On Friday last Premier Mathieson of this Province, together with Premier Fleming of New Brunswick and Hon. W. S. Stewart of our Provincial Executive, had a conference at Ottawa with Premier Borden and other members of the Dominion Government regarding the restoration to the Maritime Provinces of the representation in the House of Commons given to them when they entered Confederation. Premier Mathieson and Hon. Mr. Stewart urged the special claim of our Province to an irreducible minimum of six members. Our Province refused for six years to enter the Union mainly on this point, and only consented to become a member of Confederation when this had been conceded, as our delegates understood Premier Mathieson argued that by a mere clerical error our claim had been rendered void. The Island delegates who signed the resolution bringing us into the Union, understood and always believed the representation of six Commoners as an irreducible minimum had been granted. Premier Borden promised most careful consideration. It has since been intimated in press reports, with what authority we cannot say, that so far as our Province is concerned the six will not be granted, but the present representation of four will not be reduced.

It is reported from Ottawa that an embargo is to be put upon American potatoes and their admission to Canada forbidden by the Government. A few weeks ago the United States placed an embargo against Canadian potatoes on the ground that disease, particularly powdery scab, prevailed in the New Brunswick potato field. It is claimed that the real reason for the embargo is not to preserve the health of American fields, but to restore to the potato growers of Maine the commercial protection which was taken from them when potatoes were put on the free list under the Wilson tariff. The Canadian Government thinks that Americans are treating our potatoes in the same way that Britain is treating Canadian cattle. An embargo is to be put on American potatoes for two reasons. In the first place it will show Canada's resentment, as was the case when the German surtax was imposed. In the next place it will keep American potatoes out of Ontario, Quebec and the middle west, where they have been going in large quantities this year, owing to the crop-shortage. Besides, it is thought that barring out American potatoes will improve the market for Maritime Provinces potatoes and enable the farmers of the Provinces to dispose of the balance of their very large crop. It is claimed that there is more potato disease on the American than on the Canadian side of the line and this will be the official reason for the Canadian embargo.

STEWART & CAMPBELL, Barristers, Solicitors, etc. Offices in Desjardis Block, Corner Queen and Grafton Streets, Charlottetown, P. E. Island. MONEY TO LOAN. W. S. STEWART, E. C. J. H. A. CAMPBELL July 3, 1911-77.

Hon. David Laird, Indian Commissioner, died at Ottawa early on Monday morning of this week. He had been ill some days and when his daughter, Mrs. (Premier) Mathieson arrived at the Capital she saw that his chances of recovery were very poor. She nursed him until the end. The late Mr. Laird was a stalwart member of the Liberal party for many years in this Province, and was for a considerable time prominent in the public life, not only in this Province, but of the Dominion. He was born at New Glasgow in this Province in March 1833, so that had almost completed his 81st year at the time of his demise. He was the founder and, for many years, editor of the Patriot newspaper. He was elected to the Provincial Legislature from the Belfast district in 1871, and to the House of Commons for Queen's County immediately after the Island entered Confederation in 1873, and became a member of the McKenzie Government, with the portfolio of Minister of the Interior. In 1876 he was appointed Lieut. Governor of the North West Territories. At the end of his term in 1881, he returned to this Province and resumed the editorship of the Patriot. He contested Queen's County for the Commons in 1882, but was defeated. In 1887 he again ran for the House of Commons. This time for the newly organized district of Saskatchewan. He was unsuccessful. In 1898 he was appointed Indian Commissioner, first with residence at Winnipeg, subsequently removing to Ottawa where he remained until his death, as above stated. Mr. Laird was a man of good ability and of much force of character, and rendered good service to his party in his palmy days. He leaves to mourn two sons and two daughters. The sons are Professor A. G. Laird, B. A. of Wisconsin University and Mr. D. R. Laird, Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia. Amherst, N.S., and the daughters are Mrs. Mathieson, wife of Hon. J. A. Mathieson Premier of this Province, and Mrs. D. H. Laird of Winnipeg. He also leaves one brother, Albert of New Glasgow. These will have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement. The body arrives here tomorrow and the funeral takes place Friday.

The trend of all the evidence so far by the high cost of living board of inquiry at Ottawa goes to show that under production is one of the chief causes of the present high prices in Canada. A half dozen Government experts on different lines of good production have testified, and their evidence has all shown that the farmers of Canada are not keeping pace with the development of the urban population. While Canada ten years ago was a big exporter of butter, eggs and meats, now she is actually importing these food products. The witnesses so far heard have been J. D. Ruddick, dairy and cold storage commissioner; H. S. Arkell, assistant live stock commissioner; W. A. Brown, poultry specialist; and R. Shamer, specialist in beef; T. R. Arkell, ship and wood specialist and dairy cattle. The other day, Dr. Torrance, Veterinary Director General, was heard by the commission. Mr. Ruddick presented to the commission a mass of figures on butter and cheese production, all of which were to show that the supply had not kept pace with the demand. H. S. Arkell and Mr. Hamer discussed the live stock situation, which they admitted was somewhat serious, and T. R. Arkell presented to the board some figures on sheep production. Following Dr. Torrance, the next witness will likely be W. A. Fonder, of the fisherie department. The procedure of the commission, after hearing the Government witnesses and collecting all valuable information at Ottawa, will then be decided upon. It is not likely that the commission will hold sittings in the various cities of Canada, but witnesses will be summoned to the capital, while economical experts and others whom it is believed can throw light on the subject, may be asked to put their views in writing.

Natural gas of sufficient pressure to shatter the new Dominion Bank Building in Toronto was found Friday at the bottom of a well-boring 1100 feet deep. It was found while in search for water. The boring was filled up.

With the mercury nine below nearly 75 families were turned out by fire which destroyed W and W A Becons Department store, Washington St. Boston yesterday. Phillip Farrell, a fireman was killed.

A Kingston Ont. despatch says: There is more trouble for the engineers building the New-Lake shore Line for the Canadian Pacific. Into a sunk hole at Sucker Lake, a forest of timber and a mountain of gravel and stone have been dumped for filling but it has caved in. Its a mystery to the engineers.

From the Lake of the Woods country comes the story of the fierce battle of Peter Nigob, an Indian trapper with a pack of wolves last Sunday. He was returning from his traps when they attacked him, with only a hunting knife to defend himself he slew nine animals. Then exhausted he fell an easy prey to the rest of the pack.

London advices of the 12th say: The Marine tragedies of last year were unusually heavy. The monetary loss was $35,000,000. During 11 months of which records are complete, there were 1920 collisions. 1532 strandings, 895 cases of weather damage and 428 fire and explosions, figures applying to vessels 500 tons gross and over. No fewer than 62 British and 154 foreign ships were lost.

For some days fears were entertained regarding the fate of the crew and passengers of the steamer Cobequid of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Line on her way from the West Indies to St. John. She went aground on Trinity Ledges, at the mouth of the Bay of Fundy. Again the wireless came into play and assistance reached the stranded ship. The community is relieved by the intelligence that the Cobequid's officers crew and passengers, 106 in all have been safely landed at Yarmouth N. S.

THE RECORD Fox and Fur Company, Ltd.

(To be Incorporated) Offers to the public an opportunity of investing in Fifteen (15) Pairs Choice Dark Cross-Bred Foxes

Capitalized at $50,000.00

Divided into 2,000 shares of $25.00 each.

PROVISIONAL DIRECTORS

- S. R. Jenkins, M. D., M. L. A., President; D. A. McKinnon, Vice-President; Capt. Ernest Kemp, Sec'y-Treasurer; Chas. Lyons, Mayor of Charlottetown; Samuel Craig, Charlottetown; Robert N. Lomlins, Charlottetown; A. J. MacAdam, Charlottetown; Bankers—Royal Bank of Canada

Record Fox Company

The foxes owned by this company are now mated, and comprise fifteen (15) pairs choice dark cross-bred animals, procured from litters containing a large per centage of pure blacks. They have been selected by experts thoroughly qualified to judge of fur values and show from 50 to 90 per cent. black.

With the phenomenal advance within the past few months in the price of fur from such stock, resulting in active demand for the live animals as breeders; also from the probability of producing some black pups, there is every prospect of a handsome dividend from them by next September.

Only a limited number of shares are being offered, so if interested it would be well to communicate without delay with any of the Provisional Directors, or with the Secretary-Treasurer, Capt. Ernest Kemp, 115 Rochfort Street, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Terms 50 per cent. in cash to accompany application. Balance in 30 days. Prospectus will be mailed on application. Jan. 7, 1914-15

Happy New Year.

Parwell 1913 Hall 1914 With all my heart and a my soul With all the good there is in me...

Come to Jesus.

Souls of men why will ye scatter Like a crowd of frightened sheep?

Was there ever kindest shepherd Half so gentle, half so sweet As the Saviour who would have us Come and gather round His feet?

It is God: His love looks mighty, But is mightier than it seems: 'Tis our Father: and His goodness Goes far out beyond our dreams.

There's a wisdom in God's mercy, Like the wisdom of the sea: There's a kindness in His justice, Which is more than liberty.

There's no place where earthly sorrows Are more felt than up in heaven; There's no place where earthly fillings Have such kindly judgment given.

There is welcome for the sinner, And more grace for the good; There is mercy with the Saviour; There's healing in His Blood.

There is grace enough for thousand Of new worlds as great as this; There is room for fresh creations, In that upper home of bliss.

For the love of God is broader Than the treasures of man's mind; And the heart of the Eternal Is most wonderfully kind.

There is plentiful redemption In the Blood that has been shed; There is joy for all the members In the sorrows of the Head.

If our love were but more simple, We would take him at his word; And our lives would be all sunshine In the sweetness of our Lord.

A Hundred Years From Now

By Mary A. Ford—"Use." The surging sea of human life forever onward rolls...

O mighty human brotherhood why first ly was and strive, While God's great world has ample space for everything alive?

Broad fields, uncultured and unclaimed, waiting for the plow Of progress that shall make them bloom a hundred years from now.

Why should we try so earnestly in life's short, narrow span, On golden stairs to climb so high above our brother man?

Why pride so much the world's applause? Why dread so much its blame; A fluting echo is its voice of censure or of fame;

The praise that thrills the heart, the scorn that dyes with shame the brow, Will be as long-forgotten dreams a hundred years from now.

O patient hearts, that meekly bear your weary load of wrong, O earnest hearts, that bravely dare, and, striving, grow more strong!

Press on till perfect peace is won; you'll sever dream of how you struggled on in life's labor road a hundred years from now.

Grand, lofty souls, who live and toil that freedom, right and truth Alone may rule the universe, for you If earth's youth;

When 'mid the blast, with God you rest, the grateful lands shall bow Above you, easy in rest; rest love a a hundred years from now.

Earth's empire rise and fall, O Time

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic. "I was ill for four months with catarrh in the head and throat. Had a bad cough and raised blood. I had become discouraged when my husband bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and persuaded me to try it. I advise all to take it. It has cured and built me up." Mrs. E. W. Brown, Toronto, West Liscomb, N. S.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

like breakers on thy shore; They rush upon the rocks of doom, go down, and are no more.

The starry wilderness of worlds that gem night's radiant brow Will light the skies for other eyes a hundred years from now.

Our Father, to whose sleepless eye the past and future stand An open page, like babes we cling to Thy protecting hand;

Change, sorrow, death are sought to us if we may safely bow Beneath the Shadow of Thy throne a hundred years from now.

The Midnight Watch.

By Michael Sautin. We sit by the dim firelight, in the watches of the night,

The chimney clock clicks loudly as the hour is drawn near; The wild winds and the rattle 'gainst the window lead and beat—

A fier and a drummer playing dead marches for the year! Our spirits seem to stand on the confines of a land,

A country; shadow haunted, of impenetrable spells, Whirl, from its midnight gloom, like the lawful voice of doom,

Sweeping by, like shrieking phantoms, come the pealings of the bells.

How like a dream appears the procession of the years, With its evanescent glitter, a carnival of hours,

Then penitential days, with life's deserted ways, All somber'd, with the litter of faded festal banners;

Swept joyously along on a tide of mirth and song, Our spirits little noted how swift the seasons flow.

'Till conscience smites like flame, as the rolling bells proclaim The passing of the old year, the advent of the new!

As on the river's brink the wild deer stoops to drink, Nor heeds the long-legged shadows that are deepening on the shore,

The croaking lion creeps thro' the sedges, and then leaps Upon his helpless victim with life-consuming roars;

The days slip into twilight as we loiter in the dells, 'Till the spells are burst asunder, and we wake in awe and wonder

As the year leaps in upon us with the roaring of the bell!

Come, let us search our hearts, ere the pregnant hour departs, And note the sad commissions and omissions of the year;

Has the world been bettered by us? Does the Angel standing nigh us Rejoice above the record, or look to Heaven in tears?

Have we grandly lived and thought? Have we wisely said and sought? Or looked, unmoved, or sorrow from life's gilded portals?

Does conscience look on high with clear, unflinching eye? Or cower, in mute submission, at the rolling of the bells?

Then vanish strife and feud in this noisy interlude, And vanish all the rancor on which they fed and grew;

Old hates must disappear with the passing of the year, But we'll bring our old afflictions, like old friends, into the new! So, while the winds and sleet, with their wings of darkness, beat

Will welcome to the New Year across the dark and dell, With grateful hearts, we'll raise glad hymns of prayer and praise, Which will soon above the tolling of the bell!

Good For The Bill-Posters.

Lithographs of the Nativity Throughout Nation.

Advertising and altruism. Billboards and benevolence. The best of space and the Christmas spirit.

Have they—let even the most credulous make answer!—have they anything in common except admiration?

They have, says a reporter in the New York Evening Sun, and continue: Not only throughout the country, but in this, our seething melting pot of a city, from which the milk of human kindness is said to be skimmed so greedily (that only the whey of bitterness remains, a body of stony hearted business men have made a contribution to the festival season no less unique than it is amazingly sentimental. They have been found out—the Scrooges! Let the testimony of your own eyes aid in exposing them.

The Picture. During your daily travels through Manhattan, the Bronx and Brooklyn you may have wondrously observed on billboards a beautiful lithograph of the nativity of Christ. Standing out among glaring announcements of the merits of this or that commodity is the soft, faded, humble scene in the stable with the Infant in swaddling clothes the central figure. The picture is 9 feet high and 20 long, done in eleven colors, into the huge stone stable the shepherds, come from "keeping the night watches over their flock," have brought a light. Concealed in front of them in the foreground the rude lamp is outshone by the brilliance which emanates from the Child.

The Magi are there with their presents of gold, frankincense and myrrh. Through the doorway in the blue mist of the night appears their caravan, the backs of the camels and the robes of the servants silvered by the guide star of the desert w aster beyond the city of David.

Mary is supporting the child, who stands with arms extended above the coarse straw of the manger. In her eyes is a far away look, evidence that she is pondering the great event 'in her heart. In a stall are the ox and the ass, mute adoration in their attitudes. The picture has borrowed from the old masters and combined the ideas of the modern school.

While you are absorbed in the picture's beauty the question assailing you constantly is: "What does it advertise? Where the child go to?" In the lower left hand you have found the mystifying inscription: "Ask y'r Sunday School teacher to tell you the story." That is the only hint at an explanation.

Beginning the Good Work. We started by looking sharply for the cloven hoof of the press agent—and ended by rebuking ourselves for our cynicism. As far back as last July, at the annual convention in Atlantic City of the Poster Advertising Association, a nation-wide organization comprised of 3,000 poster companies, it was decided to inaugurate an uplift movement looking especially to the betterment of the poorer class of children.

"We felt," said Barney Link, president of a local poster company whose name he specifically should not be mentioned, "that having a hand the medium of pictorial appeal, we should utilize it to instill in youthful minds noble and inspiring thoughts. We were thinking particularly of the handicapped child whose education is restricted.

We have already been criticized as having ulterior motives, but that was to be expected. We intend to go on undisturbed, however, displaying the posters. See that pile of letters? The clergy of the city have sent them by way of encouragement. We are not looking for the 'last dollar,' and we can afford to back the movement, whereas a philanthropist in private life would have to spend $100,000 to do it.

"The cost of the lithographing has been $12,000. The members of our large association, each making personal contributions, have not felt that amount too great a drain upon their purses—or strain upon their charitable instincts.

"In New York 300 of the nativity posters are up. In every other city of the United States and Canada, having over a population of 3,000 the same picture has been put on the billboards in numbers according to our membership in the various cities. The Nativity is the work of Edward Volkert, an artist of Cincinnati."

Her HEART and NERVES

Were So Bad She Could Not Sleep.

To those who sleep in a kind of way, but whose rest is broken into by fearful dreams, nightmares, sinking and smothering sensations, who wake in the morning as tired as when they went to bed, we can recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. By taking them you can have your old, peaceful, undisturbed, refreshing sleep back again.

Mrs. Chas. Teel, Horncastle, Ont., writes:—Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. My heart and nerves were so bad I could not sleep, and the least noise or excitement would make me feel so that I used to think I was going to die, and I would tremble until I could hardly stand. I took doctor's medicine, but it did not do me much good. At last I tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I can certainly say they did me a great amount of good. I can recommend them to anyone who is suffering as I was.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c per box, 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

We can only have the highest happiness by having wide thoughts and much feeling for the rest of the world.

Our store has gained reputation for reliable Groceries. Our trade during 1912 has been very satisfactory. We shall put forth every effort during the present year to give our customers the best possible service.—R. F. Maddigan.

He who has conferred a kindness should be silent, he who has received one should speak of it.—Seneca.

Minard's Liniment cures Neuralgia.

Good as beautiful is she with gifts that match her goodness; no fault flaw in the white; she wore the pearl you think you saw.—Daniel Barlow.

Mary Ovington, Jasper, Ont. writes:—My mother had a badly sprained arm. Nothing we used did her any good. Then father got Hagyard's Yellow Oil and it cured mother's arm in a few days. Price 25 cents.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited, Gentlemen.—I have used MINARD'S LINIMENT from time to time for the past twenty years. It was recommended to me by a prominent physician of Montreal, who called it the "great Nore Sotia Liniment." It does the doctor's work; it is particularly good in cases of Rheumatism and Sprains.

Yours truly, G. G. DUSTAN, Chartered Accountant, Halifax, N. S., Sept. 21, 1905.

You may never see the starry heavens till the sun goes down; darkness reveals to us worlds of light we never otherwise could have seen.—John S. Lawrence.

W. H. Wilkinson, Stratford, Ont., says:—It affords me much pleasure to say that I experienced great relief from Muscular Rheumatism by using two boxes of Milburn's Rheumatism Pills. Price a box 50c.

Be punctual. It is the soul of business. If you stick to business, business will stick to you.—Mr. Gordon Selfridge.

Minard's Liniment cures Dandruff.

Wife (at breakfast)—"I didn't bear you last night when you came in?"

Hobby—"No, I thought at first I'd gotten into the wrong house!"

A Severe Cold Settled On Her Lungs.

Mrs. Geo. Murphy, Spence, Ont., writes:—I have had occasion to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and can say it most certainly is a wonderful medicine. Last winter my little girl, just a year old, took a severe cold which settled on her lungs. I tried everything, and was almost in despair, when by chance I read of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and decided to try it. I got two bottles, and as soon as I started to use it I could see it was taking effect. I gave her three bottles in all, and they completely cured her."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is a universal remedy for sufferers from all bronchial troubles, Coughs and Colds of all kinds, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Croup, Asthma, Whooping Cough, and Throat and Lung Troubles, disappear quickly after a few doses have been taken.

It will stop that distressing, tickling sensation in the throat which causes coughing and keeps you awake at night. Price, 25c; large family size, 50c. Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark, manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
