MEMORIAL FOUNTAIN.

Another Letter from Hamilton MacCarthy—The Proposed Site.

Some time ago a letter from Hamilton MacCarthy, the sculptor, in which he offered to furnish a model for a memorial fountain was published in the Star. Mr. MacCarthy has since written another letter to the Star, and ladies in which, among other things, he states: "If you think it will assist you in procuring a site I will proceed to get you out the model as promised with as little delay as possible. I shall be glad to receive any further suggestions as to details connected with the fountain part of the design; $2,100 will not provide a statue in bronze on a very large scale, combined with the granite base and basin, but I shall do my best as regards the site, and will make the model on a scale so that you can judge of the size."

Some further conversation has been held between the north end ladies and the owners of Leary Place, in regard to the purchase of the land, but the price has not yet been agreed upon. A number of prominent real estate men have been asked their opinion on the value of the property, and in every case their valuation has been considerably lower than the amount asked by Mr. DeVeber.

The ladies do not feel capable of undertaking the task of raising $2,500 for the purchase of the site, but if the price is made lower and more in accord with the valuation made by others they are willing to do their utmost. Or they will endeavor to raise $1,000 or $1,200 provided the city arrange for the balance of the purchase money.

The regular quarterly meeting of the city W. C. T. U. will be held today in the Union hall, Main street, at three o'clock. Reports will be read from the different unions. In the evening there will be a public meeting at the hall at which addresses will be delivered.

THE WATER CARNIVAL.

The members of the Neptune Rowing club are working hard to make their water carnival on Lily Lake Saturday, the 22nd, a success. Every evening for some time past all the club boats have been in use, by members practicing for the different contests. The events will be practically the same as those of the carnival of two years ago, which attracted several thousand people to the park. There will be heat races, single, double and four-oared, swimming races and special events. A large number of entries have been received already, and more are expected before the list closes. There is some talk of engaging a boat for the afternoon, but that has not been definitely decided yet. It has been suggested that the city might do that part. The committee having the whole affair in charge will meet tonight to make further arrangements.

POLICEMEN'S HOLIDAYS.

The police are inquiring when their holidays are to commence. As a general rule they say that from the middle to the latter part of May is the proper time, and now, although the holidays are not yet in, it is no word yet of holidays. With about thirty men on the force, each of whom gets ten days off, and only one or two of them allowed to go at one time, the last few men will probably be freed from duty about Christmas, a very unsuitable time for holidays. They think something ought to be done in the near future.

COWARDLY BOYS.

Last evening a young lad by the name of Seely, who lives on Durham street, complained to Officer Anderson that some other boys had put him in the fountain. The officer, who is a very kind and good natured man, he certainly did look like something that had been molested. The lad stated that he was employed as a messenger, and because he was a stranger boy the others teased him, and after chasing him around the square he deliberately lifted him into the fountain.

AT SQUIRREL COT.

As stated in the Star, Geo. W. Packard, S. W. McLeod and Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., went to Squirrel Cot, on Chisbolms Lake, 14 miles from Sussex, on Wednesday. They returned on Thursday evening, after having taken hundreds of trout. The largest weighed two pounds and another one and a half pounds. Most, of course, ran much smaller. The weather was perfect and there was no trouble from flies. The lake is a very beautiful one and the club have a fine fishing privilege.

THE I. C. R. EX-TRAIN.

There is a rumor to the effect that the I. C. R. ex-train made pretty nearly schedule time to Rothesay yesterday, and that the habitual patrons of the train were so overcome by the shock of the unexpected that they fainted and threw fits and acted in the most extraordinary manner. The rumor is unconfirmed, but is given as a precautionary hint to the public. It may happen sometime, but the ex-train will make good time, and it is perhaps well to be prepared.

Etta N., the infant daughter of Robert Colwell, died this morning at her father's residence on Victoria street. The body will be taken by train to Salmon river, by special.

POLICE COURT.

Hearing in the Nixon Case Was on Today and Further Adjourned.

Two unfortunate victims of circumstances and an appetite for strong drink were arrested yesterday. Joseph Murphy and John Donovan sat upon the bench, swinging their feet and smarting under a sense of the deep disgrace they had brought upon themselves by their foolish conduct. In spite of the torments of conscience and the swelled heads more painful than any punishment imposed by the court, they were fined four dollars or ten days each.

The case against Capt. Thomas R. Healey, of the steamer Loyalist, for occupying a berth not assigned to him, again came before the court. Col. Armstrong appeared for the captain and evidence was given by the D. A. Steamship line. The berth assigned to the Loyalist was at the Pettigill wharf, where the Prince Edward was lying, and when the Loyalist came to the Prince Edward had not been moved. But she was ready to do so. In the meantime the Loyalist had moved up and occupied a berth at the I. C. R. terminus. As the business was to come before the court at eleven o'clock, the case was adjourned until twelve o'clock.

Robert Nixon, arrested a few days ago, charged with attempting to induce Elizabeth Pike to go to the United States to become an inmate of a brothel, was brought up for examination.

Elizabeth Pike was the first witness. She described how she had first met Nixon. He was driving on Union street and asked her to go for a drive. She did so, staying out until late at night. On one of her later occasions she also went driving. Had not known the prisoner previously. On one occasion he took her out near Spruce Lake. They left town early in the afternoon. Had tea at Mr. Deane's, and there, and afterwards he said he wanted to go to the clubhouse and get a dog belonging to him. On the way he insulted her and she got out of the carriage. He also got out and after very improper conduct, asked her to go to Boston and marry him. He told her that he could not be legally married here, and gave her a ring. She drove back to the city with him and they arranged to go away to Boston last Wednesday, being the day appointed. In the meantime she was prevented from going driving with Nixon last Sunday by a John Ross, who lives at 292 Brunswick street, next door to Miss Pike, and who also gave evidence today. Mr. Ross told her what sort of a man he knew Nixon to be, and the matter was reported to Miss Pike's relatives.

Mr. Ross did not know Miss Pike personally, but he knew her quite often, and as he did not wish her to be led astray by Nixon, he interfered in the matter. His opinion of Nixon was not the very highest, and he knew that the latter always had been a "ladies' man."

George Pike, an uncle of Elizabeth, also gave evidence. Word had been sent to him that his niece and Nixon intended going to Boston, and as he also had a poor opinion of Nixon, and in consequence of what he found out about the matter he laid the information.

The girl is about twenty years of age, her mother is dead and her father is in Boston.

The girl herself told no one of Nixon's conduct towards her on the day they went to Spruce Lake and she says she fully intended going to Boston in the hope of marrying him. The case was adjourned till eleven o'clock tomorrow.

In the case against Barney Devine no further evidence was offered by either side and the case was declared closed.

NORMAN HARRIS MISSING.

The friends and family of Norman Harris, who conducted a shoemaking business on King street, Fredericton, have had no tidings from him for several weeks, and are becoming anxious as to his whereabouts. It appears to have been towards the latter part of May and came to St. John, registering at the Ottawa hotel. He registered at the hotel on a Monday, and the following Wednesday, it is said, disappeared, leaving his personal belongings behind, and all trace of him has been lost.

Harris had the reputation of being a heavy drinker, and his John's chief of police has been notified of the case. It is known that Harris did not have very much money when he left, and it is supposed that, if alive, he cannot be far away from St. John.

Citizens of Amherst will meet next Wednesday evening to consider the question of a sewerage system for the town.

LETTER FROM E. D. OUTRAM.

Who is With the South African Constabulary at Krugersdorp.

The following letter has been received by his mother from E. D. Outram, 16th Troop, A. Division, South African Constabulary, Krugersdorp, Transvaal:—

KRUGERSDORP, S. A., 3rd May '01.
Dearest Mother—Here we are at last under canvas and I am not a bit sorry for it. The trip up from Cape Town was simply beastly. There were forty-seven of us in, or rather on, a flat car, and cramped with no name for our condition. The country generally is very barren and flat, with lots of small kopjes. We passed through Johannesburg yesterday, and thought it a very pleasant and pretty place. I was sorry that I could not see more of it. We got to Krugersdorp about half-past two and had a march about a mile to our tents in a boiling sun. It seems so odd to almost roast during the day and freeze during the night. Of course we have those blankets besides our great coats. This morning we had to go down to the headquarters and undergo another medical examination, which I passed as far as I know, and got sworn in again. As the mail only goes once a week I shall add to this every day till mail day.

Well, this is Monday, and nothing interesting has turned up yet. We had our first drill out here this morning, two hours of it in the sun. However I don't feel any the worse for it. You must please excuse this horrible scrawl, but I find it impossible to write rest the pad. We have not got our horses or uniforms yet, which is rather awkward. On Saturday afternoon I played in a cricket match. Colonialism v. Home-born (English). I made v. twenty-four runs, had a very pleasant afternoon. The game ended in a draw, not having had time to finish it. The weather out here, so far, has been all that can be desired, though, I believe, the rainy season is to come, which is not pleasant to look forward to.

JOHN HENNINGSON'S DEATH.

The coroner's jury in the case of Hennington at Fredericton brought in the following verdict: "That John Hennington's death was caused by the excessive use of alcoholic liquors, consumed on the premises of Newton Lee, and by the culpable neglect on the part of the said Newton Lee in leaving him in a cold room and in making unnecessary efforts to send him home at an earlier hour on Saturday, the 27th day of April last."

BAND CONCERTS.

The hardware clerks of the city have made special arrangements with the bands, by which they hope to have music at the park on Saturday afternoon, and one evening in the week in a central locality in the city, or at the Bay Shore. They are taking up subscriptions to pay the expenses of the bands. It is hoped to raise the requisite amount by subscription for the erection of a band stand in the city.

GOOD QUEEN ALEXANDRA.
Queen Alexandra is noted for her kindness of heart. Walking through Sandringham she came across an aged woman, bent under a burden of parcels. She was a carrier, who carried her living by doing errands. Moved by the sight, the princess, for she was not yet queen, made up her mind what she would do, and the next day she did it. The old lady became the recipient of a donkey and cart. Visiting a prison the princess was shown the instruments for the detection and punishment of crime. "It is all very clean," she said, "but if the world was very, she said, "but if the world was good men as it is to punish the bad what a pleasant place it would be!"
