DRIVING PARTY.

A driving party of a dozen young people left the village on Thursday night for Rockland where they spent a very enjoyable evening, the guests of Miss Barnes at the Free Baptist Parsonage. Music, both instrumental and vocal was the order of the evening, the most entertaining feature of which, was some selections on the violin which certainly were ably executed by Walter Moore, the popular young representative of the firm of Clark & Co.; of St. Stephen, Miss Barnes accompanied him on the organ. The roads being in excellent condition, the night clear and fine, the ride as well as the visit was greatly enjoyed by the Hartlanders. From the enthusiastic expressions of some of the young ladies the male members of the party have no reason to be ashamed of the speed of their chargers. Said one of them, "I never saw such a horse. Why, you know, the wheels seemed scarcely to touch the ground as we whirled along!"

Fire Alarm.

A lamp accidentally over-turned in the residence of L. E. McFarland caused an alarm of fire to be rung. The hose cart was on the scene in three minutes, but in less time than that all danger of a conflagration was passed.

It readily seems too bad that while the boys turn out with such astonishing alacrity, no real opportunity has ever been presented for a genuine test. This is only one way of looking at it, however.

Saw Mill Burned.

A shingle mill belonging to E. W. Goslin of Tilley settlement, Victoria Co was totally destroyed by fire on Monday. The mill was a portable one, constructed last fall, and was doing a good business. Heavy forest fires had been raging in the vicinity and it was from that source that the mill caught. Enough shingle rift for the summer's cut was also consumed. There was no insurance, and the loss was heavy. Mr. Goslin, it is said, will not be able to build again.

Prominent Man Dead.

William L. Drier, of Connell an aged, and well known citizen died on Sunday. The burial took place on Wednesday. Deceased occupied a prominent position in municipal politics in years gone by, and had amassed considerable wealth.

Note of Thanks.

Mrs. John T. Jones wishes to thank, through the columns of the ADVERTISER the friends who so kindly assisted at the burial of her husband which took place Thursday, at Hartland.

24th AT ANDOVER.

Andover did honor to the Queen in fine style on the occasion of her 80th birthday.

At 9.30 a. m. there was a grand bicycle parade, both ladies and men taking part therein. Several bicycles races immediately followed the parade and the names of Fred Baird and Harold Perley were prominent among the prize winners.

In the afternoon there was a ball game and other sports, while the evening brought a grand native minstrel show in Beveridge's Hall.

The days sports lacked the enlivening influence of a band, and by the way it is a matter of regret that the Andover band, once so proficient, no longer exists.

Curious Husband.

WINDSOR, Ont. May 21.—Charles Ramote disappeared from his home in Windsor twenty-four years ago and nothing was heard of him till a few days ago, when he surprised his wife by coolly walking into the house. His son, who had been a baby when the father left home, was grown to man's estate, and was supporting his mother. Ramoth said he had been all over the world, and always intended to return home as soon as he had a little money by him, but that time never came. His wife received him with open arms, and he remained, apparently quite contented, till yesterday, when he again disappeared.

A Buctouche Boy in Luck.

A Buctouche correspondent of the Review writes: The many friends of Mr. Duncan D. McEachrane will be glad to hear that he has been left a fortune in Scotland, where his grandparents came from. The word received states that in a short time Mr. McEachrane will come into possession of a fortune of $40,000. Mr. D. D. McEachrane is well known here, being an only son of a well-to-do farmer up river but of late years he has not been around here. He is employed as surveyer by Mr. Thomas C. Burns, of Kingston.

"Up-To-Date" is a Relative Term.

There is a certain bicycle firm who strenuously object to the expression "up-to-date" being applied to their wheels. It is a general term which might be applied to other wheels with 1898 improvements, but it is not enough to say for the wheel that is an absolute pattern for other makers who try to imitate. To say a wheel is "up-to-the-Cleveland" means more than to say it is "up-to-date." You would hardly say "the sun is on time"—it makes the time; nor would you say the Cleveland bicycle is "up-to-the-standard," for it is itself the standard.—Telegram, March 2, '98. Adv.

Concert at Knowlesville.

The Concert which was given in the Methodist church at Hartland on the 17th inst will be repeated with a few changes in the Free Baptist church at Knowlesville on Thursday evening next June 2nd. The admission will be 15c the proceeds to go toward Connexional funds.

TALMAGE'S TRIBUTE.

Three weeks ago Dr. Talmage, in his sermon, said: There lies dying at Hawarden, England, one of the most wonderful men that ever lived since the ages of time began their roll. He is the chief citizen of the whole world. Three times has he practically been king of Great Britain. Again and again coming from the house of commons, which he had thrilled and over-awed by his eloquence on Saturday, on Sunday morning reading prayers for the people with illumined countenance and brimming eyes and resounding voice, saying: "I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord."

The world has no other such man to lose as Gladstone. The church has no other such champion to mourn over. I shall never cease to thank God that on Mr. Gladstone's invitation I visited him at Hawarden and heard from his own lips his belief in the authenticity of the Holy scriptures, and the divinity of Jesus Christ and the grandeurs of the world to come. At his table and in the walk through his grounds I was impressed as I was never before, and probably will never be again, with the majesty of a nature all consecrated to God and the world's betterment. In the presence of such a man what have those to say who profess to think that our religion is a pusillanimous and weak and cowardly and unreasonable affair? Matchless William E. Gladstone!

The Tale of a Dog And His Tail.

The Portland Argus is responsible for the following: This is the tale of a dog—or rather the tale of a tail of a dog—and a bicycle. It came to pass that about the 11th hour of the morning watch of Sunday a man of the name of Samuel, his other name being no matter what, was trundling calmly along the street that is called Commercial, Portland, on his bicycle, and his dog called Knox trotted on before. Now the wicked flea when no man pursueth, but Knox was not wicked so he did not flee even when his master Samuel pursued. He kept just about two paces in front of the forward wheel of Samuel—that is of his bicycle—and his tail hung down behind.

Suddenly the wicked flea grew hungry and made his presence known near the roots of the dog's, Knox, tail. Knox straightway sat him down on the stones and proceeded to annihilate that flea. He had no desire to annihilate his master Samuel, for Samuel was kind to Knox, but he did.

Samuel was so near Knox that he could not turn out and he ran over Knox's tail. Then Knox stopped chastising the flea and lifted up his voice and wept. It was such a doleful wail and sounded so near that Samuel was sore afraid and rose up on his pedals and then he fell down, he and his bicycle.

When he got up he was a sight, verily he was more, he was a pair of sights, even more so than the parasite that caused his downfall. His bicycle escaped without injury, but Samuel will need some new bloomers.

Maine Not Afraid.

"I think it is all nonsense to talk of Spain's making an attack on the Maine coast," said a Belfast man this week. "It is still more foolish for a city like Bath or Belfast to have any fears of bombardment. A Spanish vessel isn't going to take the chances of running up a Maine river without a pilot—and pilots she can't secure. Furthermore, a vessel of light enough draft to run the risks of river navigation isn't going to a place where she is liable to be penned in by a cruiser. The trip of the Columbia and Minneapolis shows that Uncle Sam can protect any point of his coast line on mighty short notice. Let an enemy's vessel be sighted by any of the signal boys on the coast and inside of an hour one of our squadron will be on her trail. The papers have not said much about the signal stations along the New England seaboard, but in my opinion they're worth a whole squadron of those old smooth bore guns which they're setting up in the old earth works. Our cruisers travel so fast that it doesn't take one of them long to cruise from Newport to Eastport and woe to the solitary Spaniard who ventures very near the Maine coast. That's my opinion. I don't believe there is anything to get scared over and I'm not going to lose any sleep by lying awake to listen for Spanish guns."—Bangor Commercial.

Domestic Felicity.

Maintained in Families where Diamond Dyes Are Used.

The happiest, best regulated and most economical families in the Dominion are regular users of the world-famous Diamond Dyes. Domestic felicity is ever maintained, because the Diamond Dyes are true and unfailling in work, and money is saved by their use. No other Dyes can boast of such strong words of praise from users.

Mrs. T. Lavin, Newark, Ont., says: "Have used many other make of dyes, but find the Diamond Dyes ahead of all, as they give the best and fastest colors."

Mrs. Silas Daury, Mahone Bay, N. S., says: "Your Diamond Dyes give me entire satisfaction. I have used other makes, but have settled on the good, old and reliable Diamond Dyes."

Mrs. Joseph Weir, Sutton Junction, P. Q., says: "Have used Diamond Dyes for the last ten years, and they have given me great satisfaction; I can recommend them to all as the best."

Mrs. G. A. Tory, Red Deer, N. W. T., says: "I have given your Diamond Dyes a fair trial and find them excellent; failure is impossible if the directions are followed."

Miss Gussie Crawford, Kingston, N. B., says: "Have just dyed an old skirt a beautiful Seal Brown with your Diamond Dyes, and am much pleased with result. I make my Black ink from your late Diamond Dye, and it is the only kind of ink I have used for years, and I do a great deal of writing."

Mrs. John Leslie, Port Colborne, Ont., says: "I have used Diamond Dyes in all the colors, and I can safely say they do all you claim for them."

Springfield Republican: There is a conundrum as to Mr. Gladstone. Of a word of 11 letters, six signify what he loved, five what he hated; the whole word spoken quickly indicates where his enemies wanted to put him; spoken slowly it means what he was always trying to do. What is the word? Nothing can be simpler. Reformatory.

BLOOMFIELD.

Everything is very quiet here today.

There was no attempt at celebration except that F. G. Stokoe had the Union Jack floating over his hall until the rain compelled him to take it down.

The family of William Kidney was increased by the birth of a son on Sunday.

Mr. Taylor of the Amherst Boot & Shoe Co., and Mr. Miles of W. H. Thorne & Co., St. John were at G. H. Stokoe's last week.

W. A. Jewett, and Gid Merrithew have returned from Montana.

Mrs. Jewett and the rest of the family are recovering from the fever.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cheney spent Sunday at Jacksonville with her mother Mrs. Jane Kearney who is in ill health.

M. P. Dunn, one of our old and respected inhabitants passed away very suddenly at his home on Monday morning at nine o'clock. His death was not altogether unexpected as he has been troubled with heart disease all winter and had two or three very bad spells but he seemed as well as usual and had driven about a mile to take his cows to pasture, and had just come in from putting his horse up, and had gotten the saw and axe and was going to fix a drag, when he took a very bad spell and sat down on the verandah. His wife came and asked him what the matter was and he said "I feel very bad; worse than I ever have before," she asked him if he thought he was dying, he looked up but could not speak. She got him into the house and sent for help but he never spoke again and in a few minutes had ceased to breathe. The funeral will take place here tomorrow afternoon, Rev. Porter of Monticello is to conduct the services. The deceased was born at Jacksonville in September 1821. His widow and eight children survive him, three sons George, Charles and William are in Montana, but William is expected home to take charge of the farm.

He has one daughter Mrs. Jerry Graham in Oregon, another Mrs. Don Plummer at Fort Fairfield, another Mrs. Alfred Blackmore at Hartford, while one son and one daughter, Ben and Ella are at home. He has only one sister living, Mrs. Elizah Briggs of Monticello. He has been Post Master here for several years, and will be sadly missed in that capacity.

Related to Gladstone.

Few people know that relatives of the late Hon. W. E. Gladstone live in this city in the persons of the Messers Bryden, the well-known biscuit manufacturers. Mr. John Bryden, father of the present manager of the business, was a cousin of the dead statesman and frequently told his children stories of the great orator. Mr. Bryden was for some years a student in Mr. Gladstone's Sabbath school class and described him as a very earnest and interesting teacher.

A prominent lumberman told the Press that this year seventeen lumbermen lost their lives in driving the Upper St. John waters this season. To work at stream driving is evidently more hazardous than a trip to Klondyke.

Woodstock has now a first class Base Ball team, with Dr. G. B. Manzer as manager. New suits have been ordered and the club is known as "The Browns." On June 3rd they play the Ricker Institute team, of Houlton, which is one of the best in Maine.

On Tuesday evening, May 31st the steamer Aberdeen will run an excursion from Woodstock to Meductic and return, leaving Woodstock at 7.30 local time. Fare for the round trip will be 50 cents. The 67th Batt. Band of Hartland will furnish music for the occasion.

While Dr. Stelling and Roy Colter of Debec Junction were out fishing, their dog discovered the lair of some animals in which were six young ones. The dog killed three, but the doctor bore the rest home in triumph. Some pronounce them coons and some foxes, and it is to be hoped that some naturalist will be found who will determine to what genus and species they belong. Meanwhile the doctor is raising them on a bottle.

McAdam Booming—Track Repairs.

At McAdam a new town is being built. Last fall ten cottages were erected by the company and this year a large number of the employees are erecting houses for themselves. A town plot of 107 lots has been laid out in streets and lanes. The lots are on high ground and behind each row is a lane giving plenty of yard room. Considerable work is also being done repairing and improving the shops. A new brick blacksmith shop has been built and the erection of further additions is contemplated. A heavy water main has been laid sufficient to supply the whole village. The service will be an excellent one, the tank giving a head of water of seventy feet. An electric light plant is being put in to light the yards and shops as well as the villages. This being supplied by the Johnson Electric Co. of Toronto and it is expected will be in working order in about two weeks. There will be 300 incandescent lights and 12 or 15 arcs for the yards.

The contract has not yet been given out for the new station at McAdam Junction but work will be commenced on it as soon as the heavier work mentioned above is completed. The plans are now made out and the bids in. This station will be a great improvement on the present one. In addition to the dining hall will contain fifteen furnished rooms, making a combination station and hotel. When this is done and the yards and village are lighted by electricity the traveller who has spent so many weary hours waiting at the station will scarcely recognize the place.

The Fredericton line will be repaired and made somewhat smoother. On the line from McAdam to Edmundston, 139 new culverts are being placed. These will be of cedar and as they last 30 years are practically permanent, being easily renewed, and not being subject to the same damage as stone from breaking.

Mrs. M. A. Tompkins is spending a few days in Woodstock.

F. H. Noble has been quite ill for a few days, but we are pleased to know is now recovering.

Allan Tompkins of Bridgewater, has been visiting his brother W. B. Tompkins, of this place for several days, and on Saturday they drove up to Kilburn.

Dow Boyer and Anson Boyer have traded places, and each has moved his family into the house formerly occupied by the other.

Dow Boyer, president of the Parish S. S. Association, yesterday visited Mineral and Giberson Settlements and succeeded in having the Sunday Schools at those places re opened. He is now preparing to have a parish Convention.

G. H. Boyer is putting a handsome fence round his lot which will be a good advertisement for the Woodworking Factory, which he now controls.

The O'Donnells have declared war again, and on Saturday were before Magistrate Farley, charged with various offences against the peace. John O'Donnell was fined $5.00 and costs for throwing stones at his Uncle Tom, and the said Tom O'Donnell was fined $20 and costs for an indecent act. The examinations were attended with a good deal of interest. G. W. Melville appeared on behalf of Tom O'Donnell, while John was represented by Mr. Albert Orser, of Hartland.

The Cleveland the Favorite.

In Europe the highest honor conferred on a company is when Royalty buys their wares. In Canada, conditions are different. It is a source of pride to a Canadian to know that his goods are preferred to those of others. One of the greatest honors ever conferred on a Canadian firm was when the Toronto Police Department selected the Cleveland bicycle in competition as the mount for the Police Dept. Cycle Corps. This was just a year ago, and in their judgment and good opinion of the Cleveland bicycle they have not been disappointed, as proven by the fact that this year again the Cleveland bicycle has been once more selected as the official mount.

It is very necessary that the wheel selected should be very strong, as their occupation is very hazardous for wheels as well as for men. Stopping scooters, catching runaways and arresting reckless drivers are a few of their diversions—necessarily the wheels do not get any too tender treatment, and for satisfactory service a good machine able to stand the knocking about is required. That is the reason Cleverlands were officially adopted after extensive tests by the Police authorities.—Globe May 10, '98. Adv.

An Improvement Expected.

Presque Isle Star-Herald: There is general impression that the coming season will see an improvement in prices of farmers products, and that potatoes will share in the improvement. It would seem to be probable that the cleaning up of the starch market, and the upward tendency of most other food products will give the potato industry a better chance. Aroostock farmers are acting strongly in this impression of a prospect of improvement, and the way they are preparing to put in potatoes, and the way some of them are nibbling at the phosphate bait, is rather more illustrative of the proverb that "Hope springs eternal" etc., than it is of that more practical and common place truth that the "burnt child dreads the fire."

Riley And The Old Band.

This story is told of the poet Riley, now published for the first time, originated in a little town where the poet was stopping over night.

The leader of the village band, knowing that Riley had written a poem in which he expressed a preference for hearing "the old band play," thought it would be a good idea to serenade him with "such tunes as 'Swanny River' and John Anderson, My Joe," and accordingly the band surrounded his house in full force.

The poet was tired and had been sleeping soundly for some time; but, being awakened by the jarring discords without, took in the situation, thanked them in a neat speech for the midnight compliment, retired and addressed himself to sleep again. But it was no use. The band kept playing. Finally there was a lull in the music and the poet congratulated himself that the worst was over. In this he was mistaken. The band had only stopped for a breathing spell and a chew of tobacco. In a few minutes it was "making night hideous" again.

Riley stood it for two mortal hours. Then, rendered desperate, he raised the window sash and shouted:

"Boys, I like to hear the old band play; but, God bless you! I don't want to hear it play all night long?"

"Less go, boys," said the indignant leader. "That feller don't appreciate music!"—Ex.

Man's Best Friend.

First and foremost woman is man's best friend:

Because she is his mother.

Second, because she is his wife.

Because, without, her he would be rude, rough and ungodly.

Because she can with him endure pain quietly and meet joy gladly.

Because she is patient with him in illness, endures his fretfulness and "mothers" him.

Because she teaches him the value of gentle words, of kindly thought and of consideration.

Because on her breast he can shed tears of repentance, and he is never reminded of them afterward.

Because she will stick to a man through good and evil report, and always believe in him, if she loves him

Because, when he is behaving like a fretful boy—and they all do, you know at times—with no reason in the world for it, woman's soft word, or glance, will make him ashamed of himself, as he ought to be.

Because without her as an incentive he would grow lazy; there would be no good work done, there would be no noble books written, there would be no beautiful pictures painted, there would be no divine strains of melody.

Because—and this is the best reason of all—when the world has reached an unenviable state of wickedness the blessed task of bringing it a Saviour for all mankind was given to a woman, which was God's way of setting His seal of approval on her who is mother, wife, and daughter and sweetheart, and therefore, man's best friend.

Health and Happiness Bestowed on All Who Make Use of Paine's Celery Compound.

WELLS & RICHARDSON Co.,
GENTLEMEN:—I am very pleased to be able to tell you of the great good that I have derived from the use of your Paine's Celery Compound. Before using your valuable compound I was so crippled with rheumatism that I had to crawl on my hands and knees from one place to another. I also suffered from neuralgia and dreadful headaches, and could not get more than one or two hours of sleep each night. I often thought it would be better to die than live and endure my terrible agony.

I was happily advised to use Paine's Celery Compound and after use of six bottles the rheumatism and neuralgia are banished and I now eat, rest and sleep well. My present improved state of health is due entirely to the health-giving virtues of Paine's Celery Compound, which has done wonders for me. My husband is now using it for dyspepsia and it is doing wonders for him. My neighbours to whom I recommend Paine's Celery Compound have been greatly blessed.

Yours truly,

UNABLE TO WALK.

A Distressing Malady Cured by The Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Right in our own village is reported another of the remarkable cures that make Dr. Williams' Pink Pills so popular throughout the land. The case is that of Mrs. E. W. Millar. The ADVERTISER interviewed her husband, who was glad to relate the circumstances for publication, that others might read and have a remedy put into their hands, as it were. "For five years," said Mr. Millar, "my wife was unable to walk without aid. My physician diagnosed her case as coming from a spinal affection. Other doctors called the malady nervous prostration. Whatever the trouble was, she was weak and nervous. Her limbs had no strength and could not support her body. There also was a terrible weakness in her back. Three months ago she could not walk, but as a last resort, after trying many medicines, she began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Improvement was noted in a few days, and a few weeks have done wonders in restoring her health. To-day she can walk without assistance. You can imagine her delight as my own. We owe her recovery to Dr. William's Pink Pills and I recommend them for any case of nervous weakness or general debility. Of course my wife cannot as yet lay claim to a full or complete recovery, but I hope in a few weeks to report her as having attained such. she still continues to use the Pills and will do so as long as they lend their remarkable assistance.

Mr. Millar is part owner and manager of one of our lumber mills and is well known throughout the county.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease. They renew and build up the blood, and strengthen the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every box you purchase is enclosed in a wrapping bearing the full trade mark, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

In Memory of Jane Austen.

There is a project on foot in England to commemorate the genius of Jane Austen by a memorial window in Winchester Cathedral. Apropos of this a writer in the Sketch recalls a visit he paid some two years ago in Winchester Cathedral to see the tomb of Jane Austen. He found the cathedral official in charge ignorant that any such tomb existed but a walk around the church soon revealed the slab under which rest the great novelist's remains, as well as a brass tablet in the wall near by, which was placed there by her nephew and biographer, Austen Leigh, in 1870. Both the slab in the floor and the tablet are in an excellent state of preservation.

Miss Austen's works are but little read at the present day, despite the fact that Macaulay ranked her genius as second only to that of Shakespeare. She herself might have posed as one of her own heroines. Gentle and mild, as well as beautiful and graceful, her whole life was colored by a disappointment in a love affair. Born in Hampshire, in 1775, and educated by her father, the rector of Steventon, her life was singularly calm and peaceful, and she herself was a model of filial affection and piety.

Again, like one of her own heroines, Miss Austen was always more or less delicate; robust health, at that time, in a woman was looked upon much as bloomers are to-day—as something unfeminine, unladylike, and deserving of sternest reprobation on the part of other women. She died in her 42nd year of consumption, working to the very last.

Boston Herald: The curfew laws that have been passed in numerous towns up in western Massachusetts appear to be operating very much like the papal bull against the comet. They are not enforced, and no heed is paid to them, either by the authorities or by the children on the streets after night-fall. This movement to substitute by-laws for parental discipline operates as might be expected in sensible communities.

The Doctrine Applied.

"I beg your pardon—do you believe in the Monroe doctrine?"

At the earnestness of the voice the man who sat opposite, riding backward with his feet perched on the other end of the speaker's seat, looked up from his paper.

"You bet I do!" he said, emphatically. "Then," and there was triumph in the other's voice, "you must recognize my right to expel any foreign from the this territory!"

He did. And all the car laughed.

Memoria' from the passengers to the Captain and Officers of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Steamship "Tartar."

2nd May 1898.

We, the undersigned, passengers on both classes on board the S. S. "Tartar" on her first voyage from Vancouver to Skaguay, hereby desire to express our sincere appreciation of the enterprise of the C. P. R. in having provided so excellent service and the best of accommodation for first and second class travellers to the Yukon and other points of the Golden North. We are agreed that the accommodation provided for the second class is better than that provided for first class passengers in other steamers running North from Vancouver, while the first class is equal in every respect to that of any steamship service on the Atlantic. We also wish to express our sincere appreciation of great care and attention displayed by Commander Archibald and all his officers without exception in the navigation of the ship through waters so little known and hitherto unsailed by any passenger steamer of so large a tonnage. We feel that we are indeed in luck in having taken our passage with officers who are at once both capable and courteous and hereby congratulate them on the success of the voyage.
