PARODY ON BURNS' "RED RED ROSE"

Oh! my love has got a red, red nose,
That's blown each day at noon,
And its nose is like a melodie
Played on a cracked bassoon!
As fair art thou—as red thy nose,
So deep in love am I;
And I will love thee still, my dear,
Till a' the seas gang dry.

Till a' the seas, my dear, gang dry,
You never can suppose
My love for you is "all your eye,"
Since clearly 'tis your nose!
And fare thee well, my love awhile,
And farewell to thy nose,
Yet tho' it were a thousand mile,
I'd hear it when it blows!

THE RESTING PLACE, BY J. N. MAFFITT.
No man lieth down, and riseth not till the Heavens be no more; they shall not wake;
no be raised out of their sleep."

However dark and disconsolate the path of life may seem to anyone, there is an hour of deep and quiet repose; at hand, when the body may sink into dreamless slumber. Let not the imagination be started, if this resting place, instead of the bed of down, shall be the bed of gravel, or the rocky pavement of the tomb.
No matter where the remains of wearied man may lie, the repose is deep and undisturbed—
the sorrowful bosom heaves no more; the tears are dried up in the fountains; the aching head is at rest, and the stormy waves of earthly tribulation roar unheeded over the very bosom of the pale nation of the dead—not one of the sleepers hee'r the spirit stirring trumpet or respond to the rousing shouts of victory.

How quiet these countless millions slumber in the arms of their mother earth! The voice of thunder shall not awaken them; the loud
cry of the elements—the winds—the waves,
nor even the giant tread of the earthquakes, shall be able to cause an iniquity in the chambers of death. They shall rest and pass away! the last great battle shall be fought;
and then a silver voice at first just heard, shall rise to the tempest tone, and penetrated the voiceless grave. For the trumpet shall sound and the dead shall hear his voice.

Wm. Morgan.—"I met at Smyrna with a renegade who had renounced his Christian creed, and lives as a Turk. He is a native of the United States of America, by the name of Morgan, and is charged with having revealed what has resisted the importunities even of the wife, and the cunning of the inquisitive
all over the world, namely the secrets of free masonry. His life at home was threatened; his credulous countrymen believed that he had disappeared in the Falls of the Niagara, but he found safety in flight, and is degraded by the Asiatics as a regenerated babe." Shores of the Mediterranean, by F. H. Standish, Esq.
Punishment for whipping Wives.—At a late term of the court of Common Pleas for Meigs county, Ohio, a man named Vail was found guilty of an indictment charging him with the crime of whipping his wife, and sentenced to a fine of $50, and confinement in the county jail on bread and water for ten days. "For a less offence," as the Gallio polis paper gallantly observes, "John German was sentenced at the same term of court to six years at hard labor in the Ohio penitentiary."

Charles Dickens, "Boz," has entered a protest against the practice adopted in many English Theatres of dramatizing his works before they are finished, thus misrepresenting his characters, and in the necessity of making a denouement to every version, anticipating his own intended conclusion. His complaint is most just.

The Countess of Pava, who has just completed her twelfth year, is about to be married to the Marquis de Fagal, son of the Duke de Palmeira, the friend and adviser of Donna Maria. The young Countess' fortune is about ten millions of dollars. Worth having!

Dr. Parr.—The Doctor was very fond of his choir, and always used to encourage them to sing a very long hymn or anthem before the sermon, during which he used to steal into the vestry and smoke his pipe. When they had done, the clerk informed him, and if he had not finished, he would say, "John, tell them to sing the two last verses over again; my people love singing, and I love smoking."

A baker in Philadelphia, named Lathbury, has stopped his subscription to the Philadelphia Inquirer, because the editor dared to suggest that the loaves should be increased in size as the flour fell in price. We sympathize with the Inquirer on this immense loss, though we should set Mr. Lathbury down as a loafer, and by no means the best bread man in that city.—Baltimore Chronicle.

THE TRANSCRIPT.

QUEBEC, MONDAY, JULY 15th, 1839.

New York papers to the evening of Wednesday last are destitute of European intelligence, and contain nothing local at all likely to interest our readers. Extracts from the Montreal papers of Saturday will be found below. The account of the Coburg affair augurs well for the discomfiture of the "responsible government" men.

Salifax, and St. John, N. B. papers of the 6th instant, contain little of importance. It appears from the following, which we take from the Acadian Recorder, that Brother Jonathan is not disposed to attempt a legal vindication of the course pursued by him on his neighbours' fishing grounds:—

American Seizures.—The law proceedings in the Court of Vice Admiralty are progressing in the regular course, and unless the parties appear to the citations, in due time the vessels will be condemned, and in all probability sold for the coasting trade. No appearances are entered as yet on behalf of either the owners or masters, nor is it we think likely that there will be any.

The Cobourg Star of Wednesday last contains, in a postscript, a sketch purporting to be an outline of the Ministerial plan for the future government of the Canadas. The following are the most prominent parts of the plan.

Seven Commissioners to be named immediately, three for Upper, and three for Lower Canada, one of which Commissioners for each Province to be a member of the Legislative Council, the other two members of the Assembly. The seventh Commissioner to be named by the government.

These Commissioners are to report on a permanent civil list, and other matters.

The Provinces to be divided into five districts each sending sixteen members to a general Legislature.

The Legislative Council to be composed of the present Legislative Council of Upper Canada, and the Special Council of this Province.

All money bills to originate with the Crown. Quebec, Montreal, Kingston, and Toronto, to send each two representatives to the Legislature; all other towns to have no representatives, in particular.

All debts of Upper Canada to be paid from the general treasury.

From Montreal papers of Saturday.

The Cobourg Star contains a long account of a riot which took place in that town, on the 8th instant. It appears that, in the forenoon of that day, several wagons were furiously driven into Cobourg, from the Township of Haldimand, filled with a band of persons, denominated "Durhamites," with the intention of holding a public meeting, in approval of Lord Durham's Report. They had two flags, inscribed "Lord Durham and Reform," and proceeded to erect a hustings in front of the Town Hall. "But," says the Star, "the British blood of the bystanders could not brook this audacious display of insolence and rebellion, because men who were a short time ago absconding or imprisoned traitors, had the hardihood to present themselves on the hustings before a loyal population." A few old countrymen demanded a surrender of the Durhamite flags; and upon this being refused, a scuffle and riot ensued, in which the men from Haldimand were completely routed, and some of them had fire-arms, with which they defended themselves. The flags were seized, as a trophy of victory; but were soon afterwards torn to pieces, and trampled on with contempt. Such a collision is much to be deprecated; but this affair confirms us in the opinion, that there are still a number of evil spirits in Upper Canada, who are ready to embrace any pretext to agitate the country, and keep it in a perpetual state of confusion and anarchy. Such a pretext is that portion of Lord Durham's Report, which recommends a "Responsible Council;" which, we fear, will be the cause of much more serious evil among the misguided population of the sister Province.—Montreal Gazette.

Yesterday afternoon at half past three o'clock, the Committee appointed by the subscribers to the Weatherall testimonial presented it to Colonel Weatherall, in front of the mess house of the Royal Regiment. The Hon. Peter McGill, Chairman of the Committee, read an address to the gallant Colonel on behalf of the subscribers, and an appropriate answer was returned to it, both of which will be found below. Previous to three o'clock, the weather was very unfavourable, and it was generally believed that the presentation would be postponed, which accounts for all the loyal inhabitants of the city not turning out en masse. Notwithstanding the state of the weather, there was a considerable crowd assembled at Dalhousie Square, and, as if in honour of the occasion, the storm ceased about three o'clock, and was succeeded by sunshine and calm.—The candelabra was borne from the house of Mr. Jamieson to that of the Royal mess by five sergeants of the volunteers, one from the Light Infantry, the Rifles, the Artillery and the Cavalry, while the Royal Band played Colonel Weatherall's march. It was then placed on a pedestal prepared for the occasion, and the address and answer delivered, after which the band played the good old song,

"No rebel French shall ever dare To land upon our shores."

—the same which was played by the band on the steamboat to the barracks, when the Royal Regiment returned victorious from St. Charles on St. Andrew's day 1837, accompanied by numerous prisoners and bearing the trophies of victory. After the ceremony of the presentation was over, the Committee and a number of Officers, of Ladies and Gentlemen, were invited to partake of a lunch prepared for the occasion in the Mess House, where every delicacy of the season was on the table to tempt the appetite. In the evening, a select party dined with the Officers of the Royal Regiment, in honour of the presentation.

The following Address was read by the Hon. Mr. McGill, who was accompanied by the following gentlemen, members of the Committee:

Thos. B. Anderson, Henry Griffin John Jamieson, Ben. Holmes, John Redpath, John S. McCord.

TO G. A. WEATHERALL, C. B. K. H. COLONEL 2nd. BATTALION 1st. ROYAL REGIMENT.

Sir—At a period when the most violent disaffection portion of the inhabitants of the district were in arms, for the avowed purpose of subverting the Government of Her Majesty in these provinces, and of dissolving their connexion with the glorious Empire of which they form a part—when the mass of the French population was evidently only waiting for the confirmation of their first partial success, as the signal of a general rising,—and when a speedy and decisive blow to the designs of treason was wanting to strengthen the confidence and confirm the hopes of the loyalists; the victory at St. Charles, while in its moral consequence it stimulated them to renewed exertions, and added fresh vigour to their energies, struck terror and dismay into the hearts of the disaffected, and proved "a sore discouragement" to incipient and actual rebellion.

To you, Sir, to your military skill and conduct, and to the courage of the brave men under your command on that auspicious occasion, the loyal inhabitants of the city of Montreal feel indebted to the complete consummation of their hopes; and in an evidence of their estimation of the great importance of that event, and of their regard for you as an officer and a man, they have deputed us to present, for your acceptance, this humble "Testimonial" of their admiration and gratitude.

The unfortunate cause which has prevented its earlier presentation, is known to you. It was shipped from London last autumn on board the fine but ill-fated ship "Colborne," and its almost miraculous preservation, a little before the time when our illustrious Governor General, by the wisdom of his arrangements, and the promptness of his action, saved the country a second time is not the least interesting portion of its history. In conclusion, we beg to assure you, Sir, that those whom we represent, and we ourselves, fervently wish that prosperity, success and honour may continue to attend your future career; and of their, and our, unceasing remembrance of the great service which you have rendered to the cause of British connection in the Canadas.

ANSWER OF COLONEL WEATHERALL.

Gentlemen.—Next to the approbation of His Sovereign, a soldier's best reward is the esteem of his fellow countrymen: one hour of such public esteem is worth a whole Epicurean life. I shall, therefore, ever reflect with pride and exultation on the occurrence to this day.

The splendid Testimonial which the Loyal British Inhabitants of Montreal have presented to me, through you, is a proof that I possess their good opinion, an honor which it is impossible sufficiently to appreciate.

It would be prudery in me to deny that the force which I had the good fortune to command, was the means of suppressing, for a time, the extensive and unnatural rebellion which threatened to subvert the Peace of this Colony: but I was only the humble instrument in the hands of our illustrious Commander of the forces, in performing that service: success was alone owing to a strict obedience to the spirit of His Excellency's orders, and to the gallantry of the troops.

The result of the attack upon St. Charles was serious,—fatal to many, but it was unavoidable,—it was the necessary consequence of the misguided inhabitant resisting to the last the authority of Her Majesty's Government:—and ought to convince them of the utter hopelessness, the folly, of opposing a Government so strong and so paternal as that of Great Britain, under which it should be the pride, the boast, of every Canadian to live.

Gentlemen, there is one point to which in justice to myself, I shall be excused for advertizing upon this occasion—I mean that part of the inscription on your splendid Testimonial which records my "Mercy in Victory": I am especially gratified by this expression, because it is the most triumphant refutation of those calumnies which were wickedly lavished upon me, in certain distant quarters where truth should be more respected, by persons alike ignorant of the facts and of the character which, I hope, you have not unjustly bestowed upon me.

For the good wishes of those to whom I am so much indebted for this flattering Testimonial, I beg to return my best thanks, and especially to you, Gentlemen, for the manner in which they have been conveyed.—Montreal Herald.

The following is a summary of an official "Account of the ordinary revenues constituting the public income of the Province of Lower Canada, for the year ended 10th October, 1838:—

The total revenue applicable to general purposes is—Gross Amount, including £42501 11 of arrears, £226380 2 9, of which, £4,668 13 1 is the proportion for Upper Canada; the net income, applicable to general purposes, is £113585 19 9, which is exclusive of the following:—Duties under Prov. Acts 45 and 51 Geo. III, on shipping, £4037 9 10; Duties on passengers under Prov. Act 6 William IV cap. 13 £729 18 2; Tonnage Duties under Prov. Act 6 William IV cap 35, £1357 18 0; J. its' Estates, £1859 13 6l.

Mrs. Bailey's concert, at the Albion Hotel on Saturday evening, was given before a very numerous assemblage of the elite of the beauty and fashion of Quebec; and her execution of the various songs selected fully justified the high encomiums heretofore passed upon her by the press generally. Mrs. Bailey, both in manner and person, cannot fail to please and to prepossess an audience in her favor. Her execution is florid, brilliant, and beautifully in tune. The applause accorded to her songs was enthusiastic; and in the last one,—"The banks of the blue Moselle,"—she was loudly encored. Mrs. Bailey was assisted by Miss Hill, whose voice is distinguished by flexibility, sweetness, and distinctness of articulation; and on this occasion, both in singing and at the piano-forte, appeared to great advantage, and made a decided and favorable impression.

We regret to learn that it is not Mrs. Bailey's intention to give another concert in Quebec. We believe she purposes leaving immediately for Upper Canada.

The steamer Canadian Patriot arrived in port yesterday, on her first trip from Montreal.

Lady Colborne and family left Montreal Friday, in the Canadian Eagle, for Sorrel, where, we learn, they intend to pass a part of the summer, at the residence there of His Excellency the Governor General.

We learn from the Cobourg Star that the Rev. Rulledge, R. N., had arrived there a few days ago, with nearly two hundred stout, healthy, and loyal Irish settlers, from the estates of Mr. Wyndham.

On Friday last, at St. Giles, during the thunder storm, the lightning descended through the chimney of a farm-house, destroyed a considerable portion of the upper floor, and rent asunder almost the whole of the bottom flat. The inmates fortunately escaped uninjured. At the same time the lightning struck a cow and a heifer while they were grazing in a field near the house, and killed them instantaneously.

From an article in the Canadian of Wednesday, we learn that the number of causes taken out during the year preceding this time, by the 103 practising attorneys in this District was 1275.

The Police, last night, apprehended no less than eighty sailors and "loafers," in the Lower Town.

United States.

PATRIOT TRIALS.—By the following paragraphs from the Detroit Advertiser it appears that, in consequence of the evident determination of the Court and Jury to protect the accused, as indicated in the trial of Thiel, the District Attorney has concluded to proceed no further in patriot prosecutions:—

The Trial of Dr. Theller, in the United States Circuit Court, under the act of Congress of 1818, has terminated in his acquittal, after a long and tedious investigation of four days. Every impediment was thrown in the way of the prosecution, and it was apparent both in and out of Court, that the bias and sympathy of both the Court and Jury was in favor of the accused, however inoperative the law, and clear the facts might be.

We understand, that from all the circumstances, as exhibited on this, and the previous trial of McLeod, the District Attorney has thought it advisable to enter a non prosequi in remaining indictments under that act.

The ship Rialto, cleared at New Orleans the 25th ult. for London, having on board five hundred and fifty-nine hogsheads of tobacco worth at New-York one hundred and ninety-seven thousand seven hundred dollars. The cargo is considerably the most valuable cargo that has been shipped this season.

The Massachusetts Eagle says, that a most destructive hail storm was experienced in the county a few days since. It passed over Lakesboro', the northern part of Pittsfield, the north-eastern part of Lenox, Washington Becket and Otis, and how much further it extended, we do not know. Many of the hail stones are represented by those who witnessed the hail as having been six inches in circumference. Great damage is done to the crop of Indian corn, and oats being in many places cut down to the ground and utterly ruined. In the West Becket Hotel, 450 panes of glass were destroyed—200 panes were broken in the hotel of Mr. Owen, in East Lee. The storm extended from one to two miles only in width.

Lower Canada.

(From the Montreal Herald)

We are happy to learn, that it is proposed to establish a Club-House in this city, to be called, "The Union Club," to be conducted on principles of economy and comfort, and as nearly as circumstances will admit, on the plan of the London Clubs, for the convenience of gentlemen resident in Montreal, and of others who frequent visits to town,—where they may procure comfortable meals and temporary lodgings at the most moderate rates,—have access to a library, as well as to the European, American, and Canadian newspapers, and other periodicals. The Club is to consist of two hundred members; every person becoming a member must pay fifteen pounds of entrance money, and an annual subscription, which shall in no case exceed five pounds.

The New York Herald states that no less than one thousand persons were killed or severely wounded in the United States, on the 4th instant. We think this is a "Buller," or else some of the other "respectable" papers would have some cognizance of the melancholy fact. If, however, it is true, it shows that the recent glorifications of the anniversary of American Independence was purchased at a dear price.

Mr. Wm. Kenned country with Lord I commissioner on the Adam Thom, has arrived and is described in the first Englishman had been there, from country many adv

Flour.—Has been in our last, and sales 100 bbls. of fine have 33s. @ 33s. 6d. per bl week; but since that has been refused, at ally asked; the advanc edency to check the de three days several par 33s. 9d. of coarse do. a d of Pollards at 27s. 6i to quality, have been country consumption.

THE QUEBEC TRANSCRIPT.

Mr. Wm. Kennedy, who came out to this country with Lord Durham, and was associate commissioner on the Municipal Bill with Mr. Adam Thom, has arrived at Houston in Texas, and is described in the Houston Telegraph as the first Englishman of any celebrity that had been there, from whose reports of the country many advantages may be expected.

A block house of oak or pine timber is to be erected immediately on Fighting Island, near Sandwich, U. C., so as to render it capable of maintaining the significant name it bears. The western Herald says that from the central position of the island, between the two shores, the block house will command the whole width of the river, and if properly garrisoned, will be capable of withstanding any force brought against it, as we are proving a most efficient auxiliary in destroying the vessels of any enemy which might attempt to run the channel on either side.

We learn from the Hamilton Gazette that Arthur Ledlie, a sheep-keeper by trade, residing in Bishbrook, in the District of Gore, Upper Canada, murdered his wife, in a most shocking manner, on the 2nd instant. They had not previously lived comfortably together; and his wife left him to go to a gentleman's house where she was then acting as house-keeper; he went to see her, and after expostulating with her, on the propriety of her returning home with him, which, it is stated, she refused, he immediately plunged a knife or some such sharp instrument into her breast, a second into her side, and a third blow, it has been proved, entered the lungs, and in about twenty minutes the unfortunate woman breathed her last. He was arrested, and committed to Hamilton jail.—Montreal Transcript.

REVIEW OF THE MONTREAL MARKETS FOR THE WEEK ENDING
 Friday evening, 12th July 1839.
Wheat—Owing to a diminished demand have shown a tendency to decline, and the sales have been but limited. The nominal rate for white is 25s. 6d. @ 26s. and for Pearls 30s. 6d. @ 31s. per cwt. showing a reduction of 6d. per qt.
Flour—Has been in considerable demand ever our last, and sales to the extent of about 100 bbls. of fine have been made principally 33s. @ 35s. 6d. per bbl. in the early part of the week; but since that time 33s. 9d. per bbl. has been refused, and 35s. is now generally asked; the advance on fine has had a tendency to check the demand. Within two three days several parcels of fine Middlings 33s. 9d. of coarse do. at 31s. 3d. @ 32s. 6d. and of Pollards at 27s. 6d. @ 31s. 3d. according to quality, have been sold for the Quebec and country consumption.

Provisions have not been much in demand during the past week, and prices are less firm. We have no alteration to notice except in Prime Mess Pork which has sustained a reduction, and may now be quoted at 90s. @ 92s. 6d. per bbl. Other sorts remain at our previous quotations.
Money—We have not heard of any sales of Exchange of any consequence, Montreal Bank Shares have advanced from 100 @ 103 @ 104.

CHARLES McDONALD,
HOUSE AND SIGN PAINTER,
GLAZIER, &c. &c.

RETURNS thanks for the liberal encouragement he has received from the inhabitants of Quebec, and respectfully informs them that he continues to carry on business at No. 13, St. Lewis Street, where all orders will be promptly attended to,
and he flatters himself that his terms will be found as reasonable, and his materials superior to those hitherto furnished.
Quebec, 10th April, 1839.

HORATIO CARWELL,
No. 4, Fabrique-Street.

BEGS respectfully to inform his friends and the public that he has now on hand an unusually large selection of Plain and Fancy Dry Goods, received per the Eleutheria and Emanuel and other vessels, from London, and being desirous of making quick sales the whole is now being offered at reduced prices, for cash or short credit.
Quebec, 1th June, 1839.

PILES, &c.

HEMORRHOIDS—NO CURE NO PAY
Price $1—Hays Liniment—No Fiction.
THIS extraordinary chemical composition,
the result of science and the invention of a celebrated medical man, the introduction of which to the public was invented with the solemnity of a death-bed request, has since gained a reputation unparalleled, fully sustaining the correctness of the lamented Dr. Grid-ley's last confession, that "he dared not die without giving to posterity the benefit of his knowledge on this subject," and he therefore bequeathed to his friend and attendant, Solomon Hays, the secret of his discovery.
It is now used in the principal hospitals and the private practice in our country, first and most certainly for the cure of the Piles, and also so extensively and effectually as to baffle credulity, unless where its effects are witnessed externally in the following complaints:—
For Dropsy—Creating extraordinary absorption at once.
All Swellings—Reducing them in a few hours.
Rheumatism—Acute or Chronic, giving quick ease.
Sore Throat—By cancers, ulcers or colds.
Croup and Whooping Cough—Eradicating and over the chest.
All Bruises, Sprains and Burns—Curing in a few hours.
Sores and Ulcers—Whether fresh or long standing, and fever sores.
Its operations upon adults and children in reducing rheumatic swelling, and loosening coughs, and tightness of the chest by relaxation of the parts has been surprising beyond conception. The common remark of those who have used it in the Piles, is "it acts like a charm."
THE PILES.—The price $1 is refunded to any one who will use a bottle of Hays' Liniment for the Piles, and return the empty bottle without being cured. These are the positive orders of the proprietor to the Agents, and out of the many thousands sold, not one
has been unsuccessful.
CAUTION—None can be genuine without a splendid engraved wrapper, on which is my name, and also that of the Agents.
