Russians Defeated With Fearful Loss.

Japs Prove Their Superiority in the Greatest Battle of the War.

General Kuraki's headquarters in the field, via Pusan, July 18 (Delays in transmission)—More Russian troops were engaged in yesterday's battle at Mao-Tien Pass than in previous engagements. There were probably double the number of those who took part in the fight at Yalu River, while opposed to the Japanese forces. The Russian loss is estimated at 8,000. The burial of the dead continues. The Japanese casualties aggregate 300. The engagement has conspicuously demonstrated the wonderful efficiency of the Japanese infantry. They proved incomparably the better marksmen, with more initiative and they outflanked and outgeneraled the Russians on every point.

PORT ARTHUR DEFENDERS CONFIDENT.

MUKDEN, July 18.—A letter received here from Port Arthur shows that the besieged have implicit confidence in the ability of Lieut. General Sossel to keep out the Japanese. The writer says, "Lieutenant-General Sossel's certainty of victory" has imparted equal confidence to all the troops and inhabitants. Major-General Fock is now engaged in resisting the pressure of the Japanese at our advanced position, and the siege will drag on for a long time. General Kondratieff is adding to the fortifications of Port Arthur, making them stronger daily. On his previous day's considered impossible to fortify batteries and entrenchments have now been constructed and guns of both large and small calibre have been mounted. The co-operation of the generals has made Port Arthur an inaccessible fortress.

RUSSIANS SEIZE P. AND O. STEER.

SUEZ, July 18.—The Peninsular and Oriental steamer Malacca, captured in the Red Sea, has arrived here flying the Russian naval flag. She is now in command of Russian naval officers and carries a prize crew from the volunteer fleet steamer St. Petersburg. The Malacca will pass through the canal.

BRITISH PROTEST.

LONDON, July 18.—In British official circles the recent seizure and overhauling of British ships in the Red Sea by the Russian volunteer steamer Smolensk and St. Petersburg, are regarded as very grave international incidents. The seizure of the Peninsular and Oriental steamer Malacca by the St. Petersburg, and her capture in the Red Sea as a prize of war on her way to Libau, on the Baltic, has come as a climax and the cabinet is considering the course to pursue. The British law officers acknowledge the right of the Russians to seize and detain mail provided that only official communications are seized, but take the most serious view of the status of the two Russian ships called the Red Sea and if any official action or protest ensues it will be chiefly in regard to the passage of these vessels while merchant ships through the Dardanelles and their subsequent transformation into ships of war.

A SYMPATHY STRIKE IS THREATENED.

But Meat Packers are Obdurate and Say They Can Get Along Without Strikers.

CHICAGO, July 18.—A final effort to secure a basis for arbitration in the stockyards strike, an agreement between the packers that all employees on strike shall be reinstated within a specified time was made today by President Donnelly of the butcher workmen. In a letter to J. Ogden Armour, president Donnelly declared that if this concession is made, a sympathy strike of about 14,000 other workmen at the yards will be called. The packers continue to hire men to take the places of the strikers. They say they will be able to operate their plants, even if the sympathetic strike is called. Operations at the yards have reached fifty per cent. of the normal business in the large packing houses and the announcement was made that the output in all departments would be increased daily.

"Yes, she rejected him because of a bad break he made when he was proposing to her." "What was that?" "He told her she was 'one in a thousand.' She thinks she's one out of the Four Hundred."

DEATH, N. B., July 18.—Thomas Cemmack, murderer, is dying. Rather than give himself up to the authorities who were pursuing him, he shot himself through the head last night, lies today unconscious, and at the point of death. Doctors are using every effort to bring him back to the patient that awaits him in this world, but no hope is entertained that their efforts will be successful.

The dying man's son, Walter Cemmack, is under arrest as an accomplice. Recently received details of the horrible murder of William Doherty and the wounding of his two brothers tend to confirm the statement in the Star yesterday that jealousy of his wife—or rather the woman who lived with him as his wife—who has lately refused to stay any longer with him, led Cemmack to commit the awful crime.

About noon on Sunday, Cemmack met one of the Doherty boys, a brother of his wife, in company with his wife, returning from church. He asked to speak with her, and she went with him. Cemmack went away in a rage, but again returned to the Doherty house where his wife, who left him in May last, has been living with her brother.

Then he made his way into a room, raised his rifle, lighted a match and fired at the Doherty boys, hitting him in the jaw. Then he fired at another Doherty boy, hitting him in the forehead. Then William Doherty, an older brother, came to their assistance and he was shot dead.

When he then hit his wife, who was next aroused by the noise, on the head with a stick of wood and beat and tore her clothing off, she fled to a neighbor's house. When she arrived there the neighbors say she had no night clothing on, it being all torn from her and her face was cut and bleeding from several large wounds.

The Doherty house was set on fire by either Thomas Cemmack or Walter Cemmack, his son, who, it seems, held the horse while his father was in the house. The house was burnt to the ground and the remains of William Doherty with it. The other inmates managed to escape.

The character of the Cemmacks is reputed to be of the highest for honesty. One of the elder sons of Thomas Cemmack, by a former wife, is married to a sister of William Doherty, who was married to her mother, the late Mrs. Thomas Cemmack, to which it is said he was very much opposed. This is thought to be the part for Cemmack's hatred of the man he murdered.

The character of the Dohertys is reputed good. The house that was burnt to the ground and finished and they owned a good farm. William Doherty had a good farm and snug house of his own and had $300 in cash, which was burned with the house.

Deputy Foster was notified and arrived by way of Glassville Monday morning. Constable Wolverson from Woodstock arrived in the afternoon. They arrested Walter Cemmack on the road to the Cemmack house and neighbors arrested Thomas Cemmack before the arrival of Deputy Foster, but their prisoner shot himself through the head before Deputy Foster arrived and cannot live.

Thomas Cemmack is a man of about 60 years of age and has been twice married. He has a grown up family by his first wife. His second wife connected with the above tragedy, was married to Boyd, who is now serving a 25 years' sentence in Dorchester.

A coroner's inquest was held yesterday afternoon on the spot where the murder was committed. The jurymen were John McIntosh (foreman), Robert Elliott, Martin Farrar, Ralph Grey, Wm. Elliott, James Love, Rev. Mr. Gilson (Presbyterlan), Archie Scott was coroner and Wm. Martin, constable.

The following is the verdict: "William Doherty came to his death by a revolver shot fired by Thomas Cemmack."

Very Rev. W. F. Chapman, V. G. of St. John the Baptist church, who for some years was parish priest of Johnville, Carleton county, and the surrounding district is well acquainted with the lives, habits and surroundings of the parties interested in the tragedy. The principals of the tragedy lived in the quiet and peaceful settlement of Chapmanville, which is in the northern part of Carleton county, partly in the parishes of Kent and Aberdeen. Doherty lived in the Aberdeen side, which is about thirty-five miles north of Woodstock, Chapmanville is situated in a wilderness about fifteen miles east from the railway line and river, the nearest villages being Bath and Bristol, on the river bank. It is a farming and agricultural district.

Father Chapman is of the opinion that Cimmie was born in the parish of Lancaster and still has relatives in St. John county. Cimmie worked about the mills here till the big fire of 1877 when he went to Carleton county. While here he married, his wife being a member of a respectable Roman Catholic family, while Cimmie is a Protestant. About eighteen years ago he and strong leaving him with a family of eight. Two years later he married again, his wife being a Protestant, a sister of the Doherty boys. Cimmie then seemed to have started on a wandering life and spent a great deal of his time on the road as a peddler. His family scattered widely, the children differing in their religious views.

Father Chapman thinks Cimmie is a man of about fifty or fifty-five years of age. He possessed a violent temper and has a quarrelsome nature. He was a hard worker at his calling, was smart, and a good woodsman. He had a fair amount of property, including some weights and about five feet ten inches in height. In build he was well set and strong.

On account of his quarrelsome nature he was frequently becoming embroiled in troubles with his neighbors at Chapmanville, but nothing serious was the outcome of these breaks. He was not a hard-drinking man.

BURGLARS AT WORK.

Premises of St. John Mercantile Co. Broken Into — Bold Robbery at Hampton.

Last night some party or parties broke into the premises of the St. John Mercantile Co., on North Wharf, but got little of value from their trouble.

When the clerk who opens up the premises reached the office this morning he was surprised to find that the Yale lock of the front door had been broken and the door secured by a police lock. He soon secured admittance and upon entering the office found several drawers pulled out and a lot of tinmed goods piled against one of the doors. When the manager and F. R. Titus arrived they made a careful examination of the safes, but they had not been tampered with. The warehouse men discovered that one box of Index tobacco had been tampered with and upon entering the office, as far as can be ascertained by the manager up to the present time, this is all that was stolen.

Messrs. Gandy & Allen, next door, did not get off so easy, however. No effort was seemingly made to force the door, but the miserable wretch or wretches who did the trick vented their spite or satisfied their low motive by ripping open numerous bags of goods that were piled on the wharf. There were two large piles, one close to the warehouse and the other on the cap of the wharf. Almost every bag was cut open and many of them were ripped open in several places.

HOBBERY AT HAMPTON.

HAMPTON, N. B., July 18.—Between midnight and daylight this morning burglars broke into W. H. March's blacksmith shop by knocking off boards from a disused window and carried off a brace, some horseshoes, punches and other tools which they evidently found unsalutary to their purposes as they left them outside and on the platform of R. H. Smith's store close by which building they entered by snatching the glass panel of the front door. Here they lighted two candles which they left on the counter after they had gathered up such goods as they chose, including a case of pocket knives, a case of razors, cards of watch chains, studs and other jewelry and sundry groceries, fruit, biscuits and a number of bottles of ginger ale and similar liquors. The post office was also entered from the store but the mails were not interfered with. No signs of the depredation were found under the warehouse platform this morning. Suspicion attaches to some local characters of ill repute, but no definite clue to the parties has been obtained. Three tramps are reported to have been about here yesterday but nothing has been seen of them today. They may have gone city-wards on the early morning express. Mr. Smith is unable to give any estimate of his losses.

The lecture upon Missionary Travels in Tibet, announced for delivery tomorrow at St. John's schoolhouse, has been postponed until Thursday evening.

NEW CHURCH CONSECRATED.

Bishop Kingdon Formally Opens St. Peter's Church at Westfield With Solemn Ceremony.

The consecration of St. Peter's Episcopal church at Westfield took place this morning. The service began at eleven o'clock and was conducted by His Lordship Bishop Kingdon, assisted by Dean Partridge and the pastor, Rev. W. D. Bell.

Shortly after eleven o'clock a member of the congregation appeared at the door of the church and in the name of the incumbent and church warden read a petition praying the bishop to consecrate the church. Followed by his clergy the bishop slowly walked up the centre aisle of the church, while the 24th Psalm was being sung. The bishop then offered prayer, after which Dean Partridge read the deed of consecration.

The sermon was preached by Dean Partridge, who took his text from Matthew 15, 18: "Upon this rock I will build my church; and Matthew 28, 19th and 20th verses: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel. He went at length into the meaning of the service of consecration, animating them on the Apostolic succession and the divine origin of the church.

This evening His Lordship Bishop Kingdon will hold the confirmation service. The interior of the church presents a pleasing appearance, being throughout totally new. The blessed cross which was placed on the altar this morning for the first time is the gift of Ludlow Nase, in memory of his deceased wife, and she was set upon and merely defended himself. Officer Perry swore to seeing Halifax strike a man and knock him down, also to the bad language, Halifax said he paid his fine he would only have a dollar or so and he wanted to get back to Chipman. A payment of $15 was accepted and he was allowed to go.

POLICE COURT.

South African Veteran Fined—North End Man Assaults a Chinaman.

In the police court this morning two drunks were fined the usual amount, and paid up.

Joseph Halifax, an Englishman, with several South African medals, who has been working at Chipman for some short time was fined twenty dollars for fighting and using obscene language in a rooming house. Halifax explained to Sitting Magistrate Henderson that he had come to the city to endeavor to get the privileges of running some sort of a machine at Sea side Park. He went into the bar near the depot and put a dollar on the counter. He turned round to light his pipe and when he looked for his money it was gone. He asked who took it and was immediately hustled into the street. Later he passed that way and was set upon and merely defended himself. Officer Perry swore to seeing Halifax strike a man and knock him down, also to the bad language, Halifax said he paid his fine he would only have a dollar or so and he wanted to get back to Chipman. A payment of $15 was accepted and he was allowed to go.

Thomas McNulty pleaded guilty to striking a Chinaman in the North End and was fined twenty dollars, the fine being allowed to stand pending his good behavior. McNulty's story is to the effect that he asked the Chinaman to change a quarter for him and that he only received six cents from the Oriental.

COL. TUCKER'S COLLEAGUE. Even with the latitude allowed in the tactics of political warfare the Gazette's sneer at Dr. Daniel because he is the colleague of Colonel Tucker must be considered unfair.

It is the colleague of Colonel Tucker must be considered unfair. If the Conservative member for this constituency were to blame in the matter, no journal with any instincts of mercy could but feel that the humiliation of seeing his name bracketed with that of Colonel Tucker during the rest of the present parliamentary term would be a punishment enough for the man without having it continually rubbed in; but when it is so evident to all fair-minded people that the association is Dr. Daniel's misfortune, not his fault, one would think that just opponents, finding nothing in his own record to attack him on, would have the decency to keep silent on this point.

Those of us who support Dr. Daniel cannot see where there is room for any other sentiment with reference to the disesteemed conjunction save sympathy and a growing pride in his manful efforts to live the stigma down.

But it must be admitted that, greatly handicapped as he is by being open to sneers as "the colleague of Colonel Tucker," the man who won the splendid victory in St. John last March has some compensations. It is possible that he would not have shown up so prominently during his first session as an M. P. had he not had the blank dulness of his associate as a foil. In an assembly accustomed, since Mr. Blair's resignation, to hear no word spoken on St. John's behalf, save by a member of some other constituency, it is not unnatural that a new man; proving himself eager for his city's welfare, faithful in his interests, small and great, and well able to speak for her in any of the great affairs that come before the governing body of Canada—it is not unnatural that such a man should attract and hold respect and attention.

And that Dr. Daniel has won the attentive respect of the house, has won its esteem as an earnest and able representative and a forceful participant in all debates in which the welfare of his constituents is directly or indirectly concerned, cannot be doubted by any who have followed the reports of the last session. With the same unselfish devotion to his city and his party that led him to accept an unwelcome nomination, he has, to the neglect of his personal interests, labored conscientiously and faithfully, day and night, through the wearisome session just closing and has left undone not one little bit of work in his power that might be for the good of this city, which has the honor to have him as its representative.

That St. John is grateful for his efforts will be proved when the opportunity comes. And, as one token of its thanks, Dr. Daniel can rest assured that when he goes back to Ottawa after the coming election, he will go freed from the humiliation of being "the colleague of Colonel Tucker."

The Ottawa Citizen is alarmed at the anti-imperialistic tendencies of the present government as especially instanced in the Dunderberg affair. It says: "First, they get rid of the British general in command of the Canadian forces; next they expunge the king's name entirely from the new militia act, and substitute the Canadian cabinet as the authority to which all Canadian soldiers shall direct their allegiance; and lastly, the soldier's conduct is forbidden to serve out of Canada unless and until parliament assembles and gives permission for them to do so. If this is not a serious and premeditated weakening of the British and imperial tie all along the line, we would like to know what it is."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has declared that if the Georgian Bay canal is constructed it must be as a government work. The premier will not sanction company owned canals. That rule holds until Senator Cox and the Grand Trunk want a canal. Then Sir Wilfrid will be willing to make one and give it to them.—Sun.

VICTORY IN COURT. (From the New York Herald.) Rufus W. Peckham, Judge of the supreme court, tells the story of a young lawyer who was trying his first case. "Evidently," he said, "he had studied it until he knew it by heart. He began speaking. When he had arrived about half way we decided the case in his favor and told him so. But he had not gone and found it impossible to stop. On and on he went, like an automobile past control. At length one of the judges, leaning forward, said suavely: "Mr. —, in spite of your arguments we have decided to conclude this case in your favor."

"Let me sell you this book. You will find it very entertaining. 'Don't want it. Get out.' 'You're wife and children would enjoy it.' 'Have no wife or children; only a cat.' 'Exactly it. You will find it useful to throw occasionally at the cat.'"

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

OTTAWA, July 18.—Parliament will some business today and much talking, with the mercury at 2 p. m. 97 in the shade. It was the hottest day for two years.

Replying to questions, Laurier said the election lists for all provinces were well advanced in the printing bureau. All from Nova Scotia and in except Cape Breton South and Hants, and all are printed with the exception of those of Yarmouth. For New Brunswick all lists save Gloucester are in and printed. There are no lists from P. E. Island, where manhood suffrage prevails. None of the Manitoba lists have yet been received. Colonel Sam Hughes moved the adjournment of the house in order to discuss some of Sydney Fisher's latest meddlings with the affairs of the 13th Scottish Light Dragoons. Hughes read from the Montreal Herald, Fisher's personal organ, certain statements contradicting his (Hughes) statements in the house, which he reiterated with more details.

Col. Hughes asked the meaning of the militia order regarding name and address of every officer and man of the militia, and intimated that it was a list to be prepared for government use in the coming elections. The minister of militia did not reply to the question, but said that an arrangement would be carried out after the next election. If so what is the price that has been agreed upon? "There has been no negotiation of any kind," was Sir Wilfrid Laurier's reply. "We have been approached on the subject, but we would not consider the question now."

NOTES. An Ottawa paper says that Auditor General McDougall is a possible liberal candidate for the government of Ontario, at the next general election. It is more likely McDougall may run the other way, as he is a member of the M. P. who tried to spoil Dundonald's reception there and realizing his mistake, cheered Laurier's foreigner justly.

SMALL BOATS CROSS SEAS. Upwards of 100 men have ventured on long cruises in boats from 12 to 40 feet in length. Capt. Joshua Stearns is perhaps the best known of these voyagers. The first which he has accomplished is the passage from the coast of South America. From there he set sail for Rio Janeiro, to Buenos Ayres, through the Straits of Magellan to the island of Juan Fernandez made famous by Defoe's Robinson Crusoe.

The spray then headed for the Samoan islands, making the 6000 miles of a round trip in 100 days. In New South Wales was the next stop, then down to Australia, returning up the coast to New Zealand, and then to the Torres Straits into the Indian ocean and Mauritius. He next sailed to Cape Town and was last in the Atlantic ocean. He returned home by way of St. Helena and Grenada having covered a distance of 40,000 miles.

The voyages of Andrews and Lawler are still remembered, though they were made as far back as 1878. Andrews had had luck from the start for he was captured five times and was at last taken on board a passing vessel more than a year later. Lawson, however, reached the Lizard after a more or less exciting trip. Later Andrews proposed another trip, and this time started from Boston. Andrews succeeded in reaching the coast of Portugal after a rough voyage of 21 days. But Lawson was never seen or heard of again.

The newspaper which is "edited with a pitchfork" is read with but half an eye, and less than half a mind. Store advertising in a newspaper which is only casually read is scarcely justified. A front page cartoon in a recent issue of the Irish Inquirer, which was a picture of Bull just landing from a big steamer at a Canadian wharf and starting with open-mouthed consternation at a placard bearing the words, "No English need apply." Underneath are the following verses: JOHN BULL (at Canadian landing stage).—Now, here's a shock, beyond a doubt, For Britain's self-esteem, Is visions hovering about? Are things, then, what they seem? For when on land I set my foot, This legend meets my eye, There's welcome here for most men—but "No English need apply!" They sent my son Dundonald back, They said he gave them cheek, So Britons may expect the sack, Unless they're very meek, And this from Canada, the stoutest, For which I'd bleed and die! It's "Clear out, Bull! You understand—No English need apply!"

A PHOTO FROM THE YUKON. A Gordon Leavitt, of the Keystone Fire Insurance Company, has just received a well finished eight by ten photograph from M. G. B. Henderson, a former St. John boy, who is now prospecting for gold in the Klondyke. The photograph shows Mr. Henderson and his brother Charles H. Henderson in the act of washing out products at 15 Below Upper Discovery, Dominion Creek. Both men are well known in this city, where they have many friends. M. G. B. Henderson was formerly a lawyer in St. John, and with his brother, he left for the Klondyke about four years ago.

LOCAL NEWS.

Dr. H. B. Hay of Chipman, who had been for two weeks at St. Andrews looking after Dr. C. M. Hay, who was seriously ill there, reached St. John last night. He reports Dr. Hay as having improved considerably. Dr. L. H. Adler of Philadelphia is assisting in the care of the sick physician. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Milligan of Torryburn gathered in force at their house last evening in honor of a good time. The occasion was the tenth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Milligan's marriage, and all sorts of lin presents were showered upon them. A very happy evening was spent.

There was some talk of a meeting being held between directors of the Street Railway Co. and county commissioners from Lancaster, but this idea has been dropped. The objections of the Fairlie people to the double tracking of the car line will be brought before the meeting of the municipal council, when it is probable some of the Street Railway People will be present.

DREDGE IN THE SOLID ROCK. The Susquehanna Iron company's big plant in Buffalo will be in operation in about thirty days. It has been finished and the great furnaces are ready for the ore. The stupendous task of digging a canal or inland harbor nearly a mile in length from the new outer harbor to the company's plant is now in progress. The canal is to be two hundred feet wide and 23 feet deep. That is to say it is to be 23 feet below the mean level of the lake, so that in some places the excavation is to be 40 feet in depth.

It requires great engineering skill and an enormous amount of physical power to accomplish such a task. There are 1400 feet of submarine work to be done, nearly half of it through the solid rock. Steam power and compressed air are accomplishing it. When examinations were made it was found that a strip of rock nearly a mile long, 200 feet wide and 20 feet in thickness had to be cut out. It is not shale rock or slate but solid living rock. The dredge used for the purpose is the greatest tool of its kind in the world. It looks like a giant mud-dredge and is built on the same principle as an ordinary dredge. Down in its hold it has a 500-horse-power steam engine. Its anchors or spuds are made of cast iron, 25 feet long and 44 inches through. It has a dipper or dredge with a capacity of seven cubic yards, and with a seven foot lever before him operates the whole machine.

The dredge of the dipper is armed with steel teeth about 15 inches long and 6 inches thick. The man at the lever drops the great dipper into the rock bottom. Then he moves another lever and the big engine down in the hold gets under way. The great steel cable attached to the dipper quivers under the strain. There is a grinding as if the earth was being turned inside out, and up comes the dipper with its enormous maw clogged with huge masses of splintered rock. It has ripped up seven cubic yards of rock and is now ready to dump it into the rock away its mighty under jaw drops, and it spews out a quantity of dirt and gravel. The teeth of that dipper bite out seven cubic yards of rock a minute.

FAMILY RE-UNION. A family re-union, which will bring together the many members of the Walker family, who are descended from Captain Thomas Walker, is being arranged to take place at Hampton, N. B., on the 26th inst. Besides Dr. Thomas Walker of this city, and his family, there are many members of the family living in different parts of the continent.

THAT DEPARTMENT HOSPITAL. About a year ago it was announced that the immigration department would, in near future, erect a detention hospital at St. John. Some months passed and then the chief medical officer of the department came here to select a site. The intention as then announced was that the building would be erected this summer. Since that time nothing has been heard of it. So far as is known the site has not yet been decided upon and those officials in St. John who are interested are unable to obtain any information as to when work will be begun.

CANADIANS AT BISLEY. MONTREAL, July 18.—A cable from Bisley says: The Prince of Wales prize match and the Alexandra competition were shot today.

In the "Piedde" competition on Saturday Capt. H. C. Blair, of Truro, scored 40 at 400 and 39 at 1,000 yards. In the Alexandra match Pte. J. G. Goude, of Quebec, put on a possible at 200 yards and 33 at 400 yards. Another competitor, however, scored 23 at the 200 yards range and then realized a possible at 400 yards, thus beating Goude. Ungar's employes enjoy Saturday afternoon off.

QUEER EVIDENCE. According to a correspondent of a temporary, this is the evidence, together with a translation, which was given by a guard at an inquiry into the cause of a railway collision: "The cow was in the dog house, slipping the (issues) hindback was at the tail end feeding a hot tub; yellow dip in the tank cracking diamonds; eagle eye was on the ground greasing the pig; and I was bending the rails, when they hit us."

The translation runs as follows:—"The conductor was in the caboose, looking over waybill; the rear brakeman was at the rear of the train cooling a hot box; the fireman was in the tender breaking coal; the engineer was on the ground oiling the locomotive; and I was throwing the switch when the collision occurred."

A FINE SPECIMEN. A Gordon Leavitt has imported from California the complete skeleton of an ostrich which he has now in his sanctum where it stands in marked contrast to a semi-palmated. The ostrich skeleton measures six feet two inches from the ground to the top of the head. Mr. Leavitt is anxious to secure the skeleton of a humming bird in order to be able to exhibit the two extremities in bird life of the present time.

Ungar's close at twelve o'clock on Saturday. CAPT. CLARKE FAREWELLED. Capt. Damerall A. Clarke of H. Co., 62nd Fusiliers, has resigned and intends to leave shortly for the west, where he will engage in ranching with his brothers, who are now established there. Last evening his fellow officers and members of his company presented him with a handsome Iver-Johnson revolver and an address. The presentation was made by Lt. Roy Sippel, who succeeds in the command.

If you support the early closing merchants patronize Ungar's. THE PENALTY. Kipling once described the Sunday morning service of a battleship on which he took a cruise. It was a very well attended service, every sailor in the ship on duty being there, and after it was over Kipling said to one of the jackies, "Are you obliged to attend these services every Sunday morning?" "N-n-no," said the sailor, "not exactly obliged, but our grog would be stopped if we didn't."

SEA WATER AS A NUTRIENT.

Declared to be the Source of Life by a French Scientist.

A theory has recently been formulated by M. Quinton of France that sea water is the natural source of all life, being the substance from which, according to Haeckel, are produced these elementary bodies which in turn develop into every other species, including human beings. M. Quinton has carried on a long and thorough research on the properties of sea water and his results add support to the Darwinian theory of the evolution of the species. He points out that the anatomical elements of living creatures exist in a marine environment and that animal cells and tissues exert their functions in a fluid closely resembling sea water in its composition. Furthermore, the same elements that are found in the seawater go to make up the human body and, in addition, those that were known to exist in the latter to the number of about 15, M. Quinton has found traces of some 14 others, such as copper, lead, gold and silver. He also performed experiments where an animal was bled to exhaustion and then injected with sea water to supply the place of the blood thus lost, with the result that on the following day the animal regained its strength and in five days experienced a complete recovery. In addition the injection into animals of large quantities of sea water has no toxic effect, whereas the injection of pure water rapidly brings about death. M. Quinton's conclusion is that sea water is a true nutrient fluid for animals or natural plasma. This research opens up many interesting philosophical and biological questions in evolution, while the experiments themselves seem to have a relation to others where various solutions are employed in the development of simple forms of life. Portlands, St. Joseph's, 3. The Portlands defeated the St. Joseph's on the Shamrock grounds last evening in the presence of a smelt crowd by a score of 8 to 3. Whelley pitched for the St. Joseph boys and Trecartin for the north end team. The latter had eight strike outs and Whelley seven. There were four hits off the north end boy and six off the south paw. The Portlands played splendid ball both in the field and at the bat, while the support accorded Whelley was indifferent. The Portlands did not have an error, neither did they have an assist, something unusual.

ANCIENT WARSHIP OFF HAVRE. (London Express) More interesting discoveries have been made on the ancient frigate which has been found during dredging operations off Havre Jetty.

The old ship is in a wonderful state of preservation, owing to having been protected from the action of the sea by the sand and shingle, in which it is buried to a depth of eighteen feet. The divers have had to exercise great care in exploring the interior of the vessel, as the tangled mass of woodwork was likely to cut their air tubes or make them lost. Two old bombards, or cannons with wide mouths, have been brought to the surface. One is still loaded, and the cannon balls can be seen a few inches within the barrel. In the other cannon a huge conger eel has taken up its residence. Two flint lock muskets tightly cemented together were also found, and both of them were loaded. A search among local records shows that during the bombardment of Havre by the Anglo-Dutch fleet in 1759, a small English vessel armed with two bombards was sunk by the fire from the French forts. Speculation is rife as to whether the sunken vessel is the English ship of war that was sunk during that engagement, or whether it was a vessel belonging to the French fleet.

GEE WAS BAPTIZED. WOODSTOCK, July 18.--George Gee was baptized by immersion in the jail this evening. Rev. Mr. Carney, Advent minister, officiating. A few friends of the condemned man who had interested themselves in his spiritual welfare were present. Gee has given himself up altogether to spiritual exercises and takes much comfort from the consolations of religion. His father and mother, who will remain here till Wednesday, were present at his baptism. He does not show the slightest sign of weakening, and it will be a great surprise if he does not march to the scaffold unflinching.

CHINESE BANK CLERKS.

China has a way of getting hold of some of the first principles of things, even though she may not have developed them into elaborate scientific systems. The method of calculation used in Chinese banks may seem primitive to the foreigner, nevertheless it is carried out with rapidity and accuracy. An English officer staying in Hong Kong tells of his visit to one of the banks.

As an Englishman he was received with great civility. "Schroff" shouted the head clerk. This word is not, as it sounds, German, but a corruption of the Hindu "sarraf," or banker's assistant. In response to the call a native cashier appeared noiseless and deferential, with a smooth shaven skull, four foot pigtail and spotted flowing garments. He carried neither paper nor pencil about him.

With great rapidity he made the desired exchange of notes, doing his calculation on an abacus—a frame of wire and beads similar to those used in country schools years ago. His long, thin fingers moved over the beads more quickly than the eye could follow, but there was no mistake in the total.

The officer wanted a large piece of money changed into small coin. Instead of going through the weariness involved in counting out the 300 pieces included in the transaction, a simple, ingenious device was employed. A flat wooden tray was produced containing 100 recesses, each just big enough to lodge one coin and just shallow enough to prevent the possibility of two lurking together.

The pile of small coins was poured out on this tray and with one jerk of the clerk's wrist the 100 recesses were filled and the surplus swept off. During the performance the clerk kept his enormous sleeves well tucked up, in order to disarm any possible suspicion of dexterous pilfering.

The officer's change was correct to the last penny and was obtained in an incredibly short time.

A MISUNDERSTANDING.

In a piece of police court news published in Saturday's Star, J. B. M. Baxter was quoted as assuring Daniel Mulroney that he need fear no harm at the hands of Mr. Baxter's client, a Hebrew, as people of that race had a horror of pork.

Mr. Mullin informs the Star that if any such remark was made he certainly did not hear it. If he had he would have demanded an explanation and the instant satisfaction due for such an insult.

Mr. Baxter says that he intended no such offensive inference to be drawn from his remark as Mr. Mullin seems to have taken.
