II. And be it enacted, that the said Company may raise and contribute among themselves such sum as shall not exceed the sum of four thousand pounds currency, in shares of ten pounds currency each; and the money so raised shall be appro- 25 priated to the purpose of constructing completing and maintaining their said Gas works, and to the purposes of this Act and to no other object or purpose whatever, Provided always, that if the said sum of four thousand pounds currency should be found insufficient for the purposes of this Act, it shall be 30 lawful for the said Company to increase their capital stock by a further sum not exceeding four thousand pounds currency, either among themselves or by the admission of new shareholders, such new stock being divided into shares of ten pounds currency each; Provided also, that in the event of difficulty 35 arising in procuring subscribers for such increase of capital, it shall be lawful for the Directors for the time then being of the said Company to borrow a sum or sums of money for the purposes aforesaid, not exceeding the sum of three thousand pounds currency, and to pledge and hypothecate the property and 40 income of the said Company for the repayment of the sum so borrowed and the interest thereon.

Continuance
 in office.

III. And be it enacted, that the President, Vice-President and Directors hereinbefore named shall continue in office until others shall be elected in their stead under the provisions of this act, unless they shall sooner resign, be removed or be- 45 come disqualified under the provisions of this act.

General meetings for election of Directors.

IV. And be it enacted, that the first general meeting of the subscribers to the stock of the said company shall be held on the first Monday in March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and a general meeting on the first Monday in March in each year thereafter, and at such place and hour as shall be appointed by the By-laws of the Company then in force, to choose by ballot and by a majority of votes, seven persons being each a proprietor of not less than two shares in the stock of the said Company, as directors for managing the affairs of the said Company ; which seven directors shall continue in office until the next general election of Directors.

15 V. And be it enacted, that any four of the said Directors shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, and any majority of such quorum assembled according to the provisions of this act and the by-laws of the Company then in force, may exercise any or all of the powers hereby vested in the Directors and the President, or in is absence the Vice-President or in the absence of both a chairman chosen by the Directors present pro tempore, shall preside at the meetings of the Directors.

Quorum.

20 VI. And be it enacted, that at the general meetings of the share-holders to be held annually for the purpose of electing Directors as aforesaid, on the first Monday in the month of March in each year, and before the election of new Directors, the Directors for the then past year, shall exhibit a full and unreserved statement of the affairs of the Company, of the funds, property and debts due to and by the said Company which said statement shall be certified by the President or Vice-President under his hand. Provided always, that in the event of there being no election of Directors on the first Monday in March in any year, in consequence of the said Share-holders neglecting to attend in conformity with the requirements of this act or from any other cause, then and in that case the Directors of the previous year shall continue and remain in office until an election shall take place at a future special meeting of the said shareholders, to be called for that purpose, in the manner provided by the By-laws of the Company then in force.

Annual Statement.

40 VII. And be it enacted, That the Directors elected as aforesaid, shall at their first meeting after such election, choose out of their number a President and Vice-President, who shall hold their offices respectively until the next election of Directors ; and it shall be lawful for the said Directors from time to time in case of death, resignation, residence without the Province, disqualification (and any person disqualified to be elected shall be disqualified from remaining in office) or the removal from office of any person so chosen to be President or Vice-President or Director or either of them, to choose in their or his stead from among the said Directors another person or persons to be President or Vice-President or from among the other qualified shareholders another person or persons to be Director or Directors respectively, to continue in office until

Election of President and Vice-President.

Proviso ; the next annual election as aforesaid. Provided always, that on such occasions the Directors shall always vote per capita and not according to the number of shares they hold, and the President or person presiding at any meeting of the Directors or of the shareholders, shall in case of a tie have a casting 5 vote.

Appointment of Officers and making of By-laws. VIII. And be it enacted, That the Directors shall and may have the power to appoint a manager, clerks and such other persons as may appear to them necessary for carrying on the business of the said Company, with such powers and duties, 10 salaries and allowances to each as shall seem meet and advisable ; and also shall and may have the power to make and repeal or alter such by-laws, to be binding upon members of the Company or their servants, as shall appear to them proper and needful, touching the well ordering of the said Company, 15 the management and disposition of its stock, property, estate and effects, the calling of special meetings of its shareholders or of meetings of the Directors, and other matters connected with the proper organisation of the said Company and the conduct of the affairs thereof : and also shall and may have 20 the power to make calls for instalments on shares subject to the provisions hereinafter made ; and to declare such yearly or half yearly dividends out of the profits of the said undertaking as they may deem expedient ; and to make contracts on behalf of the Company or by such by-laws to empower the President, Vice-President or any Director or Officer to make 25 contracts on behalf of the Company and to affix (if need be) the common seal of the Company to such contracts ; and generally to manage the affairs of the said Company and to do or empower others to do whatever the Company may lawfully do 30 under this act, unless it be otherwise herein provided. Provided always, that such by-laws shall be in no wise inconsistent with the true intent and meaning of this act, and the powers hereby granted, nor repugnant to the laws of this Province, and shall before they shall have force be approved by 35 the shareholders at some annual or special meeting, at which such shareholders shall have full power to alter or amend the same ; and provided also, that until it be otherwise ordered by the by-laws of the Company, a special meeting of the shareholders may be called by the Directors, or in their default on being thereunto requested by at least ten of the stockholders 40 being proprietors together of not less than one hundred shares of the stock of the said Company then by such ten (or more as the case may be) stockholders ; the Directors or stockholders giving at least four weeks notice thereof in at least one of the public newspapers of the town of Brockville, and specifying in 45 the said notice the time and place of such meeting together with the objects thereof.

Mode of voting at meetings. IX. And be it enacted, that shareholders may vote by proxy duly appointed in writing or in person, and all elections 50 shall be by ballot, and all questions to be decided at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders, shall be so decided by a majority of votes, and on every occasion when the votes of the shareholders are to be given each shareholder shall for every share under and not exceeding twenty have one vote, and for shares exceeding twenty one vote for every three shares ; and no shareholder shall be entitled to give a greater number of votes than thirty.

X. And be it enacted, that all subscriptions for shares in the capital stock of the said Company or to the undertaking for carrying out which the said Company is incorporated shall be good and valid and binding on the shareholder, whether made before or after the passing of this Act, and the several persons who have subscribed or who may hereafter subscribe for shares in the said undertaking or Company, shall and they are hereby required to pay the sum or sums of money by them respectively subscribed or such part or portions thereof as shall from time to time be called for by the Directors of the said Company, under and by virtue of the powers and directions of this Act, to such person or persons and at such times and places as shall be directed or required by the Directors ; and in case any person or persons shall neglect or refuse to pay the same at the time and in manner required for that purpose, it shall be lawful for the Directors to cause the same to be sued for and recovered in any Court of Law in this Province, having jurisdiction in civil cases to the amount ; and in any such action whether for the subscriptions already made or hereafter to be made, it shall not be necessary to set forth the special matter in the declaration, but it shall be sufficient to allege that the defendant is the holder of one or more shares in the stock, (stating the number of shares) and is indebted to the Company in the sum to which the calls in arrear may amount, and in any such action it shall be sufficient to maintain the same that the signature of the defendant to some book or paper, by which it shall appear that such defendant subscribed for a share or a certain number of shares of the stock of the said Company or undertaking be proved by one witness, whether in the employment of the Company or not, and that the number of calls in arrear have been made ; and the suit may be brought in the corporate name of the Company.

Subscriptions
for shares to be binding.

XI. And be it enacted, that no one instalment to be called for or paid on account of the shares in the stock of the said Company shall exceed two pounds currency on each share, and notice thereof and of such call shall be given by advertising in at least one newspaper published in Brockville aforesaid, during at least four weeks before such instalment shall be payable. Provided always, that no instalment shall be payable except after the lapse of a fortnight from the time when the last instalment was payable, and if any person or persons shall neglect or refuse to pay his or their share of such money to be so called for or paid in as aforesaid, at the time or place and reasonable orders, and directions they shall receive from the said Municipal authorities in that respect, under a penalty of not more than five pounds nor less than one pound currency for each offence in refusing or neglecting to obey the same, to be recovered from the said Company at the suit and for the use of the Town of Brockville, in any Court of competent civil jurisdiction, except a Court constituted under and by virtue of any act or acts incorporating the Town of Brockville. 5

Certain works may be erected on lands of the Company. XVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Company from time to time to make, construct, lay down, 10 maintain, alter or discontinue such retorts, gasometers, receivers and buildings, cisterns, engines, machines and other apparatus, cuts, drains, sewers, water courses, reservoirs, machinery and other works, and also such houses and buildings upon the lands hereby authorized to be held and purchased by the said Company, and do all other acts necessary and convenient as they shall think proper for supplying the inhabitants within the limits of this act with Gas; and also to sell, dispose of or manufacture the refuse of any such gas, and any coke, tar, surplus coal or coal not found to answer for making gas. 15 20

Pipes may be laid through or against buildings. XVII. And be it enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Company to lay any pipes, branches or other necessary apparatus from any main or branch pipe into through or against any building for the purpose of lighting the same and to provide and set up any apparatus necessary for securing to any buildings a proper and complete supply of gas and for measuring and ascertaining the extent of such supply. 25

Company may sell or lease pipes meters &c. XVIII. And be it enacted, that it shall be lawful for the said Company to sell, lease or hire meters, interior or service pipes or gas fittings of any kind, and no service pipes, fittings or meters belonging to the said Company shall be subject to be distrained for rent due to any land lord or be seized in execution for any debt due by any person or persons, to or for whose use or the use of whose house or building the same may be supplied by the Company, any law or practice to the contrary notwithstanding. 30 35

Penalty for damaging meter &c. XIX. And be it enacted, that if any person shall wilfully damage or cause to be damaged any meter, service pipes or fittings belonging to the said Company or shall wilfully alter or impair the same so that the meter or meters shall indicate less gas than actually passes through the same such person shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not less than one pound nor exceeding five pounds and costs and shall also defray all expenses necessary in repairing or replacing the said meter, pipes or fittings. 40 45

XX. And be it enacted, that it shall be lawful for the said company to contract on such terms and for such periods as may be thought proper with the corporation of the town of Brockville, for lighting the streets, squares and public build- 50 dings and places of the said town with Gas, at such reasonable rates and prices for the general benefit of the town as may be mutually agreed on.

XXI. And be it enacted, that if any person shall wilfully remove, destroy, damage, fraudulently alter or in any way injure any pipe, pedestal, post, plug, lamps or other apparatus or thing belonging to the Company or to any person or shall wilfully extinguish any of the public lamps or lights or waste or improperly use or suffer to be used any of the Gas supplied by the Company, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the penalty and expenses mentioned in the nineteenth section of this Act.

Penalty for injuring works, wasting Gas, &c.

XXII. And be it enacted, that if any person shall carelessly or accidentally break, throw down or damage any meter, pipe, pedestal or lamp supplied by or belonging to the Company or any person, or keep the light or lights burning for a longer time than he shall contract to pay for and shall not on demand make satisfaction to the Company or to such person for the damage done or the excess of Gas obtained and used, then it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to summon before him the person against whom any such complaint shall be preferred and for any two or more justices upon hearing the allegations and proofs on both sides or on non appearance of the person complained against (after proof of his being duly summoned) to award such sum of money by way of damages to the Company or to such person as the case may require and the said Justices may deem reasonable, together with the costs and in case of a neglect or refusal to pay any sum or sums so awarded within three days after such award, it shall be lawful for any one of the said Justices to issue his warrant to cause the same to be levied of the goods and chattels of the person so convicted.

Company may recover damages for injury to meters, &c. or excessive use of Gas.

XXIII. And be it enacted, that if any person or persons, company or companies or body corporate supplied with Gas by the Company, shall neglect to pay any rate, rent or charge due to them at any of the times of payment thereof, it shall be lawful for the company or any person acting under their authority to stop the Gas from entering the premises, service pipes or lamps of any such person, company or body by cutting off the service pipe or pipes or by such means as the said Company shall think fit and to recover the said rate, rent or charge, together with the expenses of cutting off the Gas; in any competent Court by action of debt.

Company may stop gas in case of non payment.

XXIV. And be it enacted, that in all cases where it shall be lawful for the said Company to cut off and take away the supply of Gas from any house building or premises under the provisions of this Act it shall be lawful for the Company their agents or workmen upon giving twenty four hours previous notice to the occupier or person in charge to enter into any such house, building or premises between the hours of nine in the forenoon and four in the afternoon, making as little disturbance and inconvenience as possible, and to remove, take and carry away any pipe, meter, cock, branch or apparatus the property of and belonging to the said Company, and also to enter as aforesaid between the hours aforesaid, for the purpose of repairing and making good any such house building or premises or for the purpose of examining any meter or examining and repairing any meter, pipe or apparatus belonging to the said Company or used for supplying their Gas. 5

Penalty for obtaining and using Gas without consent of Company.

XXV. And be it enacted, that if any person or persons shall lay or cause to be laid any pipe or main to communicate with any pipe or main belonging to the said company or in any way obtain or use its Gas, or furnish or suffer it to be furnished to others without the consent of the Directors or their officer appointed to grant such consent, he, she or they shall forfeit and pay to the said Company the sum of twenty five pounds, and also a further sum of one pound for each day such pipe shall so remain, which said sum together with the costs of suit in that behalf incurred may be recovered by the said Company by civil action in any court of competent civil jurisdiction. 10 15 20

Injuring works altering Gas burners and wasting Gas to be misdemeanous.

XXVI. And be it enacted, that if any person or persons shall wilfully or maliciously break up, pull down or damage, injure, put out of order or destroy any main pipe, pipe or other works or apparatus, appurtenances or dependencies thereof or any matter or thing already made and provided or which shall be made and provided for the purposes aforesaid, or any of the materials used and provided for the same or ordered to be erected, laid down or belonging to the said Company or shall in any wise wilfully do any other injury or damage for the purpose of obstructing, hindering or embarrassing the construction, completion, maintaining or repairing of the said works, or shall cause or procure the same to be done or shall increase the supply of Gas agreed for with the said Company by increasing the number or size of the holes in the Gas burners, or otherwise wrongfully, negligently or wastefully burning the same or by wrongfully or improperly wasting the Gas, every such person or persons shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof, the Court before whom such person shall be tried and convicted shall have power and authority to condemn such person to pay a penalty not exceeding ten pounds currency, or be confined in the common Goal, of the county or united counties for a space of time not exceeding three months, as to such Court shall seem meet. 25 30 35 40 45

Town or street Surveyors may cause certain duties if neglected by the Company to be performed its expence.

XXVII. And be it enacted, that in case the said Company shall open or break up any street, square or public place in the said Town, and shall neglect to keep the passage of the said street, square or public place as far as may be free and uninterrupted or to place guards or fences or to place watch 50 men or to take every necessary precaution for the prevention of accidents to passengers and others or to close or replace the said streets, squares or public places without unnecessary delay as hereinbefore provided, the Town or street surveyors 5 under the direction of the said council of the Town, after notice in writing to the said Company, shall cause the duty so neglected to be forthwith performed and the expense thereof shall be defrayed by the said Company on its being demanded by the Town or street surveyor at any time not less than one month

 10 after the work shall have been completed in any case, from the President or Manager of the said Company, or in default of such payment the amount of such claim shall and may be recovered from the said Company at the suit of the Town of Brockville, by civil action in any Court of competent juris-15 diction.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent any person or persons from constructing any works for the supply of gas to his or their own premises or to prevent the Legislature 20 of this Province at any time hereafter from altering, modifying or repealing the powers, privileges or authorities hereinbefore granted to the said Company or from incorporating any other Company for like purposes.

Saving of rights of individuals and of the Legislature.

XXIX. And be it enacted, that nothing herein contained shall affect or be construed to affect in any way or manner whatsoever the rights of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, or of any person or persons such only accepted as are herein mentioned.

Saving of rights of H. M. and others.

XXX. And be it enacted, that in case the present limits of the town of Brockville be enlarged by legal authority it shall be lawful for the said Company to extend their operations over any such enlarged limits or the future liberties of the said town and the provisions of this act shall in all respects be applicable to any such enlarged limits or liberties in the 35 same manner and to the same effect as they are made applicable to the present limits of the town of Brockville.

Act to be applicable to any enlarged limits or liberties of Brockville.

XXXI. And be it enacted, that unless where otherwise specially provided the penalties to be imposed under the authority of this act shall be recoverable with costs by complaint 40 before any Justice of the Peace and on conviction upon the oath of one or more witnesses or by the confession of the party complained of; and in default of payment of any such penalty and costs, it shall be lawful for the said Justice to issue his warrant for the distress and sale of Goods and chattels of the 45 offender or for his imprisonment in the gaol of the united counties of Leeds and Grenville, for any period not exceeding one month, unless the said penalty and costs be sooner paid;

Recovering of penalties.

and such penalty shall be accounted for by any such Justice in the same manner as is provided for by an act passed in the fourth and fifth years of Her present Majesty's reign intituled, "An Act to require Justices of the Peace to make returns of convictions and fines and for other purposes therein mentioned." 5

Interpretation of words.

XXXII.
