We were pleased to have the opportunity when in Fredericton the other day of making a call upon Pastor Freeman, and glad to find him happy in his surroundings and his work. Mr. Freeman finds that the climate of Fredericton agrees with him and declares that he was never so strong before. This is not to be set down wholly to the account of the good climate probably, but is in a measure due to the fact that he has become a cyclist, and takes abundance of exercise in the open air. The Fredericton pastor is highly appreciated by his people. He preaches to large congregations, and the church has been much blessed during the past year.

A mile or so away on the other side of the river, in the town of Gibson, we found Pastor Davidson, who ministers to the churches of Gibson and Maryville. He also has been much blessed in his work. A good church edifice stands on the site where the old church was burned two or three years ago. The interior of the building is especially attractive and convenient. We were not surprised to know that the congregations are good, for even with a preacher of much less strength than Bro. Davidson in the pulpit, one could imagine that the people would find it easy to come to so cheerful and comfortable a church. Though the people lost so heavily in the fire by which the place has been visited, there now remains only $700 left upon the house. In spiritual things, also, the church is being built.

It is a pity that so many ministers fall of the grace of simplicity in their pulpit manners. There are preachers who do not impress one as good readers or speakers. They do not make us think about themselves or their eloquence. We find ourselves giving attention to the thing uttered and not to the speaker. There are others who constantly and offensively intrude their personality. They seem to be saying to their hearers all day long—"Observe how admirably I am doing this. This is the way this hymn should be read. This is the style in which this passage should be rendered and not as you are accustomed to hear it from the lips of the ordinary minister." Oh for that rare grace, that divine simplicity, in the pulpit, which like its sister grace vaunteth not itself and is not puffed up.

PASSING EVENTS.

It may be that before this paper shall be in the hands of its readers the Ottawa government will have made known what course it purposes to pursue in the matter of the Manitoba school law—whether to introduce remedial legislation or not, and if so, of what character. But at present writing the intention of the government in this matter is not declared. The Montreal Gazette of July 3rd, however, published an Ottawa despatch which possibly has significance as indicating the line of action which it is proposed to pursue. This despatch is as follows:

"Manitoba remedial legislation may take the form of a supplement to the Manitoba school act of 1890, providing religious exercises in schools, which would, however, remain under the supervision of the provincial government. It is further suggested that the act may contain a clause providing that it shall be in force only in the event of a proclamation of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council. This would give the Manitoba government time to reconsider its action refusing to accept the remedial order of the Dominion government and decide whether it would not be politic on its part to amend its school act itself in the manner indicated and give even a limited measure of relief to the minority in compliance with the judgment of the judicial committee rather than to persist in refusal to obey the highest legal tribunal and force the Dominion parliament to intervene and right the wrong which the Manitoba legislature has done. In the event of legislation being introduced in the present session of parliament and of the bill being mild in its tone and only to be brought into force on proclamation after the Manitoba government has again refused to remedy the grievance of the minority, it is believed that there would not be much opposition to the measure."

In reference to these statements one or two things may be said. The Manitoba Legislature has not, of course, admitted—but quite the contrary—that there are in this case any "wrongs" to be righted. Again it would seem to us doubtful, though we desire on this point to speak with all deference to the opinion of the learned—that the Dominion parliament can constitutionally pass remedial legislation except of such a character as was indicated in the remedial order. That order, as we understand the matter, directed the Manitoba Legislature to restore to the Roman Catholics of the province the same rights and privileges in school matters as they enjoyed previous to the school legislation of 1890, which would appear to be quite a different thing from the legislation foreshadowed in the despatch above alluded to. Can the Dominion Parliament impose upon a province in the interests of any class of people legislation which has not been definitely ordered, and as definitely refused, to enact for itself? It may be, of course, that the Dominion government means to enact such a piece of remedial legislation as that indicated in the despatch, with the idea that the proclamation necessary to give its effect will never be issued. It is possible that between the governments at Ottawa and at Winnipeg there is an understanding that the latter will use its influence to secure in the Manitoba Legislature such amendments to the School law as will so far outcount the Roman Catholics as to cause the agitation for remedial legislation to cease. It is, however, unnecessary to speculate upon the matter. Developments are awaited with interest.

THE South Carolina Liquor Law has attracted a good deal of attention as one of the experiments of the present day to remedy by legislation the appalling evils of the drink traffic. Frequent reference has been made in these columns to the South Carolina law. It will be remembered that its principal feature is the monopoly and control of the liquor business by the State. Local option is guaranteed, so that sections which pronounce against any form of the liquor business are able to prohibit the traffic. Where the sale is permitted it is through dispensaries strictly controlled by the State. In this provision lies at once the strength and the weakness of the system. It makes it a matter of monetary interest for the State to protect its monopoly and prohibit the illegal sale of liquor; it likewise makes it the interest of the State to promote the sale of liquor and thereby add to its profits. In reference to the practical working of the law at the present time, the Springfield Republican says:

"The managers of the state liquor-selling system of South Carolina are evidently determined to make a profit for the state, no matter whether the use of intoxicating drinks is reduced or not. These managers have all along made a great point of the money-making feature of the system, and have bragged that within a few years they would be turning at least half a million dollars a year into the state treasury as profits. They are not reaching that amount at present—there is a dispute as to how much they are making—and seem to have deliberately set to work to increase the sales of the dispensaries with larger profits only in view. To this end the managers at Columbia have ordered that all dispensaries be kept open some three or four hours longer each day, than has been the rule, and there are rumors of other attempts to increase the sales. This sort of thing is not at all pleasing to the temperance people of the state, who had hoped for some reformatory results from this experiment in state control of the liquor traffic—results that could have easily been attained by a wise administration of the law."

EXPERIMENTS recently made on the Nantasket Beach branch of the New Haven railroad system seem to demonstrate the fact that electric motors provide a sufficient and satisfactory motive power for moving heavy freight trains at a good rate of speed. The experiment with electricity as a motive power on this branch—a road devoted principally to summer travel—had been found satisfactory for passenger cars, affording a quick start and a high rate of speed. In the experiment with freight cars a train of eleven heavily loaded cars were brought on the line, having four motors attached, and the train was hauled over the line at a speed of 25 miles an hour. Five more cars were then hitched on, making a total load of 450 tons, and this load was hauled over the line and pushed back without difficulty. The main consideration regarding the introduction of electric power on many roads has reference to expense. Electricity would be preferable to steam in many instances, especially in the elevated system of cities. The working expenses of an electric road are less. It is said, than with steam as a motive power, but with the motors at present available, it is considered that the saving would hardly be sufficient to pay for the expense involved in changing. However, it is said to be probable that before long there will be in the market a motor of a character to make such a change advantageous.

THE death of Prof. Huxley occurred at Eastbourne on June 30th. Prof. Huxley was born on the 4th of May, 1825, and had therefore less than two months before his death completed his seventieth year. He was a native of Ealing, Middlesex, and was for some years educated at the school in his native place, where his father was one of the masters. His school course was supplemented by industries private study, including German scientific literature and instruction in medicine. After a course in Medical study he passed the examination for the degree of M.D. at the University of London, taking honors in physiology. In 1847, he obtained an appointment as surgeon to H. M. S. Rattlesnake. Some years were spent off the eastern and northern coasts of Australia, and the observations and studies of this period being embodied in some works on Natural History served to bring him into notice and prepared the way for the distinguished position as a scientist which he afterwards attained. However little sympathy one may have with Prof. Huxley's agnosticism, a place must be accorded him among the greatest scientists of his time. He was also a master of English prose and his fine literary style lent a charm to all his writings.

Notes From Secunderabad.

It may be of interest to some to hear something of our work among the Telugus of the Deccan. It is not an easy part of India in which to work. The very government of the country is antagonizing the spread of the Christian religion. Being a large state under native rule, it has a Mohammedan king, and all the higher officials throughout H. H. the Nizam's Dominions, are Mohammedans. As an illustration of the opposition with which we meet, I will tell you of an incident that came under our notice recently. A Hindu young man was converted and joined one of our Baptist churches. When he left his heathenism, his land was taken from him in order to register his name as a Christian. After much trouble he was told that he could not have his land as a Christian, but if he would turn Mohammedan he could have it. To this was added other inducements, good office and his children to the temptation. Since that time he has taken and would be glad to give up all these things for Christ, but he fears to do so as the Mohammedans would probably kill him.

The Government also makes our work more difficult by making it difficult for us to secure the necessary land for buildings etc., at new stations. At present our American Baptist Telugu Mission has five stations in the Nizam's Dominions. Of these, Secunderabad is the oldest, then followed Hanamakonda, Palnour, Nalgonda, and Bolanur. The latter was the last station opened, and is at present without a resident missionary, so we may speak only of four.

You have already heard from me of Hanamakonda, our first home in India, and of our pleasant six months spent there in study of the language, and in work with Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Beedy. Palnour was opened up about eleven years ago by Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Chute. A wonderful work has been done there. Mr. Chute has not spared himself in any way, but freely devoted himself to the people among whom he had been called to labor. From the time he went to Palnour he has taken no vacation, has never went for a change or rest, but labored incessantly as few can do in this climate. We are both glad and sorry to say that after thirteen years of hard work in India, he, with his wife and children sailed for America on May 11. This last year he has passed through the deep waters. Last November, his sister who had worked with him on that field for more than six years, was called to her heavenly home. Together they had worked for God and the "Gospel," together they toured year after year over that district. Little wonder the heathen people asked for her this year when they saw him coming among them alone.

It is a pity that so many ministers fall of the grace of simplicity in their pulpit manners. There are preachers who do not impress one as good readers or speakers. They do not make us think about themselves or their eloquence. We find ourselves giving attention to the thing uttered and not to the speaker. There are others who constantly and offensively intrude their personality. They seem to be saying to their hearers all day long—"Observe how admirably I am doing this. This is the way this hymn should be read. This is the style in which this passage should be rendered and not as you are accustomed to hear it from the lips of the ordinary minister." Oh for that rare grace, that divine simplicity, in the pulpit, which like its sister grace vaunteth not itself and is not puffed up.

To this was added other inducements, good office and his children to the temptation. Since that time he has taken and would be glad to give up all these things for Christ, but he fears to do so as the Mohammedans would probably kill him.

One of the many good things we heard and saw at Nalgonda was the music by the school children, given at one of the services. They had been trained by Mr. Freeman's assistant, Mr. R. Wilson, and they sang some Telugu hymns we were much surprised to hear them break forth in English with Dr. Gordon's beautiful hymn, "My Jesus I love thee." We needed only to look into their bright faces to know that Mr. Wilson had not forgotten to explain to them the meaning of those beautiful words.

Secunderabad, though the oldest of the stations, has the least number of native Christians. This may, in some measure, be accounted for by the fact that these other fields have been cut off from the Secunderabad field and some Christians were given over with the new fields.

We came here about a year ago to take part of the work, viz., schools and Bible women. Dr. Timpany has also done some medical work among our native Christians, missionaries families, and some of the Europeans in the town. His chief medical work has been in the school. We have had some severe cases of fever and recently one case of cholera, but we are thankful as we look back over the year that death has not invaded our school.

At Jangagan, 53 miles away, Dr. Timpany also has some work. We have a preacher, a helper, and a Bible woman as well, with about 25 Christians. A few days ago when Dr. Timpany visited this place, he found a man asking for baptism. After examining him it was decided to let him wait a little till he had more clear ideas about the "Way of Life."

We have spent a busy year at the state school work. Our boarding school has more than 80 boys and girls. We spent a long time in trying to secure a proper teacher for them, as every thing moves slowly in this country, but we at last succeeded in securing a man, one of the English Normal school, and feel now that the work goes on better. Beside this boarding school, made up of children from Christian homes, we have had during the year five village schools for heathen children. Here we have the Bible and Christian hymns taught daily. We trust that the seed thus sown may bring forth fruit. As we visit these schools we are accustomed to distribute Christian tracts, not only to the children, but to those who crowd around us to see what is going on.

I wish your readers could go with us from a Christian to a heathen school. I cannot attempt to describe the contrast in the children, but I am sure it would create in all a spirit of prayer. At the time might speedily come when idolatry shall be done away, and our God shall reign in every land and every heart.

Our Denominational Records.

In the First Baptist church of Halifax there is the nucleus of a valuable library, especially in the records of our denominational history in these provinces. The pastor desires, on the church's behalf, to thank those who have so kindly responded to his request for old minutes, and to ask again that those who have copies of Associational records, which they have no special desire to retain, take pains to look them over and see if any can be found that are named in the following list of our deficiencies. Quite often already have persons availed themselves of the advantages our collection affords for acquiring information regarding our historical and missionary endeavors, and we hope that before long our files will be complete.

The minutes of the first meeting of the Nova Scotia Baptist Association, held at Grandville in 1800, found by Dr. Cramp among Father Mann's papers, have just been republished in the MESSENGER AND VISITOR, (May 29, 1895). As far as I can learn no other minutes exist of that association until 1810, when the association joined New Brunswick also. If any have knowledge to the contrary I hope they will not fail to impart it. The minutes of 1814 were printed in 1864 along with Rev. S. DeBolt's jubilee sermon, "Contending for the Faith," delivered at Chester, N. S., and if any person has a copy of this sermon in the pamphlet form which he would be willing to part with we would be glad to come into possession of it. In 1821 this association became two, one being the Nova Scotia N. S. Association and the other as the N. B. Association; and in 1847 the N. B. Association was divided into the Eastern and the Western. Of the N. B. Association from 1822 to '47 (inclusive) we have no copies of minutes in our collection, so that any of those who are gratefully received. Of the Eastern N. B. Association we require only 1850 and '64 to fill out our set. Cannot some good '64 in N. S. promptly forward us these?

We have the Christian Messenger and the Messenger and Visitor from the beginning, Jan. 6, 1837, down to date, but we have not all the issues of the Baptist Magazine, the forerunner of the Messenger. The periodical, the Baptist Missionary Magazine of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, at first a quarterly and then a bi-monthly, was begun Jan. 1st, 1827, and continued until the founding of the Christian Messenger. We lack all the issues of this Magazine for the years 1827, '28 and '29; and we need also the issues of Jan. 1830 and Jan. 1833.

Those persons who will forward any of the aforementioned amount of postage will be returned if senders name and address are furnished. To any who may themselves be seeking complete files I will be glad to mail, on application, any extra copies I may have that they require. Address me at Halifax, Nova Scotia.

A little care taken now in preserving these records will be worth more than we know to some of our present workers. We are many more of our possessors, Ransack your old trunks and boxes then, friends, and give others an opportunity to preserve what may be of little or no value to yourselves, but what will certainly prove of great worth to those who will subsequently be looking for knowledge pertaining to our denominational progress in these Maritime Provinces.

A. C. CURTIS. Halifax, N. S., July 8, 1895.

DEAR BROTHER BLACK.—In your excellent report of our Association one very important detail was left out, namely, the exact character of the report on Temperance.

As this report takes such an extreme ground, I think that the entire denomination should know that the Western Association of Nova Scotia has taken ground on this question higher and stronger than either Association or Convention has ever before taken in these provinces. The long paper, which I handed you was really an essay, of which you have published a brief extract, the real report was on the last sheet. I think I handed you a copy, I herewith enclose a copy which I ask you to publish where you see fit. The MESSENGER AND VISITOR will be likely to see it.

Faithfully yours, ANDREW F. BROWN. Lockeport, June 29, 1895.

REPORT OF TEMPERANCE Presented at Nova Scotia Western Baptist Association, and passed by a unanimous vote Saturday evening, June 15, 1895.

We earnestly recommend that all church members in this association consider themselves obligated to employ every legitimate means for the success of the temperance cause.

This utmost care be taken to secure temperance between public utterance and private action on this important question.

That our 12,000 church members be urged to unite in a battle to the death against the intire traffic in intoxicating liquors.

And that a pledge of total abstinence form a part of the church Covenant.

We are pleased to comply with Bro. Brown's request, but certainly, unless we are much mistaken, the paper of which we gave an abstract was presented to the Association as the report of the Committee on Temperance.—En.

Albert Co. Quarterly Meeting.

The quarterly meeting of Albert Co. was held on the 25th of June, with the Forest Glen church. About the usual number of delegates and visitors were present. The first session was much enjoyed and appreciated by all, mainly on account of the warm and cordial influence that pervaded. Many earnest prayers were offered and humble testimonies given. At the close of this service, the cheering element still continued through the warm and cordial reception all received by the kind people of this picturesque little village. We are sure that no one could feel they were in a strange land. In the evening, we gathered again for a short social service, after which we listened to the quarterly sermon preached by Rev. J. A. Porter, of Springfield, Kings Co., Text, Titus 3:5, Subject, "The work of the True God the sinners only hope." The sermon was quickening and powerful, calculated to arouse the careless sinner. The building was well filled, and the service was characterized by a spirit of harmony and peace. Some change was made in the constitution, as notice of the same had been given previously. Instead of meeting at the usual time as before, the quarterly will meet one month earlier. A resolution was also brought in, to give all moneys taken in the quarterly collections to Home Missions. It was also moved as an amendment that they be given to the denominational objects, as embraced in the Maritime Convention plan. The amendment was carried by a large majority.

The different subjects which came before the quarterly for discussion were well ventilated, and the general feeling seemed to be at the close that we had had a pleasant and profitable gathering. Ministers present: Rev. J. E. Fillmore, D. Blakeney, H. H. Saunders, J. A. Porter, D. Crandall, I. B. Colewell, and A. R. B. (H. S.). There has been no mention made through the press of our last two quarters, the reason seems to be on account of the secretary being absent from each. But we are pleased to report that the first quarterly held with the first Covenantal church was very well attended, and a good interest prevailed throughout. Some was unfortunately the April session came at the time of the rainy season, and a number were prevented from getting there. The piece of meeting was at Salem, and we were glad to learn that in spite of the heavy rain a goodly number met and enjoyed a good season.

The next session will be held with the fourth Hillside church at Baltimore, on the first Tuesday in September.

Contributors to this column will please address Mrs. J. W. Manning, St. John West, N. B.

Perhaps some are saying "When will these dry, tiresome reports of meetings end?" It would not be difficult to fill our column with other things that to the majority might be more interesting reading; but we believe the accounts of these meetings held in different parts of our Provinces do good, and we are narrow indeed if we take no pleasure in knowing what other societies are doing, and are very interested in a meeting held in our own town or association. These meetings show the temperature of all our W. M. A. S. Here we feel the pulse of our Union and judge whether she is in a healthy condition. These meetings afford grand opportunity for service. Many new ideas and helpful methods of work are spoken of that should be a help and blessing to us all. They will soon be over for another year. Then we will gather up all the fragments and spread our annual feast during Convention in St. John.

This year is the 25th anniversary of the organization of our W. M. A. S. and we should make some suitable celebration. What shall it be? This remains to be proved. It will be what we as members of each society choose to make it. Minds are now busy planning for our annual meeting and we would gladly welcome any suggestion from our sisters that may be helpful in making our arrangements. Pray, oh, pray that above all we may have the presence of the Master and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The Woman's Missionary meeting in connection with the N. B. Western Association at Upper Kingsclear, was held in the hall at that place on the afternoon of Saturday, June 29th. It was a rainy afternoon, quite a number gathered, however; though very few of the sisters living in Kingsclear could attend, being occupied with the entertainment of delegates and friends attending the association. Mrs. T. H. Porter, presided, and in a few earnest words, urged the re-organization of an Aid Society in this place, where at one time a flourishing Society had existed.

Rev. R. Sanford, late of India, spoke very encouraging words respecting the work that was being done by AM Societies both at home and through their missionaries on the foreign field, and earnestly urged all to engage in this branch of Christian service.

Mrs. H. G. Estey, secretary of the Fredericton Society, spoke of the beginnings of woman's work for women in heathen lands, and of what has been accomplished and is being done by Aid Societies.

After the close of the meeting a Woman's Missionary Aid Society was organized in connection with the Upper Kingsclear Baptist church. The following officers were nominated: Not all of them were present, but it is hoped they will consent to act and make this Society a success: Mrs. Benjamin Loog, president; Mrs. S. Patterson, Vice-President; Mrs. A. H. Har, Sec.-Treas.; Mrs. Ernest Holyoke, Auditor; Mrs. Arthur Kelly, Mrs. Mary Ann St. John, Mrs. Bart Long, Mrs. E. Hammond, committee of management.

Some of the sisters from Queensbury were present, and hope to organize a Society in connection with the Baptist church there.

We trust the blessing of our Lord will follow this meeting and crown with success the efforts that shall be put forth in His name. E. L. ESTEY, Secy.

The meeting of the W. B. M. U. in connection with the Eastern Association N. S., will be held in Truro, Saturday afternoon, July 13, at 8 o'clock. Should other arrangements have to be made, notice will be given by Mrs. Truro. Our sisters will excuse the tardiness of this notice. The non arrival of letters for which we waited has caused the delay. Let every one come prepared to "lend a hand" and come. Let every one bring that "My Spirit" will be the work accomplished. AMY E. JOHNSON, Prov. Sec'y W. B. M. U., for N. S. Dartmouth.

A ladies missionary meeting will be held at St. Martins on Saturday, July 14th, at 3 p. m. Will the sisters make a great effort to be present and come asking and expecting a great blessing.

A W. M. A. S. meeting will be held at Hillsboro on Saturday, July 30th, at 3 p. m. A large attendance is expected. Let each one be prepared to give as well as receive a blessing.

If any W. M. A. S. or Mission Band in New Brunswick have not yet received a blank form to be filled out for our report, please communicate at once with Mrs. Margaret Cowie, Ch. Man. N. B. and you will be supplied.

Some time has elapsed since your column has been from our little band of "Cheerful" givers. During the winter season we almost lost our identity as far as meeting regularly was concerned, yet the members had the cause of Missions at heart, as was seen by the address which was presented me a few days ago. At the close of the Sunday School, a number of the Band requested me to step to the platform. Thinking it was something in reference to the music I immediately acquiesced, when she began reading an address, and at the same time presented me with a Certificate (Officially framed) of Life Membership in the W. B. M. U. To say that it was a grand surprise is needless. May God bless each donor in my prayer. SCOTTIE E. PARKER. River Hebert, July 4, '95.

God it possesses the qualities of perpetuity and indestructibility in spite of all the enemies by which it has been or may be assailed.

In the afternoon the rededication sermon was preached by Rev. A. B. McDonald, from the words "Ye are Christ's," I Cor. 3:23. This sermon was listened to with profound interest. The preacher was in a very tender mood. He referred at length to his own religious experiences, his conversion and the joy of salvation which then possessed his soul. The strong assurance which he then enjoyed had recently been renewed, so that he was enabled to rejoice with great confidence in his Saviour and to long for the bliss of perfect redemption which he should enjoy when he should be with Christ in heaven.

At the evening service, Rev. J. H. McDonald, of Woodstock, was the preacher, and an evangelistic service followed. We had not the privilege of attending this meeting, but no doubt it was not less interesting and profitable than those which preceded.

The revival influences which the Upper Kingslear church experienced a short time ago, and the additions to its membership, appear to have brought an important and permanent increase of strength to the church. The young pastor, Bro. Whitman is, we learn, highly esteemed by his people and is working faithfully for the upbuilding of the church. We trust that there may be much good in store for the Baptists of Kingslear.

Halifax Notes.

Halifax County district No. 3 Committee held first meeting July 1, in the Book Room, Brother B. H. Eaton was re-elected Secretary-Treasurer for another year. An exploration move toward Oldham and eastern parts of the county is contemplated. "More work and more effectively done" is the motto.

The churches are moving along with routine work. The vacation is at hand and the pews are showing it. Tabernacle held strawberry festival Tuesday evening; proceeds go toward interest account.

North church and First Baptist contemplate Sunday School picnics very soon.

Bro. Chute takes vacation soon, when Brother Elsdon, Waterbury, will occupy the pulpit in his absence.

Bro. Hall and Kempton are holding the fort. West end and Cornwallis street churches are pastoring. Dr. Blackburn, Cambridge, Mass., will occupy the pulpit, North church, four Sundays, in July and August. Rev. W. B. Boggs supplied 1st Baptist on Sunday morning last and North church in the evening. The large audience listened attentively one hour to notes concerning India, past, present and future, the great needs of the human world and our responsibility was emphasized, and the Maritime Baptists urged to do more for their mission in India and he believed that the time was near at hand when many of the Telugu would yield to the claims of Jesus. He urged praying labor and giving as very essential to the work.

Bro. Chute held a reception for Bro. Boggs on Monday evening. A large number were present and enjoyed a treat. Bro. Boggs answered a number of questions relating to India, and his work among the people. Dr. Kempton in an earnest prayer, commended to our God our brother and his family, remembering our Mission interests and long friends in the field. After singing "God be with you till we meet again" Dr. Boggs offered parting prayer and benediction. "Good bye," "farewell" and "God bless you" were the last words we heard as we left this delightful occasion. Our sympathies were especially for the aged father of Dr. Boggs who was present and was deeply affected by the exercises.

The Maritime Medical Association is holding their annual session in this city. A large number of doctors are visiting. They meet next year at Sydney, C. B.

The city is to have an electric street railway, and operations have begun. It is to be running in September.

Tourists from the United States are here for a season. The cool weather, beautiful gardens and park will certainly suit them.

Public schools close for vacation next week (Friday).

Strawberries are here in abundance, and everybody is happy—this includes the writer.

Ordination.

At the request of the 3rd Elgin Baptist church, Golden Mt., Albert Co., a council was called to consider the advisability of setting apart to the work of the Christian ministry Bro. Adam Rutledge. On June 26th the council met with the church. Some invited were unable to attend. The following is a list of churches represented: Stadholt, Mt. Hillsboro, 2nd Hillsboro, 1st Elgin, 2nd Elgin, 2nd Elgin, Petwood, Birtwell Ridge, Alma, 1st Coverdale, 1st Salisbury.

Rev. J. A. Porter was called to the chair and a secretary appointed, after which the list of delegates was read. Bro. A. F. Brown was requested to lead in exhorting the candidates. Bro. Rutledge then related his Christian experience, call to the ministry and views of Christian doctrine. After the Bro. had been questioned by different members of the council and retired, it was moved by Rev. J. C. Standman, and seconded by Rev. H. H. Saunders that the council recommend the church to proceed with the ordination. The motion was carried unanimously.

In the evening the following program was carried out: Sermon by Rev. J. A. MacNeil, from II Tim. 3:15; ordination prayer by Rev. J. C. Standman; charge to minister, Rev. H. H. Saunders; hand of fellowship, Rev. J. B. Caldwell; charge to the church, Rev. J. B. Brown; benediction, Rev. A. F. Brown.

Our Bro. is held in high esteem by his people. He is a man of God, and will with us in our September session.

Denominational News.

NEW GEMMANY, LEBANON CO., N. S.—After a pleasant pastorate of five years I have now resigned my position as pastor of this church, and will be free to serve another church in three months time. G. P. RAYMOND.

NEWCASTLE, NORTH CO., N. B.—I am holding meetings at Derby, a section of Newcastle church. The Spirit of God is moving upon the minds of some. A number have expressed their hope in, and love for Christ. Pray for us.

July 3. W. J. BLAKNEY.

LITTLE RIVER, Kent Co.—On July 1st Rev. W. W. Weeks of Moncton preached for us, text Rom. 5:10. Sermon, a clear and well defined exposition of God's sovereign love. Congregation large, attentive and appreciative. Two happy believers followed Christ in baptism. Others are coming.

SPRINGFIELD, ANNA CO.—The house of worship is undergoing repairs which when completed will give the Baptist church here a very tasty and commodious home. The new pastor, Rev. J. Webb, was formally installed on Thursday evening, June 27. The services were held at 7.30 p. m. Bro. King, J. W. Brown and G. P. Raymond took part in the services.

KINGSTON, N. S.—On June 30th, it was my privilege to baptize five rejoicing converts into the fellowship of the Kingslear Baptist church. The good work still goes on. The Holy Spirit is moving the hearts of the people. Many members are expressing a desire to consecrate themselves to the Master's service, and sinners are enquiring the way of salvation. Brethren pray for us.

July 1. L. J. TINGLEY.

HILL GROVE, Digby Co.—Bro. McGregor calls our attention to errors in his report of last week as to the change made in the church here. It should say the platform of the meeting house at Hill Grove has been lowered, enlarged and furnished, much to the improvement of the house. The choir now occupy the platform in rear of the pulpit. The name of Jamie Mallet should have appeared in the list of the baptised at South Range in Bro. McGregor's report from Barton.

MAIN STREET, St. John.—Pastor Gordon and his enterprising people have a large job on their hands. The long felt want of a large place for the church are about to supply. Already the work is commenced. The old building has been moved to the rear of the lot, and the foundation is being put in for the new church. The new structure, of fine proportions, some 10x80 feet, built of brick with stone trimmings, with all the modern conveniences for church worship and work. The enterprise so wisely planned and well begun is a credit to the Baptist as a denomination, and commands the best wishes of all who take an interest in the progress of our city.

LAWRENCEVILLE, N. S.—Four believers were recently buried with Christ by baptism here and another in the city. Several have also joined by letters. Our B. Y. P. U. has been reorganized and is doing excellent work. All the departments of the church work are in a healthy condition and there is much to interest and encourage. Our parsonage has undergone extensive repairs and painting is now one of the prettiest and best in these parts. The Williamson sections of the church have taken decided steps to revive their church. Shortly after moving into the parsonage the church gave us a warm-hearted reception, and presented Mrs. King with an excellent set of dishes and other articles for which they have our united thanks. Zion, here beautiful for situation and the joy of all who love her.

BALDWIN.—We expect to close our labors with this church the last Sunday in July. With the exception of two weeks at Christmas and two Sundays in August we have been trying in our feeble way to sow the seeds of righteousness on the outskirts of the field since December 16, but regular work was not begun in Baldwin proper before April. We feel sure that from the goodness of the congregations and their close attention to the word of God, that good has been done though we cannot say that there are any perceptible results from our labors. There may be baptism here, we leave the field, but some at least of the parishes concerned here, we believe, have been converted through the instrumentality of the noble band of Christian workers at Baldwin's corner. Any Baptist field carter to have the services of a licentiate for a year may if it wishes communicate with the undersigned. F. B. LEVINE, DeWolfe's Corner, Chert Co., N. B.

PENFIELD.—Since our last report Bro. Wallace has spent a few days in our midst, and held a few special services which were well attended and were marked by the presence of the Holy Spirit. We have also received two more of our girls who were baptized some time ago by Bro. Wallace. I find my work here very pleasant and I trust profitable to pastor and people. Our services are well attended, and a good interest manifested in general church work. The interest is especially good in connection with the young people's work. These meetings are well attended and our young converts as well as the older members are ever anxious to do what they can in advancing the good cause. By the efforts of our young people a very interesting missionary service was provided for last Sunday evening. A programme of about 30 numbers was successfully carried out, which was followed by a short address by the pastor on the "Last Commission." The house was well filled and a collection amounting to about $40 was taken to be forwarded to Bro. Manning for the Foreign Mission work. For the first time since coming to this church, we are called to mourn. Bro. Philip Justason who has been a member of this society since 1822, passed into the presence of his people on God. The life of our brother has been a bright testimony to the world, of the power of Christ to save. A very impressive service was held at the church, the pastor preaching from Rev. 14:13. There are quite a number of very aged people belonging to our church. While calling one afternoon a short time since, I had the pleasure of meeting with 5 persons the average age of whom was about 70 years. The Country Churching and with bright with us in our September session.

Personal.

From one of our exchanges we learn that Rev. C. E. Eaton, pastor of Natik, Mass., is about to take a trip to England, under very pleasant circumstances. Mr. E. is a popular speaker, and successful in his success maritime principalities who claim him as one of themselves, take great pleasure.

Rev. J. Clark of Turner's Falls, Mass., has been granted by his church a month's vacation, commencing July 8, which he will spend chiefly in N. S. He is expected to preach at the churches of Halifax, on the 14th July. His many friends in N. S. will be glad to greet him.

Rev. C. W. Townsend, lately of Sherbrook, Quebec, has accepted the invitation of the Cumberland Bay church to serve them in the pastorate. Bro. Townsend is a well known and highly recommended as an able minister. We extend to him a welcome to this very promising field of labor, with the hope that great good may come to the cause of God by his union.

We are pleased to know that Rev. J. L. Shaw, who was so seriously ill during the past winter, is much improved in health. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw are keeping a boarding house, pleasantly and conveniently located on Carleton St., No. 31, and will be glad of the patronage of any Baptist friends or others who may be staying in the city for a longer or shorter period.

"It made me Hands, that Sor... I couldn't sleep; an' if it was that hard on me hands, how hard it must be on the durst!"

This is the way a good old Irish woman praises some washing-powder, or other which she prefers to Pearlina. As it was proven she had never tried Pearlina, the compliment would appear to be in favor of Pearlina.

Whoever heard of any one claiming that Pearlina hurt the hands? But there's the trouble—Pearlina is the original washing compound; its popularity has drawn out thousands of imitations—so popular that to many it indicates any powdered washing material. If you are using Pearlina, you are satisfied; if you are dissatisfied, try Pearlina. If you are using something with which you are satisfied and it is not Pearlina, try Pearlina—you will wonder you were satisfied before. Pearlina is economical and absolutely harmless. Every grocer sells it, as JAMES FYLE, N. Y.

Why Don't You Use Surprise Soap?

It does away with hard work, don't boil or scald the clothes nor give them the usual hard rubbing. (See the directions on the wrapper).

It gives the whitest, sweetest, cleanest clothes after the wash.

It prevents wearing and tearing by harsh soaps and hard rubb. Rub lightly with Surprise Soap,—the dirt drops out. Harmless to hands and finest fabrics.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

SUMMARY NEWS.

It is announced that the Labrador seal fishery is almost a complete failure.

Intending exhibitors should apply at once for space at the International Exhibition at St. John, N. B.

By reference to the ad. of McAdam Junction will be seen that a barber shop has been added.

In the new agricultural and dairy building at St. John, N. B., exhibitors will find a room specially prepared for maintaining an even temperature, and thus preserve the exhibits from injury.

A large number were baptized in the Free Baptist church at Keswick by Rev. P. C. Hartley. Barge revivals are now being conducted in that locality under the leadership of W. C. Keirstead, a young theological student.

A ceremony has been started in Lower Greenville. The directors of the company are Messrs. E. H. Armstrong, S. W. W. Pickett, W. H. Weatherston, E. C. Mills, M. D. Beat and T. E. Thorne. Manager Clarke has charge. The prospect of success is excellent.

Owing to differences of opinion arising between the City Council and the Exhibition Association of St. John, N. B., the publishing of the prize lists have been delayed. Persons desiring copies of the list may address C. A. Everett, managing director, who will mail them when ready.

The bank of Montreal received July 3, from British Columbia a brick of gold weighing 705 ounces and valued at $13,500, the first being the product of the first clean up of the Cariboo hydraulic mining company, of which Sir Wm. Vanhorne and other Montrealers are chief shareholders.

The Exhibition Association of St. John, N. B., are building extensive horse and cattle stalls to house the stock which is now being entered, from all the province, for exhibition at their International Fair in September next. Exhibitors should write to the managing director, C. A. Everett, for copies of entry papers.

The Sun has been asked to state that the reports as to the prevalence of fever in St. Lucia are unfounded. The people of that island are very indignant that such stories should be put in circulation. The fact that burials are being erected at St. Lucia for the accommodation of the Imperial troops, who are to be stationed there, is sufficient answer in their opinion to the damaging story.

The rains of last week did much to improve the crops in the Annapolis valley and in other parts of the province. The crop of grass in meadows and new fields is good, but as usual on old fields it is light. Grain crops as a general thing, look well, especially oats are expected to produce a full crop. There are some nice fields of corn, and potatoes in the Annapolis valley. Beans, turnips and mangles look well. Apples in some parts of the county will not be as full a crop as last year, but the prospect improves. Plums and strawberry crop good.

The Dominion Atlantic steamship Prince Rupert had hardly commenced her promising career ere she was laid by for a few weeks it is feared, by an accident to her machinery. She made a round trip from St. John to Digby and return in the forenoon of July 3, in remarkable quick time. As she was starting on her second trip for the day at half past two, she cracked her high pressure cylinder. A new cylinder had been ordered from Glasgow where her engines were built. The accident has caused great regret, as this fast service on the Bay of Fundy was popular here. It may be expected to be fully supplied an early date. Fortunately the good steamship City of Monticello is still continuing the excellent service she has afforded these several years on this route.

The W. G. Lodge of Independent Order of Good Templars have just closed their annual session in the City of Boston. It was voted to hold the next session of this Supreme Lodge in Zurich, Switzerland, in 1897.

German and French bi-metallics have passed a series of resolutions in favor of international bi-metallicism. The decision to be determined by an agreement between Germany and France, Great Britain and United States. It is believed the conference bases its hopes of agreement on Balfour's accession to office.

The outbreak of rioting in East Boston on the 4th of July is much to be regretted. It is presumably the kind of disturbance that has no rightful place in any civilized country, where individual rights, within the bounds of law, and national freedom are held as sacred possessions of the people. Religious fanaticism and bigotry should be allowed no place at large among peoples of different creeds. These must agree to disagree and live in peace. This is necessary to good citizenship, for it is in any way antagonistic to the promotion of the intelligent religious belief. The Christian religion can in no way be more completely put in bad odor or misrepresented, than by a disregard of the rights of fellow citizens by those who call themselves after the name of Christ. The instilling of the Spirit of Jesus Christ in the heart of the people is a sure remedy for all fanaticism. It has a national as well as a religious value.

The news of the appointment of the Rev. Canon Dart as Anglican Bishop of New Westminster is now officially confirmed. He was consecrated in Westminster Abbey in London on the 29th ult., and will probably arrive in his future diocese shortly before the end of July. The reverend appointee has had both East Indian and Canadian experience as the president of King's college, Windsor, Nova Scotia, and the only possible obstacle to the success of his future work in an arduous field of Episcopal labor is the somewhat advanced age of the bishop-elect, who was ordained in 1860 and is now in his fifty-ninth year.—Ez.

Steamer advices from China state that in the early part of last month the Protestant and Catholic mission property at Chen Tu Kiang and Yehou was utterly destroyed. Smaller cities have suffered similarly. The officials refused protection until the mob had completed their work. It was obviously an organized and systematic attack upon Christians, with the retiring vicerey of Asectan the leader of the mob. No lives were lost, but many foreigners are seriously threatened. In China there were four Protestant establishments, one belonging to the Canadian Methodist mission under the presidency of Virgil Hart. A telegram of June 11 says the English, French-Canadian and American missions had been wrecked at Cheng Tu, Kiang, Yehou, Ping Shan and Sanking. Some of the missionaries are missing, but it is not known that any lives have been lost. Suifu and Yehou are threatened. At Chung King risk is certain. All foreigners left Chen Tu yesterday.

DAVIDSON.—At her late residence, Truro, N. S., June 27, after a short illness, Mrs. Jane Davidson, aged 75 years, having served her own generation by the council of God, fell asleep in Jesus. Sister Davidson's decease is mourned not only by those especially dear to her, but also by our entire church (Immanuel) in which she was a most worthy member. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

DUNN.—On Monday, 24th ult., at his home in Bear River, Bro. Israel Dunn entered into rest, aged 88 years. Bro. Dunn professed religion in early manhood and was baptized into the fellowship of the Jacksonville Baptist church by the late David Burpee, missionary to India. He was a man of superior intellect, an exemplary citizen and a faithful Christian. He came down to the end of his life as ripened wheat to the harvesting. Sons and daughters feel their loss but they know dying to him has been gain.

STEVENS.—At Allison, Moncton, June 27, William Steves aged 34 years. A few years ago this Bro. moved from near St. John to Allison, where he was employed shortly after took his membership in the 1st Salisbury church. His consistent Christian life won for him the respect of all. His presence and conversation were always an encouragement to the pastor. During his last illness his words carried with them an inspiration to those privileged to listen. We extend our sympathy to the widow and children in their bereavement and point them to Christ for consolation.

A BOGUS AGENT. A Who Who Has Falsely Represented Himself as Agent for Messrs. T. Milburn & Co. of This City.

The firm of T. Milburn & Co., manufacturers of proprietary medicines, have for some time past been in receipt of letters from correspondents in and about Orangeville and Meadowdale, stating that a man has been operating in those districts, representing himself as their agent, and has been peddling medicines from house to house, offering them as the medicine—Burdock Blood Bitters, etc.—put up by this well known and reliable firm.

A Globe reporter, having been placed in the hands of our agents, has been at the office of Messrs. T. Milburn & Co., on Colborne street, and was shown a number of communications from merchants in the localities indicated, all of which confirmed the information at first received, and as given above.

Not only had his firm been in receipt of communications, Mr. Milburn said, but some of his customers from Peel County had called at the office in Toronto and had informed him that this bogus agent had sold stuff at several houses which had necessitated the calling in of the doctor to treat the members of the families who had used his compounds.

In closing the interview, Mr. Milburn, the head of the firm, said that he has no such agent, nor do we sell our medicines through peddlers or agents other than druggists and general merchants, and on this account we are desirous that farmers and other buyers, our correspondents should understand that any persons peddling from house to house cannot represent us. They should, therefore, be on their guard against bogus medicines being foisted on them for those of our manufacture. We may say that we are willing to defray any expenses incident to the detection and conviction of this man, or of anyone falsely representing himself as our agent.

In other words our business is the relief and cure of all forms of disease in horses, cattle, and other domestic animals. This is the principal reason why Manchester's Veterinary Remedy looks upon us as the reliable dealers as standard articles.

Keep the Above In Mind
