Mr. Boyce of West Algoma Tells How the Postmaster of Thessalon, Accused of Falsifying Returns, Was Allowed to Resign, Then Dismissed and Later Re-Appointed at a Salary

Ottawa, May 19.—In the House yesterday Mr. Boyce. West Algoma, brought up the case of the postmaster at Thessalon, J. B. Doble, who was dismissed by the inspector, because the latter believed that two registered letters, said to contain respectively $500 and $600 had never been sent to the department. The postmaster had also been permitted to resign when the dismissal was not insisted upon by the Postmaster-General, who later re-instated Doble as postmaster at Thessalon at a salary of $1,000.

Sir William Mulock admitted that there had been irregularities, but he

He asked Mr. Borden to go through the correspondence, and if he thought there was sufficient public interest. terest in them he, the Postmaster-General, would bring them down.

Mr. Foster appealed to the House if a more lame defence had ever been attempted to such a straight charge, and he scored Sir William Muleck most unmercifully.

Regimental Changes C Company-Capt. Fraser to Command his Old Comrades.

Last evening the members of C Company, 24th Regiment, held their inaugural drill in the curling rink, Several recruits applied for membership and were given uniforms, Prior to the drill Captain Fred. Sione, the popular commanding of ficer of the Company, made the anficer of the Company, made the announcement that, owing to the press of his business, he was unfortunately compelled to relinquish the command of the Company for the ensuing season. This news was heard with deep regret, as Captain Stone was a great favorite with his Company.

It was with satisfaction, however, that the Company learned from Captain Stone that he would be succeeded by Lieut. M. D. Fraser, Mr. Fraser, was one of the first members of C Company and was for some season their efficient Color Sergeant. That he is returning to his first love as their captain was good news and the members of the Company heartily evidenced their plansure.

CANOE RACE

The Clerks From the Merchants Bank had a Little Sport on the River Yesterday Afternoon.

Quite a little excitement occurred on the river yesterday afternoon about five o'clock, when some young men from the Merchants' Hank staff held a cance race.

There were four of them — Max Fraser and Clark, the two seniors, in one cance, and W. Sutherland and Hall in the other one, and the race was of the long distance order. The paddle up was made very slowly and it was seen that the race back was going to be a strenuous one—each man was saving all the muscle he could.

man was saving all the muscle he could.

This race was the result of a friendly revalry which has been discussed and argued for some time, but there is no room for argument now. When the contestants reached the Pere Marquette bridge they turned and prepared for the start. The juniors were given a short start and the race was on. The result was not for an instant in doubt. Satherland and Hall pulled rapidly ahead, and passed under the fifth St. bridge with a good lead, and the race was won. Fraser and Clark, however, were not too far behind to escape the wild yell of tall Bill Sutherland as he gave vent to his pent up enthusiasm when he finally realized that he had won the race. He is talking about it yet.

Max Fraser says that the exercise has given him unlimited wind and he will have lots to spare when he gets in the football game on the park between Chatham and Darrell on Saturday.

On Some Ross Government Work in Its Dying Moments.

Made Contract For Manufacturing Binder Twine In the Name of James Nexes—He Never Saw the Contract, and His Signature Was Erased With Acid After the Elections-

Toresto, May 19th—The employment of a Michigan auditor temporarily by the Provincial Secretary was the subject of a want of confidence resolution in the Legislature last night on the metion to go into supply.

Mr. Aula (South Essex) submitted an amadment deprecating the employment of an auditor from the United States, He said if it was necessary to get a man out of a threshing machine factory for this work a good man could have been found in a Canadian treshing machine factory. It was not fair to Canadians or to the school system of Ontario, and he asked the House to consider how the State of Michigan would consider the appointment of an alien to an office under the Government of that state.

Mr. Hanna then proceeded to justify the appointment. The result of Mr. Hanna then proceeded to justify the appointment. The result of Mr. Hanna then proceeded to justify the appointment and broom industries of the Province was that the Government had ascertained that the Government had ascertained that the Prevince was out of pocket eight or nine thousand dollars a year. It was found that the late Government, in its dying moments, had made a contract for the manufacture of binder twine, the contract being stamped with the signature of James Noxon, inspector of prisons, and after the election the signature of Mr. Noxon had been erased with acid. Mr. Noxon had never seen the contract. It was important that such contracts should be investigated by one who knows neither Conservative or Liberal friend or foe.

"Little Canadianism."

Mr. Graham argued that a Canadian should be given the preference in every. case, and quoted the report of Judge Winchester on the appointment of aliens as engineers on the G. T. P., which is strongly against such appointments. Canadians could be found just as capable for this work. It was against the principle that his friends opposite had always enunciated. It was not a question whether the old Government did the same thins.

question whether the old Government did the same thing.

Premier Whitney's View.

The Premier considered the Provincial Secretary had done a wise, careful and proper act. He declared that under the auspices of the late Government there were in New Ontarlo a number of business concerns who employed aliens in their highest and lowest positions. He challenged Mr. Graham to say that Mr. Waite, the architect of the Par lament Bulldings, was a British subject. No doubt the late Government had discriminated in favor of Canadians when they fitted out the Minnie M., or when they established in a foreign country an industry for the making of bogus ballot boxes. Furthermore, Mr. Graham had not protested that all around where he lives allens go up and vote for public school trustees. Such a state of affairs he promised would be removed if Mr. Whitney removed in office.

thorities, while the Legislature had full power to interfere at any time. Mr. Whitney said he was never in a residence, and he regretted it, but if he had a boy the residence feature would appeal to him. To-day education was crammed into boys by machine, and they displayed an ignorance on other matters than books that was positively phenomenal. He reiterated that steps would be taken after the session to investigate the whole question of the management of the university.

The following resolutions were considered in committee: Mr. Whitney: That there be given to the trustees of the University of Toronto a grant of $30,000 per year, for building purposes, for a period of thirty years; the Province to issue certificates therefor.

Such bylaws, however, are not to apply to merchants or manu-facturers issuing tickets or coupons bearing upon their face the place of delivery, their cash or merchantable value; and which are redeemable at any time at the store or factory where the goods with which the tickets or cou-pons are given were purchased. Mr. Tucker's bill to widen sleigh-run-

COULDN'T MAKE EXCEPTION.

Hon. Mr. Hanna Refuses a Request Made by "Soo" Hotelikeepers.

Toronto, May 19.—The new Board of Commissioners at Sault Ste. Marie, Messrs. John T. Mackay, A. D. McNabb and J. W. Curran, have cut off 11 licenses, those in the district having been reduced from 19 to 12, and in town from 14 to 10. No new licenses have been granted. The Board had jurisdiction over only three Conservatives, and one of these has been deprived of his permit.

Mr. Curran, one of the commissioners, who is in the city, says the commissioners were asked to take steps to have the time for keeping bars open on Saturday nights extended. With no greater population, there are 18 saleons on the American side, and their bars are kept open till midnight on Saturdays, and these of course get a large amount of trade from Canada.

For this reason Mr. Curran has submitted to Mr. Hanna a request from the hotelkeepers that they be allowed to keep open late on Saturdays, so as to prevent a large amount of money from crossing the border.

The Provincial Secretary could not see the advisability of making any exception, pointing out that a departure from established usage at the Soo would immediately be regarded as a precedent by the hotelkeepers at Windson, Samie, Niagars Falls and other border towns where exactly the same conditions prevail.

The fellow who turns up his nose at wages isn't worth a salary.

LIBERAL COMMENDATION.

In an editorial dealing with the Whitney license policy the Windsor Record (Liberal) takes occasion to compliment the stand taken by the East Kent Board of Commissioners. While, it says, to deprive a man of his license for one offense seems severe, the general policy of this Board is to be heartily commended.

CHANCELLOR BOYD AGAIN.

Chancellor Boyd has bobbed up again. This is the gentleman who eame down off the bench to the hoped-for resuce of the Strattonites who had handed out so many lucrative berths to himself and family, and on a pronouncement admittedly at variance with the evidence "condemned" Mr. Gamey. Shortly after it will be remembered-about Jan. 25th last-the people of Ontario rather emphatically reversed the decision and condemned Mr. Chancellor. Boyd and his finding. Still more recently the Legislature passed a resolution that further specifically recorded the public estimate placed upon this public servant and his "judgments."

The other day this gentleman handed out "judgment" in the Soo election cases. He said that Coyne could not be punished for using the Minnie M. as a conveyance to carry the pluggers to the scene of operations. Here is the pronouncement:

"We do not find any fine can be "We do not find any fine can be imposed on Ooyne for using the steamer Minnie M. The statute contemplates transportation by land and not on water. 'Railway carriages, cabs, carts or any conveyance,' are the words used, and on this point we do not think the word 'conveyance' can be so enlarged as to take ance' can be so enlarged as to take

And this is the law:

And this is the law:

"Every elector who hires a horse, cab, cart, wagon, sleigh, carriage or other conveyance for a candidate, or for an agent of a candidate, or sides or furnishes or pays for the railway conveyance or, transportation of voters as aforesaid, shall ipso facto be disqualified from voting at the election, and for every such offense shall incur a penalty of $100."

A layman, reading that paragraph, A layman, reading that paragraph would very naturally conclude that Coyne had broken the law, inasmuch as he used a steamboat, the Minnie M., as a "conveyance" to "convey" the pluggers. Indeed, if the layman seeks for information in the dictionary his first impression will be confirmed, for the Standard dictionary man will tell him that a conveyance is "that by which anything is conveyed or transported, or which serves as a means or way of carriage." Other dictionary men give similar definitions. Any layman will admit that a steamboat is a very good "means or way of carriage," and that it is something by which something is "conveyed or transported."

But the dictionary man is not a learned judge like Mr. Chancellor Boyd.

A great many people go down to the Rankin dock in this city laboring under the erroneous impression that they will there find a conveyance to convey them to Detroit and back. It is true that they go on board the steamer. steamer' proceeds to Detroit and return: but the legal fact seems to be that they were not conveyed from the Chatham wharf at all. And inasmuch as they had not been telegraphed, or telephoned to Detroit, or fired there out of a gun, or picked up and chucked to Detroit by a strong man, it is evident that they labored under an incomprehensible delusion when they imagined they had been visiting Detroit.

And if the lay seeker for informa tion flies to the law books he will again be delusively encouraged. The first law book that comes to hand chances to be The Statutes of Canada, 2 Edward VII., 1902, and we find therein the charter of a steamboat company, which is empowered to "operate steam and other boats and vessels and therewith carry on the business of conveying goods, wares and merchandise, freight and cargoss of all descriptions as well as passen-gers." One would instantly suppose that a boat which is used for "conveying" passengers was a convey-ance. But according to Mr. Chancellor Boyd it is not,

A bankrupt weeden bex maker recently stated in a London court that his trade had been ruined by the advance in the pilce of sugar. Confectioners and candy manufacturers were economising by deing without wooden boxes and cases.

There are more suicides in Berlin every year than in any other European city, and the figures show steady increase, growing from 434 in 1900 te 620 in 1904. This is about 32 for every 106,000 inhabitants. Paris has 26, Vienna 23, Rome 18 and London 13.

Out of 1,184 girls who have graduated from the University of Michigan since 1876, when it became a coeducational institution, only sixty-five have died. The census death rate for wemankind in general for the same period of time is 225 out of every 1,000.

Pere Chapet, who recently died at Liege, Beigium, made a good living by coloring meerschaum pipes. His secret was to smoke regularly but very slowly, never to allow the pipe te get foul or to be subject to drafts or sudden changes of temperature and never to smoke out of doors.

The maintenance of safety in the rural districts of Cuba and along highways is intrusted to the care of the rural guard of Cuba, a bedy of excellest shes, well mounted and equipped, numbering a chief, 163 officers and 2,856 men. It is intended to increase the number of men to 4,000.

The United States heaviest import for 1904 was coffee, valued at $57,427,099, followed by sugar (which has hitherto been frat in value) hides, vogetable shers, woel, lumber, fruit, toa, tobacce and oils, no other preduct geing over the $18,000,000 mark, although a number, including cocoa and chegoiate, came close.

The postmaster general of Great Britan has a staff under his control bigger than the standing British army. The postal system keeps busy from 176,000 to 180,000 men and women. The postonies is among the most profitable enterprises in England. With an outlay of 210,000,000 it makes a profit of nearly £4,000,000 storling. It appears that the Turks did not object to the sale of Bibles in Maccedonia or Argentina, feeling quite sure they will convert no Musculmans, but they effected to the distribution of Bibles with inserted pages of revolutionary and seditious matter. All the porter requires is that the Bibles shall be genuine from cover to cover.

The Irish corporations have not been forgetful of the press. The mayor of Cark is the proprietor of a newspaper, the proprietors and editors of the Kilkensky Journal, Drogheda Argus, Tipperary Pree Press, and Silge Champion have seats in their respective corporations, and the editors of the Freeman, Register and Nation are in the Dublin corporation.

The Cruelty of Fashion. The Cruelty of Fashion.

The splendid snow white heren, known as the American aigret, one of the few kinds which bear the aigret plumes of millinery and commerce, is among the waning species of America, a victim to inexorable fashion, says Horbert K. Job in Country Life In America.

Herbert K. Job in Country Life In America.

In 1903 the price fer plumes offered to hunters was $32 per ounce, which makes the plumes worth twice their weight in gold. There will always be men who would break any law for such profit. No rookery of these herons can long exist unless it is guarded by force of arms day and night.

Mr. Job tells how he visited what is perhaps the last large remaining aigret rookery in North Americe.

It should be understood that these plumes, which are variously called by milliners "aigrets." "slubs" and "ospreys," and are dyed to whatever color is fashionable, are borne only during the nuptial season and can be secured only by shooting the birds when they have assembled in colonies to breed, when their usual shyness has departed owing to the strength of the parental instinct. Returning to their nests, they are shot down, and their young are left to starve.

Supplementary Estimates.

Supplementary estimates from the current fiscal year, amounting to $6,-379,342, were brought down in the House last night. These added to the sum voted last session makes a total appropriation of $81,349,391 for the fiscal year ending June 30.

Will Protest to Britain.

The seizure of the Canadian sealing schooner Agnes J. Donahue by the Uruguayan Government was brought up by Mr. Borden, who read a telegram from the owners in Halifax that the captain had been sentenced to three years penal servitude, the mates to one each and the crew to six months and the vessel itself confiscated.

Mr. Borden pressed upon the Government that ne time should be lost in making most urgent representations to the British Government.

Sir Wilfiel Laurier said all the Government could do was to call the immediate attention of the British Government to the matter.

PRESIDENT OF THREE DIVISIONS OF BRITISH HISH COURT.

Eminent British Jurist Recently Deceased Was Better Known As Sir Francis Jeune-Became Peer This Year-Was Considered An Ideal Judge in the British Divorce Court -Kindly and Dispassionate.

He was called to the Bar at the Inner Temple when twenty-five—he was born in 1843—and was twenty years engaged in active pleading before he took silk as Queen's counsel. Three years later he was appointed a Judge of the High Court and in 1891 appointed president of the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division, which post he occupied for thirteen years. Sir Francis Jenne is survived by his wife, Lady Jenne, who is equally well known in English society. To the sudden loss of their only son,, a young officer in the British army, stricken with typhoid in India last year is attributed the illness which cause Sir Francis to give in a premature resignation from the bench. Lady Jenne was the widow of Captain Stanley, brother of the present Lord Stanley of Alderley, and one of her daughters by her first marriage is married to Mr. St. John Brodrick, the present Secretary for India. Mrs. Stanley's receptions brought together all the notable people in London society and when she became Lady Jenne her salon became a favorite meeting place for those prominent in literature, art, politics and the stage.

Sir Francis Joune-however hard his work during the day—bore his share in providing London with what has been described as "the most delightful salon that could exist." He was himself a brilliant conversationalist, and under his roof it was possible to meet statesmen of every party, Mr. Parmill, and Lord Carnhervon.

With the Royal family the relations of Lady Jeune were always close, especially with Princess Christian, who often stayed at her house during her visits to London, and it was from these sources that Lady Jeune, a writer of no mean power herself, was able to give to the world a realistic and truthful representation of Queen Victoria's private life.

Dismal Swamp No More.

The famous Dismal swamp in Virginia is coming into profitable cultivation. The first company to promote Dismal swamp was erganized in colonial days. George Washington was one of the premoters and the largest stockholder. His company qwared two thirds of the 290,000 acres of the swamp and built a canal to ficat the timber frem its property.

Little has been done from that time until recently, except by lumbermen. In the days before the war the swamp was a popular refuge for runaway slaves. It is situated in the southeastern corner of Virginia, and it extends from a few miles frers Norfolk. At its highest points it is only fifteen or twenty feet above tidewater. Its streams are so pure that their water is sought by vessels going on long voyages.

It was long thought that the swamp was malarious and that the swamp could not live there the year round. This notion has been disproved by the truck farmers seeking cheaper land, who are clearing up the swamp and turning it into prosperous truck gardens.

Cleth Made From Wood.

In Germany, Spain and Holland textile goods are made out of wood, and it is probable that this industry will soon spread to France. The process consists in making the wood pulp pass directly through a metallic plate with a number of silts, resulting in the formation of this ribbons, which passfrom the silited plate directly to a machine which twists them, transforming them into very regular threads of any desired size. The wood fiber threads thus produced go by the names of xyloline, silvaline and licella. They are classified by number like the other threads in use. Mized with hemp threads they have been used to make towels. These mixed fabrics readily admit of washing dyeing and printing. The wood pulp thread, which grews weak when wet, regains its resistence when dried.

Cost of Putting Them Through the Leg-Islative Assembly-Great Variation in the Amount.

Brivate bills constitute the great bulk of the work of any ordinary session of the Legislature. They are in many ways the most important pleces of legislation passed by our Provincial Parliament and emphasize in an especial way that body's sovereignty. The most valuable of the natural resources of the Province are in this way disposed of and the most important of rights and privileges are bestowed on the different companies making appli-

Does a municipality want special powers which it has not under the general Municipal Act, it applies to the Legislature and the application takes the form of a private bill. Has a municipality passed a bylaw granting a bonus to some manufacturing concern, it seeks confirmation from the Legislature in a private bill.

Companies Are Prolific. Another impertant class of private bills is the railway bills. A railway, whether steam or electrid, wants a charter and it comes to the Legislature. It wants extension of a charter already granted, and another private bill, is necessory. These companies of all kinds which want powers which they do not have under the general Companies Act obtain them by means of a private bill.

companies Act obtain them by means of a private bill.

There are ecclesiastical private bills, which grant religious congregations relief in special circumstances such as when they want to sell a cemetery and to remove the bodies interred therein. Another subdivision of this same class are bills incorporating religious sects. Many bills also relate to individuals, to enable them to practice some profession, to change a man's name, to enable him to dispose of an estate received under special conditions, or to make arrangements affecting a marriage settlement.

Steps To Be Taken.

These are the steps to be followed in promoting a private bill. First an application stating in general terms what the bill is for must be published in the Ontario Gazette for six weeks and for a similar length of time in a local paper in every County or other municipality affected. The fee for the insertion in the Ontario Gazette is $8, and the cost of advertisement in local papers differs with the papers. and the bill.

The next step is to send two petitions —one to His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and the other to the Legislative Assembly. The former asks His Honor to assent to the bill and the latter asks the Legislature to pass it. The petition must contain a full statement of all the special circumstances which give rise to the need of special legislation, which must be followed by a prayer stating concisely what is wanted in the way of legislation. Usually the petition is drawn up by a solicitor.

The Fee is $100.

The petition and the draft of the bill, together with the fee of $100, is sent in to the Clerk of Legislature within two weeks of the publication of the first notice in The Gazette. The petition is formally presented in the House and two days later it is read and received and with a statutory declaration that all the regulations in regard to the publication of notices have been observed, it is sent to the Standing Orders Committee of the House. This committee sees that all the regulations have been observed and that the preamble of the bill agrees with the petition.

When the bill passes this committee.

the Frivate Bills of Railway Committee.

Some Fees Refunded.

The first step before these committees is the proving of the preamble. If the circumstances described in preamble are such as, in the opinion of the committee, demand special legislation, the bill stands. If not, the bill is usually withdrawn and the $100, less the actual cost of printing the bill, refunded. In the case of charitable bills, that is, bills dealing with churches and religious and charitable organizations, a motion is generally passed to the effect that the fee, less the cost of printing, be refunded. In case of railway bills, maps, and other particulars of the proposed mite have also to be filed with the clerk of the committee. In the case of estate bills, that is, bills altering trusts held under wills, they are sent to the Estate Bill Committee, consisting of two judges at Osgoode Hall, for consideration.

When the preamble and sections of the bill have been passed, it is reported to the House, and if it has been amended the House orders that it be reprinted. Then it is read a second time, and referred to a Committee of the whole House. Here it may be a ain amended, but if a member intends to move any substantial amendment he has to give two days' notice. When the bill comes up for the third reading, it is still open for amendment by a member who has given two days' notice.

The Chief Cost.

It is while the bill is before a committee that the greatest cost comes—that is, if the bill is a contentious one. A contentious bill is one to which there is some opposition.
It depends altogether upon the nature of the interests involved and the emplexion of the counsel employed to appear before the committee as to how much this will cost. Sometimes it is not very much and sometimes amounts up well into the thousands. This is especially true where the dispute is a long-continued one, and in cases where the same dispute, as has been in some cases, is carried from one session to another, the figures are very large in specially important bills relating to large concerns, the lobbyist also plays a part and is usually handsomely paid for his services and expenses.

THE DISCOVERER

Of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and inqualified endorsement.

No other medicine ! As such a record of cures of female troubles or such osts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It will entirely cure the worst forms of Female Complaints, all Ovarian Troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration. Falling and Displacement of the Womb, and consequent Spinal Weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life.

It has cured more cases of Backache and Leucorrhesa than any other remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the Uterus in an early stage of development.

dissolves and expels tumors from the Uterus in an early stage of development.

Irregular, Suppressed or Painful Menstruation, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Flooding, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yield to it. Womb troubles, causing pain, weight and backache, instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it invigorates the female system, and is as harmless as water.

It quickly removes that Bearing-down Feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, Dizziness, Faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues" and headache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, or some derangement of the Uterus, which this medicine always cures. Kidney Complaints and Backache, of either sex, the Vegetable Compound always cures.

Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutes.

Made to Order Citles.

Some cities achieve greatness, while others have greatness thrust upon them. To the latter class belongs the town of Dalgety. Just at present it is a township with a pepulation of less than three hundred souls, located upon than three hundred souls, located upon the Snowy River, some three hundred miles south of Sydney. In a few years it is expected to become a city of world importance, for there is to be located the Federal Government of the new Commonwealth of Australia. Another ready made city soon to come into being is Gorgaz, in the Brazilian State of that name. Although almost directly upon the equater, it is most directly upon the equator, it is situated upon a plateau of such eleva-tion that the climate is delightful, and here is to be laid out a new capital that shall become the pelitical, social and business centre of Brazil, Rie de Janeiro then serving merely as a sea port.

Russia is particularly given to building entire towns, and the newest is a fortress city at the terminus of the Merv-Murghab Railway, just completed. The town is called Murghab, and will doubtless gain more than passing fame because it is within easy striking dis-tance of Herat, and the probable base of some future invasion of India by Russia.

England expects to do a little build-ing down in Africa. Victoria Falls, on the Cape to Cairo Railway, is said to the Cape to Cairo Rallway, is said to be destined to become "the Chicage of South Africa." The falls themselves offer a water power double that of Nia-gara, and from its geographical posi-tion the point is declared to be de-stined to become the distributing sen-tre of South Africa.

Ex-Ald. Harper Witnessed Magnificent Battle on Eau Waters for Possession of Floating Palace.

Ex-Ald. W. H. Harper, the popular railroad man, is one of this summer's Ericau prospectors. He spent last Sunday at his cottage and renorts everything around the beach in ship-shape condition. The water is rising somewhat our way you up ship-shaps condition. The water is rising somewhat but we want yet up to the mark of last year.

W. H. is also the earliest inspirer of aquatic achievement. On Monday morning he instigated what was probably the speediest rowing race yet witnessed on the Eau waters.

He was up betimes and, shrouded in the mists preceding sunrise, set some old lumber afloat. The wind was off shore and the caravan rode majestically seaward. Then W. H. retired to his cottage and busied himself with his field-glasses.

Results soon followed. Half an hour after sunrise at least three boats were speeding eagerly to the prize under the muscular energy of perspiring scullers. It was evidently deemed that the first arrival would become the possessor, and the jovial railroad man only regrets that the capture was made so far out that even his field-glass refused to do justice to the expressions of the sweatladen conquerors.

But the reader ought to get W. H. to tell the story himself.

THAT RIVER

Capt. Sullivan of the Corisande another Trader who is Anxious for the Dredging.

Captain Sullivan, of the "Coriande," a schooner from Sarn; a that came up the river this morning, is another treat lake mariners who would be glad to see the River Thames dredged out, He has just made a trip from Parry Sound to Chatham with a cargo of 411,000 feet of lumber for Wm. Drader. feet of lumber for Wm. Drader.

The "Corisande" draws over elswen feet of water and fortunately for her there was a swell at the mouth of the river when she came through this morning or she would have had to lighten her cargo before she came across the bar. As it was she struck bottom at the bar and also struck bottom at the bar and also struck several places in coming up the river.

The "Corisande" is a three mast schooner and a good sailer. She made the trip from Parry Sound to Chatham in six days, which is considered good time. She had a very nasty trip but stood the weather well, this being her first voyage. The weather was rough during nearly all of the voyage, with rain, hail and strong winds.

In Georgian Bay she ran into large fields of ice which delayed her progress for some time but out on the open lake she made good time.

In he face of all the complaints made it is sarely time that something was done to provide immediate relief from the trouble

In he face of all the complaints made it is surely time that something was done to provide immediate relief from the trouble experi need by sailors at the mouth of the river. If matters are allowed to go on this way by default, next year schooners will not be able to come up to Chatham.

LOST FINGER

A very painful and unfortunate acident occurred this morning to little Dell, the two-year-old daughter of Fireman Robert Coyle, by which the child lost her little finger.

While playing with her elder sister, Wilcomena, the door of the room was carelessly slammed on the hand of the child and the finger so badly mangled that on arrival of the physican it was deemed best to amputate it.

WHITE ROBIN AGAIN

A white robin, a very rare species of bird, was seen on our streets last Thursday.-Blenheim News-Tr.bune. Ald. Edmondson's pure plumed riend has thus bobbed up again, this time in Blenheim-and the fact that it was seen there on Thursday that it was seen there on Thursday weakens the evidence of a few of his North Chatham friends who claimed to have witnessed it deporting itself on their lawns on that date. It is understood, however, that their defence is that Blenherm is no longer a temperate town and its residents are very apt to see things. Why this defence is pat up by the North Chatham robin-seers is, of course, hard to fathom.

FLASHED GUN

Frank Gagnier Raises a Disturbance With a Shot Gun and Kills Mrs. Jenkins' Cat.

Mrs. Jennie Jenkins, Ingram street, had a very narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon when Frank Gagnier, a neighbor pointed a shot gun at her—at least this was the story she told Chief Holmes at the story she told Chief Holmes at the police station this morning—and the Chief thought enough of the story to report it to Judge Houston.

The whole trouble arose from the fact that Mrs. Jenkins is the owner of a "harmless, necessary cat." Mr. Beniteau, the next door neighbor, is a raiser of chickens, and his friend Frank Gagnier, owns a shot gun. Mr. Beniteau claims that the cat destroys his chickens so he employs his friend with the firearms to shoot market building.

The steamer City of Chatham will make apecial excursion to Detroit and return on the 24th of May. Fare, 50 cents for round trip. John Rorke, Master.

J. M. Pike made motion before Judge Dowlin this morning to strike out the jury notice in the case of out the jury notice in the case of Mrs. Jemkins has a grievance in the case of Mrs. Jemkins has a grievance in the case of the shot gun, the cat is killed, Mr. Beniteau's chickens are safe, and Mrs. Jemkins has a grievance in the case of the shot gun, the cat is killed, Mr. Beniteau's chickens are safe, and Mrs. Jemkins has a grievance in the case of the shot gun.

of the shot gun, the cat is killed, Mr. Beniteau's chickens are safe, and Mrs. Jemkins has a grievance in the police court.

Mrs. Jenkins told a pathetic story. She said the cat was a loving little animal and a great favorite in the household. Mrs. Laterineau, another, neighbor, raised chickens and the cat never bothered them, in fact the chickens and the cat used to take their meals together, and Mrs. Laterineau never missed a single chick. Last night about six o'clock she was aroused by noises in her back yard and she went out with her baby in her arms to see what was the matter. She saw Mr. Beniteau and Mr. Gagnier looking over the line fence and the frightened cat hiding in a corner, of the yard. As soon as the animal saw its mistress it ran to her, and it was then that Gagnier pointed the gun in her direction. She dodged into the house just in time to escape the shot, for at that moment Gagnier fired and the charge entered the carcas of the poor innocent puss.

"What did you kill my oat for?" asked Mrs. Jenkins.

"Because it has been killing my chickens," seplied Mr. Beniteau.

"Why didn't you notify me that my cat was killing your chickens?" aigain asked Mrs. Jenkins.

Mr. Beniteau made no further reply but picked up all that was mortal of the former pet and threw it in the ditch.

Mrs. Jenkins says she would not have complained if Mr. Beniteau had shot the cat on his own property when it was stealing chickens. Frank Gagnier, the man who did the shooting, boards with Joe Houle, The case will be investigated.

Mr. Chartrand takes a keen in-terest in keeping everything around the convent clean and tidy, and he does considerable gardening. Just at present he shas a field of sweet corn which is growing nicely and promises to be one of the finest patches of corn grown in the city this year. He has, however, one drawback, in the shape of blackbirds, which are very thick around The Pines and a constant menace to the corn patch.

of Police, so the birds, if they wish to be safe, had better find some other orn patch.

"I never saw the blackbirds so thick around the Academy as they are this year," said Mr. Chartrand to The Planet. "Early in the morning you would think the place was full of them from the the noise they make from their nests in the pine trees. Last year I thought they were bad enough when I could stand around and kill 30 or 40 in an evening, but this year they are worse." Humane Officer James McGregor was standing near and heard the conversation and chimed in:—

"I have got about a dozen blackbirds and robins that I feed every morning when I go out to feed my dogs. These birds come around every morning as regularly as the clock points to seven c'olock and it would surprise you to see how tame they are. They will walk right up to me and pick up corn right around my feet, so that I have to be careful where I walk or I might step on one."

Thomas Steel, of Ridgetown, is one of the men who has nothing but good words to say of the Chatham mineral bath. Mr. Steel came here suffering with rheumatism and is now rapidly recovering and will soon be able to return home.

England's state records are kept in a great building known as the Record Office, in London. Here ever 130 strong rooms, and in these reoms are rells and records for more than eight centuries are kept. There is the Chancery Court roll room, each roll consisting of thirty or forty skins of parchment stitched together and rolled up tight into a cylinder. Another set of rooms is set aside for the records of the King's Bench and Common Pleas, the latter extending from the reign of Richard I to the present time. Each roll is formed of a number of long parchment skins, fastened together at the head and enclosed in stout veilum covers, and contains from 500 to 1,000 skins of parchment.

of Tramp Ned Kishman Who Has seen Incarcerated in 47 Different Countries

Ned Kishman, alas Texas Ed, alias Trotting Ted, a tramp, who has been arrested in more countries than any man on earth, is back in Chi cago.

Kishman has carved his name on rallway stations all over the world, and has established a record of being incarcerated for vagrancy in the jalls of forty-seven different countries. He has lost count of the number of times he has been arrested, but declares he has viewed more than fourteen hundred prisons from the viewpoint of the man inside. He has looked through the bars upon the cities of the world, and claims a record of traveling 223,485 miles without paying a cent of railway fare.

miles without paying a cent of railway fare.

He boasts that the only railroad fare he ever paid was from Hot Springs. Ark., to Malvern Junction, approximately thirty-five miles, when he was too ill to attempt to beat the road. He figures that, had he paid first-class fare for all the riding he has done, he would have spent $572,858.

The man who has kept half a million dollars out of the pockets of share-holders in railways is a small, bronz: d man, probably forty-three years of age. He was born in Clinton County, Ohio, and ran away from home at the age of fifteen. He has visited practically every country on the globe and every district of the United States since then, and once came within three miles of his home, which he saw through a blur of cinders wifile riding on the rods of a through express.

During his career of twenty-eight of cinders while riding on the rods of a through express.

During his career of twenty-eight years Texas Ed has never yet been convicted of a crime, and has only twice been charged with crimes, and these only because he was gathered in by the police dragnets after some robbery or murder when all suspicious characters were, apprehended. He is worth $80,000 and owns a tract of farm land near Highland, Clinton County, Ohio, which was left him by relatives who died. He could be independently wealthy if he chose to go home, but he refuses, and declares that he will die on the road.

Kishman's word on jalls is of inter-refuses, and declares that he will die on the road.

Kishman's word on jalls is of interest. He declares the best prison system and the ideal prison from all points is a new municipal prison at Bangkok, Slam, where he spent three weeks against his will.

He declares the United States possesses, as a class, the best and the worst prisons in the world. He cites the Cook County (III.) jail as a model in the United States, and the municipal prison at Frankfort, Ky, and the calabooses at Hillsboro, Ohio, and at Leseur, Minn., and Waycross, Ga., as among the worst in which he has been locked up.

His comments on the lack of system, brutality and political control of Am-erican prisons are scathing. British System Is Best.

erican prisons are scathing.

British System is Best.

"The British system," says the champion tramp, "is one of the best in the world, and the prison administration is undoubtedly the best. The public works system means hard and healthy labor. The cell system exists, but mostly the men work together, in brick yards, on forts, or other public works, I had the honor (and Great Britain the benefit) of serving two months at Dover, helping build a line of forts to protect England as a result of having been accused of cadging. It was there that I learned quarrying and stone cutting, which added one more trade to the twenty-three that I have learned in prisons. The men get credit for exactly what they do—they are paid, really, in lessening of scntences, and I earned thirty days off out of ninety days sentence by working hard.
"Perhaps the worst and most wicked jall system in the world—taken as a whole—I found in Portugal. The Portuguese system makes beggars of all prisoners, besides hardening all prisoners and manufacturing criminals rapidly.
"Mexico has advanced wonderfully in an prisoners, besides hardening all prisoners and manufacturing criminals rapidly.

"Mexico has advanced wonderfully in the last fifteen years. When I first visited Mexico I had the honor to be arrested in Mexico City and thrown into a dirty, overcrowded, disease ridden hole, where all prisoners, most of them in irons, were kept. Three years ago I was again arrested in Mexico City and was pleased to note a vast improvement. The cellular system had been adopted and the trades are faught. At Jalisco, where I served fifty-two days, a beautiful and humanitarian prison has been built."

Perhaps the strangest adventure of jansoo, where I served fitty-two days, a beautiful and humanitarian prison has been built."

Perhaps the strangest adventure of Kishman's prison career took place in Spain. He was arrested, charged with vagrancy, while stealing a ride out of Madrid, trying to reach the Mediterranean coast. At that time his had nearly $500 in gold and silver with him, picked up in beating a race at Parls. "Soon after I was thrown into the prison," he says, "the prisoners were taking of a probable change in the management of 'the prison, and I learned that it is the custom there to permit the jailer to bid, and the highest bidder is awarded the office. There was nine others in the room, each being forced to pay about eighteen cents a day to the iailer or starve. The auction was held in the main corridor, and through the cell doors we could hear three men bidding for the office of jailer, each calculating to rob the prisoners if he got the place, or force their friends to pay him heavy toll. The scene amused me, and, calling through the bars, I commenced to bid against them. The fun of the situation was good to me, but they didn't see it, and they got madder and madder as I ran up the price. Finally they all quit bidding and I was made jailer for one year, b ing forced to pay about $200 in gold—French gold—for the position.

"They turned the keys over to me.

"They turned the keys over to me, and for several weeks I ran the prison releasing three of my nine companions and holding the other six. I got tired of the job and gave it to an old cobbler on the next corner, who, I was sure, would treat the prisoners decently."

France, according to Brake Rod, is a bad place for tramps, and the prisons are extremely cruel places of confinement. Most of the prisoners, he says, hope to escape the noisom places even at the expense of being deported to the convict cotony in New Caledonia. Germany, he delares one of the best prison countries in the world, each prison or dover three months being forced to learn a trade

Knowledge is Power.

A monopoly of the extensive fisheries of Scotland and England once came into the hands of a man who kept his agents at the principal stations and required them to furnish him all facts that came to their knowledge.

At one of his stations in the far north the fishing had been unsuccessful for the greater part of the season, and there was no prospect of improvement when he looked into the matter. Upon examining his agent's letters from that place for some years back he found by a comparison of dates that at a certain place herrings were likely to be found. He accordingly instructed his agent to send his boats to that spot.

The fisherman laughed at the idea of a man sitting some hundreds of miles away and telling them where to get fish, but as his orders were positive they had to obey, and the consequence was that they returned the next morning loaded with herrings.

Badly Brought Up Soldiers. During an official massacre at the village of Kouklish the Turkish commandant—a fat major—slept and smoked in the shade of a tree near the scene of carnage. The trumpet sounded for the assault, and the soldlers proceeded to rob, kill, burn and violate. The trumpet next sounded the retreat, but the troop refused to obey, and the fat major continued to sleep and smoke. When spoken to about the excesses of his men, he replied: "What can one do? They are so badly brought up!"

It is probable that, with the opening of the new railway, a large portion of the Swiss-Italian travel henceforth will go through the tunnel, instead of over the more hazardous pass trip.

Two gangs of workmen began to bore the Simplon Tunnel, the longest and most remarkable of the Alpins tunnels, in November, 1898. One gang to the state of the st tunnels, in November, 1898. One gang began at the northern end, which is near Brieg, on the left bank of the Rhone; and the other gang began operations simultaneously at Iselle, on the other side of the Pennine Alps, in Italy. Twelve miles apart, they started, and day and night and Sundays for five and one half years were slowly tunnelling toward each other. It was a most difficult undertaking. There were layers of hard rock formations, melss, gypsum and dolomite, where drilling was so slow that during teh farst three months of 1902, for instance, the work on the Italian end advanced only 50 feet. Other great obstacles to be overcome were the streams of underground water, and the high temperature that exists under mountain masses.

For almost six years was the labor ging on, until finally one day last May, toward evening, the two gangs

SIMPLON ROSPICE.

So workmen were se near together that they could hear each other's voices faintly. Bright and early the following morning amid great excitement, the powerful hydraulic boring machines were set to work, and in a hour a gapting, jagged hole opened, that showed dimly the electric lights glimmering in the cavern beyond. Another fall of rock, and the men who, twelve miles apart and five and a half years before, had started toward each other, met face to face under the Alps. A perfect engineering achievement: the headings of the two holes came together dead opposite each other. If the tunnel had been worked from one side only, it couldn't have been straighter. It was a great triumph, as the shouts of the workmen told at the time, and as every SIMPLON HOSPICE.

traveler whe journeys through the tunnel in the future will realize.

When they were building at St. Getthard Tunnel in 1832, considered a wonderful creation in its day—the combined effort of Italy, Germany and Switzerland the rate at which the temperature rose the farther they penetrated the mountains was an unforescent circumstance that almost caused the abandonment of the project. Before they had gone a third of the distance the heat was so intense that more than half of the working force fell seriously ill. A large number of horses and mules succumbed from prostration, and many a laborer left the tunnel never to enter it again.

A similar problem was anticipated in regard to the Simplon Tunnel, especially as the latter was three miles longer than the former, and one thousand five hundred i feet deeper under the mountains; but it was solved happily by building two tunnels instead of one. Whese tunnels ran parallel, 56 feet apart, and are connected every two hundred and twenty yards by crossimits, which were hermetically scaled as fast as the next one ahead was made. Through one of the tunnels fresh air was driven by the ventilation operators stationed outside in the valley. Around the last cross-shaft it went, near where the men were working, and back out through the other tunnel. All injurious gases thus were carried off, and a constant current of pure air supplied. The plan worked like a charm, despite the fact that at some points the temperature ran as high as one bundred and seven degrees. When these spots were struck, the hours of work were shortened considerably, and the men, on leaving the tunnel, were made to take cold baths, so as not to be exposed at once to the cold Alpine air sutside. When they went in again they took hot baths.

The tunnel cost ever a million dollars mile. The Swiss Government, taking

The tunnel cost over a million dollars a mile. The Swiss Government, taking into account the enormous diffic that have been encountered and sur-mounted, recently extended the time for completion to April 30, 1905. The boring now is mostly done, but work on the roadbed, rails and running stock has to be completed. The Government has to be completed. The Government also has given the Jura-Simplon Company a supplementary credit, increasing the payment from fourteen to fifteen and one hff-millions.

The mysterious disappearance of a reputable and successful business man of Lafayette, Ind., five years ago, and his recent reappearance, with the explanation that he had simply grown "tired of everything" and sought a new life, does not appear so strange to the heart as it does to the mind. Such a feeling is incomprehensible to the intellect, yet it is a more or less familiar one to those hidden depths of human nature, where lie the real life forces. Paradoxical as it may seem, it is simple truth that we weary of pleasures and ease sooner than of sorrows and toll. This Indiana man had a prosperous business, a comfortable fortune, pleasant family relations, and the respect of his neighbors. Maybe you think nothing more is necessary to perfect content. But if you think that, think again. The happiest laugh does not ring out from the home of such a man as this. The most radiant smiles are those that alternate with tears. Wealth, good repute, and family, even, are externals. There is another world of his ideals; and when these have dulled and levelled down to commonplace, and aspiration has alrophied and effort ceased, his surroundings, however favorable, turn into the tomb of a soul that is dead.—Nashville (Tenn.) News.

Wireless in Britain. Wireless in Britain.

Recently the British Government se far recognized the importance of the wireless system as to permit wireless telegrams to be handled through the postal telegraph offices of the United Kingdom. Commenting upon this, The London Dally News says there could hardly have been a more brilliant opening for the scientific side of the new year than lies in the simple fact that from the smallest British country village the word "Lucania" will be a sufficient telegraphic address for a vessel that is plowing the Atlantic."

Apples and Millo.

A diet of apples and milk is most wholesome and well balanced, says The New York World. The potash contents of both are high, and they yield nour-ishment for brain, bone and muscle, having a soothing effect upon the nerves. The apples should not be pared, as the ash contents of the akis are valuable to the human system.

It is astonishing now great a change a few years of married life will make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young wonorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes "Winnipeg bank tlearings," said Mr. Naylor to The Planet, increased four million dollars in the last month of April, which gives you some idea of how the place is growing. The increase in population last year was 20,000, and it is expected to be larger this year. Ten million dollars worth of buildings went up last year, and it is expected fifteen million dollars/worth of buildings will go up this year. Fifteen thousand settlers arrived in Winnipeg in one week this spring on their, way West. This was a record breaking week.

Washington, May 13.—Richard S. Greener, American commercial agent at Vladivostock, has cabled the American State Department that all the for-

Ican State Department that all the foreign commercial agents there have been asked to leave Vladivostock fortress, and are given permission to reside in the cities of the maritime provinces. Mr. Greener himself was just leaving Vladivostock for Haborogsk.

It is recalled here that a similar measure was adopted by the Russian authorities at Port Arthur at the beginning of the investment of that place by the Japanese land and sea forces, and hence it is assumed that Vladivostock is expected to become a centre of the seat of war very soon.

Russians Expect Much From a Pano ramic Camera and a Kite.

St. Petersburg, May 19.—A recently invented apparatus for photographing panoramas of wide stretches of country by means of a camera suspended from a kite has been acquired by the War Office, and experiments and trials ave been conducted in St. Petersburg for several weeks with such success that the general staff expects important results from its new panoramograph squad in establishing Japanese pesitions and movements. The apparatus is said to be capable of photographing an area of thirty square miles.

Mr. Borden In It.

London, May 19.—The Free Press (Conservative) says last night; "A telegram was received in the city this afternoon stating that R. L. Bonden, leader of the Opposition, would arrive in the city on Saturday morning next. Mr. Borden may remain over until Monday, in which event there will be a general reception held at the rooms of the Conservative Club. Messrs. Osler and Kemp may accompany his leader."

Letter Was Tampered With.

Kingstoff, May 19.—The penitentiary is a constant scene of trouble lately and the intrigues among the officials show no signs of decreasing. A Government investigation into the charges against a guard trafficking ended only last week. Shortly before two guards had been suspended for minor offences, and before that three dismissed for trafficking. Now one has made the serious charge that a letter addressed to him at the penitentiary was delayed and tampered with before he received it. An investigation is likely to follow.

Sir Wilfrid's Brother III.

Montreal, May 19.—Charlemange Icurier, M. P., brother of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, is reported to be seriously III at his home at St. Lin. An operation was performed on Mr. Laurier some months ago, and complications have arisen which are causing his friends much anxiety.

In this he did not include the crossing of the bridges at Montreal, because they could not get out of Montreal without that. All the employes of the Bell got transportation over the railways when on business. They got no freight free. In regard to establishing farmers' lines, Mr. Sise said that the company had only a limited amount of money and had to place it where it, would get the most revenue. In regard to connecting a variety of small lines with their long distance lines, he said that was a waste of time. A good service could not be maintained. He did not object to connecting with lines properly standardized. There were a greater number of places where the properly standardized. Connection Was Offered.

They offered to give connection with a municipal system when it was proposed to establish one in Edmonton and to give all other assistance they required.

In reference to the Neepawa system, Mr. Sise said that the people of Neepawa were more favored than the Bell's regular subscribers, so there should not be any complaints there. He did not know local conditions there, but his policy would be to allow connection if the system was standardized.

Ottawa Citizens Jubilant. Ottawa, May 19.—The citizens were ubilant last night over the success of he bylaw authorizing the city to spend $200,000 to buy out the Consumers Electric Co. The vote stands: For the bylaw, 1,825; against the bylaw, 1,416—majority for the bylaw, 409.

Long Distance Lines.

Ottawa, May 19.—Rev. Father Jolleur, of St. Catherines, Quebec, who runs a 17-mile telephone line in Port Neuf County, was examined before the special committee on telephones yesterday. The poles were hauled by the farmers in the winter, free, and for this they got a frank for two years to send messages. There were fourteen subscribers. The line showed a revenue of $150 last year. The expense was $100. The line had interchanging privileges with the Bell Co.

Mr. C. F. Sise was again examined. Asked as to the evidence of Mr. Hoover in regard to his line in the County of York, he replied that he knew nothing about any difficulties that Mr. Hoover might have had with the Canadian Pacific. The superintendent, Mr. McFarlane, no doubt, could explain the matter. In answer to Mr. Chrysler, Mr. Sise said the railway companies got from the Bell unlimited use of their lines. He estimated that this gave the companies about $15,000 a year mere than any return received.

who are abusing their horses, and it is expected some interesting developments will come up in the Police Court soon.

"I have several cases of lame horses that I am watching," said Mr. McGregor to The Planet, "and if the first warning does no good I shall have the offenders in the Police Court, no matter who they are. The case I had in the County Court has served as a good example for these offenders, but if one example is not effectual I can provide many more. "It would surprise you to know how many people come into town, tie their horses up on the street at ten o'clock and leave them there until they are ready to go home in the afternoon. In the meantime they walk around town and have their dinners, and expect the poor animals to stand all day in the one place, no matter whether it is hot or cold, with nothing whatever to eat.

"The remedy I have been applying to these cases is to put the horses in a stable and make the owner pay the charges, but this is too simple. If I miss the horse, the animal gets nothing to eat, and if I find him I am making a good hostler for the owners of the animals. Some people cannot take a hint, and often I put the same horse in for two or more Saturdays in succession. From this time out the first offense will be the last, as the East Kent License Commissioners say, and the offenders from this time forward will be prosecuted. The Whitney Government is making the hotel men keep the law, and I am goint to follow its example and make the teamsters keep the law. Two lame horses were laid up this week, but in the next case the owners will be laid up."

Stricken in Pariament.
London, May 19.—William O'Dougherty, Nationalist member of Parliament for the North Division of Donegal, was suddenly stricken with paralysis in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon and died later in the day. Mr. O'Dougherty was writing at the time, and apparently was in his usual health. He was born in 1868.
