

LABOR MEN ASK FOR MEETING ON UNEMPLOYMENT

Have Talk On Situation With City Commissioners DENIAL IS MADE Longshoremen's Business Agent Explains System Relative to Membership Tickets

Charles Stevens was the first speaker for the delegation. He said that in consequence of reports made at a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council recently about distress and unemployment, it had been decided to send a delegation to City Hall to see if the council could start any work to give jobs to the men who were out of work.

Mayor Potts asked what organizations were represented in the delegation and Mr. Stevens said the coal handlers, longshoremen, and cigar makers, but they were speaking for 14 allied organizations.

William Ely said he was speaking on behalf of men who were without proper food and warmth in their homes and as men must live he was responsible to see that he was provided with sufficient employment to carry on. He thought it was the duty of the city to look after its citizens, either by providing work or assistance for them.

Mr. Killen said he could appreciate the position of the council with all crying to keep the taxes down but something ought to be done to relieve present conditions, and he hoped they would be able to do something.

John McKinnon, business agent of the longshoremen's union, said he wished to say a few words in defence of that organization. He said it was the fact that the union was issuing membership cards to men from outside the city who had not been residents for 12 months.

SAYS CO-OPERATION IN UTILITIES IS NEEDED FOR SAFETY IN CITY

Professor A. F. Baird Says Otherwise Only Place For One Is Underground If There Is To Be Security

ADVISES GET-TOGETHER COMMITTEE

Power Distribution Systems in St. John Are Given Searching Investigation—Says Danger to Life in Some Instances, Including Fire Alarms, Exists

Prof. A. F. Baird, professor of electrical engineering at the University of New Brunswick, engaged by the New Brunswick Board of Public Utilities to investigate alleged interferences between the distribution systems of the New Brunswick Power Company and the Civic Power Commission in St. John, finds hazardous conditions and recommends change.

Suggests Committee.

His report was given out at the Utilities Board office this morning. After giving out in detail the result of his study of conditions, he recommends that to secure co-operation between the utilities using poles a committee, composed of the engineers of the New Brunswick Power Company, Civic Power Commission, Western Union Telegraph Company and C. P. R. Telegraph Company, be appointed to confer and decide on the location and use of poles and wires.

Prof. Baird pointed out that not only was there danger of contact between the two electric distribution systems, with consequent danger to life, but there was also danger of contact with telephone and telegraph wires and a hazard in connection with the fire alarm system with danger of loss of life. He believes conditions can be made reasonably safe but says there must be co-operation and says unless this is had the only safe place for one of the utilities is underground. Copies of the report are being sent to the parties interested. Professor Baird's report in full follows:

Text of Report.

My investigations and observations of overhead construction of the transmission lines of the New Brunswick Power Company and Hydro Electric Commission of the City of St. John are shown in the following report, together with my considered opinion concerning the application of the Hydro Electric Commission of the City of St. John to have their locations and construction approved.

Recommendations.

As before stated in my preliminary report, I consider the construction of the St. John hydro system to be reasonably good and a further comparison of it with modern installations of similar nature has strengthened my belief that as a system by itself it is satisfactory and well adapted for the purpose for which it is intended. Its construction, however, relative to other public utilities of the City of St. John is not satisfactory, nor is it safe to life or property and being approved by your board I would recommend certain revisions, changes and reconstruction for the purpose of reducing the hazard.

A survey of the distributing systems of the city shows the following classes of their actual present danger or probable danger in the future:

(A) Interference between the primary wires of the New Brunswick Power Company and the hydro poles.

(B) Interference between the secondary wires of New Brunswick Power Company with hydro poles.

(C) Close proximity of ornamental aerial lighting circuit to secondary wires and also signal circuits and trolley feeder circuit.

(D) Close proximity of service wires and trolley wires.

(E) Insufficient spacing of primary secondary wires with respect to signal wires.

(F) Danger due to ungrounded fire alarm system.

Each of these is briefly discussed and a remedy suggested.

Source of Danger.

(A) On account of the two transmission lines being in many places on the same side of the street with the poles of the hydro construction at various distances between the poles of the New Brunswick Power Company the primary wires of the latter company pass often very close to the hydro poles.

The poles of the New Brunswick Power Company are often quite noticeably raked out of the vertical plane, which brings the primary wires hard against the hydro poles. Even should the two poles be in a vertical plane the primary wires are in danger of whipping against the hydro pole under the action of the wind.

Should these primary wires come in contact with poles in this way they are in danger of becoming short-circuited or grounded. Where the contact is made there is constituted a high enough heat in all places where it occurs. Should it, in falling, be across secondary service wires or telegraph and other conducting wires, life may be lost or property damaged, miles away from the point of contact.

Remove Tree Insulators.

To keep the wires of the New Brunswick Power Company from making contact with the poles, tree insulators consisting of a treated piece of wood have been fastened to the hydro poles as shown in photograph No. 1. These, I regard, as entirely inadequate and while they must have served as a temporary protection, they are mechanically weak, electrically unsafe and allow no proper climbing space. In photographs No. 2 and No. 3 two views are shown where this tree insulator has become broken under the impact of the wire. There is nothing to prevent the wire from wearing by continued rubbing against the insulator. Also when the wire becomes loaded with ice or snow, there is nothing to prevent the wire sagging down until it is past the end of the tree insulator and against the pole. As shown in photograph No. 1 a very small gap in one of the wires will cause it to be caught under the end of the insulator.

I would recommend that these tree insulators be removed and the St. John Hydro Commission install standard cross-arms on their poles for the support of the wires of the New Brunswick Power Company and that the standard climbing space of 30 inches be maintained by such cross-arms for the safety of linemen climbing hydro poles.

Secondary Wires.

(B) Where secondary wires of the New Brunswick Power Company are in contact with hydro poles the same provision for safety and uninterrupted service should be made, namely, at-

Reports on 2 Systems

PROF. A. F. BAIRD

The relative positions of circuits as shown in the sketches may not be possible in all cases of present construction, but which is nevertheless should be followed as nearly as possible.

Fire Alarm Hazard.

(F) Besides the hazards due to interference between the wires previously mentioned there is one which has existed for years before the hydro construction, but which is nevertheless greatly increased since the hydro grounded neutral system has been introduced. This is the fire alarm system. Should a high tension hydro wire break and fall across the fire alarm wire, a person attempting to ring an alarm at a box would almost assuredly be instantly killed. This is due to the fact that the fire alarm wires are placed on wooden poles and not grounded, while the hydro system is grounded. Consequently under such conditions a person touching a box is liable to complete the ground through the body. Should the fire alarm boxes be grounded, an insulating joint should be placed in the vertical conduit leading to each box for protection of linemen working on a pole on which a box is placed.

Dead Circuits.

It is very desirable that the number of wires be kept to a minimum and that all dead circuits be removed, as the number of combinations and possibilities of danger increase very rapidly as the number of wires increases. For this reason I would strongly recommend that your board request the removal from the poles of the old series street lighting circuit of the New Brunswick Power Company, which is no longer used, the street lighting being done by the city. Removal of this old street lighting circuit would take away part of the unsightly and dangerous loop attachments on the poles at the corner of King and Charlotte streets, as shown in Photograph No. 10. For the same reason it would be desirable that all service wires of either the Hydro or New Brunswick Power Company which have been disconnected and are not used be removed and not left dead-ended at the consumer's premises.

Co-Operation.

I believe that, with attention to the points above mentioned, the difficulties and hazards due to several utilities operating on the St. John streets are not insuperable. Satisfactory operations of all can be accomplished only by co-operation and co-operation. In fact experience shows that it is usually more economical for two utilities to adopt a joint pole policy rather than maintain two systems in close proximity. A joint use of poles, i.e., freedom to make attachments on one another's poles is a necessity in St. John, and a joint pole policy, i.e., both using the same pole, would be better still, particularly in some of the business districts. Lacking such co-operation the only safe place for one of the utilities is underground, and I might add that most cities at the present time would require distribution to be so constructed in business streets, such as King, Charlotte, Prince William and parts of Union. I believe that with co-operation construction can be made reasonably safe, using overhead systems, even with considerably less spacings and clearance than required by the National Electric Safety Code.

A little co-operation would avoid the construction shown in Photograph No. 11 reproducing the construction as shown at the corner of Wall and Pom streets. New Brunswick Power Company's pole should be separated from the triple pole structure of the Hydro Commission and moved toward the curb in order to provide safety for linemen working at the pole heads.

Suggests Committee.

The cases and instances of interference aforementioned exist at present but provision should be made for those which may occur in the future. In addition to the above recommendations I would therefore also recommend the following:

1. That a committee be appointed by your board to consider future cases of faulty construction or interference that may arise, and to co-operate in obtaining a construction which will conserve the interest, as far as possible, of all the utilities represented, and in accordance with good engineering practice.

2. That this committee consist of the chief engineer or other representative of the New Brunswick Power Company, the chief engineer or other representative of the St. John Power Commission, the chief engineer of the New Brunswick Telephone Company, the engineer in charge of construction of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and the engineer in charge of construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway Telegraph Company, and also city electrician.

Says City Bear Cost.

3. That this committee follow as standards of construction and adopt wherever practicable the specifications of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, before referred to in this report, the drawings of which are attached, and the publication of the Public Utilities Commission of the State of Connecticut, Booklet No. 1447, a copy of which I presume is in your files. Both of these publications adhere in all essentials to the National Electric Safety Code and provide all that is necessary for safe attachments.

It would seem only reasonable to assume that the expense of making all the changes or additions in construction recommended be borne by the City of Saint John, since the New Brunswick Power Company were first on the ground. In future construction, however, the utility last on the location should bear the expense of making the systems free from interferences.

Respectfully submitted,
(Sgd.) A. F. BAIRD,

The Feint.

With breathless interest the class listened to the teacher's account of her encounter with a tramp. With dramatic gesture she reached the climax of her story, and then concluded by saying: "And then I fainted." "Little hobble grazed with awe and admiration at his teacher, and was the first to break the silence. "With yer left or yer right?" he asked.

After Moving Day is over, your best friend comes in and pokes fun at you. "You've got six clocks," he chortles, "but you're roomy for two."

"You've been saving that cut glass for ages," he snickers, "but you never use it."

"And you've kept those three boxes of books in the cellar for the last ten years," he giggles, "but you never open them."

"That lawn-mower's a joke, you haven't got any lawn to mow. . . and what do you want with a snow-shovel in this apartment house? There's the boy's old hat and glove, kid's size, when he's about ready to graduate from college. Why do you save all those things?"

Well—we, too, sometimes wonder why people save discarded things. There is a quick, easy, profitable way to dispose of them—through the want ad columns of the Times-Star.

Why not clean house? Stack up all the things you'll never use again. Advertise them for sale tomorrow in the want ad columns of this newspaper.

DEATHS Rev. Mother Mahony A despatch from Montreal brought news of the death on Friday at the Convent of the Sacred Heart, Sault au Recollet, Montreal, of Rev. Mother Ellen Mahony, a former resident of St. John, and for years vicar of the Religious of the Sacred Heart in Canada. She had been ill for some time. Rev. Mother Mahony was the last surviving member of her family. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McSweeney, Mr. McSweeney will be remembered by old residents as the lessee of the ferry for many years, and as builder and occupier of the fine building in Union street, now the property of the Natural History Society. Rev. Mother Mahony had three brothers who were sea captains, and two sisters, the last of whom, Mrs. Mary Robinson, died in St. John on Dec. 20, 1920. In February, did she live for another month, Rev. Mother Mahony would be able to celebrate her fifty-fifth anniversary as a professed nun. She was possessed of ability in a marked degree, and held important positions for many years, from time to time, in the United States as well as Canada. Of necessity, a vicar of her order in Canada had to do much traveling, but her vitality and energy appeared to be unbounded. She made a Journey to Rome in recent years when she was over 80 years old. A trip across Canada, from the Atlantic to the Pacific was a mere incident even in her old age. By the Religion of the Sacred Heart throughout the Dominion, the death of Rev. Mother Mahony will be very deeply regretted.

He was a member of the Baptist church. In politics he was a Conservative. For years he had been in failing health and was less active in public matters than formerly. He is survived by one sister, Emma Jan, of Hudson, Mass. The funeral services were held from his late home Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 15, at 2 o'clock, by the officiating clergyman, interment was in Mount Hope cemetery.

Mrs. Wm. Brawley. Many friends will hear with regret of the death of Mrs. William Brawley, which occurred at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. Madge, 9 Gilbert's Lane, on Sunday, Mrs. Brawley is survived by five daughters and two sons. The sons are William of this city, and John, of Gardiner, Me., and the daughters are Mrs. Baker, of Montreal; Mrs. J. Madge, Mrs. Del. Mrs. Susan Garnett and Miss K. Brawley, all of this city. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at 7:30 from 9 Gilbert's Lane to the Cathedral.

Mrs. C. R. Canham. FLORENCEVILLE, Jan. 18.—Many friends here will extend sympathy to Rev. Russell Canham on hearing of the death of his wife which occurred in England on Dec. 12. She is survived by her husband and three small children, Diana, Laddie and Nancy. Rev. C. R. Canham was Anglican rector of this mission of Wilmet and Wickham parishes in 1922, leaving here to go to York county. Later he went back to Letchworth, Herts, England.

"I'm Putting my Family on a 1925 Basis" - John Byrne "Back in 1913, $3,000 life insurance seemed ample protection for my wife and kiddies," declared John Byrne. "According to 1913 standards they were well provided for." "But to-day! "My $3,000 policy looks mighty small when I think of how the cost of living has gone up since 1913 and picture Marjorie and the children trying to get along if I were suddenly taken from them." "Obviously I have not been keeping abreast of the times. My insurance, ample in 1913, is entirely inadequate in 1925." Is your family insured according to 1913 standards? If so, you require more insurance to properly provide for them to-day. A North American Whole Life Policy will enable you to increase your protection to 1925 standards. Its extremely low annual premium and other definite advantages will interest you. We will be glad to give you complete particulars on this form of policy. ST. JOHN BRANCH OFFICE C. P. R. ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton.

TWO SPOT THE BUTTERFLY.

There right in front of the steps stood Nimble Toes beside an enormous butterfly.

"Won't you come with us on an adventure?" begged Nancy. "Why?" the Fairy Queen smiled. "Why?" she said she. "Aren't you having a good time?"

"Oh, yes, indeed!" said Nancy, "but we want you to go with us, if we are going to have an adventure."

The Fairy Queen looked very much pleased. "Well," my dears, said she, "that is why I sent for you. That is exactly what I am going to do. I am going on an adventure with you."

"That morning when the Twins, Nancy and Nick, woke up, they had found the magic green shoes beside their beds."

INSTANT RELIEF FOR Asthma, Bronchitis and Hay Fever

Originated and Offered by ANTAZMA, LIMITED.

One of our most eminent Asthma Specialists says: "I have not seen one who, if there were no serious complications, no matter how long the duration of the Asthma, could not be cured."

The discoverer and originator also says:—"It is unfortunate that the current idea among general practitioners as to asthma is that it is incurable; for there is no distressing and disabling condition more amenable to correct handling than asthma. Every case of uncomplicated asthma, properly handled, will improve, most will get well."

The discoverer and originator, a sufferer of 18 years of advanced Asthma, in a very acute form, has had such experience of its excellent effects on all sufferers in any and all stages as to justify his statements.

C. E. W. Dodwell, Halifax, Resident Engineer, Public Works Department of Canada, writes: "I have no words adequate to express the relief and satisfaction that I have derived from the use of Anti-Asthma Spray (ANTAZMA) in the past month."

A Sister of Charity at Mount St. Vincent says:—"I had suffered for years from very severe attacks of Asthma until your treatment gave me immediate and lasting relief."

Sheriff Hall, Halifax, writes:—"For the past forty years I was a sufferer from Asthma, during which time I tried many remedies, none of which however gave me more than temporary relief. In December 1921 my attention was called to Anti-Asthma Spray (ANTAZMA) Treatment and I at once purchased an Atomizer and small bottle of the spray, and after using same from time to time I received such relief that I have no hesitation in recommending it to any victim of Asthma."

Mrs. Ross, Halifax, was troubled with Asthma for twenty-one years. First tried ANTAZMA Treatment the middle of last December, under the advice of her doctor, when suffering from a serious asthmatic attack that had lasted three weeks, day and night, with a physician and trained nurse in attendance. Two physicians stated they had never seen anybody suffer so much with Asthma, but four applications brought complete relief. She was up within three days and able to do her household work for the first time in years.

ST. JOHN FANS THRILLED AS WORLD'S RECORD IS ESTABLISHED

CHARLIE GORMAN SETS NEW MARK IN SHORT EVENT

Burst of Speed Amazed Fans Who Were in Attendance

Charlie Gorman, St. John's pride, who holds the world's record for the 440 yards and the National and International skating titles, established a new world's mark for the 75 yards event on Lily Lake Saturday when he skated the distance in 71.5 seconds, one second faster than the record established by Morris Wood at Verona Lake, N. J., in 1912.

Speaks About Races

Speaking about the races, Charlie said he is confident he can beat the 100 yards record, but is doubtful if he can do 50 yards much better than he did on Saturday. He explained that the distance is so short it is hard to get going. He expressed pleasure at his competitors, gaining speed with every powerful stroke. At 50 yards he was actually flying along and two behind the 75 yards mark he gained momentum and hurried himself at the tape.

Rules Strictly Observed

The three races were held strictly according to the rules set down by the International Skating Union. The track was measured by G. Hare, city engineer, and prior to the races again measured to make sure that everything was exactly as it should be. The referee for the event was D. J. Corr of the New Brunswick Amateur Skating Association.

REFUSES TO CURB COMMUNIST PARTY

Will Not Disrupt Internationale in Order to Get U. S. Recognition

MOSCOW, Jan. 18.—(United Press)—The Soviet Government has refused to recognize the Bolshevik regime in Germany. The chief cause of the scrapping of the Anglo-Russian treaty was not due to the bad terms of the accord but to the fact that the British government was anxious in association with other foreign capitalist countries, to apply to Soviet Russia a plan similar to the Dawes plan for Germany. We must now try to Russia, after her seven years' struggle against the foreign powers, will not allow herself to become a second Morocco.

BRIGHT TIES BACK

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The fur for ladies ties was of short duration. Bright-colored scarfs are being displayed again in the show windows of Bond street haberdashers—gay creations with all sorts of exotic stripes, dots and oriental effects. "Noisy" ties are being worn in winter, and as in summer, fashion experts declare.

Helen Wainwright Will Now Attempt To Swim The English Channel

Along the Sport Trail

By RAY HANSEN

WHAT IS THE TROUBLE back of the scenes in Trojans circles? It is evident that there is something wrong and as a result the public are apprehensive. The Trojans have been St. John's noble defender and aggressor in various lines of sport for several seasons, notably in basketball. They brought the crack McGill University quintette here and have been directly responsible for an invitation being sent to the Maritime Provinces to enter a team in the Canadian title series.

LOCAL BASEBALL FANS

LOCAL BASEBALL FANS who can vividly recall the games played here in the days of the Maine & New Brunswick League will be interested to learn that Morris W. Jacobson, the classy young southpaw, is still holding his own in the International League. According to figures recently published, he had a percentage of .307 which resulted from 170 hits for a total of 270 bases. He also had 24 stolen bases to his credit. He participated in 154 games and was only turned back to the bench, via the strikeout route, 33 times.

ONE OF THE BIG QUESTIONS

ONE OF THE BIG QUESTIONS in local sporting circles today is: How will St. John make out tomorrow night against Sussex? The game will determine whether Sussex will win the first series or if a three-cornered tie will result. A win for the home team will be a great boost to the game in this city and fans are naturally all "hot up" over the result.

CHARLIE GORMAN'S performance

CHARLIE GORMAN'S performance on Lily Lake last Saturday was astounding. It was confidently expected that he would make a good showing but few dreamed that he would shatter Morris Wood's long standing record for the 75 yards in so decisive a manner. To shatter a world's mark by a fraction of a second is considered a great achievement, but to clip a full second off one is phenomenal when it is taken into consideration that the distance is so short and those who saw him perform Saturday are confident it is no idle boast.

None But the Best Suitings

It is a matter of satisfaction to the Triple C Tailors—in looking back over ten months of successful service that the cut price plan that brought made-to-measure clothes down below the price of ready-mades, had one rigid foundation. The Cloth was always the choicest. We might have gone looking for cheap cloth in order to make our price look still smaller, but we believed in keeping the same customers from year to year. Opinions may differ which policy pays the best. We don't know. All we know is that the quality idea is a safe one to follow and we cannot afford to take any risks of losing trade by trying any other.

Citizens in St. John will be interested in an announcement that Helen Wainwright, America's all-around champion mermaid of 1924, will undertake to swim the English channel, co-edged goal of the world's greatest long distance swimmers, next summer. A decision to assist Miss Wainwright was reached at a recent meeting of the Governors of the Women's Swimming Association in New York. Permission to make all necessary arrangements was secured by Miss Charlotte Epstein, who is well known in St. John. It will be recalled that in the summer of 1922 Miss Epstein came to St. John with Gertrude Ederle, Alleen Riggin and other great aquatic stars and gave an exhibition of swimming and diving in Lily Lake.

WILL RECEIVE CARD

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 18.—Edgar Wade, of Fredericton, N. B., will be granted an amateur card if he is able to furnish the registration committee of the M. P. B. A. U. of C. a satisfactory itemized account showing that the $50 dollars given him by Newsw Landon, the Montreal hockey magnate, was not in excess of the actual amount he spent on traveling expenses which journeyed from Fredericton to Montreal to try out with the Montreal professionals, according to a statement made here tonight by A. C. Millie, president of the M. P. B. A. U. of C.

SHIP BRINGS 239 Passengers Reaching St. John Speak of Conditions In Motherland

When the C. P. S. Montrose docked in St. John yesterday George D. Fishwick, pay. Lt. Comdr. R. N. R., of the purser's department, had traveled 122,702 miles in his 24 1/2 years at sea. Mr. Fishwick entered the profession of the sea as a clerk in the Dominion Line when he was 21 years of age and served with it for two and a half years, sailing to Canada, the United States and Mediterranean ports.

Later he was connected with the Harrison Line as purser and sailed to Colon, Mexico and the West Indies. He joined the C. P. S. in 1904 as purser and has been with them ever since, with the exception of the war years, 1914 to 1919, when he was in the navy.

The total distance of 122,702 miles was covered as follows: To Canada, 90,642; to U. S., 29,132; to West Indies, 30,624; to Mexico, 10,000; to South Africa, 1900-1901, 43,618; Mediterranean, 27,736; India, 22,190; Royal Navy during war, 1914-1919, 182,500.

Mr. Fishwick has sailed on 28 ships during his years at sea, 10 of which were by the Canadian Pacific, the old and new Montrose, Lake Erie, Lake Manitoba, Lake Michigan, Empress of Britain, Scandinavian, Melita, Marjorie and Montclair.

The Canadian Pacific liner Montrose arrived in port early yesterday morning from Liverpool and docked at Sand Point. This is the first trip of the Montrose to this port this winter, as the steamer has been tied up in Liverpool for five weeks undergoing the annual overhauling.

The trip was not a particularly enjoyable one as there were head winds and cross currents nearly the whole distance, making it a bit choppy. Captain E. Landy is in command. W. Prentice retains his position as chief officer, as does also E. H. Stanley that of chief engineer, G. Crawford, purser, has been transferred from the Melita, and Dr. C. F. L. Haszard from the Montrose. R. H. Kirkpatrick holds his old position of chief steward and Mrs. G. Jordan, of St. John, is rail line ticket agent.

The Passengers.
Prominent among the passengers were Rev. Dr. Graham, headmaster Trinity College School, Port Hope, Ont.; Prof. S. E. Whitman, professor of anatomy at McGill University, Montreal; Col. H. C. Osborne, secretary-general of the Imperial War Graves Commission, Ottawa; A. D. Miles, of Toronto, European freight manager of the C. P. S.; K. B. Thornton, manager of the Montreal Tramways; his wife and two sons, Montreal; W. H. Creighton, of Montreal; E. R. Hill, Bristol; E. R. Beale, London; W. Bradshaw, R. H. Spangier, Montreal, and G. W. Grant, Westdale.

The Montrose brought 1,731 sacks of mail, 97 of which were for Maritime delivery and 700 bags of parcel post, 44 for the Maritimes. The general cargo amounted to 2,961 tons. The passenger list totals 239—92 cabin, 142 third class.

Hear of Catholics.
During the trip the passengers enjoyed a lantern lecture by the Rev. Dr. H. Warren, lecturer and artist, who is destined for Bishop's College, Lennoxville, B. C. The slides which were shown at the lecture were taken from the paintings made by Miss Warren. While the ship was passing along the north coast of Ireland, Miss Warren was busy sketching the rugged coastline. The majority of the passengers preferred to remain inside as the weather was cold. Some of them wondered how she did it.

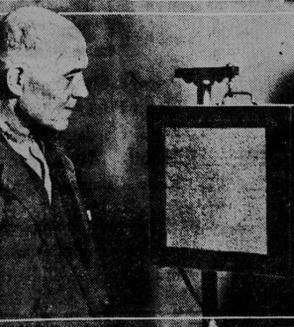

Learns of Schools.
Rev. Dr. F. G. Orchard, headmaster of Trinity College School, Port Hope, Ont., had been in England attending at Cambridge the conference of headmasters of the large public schools. At the meeting very interesting papers were read. Dr. Orchard expressed himself as well pleased with the results of the trip and has returned with several new ideas regarding the conduct of the large public school and the information with which to solve many of its tangled problems.

Rev. Dr. M. Rose, a missionary of the M. S. C. C., who has been in Kootenai, India, for several years, accompanied by his wife and daughter, who were sojourning in Oxford, Eng., arrived for a conference with the board. Mr. Rose acted as chaplain during the trip, taking services on Sunday.

Maritime People.
Rev. C. H. Fletcher and Mrs. Fletcher, of New Glasgow, were the only Maritime people among the cabin passengers. They had been home for a two months' visit. Commenting on the religious situation in England, Mr. Fletcher said that there is a very decided Anglo-Catholic movement on in that country at the present time. It resembled very materially the Oxford Movement. It was known as the Life and Liberty Movement and was gaining more followers every day. The churches which were conforming to the new movement, he said, were adopting a form of service very similar to that of the Catholic Church. He heard and in one church he heard of the pastor requiring the people to go to confession before they received communion.

Living Cheaper.
Living at the present time in England was very much cheaper than it was here, at least, in the opinion of Mr. Fletcher said. The stores in London were doing a bumper Christmas business.

Radio Helps Solve Mystery

For two months the immigration authorities at Norfolk, Va., held a man whose nationality or language none knew. At last he broadcasted the series of grunts and squeals which passed with him for language. A young Finlander came forward and identified the grunts as a Finnish nationalist and writer named Oksala, who spoke an obscure Finnish dialect.

A commercial man, who also made the trip, confirmed this and added that in his opinion the London stores had done a bumper business all during the last year.

Mr. Fletcher was interested in radio and found conditions in England in this respect very different from what they are here. Nearly every one in the country owned a set of some kind or other, ranging from the simple crystal set to the very expensive variety. The crystal sets were very little and are sufficiently powerful to receive all the two or four tube sets of all that any one required to get France or Germany clearly. The best of this class retailed at less than $20. The music that was broadcasted in England and on the continent, he said, was of a much higher class than the usual radio program on this continent. The noted Savoy Hotel orchestra broadcasted every afternoon, while the vocal talents of the countries could produce.

Dr. C. F. L. Haszard from the Montrose. R. H. Kirkpatrick holds his old position of chief steward and Mrs. G. Jordan, of St. John, is rail line ticket agent.

LONDON LETTER Expected That Army Will Be Withdrawn From Rhine In May

Spanish commanders may be allowed to arrange terms with the Rifis, whereby Spanish occupation of the hinterland may be severely recognized. But the misfortune is that, the Rifis, being now fuller than ever of fighting efforts to this end may be fruitless. In London it has been rumored that tentative overtures were made to the Rifis some time ago from Spain, but the arrogance of the Arab conditions involved such impossible insults as Spanish emissaries, here to a splendid past, suing with halters round their necks in the tent of the conqueror.

A Suggestion.
The news that specially-interesting gramophone records of famous voices, both artistic and oratorical or historic, are now being hoarded at the British Museum, to be released half-century hence, inspires a correspondent with an interesting suggestion. He wants to know why the ancient practice of immuring coins and medals and buildings should not be extended or revived by the inclusion of topical gramophone records. Thus in years to come posterity might receive living touch, by means of reproduction of actual voices, with the past that is our present. It seems quite a feasible and interesting suggestion, and might be carried out without great expense or labor. How nice it would be, for instance, if we could take out from the Albert Memorial a record of the voice of the illustrious figure that laid the foundation-stone, still more could we recapture the accents of those dusty knights whose valiantly reared the tower of London.

Bank's Christmas Mail.
All the year round the Bank of England's daily posting contains an average of 6,000 letters. At Christmas, when most people have more letters than usual, the bank receives as many as 80,000 a day, but they are not letters containing either presents or good wishes. They are either to report changes of address—and it is amazing how freely the holders of war loan and consols move about—or to make some mistake, usually imaginary, which the bank is supposed to have made in sending off dividends. There are also an enormous number of careful old ladies who write every December to make sure that the little nest-egg of consols or 5 per cent. is really still there, and has not been seized by some unscrupulous Chancellor of the Exchequer.

A General Autocrat.
In 1918, when the writer was in Aberdeen with one leg in a St. Thomas' splint, it was announced in a few days that a real live general officer was due to inspect the First Scottish General Military Hospital at Old Mill. Never was there a more pronounced case of "wind up." The patients and ward sisters harried the wounded Tommies and Jocks. I recall tense conversations with a certain V. A. D. whether or not it was "in

Mr. MacDonald's Hobby.
Ramsay MacDonald's new hobby of collecting old prints of Oliver Cromwell raises an interesting problem of psychology. Do we bestow our hero-worship really on objects akin to ourselves or otherwise; is the Labor extreme admiration for my Lord Protector due to a similarity of characteristics or to the reverse? No doubt the latter is the case in some instances according to the special view of Mr. MacDonald, the politician, never considering how far Cromwell is sometimes. There must be points in the masterly simplicity of the Fishmonger's advice that make their strong appeal to Mr. MacDonald, who is, whether or not he possesses the gift of masterly simplicity, a certain amount of simplicity of character. But it is really curious to find two such distinct personalities, as Mr. MacDonald and Lord Rosebery, wide as the Poles apart, hero-worshipping the same historical figure. No doubt the associations of Cheaps, with its Cromwellian area, did much to stimulate the ex-Prime Minister's hobby, but he has now quite a little museum of Cromwell prints at his new Hampstead home.

Our Army on the Rhine.
I gather that our Army of Occupation at Cologne will be withdrawn about next May under the Peace Treaty date fixed in January 10, and at a time when it might assist German Nationalists to embarrass the ministry we are anxious to avoid shaming awkward points. So we shall not stress Germany's infraction of the treaty terms in the matter of arms and other things, but seek a compromise. The real reason why we cannot withdraw the French lines of Ruhr communication pass through our area, and until France withdraws from the Ruhr it would be impracticable for us to evacuate Cologne. Probably the Berlin Government will be glad to make an arrangement whereby, if we induce the French to leave the Ruhr in May instead of August as fixed, the British Army at Cologne is withdrawn then.

Gibraltar.
One phase of the Spanish trouble in Morocco concerns our position at Gibraltar. At the Foreign Office, no more than at the War Office or the Admiralty, would it be agreeable to see Spain making way opposite the rock for some possibly more militant power. Yet this is one of several awkward possibilities raised by the immediate crisis in Madrid. Our hope continues to be that, having now withdrawn to their coast line, however precarious, the Chicago Moonshine Has Lengthy Toll of Victims During Last Year.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—Moonshine took a toll of 390 deaths in Chicago in the first 11 months of 1924, Health Commissioner Herman N. Bundesen says in a brochure issued, entitled, "Moonshine, the Light That Biggles." It reads in part:—
"Honesty is sending more than one a day to a slab in the morgue. Of the victims 293 died from moonshine poisoning, and nothing else, in 1924. But the coroner's records already begin to dig in 1925. In the first 11 months 151 other deaths were due to accidents induced by alcoholism and murders and suicides directly due to alcohol. Total 390, with December and its Yuletide crop still to be added."

The Hon. Gwyneth is reported to have gone out to meet the world wearing only a dressing gown over her pajamas, but with the equivalent of $200 in her pocket. She eluded a company who were living with her on account of her ill health. A considerable staff of servants also was outwitted by the baron's daughter.

German Producers Want to Curb Importation of Films From America.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—(United Press)—American movies, which make up three-fourths of those shown in Germany, have brought German film producers, importers and distributors into a hot controversy, the department of commerce was advised by its Berlin representatives.
The producers who make about 100 pictures a year are demanding that stricter import regulations be imposed to give them a larger share of the German business. About 300 American films are imported annually at present.

LOSE YOUR FAT, KEEP YOUR HEALTH

Superfluous flesh is not healthy. Neither is it really fat, as is generally supposed. The simplest method known for reducing the overweight body is to use the famous Marmolax Laxa-Liver Pills. These pills contain an exact dose of the famous Marmolax Prescription. They are pleasant to take, and do not irritate the bowels. They are also known as "the pills that do not irritate." They are also known as "the pills that do not irritate." They are also known as "the pills that do not irritate."

DR. TAYLOR HEARD

Speaks of West Side Sheds And Of Hydro Selling Outside City

At a special sitting of the Chancery Court this morning, Chief Justice Sir Douglas Hazen presiding, trial of the matter of the continuation of the injunction, applied for before Mr. Justice Grimmer recently by the N. B. Power Co. to restrain the Power Commission of the City of Saint John from interfering with the former company's system in the West Side sheds, was commenced. Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C., appearing for the Power Company, concluded his opening in the case to the court before noon recess, and this afternoon evidence for the plaintiff is being given.

Facilitate Hearing. At the opening of court, there was some discussion as to whether or not the case should proceed on the ground that the plaintiff had not filed its record. This, however, was overcome, and further discussion took place relative to certain amendments in the plaintiff's statement of claim, one of which has reference to the sale of electric energy and appliances by the city in the parishes of Simonds and Lancaster.

Dr. J. B. Baxter, K. C., appearing for the city, said that he would have to oppose this amendment being made. Counsel suggested to the court that the plaintiff be allowed to amend, if it could be done without expense, they had agreed, if the court were willing to make use of the printed evidence of certain witnesses as admitted in the hearing before Mr. Justice White.

Taxes Referred To. Dr. Taylor, in opening for the plaintiff, said that the Power Company, being one of the largest taxpayers in the city, objected to the Power Commission, which did not pay any taxes, engaging in the business of selling electrical supplies on a competitive basis with the plaintiff, and maintained that the commission had no authority to do this. Furthermore, he said, the latter had been selling energy to former customers of the Power Company at rates lower than the latter, and not only that but had in many cases adjusted their rates to suit the prospective buyer. This, he said, was in direct competition in that the Power Company were forced to abide by certain rates fixed by the utility board, while the city was not forced to submit rates to the board, and could consequently do what it pleased with its rates to its business.

The plaintiff maintained that the city had no authority to go beyond the city limits in selling supplies and energy, and yet had done this in Lancaster and Simonds. In addition, he said, the city had cut the wires of the Power Company in the West Side sheds and had put transformers on the company's poles. The plaintiff asked that the injunction, granted by Mr. Justice Grimmer until trial, be continued.

VISITING ARTISTS HEARD IN CHURCH

Earle Spicer and Russian Prince Take Part at Centenary on Sunday Evening.

Earle Spicer and Prince George Chavchavadze with their music delighted a large assembly of people, who filled every seat in Centenary church last evening. Mrs. F. J. Hodgson played the organ with artistic interpretation. Miss Alice G. Hea, organist of the church, played with sympathetic expression the accompaniments of the singer. Prince George played by request, the Brahms "Rhapsodie, No. 4." He also played other selections. There was a very sweet rendition of two southern melodies by Mr. Spicer, "Steal Away" and "Swing Low." These were high and clear, with wonderfully sustained notes, that made the deep tones of "Beyond the Dawn" seemingly belonging to another. "The Ninety and Nine" was also sung with fine expression. The choir sang a melodious anthem with dramatic lines that they interpreted with melodious harmony. Mrs. L. M. Curren and William Layton took the solos and Aubrey McKee's organ sounded well in the counter melody in the grand chorus.

The Programme. The programme was as follows: Pilgrims Chorus from Tannhauser. Wagner—Pipe organ, Mrs. F. J. Hodgson. "The Ninety and Nine"—Sheldon. Baritone solo, Earle Spicer. Prelude Sostenuto—Chopin; Rhapsodie, No. 4—Brahms—Piano solos, Prince George Chavchavadze. Collection—Anthem by choir. Intermzzo—Hollins; Berceuse—Kinder—Pipe organ, Mrs. Hodgson. Steal Away; Swing Low Sweet Chariot—Southern melodies—Baritone solos, Earle Spicer. Au Convent—Borodine; Scherzo—Mendelssohn; Etude in E Major—Chopin—Piano solos, Prince Chavchavadze. Beyond the Dawn—Sanderson—Baritone solo, Earle Spicer.

RECOVERING WELL. Friends of J. E. Tighe will be pleased to learn that he is recovering rapidly after an operation to his throat and he expects to be able to get out again in a few days.

The matter, the despatch adds, has been under consideration by the C. N. R., but owing to lack of funds had not progressed. A. J. Gray, general freight agent of the C. N. R. here, said this morning that he had not received any definite word concerning the construction of the warehouse but he did not think that the site had been decided on as yet even if the authorities had finally decided to build. He did not expect that the work would start in any case this winter.

Hiram On Tour

MONTREAL, Jan. 18.—Wall, Mr. Matt Lodge and Bob McKay he's from Nova Scotia—they took me in to dinner to the Windsor Hotel Saturday. They had an order for a couple of gals was smoking cigarettes—and we had a great time. I met a fellow from St. John that had been up this way offering a factory for sale—too bad we can't keep 'em all going ourselves. Well, sir, I ain't no trouble to a policeman any more up here. I went to one of 'em and ast him where the C. P. R. general offices was. He was a French feller and he said he didn't know—but he better ask the traffic man on the corner. I ast him and he said to go down two blocks and then turn to the left. I went down there and ast a man if I was on the right road. He said I was going away from them offices as fast as I could walk. Then I got one of them taxis and I guess we went about a mile before we got there. No, sir, I ain't stuck on the policemen in this town. Well, sir—I seen President Berthelot of the C. P. R. Saturday. He grabbed me by the hand and if we was old friends—and we had a real fine talk about the Settlement. Sol Snooks, out to the Settlement—come right after me. Pokenoche one time—puts on more sense than the President of the C. P. R. I seen a lot of other railroad fellows, too—and when I told 'em I showed 'em one winter to help keep the trains running out our way they told me all they had was mine—John Scott—you know John—used to be a newspaper man in St. John—he had me to his house yesterday—come right after me with a car—By Hen! Well, sir—this is a great town. You might phone Hamer, and tell 'em I hadn't lost no collar buttons yet—and the weather ain't a bit cold up here.
