

MAZE OF CONTRADICTION IN THE INVESTIGATION OF FOREIGNER'S PARTIZANSHIP

MAZE of comedy, contradiction and candor marked the ending of the investigation by Magistrate Sanders into the charge that three city foremen had been instrumental in forming an embryo Conservative political machine out of the employees of various departments.

Magistrate Sanders had a recent experience in getting evidence out of two warring clans of Chinese gamblers. But the job of getting various Italian witnesses into line to tell a connected story taxed the patience of his Worship, and injected some grey hairs into the head of Solicitor Clinton J. Ford, who represented Calgary in the case, and Solicitor T. M. Tweedie, representing the accused foremen. The witnesses flatly contradicted each other and as Mr. Sanders expressed the whole proceedings as one extremely trying period his endeavors to get mental and verbal action:

"Somebody is lying," he said at the hearing yesterday. Magistrate Sanders took the matter up for advice, and after a full hearing, he made his report to the council. He declared before the council that the other Italian rather than up to him for advice, because of what he had been all over the city and knew the underground political machines and their ways. "What led you to the point of starting proceedings against these men and their associates?" he asked.

Must Be a Conservative. He declared the witness, "Everywhere in Calgary that a man can get a job on the street cleaning department or in any other department of the city, he is required to be a Conservative," Crickie declared. He declared before the council that the other Italian rather than up to him for advice, because of what he had been all over the city and knew the underground political machines and their ways. "What led you to the point of starting proceedings against these men and their associates?" he asked.

SENSATIONAL RAID HAS FOUR CHARGES ON ONE MAN

Robert J. Pierce Arrested as He is About to Flee From City Through Open Window of Disorderly House; Beats Woman and Takes Money.

BROUGHT HER FROM MONTREAL TO OPEN HOUSE. Frequenter and Friend. Plays Part of Informer and Gives Evidence to Provincial Officials; Four Taken After Clever Detective Work.

THE most sensational raid ever made in Calgary was engineered yesterday by a squad of detectives from the Calgary central office in charge of Detective Sergeant Richardson, on evidence worked up by Detective Burroughs. As a result Robert J. Pierce, 623 DeWinton street, west, was held in the central station on four distinct charges, while the provincial detectives and inspectors are working up extra evidence against him.

Provincial Authorities on Trail. Meantime, Provincial Detective Hodgkins and License Inspector Morley became suspicious and placed a raid against Pierce and the raid was planned in detail by Detective Burroughs, who lives in the vicinity of the raided house, became suspicious a few days ago and started to gather his evidence. When he had the proper amount of charges justified against Pierce he placed the evidence before Chief Cuddy and the raid was planned in detail by Detective Burroughs, who lives in the vicinity of the raided house, became suspicious a few days ago and started to gather his evidence.

Caught Just in Time. Richardson then disclosed his identity and Pierce calmed down. "I'll get the key and unlock the door," he said. Burroughs, meantime, had let himself in and in the window without attracting Pierce's attention, instantly Pierce started for the rear of the house. Hodgkins, who was in the room, followed him. The detective was just in time to grapple with Pierce and prevent him from escaping through a rear window. Then Burroughs let in the other officers and Pierce was turned over to Milne while Richardson investigated the house.

Beat Woman; Stole Her Money. In a bedroom of the house the detectives found Rose Corah. She was badly beaten and the bed as well as her clothing was covered with blood. Pierce had been beating her and taking her savings just as the officers interrupted. When she was able to speak she informed them that Pierce had taken $200 of her money and this amount, as well as $30 of his own money, was found on him at the station and held by the officers until the larceny charge has been settled. Miss Corah was sent to the Women's Shelter.

Henri Bourassa, the distinguished French-Canadian, will arrive in Calgary this morning at 7 o'clock. The meeting will start promptly at noon and will be open only to members of the club. As there are 600 of these it is evident that there will be barely room for all, and members are asked to bring their cards of membership with them so as to make sure of securing a place in the hall.

In the evening Mr. Bourassa will speak in St. Mary's school to the French-Canadian population of Calgary, and a large attendance is expected, the address on this occasion being in French.

LARGE INCREASE IN CROP ACREAGE OF THE WEST

In the Three Prairie Provinces There Is an Increase of 50,000 Acres in Wheat and Nearly 300,000 in Oats, as Compared With Last Year.

Ottawa, June 13.—A bulletin of the census and statistics office issued today gives preliminary estimates of the wheat and oat crops of the prairie provinces for the present grain crop, and reports on their condition at the end of May, according to the returns received from crop reporting correspondents throughout Canada. The reports show that the month of May was dry and cold, with frequent night frosts, and that these conditions, which favored seeding, retarded the growth of the crops sown and caused them to be unseasonably backward.

Body of Drowned Man Found Near Glichen. The body of a man was found in the flow river near Glichen last evening by a boy named Young. The body was badly decomposed and had been in the river for some weeks so that it was not as fresh as first surmised. LAST DAY OF ASSEMBLY QUIET ONE; CONGRESS IS NOW ENDED

Attendance at Great Toronto Meeting Yesterday Greatly Lessened and Much Business Was Transacted.

MORE OFFERING FOR PRESBYTERIAN MINISTRY Resolutions Dealing With International Relations and the Maintenance of Peace Passed By Assembly.

Toronto, June 13.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which has been in session in the city for the past eight days, and which was preceded by a memorable congress attended by several thousand ministers, concluded its work tonight. Votes of thanks were passed to all those who had assisted in making the great gathering a success, especially to the congress of Toronto, who assumed the responsibility for the entertainment of the visitors for the entire period of their stay.

Stated were taken during the afternoon to complete the union of various organizations of women, who are engaged in securing money for the missionary enterprises of the denomination. Of these, the two largest have been the Women's Foreign Missionary society and the Women's Home Missionary society. These were organized many years ago, for the furtherance of their respective objects. During the past two years there has been a movement for their amalgamation, and this has now been practically consummated.

The desecration work of the denomination was reviewed, and a report on the training home in Toronto was received. This branch of activity of the church was developed very largely by the already thirty-nine graduates of the school have been sent out to employment at home and abroad. The sixteen girls were graduated from the school, and of these 13 have gone into active service. Several have been sent to foreign fields, while the balance were located in city churches between Vancouver and Halifax. The desecration for desecration for desecration.

Sixty-Five Ton Trawler Imbricario Journeys From Durban to Vancouver

Vancouver, June 13.—To bring a 65-ton trawler from Durban to Vancouver, and to bring her in without the loss of a life, is the feat captured this morning by Capt. H. C. Robinson, who has achieved a record by navigating such a small craft all the way from South Africa. The trawler Imbricario arrived this morning with all hands demanding first a meal of fresh meat and vegetables, second a good sleep, and third, to be paid off.

ERUPTIONS IN ALASKA

Seward, Alaska, June 13.—Although a week with has been without smoke and fumes from Katmai volcano over the mountains, giving vent to the internal convulsions, a terrible eruption like that of last year is not anticipated. It is believed, however, that Katmai will continue to emit columns of smoke indefinitely. The fumes from the smoking mountain were particularly noticeable here Saturday. The sun was visible yesterday, but the sky was murky.

The eruption of Mount Shishaldin, on Unimak Island, which was seen by passengers on the mail steamer Dora when she passed there ten days ago, was spectacular. A great column of flame poured out of the top of the mountain, while ashes spread over the surrounding country. The eruption of Shishaldin, while of interest to scientists because it is in a different volcanic zone from Katmai, caused no alarm, as the district affected by the volcano is uninhabited.

FURTHER EXTENSION OF FREE LIST IS FELT POSSIBLE

Wilson Is Not Dictating Course to Senate Finance Committee; Favors Freedom

Washington, June 13.—Elimination of the anti-dumping clause of the Underwood tariff bill, which would exact additional duties on all imports from this country at less than the foreign market price, was recommended today by the senate finance committee in charge of the administrative features of the measure. This clause, as it passed the house, was not extended to articles on the free list, and was objected to by the senate leaders on the ground that it was discriminatory.

What It Provides. The clause would provide that goods sold here at less than the foreign price should be dutiable at a rate equal to the difference between the consignment and home market price, goods dutiable at 50 per cent. or more to be exempt.

The majority members of the committee began today the consideration of subcommittee reports and ratified changes in the changes and lumber schedules which materially enlarge the free list.

Wilson Not Dictating Course to Senate Finance Committee; Favors Freedom. "I wish to say," said Senator Simmons, "that while the president has expressed to the members of the finance committee as he is reported to have expressed to the ways and means committee when the bill was in the house, strong views and convictions with respect to placing on the free list both sugar and wool, he has not so far as I know expressed any views as to the other provisions of the bill except when his opinion has been asked, and has not attempted to dictate to the committee."

Wilson Not Dictating Course to Senate Finance Committee; Favors Freedom. "The view current to the effect that a subcommittee of the finance committee had decided to recommend that wheat and live stock, as well as meat and flour, should go on the free list at the instance and dictation of the president is not correct."

FOUR SEATS ARE VACANT IN COMMONS AT PRESENT

Two Are Traditionally Conservative But Fight Will Be Close in the Other Two

Ottawa, June 13.—The death of Peter Elson, member for East Middlesex, since 1894, creates the fourth vacancy in the Canadian house of commons. The other vacancies are: South Lanark created by the death of Hon. John Haggart; Chateaugay, created by the death of J. P. Brown, and South Bruce, created by the translation of James Donnelly to the senate. The three latter seats have been declared vacant and a proclamation like effect will be issued shortly in connection with West Middlesex. It is not, however, considered likely that elections in any of the seats will be brought on until the political situation has cleared somewhat.

The four bye-elections made necessary in these four ridings will, it is believed, give some indication of eastern feeling. Two of the seats at least are good fighting ground, namely Chateaugay and South Bruce, while the other two are traditionally Conservative.

The sub-committee is still laboring with the provision, also objected to by foreign countries, which would require foreign manufacturers to submit their books in cases of valuation disputes. This is certain to be modified, if not stricken from the bill.

In addition to the proposed countervailing duty on cattle, another provision being considered is that cattle should not be placed in free from any country which does not require as rigid inspection of live animals as does the United States.

"I wish to say," said Senator Simmons, "that while the president has expressed to the members of the finance committee as he is reported to have expressed to the ways and means committee when the bill was in the house, strong views and convictions with respect to placing on the free list both sugar and wool, he has not so far as I know expressed any views as to the other provisions of the bill except when his opinion has been asked, and has not attempted to dictate to the committee."

Union seminary withdrew its connection with that denomination and set itself up as a university of theology fastened to no sect.

DEPRECIATING CANADA.

The most unfortunate part of the entire naval discussion is the tendency on the part of some people to depreciate Canada and to ridicule our aspirations and underestimate our ability.

For instance, we are told that we cannot build a navy. Mr. Winston Churchill has informed us solemnly and emphatically that we cannot hope to build a navy, and our government, instead of resenting this imputation upon our enterprise, glories in it.

Whether or not the ships for a Canadian navy are built in Canada is a detail in the Laurier naval policy. It is a matter of argument whether it would be better to build the larger ships in Canada or have them built in England.

The kingdom of Spain, an ancient and not too vigorous nation, started in 1909 to organize a navy, inducing celebrated British shipbuilders to locate in Spain.

With the Calgary Bronchos being held fast in the baseball game by the meek and lowly Eskimos, while High River was wallowing over young men on the lacrosse field, perhaps some Calgary people will now believe that Friday the Thirteenth, does mean something.

If any long-suffering people ever had ground for a mild but persistent roar, they reside in Calgary and to the north side of the Bow river. Public works can go merrily onward, season after season but the hand of the improver becomes paralyzed as soon as it crosses the Bow river.

The Morning Albertan plant and offices were destroyed by fire two months ago next Friday. The Albertan hopes to be printed entirely by itself on Fryer street and perhaps a couple of days before that time.

A B. C. member of parliament announced the details of the redistribution for that province, showing that Vancouver is to get three members. As the cities of the Dominion, whether Conservative, they are not going to suffer any in the redistribution of seats.

THE ONE-PRICE SYSTEM. By Elbert Hubbard. The greatest change in modern business came with the One-Price System. This has all been brought about since the Civil War.

The old idea was for the seller to get as much as he possibly could for everything he sold. Since that time, however, the seller has been considered quite right and proper when he bought a dressed turkey from a farmer, if you did not discover the stone inside the turkey when you weighed it and paid for it, there was no redress.

A few hundred years ago business was transacted mostly through fairs, and by peddlers. Year merchant of that time was a peripatetic rogue who reduced prevarication to a system.

The booth gradually evolved into a store, with the methods of the irresponsible keeper intact. The merchants cheated their neighbors and chuckled in glee, until their neighbors cheated them, and so on, until eventually they did. Then they cursed each other, began again and did it all over.

John Quincy Adams tells of a certain deacon who kept a store near Boston, who always added in the year 1776 at the top of a column, as seventeen dollars and seventy-five cents.

The amount of misery, grief, disappointment, shame, distress, awe, suspicion and hate, caused by a system which wraps up a business you can't afford to sell a man something he does not want, neither can you afford to disappoint him in quality any more than in count.

Suffice it to say that duplicity in trade has had to go. The self-preservation of the race demanded honesty and a fixed price to all.

The change only came after a struggle and we are not always quite sure of the one price. But we have gotten thus far that the man who cheats in trade is taboo. Honesty as a business asset is fully recognized.

A CITY BEAUTIFUL. A great deal is being said these days of the city beautiful. It's a fight, too. Why not practice it?

The ancients had a way of doing their work exceptionally well in the unaccustomed corners and rears because they believed the gods saw everywhere. It would be just as well if the idea got into the heads of the builders of modern structures.

There is one feature of city building that is especially trying to the man who loves beauty—or who is trying to make his own surroundings presentable. That is the rears of the buildings of modern structures.

To ride through this town and see the rears of a large number of apartments leaves feelings best imagined—if made into words they wouldn't be printed. Everywhere where large flat buildings have been built they present a row of hideous rears that are a credit neither to architect, builder or owner, especially to the owner.

A very little additional expense would make these rears somewhat stately. It is not expected that they would have laid on them the fancy brick and the cut stone or terra cotta that make the fronts ornate and attractive, but they might have the plain, ugly brick painted the same color as the terra cotta.

This is not altogether owners' faults. Architects are to some extent to blame, just as the architect is to blame for the hideous private residence rears—there are a goodly number of homes whose rears, opening on a neat yard, look like country barns. In many cases if the architect drew neatly designed rears the owners would stand for it. But, as in other things than building, too much attention is paid to putting on a front.

100 Cents' Worth for a Dollar AND THEN SOME

Being better dressed or more appropriately clothed, having more attractive furnishings in your home, or having better table board than your neighbor, doesn't necessarily mean that you have more money to spend.

It might mean, however, and probably does, mean that you are more alive to the modern possibilities and opportunities that surround you.

The same qualities of mind and intellect which make one merchant a shrewd purchaser than another make you a better manager of your expenditure.

The buying organization of the Hudson's Bay Company know all the ins and outs of the buying markets of the world and how merchandise in every line is best bought.

His dollar is 100 per cent. efficient. And there is no great reason why every individual should not get 100 cents' worth for every dollar spent, and often more, for himself and family.

Hudson's Bay advertising points the way.

Special Canned Goods Week at the Pure Food Grocery

STARTING MONDAY

SOME merchants sell impure foods, adulterated, doctored foods without knowing that they do. They regret it if they knew—but that neither protects you nor your family.

You can be absolutely sure your foods are pure when you get them at "The BAY." Commencing Monday, we inaugurate a week's special selling in wanted Canned Goods.

The reason in a nutshell is this: We bought heavily, figuring we would be in the big, new store three months ago. Unforeseen delays in building operations that could not be helped have brought about this sale—the most important news to housekeepers we have announced from the Pure Food Grocery for months.

New and interesting "Specials" will be announced each day. Make note of them.

EXCELLENT MUSICAL PROGRAM BY MOUNT ROYAL MUSICIANS

Concert Was One of Finest Ever Given in Calgary and Central Methodist Church Was Crowded to Capacity With Interested Audience.

WORK OF PERFORMERS REFLECTS GREAT CREDIT

Many Difficult Numbers Were Rendered in Most Excellent Style and Musical Numbers Interspersed With Readings and Speeches.

Central Methodist church was filled to its capacity last night, when the pupils of Mount Royal College Conservatory of Music and School of Expression gave the closing recital of the year.

The commencement exercises held last night and today mark the second anniversary of Mount Royal college. Within the year the attendance has increased from 187 to 275, and every department has developed commensurately.

The program last night reflected the work of the college very creditably. It was one of the best recitals of the kind ever given in Calgary.

Today's Program. This afternoon the art pupils of the college who have been instructed during the first year by Miss Gordon will hold an exhibit of their work at the college building, an edifice which is the annual convocation, an important social event in Calgary, will be held about four o'clock and in attendance.

Professor Oaten, Miss Bailey, Miss Bruce, and Miss Lacey, the staff of the Conservatory of Music, have exerted a marked influence on the musical culture of the city, and the result of their efforts was demonstrated by the clever work of the pupils of Mount Royal last night.

Miss Cecile Baron, whose piano solo, Rhapsodie Hongroise No. 2, by Liszt, was the opening number, exhibited unusual skill. Her rendering of the difficult numbers was exceptionally brilliant.

Other Posing Numbers. Miss Mildred Smith, who contributed a piano solo, "At Evening," by Schytte; Miss Helen Sibbald, who played Schmoll's "The Song of the Miller"; Morley Johnson, who gave a particularly good rendering of Jungmann's "The Song of the Miller"; Lodge, who executed the rather difficult Prelude in C Sharp Minor, by Chopin; and Miss Elsie, who rendered in their excellent work the careful training of the past year.

Miss Elizabeth Sayre, who rendered the beautiful duet, "The Will of the Wind," by Junemann.

Miss Marion Crawford, a very girl of seven, sang a "Bird Song" very prettily and with the applause of the entire audience.

Miss Helen Kerby, whose voice has developed surprisingly in the past year, sang with fine effect Nedham's "Irish Lullaby"; and with Miss McCormack, who sang a duet, "Light of Stars and Love," from Offenbach. Other clever vocalists were Miss Kilborn, Mrs. Milton Butte, and Miss Elsie McCormack, whose double number, "The Wood Pigeon and the Wren," was beautifully sung.

Miss Helen McCormack also gave a delightful humorous reading, "Miss Genevieve Strong's reading of 'How Tom Sawyer Whitewashed the Fence' was excellently given, and Miss Gladys Towner demonstrated unusual ability in another humorous reading, 'The Freckled Face Girl.' Miss Annie Skoote's reading, 'The Pie and the Monkey Wrench,' was clever. 'The Morning Veil,' by Miss Elaine Strong, exhibited the careful cultivation of expression of this young lady.

Principal's Address. The principal, Rev. G. W. Kerby, presided, and introduced the program with a few remarks about the development of the college, which is attaining proportionate proportions.

Borden Goes to Halifax. Ottawa, June 12—Premier Borden left for Halifax this morning, accompanied by his secretary, A. E. Blount. At Moncton tomorrow he will be joined by Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways and General Manager Cullis of the Intercolonial, and the party will proceed to Halifax to look over the ground where extensive improvements to the port are planned.

MAZE OF CONTRADICTION IN INVESTIGATION OF FOREMAN'S PARTIZANSHIP

ed that the city of Calgary through its solicitor, was taking the part of a prosecuting agency in this matter," said Mr. Ford. "To correct this impression I wish to definitely state that the city is not acting in any such capacity. The matter was brought to the attention of the city in an official manner through these affidavits presented to my office for action. My entire endeavor is to ascertain if there is any truth in the charges. I am equally interested with your worship in the matter of a thorough investigation. If the charges are true, I will then take the necessary action. If not, I want these men vindicated. I am absolutely neutral in this inquiry. I want to give the accused men a chance to tell their own story, and despite the fact that they appear in the role of defendants, having engaged special counsel, I will allow their own counsel to cross-examine them. My entire thought is to sift the charges and then have your worship decide if there is any truth in them. I am not here in the role of a prosecutor, rather in the role of an investigator in behalf of the city."

The other Italian witnesses took the stand before the foremen were able to reach the court's ears, but their testimony only added to the tangle of contradictions before his worship at the time.

Stephenson was the first of the accused men to take the stand. He denied that he had discharged Cardetta or Serini, but declared that he had ordered Masini, one of the affidavit signers, to quit work.

"Masini was lazy, and we had no use for him any longer," he said. "I did not do an honest day's work," said the foreman.

40 Jobs; 300 Applications. "I can readily understand that a large number of disgruntled laborers were talking after the first gang was set to work following the recent provincial election," said Stephenson, "had jobs for 40 men, and more than 300 applied for the places. I closed the office by saying I had no more work to do with a certain amount of work to do with a certain number of men in a certain time, and it is to my regret that I did not get the right men in my gang. If I don't somebody else will, and I'll be out of a position."

Jack Harvey, another foreman whose name has been mentioned in the inquiry, also testified to the same line of speech as followed by Stephenson.

Jim Wilson's Testimony. James Wilson, superintendent of the sewer works, was the last witness. He characterized the Allee brothers, two of the complainants, as "shifting and lazy," and said the city did not want them in its employ. He said he had five foremen who were avowed members of the Liberal party, and working in various capacities, and that the five gangs varied from 75 to 110 men each during working days.

What political faith do those men belong to? asked Mr. Ford. "Any political faith that will show them jobs," was the answer. "A little coaxing and they are anything."

Mr. Wilson denied that he had ever planned a political machine inside his department, and was then excused from the stand.

Yesterday's session lasted three hours, and at 5:30 Magistrate Sandes announced that he would make his decision as soon as he had thoroughly studied the import of the evidence.

Women Raid in Edinburgh. Edinburgh, June 12—The militant suffragette campaign was resumed here tonight with the biggest raid that has yet been made on mail boxes. Twelve of the receptacles from outside of the town to the other were attacked. Chemists' test tubes filled with a colorless acid, which caught fire when the glass was broken, were dropped into the boxes by the suffragettes, and many letters were badly damaged.

A bomb, sewed up in an oil soaked cushion, was found tonight in the railway station at Eden Park, Kent. Attached to the bomb was a clock which was timed to explode at 2 o'clock Saturday morning.

IRISH HERO OF OLD TIMES IS REVERED AT PRESENT TIME

Patrick Sarsfield Was One of the Greatest Generals of All Time

Brussels, June 13.—One of the bravest soldiers of all times, a national hero of Ireland and a man whose memory is revered by his countrymen scattered all over the world, will be honored at Namur the last week in July.

On some day not yet fixed the delegates to the International Pan-Celtic Congress, which is to be held here, will journey to the little town to view the site of the monument that is planned to perpetuate the memory of Gen. Patrick Sarsfield, Earl of Lucan, grandson of the famous Irish leader O'More, who at Landen, near at hand, received his death wound fighting for his beloved King James II.

Namur Holy to the Irish. To the Irish, all the land about Namur is holy ground. It was here that the blood of brave Irish soldiers who fell fighting for the man and the principles they worshipped.

Sarsfield was commander-in-chief for James II in Ireland. He gallantly defended the city of Limerick during two long sieges. His military exploits are told of his bravery, his success and his chivalry towards those he defeated and took prisoner. One night he surprised a train of Williamites marching on Limerick. He learned that the watchword of the camp he was about to surprise was none other than his own name. With a handful of troops he swept down on the sleeping camp, answering the startled sentinels' challenge by the cry "Sarsfield's the word and Sarsfield's the man," cut down the Williamites, took and blew up their guns, but was at pains to spare and protect the women and camp followers.

Went to France to Fight. When the Jacobite cause was defeated, Sarsfield led nineteen thousand Irish soldiers to France to serve the king there. These were the first of the many thousands "Wild Geese," or Irish soldiers, who quitted their native country to serve with the armies of France against their enemies, and won glory and victory on many continents.

Sarsfield and his Irish followers fought with the French army, but it was for James, whom they continued to look on as their legitimate king, and against James's enemies they fought. The Irish were killed, mortally wounded, in the moment of victory against his sovereign's chief enemy, William of Orange, at the Battle of Landen on June 29, 1693. A tradition says that he cried as he fell, "Oh! that this was for Ireland."

Williamites united with Jacobites in regretting his loss and honoring his memory. Many of all parties have united on their own terms to raise monuments to him. When he died a pompous Latin epistle was written by the his widow, Lady Honoria de Burgo, but of this no trace remains in the church of Notre Dame de Huy, from which a courier delivered a message to the king to remove.

A Great Gaelic Revival. The triennial Pan-Celtic congress, of which that of 1913 will be the fifth, are the outcome of the Celtic renaissance of the last fifteen or twenty years. The delight of savants and scholars, the Celtic languages, were thought little of within the last couple of centuries by the peoples of other languages, and they were regarded as mother tongues they were. When they seemed doomed to die out a sudden revival of love for their true place in Wales, in Scotland and in Ireland amongst the very classes which had seemed to despise them most, was resumed everywhere for their preservation. The English government was forced to accept the Celtic revival in preference to them in Celtic countries, a deputation went to America to beg aid for their advancement.

Wherever victory was gained. The deputation returned rich, and caused the old heart of Erin to beat again. A new era of Gaelic revival in which Gaelic was made compulsory, the poetical officials were forced to accept Gaelic, and the Gaelic revival in Gaelic. People made haste to discard the English equivalents of their Irish names and to adopt the Irish names. Newspapers appeared with columns printed in Gaelic, to be speedily followed by other newspapers of Gaelic. The renaissance was there. As it was in Ireland, so it was in more or less degree in the other Celtic countries.

Women Raid in Edinburgh. Edinburgh, June 12—The militant suffragette campaign was resumed here tonight with the biggest raid that has yet been made on mail boxes. Twelve of the receptacles from outside of the town to the other were attacked. Chemists' test tubes filled with a colorless acid, which caught fire when the glass was broken, were dropped into the boxes by the suffragettes, and many letters were badly damaged.

A bomb, sewed up in an oil soaked cushion, was found tonight in the railway station at Eden Park, Kent. Attached to the bomb was a clock which was timed to explode at 2 o'clock Saturday morning.

Macleod's Hunting Commissioner. Macleod, June 13.—The regular monthly meeting of the Macleod board of trade will be held next Tuesday evening, and as there are several important matters to be taken up, a large attendance will in all probability characterize the meeting. Industrial Commissioner Moffatt will place before the board motions dealing with the leasing of the Blood Indian Reserve, the collecting of accounts by judicial procedure, and the reduction of railway freight rates as applicable to Western Canada. The commissioner has been using the king's mails to good advantage, and as a result a large number of inquiries from prospective manufacturers and investors have been pouring daily into the board of trade office. The proposed banquet for July 1 has been postponed until the date of the Macleod fair, as the commissioner will likely be sent to officially represent the board at the Calgary Industrial exposition from June 30 to July 1.

CANADA'S OBLIGATIONS MEASURED BY LIBERTIES

London, June 14.—That Canada's obligations should be measured by the extent of her national liberties, and that, as a result, the control of the army and navy should be transferred to the British parliament, England should bear the whole cost of the national defence, formed the basic principles of the Nationalist concept...

ner, he said, let the money be devoted to completing the works of peace which were so urgently needed by the farming industry and by the trade and commerce of the Dominion. Works of national importance and imperative urgency, Mr. Bourassa claimed, would require all the efforts, skill and patriotism of Canadians for many generations to come.

High River Has Right to be Called the New Westminster of Alberta

Victory of Southern Town Over Local Lacrosse Artists Re-Establishes Claim; Champions Won Match With 4 to 3 Score.

THAT bustling little town on the Macleod trail, proved its right to be called the "New Westminster of Alberta" last night when the lacrosse team of that place defeated the Calgary Chinooks by the score of 4 to 3 in the opening game of the season at Victoria park. It was a splendid clean exhibition of Canada's national game and the 1,500 people who attended were a testimonial to the popularity of the game. It was the largest crowd which has attended a local lacrosse fixture since 1908, when High River and Calgary battled it out for the Alberta supremacy. At that time lacrosse was at the height of its popularity in this province, but judging by the enthusiastic crowd which witnessed the game last night and the quality of lacrosse which they saw, Canada's national game has come back in this city and from this time on may be ranked with the principal sports.

The teams were very evenly matched as the score indicates, but the High River visitors had it on the locals in condition and staying power and this was what told in the final analysis. All but two of the High River men appeared to be in tip top shape and the Chinooks proved themselves to be good sportsmen when they allowed High River to lay off a man in the middle of the game and later on after he had a rest to go back and finish.

R. B. Bennett who was advertised to open the lacrosse season with an oration on the naval question, failed to put in an appearance. It is not known why he did not do his duty, but one thing is certain; he missed seeing a good exhibition of Canada's national game. It's a mere matter of opinion whether R. B. or the spectators were the losers.

The High River team brought with them a host of supporters. Most of them motored to the city and returned after the game. The teams which trotted out on the field were composed of men whose names have made lacrosse history. There were very few youngsters in the bunch and several of them would have been sent to the home for the aged had they not maintained their youth and enthusiasm by interest in Canada's national game. On the High River team were Bert Polle and Tiny Henry, both of whom were playing in the early nineties. Pete Mathewson was also there and Pete is no spring chicken by any means. However, he is still one of the best players in the West, and last night showed flashes of his old time form.

On the Calgary team were such unsophisticated youths as Dan McLeod, Harry Reynolds and Bill Laine, all of whom were playing good lacrosse when a majority of the spectators were in their swaddling clothes. But although some of the players were almost in their second childhood they showed as much pep as a youngster just breaking into the game. It was the advantage of knowing the fine points of which the younger generation are ignorant.

Callies Prove They Mean Business When They Wallop League Leaders

Defeated Lancashire Five Goals to Nil; Winners Tried Out Old Players Who Made a Club Famous in the Past.

Callies in winning by five goals to nothing against Lancashire last night in the Senior Soccer league, proved that they mean business again this year. They had out a notable team, including as it did, all the players who have made the name of the club during the past two years.

The placing was with a view to working out several of the players, and this was a success. Stewart scored two goals, and Callie scored twice. It was due him, and the other from characteristic breakaway, which he finished with a shot which gave Forshaw no chance at all.

Grindlay, at outside right, had the prettiest goal, the ball describing a curve, and dropping down over Forshaw's head. Williams and Nesbit had the others, the latter scoring the only goal of the first half. Hithin made some great attempts to get going but Cooper and Maclean never wavered, and latterly the game developed into a "shoot for goal."

Haig was at outside left for Callies, and his leg stood well. Twice he had lovely tries for goal. Sandy Strang had his usual grounder in the second half, but it was left to Maclean to finish an errorless display of driving in a long, swift shot from back, which Forshaw jumped at and grabbed. Although Lancashire got such a severe drubbing, there were some good touches. Forshaw is a fine goal keeper, and but for the sun would never have lost the first goal. Malsey and Foulds at back, with Hithin in front were the best men, and until the third goal, tried hard to stem the tide. Land played hard, but Butterfield and Woods, who substituted for the regular men, were passersby.

Why Lancashire do not play the strong team they had against Post Office one cannot understand, because they had men on the line far better than those playing. Towill played at half for Callies again and along with Strang and Petrie did all that was necessary.

CHINOOKS SCORE FIRST. The Chinooks were the first to tally, Melrose putting in a nice shot from close range after the third quarter was about half finished.

The joy in the hearts of the Calgary supporters was short lived, for about two minutes after the Calgary score Donahue picked up a stray pass and bagged the net.

The Chinooks jumped into the lead a very few minutes later, when Harry Curllis got a pass from behind the nets from Bill Laine, and baffled Bert Polle with a hot shot.

But this advantage was also brief, for Alex. McCorquodale made a pretty long-distance shot which evaded the figure. The third period finished with the score tied at two all.

Red Hot Finish. In the final spasm both teams livened up, and the play was the hottest of the game. High River's staying power told, and the southern players did most of the attacking. The whole game resulted in a tie in the lead for the first time during the contest when he got a shot from Tiny Henry and announced the ball into the net from about ten feet out.

A pretty piece of combination in which Tip Curllis and Bobbie Iwers took part with Jack Armstrong at the business end, resulted in the score being again knotted.

It looked for a while as though the match would finish with the score in this condition, but the prettiest piece of work of the whole game resulted in Signer scoring the telling tally. At least five men took part in this play, and short passes from the middle of the field told the story.

The High River team brought with them a host of supporters. Most of them motored to the city and returned after the game. The teams which trotted out on the field were composed of men whose names have made lacrosse history. There were very few youngsters in the bunch and several of them would have been sent to the home for the aged had they not maintained their youth and enthusiasm by interest in Canada's national game.

BASEBALL'S FUTURE GREATS

League Season Will Conclude This Week; 23 Teams in League; Schedule of 70 Games Completed in Less Than Month; Teams Play for the Albertan Trophies

Public School Baseball League Championship Finals. June 12—Practice vs. Riverside in Central grounds. June 13—Haultain vs. Winners on Mt. Royal grounds. June 14—Connaught vs. Haultain on Mt. Royal grounds. June 15—Walker vs. Practice on Central grounds. June 16—Winners of above two games on Central grounds.

Improvements in Game This Year. This year several improvements in the game were made. The indoor-outdoor game, though played by the big playgrounds across the line, had its weaknesses, and the local boys were not long in discovering them, so they adopted several important amendments, chief of which was the lengthening of the bases to 49 feet and the adoption of outdoor rules to apply to all plays excepting that the pitcher must throw the ball underhand to the catcher. The result of these changes has been that the games have been even more exciting and the scores closer.

The adoption of the 12-inch ball made it possible for a larger number of boys to play, most of whom were a little timid of standing up to a very hard ball, and as a result dozens of boys who were not in the habit of competing in the games took part in the baseball league. The youngsters are divided into classes, in uniform with the Y.M.C.A. boys' department standard, of "B" class for boys weighing 85 lbs. and under; "C" for boys weighing 100 lbs. and under; and "D" for boys over 100 and under 135.

This season after the organization of the league Secretary Sharpe gave way to the principals of the schools with intention of devoting his time to other work. The officials of the league are: Principal Vera Volkensburg of Alexander school, president, and Principal Albert of Mt. Royal school, secretary.

Home Run Clouts Keep the Phillies on the Top Rung

Home Run Clouts Keep the Phillies on the Top Rung

The Phillies are the dangerous team in the American League. They have the ability to punch home runs. The Quakers easily have the most home runs of the major league, and to May 24 inclusive had hit sixteen of the sixty-eight home runs manufactured in Tom's organization.

The same date in the American League, the home runs had been as follows: Boston, 12; Philadelphia, 11; Detroit, 10; Cleveland, 9; Chicago, 8; St. Louis, 7; New York, 6; Washington, 5; Pittsburgh, 4; Cincinnati, 3; Milwaukee, 2; Louisville, 1.

The Big Three
The Phillies, Fred Luderus and the Quaker combination, are the three men who have whaled out 12 home runs and have broken up many a pitcher's day.

Magoo—Five
April 26—Off Perdue, Boston.
May 5—Off Marquard, New York.
May 12—Off O'Toole, Pittsburgh.
May 14—Off Camnitz, Pittsburgh.

Luderus—Four
April 22—Off Tesreau, New York.
May 3—Off Steele, St. Louis, game resulting 2 to 1 in Phillies favor and victory being due to homer, made with man on base.

Cravath—Three
May 3—Off Mathewson, New York.
May 12—Off O'Toole, Pittsburgh.
May 13—Off Camnitz, Pittsburgh.

Knabe—One
May 12—Off O'Toole, Pittsburgh. F. C. Cito chose a psychological moment for his homer, hitting in the ninth inning, when the Pirates were one run ahead and when a defeat would have tumbled the Phillies to second place. The hit tied the score and in the eleventh the Pirates won.

Plasterer—One
May 8—Off Harmon, St. Louis.
"Node" made this homer in the first inning and on the first ball pitched.

Doonan—One
May 16—Off Toney, Chicago.
Seaton—One
May 21—Off Hart, Cincinnati.

ONLY SIX ORIGINAL RED SOX NOW ON PAY ROLL

Of Regina Team; Manager Hulen Wins Hatchet With Great Effect

Regina, June 14.—Once more has the axe fallen, this time four heads being lopped off, says "The Province." The owners of these heads were Messrs. Tallero, Stepp, Barnstead and Jewitt, and the axe was wielded by William Hamilton Hulen.

This makes it that only six of the original 14 men that Billy Hulen brought with him from the training camp at Albany, Ore., are still with the Sox, the other eight having been let go.

Those still with the Sox are Beer, Rankin and Burgess, pitchers; Baker, catcher; Hill, first base and outfielder; Williams, outfielder. Those who have been let out are: Jack and Art Hargreaves, Billy Stepp, "Pop" Davidson, Jewitt, Cooper, Tallero and Weckler.

The most of the players who have been let out by the Sox are young men who have just broken into organized baseball. Their first experience has not been a pleasant one, but just the same some of them will in all probability land in the big league in some other way.

They have the makings of good ball players and most of them should, under proper coaching, go up. The most of the games the Sox have lost have been lost through plays which would not have been made by an experienced team.

It was in the batting, however, that most of the released players fell down. They couldn't hit well enough to win games against the other teams of the league and while the Regina Ball Club, Limited, is no doubt sorry to have to release the players, it must be remembered that the directors of the club are running neither a charitable organization nor a school for young ball players.

The management of the team refuses to state what further changes are contemplated, but some more releases may be expected in a few days.

Trades and Labor Games Today
The Trades and Labor games today at Mewata park should attract large gatherings. The Carpenters and Plumbers, those old rivals, will meet at 2:30 and the Plasterers and Plasterers' Laborers at 4 o'clock. Maclean will likely be out for the Plasterers' Helpers today, and the result of the two contests will be close.

Popular Footballer
One of the most popular local footballers and citizens was married on Thursday in the person of John A. Braidwood, the Callie half back. Jack is well known in town and is one of the best liked fellows in the district. Since coming to the city some years ago Jack has mostly been identified with the Callies, although he played a season with Hillhurst. He is captain of the Carpenters' team in the Trades league this year, and will do his best to see that he can win last year again finds a place in the hands of the brotherhood. He was one of the best workers in the cause of Victoria park this year for a soccer ground, and his work on the fence was untiring and unselfish. To him and his good lady all good wishes are extended for long life and happiness from thousands of friends who admire the dignified qualities present in Jack, and the hope is expressed that he may long be able to play for the team he has more than once helped out of a tight place.

POLO TALK IS NOW VERY SEASONABLE

Second Game for International Trophy Is Played Today

ALTHOUGH polo is played in Alberta, and this province has produced some of the very best polo players in America today, it is probable that nine out of every ten people who follow some branch of sport as a hobby know nothing at all of this game except that it is played by men on horseback and an even larger percentage have never seen a polo game.

Once a year polo talk is common throughout America. That time is when the United States and England clash for the championship. At other seasons polo is rarely heard of. Today the second game of the championship series will be played at Meadowbrook, New Jersey. The United States team won the first contest by the score of 5-1-2 to 3. Today's game will settle the title for at least another year.

Here are a few points about this kind of sports which tradition says was originated in Persia 1,000 years ago and after taking rank as the national game of India has swept over England to finally take America by storm.

The rules are simple and the referee who is the sole arbiter has much left to his discretion. The field is 300 feet long and 450 feet wide with a ten inch wooden guard on the sides only. The goal posts are placed 24 feet apart and are ten feet high. They are made of paper mache so as to break if collided with. Though larger balls have been used the present rules call for a ball of wood, generally willow, covered by white paint, 3-1/8 inches in diameter and not exceeding 5 ounces in weight. Mallets vary according to the idiosyncrasies of the players. Most have a cigar shaped head, but Capt. Edwards of the English team uses one that has a square cut head. Any innovation likely to prove dangerous to the other players or give an unfair advantage must be approved by the governing body.

That completes the equipment with the exception of the ponies, and the regulation regarding this most important department of the game is more honored in the breach than in the observance. The rules say that the ponies shall not exceed 14.2 hands, but it is safe to say that in the international matches very few could pass under the standard. Speed is required under the new style of play just as much as facility in turning, so that underized thoroughbreds have been introduced and their height is no longer questioned. The referee, however, has the right to exclude any vicious or dangerous pony.

While the object is to send the ball through the opposing goal posts, each goal counting one, it is possible for a match to be won without a single goal being scored, as penalties are imposed for violation of the rules. In actual playing time one hour is consumed, and as every moment of that is vigorous action it is sufficient even for the hardy athletes who follow the sport.

The game is split into eight periods—in India the word chukker prevails—of seven and a half minutes, each with three minutes' rest between periods, this being extended to seven minutes after the fourth period, or half time.

Only the referee is allowed on the field while the ball is in play, the goal judges being behind the goal posts and their decisions being liable to reversal by the referee. Only field captains of the teams are allowed to make protests or discuss questions arising during the game. In case of accident or disqualification a substitute is allowed, but when once a player is replaced by a substitute he cannot return to the game except to take the place of another player.

A feature of the play which is likely to mislead spectators not acquainted with the rules is that opposing sides change after each goal. When the ball is hit out of bounds on the side lines it is thrown in again by the referee, but when it crosses an end line the side defending the goal at that end is entitled to a free knock in from the line, no objection being allowed within fifty feet until the ball has been hit.

When a player hits the ball over the goal line he is defending it is called a safety and his side loses a quarter of a goal. For a foul half a goal is the penalty and the referee may also suspend the offending player. Dangerous riding is forbidden, examples being: a player or his pony or misgassing in the front of another player riding a gallop. The right of way is given to the player who has last hit the ball and he may not be crossed except at a safe distance. Though crooking mallets is allowed it can only be done without penalty when a player is on the same side of his adversary's pony as the ball and only then when striking the ball. Other rules provide that the ponies shall not be interfered with and that the hands shall not be used to strike the ball or push an opponent. Checking, however, with the shoulder is allowed.

MIKE GIBBONS KNOCKED OUT YOUNG AHERN

It Happened in Fourth Round of Ten Round Bout in New York

New York, June 13.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul, knocked out Young Ahern of Brooklyn, in the fourth round of a scheduled 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight. The fighting was fast throughout, and up to the knockout it was an exhibition of clever boxing, with Gibbons the aggressor. Ahern used his left with good effect, while at close quarters Gibbons favored a right jab to the body. A right to the head staggered Ahern in the fourth. Gibbons followed up his advantage with a right to the jaw, and a right uppercut, ending the battle. Gibbons' weight was 148 and Ahern's 144.

Tom Gibbons, brother of Mike, outpointed Jack Denning of this city in the final round. Gibbons had the better of the third, fifth, eighth and tenth rounds and his opponent carried off the fourth, sixth and seventh. The other rounds were even. Gibbons had a pound the better of Denning, who weighed 138.

DISPUTE ABOUT GROUNDS CAUSES POSTPONEMENT

Last night the Callie Juniors and Western Canada college boys were to battle for the league championship at Hillhurst, but in the afternoon Dr. MacRae asked that the game be played at Western Canada college, where there is fine ground, because of the incident that took place at Hillhurst Thursday evening. The request was provisionally agreed to, but evidently after the Callie team went to Hillhurst they had a confab, with the result that they would not go to Western Canada college. By whose advice they did this is not known, but it seems that their decision was rather unfortunate. The matter of the ground was immaterial because the Callies have played on Western Canada often and like it. Further, although the game was the Callie one, Western Canada college went to Hillhurst on the occasion of the M.A.A. grounds under none too favorable circumstances. The light was bad and there were several showers of rain, one of which was sharp enough to stop the play for a few minutes.

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE GAME IS ROUGH

Two men were ordered off at the game between Hudson Bay and Ashdown's last night in the Commercial Soccer league at Mewata park. The game was fiercely contested all through, and the score of one to nothing in favor of Hudson Bay was enough to show that the teams were evenly matched. There was a big crowd of spectators, and it certainly was the most closely watched game in the Commercial league this season. Skinner was a most prominent man for Hudson Bay and it was thought him that the Bay got their goal. Dr. Inman played like a hero for Ashdown, and the general feeling was that the game was just value for a draw.

Race For American League Pennant Looks Like a Two Horse Affair

(By T. W. Nash)

ANOTHER week of the baseball season of 1913 has passed into history. The Athletics are going at a tremendous clip just now and have increased their lead over Cleveland since last week. They were finally defeated by St. Louis on Wednesday after winning 15 straight games. Since their return home from the western trip they have won 19 games and lost 2, making a record of 17-2.

After taking four straight from the Yanks, the Cleveland Naps received a slight setback in Boston, where the world's champions took two out of three. What should be the most thrilling series of the season started Thursday in Philadelphia and the standing of the Naps at the end of the first game depends largely upon the result of this series and that at Washington. For a while at least, even if it does not continue until the end of the season, the race for the American league flag will be a two-horse affair.

Washington Should Take Care
It is reported that Third Baseman Foster will be back on the Nationals next week and as Morgan has resumed his job at second base, Washington should take a decided brace very soon. Walter Johnson is their only winning pitcher at the present time, all their other twirlers being slaughtered by the Detroit Tigers this week. The Chicago White Sox have made a fair showing in the east and are fighting with Washington for the possession of third place. The world's champion Boston Red Sox are having a hard time reaching the 500 mark, but should be able to get up there before they leave home.

There does not appear to be any chance for the Detroit Tigers to get out of sixth place even with the peerless Ty Cobb in the line-up and the St. Louis Browns will likely stay in seventh place although they may fall to the rear when Chase's Yanks continue their spurt. The Yanks managed to get their first home victory last Saturday by beating the White Sox with Ed Walsh in the box. They won two out of four from Chicago and Detroit being the only ones to trade of Chase for Borton and Zeider.

seems to have benefitted them considerably.

National League
The Phillies are still holding their big lead over the New York Giants. They are going very fast in the west, having taken three out of four from both Pittsburgh and Cincinnati and if they keep up this pace during their stay in St. Louis and Chicago they will return home with even a greater lead than when they left.

The New York Giants will have to go faster than they are going just now to overtake the Phillies, for the Giants have only made a fair showing so far on the western trip. Brooklyn has taken a decided slump since they left home and will likely go back to their home grounds in fifth place unless they take a brace very soon. The Chicago Cubs broke even with the Boston Braves and the New York Giants, which was not a very good showing at home. There are rumors of dissension in the Cubs, which if true, means a change in managers in short order.

The Pittsburgh Pirates are having a strenuous time getting above the 500 mark. Their star pitchers have been very erratic during the past two weeks and it is unlikely the Pirates will climb much higher until their pitchers get back to old-time form. The St. Louis Cardinals seem to be still in a slump, for they have not shown any improvement this week. The Boston Braves are now right back of them in seventh place, for the Braves have been going very good so far in the west and if they keep it up they will surely pass the Cards. The Cincinnati Reds got out of last place for one day, but fell back again and it will now take a big spurt to enable them to get out of the cellar.

ARMY BAND WILL GIVE CONCERT ON MONDAY

The Salvation Army will give a concert in the auditorium of the Citadel on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Major Sunnot will preside over the gathering and the music will be specially selected for the occasion. The band will be conducted by Major G. W. Crofton and there will be a number of pieces of special interest for the occasion. There will also be some vocal numbers in which the male choir will take part. The proceeds will be devoted to the funds which are being collected for the junior brass band, which is in need of aid for the purchase of instruments and other current expenses.

Gets School Contract.
Macleod, June 13.—Mr. J. S. Lambert, the local contractor, has been awarded the contract for constructing the two new schools that are to be built here at once. Mr. Lambert's tender of $11,997 for the brick school which will be for high school purposes, was about $5,000 lower than that of the highest tender, while his tender of $2,997 on the frame school was almost $2,000 lower than that of the highest tender. The local contractor's figures show that conditions are such in Macleod that building can be carried on here on a much cheaper scale than in other places.

Creamery is Prospering.
Macleod, June 13.—That the Macleod creamery, one of the town's baby industries, is living up to all expectations, was the impression that was left in town by G. W. Scott, chief creamery inspector of the province of Alberta, who officially inspected the plant this week. Mr. Scott gave the stock of butter on hand a first class grading and he also gave a very glowing tribute to the excellent manner in which the creamery is conducted.

Braves Again Down Reds.
Cincinnati, June 13.—Boston by bunting hits when they counted most won the second game of the series from Cincinnati today, 6 to 4. Boston started scoring in the first inning, when they obtained four runs knocking Ames out of the box. Packard succeeded Ames and pitched fairly good ball, holding Boston to two runs and seven hits. Perdue allowed four runs and eight hits, all being scattered except in the fourth and seventh innings. Meyers came off the batting honors, making three hits, including a home run.

Phillies Beat Cards Again.
St. Louis, June 13.—Brennan was invincible in all but the final inning today, while Harmon trying to field a meant runs, Philadelphia winning from St. Louis, 5 to 2. St. Louis could not bunt hits off Brennan until the ninth inning, when three singles and an out gave them two runs. In the second inning Caters, playing right field for St. Louis, after catching Cravath's long fly, crashed into the fence, fracturing his left leg.

Errors Beat Brooklyn.
Chicago, June 13.—Brooklyn played a ragged game in the field today and errors, coupled with bunched hits, gave Chicago the long end of an 11-inning contest, 7 to 6, and also third place in the pennant race. Pierce pitched in fine form. Ragon became unsteady and was replaced by Stack, who filled the bases in Chicago's ninth inning. Allen took the mound then and retired the side on strike outs. Allen was injured in the eleventh inning to field a bunt from Evers, and was carried to the club house.

Giants Again Beat Pirates.
Pittsburgh, June 13.—Clarke selected Friday, the 13th, as the day for his return to active playing after his retirement in 1911, but despite his presence in left field, New York took the second game of the series 3 to 2. Seasonal work by the visitors in the field saved Demaree on several occasions. Adams struck out seven men, but was hit hard. On fourth base hit New York used Coleman, their new catcher, secured a run. Demaree in the third inning, from Danport in the Three I league. He threw out three Giants who tried to steal and handled himself well for a youngster who never saw a major league game and was put to work immediately on his arrival, because all three Pittsburgh catchers are laid for work.

Yankee Again Defeat Tigers.
New York, June 13.—New York today again defeated Detroit in an exciting game 4 to 2. Ford had a little better of Dubuc in a pitchers' battle, the New Yorker had the better support. A spectacular stop and throw by Peckinpaugh pulled Ford out of a tight hole in the seventh.

Red Sox Win 13-Inning Game.
Boston, June 13.—Hits for extra bases in the ninth inning today enabled Boston to tie the score at 6 to 6, and St. Louis went down to defeat in the thirteenth inning, 7 to 6. The visitors secured the big lead in the eighth when O'Brien weakened. Ball succeeded O'Brien in the ninth and allowed but four hits during the last five innings. In the final, after Hooper had been retired by the pitcher, the former scorer received bases on balls, the former scoring the winning run on Lewis' single in center.

Philadelphia 2-Cleveland 1.
Philadelphia, June 13.—In the thirteenth inning of today's game Barry hit for two bases and Schanz followed with a wild throw, allowing Barry to score. Thus did Philadelphia win from Cleveland 2 to 1. Mitchell and Bender both pitched great ball.

Jersey City, N. J., June 13.—With the game tied in the eighth inning, Purcell on third and Blair on second, Pitcher Davis pulled off a victory by a scabbing hit to the flag pole in centre field, sending Purcell over with the winning tally. Jersey City won by 3 to 1.

NORTHERN LEAD.
Minneapolis, Minn., June 13.—Minneapolis took the second game of the series from Winnipeg by a score of 5 to 4, battling bravely against an early inning Miller. Winnipeg did not show until the eighth, but in that round made quite a rush and wound up just one short of a tie. In the ninth inning, the Peggars once more made a try for victory, but with two out and the bases full the necessary batter hit would not come and the thing was over.

Keep the Men Busy.
Men should be kept busy, even during the hot months. They will not be inclined to do much hustling during the heat of the day, but in early morning and late in the afternoon, when the weather is cooler, they can be induced to take the needed exercise by buying the grain in litter of some kind.—From the opinions of a poultry expert.

Slides at Canal.
Panama, June 13.—There has been increased activity in the slides in Culabra cut during the past 24 hours. A new movement took place yesterday on the side on the east bank of the cut, precipitating a large mass of earth and rock into the canal, and covering all the tracks on the east side, choking the drainage ditch, and overturning a steam shovel. This break now extends back to the upper terrace, and the level is cracked still further back.

Symphony Orchestra
NOW ASSURED AND CONCERTS FIXED
Many Experienced Players Secured for Season; World-Famed Soloists Will Appear

Mr. Well who has been busy en route for the last few months organizing the Calgary Symphony Orchestra has just returned from the east where he has been very successful in securing a number of capable and experienced musicians who will come here to winter and take part in the various concerts which are to be given by the orchestra.

The players who have been engaged by Mr. Well in St. Paul, Minneapolis, New York and Philadelphia, are all men of much experience and will prove of great value for the work of the season. They will come here in the middle of October and will then start their work on the concert program in the beginning of November.

Mr. Well also has arrangements for several soloists, vocal and instrumental of world-wide fame, who will give special attractions for the concert series and the names will be announced within a few days and they will make the coming to Calgary one of the greatest musical events that have ever visited the Canadian west.

During the last few weeks the Alberta musical press has been discussing the organization of the Symphony Orchestra in Calgary and it is pointed out that the organization has been along this line the most enterprising city on the continent for its size in the last few years. It is pointed out that the organization has been a notice of the venture was made and it was highly commendatory of the city and the government of the province. There were similar articles in other papers.

Outside Experts Coming.
The orchestra will number about 45 in all. The majority will be local talent, but there will also be the expert of whom mention has been already made. These will number about eight or 10 and will include violinists, cellos, basses, bassoons and flutes. This with added attraction of the soloists will make a great interest for all music lovers of Calgary to attend.

There will be an evening concert on the first Monday of every month and a concert later in the afternoon there will be a young people's concert. These will be held in the Sherman Grand theatre and the dates have now been fixed. Taking all in all the success of the venture is now assured and the musical public of Calgary are to have a treat during the winter, the kind of which has never been experienced in the west of Canada.

MARGARET ANGLIN PLANS
In her forthcoming productions of "The Taming of the Shrew," "As You Like It," Miss Margaret Anglin will next season, step to the front of American producing management.

All four of Miss Anglin's productions will be mounted simply and imaginatively, and will vary radically in general tone and effect. "Twelfth Night," for example, is not to be Shakespearean, but Italian, with suggestion of the Moorish. "As You Like It" on the other hand will be pure English in an old colored engraving of the country woodlands. "The Taming of the Shrew" will be pure Renaissance, and more important, Christopher Sly is being taken back to the play again, a restoration that hasn't been in vogue since Augustin Daly's time.

"Antony and Cleopatra" which will feature the bill of Miss Anglin's return, will show us a new Alexandria, yet the real one, the Alexandria commerce—the mart of the eastward bound. It will mix all the peoples and the arts that circled the Mediterranean. Thus into the architecture of the past, Miss Anglin will vary her Egyptian costumes with the Greek and the essentials of love and humor. All the necessary battle scenes will be eliminated.

Miss Anglin is now engaged in the process of selecting her company and actors identified with the American field of the drama. Calgary will be one of the earliest cities to be visited.

EDDIE FOY AND NELLIE DALY, IN "OVER THE RIVER," AT SHERMAN GRAND NEXT WEEK.

LOCAL MUSICAL GOSSIP LOCAL STAGE GOSSIP

Dorothy Toye to Give a Recital Here
Dorothy Toye, the Nelson girl, whose remarkable singing voice created such a furore in the cities on the continent, and more recently in New York City, is to appear in recital in Calgary on Wednesday, June 25. Miss Toye is the possessor of what may be called a "frank" voice in being able to produce at will a fine tenor quality or the rich full tones of a lyric soprano. Moreover, she is said to be a very capable artist with a comprehensive repertoire, and her appearance in Western Canada, has been marked by great enthusiasm. She has mastered several of the great tenor arias made famous by Caruso, and her voice is said to be very similar in quality to that of the noted tenor.

Miss Toye, prior to her departure for Europe four years ago, was known to several local people, and the general public will no doubt share their interest in her coming to see the result of her four years' hard work.

Kitties' Band Coming to Calgary
The announcement made during the week that the famous Kitties' band of Hamilton is to appear in Calgary during the month of July was received with great interest by those who have heard the band in years gone by. It is rather unusual for a band of that calibre to appear in association with a circus, but the Stella-Foto people evidently know a good thing when they see it.

Mr. Wilfred V. Oaten, organist and choirmaster of Central Methodist church, left for the East this week to spend a well-earned vacation, which will extend over the summer months. Miss Floy will resume her old place at the organ during his absence.

103rd REGIMENTAL BAND CONCERT AT ST. GEORGE'S

An exceptionally fine program has been prepared by the 103rd local regimental band for Sunday afternoon at St. George's. The concert commences at 2 o'clock and is as follows: March—"Battery Park".....H. Clark Thayer Overture—"La Gazza Ladra".....Rossini Vocal Solo—"A Dream of Paradise".....Hamilton Grey Bandman Cotton

(a) Intermezzo Sinfonico from "Cavalleria Rusticana".....P. Mascagni (b) "It's Sunny Alberta for Mine".....Mayo Evans Intermission

"A Musician Asks for the Forest".....Andrew Herman Tim Walde Solo by Bandsman T. Morris, Dream Melody ("Sweet Mystery of Life").....from "Naughty Marietta".....Victor Herbert Piccilo Solo—"Sweet Birdie".....J. S. Cox Bandsman Gilbertstadt

"Reminiscences of the Plantation".....Paris Chambers (As played by Sousa's band, by command before H.M. the king.) GOD SAVE THE KING!

The Great Albin, master magician, known on two continents, died suddenly in Chicago a couple of weeks ago. Albin was at one time the greatest exponent of "black art" before the public and many magicians of the present day owe their start to him. He filled the engagements at the Sherman Grand last summer.

"Fine Feathers," the latest play from the pen of Eugene Walters, is one of the July attractions at the Sherman Grand. The same all-star cast which interpreted the play in Chicago and New York will be here, including Robert Edson, Wilton Lackaye, Rosco Coghlan and others.

tinues to be the sensation of the day everywhere it is presented. At Teller's Broadway Theatre in Brooklyn last week over fifteen thousand people witnessed these remarkable pictures. It is conservatively estimated that fully fifty thousand more people attend the presentation in New York at the Astor, Chicago at the Victoria, Philadelphia at the Garrick, Baltimore at The Academy, Norfolk, Va., at the Grand. Two more companies open immediately, one at Boston and another at Ithaca, N.Y., which will tour eastern Canada.

One of the most thrilling moments in George Kleine's photo-drama triumph occurs in the seventh reel when the lions are turned into the arena and devour the Christians. The execution of this remarkable picture is so true that very often an audible shudder and exclamation is heard from the audience. Of course, the lions are not seen the act of eating them, as none of the Italian actors who posed for the pictures were willing to play their parts even for the sake of the illusion, however, is perfect—and Mr. Kleine has been deluged with letters and questions from the audience. The effect was accomplished. As a matter of fact, when this scene was rehearsed the minute the lions entered the arena the actors made a mad scramble to escape, consumed with terror, and all managed to break all past records for speed, with the exception of the stage director, who was still still for a long time and when he finally did get away, his fellow players applauded him for his courage. Being a careful gentleman, however, he afterwards confessed that he was so badly frightened he was riveted to the spot and did not have the power to move a muscle to help the lions. He frequently has this effect—but no one should be accused of cowardice when a dozen or more hungry lions are loose in close proximity.

EDDIE FOY, THE FUNMAKER, COMING TO CALGARY

While next week will mark the first appearance of Eddie Foy on a Calgary stage, there are few people who have not heard his name in connection with the name of the "Seven Little Foys" and his triumphs and where he is still a great American success. He has been mentioned in "Cinderella," "Sinbad," "All Baba," "Robinson Crusoe," and "Mr. Deeds," and he is the star of the hit production in which Mr. Foy was appearing on the occasion of the Sherman Grand's last season in December, 1912.

His starring ventures in later years have been in "The Orchid," "The Earl and the Girl," "The Orchid," and "Mr. Hamlet of Broadway." He has also taken a brief fling at vaudeville during the last year, his little family of "Seven Little Foys" assisting him in a short skit.

"Over the River," which Mr. Foy will present at the Sherman Grand next week, is a musical adaptation of H. A. Du Rocher's famous farce, "The Man From Mexico." The plot centres around the adventures of Madison Parke, a wealthy man of New York, always immaculately dressed and with a reputation of being a good fellow. He is present during a wild scene in a Broadway cafe, and ends up with a police court sentence of 30 days "over the river." His native wit and comedy in the Blackwell's Island prison make him the pet of the women engaged in several reform. Upon his discharge, he sends word home that he is returning from Mexico, and finds himself in a garden party of senoritas and Mexican society which the unsuspecting Parke has arranged as a welcome for him.

The music of "Over the River" is by John Le Golden and abounds with the popular variety. Eddie Foy sings "Mexico" and "New York Just Such a Bad Old Town," and people have been known to travel long distances to hear Eddie sing.

"Kid Kabaret" Heads Next Week's Orpheum Bill
Manager Baker has presented a number of very attractive acts since the Orpheum shows first began playing the Sherman Grand, but Thomas G. has no more successful feature which was in Calgary only a few weeks ago, making during its only two brief stays a great hit with all that saw it. It will therefore be pleasant news to learn that another of Gus Edwards' acts is to top next week's bill; this is his "Kid Kabaret," and has been receiving even more flattering notices all along the line. There will be a number of fine, catchy song hits, with twenty bright and attractive young stars such as capped around in the "Song Review." The two bright particular stars of this act are Eddie Cantor and George Jessel.

Will Rogers is as certain of a fine reception in Calgary as the train is to bring him here, for he is a son of the great west and beside that has made a world's record for roping and throwing a steer. His exhibition of work with the lariats is really wonderful, and he has gained prominence as a comedian, having been associated with Blanche Ring in "The Wall Street Girl."

No vaudeville bill is complete nowadays unless there is a playlet to complete it, and next week's bill is no exception. "A Strong Cup of Tea" is said to be one of the greatest laugh and production ever staged by Miss Jane Connelly and Edwin Connelly, the latter having written the music. This production is a notable success in "Sweethearts."

One feat follows another in rapid succession in the act of the Rose and Valeria Sextette, who are better known as the "Rose and Valeria." This wonderful troupe of four wire workers is composed of four dapper young men, who are the best of their kind. One of the best features of the act is the speed with which they work. The Rose and Valeria Sextette is a performer, whose act has been christened that of a "plano song whistler." She has a fine repertoire of bright, entertaining numbers that have been returning her a winner all along the line.

Brent Hayes is spoken of as one of the most wonderful bands artists that has appeared before the public in many a long day. Some conception of his ability can be gathered from the fact that he has memorized 104 selections, all of which he can render at will.

La Valera and Melvin Stokes put across an act which they call "A Bit of Spanish," which they have made one of the greatest offerings ever, containing ten grand dances in a clever sketch.

As usual, there will be another installment of the act of the Rose and a fine orchestral program to round out a bill that looks like a winner from this standpoint.

JOHN MASON COMING

In "As a Man Thinks" in which the Shuberters will present John Mason at the Sherman Grand Theatre the week after next, Augustus Thomas presents a phase of the Jewish question that has not touched upon, at least by an American play-writer. He has a right to present in dramatic form the reason for the persistence of the Jew, the reason which is the cause of the persecution of the Jew that the world has known since the time of Christ. Mr. Thomas has arranged and acted his story.

In speaking of the piece when it was produced at the Grand Theatre, the New York New York Tribune said: "It was instant and splendid success. Being started with all the care and taste that should be exercised on a worthy drama, acted as well as any capable play can be acted, and written with even a finer nobler and more inspiring thought than his author has ever before brought to his achievement."

Organization. "The first thing in organization is the formation of an association or club of the adult men and women of the community adjacent to the school house, for the purpose primarily of the discussion of public questions, beginning with the local needs of the community and embracing all the wider interests of city, state and nation.

Neighbor Spirit. "Here the important thing is that the 'neighbor' spirit should find expression, and in every case where organization has been effected along right lines, this 'neighbor' spirit has been simply finished.

Brains vs. Bombs. Speaking of the great social problem of the day, the author says they can be solved by the use of bombs. "One is by the use of bombs. One is by dynamite, the other is by debate."

SEYMOUR, THE BANDIT, TELLS OF MURDER OF POLICEMAN

Shot Down By Two Desperate Thieves Without Word of Warning in Most Brutal Fashion.

PRISONER PEACHES UPON TWO OF HIS ASSOCIATES Archibald Was About to Search the Men Suspecting Them of Being Thugs and They Shot Him Three Times.

REV. G. W. KERBY, Principal of Mount Royal College, Calgary, the attendance of which has increased from 187 to 285 in one year. The convalescent in celebration of the second anniversary will be held tonight.

Vancouver, June 13.—"Blackie" Seymour entered the witness box today and told in the most sensational manner the story of how Police Constable Archibald was shot down in cold blood without having been given the least chance of escape.

It was while Seymour was in jail with Clark and Davis, that, according to Seymour, the latter, who is charged with the murder, told him the story of the crime. Seymour had separated from the other two, but thinking that it was his only means of clearing himself of the murder, he told the whole story as follows:

"Davis and Clark robbed the Hastings Mill Shingle company office, and then took their kit of burglar's tools in an alley near by, where they hid them. They later attempted to rob Findlay's grocery store on Powell street, but failed to get entrance.

"They returned to get their tools, but while they were standing back of the store, they were discovered by a police officer. Police Constable Archibald saw the light and approached them, asking them for an account of themselves.

"Clark replied that they had just through Canada, and more particularly in England, advertised the attractive parts of their routes extensively.

Mr. Deachman argues that the city in addition to having street cars that would be much more attractive, would really make more money by advertising the attractions of the city.

Dis Picking Flowers for Bryan. Mount Vernon, June 14.—Mrs. Emil E. Nielsen, a third cousin of Secretary of State William J. Bryan, died today of apoplexy.

The two then grasped the officer's gun and flashlight and ran along the wall through the fence. On the way they threw the revolver and flashlight, and a man holding up the tools thirty-two blocks to Sixteenth avenue and Inverness street, and hid them in a hall.

All the articles except the gun which did the shooting have been found by the police. The case is still proceeding.

Editor, Albertan:—The editorial from the Edmonton Journal which you quote in your issue of Friday morning, advocating that the Dominion government be given to Calgary, is surely one of the most absurd pieces of journalism I have read in the university question.

This eminently fair and broad-minded pronouncement from Edmonton should do much for to promote good feeling, should meet a hearty response in this city, and should tend to banish from the minds of our citizens any prejudice of animosity there may be in Calgary towards the University of Alberta.

That, however, need not stand in the way of a still greater zeal for the local university, or prevent us from at the same time supporting the provincial university. Indeed, it is difficult to see why it should exist at all. As far as the provincial university, it belongs to us as much as to anyone in the province, and we should be as proud of it as for its highest success.

That, however, need not stand in the way of a still greater zeal for the local university, or prevent us from at the same time supporting the provincial university. Indeed, it is difficult to see why it should exist at all.

In the same way, the two universities are likely to be competitors, the rivalry, however keen, should be of that amicable nature that will tend to promote the success of both, without more over-lapping than necessary. I feel confident that these two universities will help and not hinder each other.

Dean of the University of Calgary, Calgary, June 13, 1913.

ADVERTISING, LIKE CHARITY, BEGINS AT HOME

Street Cars Are to Be Used for Boosting, Let it Be the Boosting of the City and All Its Great Advantages, Says R. J. Deachman.

WORK COULD BE DONE MORE ARTISTICALLY City Is Possessed of Those Utilities That Are Worth Making Known to as Wide a Public in as Pleasant a Way as Possible to All Visitors.

Does it pay to advertise? It does in city street cars? It does. Well then, let us advertise ourselves our utilities, our city, our street railway, everything.

This is the argument that R. J. Deachman has put up to Commissioner of Public Works in a letter which he refers to the proposed contract for street car advertising.

The commissioners for some time have been wrestling with the subject of street railway advertising. The suggestion by Mr. Deachman is that the city hold the advertising space in the street cars for its own use.

It could decorate them with the beauty pictures of the city, all of which doubtless may be reached by the street railway. It could place in the frames pictures of St. George's Island, Bowness Park and other places of interest.

It is pointed out that railways throughout Canada, and more particularly in England, advertise the attractive parts of their routes extensively.

Mr. Deachman argues that the city in addition to having street cars that would be much more attractive, would really make more money by advertising the attractions of the city.

When Mr. Roberts Met Dr. Dewar

"By the way, doctor, why did you decide on a McClary's Sunshine Furnace for your fine new home?"

"Well, Mr. Roberts, principally because the Sunshine's water pan is correctly placed over the fuel door, so that the moisture, as it is evaporated, immediately ascends into the pipes leading to the rooms. The air passing through the registers thus contains plenty of healthful moisture."

"Dry air is bad for anyone to breathe, Mr. Roberts. It parches the throat, lips and skin. It excites the nervous system. Makes people restless, irritable, without knowing why. Makes them subject to colds too, when they go out into the moister air of our doors."

"Great Scott! Doctor. You surprise me. I never dreamt the placing of a water pan in a furnace was so important."

"And there are other features about McClary's Sunshine Furnace that are conducive to good health, Mr. Roberts. There's the Automatic Gas Damper that provides for the escape of coal gas up the chimney instead of into the house when the pressure in the combustion chamber becomes too great. There's the dust-flue, too, that carries away all the dust from falling ashes. But I've got a case across the road, so you'll have to excuse me. Drop in, tonight, and I'll show you 'Sunshine' to you."

WOMEN PEN WELDERS FROM EAST AND WEST TAKE NOTES IN CALGARY

loveliness, both upstairs and downstairs being wreathed in roses, carnations, tulips and ferns and green plants of every description. The tables with the vases and baskets of flowers were most attractive, while the menu was at once "homey" and delicious.

At the top table the representative persons of the press club, the L. C. and the city were seated, among them Mrs. Murphy, Miss McClure, Mrs. McClung, Miss Fraser, Mrs. Riley, Mrs. R. R. Jamieson, Mrs. Bert Cummings, Mrs. J. Price, Miss Elliott, Miss McLennan, Mayor Simons, Geo. Ham, Cy Warman, J. H. Woods, W. M. Davidson and many others.

In a brief speech Mayor Simons opened the proceedings bidding the press women welcome to Calgary. During the luncheon Mrs. Howells' orchestra played a beautiful selection.

Many Speeches Given There were the usual speeches. Mrs. Howells, in a few well chosen words welcomed the press women, stating that there were two great factors in Canadian life, the press and women's organizations. With these bound together in love and understanding there was nothing the world could do.

Mrs. R. R. Jamieson, president of the Local Council of Women, next bade the W. C. F. C. welcome to Calgary, saying that it would be a never-to-be-forgotten day for many, and adding that the preparations for their visitors had already done good work, since they had joined in greater sympathy the local branch of the Press club and the Local Council of Women.

Mrs. Cummings, president of the local Press club, in the name of that club, expressed her gratitude and delight in having the members visit Calgary. They had come from many places, and to her Calgary stood for happiness, hopefulness and hospitality. Once before she had been quoted as saying that the men of Calgary were upright, handsome and good to look upon. She wished to make known that she and all her Calgary stood for happiness, hopefulness and hospitality.

Mrs. Murphy ("Jane Canuck"), of Edmonton, and new president of the W. C. F. C., replied, and said how pleased they all were that they had been able to come west. Certain cities, she said, stood for certain things, and to her Calgary stood for happiness, hopefulness and hospitality. Once before she had been quoted as saying that the men of Calgary were upright, handsome and good to look upon. She wished to make known that she and all her Calgary stood for happiness, hopefulness and hospitality.

At the close of Mrs. Murphy's speech she was presented with a bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. J. Price making the presentation. Miss McLennan followed with a bouquet of red and white roses.

THE ISLES OF SCILLY

(London Daily News and Leader)

(By J. C. Tregarthen)

"Bayley" wrote Ireland, "is an XX miles from the west coast of Cornwall." More exactly, the nearest of the isles are 27 miles distant, showing from the Land's End like a broken line on the horizon of waste of waters marked by the warning beacons of the Longships, the Seven Stones, and the Wolf. This view gives little indication of the extent of the archipelago whose islands, islets, and isolated rocks to the number of nearly 200 lie scattered over an oval-shaped area of some 40 square miles, from Hanjans on the east to the Crim on the west, from Round Island on the north to St. Mary's on the south. St. Mary's, containing 1,520 acres, is the largest group, and thence the other inhabited islands St. Agnes, Bryher, Treco, St. Martin's, and the uninhabited Samson, form a ring about a spacious anchorage called the Roadstead; whilst without, forming a second line of defence against the Atlantic are the eastern, western and northern isles, inhabited by seals and scawops. The geologic formation is granitic, and it is to the gray igneous rock rather than the speckled barrow and druidical circles that is due the air of antiquity that broods over the archipelago; to the granite also it owes its grandeur, which finds its greatest expression in the cliffs of Peninnis Head, the crags of Kettlewell, the precipitous faces of Menawarr, and the great peaks of Menawarr, Great Gannilly, and Maiden Bower, the sphinx-like form of Mincarlo, and the magnificent caryatid of the tower of the Bishop. There is something very attractive about these rocky solitudes. Men who have been there once so there again, and again, as if drawn thither, and sang their songs of wistfulness. Why is it? Fragments of memories cling about the rocks, and the sea, and the sky, and the wind, and the water, and the rocks themselves, in their remoteness, their grimness, their defiance, in a sense of the separateness from human beings which the presence of the Bishop lighthouse does nothing to dispel. Sometimes a row of corals denotes a visit by the crabbers, who may well adventure to these reef-straw waters, for the southern isles and ledges are a favorite haunt of the shellfish, as are the tide races between of the pollock. And then, as if drawn west of the Bishop, is that strange long-lining ground, the Powhill, with its abundance of ling skags, turbot, and cod. The Powhill is not the true ocean bed, but the summit of a little land that rises abruptly from the great abysses of the Atlantic. The fishermen who believe that it once showed above the surface call it "The drowned island." Lyonesse might be applied to it.

Would Revive King's Jester Once More

London, June 13.—The house of commons was enlivened last night with questions in regard to the post laureate, which is vacant owing to the death of Alfred Austin. Arthur Lynch, the Irish member for West Clare, wanted to know the salary, perquisites and privileges attached to the office, and the nature of the duties required. The premier said the salary was $350 a year, with an allowance of $125 in lieu of a but of sack, but he did not know the exact duties of the office. Swift McNeil, another Irish member, suggested a revival of the post of king's jester, whereupon another member drew roars of laughter by asking the premier to consider the claims of Swift McNeil for the post. Captain Lynch wound up the discussion by promising to consider the claims of an intemperate deal of sack for a harpworth of poetry.

Another Victim of the Airship Mania

Chicago, June 13.—Andrew Drew, a Chicago aviator, fell 200 feet while making a test flight near the Lincoln hospital late yesterday and was instantly killed. When in the air but a short time Drew shut off his motor and the men at the aviation grounds saw a red tongue of flame dart from the machine. The flash of red at the rear of the machine increased, and Drew, evidently hoping to land in a field a half mile away, made an emergency dip in an effort to save himself. The biplane, hesitating for a moment, suddenly shot downward, careening as it fell. As the spectators ran across the fields to the wreck there was the sound of an explosion and the machine was torn apart. Drew evidently had landed on his head. His skull was fractured and both arms and both hips were broken.

"IMPERATOR" LARGEST VESSEL ON WAY ACROSS

Louis A. Conley was yesterday morning acquitted in the district court by Judge Carpenter on a charge of theft from the person. It was stated that he had taken from the hip pocket of John Eccles at Basano during the week a purse containing $50. At the conclusion of the evidence for the prosecution the judge said that the charge was dismissed. It appeared that it had only been a drunken prank and the result of a drunken spree. F. S. Selwood appeared for the crown and R. F. B. Aitken for the defendant.

London Illiterates. Among all the mysteries connected with the disappearance of the American millionaire, the most mysterious is the workman who discovered the pocketbook—and could read the contents. There are surely not many men in London who—having presumably been caught young by the school board—had not had the curiosity to keep up their smattering of letters. Letters which flash, twinkle, cadole and make all kinds of appeal from shop fronts, newspaper placards, tramcars. Good gracious! How does he pick his motor-omnibus on a bank holiday! It would be interesting to get the census of London's illiterates.

Canadian Judge at Privy Council. London, June 13.—Canadian appeals to the privy council, of which there are fifteen down for hearing, will be dealt with next month. Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, the chief justice, will visit London in order to sit with the judicial committee.

Lord De Villiers, chief justice of South Africa, and Sir Samuel Griffith, chief justice of Australia, have been sitting this week with Lord Haldane, Lord Moulton and Lord Shaw, hearing New Zealand appeals.

SAYS WOMAN SUFFRAGE WILL DECREASE CRIME

Washington, June 13.—Woman suffrage as a means of lessening crime was advocated here by C. E. Sebastian, chief of police of Los Angeles, in an address before the closing session of the annual convention of the International Association of Police Chiefs. Chief Sebastian declared that through suffrage recognition of police women in Los Angeles had been obtained and crime had been materially reduced. Suffrage, he added, had helped to break down the false modesty which had prevented public discussion of sex problems.

Poincare's London Program. Paris, June 13.—The London correspondent of "The Temps" states that he has reason to believe that the program of the visit of M. Poincare to London will be as follows: The President of the French Republic will arrive at Portsmouth on Tuesday, June 24, in the battleship Courbet, escorted by the Gloire, the Comde, and the Marsellaise. There will be no naval review, properly speaking, at Portsmouth. The President will simply sail through the lines of the Home Fleet.

Thursday morning a visit has been arranged to Winsor, and in the evening M. Poincare will attend a ball at Buckingham Palace. On Friday M. Poincare will leave for France, crossing from Dover to Calais in the Gloire. Commenting on the coming visit, Le Journal says it will be a brilliant manifestation of the Entente Cordiale, although it will create some surprise among the public, especially as King George has not yet officially visited Paris since his accession.

Prominent Mason Dies. Edmonton, June 13.—One of the most prominent Masons of Alberta died tonight in the person of J. J. Dunlop, deputy registrar of the land titles office. He had been ill for about a month. Mr. Dunlop was one of the old-timers of Edmonton, having come here 25 years ago. He was most worshipful grand master of Masons of Alberta in 1911.

DUFFY NOT CONVICTED

New York, June 13.—After deliberating twenty-five hours, the supreme court jury that tried Peter J. Duffy, a police sergeant, last night returned a verdict of acquittal. Duffy was paroled until today, when he will be required to furnish $5,000 bail pending District Attorney Whitney's decision in the matter of a new trial. Duffy was indicted as an alleged graft taker from Julius Roth, who ran poker rooms in Harlem.

The chief chess Grand Rapids Mich., as their next meeting place, and will discuss the following: President, Major Orchard Sylvester, Washington, superintendent of police; first vice president, Chief Michael Raegan, Buffalo, N. Y.; second vice president, Chief A. P. Sherwood, Ottawa, Ont.; secretary-treasurer, Harvey O. Carr, Grand Rapids; sergeant-at-arms, Chief Cassidy, Elmira, N. Y. Dialectic devices as a means of helping in the detection of crime were approved in a resolution adopted during the final session.

Paris, June 13.—The sinister influence of the anti-militarist propaganda now being carried on in France is illustrated by an incident which is reported today from Rheims. A soldier at the station remarked as his comrades as a train was approaching: "I will show you how to escape doing three years' service," and before he could be prevented he placed his foot on the rail and had his toes crushed to pulp. He was promptly removed to hospital.

A curious point in connection with the incident is that the man in question, who was attached to the army aviation section, recently enlisted of his own accord for three years.

THE END OF ENGHEN

(By John F. Macdonald)

By the handsome and excellent manager of 392, the French chamber of commerce has pronounced the doom of the gambling casinos with a verdict of sixty-three miles of Paris. I believe, however, that the newly-buried remains but a single casino, and that, therefore, it was this particular member of the chamber resolved almost unanimously to exterminate. And high was the shout for Enghien, the place hit by the new gaming bill, lies on the very threshold of Paris, a mere twelve minutes' train journey; and flashily lit Enghien, with its gaudy casino, has been a mischievous, demoralizing influence for many years past.

At no time was it "sympathetic." Until the dawn of the present century Enghien was a neglected suburb. Little, hideous little villas, dusty streets, a shabby old park, and an odorous lake. You might row on the lake, for sixpence an hour, in a tub of a boat, or, if a very small boy or a feeble, impoverished bourgeois, you might attempt to catch nothing. For not even the vilest and most staid little fish were caught in Enghien's stagnant lake, unless you were a fisherman, and you were awarded around it the park and the nightly playground of the lake, and a grove in a corner was used to mark the seat of an awful sulphurous spruce—the "Elkirk" of Enghien, said the Enghien advertisements, "it continues a large glass." Amongst other virtues, the "Elkirk" was supposed to cure "ALL" affections of the throat. And I remember heroically drinking of Enghien's sulphurous water—and I also remember being told by a pessimist that the spring was a myth, and that, in reality, the "Elkirk" came from the lake.

Perhaps the pessimist was right. On the other hand, I still live.

In the Toils

Suddenly, changes and changes at Enghien. The lake dragged and cleaned. War upon the bats and mosquitoes. A fine brand new grove for the "Elkirk." Flowers and summer houses for the park. Modern pensions, garages, hotels. And a large, gaudy casino—and roulette and baccarat—and a special railway service from Paris to Enghien—and, to quote the advertisements, "All the Pleasures of Ostend and Monte Carlo at Your Door."

Instantaneous success of Enghien—your door. The railway fare from Paris was a franc—so that the thrifty, small bourgeois exclaimed, "Alors, vote Enghien!" and went there forthwith and was exhilarated by the lights and the music, and soon found himself staking silver pieces on the tables.

For no visitor was too "small" for the Enghien Casino. Let everybody come, was the management's motto. You needn't play if you don't want to, but just come and see us. And how courteous were the croupiers, how charming the attendants—and if you lost your very last franc and couldn't pay your fare back to Paris, why—no need to worry—the management advanced it, "just as they do at Monte Carlo." Thus beheld M. le Bourgeois in the talk, and stout Mink in "four-geons" caught also; and, on Sunday afternoon, witness Enghien invaded by hosts of small people who had hither-to passed the Sabbath simply and pleasantly in the Bois de Boulogne, the Luxembourg Gardens, and the parks of Versailles and St. Cloud.

Roulette and baccarat at "Your Door." Inevitably, it was back to the door not only with empty pockets, but with obligations, miseries, perhaps disaster to face. Embellishments—because of Enghien. Prison, sometimes suicide—still through Enghien. Those disasters and tragedies the examining magistrates of Paris constantly and urgently reported to the government. "Enghien has become a plague-spot," stated a magistrate. "The government must act."

The Old—and the New

But the government and Messieurs les Deputes didn't act. Indeed, certain cabinet ministers and deputies were also to be encountered gambling at Enghien—and elegant Parisians and fashionable actresses, in a word, the social, literary, and artistic elite of the Amazing City. Then arrived ed-ventures from all corners of France. It was a favorable atmosphere for the cardsharp, for palmists and crystal-gazers, for the tout with the "infalible" system. The latter one met in the park, hawking his hand-book—"How to Win at Enghien" at five francs; and at once to the tables. The bank cannot fall to lose for the next two hours at least. In their tawdry, brittle hats—sleazy pastilles burning in corners—the crystal-gazers held forth. "Red will come up sixteen times in a succession. Your lucky numbers are 7 and 13. I can see a disastrous time ahead for the bank." But the tout invariably flourished—and Paris inevitably suffered.

Suffered so sensibly, so readily, so easily that the fashionable dress-makers and jewelers of Paris actually petitioned the government to close the Casino. "Our customers can't pay their bills, and there's a limit to credit," the shopkeepers protested. "All their money goes to Enghien. It is imperative the government should act."

But the government, like a small, simple Paris—was being devastated by the Enghien Casino. Examining magistrates were "notified" of elegant persons who had pledged or sold jewelry and furniture to get out for the night. The fashionable Paris restaurants were also doing badly. "The Tout" had finished, and, as a result, Enghien-at-the-Door. So more and more petitions to the government. The great and the small tradespeople of Paris up in arms against Enghien. Emotionally they demanded, "Is Paris to go bankrupt, is Paris to disappear, is Paris to die?"

Back to the Past

But at last, under compulsion, the government has "acted"—and it is Enghien, and not Paris, that is doomed to expire. Already there's a gloom about the place. Its toilette is neglected. For lack of its daily cleansing the lake is once again covered with green stuff. The pessimists and other charlatans are packing up; the special swift trains have been suspended; the Enghien management is searching and searching for a favorable site for a casino exactly and precisely sixty-three miles distant from Paris. "On ferme, on ferme." It is the End of Enghien—at the Door. Back to the past, to former, stagnant conditions. "On est ferme, rien ne va plus." Thick-er and slimmer the coating on Enghien's lake, and return of the bats and mosquitoes.

Literary Test for Immigrants

Washington, June 13.—The Burnett-Billingham immigrant bill imposing a literary test and drastic changes in the present immigration laws will be re-introduced today by Representative Burnett, of Alabama.

"I have made a poll of the new house," Mr. Burnett said, "and I find that it stands nearly 5 to 1 in favor of an immigration measure. The Senate, passed this bill over President Taft's veto in the last congress, but the house failed by a narrow margin. "The literary test clause of the measure would require immigrants over 16 years old to be able to read English or some European language or dialect."

Crowning at Winnipeg

Winnipeg, June 13.—Robert Hunter, 37, while swimming behind a boat rowed by a companion near the canoe club on the Red river, yesterday, was seized with cramps and sank before his companions could reach the spot.

French Service Bill

Paris, June 13.—The government scored a victory in the chamber yesterday in regard to the debate on the three years' military service bill. By the vote of 388 to 160 the chamber agreed to devote three morning and three evening sittings a week to the discussion of the bill in order to finish the debate before the holidays, which begin on July 24, the anniversary of the fall of the Bastille.

Can Stop Circulation Ten Minutes

Paris, June 13.—Surgical research has proved that operations in the thoracic cavity can be performed as easily as in the abdomen, according to Dr. Alexis Carrel, of the Rockefeller institute for medical research, New York. In the course of a lecture today at the Beaulieu hospital in Paris, the Nobel prize winner declared experiments on animals had demonstrated the heart to be an organ of very great elasticity and that it does not suffer harm if the circulation is interrupted for five or even ten minutes.

HEALTH AWAITS GOOD DIGESTION

When the Stomach is Wrong the Whole Body suffers—How to Keep It Healthy

Indigestion is one of the most distressing maladies afflicting mankind. The stomach is unable to perform the work nature intended it to do, and the result is extreme pain after eating, nausea, heartburn, painful flatulency, and a host of other troubles, and often a bathing of food, even though the sufferer is half starved. People with poor digestion are prone to try all sorts of experiments to aid the process of digestion, but there is only one way in which the trouble can be actually cured, and that is through the blood. That is why the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cures even the most obstinate cases of indigestion. They make the rich, red blood that strengthens the stomach and its pores, thus enabling it to do its work. The process is simple, but the result means a good appetite, and increased health and pleasure in life. Mr. R. Lussler, of Sorel, Que., offers ample proof of this. He says: "For several years I was a sufferer from indigestion, and the cure I suffered after meals was often almost unendurable. Often I would go without a meal rather than undergo the suffering that followed. Accompanying the trouble I had headache, dizziness, and often a feeling of nausea. All the time I was taking one medicine after another in the hope of getting relief, but without avail. Finally I read of the case of a similar sufferer cured through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to try them. I took the pills steadily for about six weeks with the result that I was fully cured, and could eat anything I cared for. I may add that I have not since had any return of the trouble."

If you are suffering from indigestion do not waste time experimenting, but begin to cure yourself today with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which go straight to the root of the trouble through the blood. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.00, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

DAMAGES REDUCED IN BREACH OF PROMISE CASE FROM NANTON

Counsel for Respondent in Collard Armstrong Case is Willing to Waive Claim to $14,000 of the Damages Which Were Awarded by Jury.

COUNSEL ATTACKS PRESS CHIEF JUSTICE DEFENDS

Appeal Goes On; Though Damages Are Much Reduced and Counsel for Defendant Asks for New Trial; Evidence Wrongfully Taken at Trial.

THE appeal in the Collard-Armstrong breach of promise case, noted for the fact that it was the first of its kind in Alberta, was opened in the supreme court en banc yesterday. The first few minutes of the appeal, which promises to be a long drawn out affair, were the only moments of real interest, and in that time the court showed itself adverse to going on with the case, while at the same time, on the suggestion thrown out to the counsel for the injured lady, they agreed to abandon the claim to greater damages than $6,000 and costs. The jury at the hearing awarded the sum of $20,000, unusually large for such a case.

Chief Justice Defends Press. Mr. McGillivray also tried to throw some of the blame for his non-success at the previous trial on the press, saying that the verdict was a sentimental one and had been induced by the press, the minds of the jurors having been prejudiced by the reports of the case appearing in the public press. The one answer to this line of argument, so often indulged in by counsel was given aptly by the chief justice, who said the minds of the jury were affected in the same way by the evidence as the press. The same tale had brought the double result.

Mr. McGillivray appeared for Martin Armstrong, the appellant, and for the respondent the counsel are George H. Ross, K.C., and J. M. Carson. At the outset there was shown from the bench a desire not to go on with the case and the long time which it would involve, there being over 800 pages of evidence being apparently wasted. Mr. McGillivray was asked if a reduction in the damages would not suit him, but though that was one of the pleas entered in the case for the appeal, he said that on other grounds he would be rested. After consultation with his colleague, he intimated that he was prepared to waive the claim to $14,000 of the sum awarded, thus leaving the sum of $6,000 with costs.

Story of the Case. Martin Armstrong, who is the defendant and appellant in the action, is a wealthy rancher at Nanton. The woman in question is named Collard and is from the old country. It was stated that the man had made two distinct promises of marriage to the girl, one in December, 1911, and the other in June, 1912. He had seduced the girl on both occasions and she was with child as the result. The case was tried before Mr. Justice Simmons with a jury and the sum of $20,000 awarded to the girl. Two weeks later she was married to a Mr. Lewis in Calgary and is now living with him as his wife. A child has been born since then. In the trial hearing F. H. Nolan appeared for the prosecution, and this was the last case in which he was heard, as he died shortly afterwards.

Appellant Asks Costs. Immediately after Mr. Ross had surrendered the large slice of the damages Mr. McGillivray asked that the respondents should be asked to pay the costs of the appeal on the ground that one of the grounds of the appeal, the costs being excessive, had been sustained. The opinion of the bench, however, was not with him on this matter, and it was stated that only if he stopped, there would be the costs to be allowed. If he took up other matters of appeal and used the appeal book he would have to pay his costs.

Mr. McGillivray then started on his address. He said it was a most unusual case, as it had been tried by the newspapers. The verdict was a sentimental one and had been induced by the press.

The chief justice, however, remarked that the jury had most probably been affected in the same way as the press and the same facts had led to the double result.

Mr. Justice Scott asked if there was not a photograph of the girl shown in the case. Chief Justice Harvey—"No; we have that protection." Mr. McGillivray said there was none, but it was conceded that she was very beautiful.

Mr. McGillivray then said he made the appeal on other grounds, which he held were sound in law. After relating the facts of the case, which of course he denied, he said that the court must not speculate on what would have happened if the trial had been gone on with along other lines. If they found something wrong they had but to order a new trial. He said that he would try to make a misconception of evidence and a wrongful address to the jury.

Objection to Letters. First of all, objection was taken to the inclusion of some letters in the evidence which were written nearly a year before the event complained of. Judge Beck suggested that as they were Old Country people they took longer to get along in such suits. Chief Justice Harvey said the letters were quite permissible as leading up to the proposal of marriage by a growing intimacy.

Mr. McGillivray said the letters were those of an egotistical man, who called himself by the name of the Great Mart, and they were written in a secular manner. The bench, however, seemed to think that the evidence was quite permissible.

Objection was then taken to character evidence, Mr. McGillivray quoting to show that only as contradictory evidence could such be entered in a case of the kind. Their lordships appeared to be of the opinion that the evidence was not produced primarily as character evidence, and only that of a secondary nature. In other instances the attorneys had not raised objection at the proper time.

The case will be resumed this morning, but it is not expected that it will be concluded today.

REAL ESTATE APPEAL IS HEARD IN COURT

Judgment was reserved in the appeal in the case of David A. Campbell vs. John Munroe, Emily Hallett and Ernest Nicholas yesterday morning. The action was one for specific performance by the plaintiff who was the assignee of a contract entered into between one Nicholas and the defendant Hallett and the defendant Munroe as guarantor. The agreement was entered into on February 20, 1907. This agreement was assigned by the plaintiff February 23, 1911, after certain payments had been made and the action brought for specific performance. W. H. McLaws appeared for the defendant and T. M. Tweedie, K.C., and C. M. Wright on the other side.

ACQUITTED ON CHARGE OF THEFT FROM PERSON

London, June 12.—The new Hamburg-American liner imperator arrived at Southampton yesterday afternoon en route to New York. Several hundred curious Britons went out in tenders to view the German product which takes away the Olympic title as the largest vessel in the world.

The lord-mayor of Southampton and his staff headed the delegation with the mayor's brother piloting the liner on her run to Cherbourg. As the Levithian came up the sea, the general remark was that she did not look as large as the Olympic on account of having only three stacks, and generally squatly appearance. She is not built on such graceful lines as the English boat. As she came nearer she was declared to be the dirtiest new boat ever seen. Her sides were scarred and rusted from her recent mishap after her trial trip, but within every thing was found shining and bright and the verdict was correct—"she is more sumptuously fitted than the Olympic, though perhaps not as majestically arranged."

WILL INVESTIGATE LIGNITE DEPOSITS

Dr. Francis Lewis, professor of biology in the University of Alberta, has been awarded a grant by the government grant committee of the Royal Society, London, in aid of the scientific expenses of an investigation of the coal seams and lignite deposits of the province of Alberta, with special reference to the fossil flora. Visits will be paid to all the chief deposits of coal and lignite in the province, and Dr. Lewis would be extremely glad if managers of mines and others would send him any information of nodules from the coal seams or mine roofs, with any specimens which may show signs of plant structures. This would greatly facilitate the choice of the most favorable localities for work. The specimens after investigation and determination will go to form a representative collection for the university museum.

Y.M.C.A. Convention in Edinburgh. Edinburgh, June 12.—The progress of the Young Men's Christian association in America engaged the attention of the delegates to the world's convention, in session here yesterday. National Secretary Payne, of Norway, showed that the European branches had gained 300,000 members in six years. Delegates from four countries asked the reason for America's superiority. Dr. J. G. Fisher answered with an address on the physical training in the making of Christian manhood. Lord Knaird requested a repetition of the address before the people of Edinburgh.

PANIC PREVAILS ON THE MOROCCAN COAST

London, June 12.—The unusual spectacle of thousands of national sharpshooters pouring murderous fire on the blue jackets on a stranded warship has been witnessed on the coast of Morocco. Conflicting reports have been received as to the fate of the crew of 100 Spaniards but one account says all but a few perished.

Some tribes in the Spanish zone in Morocco got out of control and several gunboats were dispatched to the vicinity. One of the vessels, the General Concha, went ashore in the Bay of Alhucemas during a fog and the Kabyle tribesmen opened fire on her decks. An official despatch from Alhucemas published in Madrid says that the crew was composed of 98 men. This message admits that the commander was killed.

That a serious situation faces Spain is clear from various messages received here. A despatch from Tetuan, received at Tangier, says that the resident general has issued an order prohibiting any one from appearing in the streets after 8 o'clock in the evening. Great panic prevails.

Auction Sale of Lots in GLEN LYON, Best Investment Property in Greater Vancouver, in Heart of New C.N.R. Development ::::

Sale Here at McCallum's Ltd., 806 3rd St. W., Today, June 14, Starting at 4.30 p.m. Sharp

Don't miss it, whatever else you pass up. Get one of the official pamphlets right away, and study the facts, so that you will be in a position to bid intelligently. Calgary will have a chance at the best of the lots in Glen Lyon, the property which, on the completion of the C. N. R. tunnel, will naturally be brought right into Vancouver. Do you appreciate the significance of this? When the C. N. R. tunnel through Mount Royal from Montreal to Model City was started, the future was discounted, with a resultant rapid increase of prices. The same will apply in Vancouver, and on the completion of the tunnel, which should be accomplished in less than two years at the rate of progress maintained in Montreal, and the Provincial Guarantee of the C. N. R. Bonds, which hinges on the work being finished in that period, the values should be as good as those that prevail in Grandview at the present day, namely, $2,000.00 per lot; or Fairview, $3,500.00 per lot, where it takes twenty and fifteen minutes respectively to reach, while Glen Lyon will take only twelve minutes from the centre of Vancouver. There is no guess work about this. Now is the time to buy in Glen Lyon, because the prices now are lower than they will ever be again, and there is absolutely no chance of losing unless Vancouver sinks into the sea.

GLEN LYON HAS NOW WATER, ELECTRIC LIGHT, TELEPHONES, ELECTRIC CARS, SIDEWALKS. Most Lots Cleared and Free from stones, ready for building. All good level lots. No gullies.

DON'T MISS THIS SALE. GLEN LYON IS THE ONE BIG OPPORTUNITY. You'll regret it if you don't bid on the 14th. Auction Sales for other portions of the property will also be held at Calgary, Medicine Hat, Moose Jaw, Swift Current, Regina, Brandon, Portage La Prairie, Winnipeg, Weyburn, Saskatoon, Yorkton, Edmonton, Lacombe and Lethbridge. The Markets

CHANGING WEATHER MAKES SLOW AND CALMER TRADING

CHANGING MARKETS

Winnipeg and Southern Grain Exchanges Report Fall and Rise

Stocks Bought in With Advantage in New York; Substantial Gains Made

Winnipeg, June 13.—The wheat market was entirely a question of weather, and prices fluctuated moderately in Winnipeg, and markets south of the line. At opening, values were all lower, on the scattered showers over the Northwest, but had a reaction soon after the opening, on reports of rainfall being more or less insufficient. Later the markets sagged on Liverpool, closing steady, and prospects of more rain, together with weaker continental markets.

Winnipeg opened 1-3c lower and closed 1-1/2c lower for both months. Minneapolis opened 5-8c to 1-2 lower for both months.

Chicago opened 1-3c to 5-8c lower, closed 5-8c to 3-4c lower.

The cash demand for all grades of wheat continues extremely dull and fair offerings, while exporters were doing nothing. It was claimed that the export trade would continue slow until the large stocks of Canadian wheat lying at American ports were closed up.

Cash prices closed 1-4 to 1c lower for contract grades.

Cash oats closed unchanged to 1-4c higher.

Receipts continue heavy, 354 cars being inspected Thursday, and 300 in sight.

More Low Records at Toronto

Toronto, June 13.—The local stock market again indicated today that outside influences have an important bearing on stocks. The market was quite buoyant early, but when the bidders here grew less enthusiastic Stocks failed to hold their top price. Brazilians topped 88 early, fell back to 87 by noon, but rallied 2-3 in the afternoon. Toronto rails, which was up to 140, got back to 128 1-4.

New low records in the year were made again today but they were not as numerous as they have been. Canadian General Electric sold at 106, ex-dividend, for the first time this year, and Canada Permanent also made a new for 1913 at 188 1-2 ex-dividend, and Bank of Commerce at 203 1-2 for a small lot, was shaded under its previous low, but these exhausted the list of lows. Elsewhere throughout the list, which was fairly active, gains were the rule.

Confidence is Restored on London Market

LONDON, June 13.—The fact that the worst pessimism as to the occurrence of the American crisis was concluded on the stock exchange today with only two small failures has done much to restore confidence here.

In addition to the better Balkan outlook and more confident continental buying, the tone of prices improved in all directions and despite profit-taking the markets closed firm and higher on balance. Consols finished an eighth better.

American securities opened steady and about unchanged. Prices improved during the first hour but later the upward movement halted and most of the list fell below parity under realising.

Chicago Wheat.

Chicago, June 13.—Much wanted rain that fell today lowered the price of wheat. The decline was 3-8c to 4-8c net. Oats lost 1-8c to 3-8c.

It was pointed out that he downpour to which Kansas and Nebraska was treated would be of immense value toward the final filling of the wheat crop in those states, but speculators attached even greater importance to fairly good showers extending through the western part of the Dakotas and the Canadian prairie. Need of a soaking for the eastern part of the spring wheat belt led to a spasmodic rally. The show of strength, however, was not lasting and the bottom figures of the day were reached just before the close. The market recovered in the northwest formed the chief reason for the late weakness. It was also noticed that primary receipts were three times as large as a year ago—471,000 bushels, against 217,000 bushels last year. Speculators were especially well offered what were freely seaboard clearances of wheat and flour equalled 451,000 bushels. Damage reports proved insufficient to sustain optimism when holders attempted to convert paper receipts into money.

The Advantages of the New Route:

- 1.—Patrons will be given their stateroom keys by the train agent of the Grand Trunk Pacific before arriving in Fort William, enabling passengers to go direct to staterooms on boarding steamers—no more long waits around purser's office.
- 2.—Ship stewards will meet trains and assist passengers and hand baggage to steamer.
- 3.—All city ticket offices hold both sleeper and boat space.
- 4.—You travel in new electric lighted sleepers with light in upper and lower berths. Electric lighted diners and coaches.
- 5.—Connection assured.
- 6.—Trains run alongside steamers at both Fort William and Sarnia.
- 7.—Boat special Sarnia to Toronto on arrival of steamer at Sarnia.

EMMA CARUS BOOMS THE BRACING AIR OF CALGARY

Madness Comedienne Declares She Believes Alberta a Healthy Spot

"I wish Calgary was a city of a million and I could stay here for an extended period," Emma Carus at the King George hotel last night. "This is the healthiest city I have ever known, and I will be doing a soubrette role instead of a prima donna part in my new production here this fall."

Miss Carus, recognized as the most popular musical comedy star on Broadway, will close a week's engagement here tonight at the Empire theater, and then continue on to fill four months of solid bookings on the same circuit. She appears in Medicine Hat Monday and Tuesday and will then return to Calgary to complete a business deal here on Wednesday, when she will remain in the city until Friday night and then leave for Spokane.

Accumulates Coal of Tar.

"Since being in Calgary I have taken automobile trips every day far out into the surrounding country and have marveled at the wonderful amount of bracing air in your 'Sunny Alberta'. I have accumulated a coat of sunburn which I will carefully husband and carry with me into United States territory as possible. I am so impressed with the prospects of the Canadian north-west that I have arranged to make a heavy investment here and will, in all probability, add to it from time to time."

"The lure of the northwest has affected me just the same as it has affected every other person who looks at the country with a steady eye. I will go back into the United States a regular walking advertisement for Alberta and the health and business I have found in Calgary."

Will Try Legitimate Next Year.

Carus has taken in Vancouver for the past ten years. During this time she has been the biggest favorite in New York and has never left the large eastern cities of the United States except for her yearly trips to Europe. For months at a time she has never left the one theater in New York.

Next season she will be again starred in a production under the management of Cohan & Harte in the Empire theater. This will mark Miss Carus' invasion of the legitimate field, her part calling for serious work since she has first become an American factor. She has made a host of friends during her week in Calgary and is assured of a rousing welcome if she looks back here next winter.

LAST DAY FOR ENTRIES AT BIG CALGARY FAIR

Entries for all classes of exhibits to be made at the Calgary Industrial this year are pouring into the offices at Victoria Park today. This is the last day for receiving entries and from the rate at which they are being received it looks as though there was to be a record number of exhibitors who will be on hand this year.

Entries will be coming along for the next couple of days, as entries which are not marked ready to be accepted, so it will be impossible for a little time to know just how many entries have been made. Dog facers are the only ones which are given a little more time to make their entries, and these will be received up to June 20, but not anything else; the official entries must be made today.

Chinese Cooking Methods (From Consular Trade Reports.)

The Chinese use very primitive cooking apparatus. The little open sitting houses found everywhere along the streets of the native city and along the wharves have the simplest kind of a furnace supporting a kettle. Chinese cooking is either boiling or broiling, and this kettle answers all possible purposes. In the Chinese houses a very thin cord of brick is placed over the fire and everything which the natives eat is cooked therein.

SEASON'S BEST BEAR STORY RESULTS IN BITTER WAR BETWEEN JOURNALISTS

Norman Rankin, General Publicity Man for C. P. R., in Danger at Hands of Bruce Cameron, Calgary's Advertising Pusher; Woman Starts Trouble.

War to the knife has been declared between Bruce Cameron, who directs the publicity offered by the city of Calgary, and Norman Rankin, general press representative of the C.P.R. department of natural resources. Mr. Cameron is the aggressor, and Mr. Rankin is liable to die at some early sunrise unless he makes full and abrupt apology.

The trouble, of course, arose over a woman, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Rankin and Mr. Cameron are old enough to know better. For once in history the woman is innocent of any wrong, at least the inference made by Mr. Rankin that Mr. Cameron resembled a grizzly bear started the trouble.

Recently Mr. Rankin received a letter from Mrs. C. Homer Jackson, of Calgary, Alberta, a contributor to Hiccup's magazine. The note asked for a photograph of a grizzly bear. Unable to supply the photograph, Mr. Rankin wrote a letter to Mr. Cameron, included in the letter was a sentence reading something like this: "I cannot supply the photograph, but believe that you will be able to fill the order."

Yesterday Mr. Rankin was forwarded a scathing letter over the signature of Mr. Cameron. In the letter Mr. Cameron declared that whenever he saw a grizzly bear, that he even danced the "grizzly bear" of sainted memory, that he had any of the habits of a grizzly bear, being a peaceable, home-loving man, not inclined to roam afar, and being almost a vegetarian.

Mr. Rankin will get the letter this morning. The next chapter in the drama is liable to make a tragedy out of one of the worst insults offered a capable journalist in many years. Mr. Cameron cannot bear to think of what he is going to do to Mr. Rankin.

LATER.

At midnight a bulletin was issued from the residence of Mr. Rankin announcing that he had received Mr. Cameron's missive through the mails. The bulletin, written in a thorough discussion of the word "bear" and declared:

"In the old days a man might be excused because he objected to being called a bear. But times change. Nowadays it is a compliment. (Name example. He's a bear!) It was the highest term at my command that I alluded to Mr. Cameron as 'being a bear,' and I am surprised at his lack of perception in gleaming this fact from the beautifully worded English of my communication to him. I still contend that Mr. Cameron is a bear, and there are thousands of harassed Sunday editors all over the world who will bear me out in this statement."

EMMA CARUS BOOMS THE BRACING AIR OF CALGARY

Madness Comedienne Declares She Believes Alberta a Healthy Spot

"I wish Calgary was a city of a million and I could stay here for an extended period," Emma Carus at the King George hotel last night. "This is the healthiest city I have ever known, and I will be doing a soubrette role instead of a prima donna part in my new production here this fall."

Miss Carus, recognized as the most popular musical comedy star on Broadway, will close a week's engagement here tonight at the Empire theater, and then continue on to fill four months of solid bookings on the same circuit. She appears in Medicine Hat Monday and Tuesday and will then return to Calgary to complete a business deal here on Wednesday, when she will remain in the city until Friday night and then leave for Spokane.

Accumulates Coal of Tar.

"Since being in Calgary I have taken automobile trips every day far out into the surrounding country and have marveled at the wonderful amount of bracing air in your 'Sunny Alberta'. I have accumulated a coat of sunburn which I will carefully husband and carry with me into United States territory as possible. I am so impressed with the prospects of the Canadian north-west that I have arranged to make a heavy investment here and will, in all probability, add to it from time to time."

"The lure of the northwest has affected me just the same as it has affected every other person who looks at the country with a steady eye. I will go back into the United States a regular walking advertisement for Alberta and the health and business I have found in Calgary."

Will Try Legitimate Next Year.

Carus has taken in Vancouver for the past ten years. During this time she has been the biggest favorite in New York and has never left the large eastern cities of the United States except for her yearly trips to Europe. For months at a time she has never left the one theater in New York.

Next season she will be again starred in a production under the management of Cohan & Harte in the Empire theater. This will mark Miss Carus' invasion of the legitimate field, her part calling for serious work since she has first become an American factor. She has made a host of friends during her week in Calgary and is assured of a rousing welcome if she looks back here next winter.

THREE KILLED, FIVE INJURED IN EXPLOSION IN VERNON

One Man Thrown Thousand and Others Badly Injured By the Shock

Vernon, B. C., June 13.—Three men were killed and five injured, some very seriously, in a premature explosion in a rock out near Naramata on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Those killed were Pietro de Mari, Camillo Alleno, and his brother Dominico. They were buried yesterday afternoon after an inquiry by Dr. R. B. White. The injured men are in Naramata hospital. So severe was the explosion that two of the bodies were not recognizable, and one was thrown a thousand feet. It is thought—though there are a number of theories—that the dynamite used was old, and that the nitroglycerine had separated, in which state, of course, it will ever explode in sunlight. Black powder was the base of the charge.

OBITUARY.

Oakes—The remains of the late Leonard Francis Oakes, aged 35 years, of Disbury, Alta., were forwarded from Graham & Thompson's funeral home, 611 Centre street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock to Disbury where interment will be made.

Funeral—The death occurred at the family residence, 116 Twenty-third avenue west of Innisbush, aged 70 years, beloved wife of Mr. John Hinton. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. R. B. White. A. McKillop, Interment will be made in Union cemetery.
