KINDERGARTEN CHILDREN ENJOY PICNIC CLOSING

The kindergartens found the very nicest form of closing exercises this year. Instead of having a formal programme yesterday the children were taken by their teachers to some picnic spot and spent the day out of doors, having the best possible time and the nicest things to eat.

The children of the Central kindergarten in Wellington Row and the North End kindergarten were taken to motor trucks and from their picnic ground in Rockwood Park. The trucks were leased by Percy D. McAvity and the Willett Fruit Company and there were seventy-five passengers to be transported. The children were all dressed in their best. Games of all sorts were played. When it was dinner time, the children sat in a ring on the grass and after they had said their prayer, each set to on a noble array of sandwiches, brown bread, fancy cookies, milk, and other good things not forgetting the most important item, watermelon. Candy was an incidental treat and each child had an orange to take home. Those who were in charge were Miss Winnifred Ross, kindergarten for the North End and her assistant, Miss Frances Gannon, and Miss Louise Estey, kindergarten for the Wellington Row kindergarten and her assistants Miss Elsie MacDonald and Miss Elizabeth Stanley.

The children from the West End orphanage kindergarten, in charge of their instructor, Miss Florence Kierstead, and Mrs. A. F. Robinson, the kindergarten supervisor, spent a happy day at Seaside Park playing on the shore.

The South End kindergarten children were in charge of Miss Edna Colwell and had their picnic outing in the grounds of St. James church, Broad street.

The Mabel Peters kindergarten children were taken to the Courtyard Bay shore at the end of the East St. John car line and were in charge of Miss Ruth Mackie, assisted by Miss Eleanor Cline.

Today will be the last day of the kindergarten sessions and the usual programme of an ordinary day will be carried out.

A Furniture Investment Worth While Says The Key To Comfort. There are many reasons to substantiate the statement that furniture is a very worth-while investment, but that the best and biggest is the simplest. When you buy good furniture you are buying a part of what is to be your own home—isn't that reason enough? "Better Furniture—Less Money." J. MARCUS 30-36 Dock Street July and August Store Closes Saturday 1 p. m. Open Friday until 10 p. m.

On to Calgary and The Women's Council. On, on to speed, prairies, prairies. Two little boys have peeped into our room, the music of the typewriter has been the magnet—and now the mothers, in a tumult of anxiety and apprehension that they may disturb us. We are told of the grandmother recently arrived from England the little family party has been to welcome at Winnipeg, who suffered from those terrible air raids and who is hastily sought and brought in to see these New Brunswick women. She speaks eagerly of Blackheath, of St. Elphage, of Dr. Hutchins, whose great desire was to come to Canada, where Queen Elizabeth often attended church, and of her own son being a descendant of the French general who fought against Wolfe. We have announced ourselves in different occupations, bridge at some tables, quiet women in groups of two or three who are coming and discussing important Anecdotes have not been relegated to the background. One story told by Mrs. Thorburn is causing screams of laughter. Presentation of marriage and birth certificates had been pronounced absolutely necessary, and among the thirty odd waiting widows was one forlorn widow, who confidently presented her troubles certificates—I can't read, I can't write, but I have been married, I know when my children were born—and (still more impressively) and what's better still I have this," (producing a silver coffin plate decorously marked and engraved with the name of the deceased husband's name). Now you see if any woman would waste money on a diver coffin plate if the man wasn't her husband," (and in soaring notes of triumph, doesn't that prove I'm married? (and again confidentially) been married? (and again confidentially) been married? I carry this round with me, I took it off his coffin."

CLEANS ALL HANDS BETTER THAN SOAP. SNAP. Caught Leaping Fence. Patrolman Gleason and the athletic one collided as the latter was leaping his final fence. At the police station the youth declared that he had no recollection of having been in Miss Stewart's room. Miss Stewart said that he had entered her room soon after 2.30 yesterday morning, awakening her as he tried to bind his arms above her head with another towel. She says she fought Conway for some time and finally worked her hands loose. Then, she says, he tried to bind her with her own stockings. While he was thus engaged the gag slipped off and Miss Stewart screamed. Her outcries attracted people within the house and throughout the neighborhood. Three patrolmen responded. While they circled the block a woman informed them that she saw a man leaving the rear of Sidney place, across the fence, like a monkey. Caught Leaping Fence. Miss Stewart declared that she never had seen Conway before. She declared that he said something about getting her money and that she had explained to him that she had but ten dollars. But, apparently, most of his time was occupied in keeping her from screaming. Conway played basketball and baseball for Erasmus. He is credited with being popular with his schoolmates. His father told Magistrate Walsh that he was inclined to the opinion that his son was at least temporarily demented at the time of the alleged housebreaking. TEACHERS ENTERTAINED. The teachers of the Alexandra school yesterday spent a very pleasant afternoon and evening in Fairville at the summer home of the principal, A. L. Dykeman. An excellent supper was partaken of, a feature of which was a pie-eating contest in which two members of the party excelled themselves. During the evening, Mr. Dykeman, on behalf of the teachers, presented a handsome pocketbook to Miss Agnes Waring who is about to go on a year's leave of absence. In making the presentation, Mr. Dykeman spoke very highly of Miss Waring's teaching ability and also her kind and friendly personality which had endeared her to the entire staff. Miss Waring, though taken by surprise, made a brief and fitting reply. The party returned home by the 10.30 train congratulating themselves that the teachers were still running. Hon. D. W. Messerieu, minister of agriculture, was in the city yesterday in connection with the transferring of lime plant at Brookville to the new owners. He left last evening for Fredericton.

Milestones. DOMINION Day—The day commemorating Canada's birth as a nation! How royally the first Dominion Day was celebrated, fifty-four years ago! Rejoicings began as the midnight hour was struck. Instantly followed riotous pealing of bells. Sky rockets pierced the darkness, great bonfires lighted the heavens, and high up in the Cathedral tower deep toned bells chimed the National Anthem. Day dawned on a blaze of flags—a nation holidaying with military parades, band concerts, fireworks. In every city, town and village athletic contests testified to the virility of the young nation. Let Dominion Day this year reflect that enthusiasm of half a century ago. Again let the youth of the nation match strength and skill in athletic sports! And at the end of the day what more fitting reward for progress in the field of sport than an Elgin Watch?—the Elgin which, older than the Dominion, has faithfully recorded the passing of each milestone since Canada's first birthday. THE VOICE OF CANADA

Hon. T. A. Crerar says: "What Medicine Hat said yesterday Canada will say when it gets the opportunity." Mr. Crerar is not alone in this estimate of the political situation. The more the overwhelming nature of the defeat of the Meighen government candidate in Medicine Hat is considered, the more clear it appears that this is more than a local reverse.

handicap business and industry, as follows:

1.—It may enter on such a large programme of capital expenditures as to leave an amount of savings in the hands of investors insufficient for the needs of expanding industry and business.

TAXES AND BUSINESS.

The Citizens' Research Institute of Canada has just issued a bulletin which deals with the relation of government to business and industry, and which declares that "government makes business and industry possible, but inefficient and expensive government makes the conduct of business and industry difficult."

Table with 2 columns: Municipal share of provincial bonded debt, per capita. Cities listed include Vancouver, Edmonton, Regina, Winnipeg, Toronto, Ottawa, London, Montreal, Hamilton, St. John, and Halifax.

So far as the municipal bonded debt is concerned, the per capita burden in St. John is away below the other cities, and amazingly so in comparison with the cities of the west.

On the other hand, the per capita burden imposed by the provincial bonded debt is greater in St. John than in any but one of the other cities, and very much greater than in any but two of them.

THE LOCAL DEADLOCK.

The streets of St. John are silent today. The street cars are not running. The citizens are deprived of that convenience. They must not, however, be deprived of light and power.

ENOUGH OF "WAR WORK"

All over this country you will find traces of sloppy, careless, stupid, awkward, "don't-care" work.

WHAT DID HE MEAN?

A merchant in a Wisconsin town who had a Swedish clerk sent him out to do some collecting.

NEW SOURCE OF PAPER.

The current number of the Bulletin of the Imperial Institute contains a comprehensive and valuable article on the utilization of bamboo for paper making.

"FRIENDSHIP"

Gold and silver may be fine, And diamonds may be nice, But give me the good old friendship, I've longed for here and there.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Read Affinities "Are you sure your tastes and Roberts's are congenial?" anxiously inquired the fond mother of the newly engaged daughter.

Damaged Goods

"So Maud broke her engagement with Jack because the doctor said he had a tobacco heart."

Ungrateful

The Bore—"I think this weather is awful!"

Plenty of Will

"I hear your husband has given up smoking. Doesn't that require a strong will?"

Good Business.

"It's good business," said the cinder, "to seize every opportunity, To get into the public eye."

Treatment

Coal Shoveller Beat Her With Hammer, Belt and Beam, in Charge—Child Mass of Cuts.

(N. Y. Times.)
Jerome Mercadenti, 38 years old, a coal shoveller of 480 College avenue, was held in $1,000 bail in Morrisania Court yesterday by Magistrate Bernard J. Douras on a charge of having brutally beaten his daughter Lily, 12 years old. The complaint was brought by the Bronx Children's Society after it had been appealed to by teachers of Public School 18, 148th Street and Cortlandt Avenue, where Lily was a pupil.

Lily was placed under the protection of the society. Her case will come up before the Children's Court next week to hear further charges of improper guardianship. Mercadenti was alleged to have used a cobbler's hammer, a belt and broomsticks on Lily at the instigation of the child's stepmother and step-brother.

In the court it was shown that Lily had cuts and bruises from head to foot, which Philip Lovenenthal, chief officer of the Children's Society, and Abraham Michaels, his assistant, said had been inflicted by the father.

According to the society agents, Lily was in disfavor with her stepmother and her two sons by Mercadenti. The agents said the stepmother and her sons formed a conspiracy of cruelty against Lily. "Informing against Lily, they would arouse the father," the agents said.

"His subsequent punishment of the girl compelled the attention of the teachers at the school. Action was taken Friday, when the father, it was said, cut a deep gash in Lily's jaw with a cobbler's hammer. The mother then accused her of drinking condensed milk, which the child had been sent to buy," the agents said.

VIENNA FINANCE AND ECONOMICS ARE AT VARIANCE

With the Money Situation in Bad Shape, People Living Well — 50 Billion Crowns Deficit in Current Budget.

Vienna, June 14.—(Associated Press, by Mail)—Finance and economics seem to have parted company in Austria.

Travelers visiting Vienna say they do not recognize the city of a year ago.

The mass of the people are better dressed and more plentiful food is shown in their healthy appearance.

Paris can hardly show a more fashionably gowned crowd of women than that which turns out for the ring promenade in the afternoon or throngs the high-class shopping district in the mornings.

The shop display of luxurious wares of every description increases until the Arbeiter Zeitung says it exceeds Vienna's best days of before the war.

The famous delicatessen shops are re-opening with almost their old-time excellence. The windows are filled with fancy dairies for which the city was noted, canned stuffs of the finest foreign makes are to be bought.

Crackers and biscuits are common in the groceries, the candy shops are restocked and while last winter a pound of sweets was virtually unobtainable, the finest fresh bonbons now are to be had in any quantity.

White bread is served in nearly every restaurant and the bakery windows again display the famous Vienna pastries and cakes.

In the poorer districts even the butcher shops and groceries reflect the same condition.

Turning to finance, the current statement of the Austro-Hungarian bank speaks for it. There are at the moment 45,000,000,000 crowns in circulation and 4,000,000,000 outstanding treasury notes issued to the banks for discount.

But this cheap money is plentiful. Everyone seems to have it and to be spending it. Excessively advanced prices for everything seem not to have affected the volume of business.

Printing presses are crowding a month to meet the government expenses. The current budget shows a deficit of 50,000,000,000 crowns. The wealth levy has produced about 8,000,000,000 crowns, one-half of which was paid in war bonds, leaving enough cash from this source to meet about one month's running expenses for the government.

Through its spokesmen and newspapers the government is urging the need of haste in the proposed credit plan of the League of Nations by which enough foreign capital is sought to establish a bank of issue whose new currency on a gold basis is expected to gradually retire and stabilize the value of the present crown.

THE PALESTINE PROBLEM. (Winston Churchill in the House of Commons.)

The difficulty about the position of the national home for the Jews in Palestine was that it conflicted with Great Britain's regular policy of consulting the wishes of the people in the territories under her mandate and of giving them representative institutions as soon as they were fitted for them.

There were in Palestine 500,000 Moslems, 60,000 Christians and about 65,000 Jews. They had been brought into Palestine under the Zionist scheme of immigration and the propaganda by which it had been accomplished had greatly alarmed and excited the Arab population.

It was not so much the number of immigrants, but the continued ardent declarations of the Zionist organization throughout the world of its hope and ambition of making Palestine a promised Jewish country, peopled by Jews from all over the world, that alarmed the Arabs, who also feared that these Jews would come principally from Central Europe and particularly from Russia.

The Arabs believed that in the next few years they were going to be swamped by scores of thousands of immigrants from Central Europe, who would rush them off their land and ultimately gain absolute control of its institutions and destiny.

Mr. Churchill said that Jewish immigration was being very carefully watched and controlled. No immigrants would be brought in beyond the number which could be provided for by the development of the resources of the country. He had no doubt that, with new means of livelihood provided, the number of Jewish immigrants would add to the welfare of the community.

DEVELOPMENT OF OIL SHALE IN NEW BRUNSWICK

(Moncton Times.) A party of prominent people from Moncton and other parts of the province, including Lieutenant-Governor Pugsley, Premier Foster and Mr. Baxter, leader of the opposition in the legislature, on Friday visited the oil shale property in the Baltimore district of Albert county, where development work has been in progress for some time.

"In addition to its drilling operation in New Brunswick, the Anglo-Persia Oil Company is going ahead with the systematic development of the New Brunswick shale deposits. The Anglo-Persian is erecting at Baltimore, in Albert county, a shale retorting plant to be in operation this year. It is expected to be a full-sized retorting plant of the Wallace type; and the company is reported to have set aside an appropriation of $6,250,000 for this and other development work in New Brunswick.

There is little doubt that oil will of vast importance for fuel purposes in the near future. Mr. Theodore Moray, a leading business man of Montreal, has just returned home after a six week trip to Great Britain, interviewed in the Gazette, says, amongst other things, "one result of the coal strike is the development in the use of oil in the country, in which an advance of two or three years has been made."

Lord Fife the late First Sea Lord of Great Britain is a great believer in the future of oil. He said in his day that the British could exclusively depend upon it. Merchant ships and oil-driven machinery are all within the scheme of things. The revolution has only just begun. Whatever be the course of events, there never will, in any case, be the same demand for coal as there used to be in olden days when it was a recognized almost that coal was king.

The plan to develop oil resources in Canada apparently, will not be carried out in a half-hearted way, and when it is taken into consideration that Canadian oil fields have been producing over 80,000,000 gallons of oil per annum from the United States alone, not to speak of 2,000,000 tons of coal, it gives an adequate idea of the possibilities in the development of a substantial oil supply within the dominion. In the British parliament a few days ago heavy votes were passed through committee of supply and on the interesting announcement that the intention was to build oil tanks at oil installations at most of the navy bases both at home and abroad.

DE VALERA DESIRES PERMANENT PEACE

Irish Leader Replies to Peace
 Overtures of Lloyd George —Southern Parliament Opens With Slim Attendance.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 Dublin, June 28—Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, is not yet ready to give a definite answer to Premier Lloyd George's letter inviting him to a conference for an Irish settlement. He has briefly replied to the prime minister, however, expressing the earnest desire for a lasting peace, but deems unity Ireland essential to that end.

The Irish Bulletin, organ of the Dail, in a special issue, publishes Mr. Valera's reply to the British prime minister. It is as follows:

I am consulting with such of the chief representatives of our nation as are available. We most earnestly desire to bring about a lasting peace between the peoples of these two islands, but see no avenue by which it can be reached if you deny Ireland essential before replying more fully to your or I am seeking a conference with certain representatives of the political minority in this country." Writes to Craig.

Mr. De Valera has written to Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier; Earl Middleton, who in 1920 advocated one parliament for southern Ireland, with the six Ulster counties under the imperial parliament; Sir Maurice Dockrell, M. P. for the Rathfriland division of Dublin county, who was returned as a Unionist supporter of the coalition government, except as to its Irish policy of home rule; Sir Robert Henry Woods, member of parliament for Dublin University, and former president of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, and Andrew Jameson, asking them to meet him at the Mansion House, Dublin, on Monday for a conference. He wishes to learn from them at first hand the views of certain sections of the people they represent.

The Southern Parliament.
 Dublin, June 28—The southern Irish parliament established by the home rule act opened here today. Comparatively few members were present, however, and the proceedings lasted only fifteen minutes.

The four imperialistic members of the parliament from Trinity College and five members of the senate attended. The lower house is comprised almost entirely of members of the Sinn Fein, which ignored the summons to the opening of the parliament.

Lord Justice Maloney was present, but there was little public interest.

Sir James Accepts.
 London, June 28—Lloyd George, in announcing in the House of Commons late tonight the receipt of a telegram from Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, expressing the willingness of himself and colleagues to attend a conference in London on the Irish question, added that he had not yet received a reply from Eamon De Valera.

PEJEPSCOT PAPER
 CO. LOSES BY FIRE
 Calais, Me., June 28—The lumbering camps of the Pejepscot Paper Company and McFadden & Stuart on the Moose River and 400 cords of pulp wood were burned yesterday by a fire which spread over many acres of timberland. It was thought to have been of incendiary origin.

PASTOR RESIGNS
 Woodstock, June 28—Rev. W. B. Higgins, pastor of the Reform Baptist church, has tendered his resignation. He came to Woodstock in 1896, and later was nine years in Moncton. He has made no definite plans for the future.

NO CHANGE IN DISCOUNT DATE

The discount period for the payment of taxes was further considered at a short session of the City Council held yesterday afternoon, but no change was made. A certain amount of routine business was considered and reports received. Mayor Schofield presided and all commissioners were present with the exception of Mr. Thornton.

The commissioner of finance and public affairs recommended that the controller be authorized to pass for payment all accounts coming to him from the several departments up to June 30.

Complain of Smoke.
 Another communication was received from the Retail Merchants' Association in regard to the smoke caused by the Royal Hotel. The letter was referred to Mr. Thornton.

A letter, received from Mrs. Charles Masten complaining of the lack of sewerage and sidewalks in Metcalf street extension, was referred to Mr. Jones and Mr. Frink. Mr. Jones said that he had had the construction of a sewer in this district under consideration for some time. Mr. Frink said that the money appropriated for his department was being used up rapidly but he thought that the work requested could be done.

A letter from S. Norman Sancton asking that the sidewalk on the lower side of Wentworth street, between Prince and Orange, be repaired, was referred to Mr. Frink. Considerable correspondence had passed between Mr. Sancton and Mr. Frink in regard to this matter. It was shown that some of the sidewalk was on private property and Mr. Frink said the city was not desirous of doing this kind of work when private contractors were in business.

Mr. Frink reported on the retaining wall complained of by the St. John Desk Company and recommended that it should be rebuilt. It was six feet high by thirty-seven feet long and contained twenty-one cubic yards. Including a new sidewalk, the cost would be $391. The report was received but not voted on as it required a bond issue.

The Discount Date.
 Mr. Bullock revived the matter of the discount date for the payment of taxes. He was of the opinion that considerable hardship would be inflicted by having the date placed so early. Many landlords, whose rent was paid quarterly, would receive no payments August 1. Members of the civil service, city hall employees and many others were interested also. He moved that the date be extended to August 5. The mayor pointed out that the city had an overdraft at the bank of approximately $600,000 and the interest amounted to about $100 a day. At least $1,000,000 would be paid in by July 14 giving the city a credit balance of $400,000 on which interest would be paid instead of the city having to pay as at present. If the date was extended nineteen days it would cost the city approximately $1,900. As the motion was not seconded it was lost and the date will remain as previously fixed.

The mayor thought it would be a good idea if Mr. Jones would make a report in regard to the pumping appliances at Silver Falls. This plant was at present out of order and it might be needed in an emergency. Mr. Frink also spoke in favor of having the plant repaired and Mr. Jones said that he would be glad to report on the matter.

On motion the council adjourned.

CARLETON CO. BOY BURNED TO DEATH

Woodstock, June 28—The twelve-year-old son of Gilbert Giberson, of Bath, parish of Kent, was burned to death and Mr. Giberson is at the Fishers Memorial Hospital suffering from bad burns. The other night Mr. and Mrs. Giberson and two children retired. A fire started and the house was enveloped in flames before the parents awoke. Mrs. Giberson and one child escaped outdoors and Mr. Giberson rushed upstairs to save the boy but he fell through the burned flooring. Nothing was saved in the house or barn. The house was owned by Geo. Kinney.

CIRCUIT COURT

In the case of Fraser vs. Jarvis, which was begun before His Honor Judge Chandler in the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon, the matter of a transaction connected with the alleged sale of a combination typewriting machine valued at $1,071, was told of. It was said to have been sold early in 1920 by the local manager of A. M. Fraser, agent for the Remington Typewriter Co., to C. E. L. Jarvis & Son, insurance agents, for the figure mentioned, but no payment was made for it as it was alleged by the defendants that it was not satisfactory and not according to the representations made. Mr. Fraser, whose office is in Halifax, gave evidence yesterday and the matter was adjourned until today.

Letters concerning the matter of the alleged sale were placed in evidence and most of the time of the hearing was taken up with Mr. Fraser's testimony in connection with these. F. R. Taylor, K. C., appeared for the plaintiffs, and Ted & Ted for the defendants.

GOLD MEDALS AT MOUNT CARMEL

Holiday Closing of Boarding School and Commercial Class Today.

The boarding school and commercial class of Mount Carmel Academy, Burpee avenue, held its first commencement exercises this morning. The school has been in existence since September, 1920, and has had a most successful year. The commercial class is comprised of an exceptionally clever group of young ladies, graduates of St. Vincent's high school, and four of five of them have passed the matriculation examinations. Honor diplomas with gold medals were awarded the following young ladies: Misses Dorothy Hansen, Beatrice Farren, Jean V. Holmes, Florence G. Connolly, Helen M. Kennedy and Evelyn McCarthy. An average of ninety per cent. at least is required for this honor. Nellie Callaghan received a commercial diploma, and Dorothy Ahern a diploma in stenography. The presentation of diplomas was made by Rev. T. MacDonald, who represented the Rt. Rev. Mgr. J. J. Walsh, V. G., on the occasion. Five dollars in gold was donated by Mr. Pencock, manager of the United Typewriter Company. This prize was equally merited by Dorothy Hansen and Jean Holmes, but by a final test it fell to Miss Holmes.

In the boarding school class, good progress has been made, and some of the pupils have written the High School entrance examinations, while others are preparing to take the Normal school entrance examinations. Besides the school course, needlework, both plain and fancy, has been taught. Good music has had careful attention and a happy home life has been cultivated. The pupils, under the careful training of devoted teachers, have made great progress during the year.

$50,000 LIQUORS
FLOW IN GUTTER

New York Police Hold Back Thirsty Crowd as Whiskey and Wine are Poured Into the Street.

(New York Times.)
The gutters of Houston and Sheriff streets ran with whiskey and wine at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, when present prices were poured into the street and then chased into the sewer with fire hoses.
The liquor had been seized from twenty-seven owners. After ruling that these owners had possessed it illegally, Judge Alfred J. Talley, in General Sessions, ordered that it be destroyed and it was removed yesterday from a warehouse at Houston and Sheriff streets to the street.
The doomed whiskey and wine, contained in fifteen barrels, two kegs, seven demijohns, 400 bottles, one jug, one pitcher and one flask, was arranged in the centre of a hollow square of police reserves, who were keeping back a crowd which started at a few hundred and grew to several thousand when the light breeze began to disperse whiskey fumes over a considerable section of the east side.
Second Deputy Police Commissioner Leach was present to see that the liquor was all destroyed and that no human gullets collaborated in its annihilation. Commissioner Leach personally snote spouted forth at the rate of $1,000 worth a second. Inspector Davis, Captain McNeill and others followed by punching holes in the other run containers. Some corks were pulled, some bottles were broken. Scores of small streams, gurgling and splashing, filled depressions and crevices in the pavement and gradually rolled their alcoholic labyrinths to the gutter, where they disgorged into the main flood.

Shouts and screams came from the crowd, held back with difficulty by the human barricade of police reserves. "Stop him Stop him" shouted a policeman as Eli Liskowitz, thirty-one of 470 Miller avenue, dashed between two policemen, who were busy at the gutter with several others. Liskowitz ran through the scattered field by dodging and using the straight arm. He scooped with both hands at the gutterful of rum fire, but he had to dodge and run so quickly that he spilled it all and could do no better than lick his fingers. Next he snatched his straw hat off his head, and tried to fill that porous receptacle from two bottles of whiskey which Commissioner Leach was emptying. He was hustled away, eating his hat.
Several children from the public school in Sheriff street, half a block away, joined the crowd and watched a scene which they may describe to their children and grandchildren in an age which has already begun to doubt that such a thing as rum ever did exist.
At high tide the gutter was completely filled and wavelets broke over upon the sidewalk. It quickly ebbed after the last bottle had been emptied. But, because of the unevenness of the pavement, hundreds of little lakes and bays of wine and whiskey remained. Streams from the fire hoses soon hit these, diluted and scattered them and sent them by way of the sewer into the bay.

according to recent despatches. The department of the interior contemplated establishing similar plants in the lignite areas of the United States, but has held off to ascertain with what success the Canadian experiment meets.
The plant has been erected as a result of the joint efforts of the dominion, Manitoba and Saskatchewan governments. The federal government has borne half the cost and the Manitoba and Saskatchewan governments the other half.

FLYING BOATS TO JOURNEY INTO NORTH

Edmonton, Alta., June 29—Three flying boats of five passenger capacity, will inaugurate a passenger airplane service from here to the north early in July, according to J. C. Gibson, managing director of the Great North Services. Mr. Gibson recently returned from the east, where he arranged for the shipment of the machines and interested a group of prominent brokers in Toronto, Montreal and New York in the Alberta-Mackenzie flying service and its allied schemes.
The company has been reorganized and an aerial service on a larger scale than originally proposed will be provided. Several big flying boats of a different type from those now on the way west, will be put on the route. They will have a capacity of 12-passengers each. The immediate programme of the company is stated to be the installation of an aerial service to Fort Norman and intermediate points.
A wireless telegraph service is under consideration and the company will go more extensively into prospecting and development work. These larger operations are being planned for next year.

BRIQUETTE PLANTS

Saskatchewan's New Industry Expected to be in Operation Next Month—$11 a Ton.
Winnipeg, Man., June 29—Lignite briquettes from the big plant at Bienfait, Sask., will likely be put on the market during July according to J. M. Leamy, Manitoba power commission and a member of the Lignite Utilization board. Most of the machinery has been installed, but as the lignite briquette process is an entirely new process, everything will be thoroughly tried out before the product is placed upon the market.
A meeting of the board to determine distribution methods and the price of the briquettes will be held shortly. A $11 a ton is the probable price. This is a little higher than was originally estimated, due to the increased cost of machinery, materials and labor.
The United States government is closely watching the experiment at Bienfait.

HELD UP AND ROBBED IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

Hundreds of Women and Children See Man Black-jacked by One of Three Highwaymen.

New York, June 29—In broad daylight and in the presence of several hundred women and children Anthony Hartoflen, 43 years old, of 14 Amsterdam Avenue and Fifty-ninth street by three men. One of the robbers black-jacked Hartoflen and two went through his pockets, taking $15 and two bank books.
The screams of women and children attracted Patrolman Turtle of the West Forty-seventh Street station, but before he came Hartoflen's assailants had fled. Bystanders told the policeman the men ran westward in Fifty-ninth Street and turned into West End Avenue.
Hartoflen was carried across the street to the Roosevelt Hospital. Dr. Finch said the man's forehead had been cut and it was possible that the skull had been fractured.
Harry Schoenfeld, a painter and decorator, in business at 544 East Twelfth Street, who lives at 1,037 Hoe Avenue, the Bronx, was robbed of a $200 diamond stickpin, a $750 diamond ring and $200 in front of his home early in the day, the police reported.
A man described by Schoepfeld as a molaite met him in the court yard of the house where the contractor lives and asked to be told how to get to Southern Boulevard. A moment later another man, a negro, appeared with a revolver and made Schoenfeld hold up his hands while he relieved him of his jewels and money.
About a week ago Harry Schlesinger, a jewelry merchant of 985 Hoe Avenue, was held up at the same place and robbed of jewels valued at $2,000.

NAVY PERFECTS STAR SHELL

Success Marks its Use as a Substitute for Searchlight at Sea.
Washington, June 29—Extensive experiments to develop the use of "star shells" as a substitute for searchlights in searching for enemy craft are being conducted by the Navy Department with what some officers describe as considerable success.
A "flashless" powder is being used in propelling the shells from the guns. The shells light up the sea for a wide area and officers explain that if they can be projected without a betraying flash from the ship firing them they will be a far advance over the searchlight, as the beams from the latter betray the exact location of the ship projecting them.
It is said that experiments have now reached the point where "star shells" that will illuminate for several minutes a great area of the sea far distant from the firing ship have been perfected, and along with them a powder which shows no flame or flash when the "star shells" are projected from the ship. For guns of three inches or smaller, the new system is said to work almost perfectly, but in the large guns it is understood that all of the flash of discharge has not yet been eliminated.

CRUMBS OF COMFORT IN THE INDUSTRIAL OUTLOOK IN CANADA
(Montreal Gazette.)

The analysis of living costs made public by the Department of Labor shows that the peak of high prices in Canada was reached in July of last year when the average was 101 per cent. higher than the figure for December, 1913. From the maximum reached a year ago there has been a steady and substantial recession, greater, perhaps, than is indicated in the statistics quoted. These, if they are to be accepted, reveal a decline to 92 per cent. in December, 1920, and to 72 per cent. in May last. It is interesting to note that the rise in house rents, which amounted to 89 per cent. in December of last year—a figure which will appear to most people as surprisingly low—did not stop there but had reached forty per cent. last month. The reasons for this are well known, prohibitive labor costs having retarded house-construction and under a field for investment. Even the price of fuel, which had risen to 118 per cent. last December, showed a slight decline in May. We have already shown why anything more than a seasonal variation in these prices is impossible in view of the existing wage standard established under the authority of the United States government. That standard will be maintained upon an arbitrary basis until March, 1922, and will stand as an effective bar against relief for the consumer so far as anthracite coal is concerned. In the building trades, labor has already realized the impossibility, in a number of Canadian cities—and notably in Ottawa—of enforcing its demands and with a readjustment of costs in this industry the situation ought to show a progressive improvement.

If the statistics offered by the Department of Labor refer to retail prices, those, that is to say which are actually paid by the consumer, they are not to be accepted as accurately reflecting the downward price tendency. So far as they go, however, they are useful as illustrating the weakness of the contention put forward by labor spokesmen in their effort to impede the inevitable downward movement in wages.

A material decline in the cost of living is a crumb of comfort in a period of industrial depression accompanied by widespread unemployment. It would become much more than a crumb if the readjustment were permitted to take its natural course, and will produce substantial benefits when obstructive tactics now being employed, chiefly by international labor organizations, are either defeated or abandoned. It will combine with other factors in fighting the load the consumer and in hastening an industrial recovery. Conditions in the western provinces promise an abundant harvest, and if this promise is fulfilled, the effect upon business will be a beneficial one, even if the crop must be marketed at a relatively low price. There is encouragement also in that prospect for the consumer, in the influence which a great cereal harvest will exert upon food prices, including those of meats. Reports received and made public by Messrs. R. C. Dun & Co., in a renewal of activity in a limited list of manufacturing industries and a tone of optimism is noted, similar conditions being recorded in a statement of the Canadian Credit Men's Trust Association in the West. These are encouraging signs. It would be unwise to attach too great importance to them, or to assume that scattered instances of slight recovery presage a widespread and permanent movement. The basic causes of the prevailing depression are still present and are not confined to Canada of to this continent. The reaction from the artificial conditions brought about by the war has still to run its course and shutting our eyes to its dangers will not deliver us from them. At the same time, there are the encouraging factors already noted, and they are by no means negligible.
