A patent for compressing teal in the minutes of the troubled water settled down. The old lady was hunting her snuff box, and the old man was sticking his four or five teeth into an apple, when he complacently remarked:

"You keep still! she warned. 'You'd make a nice spectacle here in your shirt sleeves, wouldn't you?"

"Hain't this a free country?"

"You keep right still!"

A patent for compressing tea has lately been taken out in England.

For the entire distance the country presents the appearance of a continuous sea on both sides of the river. A large farmer in Calusa Co. lost 20,000 sheep, 6,000 acres of wheat. The loss between Sacramento and Munroeville, in leves buildings, stock and crops, is $800,000, besides the decreased value of property. There is, however, a prospect of an enormous harvest, and much sediment has been deposited, which will renew the land worn by continuous or croppings.

Denick Control of the waters has returned to a young lady in Clappertown, Penn, atter a few years. On December 28, 1873, she met, on a railroad train, a lady who was very ill, and she kindly ministered unto her, taking care of her and accompanying her to her place of destination. When they parted the young lady for her kindness and attention, but she would take nothing. The old woman wrote down the name and address, nodded familiarly to her, and said, "You will be paid some day." The young lady never saw her chance acquaintance again, but the sum of $90, to the girl who had befriended her.

Principle Control of the waters has returned to a young lady in Clappertown, Penn, atter a few years. On December 28, 1873, she met, on a railroad train, a lady who was very ill, and she kindly ministered unto her, taking care of her and accompanying her to her place of destination. When they parted the young lady for her kindness and attention, but she would take nothing. The old woman wrote down the name and address, nodded familiarly to her, and address, nodded familiarly to her, and accompanying her to her place of destination. works are in progress for the extension of the dockyard, which will make that naval yard probably the finest and most important in the world. These works have been going on for several years, and four or five more are likely to elapse before all is complete. About 1,500 hands are employed, the majority being convicts. The extension consists of three immense basins, which will have a combined area of seventy-four acres, and four graving-docks sufficiently large to accommodate the largest vessel that is ever likely to be built. When finished, with all the stores, workshops, etc., erected, the new portion will be larger than the old yard, and, combined, the dockyard will have a river frontage of over three miles.

'What in thunder's that?' exclaimed Charles.

'Only Tommy on the wall,' sweetly replied Matilda.

Convinced at last that it was nothing worse, Charles began again:—

For three days last week serious doubts were entertained as to whether the waters of the boiling cataract would not cease running, such was the outlook in the river above and below the Falls. In the vicinity of Table Rock the river bed was perfectly dry for hundreds of yards towards the centre of the Horse Shoe Fall, and the icicles that remained clinging to the high precipice added grandeur to the novel sight. The river below, in the neigborhood of the Ferry, was at least 24 feet below high water mark, and the walk over the fine sandy pathway from the base of the huge staircase to the front of the American Falls was an unusual and very rare treat; for the oldest inhabitants positively delare that the river never was so low. This sudden change was attributed to the increased high winds from the north-east.
