

A Problem in Mathematics

By RUTH CAMERON

HERE is a problem in mathematics for every thoughtful American. If the present generation is in twice as much of a hurry as the past generation, at what pace will the next generation travel?

Now that the children have gone back to school, when I look out my study window, almost every morning I see at least two or three youngsters walking their legs off, or actually running towards school.

Thus early is the American habit of hurrying for every appointment inaugurated. Thus early do I say? What am I thinking about? According to one letter friend our children are taught the hurrying habit as soon as they leave the cradle.

I don't doubt it, my friend, and I also feel sure that these seeds are tended and watered by the hurrying to school habit, which careless parents permit.

In fact, I once came into contact with tragic proof of that fact. For a little girl whom I used to know ran all the way to school one hot afternoon after a hearty noon-day meal, dropped into her seat, laid her head on the desk for the opening prayer and never lifted it again.

Of course, such tragedies that are mercifully rare, but even when it does not cause any immediate calamity, the hurrying habit is sooner or later a trouble breeder, and we ought to teach our children to fight it.

I suppose we hurry because we hope to accomplish more, to crowd more into our days, but if you will take notice you will find that the people who accomplish the most are those who never hurry.

At a house where I once boarded, the twelve-year-old daughter of the hostess did all the serving. Two grown women would undoubtedly have balked at her task, for there were sometimes thirty-five or forty guests, but the wonderful little girl performed it gracefully and serenely. I used to watch her in wonder for she never carried more than two or three dishes at a time and she was not old enough to use the principles of scientific management.

The best thing this generation can do for the next is to refuse to pass on its own heritage of hurry. Let us do what we can to teach our children that the truest proverb ever written is "Haste makes waste," and waste not only of time but of happiness, health and efficiency.

Arrested on suspicion of stealing danger's jewels. Gertrude Hoffman's Gems Taken From the Hotel Touraine.

Boston, Oct. 21.—Two young men, living in the South End, have been placed under arrest today on charges of being responsible for the theft of jewelry belonging to Gertrude Hoffman, a dancer, in the Hotel Touraine.

The young men arrested are Moses Silverstein, twenty years old, and Alexander Freed, twenty-five years. They are jointly charged with breaking and entering the apartment of Gertrude Hoffman at the Touraine and with larceny of $4,000 worth of jewelry.

When Max Hoffman, husband of the dancer, reported the theft he said that $2,000 worth of jewelry had been stolen. He cited a diamond necklace as alone worth more than $500.

Mr. Hoffman expressed considerable indignation because, as he said, the police and press both seemed skeptical. Mr. Hoffman admitted that the jewelry of actresses, dancers, and other professional entertainers is "loose" for publicity purposes, but he declared this a genuine robbery. Manager Claude M. Hart of the Touraine confirmed the statement that the Hoffman trunks had been opened and rifled while Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman and their maid were at the theatre. Manager Hart called it an "unquestioned robbery."

The theory was advanced that a thief with a false key, sneaked into the hotel corridor in the absence of the Hoffmans, entered their room and had three hours to hunt for jewelry and get away. Mr. Hoffman offered a reward of $1,000 for the recovery of the missing jewelry.

WHAT WILL THEY BE IN 1962?

The above group shows the varying shades of feminine fashion for 100 years. If it shows nothing else, it certainly proves the wonderful adaptability of the eternal feminine.

Daily Hints For the Cook

BROILED HAM.

Cut thin slices from center of the ham, cover with some milk and let stand overnight. Sweet milk may be used, but sour is better. Rinse in the morning and broil very quickly. The ham should be only heated through, and you have a delicious dish.

ORANGE FROSTING.

To grade rind of one orange add half teaspoonful lemon juice, two tablespoonful orange juice and let stand fifteen minutes. Strain, add gradually to yolk of an egg beaten slightly. Stir in confectioner's sugar until of right consistency to spread. PARMESAN PUFFS. Put four ounces of finely grated bread-crumbs, four ounces of grated Parmesan cheese, two ounces of fresh butter, a little salt, and cayenne into a mortar and pound them thoroughly. Bind the mixture together with a well-beaten egg; make it up into balls the size of a large walnut. Egg and bread crumbs these; fry until they are lightly browned. The fat must not be quite boiling when the puffs are put in, or they will be too highly colored. Drain them; serve very hot, piled on a napkin. Time, four or five minutes to fry. Sufficient for five or six persons.

MARINE NOTES

Charles Moses, of Deer Island, who with Captain Poland makes up the crew of the schooner Mary M. Lord, acted the part of a hero Thursday afternoon when in a very heavy sea he put off from the vessel in a dory and succeeded in rescuing the captain, who had been knocked overboard, about eight miles off Point Lepreau, in the Bay of Fundy.

The schooner was crossing the bay from Digby, carrying a cargo of dry fish for Leonard Bros. of this city. A high wind made the waters of the bay very rough and the little schooner, with only two men aboard, was having a hard time. When eight miles off Point Lepreau a gust of wind swung the boom suddenly and it struck Captain Poland full in the breast. He was knocked into the water and the schooner was soon out of his reach.

Charles Moses saw the accident and immediately brought the vessel around. He quickly launched the dory and rowed to the assistance of the captain, whom he picked up about a quarter of a mile from the vessel. After a hard struggle with the heavy sea the two men were able to board their schooner again.

Captain Poland was severely shaken up and badly bruised about the chest, but kept at his post till the boat reached port on Friday. He is very grateful to the shipmate, who is responsible for the saving of his life.

The captain was in the water for nearly a half hour and had little hope of being rescued in such a heavy sea.

The gallant act of Moses in going to the rescue of his shipmate under the conditions prevailing at that time was the talk of the people along the water front of Saturday, and his action was highly commended.

Schooner Hattie H. Harbour, 266 tons, for City Island I o, carries 244,693 ft. decis, 28,01 ft. plank.

The steamer Durango, Captain Chambers, arrived at St. John's (Nfld.), yesterday, from London en route to this port.

Steamer Borna, Capt. Dutton, sailed from Montreal Wednesday for Sydney and Halifax, and will reach St. John on Friday, the 25th, to finish loading for Nassau, Havana and Mexican ports.

The Allan line passenger steamship Mongolian left Liverpool Wednesday for Halifax with a fair sized freight and the usual number of immigrants.

Dangerous wreckage in Vineyard Sound was reported by Captain Minford of the tug Gettysburg, which came into port last Thursday with three loaded barges from Philadelphia. He said that on noon Wednesday, three miles east by south from Half Moon Shoal gas buoy, he sighted a mass of wreckage, one piece sticking four feet out of water. Timbers and spars, about twenty feet long, were passed and they appeared to be held by rigging to some sunken wreck. Captain Minford said it constituted a very serious menace to navigation as it was directly in the channel used by all vessels passing through the sound.

ROLL ON SILVER MOON (By J. W. Turner). As I strayed from my cot at the close of the day, 'Mid the ravishing beauties of June, 'Neath a jessamine shade I espied a fair horse, and she plaintively sighed to the moon.

Roll on, silver moon, guide the traveler his way. While the nightingale's song is in tune; I never, never more with my true love will stray. By thy soft silver beams, gentle moon, As the hart on the mountain my lover was brave,

So noble and manly and clever, So kind and sincere, and he loved me full dear. Oh, my Edwin, his equal was never! But, alas! he is dead, and gone to death's bed. Cut down like a rose in full bloom; And alone doth he sleep, while I thus sadly weep.

'Neath thy soft silver light, gentle moon, His lone grave I'll seek out until morning appears. And weep o'er my lover so brave; I'll embrace the cold sod, and bathe with my tears. The sweet flowers that bloom o'er his grave, Ah, me! ne'er again may my bloom receive. For my lost love I faint would meet soon; And fond lovers will weep o'er the grave where we sleep.

'Neath thy soft silver light, gentle moon.

'Neath thy soft silver light, gentle moon.

Roll on, silver moon, guide the traveler his way. While the nightingale's song is in tune; I never, never more with my true love will stray. By thy soft silver beams, gentle moon, As the hart on the mountain my lover was brave,

So noble and manly and clever, So kind and sincere, and he loved me full dear. Oh, my Edwin, his equal was never! But, alas! he is dead, and gone to death's bed. Cut down like a rose in full bloom; And alone doth he sleep, while I thus sadly weep.

'Neath thy soft silver light, gentle moon, His lone grave I'll seek out until morning appears. And weep o'er my lover so brave; I'll embrace the cold sod, and bathe with my tears. The sweet flowers that bloom o'er his grave, Ah, me! ne'er again may my bloom receive. For my lost love I faint would meet soon; And fond lovers will weep o'er the grave where we sleep.

'Neath thy soft silver light, gentle moon.

WORK FOR THE WINTER There are several matters which should engage the attention of serious minded people in St. John during the winter months. One of them is the question of child protection. New Brunswick is still without a Child Protection Act and Children's Aid Societies. Such an act should have been adopted by the legislature at its last session, and the bill should be reintroduced and passed at the next session.

Parliament is called to assemble on Monday from today. This will make it possible to get through with a little of the business before the Christmas holidays. Hon. Mr. Nantel is still in doubt whether to resign with Mr. Monk or hold on to office with Mr. Pelletier.

The Amherst News says:—"The technical schools in Amherst this winter promise to eclipse all former records. The attendance at the opening meeting was over two hundred, and this number will be supplemented during the next two or three weeks. The young men of the town have splendid opportunity of improving their education at a very nominal cost."

When Mr. Schmidt's house caught fire the first thing he did was to rush out to seek help from his neighbors. Already there were two men upon the scene. "If you'll be quick to get to one of them," he called out to the other, "will you rush to the corner and get the alarm?"

ROYAL AUTO RUNS FULL TILT INTO FREIGHT TRAIN

Duchess of Parma and Princess Frances-Josefka Injured—Crossing Unguarded

Not since the tragic death of Prince George William of Great Britain and of Brunsvick, last spring, he being crushed and instantly killed by the upset of his automobile while en route to attend the funeral of his uncle, King Frederick of Denmark at Copenhagen, has there been any royal motor accident to record, until the extraordinary one which so nearly cost the lives of the widowed Duchess of Parma and of her daughter, Princess Frances-Josefka, the other day. They were on their way to their chateau of Schwarzau, near Vienna, with a couple of ladies in waiting when, at a sudden turn of the road beyond which there was a level rail-road crossing, the automobile dashed full tilt into a freight train. Fortunately the latter had just come to a standstill on the level crossing, which was unlighted and unguarded, with barriers unlowered. Had the train been in motion, the occupants of the automobile would assuredly have been killed. As it was, the duchess and her daughter escaped with severe cuts and lacerations.

THE CHAMCOOK FLEET Yarmouth Light.—Four of the fleet of new and powerful gasoline auxiliary vessels for the Canadian Maritime Company, were in Shelburne last week on their way to the company's headquarters at St. Andrews, N. The whole fleet will number twelve. It will be remembered that the first of the twelve was built by Joseph McGill.

LOCAL CARTING SYSTEM

The King Square Lighting and the Band Concerts—A Remembrance of Laeger's Theatre and Some of Its People

Turner's Falls, Mass. Reporter. The Micmac Indians of the province are very interesting people and many a pleasant hour may be spent with them, especially as they work at fine basket making and bead work. Strange as it may seem to relate, some of their legends, especially one which tells of a man who was a true friend to a squaw who had no drop of blood but her own, is of Scotch or Irish origin, and yet she knows and cannot be made to speak in any other language but the soft Indian tongue, although the full blooded Indians speak English with a delightful gasp of astonishment.

Carting in St. John. St. John has many things peculiar to itself, which is well worth the telling. Their universal track for carting is called a sloven. Its prototype may be seen in some of the ports of the south. A sloven may be for one or two, but the wheels are of ordinary size, but the rear axle is cranked so as to bring the platform within a few inches of the ground. The front axle is straight, and the shafts are hitched to it in the ordinary way. The front part of the platform is hung on this axle with a heavy eye bolt, and sometimes the platform is notched at the full sized platform allows the wheels to rise in front on account of the larger diameter at the axle coming up above the platform. These slovens may be loaded and unloaded very easily, one man being able to put on as many puncheons of molasses as can be drawn, simply with the aid of a couple of pieces of deal and a pitch-bar. In shovelling coal, dirt, or anything of the kind, a man is obliged to raise the weight as high as to an ordinary work, and therefore can do a better day's work. The sloven has been used in the Maine towns, such as Eastport, Lubec and Calais. It certainly is a vehicle of great merit, and is well adapted to the St. John principal square, Kings, is on the back of the ridge of the city. It is a beautiful sight to see the carts with many trees necessarily stunted on account of the solid bed of rock beneath them. Many scenes of the walk along the promenade walks go from the middle of the four sides and meet at a large fountain in the center. There are walks from each corner to the fountain, the whole forming the combined promenade of the city. St. Patrick, as on the union jack. These walks are illuminated with many hundreds of red, white and blue electric lights, strung along on wires on either side, and crowd from the roofs of high buildings adjacent, the effect is a large union jack. The entire illumination is a blaze of light.

The Band Concerts. Over the fountain, high in the air, is a very substantial bandstand, which is accommodating a large number of musicians without crowding. Many evenings each week, without the supervision of any superior concert, classical music being the almost universal choice. When we were there, without the supervision of any superior concert, classical music being the almost universal choice. When we were there, without the supervision of any superior concert, classical music being the almost universal choice.

Lanergan's Theatre. A generation ago the city had a small wooden theatre on King Square that was a wonder of its kind. It was managed by a great actor and manager, James W. Lanergan, whose wife was at that time the greatest "Fanchon" ever behind the footlights. This theatre had the Boston theatre stock company every summer for a season, so that no English star was on the boards. Theatrical people say that no other small playhouse in the world ever had so many fine artists on its stage, and that the theatre was a true school of the actor's life.

The motion to adopt the report of the committee on obituaries was made by the Rev. Dr. W. E. McIvor, who made some beautiful and well chosen references to his departed comrades in the work of the church.

The motion was seconded by the Rev. A. S. Lewis, who gave a much appreciated address on the Dignity of Inconspicuous Service. A prayer was then offered by the Rev. W. M. Smallman. During the service the choir and congregation joined in the singing of several hymns.

At the conclusion of the memorial service the business of the convention was resumed, the principal business of the session was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The report of the nominating committee was presented and the balloting on the names presented resulted as follows:

President, Rev. Dr. W. C. Goucher, D. D. Wolfville (N. S.); 1st vice-president, N. B. Smith, Halifax (N. S.); 2nd vice-president, J. P. Gordon, Charlottetown (P. E. I.); secretary, A. J. Archibald, St. John (West); assistant secretary, Rev. E. R. Mason, Portmouth; editor of the Year Book, Rev. R. J. Collette, Kenner Ridge (N. B.); secretary-treasurer, Dr. H. H. Coleman, M. D., Moncton (N. B.).

The installation of the newly elected officers then took place. The retiring president, Rev. Dr. J. W. Manning, of Wolfville (N. S.), gave a farewell address to the convention. This address was most inspiring and contained several brilliant passages. Following the address of the retiring president the convention listened to the report of the board of western missions. This in turn was followed by the report of the Grand Ligne Mission board, and both were enthusiastically received by the convention.

The evening session was devoted to the subject of home and foreign missions. Interesting addresses on the subjects were delivered by Rev. L. W. Porter, representative of the home mission board, and Rev. M. E. Fletcher, field secretary of the eastern section of the foreign mission board.

J. W. Spurden, retiring chairman of the eastern section of the foreign mission board, also gave his farewell address to the convention.

Miss Flora Clark, missionary, who has been home on furlough, gave a farewell address and leaves Monday to resume work in India.

Passengers and Crew of Wrecked Schooner, Including Women Reach Sydney

(Sydney Post.) Passengers and crew of the schooner Rose of Sharon, which was wrecked in Stag harbor run, on her way from Cape Charles, Labrador, Friday last, have arrived here and tell a thrilling story of their experience.

The vessel had a fine run up the shore from Labrador until early Friday morning when a gale of wind sprang up. The sea began to rise quickly and she was heaving up the run when the wheel chains gave out. She ran up in the wind and before the men had time to realize she was hard and fast ashore on a reef. She began to pound heavily, and to stay by the mainmast the vessel heeled over. The men had to hold on to the rigging. Having no other recourse, they were forced to jump overboard and swim to the shore. The vessel was wrecked in a few minutes and the crew and passengers were scattered all over the reef. The women were all saved, but the men had a very rough time of it.

OPPOSITION TO SCHEME FOR STEAMER LINE FROM PORT OF GALWAY

Lord Killanin Coming to Canada to Lay the Matter Before the Government

London, Oct. 21.—Lord Killanin, the Irish peer who is leading the scheme to make Galway a port for Canadian and American steamers, has met with a great deal of opposition. One of the chief objections advanced has been that passengers to and from Canada would not care for so many changes from the English train to the Irish packet, then to the trunk line and finally to the ocean steamer. It is now proposed to have a ferry train service so that passengers would get into the train, say at Euston, and remain until they left at 11.45. Jack Rose and Sam Schepke testified that Becker was elsewhere at that time.

On the other hand, the German officers have entered France by way of French Alsace-Lorraine as freely as any ordinary tourist.

Ruptured People—Try This For Relief And Cure

Here is something you can try sixty days without having to risk a single cent of your money. Something which has cured—in the last twenty-four years—thousands of ruptured people—

Remember that we ask you to take no chance. We will make a true estimate for your case and send it to you and allow you 60 days to prove that it will hold your rupture—that it will put an end to the trouble you've heretofore had and improve your condition. If it fails to prove this, we'll be the losers, not you.

Get World's Greatest Rupture Book so that you can judge for yourself. We will send you a free book with a 60-day trial. Write for a cloth-bound book of 60 pages. It tells you who have real relief. It's the best book ever written on Rupture.

This is more than a truss—more than merely a device to hold your rupture in place. For your protection we guarantee in writing that the Cluthe Truss will keep your rupture from coming out—when you are working, exercising, taking a bath (this truss is water proof)—every minute of the day. If a 60 days' trial doesn't prove it, the truss won't cost you a cent.

And, in addition, a Cluthe Truss provides the only way ever discovered for overcoming—permanently—the cause of the real cause of rupture. While wearing the weak ruptured parts of all strains, the Cluthe Truss constantly strengthens the ruptured parts.

Curving Begins at Once This message is so beneficial that nearly all feel better and stronger—get immediate relief—after using this truss. Cluthe Truss has cured some of the worst cases on record—

This is Curtis' Prediction—The Record Now is 108 Miles

Glenn H. Curtiss has about completed a flying machine in which he predicts that aeroplanes will be traveling at the rate of 200 miles an hour. He spent several months in Baddeck, where he assisted Dr. Alexander Graham Bell in conducting experiments.

Speed will have no bounds in the future. Aeroplanes are now going considerably more than 100 miles an hour. A motorcycle has gone at the rate of 137 miles an hour. An aeroplane should be able to go even faster. With the help of a strong wind blowing in the direction of flight, 200 miles an hour ought to be possible of attainment.

Machines for high speed, however, must be made of materials of great strength and stiffness. The amount of surface of the planes to lessen friction, and so that when we want to go more slowly and land in light and to fly more slowly in starting and landing.

Touching on speed and its effect, Mr. Curtiss says: "The record now is 108 miles an hour now (August, 1912), and we will not be surprised to see it climb up in proportion as the engine power is increased. I believe that by the time we can fly much over 100 miles an hour there will be some very important causes far more than the present ones."

By the time we can fly much over 100 miles an hour there will be some very important causes far more than the present ones. The driver of an aeroplane sitting out in an unprotected cockpit causes far more "head resistance." It will be an easy matter to arrange some sort of protection for him.

Body Off For Water Sydney, N. S. Oct. 20.—Sydney has with in the past few days, to face a very serious situation. The dry weather which has prevailed of late has caused great diminution of the supply of water in the reservoir, which went so low that it had to be done quickly to save the city from a water famine.

C. M. B. A. Course Opened An excellent sacred concert was given under the auspices of the C. M. B. A. in their rooms in Union street last evening. It was the first of the winter course, and the large hall was crowded. Among those taking part were Miss Josephine Fitzpatrick, A. McCarron, Misses Connors, Beattie Wetmore and Frank Hays; Mrs. J. P. Morriay and Master A. Moore. The accompaniments were played by Miss Malloy of Barville, Miss Harrington and J. A. Kelly. R. J. Walsh, president of the branch and grand deputy, presided and made a pleasing speech at the opening. The first lecture will be by Judge Cartleton on Nov. 10.

School For Deaf Pupils Given Treat The pupils of the School for the Deaf, with some of the staff, were the guests of the Star Theatre on Saturday afternoon. For a week previous the younger members of the school, especially, have been looking forward to the entertainment with thrills of excitement and gratification was no less than their anticipation. This is the one form of popular amusement which the deaf can enjoy as well as anyone else and they were delighted with the pictures and with the kindness of the management. Rip Van Winkle was the special attraction on Saturday.

ST. JOHN LAWYER'S EXPERIENCE. As the result of a mix-up in the court room, V. H. Truman, formerly of St. John, and another lawyer, E. J. McMurphy, were sentenced by the provincial judge, magistrate of Winnipeg to ten days in jail on the charge of stealing court documents. But later were released on their own recognizances to appear next Friday. Mr. Truman rose to address the court and read a long paper, apparently intended to make a copy of them. Then the sentence was imposed. The magistrate said, threatened to throw a chair at another lawyer, engaged by Mr. Truman, if he did not get out of the court. The case was a political one.

REASONS WHY

- Lonesomeness sometimes drives a man to drink
Wife Out of Town is a good excuse.
Taking Just One usually winds up in a spree.
Meeting An Old Pal is almost a sure way.
Quiet Game of Cards is a temptation.
Trying to Cure a Cold is a sure way.
Quarrels at Home "SOME WAY."

But the most deceiving way is to try to drink unnoticed, it's only a matter of time and you're off to the races. Better stop now before it gets you, it has had stronger and better men than you. Don't let drinking interfere with your business.

NEAL INSTITUTE

46 Crown St. Cor. King St. East ST. JOHN, N. B. B. L. STEVENS, Manager Phone, Main 1685

REV. DR. RAYMOND HOME

Rev. Dr. W. O. Raymond returned to the city on Saturday from Ottawa, where he was attending a meeting of the national committee of the Canadian Archbishops. There was a full attendance at the meeting and those present included Sir Hugh Walker, Professor Wrong, of Toronto; Professor Colby, Abbe Gosselin, Quebec; Mr. Champin, Quebec, and Dr. Short, Dr. A. G. Dougherty, Mr. Le Sar, of Ottawa; Archbishop Armitage, of Halifax, and Rev. Dr. Raymond.

The session was an interesting one and several valuable documents, obtained recently for the collection, were presented, and measures were taken to secure some personal collections. It was also decided to take facsimiles of the most valuable documents and those that might prove of great interest and instructive to historic scholars, and distribute them through the different cities in Canada. The Archives building is already becoming too small for the extensive collection and even at this early stage the contributions are very numerous.

The members were given a dinner at Rideau Hall, at which Premier Borden presided, and Dr. Boehm, secretary of the archdiocese, held the vice chair. Archbishop Raymond sat at the right of the premier.

On his way home, Dr. Raymond attended the synod at Montreal, at which representatives from all the eastern provinces were present, including the Bishop of Nova Scotia, Fredericton-Montreal and the western diocese. One of the most interesting features of the meeting was the sending of a Canadian Bishop to Japan. Rev. Heber J. Hamilton is being sent as bishop to supervise the Canadian missionary work. This is the second bishop that has gone from Canada to do missionary work in the east. Not long ago, Bishop White was sent to China.

Many other matters of interest were dealt with and there were several committee meetings, including the preparatory committee and the Sunday school committee.

Schoolgirl's Exhausted Nerves

Headaches, Dizzy Spells and Weakness Overcome by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

At about the age that most girls are working hardest at school studying for examinations there are important physiological changes taking place which are an additional strain on the nervous system.

Mrs. J. A. Gallop, 115 Victoria street, St. John, N.B., whose husband is a carpenter, states:—"We have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in our family for nervousness, headaches, dizziness and nervous dyspepsia, and have found them satisfactory in every particular. My daughter Bessie was going to school, and became quite run down in health. By the time she had used three boxes of this remedy her nerves were steady, her general health was excellent and she was entirely free from headaches and dizzy spells. We are more than pleased with the results of this treatment."

More recently we used the Nerve Food for my granddaughter, who was nervous, restless, and noticed improvement in her condition at once."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmanon, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

LATEST HARVEST IN 40 YEARS

The Charlottetown Guardian's Eastern correspondent from Red Point writes that harvesting in still engaging the attention of many of the farmers, and this the middle of October. The writer thinks this is the latest harvest known since 1872. The crop is generally a good one, although some of the late oats will not ripen.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY, HOME AND ABROAD

Baseball The Players' Union. New York, Oct. 21.—Directors of the Baseball Players' Fraternity elected David L. Paulin, a former big league star, as president, at a meeting here on Sunday.

Hal Chase's Divorce Case. New York, Oct. 20.—The divorce plans of Hal Chase, the first baseman of the New York American League team, and his wife received a setback when Supreme Court Justice Greenbaum refused to accept the report of Referee Alvin Untermyer, recommending a divorce for Mrs. Chase.

Justice for the Fans. At the Faneuil Hall celebration in Boston in honor of the Red Sox, Mayor Fitzgerald said in part: "I wish to express the hope that, because of the very successful financial season the Boston club has had, it will see its way clear to extend the number of fifty-cent seats. While the people of Boston will be very willing to back the baseball management by paying a proper admission fee to meet the expense of building up and maintaining a suitable grounds, they should not be compelled to pay a large admission fee than what conditions warrant."

After the Series. It is now said that inside baseball defeated the Giants, due to the fact that the Red Sox were able to catch the signals of "Jell" Toseau in the latter portion of the first game.

For the first few innings Toseau had the Red Sox batters in the air. They were "swinging 'em out" because they had not the slightest idea of what he was going to serve up next. But all things come to those who wait, and the Speed Boys (one in particular claims the credit, so it will have to be extended to all made the important discovery that whenever Toseau lifted the ball to his face and, apparently very carefully moistened the pellet, the delivery was almost sure to come across high and fast, while when he passed the fingers of his right hand carefully across his lips, as though wiping his mouth, it was time to look for the low-breaking splitter.

It was in the sixth inning this important discovery was made, and armed with this information, the Red Sox went into the seventh period and won the game by making three runs. And by winning they got the jump on the Giants which eventually enabled them to win the series.

Snodgrass or Merkle? New York, Oct. 20.—There are two subjects of conversation among the fans who follow the fortunes of the Giants. These are the failure of Snodgrass to hold the fly ball hit to him by Clyde Engle, and Merkle's failure to go after a foul ball hit by Speaker in the 10th inning of the deciding game between the Giants and the Red Sox last Wednesday.

There was much difference of opinion as to which of the two was the more responsible for the downfall of the Giants in the most dramatic post-season series ever played. The members of the team had only words of sympathy for the man who will be talked about and roared wherever New York fans meet during the coming six months. President Garry Herrmann of the National Commission announced that Umpire Klem, Ripper, O'Loughlin and Evans will receive a bonus of $250 each for the excellent work they did during the eight games played in the series. This makes the recompense of each of the indicator handlers $1,000 for the series. There was not a word of objection to this from anybody. All those who saw the games agree that the umpiring was as near perfect as it is possible for that kind of work to be. Manager John McGraw of the Giants, said "I am delighted to hear that the work of the umpire was appreciated. They deserve all they get. I don't think I ever saw as good work done. Umpire O'Loughlin, behind the bat, in my opinion, missed just one ball in Wednesday's game, and that was in our favor. I think he called a strike on Yerkes in the 10th inning that might have been called a ball. "I don't hesitate to say it is absolutely impossible to beat that record, when you consider the number of balls a pitcher puts up in a game. "In regard to the loss of that deciding game, I have no complaint to make, I do not censure a player for miffing a fly ball. "The loss of that game meant more to me than anybody except myself knows. But I am not complaining. It's the luck of the national game. "I sympathize with Christy Mathewson, the best and greatest pitcher the game ever produced. He has seldom pitched better than he did against the Red Sox in the deciding game. But the luck was against him. "The big fellow hasn't uttered one word of complaint, and I don't think he will. He isn't built that way."

Football Fredericton Wins Again. The Fredericton High School football team carried away a second victory since their arrival in the city, when they defeated the Hothey school team on Saturday afternoon at Robbsey by the score of 3 to 0. The field was in good condition and the weather favorable for good playing an able contest was witnessed by a large number of people. Fredericton scored on a try in the first half. The remainder of the half and the second half was a keen fight and neither team scored. There was very little open playing through the game. Dr. D. Malcolm refereed.

The line-up of the team was: Rothsey—Fullback, Doyle; halfbacks, Hunter, Guy, Coster, D. Oliver; quarters, Beullion, Oty, L. Oliver; forwards, Morrison, Lockhart, Bouvard, Harrison, Connell, Barnhill, Wright.

Upper Canadian Games. Montreal, Oct. 19.—The McGill football team this afternoon defeated the aggregation from Toronto University, for the past three years champions of Canada, by a score of 28-7.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The Ottawa fourteen defeated the Hamilton Tigers in an inter-provincial football match today by a score of 12-7.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—For the second time this season the Toronto Argonauts today defeated the team of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association in an inter-provincial league football match by a score of 13-8.

American College Games. Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 19.—Harvard scored its easiest victory of several seasons over Amherst today, piling up 48 points to Amherst's none on a rain-soaked field.

Princeton, Oct. 19.—Princeton completely outclassed Syracuse this afternoon and when the slaughter was over had piled up 62 points to none.

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 19.—Swarthmore's football team this afternoon defeated the midshipmen by the score of 21 to 6.

West Point, N. Y., Oct. 19.—After two successive years of defeat Yale regained her football supremacy over West Point in a fiercely fought game on the cadet parade grounds today by a score of 6 to 0.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 19.—Brown's beef overwhelmed the University of Pennsylvania's speed 30 to 7 in a smashing old-fashioned game of football here today.

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Pennsylvania State outclassed Cornell in the annual football game of the two colleges here today, and won 29 to 6.

The College Outlook. New York, Oct. 21.—From the showing made thus far this season, it appears that the eastern football championship this year will be fought out by Yale, Princeton, Harvard and Dartmouth. Cornell and Pennsylvania are completely eliminated by their weak early season showing. The army and navy have both been defeated and the Carlisle Indians were tied by Washington and Jefferson, Yale, Princeton and Dartmouth, have each played five games to Harvard's four, with the following results in total scores:

Princeton 234; Dartmouth, 199; Harvard 88; Yale 63.

The Harvard and Yale slates are still free of opposing touchdowns. The route of last Saturday's games demonstrated that the minor eleven has not suffered anything in particular in the change of the rules, which added an extra down in which to make ten yards.

The Ring Not True. There appears to be no truth whatever in the report that Jack Johnson, pugilist, had been killed in Chicago by the brother of Miss Lucille Cameron.

News of the Boxers. K. O. Brown of Chicago and Howard Morrow will clash in Syracuse on October 28.

Dave Desher and Young Nitchie will meet in Marietta, R. I., tomorrow night. Peckey McFarland and Jimmy Duffy have been matched to box in Buffalo next Wednesday night.

Ray Bronson and Clarence Ferns have been booked for a bout in St. Louis the latter part of the month.

Willie Jones and Young Driscoll, featherweights, have been matched to box ten rounds in the main bout at the Boyle A. C., Brooklyn, next Wednesday night.

George Ashe of Philadelphia and Larry English of Brooklyn will go ten rounds and Bant Dorsey and "Special Delivery" Hirsch are also carded.

Edna Morgan, an English bantam, who recently outpointed Frankie Burns of Jersey City, will sign to box Johnny Coulon, American bantamweight champion, ten rounds at Madison Square Garden, New York. Morgan has agreed to make 116 pounds ring-side.

Al Kaufman, who was knocked out by Luther McCarty, in San Francisco, says he is through for good. After his bout with McCarty he turned to his seconds and said: "Well, boy, I've fought my last fight in the ring. When an inexperienced fighter like McCarty can stop me in two rounds I am satisfied I am all in and should quit the game."

DEADLOCK POSSIBLE IN U. S. ELECTION. Writer Sees Possibility of Sherman or Secretary Knox as President.

The possibility of a deadlock resulting from the triangular presidential fight is being seriously discussed. By many people it is thought that there will be a failure on the part of any candidate to secure a plurality of the votes in the electoral college. This will throw the election into the National House of Representatives, where another failure to secure a plurality vote will probably be recorded. From the house the election would then go to the senate, where it is predicted that the present vice-president, Mr. Sherman, would probably be elected.

But the suggestion that to Mr. Sherman might fall the presidential prize has in it still one more irony of fate. A despatch received from Utica, New York, the home of Vice-President Sherman, a few days ago describes him as being so ill at his home that all hope of his participation in the campaign has been abandoned by the Republican party leaders. His physician is said to have told Mr. Sherman that his condition is extremely critical and that the slightest activity, political or business, may prove fatal. It is said that the vice-president's trouble is heart disease in chronic form, very far advanced, and he can never expect to be a really well man again. This widens the outlook still more as a matter of pure conjecture and suggests that, after all, a series of extraordinary events may develop which would place Secretary of State Philander C. Knox as the next president. It is entirely within the range of possibility, that the triangular fight may prevent a plurality of the electoral or congressional vote thus causing the choice to fall upon Mr. Sherman. And if Mr. Sherman has heart disease, as he undoubtedly has, it might not unkindly and too grimly be suggested that the shock of the chief magistracy mantle falling on his shoulders might be too much for him and we would then have to start down the presidential succession—through the long line of precedents established in the cabinet—beginning, of course, as has been made and provided since the death of McKinley, with the secretary of state.

Hartley Flewelling and Henry Wheaton of Indianville returned on Saturday after a successful hunting trip to the Canaan Forks. Each of them brought down a good-sized moose. TO TRY TODAY.
Taking advantage of the first day in which the weather conditions have been at all favorable the Maritime Dredging and Construction Co., Ltd., will make an attempt this afternoon to raise their scow which was sunk in the west channel ten days ago. PRESENTATION.
A very pleasing event took place in the letter carriers' room in the post office on Friday last, when Superintendent George Withers, on behalf of the letter carriers, presented to J. A. Mallan an address and a purse of gold. Mr. Mallan has been employed with the post office department for about thirty years and has recently been superannuated. He replied briefly to the address, thanking his fellow employees for their gift, and presented each of those present with a miniature Nelson shield as a remembrance.

MOVED COAL PLANT.
The coal plant in the I. C. R. yard has been transferred to the eastern side of the round-house. A distance of about 600 yards from where it was formerly located on the western side. The removal is for convenience as it was considered that it would facilitate the work of coaling if the engines could be loaded on their way out, outside the round-house. The situation in regard to the coal supply is greatly improved, and now with the work of the round-house plant completed, it will be easier to keep a larger quantity in stock.

CONVICTION IN LIQUOR CASE REVERSED BY JUDGE FORBES TODAY

Question Was Use of Imperial or Wine Measure—Several Matters in Probate

An interesting case was heard on appeal before Judge Forbes this morning, when the conviction of the police magistrate against Michael Quirk, a retail licensee, for selling liquor in illegal quantities, was set aside, and a fine of $50 and costs of $25 ordered to be returned to the defendant.

The law permits the keeper of a retail saloon to sell quantities up to one quart, and the defendant, according to the evidence, sold two pint bottles of gin. There are twenty ounces in an imperial quart, and the amount of liquor sold was more than sixteen ounces and under twenty.

The question arose as to which should govern. The magistrate held that the wine measure was meant and imposed a fine of $50 and costs.

It was shown on appeal that the act made the use of any other than an imperial measure illegal and imposed a penalty of $50 on any licensee using a quart measure of different quantity. It was therefore argued that the magistrate had fined the defendant for not doing something that was in itself illegal. Sinclair and MacIsaac appeared for the defendant.

Probate Court
The matter of the estate of James O'Flaherty, butcher came up today. He died intestate on April 4, 1885. He left three daughters, Hannah, Bridget and Margaret. Bridget died in 1910. Margaret married Thomas Mitchell, tinsmith. Both since died leaving five children. It being necessary to obtain administration for the purpose of settling the estate, a lease in Brunswick street of the value of about $500 at the time of the intestate's death, administration was granted to Hans O'Flaherty, Doctor R. F. Quigley, K. C., executor.

The matter of the estate of Eliza Jane Merritt, widow of Gabriel Merritt, came up. She died intestate leaving two sons, David W. and Archer C. Puddington, and three daughters—Agnes Manks, Elizabeth Travis and Jennie E. Puddington, child of David W. Puddington. He was appointed administrator, letters to issue on the expiration of fourteen days from the death of the deceased. There is no real estate, personal estate $800. Robert G. Murray is executor.

The court also took up the matter of the estate of John H. McLaughlin, baker. He died intestate leaving his wife Margaret; two sons John and Charles J., and two daughters, Mary Emeline, wife of Walter S. Davidson of Moncton, and Sarah Frances, wife of Humphrey Sheehan. On the petition of the widow and two sons the widow was appointed administratrix. There is no realty; personal estate $690. J. Roy Campbell is executor.

In the matter of the estate of Catherine Murray, widow of Bernard Murray, city constable, who died in 1878, there was return of citation obtained on the application of Francis Haggood, a creditor in the sum of $200, wife of George J. Haggood, painter, for administration. The only next of kin are a nephew James H. Gallagher of Birmingham, Alabama, who renounces in favor of the petitioner, and a niece Catherine E. Brannen of Zion City, Illinois, children of Daniel Gallagher, a brother of the deceased. The personal estate is of nominal value. The real estate consists of a lot on the north-west corner of Elliott row and Pitt streets. R. G. Murray is executor.

In the matter of the estate of John Ryan, grocer, there was return of a citation to pass the accounts of Patrick and Roudy Ryan, the executors. All the legacies having been paid, the accounts as filed were passed and allowed. J. Joseph Porter, is executor.

BULL AND COW MOOSE CHARGED TOGETHER AT ST. JOHN HUNTSMAN

Frank Martin Draws Lesson For Moose and Deer Hunters From Experience in Mispec District

Frank Martin, of Brussels street, has had a good deal of experience in the woods hunting and fishing, in fact the open appeals to him very strongly and the seasons do not pass without one or more visits to the woodland. A recent experience while moose hunting in the Mispec district perhaps looked upon by him as all in the course of things to be expected while to face the hunter and then charged together at full speed. "It was," said Mr. Martin, "for all the world like two rats seen grating near the place where the killing occurred. He knew nothing of it until he received word by telephone from some members of a section crew at work nearby that there was something the matter with his cattle, as they had heard loud and repeated calls from where they were in pasture, and it seemed as though something had gone wrong.

On hurrying to the spot Mr. McCarthy found the finest animal in his herd missing but the bleeding dead lying upon the ground told that the steer had been killed, and there was other evidence to show that it had been quartered and removed. Whether the steer was shot or not could not be determined, nor is it known who committed the action, but Mr. McCarthy is endeavoring to learn more in the matter. He was in the city on Saturday and reported his loss to the police.

STEER KILLED AND QUARTERED AND THE MEAT STOLEN

One of Herd Belonging to Joseph McCarthy so Deal With in Field Near Spruce Lake

A miserable piece of thievery took place on Saturday last near Spruce Lake, when a fine steer owned by Joseph McCarthy, of Five-fathom Hole, near Musquash, was slaughtered and cut into quarters either for marketing or for private consumption. Mr. McCarthy has a fine herd of cattle, numbering a dozen or more, and they have been grazing near the place where the killing occurred. He knew nothing of it until he received word by telephone from some members of a section crew at work nearby that there was something the matter with his cattle, as they had heard loud and repeated calls from where they were in pasture, and it seemed as though something had gone wrong.
