MAJOR URGES FIGHT FOR PORT KEPT UP

SAINT JOHN HAS CHANCE TO ADVANCE

Stresses Advantages of Putting Harbor in Commission

NEED FOR BRIDGE

Pleased With Evidence of Smith and Thornton Before Maritime Board

SAINT JOHN has the opportunity of its history now to get the recognition due it as one of the national ports of the Dominion.

This view was expressed by Mayor White today during an interview in which he declared his satisfaction over the evidence given before the Royal Commission by a representative of the wheat pool and Sir Henry Thornton on the question of trade through Canadian ports.

"It is up to the people now," declared the mayor, "and it is the duty of the citizens of Saint John to keep up the fight for terminal facilities."

Dealing with this question, he said: "Every thoughtful citizen who has given any attention to the possibility of Saint John's future must have read with pleasure and satisfaction the evidence given before the Royal Commission investigating Maritime Provincial matters by the representatives of the Canadian National Railway and the Canadian wheat pool."

D. L. Smith, representing the latter, stated that the pool was desirous of utilizing to a very much greater extent than had hitherto been the port of Saint John for the export of their grain and the limit of business would be the terminal facilities provided here.

THORNTON'S IDEAS

"Sir Henry Thornton spoke with no uncertain sound as to the advisability and desirability of utilizing to the greatest possible extent the ports of the Canadian Atlantic seaboard. It is unnecessary for me to say more on this subject, as it has been so thoroughly discussed in the past and given wide publicity in the newspapers."

"Sir Henry's view of the proper way to bring this about coincides with the ideas held by me and, I believe, by the great majority of the citizens of Saint John; I have on many occasions advocated a similar policy. The center of the harbor, if placed in the hands of a commission or trust, such as Montreal has, would result in its development to the fullest extent without cost to the community."

WOULD DEVELOP WEST SIDE

It would appear that this development should take place on the western side of the harbor rather than in Courtney Bay, and in time, when trade warranted it, additional berths could be provided on the eastern side of the harbor.

"If this plan were carried out, the first necessity would be a bridge across the harbor, and such a bridge must only make provision for the railway but for passenger and vehicle traffic and possibly for the street railway. I understand the Canadian Pacific Railway is not averse to such a development provided its interests are conserved, and in any development these interests must be conserved."

"It is altogether likely, from the evidence which has been submitted to the Duncan Commission, that their report may favor such a scheme. I do not presume to say in advance what that report will be, but it is not necessary to wait until it has been presented to Parliament, at the next session, before moving along these lines. Whether the report is favorable or unfavorable to us, the City of Saint John must never give up the struggle to obtain the recognition which it so clearly deserves."

BENEFITS OF BIG PORT

"I would like to draw attention, as I have on previous occasions, to the consequential benefits which would come from the creation of a great seaport at the mouth of the Saint John River. A great city is likely to be built up around a great port, it would stimulate business of all kinds, especially along the lines of manufacturing our natural resources for home and overseas trade."

"An increase in population is the only solution of the tax problem which is engrossing so much attention at the present time. With an increase in the number of ratepayers the burden will fall lighter on each, and in my opinion this is the true and only way such a

Consideration of U. S. Reservations Is Held Up

Information Sought on Matter of Scope of League Council

GENEVA, Sept. 9.—A deadlock was suddenly reached last night on the problem of United States adherence to the world court of justice, which is now in the hands of the special committee of 14 appointed by the world court conference.

DIFFICULTY OVER VOTE

The difficulty arises from the fact that neither the committee nor any body else has equal rights with the members of the council, when asking the League of Nations, when asking the court for advisory opinions, must vote by majority or unanimity. If the unanimity prevails, the United States reservations can be accepted immediately, but if the majority system prevails, then the situation is otherwise.

Speech of Canadian Delegate Greeted With Applause From Members

By HERBERT BAILEY British United Press

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Sir George Foster, who startled the League of Nations Assembly by his recent outspoken criticism of United States world court reservations, aroused keen interest again today by a notable speech expressing Canada's optimistic confidence in the permanence and increasing usefulness of the League. Admitting that its policies had necessarily been modified, he declared that the League had successfully overcome all its difficulties and had succeeded in spite of the failure of United States to become a member.

REVIEWERS ACCOMPLISHMENTS

While the League had not been able so far to meet the high water mark of its initial ideal, it had created a condition which made Locarno possible and thus brought many of the world down to an immediate practical basis. He instanced particularly the establishment of the Hague Court and the reconstruction of Austria and Hungary as great achievements of the League, which he said, was now appreciated by the whole world.

SYMPATHY IN U. S.

"Millions of citizens of the United States have sympathetic hearts and minds, which approve of the great work the League of Nations is carrying on," Sir George declared.

WORDS APPLAUDED

He declared ample applause for seven years had proved the league had entered the present era in world history as a great, beneficent, enduring organization. Nowhere in the world did any doubt exist among thinking people concerning the future usefulness of the league, if it were wisely managed.

In view of the chaotic situation in China, no diplomatic note has been sent to Peking in fact the official attitude is that such action in the present state of affairs would be rather a compliment to the Peking regime which is supposed to be governing the country.

Nurses Write of Milk Question

The chairman of the Saint John Sub-District Board of Health has received the following communication: Sept. 7, 1926.

Ladies and Gentlemen—We understand that raw milk is permitted to be sold in the city during the current month. In our capacity as child welfare nurses we feel that such action will tend to nullify to a large extent the work which we are doing. It is well understood that the first essential in child welfare work is the provision of a safe water and milk supply, and without this much of the other work is in vain.

desirable end may be accomplished. It is my intention to bring this matter to the attention of the council at an early date. 17,000 ATTEND EXHIBITION ON WEDNESDAY

Grandstand Jammed for Both Performances—Pike Does Good Business

THE standing room only sign was tacked on the grandstand at both afternoon and evening vaudeville performances yesterday at the Saint John Exhibition. While no official attendance returns were tabulated last night, it is estimated that 17,000 people wended their way to the grounds. Hundreds of country visitors helped to swell the throngs. Excluding Labor Day, yesterday's attendance set a new record.

Little or no headway could be made along the pike last night so dense were the crowds. Seats in the grandstand were at a premium and several were forced to view the show with the support of "shanks mare." The excellence of the vaudeville continued to please the visitors and the performances of the Great Curran, steel pole aerialist, and Miss May Collier, high diver, were replete with thrills.

COMPLIMENT PAID F. A. Dykeman, president of the Saint John Exhibition, said last night that the vaudeville artists themselves were loud in their praise of the manner in which the show is being run, the orderliness of the crowds and the general excellence of everything in general. Coming from these show artists, who have shown at many large Canadian and United States fairs, Mr. Dykeman said he felt it a great compliment for the Saint John Exhibition.

"Everything quiet" was the report made by the exhibition police last night. Sergeant Scott found a sum of money turned in to the general office, where it may be obtained by its owner. About a dozen minor accident cases were attended to at the Saint John Ambulance Association booth during the day and night. About 50 babies were cared for at the Red Cross nursery. The sand piles, located inside and outside of the nursery, proved a magnetic attraction for the youngsters. With the exception of the times when some of the kiddies threw sand in each other's eyes, the day passed peacefully for the Red Cross workers.

How to Cure a Husband or Wife From Quarreling—Can She Make a Go-Getter Out of a Shiftless Fiance?—Advice to Miss Seventeen About to be Married.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—We have been married for five years, own our house and car, have just enough money. My wife is a good cook, housekeeper, etc., and knows how to dress. But it is impossible for us to agree. We don't seem to see things in the same light at all, and we are in a continuous fight.

DOROTHY DIX

Probably I could get another wife and we could agree, but then again she might not possess the good points my present wife has. However, as it is, we are both miserable, and this everlasting rowing is driving both of us dippy. What do you think about it?
DUBIOUS.

ANSWER:
I think that any husband and wife who are always quarreling with each other are already dippy, because any two sane persons can get along together in peace if they really want to do so.

There are plenty of troublesome situations in matrimony that are very difficult to remedy. There is the case, for instance, when one must live with a disagreeable and cantankerous mother-in-law, who gets upon one's nerves, and who must be endured because there is no other place for her to go. There is the case where the wife is constitutionally lazy and sloppy and the husband is a philanderer, or a drunkard, or a shiftless loafer.

There is not much you can do to cure cases such as these, but there is a sovereign remedy for unhappiness in those households where the only trouble is that the husband and wife spot over everything that comes along. All they have to do is to have a heart-to-heart talk, and recognize how idiotic they are in ruining a perfectly good marriage by quarreling—and then quit quarreling.

You can't cut out arguing just as surely as you can cut out drink or gambling, or any other vice for which you have a predilection. Just make a cast-iron resolve that you will not debate any question whatever and if you can't decide questions that affect you both any other way, take turns and turn about. Let your wife have her way one time, and you have your way the next. That is the way mothers settle the matter between quarreling children.

Don't start anything yourself, and if your wife begins a fight retire from the field in silence. No one can quarrel long by himself. It is the snappy comeback that keeps the thing going.

And what difference does it make if you and your wife don't think alike on every subject? You have no idea how broad and tolerant people become when once you rise to the heights of realizing that other people have the right to their opinions that you have to yours. And, after all, don't you think that a rubber-stamp wife who thought just exactly as you do would be dull company?

I certainly wouldn't advise you to swap off a wife who is a good cook and a good housekeeper, on the chance of getting a woman with whom you would never disagree. There are not many women with whom it is always easy to live, and who don't contradict their husbands at times. Better stick to the one you have and get her to sign the armistice.
DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am engaged to a young man who, I know, loves me very dearly, and sincerely wishes to get married, but it seems that he lacks the power and push to make any headway. During the five years we have been engaged he has never saved one cent, until this year when he salvaged $80 from his bonus. I don't think it is fair that I should have to continually nag at him about saving his money, and when I do, he loses his temper and we have an argument. Please tell me your opinion of the matter.
PERPLEXED.

ANSWER:
If I were going to marry that sort of man I should not resign my job when I got married. On the contrary, I would hang on to it with both hands because I would know that the chances are that I would not only have to support myself, but him.

You will do well to consider this matter very seriously before you get married, because the man who is not galvanized into some sort of action to get the woman he wants is never going to show any speed. Furthermore, he is mighty apt to slump as soon as he has her. Many women marry men of this kind thinking that they can supply the pep and ambition the man lacks and that when they get hold of the man's money they can save it, but their rosy little plan never works out satisfactorily.

Nothing on earth kills a man's love for his wife so quickly as for her to be a bood in his side urging him on, and nothing distillates and disgusts an energetic, ambitious woman so much as for a man just to be shiftless, with too little energy or initiative to make anything of himself, or to get anywhere. And when a wife and husband begin quarreling over the pocket-book, when he wants to spend and she wants to save, it is good-night to Cupid.

There is one thing that women don't realize clearly enough, I think, and that is that go-getters are born, not made. The gift of making money is just as much a talent as a tenor voice, and it is just as unreasonable to expect every man to have it as it would be to expect him to be an opera singer.

Nor is the ability to make money the greatest gift a man can have. There are men so lovable and sweet, so fine and generous, that they are desirable as husbands even with empty pockets.

So, before you marry your man consider whether you are willing to be poor with him, and whether you are willing to work yourself and help support the family, for he will never change.

New Sleeve Treatments Are Featured in Fall Frocks

By MME. LISBETH
SLEEVES are the most distinguishing features of many of the new fall dresses. The tight fitting sleeve of tailored lines is good, but it competes with the loose, baggy type which gathers into tight wristbands. Novel treatments and trimming add variety to these sleeves. Pictured are two dresses which illustrate the above. At the left huge peasant sleeves are hand-painted in futuristic designs to match the designs on the frock. This frock is extremely simple in cut and is belted at a normal waistline. Miss Estelle Clark, the wearer, wears one of the picturesque large hats with this frock. Bell shaped sleeves trimmed with wide bands of white crepe de chine bound with floss in peasant colors are the feature of the one-piece frock (right) worn by Pauline Starke. A yoke of white crepe de chine adds a youthful note to it. It is developed in dark green flat crepe with knife pleated skirt with silver buttons running down the front. Another new model was made of brocade with square black motifs decorated with cross bars of wool stitching on the sleeves. In the center is the popular type of hat—a small blue felt, the crown forming a neat effect and trimmed with grosgrain and crystal sprangle. The dresses with bloused backs that are featured in nearly every house pres-suppose a waistline of some sort, and for daytime wear, the narrow belt of leather or self fabric is very often seen. While for afternoon, the seaming of bodice and skirt may achieve the effect, or there may be a wider, soft saab girdle of the material loosely knotted at one side. As to the height of this waistline, the cabled reports have given the majority of the authority houses place it anywhere from two inches below the top of the hip bone to just at the top itself, which is from two to four inches higher than most of us have been wearing. Some houses, notably Worth and Molynaux, still keep it as low as last year for many of their dresses.

That Silly Horn Hooting.
(Janesville Gazette.)
Without advocating an addition to our already too voluminous statute books, one can express his abhorrence of and disgust with those poor, impatient autists who, immediately traffic is held up, cause a deafening din with their horns.

There is nothing more futile than trying to untangle a traffic jam by the honk of a horn. In fact, the confusion thus arising cannot but increase the congestion and cause further unnecessary delay to the honkers themselves.

The fellow who blows his horn in a traffic tie-up is the same undesirable citizen who forces his way to the head of the line at the ticket office, who crowds his way into the street car and doesn't want to be a gentleman because of the responsibility involved.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

PATSY RUTH MILLER has been chosen to play opposite Richard Barthelmess in "The White Black Sheep" which Sidney Clout is directing for Inspiration Pictures, to be distributed by First National. Patsy Ruth was selected after many had been considered for the role of Zella, the exotic heroine.

Barthelmess will be seen in rags in this picture. This is the first time he has worn tatters since "To'able David," one of his most outstanding successes.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michalis
Not calm content or placid ways of peace, where men may take their ease, do I desire, for fear, that if all need of struggle cease my weary soul might lose its wonted fire. For always, through the strife-tormented days, I have gone gladly, singing to the fray; nor would I now leave storm for sunny ways or cast my war-born heritage away. Instead, I ask to go as I have gone, eager, alert, and ever undismayed, with courage fresh as are the winds of dawn; singing, forever singing, unafraid! For me, no calm content or ways of peace to lull me into visions fond and vain; but soaring, people-dreams that bring release, may I go fighting while the long years wane.

WANDERER—Can you give me a job as a farm hand, sir?
Farmer—Why, we've only just got the crops in and it'll be months before there's any work for you.
"That'll just suit me!"—Pete Melo, Paris.

Ben Lyon, young First National feature player, comes out with a brand new recipe for getting into pictures. "Grabbing off film roles is as easy as eating pie," says Ben. "All you have to do to get into pictures and become famous is put a horseshoe under your pillow every night and bow four times to the East each day at sunset. Then go out and work like the devils in a good stock company for about two years."

Ben ought to know about part of this, for he received his finishing touches in stock before breaking into the film line. Herbert's next picture will be "Noel Herbert!"

Ken Maynard, First National western star, will soon start production on his third picture, "The Flame of the Border." Kathleen Collins and Chief Yowlaichi are in the supporting cast. "Senior Dave Devil," was his first release and the second, "The Unknown Cavalier," has also been completed.

Keep Smiling for Him

There is absolutely no need for you to wear out your nerves and knuckles over a washboard. Change the hard work of washing to just rinsing. Rinso, the marvelous time and labour saver made by the makers of Lux, takes all the hard work out of wash-day. Rinso is already granulated and therefore dissolves instantly in hot water. Clothes soaked for a couple of hours—overnight if you wish—in Rinso suds need no rubbing. Think of it! You just rinse the dirt out. Don't do another washing without Rinso. Keep smiling for him.

Made by the makers of Lux.

Rinso
DIRECTIONS
Put some Rinso in a saucepan. Pour boiling water over it to set all its good, cleansing power free. Pour this into the wash-water. Quickly, completely, the tiny granules dissolve into a clean solution. Use enough to get creamy, lasting suds. Then drop in the clothes. Soak—boil—or use a washing machine as you prefer. Rinso works perfectly any way you like best to wash.

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, SAINT JOHN, N. B. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1926

SAINT JOHN MAN OVER 100, DIES, ILL SHORT TIME

Timothy O'Brien, 112 St. Patrick Street, Was Well Known Butcher

More than a centenarian, Timothy O'Brien died at his home, 112 St. Patrick street, in this city, at 11.30 p.m. on Sept. 8, 1926, after an illness of only one week. He had retained his faculties up to the last and was able to be about until stricken with his fatal illness. He was born in Queenstown, Ireland, about the year 1824 and came to Canada as a young man of about 80 years of age in the year 1854. He had resided in Saint John ever since and in his younger days was a butcher by trade having a stall in the city market. He traveled through the country in connection with his wholesale business and in those days such things as railways were not in existence in the territory through which he went. He was afterwards in the employ of the city public works department and remained in that service for nearly 40 years. He retired from active business about 20 years ago but retained good health and was possessed of a remarkably clear memory. He could recall the old days in Ireland and remembered having heard Daniel O'Connell. Mr. O'Brien's wife died about 26 years ago. He is survived by three sons and one daughter. The sons are Timothy, John and Thomas, all of this city. The daughter is Miss Catherine O'Brien at home. There are also surviving five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Letters to the Editor

AMATEUR AND PROFESSIONAL.
To the Editor of The Times-Star.

Sir,—As there seems to be a general controversy in connection with the amateur situation, which seems to be all with the reference to the question of who is responsible for the calling off of a game of baseball, but never a question of the standing of the baseball players who participate in games all summer before crowds of from one thousand to three thousand spectators, at as high as forty cents admission—when does the money go? The Professional League was run on a profit. Then, again, is it true that the amateur officials get ten per cent of the gate of all play-offs, as well as $10 for a sanction from every club that plays in a league, as well as a registration fee from every baseball player and athlete who participates in any line of sport under their jurisdiction? In connection with Mr. Doyle and the matter of his interference, which is apparently the cause at present of the uprising, is it not a fact, when two players were suspended this summer by Mr. Stirling, that Mr. Covey appealed to Mr. Doyle to reinstate them, and, in fact, went so far as to have them participate in the following game after their suspension, not to mention the calling off of their suspension by the officials before the time was up? If Mr. Doyle was right then, according to the appeal, why not now?

Is it not a fact that at one of the city league meetings one of the managers was made a goat of, and suspended in lieu of two ball plays, and only for Mr. Stirling's action it would have been pulled off? Why not give Mr. Stirling credit for his part anyway? Why is it that a player who was put under the ban and who played out-and-out professional for two years was reinstated? Why is it that if professionals are not allowed to take a vote or participate in the rulings of amateur officials, that one man was left on the City League board in a voting capacity even after a card was refused him? In all games of sportsmanship has any one ever heard tell of such a raw deal as was handed to the Martellos in their recent fight for what was their right—a winning club, and a club affiliated with the A. A. U. of C. When it comes to taking oaths, it would seem in connection with the same, and in view of the fact that so much money is involved, that all concerned should make the oath before a judge and a representation of citizens who are interested. Perhaps the time has come for a general array of all athletes, to determine just where they stand in connection with rumors that have been going around since the middle of last season. No living professional wants to break up the amateur sport, but they certainly want justice, as their only connection is from having been handled by similar methods. I hope the public will not be overlooking the present issue, as it seems considerable is depending on it. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the valued space in your paper, I am, Sir, Yours very truly,
WILLIAM J. PETERSON,

TRAVELS 2,000 MILES TO MURDER ENEMY

Accused, in Portland, Me., Tells Police of Reasons For Deed

Canadian Press
PORTLAND, Maine, Sept. 9.—A tale of a slaying, a bitter two years in a Mexican penitentiary, a hunt for James D. Hallen, and a trip of 2,000 miles to accomplish a revenge, was told yesterday by Benjamin S. Turner, when he was arrested charged with the murder of Hallen. Turner, an accountant, 35 years old, is said to have told police that in Mexico City after he had shot Ramon Arguelles, whom he accused of swindling, he engaged Hallen as his counsel, claimed, went to the United States and acquired in 1923. Since that time he had made efforts to get Hallen and by the aid of private detectives, finally discovered him in Falmouth, Maine. Turner admitted that he had shot Hallen because the latter had "ruined him." As Hallen fell, Turner stuck the still smoking revolver into his pocket and later submitted quietly to arrest.

PILSUDSKI REFUSES TO BE DICTATOR

Brands as Ridiculous Reports He Intended to Declare Self King

Canadian Press
BERLIN, Sept. 8.—After four months trial of the new Polish government, Marshal Josef Pilsudski, Minister of War and Inspector General of the Army, has refused to have reports of the Army's feelings in having refused to establish a dictatorship, reports H. J. Piotrowski, former city attorney of Chicago, who recently interviewed the marshal in Warsaw. Pilsudski waved aside as "ridiculous" reports that he intended to declare himself king, says Mr. Piotrowski, who added that the marshal explained that his demand for increased army appropriation was inspired by no other motive than defensive preparedness.

Three of the animals were recaptured shortly after they broke away, and the fourth, Charlie, is still at large.

MONTREAL, Sept. 9.—Cable transfers 484.
IN WALL STREET
NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Stock prices failed to follow a clearly defined trend at the opening of today's market. Realizing and short selling following yesterday's late break, were offset by renewed buying of seasoned industrials, but initial changes, with few exceptions, advanced a point, but Jordan Motors slumped to a new low in reflection of the omission of dividends.

THE offer of William Wrigley, Jr., of $25,000 to the winner of a free-for-all swimming race across the Catalina channel, off California, has drawn the attention of Gertrude Ederle, Long Beach, Calif., and Catalina island has never been crossed by a swimmer. The cross currents and choppy seas make it a second English Channel. Upper photo shows the water's edge at Long Beach, starting point for the swimmers, and lower photo the coast of Catalina island, the goal. Inset is Mrs. Fred Cady, one of the swimmers already training for the event.

FOUR-OARED CREW EVENT ON SATURDAY AROUSES KEEN INTEREST

O'CONNELL TO COMPETE IN THE ROSS CUP RACE

Elaborate Arrangements Completed for Courtesy Bay Regatta

THE four-oared crew race here on Saturday afternoon between Halifax and Saint John, together with other events on the programme, marks a revival of inter-city rivalry in this great sport that for generations has flourished in these two communities, and that huge crowds will witness the events is assured. The Miacas crew, from Halifax, is rated as among the best, but the local entry, the McGinnis crew from West Saint John, has been practicing faithfully and in these inter-city bouts Saint John is continually handing a surprise to its sister city, where rowing flourish is slight and a half a dozen well-organized rowing clubs. Saint John cannot even boast a first-class boathouse in the city, and yet her entries have shown marked natural ability. The result of the four-oared event is, therefore, awaited with interest. What kind of a showing can the local boys without any competition do against a crew that has been through several tests this year?

In the Ross memorial cup race, one of the feature entries is Art O'Connell of Halifax. Young O'Connell defeated Harry Giggie and Willie Logan at Chatham early in the year but in meeting the Saint John entries he is lacking a stiff proposition. Ronald Ingham, Anthony Belyea, Grenville McCarver and possibly Willie Logan will appear against O'Connell and a great race is anticipated.

In the senior singles, Hilton Belyea and Jack Ward, with Giggie as a possible entrant, the program has a good element, while the four-oared race will be between the Miacas, of Halifax, and the McGinnis crew, of West Saint John. Officials have been appointed and all that is needed is clear weather to make the event a big success.

At a meeting of the committee of the Saint John Rowing Club yesterday with the president, J. C. Wesley, in the chair, reports were received.

CARDS INCREASE LEAD IN LEAGUE

Make Gain Although Idle When Pirates Trounce Reds in Double Header

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—Rogers Hornsby and his fighting clan of St. Louis Cardinals found it profitable to spend today loafing in New York and looking over their prospective world series opponents, the New York Yankees, for without any effort on their part, the Cards found their lead over Cincinnati stretched to three full games.

The battered Pittsburgh Pirates, clawed about by the leaders in the violent scramble for the National League flag, yesterday slugged the ball to all corners of the lot, taking both ends of a double header, from the Reds, 6 to 1, and 11 to 0. The vicious onslaught brought the Buccaners to within two points of Cincinnati, although the surge may be too late to catch the Cards, three and a half games away.

Youthful blood injected into the world champions line-up had much to do with the twin conquests, although with the Pirates clouting fifteen safes in the first game, and seventeen in the second, neither was ever in doubt. Willie Meadows, speared veteran, kept the Reds in submission in the first. Carmen Hill, late of the American Association, applied the whitewash brush in the second. Fred Beckel appeared in the Pirates outfield and gathered three doubles and three singles during the afternoon. The playing of Cronin as the first baseman, was spectacular.

The Boston Braves have been kicked around by the rest of the league, but the New York Giants are not among the bullies. By winning the second game of a double header, 2 to 2, after losing the first five to one, the Braves clinched the season series with the New Yorkers, with 12 wins, 9 defeats and one game to play.

WILLIAMS HITS HOMER

Cy Williams was the hero of a ninth inning rally that gave Philadelphia 6 runs and an 8 to 4 win over Brooklyn. Cy belted a homer with the bases loaded, and the score tied at 4 all. The Yankees may have been covering up the style of play that has waffled them seven games ahead of Cleveland. Certainly the visiting Cardinals saw nothing amiss as Lefty Wilton cut down the Yankees 5 to 2 to break Boston's losing streak of seven games.

Cleveland met the same injunction at Detroit, losing 10 to 7, when the chance was offered to gain a full game on the Yankees.

Ideals of Amateurism In The Maritimes Must Be Preserved

ARTICLE TWO of the constitution of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, as given in the official handbook, is as follows:

1. The encouragement of systematic physical exercise and education in Canada.
2. The improvement, promotion and regulation of athletic sports among amateurs.
3. The incorporation of all eligible amateur athletic organizations in Canada into such separate branches and representation in this Union as may be deemed best adapted to advance the cause of amateur athletics throughout Canada.
4. The establishment and maintenance of allied membership with organization of general or special jurisdiction and composed of clubs or otherwise designated bodies of individual members, devoted wholly or partially to physical education or to some specialty in athletics.
5. The establishment and maintenance throughout Canada of a uniform test of amateur standing and uniform rules for the government of all athletic sports within its jurisdiction.
6. No deals with gymnasia and that concludes the objects.

BUT like the invisible ties that bind together the component parts of the greatest Empire on earth, is there not an unwritten constitution—unseen yet powerful in its guidance; unheeded, yet speaking with a mighty voice; unfeared, yet potent in its influence?

As things may be changed by the personal actors on the stage—actors who pass and are forgotten as the years slip by but who cannot change that unwritten law any more than it can change the course of empire.

It may be summed up in two words: "Fair Play."

AN athlete may be the greatest athlete in the world; he may win every event he enters; he may receive the ephemeral plaudits of the crowd, but if he wins by trickery, what does it profit him? Literally, a man may keep every commandment and break them all in spirit. Physically, a man may be a winner. Morally, he can lose all yet win. Paradox as it may be, it is true. Man is a puny thing compared to the vital principles that govern him.

This sounds like a preachment but it is well to state the real truth and get down to fundamentals in such a time as this when the amateur union governing the Maritimes Provinces, and particularly New Brunswick, is passing through the fire.

If the M. P. B. has any good in it—and this paper believes it has much that is good—it will be purged of the elements that are holding it back from doing its proper work in this sphere.

If the mold needs re-casting, well and good.

If it is necessary to repair it, let it be done in a spirit of fair play—the basis of amateurism.

THERE are many definitions of an amateur, but the old homely one that an amateur is one who plays for the love of the game goes to the heart of the matter.

For the love of the game and its future, let amateur clubs sink personalities in a desire to do what is right.

It is charged—and this paper has given prominence to these charges—that a wrongful act was committed at the annual meeting of the M. P. B. This cannot be hid under a bushel. The strong searchlight of public opinion in its desire for fair play has centered on this annual meeting and this paper believes it is right in reflecting public opinion to the extent that it has asked for an investigation.

It is necessary and possibly painful at times that personalities must play a large share in doing the work of the Union but a condition of affairs has arisen beyond the control of personalities and the unwritten law now is operating.

Fair play is being demanded in justice to all concerned, to the men who are charged with the responsibility of carrying on this work, to the men who make the charges and those concerned, to the sporting public and every member of every amateur athletic club in the Maritimes Provinces.

If the officials in charge believe an inquiry under oath would lead to nowhere in securing a remedy, The Telegraph-Journal suggests to them a special, extraordinary meeting of the M. P. B. to deal with the situation.

It is for the Executive to decide.

But whatever decision is made it must be done with dispatch. The Maritime Union must set its house in order before the next annual meeting of the C. A. A. U. and strangely enough this meeting will be held in Saint John.

In the writer's statements, cross-statements, counter-statements, slurs and innuendoes, the real gap in the wall may be lost sight of and confusion be the result.

Amateurism is here to stay. It is bigger than the men who guide it. So long as there is one boy left in Canada with a love for a game, so long will there be amateurism and what it stands for. But there will be lots of boys for generations to come.

Amateurism stands for something finer than the mere winning and losing. It stands for something better and nobler than its critics give it credit for. They look at the person and lose the truth.

In its hour of trial who are ready to take a firm, determined stand for the love of the game, for the love of the game and for its future.

Let them speak now!

FIFEELD STOPS HUMBERT BRADY; PARIS IS VICTOR

Syracuse Boxer Fails to Come Up for Sixth Round

THE 1,000 fans who assembled in the Armory last night were pleased with a fight program in which George Fifeeld, of Toronto, Canadian welterweight champion, defeated Humbert Brady, of Syracuse, N. Y., in a scheduled ten-round battle, when Brady refused to respond to the bell in the opening of the sixth round on account of a severe injury to his nose.

As far as the fight went it was all action, both fighters showing plenty of science, gameness and both willing to mix it at all stages. Brady, who was an unknown fighter to local followers of the ring, proved a worthy opponent to the champion and was willing to give and take all kinds of punches and made a hit with his clever boxing and his willingness to swap warts with the Toronto fighter.

While the first and second rounds were about even, Fifeeld had a shade in the third and outpointed Brady in the fourth and fifth, especially in the latter round, when he went after Brady, causing considerable damage. With a straight left to the nose he caused the damage that resulted in Brady refusing to leave his corner on points, and was sounded for the sixth round.

It is understood that Brady's nose was badly damaged that a great amount of blood was passing into his throat, making it difficult for him to breathe, and there was every chance, if hit again with a heavy punch, that his nose would be broken.

The decision delivered was taken favorably by the general public, as all were satisfied that as far as the fight went it was one of the best witnessed in the city for some time. Bell-McLeod was the referee; Edward Money and James Neil, judges; Elmer Ingraham and John Daley, timers; Charlie Gorman master of ceremonies.

Frank O'Leary was the referee of the preliminary and semi-final bouts and these contests proved interesting, as considerable cleverness and good fighting resulted.

THE PRELIMINARIES

Earl Penney and Bobby Mason appeared in the ring for the preliminary and showed plenty of action in a bout of four two-minute rounds. Penney was awarded the points on points.

The semi-final was a scheduled six-round bout between Gordon Paris and "Young Dempsey." This bout was one of action and the willingness of both men to mix matters pleased the audience. They were well up until the first part of the fourth round when Paris got Phinney on the ropes and landed a knock-out, the referee stopped the bout and gave the award to Paris.

Discarded by four big league ball clubs Billy Southworth is probably the outstanding member of the St. Louis Cardinal team as Hornsby's men fight it out for the National League pennant. Southworth's hitting has been more than spectacular and has accounted for several victories. His fielding has strengthened the defense.

PROSPECTS FOR MARITIME TITLE PLAY ARE DIM

FREDERICTON MEETS NEWCASTLE Friday With Moncton Here Saturday

PROSPECTS of deciding a Maritime amateur baseball title winner this year went aglimmering during the last two weeks owing to the baseball tangle and the towns will be lucky to get fine weather for the Nova Scotia-New Brunswick play-offs which will likely start the latter part of this month. It is possible that the Nova Scotia winner, which will be either Springhill or Westville, may meet the Prince Edward Island winners before meeting New Brunswick and making the series (between Nova Scotia and New Brunswick the Maritime finals. A great deal depends on how promptly the New Brunswick title is decided and that also depends on the weather.

The situation in New Brunswick now is that there are five teams in the running for the title. They are Water Department, Maritime champions last year; Moncton, Fredericton, Springhill and Campbellton. Campbellton has qualified for the title play-off, according to W. E. Stirling. Tomorrow, Fredericton and Newcastle will meet in the second game of the series and if Fredericton wins, the capital team will play Campbellton in the semi-finals with the winner in the finals with the Moncton-Watermen series, which opens here on Saturday afternoon.

SPRINGHILL WINS
SPRINGHILL, N. S., Sept. 5.—Springhill shut out Westville today before 1,400 excited baseball fans, 2 to 0. In one of the best games witnessed here for many moons for the provincial title, Albon, Springhill's star southpaw, was in great form and allowed the visitors only four scattered hits while Marshall, the visitors' pitcher, was found for fourteen blunders but he tightened in the pinches and kept the scoring down.

BOSTON BOWLER BREAKS 2 RECORDS

Archie Walsh, well known bowler of Boston, who has been visiting at the Cedars on the river during the summer, arrived in the city yesterday and made a call at Black's alley and surpassed all present when he broke two local records held by Harry Black. His scores for ten strings were, 116, 108, 104, 104, 104, 104, 107, 83. Beating Black's record of 1165 by a total score of 1172. In a five string roll he scored 144, 104, 141, 156, 114, with a total of 659 which also broke the five string record held by Mr. Black.

MILK DEALERS SEEK SOME MODIFICATIONS

Claim Present Restrictions Are Too Drastic—Board to Safeguard Public

The sale of raw milk in Saint John was further discussed at a special meeting of the Board of Health, held yesterday afternoon, and the medical health officer for the district, Dr. William Warwick, was instructed to draw up a set of regulations governing the sale of unpasteurized milk and submit them to the board at a meeting next Monday afternoon.

The spirit of the meeting is said to have been in favor of safeguarding the public against impure milk as existed previous to pasteurization and as recommended by the board.

ated by bacterial test and the wafer test for sediment and dirt. BOARD WILL SAFEGUARD. It was urged that the first duty of each member of the board appointed by city, county and government was to conscientiously consider the health welfare of citizens at large, particularly that element not conversant with dangers lurking in food sources of any kind and those prone to be careless in this regard.

Each member of the board was outspoken in his and her opinion in this matter and while anxious and willing to assist milk producers by smoothing out regulations in reason, none felt justified in placing a raw milk supply upon the market that would become a menace in the light of scientific test.

So Dr. Warwick was instructed to again prepare a set of regulations which he deemed sufficient safeguard to public health and which would not be destructive of what had already been accomplished.

When these regulations are submitted to a full membership of the board, they will be considered with open mind and the result passed on to the local government for approval.

THE QUESTION TO DATE. To review the whole matter of the revision of milk regulations, as urged by Saint John county producers, Dr. William Warwick submitted a lengthy report, which brought the details of the controversy up to date and made it a familiar question with the board in all its phases. It was a simple record of events concluding with some observations of the official as the chief trustee of public health in this section of the province.

The report in full is printed here.

DR. WARWICK'S REPORT.

The Members, Saint John Sub-District Board of Health. Ladies and Gentlemen—As district medical health officer I beg to submit the following report respecting the milk situation in the Saint John milk district.

In December, 1925, there appeared before this board several city and county members of the Legislature asking that the regulations requiring the pasteurization of all milk and cream (except certified milk) sold in the milk district (which have since been amended since May 1, 1923) be amended to allow for the sale of a high grade raw milk which would be produced under a high standard of cleanliness and very careful inspection, but which could be sold at a price lower than that charged for "certified milk."

At this meeting strong objections were taken by the chief medical officer (Dr. Melvin), the chief of laboratories (Dr. Abramson), several members of the board and myself, to any such lowering of the standard of safety of the milk supply as being contrary to the best scientific practice of the times, entirely unnecessary and therefore dangerous to public health.

CONFERENCES HELD.

A committee from this board was appointed to meet with a committee named by the Province to consider regulations dealing with the sale of raw milk.

On February 22 this committee from your board met with Hon. L. P. D. Tilley and Mr. W. H. Harrison and discussed the whole matter very fully but without coming to any agreement. I then submitted a provisional set of regulations for Grade A raw milk, for which I accepted full responsibility as they had not been submitted to the board, and which in my opinion constituted the minimum standard which could be accepted if we were compelled to adopt regulations permitting the sale of raw milk. These regulations were discussed very briefly, and were then taken by the committee for further consideration to make what alterations they thought necessary and return them to the Board of Health for approval.

MILKSMEN AND GOVT.

No further meeting of this committee was held. Some weeks passed by and in May I was informed by your dairy inspector that he had been present at a meeting of the local members of the Legislature, and a committee of the Saint John County Milk Producers, at which regulations providing for conditions under which Grade A raw milk should be produced were considered, agreed to by the milkmen and their legal representative, and which he had been assured would be legally sold. It has turned out that these regulations were based upon the draft which I had submitted to the committee, but they were amended, making them somewhat less rigid, and some additions also made which were not in the original draft.

On May 28 these regulations were passed by the Provincial Government as an Order-in-Council, superseding the regulations of any sub-district Board of Health. The board having decided that it was its duty to enforce these regulations and waiting a reasonable time for the tuberculin testing of the herds to elapse, a report was received from the Provincial Veterinarian in which he showed that 12 herds had been tested and 11 positive reactors had been found in 6 of these herds or 7.8 per cent. of all the animals tested, 7 suspicious reactors (or 4.7 per cent.) were found—showing a total of 12 per cent. which failed to give a negative test. Up to the present time but 6 of these positive reactors have been slaughtered under inspection by your dairy inspector, and several of these showed extensive disease.

As no applications for permits to sell this Grade A milk had been received and it was shown that a number of milk producers were distributing raw milk, this board at a special meeting on July 18 instructed the dairy inspector to give orders handling raw milk and notice that if he found any more raw milk on their wagons that they would be brought to court, unless they came to the Board of Health Office and complied with the new regulations. Subsequently one application for a permit to sell Grade A raw milk was received, but as the applicant had not fulfilled the requirements no permit was granted by the board.

TOO STRINGENT.

At the suggestion of the magistrate these men were asked to come to court, and after the regulations had been explained to them they were asked if they would agree to abide by the regulations. Six of the seven expressed their willingness to do so, but others objected to certain of the regulations as being too stringent.

A few days later the milk producers had a meeting with the Executive Council of the Province, at which the chairman of your board, one other member and myself were present. The milkmen expressed strong disapproval of several sections of the regulations, although they had agreed to them when they were drawn up, and after a great deal of discussion the following amendments were offered:

MODIFIED REGULATIONS.

Section 1. (Tuberculin Testing.)

(Add.)—Veterinarians certificate that herd has been examined, identifying the cattle and stating that they are without reaction. If any members of the herd are under suspicion such members to be isolated until the case is determined.

Section 6. (Cooling, bottling in sterile bottles and sealing.) Sterilization to be practically effective. To be conducted preferably but not necessarily in the milk room.

Section 8. (Medical examination of employees and examination for carriers of disease.)

(1) "New employees to be reported to the Board of Health and certificate given or test made as in (2)."

"Unless a physician in regular practice gives a certificate that he has made a careful examination of such members of the family and workers connected with the supply of milk, a laboratory test shall be made of sputum and stools within one month by the name given it, when considered necessary by the board because of suspicious circumstances."

COMPLICATIONS.

A careful comparison of these suggested amendments with the original regulations for Grade A raw milk will convince you, I am sure, that the really essential safeguards for this class of milk, except that of tuberculin testing of the herds, have been removed or lessened to such a degree that their value is largely problematical. Furthermore, the amendment to section 6 makes it less effective than the requirements of the dairy and milk regulations of the Province as contained in sections 59 and 62 of those regulations.

I can see no valid reason, therefore, for the production under such regulations Grade A milk which would conform to the commonly accepted designation for Grade A milk. Instead of a more accurate designation would be "raw milk from tuberculin tested herds," as not implying more than is stated by the name given it, and must not be forgotten that as one authority has stated various grades of milk are "all of them veritable employed in unsuccessful attempts to justify and gloss over the fact that they designate a potentially dangerous raw milk not required to be pasteurized." I concur in this opinion.

For years you have listened to the opinions expressed in favor of the necessity for pasteurization of our milk supply, and other appointments which have resulted from the enactment of the pasteurization regulations for more than three years, and it is now proposed that you should adopt the amended regulations as your own.

As district medical health officer, I feel it my duty to advise you that, in my opinion, it is not in the best interest of the public health to in any way lower the present standard of safety which is provided by our pasteurization regulations.

If provision might be made for the sale of raw milk then I would advise that such regulations should provide those features which are necessary by health authorities elsewhere, and that such conditions as may be imposed should be most strictly enforced, otherwise we will be practically where we were three years ago.

Respectfully submitted, WILLIAM WARWICK, M. D., District Medical Health Officer.

Harvey Mitchell, deputy minister of agriculture, who was present at the meeting, said yesterday that while the number of cheeses offered yesterday was a good average it was probable that the make would be short for the remainder of the season as the supply of milk was dropping off fast. The next meeting of the board will be held in Saint John on Sept. 22.

LITTLE INTEREST IN CHEESE MARKET

Prices Brought at Fortnightly Auction Are 16 and 16 1/2 Cents

The cheese market was dull yesterday and the prices paid at the fortnightly auction of cheese by the New Brunswick Cheese Board were 16 cents a pound for twins and 16 1/2 cents a pound for triplets. The auction was held in the Board of Trade rooms and the vice-president of the board, F. H. House, Conhill, was auctioneer. There were 1,855 cheeses boarded but not all of them were sold, some few being reserved by their owners who decided to carry them over until the next meeting of the board when it was hoped that prices would be higher. There were a number of buyers present but bidding was slow. Cheese from practically all of the 21 cheese factories in the province were offered. The factories are located chiefly in Kings county and Westmorland county.

Harvey Mitchell, deputy minister of agriculture, who was present at the meeting, said yesterday that while the number of cheeses offered yesterday was a good average it was probable that the make would be short for the remainder of the season as the supply of milk was dropping off fast. The next meeting of the board will be held in Saint John on Sept. 22.

A SAILOR on a distant voyage received a letter from home, and a companion was surprised to see him pull out a blank sheet of paper and gaze intently at it. Being curious, he asked the reason. "You see, it's like this," was the reply, "me and my wife ain't speaking."

FAREWELL SAID BY TEACHERS TO MISS K. GOTTER

Address and Club Bag Presented by Conferres at St. Vincent's

Last evening the staff of St. Vincent's Boys' School gathered at the home of Miss K. Cotter, Waterloo street, to bid her a fond farewell. Former principal Joseph Harrington, on behalf of the staff, presented Miss Cotter an exceptionally nice club bag and read an address prepared by the new principal, William J. Shea, who was unavoidably absent. Cards were enjoyed and prizes were won by Miss K. Lawlor at bridge; and Miss M. McGourty at forty-five. Toward the close of the evening refreshments were served by a committee composed of Misses Coak, Killam and McGourty. All enjoyed an unusually pleasant evening.

SENTIMENTS IN ADDRESS

In the address to Miss Cotter, the nobility of the teaching profession was referred to, as well as its difficulties, including, often, adverse criticism by the public, indifference of parents and ingratitude, sometimes of the pupils for whom the teacher labored. There was also a bright side, the ability to obtain the confidence, goodwill and love of the pupils. Education was discussed. The highest and most important part of the work of a Christian teacher was the imparting of moral instruction and the setting of such an example as would induce the child to lead a genuine Christian life.

WORDS OF PRAISE

Speaking of Miss Cotter's work the speaker said she had been all this and more to the pupils connected to her care. She had been a firm yet kind disciplinarian, clothing the iron hand of discipline with the velvet glove of leniency. She had been a just, thorough and impartial teacher, always putting her heart in her work. "You were always," continued the address, "most agreeable in deportment toward your pupils and it was your will to win their words and peaceable disposition more perhaps than you imagine. In a word, you have been a model which all of us should endeavor to imitate."

All these years you have been dealing with very young pupils, a position where the cultivation of feeling and the instilling of the devotion to the important matters. These are by no means insignificant things. They are the little grains from which the tree of life is grown. They may be compared to the mustard seed the small seed from which grows a mighty tree. These are a few sentiments we desire to express this evening. We ask you to accept this gift as a token of our sincere token of our friendship, and now at the close of your long career in the school room, we wish you happiness and contentment of mind which came from a consciousness of work well and nobly done."

MISS KIOKE WINS PRAISE IN CHICAGO

Papers Laud Singer Well Known Here, For Singing in The Mikado

Recent Chicago papers contained further notice of the success of Miss Kioke, Japanese soprano, in the revival of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado" in that city. A few days ago The Times-Star referred to Miss Kioke having been placed in the leading soprano role by the Shuberts, who also intended placing her in the name part of "Madame Butterfly" during the grand opera season. Papers more recently to hand express delight with Miss Kioke's singing and setting of the role of Yum-Yum in "The Mikado" to which she is suited by her nationality as well as by the excellent qualities of well-known writers give the young lady praise for her genuine artistry. Soon after Miss Kioke's great success she telephoned from Chicago to friends in this city, not so much to commiserate the good news as to express her loneliness in the big strange city and the wish that she were back here again for a rest.

Income Tax Excess Given To Institution

The N. B. Protestant Home funds have been increased by $47.94 through the action of a prominent city of Saint John man, who received that sum from the Dominion income tax office, he having paid it in excess of the necessary amount to square his obligations to the Dominion Government. He sent his check for the sum to H. Usher Miller, secretary of the Home, for the maintenance fund, but asked that his name be not made public. At the summer home of G. B. Oland at Woodman's Point the following children—Jean Bowman, Barbara Nae, Jean Oland, Nancy McDonald, Margaret and John Keefe—gave two entertainments recently and realized $8.50, which they sent to Mr. Miller for the maintenance fund.

Orphans To Be Given Treat At Exhibition

As in former years the Knights of Columbus and Knights of Pythias will join in entertaining the orphans of the city at the exhibition on Saturday afternoon. The children will be given candy and fruit and all the features on the Midway will be free to them. The only thing lacking now to make the affair a big success is the necessary number of automobiles to take the children to the fair. Those willing to loan their cars for this object are asked to communicate with Paul C. Quinn, chairman of the transportation committee, M. 2046. Miss Clarice Haggarty and Miss Blanche O'Brien, Fairville, have returned here after a pleasant vacation, spent with relatives in Fredericton.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River and forces its way through the gorge at the Falls, creating a "fall" running up river. At low tide the water in the Bay becomes so much lower than that of the river that the fall of water is reversed and flows down river into the Bay. At half tide, when the level in the Bay and the river are equal, the Falls disappear entirely, and the water of the Falls becomes smooth as the surface of a lake. This wonder of the world it should be seen at all the stages of the tide. The best time to view this phenomenon is: TODAY (Daylight Saving Time.) High Tide 2:10 p. m. Low Tide 8:20 p. m. TOMORROW High Tide 2:43 p. m. Low Tide 8:30 p. m.

RIGHT OF WAY TO 'LOOKOUT' TO BE ARRANGED FOR

Matter Comes Up at City Hall Over Taking Over Street

The Common Council, sitting in committee of the whole this morning, discussed the taking over from Murray Gregory of a street running from Douglas avenue to the river. Commissioner Frink will report further on the matter at the next meeting. He said he had prepared a resolution that the street offered by Murray and Gregory be accepted and he made provision that the time of making improvements on the street should be in the absolute control of the council and that no retaining walls would be built by the city.

Mayor White said that while the agreement was being made for taking over the street he would like to see some arrangements made whereby the city could be sure they would be able to secure a right of way to "The Lookout" this would save the city a great deal of money and developed as a tourist attraction later. It is an excellent spot from which to view the Reversing Falls.

Commissioner Wigmore said he agreed with the mayor that now was the time to make provision for a right of way to this site and that even, usually this would become one of the most attractive spots to tourists. It was a splendid place to view the falls and he felt seats should be placed on the shore for the accommodation of the public.

Commissioner Bullock asked what would be the expense in developing the street if it were taken over and Commissioner Frink said no estimate had been made yet. Commissioner Frink said the matter of a reserved road to "The Lookout" was one which should be cared for when the time came but he would take the matter up with Mr. Gregory and report later.

Halifax Oarsmen Due Here Tomorrow For Regatta in Courtenay Bay

Definite word was received from Halifax today that the Miemac four-oared crew will give the Courtenay Bay crew a race against the McGinns crew, West Saint John, in one of the feature events of the Courtenay Bay regatta Saturday afternoon. Art O'Connell is coming to compete in the Ross Cup race. O'Connell sent word he would like to try conclusions with Hilton Belvea and if possible a race will be arranged.

D. J. Corr, who has charge of the arrangements, said today that the races would start at 2 o'clock and that the baseball game scheduled between Moncton and the Watermen would be held over until 3:30 o'clock. The course has been staked out and all that is needed is fine weather. This is the first opportunity given citizens of Saint John to view a rowing program on Courtenay Bay in several years and if the Saturday Oarsmen can be out successfully it is thought probable that next year will see a revival of interest in this sport.

Mr. Nash will not be here this fall, as he is but now recovering after an operation.

Postmaster Writes of Small Envelopes

The following was issued today by Postmaster Alex. Thompson: "From time to time efforts have been made to discourage the use of small cards and envelopes, and it has been found that while these cards and envelopes are sold they will continue in use to a very large extent. Now is the time, when dealers are ordering their supply of cards for Christmas, and if any good results are to follow they must be approached at once. "It should be pointed out that as a result of the small size of cards or envelopes, the Post Office cancellation mark frequently falls on the address, obliterating it, with the possibility that the article may be misdelivered or at least delayed. Then again, there is not sufficient space for directions for forwarding, etc., in cases where it is necessary to forward such matter in order to reach the addressee. Emphasis should also be laid on the fact that there is a greater possibility of loss, as such cards or envelopes are apt to fall out of bundles in which they are tied. Envelopes and cards smaller than size 9 in. x 4 in. should not be used, as they seriously delay the work in offices at a time when the facilities are taxed to the utmost."
