to return to work. In a short time a big force had been employed. Police guarded the whole length of the subway.

Jockey's Bad Fate.

New York, May 14.—Jockey Barry, who was thrown from Seminole in the Knickerbocker hurdle handicap at Morris Park yesterday, is reported to be in a critical condition. He was removed to Fordham Hospital yesterday, and is still unconscious.

Dead at 114 Years.

Salem, Ore., May 14.—Joseph Beatty, 114-year-old, was found dead in bed last night. He was a Frenchman by birth, and served in the French war of 1806-15, under Napoleon. He drove an ox team to Oregon in 1847, and was then a gray-haired man.

The S. P. Case.

Cincinnati, May 14.—The Southern Pacific Railroad case before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here will not come up for hearing until next fall. This will defer the annual election of directors of the Southern Pacific Railroad for several months, but will not materially affect the control of the road.

Looks Like Suicide.

New York, May 14.—T. D. MacKay, aged 35, an actor and a member of a "Princess Club" company, who had just returned from the road, died today after having taken some powders recommended as a remedy for illness. The ambulance surgeon, who reached the hotel as MacKay was dying, said it looked like poisoning. The coroner's jury will hold an autopsy.

Refuses to Umpire.

New York, May 14.—Frederick W. Hollis, who was tendered the position of umpire to act in the settlement of the claims of Germany and Italy against Venezuela, has formally declined the appointment owing to the pressure of private business.

THE JURY FOUND MCGRAIN GUILTY

Toronto's Murder Case Ends in Verdict of Manslaughter.

EVIDENCES OF PROVOCATION

McGrain Admitted Killing Williams,
But Held That It Was in Self-Defense

Toronto, May 14.—It took the jury an hour and twenty minutes yesterday evening to decide that Christopher McGrain was guilty of manslaughter. McGrain killed George Williams by stabbing him with a knife in a quarrel on the night of March 23. The two men were in Wright's home, the corner of King and Parliament streets that night, and several other men swore they heard Williams call McGrain a Fenian. Shortly after this Williams went out. McGrain followed, and a few minutes later Williams staggered into a drug store at King and Sackville streets with blood pouring from a stab wound in his breast. "I'm stabbed," was all he could gasp to the clerk. A witness named Robert Trotter said he had heard McGrain call Williams that "he would get even with him."

McGrain went into the box and told his version of the stabbing. He said he was going home from the hotel when he met Williams standing at the corner of King and Sackville streets. Williams when he saw McGrain called out "I hope you aren't paying any attention to what I said back at the hotel." The two men then started down street together. Williams got McGrain to go into a room at the corner of King and Sackville streets, and McGrain said he wanted to show him something. In the alley Williams renewed his insults and drew a knife, saying he would cut McGrain's throat. McGrain apparently was going to stab McGrain, so the latter drew his own pocket knife and made a lunge at Williams' shoulder. Just then Williams turned and the knife struck McGrain on the breast. "I did it all in self-defense," the prisoner declared. After the stabbing McGrain said he threw away his knife and went home to 36 Judge Street, in his address to the jury, remarked that it was a strange thing for a man to do to Williams, leaving him there alone to die probably, and go home to bed. The jury retired at 4:40 and returned at 6 o'clock with a verdict of manslaughter, and as there was provocation they recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court.

GERMAN WINE-GROWER FINED FOR ADULTERATING LIQUORS

For Ten Years He Has Been
Duping Wine-Drinkers All
Over the Globe.

Berlin, May 14.—Dr. Schlapp von Hope Auerstein, the largest wine producer in the Rhine district, who was charged at Mayence by the Government with adulterating his product sold as hock of the Niersteiner vintage, was yesterday found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of 1,500 marks ($400) or to be imprisoned for 300 days. Several witnesses, all of whom were discharged employees, testified that the defendant personally superintended the preparation of the decoction in question, using among other adulterants tannic acid, gelatine and isinglass. With these he also mingled Greek wines of the cheapest grades.

One of the processes was the introduction of a small quantity of a mysterious liquid, the composition of which was a secret. The defendant carried a bottle of this liquid in his pocket, and himself added it to the other so-called wine behind closed doors, so the secret of mixing it was not leaked. The "wine" when prepared was diluted with its own bulk of water.

The state attorney declared that the defendant during the past ten years had sold enormous quantities of this decoction at auctions, to which wine dealers from all parts of the world came to buy. A large proportion of the product went to England, where people are supposed to know less about wines than is known in Germany.

The defendant asserted that his process improves wine, and that it is used by all growers and dealers in Rhine Hesse. He subpoenaed 200 witnesses engaged in the Rhine wine industry to support his case.

THE TRANSVAAL LOAN

No Allotments to Applicants for Sums
Less Than $10,000.

THE TRANSVAAL LOAN

London, May 14.—The Bank of England announced Tuesday afternoon that the allotments of the Transvaal loan would be mailed that night. It has been found impracticable to make any allotment to applicants for sums under $2,000. Applicants for sums over $2,000 will receive about 2.6 per cent of the amount they applied for, but no allotment of less than $100 of stock will be made.

The applicants for £100 of stock in the two previous Transvaal loans were allotted the full amount asked. This favorable treatment by the Government for the purpose of encouraging the small investor has been so abused by premium hunters that it has been decided to wipe the slate clean of all small applicants.

London, May 14.—Miss Eleanore Calhoun is receiving congratulations upon her engagement and approaching marriage. Her stage career, which has been an honorable and brilliant one, both in London and Paris, is closed by an Oriental romance. She will soon be married to one of the founders and leaders of the Macedonian movement. He is Eugene Lazarovitch. From his countrymen living in London I learn that he is the present head of an old dynasty ruling for 700 years in the Balkans, of which ancient kingdom and empire Macedonia was a province. For this reason he cannot enter Serbia, as the Government there considers him to be a possible pretender to the crown. He has taken an active part in the Macedonian movement for 25 years, and has expended a large fortune in promoting the cause of the liberation of the Balkan populations. He has been in England during the last year, and has been laboring ardently for the Macedonian cause, holding conferences with Saraffoff and other leaders, helping to raise money for the movement, and to arouse sympathy for it among the western nations. Saraffoff was with him for three weeks last July at his country house. The cause to which he has devoted his life is the autonomy of Macedonia and the confederation of the Balkan nationalities, Serbia, Bulgaria, Montenegro and Macedonia. He is a highly-educated man, speaking many languages, and while he believes in the strenuous life of the political agitator and revolutionist, has refined tastes and many accomplishments.

ASSESSMENT ACT DEPUTATIONS

Tax Question Discussed Before Special Committee.

IS ACCEPTABLE IN PRINCIPLE

Views of Municipal, Trade and Fraternal Representatives Laid Before Commission.

Toronto, May 14.—The special committee of the Legislature to which the new assessment act was referred, met yesterday morning to hear deputations.

The executive of the Ontario Municipal Association was represented by F. Mackelcan, K. C., and F. R. Hutton, of the assessment department of Hamilton, and City Solicitor Casswell, City Council Fullerton, and Mr. Foreman, of Toronto's assessment department. The Retail Merchants' Association, the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, the Single Tax Association, the Toronto Board of Trade, were also represented, and the following named delegates represented the Fraternal Societies' Association: W. F. McCammon, Belleville; Lee and W. F. Montague, Hamilton; H. J. Speigrove, Cobourg; J. A. Patterson, Toronto; Dr. Mallory, Port Hope, and Mr. Dowler, Tilsonburg.

Mr. Mackelcan, the first speaker, said the revenue of Hamilton would be reduced $35,000 by the bill in its present form. Mr. Mackelcan proceeded to lay down the general principles on which taxation would be levied, when Attorney-General Gibson interrupted to say that the general principles were not before the committee. The commission had considered the aspect of the subject, Mr. Mackelcan proposed that all tangible personal property should be taxed, irrespective of any debt upon it. He proposed in cases of stock that the assessment be on the average price of the stock for a year. Mercantile concerns should pay a business tax, and also a tax on incomes. This would take the place of the complicated house tax. He objected also to the exemption of plant and machinery from school taxes.

The Manufacturers' Association representatives approved the principles of the bill. The retail merchants' representatives did not oppose principles, but objected to uniform business tax, which would force smaller men out of business. Some retailers were doing business on about $200, with a capital of $1,000. Large wholesale houses would escape an enormous amount of personality taxes. The retailers proposed a tax of three to five per cent on retail merchants, and ten per cent on the wholesale merchants.

Mr. Gibson agreed that there appeared to be an inequality here. W. B. Rogers, for the retailers, said departmental stores would pay less than they do now, while even now they paid too little. He also objected to the house tax and said it could not be collected.

J. F. Ellis, president Toronto Board of Trade, said that wholesalers would pay more under the act than under the present law. A calculation had been made, including several large wholesale houses here. Fraternal societies asked that the income from the investment of surplus funds be exempt. The committee adjourned till Tuesday.

THE U. S. NOWHERE

Imperial Federation Would Eclipse Her Commercially.

London, May 14.—H. G. Parsons read a paper on "Our Colonial Kingdoms" Tuesday before the Royal Colonial Institute. He advocated an Imperial cabinet, including colonialists, and imperialism of England's national debt, on the ground that the debt was largely made in helping the colonies. Dr. Parkin, who made the speech of the evening, said that England alone could never equal the United States commercially. England's only hope was in a union of the empire. Then the United States would be nowhere. He said that General Wood, Governor of the Philippines, told him he was going to see Lord Cromer in Egypt, and Lord Cromer, in turn, to learn the secret of British success in the administration of alien colonies.

MALT BREAKFAST FOOD

Is the Best Food for Children of Any Age After Infancy.

If your children are weakly and frail, and have not the snap and vigor of healthy boys and girls, we say, have them use Malt Breakfast Food for breakfast and supper. The usual starchy foods so commonly used for children lack the nourishing elements which they need to develop muscle and bone, and put life and vigor into the blood. In Malt Breakfast Food the Malt changes the starch in the wheat to maltose, the most nutritious food element, and this with gluten and phosphates of the wheat gives a food of unexcelled value. Ask your Grocer for Malt Breakfast Food.

The Bagdad Railway.

Paris, May 14.—The Bagdad Railway project, which was recently agitated by the powers, is likely to be revived in an important new form, internationalizing a new route to India, somewhat similar to the international status of the Suez Canal.

STRIKE MEASURE FOR AUSTRALIA

Government Takes Radical Means to End Trouble.

BILL NOT TO BE PERMANENT

It Compels Workmen to Give Four Night's Notice or Be Considered as a Striker.

Melbourne, Victoria, May 14.—In the Legislative Assembly yesterday Premier Irvine made a speech on the subject of the strike. He said the country faced a long-meditated revolt against established authority. The issue concerned every country. The strike had thrown the state into confusion, and it would be a fight to a finish.

The Premier then moved the second reading of a bill providing for the suppression of the strike, which is not retrospective, and which will not remain in force after the termination of the strike. It provides that an employee leaving his work without giving four nights' notice is to be assumed to have joined the strike, and will incur the penalty of $500 fine or a year's imprisonment, with loss of pension, and will be ineligible in the future for Government employment. The bill also forbids interference with employees, the collection of strike funds, and the collection of money in any manner. The bill further empowers the police to destroy documents encouraging the strike, makes printers thereof offenders against the law, and declares meetings to be unlawful if four strikers are present. All persons refusing to disperse are liable to arrest without warrants, and the police are empowered to forcibly enter meetings.

An amendment expressing regret at the strike and promising that Parliament would consider the grievances of the railroad men if they return to work was defeated by 58 to 30.

SUFFERED FOR TWO YEARS

Then Dodd's Kidney Pills Quickly Cured His Diabetes.

Donat Laflamme, of St. Marguerite, Que., Found a Quick and Sure Remedy for His Long Standing Disease.

St. Marguerite, Dorchester County, Que., May 13.—(Special).—It is generally admitted by medical scientists that a remedy that will vanquish Diabetes will surely cure any form of Kidney Disease. Consequently, the case of Donat Laflamme, of this place, is of more than usual interest. He had Diabetes. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him. Speaking of the matter, Mr. Laflamme says:

"For two years I suffered with Diabetes. I consulted doctors, but their medicines were useless. I was permitted to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and after using only two boxes I am completely cured."

"Now my Diabetes is gone and I highly recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all my friends and to all those who suffer, hoping they will find relief, same as mine, and be cured."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure all stages of Kidney Disease. They never fail to cure Diabetes and Bright's Disease. They make much quicker work of the aches and pains that mark the earlier stages of Kidney Disease.

WOMAN'S STRANGE TALE

Man Supposed to Be Her Brother Is Really Her Husband.

Cleveland, May 14.—Caroline F. Upham, who has for many years held the position of chief stenographer for the common pleas court, has brought suit for divorce. The petition unfolded a story which her most intimate friends and acquaintances would not have believed probable or possible.

It stated that E. R. Whitney, consulting mechanical expert for the White Sewing Machine Company, also a well known authority and writer on mechanical construction, and the inventor of a fountain pen among a number of other things, was not her brother, but her husband by a common law marriage.

Mrs. Upham or Mrs. Whitney, as she now declares her name to be, is a woman of marked ability and education and the confident of a number of the largest law firms in the city. She speaks several languages and her services as a stenographer were sought after in all important cases. She was supposed to have been a widow, her husband dying soon after marriage.

The couple lived in a fashionable house and both were welcomed into the educational and literary coteries of the city.

The petition filed states that for the past five years her husband has grossly neglected her and failed to contribute anything to her support. She asks for a legal separation and alimony.

CARNEGIE CAUGHT IT

His Criticism of Canada Brings English Press Upon Him.

London, May 14.—Andrew Carnegie is evidently being found out by the English press, which has hitherto seemed to regard him as a kind of beneficent fairy queen. His wanton attack on Canada finds no sympathizers, while even the Scotch papers reproduce the Outlook's onslaught upon what it called "the bastard individualism of his Pittsburgh carrot bonus philanthropy."

The Canadian Gazette, in an article entitled "Carnegie Vinegar," shows that Mr. Carnegie is ignorant of the elementary position, and prays that Canada may be delivered from Carnegie's benefactions.

Fell Sixty-Five Feet.

Fort William, May 14.—Yesterday morning a workman named Thomas Greentree, of Toronto, fell 65 feet from one of the steel trusses on the new coal handling plant. It is not thought that Greentree is fatally injured, although a number of his ribs were broken on one side, and also one of his legs fractured.

ONTARIO'S CROPS PROMISE WELL

The Spring Bulletin Gives Favorable Outlook.

WHEAT HAS WINTERED WELL

Clover Is in Good Condition and Prospects for Live Stock Industry Is Good.

Ottawa, May 13.—The May bulletin, about to be issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, will contain the following regarding crop conditions on May 13.

Fall Wheat.—The crop bulletin issued in November last said that the outlook for fall wheat was most promising, the crop being healthy in color and vigorous-looking generally, although not having as much top as was usually seen at that time. It is safe to say that much less wheat will be plowed up this spring than last year. It is altogether, fall wheat may now be described as promising to be from fair to good. Only the faintest mention has been made of the Hessian fly, which, for the past few years, has been the scourge of the wheat fields of Western and Southwestern Ontario. The acreage is thought to be less than in the last year or two.

Winter Rye.—Very little winter rye is now grown in Ontario, the acreage being so small that it can hardly be considered as a staple crop. What was sown, however, wintered well, considered as a whole.

Clover fields, as a rule, came through the winter in the same condition in which they entered it only a comparatively small portion having been reported as "choking," and as the catch of last year's sowing was a good one, the crop faced the spring with the best prospects. Meadows have a good thick bottom, even though spring growth has been backward. The prospects for clover are particularly bright in the western half of the province.

Vegetation.—Notwithstanding the fact that the snow disappeared early, and that warm weather in March gave promise of advanced vegetation, the cold and unusually dry weather prevailing in April retarded growth to such a degree that conditions were only about normal on the 1st of May, and relatively backward compared with the earlier prospects of the season.

Spring Seeding.—The bulk of the reports are to the effect that seeding was well advanced by the end of April, many being through with the work, while a few were only beginning. While some complaint of the soil being hard and unsuitable for spring work, a much larger number described the seed-bed as being in the best possible condition. The least favorable reports concerning the extent and quality of seeding came from the counties forming the Niagara Peninsula.

Live Stock.—Taken altogether, the outlook for live stock may be classed as good. Distemper appeared among horses in various parts of the province, but hardly in sufficient degrees to be considered epidemic. Cattle are reported a trifle thin, but healthy. Sheep are reported to be in fair condition, but the dog is said to prevent many from raising mutton and wool. Lambing is reported later than usual, and a considerable number of the ewes dropped dead. With the exception of the outbreak of hog cholera in some of the Lake Erie counties, the swine industry is most promising. The litters have done better than those of last year. Piggeries generally are well supplied with food, but bran, shorts and meals generally are very high in price.

Fruit Trees.—The orchards have come through the winter in excellent order, so far as weather conditions are concerned, and have escaped the frosts or ice storms being reported. The only damage to fruit trees between November and April was caused by a plague of field mice, which appear to be working steadily westward, the center of operations now being in the Ontario counties, while a year ago they were most hurtful in the counties along the St. Lawrence.

Several Americans were among the occupants of the participating cars. "Tod" Sloan, who has developed skill as a chauffeur, piloted the way ahead of the racers.

W. K. Vanderbilt, Jun., who has entered for the speed test, will start later, but he was a passenger today on Fournier's car.

BIG AUTOMOBILE RACE

The Contestants Will Ride From Paris to Madrid.

Paris, May 13.—The Paris-Madrid automobile races were inaugurated this morning, 58 contestants in the tourist class being from the Automobile Club of France, from the Place de la Concorde, between 7 a.m. and noon. The recent rains promised heavy roads, reports from Madrid stating that some of the stretches were in a dangerous condition and requiring great caution.

The start was made in fine weather. The place De La Concorde presented a gay appearance, being thronged with participants in the contest and hundreds of others intending to follow the racers over the first stretch. Many ladies were seated in the racing cars, expecting to leave their parties at Fontainebleau or other nearby points. Today's run is from Paris to Pougues, a distance of 221 kilometers. The machines will enter Spain May 20 and reach Madrid May 26.

Several Americans were among the occupants of the participating cars. "Tod" Sloan, who has developed skill as a chauffeur, piloted the way ahead of the racers.

The Redistribution.

The Liberal members of the Redistribution Committee have submitted a schedule which forms the basis for the work of reconstituting the constituencies. The schedule specifies the number of ridings into which each county in Ontario shall be divided. The committee will reach a more contentious stage when it proceeds to define the boundaries of the ridings in those counties which will have two or more members.

Toronto will be given five members instead of four, and those portions of the city now in East and West York for Dominion purposes will be incorporated in the Toronto ridings.

The county of Middlesex, including London, will have four members, a very fair allowance for a population of 92,702. The unit of representation for the new redistribution is one member to 25,000 population, in round figures. Middlesex will have one member to 23,000 population.

Algoma and Nipissing together, with a population of 60,761, will have four members; but they are entitled to exceptional treatment because of their vast area and because it is expected that before the next census their population will have greatly increased. The following table shows the populations of the counties which will have three members, and the average population for each member:

County	Population	Average for each member
Simcoe	82,315	27,438
York (excluding Toronto)	59,185	19,728
Grey	68,590	22,863
Wentworth (Hamilton)	79,453	26,484
Huron	61,320	20,439
Carleton (Oshawa)	56,904	18,968
Leeds and Grenville	58,596	19,532
Durham and Northumberland	62,049	20,683

The following counties will have two members each:

County	Population	Average for each member
Essex	58,516	29,258
Kent	57,422	28,711
Elgin	45,582	22,791
Lambton	56,642	28,321
Brace	50,620	25,310
Wellington	52,540	26,270
Perth	49,871	24,936
Lanark	37,232	18,616
Renfrew	52,715	26,357
Frontenac (including Kingston)	44,534	22,267
Hastings	50,201	25,100
Peterborough	36,062	18,031
Waterloo	52,244	26,122
Oxford	48,494	24,247
Brant	38,140	19,070
Ontario	40,408	20,204

As some counties are so much more populous than others, variations from the unit of representation must be expected, under any plan which respects county boundaries; but even in this particular the present redistribution will be much closer to the principle of representation by population than the gerrymander of 1882. It may seem odd that Leeds and Grenville with 58,599 population should have three members, while Essex, Brant and Hastings, with populations equally large, should only be allotted two. No doubt these discrepancies will be explained by the committee. The reasons are presumably geographical.

Appended is a list of existing Dominion electoral districts, in which the population varies greatly from the unit of representation, which was 23,000 under the census of 1891.

County	Population
Brockville	15,901
Cardwell	12,000
Cornwall and Stormont	12,842
East Durham	14,448
West Durham	12,106
East Elgin	21,243
North Essex	33,418
Frontenac	12,008
South Grenville	12,821
North Grey	27,051
Leeds and Grenville North	13,447
Lennox and Addington	13,447
West Middlesex	15,843
Muskoka	36,674
Nipissing	35,571
West Northumberland	13,055
Russell	13,057
East Simcoe	39,277
East York	40,406
West York	52,711

Here are gerrymandered ridings ranging in population all the way from 12,000 to 53,000. The gerrymander ignored county boundaries under the specious pretense of adhering to representation by population. We see how the scheme worked out in practice. The only aim was to "hive the Grits," and in the process counties were mangled, municipalities were torn from their life-long associations and the unit of representation was entirely disregarded when a party advantage could be gained. The present Government has shown a spirit of fair play in consulting the Opposition and the committee entrusted with the redistribution should be able to work it out with a minimum of friction.

From Modern Novels.

[From M. A. P., London.]
 The astonishing thing is not what a face tells, but what it doesn't tell. When you think of what a man or a woman is, and what most of 'em have been through before they get to be 30, it seems as if their experience would burn right through—"The Rise of Silas Lapham" (W. D. Howells).

A witty woman is a treasure; a witty beauty is a power—"Diana of the Crossways" (George Meredith).
 What can one say of the highest music, except that, like death, it is the great leveler; it gathers us all to its tender keeping—and we rest—"In Varying Moods" (Beatrice Harraden).

Stum cuckoo! To the man belonging courage in great things; but in affairs of small moment woman is pre-eminent—"The Wheel of Love" (Anthony Hope).
 The worst of a reciprocal attachment is that, however much it may flatter your vanity, it is—ought to be—a bar to other philanderings—"A Varsity Man" (Ingalls Allen).

The genius of hospitality is not so much in making people meet, but in making them to part—on good terms. Remember that—"The Gods, Some Mortals and Lord Wickerham" (John Oliver Hobbes).

Speaking to or crying over a husband never did any good yet—"Plain Tales From the Hills" (Rudyard Kipling).
 Too many words be worse than not enough, for they'll often leave a man's meaning foggy—"The River" (Eden Phillpotts).

Every pretty woman should be a flirt, every clever woman a politician; the aim, the animus, the intrigue, the rivalry that accompany each of these pursuits are the salt without which the great dinner were tasteless—"Moths" (Ouida).
 Hope is the heroic form of despair—"The School for Saints" (John Oliver Hobbes).

Sentimental people are sure to live long and die fat. Feeling—that is the slayer—"The Ordeal of Richard Fernald" (George Meredith).
 There's a saying that a man who can live quite happily alone must be one of two things—an angel or a demon—"Sons of the Morning" (Eden Phillpotts).

Auld Nick's Sister.

[Scottish American.]
 A farmer's wife in Perthshire, who was much troubled by her husband's drunken habits, arranged with her brother to play the "ghost" upon her husband one dark night. When on the way home from the inn the farmer saw an apparition suddenly rise behind some bushes. "Who are ye?" cried the farmer. "I'm Auld Nick," was the reply. "Gie's a shauk o' yer hand, then!" exclaimed the tipsy man. "I'm marriest tae a sister o' yours, she'll be waitin' for's up by the faim, an' I'll noo doot mak' ye welcome."

"Give Us Men."

[The Bishop of Exeter.]
 Give us Men!
 Men from every rank;
 Fresh and free and frank;
 Men of thought and reading;
 Men of life and leading;
 Men of lofty aim in action;
 Give us Men—I say again,
 Give us Men!

Give us Men!
 Strong and stalwart ones;
 Men whom highest hope inspires,
 Men whom proudest honor fires,
 Men who triumphantly beneath them,
 Men who make their country wreath them
 As her noble sons!
 Give us Men!
 Men who never shame their mothers,
 Men who never fail their brothers;
 Give us Men—I say again,
 Give us Men!

Give us Men!
 Men who, when the tempest gathers,
 Grasp the standard of their fathers
 In the thickest fight;
 Men who strike for home and altar
 (Let the coward cry and falter).
 God defend the right!
 True as truth, though lone and lonely,
 Tender as the brave are only,
 Men who tread where saints have trod,
 Men for Country—Home—and God;
 Give us Men—I say again—
 Give us such Men!

Counting a Million.

[New York Letter Pittsburgh Dispatch.]
 "You never know how much a million dollars is until you try to count it," remarked a treasury expert today when the count in the sub-treasury vaults was completed. Ten men had been at work on this job since March 21, the count being made necessary by the appointment of a new sub-treasurer. The amount counted was $286,471,326. This consisted of $200,774,007 in gold, $85,913,066 in silver, $18,649,777 in paper money, $13,648 in minor coin and $1,756 in other items, such as paid coupons, interest checks, etc.

BUSH FIRE RAVAGES

Pennsylvania Suffers Great Loss of Property.

Greensburg, Pa., May 14.—The breaking out anew of the forest fires on Chestnut Ridge has caused consternation. Last night a house near Blairsville intersection was destroyed. Telegraph and telephone poles crossing the ridge at the same place were destroyed. At Lake Hollow, near New Florence, a big mill was burned. The Evans Lumber Company lost several thousand dollars' worth of pit posts today. The fire is raging in the vicinity of Ridgeview Park and the people of Milwood and Berry are fighting the flames.

THE SHANNON TIMBER LIMIT

Evidence by Mr. White and the Hon. Mr. Davis

BEFORE ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE

Mr. Davis Had No Knowledge That Others Than Shannon Were Purchasing the Limit.

Toronto, May 14.—Mr. Aubrey White, Assistant Commissioner of Crown Lands, was examined at length before the Public Accounts Committee of the Legislature yesterday in regard to the sale to Patrick Shannon, in May, 1902, of a timber limit in Eutherford Township. Most of the evidence given by Mr. White in answer to Col. Meseson and others dealt with the regulations and methods of the department in selling or licensing timber limits, and measuring the amount of timber taken off. To other questions, Mr. White stated emphatically he did not know the real purchaser of the limit which was sold for $250, was Captain Sullivan, and that it was afterwards sold by him for $5,500. He had read such reports in the newspapers, but not absolutely no personal knowledge of them. Crown lands agents as well as prior applicants for the limit had reported that the pine in it was scrubby, poor and practically of no value, and that it had been burnt over. It was not an unusual thing for limits sold at public auction or otherwise to be revised, but perhaps double the price, but that did not mean that agents had made incorrect reports as to the quantity of timber upon them. Hardly any two men would agree on an estimate as to the quantity. Sometimes those who bought from the original buyers lost their money because the bargain was bad. Hon. Mr. Davis, who was present, but was not formally called, said that so far as he was concerned he had no direct or indirect knowledge, in any way, shape or form, that there was anything in the application but Patrick Shannon. He said he would telegraph to the agent under whose jurisdiction the limit was for a return, so far as it was ready, of the timber cut during the season. He was in answer to several members, who said they had heard that more timber had been taken off the Shannon limit than was reported by the agents to be on it, and the surrounding sections inclusive. Orders were passed for the attendance of several witnesses and the committee adjourned until today.

HER EARNEST TROTH

"Very well, mamma, I shall be pleased to come. I hope there is not any danger of our losing our old friend."

"I hope not, but broken limbs are a bitter trial to old age."

That morning, Bethel, with a song on her lips, stood on the threshold of her guests' room, saying:

"Good morning, I hope you feel better; may I open your window to let in the sunlight and air? Oh, 'tis a day of days! I am glad to see you have made a good breakfast. Your man tells me you hope to rise a little today. We were so glad to hear it. I wonder you have had so few friends to see you."

"The most compassionate and pleasant loneliness," said his lordship, "that I ever experienced. I am almost sorry to be well to leave such happy quarters, but I fear I have been a sad drag upon your time and patience. That good Mrs. West, too, I feel I can never sufficiently reward her. Her husband is a lucky fellow to have his old age provisioned by such a kind wife."

"She is indeed a dear little creature. Here she comes with your letters. Now I will leave you to peruse them."

A few hours later, as Bethel sat in her dainty sitting-room reading over a new part in a play she had undertaken to study, a resounding knock caused her to knit her dark brows with haughty displeasure. The servant announced Lady Leigh and the Honorable Margaret Leigh. Bethel rose to receive her visitors, standing in the sunlight, with her regal head thrown back with a superb pride, her plain holland dress falling about her in crisp, straight folds, which clearly outlined her gracefully proportioned limbs.

Lady Leigh was taken aback by the well-bred air of repose with which Bethel greeted her, and still more by the tasteful elegance of her surroundings. She had come prepared to overwhelm this upstart daughter of the people with her pomp and splendor, thinking that one so lowly bred would be easily awed; but now she found herself talking to the proud plebeian with the same manners as she would to a duchess. After a pleasant word of greeting, Margery, who dearly loved little folks, charmed little Bethel to her side by offering her a costly fan as a toy; then there was a good deal of gossip between her and the pretty little maid, and after awhile the doll was taken from the coal scuttle and placed on Margery's lavender lap.

Bethel, who had been talking to Lady Leigh, saw this last act of her pet's with horror, at which Margery smiled reassuringly; but Bethel, touching the bell, resigned the little rebel to the nurse with a loud kiss.

"What a sweet child," said Lady Leigh, dropping her eyelashes, which had been used to admire Bethel's baby's charms. "May I ask if she is any relation to you?"

Bethel's heart gave one great dull thud of pain, and with lips from which the ruddy dye had faded, said stiffly:

"No, I would she were. She is the only child of my companion, Mrs. West, whose husband is absent for years on the sea. Would you not like to see Lord Lufton? I will ring and ask his man to conduct you."

After this her visitors left, and when in the carriage Margery said:

"How aptly she quotes, mamma, and what a wonderful woman she is."

"Quoting is but a trick of her trade, ma belle. She is a dealer in words and wiles. I only hope she will not turn our old friend's brain. He fairly gushed about her, the poor old absurdity. It is a pity to see so great a failing off of judgment in the aged. I fancy they wait outside tomorrow; one does not care to hobnob with a puppet, when one can pull the string and set them playing for a few shillings, and be more agreeably entertained."

So the next day Margery went alone and found the old nobleman had been assisted for the first time into the sitting-room, where he reclined in luxurious ease on a downy couch. A little table piled high with dainties and new books stood beside him, and sitting at a little distance Bethel dressed in a rich walking costume, was reading to him the new part in a play she was about to appear in. He motioned with uplifted hand for Margery to be still and listen, which she did, gladly captivated with Bethel's rendering of a most difficult character.

Bethel soon ceased, then with graceful warmth greeted the new-comer; for although she hated the class to which the girl belonged, yet she could not dislike her, for her manner was most loving, her voice and face as sweet-breathed as the breeze of a sunny breeze.

A WONDERFUL RECORD.

THE HEINTZMAN & CO PIANO

AND THE MUSICAL SEASON OF 1902-03

STANDS WITHOUT A RIVAL.

The story of this great Canadian-Made Piano is a series of triumphs throughout its long history of fifty years. But the record of this, its jubilee year, by far surpasses any former period.

It has been a wonderful year in the musical history of Canada. The world's greatest musicians have honored the Dominion with their presence. Never was there a season so noted for oratorio and chorus singing.

This one particular piano has been the universal choice at all great concerts, functions and gatherings. How grandly it has stood the severe test of artists like Sir Alexander Mackenzie and the famous Mendelssohn Choir is now written bright on the page of the business, social and musical history of the country.

When Royalty visits Canada this Piano is the one choice—being used exclusively during the last Royal visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales, in their tour of Canada from ocean to ocean.

Among the many famed artists who have indorsed and used this Piano are:

SIR ALEXANDER MACKENZIE, used exclusively in the Great Festival Chorus.

VICTOR HERBERT, Conductor Great Pittsburg Orchestra, and used exclusively during their Canadian Tour.

MENDELSSOHN CHOIR, exclusive choice for their famous concerts.

THE PEOPLE'S CHORAL UNION; H. M. Fletcher, Conductor; used exclusively at their crowded Massey Hall Concert.

ALBERTO JONAS, Great Russian Pianist.

FRIEDHEIM, the World-Famed Pianist.

KATHARINE BLOODGOOD, Soloist to the Plancon Concerts.

HUBERT DE BLANK, Pianist to Mdle. Trebelli.

MADAME FRIEDA DE TERSMEDAN, Swedish Countess and Famed Pianiste.

BURMEISTER, Famed Pupil of Liszt.

AUGUST HYLLESTED, the Great Danish Pianist.

ADELA VERNE, Greatest Woman Pianist.

ARTHUR BERESFORD, Boston's Famous Musician.

C. A. G. HARRISS, Organizer of the Great Mackenzie Festival Concerts.

MADAME ALBANI, the World's Greatest Soprano.

POL PLANCON, the Great French Basso.

R. WATKIN-MILLS, England's Most Eminent Artist.

MADAME VAN DE VEER GREEN, the Popular Contralto.

SIGNOR ARTURO NUTINI, the Celebrated Blind Italian Pianist.

WILLIAM LAVIN, the Great English Tenor.

MDLE. ANTOINETTE TREBELL, the Famous Vocalist.

MADAME SOPHIA SCALCHI, the World's Greatest Contralto.

HAROLD JARVIS, the Popular Tenor.

MR. AND MRS. DURWARD LELY, the Famous Scottish Musicians.

BEN DAVIES, the Popular English Tenor.

JESSIE MACLACHLAN, the Great Scottish Soloist.

PLUNKET GREENE, the Great English Basso Cantanto.

DAVID BISHAM, the Great American Basso.

DR. EDWARD FISHER, Director Toronto Conservatory of Music.

A. S. VOIGT, Conductor Famous Mendelssohn Choir.

DR. F. H. TORRINGTON, Director of the Toronto College of Music.

Surely there is reason for congratulation that a Canadian-Made Piano should attain such world-wide eminence. Whether the choice is a Concert Grand, or Baby Grand, or one of our beautiful Uprights, the same supremacy and superiority marks each and every Piano bearing our name.

THE MILLINERS WERE MEN.

The fourth talent social under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of King Street Presbyterian Church was held on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Alex Scott, 557 Central avenue. Notwithstanding a number of counter attractions, the attendance was large, the congregation of King Street Presbyterian Church being particularly well represented. The company indulged in games and various other amusements, and also enjoyed a short programme, consisting of an address by Rev. James Rollins, the pastor, and vocal and instrumental selections by Mrs. Renton, Mrs. Link, Miss Terry and Mrs. Roselle Pococke, and a dialogue by four young ladies. The most amusing event of the evening was a hat trimming contest for men, some of the productions being indescribable. Even the judging was left to men—Messrs. Clare and Teeple—who awarded the prize for the best hat to Mr. Scott, and the prize for the most ridiculous to Mr. Pococke. The members of the Ladies' Aid Society are holding a series of socials, each having underfoot to raise a certain amount towards the organ fund. Each of the socials has been very successful.

COMMITTEE AGAIN TAKES UP

QUESTION OF FIRE PROTECTION

of the discussion it came out that the prices were fixed by auction forty years ago, or more, and they had remained the same ever since. It was thought that there should be some rearrangement, so that uniform rents could be paid and that a fair price would be received. It was therefore decided to leave the matter in the hands of the committee, which is to inspect the market and the fire halls.

NEW FIRE ENGINE.

The new fire engine question was again raised. It had been decided that of two kinds, the straight frame and the crane neck engine, the former should be purchased by the city. Having had the matter referred again to them, the committee talked over the question of whether it would not be advisable to spend $500 more and get the crane neck, the only advantage of which, it was claimed, was that it could be more easily turned around. Ald. Becher moved that the crane neck be recommended, but Ald. Matthews saw in the saving of $500 so much more money for a north end fire hall, and moved an amendment. Ald. Saunders voted with him, the chairman voting for the crane neck. The vote being a tie, it was thought that the best plan would be to leave it in the hands of the council.

Ald. Greenlee suggested that the city purchase what wood was required. Ald. Matthews saw in this an attempt to establish a municipal fuel yard, and Ald. Becher also objected. Ald. Matthews ventured the statement that the coal and wood men were "pretty sore" just now, but Inspector McCallum pointed out that the city had a greater right to be sore. It was clear that the wood Ald. Greenlee wanted bought was the coal required for relief purposes, and there being little objection to this the matter was left in the hands of the relief inspector. He will inquire what a quantity can be purchased for, and report to the committee.

This was the only business transacted and the committee then adjourned.

Visited St. Thomas

Vice-Regal Party Inspect Several Institutions.

St. Thomas, May 14.—His Excellency the Governor-General and Lady Minto reached here by special train over the Lake Erie and Detroit River Railway at 10:15 yesterday morning. They were met at the station by a guard of honor and the band of the Twenty-fifth Regiment, the High School Cadets and a large crowd of citizens. The municipal address was by Mayor Maxwell, was commendably brief, and his excellency's reply was gracefully worded. The vice-regal visitors visited the Collegiate Institute, the Wellington and Bataclava street schools and Alma College, and then proceeded to the city hall, where a reception was held in the council chamber. Most of the leading citizens were present, and the distinguished visitors departed for Chatham on their special train about noon.

Auto-Expanding

The foot spreads when borne upon! It contracts again when lifted!

A new shoe, which fits the foot neatly when off the ground, must therefore pinch it when stood upon, till it is stretched to the maximum width of foot.

A shoe which has thus been stretched, till comfortable across the ball when stood upon, must be too loose when the foot is lifted.

The RESILIA is the only shoe which expands at the ball when the foot does, and contracts again when lifted.

It becomes a size larger inside when the foot sinks down into the resilient centresole, the rebounding of which takes up the leather slack again when foot is lifted.

It is thus as easy as an old shoe the first moment it is worn, requires no "breaking in," and retains its shape because the leather is never overstretched.
