(Special to the Sun.) the tariff committee had another all day sitting when some important subjects were discussed & Co., sugar importers of Montreal, had a lengthy typewritten statement, in which he argued that the protection Canadian refiner is excessive, being, according to his figures, even greater than that enjoyed by the refiner in the United States. So great is the measure of protection under the present tariff, according to Anderson, that the Canadian refiner absolutely controls the Canadian market, and it is only in order to enable him to have an argument that he allows a small quantity of refined sugar to be imported. Anderson calculated that the people of Canada are today paying annually nearly $2,000,000 over and above legitimate profits to sugar refiners. He proposed that the duty on raw sugar should be increased 25 cents per 100 pounds, claiming that this would result n diverting some of the refiner's prothe same time give additional protection to the beet root sugar industry. Discussing the agreement between the guild, Mr. Anderson stated that while it was against his own interests as an it was against his own interests as an importer, as it cut him off from selling to the wholesale grocers, he would rather struggle on as he is doing at present, provided the tariff is revised as he suggested, than have the agreement done away with, for he admitted that it is responsible for stability in the Canadian market, a stability which did not exist prior to the agreement, mercially impracticable under present conditions. If the duty of 60 cents a ton were removed, the price of United States coal in Montreal would be from $3.20 to $3.95. The lower price would be 45 cents a ton more than that for which the Dominion Coal Company OFFICERS LEFT COLE supplied the railways, and 30 cents more than it had been supplying the Montreal Gas Company. The effect of the duty enabled coal compan charge ordinary consumers in Mont-real from 80 to 95 cents per ton more than they could afford to charge large Dingley and Emery returned Wednescompanies. was fostered by the Grand Trunk Railway and possibly other companies against Nova Scotia coal. He said if the railway companies only gave a reasonable rate it would be possible to sell Nova Scotia coal at many points in Ontario not now reached. He declared that any reduction in the coal duty would involve loss of the Montreal mar-ket to the Nova Scotia producers. Moreover it must inevitably lead to a reduction in the wages of the miners. Speaking of reciprocity he said he was not authorized to say anything, but if it were brought about certainly the coal owners should have at least two years' warning in order to prepare for the changed conditions.

Mr. Milner said he had secured the insertion of articles on this subject in 400 different papers in Canada for less than $150.

The movement has attracted wide spread attention and had a strong following. Mr. Dick, replying to Sir Richard Cartwright, said it was impossible to find a market for Nova Scotia coal in Mediterranean countries. At the evening session, which proved to be the last of the tariff inquiry, several unimportant memorials were presented. At ten o'clock Hon, Mr. Fielding asked if any one present had any views to present. There being no response, he said: "I declare this inquiry closed."

Mr. Dixon found the house securely locked when he returned this evening and was obliged to break in the front door. The door of the bedreem, however, was not locked, and when the father opened the door the smell of gas was almost overpowering. The gas, however, had been turned off at the meter after the quarter's worth had been exhausted.

Mr. Dixon notified the police and wife and went away without any anxiety.

It is supposed that the unfortunate woman undressed the children and put them to bed, where it is believed they were all soon sound asleep. There was no indication that any of the elder ones had attempted to get out of the bed, and it is thought that they passed unconsciously from life to death.

The Dixons were regarded by the neighbors as a singularly happy and contented family. Dixon is 31 years old and his wife was 37. They had been married for about six years.

Hence the exercise of care in the selection of immigrants coming to Canada, preference being given to adults who will be capable of maintaining themselves upon their arrival in Canada.

GARDENER'S REPORT.

A. J. Stephens, the gardener, in his reports mentions the unusual severity of last winter and owing to a late spring a great amount of work had to be done in a short space of time. The bulbs planted the fall before flowered well and as the season advan-

The Tuberous Begonias in the green house and design of ship Victory in commemoration of Lord Nelson were greatly admired.

About 50 loads of gravel were put on the walks in the spring and the new and extra work was the digging up of plants and border on the right of the main walk, and replanting same, digging up portions of the walk near the enhouse and putting in stone drains to carry off surface water, renewing catch basins, and during the year a shed was built at the northwest end of the gardens to house the 22 garden seats, tools and garden implements During November 7,000 bulbs were planted, 4,000 of which were new tulips narcissus, crocus etc., of different vari eties for spring flowering. TIME TO END IT.

It is about time that the subsidy question between the provinces and the minion should be settled. Nearly twenty years ago the Mercler confer ence at Quebec formulated the financial claims which are the basis of discussion today. Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Blair and Mr. Fielding, who were members of that conference, became federal ministers nearly ten years ago. Mr. Fielding is still minister of finance. THE QUEBEC TO MONCTON SEC-TION

"The work of construction on the eastern division of the national transontinental railway shall be commenced, as nearly as may be, simultaneously at Moncton, at Quebec, at "the point of junction of the eastern division with the branch southerly to 'a point at or near either North Bay or Nipissing Junction, and at Winnipeg, and shall be carried on westward from Moncton, eastward and west ward from Quebec, eastward and westward from the point of junction aforesaid, and eastward from Winnines in such manner that the sec tion between Winnipeg and Quebec and that between Quebec and Mone ton, shall be completed as nearly as practicable at the same time."

This is section 10 of the act of 1904 concerning the national transcontinental railway, also known as the Grand Trunk Pacific, The statute calls for he has undertaken. the simultaneous commencement of work by the government at several points on the eastern section. One of ST. JOHN MAN the guarantees given to the eastern provinces was this section providing that work should begin from Winnipeg eastward and from Moncton westward at the same time as it began westward from Quebec or eastward from Winnipeg. The agitation and discussion concerning this matter have not been forgotten. Ministers and their supporter have in political campaigns in this part of Canada made good use of the pledge and compact set forth in the words

The transcontinental railway com nission has called for tenders for the construction of portions of the eastern ection. The portions offered for conract are from Winingeg east to Lake Superior function, and from Quebec west for some two hundred miles. In these notices there is no mention of the section between Quebec and Moncton. The statute requiring simultaneous commencement has been disregarded. Perhaps it will be claimed that the saving clause "as nearly as may be" rescues the parties responsible from boy violation of law. But unless there has been some serious and positive hindrance to the commencement of work east of Quebec, or to the offer of contract, the saving clause does not ex cuse the discrimination.

The only reason suggested for the delay in the call for tenders in respect to the Moncton and Quebec section is that the surveys in this province have not been completed and that the line between Chipman and Grand Falls has not been located. But if the commissioners make this plea they are only trying to take advantage of their own inaction. If the eastern surveys have not been completed it is because they have not been prosecuted with the same energy as the work farther west. The work in New Brunswick is not making progress. SUSSEX TO HAVE AN UP-TO-DATE CLUB.

SUSSEX, Feb. 8.—Sussex is to have a club. Six months ago a number of young men about town formed themselves into an organization to provide amusement for the winter. It was intended to install a sub-target gun, and thus interest the young men of the community in rifle shooting. The Sussex Club was the result of this move ment. Later, some fifteen members of the club decided to install a billiar table, which has now paid for itself. The attendance of the club has been so gratifying that a movement on larger scale is contemplated. Several thousand dollars has been subscrib to erect a club house, and in the near future Sussex may be expected to take rank with the more progressive towns in the maritime provinces, and have within it an organization where visitors may be properly entertained. ELECTORAL FRAUD

Griticised Record of Liberal Party Since 1896.

Addressed Large Gathering at the New Quarters of the Ottawa Conservative Club.

OTTAWA, Feb. 7 .- R. L. Borden, P., addressed a crowded gathering at the Ottawa Conservative Club in the ew club quarters this evening. R. G. Code, president, occupied the chair.

Mr. Borden's remarks were devoted largely to the question of electoral raud and corruption. He said that the iberal party is always willing to give warning as to the future in such matters, but is generally inclined to fight shy of any discussion of the past. He then reviewed briefly the record of the iberal party since 1896 in the conduct of elections. In this connection Mr. Borden referred to the case of West Elgin, where a liberal candicate conessed to corruption of the grossest character, and to Brockville and West Huron, which were fully shown to have been carried by forged ballots. Then there was the case of the St. James' division of Montreal, in which Bergeron was elected, but which was stolen for the liberal candidate, who wish that a call be made for a general meeting of the unionist party which it is expected will be fixed for February 15, though no details have yet been settled. PORTLAND, Me., Feb. 7.-What appears to be a widespread swindle upon a large class of poor Canadians came to light yesterday when officials of the various trans-Atlantic steamship lines here made public part of the results of their investigations into the methods by which men have been brought from all parts of Canada, paying varying sums for contracts as cattle men on English steamers, and being entirely received as to the nature of and pay for the work they are expected to do. The investigation, it is announced, has been going on quietly for some time and the matter has been already taken in hand by the British government's representative at Portland with the prospect of being thoroughly investi-gated by both British and Canadian governments. Every coach in the passenger train was burned and the freight train which was made up of cars loaded with lumber, was also burned. The passenger train preceded the freight out of Austin, about eight miles west of Helena. At Austin, the engine was detached from the freight. There is a heavy grade from Austin to Helena and the freight got loose. The passenger train was waiting at a crossing when the freight came thundering down. Before it could get out of the way the freight crashed into it, throw ing all the passenger cars into the ditch. The passenger engine became uncoupled and kept on the track under wreckage and could not be

The basis of our faith lies in a recognition that the human race are sin ners and under divine sentence, and that in due time Christ died for the ungodly, that He might be the Medior between God and man, the Reconciler. This foundation is generally recognized, but the next step in the divine plan seems to be discerned by but few; that the plan of salvation, instead of proceeding at once to the reconciling of the world, delayed that work and instead took up another, namely, the calling out from the world of "a peculiar people," "a little flock," to constitute the Church, figuratively called the "Bride, the Lamb's wife." Now we have reached the harvest time foretold keep in mind two things: First, that in the parable (Matt. xii:18-43): the it is the Church of the future—after wheat is being culled out of all sectarian bundles and the tare; are being bound tightly in a great federation of bundles for the burning day-not for a future torment, but for a time of trouble coming upon the whole earth preparatory to the establishment of God's kingdom-the glorified Church, Christ and His Bride. In the parable the Bride, represented by the wheat at the close of the harvest, will all be safely gathered into the barn, and our

On the contrary, it is to be a blessing to all, in symbolizing the glcrious Son of Righteousness, which shall scatter the darkness of earth, binding the prince of darkness. his wives and his children were used of the Lord in such a manner as to faith and their appreciation of the fact make of them allegories or pictures of of the call, and how correspondingly various features of his plan for the they received also gifts and blessings of future. Let us notice how the union between Christ and the Church which we are now discussing was allegorically regresented in the same connection. The fact that Isaac was used not only to represent Jesus, but all the members of the Church, his body ("Ye, all who are in any measure or degree brethren, as Isaac was, are the child-ren of promise"—Gal. iv:28), does not at all interfere with our seeing Isaac churches of Christ-many Brides of ren of promise"-Gal. iv:28), does not (John vi: to their preparation for them. rom strangers, but from his own relaionship. Note how this illustrates the fact that sinners are not called to re-pentance and reformation. The call or invitation to be the Bride of Christ has been made only to justified believers. All who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and have fled from sin are counted as related to God and no longer strangers, aliens and foreigners through wicked works, but being justified by faith they have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom also they have access into this grace wherein we stand, rejoicing in the hope of the glory of God-access into the grace or privilege of becoming members of the Bride class, of joint heirs in the kingdom.—Romans v:1-2. ELIEZER'S MISSION.

Abraham's servant, sent to select saac's bride, allegorized the Holy Spirit. Thus throughout the Gospel age since Pentecost, it is the province of the Holy Spirit of God to invite, to draw through the word of testimony those who may become the Lord's Bride and joint heirs. The entire journey of the espoused Rebecca was made under the care and guidance of Eliezer as the entire journey of the Gospel age has been made by the Lord's truly con secrated ones under the supervision and guidance of the Holy Spirit. The camels which bore the presents to Rebecca, and which bore her on her ourney to Isaac, represented the Word and providence of God, which bring his faithful ones safely to the end of the jorney, at the end of this age The journey ended at the well Lahairoi. Isaac going that far out into the desert to meet her. When Rebecca discerned Isaac she alighted from her amel and put on a veil.—Genesis xxiv

This feature of the allegory is still for future fulfillment; hence we must draw our inferences from it with the greater caution. The meaning of the name of the place where the meeting took place seems suggestive: it means The well of a living one, my seer. It was a fountain of living water which seemed to speak of life from the dead, specially as this well was in the desert place. It suggests the thought of a rection, the glorious change which the apostle assures us will be the ex erience of the Church at the end of this age—each individual member of it s to be "changed in a moment, in the winkling of an eye." (I Corinthians xv:52.) The putting on of the veil would seem to mean the passing of the Church beyond the vail-beyond the flesh, into the spirit condition of the resurrection—and the alighting from the camel would seem to mean that the Church would no longer be providences so necessary now, but would at once pass fully under the care of the heavenly Bridegroom. THE GOLD AND THE JEWELS.

Glancing back along the allegory we class for a special purpose, a peculiar service in connection with the great sti the families of the earth. The maiden who was afterward espoused was found at the well drawing water, which well illustrates the fact that those who are called of the Lord Jesus are those who went frequently to the well, to the Word God, to draw of the water of truth for cleansing and for refreshment and for distribution to others.

The servant acting under divine cognized the maiden as a suitable one to be invited to be the wife of Isaac. | tion.—Dan. xii: 1. The test was her willingness to serve up water to others, to which she not only responded by tendering Eliezer the water, but drew also for his camels. Similarly those suitable to be called, to heir in the kingdom. Promptly the messenger and the mes sage were appreciated and the favor accepted; Rebecca was recognized as the favored of the Lord to be Isaac's wife and to go to him as soon as this was recognized by her kinsfolk. Abraham's servant produced more jewels of silver and gold, and raiment, some Heretofore we have seen that the of them for Rebecca and some of them postle pointed out that Abraham and for her kindred. In the fullfilment of this allegory we see the household of measure or degree or value as those presented to the specially consecrated ones. The whole mission of this Gos

Again, Abraham directed his ser-vant that the wife must not be taken is clearly presented in the Scriptures, that the invitation to become the bride of Christ is a general one to every member of the household of faith. But though many are called few are chosen because only the few will have the characteristics demanded by the Lord's call and selection. The others may merely rejoice with this class, but refraining from a full consecration of hemselves, they cannot be of them.

FORSAKE THY FATHER'S HOUSE

The period of rejoicing over the favor of God which had come to them, by lessed, soon gave place to a meaure of trial, of testing. At first she probably had no thought of what this espousa would signify, would cost her-to leave her father's house and her own kindred for a far-off land she had never seen Her mother and her brother both joined in importuning that the departure should be delayed for a time, but Abraham's servant was prompt and the So great was her heart's affection for one to whom unseen she had plighted herself that she was anxious to go to be with him, and the journey began promptly. Thus is illustrated the test which comes to every consecrated one. Those dear to them by earthly ties lovingly seek to hinder them from selfacrifice, or at least to delay the matter, and it becomes a question of loving father or mother, brothers or sisters, houses or lands, and one's own ease and mfort, or of love for the heavenly Bridegroom. All who are of the Reher ca clase will say with the apostle re specting the heavenly Bridegroom 'Whom not having seen ye love: in whom though now ye see Him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory."-I. Peter, 1: 8. Carrying out this same thought the New Testament uniformly represent the espoused church as a chaste virgin who will recognize no other Lord than Jesus, and call herself by no other name than His. The same scriptures call our attention to false systems which would develop and would call themselves by the names of other heads or lords, ignoring to some extent the heavenly Bridegroom. These, because nominally betrothed to Christ, but really associated with the world, are figuratively said to be harlots. The scriptures clearly bring to our attention a great tems proceed, and these are recognized Roman Catholic system and the Protestant churches, her daughters, who left the mother's house to set up their own account. From the divine standpoint the whole proceeding is harlotry, confusion, the mixing of world ns with that which should be true, pure, loyal to the Lord alone. In harny with this these systems are spoken of as Babylon-the "mother of harots" and her daughters.

Nothing in this however, implies harotry on the part of the individuals composing these systems. It is the system and not the individuals that is pictured. This is clearly shown in the fact ind other details equally in harmony that in the picture of the end of this find other details equally in harmony that in the picture of the end of the true Church age the Lord calls His faithful ones out and feet were frozen for some time lirks back to the influence of this woand the teachings of the Word. Thus it is that the Holy Spirit gospel age and its gathering of the wise virgins before the marriage supper of the Lamb takes place, and the door of opportunity to a membership in that elect class forever closes.

Thank God, the door that will then be shut will not be the door of hope either to the foolish virgins of Christendom nor to the heathen world. (Matt. xxv.: 10). The world has a way of growing acsustomed to great things, great moveents and great people, wellnigh to the point of discrediting their greatness.
