

WAR SUMMARY OF TODAY HINTS OF BIG BATTLE

Official Announcements However are Very Sparse --No Word Yet of Naval Engagement in North Sea --Scene of Hostilities.

[By Special Wire to The Courier]

Complete silence is maintained as to the fortunes of war in the big fight understood to be in progress somewhere along a line extending through Belgium and Luxemburg.

The commanders of the allied forces of French, British and Belgians will not permit anything about their positions to be made public, and since the official note made known the presence of a large British expeditionary force on the continent, its movements have been hidden from the outside world.

At Brussels it is said the position has not changed since yesterday, when it was reported from Brussels to be excellent for the allies.

The fate of the Liege forts is not definitely known. German despatches describe them as in the hands of the German army since the arrival of heavy artillery, while Belgian military authorities assert that they are still intact and holding out bravely.

In Alsace-Lorraine, the French turning movement through southern Alsace appears from French reports to be progressing favorably for the French, and this seems to receive confirmation in a despatch sent out by the Wolff Bureau, the German official news agency, saying two batteries of guns were taken by the French, who continued their forward march.

On the sea it is reported that a naval encounter has occurred in the North Sea, but this is without official confirmation.

On the Russo-German-Austrian frontier fights of small importance are recorded. German troops to-day occupied Mlaw, in Russian Poland, close to the German frontier, and Russian reports relate a repulse with heavy casualties of Austrian troops who had attacked Vladimir, in the Russian province of Volhonia.

A strong force of German troops is said to have attacked Eydkuhnen, a German town on the Russian frontier, which was occupied by the Russians soon after the outbreak of hostilities.

A French official note confirms reports of a Servian victory at Shabats over an Austrian force of 80,000 men. The Austrians are said to have suffered casualties totalling 3,000 killed and 5,000 wounded.

A Montenegrin army is reported within two hours' march of the fortified Austrian seaport of Ragusa, in Dalmatia. The Montenegrins had already captured a number of towns in the vicinity.

Two large Austrian steamers were captured to-day by the French.

An exhortation to the world by the Pope calls for prayers for peace, "so that the merciful God may, as it were, be wearied with the prayers of His children and speedily remove the evil causes of war, giving to them who rule to think the thoughts of peace."

King Alfonso of Spain, with Premier Dato, are to confer with the French and British ambassadors at Madrid concerning Spain's attitude.

The Latest War Map By the Best Map Builders in the World, Rand, McNally & Co. of Chicago, is Now on Sale at the COURIER OFFICE, 20c for 20c

It is in colors, gives every place in detail in all Europe --railroads, rivers, and all the rest of it. At the back there are complete details of the fighting strength and resources of each nation, area, population, public debt, and so on. It folds into a neat cover, and can readily be carried in the pocket. To understand the progress of the war intelligently it is absolutely necessary to have one of these maps. Written orders given to newsboys will be promptly filled.

A HEAVY ARTILLERY WEAPON OF THE FRENCH ARMY ON WAY TO THE FRONT

These guns, which are intended to reply to the heavy Krupp guns of the Germans, are drawn by specially constructed motor tractors of 35-horse power, as seen in the above picture. The motors can draw a heavy gun along a good road at the rate of ten miles an hour.

A FIERCE FIGHT IS ON NOW

Both London and Paris Hear Same Report Today.

Battle Being Waged is on Immense Scale.

LONDON, Aug. 19.—2.20 p. m.—The curt announcement in a telegram from Brussels, dated last night, of fierce fighting between Belgium and German troops along an extended front is generally accepted in London to-day as indicating the real beginning of the first great battle in the war of eight nations.

The German attack is to-day again to have been made on the direct orders of Emperor William himself to his generals in the field. The exact extent of the line of fighting has not yet been revealed, but presumably it stretches in a north and south line. Beyond its definite location is virtually guess work.

Refugees from Diest, Trier, and other towns in that section of Belgium, who fled as the Germans approached, are coming into Brussels in large numbers. They declare that since the inhabitants vacated Trier, German shells have been dropping in the town and that subsequently the Belgians broke the German advance at this place at the point of the bayonet.

HEARD IN PARIS PARIS, Aug. 19.—1.50 p. m.—The military situation on the northern frontier leads French military observers to the conclusion that the events transpiring in Belgium to-day are the beginning of operations on an immense scale.

Germany, it is declared, is making a fresh and mightier effort to break into France through the comparatively open Belgian country.

Opinion in Paris, however, is confident that the allies will be able to meet this shock successfully and reply to it crushingly.

MOVE ON ANTWERP An official announcement this morning says the retirement of Belgian troops towards Antwerp is rumored, but not confirmed.

Commenting on this report, it is officially explained that, even were it true, it would be neither a grave symptom, nor unexpected. The defensive organization of Belgium as conceived by General Brialmont and presented in technical works, provides that Antwerp be considered as a last defense. It has been fortified with care, and is to-day a vast entrenched camp upon the flank of the enemy.

BELGIUM REPULSED THEM LONDON, Aug. 19.—4.50 a. m.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, from Brussels, dated Tuesday, says:

"Since Sunday there has been no movement by the German troops on our lines. The Belgians having vigorously repulsed the German attack on their central position, the enemy have pushed forward their troops in a corner between the Belgium and French forces, their aim being to cause the Belgians to fall back on Antwerp.

"These tactics, however, are dangerous, for they expose the Germans, if they fail in their object, to a flank attack. Their effort was a failure, as they have not renewed this attack on the Belgian centre. It is extremely probable that it was intended to cover their principal object, namely, an advance of the main German force, who are advancing along the banks of the Meuse toward the south of Brussels and that an attack on the central Belgian position was but the shadow of a real invasion of the country.

IN EXCELLENT CONDITION BRUSSELS, via Paris, Aug. 19.—It is officially announced that the situation of the Belgian army continues excellent. While it is impossible to indicate the position of the troops, says a statement from the war office, it may be said now that there is no chance of any incursion towards Brussels.

CANADIAN WOMEN ARE PREVENTING MEN FROM SERVING THEIR COUNTRY

Charge Hurlled at Them by Colonel Morrison at Ottawa—Fifty Per Cent of Volunteers are Protested by Their Wives.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 19.—The too liberal use by the married women of Canada of the power to prevent their husbands from going to the war on the overseas contingent drew from Colonel Morrison, director of artillery, a spirited protest this morning. Col. Morrison said that when permission was given by the militia department to married women to object to their husbands going to war, it was never expected that it would be so generally invoked. He pointed out that in one instance that he knew of nearly 50 per cent of the volunteers for active service were protested by their wives. The colonel said that many of the unpatriotic women were wives of officers. Colonel Morrison remarked that it was all right for a woman to protest if she thought that her husband was trying to desert her and her children, but in the present war the families would be cared for. He said that Canadian women should take a leaf out of the books of the European women. Much of the trouble, he thought might be due to the ignorance of the terrors of war of Canadian women. He said that Canada must be protected and married men had to play their part in this war. The women thought the danger was too remote, but he would like to ask them how they would care for this country to be invaded and perhaps invaded by men of another color.

GIVES A WARNING IN PORTUGAL

French Minister Says Hard Struggle is Yet to Come.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] PARIS, Aug. 19, 4.15 a. m.—"Outpost combats, however interesting and characteristic, do not justify us in counting upon the certainty of a prompt and definite victory," writes former Minister of Foreign Affairs, Stephen Pichon, in The Petit Journal. "I find too much said about the Germans being demoralized. Their original over-confidence may give place to doubts, but that is all. The war now beginning is a war to the death. On it hangs the existence of Germany as well as that of France. It will be waged furiously on both sides. It will probably be long and the losses enormous. "Let us make up our minds to the fact that we have to contend with the most redoubtable army in Europe and have need for all our material and moral forces."

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Lisbon correspondent of The Morning Post says that on account of the fear of running short of coal, only half the usual number of trains are being run through Portugal. Lighting for the streets and public buildings has been reduced to a minimum for the same reason. The only topic of conversation in Portugal is war and the attitude of Portugal. A week ago, says the correspondent, party politicians were at each other's throats, now home politics have been laid aside and the only attacks on the government are on the grounds that it is acting too weakly in support of its ally, England.

GOES TO FIGHTING LINE

LONDON, Aug. 19, 1.12 p. m.—According to advices received here today from St. Petersburg, Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, a brother of Emperor Nicholas, has left St. Petersburg to join the Russian fighting line.

FIRE ON ITALIANS LONDON, Aug. 19.—A despatch from Rome to The Star says refugees from Madgeburg, Germany, report that German soldiers fired on 3,000 Italians confined in the barracks there killing 7 and wounding 16 because some of them shouted "hurrah for Italy." Sheldon Lyons of Toronto was fatally injured by falling through a barn floor in Mono township.

Three Hundred Million in Prizes

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Aug. 19, 3.55 a. m.—The Daily Express estimates that the number of large German vessels captured at sea by the British and French and Russian warships total 200, with a tonnage of 1,000,000 tons and a value of $300,000,000. The paper says that there are still remaining at sea about 500 German ships liable to capture at any moment. These have a total tonnage of 2,700,000 tons and a value of $700,000,000. These latter include 155 Hamburg-American vessels, 120 North German Lloyd, 65 Hansa, 45 German-Australian, 45 Hamburg-South American, 45 German Levant, 30 German-American Petroleum and 35 Woodmann.

Touching Scene at the Grand Trunk Depot—Mayor Gives Assurance.

There was none of the martial enthusiasm which characterized the departure of the first batch of reservists, last night at the Grand Trunk station. No bands played and only a crowd of relatives and acquaintances gathered to see them off. Those who left were Gunner J. Whiwen, R.F.A., Arthur Aston, Royal North Lancashire Regiment, married, and residing at 163 Rawdon St.; A. J. Pizzev, 2nd Essex, married, and residing at 1 Simpson street; W. Hazel, unmarried, Royal Army Medical Corps. The last few scenes left the train pulled out, were tense and hard, relieved of their absolute bitterness alone by Mayor Spence's heartening assurance for the welfare of their wives and children, to the men. The children clung to their fathers, who fondled them with more than love—it was the last touch of chubby fingers and baby lips for an unknown time—and who could but admire the tears that would trickle down their cheeks as they tore themselves away and leap on board. The departure was on time and sorrowfully some groups wended their way homewards—soldiers' wives must needs be heroines.

HOUSE IN SESSION

But Little is Known as Yet of Dominion Government's Intentions.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 18.—The emergency parliament of Canada opened yesterday by the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General, for the purpose of dealing with the issues arising in Canada out of the European conflict, began consideration of the address from the throne this afternoon.

Donald Sutherland, South Oxford, acted as mover of the address, and D. O. Lesperance seconded him. Both were expected to give the first parliamentary expression to the unanimous loyalty of the English and French Canadian people to Great Britain in the present war.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, leader of the Opposition, was expected to follow with an address which has been eagerly awaited, and which it is said would pledge the support of the Liberal party to the government war measures.

The Prime Minister, Sir R. L. Borden, was also named as one of today's speakers, and though most of the government's legislative intentions in regard to the war are known, he is expected to give a number of important details which can place Canada's attitude more clearly before the world.

A RICH PRIZE

Just Managed to Escape British Cruisers in English Channel.

LONDON, Aug. 19, 5.20 a. m.—A despatch to The Daily News from Berlin via Rotterdam says that one of the last German ships to pass safely through the English Channel was the Prinzessin of the German East Africa Line, which carried a large quantity of diamonds from the Africa fields. Off the coast of Holland the vessel sighted two torpedo boats from which flight seemed impossible. According to the captain determined to beach his ship on the Dutch coast, but this proved unnecessary as the torpedo boats turned out to be Hollanders.

LORD KITCHENER'S ADVICE TO THE BRITISH TROOPS

LONDON Aug. 19.—To each of the British soldiers leaving for the front the following note from Lord Kitchener was given which he directed every soldier should keep in his active service paybook.

"You are ordered abroad as a soldier of the King to help our French comrades against the invasion of a common enemy.

"You have to perform a task which will need your courage, your energy and your patience.

"Remember that the honor of the British army depends on your individual conduct.

Set an Example.
"It will be your duty not only to set an example of discipline and perfect steadiness under fire but also to maintain the most friendly relations with those whom you are helping in this struggle.

"The operations in which you will be engaged will for the most part take place in a friendly country and you can do your own country no better service than in showing yourself in France and Belgium in the true character of a British soldier by being invariably courteous, considerate and kind.

"Never do anything likely to injure or destroy property and always look upon rioting as a disgraceful act.

"You are sure to meet with a welcome and to be trusted. Your conduct must justify that welcome and that trust.

Guard Your Health.
"Your duty cannot be done unless your health is sound so keep constantly on your guard against any excesses.

"In this new experience you may find temptation both in wine and women. You must entirely resist both temptations and while treating all men with perfect courtesy you should avoid any intimacy.

"Do your duty bravely. Fear God and honor the King."
(Signed) "Kitchener, Field Marshal.

Nuptial Notes

NEWTON—RUSSELL

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at high noon Monday, August 17, at the home of the bride's parents, Heatherdale Farm, Brantford, when Pearl Blanche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Russell and Rose V. Newton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Newton were united in marriage by Rev. F. J. Cleigston, pastor of the Presbyterian church, East Oxford. This occasion was the wedding anniversary of the groom's brother, Rev. R. H. Newton, B.A., China. The ceremony was performed in the drawing room. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Grace Russell, sister of the bride sang "Oh Promise Me." Promptly at twelve o'clock the bridal party entered the room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Gertrude Giles, cousin of the bride and took their places before a bank of ferns and golden glow. The bride who was given away by her father, was becomingly gowned in pearl, white satin and shadow lace with pearl trimmings and the customary wedding veil was arranged in a Juliet cap effect crowned with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by the groom's little cousins, Miss Maxine Butler, who made a dainty little flower girl in a pretty dress of pale blue silk and shadow lace and carried a basket of white carnations and Master Max Butler in a white suit, acted as page. Following the ceremony, the wedding breakfast was served in a tent on the lawn by caterer Dawse of Woodstock, the color decorations of the table being yellow and white.

Later in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Newton left in a motor car, amid showers of confetti and good wishes for Simcoe and other points on Lake Erie. The bride being attired in a tailored suit of navy blue serge and white felt hat.

The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst of pearls, to the little flower girl, a pearl ring, to the little page a gold watch fob, to the pianist a gold signet brooch and to Miss Grace Russell a hand crocheted bag, made in India. The esteem in which the young couple are held was shown by the large number of handsome and useful presents which they received. Mr. and Mrs. Newton will reside in Salford.

Bell View Is After Hydro

But Ratepayers are Inclined to Make Haste Rather Slowly.

Bell View ratepayers are in favor of Hydro-Electric, but are inclined to act cautiously in the matter. Last night a meeting was held, and the works committee was appointed to look into the matter and report back to the ratepayers at their next meeting, when petitions for signatures would be got out.

Dr. Linscott moved for immediate action. "Let us have the hydro light this autumn, or we will muddle on, until we will not get it at all. The ratepayers of Bell View should act amicably with Echo Place and Grand View and not squabble over a dollar this way or that. What does a dollar or two amount to compared with the advantages of the light?" As far as the three districts were concerned, all had been settled at the general meeting held in Perley School House. Mr. Seace had gone into everything thoroughly. He had given the costs and assessments and the number of lights, and now Bell View turned to kick over a few dollars. The speaker advocated immediate action and asked that the petitions be got out immediately.

Mr. Atwell, however, speaking briefly, said he did not see why the whole plan should not be laid before the ratepayers. He did not think they should be rushed into signing something they knew nothing about.

To which Rev. Dr. Linscott replied it was their own fault if they had not attended the general meeting, when everything was fully explained. He had been there, and knew that it was all right.

Mr. F. Billo explained that Bell View was to get 45 lights. Grand View 44 and Echo Place 37. He thought that Bell View was assessed, pro rata, higher than either Grand View or Echo Place. "We want fair play," he said. "We do not want to pay for them, and we do not want them to pay anything for us."

The speaker had gone to a great deal of trouble to secure Hydro power, and he opined it would be better if Bell View could get it independently of the other two districts. He felt that something should be done, "for here we have held meeting after meeting, and still we have not got the light. The Hydro Commission was waiting to instal it, and we are holding them back. It is time we discontinued meetings and got something done."

Rev. Dr. Linscott thought that Bell View should act in a fraternal spirit with the others and get the light. He did not care for the idea of this winter coming on without it.

A little discussion took place, and the Works Committee, composed of Messrs. Billo, Atwell, Hagan, Robertson, Brown and Minter, was appointed to inquire further and report back, when petitions will be circulated for subscribers' signatures.

GUNBOAT DISARMED.
LONDON, Aug 9, 1.20 p.m.—The Central News publishes a despatch from Rome saying that the German gunboat Vaterland has been forced to disarm at Nanking, China.

Morale of Germans Went to Pieces As Soon As Belgians Showed Fight

PARIS, Aug. 19.—According to the story told by a German sergeant of Alsatian origin, who deserted to the French after the battle of Liege, the morale of the German forces was satisfactory up to the time they arrived at Verrieres by way of the Vestra Valley. The officers told their men that the English were better than the Belgians, would offer no resistance, the situation was not that in 1870 and that the Germans would be in Paris in fifteen days. The soldiers were astonished by the resistance before Liege. There was little food and the men were fagged. On the afternoon of Aug. 5 General von Emmich told his officers that heavy losses had occurred and that for this reason the brigade was to advance as a reinforcement. During the advance they met fleeing sharpshooters running from a Belgian bayonet charge. Then a general arrived and ordered the regiment to retreat. They bivouacked and had the first hot meal there after three days. The men were completely demoralized by fatigue, hunger and the sight of their comrades in flight. The French War Office which publishes this story attaches great importance to the narrative as indicating the German fear of bayonets, the failure of the artillery to support the infantry and the predominance of the reservists attitude of mind in fixing the morale of the corps as a whole.

Letters Written by German Soldiers Tell of Massacres by Wholesale

PARIS, Aug. 19.—The Ministry of War issued the following announcement at 11 o'clock last night: Our successful operations in Lorraine allowed of the seizure of heavy mail from German soldiers on the firing line writing home, chiefly from Badenweiler, ten kilometers east of the French frontier. One soldier wrote: "We have covered sixty kilometres into France." Another wrote: "We shall be in Paris at the end of the month." Still another wrote: "Here we are in southern France." The letters were characterized by insults to the French troops such as: "When they get near us they run; all French are cowards." All these letters were written by soldiers in a corps which had retreated before us for four days. The writers of the letters were chiefly preoccupied about food and drink. They wrote that they had no need of money saying: "We take it up if the Frenchman does not cough up or if he looks sad we stick a revolver under his nose." We do that on purpose to let him know that the Germans have come before. We burn villages; we carry off all the eatables and drinkables. The first town we passed crossing the frontier was completely destroyed. It was both a sad and an agreeable spectacle. All the French were shot." Another German soldier writes: "I saw three convoys of French peasants pass. The prisoners are all to be shot." Another writer says: "We have shot all the inhabitants from 14 to 60 years of age; all told there were thirty dead." There are twenty other letters which say that everybody was shot or that nobody was left alive except the women. The letters describe the future caused by the participation of the civil population in the fighting, which was ordered by the French government. Everybody knows that this is false even in Germany. We have already quoted from German officers' notebooks which say: "We say civilians have fired on us but it was really forest rangers and Customs men." The same mail bag proves that many German reservists died from the heat along the roads. A Bavarian regiment which was engaged in that region suffered enormous losses.

BRITAIN'S INGRAINED PEACEFULNESS

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The Times military expert indulged in some plain speaking on Saturday, when he said in part: "Lord Kitchener does not find under this hand the means for waging war on a great scale. We are dreadfully in arrears. The present generation, by its efforts and its steady patriotism is called upon to make good for the neglect, selfishness and calloused indifference to defense which has characterized our peace-loving nation in the past." "What is the situation? We are fighting a nation of 70,000,000 people. It is in arms and we have no good reason to suppose that they have any other object in life but to crush us. France already has thrown the weight of her manhood into war. We can do no more. Russia is a mighty power with immense capability for defense but with untried and unproved offensive powers." "We may beat back Germany, but behind the first German line are reserves. We must take it that Germany will fight this fight through as the Kaiser said, to the last breath of the last man and the last horse. Under such conditions war may be long and very long. Lord Kitchener's duty is to prepare our land forces so that they may not only second the efforts of our friends, but may by their steadily expanding numbers and their constantly increasing efficiency, enable us to play a part worthy of England in war and at peace impose terms most in consonance with our interests." "There must be no question of peace except at our own terms even if all our allies are struck down. We should continue the war until the enemy has relaxed her grip. Russia at least is equally prepared for a long war. Misfortunes which are not to be foreseen may befall, but they must not deter either Russia or ourselves on their hair's breadth from our resolution. No disaster must frighten us. We are fighting for liberties and for the very existence of Europe."

DROPPED BOMBS

(By special wire to the Courier)
PARIS, Aug. 18.—5.15 p.m.—A German monoplane, which had hoisted the French flag to-day dropped three bombs on Lunville, sixteen miles east of Nancy from a height of 4,500 feet, according to an official announcement issued in a public garden. No one was hurt and only slight damage was done to property.

BRUSSELS, via Paris, Aug. 19.—5.05 a.m.—The British expeditionary force complete has been landed. The soldiers are receiving an enthusiastic reception from the population as they march to their allotted positions. The harness of the cavalry was decked with flowers by village maidens. The above despatches may refer to the landing of the British troops in France or to the landing of an expedition in Belgium not yet announced by the British war information bureau.

AGAINST GERMANY

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The correspondent at Genoa of the Daily Express says much anti-German sentiment is being manifested by riot outbreaks in various cities of Italy. Despatches received in London from Messina say several riotous demonstrations occurred there, while the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau were in port. The inhabitants of the city, it is stated, refused to sell the Germans fruit or food.

STEAMERS SAIL

HONOLULU, Aug. 19.—The British steamers Yagara, bound for Australian ports and Maama, bound for Victoria, B.C., which have been held here for several days owing to fear of capture by the German cruisers Leipzig and Nurnberg, sailed for their respective destinations last night. The Japanese steamer Seiyu Maru, bound for Yokohama, also cleared.

IN RUSSIAN POLAND

BERLIN, via Amsterdam and London, Aug. 19.—11.48 a.m.—German troops to-day occupied the town of Mlawe, in Russian Poland, close to the German frontier on the Warsaw Railroad.

MARKET REPORTS

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Board of trade markets, inspired mainly by a marked improvement in the export situation, advanced strongly today, led by wheat, which scored a net gain of 4 1/2c. Corn advanced 1 1/2c to 2 1/2c, oats 1 1/2c to 1 3/4c and provisions 1c to 1 1/2c.

WINNIPEG GRAIN MARKET.
WINNIPEG, Aug. 18.—The Winnipeg wheat market opened 3/4c lower to 3/8c higher and advanced gradually during the early hours. At noon a grade of 2 1/2c to 3c had been made with a strong undertone. Oats opened 3/8c higher and 1/2c to 3/4c higher. At noon wheat held steady at 40c to 41c. The passing of the shipping bill by the United States government has tended to clear the difficulty of export, which, it is claimed, caused the advances in grain prices. Trading today was quiet. While cash demand was quiet there were few offerings. Further advances occurred towards midday and the market became generally unsettled. Closing prices were 1/2c to 3/4c higher for options and 1/4c to 1/2c for cash wheat.
MONTREAL GRAIN MARKET.
MONTREAL, Aug. 18.—The local grain trade was without any new feature today, prices for all lines being firm, with a fair amount of business passing for local and country account. There is a good demand for Argentine corn, and sales of round lots were made at 83c to 84c c.i.f. A feature of the flour trade is the strong feeling in winter wheat grades, and prices have scored a further advance of 1/2c per bag, with sales of 30 per cent. at 83c per bag. In spring wheat grades, a grade is passing and the market is active, with a strong undertone. The demand for millfeed is good, and millers generally are now oversold for some time. An easier feeling has developed in the market for butter, and it is doubtful if over 200 would be paid for round lots of finest creamery. The demand for cheese is quiet, but there is no change in prices to note. A good trade is being prices in wheat.

THE OUTLOOK IN CANADA. Truly, it is an ill-wind that blows nobody good. One Continent's "down" is another Continent's "up."

REDMOND'S SPEECH. English papers just received give the following as the full text of the speech of the Irish leader in connection with the war declaration:

It is a time for business hopefulness, not for business gloom.

THE SITUATION. A united House on behalf of Canadian duty in the present Empire crisis was the pleasing spectacle presented yesterday at Ottawa.

THE OFFICIAL STATEMENT. There have been no casualties as yet with reference to the British army, raises anew the puzzle as to where said forces are located.

SOME FIGHTING HAS TAKEN PLACE IN THE NORTH SEA, but it has manifestly been of a very trivial nature.

IS THIS THE LAST? That the present will be the last great war is the prediction confidently advanced in some quarters.

THE SYMPATHY OF THE UNITED STATES, as it is expressed so widely in the American press, openly for Great Britain and her allies, is explained by a statement in the New York World, which believes that, if Germany and Austria-Hungary win, the great American republic will be the last stand of democracy.

Now that Japan has sent an ultimatum to Germany all cause for anxiety by the United States is removed. Japan has shown that whatever irritation she may feel toward this country has not reached the warlike stage.

For its part, The Express is frank to say that it is heartily ashamed of such Americans. At a time like the present, when every expression of this kind is sure to be reported all over the world, they make their country appear ridiculous.

WAS STOPPED. ORAN, Algeria, via Paris, Aug 19—4:10 a.m.—The Austrian Steamer Emilia of 3,897 tons, bound for Trieste, was stopped by a gun from Fort St. Gregoire and brought in here a prize, by a tug. The captain of the Emilia was unaware that war had broken out.

be taken as an indication that universal peace is to come as soon as this war ends. As usual, there are dreamers proclaiming the glad dawn of the brighter day. But the public has learned by experience to discount this kind of talk and to wait for the sober statements of statesmen.

Another circumstance is that Russia may loom up as an element of danger. Her ambitions particularly with regard to the East are well known and her humiliation at the hands of Japan will long rankle.

It is impossible to follow the war intelligently without a map. The one offered by the Courier is the best on the market, and is delighting the many who have secured it.

Anybody who has an idea that a navy defeat is sufficient to settle hostilities, cannot have read much history. All big wars have their final arbitration upon land.

It is impossible to follow the war intelligently without a map. The one offered by the Courier is the best on the market, and is delighting the many who have secured it.

DAUGHTER NATIVES. By Rev. Dr. G. H. Porter. Motherland Britain! old ocean's queen On the high seas thy rule has been Greatest and longest the world has seen.

Under thy flag on a far flung coast, Saved through the years by thy martial host. Loving thy own, thou didst love us most.

Now, when thy burdens grow too great, And crowns lay plots for the ocean gate, Can we hear thy call and yet halting wait?

Past is the time of divided pleas, Daughter Queens of the Seven Seas, Our answer is one, and the words are these:— Unknown to us, a dividing line, Thine has been ours, so ours is thine.

We are the Empire! Hear that cry! Sound like a trumpet clear and high, Far as thy red cross banners fly.

Continent, Commonwealths, Isles of the Main, Far flung domain where the maples reign, We pulse with the blood of the mother-land.

Reared and kept by the sovereign might, Ours is the battle, and ours the right To stand in the front of the hottest fight.

We are the Empire! Hands all round! Till the gleaming stars from heaven fall down It shall stand and shine with increased renown.

interests than its occupation by Germany, and since we did not protest when Germany seized the place from China, we should be making a poor face of it to protest now when Japan proposes to oust Germany and restore it to China.

Moreover, Japan's course is none of our business, and such an attitude by the American government as is reflected in the Britten resolution would be a great piece of effrontery.

Beyond rejoicing that Japan does not feel the animosity toward us which we might have expected, we need feel no particular concern over the extension of the war to the far East—less concern, at least, than we feel over its existence in Europe.

Don't lose sight of the fact in connection with the war, that the first great trial of strength has yet to come.

Anybody who has an idea that a navy defeat is sufficient to settle hostilities, cannot have read much history. All big wars have their final arbitration upon land.

AN EXHORTATION TO THE WORLD

Pope Pius Asks All Catholics to Supplicate for End of War

[By Special Wire to The Courier.] "ROME, via London, Aug. 19, 10:50 a.m.—The Pope has addressed the following exhortation to the whole world:

"At this moment when nearly the whole of Europe is being dragged into the vortex of a most terrible war, with its present dangers and miseries and the consequences to follow, the very thought of which must strike everyone with grief and horror, we whose care is the life and welfare of so many citizens and peoples cannot but be deeply moved and our heart wrung with the bitterest sorrow.

"And in the midst of this universal confusion and peril we feel and know that both fatherly love and apostolic ministry demand of us that we should with all earnestness turn the thoughts of Christendom thither 'when cometh help'—to Christ, the Prince of Peace and the most powerful mediator between God and man.

"We charge therefore the Catholics of the whole world to approach the throne of grace and mercy, each and all of them, and more especially the clergy, whose duty furthermore it will be to make in every parish, as their bishops shall direct, public supplication so that the merciful God, as it were, be wearied with the prayers of his children and speedily remove the evil causes of war, giving to them who rule to think the thoughts of peace; and not of affliction.

"From the Palace of the Vatican, the second day of August, 114. "Plus X, Pontifex Maximus."

TIME HOW FOR HOME RULE BILL

Chronicle Points Out that Britain Could Baffle All Enemies

[By Special Wire to The Courier.] NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Tribune publishes the following cable from London:

"The Daily Chronicle" in an editorial says: "Only one of the great powers now remains outside the war, if one excepts Italy, which will enter the arena before long. We mean the United States. The fortunes of the war are being followed closely in America, and it would be a mistake to suppose that public opinion is all on one side. The German side is not without some sympathy. There is a very influential German press in America, with daily papers in the chief cities.

"The coming freedom of Poland has awakened a sympathetic feeling toward Russia, which will be very much strengthened when the emancipation of the Jews is announced.

"On the other hand, the participation of Japan in the war will create a new cross current. The good wishes and sympathy of the American people count for more than one can now estimate in the clash of races and nations, which is putting Europe in the melting pot.

"For the first time in the history of the republic there is now a golden opportunity of obtaining the sympathy of the Irish race in America with England in the gigantic conflict upon which we have entered. The American press shows that an overwhelming majority of the Irish in America, by birth or origin are supporters of Redmond and of a constitutional solution. Not in any part of Ireland will the final passage of the home rule bill be more welcome than among the American-Irish.

"Here is an asset in international friendship which is of inestimable value to this country at such a crisis. In former years at such time the powerful political influence of Irish-Americans would have been exerted to inflame American public opinion against us. The placing of the home rule bill in the statute book will close a long era of bitterness, and will foster American sympathy and will be another magnificent and dis-appointment for our enemies."

CARNAGE TERRIBLE. PARIS, Aug. 19, 8:05 a.m.—Details of the fighting at Dinant between the French and German troops, show that the carnage was terrible. The first French company, although decimated, held a position until another company came up with artillery which destroyed a bridge.

CEREMONY IN MOSCOW HELD BY EMPEROR

Exhorts His People According to Ancient Custom to Defend Country. [By Special Wire to The Courier.] LONDON, Aug. 19, 2:40 a.m.—Reuter's Moscow correspondent, telegraphing Tuesday, says:

"In the hall of St. George in the great palace of Kremlin to-day, Emperor Nicholas and the Empress Alexandra fulfilled the ancient ceremony on the eve of war. They received deputations of the nobility and the clergy and merchants who presented loyal addresses. Those present at the ceremony included the British and French ambassadors and all the cabinet ministers, headed by the premier.

"The Emperor, Nicholas replying to the addresses said: "At this stormy, warlike hour, which suddenly and against my wishes, has fallen upon my peaceful people I seek, according to the custom of my ancestors, to strengthen the forces of my soul in the sanctuaries of Moscow. Within the walls of the old Kremlin I greet you, the inhabitants of Moscow my beloved ancient capital.

"All my people everywhere in the villages of their birth in the Duma and in the council of empire, have un-animously replied to my appeal and risen with vigor throughout the country, forgetting all private differences, to defend the land of their birth and the Slav race. In a powerful common impulse all nationalities and all tribes of our vast empire have united.

"Russia like myself, will never forget these historic days. This union of thought and sentiment in all my people affords me deep consolation and calm assurance for the future. From here, from the heart of the Russian land, I send warm greetings to my gallant troops and to our brave allies who are making common cause with us to safeguard the down-trodden principles of peace and truth. May God be with us?"

Much Disorder Accompanied the Mobilization of Austrian Forces. [By Special Wire to The Courier.] LONDON, Aug. 19.—It is officially stated in Paris that the mobilization of the Austrian army was accompanied by much disorder and even open mutiny in many places owing to the unpopularity of the war among many classes of people. This information is conveyed in a Paris despatch to the Daily Telegraph, which continues:

"In many parts of Austria enthusiasm for the war is completely lacking and the people complain bitterly against spending blood and money in a useless cause."

 while hundreds were thrown out of work when the Massey-Harris works closed up. This number augmented by various contingents from the L.
 E. and N. railway and other centres, has created much distress among them.
 There are now about ninety of the foreign people feeling the pinch and more are likely to be added to the number. The majority of those embarrassed have sent the major portion of their earnings to their old coun-

"A" COMPANY'S ROLL OF HONOR
 GIVEN SUPPER

Pleasant Event at the Armories Last Evening for Colquhoun and Men.

There was a farewell evening given in the men's mess room at the Armories last night to Captain Colquhoun and the men about to leave for the seat of war.

"England calls, and we go; that's all fellows," said Acting Col-Sergt. Mott and these pithy words expressed the sentiment of each soldier present.

Capt. Colquhoun spoke some quiet words of good wishes and heartily commended A company to their new captain, Lieut. R. Secord, and First Lieut. Thomas, assuring them that it would go on and maintain the standards set in the past.

Song and story enlivened the passing hours but as Col. Sergt. Bolton said, underlying the outward jollity there was a deep feeling of sorrow.

"Captain Mac" was going and the cream of the company, men whom they had grown to know and admire throughout many seasons with the regiment and who knew not that ever again they would meet as comrades of A.

Then the incisive voice of the Acting Colors came, and in it was the ring of true metal. "We're going; the 'Skippers' going; and he's coming back if we give our lives for it."

A cheer followed this interjection, and proud as Captain Colquhoun is of his men, the words must have flashed through his brain. "Greater love hath no man than this—"

That the men from the city of Brantford look forward to going into action under one they love is something which has a tremendous effect on personal bearing and courage.

"Soldiers and Gentlemen," was chanted with ringing spirit, the closing stanza going with all the vigor given it wherever Englishmen gather.
 "For that's the kind of man we breed in the Army."

Supper intervened, and the ex-Bugle Major gave some reminiscences of the days of yore, when peppery adjutants and carried colonels attempted to break in the first volunteer units.

Supper over, some music was enjoyed, and Capt Colquhoun rose to say his good-bye and shake once all round. "The passing around of the gallant 'little officer' was marked by many instances that to those present will remain indelible on memory's page —none but will remember that firm grip, come good or ill, from this expeditionary unit. On the call of Sergt.
 C. Bisset, three cheers were given for the comrades of 'A' who provided the evening's enjoyment. The following are "A" Company's volunteers:

Capt. Colquhoun, Lieut. Jones,
 Sergt. Bisset, Sergt. Gage, Corp. Bell,
 Corp. Wakeling, R. Barnes, Corporal
 Wakeling, Corporal Holway, Corporal
 Stodden, Corporal Wright, Pte. Par-miter, Pte. Bell, Pte. Hodder, Pte.
 Frackrell, Army Reserve Men, Sapper
 Miller, 1st Reserve, Pte. Pawson, 1st Reserve.

The hearty singing of God Save the King, closed A's good-bye night and the first part of war's drama had lifted to the departing volunteers.

ARRIVED HOME

Harold Brewster Was in Germany When War Precipitated.

Mr. Harold Brewster, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brewster, who accompanied the Victoria Glee Club of Toronto, on a trip to the continent, and was in Germany when the present war started arrived home yesterday. He sailed on the Teutonic. Unlike many others Mr. Brewster was not subjected to any great inconvenience, he did not lose his baggage, but he did get out of Germany in the nick of time.
 When the trouble started he was in the Black Forest and first got word of war at Coblenz. From there he went to Cologne where he was advised to get out immediately. He got to Brussels when France declared war on Germany and caught the last boat leaving Ostend for Dover. He saw the British fleet all undec steam and ready to sail and it was after his arrival in London that war was declared by Britain. Outside of having to hurry a little and going for four days without money, since travellers checks could not be cashed, the young Brantford tourist completed his trip as planned.
 He had already booked passage on the Teutonic.

The first intimation of his arrival was received yesterday by his parents in a telegram from Montreal. Needless to say they were greatly relieved, as not a word had been received from Harold since the war began.

THE CAPTAIN'S REPLY.
 PARIS, Aug. 19, 8.30 a.m.—The Matin reports that the French Steamer Saghalien, held in the Dardanelles by German Cruiser Breslau (reported to have been sold to Turkey) complained to the military governor who asked the captain to leave. "Good," said the French captain, "but the Breslau threatens to sink us. I will leave on condition that we are towed by a Turkish boat, conveyed by a Turkish torpedo boat, and have you as a passenger until we are out of Turkish waters." The governor assented.

HE IS CONFIDENT.
 PARIS, Aug. 19, 3.20 a.m.—A news despatch from Tarbes quotes Count Witte, the Russian statesman, who is on his way from Biarritz to Russia as declaring that the European war would not last more than two or three months. It was bound to end, he said, in the down fall of Germany. The moment had come when Russia should intervene. Her mobilization, had been carried out slowly, but surely, her army was certain to vanquish Germany.

HONORABLY ACQUITTED OF NASTY CHARGE

Police Court Case This Morning —Mistake in Arrest Was Made.

Louis Wall was honorably acquitted by Magistrate Livingston this morning when he was brought up on a charge of carnal knowledge.

A little boy George Bennett, a companion of the outraged girl, failed to identify positively the defendant, and his statements went to show that Wall was not the man. In the first place he said that the man who took the little girl away was fair haired and had two gold teeth. He was sure of this. Wall has black hair and no gold teeth, which are quite good. Looking steadily at Wall, who stood the gaze unflinchingly, the little boy could not say that he was the man he had seen at the Willows. He however, knew him as the one whom he had seen at police station late. So clear was the evidence that Mr. Brewster, who defended, did not find it necessary to question the boy, and the Magistrate, without hesitation, said there had been a mistake.

"It's too bad that you have been brought here to answer such a charge.
 You are honorably acquitted."
 William Williams put his hand into the hornet's nest this morning when he made accusations against his cousin a good looking colored girl, named Josephine Wallace. She charged him with assault and none-payment of wages and he denied both charges, alleging that the girl had never worked in his restaurant upon Market Street.
 She claimed to have worked there three weeks and also to have lent him $30. He admitted this loan, but asked for damages done to his property, which he said she had done. He did not see why she should get all the $30. He then made reference to the money and made accusations against Josephine, which were cut short by the bench, but she came back at him to his dismay. Substantiating her claim to have worked for him, she said she was there when he had served whiskey to Indians, and further added she had often seen him do it by giving it out with soft drinks in a tea cup. The police had suspected this and immediately laid a charge and brought the girl and her sister as witnesses. Their evidence was conclusive and they also volunteered to get the Indians. Williams denied ever supplying the Indians and swore that on oath, and the case was ad-

[By Special Wire to the Courier.]
 LONDON, Aug. 19.—3 a.m.—The Daily Express to-day prints a despatch from a newspaperman at Ostend who has been close to the front. The correspondent says he has learned that the German soldiers' equipment, is much superior to that of the Belgians, but that the Germans shirts, linens and stockings are mostly of an inferior quality.
 "The Belgian officers," the correspondent adds, "frequently made easy targets for the sharpshooters because their swords and scabbards glistened in the sunlight. This has now been remedied by covering them with cloth.
 The German bullets generally make a small, sharp hole. There is little bleeding from the wound and the recovery of the injured soldier is generally assured."

Chase Is Chased And Red Sox Lose Game

Big Left-Hander is Hit Hard in First Inning and Deneau Relieves Him.

OTTAWA, Aug. 19.—Ottawa batted Del Chase out of the box in the first innings yesterday and scored five runs. Deneau then went in and was fanned in the second. For three more, Shocker held the Red Sox safe and Brantford last to Ottawa by 3 to 8.

Ground rules were necessary because of the presence of the soldiers around the outfield. The score: Brantford . . . 020 000 100—3 6 3
Ottawa . . . 530 000 000—8 11 1
Chase Deneau and Lamond; Shocker and Powers.

Yankees Hit Hard.

ERIE, Aug. 19.—In a game featured by hard hitting Eric won from Hamilton yesterday by the score of 8 to 7. Both Dolan and Buscher were hit hard. The score: Hamilton . . . 000 000 304—7 13 3
Eric . . . 020 003 128—8 15 1
Dolan and Fisher; Buscher and Cooper.

COVELESKIE AND PLANK WIN IN DOUBLE-HEADER

Mackmen and Tigers Each Register Victories Through Their Portside Pitchers.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—The double-header here yesterday resulted in an even break, Detroit winning the first game, 3 to 2, and Philadelphia the second, 2 to 1. Southpaw got the better of the two pitching duels, Coveleskie winning from Shawkey in the opening game and Plank from Reynolds and Boehler in the second event.

NAFS CHASE KING COLE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Cleveland won the first game of the series from New York by a score of 4 to 3. The visitors batted Cole out of the box in the third inning.

SOME CLEANINGS FROM THE CIRCUIT

Donohue Blamed.

Hamilton Spectator: Bill Donohue is blamed for the defeat registered at Brantford on Saturday. With two out and two strikes and three balls on Deneau, Fisher signalled for a curve ball. Deneau is very weak on curve balls, but Donohue refused to come over with the desired ball trying to slip one over in the groove instead. Deneau slammed it for a homer, which tied the score, when the game was practically won.

Going Good.

Toronto Globe: "Buster" Burrill, recently released by the Beavers, has been signed by Brantford, and since joining the Brantfords has been hitting like a fiend. At Brantford on Saturday against Hamilton he had two doubles and also scored the winning run. At Ottawa on Sunday he had a homer and scored two runs.

Christy Is 35.

Ottawa Free Press: Old Master Matlew, the idol of the fans, and as great a pitcher as ever faced a batter, celebrated his thirty-fifth birthday on Wednesday. Despite his "age"—thirty-five is pretty old for a ball player and especially so for a pitcher—Big Six, after thirteen years of pitching in the big towns, to-day stands close to the top of the heap among the National League pitchers.

Hamilton Weakens.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Washington won yesterday's game from St. Louis, 8 to 2. For six innings Hamilton pitched good ball, but he weakened in the seventh and was easy after that. Austin was banished for kicking.

ALTHOUGH OUTHIT PIRATES DEFEAT MCGRAW'S GIANTS

Marquard and Fromme Come in for Another Beating—Cubs Beat Dodgers.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 19.—Although outhit, Pittsburgh yesterday defeated New York by a score of 3 to 1. Poor handling of ground balls by Bescher and Adams a home run in the third and McCarthy a triple in the fifth.

MUSSY THROW LOSES.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 18.—After making a wonderful one-handed stop of Moran's grounder in the third inning, Smith threw wild to the home plate, allowing two runs to score, which was enough for Cincinnati to win from Boston yesterday, 2 to 1.

HOMES WITH BASES FULL.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Zimmerman's home run in the fifth inning with the bases filled, enabled Chicago to overcome Brooklyn's lead, and by consistent hitting later made enough runs to win by 8 to 6.

HIT ALEXANDER HARD.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.—St. Louis pounded Alexander hard in the fourth and fifth innings yesterday and won from Philadelphia again, 6 to 2.

BELNHEIM WINS BOWLING LEAGUE HONORS.

RIDGE TOWN, Aug. 19.—Two Walkeburg bowling rinks visited the local club yesterday and were beaten by 33 shots. The County League is virtually ended with the Belnheim winners of the trophy as they have only lost two events.

COSSACKS PLAYED STRONG ROLE IN RUSSIAN HISTORY

Never Very Numerous, They Now Form About Two Per Cent. of Population.

The Cossacks have played a very important part in Russian history, a part quite disproportionate to their numbers. There never have been many of them. At present they form about two per cent. of the population of European Russia. Their origin is uncertain. Some ethnologists think they are descended from the ancient Russians of Novgorod, who in times long past, found their way to the steppes, where they could lead a life of absolute freedom. Others think they are a mixed race, in which Tartar blood predominates. Whatever their origin may be, they were never a true race, which there is nothing else in the world. The Cossack is naturally an enemy to all government. He believes in the absolute freedom of the individual. He is restive under control, even when he acknowledges it for the time being. The open life of the steppes, has made him a horseman who needs few equals and no superiors. Perhaps as a race the Cossacks stand ahead of all the world in horsemanship.

They are brave to the point of recklessness and while chafing under discipline make admirable soldiers. For centuries they fought the Russians the Poles and the Mongols, or fought for them, with strict impartiality. The only thing they seemed to consider necessary was that they should be fighting somebody. Their names show how they were regarded by their neighbors. It is of Turkish origin, and means a robber. There is a similar word in the Tartar tongue, meaning a light-armed warrior, which among the Tartar was not much more than an euphemistic way of describing a bandit. The latter observation apply to the Cossacks who were better than the acknowledged Russian ruler. They are now amenable to the laws, and a very potent factor in the military strength of the Czar. Nevertheless they have always been a more or less uncertain factor in Russian affairs ever since they recognized the authority of the Czar and have risen in rebellion more than one occasion.

Fought the Poles.

During the reign of Alexis, the second Czar of the House of Romanoff, the Cossacks had for a leader Bogdan Khmelnitski, a Cossack who was animated by an intense hatred of the Poles, because his little boy had been publicly whipped by a prominent Polish chief. The result of his dissatisfaction was soon seen in an attack made by him upon the Poles located in what was known as Little Russia. He was very successful. He then turned his attention to the Jews, who had been oppressing the Cossacks in money matters, and reduced them to the greatest straits. He later declared his intention of freeing all Russians from the yoke of Poland, and in this he was temporarily successful, notwithstanding the treachery of the Khan of the Crimea. But these conditions did not long continue. War again broke out between Bogdan and the Polish king, Casimir, and this time the Cossack leader was less fortunate. The Czar espoused the Cossack cause, being satisfied that the time had come when he could finish with Poland and for all. The result was as anticipated, victory after victory was won by the forces of Alexis, and to complete the discomfiture of the Poles, Charles X. of Sweden invaded their borders and captured their principal cities. This alarmed Alexis, for Sweden was at this time in occupation of both shores of the Baltic, and her aggrandizement at the expense of Poland meant a new danger for Russia. Peace was accordingly made, and under its terms Russia surrendered what she had won.

Serf Rebellion.

Meanwhile the Cossacks continued to give trouble, first to Russia, then to Poland. They had themselves bound by no treaties, but ravaged the country, spreading famine wherever they went. The people were afraid to till the soil, for they never knew if they would be permitted to reap the harvest. The whole southern and eastern part of Russia was in confusion. A Cossack named Stenko Razine raised the standard of rebellion, and performed prodigies of valor. He acquired reputation as a pacifician, and it was said of him that now enemy could successfully oppose him. He pillaged the country right and left, but spent the money thus gained with a prodigal hand. He took city after city. The people flocked to his standard. The result was a serf rebellion, accompanied by unmanageable horrors. The czar acted with vigor. One of his generals succeeded in defeating Stenko and taking him prisoner. His execution soon followed.

Alexis reigned thirty-six years, and was on the whole a successful sovereign. He was succeeded by his son Feodor, during whose reign there were two invasions of the Turks and Tatars. It was a terrible time in that part of his dominions where the fighting took place. A contemporary writer says, "The country was covered with ruined towns and castles, and heaps of human bones whitened in the sun." Feodor died in 1689, after a

FRENCH ATE RATS IN SEIGE OF PARIS

Less Than Half a Pound of Bread and an Ounce of Horse Flesh the Daily Ration.

In the very hospitals German shells were exploding their death showers among rough cots laden with wounded and dying. Out in the streets, while this rain of projectiles fell mercilessly on all sides, lines of poor women and children, clad only in rags to protect them from the bitter cold and sleet, were forming the regular morning bread line.

It was the dread siege of Paris. For hours the line moved painfully forward, the freezing sleet penetrating the sufferers' straw stuffed wooden shoes, and at the end of the line they received their daily rations—less than half a pound of bread and an ounce of meat! Coarse bread made of the sweepings of rye. And for meat, horseflesh.

It was early January of 1870, one of France's coldest and most bitter winters. Paris had been hemmed in on all sides by vast hordes of German troops. And she was destined to hold out heroically, suffering indescribable horrors of disease, starvation and death, for nearly a month longer.

It is that historic siege of Paris which many a French warrior has in mind to-day as he charges on the German troops along the frontier. He feels that death is a pleasing price to pay, if only he helps to avenge his father's sufferings in the great bombardment.

From the first of the siege the city was in a feverish almost hysterical state. The newspapers published inspiring promises of early success, of great victories of the French troops in the provinces. And the next day these rosy stories were denied and the bitter truth of another defeat was published.

The reaction was one of hopeless depression among all the people. To add to the troublous times the citizens were never secure from bloody uprisings and riots by the rabble. There were attacks on the government officials often led by the officers of the national guard!

Paris was peopled by women and children and old men. All the males of fighting age were on the walls or in the trenches and forts outside. While fathers and husbands lay maimed or killed by German bullets in the suburbs their wives and daughters were hunting rats for food through the vile haunts of the sewers.

SAGE TEA PUTS LIFE AND COLOR IN HAIR

Don't Stay Gray! Sage Tea and Sulphur Darken Hair so Naturally that Nobody Can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50 cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin, have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful—all dandruff goes, scalp itching and falling hair stops.

This is the age of youth. Gray haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days. Agent, Geo. Howles.

The glory and the romance is dead. It has become chiefly a matter of cold calculation, a bloodlessness of long distance slaughter no longer any opportunity for personal heroism, says Hyde, in the Chicago Tribune. Never again can a Napoleon ing down from a hill top, movements of his army of 30 as it manoeuvres under his plain below.

THE GLORY AND ROMANCE OF WAR IS PAST—HAS BECOME A MATTER OF COLD CALCULATION BY EXPERTS

The glory and the romance of war is dead. It has become chiefly a matter of cold calculation, a bloody business of long distance slaughter, with no longer any opportunity for dashing personal heroism, says Henry M. Hyde, in the Chicago Tribune.

Never again can a Napoleon, looking down from a hill top, direct the movements of his army of 30,000 men as it manoeuvres under his eye on the plain below.

The modern general, directing a battle line 150 miles long—such as the Japanese had at Mukden—will never be within sight of his troops. Oyamada, the Japanese chief of staff, was fifteen miles to the rear when that great battle was fought.

Wires Displace Couriers. Never again will a courier, bearing orders from headquarters to division and corps commanders, have two horses shot under him as he dashes across the battle front.

Modern field guns are located out of sight over the shoulder of a hill, three miles or more away. The gunners never even get a sight of the army they are firing at.

Modern Battlefields. "Hold your fire until you see the whites of the enemy's eyes," is an heroic command that will never be given in a modern battle.

Modern infantry dig themselves a nice deep ditch in the ground about two miles away from the first of the enemy's lines. The present day soldier the spade is almost as important as his gun.

There are no battle flags, no smoke and no charging columns on modern battlefields. The presence of a flag on the battle line would instantly reveal its location to the enemy.

THE GERMAN EMPEROR MET WITH FIERCE RESISTANCE FROM FRENCH AT TIME OF FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR

When the Prussians under Kaiser Wilhelm I with Count Bismarck and Gen. von Moltke started the movement against Paris forty-four years ago, the German troops were met with fierce resistance on every hand.

The first order to mobilize the Prussian army was given by Kaiser Wilhelm I on July 15, 1870. France declared war four days later. Three armies were put in the field by the Prussians.

A line 100 miles long from Montmedy on the Belgian frontier to Belfort at the junction of the Swiss and German borders, was covered by an army of 350,000 men under Napoleon III. The French army was divided into eight army corps.

GIVE YOUR DAUGHTER SOMETHING TO DO

If the Young Girl in Her Teens Has No Position, Keep Her Busy at Home.

"Marion will never set the world afire with her painting," said the mother of a sixteen year old girl whose "studio" we had just visited.

When every girl and boy married, there was no such situation. Girls were kept busy in the home household until they married, which was anywhere from fifteen years up—all were safely disposed of, as a rule, by their nineteenth year.

There are not enough home duties to keep a girl busy, and unless she is encouraged in an ambition or occupation that fills most of her days she will have unhealthy longings and will indulge those longings if she can find the opportunity.

THE STORY OF Waitstill Baxter

By KATE DOUGLAS WIGGIN. Copyright, 1913 by Kate Douglas Wiggin.

"You never spoke of it to me, Ivory." "No, there is much that I never spoke of to you, mother, but some time when you grow stronger and your memory is better we will talk together.

"Yes," she answered uncertainly. "Don't you remember I got a free ride downriver one Friday and came home for Sunday, just to surprise you? And when I got here I found you ill in bed, with Mrs. Mason and Dr. Perry taking care of you.

"I didn't remember I had a sister. Is she dead, Ivory?" asked Mrs. Boynton vaguely. "If she were not dead do you suppose you would have kept her with you when she hadn't bread enough for our own two mouths, mother?"

"No, of course not. I can't think how I can be so forgetful. It's worse sometimes than others. It's worse today because I knew the mayflowers were blooming, and that reminded me it was time for your father to come home.

"His mother was more confused than usual, but she always was when spring came to remind her of her husband's promise. Somehow, well used as he was to her mental wanderings, they made him uneasy tonight.

Where had those years of wandering been passed, and had they all been given even to an imaginary and fantastic service of God? Was his father dead? If he were alive, what could keep him from writing? Nothing but a very strong reason or a very wrong one, so his son thought at times.

Since Ivory had grown to man's estate he understood that in the later days of Cochrane's preaching his "visions," "inspirations" and "revelations" concerning the marriage bond were a trifle startling from the old fashioned, orthodox point of view.

Had Aaron Boynton forsaken willfully the wife of his youth, the mother of his boy? If so he must have realized to what straits he was subjected. Ivory had not forgotten those first few years of grinding poverty, anxiety and suspense.

And this is the way many of Ivory Boynton's evenings were spent, while the heart of him, the five-and-twenty year-old heart of him, was longing to feel the beat of another heart, a girl's heart only a mile or more away.

CHAPTER IV. Patience and Impatience. PATTY had been searching for eggs in the barn chamber and coming down the ladder from the haymow, spied her father washing the wagon by the wellside near the shed door.

"Don't answer me back!" to be heard through the rubbing and splashing, but no nearer than was necessary, Patty said:

"Father, can I go up to Ellen Wilson's this afternoon and stay for tea? I won't start till I've done a good day's work, and I'll come home early."

"What do you want to go gallivanting to the neighbors for? I never saw anything like the girls nowadays—highly tight, dainty, traps, triflin' trollops, every one of 'em, that's what they are, and Ellen Wilson's one of the triflin' set. You're old enough now to stay to home where you belong and make an effort to earn your board and clothes, which you can't, even if you try."

"Spunk, real Simon pure spunk, started somewhere in Patty and coursed through her blood like wine. 'If a girl's old enough to stay at home and work I should think she was old enough to go out and play once in awhile.' Patty was still too timid to make this remark more than a courteous suggestion, so far as its tone was concerned.

"Just a Sabbath school hymn that I was whistling." This with a creditable imitation of defiance. Where your hymns if you must make a noise while you're working?"

"It's the same hymn that makes the whistle and sings the song, so I don't see why one's any wickeder than the other."

"You don't have to see," replied the deacon grimly. "All you have to do is to mind when you're spoken to. Now, run 'long 'bout your work."

AUSTRIANS DEFEATED. NISH, Servia, Aug. 17, via London Aug. 18.—9.22 a.m.—The Austrians have been completely defeated near Sabac, 27 miles west of Belgrade, according to government sources. They fled toward Lomniza and Lomniza, pursued by Servians, who cut up three regiments and captured fourteen guns.
