A GREAT BRITISH SUCCESS

Operation Resulting in Capture of Hamel and High Ground in Vicinity is Described Officially as the Most Successful of its Kind in the War.

CIVIC EMPLOYEES DECIDE TO GO ON STRIKE TODAY

Large Majority of Well Attended Meeting Resolve to Fight Council on Wage Increase Issue.

This morning will see about 5,000 of the city employees idle. At a meeting of the Civic Employees' Union last night, when nearly a thousand were present, the decision to go out on strike was almost unanimous. The vote was by ballot, and according to the statement given to the press at the close of the meeting by W. D. Kennedy, president, the decision to go on strike was carried by a majority of more than 90 per cent. This will mean that work will be practically at a standstill in the following departments: Street cleaning, parks, waterworks, including pumping station, sewer department, septic tanks, roadways and the filtration plant. The headquarters of the union will be at the Labor Temple, and a strike committee was appointed consisting of the officers of the union: W. D. Kennedy, C. J. Mitchell, J. B. Reed, and Ben Brooks.

The meeting, which was closed to the press, was said to be most enthusiastic and loud cheers greeted the announcement of the result of the ballot.

The Civic Employees' Union has now 2,000 names on its roll, and Mr. Kennedy, president, also not communitarian, expressed the opinion that the union was strong enough to "hold its own."

Following the meeting Mr. Kennedy paid a visit to the Trades and Labor Council, and in a few words informed it of the decision.

"The men feel that they have done everything in their power to avoid inconveniencing the citizens of Toronto," he said. "And the fact that they have tried to meet the city council from January to June proves this. The whole responsibility now lies with the gallant members of the council who voted against their demands, the ten men who rule the majority of the city council."

The trouble is on account of the city council refusing to do two things: (1) To consider a board of conciliation, and (2) to grant payment dating from January 1 of the $2 per week increase, instead of from April 1. Thirteen weeks are included in the back pay, or $28 a man.

DUTCH CHAMBER EVENLY DIVIDED

Coalition Ministry is Probable as a Result of the Elections.

Amsterdam, Holland, July 4.—All the official returns have been received on the general elections. The indications are that the 100 members of the new chamber will be fairly evenly divided between the Left and the Right. The Right has already secured 50 seats—30 Roman Catholics, who include five seats, and 20 Calvinists. A coalition ministry in these circumstances seems certain.

The Liberal factions lost 24 seats, which loss is not balanced by the Labor gains of 24.

The Social Democratic Labor party was the strongest on the Left, with 42 seats. The other seats are split among a dozen small factions, among which is that of the Independent Socialists. The so-called Dutch Bolsheviks won two seats and will make their first appearance in the chamber. The only woman elected is a socialist, Minister Treub's economic league only secured three seats.

THREE THOUSAND ON STRIKE

There were present at the meeting 1,000 employees.

W. D. Kennedy, president of the union, says 90 per cent. of those present at the meeting voted for a strike.

The Civic Employees' Union has 2,000 names on its roll.

The increase in wages in dispute averages $26 a man.

The officers of the union are appointed a strike committee with headquarters in the Labor Temple.

Where Did the Nickel Seized by the U. S. Government Come From?

In The World of June 13 last, we reprinted the following news item taken from the American press and first printed in Canada by The Canadian Mining Journal:

Washington, May 21.—President Wilson has issued a proclamation pursuant to the terms of the Trading with the Enemy Act directing the alien property custodian to sell at private sale, with or without public or other advertisement, 279,232 pounds of nickel, the property of Hammar & Co. of Hamburg, Germany, and Stockholm, Sweden, and other enemies unknown. This nickel is now in possession of the American Dock Co., Tompkinsville, Staten Island, N.Y., where it was warehoused some time ago by the owners. Persons interested in the purchase of this nickel can learn further details concerning the time, place and terms of sale by addressing the alien property custodian, Washington.

In that article, The World asked where did this nickel come from? Was it nickel refined in the States from Canadian ore? We asked The Globe, The Star, The Telegram, Sir Thomas White, we asked those who had attacked The World for demanding a full investigation of the Canadian nickel situation ever since the war began, those who had abused members of parliament in public meetings for daring to question the good faith of the International Nickel Company, that got all its nickel ore from Canada, or the good faith of its members and officers of the governments at Ottawa and Toronto who had declared that nickel from Canadian ore, refined in the States, had not, and could not have, fallen into German hands.

But we got no answer to our question. No paper, no public man would answer. That question which the people of Canada have a right to know, that question which the men that we have sent to the front have a right to know, which their relatives and fellow citizens have a right to know, has not been answered. We made the demand just three weeks ago!

But we have seen certain letters from the Alien Property Custodian, an official of the government of the United States whose office is at Washington, an official who is now seizing millions and millions of dollars of German-owned property of all kinds located in the United States, much of it articles like cotton, lead, copper, nickel, etc. This is the officer who handled this nickel in question. Let us quote from these letters:

ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN,

Washington, D.C., June 24.

Sir: We have your letter of June 10 asking for information regarding 279,232 pounds of nickel, property of Hammar & Co. of Hamburg, Germany, and notice that there has been a notice of sale of this material in The Canadian Mining Journal.

This nickel has already been sold for disposition by the United States War Department.

Yours very truly,
F. J. Horne,
Director of Bureau of Trusts.

ITALIANS GO ON GAINING GROUND

War Office Reports Further Gains Made Near Cavazuccherina.

FRANCO-BRITISH HELP

More Than 200 Prisoners and Large Quantity of Supplies Taken.

Rome, July 4.—In their offensive movement begun on Tuesday along the Lower Piave front, near the Adriatic, the Italians continued to gain ground yesterday. The war office announced today that additional progress had been made by the Italian forces north of Cavazuccherina.

The work of destroying machine gun nests secreted in houses and behind the embankments in the coastal zone has been effectively continued.

In continuation of their operation in the mountain area the Italians enlarged their position in the region of the San Lorenzo Valley.

In the fighting on the Piave front 223 prisoners were taken, together with machine guns and much war material.

British and French detachments penetrated Austro-Hungarian trenches on the Asiago Plateau and returned with a number of prisoners. The text of the statement reads:

"In the coastal zone our methodical destruction of numerous machine gun nests hidden in houses behind the embankments has been continued. We gained more ground north of Cavazuccherina. We captured 223 prisoners, including officers, and took several machine guns and a large quantity of material."

"Astride the Brenta River we enlarged and bettered our occupation at the end of the San Lorenzo Valley and on Monte Corone."

"On the Asiago Plateau British and French parties penetrated enemy trenches at Canove and Bertigo and captured prisoners."

"In the course of the last two days our bombardment flights dropped about 15,000 kilograms of bombs on important centres and cross roads of the enemy."

"On the lower Piave troops and transports were attacked with machine gun fire at a low altitude. One of our airmen effectively bombarded a railway junction in the Sugana Valley."

VON KUEHLMANN SURE TO RESIGN

Germany Said to Be Considering Agreement With Allies to Stop Air Raiding.

Amsterdam, July 4.—German newspapers report the rapid spread of Spanish influenza in Bremen, Hamburg, Hanover, Cassel and other cities. The Frankfurter Zeitung says that some factories in Frankfurt have from one-third to one-half of their workers absent because of the disease.

The resignation of Dr. Richard von Csermann, the German foreign minister, is said to be virtually certain by The Rheinische Westfaelische Zeitung of Essen.

Rumors are revived that Germany is considering an attempt to reach an agreement with the allies to continue air raiding to towns within the zone of operations.

Vienna despatches to the Dutch press hint that former Premier Csermann is again coming to the front. He has had a long audience with Emperor Charles, after which he conferred with the premier, Baron Burian.

MEIGHEN DENOUNCES GERMAN OUTRAGE

Better the Whole World Should Perish Than These Murderers Should Live.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.
London, July 4.—Hon. Arthur Meighen seconded the resolution of greeting to the United States, proposed by Winston Churchill, at today's immense gathering for the celebration of Independence Day at Westminster. Mr. Meighen said:

"I second the motion not as a Canadian but in the larger enduring right as a member of the British Empire. I wish I could interpret to this vast audience the feelings which must dominate the dominions today. A week ago a German submarine commander torpedoed on the high seas the hospital ship chartered by our government, laden only with messengers of mercy. Upon this ship were nurses from Canadian homes, faithful devoted women, who thru these past years had ministered to that commander's fellow-countrymen, nursing them back from agony to health. These ministers he overran on the high seas, sending them to their death. Better the world should perish than that these murderers should live. (Cheers). That is the spirit of Canada; it is the spirit of the British Empire."

"One million Americans have crossed the Atlantic to translate that spirit into deeds. It is the first million only that have crossed. (Laughter and cheers). Let us have from now onward if we never had before the highest efficiency. Generations unborn will bless the generations of today and will reap the long reward of our suffering and of the union which will be the result of that suffering."

ROSS RIFLE FACTORY WILL BE REOPENED

Taken Over by New Company Which Has Received Large Revolver Order From U. S.

Quebec, Que., July 4.—The factory formerly occupied by the Ross Rifle Company will be reopened in September by the North American Arms Company, Ltd., a very large order for the manufacture of revolvers for the United States army having been received by the new company, which has just obtained a charter from the Dominion government and is capitalized at $2,000,000, the head office to be in Quebec. It is a purely Canadian company, the officers being: President, T. A. Russell, Toronto; vice-president, H. D. Scully, Toronto; and Thomas Craig, former general superintendent of the Ross Rifle Company, has been appointed general manager and is also on the board of directors.

The contract is to be completed by Dec. 31, 1919, and it is said that the maximum number of employees will reach 5,000.

Haig's Report On the Battle

Objectives Taken and Held and the Operation Was Entirely Successful.

London, July 4.—Field Marshal Haig's report of this battle and other events along the British front says:

"The operation this morning south of the Somme was completely successful. It was carried out by Australian troops, assisted by some detachments of American infantry and supported by tanks. Our objectives were taken and held, and we have gained possession of the woods of Vaire and Hamel, as well as the Village of Hamel."

"In conjunction with this operation, an attack by Australian troops east of Vire sur Ancre, was completely successful, and our line was advanced five hundred yards on a front of 1200 yards."

"The prisoners captured by us in these operations exceed 1000. Many machine guns, as well as other material, have also been taken."

"On the rest of the front there is nothing of interest to report."

GERMANS SAID TO BE CONSIDERING AGREEMENT WITH ALLIES TO STOP AIR RAIDING.

ACQUITTED FOR FORGERY.

Montreal, June 4.—Charged with having forged half a dozen checks worth in all $1,705, Stuart P. Harkness, who stood in the dock in Quebec, was today acquitted by Judge Beel who dismissed the case on the ground of insufficient corroboration of the main facts.

YOUR SUMMER VACATION.

The crowd is moving towards the summer resorts, and you no doubt are going to join it before the season opens. There is always a crush inside, but there is a lot of comfort outside in the sunshine if you are properly hatted. A Panama hat is the real thing, and the fact that the Dineen Company is making some rare offerings should tempt you to visit the store today. A new shipment of Panamas at $5.00 each, and others $8.00, $10.00, $12.00, $15.00 and $20.00, all extra good value. Make a point to visit Dineen's, 140 Yonge street, today.

Here's What They Did

French	British
Paris, July 4.—French troops last night attacked the German lines on a front of a mile and a quarter in the neighborhood of Autrech, northwest of Soissons, and pushed into the enemy territory for a distance of nearly half a mile, according to today's war office announcement.	With the British Army in France, July 4.—Australian troops attacked the German lines northeast of Villers-Bretonneux, on the Somme front, this morning, and beside taking Hamel Village, are said to have battled their way forward beyond Hamel and the Vaire woods, between Hamel and Villers-Bretonneux.
Later the French delivered another attack in the same region, between Autrech and Moulin-sous-Toutvent, giving them further gains of territory. The entire operation netted the French a gain of ground on a front of more than three miles to a maximum depth of approximately three-fifths of a mile. The French took 1,066 prisoners.	To the north of this region, between Autrech and the Ancre, another smashing blow was struck by British troops, which advanced the front line 400 yards along a width of 1200 yards. Several hundred prisoners were taken in the advance.
The statement follows: "North of Montdidier, between Montdidier and the Oise and on the right bank of the Meuse, the French carried out several raids, bringing back prisoners."	The Australians went over the top in the early morning behind a fleet of tanks, which led the way into the hostile territory. It was a difficult task which they had before them, for the Germans were holding the Village of Hamel and the Vaire and Hamel woods with strong forces. The hamlet and the little forests, all of which lie on comparatively high ground, were choked with machine guns, while a large concentration of German artillery was trained along this sector.
"Between the Oise and the Aisne at 7.30 o'clock last night French troops attacked the German lines west of Autrech on a front of two kilometers (1.14 miles) and made an advance of about 300 metres. Later in the evening a new attack was made in the same region, between Autrech and Mont-sous-Toutvent, at the moment when the Germans were preparing a counter-attack. The French made a further gain of ground. The entire advance, which extended on a front of five kilometers (3.1 miles) reached a depth of 1,200 metres at certain points."	The assaulting forces in their attack, against the German positions along the four-mile front between Villers-Bretonneux and the River Somme appear to have stormed their way thru approximately one mile and a half into enemy territory. As a tribute to America the Australians had designed their drive as a fourth of July attack, and today was set as the time for the operation, as it was the American anniversary.
"The number of unwounded prisoners taken in the course of these operations is 1,066, including 18 officers. One of our battalions alone took more than 500 prisoners."	At another place in the British area, American engineers, who have done gallant work for many months for the British, were receiving decorations for valor.
Quiet Thru the Day. The official statement issued by the war office tonight reads: "With the exception of some activity on the part of the opposing artilleries between the Oise and the Aisne and in the region of St. Pierre-Aigle during the course of the day, there is nothing to report."	The text of the statement reads: "This morning we carried out a successful operation between Villers-Bretonneux and the Somme, and the Village of Hamel has been captured and our line has been advanced to an average depth of 2000 yards."
"Eastern theatre, July 3: West of the Vardar an enemy bombardment of our new positions at Srka Di Legen, in which poisonous gases were used, provoked a retaliatory fire from our artillery upon enemy positions and batteries. In the Albanian sector near Ostrovitza, an Austrian detachment and a band of Albanians which attacked to surprise one of our units was dispersed in disorder, leaving arms and material in our hands."	At the end of the day, the British and Australian forces were in a position to take Hamel Village with their tanks and machine guns, were passed thru as the Australians were doing a practice charge for their commander, and a line of enemy trenches east of these strongholds was cleaned out and axes were used.

Australians Storm Their Way Thru the Bewildered Germans

With the British Army in France, July 4.—Complete success crowned the splendid surprise attack made by the Australians at dawn today against the Germans between Villers-Bretonneux and the Somme. The enemy was taken entirely unaware, and the big-tracked fighters from Australia stormed their way thru the bewildered gray coats with little opposition—a veritable human tornado which left a wake of death behind it.

Hamel Village was rushed and taken in a short order. Vaire and Hamel woods, with their nests of crackling machine guns, were passed thru as the Australians were doing a practice charge for their commander, and a line of enemy trenches east of these strongholds was cleaned out and axes were used.

About 1500 prisoners were in the British cages this afternoon, while out on the battlefield great numbers of the German Emperor's men lay silent in the brilliant sunshine which could bring them no cheer.

Gained Valuable Ground, about an hour and a half to complete their work, and at the end of that time they had, with exceedingly light casualties, wrested from the enemy a strip of territory four miles wide and averaging a mile and a half deep. By this operation they eliminated a salient in the British line and gained valuable high ground.

The Australians went over the top behind a large number of tanks, which were to pilot the way. Two minutes before that hour the British artillery all along the sector dropped a tremendous barrage, vulnerable to the German defenses from guns of all calibres.

This was the first warning the enemy had of impending trouble. Not a word concerning the attack had penetrated to the other side. Even the great uncouth tank, which the British eliminated a salient in the enemy being aware of their presence.

The Tanks Go Out. The first of their assaulting force were beginning to light the rolling valley of the Somme as the adventurous Australians went forward. A dense smoke barrage was sent against the German lines, and thru this concealing shroud the tanks began to crawl swiftly into action.

Behind their great engines of war, and even riding on top of them, were the irrepressible Australians, grinning their delight at the prospects of another good fight. They were a flurry of rifle fire from the startled enemy and hostile machine guns began to chatter viciously as they poured their dimly lighted No. Man's Land toward the oncoming bank of smoke, which concealed, they knew, many a man.

The German artillery, too, began to reply to the British gunners in an attempt to stem the attack. But the hostile fire was without effect.

The guns of the tanks opened up and began to hurl explosives into the enemy's defenses. The Australians charged on with their iron friends, and as they went they found the going easier. The enemy infantry declined to face the tanks, but the German khaki-clad men from the far lands, who fought like demons and staked their lives as they would a spence on the green cloth.

German Surrender. All along the line Germans began their frenzied calling of "Kamerad, Kamerad." Many of them were unfortunate comrades were falling in great numbers before the fire of the tanks and the play of the Australian rifles and beyond the seventy-seventh German battalion commander and nearly all his battalion were rounded up and sent on their way to the rear. Three German divisions were opposite the Australians—the thirteenth, which had just been brought to the sector from the north, the forty-third and the seventy-seventh. Despite their strength, however, they were unable to make any show of withstanding the attack.

At only one point the enemy held the attacking troops up, and then only for a brief time.

Another Gain Made. Just north of this attack between the Ancre and the Somme, a minor operation was in progress. Here the British made one small attack and two raids, which meant the enemy's boiling. This attack, the small, proved a great success, and the British advanced their line 400 yards in addition to capturing a considerable number of prisoners.

The German artillery was shelling Hamel this afternoon, but at latest reports no counter-attack had developed, and the Australians were consolidating their new positions.

Difference in Tag Cases Suspicious of Graft to Rise. During the "tagging," which was carried out yesterday an old gentleman had a tag pinned on him and after he had worn it for a while he noticed that it was different from the rest he saw on other people. After closer examination he found that it was a tag for much the same purpose as the one that had "Grimsby Beach" embossed on it. Quite confident that there was "krak" somewhere he carried it to the doctor for examination. The authorities, however, were under the impression that the tag came from the manufacturer with tags ordered on the tag day here, and that it had been pinned on him by the young woman who probably did not notice the slight difference in the tags.

SULTAN OF TURKEY DEAD. Amstern, July 4.—Mohammed V, sultan of Turkey, died at 7 o'clock last night, says a Constantinople dispatch received here today by way of Vienna.

CHARGED WITH THEFT. Charged with the theft of a brass torch from David A. Dixon, 61 Temple Building, Arthur Brodie, 611 Dundas street, was arrested by Detective Walter McConnell of Court street station last night.

THREE ARE ARRESTED ON THEFT CHARGES. On two charges of shopbreaking and one of the theft of a motor car, Jack Wilson, 205 George street; Henry H. McCosham, no address, and Leo Soucie, 215 Yonge street, were arrested by Detectives Crombe and Mulholland of the detective office last night.

NO LIGHT IS THROWN ON WATCHMAN'S DEATH. After a few minutes' deliberation last night at the morgue the jury panelled to investigate the circumstances surrounding the death of Thomas Browning, 42 Berrford road, who was found lying in an unconscious condition on the floor of the cooling house of the Swift Canadian Company's plant on the morning of June 26, from injuries received to his head, returned with an open verdict, as follows:

"We, the jury, find that Thomas Browning died at his home on June 26 from injuries received to his head in some unknown manner while performing his duties as night watchman at the Swift Canadian Company's plant."

One of the witnesses was confident that there had been foul play and was under the impression that the man had been struck from behind by someone unknown who was trying to steal some dressed chickens from the cooler. The jury, however, was not supported by other witnesses.

In his address to the jury Coroner G. W. Russell pointed out that the case was a most proper medical attention, and that a doctor had not been called after he was found lying on the floor. He was removed, the doctor said, to his home in a wagon belonging to the firm. Death was due to the formation of a blood clot under the skull.

VLADIVOSTOK HELD BY CZECHO-SLOVAKS. Washington, July 4.—Diplomatic advices received today from Vladivostok said the city was quiet, with Czecho-Slovak troops in complete control of the city, and that the Russian garrison occupying the principal government buildings.

At the same time that the British, French and Americans were attacking the German lines, the Italians continued to advance in the area near the mouth of the Piave. Scattered machine gun emplacements have been cleaned out, while light boats from the Italian navy have entered the lagoons on the left flank of the Austrian army and given valuable assistance to the land forces. The Italians have also won ground in the San Lorenzo valley, east of the Brenta River.

Announcement is made that Mohammed V, sultan of Turkey, died on Wednesday night. The heir to the throne, Yusuf Izzeddin, cousin of the sultan, and a son of the late sultan, Abdul Aziz.

Fighting between the German-Soviet forces and the peasantry is reported in Ekaterinburg, the city in eastern Russia, where the main line of the trans-Siberian railroad is joined by the branches of the road running to the east and south. It is reported recently that the Czecho-Slovak troops were in control at Ekaterinburg, and it is said that an army of 200,000 peasants, well armed, has been formed there.

The French have also struck savagely against the German lines, this time cutting thru the enemy ranks near the Town of Attreches, south of Moulins-sous-Touvent, where on Tuesday night they won a local success and captured prisoners. Here the Germans lost 1,066 prisoners.

In both operations the allies have improved their positions by gaining rather high ground, which can be

GLEN GROVE WOMEN PROTEST TO BOARD

Object to Present Scheme of Provision of School-Room There.

At the board of education last night Miss Constance Boulton charged the opponents of the immediate adoption of a scheme for an extension of domestic science and manual training, with being unprogressive. England was devoting two hundred million dollars, declared Miss Boulton, to this feature of education under the Fisher bill. The committee proposed the appointment of a supervisory board, and for elementary instruction in domestic science through the grades.

Trustee Edmunds said that the breaking point in school expenditures had almost been reached in Toronto. Uplier present conditions not one extra dollar should be spent for even the most excellent of extras with the high war taxes and other burdens of the war. The new plan called for 108 additional teachers. This was no time for increased expenditures.

Dr. Hunter said that the plea of poverty for retaining an antiquated system was not well based as the system with their motor cars and other expensive habits demonstrated. Mrs. C. A. Courice said that the present system of fitting up centres was more expensive than proposed by the special committee she modified the report to a proposal that a centre be equipped in Williamson road for manual training and domestic science centre.

The board suddenly stopped debating by agreeing to accept the report as an opinion of the special committee with respect to the policy for the city at large.

The proposal for the equipment of the manual training and domestic science centre at Williamson road was also adopted.

Dr. Hinkler caused a stir by moving that during war time no perquisite should be granted to retiring chairmen. This had the money saved for the silver fund devoted to the purchase of new flags for the schools.

The trustees eulogized the flag, but regarded the motion as too far-fetched to be adopted. It was almost unanimously voted down.

A deputation of women from Glen Grove made a protest against the erection of a wing for a school building, and asked for a $70,000 complete school for the education of almost 400 children in Williamson road.

It was decided to send a deputation to London, Ont., to inspect the Ryerson school, with a view to the adoption of the same plan for Glen Grove school. The deputation will visit the London school early next week.

Dr. Noble and Dr. Hunter protested against the approval of apartment houses by the city council, and a resolution was adopted suggesting the erection of the erection of family houses.

Trustee Thompson's motion was unanimously adopted, that all male pupils in public schools be instructed to salute all returned soldiers when meeting them in public places.

Miss Annie Eubanks was appointed to the principalship of Glenholme school.

ONE MAN IS DEAD; OTHERS IN CUSTODY. Joseph Hughes, 67 Mores street, is dead, and Samuel Pearsall, 21 Howard street, appeared in the police court yesterday morning on a charge of manslaughter, as the result of a motor car accident early yesterday morning at the corner of Danforth and Moscow avenues. Two other occupants of the car were arrested and appeared in the court on a charge of being drunk. They were Charles Williams, 233 Sherbourne street, and James Armstrong, 87 David street. All three were remanded until next Thursday.

The theory of the police regarding the accident is that the machine was being driven west on Danforth avenue. Just east of Moscow an excavation has been made, reaching from the curb almost to the street car tracks. It is thought that the machine swerved to avoid the barricade around the opening and, turning again, crashed into a transmission line post on the west side of the excavation and upset. The car was badly damaged.

Hughes was a married man, and leaves, besides his widow, four small children. He was a candy maker for the Laura Secord Candy Company, and was one of the survivors of the Llandovery Castle, was summoned to Buckingham Palace today to give King George an account of the disaster. The king was most sympathetic and kindly, asking many questions of the young man.

Sergeant Knight afterwards related what he had told the king. His story is interesting, for it throws light on the loss of the nursing sisters. He was in a boat with the other survivors and a crew of nine. He said: "Our boat struck a davit and there was 'way' of about 14 knots on the sinking ship. I broke all our oars in trying to keep the boat clear of the ship and finally managed to get away and drifted rapidly past the Llandovery Castle's stern. The deck of the vessel was almost awash as we passed and as she sank our boat was capsized and sucked under."

He saw some things pitched out and that was the last of the boat as far as I am aware unless what I caught a glimpse of later was the same boat. I was in a boat with the other survivors and a crew of nine. He said: "Our boat struck a davit and there was 'way' of about 14 knots on the sinking ship. BRERAITY BECOMING EVERYDAY OCCURENCE

"Over there" in France bravery is the rule, not the exception, and as it is heard about it is merely suggestive of what is being done on a gigantic scale. The following incident, related by a soldier recently returned to his home on Lansdowne avenue, is another testimony to the universally admitted spirit of the Canadian troops.

March 22, 1918, when a scratch battalion was hurriedly gathered together and sent out to stop the advancing foe, Canada's contribution amounted to four-hundred men, who represented practically every branch of the Canadian army. They were stopped at a certain point in France, where they were to hold a line of defence. The Canadian troops were equipped with a couple of hundred rounds of ammunition each. Naturally the Germans were expected to get in the centre of the line. The battalion was ordered to hold its position until it was about fifteen yards from the line, and then to sweep the parapet. The right flank fell back, so did the left, but the Canadian troops held their ground. The right flank fell back, so did the left, but the Canadian troops held their ground. The method of transportation between Toronto and Leaside has for long been a live topic of discussion among the thousands of munition workers, soldiers in camp and residents of the municipalities of Leaside. The present means of conveyance being inadequate and unsatisfactory.

The Leaside Munition Works employ 8500 men and women, who are daily carried to and from the city by a workmen's train of eleven cars, which leaves West Toronto (Older avenue) at 6:55 each morning, stopping to take on workers at Bathurst street and North Toronto, arriving at the plant at 7:15. On the return journey it carries back the workers of the night shift. In the evening it carries back the workers of the day shift, taking the night shift back to work and picking up at the plant the day shift when they come off work.

It takes one hour to do the two miles, and it is more often 7:30 than 7 when we reach the city, said an official of the munition works to a reporter for The World yesterday, who added that it was not the fault of the trainmen, but as the congestion of freight cars and other traffic along the railroad, which caused the delay in returning home at night. "It is not the munition company," he said, "which is to be blamed. The management pays $180 a day for train service, and the work people are well paid."

An extra service is also given by the munition works of two motor buses to take the plant and Young street during the day, when employees are carried free of charge.

The most unsatisfactory condition of the transportation problem is the jitney service, which starts from Parkhurst street, where the jitney cars are usually 25 cents each person. When fares are few, which is usually in the late forenoon, passengers are delayed until the full complement of four or more is secured. Many times passengers wait over one hour before the full number is secured. It is the intention of a number of the jitney owners to lower their fares to Canada, which is the most direct and most beneficial to the residents of North Toronto.

Another large work of construction is the local terminal yards of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Leaside, which is at present well advanced, and when completed will cover nearly fifty acres, comprising a host of office buildings, a stock and repair shops, turntables, water towers and yards, all of which will be staffed by a large number of men, who will also require transportation.

The resident population of the municipality is about 500, and with a working population of 8500, and soldiers in camp, a total of over 4000 people, not taking into consideration the crowds of visitors to the section daily, make the Town of Leaside one of the most important in the Province of Ontario, and its transportation facilities a matter of the utmost importance.

"I consider the future prospects of Leaside good, and the inauguration of motor buses a move in the right direction," said the Mayor of Leaside yesterday.

The only logical solution to the transportation situation is the construction of a street car line to link up the city with Leaside, which is a prominent feature of the Leaside Munition Works. This plan, which was originally erected for the plant and Young street during the day, when employees are carried free of charge.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Leaside. The regular meeting of the Leaside branch of the Great War Veterans' Association, was held on Thursday evening at Belmont Hall, West St. Clair avenue. President James Crowder in the chair.

A resolution was unanimously passed disapproving of the action of the imperial munitions board aviation construction department in employing Austrian aliens on the aviation dump and asking that the imperial munitions board take the necessary steps to put a stop to it.

It was also stated at the meeting that the police periodically were being employed by the imperial munitions board. This was strongly condemned by the veterans.

A vote of thanks was passed to Sergeant Barclay for making and distributing the books of the association.

Letters were read from headquarters regarding the status of members of the association eligible for membership. A letter was also read from the Toronto Street Railway, stating in the case of the returned soldier who had complained of discourteous treatment on the street cars should be investigated.

Local plans for housing delegates at the forthcoming convention were also discussed. There was a large attendance.

Phonograph Presented to Children's Home. An Edison phonograph with a number of records has been presented to the Earlscourt Children's Home in connection with the Earlscourt Children's Home by Mrs. Frank Cable, of West St. Clair avenue.

Miss Inghen is mistress of the home which takes care of soldiers' children whilst the mothers are out working. Some of the little ones have lost their soldier-fathers at the front and are now cared for by the mother's relatives. Mrs. Inghen is a member of the Earlscourt Children's Home.

Business Men Will Discuss Alien Problem. There is to be another meeting of the Earlscourt business men tomorrow to discuss the alien question as it affects business in the district. The Earlscourt fair play is asked for the foreign business element who have mistaken the enemy alien question at a reflection on themselves, also the distinction has been carefully explained, both at past meetings and in the press. R. Macnicol, president of the British Imperial Association, will preside.

Taggers Do Well. Earlscourt responded liberally to the C.A.A.C. tag yesterday. The district was carefully canvassed and a house-to-house call made. Mrs. Northcott, Mrs. Syme and a large number of girls.

Suffers Slight Stroke. R. Macdonald Russell of Earlscourt, avenue and one of the original members of the British Imperial Association, has suffered a slight stroke of paralysis and is lying ill at his home. Mr. Russell was one of the original members of the Earlscourt branch, and has been a member of the division at the front.

Women's Auxiliary Silver Anniversary. A meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of Grace Methodist Church, Brampton, was held in the schoolroom of that church Wednesday afternoon. The members celebrated the silver anniversary of the auxiliary by making Miss Clara Neelands, one of the first members, a life member. She is the third life member created as a memorial to this occasion, the other two being Mrs. E. G. Graham and Mrs. E. G. Graham, one of the original officers of the Brampton branch, and Miss Eliza Neelands, who was the first medical missionary.

The former was made a life member of the mission board, and the latter was made a life member of the mission board. The branch which started with 48 members now has 72 life members. The auxiliary raised $517 for missionary purposes last year.

Aviator Suddenly Dives From Clouds. Brampton had a visit from a motor pilot Tuesday that brought a crowd together very quickly. The plane was noticed at a very high altitude, and as it descended and came straight to earth. Some people were being watching the drop hurriedly to the south shore of the river where they found the supposed casualty walking about and talking to some acquaintances. It proved to be a pilot, Ernest Armstrong, son of James Armstrong, of West York, with a cadet whom he was instructing, and he said that the acro-meter stood at 4500 feet when he made the theatrical dive.

Trillions of Bacteria. The window of the department of agriculture bears a card today announcing that the people of Brampton drank 514,284,710,000 bacteria in their milk during the month of June.

Brampton Bowlers Win. Thistles of Toronto came out Wednesday afternoon and bowled three pins against three of the home club. The skips were E. G. PORT CREDIT FIRE CAUSES BIG LOSS

St. Lawrence Starch Company Suffers Damage to Extent of $100,000.

No. 1 Plant Burned. Less Than an Hour Sufficient to Make Building a Wreck.

At 3:30 yesterday afternoon fire broke out in No. 1 plant of the St. Lawrence Starch Co. Ltd., at Shop 31, Lake Shore road, and within forty-five minutes the building was a wreck, which means a loss of about $100,000 in buildings and machinery.

Hoop was rushed from the Goodyear factory and Brown's Rolling Mills, at New Toronto, also from the Mimico waterworks, and within ten minutes after the alarm sounded six streams of water were playing on the fire, which blazed furiously.

Shortly after four o'clock the building collapsed, and the volunteers who directed their efforts towards saving the warehouse and office building, which stood a few feet from the burning structure. All books and stocks were quickly removed to a safe place by employees of the company.

Boiler Explosion Feared. At first it was feared that the boiler would burst, as the boiler house is in the thick of the fire, and a constant stream of water kept playing on the roof, and by 8:30 this danger was eliminated and the fire at this point steadily subsiding.

Before the hose could be removed from the boiler house, the compressed air, which had been smoldering for some time, suddenly burst into flame, and for a while it was feared that the adjoining building, a repair shop, would catch fire. This was the most spectacular part of the conflagration, as the flames rose at least a hundred feet in the air, and it was only after long and persistent effort that the flames were finally overpowered. At 6 o'clock the fire was under control, and most of the hose taken away.

Water was kept playing on the huge smokestack, which stands at the extreme end of the building. The tank and the boiler room are the only parts left standing.

After all danger was over the stock was carried back into the warehouse, which is damaged chiefly by water and smoke.

It is thought the fire originated in the kilns where starch is dried, but this is unproven. The cause of the fire had gained great headway when discovered.

The building was frame, built in 1880, and erected 25 years ago. The loss is estimated at approximately $100,000, which is a heavy loss for the company. No employees will be thrown out of work, as the main building is not damaged in any way.

EATON'S DAILY STORE NEWS

A Goodly Stock of the Almost Necessary Summer Costume—The Bathing Suit

The happiest hours of summer life are spent on the shores of our many lakes and rivers. Under these circumstances the bathing suit takes on an almost essential character. At least this is so as far as "the boy" is concerned. From morning till night when the mercury is "hitting the higher levels," the lad's only apparel is a bathing suit. He finds comfort and content in popping in and out of the limpid water, now floating out on the sparkling waves, now lying panting, dripping and happy on the soft, warm sand. The "grown-ups" are not far behind him either, in deciding that a bathing suit beside the cool waters is perhaps the only hot weather costume.

A very complete stock of Men's and Boys' Bathing Suits is offered for your inspection. Besides a fine variety of the ever popular two-piece style, there are the one-piece and athletic ones which appeal to boys, or men on camping or canoe trips.

Boys' One-Piece Bathing Suits

Boys' Bathing Suits, plain navy blue cotton, made in one-piece style, with skirt, and fastening with 2 buttons on the shoulder. Sizes 22 to 32. Suit, 50c.

Boys' Bathing Suits, also in one-piece style, with skirt, but in mixture of cotton and wool, single button on shoulder and trimmed on neck, arms and skirt, in colors of black and orange, grey and cardinal, and brown and cardinal. Sizes 22, 24, $2.00; 26, 28, $2.50; and sizes 30, 32 and 34, each, $3.00.

Men's 1-Piece Athletic Bathing Suits

Men's Bathing Suits, made in one-piece style, with skirt, from fine quality cotton yarns, in plain navy or in navy and white. Sizes 34 to 44. Suit, 79c.

Men's Bathing Suits, another line made in two-piece style, jersey and trunks, of light-weight cotton, in navy, navy and white, or navy and red; jersey has quarter sleeves. Sizes 34 to 44. Suit, $1.00.

Men's Two-Piece Bathing Suits

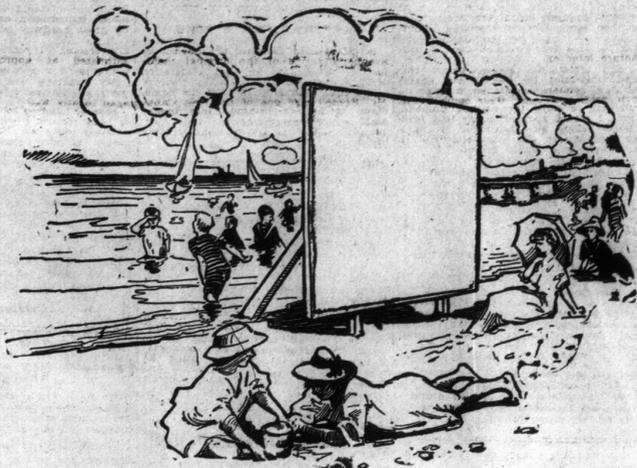

Men's Bathing Suits, made in two-piece style, jersey and trunks, in colors of grey and cardinal, navy and red, or navy and orange, and trimmed on sleeves and skirt. Sizes 34 to 44. Suit, $1.50.

Men's Bathing Suits, in fine quality mixture of cotton and wool, and made in one piece, with skirt, athletic style, sleeveless and fastening with single button on narrow strap shoulder; trimmed on neck, arms and skirt, and procurable in navy and white or black and orange. ISLAND EQUIPMENT FOR LIFE SAVING TOTALLY INADEQUATE

LAUNCHES USELESS

Inquest into Mimico Drowning Adjourned to Get More Evidence.

That the equipment at the life-saving station at Ward's Island is totally inadequate for life saving purposes in the lake was the outstanding evidence brought out at the inquest into the death by drowning of Danny Crew, of Mimico, which was resumed before Coroner Dr. J. W. McCullum at the city morgue yesterday afternoon. The boy was one of the three children who were drowned on June 22, when they drifted out into the lake in a rowboat.

Capt. W. A. Chapman, of the life-saving station, told how he had three boats at the station—two launches, one 22 feet long with 5-foot 5-inch beam, and one 28 feet long, with beam of five feet, and a rowboat for local purposes, 24 feet long with beam of seven feet. Neither of the motor launches were of any use in the lake in a rough sea, he said, and they had to depend on the rowboats.

He told how he first got a telephone message from a Mr. Young at Mimico, to the effect that three boys had drifted out into the lake, and he immediately left in the larger of the launches. He got back about 5:30, when he was told that another message had been received. Other telephone messages were received at 6:45 and 7:30, but the captain was not notified until 9 o'clock that evening.

"There were several subsequent messages," said Mr. H. Greer, county coroner's attorney. "You had several other members of the crew, and another launch, and there was nothing to prevent that other boat going out, and yet it was not sent. Other telephone messages from you not to go out."

"No," replied witness. "They are supposed to have enough intelligence to know what to do."

"Did you go out on the Sunday?"

"No, as I considered it would be useless, and I had nothing that reasonably could be done."

"You are behind time with your life-saving equipment?" asked Dr. McCullum.

"We certainly are," replied the captain, but added that a new power lifeboat was being built.

In answer to the inquiry of Mr. Greer, he said he was working under the naval service at Ottawa.

Hearing adjourned.

After hearing several other witnesses, the hearing was adjourned until July 10 at 8 o'clock, so that the evidence of the men who received the other messages could be obtained.

Mayor Church stated yesterday afternoon that he was asking for an investigation by the Dominion Government.

WILLS PROBATED

ASSAULTS NUN SITTING IN CONVENT GARDENS

Convicted yesterday in the women's court of an indecent assault upon Margaret Tracy, John Taylor was sentenced to serve the maximum penalty of two years at the Kingston Penitentiary, with the imposition of twenty lashes. The complainant is a nun in the convent at the corner of Broadbent street and Surrey place, and the story told by her was highly sensational.

On the evening of June 25, while sitting on a bench in the convent garden, the sister was seized from behind. Several other sisters hearing her cries came to her assistance and frightened Taylor away.

Six previous convictions for similar offences figured in the accused's record, and in spite of his denial of any complicity in the assault, his worship showed no hesitancy in imposing the maximum sentence.

RADIAL COMPANY RATES WILL STAY

Toronto and York Company Officials Refuse to Reduce Schedule.

The Toronto and York Radial Railway Company, represented by W. H. Moore, C. L. Wilson and A. L. Livingston, flatly refuse to make any compromise in relation to the increase in fares on the Metropolitan Railway. A delegation, headed by J. H. Naughton, Edwin Mills; Thos. Urquhart, Aurora, and J. A. Greene, Richmond Hill, met the company representatives yesterday in the York County Council chambers on Adelaide street, and asked them to reconsider the new fare schedule which ranged from 17 to 30 per cent. increase.

J. H. Naughton said that the railway company was franchised for the purpose of improving the country and that an increase of 40 per cent. in the fare was more than workmen could afford, and consequently they would move into the city. He said that the morning and evening cars were overcrowded and in fact that they were penalized with such an increase. He said that this railway line was a paying proposition till it started to pay commutation tickets, and when these tickets were issued people of small means moved into the country, and it was then that the railway company commenced to realize a satisfactory revenue. Many workmen were giving up traveling because of this increase in fares, especially on commutation tickets. He said that the net profits of the railway company for 1917 were, according to their own statement, $1,551,251, and that they did not justify their raising their rates last month.

Not Enough Profits. The general manager of the radial company, said in reply that the company did not realize enough profits in the past four years to balance the loss previously incurred. J. A. Greene of Richmond Hill said that when the fares changed on the car line he bought an automobile and he had a discharge of the other radial cars. He said that the service on the cars was so bad in the winter that 50 per cent. of the people had to leave the city.

W. H. Moore, general manager of the road, said that the company had given 50 per cent. increase in wages and that it must support itself in the face of the increased cost of upkeep, and the law only allowed it two cents an hour more than the regular fare, and the commutation rate must suffer.

J. A. Greene then referred to the commutation tickets and asked why a man who traveled every day should be taxed for him who only rode once a month, and said, "It is the working-men who has to bear the burden of it all."

W. H. Moore said that he would not promise any change because of the increasing difficulties under which the company was laboring.

TORONTO YOUNG MAN DROWNED IN LAKE

Seized with heart failure when the canoe he was paddling capsized at Gravenhurst, eighteen-year-old Frank Squair, of 140 Palmerston avenue, was drowned before help could reach him. His body was recovered yesterday and will be brought back to Toronto for burial.

A young woman who was with him in the canoe managed to get ashore. The shock of the cold water is thought to have affected the boy's heart, with the result that he sank immediately.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Squair; two brothers, Harry, at home, and Thomas, now overseas, and sister, Mary.

BUILDING PERMITS.

W. B. Charlton, pair semi-detached brick and concrete duplex dwellings, 13-15 Temple avenue, $10,000.

Separate School Board, addition to Holy Family School, Close avenue, $8,750.

H. Bond, alterations to house, 345 Balfour street, $1,350.

NEW MODEL TRACTORS.

Ten Hours' Seeding on One Gallon of Gasoline.

Several new model tractors for special use in market gardens have been purchased by the Ontario Government. They are designed for use in seeding, cultivating and plowing and are now being tried out at the Guelp Agricultural College.

TORONTO IS TO BE THE CHIEF CENTRE FOR DEMOBILIZATION

Plans Are Now Completed for New Military Hospital at Rosedale.

PERMITS OF EXPANSION

Building Operations Will Be Begun at Once; Tenders Called for.

Plans to make Toronto the biggest demobilization centre in Canada have been completed by the Dominion Government, and in a few months the heights overlooking Rosedale, north of the military hospital, will be the home of over two thousand soldiers at one time in various stages of convalescence awaiting their discharge from the army. Building operations will commence at once, and in every-thing that is to be done provision is made for all future requirements, so that the centre will permit of expansion to accommodate any number of men. Taken in conjunction with the hospital to the south of it, Toronto will have a military population of several thousand in that section of the city for years to come.

Practically all the details in connection with the new military centre have been completed. The question of roads and street car transportation, however, remains to be solved, but the magnitude of the undertaking now removes all doubts as to the necessity of street cars and new roads, the government has plans for getting to and from both the hospital and demobilization centre, and expects shortly to come to some understanding with the city in regard to them.

Roughly the new demobilization camp will occupy nearly 40 acres. It will extend from the east bank of the Reservoir to the east of the C.P.R. right-of-way to a point 900 feet east of Macleannan avenue and running northwards to Rosedale Heights drive, forming a parallelogram immediately to the north of the hospital and separated from it by the C.P.R. tracks. This 40-acre site is the best of any place held by the government, and plenty of available land adjoining should it be required later.

Site is Surveyed. Nearly all the land that is to be used came into the government's possession when the Canadian Northern was taken over. There are a few odd pieces held by private parties, and they will be either purchased or expropriated. The site has already been surveyed and mapped and the necessary purchase of the private owners has been in progress for several days, left for Ottawa last night. He has the proceeds of the sale of the land, and the department of public works together with his recommendations as to whether they are excessive or not.

The plans prepared and for which tenders are being called, provide for a two-story "buck" building, accommodating 200 men. They will be built of wood and plaster and located close to Sight Hill drive, which is one of the two roads, the other being Macleannan avenue, which traverses the property north and south. Close by a separate building, to be an open kitchen, will be built, and to the east of this are the officers' quarters and a large administration building. In addition there will also be an officers' mess, quartermasters' stores, guard house, a recreation hall, and dining hall. The heavily wooded land to the east of Macleannan avenue, consisting of about seven acres, will be used as a recreation ground. A parade ground will be laid out close to the great hall, giving the place the appearance of a miniature Aldershot. It will be noted the unit system of construction will be carried out in every detail—each building will be used for one specific purpose and nothing else. Room for expansion is thus easily provided for.

The Present Buildings. As for old St. Andrew's College, now Rosedale Military Hospital, the use to which the present buildings will be put, has been decided upon. The administration staff will occupy a part of the ground floor of the main building and the balance of the staff as well as the two upper ones will be taken up entirely with beds. Provision has been made for the accommodation of about 500 patients, and the building will occupy the principal old residence. Further provision will be made for patients by the erection of pavilions along the style of that at the Ontario Government Hospital at Whitby. Practically nothing, except the installation of several laboratories, has to be done before moving in.

When the government's program is completed it will have in the demobilization centre and the hospital, a property that will represent an expenditure of about $2,000,000.

NEWS OF LABOR

AMERICAN CONDITIONS REFLECT IN CANADA

The recent decision of the American Government to increase the wages and conditions of work for the present state of disorder in Canadian railroad circles, especially in Toronto, was the opinion expressed by railway officials in Toronto. It was stated that if a general strike was ordered at the Toronto terminals, more than seven thousand men would be affected. Those conditions were the opinion that a strike would clear up the atmosphere, and would serve to bring the unwarranted demands of the employees to the attention of the government.

The general feeling at the Union depot among the employees was that both wages and conditions were to be improved. The factor of living conditions of the employees while at work at the sheds and the station was considered important, it was said, because of the extreme of weather experienced at different seasons of the year.

LASH STILL ABSENT.

Senator Robertson invites Vice-President Hanna to Conference.

Z. A. Lash, president of the G.N.W., upon whom Senator Robertson has been waiting for almost two weeks, in a letter to the senator, stated that between that company and its employees, has not yet made an appearance in Toronto. As a result, two employees of the G.N.W., Geo. Thompson, recently dismissed, have not been reinstated, as demanded by the members of the Commercial Telegraphers' Association, and the senator invited Vice-President D. B. Hanna into conference with him at Ottawa, as a means of preventing the strike, which is imminent.

MAY TAKE STRIKE VOTE.

At a meeting of the district council of the International Union of Machinists, held on Wednesday evening, it was decided to call a mass meeting at 7 o'clock on Friday night, to discuss the strike now in progress at the Russell motor works. This meeting may decide to take a general strike vote, and it is expected that 3,000 men will be affected in this trade.

WAR VETERANS WILL PATRONIZE ONLY NON-ALIEN TRADESMEN

West Toronto Auxiliary of the G. W. V. A. discussed the question of the alien proprietors of businesses in Toronto, and a resolution was passed that they will be either purchased or expropriated. The site has already been surveyed and mapped and the necessary purchase of the private owners has been in progress for several days, left for Ottawa last night. He has the proceeds of the sale of the land, and the department of public works together with his recommendations as to whether they are excessive or not.

LOOKING UP EVIDENCE.

G. V. Gustar, secretary of the West Toronto Branch of the G.W.V.A., stated that he had been looking up evidence, gathering up any evidence which might corroborate the belief long held by Mrs. Tarrington that her husband, the late James Tarrington, was present at the front. "I may say also that, thru the pensions board, I have cabled the authorities in Britain to let us know whether or not the Battalion was subjected to gas during the months specified by Private Tarrington," said the secretary.

DEATH OF WILLIAM A. GARRETT.

William A. Garrett of 284 Grace street died yesterday afternoon at the Wellesley Hospital after a brief illness, that he had been not well for the past year, having been free from his position in the postoffice for two months ago. He was born in Middlesex County 57 years ago, and moved to Toronto in 1905. He was the only brother of A. N. Garrett of the World Office, and leaves, besides his widow, a son, G. V. Garrett, of the World Office, insurance agents, and three daughters, Mrs. J. P. Richards, Mrs. E. L. Baker and Lily at home.

POINT AU BARIL SLEEPING CAR SERVICE VIA CANADIAN PACIFIC.

The Canadian Pacific will, commencing June 28th, operate standard sleeping cars, Toronto to Point au Baril, at 10:30 p.m. on Monday and Friday. Further particulars from Canadian Pacific Ticket Agents or W. B. Howard, District Passenger Agent.

ONLY EIGHT CONTRACTS FOR STANDARD FEEDS

So far only eight contracts for the manufacture of new standard feed for cattle and hogs have been received by the agricultural section of the resources committee, and the aggregate of the feed the signatories of the contract have undertaken to produce falls far short of the amount that had been expected.

The agricultural section of the resources committee has estimated 1500 cars of standard feed would be required for the coming fall and winter season, but the contracts signed to date only promise 200 cars.

The matter is of such great importance that a special meeting of the agricultural section has been called for Tuesday next to fully consider the matter and decide what further action can be taken.

REFUSAL TO OBEY MATTER OF FAITH

Eight Conscientious Objectors Are Tried by General Court-Martial.

The first general court-martial ever held in Canada concluded its sitting yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the armories when it had dealt with the case of eight conscientious objectors, going thoroly into all the phases of the charges against these men. Major Col. J. A. Macdonald, judge advocate, took considerable pains to show the conscientious objectors that the court-martial was a serious matter and that the court had powers of the greatest magnitude, even to sentence of death.

Pte. T. G. Wilkie stated that he was a Christian and of the children of God and for this reason could not be expected to attend military parades, and he would go to the whole hog unit to which Wilkie had been assigned, gave evidence to the effect that this man was a good fellow and that he had done excellent work at the canteen. Wilkie was asked if he would be willing to continue at the labors of the canteen. He did not believe that he could do so without conflicting with God's word.

Pte. Eric Kitcher had refused both to put on a uniform and to be recruited as a conscientious objector. He was a farmer from Matheson, and as such had done much toward the prosecution of the war, he stated. There was no one on his farm and the cattle were starving. He had been treated, he continued, as a jail bird for three weeks at the military camp at the front. Pte. Samuel L. Sullivan was both a farmer and a member of the International Bible Students' Association. He refused to do any sort of non-combatant work except in civilian clothes.

Pte. Henry Smallwood was, according to the evidence, a true Christian. Pte. Hugh Comfort Thompson, another conscientious objector, was sentenced by a district court-martial to Burwash, and this was his second appearance on the same charge. When sent to the Don jail but not after he had been incarcerated at Burwash.

DISCHARGED AMERICAN MUST BE REPATRIATED

The attention of the press was yesterday drawn to the following order: "The United States of America must be repatriated." American citizens who enlisted in any of his majesty's forces prior to the outbreak of the present war, entered the war forfeited their American nationality, under the provisions of an act of congress, passed in 1917, and since that time, while the United States is at war, no American citizen can relinquish his nationality, the enlistment of American citizens in any of his majesty's forces after the United States entered the war has no effect upon the allegiance of the men concerned. Men who enlisted in the Canadian military forces prior to the date upon which the United States entered the war must, in view of the provisions of the act of congress referred to, be regarded as aliens upon their return to the United States, and must consequently pay a head tax upon their return to the United States, unless they take advantage of the provisions for repatriation contained in the act of congress passed October, 1917.

All that is necessary under the last-mentioned act is that an expatriated man should present himself before a consular officer of the United States, offer satisfactory evidence that he came within the provisions of the act and take the oath of allegiance.

WELLESLEY HOSPITAL GRANTED EXEMPTION

Exemption was granted by the court of revision yesterday to Wellesley Hospital on the ground that it received public grants and was not liable for taxes. Its assessment amounts to $22,150. The nurses' home, however, assessed at $23,150, was held to be liable.

The Canadian Northern Railway Company appealed against the assessment on its Cherry street and Eastern avenue property and was granted a reduction of $10 per foot. The British Acetones Company was exempted from taxation because it was engaged in the manufacture of war munitions under the direction of the British Government.

REFUSES INOCULATION.

The military orders for Thursday, July 4, state that Private Clifford Greenleaf, 1st Depot Battalion, 1st C. B., who was tried by district court-martial on June 15 on the charge of refusing to be inoculated, was sentenced to two years' hard labor at the penitentiary.

JUDGE IS BONDHOLDER; CASE IS ENLARGED

Explaining that he was a bondholder in the Toronto Power Co., Chief Justice Mulock yesterday told the Ontario Power Company they would have to go before another judge in their motion against the Toronto Power Co. The case was enlarged for a week; as the material was not in shape for argument. This was with the consent of G. H. Kilmer, K.C., who appeared for the Ontario Power Company, and Robert McKay, K.C., for the Toronto Power Company.

The Ontario Power Company is asking for an injunction to restrain the Toronto Power Company from cutting off its power supply for alleged non-payment of the April account. The Ontario Power Co. claims the cheque for about $15,000, which was refused by the Toronto Power Co.

PRIEST NEGLECTS TO MAKE REPORT

Man Claims to Have Been Married in Toronto Seven Years Ago.

Christopher Thompson appeared before Justice Sutherland's M.S.A. tribunal yesterday and brought his wife with him. The marriage, he declared, took place in a house on East King street seven years ago, but the Bulgarian priest who officiated had failed to report the fact. He was classified as a married man.

In 23 cases exemptions were granted as applicants were in a lower category. A large number were again referred to the medical board for re-examination.

EXEMPTIONS GRANTED.

W. P. Padden, 254 Jarvis street, D3; Fred Bulmer Hull, 47 College street, D3; F. H. Weirford, 17 Willcocks street, C2; John Phillips, 58 Widmer street, D3; W. J. Gallagher, 1842 Danforth avenue, D3; J. M. Gagnon, 222 Page avenue, B2; C. L. Stiver, Spadina Hotel, Sept. 15; C. Thompson, 404 East King street, class 1; N. G. DOROTHY DIXS TALKS MONEY AND MATRIMONIAL HAPPINESS

BY DOROTHY DIX
The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer.

The other day a divorce was granted to the middle-aged wife of a man who has made a large fortune in the last few years.

She testified the wife said: "I was a good man in spite of the way he has treated me. It's money that has ruined him. I was just a poor boy and girl marriage. I used to get up at four o'clock in the morning to get him a good hot breakfast before he started off to work, and I stayed up at night washing his shirt and pressing his clothes so he would look neat and clean. He loved me then, and we were as happy together as two children."

But he never noticed him when he was poor began to flatter him, and sang about him and then he got rich and pretty young girls with painted faces made eyes at him, and they took him away from me.

"His money has broken up our home and ruined my husband, and I pray to God every night that he will lose it, for then he'll come back to me."

Perhaps this story is not as uncommon as we think. Perhaps the fortune that all of us are striving for is often a boomerang than we know, and brings misery as frequently as it does happiness.

Many a man is saved from being drunk by lacking the price of a drink, and there is no such conservator of the domestic virtues as a man having to work so hard all day he is too tired to leave his own bedside at night. Poverty is a great moralist, and our purse, as often as our principles, decides our course of action.

The question thus suggested, however, of whether poverty or riches is the better, is an old and interesting one. According to the old adage, when poverty comes in at the door, love flies out the window, but many a man has been known to come down the chimney love sneaked out the back stairs, and so the problem is left unanswered.

Undoubtedly, bitter, biting poverty is a hard test for love to stand in. In its essence even love must be material. When you are hungry you are not so much in love as when you are cold you think more of the temperature of your body than you do of the temperature of your affection. When you are hounded by collectors, money and not sentiment fills your waking thoughts and nightly dreams. Love has to be comfortable, so to speak, before it can work.

But on the other hand it can be smothered to death by too much luxury, and our common observations, as well as the records of the divorce courts, go to show that love and married happiness are among the luxuries that no millionaire has money enough to buy, and that they are his by chance, but nobody in search of the ideal Derby and Joan would hunt for them in the palaces of the wealthy.

the rich man that the poor man never knows, goes without saying. In the first place, if he inherits his money, it is harder for the camel to go through the eye of the needle than for him to escape being married for his possessions. Then, married or single, women smile upon him who can reward their attentions with rich gifts and so that the man who, if he been poor, would have been permitted to walk the straight and narrow path of peace, finds himself the victim of adventures, simply on account of his wealth.

Statistics show that the ratio of divorce is much greater in rich and fashionable society than among the poor. This does not necessarily imply, as many seem to suppose, any greater moral laxness among the rich than among the poor. There is no doubtless just as much incompatibility of temper and unaccountability of taste in green grocery circles as there is in banking circles.

The only difference is that the green grocer is lucky enough not to have time to think of his domestic misery. He is too hard worked trying to make both ends meet. But the banker, who considers whether his wife represents his ideal of feminine perfection or not, while Mrs. Greengrocer's thoughts are effectually and permanently diverted from yearnings for a real soul mate by having to get up and prepare breakfast, and patch her husband's trousers. Insofar as the handmaidens of domestic happiness.

Furthermore, the habit of self-indulgence is strong upon the rich, and the man and woman who are not used to doing without anything they want, are pretty apt not to deny themselves a forbidden flirtation. But most of us it is usual, the desire for fresh sensations and fresh amusements, and a general lack of something to do, that is at the bottom of the domestic infidelities of the rich. You haven't time to hunt for affinites or even to know that you haven't got one, when you are hustling for a living, and that's the reason that poor people so seldom get divorced.

The wisest prayer that was ever offered to heaven was when the peasant exclaimed: "Give me neither poverty nor riches," and this petition might well be incorporated in the prayers of the married couples are those where there is neither the wolf nor the automobile at the door.

The very lack of money for amusements throws a couple on each other for companionship. They have not the means for the long European trips and the summers spent that unconsciously, but inevitably, wean husband and wife from each other, for there is a habit in loving as in other things, and we can get used to doing without people. Right here, in this particular, is where married means are most a blessing in disguise, for when a husband and wife have reached the point that they are not necessary to each other's happiness, the finest flower of love lies dead.

Life is full of compensations and the most wonderful and beautiful of all is that the beggar may have that which no money can buy—true and disinterested love.

AVIATION TAG DAY WAS SUCCESSFUL

Over Twelve Thousand Dollars Taken in in Collections.

Aviation Tag Day in Toronto yesterday resulted in the raising of $12,500.

Toronto has had "tags" for the soldiers who fight the battles of the allies on terra firma, for sailors who sail the seas in defence of the empire, but it was not until yesterday that an appeal was made for the aviators, the wonderful section of the army whose members do such gallant deeds of daring in the air. Yesterday was Aviation Tag Day, and as usual Toronto responded to the call generously.

Six o'clock saw many of the 3000 workers who collected during the day at their posts, and the taggers kept merrily on until business began to lag, and about 4 p.m. returns started to come in to headquarters at 87 West King street, where the little blue and white boxes were emptied of their contents, which were counted by Mr. Sherris of the Royal Bank, with the assistance of a number of the taggers. Mrs. G. B. Baker, honorary organizer of the campaign, had nothing but good words to say for the workers. "They were just wonderful," was the way she summed up the situation.

The proceeds are to go for comforts for the flying men overseas, in the hospitals or wherever there is need for extras amongst the aviators of the British forces. The "tag" was launched by the Canadian Aviation Aid Club, the officers of which are: Honorary president, Mrs. C. W. Beatty; honorary vice-president, Mrs. W. Hamilton Merritt; president, Mrs. Stuart Strath, and other officers Mrs. Henry Sproett, Mrs. T. S. G. Pepler and Mrs. Ince.

Women in Charge.

The committee who had charge of arrangements, included Mrs. W. Beatty, convener; Mrs. Miller Lash, Mrs. W. E. MacLean, and the organizer, Mrs. G. B. Baker. The captains were: Mrs. J. E. Allen, Mrs. F. E. Annesley, Mrs. F. Armstrong, Mrs. C. W. Beatty, Mrs. S. G. Beatty, Mrs. R. J. Barker, Mrs. E. E. Bell, Mrs. J. E. Burden, Mrs. H. G. Beemer, Mrs. A. Bolland, Mrs. W. Church, Mrs. J. J. Cassidy, Mrs. Connors, Mrs. E. M. Clapp, Mrs. C. E. Denovan, Mrs. W. J. Dyas, Mrs. J. R. Davis, Mrs. H. Eaton, Mrs. J. W. Hobbs, Mrs. W. A. Hareton, Mrs. Ince, Mrs. R. J. Jones, Mrs. R. King, Mrs. M. Lash, Mrs. W. E. MacLean, Mrs. J. G. McConeky, Mrs. G. Reynolds, Mrs. Stuart Strath, Mrs. E. Sproett, Mrs. F. Stewart, Mrs. C. A. Simmons, Mrs. J. Southern, Mrs. A. H. Stephenson, Mrs. J. M. Vance, Mrs. W. J. Wilkinson, Mrs. Alex. Wilson, Mrs. S. M. Wilton.

The five highest teams and the collections made were those captained by Mrs. Fred Armstrong, $1,156.99; Mrs. George Reynolds, $746.75; Mrs. Wm. Church, $681.13; Mrs. Stuart Strath, $540.17; and Mrs. Henry Sproett, $520.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 5.

The Supreme Law.

The safety of the state is the supreme law, and that will be upheld by the government without the slightest regard to what may or may not be decided by the supreme court of Alberta or the supreme court of Canada.

We all know what the British Imperial Munitions Board has done both for Canadian industries and for the prosecution of the war with Germany.

The United States appears to be much more successful in having the law obeyed where embargoes are established. They leave no loopholes and they carry out the law without fear or favor.

On the example of the British Imperial Munitions Board, we should follow the suggestion of Senator Nicholas and solicit orders from governments primarily by a national trade commission.

Therefore we take the liberty of again suggesting to the Dominion Government that they form a trade commission on pretty much the lines of the British Imperial Munitions Board.

Next to the winning of the war, we think this is the most important issue before the people of the country at this moment.

Whatever may be said about the Prohibition Act one thing is certain that if it does not prohibit, it provides for too many leakages.

There will be an immense demand for all kinds of railway equipment, rails, engines, ties, cars and hundreds of other things.

An unlimited demand for farm implements of all kinds; of hardware and tools and special machinery for machine shops; all kinds of electrical outfits; all kinds of clothing and footwear, and goods made of rubber.

The question therefore is, how are the industries and products of Canada to get their share of these prospective orders.

There are other matters in which the law must be stiffened up or observed if prohibition is to be a success.

With the death of the sultan, which we should not be surprised to hear was assisted, if not personally conducted, a situation opens up in Turkey somewhat similar to that in Austria-Hungary on the death of the old emperor.

Germany has, however, plotted and intrigued and falsified in Persia and other parts of Asia, with some success.

There is no pretence of medical necessity. If favoritism were cut out these violations of the law could be stopped in a short time.

The system of putting the vendors on a profit-making basis is altogether wrong. They should be paid good salaries and strictly supervised.

Cricket Albions 3 United 1

REPORT ALBIONS ON ONTARIO CUP GAME

Defeating Ulster United Before Record Crowd in Replayed Tie.

The replayed Ontario Cup tie between Davenport and Ulster United took place at Dunlop Athletic Grounds last evening before the largest mid-week crowd that has ever been seen on the grounds since the outbreak of the war.

When the teams took the field it was seen that Ulster were almost at full strength, only Long being absent.

On resuming Davenport played a hard game, but found the Ulster defence great. The game was much faster, the ball traveling from end to end in great style.

For Ulster Hollowell, Dobson, Carroll, Forsythe and Reid were the best, while Davenport's Robinson, Brown, Brookes, Adams, Walker, Robertson, S. Walker, Simpson and Lamb were the best.

Oakwood Cricketers Win Another Game

Last night Riverdale Park Boys (Brookview C.C.) played their first game of the season, meeting the Oakwood boys, the latter winning by a fair margin.

Brookview's batting was round Oakwood's bowling rather too much for the latter, who were unable to get a run in the first half an hour.

"UNDERFOOT"

"Overhead," as nearly everybody knows, is a word that, through repeated usage, has come to mean the general cost of doing business, as apart from the particular cost of making a given article.

Why shouldn't the word "Underfoot" stand for the general cost - to the human system - of wearing boots or shoes as against the particular cost of buying them?

As the object in a big business is to cut down "Overhead," so the object in individual business, like shoe-buying, is to cut down the cost of "Underfoot."

The way to cut it down, without losing an atom of service, or general efficiency, is to get "Acme" Soles on your boots or shoes.

NOTICE AIM TO CONSERVE COAL IN GUELPH

No Deliveries to Those Possessing a Ton, and Limit Fixed at 3,000 Pounds.

Guelph, July 4.—Following the appointment of a fuel commission at the meeting of the city council on Monday night an order was issued this morning to all coal dealers in the city to cease delivering coal to all citizens who have one ton and more in their possession and not more than 3,000 pounds from that used during the winter and that each person making an application for coal will have to make a declaration as to how much coal they usually burn during the season, how much they have on hand, and if given a permit the amount allowed them first will be written thereon and this same permit must be produced the second time, and in this way the fuel office will have a correct tab on the whole situation.

W.C. FOX Board of Trade Building Main 5785

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the City of Toronto on June 17th, 1918, passed a bylaw requiring all Bailiffs doing business in the City to take out a license, and prohibiting anyone carrying on such a business without a license.

Notice to Bailiffs

Those in Germany Not Doing Business Until Dispute is Settled.

Amsterdam, July 4.—All the stock exchanges in Germany are abstaining from business unless the question of the contemplated new duties, against which they have protested to the government, has been settled.

WINNIPEG CATTLE MARKET. Winnipeg, July 4.—Receipts at the yards today, 700 cattle, 36 calves, 1115 hogs, 17 sheep. DUKE THANKS DOMINIONS. London, July 4.—At the annual meeting of King George's Fund for the relief of agriculture figures more than 300,000 pounds having been clipped. This is nearly double last year's output.

Manitoba's Wool Crop. Winnipeg, July 4.—Manitoba's wool crop this year has exceeded all previous records, according to department figures, and agriculture figures more than 300,000 pounds having been clipped. This is nearly double last year's output.

LIVE STOCK MARKET

For a clean-up day and a Thursday trade was moderately active on the Union Live Stock Exchange yesterday.

The market yesterday was without any special feature, and at the close a pretty well cleaned up. The stocker and feeder trade is very slow, indeed, and probably more than in any other class of cattle.

HOLLINGER'S DIP CARRIED FURTHER

Nipissing is Also Heavy—Monty and Timiskaming Among Firm Issues.

The break in Hollinger was carried further yesterday on the Standard Exchange, the closing quotation of 4.55 compared with 4.60 on Wednesday and 4.75 on Tuesday. Other incidents in a quiet and rather irregular market were the purchase of a big block of Foster, dragging that one famous Cobalt issue out of its modest obscurity, and the heaviness of Nipissing which sold at 4.75 on Wednesday.

FRIDAY MORNING JULY 3 1914

At Simpson's---Men's $5 to $6 Panamas Today $3.45

Isn't that the best headliner you've read in many a day? They're panamas you couldn't touch all season at less than their regular prices.

You men who are wearing straws will find these panamas a pleasing change.

Choose from genuine South American panamas in fedora, telescope and negligee shapes. Plain and pencil curl brims. As high-grade hats as you'd ever wish to wear—a guarantee stamped inside the band.
